"Save Our Precious Environment"

The average citizen should be given the opportunity of physically participating in the battle to save our precious environment, said Assemblyman Stuart R. Levine.

Levine, a member of the Assembly Standing Committee on Environmental Conservation, introduced legislation to the legislature Monday which would provide individual citizens the right to sue those persons or corporations which abuse the environment.

"Currently private citizens are unable to initiate personal court proceedings against those who are found to be damaging the environment," said Levine. "The responsibility now falls upon the Attorney General's office. If this bill is approved, it would enable private citizens to participate in the protection of our environment and would also allow the Attorney General's office to give more time to other important State matters.

"The 'hue and cry' from the average citizen has been that they, themselves, can do nothing to actively protect our environment. My measure would allow them to participate by awarding them the right to personally sue environmental polluters.

"It would significantly help to assure that our environment would be safeguarded, violators would be also greatly inhibited from abusing the environment through fear of legal action," concluded Assemblyman Levine.

The bill also provides that the citizens bringing the suit would have the right to recover costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

Flood Insurance To Be Available To Town of Oyster Bay Residents

Town Supervisor John W. Burke announced that the Oyster Bay Town Board is expected to vote shortly to apply to the Federal Insurance Administration to allow Town residents to purchase federally subsidized flood insurance coverage.

Although the act permitting the Town to apply to have the subsidized policies made available to residents was passed in 1968 (the National Flood Insurance Act), it was only recently amended making it acceptable to the Town.

"Until it was amended and the premium rates considerably reduced, the Town's application to be a part of the program could have served to the detriment of the very residents it was meant to serve," Burke said.

He explained that prior to certain amendments it was the Federal government's policy to refuse flood disaster aid to any community that was eligible to purchase the subsidized flood insurance. "That meant that a

Speaking of the Gregory Museum (of which we are all so proud), the portrait of Mr. Gregory, which was presented to the Museum by artist Olga Hoebel of Terrace Pl., Hicksville, was given by her in memory of her late husband, Louis Hoebel. Mr. Hoebel's family settled in Hicksville in 1888, on a farm which was later to become the Wojtyniak farm at the intersection of South Oyster Bay Road and Old Country Road. Mr. Hoebel was raised in Hicksville, went to the Nicholas Street School and was confirmed and christened by old Pastor Matschat. Mrs. Hoebel herself came to Hicksville in 1933 after having lived on the Lauman farm in Bethpage with her aunt and uncle.

Highway Safety

State/Parkway Police Chief N.T. Landers reminds everyone in his driving tip for today, that stopping on the Pavement on a high speed State Parkway can be extremely dangerous. In addition it is a violation of the Long Island State Park and Recreation Commission Ordinances. In the event of a mechanical breakdown make every effort to get your car onto the grass shoulder, urges Chief Landers. Stay with your car, a patrol vehicle will be along shortly to assist you. Then if you desire he will call for a licensed garage to help you in your problem.

Roncallo Reports

by Congressman Angelo D. Roncallo

Residents and businessmen throughout the 3rd District have told me of their concern about the availability and price of petroleum products, especially home heating oil. I share this concern and made its solution my first order of legislative business as your Congressman.

My bill, H.R. 3303, would immediately and permanently prohibit oil import quotas as well as cancelling any presently on the books. I considered all the political ramifications, foreign policy balance of payments and environmental problems and came to the conclusion that you, the people, the consumers of petroleum products, are the most important interests we must protect.

I realize that this might not make me very popular with the giant oil producers in this country, but they have been protected for years. This has cost you more money to drive your car and heat your home. Now they can't even supply us with enough at their artificially high prices to meet the demand. It has been estimated that as much as two cents on a gallon of gas and seven dollars on a barrel of oil could be saved if my bill is enacted into law. The annual savings to American consumers could reach five to six billion dollars!

Another important factor for Long Islanders is that lifting oil import quotas would, for the time being, help stave off pressures for off-shore drilling. Our beautiful beaches are most valuable natural resource, and I don't want to take the risk that they might be despoiled by an oil spill or other accident when we have alternative energy sources at our disposal.

