Body Shop Approved

At its regular meeting on Tuesday this week, the Town Board of Oyster Bay approved by a vote of 5 to 1 the petition of AMX Collision, Inc. for a special permit use to construct and maintain an auto repair shop and to use rights of way to and from its property for a parcel in Hicksville on the west side of the Long Island Rail Road, 150 feet south of Bethpage Road.

There was no opposition at the public hearing on the petition, held January 30th of this year.

The company has been operating on Hempstead Turnpike in Levittown and wants to move to Hicksville, according to its president, Richard Sofia, of Hicksville. The parcel of land is in an industrial H zone, surrounded by industry.

The approval carries with it twelve restrictions, including no work performed and no vehicles or garbage stored in view outside the building; no bright electric lights; good exterior housekeeping; all painting inside the building and all fumes filtered from departing air; access allowed only to and from Bethpage Road; all work confined to one building on the premises, and that confined to the north half of the property.

Councilman Lewis J. Yevoli cast the dissenting vote on the petition.

Kiwanis Athletic Award

County Candidates Address Hicksville Democratic Club

In a fiery and at times emotional speech, William J. Deeley, Jr., candidate for County Executive stated that "I wear no one's collar, nor do I lust for the job" in addressing The Edward J. Giannelli Regular Democratic Club at their meeting on Thursday evening, May 17.

The meeting held at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 45 Heitz Place, Hicksville, was to introduce the Democratic candidates for county office to the club.

Other candidates who were introduced by Fred Hagemann, president of the club was District Court Judge Alfred F. Samenga.

Angelo Orazio, candidate for County Clerk also spoke.

Other County candidates who appeared briefly were Bill LaMarca, candidate for County Comptroller and Horace Z.

Kramer, candidate for Chairman, County Board of Assessors.

Among those in attendance who were also introduced by Mr. Hagemann were Herman Kanfer, candidate for Oyster Bay Town Council and Don Steinberg, Leader of the 12th A.D.

As in the past few years, the participating units will muster at the latest at 8:30, and the Fire House whistle will signal the start of the parade promptly at 9 A.M. The route will be from the North Sears parking field adjacent to Nevada Street; south along Broadway; west on Old Country Road, south on Newbridge past the reviewing stand between First and Second Street to the South High School playing field. The feature speaker for the memorial services will be Dennis Quinn, Department Commander of the Amvets.

MR. and MRS. A. ALBERT GLASS celebrate his 25th anniversary in the teaching profession at the Galaxy, Plainview. As an administrator, he is known for leading the largest junior high school under one roof in New York State.

Homeless Boys' Haven Proposed for Bethpage

by Janet Gosnell

The hearing room at the Oyster Bay Town Hall was packed to overflowing Tuesday evening for the public hearing of Mobilized Community Resources, Inc., a not-for-profit corporation, for a special permit to use a residence on Broadway in Bethpage as a home for "homeless adolescent males" aged 15 to 19, from six Nassau communities.

Such a crowd is usually a sign of virulent opposition, based on past experiences with petitions on office buildings, nursing homes and apartments in proximity with residential property.

Not so on Tuesday evening. Most of the good residents of Bethpage who were present came to applaud the petition and wish it all success, including merchants with businesses in the area and residents of nearby homes.

An exception was the Bethpage School Board, led by president Paul Slavin, who waited until near the end of the three-hour hearing to express skepticism of the "professionalism" of the petitioner and to charge misrepresentation at earlier meetings.

(Others who were not in favor of the petition were more questioning than negative, wondering what kind of boys these would be, what would be the effect on the neighborhood, on taxes and the schools, whether it was a stable or transient installation. An observer got the idea that some of these didn't think there were any homeless boys except those in trouble with the law, hooked on drugs, incorrigible in behavior, or mentally unfit.)

None of these categories of boys will be eligible for the group home, which has a capacity of six boys at a time and will be subsidized by a $49,000 grant from the Nassau County Youth Board for operating expenses. The $10,000 down payment on the residence would be made by the North Shore Unitarian Society, according to Herb Balin, attorney for the petitioner, and the $44,000 mortgage would be guaranteed by two anonymous benefactors.

