H.A.D. News

H.A.D. thanks to the kind generosity of local concerned citizens has been able to send another 250 underprivileged children to the circus; the H.A.D. sponsored Sells & Gray Circus, that is, which is going to take place under the big top at Mid-Island Plaza on Wednesday, July 11, 1973. This brings the total number of tickets H.A.D. has been able to donate to 650, so far. The tickets were given to Saint Mary of the Angels home for Children and the Nassau Center for Emotionally Disturbed Children.

H.A.D., Hicksville's family counseling and drug abuse prevention center, is having an Open House on May 26th. All concerned citizens are invited. H.A.D. is a state funded community program, and as such, needs the support of concerned individuals of the community. Right now we need any usable furniture: couches, chairs, etc. We could use any sporting equipment. What we really need, however, is a lawn mower to keep the grounds at our new location, 389 New South Road, in shape. We will pick-up any donations.

If you can help us with any of these things please contact us at 935-6858. Or, if we can be of any help to you, or if you just want to find out what we are about, please don't hesitate to call or come down.

HICKSVILLE'S TEEN AGE REPUBLICANS paid a visit to their Congressman Norman Lent (3rd from right) last week on the steps of the Nation's Capitol. The Hicksville TARS, some 30 strong, attended sessions of Congress and viewed most of Washington's historic landmarks as highlights of their trip.

Hicksville Honors Donald Abt

Over two hundred people turned out last Friday to pay tribute to former superintendent of schools in Hicksville, Donald F. Abt, and his wife, Mary. Friends, relatives and former co-workers attended the surprise dinner-dance held at the Holiday Manor in Bethpage. Mr. Abt has served as Education Consultant for the Hicksville Schools since July, 1971 and will be retiring this June.

Don and Mary were given a portable TV set and will later receive an album containing pictures taken during the evening. Mrs. Gerri McManus presented Mr. Abt with an Honorary Life Membership in the National Congress of Parents and Teachers for his outstanding service and contributions to the welfare of children and youth. A bouquet of long-stemmed red roses was given to Mrs. Abt by Mrs. Ada McGovern.

The masterful technique of Joe Umbria, as toastmaster, added to the enjoyment and special feeling of the evening. Mr. Ted Scholefield, former assistant superintendent of schools in Hicksville and now superintendent in Fallsburg, New York also joined in the "roasting and toasting" of the honored guest. Our own "Irish tenor", Dr. John Cadden, treated the crowd to a special song for the Abts. Dancing to the music of Jim Earle was another highlight of the evening.

All who attended agreed it was an unforgettable night, in honor of a special man who will long be remembered in Hicksville—Donald F. Abt.

Mary and Don tell friends of their plans for the future.

"Thanks for a wonderful evening."

A good time was "had" by all. (Photos by Bob Berkowitz)

Hicksville Repays A Home-Owned And Home-Managed Bank

By James C. Dinkelacker

For more than a half century, 55 years to be exact, Long Island National Bank has played a significant role in the life of Hicksville—because, as the oldest established home-owned and home-managed bank it was, and continues to be, an integral part of the lives of those who have ever called Hicksville "home."

Launched as the Long Island National Bank of Hicksville, on Nov. 15, 1917, by a group of local residents in a building at the corner of Broadway and Main St., which now houses the Whelan Drug Store, the bank dedicated itself to helping farmers and local businessmen during the trying days of World War I.

In the three decades that followed the cessation of hostilities in Europe, Long Island National joined, through loans and mortgages, in quickening the tempo of building homes, industries, and other businesses that began to mushroom in the then rural area. And when the great depression and bank crisis descended on the area, as it did elsewhere in the nation, the vigor and confidence which the bank had built over the years, sustained it.

On Nov. 15, 1961, just 44 years to the day of its founding, the Bank moved across the County line to Suffolk and opened its South Huntington Branch. On that same day the Long Island National Bank of Hicksville discarded its provincialism, by dropping "Hicksville" from its name so that it could bring its banking experience to other communities in the already burgeoning eastern Nassau and western Suffolk Counties.

James C. Dinkelacker

The bank's proliferating resources figures and its high book value over the past 15 years, attest to the wisdom of the policy of courteous, person-to-person services in which a customer is a "friend" rather than a mere "account number."

Although Long Island National grew to 11 offices with resources exceeding $144 million by the end of 1972 it somehow has managed to retain its home-town "flavor." And the fact that it has managed to add imposing annual increments rings on its sturdy trunk, is proof-positive that Long Island National Bank, and Hicksville, shared in the destinies and vicissitudes of their community.

We, at Long Island National Bank, enthusiastically salute the 35th anniversary of Hicksville. Hicksville has been good to us and our bank. We will strive to continue to deserve this confidence, and to always repay it, as Hicksville has generously repaid us.

Syosset Woodbury Plan Adopted by Town Board

By Janet Gosnell

Amidst a small but angry gathering of residents, the Town Board of Oyster Bay on Tuesday adopted the controversial plan for the Syosset Woodbury area which has been the target of litigation threats, allegations of foul play and residential dismay since its publication and a public hearing on it on March 20th.

The vote was 6 to 1 in favor of the plan, Councilman Lewis J. Yevoli voting "Nay."

The adopted plan is unchanged from the original, with the exception of a return to status quo for a small parcel in North Syosset for which a change had previously been indicated.

The greater Woodbury area, with much undeveloped land, provides the controversy, with the main bone of contention the rezoning of parcels 12 and 13 on Woodbury Road for apartment development at the rate of 10 and 6 per acre.

Judy Jacobs and colleagues of the South Woodbury Taxpayers Association were present to ask the Board to table the critical decision on the plan until investigations about foul play are settled. According to Mrs. Jacobs, the owners of R.E.S.T. Corporation, owners of Parcels 12 and 13, who purchased the landlocked 7.9 acres in 1971 for $270,588, have sold it "subject to your zoning," for $700,000.

The plan also calls for construction of a road for access to the R.E.S.T. parcel, which is also questioned by the SWTA. The civic association at the March 20th hearing and later voiced suspicions of collusion between Irwin Roberts and the Town in the achieving of apartment zoning for the land. The organization and Councilman Lewis Yevoli have asked for a full investigation of the matter by the Governor, and by the Nassau County District Attorney's office.

Petitions Denied. Meanwhile, the petition of Irwin Roberts for apartments on parts of Parcels 12 and 13 which was heard on November 24th, 1970, was denied on the same calendar. Roberts was the contract vendee of the property at the time of the hearing.

Also denied was the petition of Acade Co. and Crestwood Country Day Camp for adjacent property. Both petitions called for an apartment density of 16 units to the acre, higher than the 10 and 6 units per acre called for in the plan.

Also denied was the petition of E.O. Associates for apartments in Syosset, but the petition of Gilbert Tilles for a special permit to construct and maintain an office building, in an Industrial H Zone in Woodbury was granted with restrictions. These restrictions include no construction start until the completion of Froehlich Farm Boulevard and Sunnyside Boulevard; neat maintenance of the property in regard to concealing of garbage, providing adequate drainage and attractive landscaping, good maintenance of fixtures and equipment; and prior approval of a site plan.

Four Seasons Angry. A desperate plea to change the zoning indicated for his property was heard from Nathan Swartz, president of the Four Seasons Country Club. Present zoning on the property is Business F along Jericho Turnpike, and residential at the rear. The total area is about 26 acres, with the club accommodations confined to the front 7 acres.

are priced at $7.50 a head. It will include music, food, beer, and one bottle for every table of ten. It will be our first affair in the new building. The Ladies held it there, but we haven't. It should prove to be a good one, and reasonable too. The tickets are limited, so it's first come, first served. Oh yes, the date is Sat. June 16th.

A person named Madeline O'Hare, who was instrumental in making illegal to read the bible in school, now has gathered 27,000 signed letters protesting the astronauts' bible readings as a Christmas message while orbiting the moon. To counteract them, the VFW is trying to get 1,000,000 letter commending them for their action. Imagine, she wants them publicly censured for their act, and also demand any further demonstrations of religion by public leaders abolished. We have short letter already made up, all it needs is your signature and address, and we will mail it for you. If interested, Joe Normandy has a whole box full. Don't let this gal take this away from us too.

There will be no more meeting for the month of May, because it falls on Memorial Day. So the next meeting won't be until the 11th of June. Come on down.

The lucky winner of the weekly raffle was Ron Maroldi. In fact he picked and it was his own number. Don't look good does it.

Library To Open Three Day Celebration

On May 18th the Hicksville Public Library will officially open the three day observance of the 325th anniversary of the Robert Williams land purchase. Williams purchased the land, which includes present day Hicksville and small portions of Jericho, Plainview and Bethpage, from the Matinecock Indians in 1648. The exhibit will feature original documents on loan from the Nassau County Museum Reference Library, historical artifacts, books and newspaper articles on the last 125 years. Councilman Warren Doolittle will be present for a ribbon cutting ceremony opening the display. There will be a short film of the 300th anniversary celebration held in 1948. Refreshments will be served. The program begins at 3 p.m. At 8 p.m. a film program, featuring films on Long Island will be presented at the library.