Although we feel the problem most as it applies to us, the crisis is nationwide. Children in Denver can't go to school because there isn't enough natural gas to heat the classroom. In Iowa men and women are out of work because there is no oil to heat their factory. Other Congressmen from both sides of the aisle have asked to co-sponsor my bill. I hope that we will be successful.

The House of Representatives is now in recess for the Lincoln's Day break. I look forward to seeing you again on these pages in two weeks.

REPORTS

Last week, I had the privilege of addressing the New York State Association of Fire Districts at its annual meeting in New York City.

I find it difficult, on such occasions, to properly convey my feelings of gratitude and appreciation to the commissioners and fire fighters for their unselfish dedication to the protection of our lives and property. "Thank you" seems inadequate to truly express my sentiments to these men for the job they do.

I could cite statistics about how many fire calls these men have responded to and how many lives they have saved, but this doesn't tell half the story of why we, the residents they protect, should be saying "thank you."

Certainly, the commissioners of fire districts deserve a great deal of thanks for the time they spend planning ahead to keep each fire district ready and able to answer the many calls for assistance. Nor can we forget the volunteers who jump out of bed or leave a dinner table at the sound of a fire alarm—and do so without any financial compensation.

And the entire system, which gives pride to our communities, deserves our thanks for providing that glorious but intangible community spirit that leads more and more young men to join an organization that regularly calls on them to sacrifice comfort, and, sometimes, tragically, their lives.

One of the major problems that fire districts must face each year is the cost of maintaining and purchasing fire fighting equipment and vehicles. These costs must be financed through property taxes in the same manner as those of the Town government. However, this year Town government received aid in the form of federal revenue sharing to help offset the impact of rising costs without adding to the burden of property owners.

Under the present law, this relief is not available to special districts such as fire districts. I consider this to be an inequity that is not in keeping with either the intent or spirit of the revenue sharing program. Fire districts are government bodies of elected officials. They provide a greatly needed public service which, as volunteer organizations, save the taxpayers a considerable amount of money.

These facts, I believe, should more than qualify fire districts for equal treatment with other municipalities under the federal revenue sharing program.

I urge all Boards of Fire Commissioners to actively pursue this potential source of revenue with your state and federal legislators. You can count on our support in these endeavors.

Washington Report

Congressman
NORMAN F. LENT
5th District, New York

Long Island commuters were nearly beset with another transportation tragedy last week when members of the United Transportation Union walked out for a day and left commuters of the Penn-Central railroad "untracked." The one-day walkout by union transportation workers also closed Penn-Central tracks leading to Penn Station to L.I.R.R. Riders, and many Nassau commuters were forced to switch to subways in Woodside for the trek to the City.

The brief Penn-Central walkout followed on the heels of the 51-day L.I.R.R. strike, and Nassau commuters could have been exasperated to the breaking point had not the Congress acted to halt the walkout.

The House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, on which I serve, moved into emergency session last Thursday and in less than 3 hours developed a "strike ban" bill which went to the House Floor immediately. The measure passed overwhelmingly, the bill was put on a plane for a trip to the Western White House, and President Nixon signed it early last Friday morning, postponing what could have been one of the most devastating transportation strikes in history.

The legislation extends until May 31 the "cooling off" period and Pennsy trains were back on schedule last Friday. But it does not prevent another walkout after that date if the management and employees of the bankrupt railroad fail to resolve their disagreements.

These threatening strikes, particularly in the transportation fields, point up the possibility of permanent legislation which would bar these walkouts which literally cripple the public.

There are several bills before the Congress which would mandate "compulsory arbitration." What this means is that striking workers would have to stay on the job until grievances were settled in continuing discussion.

It would eliminate the tactic which has been used by both management and unions of severing discussions, thereby prolonging the strikes until the public is on its knees and urging settlement on any terms.

I think it is high time the Congress took a close look at this legislation and consider its implementation.

a lot of time with them, and encouraging many interests.

"I encouraged them to join organizations which might interest them," she said. "They always got a lot out of scouting. Scouting means a lot to me — it always has," she said.

She also encouraged them to be active in church and the church athletic leagues, which, she said, consumed both her boys' interest for several years.

She herself, when she's not busy executing the office of the Town Clerk or participating in community activities, likes to dabble in ceramics and dressmaking.