The boys themselves would come from the increasing stockpile of needy youngsters which came daily to the attention of Mobilized Community Resources, Inc., a non-municipal Roslyn corporation, according to a spokesman, Susan Bender. The organization for the past year or so has engaged in an "emergency home" program for homeless boys, placing them with surrogate parents in actual homes. According to the Reverend Murray Blacker, of the First Presbyterian Church, Levittown, who has participated in the program with referrals, over 175 boys were helped last year.

Prior Screening
The boys in the home will undergo a prior screening and psychological work-up to ascertain their suitability for the group environment. The stay for each boy will be limited to six months, by which time, according to the petitioner, each should be strong enough to hold a job and be independent, or readjust to his own family life. Each will have spent at least two weeks in an "emergency home" for observation before entering the group home, which will have two sets of "house parents," one set for five days and a substitute set to give them two days off each week.

PACKED HEARING ROOM in Oyster Bay, usually a sign of dissent, was unusually one of majority approval at a public hearing Tuesday evening on the petition of Mobilized Community Resources, Inc., to use a residence on Broadway, Bethpage, as a home for not-in-trouble homeless boys. To be in residence six at a time for not more than six months each, boys to be served come from Levittown, Bethpage, Hicksville, Plainview, East Meadow and Syosset. Speaking is Jacob Ain, a director of MCR. The school board objected to the petition.

To date, boys served by Mobilized Community Resources, Inc., have come from Levittown, Bethpage, Hicksville, Plainview, East Meadow and Syosset, according to the petitioner. "We know there is a broader need but we can't pretend to have the capacity to help every homeless boy in the county," said Mr. Bender. It was admitted by the petitioner that the concept was a new one, with which her organization had no specific and direct prior experience.

Communications
Among communications received by the town were 14 letters in favor, and one in opposition. A highly favorable letter came from Eugene MacManus, president, and other officers of the Mid Island Educational Council, serving Hicksville, Bethpage and Plainview, which said in part:

"As this home will be preventive in its function, it will provide a much needed alternative for young boys who, while they have never been criminals or drug addicts, are in much need of counseling and direction as their lives are in limbo. This home will provide the boys with the support and guidance that will aid them in becoming reconciled with their families and in achieving a more productive life for themselves. Being preventive, the residence will help 20-24 boys per year avoid entrapment in a dependent, unmotivated existence and instead enable them to become responsible citizens in our community."

The letter was signed by Mr. MacManus, Richard Ryder, Pastor, Plainview Methodist Church; James E. Taylor, Pastor, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Bethpage; Andrew Jagger, Vice President, and Thomas Hartman, pastor, St. James R.C. Church; Scotard Treasurer of the Council is Rev. Roland Perez, of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, Hicksville, and Mrs. Peter Botto is secretary.

The fact that the residence is adjacent to the schoolyard of St. Martin of Tours Parochial School raised opposition from some parents. Mrs. Alalu, one of the opposition, made the statement "There's something mighty fishy here" and inquired about the boys' present or prior use of dope.

On the other hand, Mrs. Marilyn Schleicher, of 7 Kodak Drive, Woodbury, said that prior screening provided neighbors with fuller knowledge about these boys than one would have of any family with six children moving in next door. Leo Schottland, whose place of business is 100 yards from the residence, made an impassioned plea for approval of the petition. "At 18 years old I was in jail for vagrancy in California. At 23, in New York State, the same thing I had no place to go. Let's help these boys out."

Hicksville Citizens For Better Education

At a recent meeting of the Hicksville Citizens for a Better Education (HCBE), candidates Dr. Joseph Madden, Tom Nagle, and Iris Wolfson met to finalize their platform. They feel that a return to the "Three R's" is a top priority item.

The "Three R's" being:
Return to Reason
Return to Fiscal Soundness
Return to Education.

Their campaign will be based on Education, not Contention. Typical of past and present board members, the candidates wish to stress to the community that while good education is not necessarily expensive, poor education is not necessarily economical.

Administration must be held accountable to the School Board who in turn are accountable to the citizens of Hicksville.

They feel that the general public should be heard and the lines of communication strengthened. They also plan to constitute a Citizens Budget Advisory Committee and a School and Community Relations Committee.

The candidates pledge themselves to make School Board meetings once more an open forum where the will of the public can be heard.

The Madden, Nagle, Wolfson

Hicksville Citizens for Better Education's (HCBE) candidates finalize their platform for the upcoming June School Board

team will continue to seek out ways in which the taxpayer's burden, in the financing of education, may be lightened.