County's Credit Rating Raised

BY JANET GOSNELL

County Executive Ralph G. Caso called a special press conference on Monday to announce that Nassau County has just been raised from an "A" to an "A-1" rating by Moody's Investors Service.

This means, Caso said, that the county is in a better borrowing position, able to get lower interest rates and able to save the taxpayers some money on interest payments. The county issues an average of about $80 to $100 million annually in bonds and notes, according to County Treasurer John V. Scaduto.

The new rating, which is the top of the A ratings, but not the top rating available, was achieved after the county provided a tour of its facilities to representatives of Moody's. Heavily influencing the raise in rating, he said, was the eradication of a $20 million deficit resulting from the years 1968-1971 when the county spent more than it took in, he said, and also the $10 million surplus enjoyed by the county in fiscal 1972.

Mr. Caso said that Suffolk County and New York City have A ratings. Westchester County is at the top of the rating list with AAA.

"This is the appraisal of hard-nosed financial wizards, men who studied us long and carefully... men who did not just listen to what we had to say but looked at the facts and figures... and then came to the conclusion that we are conducting our business of government in a sound, proper fashion," Caso said.

He said the improved credit rating was attributed by Moody's to the county's excellent industrial and commercial development, its extremely well developed retail trade, its growth stabilization and favorable economic outlook.

Mr. Caso said that the other major rating service, Standard & Poor's, still had the county listed with an A rating. "But now that Moody's has improved the rating, there is every indication that we will approach Standard & Poor's to do the same," he said.

Other Business

In other business, the County heard an expression of gratitude from John Kearse, director of the Nassau Economic Opportunity Commission, for continuing the commission in force, as announced last week.

It also heard Marvin Zevin, who describes himself as, "Candidate for Supervisor, Town of North Hempstead," with no party affiliation indicated, protest that the county was unlawfully collecting sales tax on ice cream, popcorn, milk, take, peanuts and potato chips at the Nassau County Veteran's Memorial Coliseum. Mr. Zevin said since comestibles were purchased at the booth and devoured elsewhere in the building, they should have the same tax free status as carry-away items from a supermarket. Mr. Caso said later that the entire coliseum was considered as the consuming area for booth-purchased items. "You don't buy a frankfurter at the booth and take it home," he said.

Oyster Bay Town Directory Now Available

A new assistance directory for Oyster Bay residents, entitled "How To Find Your Way In Oyster Bay," is now available for all residents and civic organizations in the Town. Supervisor John W. Burke announced today.

"This guide pinpoints many of the Town's services and facilities at a glance," Burke said. "A comprehensive telephone listing, it enables Oyster Bay residents to easily contact the agency that can directly and most effectively deal with their question or problem."

The tri-color brochure also provides a listing of phone numbers for the Town's parks, recreational facilities, beaches and marinas, hospitals generally used by Oyster Bay residents, emergency and County information numbers and the number of the Oyster Bay ACTION LINE.

Another reference feature of the pamphlet is a listing of the names, addresses and phone numbers of local members of Congress and the State Legislature.

Limited numbers of the brochure are being sent to libraries and civic organizations in Oyster Bay. Organizations and Town residents seeking additional copies may obtain them by visiting the Town Clerk's office in Oyster Bay Town Hall, the Hicksville or Massapequa Town Hall Annexes, or by calling the Public Information Office at 922-5800 (ext. 258).

Board Denies Petitions

by Janet Gosnell

Two petitions for zone changes of interest to Hicksville residents were denied by the Oyster Bay Town Board on Tuesday at its regular public meeting.

The petition of Allan J. Kaplan and Horace Bernstein for a change of zone from Residence D to Business F in order to conduct a real estate and insurance business in a residence on South Oyster Bay Road across from the Plainview Shopping Center was one of those denied. The petition met some opposition at its public hearing on January 23rd, primarily from residents of East End Avenue, behind the subject property. Their objections centered not on the use of the house for business, but strictly to the change of zone.

All the houses on the street adjacent to the subject property are presently used for business.

Also denied was the petition of Charles & Elizabeth Orlando for a change of zone from residence E to Business F for a corner parcel on South Oyster Bay Road and Cedar Street. The parcel runs about 100 feet on South Oyster Bay Road and about 250 feet on Cedar Street.

Objections came from residents of Rose Street, who were unaware at the time that they signed a petition circulated by Mrs. Orlando in favor of the zone change that the property behind their homes was involved.

From Your Police Department

The Nassau County Police Department has firmly renounced any attempts by fund raising groups to link its name with their activities.

Commissioner Louis J. Frank announced today that the department is in no way connected with any fund raising organization or in any attempts to solicit money from county residents, whatever the purpose.

A police department spokesman noted that there are a number of groups attempting to raise money in Nassau and by either implication or direct statement have claimed recognition by the Nassau County Police Department.

"Such inferences or claims were thoroughly refuted by the Commissioner who pointed out that the rules and regulations of the Department specifically forbid its members from engaging in any fund raising activities."

Frank said, "The residents of Nassau County should be fully aware that this Department is in no way connected, officially or unofficially with any fund raising actions by anyone."

and welfare work within local communities. The poppies are hand-made by veterans. They symbolize the poppies that grew in Flanders Field in France where many of the dead from World Wars I and II are buried.

"Poppies"

"In Flanders Fields the poppies blow... so went the immortal words of Col. John McCrae's poem. Little did he realize when he penned those lines that some day the very poppies of which he wrote would be the true symbol of all those who gave their lives in our nation's wars. But that is the case today. Annually, the veterans of foreign wars sponsors the buddy poppy sale in the Hicksville area to raise money for needy and disabled veterans. This is their way of "honoring the dead by helping the living." You, too, can pay your respects on May 15th-May 28th when the buddy poppies will be on sale in this community. Do your part--buy a buddy poppy and wear it proudly.

Dear Friends:

WHAT A PLEASURE, to see the beautification project of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club, on the northwest corner of Old Country Road and Broadway, come into being over the past two weekends. It certainly shows how we can change the horrible mudholes on Broadway to small miniparks, at least temporarily, until permanent plans can be worked out. We know that HAD another Hicksville organization, is attempting to do this type of beautification along Broadway, but has been held up by the refusal of the Talifaro family interests to give permission on their properties...we hope that this permission will soon be given, and that HAD can then proceed to help make downtown Hicksville more attractive.

THERE IS MUCH CONFUSION REGARDING PENSION PLANS: and our government is trying to clear up a great deal of this, and to pass laws that will protect all individuals on pension plans. You will be interested to read Congressman Norman Lent's column in this issue, as it is about this important subject.

A BIG "THANK YOU", to Richard Evers of Hicksville, who has done such a terrific job of writing up the current plans of the 325th Birthday Celebration of Hicksville - first in a three-part series which THE HERALD carried, and in the editorial materials in our special SOUVENIR EDITION, which we are sure you will enjoy.

WE NOTE THAT the Grand Jury is now proceeding with their investigations of irregularities in the Town of Oyster Bay Public Works Department. This is good, for, whatever the outcome, those accused are innocent until proven guilty and are entitled to be so considered until the matter is brought to a conclusion which ever way the Grand Jury decides.

THAT'S ALL FOR THIS WEEK, stay well, and remember the old saying, "Kindness has never yet done any one serious harm."

Sincerely,

Azaleas Color Planting Fields

One of the most rewarding experiences made possible by the Long Island State Park and Recreation Commission is a stroll through Planting Fields Arboretum at Oyster Bay, where the Azaleas Walk is in massive bloom. While hundreds of specimens are found in other areas of the Arboretum, the Walk offers a centralized display unequalled in beauty.

Practically every known variety is represented in the display, the colors affording eye-filling pleasure. Nature lovers will find delightful nooks to study and enjoy the plants which are growing in popularity with each succeeding year.

But while azaleas are in their prime now, and will continue so for another week, they will soon make way for the rhododendrons, early specimens of which are showing color. The big rhododendron display, however, will continue into June. Plantings are found throughout the arboretum.

Dogwoods hold the center of interest and beauty along with the azaleas. On the whole, the spring flower season has been bountiful because of the ideal growing weather, plentiful moisture.

Still to make their annual bow are the Korean dogwoods which bloom later than the native species. Also native to China, the bracts of this species are much similar to the American. The big difference is found in the tree, the former spreading less than the latter.

The Arboretum is open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Children will be admitted free as usual.

Supervisor

JOHN W. BURKE

REPORTS

The State Court of Appeals acted in the best interests of the people of Nassau County in its recent decision upholding the modified weighted voting plan for the County Board of Supervisors. In retaining the basic structure of the Board as it has been, the county government will continue to function as the natural extension of local town and city government following the principles of home rule.

The alternative proposed—a legislature composed of an undetermined number of representatives elected from equal population districts—would create an unwieldy legislative body representing many small pockets of self-interest. The epitome of such ineffective legislatures is the New York City Council whose sessions have been compared to a Barnum and Bailey performance. Another disturbing aspect of our neighbor to the west is the legislative and executive impotence of the borough presidents under the present system, a fate that could befall town and city supervisors here.

