Hicksville Girl Scouts News

This year's dinner for adult Girl Scout personnel was held in the Pickwick Motor Inn - Canolot Room. Mrs. Jeane Scholtz, retiring Neighborhood Chairman of Hicksville Girl Scouts talked of past events that took place in her 5 year reign. Things like the Browne Holiday Party where Mr. and Mrs. Clause were mobbed by some 500 Browne Scouts and had to be rescued by the cadettes. A camping trip to Wha Cha Wana where she selected the sites for the troops, only to find she was in the worst one. As it began to pour rain around 1:30 am and her site became a very large lake. But as Jeane says "the good times were not numbered by the not-so-good" and she has enjoyed meeting and working with so many wonderful people in scouting. Although her term of office is up, Jeane will be staying with Hicksville Girl Scouts as Special Events Chairman.

As part of her last official act Mrs. Scholtz presented Mrs. Barbara Burd with the highest honor given to an adult in Scouting "the Thanks Badge". The badge was presented to Barbara for her devotion and many, many long hours given to help better improve the Girl Scout program in Hicksville. Barbara worked as a Junior and Cadette leader, a consultant, and chaired and co-chaired many special events in Hicksville. She is presently a camp coordinator and member of the Board of Directors of Mid-Island Council Girl Scouts.

June 12th to June 26th - Hicksville F.D. total 38 alarms received. 11 of these alarms were false alarms, 7 rescue calls and 20 fire calls all of a minor nature. No injuries were reported.

FALSE ALARMS AGAIN
Once again, Hicksville has been deluged by false fire alarms. In 1972 YOUR Fire Dept. responded to 210 malicious false alarms. In 1973 so far there have been 85, and each time a false alarm is turned in YOU and your family's safety is endangered.

False alarms do not just affect the Fire Dept., they are a community problem. The Fire Dept. cannot be in two places at once in any great strength. When trucks are answering an alarm that proves FALSE they are delayed in responding to a real fire or emergency; one that could be at YOUR home.

False alarms rob YOU of the protection that you and your family deserve. We're doing everything we can-publicity, modifications to alarm boxes, chemicals - But we must have the community's help. YOU are the community.

The safety of YOUR family depends on your interest in helping to stop false alarms. In helping your Fire Department.

"Fire Report"

By Capt. Owen Magee

You are helping yourself.

The general public is urged to follow the following instructions for the safe storage, use and handling of calcium hypochlorite around the home:

1. Read the container label of the product being used and carefully follow directions.

2. Store original container in cool, clean, dry areas, away from steam pipes or other sources of heat. Separate container from all organic or oxidizable materials and any other possible contaminants. DO NOT USE MILK BOTTLES. Keep covered with original closure and out of reach of children. Avoid out-of-season carry-over storage of unused stock supplies.

3. USE ONLY CLEAN, DRY and noncombustible scoops, such as porcelain or enamel cups, glass containers, or clean metal spoons, for transferring the chemical from the drum to the mixing container or to the pool. Use of the plastic scoop supplied with the chemical is permissible. DO NOT USE dirty containers such as beer cans, coffee cans, etc.

4. Never dissolve the chemical in other than plain water. - NEVER POUR WATER OVER THE CHEMICAL. Always pour the chemical into water, with constant stirring.

5. Dispose of spilled material immediately by flushing with large amounts of water. Rinse empty containers thoroughly with water before discarding.

6. Keep hands clean and wash hands after handling. Gloves should not be worn because they may become impregnated with the chemical, resulting in spontaneous combustion.

7. Avoid contact of salt or solution with the eyes or skin. When contact occurs, wash involved area immediately with free flowing water for rapid and thorough dilution. When eye irritation or skin burns occur, OBTAIN MEDICAL ASSISTANCE AT ONCE.

8. AVOID INHALATION OF ESCAPING CHLORINE GAS. Move anyone overcome by chlorine gas to an open area and call the Fire Department for oxygen.

9. In Fires involving calcium hypochlorite (chlorine) call the Fire Department. Immediately "DELUGE" with water only. Do not use dry chemical or vaporizing liquid (carbon tetrachloride) Fire Extinguishers.

Hicksville Chamber Of Commerce News

At the first Directors meeting since he was elected President, Kenneth S. Barnes, Director, Hicksville Public Library, outlined an ambitious program for 1973-74 and proposed new directors for election to the Board, which, in his opinion, must be activated to assist in carrying out his program.