The meeting was well attended by a large group of campaign workers. The Committee will sponsor a cocktail party on Thursday, May 31, 1973, 8 p.m. to 11 p.m., at the Old Country Manor. Tickets are a $3.50 donation per person. For tickets, contact Barbara Rosman, 931-1778 or Gerry McManus, 935-6651. They may also be purchased at the door.

Guess Who's Coming To Dinner?

It'll take 400 pounds of assorted relishes, 2,500 melons, 14,000 dinner rolls, 300 pounds of butter, 4,200 pounds of filet mignon and 2,400 pounds of vegetables to feed the 5,000 people expected to attend the annual $125-a-plate dinner of the Nassau County Republican Committee.

The annual fund-raising affair is slated for Thursday, May 24th at 8 P.M. at the Nassau County Veterans Memorial Coliseum. Hon. George Bush, National Republican Party Chairman, will be the guest speaker at the affair which will honor County Executive Ralph G. Case, according to Assemblyman Joseph M. Margotta, Nassau GOP chairman.

The main course of the dinner will be washed down by 2,200 bottles of New York State Burgundy wine and 400 gallons of coffee. There will be 200 quarts of cream for use in the coffee.

In addition, dessert will consist of 350 pounds of petit fours, cake and 5,000 molded ice cream desserts.

The meal is being catered by Harry M. Stevens, caterers, who will use 30 cooks, 32 scullery helpers and six kitchen stewards to prepare the food. Service of the food will be supervised by four headwaiters and 10 assistant headwaiters, 25 captains and 325 waiters. There will also be two wine stewards and 17 bartenders.

It won't be any problem to wash the 46,000 pieces of dinnerware after the dinner as it is made of plastic and looks like expensive cut glass china. The dinner can take the dinnerware home in a plastic-like doggie shopping bag that will double as a placemat at each place setting, according to Gardiner McMullan, dinner chairman.

The plastic dinnerware was used at last year's dinner. "It was such a success then with the ladies that many of them took their place setting home and called GOP headquarters the following day to attempt to get additional settings."

McMullan cautioned that the 32,000 pieces of silverware to be used is not to be taken home.

In addition to the arrangements for the dinner, preparations for setting up the tables and dais for the dinner are to begin 72 hours before the 8

P.M. start of the dinner.

A total of 500 tables and a three-tier dais to hold 165 persons will be set up and 500 floral centerpieces will be placed on each table. The dais will also hold floral decorations.

Music by 40 musicians will be provided by Greg Raffa. The musicians will double as a dixie band and as strolling violinists.

The National Anthem will be sung by Alan Cole, of Carle Place, soloist at Radio City Music Hall.

In addition to George Bush, other scheduled speakers include: Charles D. Breitel, Associate Judge, Court of Appeals, U.S. Senators James L. Buckley and Jacob Javits, Perry B. Duryea, Jr., Speaker of the New York State Assembly, and Richard Rosenbaum, Chairman of the New York Republican State Committee.

Remember Me

Hello, remember me? Some people call me Old Glory, some call me the Stars and Stripes and the Star Spangled Banner. But, whatever they call me, I am your flag, the flag of the United States of America. . . . Something has been bothering me, so I thought that I might talk it over with you because it is about you and me.

I remember some time ago, people lined up on both sides of the street to watch the parades and naturally I was leading every parade, proudly waving in the breeze. Then your daddy saw me coming, he immediately removed his hat and placed it against his left shoulder so that his hand was directly over his heart? . . . remember?

And you, I remember you. Standing there as straight as a soldier. You didn't have a hat but you were giving the right salute. Remember little sister? Not to be outdone, she was saluting the same as you with her right hand over her heart . . . remember?

WHAT HAPPENED? I'm still the same old flag. Oh, I have a few more stars since you were a boy. A lot of more blood has been shed since those parades of long ago.

But now I don't feel as proud as I used to. When I come down your street, you just stand there with your hands in your pockets and I may get a small glance and then you look away. I see children running around shouting . . . they don't seem to know who I am. I saw one man take off his hat and then look around. He didn't see anybody else with theirs off so he quickly put his back on.

Is it a sin to be PATRIOTIC anymore? Have you forgotten what I stand for and where I've been? Anzio, Guadalcanal, Korea and Viet Nam. Take a look at the Memorial Honor Rolls sometime, of those who never came back to keep this republic free . . . one nation under God . . . When you salute me, you are saluting them.

