Redeemer Rejoices!

"Redeemer Rejoices!" is the theme for the month of October at Redeemer Evangelical Lutheran Church of Hicksville. On October 19, the congregation will celebrate its Fifteenth Anniversary. Members and friends have set aside the entire month for thanksgiving and celebration of the event.

The original meetings which eventually evolved into the formation of this church which has become so important a part of the Hicksville community, were held at the home of Mr. & Mrs. August Krogmann of Centre Street. Mr. Krogmann was the first president of Redeemer's Church Council...and fittingly, he is now the Chairman of the Anniversary Committee. Along with his wife, the committee is comprised of Mr. & Mrs. Leonard Ur-schel, Mr. & Mrs. Paul Bansbach, Mr. & Mrs. Arnold Dames, Mr. & Mrs. Arthur Toppin and Mr. & Mrs. Nathaniel Moser.

The Rev. Theodore S. Grant, is pastor at Redeemer Church, which has come to be known as the "Church of the Open Door" - and as such has become a haven for troubled people seeking help and refuge.

On October 14, there will be a combined anniversary worship service at the church at 10:30 A.M., followed by a brunch in the social hall.

On October 21, a festival worship service is planned for 3:30 P.M., and the sermon will be preached by the first son of the congregation to enter the Lutheran Ministry, The Rev. Richard G. Krogmann, of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Clearwater, Florida.

Following the worship service, the congregation is holding a Dinner - Dance at the New Hyde Park Inn.

The Guest Speaker will be Richard Weiskotten, who was Redeemer's original pastor. He is presently living in Newtonville, New York.

Many of the church's organizations are planning individual events to recognize this milestone in Redeemer's history. They invite friends from the community to share with them in their joy.

award is given by Nassau County Council BSA for outstanding service to boyhood, and in the highest award which can be given to a volunteer leader.

Silver Beaver Award Sept. 17th

Seaman and Eisemann Inc. employees had much to celebrate last week. On Sept. 17th, Mr. Kelly Kingsley received the Silver Beaver Award in Scouting from the Nassau County Council of Boy Scouts. And on Sept. 20th Mr. James Hicks, the Merry Mailman was 85 years old. Mr. Hicks received many gifts, he has been employed with Seaman & Eisemann for 15 years, he was formerly with the Hicksville Post Office for 33 years. Coffee and cake were enjoyed by all.

Commends Olympic Committee

Hicksville's Four Freedoms Lodge of B'nai B'rith has commended Col. F. Donald Miller, Executive Director of the United States Olympic Committee, for his stand in opposition to the Soviet Union's application to have the 1980 Olympic Games staged in Moscow. His stand was expressed to a District One B'nai B'rith delegation that met with him at the New York offices of the Olympic Committee.

President Wallace Weissman of Four Freedoms Lodge stated that the opposition to the Soviet Union's application is based on the widely publicized harassment of the Israeli Team at the World University Games held in Moscow last month, and the physical abuse of Soviet Jewish spectators.

B'nai B'rith he said, applauds Col. Miller's statement that "the United States Olympic Committee has been and will remain dedicated to the principles that established the Olympic games as an instrument to create international amity and good will and will vigorously resist any attempts to impair these ideals which would make the Olympic movement a vehicle for the extension of political ideologies."

Four Freedoms Lodge was a charter member of the Hicksville Athletic Games which sponsored a summer olympics for the children of Hicksville's School District 17.

On the Campus

Terri Schwartz of Plainview made the honors list for the spring semester of Fairleigh Dickinson University and Renee Rosenthal made the Dean's List, (she is also from PLAINVIEW) for the spring semester of Fairleigh Dickinson University.

Mr. Edward Korsberg of Hicksville was one of thirteen student X-Ray Technologists graduated from the Mercy Hospital School of Radiography at ceremonies held Friday evening, September 14, at the Mercy League Lounge.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stern, 47 Netto Lane, PLAINVIEW, are sponsoring Inez Martinez, an 11 year old boy from Honduras, through Save the Children Federation (SCF), Norwalk, Connecticut, it was announced today by David L. Guyer, Executive Director.