As Town Clerk, Mrs. Ocker looks forward to providing effective and efficient services to the people of the Town. "This office renders a service to the people of our Town," she said. "I like it, in as much as I have worked with so many people in the course of my life. I have always found it a great joy to work with people."

Spelling Champion

Despite the heavy rains on Friday, the Board Room of the Administration building was filled to capacity. The reason? The Daily News' Spelling Bee. The individual school champions, their families, friends, teachers, principals and a Board Member gathered to see who would be the district's champion.

Mr. William Golee pronounced and defined each word for the contestants. The judges, William Granville, Ruth Levandov and Lois Walker, with dictionaries in hand, checked each speller. The winner, Linda Essex, Junior High School, Paula Trapant Woodland avenue, was second and Amy Coll, East Street, placed third.

Linda is a student of Mrs. Barbara Drayer. This makes the second year in a row that Mrs. Drayer has produced the District's Spelling Champion.

Miss Essex will now compete in county, state and national "Bees."

Mrs. Thomas Clark was hostess for the fete that followed the "Spell Off." Despite the rain a good time was had by all.

Eagle Scout Receives Citizenship Award

The American Legion's Citizenship Award was made to Hicksville's newest Eagle Scout this past Friday evening at ceremonies held in the Old Country Manor. Jeffrey Goldstein was honored by Troop 158 and the Charles Wagner Post 421 at an impressive Court of Honor and dinner tendered by his troop.

Making the American Legion's award to Jeffrey, Troop 158's seventh Eagle Scout, was Richard E. Evers, Americanism Chairman for Post 421. The Legion's award is presented to every Eagle Scout in recognition of his effort to complete merit badges relating to "Citizenship in the Home, Community and Nation."

In making the Charles Wagner Post award to Jeffrey, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Goldstein, Mr. Evers remained the large turnout which included the new Eagle Scout's first troop leader, Mr. Jacques Schwartz and his present Scout Master, Mr. Saul Meltzer, that "Scouting is always contemporary. We hear and see signs that some Scout leaders propose that Scouting 'must' become more contemporary." It is suggested that the goal in new Scout programs must be efforts to make Scouting relevant to today's youth. This may be true in part, but there are time-honored aspects of Scouting that meet the needs of every generation. Character training for Boy Scouts has always been a 'must.' We are grateful that boys and young men like yourselves are always 'with it' when you demonstrate qualities of good citizenship, loyalty, honesty, cooperation and obedience and reverence. Eagle Scouts such as Jeff Goldstein exemplify the timelessness of the basic Scout ideals."

Social Security

QUEST: I have a small business in which I employ five people. One person I just hired showed me two social security cards with the same name but different numbers. Which number do I use?

ANS: Have your employee call, write, or visit the social security office immediately. The people there will have his records checked and advise him which number he should be using. Then he can give the correct number to you. Our office is located at 1505 Kellum Place, Mineola, N.Y. 11501. The phone number is P1-7-5470.

QUEST: I'll soon be 62 and plan to quit work then and retire. I have raised my two grandchildren since they were babies. Now they're both in grade school. Will they be able to get social security checks on my record when I start getting monthly benefits?

ANS: Possibly. Under recent changes in the social security law, grandchildren can get monthly checks based on a grandparents' earnings record if certain conditions are met. You should file a claim for benefits for them at any social security office and receive a formal determination on the matter. This can be done when you apply for your retirement benefits.

QUEST: My regular job for the Federal Government is not covered by social security. But I take time off from work every Christmas season to buy and sell trees for profit. Is this work included under social security?

ANS: If your net income from selling Christmas trees is at least $400 in a year, you should report the income for social security coverage as a self-employed person. Call, write, or visit any Internal Revenue Service or social security office to get more information about reporting your net earnings from self-employment and paying the social security self-employment contributions.

QUEST: I started getting monthly social security checks as a student last summer when my mother died. Since I've had some part-time jobs this year, can you tell me when a person getting benefits has to report his earnings to social security?

Course In Rehabilitation Nursing Of Stroke Patient

The proper handling of a stroke victim is rapidly becoming a highly specialized field with the opening of Stroke Units in several Nassau County hospitals.