One of the best arguments for the retention of a modified form of our present government is its record of effectiveness during the recent years of tremendous growth in the county. With the modified weighted voting plan devised by Attorney George Pratt, an expert in municipal government structure, the voting power of each supervisor is proportional to the population he represents, which meets the criteria established by the courts.

The important factor is that Town government, which is the heart of home rule, retains a voice in the county legislature.

TOWN NOTES: New York State Motor Vehicles Commissioner Vincent L. Tofany asked me to remind all automotive junk and salvage operators that they are now required to be licensed by the state and must maintain a registry book showing the acquisition and disposition of all junk and salvage vehicles, or parts of vehicles. These requirements become effective August 23, 1973. The nearest Motor Vehicles District Office can provide more information.

Roncallo Reports

by Congressman Angelo D. Roncallo
On the first of this month, Secretary of the Treasury George Shultz presented to the House Ways and Means Committee the Administration's proposed tax package for the coming year. One area in particular interests me:

The proposal contains what I believe to be concrete steps toward equalizing the tax burden for senior citizens. It requests a federal tax credit for persons 65 years and over on the amount of real tax paid in excess of 5 per cent of their household income and up to a maximum credit of $500.

This tax help extends to renters who would get a tax credit for 15 per cent of their rent subject to the same 5 per cent floor and $500 maximum. For this purpose renters would be considered to have paid real property taxes in an amount equal to this 15 per cent.

This credit would decrease proportionately for those with an annual household income over $15,000 and would phase out completely at $25,000.

You know, as I read the statistics about the amount of tax money senior citizens pay currently, the percentages seem unfairly high. According to the Treasury Department report the average taxpayer in 1970 paid 3.4 per cent of his household income in property taxes, while elderly homeowners paid on the average 8.1 per cent. Elderly homeowners with an annual income of less than $2000 paid 16.6 per. of their family's income and in our area, the northeast, the lower income elderly paid over 30 per. of their meager income in property taxes. The scope and distribution of this excessive property tax burden is fast becoming a national problem. It's a situation that I think needs equalizing as soon as possible.

In cold hard terms, imposing such tax burdens on this sector of our society undercuts social security and other federal programs designed to provide retirement benefits and security for the elderly.

In human terms, it's obvious that older people are paying more than their own way—and at a time when they can least afford it.

This is one type of tax reform I think we need to address during this session of Congress.

PENSION REFORMS-YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT

This column provides me, from time to time, with a means of informing you of major changes in government regulations which often have a direct effect on the lives of many of my constituents. This week, I'd like to brief you on new Labor Department rules, effective July 31st, which will hopefully clear up a great deal of current confusion regarding Pension Plans.

Until now, millions of American blue and white-collar workers have either joined or deferred enrollment in pension plans without ever really knowing just what those plans do. The new Labor regulations require administrators of all such plans to disclose, to any worker who asks, just what he has to do to be eligible for pension benefits, and to do so in simple language, within 30 days.

Current Pension Plans vary widely in their form, eligibility requirements and benefits. Some void benefits if the worker has a break in service between the time he starts work and retirement. Some require work to age 60 or 65, others only that a certain period of years be worked before retirement at earlier ages. Many require written requests for benefits, or set time limits on appeals after denial. Many have definite survivor clauses that require application by workers to protect their families. The amount of money being put into the fund by employees, by employers, how benefits are computed, just what conditions must be met, how long an employee must work for basic and full rights, disability benefits, what happens to benefits in case of his company's merger or sale, how claims can be filed—these and other questions must now be answered. Most of them will be provided in a new "description form" which must be requested from the worker's pension plan headquarters and delivered to him within 30 days.

As the Congress sets about work on revising the laws regarding pension plans, this full-disclosure regulation will go a long way toward piercing the veil of mystery that shrouds so many of them now. Too often, benefits go uncollected because workers are unaware of coverage. Tragically, benefits are sometimes lost because of tricky wording, difficult conditions and honest ignorance of the kind of plan the worker is, or could be, covered by.

Congress wants to clear up the pension situation. With each employee soon to be able to get accurate information on his or her own plan, I hope each of you in my District who feels inequities or uncertainties exist in the plans by which you are covered—in abuses, insufficient pay-offs, "portability" and your vested rights, will contact me so that I will be able to support intelligent legislation to correct current "loopholes" and other inadequacies.

Intermural Baseball

Slu Pitch Softball

Slu pitch softball for boys in grades 9 to 12 inclusive. Registration on Sunday, May 20, from 10:30 to 1:30 in old cafeteria. No fee is needed at the registration. If enough boys register, we will play during the months of July and August. Fathers will be needed as coaches.

Softball Tomorrow

Nassau's major calibre softball season will officially get under way on Friday evening, May 18, when the Empire County Astros, the 1969 National Amateur Softball Association "AA" Champions, will meet last year's "A" champs, the Levittown American Legion Post No. 1711 (formerly Vernhardts).

The two teams are part of the Nassau County Recreation Major Softball League which will play under the lights at Cantiague Park nightly except Tuesdays and Sundays at 8:15 p.m.

Pre-game ceremonies will begin at 7:45 p.m. with a home run hitting contest featuring the best hitters from the league and an Ancient Fife and Drum Corps exhibition performed by members of the Church of the Good Shepherd of Plainview with the Levittown American Legion Color Guard.

Nassau County Comptroller M. Halsted Christ will throw out the first ball.

Cantiague Park, operated by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks, is located off West John Street in Hicksville.

Caso Approves New Boiler Installation

County Executive Ralph G. Caso has approved plans prepared by the Department of Public Works for the installation of a new boiler in the main building of the William Cullen Bryant Preserve at Roslyn Harbor and demolition of an obsolete wooden building at the County Medical Center at Plainview.

The new boiler, estimated at $18,000 will replace existing old boilers in the main house of the former Childs Frick Estate (now called Bryant Preserve) which no longer function adequately. It will permit winter heating of the three-story Georgian mansion which the County plans to convert into an art museum.

Girls Softball

On Saturday, May 5th the St. Ignatius Teens Softball team played the Cure of Ars team from Merrick. The Cure of Ars team beat the St. Ignatius team by a score of 6 to 5 with the winning run coming in the last inning. It was a close and well played game. The Cure of Ars center fielder made some outstanding catches of hits made by Debbie Philox.

St. Ignatius Red 1's Win 17-2

The St. Ignatius Red 1's played a spunky band of ball players from St. Rose of Massapequa and won 17-2. The score being no indication of how tight a ball game this was. Going into the last of the fifth inning, St. Rose was leading 2-1 by virtue of picking runs up in the 4th and 5th inning. The rally in the fifth caused St. Ignatius to remove its starting pitcher, Jim Pakaluk. The Red 1's managed to pick up two runs in the last of the 5th on an infield single by R. Muller and a one-out homerun deep over the left fielder's head by K. Lorenson, the Red 1's catcher, making the score 3-2. With Frank Principe in relief of J. Pakaluk, St. Rose had seen the last of their scoring chances. In the last of the sixth, a combination of wildness by the St. Rose pitcher and fine heads up ballplaying by St. Ignatius, caused St. Rose to completely fall apart. In this inning the Red 1's tallied 14 runs to put the game far out of reach.

giants, are fighting it out for top honors - both have big bats and topnotch pitching. This week they play each other, so watch out.

LINB 21, Sizzler 0 - An 11 hit team effort helped LINB get its third victory. Winning pitchers Mike Humphreys and Steve Pisani received plenty of help from active bats. S. Pisani hit a three-run homer and a solo blast by D. Barcavage added another run. J. Jablonski went 2-2 (two triples) while other big men were R. Clark and A. Polange. Sizzler came up with a few dandy fielding plays this game. M. Boyce made a circus catch of a long fly ball in the second inning which was equaled by a possible hit stolen by J. Saporito by grabbing a tough fly.

Gertz 17, VFW 0 - Aspectacular game was pitched by G. Stry. Going the distance, he allowed only one man to reach base on a walk, his only mistake in a near-perfect, no-hit ball game. This is one of the great pitching performances of the past few years in Little League. Providing the runs was a gallery of Gertz hitters: P. Virga was 3-5, and hits were supplied by seven other hot hitters. To name a few - T. Smith, G. Stry, J. Eaton and M. Tucker.

LINB 17, Sizzler 4 - LINB opened up a vault of hits (15) in another team victory. D. Barcavage again hit a homerun plus two triples while going 3 for 5 and collecting 6 big RBIs. J. Jablonski hit four straight singles, while A. Polange went 3-3. Other big bats were wielded by S. Pisani - 3 hits, and M. Humphreys - 2 hits. S. Pisani was the winning pitcher, going 4 innings and only allowing 2 hits, while fanning seven. A save was earned by M. Humphreys, who pitched 2 innings, both hitless and scoreless. Two Sizzler men really sizzled in this game. Steve Cosentino came to bat in the 3rd inning, and the crowd gasped as he knocked out a long homerun. And, as if this wasn't enough, K. Hammervic, stepped up to the plate and hit a tape measure, back-to-back homer. Quite a performance! S. Cosentino ended up with 2 RBIs.