Douglas Wiener, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Weiner, 12 Redwood Drive, PLAINVIEW, is an Electrical and Computer Engineering major at Clarkson College of Technology.

The League of Women Voters of the Town of Hempstead will hold a Candidates Night on October 4. The meeting will be held at 8:15 P.M. at the Unitarian-Universalist Church on Stewart Ave in Garden City.

The four parties, Republican, Democratic, Conservative and Liberal will be represented by their candidates for the following Town of Hempstead offices, Supervisor, Presiding Supervisor and Councilman.

"This is an excellent opportunity for everyone to meet and question the various candidates. The League of Women Voters is a non-partisan organization and is open to all women of voting age. For further information, call Mrs. Mady Hirschfeld - 764-6451, Membership Chairman," said a spokesman for the LWV.

Gregory Museum To Extend Hours

The Gregory Museum, Long Islands' Earth Science Center, is proud to announce starting September 16, the museum will be open 7 days a week, the hours: Monday thru Friday, 9:30 AM to 4:30 PM, Saturday, 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Sunday, 1:00 PM to 4:00 PM. The museum, located at Heitz Place, Hicksville, requests large groups make an appointment for a tour. Entrance fee is $1.00 adults, 50 cents children, members are admitted free. For more information call 822-7505.

This unique earth science museum houses over 5000 different rocks, minerals, precious gems, fossils, shells, butterflies and moths, fluorescent displays, historical artifacts of Long Island, and much more. Another feature is a Traveling Art Show, featuring art work of many noted artists, which is displayed during the year at local libraries for buying and viewing.

Work is presently progressing on establishing teaching classrooms for classes in Geology, Mineralogy, Lapidary Arts. In-Service courses are currently being taught, while tour guides are trained by the Curator, Mr. Ben Barley.

The museum offers the use of an extensive collection of tape narrated slide sets on such subjects as Wildflowers, Earth Formation, Nature Series, Etc., an invaluable aid for teachers.

A gift shop is located on the premises, visitors will find a vast array of such gifts as onyx figurines, precious jewelry, collectors rocks and minerals, something for all, young and old.

Antique Show And Sale

This year's Antique Show and Sale at Human Resources Center (October 26, 27, 28) continues a long tradition in the Antique field. Running the show will be Hedley Gordon Graham, and for him this will be number 58. Graham is the Coordinator of Project Senior Abilities, a program of job placement of the aged, and as has been the case, this year's proceeds will support that project.

It's also a tradition in theme. This year's show is titled,

"Memories of the Past"; organ music of the past will be supplied live throughout the show, over 50 dealers will be exhibiting their pieces of furniture and other items of the past; and all of the proceeds will support a program which is geared to serve those who are themselves in their senior years.

Persons interested in further information about the Human Resources Antique Show should contact Gordon Graham at 747-5400.

Gershwin Memorial Concert

To commemorate the 75th anniversary of the birth of the immortal George Gershwin, Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Case invites everyone who loves music to the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum on Sunday, October 14, at 8:30 PM, for a Gershwin Memorial Concert.

Presented as a public service for an admission charge of only $2, the tribute will include a full symphony orchestra under the direction of Maestro Laszlo Halasz, with the 70-voice All-City Concert Choir directed by John Motley. Soloists include soprano Camilla Williams, and baritone Robert Mosley, with the piano solo provided by Lorin Hollander.

The program will include Gershwin's great Rhapsody in Blue, and the full Richard Russell Bennett version of Porgy and Bess.

The orchestra, chorus

State Grant Continues Criminal Justice Program

Acting on the motion of Long Beach Supervisor Julian Jawitz, the Nassau Board of Supervisors, on Oct. 1st will accept a $56,498 award to continue a highly regarded criminal justice education program at C.W. Post College.

The board will approve a resolution to accept the grant from the State Office of Crime Control Planning.