Well, it won't be long until I'll be coming down your street again. So when you see me, stand straight, place your right hand over your heart . . . and I'll salute you, by waving back . . . and I'll know that

YOU REMEMBERED

Joint Effort Beautifies Community

What had been one of the ugliest sights in Hicksville is now an area of attractiveness and pride. The eyesore was a small piece of property located on the northwest corner of Broadway and Old Country Road, owned by the state and containing a traffic control box. When state officials declared that they had no facilities to do anything to beautify this property, a joint beautification project was organized by various community-minded organizations of Hicksville. The transformation of this eyesore into an attractive corner was carried out by Hicksville's Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions and the Chamber of Commerce with excellent cooperation from many other groups, agencies, and individuals.

John Peters, Nassau County Commissioner of Public Works, assigned Raymond Thomaier of the County Parks Department to design the landscaping. John Burke, Supervisor, Town of Oyster Bay, made several contributions, and the State Department of Transportation cooperated nicely.

On Saturday, May 5, 1973, various individuals worked on this eyesore to prepare the ground for planting the shrubbery the following Saturday. Under the capable direction of Hicksville Rotarian Ed Johnson, various members of the Hicksville Kiwanis and H.A.D. Inc. (Help-Aid-Direction) removed large rocks and broken pieces of concrete from this property. Participating in this preparation work were Kiwanians Vern Wagner, Bill Holwerth, Tony Fay, and John Manucc. Assisting these men were the following H.A.D. youth: John Blair, Pete Bianco, and Pete Portuese, Mr. and Mrs. Sieg Widder of the Hicksville Community Council provided a welcomed refreshment break with soda and cookies for these workers.

With the preparation work completed, planting of the shrubbery took place on Saturday, May 12, 1973. Participating in the planting were Kiwanians Dick Bolto, President of the club and his son, Hunter, Vice-President Tom Fay and his son, Stephen, Henry Brenzel, Vern Wagner, John Manier, and Walter Dunbar, Rotarians Ed Johnson and Bob Kunz. Assisting in the work were the following youth volunteers from H.S.D. Inc. and the Hicksville Youth Council: Tom Walsh, Frank Leotta, Reggie Galliard, Al Fasano, Rick Roberts, Al Bartlett and Hicksville Youth Council director Miss Carol Ann Carney. Mr. Joseph Bargiuk, a mason, donated several hours of his professional skills in making a cement platform for the bench already located near this property.

Each of the clubs participating in the project had pledged up to $200 but due to the generosity of suppliers and others, expenses were kept to a minimum. Bernstein's Blvd. Nursery, Center Moriches contributed the shrubbery which had a wholesale value of $500. Agway gave a substantial discount on purchases. J.J. White Construction Company donated the concrete. Parr and Hanson furnished equipment and together with Bolto Brothers Plumbing and Heating Company provided necessary trucks needed to transport material.

Mr. Harry Veltro who has a barber shop close to the site made watering facilities available.

On Thursday, May 17, 1973, the finishing touches on this joint community beautification project were completed when the Hicksville High School Ecology Club under the direction of their faculty advisor, Dr. Martin A. Cohen, put down sod around the shrubbery. The following youth participated in this final aspect of the project: Billy James, Perry Minck, Mike McGartan, Perry Goodman, Mike Cohen, David Dycart, Brian Murschhauser, Louis Bell, and Faye Cohen. The area will be maintained by youth.

Supervisor JOHN W. BURKE REPORTS

Last weekend, Hicksville celebrated the 325th anniversary of its founding in 1648, commemorating Robert Williams purchase of about nine square miles of plains and woodland in the heart of Long Island. What was once known as the Williams Plantation is today the flourishing, vibrant community of Hicksville and includes parts of surrounding Bethpage, Jericho, Plainview and Woodbury.

The 3-day celebration brought out the rich history and tradition of the Hicksville community. It was almost 100 years after the Williams Purchase that the next significant milestone was reached. In 1837, the Long Island Railroad was extended to Hicksville through the efforts of Valentine Hicks, scion of an illustrious family of early Long Island settlers.

The railroad opened up this landlocked area to settlement by predominantly German-American immigrants who established homes and businesses in the 1840's. For many years the community remained primarily agricultural with some small businesses and a little manufacturing. As late as 1948, the population stood at less than 10,000.

