Town Board Approves Portable Asphalt Plant

Janet Gosnell

At its regular meeting on Tuesday, the Town Board heard the petition of AMX Collision for a permit to run an auto body shop and approved that of Zara Contracting for a permit to install a portable asphalt plant, both in Hicksville.

No one spoke either for or against the petition of AMX Collision Inc. for a special permit use to construct and maintain an automobile repair shop on an interior parcel between Park Avenue and Bethpage Road at Town Hall on Tuesday.

The petition also requests special permission to use rights of way presently existing to and from the subject parcel, which is bounded on the west by the Long Island Rail Road property.

AMX is presently renovating an existing 3,312 square foot building for use as requested. The company has been operating at 3859 Hempstead Turnpike in Levittown, according to attorney Albert Pincus, who presented the petition.

The property is presently accessible by rights of way from Lott Avenue, Park Avenue and Bethpage Road. The petitioner said it would use only the right of way onto Bethpage Road.

Richard Sofia, president of AMX said that no work would be done outside of the building, except for drying of putty on cars being repaired. Working hours would be 8 to 5:30 or 6:00 P.M. Explosion proof measures would be taken, and pollution control. There would be no resale of vehicles and no storage of junk beyond two weeks.

In its communication to the Town Board, the Building Department said the petitioner had made inadequate provision for parking.

Zara Contracting Co. In its action calendar, the Town Board approved the petition of Zara Contracting Co., Inc., for special permission to install and maintain a portable asphalt plant on Engel Street and Hicksville Avenue. Residents of Laurel Street, behind the petitioner's property, came to protest such an action at the public hearing on November 21, 1972.

In granting the special permit, the Town Board imposed 23 restrictions on the operation. They are:

1. That no materials used in the processing operation shall be delivered by rail.
2. The entire processing plant shall be totally self-contained.
3. All lighting shall be directed away from residential areas.
4. The processing method to be used in the manufacture of the asphalt shall be limited to a "dry operation".

The use permit shall be in accordance with the plot plan submitted by the applicant, a copy of which is in the Town Clerk's file and is entitled, "Map of Zara Contracting Co., Inc." dated August, 1972 and bearing the signature of the Town Attorney and dated January 25, 1973. Said plot plan sets forth the location of each piece of equipment involved in the processing operation and contains a description of the entrances and exits, including a traffic pattern, the location of trailers and other equipment. No other structures or installations or major pieces of equipment shall be added to the complex without the approval of the Town Board.
9. All equipment, including a trailer, shall conform to our Town ordinances and to the requirements set forth by the Town of Oyster Bay Building Department and Nassau County Health Department.
10. The processing operation shall not commence before 7 a.m. and shall terminate at 5 p.m. The plant shall not be operated on Sundays.

Gregory Museum Opening Ceremonies And Open House a Grand Success

The Gregory Museum on Saturday, January 27, opened its doors to the public at its new location, the former Heitz Place Court House.

Even though the weather was inclement between 800 and 1000 people showed up for both the opening ceremonies and open house.

Ceremonies were held at the Knights of Columbus Hall with the presentation of flags, accompanied by trumpeteers from the Hicksville High School. The invocation was given by Reverend Frederic J. Harrer of St. Ignace Loyola Church. This money, materials, and labor. Mr. Glenn Kerbs and Mr. Walter Gebhardt of Carpenter's Local Union No. 1772 received life memberships for their contributions in converting the former Hicksville Village Hall to a museum.

Mrs. Anne Gregory was presented a bouquet of flowers by the Opening Day Committee, and Mr. Gardner Gregory was presented with a gavel donated by Don McAlister of the Knights of Columbus.

A portrait of Mr. Gregory created by Mrs. Olga Hoebel was unveiled, accompanied by a short speech by Mrs. Hoebel. This portrait will hang in the office of the museum.

After the ceremonies, the audience went to the new home of The Gregory Museum where Supervisor John W. Burke cut the ribbon officially opening The Gregory Museum at its new home.

Open House began immediately after the ribbon cutting.

Refreshments were also served at the Knights of Columbus and a continuous tape narrated slide show depicting the History of The Gregory Museum was viewed by those enjoying their refreshments.

At the museum people saw displays of rocks and minerals, gems, sea shells, fossils, butterflies and moths, all displayed in well lighted cabinets. The displays were arranged educationally with diagrams, pictures, and printed materials explaining the displays. Exhibits on temporary loan were arranged by Mr. Sherwin Berger, Mrs. Helen Garlinghouse, and Mr. Ben Daines. The Curator, Mr. Benjamin Barley was responsible for the setting up of the displays.

Mr. Barley took a great delight in showing the visitors the displays of fluorescent minerals.

A continuous tape narrated slide show on Rocks and Minerals was shown during the afternoon. Over the museum's sound system soft background music was played.