Art Exhibit

An exhibition of recent paintings and drawings by Long Island artist Harlan Jackson will open with a special reception on Sunday, September 30, at 3 p.m. at the Black History Museum located at 106 Main St. Hempstead.

The one-man exhibition will be on view until November 15 in the art gallery section of the museum, which is operated by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks.

Tours Suspended

Nassau County Police Commissioner Louis J. Frank has announced that tours of police headquarters in Mineola will be suspended until after January 1st because of construction in the building.

The Commissioner stated that because of the work currently underway in the headquarters complex, the only area available for tours is the emergency equipment building.

"Under these conditions, people touring headquarters could only leave with a feeling of disappointment," Commissioner Frank said.

A COUNTRY FAIR WITH THE ACCENT ON COUNTRY will be held at Mercy Hospital, Rockville Centre, on October 6th. Getting things ready are Mrs. Joseph Corsentino, left (of Brookville), and Mrs. George Moore, (of Massapequa), General Chairman of the Fair.

A "Space Walk" for children, a pie-eating contest, delicious home-made baked goods, preserves, jellies, bargains, gift boutiques, prizes, an auction and musical entertainment are planned.

The Fair is from 11 AM to 5 PM on the Hospital grounds, 1000 North Village Avenue, Rockville Centre.

Washington Report

Congressman
NORMAN F. LENT
5th District, New York

MINIMUM WAGE THAT WASN'T

A considerable amount of controversy has been raised over President Nixon's recent veto of this year's Minimum Wage legislation and my decision to support him. As with so many of the bills coming before the Congress, this proposal contained both good and bad points, and as is often the case, attempted to do too much, too fast, at the expense of too many.

Representing our 4th Congressional District, I was given a rather clear choice when push came to shove on supporting or rejecting Mr. Nixon's argument that the bill was inflationary. It seemed to include a proposal called a youth differential which I had supported without which every working mother would have been required to pay her teenage child under $2.00 an hour immediately and $2.20 an hour next July. My compromise would have provided a lower wage scale for youngsters and exempted baby-sitters and domestic help employed less than 24 hours weekly.

Similarly, Long Island's many small businessmen, struggling to compete with the large retail and discount chains, may have been forced to cut their payrolls and layoff workers in the face of this 38 percent jump in minimum wages. I needn't tell you how many of our neighbors would have been affected by higher retail prices for consumers and forced reductions in the staffs of local businesses. The result would also have been a reduction in the merchants' quality of service and a rise in our unemployment statistics.

Our areas' increasing population of blue collar union members would not have been affected either way by the legislation, owing to the generous agreements on wages from which they already benefit, all well above the minimum.

In short, the Congressional compunction to hike the minimum wage by 38 percent during a period in which controlling inflation must be considered our most serious national priority just didn't cut it with me. As in most cases involving a Presidential veto, new legislation has been introduced by Rep. Albert Que, ranking Minority Member of the House Education and Labor Committee, removing those provisions to which the President objected. This compromise bill, which I am co-sponsoring, has the President's support.

Now, the ball is back in Congress court. I hope we will have the good sense to report the law bill to the floor for action.

Dear Friends...

THERE IS A DAILY NEWSPAPER which claims that it is Long Island, that inadvertently (we hope) has printed very derogatory inferences about the Veterans of Foreign Wars Organization. When one of their reporters quoted someone coming out of a cinema showing of "The Devil and Miss Jones", as saying that it should have been shown in a VFW Hall, and when their editors did not cut this slur out, and when they actually printed it, they did the VFW a grave injustice. Freedom of the press should never be construed as license. Particularly in the case of all fine community organizations who serve many segments of our areas and do it well. As a matter of fact the Nassau County Council VFW (46 Posts) won first place in the Community Service Award in the New York State VFW Awards in June 1973.

At no time have any of these fine Posts used their buildings for such purposes. The particular daily knows this, and should never have permitted such yellow journalism in their pages. We feel that they owe this fine organization a public apology.