Unanimously elected as Chamber directors were: Chas. A. Glubondis, Ind. Rel. Mgr., Amerperx; Samuel Feldman, V. Pres. in charge, Bowery Savings Bank, Westbury; Warren Phillips, Manager, Gertz - Hicksville; David E. Plimley, Dist. Mgr., Long Island Lighting Co., Kingsley Kelly, Pres., Seaman & Eisenmann, Inc.

For the present Pres. Barnes requested that all standing Committees remain operative, however changes will be made to increase their effectiveness.

More memberships are needed, more publicity is desirable, more cooperation with the TOBAY Town Board is important, particularly in view of the new Master Plan's effect on Hicksville, more contacts should be made within the Federal & State agencies for Urban assistance in the development of Downtown Hicksville.

The Pilot Development Project for the northern section of the Triangle is progressing, reported Dir. L.N. Scalera, AIA, Architect, who is in charge of the program, but it is being slowed by the lack of property owners cooperation. Efforts will continue to bring all the involved landowners into an overall plan, which must be undertaken if any useful profitable solution to the present chaotic condition of this area is to be realized.

Gasoline and fuel oil shortages are not to be taken lightly or considered a "fact" or manufactured situation, according to Dir. Thomas A. Fay, V-Pres. Rite Fuel Co. Too long have environmental objections prevented, delayed or handicapped sources of new supply, construction of new refineries, Nuclear plants all of which contribute to the crisis. Typical examples are LILCO's Shoreham plant, East Coast off-shore exploration, Alaskan Pipeline and many others. Immediately, the closing of many local gas stations, part time, Sunday or completely, continues and will increase. The prospects for an early solution are not bright and further curtailment of supplies this summer may be expected. The outlook for fuel oil supply in restricted quantities is anticipated for this fall and winter. Right now, there is no realistic answer to the immediate problem, which could worsen before getting better.

More ways to get the most out of your phone service

10. Don't pay for wrong numbers. If you reach a wrong number, we don't want you to pay for it. So here's what to do: Ask the party who answers to tell you at least the first three digits of his phone number and—if it was a long distance call—his Area Code. After you get this information, dial "0" and give it and your number to the Operator, who will make sure you are credited for the call. If you cannot get this information, dial "0" and tell the Operator your number and the number you were trying to reach.

11. One-minute special. If you can keep the message short, we have a special one-minute rate on all interstate calls between 11 PM and 8 AM. For example, you can call Chicago for 20¢, New Orleans for 25¢, Los Angeles for 35¢. Each additional minute costs 20¢ or less. Ground rules: These rates apply to station-to-station calls you dial yourself, to anywhere in the U.S. except Alaska and Hawaii. Tax is not included.

12. Do you still want to be unlisted? Maybe you don't need an unlisted number any more. You can save 93¢ a month if you don't.

13. Time your calls. The initial period is 3 minutes for most long distance calls, and 5 minutes for most local calls of more than 1 message unit. If you want to keep track of how long you talk, keep a timer near the telephone. However, the best it can do is tell you approximately how long you've been talking.

14. Deposit refunds. We hold deposits from only about 7 per cent of our customers. But we pay 7 per cent interest on the money. After one year, refunds are made to residence customers who have established a record of paying their phone bills promptly. A refund is credited to your phone bill or, if you wish, returned by check.

15. Avoid prime time on long distance calls. Confused about the best times to make long distance calls? These two charts spell out the differences between interstate and intra-state, reduced rate periods. For sample rates that show you how much you save, see the front pages of your phone book.

16. Holiday specials. Lower "Night" rates (within New York State) and lower "Evening" rates (interstate except Canada, Alaska, Hawaii) apply all day on Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Day, July 4th and Labor Day.

17. If you get a bad connection. If you get a poor connection on a direct dialed call, we don't want you to pay for it. Hang up. Tell the Operator who will give you a new connection and start the call all over again. No charge for the first call or the Operator's help.

18. Cost breakdown on the way. The amount shown on the "Monthly Charge for Service" line of your telephone bill is the combined total of the charges for basic service and any equipment you may have. Unless you have already received it, a breakdown of this charge will be included with your bill sometime in the next few months. You will know exactly what you are paying for.