In the jail area Mr. Richard Evers, the Museum's Historian, assisted by his wife Ange, exhibited historical artifacts of the Hicksville area. Visitors saw mock-ups of two prisoners in the jail.

The museum's store had many customers. The store was handled by Mrs. Lorie Dakun, Mrs. Francis Rousseau, William Bieler, and others.

The Board of Trustees of The Gregory Museum wish to thank all those who helped make the affair a success.

Professional photographer, Mr. William Wuest, who writes a column in the Sunday Long Island Press, donated his time and talent to act as official photographer for the day. A video tape was made of the proceedings which it is hoped this tape will be shown on Channel 10, a cable TV channel.

Tours may now be scheduled at

KOHLER & KOHLER

Dear Friends...

Dear Friends:

THE CEREMONIES celebrating the opening of the Gregory Museum and Earth Science Center in the newly-renovated Heitz Place Courthouse in Hicksville, took place last Saturday. Although the rain kept the ribbon cutting ceremonies to a minimum, it did not succeed in dampening the spirits of all present in any way. The list of those interested and active in working to make this step possible is long. Many groups and individuals have helped and they are all deserving of thanks. Suffice to say, they have taken what amounted to a community eyesore, and, transformed it into an addition to this community of which we can all be proud.

As all those who are involved in this effort know, this is only Phase I. It is to be followed by a well-planned Phase II and finally completed by Phase III. The Mid Island Herald will bring you the details of these plans, as they become a reality. But one thing is certain, the speed in which they will be completed, will depend to a great extent to the continued interest of all of us. We suggest a visit, as soon as possible, to this new addition to our community. You'll be amazed. Then, in whatever capacity seems best for you, why not join the team and help to complete these plans in record time?

THAT'S ALL for this week. Stay well and remember the old adage, "To be conscious that you are ignorant is the first step towards knowledge ... but don't stop there!"

Sincerely

many organizations who supplied flags and flag bearers, to the Parks Department men who "topped off" the Museum with a tree, to the people who worked night and day to prepare the Museum for opening, to the committee who arranged opening day, to the others I can't possibly name, and to the entire community: THANKS for a job well done.

Five Public Hearing Sessions

The Nassau Environmental Management Council will hold a series of five public hearings to permit residents to provide input into the preparation of a county environmental master plan, County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced today.

"The council has been getting valuable information from experts in various fields and now wants to hear from the people," Caso said. "The hearings will allow residents to give their views on the serious environmental problems that affect their daily lives."

The first hearing will be held Friday (Jan. 26) at 1:30 and 7:30 PM in the Board of Supervisors hearing room on the fifth floor of the County Executive Building, 1 West St., Mineola. It will be an open hearing on all environmental matters.

The county executive said the council, which he appointed last year, is working on a master plan that will direct itself to immediate problems as well as long-range measures to preserve and enhance Nassau's land, water, air and energy resources. It also will include proposals for legislation to protect the environment and provide effective enforcement machinery.

Caso noted that the State Environmental Conservation Department has commended the county for being the first in the state to undertake such a comprehensive environmental study.

The schedule of hearings is: Feb. 9 - Oil Pollution; Feb. 23 - Air and Noise Pollution; March 2 - Water Supply and Pollution and March 16 - Open Hearing on All Environmental Matters.

All hearings will be held at 1:30 and 7:30 PM in the Board of Supervisors hearing room.

Rollin Huyler, council chairman, said that the council welcomes the views of organized environmental groups as well as individuals. He said that persons who plan to present prepared papers on any subject should supply at least two extra copies for the use of council members.

School Board Report

By Shirley Smith

Last Friday's school board meeting was held in the High School Auditorium, but the crowd that must have been anticipated did not come. Only a few more spectators—other than the "regulars"—came to sit four hours and left wondering exactly what had happened.

After a delayed start, Thomas Clark, board president, announced a meeting of the Health and Safety Committee will be held Thursday, February 1 at 8 P.M. in the conference room. Neil McCormack tried again to change the meeting nights, but there was no second—he suggested Thursday, February 8, but there is a public budget session that night at 8 P.M. in the conference room of the Administration Building.

The school board then turned to unfinished business from previous agendas. Administration's request for a curriculum materials aide to help with repairing and cataloguing film, was tabled once again. The board did approve sending Hicksville teachers, parents and students to a symposium on a community drug abuse education program. This program is federally funded. Trustees Zindulka, Pappas and Bruno voted against the action; Bello, McCormack, Pirrung and Clark voted for it. Mr. Bruno wants information on how these attending were chosen.