SPEAKING OF FINE COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS, don't forget that this Thursday, Oct. 4, at 8:30 p.m. in the Hicksville Library on Jerusalem Avenue, the HICKSVILLE COMMUNITY COUNCIL will hold its first meeting of the coming 1973-74 organizational year. Many fine local programs are scheduled for the coming months on subjects of vital interest to all Hicksville residents. This meeting, as you can read in the meeting notice on another page in The Herald, will go into the problems of oil shortages and proposed legislation and how it will affect the independent oil dealers who supply most of our area. Also, don't forget, that your programs and problems (hope you have many of the first and few of the second) also have a place on the Council's agenda. So, come on down, and join us. Refreshments are always served at the meeting's conclusion.

THIS WEEK we extend to all our friends of the Jewish Faith, best wishes for a healthy and happy New Year.

THAT'S ALL FOR THIS WEEK. Stay well and remember the old saying, "In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He will direct thy path," from the Proverbs of the Holy Bible.

Sincerely
Sheila

H.A.D. Asks Support of H.R. 99 Bill

H.A.D. asks Hicksville residents to write Congressmen in support of H.R. 9901 bill "Help-Aid-Direction (H.A.D.), Hicksville's own youth counseling and drug abuse prevention center, appeals to private citizens, local businessmen, and to all fraternal, religious, and civic organizations for help in making House of Representatives bill 9901 a federal law. H.A.D. hopes that people living and working in the Hicksville community will write their local Congressmen, asking them to vote for this bill's passage.

The specific purpose of this proposed federal law is "to amend the Elementary and

President Nixon's Council on environmental Quality will be holding public hearings in Mineola, Oct. 3 and 4, regarding the environmental impact of potential oil and gas exploration on the Atlantic outer continental shelf.

The alleged fuel crisis facing the nation today, particularly here in the northeast, has brought additional pressure to bear for the development of these reserves offshore, under these circumstances, it is imperative that we continue to look at all facets of such proposals thoroughly and objectively.

There has been little if any evidence to show any lessening of the potential hazards that offshore drilling presents to our ecology. County Executives Ralph Caso and John Klein, you may recall, saw first-hand the still-evident results of the disastrous oil spill in the Santa Barbara Channel in California this summer.

I have recently had the opportunity to review a study called "Petroleum Exploration Offshore From New York," prepared by the New York State Museum and Science Service, in conjunction with the University of the State of New York, this document, described as "an independent evaluation," appears to support the proposal for drilling off of our shores. It notes that only 2.1 percent of the oil spills for the years 1960 and 1970 resulted from offshore oil production. In my opinion, this 2.1 percent is still an unacceptable level of potential pollution when you consider the possible extent of the resulting damage.

The report notes that "the kind of geologic hazards that contributed to the Santa Barbara Channel oil spill may not be present along the East Coast, and the probable causes of oil spills, should this become a petroleum province, would be human error or equipment failure."

Before the oil industry can be permitted to commence drilling operations off the shores of Long Island, a concerted effort must be made by the industry to eliminate the potential hazard of an oil spill. Our ecology, buffeted by indiscriminate industrial development for over half a century, has reached the critical stage where its protection must be the first criteria in any program of development.

Secondary Education Act of 1965 to provide for drug abuse therapy programs to schools." Upon passage of this bill, our nation's school districts and community agencies would be able to apply for $500,000,000, each year for the next five years to establish these prevention and therapy programs. The bill permits counseling by personnel with special training to deal with youth problems including drug abuse; allows creation of peer group leadership programs; urges parental involvement and provides for in-service training of teachers, administrators, and other school personnel in drug abuse.