We have more ways to show you how to get the most out of your phone service. We'll be telling you about them in upcoming ads. Or send for our free booklet, "How to Get the Most Out of Your Phone Service," 315 Hudson Street, New York, New York 10013.

The rates listed, and the tariffs referred to, are those in effect as of June 1, 1973. Rates do not include tax.

Graduation At Trinity Lutheran School

Trinity Lutheran School, 40 West Nicholas Street, Hicksville, held its graduation ceremony on Wednesday, June 20th, at 7:30 p.m. This year there were 78 graduates in the eighth grade class, coming from all the various communities around the Mid-Island area. At the graduation numerous awards were given out. There were three different types. The first was the American Legion Award, given by the Charles Wagner Post, for service to fellow students and country. The next award was the Parent-Teachers and Friends Award, for outstanding scholastic achievement. The last award and most revered was the Paul Jud Award for Christian service. During the graduation the parents and students were addressed by The Reverend Edward H. Stammel, Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, and Miss Kristine Unger of Bethpage, a graduating student.

Jones Institute To Expand Home Capacity

Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced that the trustees of Jones Institute, a home for indigent single adults in Hicksville, have agreed to expand the home's capacity from 70 to 150.

"The enlargement of the Jones Institute will be an enormous help in providing decent shelter for single people on welfare who are forced out of their homes or apartments by emergencies or other reasons," Caso said, noting that the average age of the persons presently at the home is 64. "They are older residents with no real problem except that they need a place to live. Many of them need the structured environment that the home provides."

Social Services Commissioner James Shuart pointed out that while there are only seven single adult welfare clients in motels at present, there were 107 in motels in February, 1971. Shuart said that the number fluctuates because the welfare cases in this category are usually victims of fires, evictions or other emergency circumstances. "The trustees of the Jones Institute deserve a lot of credit for their concern for these homeless people who are often all alone in the world," Shuart said.

Dear Friends...

ALL OF THE HERALD STAFF extends best wishes for a happy and productive future to the wonderful graduates of our fine high schools. We are proud of their record and their diligence during their school years.

WE ARE WELL AWARE that these young people face different challenges than those who graduated only a decade ago. We hope that the past years in school have helped them to handle these challenges with enthusiasm and determination. We wish them well in all their future plans. For, with these young people, in a very real sense, rides the future of our Country and our world. We were not handed a perfect world...neither were they. But, to each generation comes the challenge to build together for a better world than that which they have inherited. Let us encourage them so that this can be accomplished with kindness...and understanding...and above all, with God's help.

CONGRATULATIONS to Hicksville Fire Department Capt. John Keyer of Company 6, who received the Knights of Columbus Joseph Barry Council 2520 annual community service award on June 19th at a gala affair held at the K of C in Hicksville. Congratulations also to newly-elected Grand Knight Frank Klarman and Deputy Grand Knight Frank Dorsey, with best wishes for a successful term of office in this active organization.

NOTE TO PUBLICITY CHAIRMEN (and ladies)...there are times when we do not have enough space to print the news and pictures which you submit for consideration, and we hold them in the hope that in some issue in the near future, space will be available. This has happened a couple of times recently to pictures which we know are interesting. During the summer when many organizations do not meet, it is possible that these pictures will be used, and we are sure will be enjoyed by all...we are referring specifically to the 325th Anniversary pictures (about twenty of them) and the St. Ignatius CYO team pictures (five of them). This applies also to a large amount of "ON THE CAMPUS" news, which is heavy at this time of the year and will be used each week as space permits.

AS YOU ARE PROBABLY ALL AWARE, Janet Gosnell covers both the Town of Oyster Bay Board Meetings and the meetings of the Nassau County Board of Supervisors for THE HERALD. Neither the opinions of Ms. Gosnell, whose reputation as an objective reporter is well known, nor the opinions of this newspaper, are reflected in these news stories. They are simply factual reports of what happens at these meetings. The fact that they are so varied always serves to remind us that the right of all sides to be heard is one of the greatest strengths of this great Country. Where else in the world does this occur on all levels of government?

Sincerely,
SHEILA

P.S. Condolences to the family of Jacob Freeman, who passed away suddenly last week. We plan an obituary for Mr. Freeman for next week's issue.