"AA League"

By Bob Cassagne

After two weeks of action in "AA" League, L.I. COLLISION reigns as the only undefeated team. They played two games against FIRESTONE, winning both by a wide margin. The first game went five innings and saw Steve Playne and Tom McCann strike out all but one FIRESTONE batter. The big hitters for L.I. COLLISION were Bob Somer, Eugene Madine and Charley Virga. This game had a final score of 23-0.

FIRESTONE managed to pick up six runs in game two but that couldn't match the 23 COLLISION runs in this game. Steve Playne pitched three innings of relief and struck out seven batters. Steve also hit for the cycle, something rarely seen in LITTLE LEAGUE ball. Steve's teammates, Joe Maggio, Timmy Murray, Eugene Madine, Bob Somer, and Tom McCann all had hits and did a fine job in the field.

Other action this week saw the DODGE CHARGERS take two games from the PANCAKE HOUSE. The DODGE boys flattened the PANCAKE HOUSE in the first game by the score of 6-4 behind the terrific pitching of team captain Mark Sadowski.

John F. Kennedy High School News

Three students from the John F. Kennedy High School in Plainview have recently been named award winners in the annual contest sponsored by the American Assn. of Teachers of German. Sophomore Cindy Tobin scored in the 98th percentile in German Level 3 and was named the first runner-up in the travel study award. Sophomore Evelyn Kramer and junior Brenda Lederman were recommended for local awards.

These students competed among 310 Nassau-Suffolk high school students and approximately 12,000 students throughout the United States. Mrs. Ellen Sacerdoti is the teacher of these students.

Hicksville International Little League Game Reports and Standings

By EILEEN DONOHUE

In spite of occasionally bad weather, the second week of the 1973 season saw all divisions off and running towards their first half championships. This year, over 225 boys are playing on 16 teams. The Major Division has four squads, the Minor Division six, and the Farms has six teams too.

Major Division (weeks of April 29 and May 7)

	W	L	Pct
TROIANO EXPRESS	2	1	.667
CHAS WAGNER
POST 421	2	1	.667
PERKINS TRUCKING	1	2	.333
GOLDMAN BROS	1	2	.333

After an opening game loss, TROIANO EXPRESS put it all together, and has shown fine offensive power. The Legionnaires of Charles Wagner Post 421 American Legion have stayed close to TROIANO by winning some close contests. On May 7 they edged GOLDMAN BROS in a see-saw five inning affair. Three runs in the bottom of the last inning provided the winning margin. PERKINS TRUCKING opened their season the right way by downing

CHARLES WAGNER POST Against TROIANO EXPRESS it was a different story, as the Truckers dropped a pair. GOLDMAN BROS suffered a similar fate, winning their inaugural against TROIANO then dropping two decisions to the Legionnaires. The Major Division plays on Monday and Thursday evenings at Lee Avenue School field. Come on down and enjoy the games.

Minor Division (weeks of April 29 and May 7)

	W	L	Pct
MARDER SHELL	2	0	1.000
FRANK'S ALIBI	2	0	1.000
METS	2	1	.667
HILLS SUPER-MARKETS	1	1	.500
PARAGON OIL	0	2	.000
HICKSVILLE PEN-NSAVER	0	3	.000

On Friday, May 4, the Minor Division got their season under way with three games at Lee Avenue School. HILLS SUPERMARKETS got by a determined HICKSVILLE PENNSAVER nine in a well played contest. Some fine defensive work by Larry Wilson at shortstop preserved HILLS two run lead and assured the 6-4 victory. MARDER SHELL and FRANK'S ALIBI, the teams that share the first place lead, played to a 6-6 tie in a contest that was halted due to failing light. Both squads looked good, and the tie will be played to a conclusion the next time these teams meet. The METS rolled over PARAGON OIL, by the score of 14-2. On May 8, MARDER SHELL continued their winning ways with a 6-5 decision over PARAGON OIL. Jimmy Mitchell turned in a fine performance on the mound and contributed a homer to the winning cause. Eddy Silverman and Greg Haas also provided offensive firepower for the winners. FRANK'S ALIBI beat out HILLS SUPERMARKETS in a run scoring contest that saw 24 runners cross the plate. After the dust had settled, the ALIBI had their first win 14-0. The METS clinched their second victory in as many games by downing the HICKSVILLE PENNSAVER nine by two runs 5-3. Friday, May 11, saw FRANK'S ALIBI maintain their unbeaten standing by defeating the PENNSAVER team 9-6. Bobby Laniar turned in a fine stint behind the plate in a losing cause. In the battle of the unbeaten, MARDER SHELL shocked the METS 9-0 behind the mound work of Eddy Silverman and the offensive efforts of Jimmy Mitchell. Mike Carrado showed class behind the plate for the winners, while Bob Baio turned in a fine catching job for the METS.

Farm Division

The Farms opened their regular season on Saturday, May 5, under sunny skies. SMITH'S PHARMACY had little trouble getting by SOUTH BROADWAY CARVEL while STEVE'S AMERICAN downed MISS CHOCOLATE 2-0. Jimmy Wandelt and Andy Podleski combined to hurl a one-hitter, and with Jim Hawkins provided the offensive punch to score both runs in the first inning. After that, the game settled down to a good contest, highlighted by some nifty defensive work by both teams. The green shirted ANCIENT ORDER OF HIBERIAN managed by Jim Ryan, shut out Art Garhardt's H&S AUTO SALVAGE squad 4-0. Carl Eifert and John Holm pitched for the winners, and Carl got things going by connecting on the first pitch of the game for a Home Run. The big inning for AOH came in the fourth when Eifert, Holm, Bobby Koenig and Steve Butto singled and three runs scored. Russ Smith stroked a triple for the losing cause. The six Farm Division teams are made up of our young, enthusiastic players. Why not come down to the Lee Avenue fields and enjoy their efforts. Farm games are played Wednesday evenings and Saturday afternoons.

WINGS OF EAGLES: Newly-inducted Eagle Scout John Ohrnberger of Hicksville proudly accepts a certificate of merit from Oyster Bay Town Councilman Howard T. Hogan, Jr. in recognition of his achievement as Scoutmaster David Minck looks on. John, a member of Troop No. 508, was honored at a ceremony held at Holy Trinity Church in Hicksville.

Latin Students Wash Eagle

Latin students of Hicksville Senior High School, led by their teacher, Samuel A. Goldberg, made their eighth annual pilgrimage to the Long Island Railroad Station to wash the three-ton granite eagle perched there Tuesday afternoon, at 3:00 o'clock, on the Ides of May (May 15).

The eagle was originally one of fourteen outside Pennsylvania Station in New York City before its conversion from a replica of an ancient Roman bath to the base of Madison Square Garden.

Brought to Hicksville in 1965 by the Long Island Railroad in response to the request of the High School Latin Club, it was dedicated Saturday, May 15, in ceremonies reported in Long Island and New York City newspapers and since the subject of articles in various periodicals. Featured were speeches by the presidents of the Railroad and the American Classical League, followed by a community sing in Latin accompanied by the High School Band in togas.

Consumer Frauds

"The price is too high, the product is a lemon, and the service is a joke." Too often that was an apt description of what we purchased and until the consumer rebellion started a few years ago there never seemed much that could be done about it. Today things are different, and one difference in Nassau County is the Consumer Affairs Bureau. They will be sending a speaker to the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library Thursday, May 24 at 8:00 P.M. He will give good advice on credit, utility "rip-offs," auto repair, appliance service contracts, unit pricing and other information the consumer needs to make sure he gets true value for what his hard earned dollar purchases.

who struck out 11 PANCAKE batters. Steve Weiss had the big hit for DODGE and Jimmy Flanagan made his first appearance in a game after a rough illness and did a fine job catching.

In game two, John Bradley pitched and batted the DODGE CHARGERS to a 4-3 win over the boys from the PANCAKE HOUSE. John pitched a one hitter striking out seven batters. He also batted in three runs with a bases loaded double. Jimmy Flanagan was on the front end of two double plays and Keith Erickson made a fine catch in right field. Lee Mohan played a great defensive game at short.

CYO Talent Finals

"C.Y.O. Talent Show. We are proud to say that once again St. Ignace was represented in the C.Y.O. Talent Show Finals. Karen Schmidt, our lovely Dancer in the Open Division, performed at the Finals and received a Plaque for Tops in Dancing at the Finals on Sunday, May 6th. Also at the Finals, a Plaque was presented to Little Linda Swidzinski for Tops in Dancing in the Bantom Division. Congratulations to both Karen and Linda, our oldest and youngest entries in our Parish Talent Show," said a spokesman for the group.

PTA General Meeting May 24

Financing a college education will be the subject of the Hicksville Senior High School PTA General Meeting on Thursday, May 24th, at 8:15 P.M. in the Little Theater at the High School on Division Avenue.

Dr. Edward Yaw, Director of University Admissions and Student Aid at Adelphi university, will speak about application procedures, Federal, state and college scholarships, and the College Scholarship Services.