H.R. 9901 will come up for a vote in Congress within the next few weeks. It is crucial that people living and working in the Hicksville area write as many of the following Congressmen as possible supporting the passage of this bill: Congressman Angelo Roncallo 130 Main Street, Cold Spring Harbor, New York 11724; Congressman Norman Lent, 2280 Grand Avenue, Baldwin, New York 11510; Senator Jacob Javits, U.S. Senate, Washington, D.C. 20510; Congressman Wydler, 150 Old Country Road, Mineola, New York 11501; (Continued on Page 17)

RONCALLO REPORTS

By Congressman Angelo D. Roncallo

I spoke on the Floor of the House of Representatives last week against legislation which I feel seriously threatens the basic principle of home rule democracy. The bill, called the Land Use Planning Act, would substitute state and federal planning bureaucracies for local government zoning boards, placing many important land use decisions under the supervision of these non-locally controlled appointed officials.

I firmly oppose this approach as I feel it removes basic decision-making power affecting the way our local community land will be used, from the locally elected and responsive municipal official and places into the hands of the state or, worse yet, Washington. And this at great federal cost - some one billion dollars over the next eight years.

I have been dedicated throughout my public life to the tenet that the level of the government closest to the people governs best and I also believe that people have a right, a duty and the talent to decide how their communities may be developed. Some communities may prefer extensive industrial development with the tax dollars that brings; others may want industry-free environments and are willing to pay the extra tax crunch that involves. This is the peoples' decision it seems to me - and not one that Congress should legislate away from them.

In my opinion, it is totally unnecessary to create another expensive bureaucracy to handle environmental planning, when sufficient environmental legislation already is on the books.

This so-called Land Use Planning Act strikes me as one of the most dangerous pieces of legislation to come down the pike in quite a while. Among other evils I believe it would empower the state and federal planning czars to unconstitutionally take away private property for what they assert to be the public good without the benefit of just compensation to the rightful owners. This certainly destroys the value of such private property and the local property tax value accrued to such land.

In addition to the tremendous federal cost borne in augmenting such a Land Use Planning Act, the states would be required to kick in 25 per cent matching grants, and this with reduced local government revenues resulting from lowered property values.

I do not like to see such major decisions taken out of the hands of local officials. And for one very important reason - local officials are elected locally and can be put out of office by the same method if their actions do not meet with the approval of the people they serve. Who would exercise any control over the state and federal zoning czars? And what is in the legislation to prevent it from cramming so-called "development" down the throats of communities who prefer their areas like they are? An acknowledged aim of such legislation would be to "broaden and diversify a communities' tax base." If such a need exists, local officials are quite capable of recognizing and implementing it and I strongly feel they should be allowed to keep at it.

I concluded my House speech by asking my colleagues to go home and ask their constituents if they want Land Use to be decided in their state capitols or in Washington. I am sure that such a sounding will convince the Members of Congress that this bill is a step backwards and should be defeated once and for all!

Supervisor JOHN W. BURKE REPORTS

President Nixon's Council on environmental Quality will be holding public hearings in Mineola, Oct. 3 and 4, regarding the environmental impact of potential oil and gas exploration on the Atlantic outer continental shelf.

The alleged fuel crisis facing the nation today, particularly here in the northeast, has brought additional pressure to bear for the development of these reserves offshore, under these circumstances, it is imperative that we continue to look at all facets of such proposals thoroughly and objectively.

There has been little if any evidence to show any lessening of the potential hazards that offshore drilling presents to our ecology. County Executives Ralph Caso and John Klein, you may recall, saw first-hand the still-evident results of the disastrous oil spill in the Santa Barbara Channel in California this summer.

I have recently had the opportunity to review a study called "Petroleum Exploration Offshore From New York," prepared by the New York State Museum and Science Service, in conjunction with the University of the State of New York, this document, described as "an independent evaluation," appears to support the proposal for drilling off of our shores. It notes that only 2.1 percent of the oil spills for the years 1960 and 1970 resulted from offshore oil production. In my opinion, this 2.1 percent is still an unacceptable level of potential pollution when you consider the possible extent of the resulting damage.

The report notes that "the kind of geologic hazards that contributed to the Santa Barbara Channel oil spill may not be present along the East Coast, and the probable causes of oil spills, should this become a petroleum province, would be human error or equipment failure."