The board discussed a memo from school attorney, Harry Goebel, regarding rights and powers of board members with respect to district records and visitations to schools. Mr. Goebel recommended certain policy resolutions which would entitle board members "to secure copies of official records of the district without charge" and would allow them to visit the schools for the "purpose of observing the conduct and method of operation of teachers and employees, from time to time, for the purpose of determining whether they shall accept prospective recommendation of the superintendent for tenure or permanent employment." The policy recommendation stipulated that the principal or person in charge of the building and the teacher shall be apprised of the board member's desire to visit and the trustee "shall not interfere with the conduct of the class or the work being then performed."

Mr. Pirrung and Mr. McCormack felt board members do not have the knowledge to judge whether or not a teacher should receive tenure and they should rely on administration's recommendations. Mr. Bruno felt this visitation policy was a means for board members to know both sides of the coin and not get one-sided information. The question of confidentiality of teachers' records was raised and the feasibility of providing financial or other records was also posed, especially if such request were for records of several years ago.

In Memoriam

Ann Heaney McFadden

In memory of our dear departed wife and sister, who went to be with the Lord on January 26th 1973 and was buried in Flushing Cemetery on Monday, January 29th 1973.

A native of Scotland she was a member of the Old First Presbyterian Church in Huntington, the Daughters of Scotia and the Ulster Irish Society.

To all her friends who by their love, compassion and prayers upheld us in our sorrow, their devotion we will always remember.

Inserted by her Husband, Brother and Sisters

I needed the quiet so He drew me aside.

Into the shadows where we could confide.

Away from the bustle where all the day long

I hurried and worried when active and strong.

I needed the quiet tho at first I rebelled

But gently, so gently, my cross He upheld

And whispered so sweetly of spiritual things

Tho weakened in body, my spirit took wings

To heights never dreamed of when active and gay.

He loved me so greatly He drew me away.

I needed the quiet, No prison my bed,

But a beautiful valley of blessings instead-

A place to grow richer in Jesus to hide

I needed the quiet so He drew me aside

Plainview Old Bethpage High School News

Two members of the Science Department of Plainview Old Bethpage High School, Ms. Elaine Lifson and Mr. Jesse Gross, have submitted to the American Biology Teacher magazine an article on how to demonstrate fermentation with the use of very simple equipment. The magazine has indicated that they are ready to accept the article for publication in the early future. Mr. William Stevens, also of the Science Department, cooperated by taking the necessary photography.

As part of their learning experience students from both sections of the Laboratory Techniques Course at Plainview High School were given a guided tour of the Syosset General Hospital Medical Laboratories by Mr. James Lindemann, Director of the Laboratories. The tour included an explanation and demonstration of the apparatus used in the hematology, cytology, bacteriology, and blood bank departments. The trip provided students with an opportunity to see their classroom activities in action in a real live situation.

The Kennedy Basketball Team

This year's Varsity basketball team at Kennedy High School is comprised of new faces that have established a winning attitude. The team is led by its senior co-captains 5' 11 Artie Mooseman and 6'0 Richie Hirsch. The team's big man is 6'7 junior Marcus Iavoroni, a player that Coach Stewart has high hopes for. Rounding out the starting lineup are 6'1 sophomore Jay Fieldstein and the only returning starter from last year's club 6'1 junior Seth Greenberg. Coming off the bench are juniors Brian Doyle, Donny Dickinson, Dave Callaburno, Brian Dunne, Brian Goldstein, Danny Rogoff and senior Steve Gabelman.

The team opened its season with a 63-51 victory over North Shore High School. Seth Greenberg led the team in scoring with 16 points. The next game was a heartbreaking 63-62 loss to a fine Lynbrook basketball team. The team rallied to take the lead after being 24 points down but lost it in the final second when a Lynbrook player hit two foul shots.

The Eagles then traveled to Wheatley High School to take on Wheatley without the services of their big man Marcus Iavoroni.

Though not playing as well as they would have liked, Kennedy still won 55-54. In the Roslyn Invitational Christmas Tournament, Kennedy was not given a chance to win with two tough teams (Roslyn and Carle Place) in the tournament. In the first game the Eagles beat Herricks in a poorly played game. Two days later, the Eagles played the heavily favored Carle Place Frogs in the championship game. The Eagles surprised everyone with a patient offense and excellent defense, and convincingly defeated Carle Place 51-38. Artie Mooseman and Richie Hirsch made the all tournament team and were voted co-most valuable players. Seth Greenberg led all scorers with 17 points and Marcus Iavoroni pulled down 27 rebounds and handled Carle Place's Center Wayne Boyd.

After establishing themselves as a power by winning the Christmas Tournament, the Eagles opened the league season with a 54-51 victory over Mineola. Marcus Iavoroni scored 21 points and Don Dickinson doing an excellent job filling in for the flue stricken Richie Hirsch by scoring 14 points.