Supervisor JOHN W. BURKE REPORTS

The Governor's decision to abandon plans for the construction of the Oyster Bay-Rye bridge should not be considered as a personal victory by anyone of us who fought against it, but more as the only logical conclusion to be reached after full consideration of the mass of evidence against the bridge.

This decision recognizes that so-called "progress" oftentimes is just the reverse; that more development can aggravate the very condition it is intended to cure. As Governor Rockefeller said, "People are beginning to question whether all growth is automatically good—beginning to ask at the quality of life as well as the quantity of our gross national product."

I am particularly gratified to see this recognition and concern for the ecology of man spreading through all levels of government. The ignoring of such matters in the past has caused irreversible damage to the environment that will be our tainted legacy to future generations.

Governor Rockefeller is to be commended for his understanding and acceptance of these values and for his courage in reversing a position he vigorously supported for over six years.

In his statement, the Governor recommended concentrating our efforts on extending and improving our mass-transit systems to better serve peoples' needs on an economical and efficient basis. This is a critical need on Long Island and one that could have a significant impact on its economy. Highways—overloaded, obsolete and choked with vehicles almost before they are completed—certainly are not the answer. We must be able to move people and goods efficiently in order to maintain a healthy economy. This victory over the obsession with highway-building must, therefore, be seen and used as a springboard to increasing and improving mass transportation.

It is virtually impossible to give individual credit to all the many people whose diligence and hard work stopped the bridge. The list ranges from the unstinting efforts of Senator Ralph Marino, Assemblyman Joe Reilly and the village officials of the north shore; to the ladies of Bayville who prepared a luncheon that cold winter day for the members of the press who joined the Town's tour of the bridge approach area. It would have to include the many environmentalists, ecology and citizen groups, the media people who gave editorial support, and the Townspeople who never gave up hope.

To all of you, a thank you, and a reminder: This is the end of one fight and the beginning of another. We now must shift our attention to positive advocacy of mass transportation. If we do not, we will lose the valuable momentum of the battle against the bridge, and—still worse—may have to face yet additional highways if we don't make mass transit work, and work now.

Plan your first
now.

You're young. You have a promising future. You'll probably earn more than $600,000 between now and retirement...perhaps a million or more. But right now money can be a problem. And financial security seems remote.

Metropolitan's "Century 21" policy gives you the answer. For example, at age 25 you can set up an initial estate of $100,000 for $39.25 a month! At age 30, $42.25.

Part of the $100,000 is permanent insurance, most is term. At given times some of the term insurance ends and you can replace it with permanent insurance. This increases the premium during the years when you expect your earnings to increase. You can keep the full $100,000 protection and build more cash values for your family and your own future.

Call me today for details.

BY JANET GOSNELL

The stabilization of rents the increased support of mental health contract clinics and consideration of a mandatory death penalty for killers of policemen occupied the Board of Supervisors on Monday, presided over by Supervisor Francis Purcell in the absence of County Executive Ralph G. Case.

On the regular agenda, the board approved a capital expenditure of $285,000, to reconstruct the former Westbury Temple for use as a probation department annex, the money to be raised through issuance of $270,750, serial bonds and $14,250, capital notes of the County.

Henry Dolinar, of Hempstead, Chairman of the Senior Forum, was present to thank the supervisors for a resolution urging the N. Y. State Legislature to schedule the Margiotta - Levy Rent Stabilization bill during its emergency session in July. He also asked that they "follow it through" with direct contact with legislators and urge town and county councils to do likewise. Not only seniors, but ordinary citizens concerned with soaring rents asked the supervisors help in bringing rents down.

Mental Health

Fifty or more representatives of the North Shore Guidance Center were present to support five speakers from the center asking for increased funding from the Nassau County Mental Health Board, and more openness in the negotiations of this county agency. Speaking were Nat Yalowitz, salaried executive director of the association, who said the clinic serves "thousands of children who might be dropouts from life at the age of seven." Also speaking were Enid Rothenberg, of the Staff Association, who said increases had been authorized but not funded; Richard Davis, a parent of a child in the program who said the budget was reasonable and the service a needed one; Eloise Clark, a paraprofessional who asked that her working category be given to salary steps as in regular county employ rather than 5, which she now has; and Dorothy Graubert, President of the Center.

Henry Herli, of the Association of Nassau County Mental Health Contract Clinics and Joan Salzman, who introduced herself as a representative of Community Advocates, both asked for less secrecy in the workings of the mental health board, and a public hearing set - up on their allocations of funds.