Before the oil industry can be permitted to commence drilling operations off the shores of Long Island, a concerted effort must be made by the industry to eliminate the potential hazard of an oil spill. Our ecology, buffeted by indiscriminate industrial development for over half a century, has reached the critical stage where its protection must be the first criteria in any program of development.

Residents Oppose Apartment Petition

By Janet Gosnell

The opposition was strong and virtually unanimous Tuesday at Town Hall to the petition of Orlando and Donald Capobianco for a change of zone from Residence B and C to E-1 Apartment House District for a 12.5 acre parcel just west of the Seaford Oyster Bay Expressway and some 640 feet north of Jericho Turnpike.

Some of the usual "zing" of oppositions was lost in this one however by the lack of volume in the crowd, which appeared in sparse groups in the hearing room at the morning session and came out only about 50 strong for the evening's continuation.

About twenty opposing speakers did so for several reasons. Some wanted to "save the master plan" — others protested on more traditional grounds of children's safety, school population, sewage concerns, traffic and services, still others, and those from South Woodbury, used this petition to protest the looming prospect of 500 garden apartments on the Woodland Academy property authorized for the South Woodbury location by the controversial Syosset-Woodbury Plan and now under study for full play by the Nassau County District Attorney's office at the behest of residents.

Townhouse Concept

As presented by the petitioner in colored artist's renderings, the proposed apartment development would provide a townhouse rather than a commercial apartment house appeal, with only 17 per cent land coverage the remaining area left for grass trees and parking.

Proposed are 190 units, divided roughly into 12 units per two-story building and comprising 158 one-bedroom units and 38 two-bedroom units. Ingress and egress to the development would be from Jericho Turnpike, a distance of about "three city blocks" according to attorney Donald A. Capobianco, over roads to be built on land now owned by Wishner. He referred to "articulated circulation" for traffic control in and out of the development to avoid traffic jams currently visible at peak hours in the vicinity of the nearby Fairhaven apartments, on the other side of the Seaford Oyster Bay Expressway.

He said in his presentation that his family had held the property in its native state for over 20 years, having been told it was not suitable for single family housing it was pointed out during the hearing that the original one-acre zoning (Residence B) for the property was declared unconstitutional by the N.Y. State Supreme Court in 1964 after a petition for down-zoning by the Capobiancos, a denial of the petition by the Oyster Bay Town Board, and the subsequent reversal of this decision by the Supreme Court.

Speaking for the petitioner were architect Milton Petrides and planning expert John Burdis, the latter of whom estimated that the development would generate "11.54" school children. He also pointed out that the 1971 recommendations of the Nassau-Suffolk Regional Planning Board designated this area for multiple housing.

Mr. Capobianco also stated that the apartment development would not affect local residential streets, having no outlet onto them, and that it would yield about $16,000 per acre in taxes as compared to $3,000 or $4,000 if developed with single family homes. Unable to project a rent scale, he said the development would be for "upper income" people.

Pine Road Objects

Strongest in their objections to the petition were residents of Pine Road, in a one-acre residential zone adjacent to the subject property.

All of that street, a Mr. Marman called the petition an example of the "domino theory" touched off by the Fairhaven apartments, Gerard Van Rees worried about sewage disposal, active community worker Janet Kennedy called the petition "outrageous", and Elliot Remler said the petitioner's presentation was "riddled with falsehoods." (Several of his points were shown to be misunderstandings on Mr. Remler's part by Supervisor Burke.) Also of Pine Road, Carl Josephson asked that the master plan be "given a chance"; John Graf said a change of zone would decision on the petition at 9:20 P.M.

Also speaking in opposition were Alice Willet, of the school board civic leader Shirley Lang, and South Woodbury civic leaders Judy Jacobs and Ina Ashendorf. Communications on file with the town clerk yielded several letters and telegrams in opposition, a 225-name petition requesting the night hearing submitted by Mrs. Kennedy, and a memo from the building department calling the parking provision of 254 cars proposed by the petitioner inadequate by virtue of lack of delineation of parking spaces on the plan and lack of adequate space for parking on the architect's plan. A letter from the attorneys for Wishner endorsed the petition.