It has been found that immediate rehabilitation many times within 48 hours after a stroke has proven of the utmost importance for recovery from stroke paralysis. In order to help nurses in hospitals and nursing homes provide the active nursing care that stroke patients require, the Nassau County Medical Center Department of Rehabilitation and the Nassau Heart Association are pleased to announce a four-week course in Rehabilitation Nursing of Stroke Patients. The course begins on March 6th and will continue on Tuesdays and Thursdays of each consecutive week from 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM at the Nassau County Medical Center, Hempstead Turnpike, East Meadow. The course will cover aspects of nursing care necessary for the incapacitated patient, as well as for motivating the patient to "do for himself" as much as he can. The registration fee is $15.00 and enrollment in the course will be limited.

The course is open to nurses from all Nassau County hospitals and nursing homes. For further information, please call the Heart Association at 741-8522. Kathy McKenna.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

At the Feb. 8th meeting, the Hicksville Board of Education was scheduled to finalize its deliberation on the latest conduct of a certain JHS teacher, and the obvious laxity and negligence of supervisory personnel.

Immediately before this meeting, at least a dozen Hicksville teachers personally confided to me their disgust with their fellow-colleague's behavior, and their desire for deterrents and controls to effectively police their ranks: yet their own teachers' union had come out in support of Mr. Scalia!

After an unprecedented (est) 33 letters to the Board, with 4 clergymen from 4 different churches, who objected, and or condemned, and or asked that it not be swept under the rug, of all people, trustee McCormack champions the highly questionable conduct of teacher Scalia, even though McCormack's own (Holy Family) church objected to the "poem". Being on the Board long enough to know the weaknesses of school administrators, trustee McCormack then publicly asks the administrators, of their own feelings toward Scalia's poem! Naturally, our Supt. Niosi sums it up by publicly stating that I can assure you "that it will never happen again" thereby endorsing the usual "wrist-slapping technique".

Therefore, what was to be a public Board-deliberation, trustee McCormack monopolized the deliberation with his, and the carefully selected administrator's pro-teacher, exhortations! Being aware that the Board's paramount duty is to represent the parents and taxpayers, and not the (so-called) administrators, the undersigned then publicly asked the Board for, at least, equal time for the parents and taxpayers (which was later denied).

And it was a this point, immediately after Dr. Niosi had assured the Board that it(?) would not happen again, that it (?) did happen again! A person (later) identified by Dr. Niosi, himself, as a teacher - Mrs. Kreditor, and a handful of carefully planted juveniles, publicly heckled the undersigned with the obvious design to not have parents and taxpayers address the Board.

So, while Board trustees Clark & Pappas courageously voted to ascertain, and correct, obvious weaknesses of our school bureaucracy, trustees McCormack, Pirrung, Bello & Zindulka, not so courageously, voted to sweep it under the rug! Mr. Bruno was conveniently absent!

Consequently, at least 4 similar incidents later, dealing with a total of 4 teachers and or supervisory personnel (since March 1971), and always being assured by school administrators that "it not happen again", I wonder if Supt. Niosi expects to, at least interview Mrs. Kreditor - after I personally complained to him of her shocking rudeness, and unprofessional behavior at the Last Feb. 8th Board meeting??

Sadly but necessarily,
Charles Fetta, Past Pres.
"Life in Hicksville"

Dear Editor:

Over this past weekend I witnessed opening day of an exquisite art show that will be running thru February 25 and a very satisfying concert of chamber music at (of all places) our Hicksville Public Library. People do not realize that our library does much more than lend books - it is a cultural center.

So taken with the art show, I sat down and wrote a quick poem about it.

A deed has been done of which I am proud.
An art exhibit that drew a large crowd.

They came from near to get a good look.
They also came from far.
Evidence? The guest book.

A reception was held this opening day.
Marking the start of a two week show.
Edible delights beautifully spread, gave everyone present a very warm glow.

The paintings ranged from a new born lamb drawn high, to a gold star mother with a tear in her eye.

So I tell you all now, even you, who gives not a hoot, that the artist to watch is Richard M. Leute.

From now on I will be checking the library bulletin board and "The Herald" for more cultural events.