Death Penalty

Chief Schmidt, president of the Nassau County Police Benevolent Association, came with a personal bone to pick with Supervisor Suozzi of Long Beach who had been quoted as not favoring a mandatory death penalty for criminals who kill policemen. Suozzi clarified his statement with remarks that the death penalty would not deter drug addicts and others who might kill policemen. He said the answer was more properly in strict gun control laws.

As now set down by the courts, determination of the death penalty for policemen killers has been left up to each municipality at the discretion of a jury after a trial in court.

At Townhall

Councilman Approve Another Benefit Circus

By Janet Gosnell

At its regular meeting on Tuesday, the Oyster Bay Town Board dealt with many matters on its regular agenda and heard comments later on a dozen topics, ranging from the non-returnable bottle nuisance to the "flower children" who sell flowers on street corners.

After the meeting, Councilman Lewis Yevoli had a few words to say to reporters regarding what he felt were illegitimate expenses on the part of the town in promoting the Plainview landfill before the election.

On its agenda, the Board approved a resolution authorizing a circus sponsored by HAD (Help-Aid-Direction, or "Hicksville Against Drugs") to be held at the Mid-Island Shopping Plaza on July 11th from 3 to 11:00 P.M. Said one councilman: "In the wake of protests over circuses held in this area, an ordinance must be formulated and adopted regulating these events."

The board also approved a resolution asking the state for a permit to beautify the corner of Old Country Road and Broadway with planting.

A surprise item on the agenda was the withdrawal of the petition of Mobilized Community Resources, Inc. for a special permit use to use a residence in Bethpage as a home for homeless boys. The petition was the subject of a lively night hearing in May, when both support and opposition were voiced by residents.

Flower Children

Eddie Magedson, president of Flower Children, Inc., a nationwide organization which he said grosses about $250,000 annually, stepped forward to ask the Town Board if the children, aged 14 and up, who sold his flowers might be excused from getting a peddler's licenses.

He gave as reasons for his request the 10-day to two week waiting period for the license, and also the protests of mothers who bring their children in for jobs who believe the finger-printing procedure is degrading.

He said he began his business five years ago in Dallas, Texas, when he was a student at El Centro College. The business has since spread to several cities. He now has 200 locations in Nassau County, he said. He also complained that the police in Syosset keep telling the young lady selling flowers at the railroad station there to move on.

Oscar Summers was present to protest the Commander Oil dock which was supposed to have been removed when a new one was built; to urge a ban on non-returnable bottles and cans; to ask for later open hours for parks in the interest of youth; and to protest the expansion of the Jones Institute as "wasteful."

Mrs. Tobey Kennedy, a Democratic candidate Councilman, spoke up about the proposed takeover of the theatre building in Oyster Bay as a Town Hall annex, on which a public hearing is scheduled for July 10th. An item on the agenda appointing an appraiser for the property was tabled at the meeting because of faulty wording, according to a town hall spokesman. Mrs. Kennedy was opposed to the takeover of the building by the town on the basis that it would put excess profits into the pocket of the present owner at the expense of the taxpayers.

Yevoli Says

In a private session with the press, Councilman Lewis Yevoli, the only democrat on the Town Board, circulated a letter written to Attorney General Louis Lefkowitz on June 25 lampooning the Republican party for what he felt was improper use of Town monies in promoting the Plainview landfill before the election last November, in which the electorate of the Town approved the proposal.

His particular target is a group called HELP (Homeowners and Environmentalists for a Landfill Park) and in particular a press conference sponsored by this group last year at the Maine Maid Inn in Jericho. He asked who paid for the press conference which involved some hot hors d'oeuvres and beverages. He said the Town paid for it, and was to be reimbursed by HELP. Jim Bell, HELP's treasurer, is presently employed in the Public Information Office at the town, a situation which also bothers him.

Officials of the Town were not aware of his letter before his press conference. A spokesman later said, after having been shown his position: "There is absolutely no substantiation for the charges made by Yevoli."

Hicksville Americans Defeat Cottschee

The Hicksville Americans Boys Soccer Team coached by Pat McHugh and Bill Oresham defeated Cottschee 2-1. Last Monday, the Americans met the perennial champs of the German American League at Kissena Park, Flushing, New York.