Mr. Robert French, Chairman of Hicksville Senior High Guidance Department, will speak on the sources of student aid, financing college in New York State, and College Scholarship Services.

If you have a child that is planning to attend college now or in the future, this will be a most informative program for both parents and students. Whether or not you belong to PTA, you belong at this meeting on Thursday, May 24th at 8:15 P.M. in the Little Theater.

Free Tap Dancing Instruction

Ruth, Bunker, Broadway musical comedy dancer, will offer free instructions in tap dancing at Christopher Morley Park on Friday, May 18. Nassau residents are invited to attend the session, which will begin at 1 p.m.

Participants are instructed to wear comfortable clothes and regular street shoes with leather soles.

Christopher Morley Park, operated by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks, is located on Seawingtown Road just north of the Long Island Expressway in Roslyn-North Hills.

Camping Techniques

Demonstrations of camping equipment and techniques will take place at both Wantagh Park in Wantagh and Bay Park in East Rockaway on Saturday, May 19, and Sunday, May 20.

At each site, there will be groups of families camping for the weekend who will be glad to answer visitors' questions.

At Bay Park, Boy Scouts from District 12 will also be holding their Camporee, which will include contests in scouting and camping skills.

A camping specialist from the New York State Department of Commerce will be on hand at Wantagh Park to discuss camping styles and show films of this popular leisure time activity.

Bay Park is located at the foot of First Avenue in East Rockaway and Wantagh Park is situated south of Merrick Road and west of Wantagh State Parkway. Both major recreational areas are operated by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks.

3-Day Fete Marks Hicksville's 325th Anniversary

BY RICHARD EVERS

Familiar to thousands of Hicksville students is this mural of the Robert Williams Indian Land Purchase from Chief Pugnipan of the Matinecock hanging in the Junior High School Auditorium. The painting is one of five colorful depictions of historical events and local traditions painted by L.I. artist Joseph Physioc in 1936 for the W.P.A. Artists Project. (Photo by Edward Bady)

Title Page Of Ancient Book
This is a reproduction of the title page of the 227-year-old Williams Plantation Record Book which is being publicly displayed at the Hicksville Public Library during the historical celebration, May 18-20. Record was made when land Robert Williams bought from Indians in 1648 was divided nearly 100 years later according to measure.

Hicksville brings home its historic documents this weekend; May 18-20, in a gala community-wide "325th Birthday" Celebration. Back on display at the Hicksville Public Library with an honor guard of Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts will be the Robert Williams Plantation Book of 1746 and the historic map of the Land Division of 1746 which have reposed securely in the reserved documents section of the Nassau County Historical Museum since 1948. It was in that year that Jesse Merril, Nassau's legendary County Historian and men and women of Hicksville such as the late editor Fred Noeth and teacher Gertrude Wetterauer, who were proud of the community's roots in early Colonial history, made the documents the focal point of a great 300th Anniversary, or Tercentennial Celebration, of the Williams Purchase.

Community Pride Still Strong
This one-time farm village of the plains and the center for over forty years of Nassau's potato supremacy has grown from about 6,000 people to over 50,000 in twenty-five years. Nevertheless, there is still community pride among the old timers and many newer residents who want to acknowledge and appreciate Hicksville's ties with explorer-land developer, Robert Williams, and such outstanding Jericho neighbors and benefactors as Elias Hicks and Valentine Hicks, who brought the railroad through the present Hicksville area. There is community pride also in the memory of Sachem Pugnipan of the Matinecock tribe, as generous a redman as any in the nation's history.

It is Pugnipan's land deal with Robert Williams that the community celebrates this weekend, a real estate transaction evoking memories of the storied Dutch purchase of Manhattan for $24, worth of trade baubles. Williams "bought" 5,000 acres, or nine square miles, of plains land and hills in May, 1648, standing under the great "white oak" with Pugnipan, in the Indians' land mark, Cantigue Woods. The old records indicate Williams exchanged an unspecified quantity of English trade cloth-an item of no mean value to the primitive Long Island Indian craftsmen, but scarcely commensurate with the value of Hicksville, portions of Jericho, Woodbury, Plainview and Bethpage which developed from Williams original "plantation."

Program Sponsors
The community programs recalling this early Long Island Indian land purchase have been prompted by the policy of the Town of Oyster Bay American Revolution Bicentennial Commission of fostering historic celebrations in all of the town's communities, marking significant historic anniversaries in preparation for the grand commemorations of the years of the Revolutionary Bicentennial, 1775-1783. Local groups needed no prompting to jump at the chance to co-sponsor the 325th Williams Purchase Anniversary. This weekend will see the patriotic fruition of over ten weeks' planning as Hicksville runs the gamut of pageant and festival. All sorts of groups and all types of programs are scheduled.

Oak Planting
The three day program will begin fittingly in the early hours of Friday, May 18, when members of the American Legion will lead youths in placing the community's array of national colors along Broadway, Hicksville. This will be followed at 12:30 by the symbolic planting of the "Pugnipan White oak" by horticultural students of the B.O.C.E.S. program. The planting will take place in Nassau County's Cantigue Park, not far from the original Indian land purchase site, and will remind the public of the great "white oak" of Williams' original land deed, under which the historic 1648 land deal was transacted. Once common on Long Island, the white oak is scarce today; the ceremony tree was obtained from New Hampshire by Dorothy H. McGee, Celebration Acting Chairman and leader of the Town's American Revolution Bicentennial Commission.

Historic Records at Library
At three p.m., the Hicksville Public Library will be the scene of the formal start of the commemoration when Town Councilman Warren Doolittle will unveil a display of one of Long Island's treasured documents, the original 1746 Robert Williams Plantation Book. The book contains a true copy of the Indian land deed and a map drawn up at the time Williams lands were formally measured and divided among his heirs and others.

Older Residents Invited
On hand to glimpse the old document and to enjoy a fine display of memorabilia which have been gathered by Kenneth Barnes, librarian, and his staff, will be long time residents and friends of the Library. Among the friends and older residents invited are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chumsky, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brengel, Mr. Fred Turner, Mrs. Huettner, Mr. Daniel Sutter, Mr. Reinacher, and Mrs. Sheila Noeth.

Scouts Honor Guard
An honor guard of Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and Campfire Girls will rotate attendance at the display of the Robert Williams' Purchase Book and map during Friday evening and all day Saturday. Last seen on display in Hicksville, twenty-five years ago, during the great 1948 Tercentennial, the precious documents will be on display through the courtesy of Edward Smits, Director of the Nassau County Historical Museum.

Saturday, May 19
Saturday will just have to dawn bright and clear for Hicksville's festival observers, for much of the program of events involves the great out-of-doors. Greeting the morning's rising sun will be the stirring array of community flags gracing the curbs of Broadway, after being placed by young patriots of the Girl Scouts.

Cantigue Invitational Race
At 9:00 school runners from the High School and Junior High School will test their endurance and speed in a Cantigue Invitational Run. Commencing at the Mid-Island Plaza, the distance runners will jog up Nevada Street under police escort, heading for Cantigue Park. The race will be west on Nevada, around on Kuhl, through Cantigue Park and out the park's west entrance to Cantigue Rock Road. The final stretch will be south along Cantigue Rock Road to the Cantigue Rock and site of the Williams Indian Land Purchase. The boys will be competing for track medals and run in two divisions. High school barriers will begin their three mile run fifteen minutes before the junior high runners.

Williams Purchase Reenacted
At 10:30, Scouts and pack leaders from unit 158 will reenact the historic Williams Purchase at the approximate site where it occurred. Williams' land deed makes specific reference to the "pointe of trees called by the Indians Ciscascate or Cantig". The members of this Hicksville cub pack are Indian lore and regalia enthusiasts, making their own outfits to a great extent. Moving pictures will be made of this mock ceremony, and the public are invited to witness the reenactment.

Scouts "Pacing The Bounds"
Noontime, on Saturday, will see over thirty-five Scout troops and packs "pacing the bounds" of the original Williams Purchase area as Hicksville's Boy Scouts relive the Colonial custom of walking the boundaries of a tract of land. Under the dynamic leadership of Jack Landress, Boy Scout Commissioner for the Great Bear Council and Dean of Merit Badge Counselors, Assisted by Steve Didier, hundreds of scouts will hike for an hour the portion of the near-14 mile plantation periphery assigned to their troop or pack. Residents and police may wonder at the heavy scout traffic through residential streets Saturday, but may rest easy. It will all be in a good cause, honoring the community's first European explorer, Robert Williams, and his Matinecock friend, Sachem Pugnipan, who paced off this village's borders long ago.

Scouts at Gregory Museum
Saturday afternoon's programs will have two themes: "open house" for the Boy Scouts and Yorker Clubs at the Gregory Museum and the Hicksville Fire House and a program of folk music reflecting the ethnic origins of many groups of people who settled and developed Hicksville and Jericho. From 1-4 P.M., as each pack or troop finishes "pacing the bounds" of its portion of the original Williams Plantation area, the Scouts and their troop leaders have been invited to the Gregory Museum. Light refreshment will quench their hiker's thirsts, and they will be given free tours of the museum's outstanding collection of rocks, fossils, minerals and butterflies. Of special interest at

INVITATION TO RELIVE THE PAST

Dear Town Resident:

Oyster Bay is a Town steeped in a unique heritage. With our nation in the midst of celebrating its Bicentennial Anniversary, the Town of Oyster Bay and its American Revolution Bicentennial Commission has been sponsoring events to evoke public interest in our history. We are now actively involved in the three day celebration of the Robert Williams 1648 Purchase from the Indians of the area now known as Hicksville.