For the sake of good poetry, please withhold my name.

Highway Safety

It pays to think ahead! State Parkway Police Chief N.T. Lauders says, "Be prepared for severe snow and ice conditions before starting out on a trip during winter. Make sure that your trunk contains a bucket of sand or rock salt, traction mats, tire chains, booster cables, a shovel, a tow chain or strap, a blanket, and emergency lighting equipment."

"Drippings From A Poets Pen"

By Jimmy Cooley

"God In Heaven"
I Dedicate this poem to those of us in America.
To So many that have turned from God and in place turned to violence. Perhaps in some small way a few words from a Pen might be mightier than the sword.

Dear God in heaven hear my plea
And make a better man of me.
Show me courage that I seek
Make me strong when I am weak.

Know myself as others do
Keep my faults a very few.
Let me give to those in need
Correct each wrong with righteous deeds.

Feel the pain when others hurt
Wash their wounds, to cleanse the dirt.
Aid the sightless in my way

So they can see the light of day.

Guide our youths to greater dreams
Purify the Lakes and Streams.
End the misery of War
Put light of friendship at my door.

These things I ask before I go
And shadows lengthen and cold winds blow.
If once again my heart feels free
I'll know dear Lord you heard my plea.

Hicksville Student Selected To Offer Research Paper

John J. Dwyer, of Hicksville, was one of seven Manhattan College students selected to present a paper the Society of Physics Students Research Symposium held recently at the Park Sheraton Hotel in New York City. Dwyer reported on "The Application of Spiral Density Pattern to Observed Hydrogen in the Galaxy."

A senior physics major at the Riverdale (Bronx), N.Y. college, Dwyer's project was performed under the supervision of Brother A. Peter Henderson, F.S.C., assistant professor of physics at Manhattan.

Dwyer, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dwyer, is a graduate of Chaminade High School in Mineola.

The Society of Physics Students is a division of the American Institute of Physics.

Vets Should File For Tax Exemptions

Receiver of Taxes Solomon Newborn reminded all eligible veterans to file for their exemptions on real estate taxes before Grievance Day in May.

Eligible World War I, World War II or Korean War veterans should appear in person at the Nassau County Department of Assessment in Mineola or at the Town Hall Annex, 65 Broadway, Hicksville, to file their exemptions, Newborn said.

He also reminded those eligible to increase their exemptions by additional benefits received such as dividends, disability pensions, retirement pay, etc., to do so during this period.

Veterans desiring further information should contact the Nassau County Department of Assessment at 535-2311 or the Town's Veterans Advisor, Joseph McCarthy, at WA 2-5800.

GET THE LEAD OUT

THE LEADED GASOLINE CONTROVERSY

LEAD ADDITIVES WERE FIRST USED IN GASOLINE FOR AUTOMOBILES ALMOST 50 YEARS AGO. THOUGH IT HELPED CURB ENGINE KNOCKING, ITS USE IN THE MOTOR CAR WAS NOT UNIVERSALLY APPROVED, ESPECIALLY BY THE WORLD HEALTH ORGANIZATION.

EARLY RESEARCH SHOWED THAT TETRA-ETHYL LEAD WAS POISONOUS. ITS EFFECTS ON WORKERS IN FACTORIES PRODUCING THE SUBSTANCE WAS OFTEN TRAGIC. BUT WHEN THE U.S. BUREAU OF MINES RELEASED A REPORT STATING CAREFULLY CONTROLLED USE OF THE ADDITIVE WAS SAFE, THE FUROR DIED DOWN.

TODAY, LEAD IN GASOLINE IS CAUSING ANOTHER CONTROVERSY—THIS TIME FOR POSSIBLE EFFECTS ON THE AIR WE BREATHE. AMERICAN OIL COMPANIES ARE URGING MOTORISTS TO GET THE LEAD OUT OF THEIR GASOLINE, THEREBY HELPING TO ELIMINATE AIRBORNE LEAD PARTICLES.

ENTERTAIN WITH CHICKEN IN CHAUD-FROID

Chicken in Chaud-froid is one of the most elegant dishes ever to be placed on a buffet table. It is cold chicken coated in a flavorful real mayonnaise jellied sauce, and decorated with herbs and vegetable cutouts.