The only person who spoke in favor of the petition was Oscar Summers, of Oyster Bay.

plan be "given a chance"; John Graf said a change of zone would decision on the petition at 9:20 P.M.

Residents of nearby Spruce Lane Harold Goerlich traced the history of the downzoning of the parcel and Dorothy Sherman added the statistic that 160 accidents took place in 1972 on the stretch of Jericho Turnpike between Jackson Avenue and Woodbury Road. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ravin, also of Spruce Lane, expressed concerns about the safety of children in the area, who, Mrs. Ravin said, even now must be driven to nearby destinations to skirt traffic hazards.

Other Business In other business, the Town Board heard the petition of Abalene Oil to construct a one-story garage for storage of trucks and equipment as an addition to its existing one-story building on Railroad Avenue. No one objected.

They also heard the urgent request of Judy Jacobs of South Woodbury for a second public hearing on improvements to the basis that residents were not aware of what these im-destinations to skirt traffic hazards. (Continued on Page 18)

Hicksville Community Council To Meet, October 4th

photo) to Debbie Levine while Maria Lauto, Nick Zatur, Gay Pidkameny, and Sandi Isaacson wait their turn. Each of forty-one volunteers received a gift and certificate as tokens of the library's appreciation for their help with children's programs during the summer.

The Hicksville Community Council will begin its fourth year with the first meeting of the 1973 - 74 season next Thursday evening, October 4, at 8:30 P.M. in the meeting room of the Hicksville Public Library.

The formal program, arranged for us by our Program Chairman Mr. Elery Bean, is entitled "Heating Oil - Now You See It, Now You Don't". The discussion of the subject will be conducted by Miss June Duckman, an independent oil dealer, and by Mr. Art Hamilton of the Oil Institute of Long Island.

We have seen what happened to all of us who drive automobiles when gasoline became scarce and expensive. The threat of shortages in petroleum products, and, in this case specifically, heating oil, makes the topic of this meeting of our Council extremely timely. Even if we don't use oil to heat our homes, we all visit shopping centers, stores and office buildings who may depend on oil to heat their premises.

Besides the scheduled program, a portion of each of our meetings is set aside for anyone present to make announcements about what his or her organization is doing in and for Hicksville, ask any questions, or, discuss any topic providing it pertains to Hicksville.

All residents of Hicksville, as well as any Hicksville business and/or professional people are cordially invited to attend our meetings.

We meet on the first Thursday of each month, October through June.

Mark your calendar - Thursday, October 4, 8:30 P.M. at the Hicksville Public Library - and come on down for a timely topic scheduled program, some interesting announcements and discussion, followed by coffee and cake.

Men In Service

Cadet David Rupp, son of First Lieutenant USMC Ret. and Mrs. Robert R. Rupp, 34 Tip Toplane, HICKSVILLE, completed summer training on Aug 25 at Camp Buckner on the reservation of the U.S. Military Academy, West Point.

The eight week program is designed to acquaint the West Point third classmen (sophomores) with all equipment and weapons used at Platoon and Company level in Army combat and combat support units.

An equally important objective of the training is the development of leadership skills. This is accomplished by placing the command and administration of the cadet companies in the hands of the cadets themselves.

Marine Master Sergeant Donald S. Ditto Jr., son of Mr.

and Mrs. Donald S. Ditto Sr. of 14 Pelican Road, LEVITTOWN, received the Good Conduct Medal Sixth Award at the Marine Corps Air Station.

He was cited for his exemplary service during the past three years.

Airman Scott H. Keeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Keeler of Wappingers Falls, has graduated at Keesler AFB, Miss. from the U.S. Air Force radio equipment repairman course conducted by the Air Training Command.

A 1968 graduate of Roy C. Ketcham Senior High School, received his B.A. degree in psychology in 1972 from Marist College, Poughkeepsie. His wife, Dorothy, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McNeely of 6 Mayflower Drive, HICKSVILLE.