Together with several community groups, Hicksville Chamber of Commerce, Hicksville Community Council and Gregory Museum, Inc. - the Bicentennial Commission has developed a program to note the historical importance of this acquisition of the Town's central lands.

Come join us in the commemoration of the pioneering spirit of our predecessors, the 325th birthday celebration of the community of Hicksville and the anniversary of the Robert Williams Purchase.

Sincerely,
John W. Burke
Supervisor

the old jail's historic room will be a recently prepared exhibit of fine photographs of Hicksville and Jericho sites. The exhibit was photographed by Edward Bady and prepared as a display to honor the 325th Anniversary of the Robert Williams Indian Land Purchase by museum historian Richard Evers.

Folk Music Program

The porch and driveway of the Old Heitz Place Courthouse, the ne home of the Gregory Museum, will resound and ring with the thump of Algonquin drums and the gay melodies of old Europe, during the afternoon. Among the array of local and intercommunity talent coming together at the Museum to help celebrate Hicksville's 325th Birthday are such groups as: the Cubs of Pack 158 in Indian outfits and regalia, under the leadership of William Allgeier, Cubmaster, and Chairman, Joseph Doyle; Karen and Susan Shapiro to play 17th century English music; Lorraine Seger recalling the German-Americans with her accordion; Irish-American youths from Hicksville's Ancient Order of Hibernians to evoke memories of Gaelic settlers in early Hicksville; mandolin and guitar players from the Galeo Galiei Lodge of the Order of the Sons of Italy; Ukrainian dancers from St. Vladimirs's Catholic Church in Hempstead, in costume; the Polish Alliance folk musicians to reflect Slavic forebearers and exciting Israeli folk songs by Jewish young people under Sharon Greenwald's direction to close the ethnic program.

Open House at Fire House

Also featured in Saturday afternoon's programs will be an Open House at the Hicksville Fire House in honor of Robert Williams and the community's historic beginnings. Fire Chief Louis Metiz and the company's stationed at the main Fire house on East Marie St. will play host to the Boy Scouts, as well as to the general public. Fire fighting equipment will be on display and there will be some demonstration of apparatus comprising the community's excellent volunteer fighting service. Fire Companies no. 1, 3, 4, 7 and 8 and the rescue squad will be represented.

Church and Temple Services

On both Saturday and Sunday Hicksville religious groups have been invited to hold services of worship and thanksgiving noting the blessings and bounty which God has bestowed upon the community over the years since Williams Purchase in 1648 and the coming of the railroad and real settlement in the 1830's. Mrs. Evelyn Bolto, Secretary to the Hicksville Ecumenical Council has contacted all churches and temples on behalf of the celebration committee.

Sunday's Program

The climax of the 325th Birthday at 2 p.m. festival of Hicksville and Jericho will take place in ceremonies at the Trinity Lutheran School Auditorium on Sunday, May 20th. Hundreds of village residents will be on hand to hear Town Supervisor John W. Burke as "acting mayor of Hicksville" read Oyster Bay Town's Proclamation declaring May 20 "Robert Williams Day" in Hicksville and deliver the chief address.

One in a series of public-service messages sponsored by the Long Island Moving & Storage Association

ONE OUT OF EVERY FIVE Long Island families will move this year. And two-thirds of these families will move during the summer months when the children are out of school.

■ If you keep these few helpful hints in mind, your move can be part of a new and memorable learning adventure.

Where is my cast-iron, gold-flecked elephant foot Umbrella stand?

Whether you're moving three miles or 3,000 miles makes little difference. The same care and diligence must be taken in handling and packing your prized possessions. How you "make your move" — from familiar surroundings to a new environment — is up to you.

1st Be sure you are dealing with a reputable, reliable company. Check all references carefully. Ask your Better Business Bureau about the consumer experience record of the company you wish to entrust with the moving of your valuables.

2nd Be sure to reserve your moving dates well in advance. If you're thinking of moving in the near future, call your Mover as soon as possible. A great deal of paperwork must be properly filed with various regulatory agencies to assure the success of your move.

3rd Be sure you understand that the cost estimate of your move is just that — a guide or "guess-timate" of what the total weight of your shipment will be. Local moves to nearby communities are generally charged for on an hourly basis. Long distance rates are based on the actual weight of your shipment, the distance involved and any additional special services performed such as packing and storage.

4th Be sure to tell your Mover everything you intend to move. Be sure your estimate is realistic; be sure to show the estimate to all family members. Every room, closet, attic, cellar, or garage so he can accurately gauge your requirements. Each long distance mover must file with the Interstate Commerce Commission a tariff showing the rates and charges for all its services.

5th For a long distance move, be sure you understand and agree upon the reasonable period of time within which pickup, delivery and the entire move will be accomplished. Your local moving agent will always make every effort to meet your deadline. In some cases, particularly during peak summer months, when the number of customer requests exceed the availability of van lines equipment, your moving dates may have to be adjusted.

6th Be sure the description and accurate condition of each item is entered on the inventory. A sofa that has given service to a family for eight years cannot possibly be in "mint" condition. Items that are marred and gouged should be so indicated. New and treasured articles will be appropriately protected.

7th Be sure you receive from your mover upon delivery a correct Bill of Lading — complete with all weights, rates and charges. This is your official receipt. This is what you will be expected to pay in cash or certified check for your shipment.

8th Be sure you are adequately protected against loss or damage. Your goods will be partially protected for 30 to 60 cents per pound per article — at no extra cost. If you wish to be paid full value for any lost or damaged items, you will be charged for this added, increased protection. On local moves, dishes and breakables must be packed by your mover in order to be covered. Please discuss your protection requirements with your mover.

9th Be sure to carefully inspect all your possessions upon their arrival. When you sign the delivery receipt, you accept and acknowledge that your possessions are in apparent good condition — except as you indicate and note in writing on the delivery receipt.

10th Be patient and understanding with your mover. Remember, he's trying to coordinate all the many details — here and there — to make sure your move goes smoothly for you. IT'S YOUR MOVE — BUT IT'S OUR REPUTATION.

IT WAS 1948 but the scene was something out of 1648 when Hicksville celebrated its 300th birthday of founding with a community-wide eight-day program of activities. The committee in charge set the pace by dressing in colonial costumes for the opening event, the proclamation read by Don Smadlak on horseback as town crier, at the Hicksville Courthouse. Committee chairmen in costume were, from center to right, Bernard Braun, Edna Kuhne Sutton, Mary Haughey, General Chairman Gertrude Wetterauer, Sarah Huettner and Fred J. Noeth.

Sigfried Widder President of the Hicksville Community Council, master-of-ceremonies for the day, will be a stirring procession of flags of many Hicksville community organizations into the auditorium.

George Lang of Levittown, a former Hicksville student, disabled army veteran and holder of the Medal of Honor for heroism in Vietnam will lead the audience in the Pledge of Allegiance. The Reverend Father Frederick Harrer, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church, the oldest Roman Catholic Church in the village, will give the invocation. Rabbi Eli D. Skaist of Congregation Shaarei Zedek, Hicksville's oldest Jewish temple will render the benediction.

Greens and other Features
Pastor Edward H. Stammel of Trinity Lutheran Church, Hicksville's oldest Protestant Congregation and host for the day's program will welcome the audience. Speaking on behalf of the Town of Oyster Bay American Revolution Bicentennial Commission will be Charles W. Kopf, a member of the Commission.

Among the highlights of the program to follow will be musical selections by the Police Boys Club Band, the wonderful voices of the Singing Boys of Long Island under the direction of Gerald Barker and a closing program of 'pageantry in brass' performed by the girls of the crack St. Ignatius Girls Cade Corps under the direction and leadership of Thomas Costa and Mr. Wallace Jericho's Robert Williams Elementary School pupils will honor their namesake and community founder with a dramatic reenactment of the Williams Indian Land Purchase of 1648. This brief pageant prepared by students from the first to sixth grades under the direction of Mrs. Andrea Wallman of the Jericho faculty, will be followed by a short program of historical slides from the well-known Gregory Museum collection, narrated by the museum's historian and coordinator of the Robert Williams 1973 Commemoration, Richard E. Evers.

School Contest Awards
Master of Ceremonies, Sig Widder, will also lead in the presentation of awards to winners of the Town of Oyster Bay American Revolution Bicentennial Photography Contest and to the winners of the Robert Williams Poster and Essay Contests held in the schools of Hicksville. These contests, involving hundreds of Hicksville public and parochial students.

When the Robert Williams Book is packed up next week for return to its privileged status at the County Museum, Hicksville and Jericho residents will rest content, secure in the knowledge that the historical traditions of their villages have been restored to prominence once again, and revitalized by the loving attention of a current generation.