Chicken in Chaud-froid (Glazed Cold Chicken)

- 1 whole roaster, capon or small turkey
- 1 quart water
- 1 onion
- 2 stalks celery
- 1 carrot
- Salt
- 1/2 teaspoon peppercorns
- 1 bay leaf
- 3 envelopes unflavored gelatin
- 1/2 cup cold water
- 1 cup real mayonnaise
- Garnishes, as: thin carrot flowers, green pepper leaves, parsley, dill

Wrap roaster in cheesecloth. Place in kettle on rack with 1 quart water. Add vegetables, salt, peppercorns and bay leaf. Bring to boil, reduce heat, cover and gently simmer until tender, about 2 hours. Remove from stock; chill. Strain stock; chill.

Skim fat layer from cold stock. Melt stock over low heat. Add water, if necessary, to make 3 cups. Bring to a boil. Meanwhile, sprinkle gelatin over 1/2 cup cold water; let soften 5 minutes. Add to stock; stir until gelatin is completely dissolved. Stir mayonnaise into 1 1/2 cups of stock; chill until slightly thickened. Leave remaining stock at room temperature.

Meanwhile, remove skin from bird. Place bird on wire rack. Pour slightly thickened mayonnaise glass slowly over bird, coating evenly with all the mixture. If the mixture becomes too firm, heat gently and then cool. Garnish bird as desired. When clear gelatin thickens slightly, coat entire roaster evenly and thoroughly. Chill remaining gelatin until set and firm; break into small flakes with fork and arrange around bird on serving plate.

GIVE YOUR HOME A FIRE SAFETY CHECK

Every 37 seconds, a fire breaks out somewhere in the United States. Of these fires, approximately one in three damages or destroys someone's home. No matter what the season, fire can be a relentless enemy and you must be on guard.

Here are some hints from experts in The Hartford Insurance Group's Junior Fire Marshal program, on how to prevent fire in the home:

1. Make youngsters promise not to play with matches and never to build a fire except under adult supervision. More than 27,000 fires each year are caused by children playing with matches.

2. Look through your basement, attic and garage and get rid of old newspapers and other fire-kindling material.

3. Make sure any paint, varnish or oil stored in the garage or basement is kept in tightly closed metal containers and away from the furnace.

4. Get a yearly check-up on all heating equipment. Defective heating and cooking equipment causes one out of every three fires.

5. Keep ashes from the fireplace or furnace in a covered, hole-free metal container and dispose of them frequently.

6. Check to make sure any flammable liquids in the basement or garage are stored in safety-approved metal containers.

7. Have trash and rubbish burned only in a wire mesh or other suitable incinerator. (Note: Many cities prohibit burning of trash.)

8. Unplug the iron cord when the iron is not in use, even for a short time.

9. Be sure that all mops are hung in a safe, well-ventilated place. Check to see that oily rags are either thrown out or kept in metal containers. Oily mops and rags can burst into flame all by themselves.

10. Check on all lamps and electrical appliances to make sure they are not frayed or worn.

11. Make sure that all extension cords are in the open—not over hooks, under rugs, or through partitions or doorways where the insulation may get worn off and be the cause of fire.

12. Be sure that portable heaters are kept away from curtains, drapes, furniture, walls and partitions. Heaters should be regularly checked for leaks and cleanliness.

13. Make sure that your fireplace is covered by a metal fire screen.

14. See if proper-size fuses are in the fuse box—and that spare fuses are on hand.

15. Careless smokers cause more fires than anyone else. Never smoke in bed. And be sure that matches and cigarettes are out before leaving them.

16. Discuss the subject of fire with the whole family. Plan how you would escape from each room of the house if fire cut off one or more exits.

17. Check the location of nearest fire alarm box. And learn how to call the fire department.

18. Remind the family that the local fire chief is always willing to offer advice about individual fire problems. When in doubt about any hazardous condition, always seek professional help.

For safety's sake, heed these hints and put them into effect now. Don't let a dangerous situation hang fire.

The San Francisco fire of 1906 burned 2,593 acres, 514 city blocks, and destroyed 28,000 buildings at a loss of $350,000,000.