The next major milestone was reached with the explosive development that followed World War II. By 1950, the population had doubled and then more than doubled again in the next decade, approaching 50,000 by 1960. In one 2-year period alone, 1950-52, as many as 7,000 homes were built in Hicksville.

Hicksville epitomizes the rich heritage we all have in the Town of Oyster Bay, even though, for many of us, it is an adoptive one. I want to thank all of the organizations who worked so hard to make this celebration such a memorable event. I also would encourage more such celebrations in other communities, particularly in this period of the bicentennial of the American Revolution.

Senior Division

by Mike Pakaluk

League leading Agway suffered its first setback as other teams came back strong in a week of action ending with three teams tied for third at .500, only one game behind the division leaders. Among the contenders is World Fair Liquors who rallied back from two losses to win two in a row.

Worlds Fair Liquors 6, LINB 5. Walks were prevalent in this drawn out game, called after 5 1/2 innings. R. Barbone was the winning pitcher, while R. Eferri, M. Schneider, and J. Sherry played a key role in the victory. LINB had its stars too. R. Schairer went 2-2 and pitcher L. Lederer fanned 6 men. The big play occurred in the last inning when the tying run was thrown out at the plate, trying to score on B. Kohn's long fly ball to centerfield.

Agway 8, Maxwood 4. The powerhouse Agway team rolled over Maxwood with a great team effort. J. Holohan and M. Corrigan contributed runs, M. Azue was getting good wood on the ball, and M. Byrnes had the hot glove at shortstop. A. Viggiani and T. Hogan combined for a speedy baserunning attack. Maxwood had a tough time hitting pitcher M. O'Connor, but R. McGrath came through big 5-5 as J. Poggioni and D. Mezzapese both tried, but to no avail, for a victory.

Parr & Hanson 2, Gilson 2. Played in a tie, this game is now under protest. With two outs and bases loaded in the 5th inning, the first Gilson pitcher was put back on the mound after playing the field. A protest was called and the game was continued until called on account of darkness. If the protest is valid, the game will be forfeited by Gilson and Parr & Hanson will be awarded the win.

World's Fair Liquors 4, Agway 3. In one of the toughest, most exciting wins of the season, WFL upset previously undefeated Agway in a down-to-the-finish thriller. The score was tied 3-2 going into the seventh inning when H. Stryker rallied his team, putting Agway into a 3-2 lead. Then R. Barbone singled for WFL during their "last-dicks". T. Giordano walked and stole second after Barbone was thrown out at third, and he scored on a double knocked out by J. Price. With Price on second, S. Schneider hit a beautiful drive to left field, which knocked in Price, winning the game. WFL was supported by fine pitching the whole seven innings, and this undoubtedly was a factor in the win.

Gilson 8, LINB 0. R. Flanagan's fastballs were untouchable en route to this brilliant no-hit game. Gilson's defense helped a great deal, as they pointed up any balls which were likely to go for hits. R. Flanagan also did his share at the plate, rapping out a homerun, but it wasn't merely a one man effort as G. Schweitzer proved when he hit his three run homer. Kohn to Willis to Rapp, but it wasn't merely a one man effort as G. Schweitzer proved when he hit his three run homer. Kohn to Willis to Rapp was a great double play combination for LINB, and Rapp later teamed up with catcher Santos to peg a man attempting to tag up on a fly to shallow right.

Maxwood 21, Parr & Hanson 4. Both managers commented that this game seemed like batting practice as hits were knocked out in the dozens. Parr & Hanson fielders threw the ball away too often, but the potent Maxwood offense would have sacked up the runs anyway. G. Cassagne was outstanding, while other big Maxwood hitters were K. Branham 3-3, D. Hamilton 3-3 & 2 doubles, and J. Poggioni with a triple. All told, 17 big hits were collected during the fireworks. J. Hergen of Parr & Hanson showed spirit typical of his team when he came down in crutches to help coach the team.

AA League

By Bob Cassagne

Developments this week in "AA" LEAGUE indicate that LONG ISLAND COLLISION will be the team to beat. Thus far, they have played every team in the league and have not been beaten. Their victim for this past week, was DODGE CHARGERS. The CHARGERS WERE halted by a score of 9-7. Tom McAnn pitched a great game letting only one CHARGER to cross the plate. He was helped by his team mates Steve Hayes, who went three for four, Joe Maggio who lined a triple, and Charles Virga who had a perfect day at the plate. Bob Somer threw out two men stealing. The CHARGERS did have a few bright spots, including the double play pulled off by Frank Behr, Lee Mehan had two hits, and Jimmy Flanagan three, but this was not enough to hold off L.I. COLLISION. The standings show that these two teams have been the most powerful so far with L.I.