The 300th Anniversary Celebration Held In 1948

300TH ANNIVERSARY of Hicksville's Founding was celebrated in 1948 with an eight-day program which began at the historic Cantiague Woods and Rock when Boy and Girl Scouts participated in a colonial practice of "packing the bounds". They set out to place stakes and pennants along the boundaries of the 9-acre tract of land bought on May 20, 1648 by Robert Williams, then of Hempstead, from the local Indians. The Cantiague Woods is, according to historians, the place where the land transaction took place.

Empire State College Lecture At Library

Many well-read but non-college educated people were thrilled when New York State announced a program giving college credit to people based on what they had learned in their life experience. Dean Valerie Stearn from Empire State College will speak about this program Tuesday, May 22 at 8:00 P.M. at the Plainview Old Bethpage Public Library. She will explain the program, how to join and answer any of your questions on how it can be made to work for you.

Consumer Frauds Clinic At Library

"Consumer Frauds - What You Can Do About Them" will be the topic under discussion at the special Mother's Program at the Plainview Old Bethpage Public Library Friday, May 18 at 10:00 A.M. and 11:00 A.M. The Nassau County Consumer Affairs Bureau's Speakers Bureau, Anthony Caesar and Mr. Frank Brown, will discuss the topic, answer questions, and distribute helpful pamphlets. All Plainview Old Bethpage residents are cordially invited.

Drawing Lecture At Library

The hardest thing to draw is the human face capturing the complexities of character, emotion and personality in correct proportion. On Thursday, May 31 at 8:00 P.M. the well-known artist Lindsay J. Stein will make a return visit to the Plainview Old Bethpage Public Library to give the lecture demonstration on "How to draw a face". Would-be artists bring your talents - the library will provide pads and pencils.

Mandolin Concert At Library

A little bit of old world charm will glow in Plainview Sunday, June 3 at 3:00 P.M. when the Long Island Mandolin Orchestra presents a concert of Middle-European music, at the Plainview Old Bethpage Public Library. The group features mandolins, mandoles, guitars, and several talented vocalists. Tickets will be available to school district No. 4 residents one week in advance. Non-ticket holders will be seated just before the program as space permits.

To Be Ordained Priest May 26

The Rev. John C. Meszaros, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius J. Meszaros of 8 Salem Road, Hicksville, will be ordained to the priesthood on Saturday, May 26 at 11 a.m. in St. Agnes Cathedral, Rockville Centre, by Bishop Walter P. Kellenberg.

Father Meszaros was educated at Fork Lane School, Hicksville Junior High School, St. Plus X Preparatory Seminary, Uniondale, Cathedral College, Douglaston, and Immaculate Conception Seminary, Huntington.

He will celebrate his first Mass in Holy Family Church, Hicksville, on Sunday, May 27, at 2 p.m.

MR. PAUL MARKS of the Hicksville Junior High Social Studies Department. Mr. Richard Gould, Special Education teacher at the Junior High, and Christopher Hueppi, Christopher is one of the special education students who has been assisting the Junior High faculty with the production of graphic materials.

Plan your first
now.

You're young. You have a promising future. You'll probably earn more than $600,000 between now and retirement... perhaps a million or more. But right now money can be a problem. And financial security seems remote.

Metropolitan's "Century 21" policy gives you the answer. For example, at age 25 you can set up an initial estate of $100,000 for $39.25 a month! At age 30, $42.25.

Part of the $100,000 is permanent insurance, most is term. At given times some of the term insurance ends and you can replace it with permanent insurance. This increases the premium during the years when you expect your earnings to increase. You can keep the full $100,000 protection and build more cash values for your family and your own future.

Opportunity Night

An Educational Opportunity Night was held at the Plainview-Old Bethpage High School on Wednesday, May 9, from 8:00 to 10:00 P.M.

The Guidance Departments of the John F. Kennedy High School and the Plainview-Old Bethpage High School invited "experts" representing local four-year and two-year colleges, technical and training schools, business schools, specialized schools, representatives of the Armed Services, banks, etc. Representatives of the following institutions were present: Adelphi University, Barabgon School of Modeling, Berkeley School, Bowers Savings Bank, Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute, C. W. Post Dowling College, Agricultural & Technical College at Farmingdale, Grace Downs Model School, Island Drafting School, Katharine Gibbs School, Laboratory Institute of Merchandising, Long Island Technical School, Mandi School for Medical & Dental Asst., Nassau Community College, Nassau County Professional Engineers, New York Institute of Technology, Pace College, St. John's University, School of Visual Arts, United States Air Force Academy and United States Army Reserve.

DR. JOHN CADDEN, Assistant Superintendent of Schools in the Hicksville School District, has been appointed Superintendent of Schools for the Carle Place Public Schools. Dr. Cadden will assume his duties on Monday, May 21, 1973.

REV. ROBERT A. KRONENBERG will be ordained to the Roman Catholic priesthood by The Most Rev. Raymond J. Gallagher, Bishop of Lafayette in Indiana, at the Church of the Nativity, Timonium, Maryland on May 19.

Formerly from Hicksville, Rev. Kronenberg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Kronenberg, 5309 Murdock Avenue, Sarasota, Fla. A graduate of Eastern Military Academy, Huntington, Rev. Kronenberg attended Cathedral College of the Immaculate Conception, Brooklyn, St. Mary College, St. Mary, Kentucky receiving an A.B. in 1969; and St. Mary Seminary and University, School of Theology, Baltimore, Md. He served as a Deacon at St. Joan of Arc, Kokomo, Indiana and at the Church of the Nativity, Timonium, Maryland.

After graduating from the U.S. Army Chaplain School, Ft. Hamilton, Brooklyn, Rev. Kronenberg was commissioned in the U.S. Army Reserves. He has also been active in police-community relations with the Baltimore City Police Department.

Rev. Kronenberg's first Mass will be a Concelebrated Mass of Thanksgiving at the Church of St. Paul the Apostle, Jericho, on May 27 at 12:30 P.M. The Very Rev. Daniel Poterton, pastor of St. Barnabas the Apostle, Baltimore, Md. will preach at the Mass.

A Mass of Thanksgiving will also be celebrated by Rev. Kronenberg at St. Joan of Arc, Kokomo, Indiana, at 12:30 P.M. on June 3.

HICKSVILLE, NEW YORK
NOTICE OF ANNUAL ELECTION AND VOTE ON APPROPRIATION OF FUNDS BY THE VOTERS OF UNION FREE SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 17 (HICKSVILLE) LOCATED IN THE TOWN OF OYSTER BAY, NASSAU COUNTY, NEW YORK
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to the qualified voters of the Hicksville School District, officially known as Union Free School District No. 17, Town of Oyster Bay, Nassau County, New York, that, pursuant to Section 2017 of the Education Law, the Annual Election of Members of the Board of Education of said Union Free School District No. 17 and the vote upon the appropriation of the necessary funds to meet the estimated expenditures for school purposes for the school year 1973-74 and upon such other propositions and or resolutions as may be lawfully presented, will be held on Wednesday, June 13, 1973 in the schoolhouses hereinafter designated located in the seven (7) election districts hereinafter respectively described, during the hours from 10 AM to 10 PM (prevailing time), and that on said date, in said School District will vote upon:

- (a) The election of one member to the Board of Education for a three-year term commencing July 1, 1973 to June 30, 1976, for the seat now occupied by Thomas L. Clark.
- (b) The election of one member to the Board of Education for a three-year term commencing July 1, 1973 to June 30, 1976, for the seat now occupied by Francis W. Zindulka.
- (c) The election of one member to the Board of Education for the balance of the unfinished term of George Pappas, commencing June 13, 1973 to June 30, 1974.

THE FOLLOWING PROPOSITIONS

1. Shall the school district budget for the school year 1973-74 adopted by the Board of Education be approved and a tax be levied on the taxable property of the district in the amount of such budget less sums received in the form of State and Federal Aid and from any other sources, all pursuant to the pertinent provisions of the Education Law.

BUDGET COPIES AVAILABLE
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a copy of the text of each and every resolution and proposition to be voted upon and of the detailed statement in writing of the estimated expenditures which will be required for the ensuing 1973-74 school year for school purposes, specifying the several purposes and the amount for each, which said resolution and propositions and statement will be voted upon on Wednesday, June 13, 1973 may be obtained by any taxpayer in the District at the office of the Principal in each schoolhouse in the District in which school is maintained, during the hours from 9 AM to 4 PM (prevailing time) on each day other than Saturday, Sunday or holidays during the seven (7) days preceding June 13, 1973.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mrs. Maniscalco, Mrs. Desposito and Children,

I have just arrived home after seeing your wonderful program and had to let you know how appreciative I am.

In the eighteen years since my oldest child started Kindergarten, you can imagine, I have received many Mother's Day tributes from school and child (all four of them).

Never have I been so honored, so pleased, so overwhelmed or so delighted as I was today.