Operation V.F.W.

William M. Gouse, Jr. Post No. 3211
By Lou Palladino

We had a nice turnout at our post February 2nd. A Friday night, which we gave awards to the winners of the Voice of Democracy contest. It's really hard to choose a winner, because these kids do such fine work. It just proves we can still be mighty proud of our kids. Forget the ones you read about, they are in the minority by a great margin. Jim Sotile opened the festivities. If you never heard these youngsters speak, you'd be amazed at what they can write, and then to speak these words to a full house, with feeling, can be pretty tough. Yet they do it. The winners were, from Holy Trinity High, 1st place went to Mary Barden, 2nd place to Marlene Breen, and 3rd was Sharon Cooke. From Hicksville High, Number one was Abbey David, 2nd Mark Garrett and 3rd was John Bestelman. Our Ladies Aux. were a strong force in the building of this contest. We shouldn't be surprised, they are always there when needed. County Comdr. Angelo Nicossa and County Pres. Mildred Peterson were present. Naturally our Aux. Pres. Kathleen Kane was there too. Sr. Vice Tom McCabe is on V of D. chairman, and Lucy Bena is for the Aux. Rosemary Perzotto for County and Jen Roth for Dist. All were present.

At a recent meeting of our Post, Comdr. Jim Sotile announced our Post would participate in the Nassau County Council's Honor our POW and MIA night. The program will take place at the NC Veterans Memorial Coliseum on February 28th. Regular $5.50 seats, are being made available for $3.00 per a $2.50 saving. Groups are welcome. The evening will include a game between the M. V. High and the Memphis Tigers. For further information contact ticket chair.

man Ed Chawalec, phone 538-4216.

If you wish to attend our annual dinner and dance February 28th, get in touch with Frank Lotti or Mike Zwick. They still have some tickets available. This year we are going back to the Huntington Town House, and the tickets are $20.00 a head. This includes everything, cocktail hour, dinner, rolling bar, and Viennese table. It's always a beautiful affair, and pleasurable.

It's dues time comrades. To the small group who haven't yet paid, please make our job easier, and send in your check. Thank you.

Kiwanis Club of Hicksville

State Key Club Committee. Key Clubs are microcosms of regular Kiwanis Clubs. They are community service clubs for high school boys which foster fellowship and provide them with constructive ways to serve their community.

Kiwanis Clubs are found throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Central and South America, the Caribbean Area, the Far East, the Southwest Pacific, and Europe. Annually, members of Kiwanis Clubs worldwide gather together for a regular international convention. This year, the Kiwanis International Convention will be held from June 24th through June 27th in Montreal, Canada. Representing the Hicksville Kiwanis Club will be President, Dick Botto and Vice-President, Tom Fay. Alternates will be Secretary Murray

Margolis and Dr. Larry Goodman.

The Kiwanis Club of Hicksville is constantly seeking new members to join in its fellowship and community service. Local businessmen and professionals who are interested in more information about Kiwanis should contact Dr. Philip Rubenstein, membership chairman, at 67 Broadway, Hicksville, or call WE 1-4311.

Homeowners who now do not wish to take advantage of the extra coverage the subsidized policy will offer, will not be penalized with the loss of Federal disaster aid," Burke explained.

He noted, however, that because of the reductions in premiums and the amount of coverage provided, it would be beneficial to allow homeowners to take advantage of the insurance program since in time of flood disaster, Federal aid would not fully cover major losses while the insurance program can offer full value coverage.

When approved by the Federal Insurance Administration, owners of one-family homes in the Town will be able to purchase insurance for 25 cents per $100 of value for single family structures worth less than $17,500, and for 35 cents for each $100 of value for the contents within the home. Reduced rates for commercial structures within the area will also be available and slightly higher rates are charged for homes of higher values.

homeowner within an eligible area had to take the insurance or be faced with receiving no aid for a disaster," Burke said. "It was our feeling at that time that our residents would be better served by remaining eligible for Federal disaster aid than by offering them this insurance and stating that they either obtained its coverage or would receive nothing from the government."

"However, the initial insurance act has been modified since its inception and would no longer work as a hardship to homeowners in eligible areas who failed to purchase insurance.