COLLISION leading the way.

The other game scheduled between the teams, had to be postponed because of bad weather.

Major League

By Mike Pakaluk

One of the major battles in the war for the pennant was waged last week. LINB and Gertz, both undefeated, battled it out in a two game series for the top spot. Here are the results of those games and of other action.

LINB 17, Gertz 4. Gertz walked away from this one stunned, as LINB jumped on them for 17 runs. Fourteen costly walks were allowed by Gertz pitchers during an RBI attack by LINB in a game where it should have been closer. A. Polange, S. Pisani and J. Jablonski, with a triple, all hit over in with big hits. Starting pitcher M. Humphreys needed some expert relief help by S. Pisani in wrapping up the game. Gertz only runs were scored on a tremendous grand slam homerun by D. Epstein.

Gertz 9, LINB 3. Showing the talent needed for the title, Gertz rebounded from their defeat and polished off LINB with three big run scoring innings. G. Stry was the winning pitcher in an effort backed up by big hits coming from the bats of J. Rapp 4-4, J. Eaton, M. Tucker and T. Smith. Helping out in the field was D. Garvey in an outstanding defensive game. LINB's normally productive offense, averaging 16 runs a game, was stopped by great pitching. S. Pisani was still phenomenal for LINB, striking out seven of nine batters he faced.

In other action, Sizzler 3, VFW 0. Power hitters K. Hammerick and S. Cosentino, for the second week in a row, hit back-to-back homeruns, knocking in Sizzler's only runs. This was supported by the super pitching of T. Amastason, who allowed no hits in the first four innings. Big bats were wielded by VFW men M. Babel, T. Severino, A. Harris and R. Pamplonio. R.

Reverend John Krahn Addresses Colleagues

At the recent Atlantic District Pastoral Conference of the Lutheran Church, The Reverend John Krahn of Trinity Lutheran Church, Hicksville preached at the Conference Worship Service. Speaking to his fellow clergymen, Pastor Krahn said that the three greatest words that he has ever heard were simply, "God loves you." "Jesus spoke these words in a most unusual way when He said, 'The very hairs on your heads are all counted.'" Pastor Krahn said "For God has a more detailed and intimate knowledge of us than we ourselves possess. We do not have so passionate an interest in ourselves as to have taken a count of the hairs on our heads."

Concluding the message he said, "When our last breath makes its way from our lungs to our lips what better words could come out of our mouths than the chorus of the children's song 'Yes, Jesus loves me; Yes, Jesus loves me; Yes, Jesus loves me, the Bible tells me so.'"

In the fall Pastor Krahn will again have an opportunity to address his colleagues but at this time at a joint Conference of Pastors and Teachers. He will lead a seminar on "The Child's Concept of Death." Pastor Krahn has published several articles on the topic.

Beautification Program

from H.A.D. and the Hicksville High School Ecology Club. Dr. Walter H. Dunbar, Beautification Chairman of Hicksville Kiwanis was chairman of the project. Mr. Edward Johnson, Hicksville Rotary, was co-chairman.

For all these youth and adults involved in this beautification project their efforts brought forth a very positive addition to the attractiveness of the Hicksville community. Hicksville can definitely use many more united projects in the future. Hopefully, the next beautification project to become a reality may be the west side of Broadway between Marie Street and Herzog Place.

On Monday, May 14, PERKINS TRUCKING got by the Legionnaires of CHARLES WAGNER POST 4 to 2. Howie Stein was the winning pitcher, and John Gennaro turned in a good performance behind the plate. The Stein-Gennaro battery also provided the margin of victory by hitting back to back doubles to score the go ahead run. In other Monday action TROIANO EXPRESS downed GOLDMAN BROS. On Thursday, the Trainers made it a two game sweep over CHARLES WAGNER POST in a close 9 to 8 ballgame. It was a nail biter down to the finish as Mike Stallone homered with a man on, in the top of the sixth, to tie the game at eight runs apiece. Mike's blast was a tape measure special, sailing 240 feet over the left field fence. In the bottom of the final frame, Howie Stein singled for the PERKINS TRUCKING team, and then stole second. John Gennaro, the other half of the Trainers Dynamic Duo, caught the Legion outfield playing deep and grounded sharply into center for a base hit. By the time a play could be made the winning run was across. In their second meeting of the week, TROIANO EXPRESS made it two straight over GOLDMAN BROS by 4 to 1. Dave Joyce and Richard Staubitz combined pitching talents for the winners. With three games remaining in the first half, TROIANO has a good chance of copping the honors and a playoff berth.