PLAINVIEW-OLD BETHPAGE HIGH SCHOOL Sport News

By Joe Dowd

The Plainview basketball team improved its record to 4 and 2 by defeating Clarke and Bethpage January 23rd and 26th. Here is the individual run down: PLAINVIEW 58, CLARKE 50. Despite the victory the game was rather boring. Plainview took the early lead and spared the mid-term burdened spectators any last minute excitement to which the Gulls have been accustomed this year. Vinny Aversano led the offensive charge, scoring 26 points and making 4 assists. On the other hand, Steve Tips, Plainview's "other" shooter, scored only 4 points much to the distress and bewilderment of the Plainview followers. Although Aversano is the dominating figure around Plainview basketball, without Tipa the Gulls cannot win consistently. Clarke shot a mere 32 per cent from the field and missed 43 shots. Clarke often got two and three shots off in succession but most failed to fall through the hoop.

Editor's Note: All high schools in the Herald areas are cordially invited to send their Sports and News Columns in.

PLAINVIEW 73, BETHPAGE 67. Vinny Aversano drove around the Bethpage defender and under the basket. With 5:06 remaining in the fourth quarter and Plainview leading by 2, Vinny turned around and banked his patented reverse layup into the net. The game was abruptly stopped as an announcer gave a message to the fans. "Number 21 for Plainview, Vinny Aversano, has just scored his 1,000th career point." The Plainview side of the Bethpage gym erupted with a standing ovation as the Plainview players rushed to the floor to congratulate their star. The red-headed young man accepted the handshakes of his team-mates and returned to the court. Fortunately for Plainview, Vinny did not stop at 1,000. After Bethpage had tied the game 65 all at the end of regulation time, Aversano scored six of Plainview's eight overtime points. Bethpage's Ken Austin, with 32 seconds to play, hit a 15 foot jumper to pull Bethpage to within 2. Before 5 seconds had passed on the clock, he had been fouled, and then proceeded to drop both free throws. Once in overtime however, the Bethpage attack died and the Aversano attack took over. Vinny was fouled and made both free throws. A hectic minute went by before Plainview's Curt Bass flew down the lane and banked one that rolled around the rim several times before it dropped. Bethpage's Austin followed with a layup that gave him 30 points, but Aversano retaliated with an opposite end layup which put the game out of reach of the Golden Eagles.

The recommendation on board members' rights of visitation and securing records was tabled by a 4-3 vote (voting to table: Bello, McCormack, Pirrung and Pappas; voting against: Bruno, Clark, Zindulka.)

Mr. Bruno had placed several items on the agenda, but only one was discussed and acted upon. The board approved a policy which ensures that all correspondence and other information pertinent to district business, will go to all board members and there will be no interference from administration in the proper disbursement of that information.

During the portion of the meeting set aside for the public, Mrs. Mary Carton stated her opinion that board members should not have copies of students' records; these should only be available to teachers and guidance counselors.

Mrs. Carol Schorr complimented administration on the new Adult Education course, "Know Your Schools." The course is free of charge and held on Thursday nights at 8 P.M. in the High School Little Theater. Registration is not required in order to attend this series of lectures on various aspects of our school district. Mrs. Schorr urged the community to attend.

Mrs. Dolores Samowitz spoke for a group of East Street School parents regarding their concern for bus safety and asked that lay help ride the buses and assist in disembarking and crossing. She said High School students had volunteered to do this on buses for children in grades kindergarten through third, until the board could come up with a permanent solution. She asked the board to approve the student volunteers.

Charles Fetta read a letter regarding the poem, "Mary's Complaint," and his objections to it. He added that he and other members of L.I.F.E. in Hicksville had attempted to keep people away from the meeting so the board would not be pressured in its actions regarding the poem and its author.

Following a one-hour executive session, the school board approved High School student volunteers riding buses for primary grade children. This will be an immediate, stop-gap measure while administration gathers more information on paid lay help or monitors.

The board unanimously passed a resolution which "condemned and prohibited for use in the future in this school system," "the satirizing of any religion." This resolution was passed as a result of a ninth grade English teacher's distribution to students of a poem "A Christmas Story or Mary's Complaint." The teacher's apology (which he had read to his students) was read into the minutes and a copy of the apology and the resolution will be placed in his file. Mr. McCormack wanted to take a vote to accept the apology, but the board took no such action. Mr. Clark asked Mr. McCormack why he was willing to accept this teacher's mistake and was not willing to give another teacher (who had been recommended for a job a couple of months ago) the same chance. Mr. Clark requested that a hearing be held so the board could receive an explanation of why the poem had been distributed to students. Mr. Goebel explained there must be charges before a hearing could be held, or the teacher must be given immunity. No public formal action was taken on Mr. Clark's request.

At midnight, the meeting was adjourned when Mr. Bruno voted against continuing. It was reconvened within a few, confusing minutes, however, so the board could vote on paying bills. When this was accomplished, the meeting adjourned, finally.

The next regular meeting is Friday, February 9 at 8 p.m. in the conference room at the Administration Building.