For most of the first half, a defensive game was played in mid-field. Cottschee tried to take the attack to the Americans, however, strong defensive play on the part of Mike Humphrey and Don Anglin continually broke up the attack. With time running out in the half, the Americans fed the ball to Mike Collins who drove it into the far corner for a 1-0 lead.

Cottschee returned after the half and on a break away tied the score 1-1. With time running out, Kevin Anglin received a pass on the wing, broke through the Cottschee defense, faked the goalie and scored in the left corner for a 2-1 victory.

The Hicksville Americans will be competing every Monday evening throughout the summer against the finest the German American League has to offer. Games will be played at Kissena Park Monday evenings at 6 P.M. throughout July and August.

Bicycles Up For Auction

The annual auction of bicycles will be held by the Nassau County Police Department on Saturday, June 30, in the exhibition hall at the Nassau County Coliseum in Unadilla.

There are some 350 bicycles which will be put up for bid of which some 350 are said to be in decent condition. Also included in the auction will be five small boats ranging in size from eight feet to fourteen feet.

The bicycles and boats were either found or recovered by police during the year and have remained unclaimed.

Prospective bidders will be able to view the items starting at 8:30 a.m. and the auction itself will get under way about 9:30 a.m. and continue until everything has been disposed of or there are no further buyers.

"It never occurs to teenagers that someday they will know as little as their parents,"—Lois W. Matson, The Kiester (Minn.) Courier.

GETTING MONEY Face it we need money. Even if you are living in a house without paying for rent or food, little things that cost money are always popping up. JOBS It is not just a loser's illusion that there are never enough jobs. Even if you are willing to do almost anything, you will find it hard to come up with jobs, especially tolerable or meaningful work. Like basketball, job hunting is a statistical game, and your chances of success are improved if you can manage a lot of shots.

7 THINGS ALL OF US CAN USE...

1. Don't panic. If you are desperate and take the first thing you can get, you'll probably regret it and be looking around for something else.
2. The worst time to hunt a job is when you are desperate—jobs are easier to find when you really don't need them.
3. Make deliberate, planned use of your network of friends and other contacts. Everyone you know is a source of potential job information. The really interesting jobs seldom get advertised—they're filled by word of mouth.
4. Develop a credible explanation for your job gaps. Some employers are suspicious of anybody old enough to work who didn't have a continuous job.
5. Concentrate on what you have to offer. It might help a little to sit down, before you get into a real situation, and outline your capabilities as you see them.
6. Case the prospective job place. At some jobs, it is possible to look the place over and talk to some of the people you'd be working with.
7. Know what the company or organization does. The atmosphere of a place is influenced by its products, and it is good to work for a company whose output you respect, or at least don't consider a menace to society. Learn if you are helping or participating in activity that is deceiving, lying to, or ripping off the public.

GETTING BY AS A MINOR If you are under 21 years of age, you are legally a minor. This reality has some profound effects on our lives—one of which is the right to engage in legal contracts. People who are under 21, in most cases, cannot be legally bound to contracts they sign. The other contracting party is legally bound to the contract. For this reason, most people (landlords, providers of medical services, people inside banks) will not go in on contracts with minors. However, there is one exception, in which minors can be legally bound to contracts for necessities. Legally, necessities are: 1. things which a minor has no other means of obtaining except by signing a contract, and 2. things which the minor's parents or guardians are unable to provide or have neglected to provide. Necessities include: housing, food, medical services and a proper education.

On June 2, 1972, Governor Rockefeller signed a bill which makes it clear that all medical services may be given without parental consent to certain groups of minors. The need for parental consent is entirely dispensed with by the new statute where the young patient is: aged 18 or over, the parent of a child, married (divorced or widowed) or when in the physician's judgment an emergency exists and immediate medical attention is needed, and the attempt to secure parental consent would increase the risk to the patient's life or health.

LINE 5, WFL 5 - In a scintillating cliffhanger which lasted a full seven innings these two teams battled it out not sparing any effort. Walks played a large part in the score, good for runs batted in by W. Ansley, J. Santos, and B. Boschert of LINB, while K. Ward of Worlds Fair Liquors made an over-the-shoulder catch of a long fly reminiscent of Willie Mays' great grab of V. Wertz clobber in the 5th series. WFL now finds itself with a gap in their attack, as J. Sherry, in the midst of a great season, broke his ankle while sliding into second. My hat is off the J. Sherry a fine player in his own right, who will not have the opportunity to finish an outstanding season.