Prelude To Our Future

Hicksville celebrated the 325th Anniversary of its purchase in 1648 from the Matinecock Indians, this past weekend, with a three day tribute to the memory of Robert Williams and Chief Pugnapan. Several thousands adults and children took part in, or witnessed, the many activities ranging from the formal display of the historic Williams Planation Division Book of 1746 at the Public Library, through Saturday's Boy Scout "pacing of the bounds" and reception at the Gregory Museum and Fire House to the formal celebration of Robert Williams Day at the Trinity Lutheran School Auditorium. Over 650 people turned out, in spite of sudden heavy rain, to witness Sunday's program.

A very considerable part of Hicksville's residents are aware once more, or for the first time, of the proud historic traditions of their community. Hopefully, the pride in our community's beginnings and the great good will and cooperation fostered during the weeks of preparation of this notable anniversary program will be reflected in appreciation Hicksville's long history and in other civic minded community efforts.

PARAGON OIL. On Tuesday, May 15, the rains came and no Minor games were played. Friday was a different story as good weather prevailed, and all six Minor squads saw action. MARDER SHELL remained unbeaten by downing HILLS SUPERMARKETS 11 to 9. George Brenske made a fine defensive play in the fifth inning, when the bases loaded he belted the ball and threw home to Mike Corrado for a bang-bang put out. FRANKS ALIBI was toppled from the unbeaten ranks by the METS, who slipped ahead of them into second place. The HICKSVILLE PENNSYLVANIANS, coached by Abe Silberberg, notched their first win of the season with a 2 to 0 shutout over PARAGON OIL. Paul Yanopoulos and Scott Reynolds worked three innings each, with Paul getting six batters on strikeouts. The defensive play of the game was turned in by Frank Giesner who spearheaded a fading liner, on the foul line on left, with a running backhanded grab.

Washington Report

Congressman
NORMAN F. LENT
3rd District, New York

There's an old jingle that goes, "I never saw a vitamin, and I never hope to see one. But one thing I'm certain of, I'd rather C than B!" A lot of Americans won't be seeing or taking vitamins, at least not in today's dosages, if a new Food and Drug Administration order goes into effect. Congress is being asked by some 144 sponsors of a bill to head the FDA off at the vitamin counter.

The FDA says that vitamins are being sold in too large doses. It proposes that 150 percent of the minimum daily requirement be the maximum for over-the-counter sales, and that a doctor's prescription be required for any larger dosage. The FDA says people get all the vitamins they need and that a "diet of ordinary foods" supplies plenty of vitamins.

The FDA says vitamins are drugs. The food supplement industry has countered by claiming it will be destroyed if the FDA regulations are allowed to go into effect January 1, 1974.

Congress is getting considerable mail on this issue. At question is whether a person can choose to take vitamins which can now be purchased over the counter or whether he must go to a physician to have them prescribed to avoid taking 50 pills a day in small doses. Somewhere between the iron-clad ruling by the FDA that we are all nutritionally up to snuff and the claims by the manufacturers of food supplements, Congress may have to find a middle ground that will assure the public of adequate information about food supplements, provide protection against faddism and quackery, and set a precedent in defining vitamins. If Congress does not act, they will be regulated as drugs. If a bill now being pushed is passed, they will be labeled as food.

THE AIR FORCE WANTS TO JOIN YOUR DOG. To patrol large airfields around the world, the Air Force uses 1,500 specially-trained dogs. It wants 1,300 more German Shepherds this year, and will pay you $150 for yours if he is between one and three years old, weighs about 60 pounds and stands at least 28 inches at the shoulder. The dogs are trained to detect bombs, stillie vandals, and to sniff out marijuana and other contraband.

Yevoli Chairs Committee

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John W. Burke has announced that Councilman Lewis J. Yevoli has been selected to again serve as chairman of the standing board committee on Public Transportation.