You are all to be commended on your beautiful, inspired performance. Your love and happiness radiated to all, and truly did "make the sun shine." Thank you so much,

Sincerely,
 Marie Hendryck

Dear Editor,
 This is a typical letter of many others we have received about a Mother's Day Program the children in Mrs. Desposito's, and Mrs. Maniscalco's third grades at the Jamaica Avenue School, in Plainview prepared for their mothers.

We think it shows so much appreciation and sincerity that we would appreciate it if you published it.

Sincerely,
 Olga Desposito

FORK LANE PUPPETEERS: Monday, May 14th, the lights of the Fork Lane stage once again glowed. Mrs. Newborn's second grade puppeteers presented an assembly program for the primary grades in the school. The show, entitled "Wishing", captivated the young audience and teachers.

Kingston Scholarship Bill Passes Assembly

The State Assembly passed with only one dissenting vote a bill sponsored by Majority Leader John E. Kingston (R-Westbury) that would provide state regents scholarships for children of policemen, firemen and corrections officers who are killed in the line of duty.

The bill will provide the children with scholarships amounting to $1,000 a year for up to 4 years unless the student is enrolled in a program normally requiring 5 years. Kingston expressed optimism that a companion measure would soon pass the Senate and be signed into law shortly thereafter by Governor Rockefeller.

"A widow with children receives only one-half the former income that her spouse was earning," Kingston explained. "This form of state action would ease the financial burden for the families of the brave men who died protecting our citizens and at the same time ensure their children of a higher education," Kingston said.

William M. Gouse, Jr. Post No. 3211
By Lou Palladino

We had a very pleasant surprise at the last meeting Lou Klein was able to attend. Lou, in the many years he's in the post, very rarely missed a meeting. After his coronary attack, it was touch and go, and being the scrapper he is, he made it, and there he was, and would you believe it, after the meeting, he was back at the card table.

We've already had our elections, and the new officers are: Tom McCabe Cmdr, Frank Lott Sr. Vice, and Joe Normandy Jr. in charge of Vice. Is that worded wrong? Subke Frohenhofer is Quartermaster and Abe Feldman, Chaplin and George Walden is Post Advocate. Sounds like a pretty good slate. Good luck fellas. Big Jim Sobile had his share of headaches this year, with so many big things going on, and he personally thanked Joe Normandy for all the help he gave him. Jim did have a tremendous job on his hands, what, with the new building, and all the heartaches it involved, but he did it, by golly.

Memorial day Parade will kick off at 9:00 A.M. sharp. We are in the third division this year. This year, Al Kreigle had to take over for Lou Klein, for obvious reasons, but Al too is a very capable guy and has done fine work. Oh yes, after the parade we will have the dedication of our building. Everything is complete now, and I do mean everything—at long last. It was a long hard struggle, but now it's over. All we have to do now is pay for it.

The day before Memorial Day, Sunday, May 27th, Memorial services will be held at Plainview Cemetery at 9:00 A.M. sharp. Harry Wurth mentioned the services at Pinelawn the same day, reminding us, we have three past Cmdrs buried there. So if you can make both, it would be nice.

Installation dance to be held immediately following installation. So that should start at 9:00 P.M. the latest. The tickets

Men In Service

Navy Quartermaster Second Class Dennis C. Smith, husband of the former Miss Patricia Colling of Hicksville, was named Atlantic Fleet Submarine Force's Sailor of the Quarter here.

He is a 1967 graduate of Winnetka High, Hampton, N. H. He received the honor for outstanding performance of duty, initiative, leadership and example to his fellow Navy men.

Airman Eric L. Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Simmons of 37 Vassar Lane, HICKSVILLE, has been assigned to Holloman AFB, N.M., after completing Air Force basic training.

During his six weeks at the Air Training Command's Lackland AFB, Tex., he studied the Air Force mission, organization, and customs and received special instruction in human relations.

The airman has been assigned to a unit of the Tactical Air Command for further training and duty in the civil engineering structural pavement field.

Airman Simmons, a 1972 graduate of Hicksville High School, attended Farmingdale College.

Marino Bill A Boon To Dogowners

A bill sponsored by State Senator Ralph J. Marino (R-Syosset) answers the question many dogowners have asked for years. Why shouldn't dogowners receiving tickets for violations of local ordinances be permitted to plead guilty and pay their fines by mail? Parking violators can.

Marino's bill, passed in the Senate, says dog owners can. Under its provisions, they would no longer be required to make a court appearance unless they wish to plead not guilty.

The measure sailed through without debate because, according to Marino, "The issue is hardly debatable. The only value of the present law is its nuisance value. In many localities, as many as ten to twenty people a week must appear before a judge and individually go through time-consuming court procedures just to plead guilty and pay their fines. This bill will save everybody's time."

The measure has the blessing of the New York State Conference of Mayors. It now goes to the Assembly where it is being co-sponsored by Assemblyman Joseph Reilly (R-Glen Cove).

NASSAU COUNTY Probation Officer Vivian Sherman (left) and Probation Aides Mavis Wojciechowski (center) of Hicksville and Barbara Chmle are part of an experimental probation program which teams young para-professionals with experienced probation officers to bring new dimensions to probation services in Nassau County.

The probation aides assist the probation officers in providing job placement, tutoring, counseling and other services to offenders who have been placed on probation. Their main goal is to help offenders get back into the mainstream of community life and become useful citizens. The program also provides the aides with an opportunity to learn about career possibilities in the criminal justice and rehabilitation fields.

Republican Club

A cocktail party, honoring the Hicksville Committeemen was held by the Ernest F. Francke Republican Club at the Old Country Manor on Friday, May 4, 1973. Present at the party were Town Supervisor John Burke, Town Clerk Ann Ocker, Councilmen Doolittle, Saladino, Hogan and Diamond, County Comptroller Hal Christ, Judges Delin, Morrison, Ginsburg and Diamond, Assemblyman Levine, Town Leader James Picken and our Congressman Norman Lent. Also making an appearance was Congressman Angelo Roncallo, previous Town Leader. The party was a huge success due to the untiring efforts of Bob Jackson and John Hill, who were co-chairmen for the affair.

HCBE Selects Candidates

Hicksville Citizens for Better Education (HCBE) recently announced its candidates for the upcoming June Hicksville School Board Elections. Their election to the three available trustee seats will insure a return of fiscal responsibility and quality education to the Hicksville School System, according to a spokesman for the HCBE.

The candidates of HCBE are Mrs. Iris Wolfson residing at 31 Barry Drive; Mr. Thomas Nagle residing at 114 Blueberry Lane; and Dr. Joseph Madden residing at 25 Chestnut Street.

Mrs. Iris Wolfson is married and the mother of two children attending the Hicksville public schools. She has been a resident of the Hicksville community for 14 years and has earned a B.S. degree in Accounting from New York University, School of Commerce. Mrs. Wolfson presently works as a Registered Public Accountant and has been highly active in the Community Reform Temple as a former secretary and assistant treasurer. Mrs. Wolfson has served as a member of the citizens advisory budget committee for the Hicksville Board of Education and has held various positions in Burns Avenue, Junior and Senior High School PTA's.

Mr. Thomas Nagle is married with five children and a resident of Hicksville for 18 years. He holds a B.S. degree in marketing from Fordham University and City College and is personnel manager of a large retail food chain. From 1967-70, Mr. Nagle served as a member of the Hicksville Board of Education gaining much insight into its operations. In addition to his constant involvement in school board affairs, Mr. Nagle has been active in local Boy Scouts, and Girl Scouts. He is a former president of Holy Name Society of Holy Family Church and he held the position of first president of H.A.D., Inc. (Help-Aid-Direction).

Dr. Joseph Madden is married and the father of three children who attended and graduated from the Hicksville school system. Dr. Madden has attained a B.S. degree in Physical Education from Manhattan College; a M.A. degree from Columbia University; and a Doctorate of Education degree from New York University. He presently holds the position of Coordinator of Health, Physical Education and Recreation in the Roslyn Public School system. Dr. Madden has been extremely active in local Hicksville youth and community affairs. He is a founding member of Holy Family Church and former member of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club. He has played an active part in Hicksville Scouts, Little League, Police Boys Club, H.A.D., and various units of PTA.

In an attempt to raise needed campaign funds, HCBE will sponsor a cocktail party for its three candidates on Thursday night, May 31, from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. at the Old Country Manor. Tickets are available for a $3.50 donation per person. Persons attending this cocktail party will receive one free drink and hot hors d'oeuvres for their donation. Tickets are available from Mrs. Barbara Rosman, 931-1739 (after 5 p.m.) Mrs. Gerry McManus, 935-6651, or they may be purchased at the door.

Marino Insures Consumer Guarantees

A bill requiring that manufacturers honor warranties and guarantees on products sold by retailers who later go out of business won passage in the Senate. The measure, sponsored by Ralph J. Marino (R-Syoset), insures that consumers who buy products that later require servicing or replacement for defects are not turned away by manufacturers denying responsibility.

Said Marino, "Warranties and guarantees are often a decisive factor in retail purchases of products and equipment. Manufacturers denying their commitment on the basis that they do not deal directly with the public but only through dealers are avoiding their obligations. This bill would put an end to the practice permanently."