LINE 6, Parr & Hanson 2 - T. Pirrung couldn't find the plate and walked in 5 Gilson runs in the first inning. After that, Pirrung found his form and the game was tensely fought. Reliever M. Diaz put out a rally for starting pitcher R. Flanagan in the fourth, while Gilson could only collect three miniscule hits. Parr & Hanson was hitting though, seven hits - including big whoppers by M. Cerone and D. Joyce who combined for two runs, as Parr & Hanson showed belated signs of improvement in a nearly completed season. All other games were rained out.

Gertz 4, Sizzler 0 - Gertz ace G. Stry combined with fireman T. Smith to pitch a remarkable two-man no-hitter. Sizzler batters came away from the plate discouraged as the fireballs thrown by both pitchers eluded their bats. While hitting for runs Gertz was fortunate to have the good fielding of the entire team, and thus wrapped up the game quite handily.

LINE 10, VFW 0 - B. Clark goose-egged VFW, going the distance, and allowing only 2 hits. S. Pisani's long towering homer, one of seven LINB hits, contributed to a decisive victory. Other big men were J. Jabonski (2-3) and J. Williams (1-3), part of an all-round potent offense.

Gertz 11, Sizzler 0 - In a merciless slaughter of the Sizzler club, Gertz collected 14 hits. The bats of P. Virga, M. Tucker, J. Rupp, D. Garvey and T. Corrigan cracked as they rapped the ball with bristling authority. Pitchers T. Smith, G. Stry, and D. Epstein defied Sizzler batsmen while producing another shutout, as the powerful Gertz team chased league leading LINB with a win.

LINB over VFW - forfeited.

June 19: Circle Texaco 1, Newberrys 0 - In this game, perhaps the most thrilling of the whole season, both teams displayed excellent pitching and great defensive plays. Mike Walton was the game's star chucker, he led Newberrys striking out all 9 men he put out. Mike also pitched 3 innings of no-hit baseball. Mike Hannigan then came to finish up the game. After retiring the Texacobatters in the fourth inning, Mike walked two batters and then let up his only hit scoring what proved to be Texaco's winning margin. Newberrys saw its only scoring chance foiled when John Ferrado had a triple but was thrown out at the plate trying to score. Al Libardi came up to bat and hit a solid drive which he turned into a triple. Al was left stranded on base. Honorable mention goes to Brent Harrison who bashed out a single.

June 19: Mid Island Plaza 18, Malvese 9 - In gaining this victory, MIP clinched the second half. Those MIP sluggers banged out 9 hits. Decisive hits were contributed by Bill O'Leary, Brian Connaughton and Mike Kinser. Home runs were smacked by Bob Rupp and John Knesel. Larry Gray ended the season with a triple while T. Blinn had a pair of doubles.

A.O.H. and Steve's American played to a 2-2 tie. Jim Wandell pitched for Steve's striking out 15. A homer by John Holm and a double by Chris Kilmets gave A.O.H. their 2 runs. H & S Auto beat Carvel in the 3rd Wednesday game. Saturday's games were postponed because of poor conditions of the fields. One day of rain puts the Lee Avenue fields out of commission for 3 days. Panel Sermons At Trinity

A series of ten sermons, based on the ten panels of "The Gates of Paradise" will be delivered by the Reverend Edward H. Stammel, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, 40 W. Nicholas Street, Hicksville, on consecutive Sundays beginning July 1, at 8:30 and 10:30 a.m.

The eighteen feet high, solid bronze, gold coated doors, depicting Old Testament scenes, are exact replicas of the fabulous doors which Lorenzo Ghiberti fashioned in the early 1400's for the Baptistery of the Cathedral of San Giovanni Battista. Tradition tells us their name "Gates of Paradise" was given to them by Michaelangelo, who became enthralled with their beauty.

Worshippers will be encouraged to refer to the descriptive booklets, containing photographs of each of the ten panels so that they might follow the sermon and explanation visually.

After each service the worshippers will be afforded the opportunity of personal inspection of the doors. Visitors are encouraged to bring their own booklets for the closest possible scrutiny and appreciation.

Groups are encouraged to call the church office (931-2254) for middle of the week conducted tours.