Burke stated that Yevoli has also been asked to serve as a panel member on the Codes and Ordinances, Highway and Sanitation Committee.

The Supervisor indicated that Town Board members are assigned to various committees to coordinate research and gather knowledge in specific areas in order to assist the Board in its legislative process.

Congressman Angelo Roncallo Reports

The results of the questionnaire which we sent out last month are coming in and I thought I would share some of the preliminary results with you. These are by no means the final tabulations but they give a good indication of the way things are going.

The strongest reaction we found on the questionnaire was to the questions we asked on amnesty and the build-up of North Vietnam. People almost unanimously opposed amnesty or draft-dodgers, myself included. I do not feel that amnesty is appropriate for those who choose to leave when we needed them. No one likes to be sent away to war—and to imply that a double standard existed there exists now by granting these men amnesty is in my opinion a slap in the face to those who did serve.

On the matter of the build-up of North Vietnam, most who have answered have opposed our spending money to rebuild a country we held at war for so many horrible years. I agree—our economy is already sagging and I feel that at this point we must give priority to some of the domestic projects we put off during the war and to return a sense of priority to federal domestic spending. There are a lot of projects in New York State alone which, in my opinion, deserve federal funding before we spend on North Vietnam.

The other major area of concern per the questionnaire had to do with the price of food and the general cost of living—a subject that touches everyone of us where it hurts. People are naturally concerned with food prices. They are up daily and there seems to be no end in sight to the spiraling cost of living, eating and housing.

As I mentioned in a previous column, I am on the House Banking and Currency Committee which conducted hearings into wage and price stabilization. After a lot of political haggling, the Committee turned out a bill which I felt did not address itself strongly enough to the problem of food prices. I favor a firm ceiling on the price of all food and it seems to me that most of you do too.

If these points of view, as expressed in the questionnaire responses to date, do not seem to represent your position on the issues, why not let me hear from you.

Several people who have commented in the space available on the questionnaire, have remarked that they were grateful to be asked their opinion for once. One man mentioned that this was the first time anyone in public office had solicited his views and he enjoyed the chance to sound off. I don't want to hear from you just if you agree with me...let me have your opinions no matter how much they might differ from mine.

Our questionnaire is an attempt to get in touch with every element of the people I represent. To me the key word in my job here is "representative"—but I have to know what you are thinking in order to do my job here to the best of my ability.

HOMELESS BOYS

Frank Jagger, a resident of Linden Avenue, Bethpage, said that as a young engineer, he and other young men had lived at this very residence while working at Grumman. He expressed the thought that the former owners of the house, both dead, would be gratified to know that it was serving to help young boys who need a home as he did.

Reasons for Need

Some of the reasons why young boys are homeless were supplied by Bethpage resident Loretta Rutehorn, who said she had nine children and "a doctor from India" at home, and had not been one of the petitioner's "emergency parents" because "we're pretty well overstaffed as it is." She related the case of a young friend of her 16-year-old son who had stayed at her house for three weeks because he had no place to go. She said she knew of three young boys who are now

"bumming around" without homes for one reason or another, one having been thrown out of his home because he owed his father $400. "Many people are capable of having children, but not everyone is able to raise them," she said.

"These are boys without hope," said Ms. Rutehorn. "but their hopelessness is not damaging to the community, only potentially damaging to themselves." Sometimes their parents have run away from the home. Sometimes they can't get along with their parents. Other times there is alcoholism in the family, or death.

She related a telephone call from a Plainview High School counselor that very day. A 17-year-old girl was in the counselor's office. She had been thrown out of her home and told not to return. She was emotionally upset and felt she could not go home for fear of once again being thrown out. The high school official brought the girl to Ms. Bendor's office, and after a 2½ hour talk, Ms. Bendor was able to call the parents, get her back in her own home, and plan for future programs to help her.

Trial Period

In view of the newness of the concept, Councilman Salvatore Mosca, a Bethpage resident, asked Mr. Balin if the petitioner would accept a trial period of a year to see how the program works. Mr. Balin said that two years would be more suitable in view of the time needed to purchase the house and get the program underway, probably at least a year. He asked if the restriction might be in the form of review, rather than a required return to Town Hall with all its legal ramifications.

At the close of the hearing, the Town Board reserved decision. A reliable source at Town Hall said a decision would probably be made in the near future.