Fall Fashion Show Successful

On Sept. 18, a fall fashion show was presented to the students in the Hicksville High School. The Simplicity Pattern Co. was the sponsor and Mrs. Myrna Schiffman was the Fashion Stylist in charge of the show. Fashions were made from the latest fall patterns and were modeled by students in the home economics department.

The following girls were the models this year and due to their fine co-operation the show was a great success. Donna Balogh, Kathy Caddigan, Nancy Farrell, Judy Haliass, Kathy Hassler, Jackie McGovern, Diane Prokos, Nora Rodriguez, Sandy Rykowski, Ellen Sacklow, Debra Sigillo, and Jayne Trentanove.

In addition to the fashions supplied by Simplicity, both Nora Rodriguez, and Ellen Sacklow modeled garments they had made themselves. Both girls showing considerable skill with the garments shown.

The Little Theatre was filled to capacity with interested students and many got ideas for things to make for themselves for the fall and winter season.

THE CHILDREN who participated in the Haunted House Heading Program at the Hicksville Library this summer had a real haunted house to spur on their interest in ghostly books.

Fire Report

by Capt. Owen Magee

Hicksville Firemen responded to a total of 67 calls for assistance during the period Sept 4 thru 25. Eleven malicious false alarms were turned in along with twenty-two rescue calls, and thirty four fires all of a minor nature. No injuries were reported.

"Night Parade Again for 1974" Hicksville firemen voted to hold the 1974 Labor Day Parade on Sunday night and the drill on Monday. One of the main reasons was the tremendous turnout for this year's event. The Chiefs, Officers and men of the Hicksville Fire Dept. wish to thank all of their supporters. Without local residents and businessmen support the task would be too great.

trophy is awarded each year to the Motor Pump Contest Trophy. The team scoring the most points in that event during the season.

"Bike-In" October 13

On Saturday, October 13, at 10:00 a.m., the Robbins Lane PTA will hold its first BIKE-IN, an inspection of all our children's bicycles by a program of the 4H Club and volunteer parents. Mr. Theodore Jenkins, Cooperative Extension Agent for 4H Program Director, will train the volunteer parents on Tuesday, September 25, at 10:00 a.m. at the Robbins Lane School, on how to inspect and find defects in the bicycles. All of us are aware of the great influx of bicycles on the roads today, causing many accidents and untimely deaths. Much of these fatalities are due to faulty and defective equipment "We."

under State Law, have "our" cars inspected yearly because they are a potential death weapon—so is a faulty bicycle to its rider ("OUR" CHILDREN)!

All parents are to present themselves, their children and bicycles at the Robbins Lane "bike-IN". Mrs. Helen Rauch (935-6235) and Mrs. Dotty Miller (681-5165) are the PTA chairman, Health and Safety, and they are assisted by Mrs. Estelle van All, School Nurse-Teacher. These wonderful ladies deserve our vote of thanks for their deep commitment to "our" children's safety.

Burke: Lighted Football-Soccer Fields For Cantiague Park

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John W. Burke announced today that the Nassau Board of Supervisors on October 1st will approve plans to construct two football-soccer fields at Cantiague Park in Hecksville.

Burke said the $240,000 project calls for the installation of lighting at both fields to permit night time play. Eight stanchions, each carrying a 4,000 watt lighting fixture, will be erected. The fields, which can be utilized for football, soccer, lacrosse and field hockey, will be created by regrading a large open area that lies between the park administration building and Northern State Parkway, Burke said.

He added that an underground irrigation system will be built into the fields to insure optimum playing conditions and bleachers will be installed for the convenience of spectators.

"County Executive Caso is to be praised for his speedy implementation of this project," Burke said. "The addition of the football-soccer fields will enhance the sports complex which is already one of the finest anywhere."

Cantiague Park facilities include a nine-hole golf course, swimming pools, indoor ice skating rink, court games, playgrounds and lighted softball fields.

Hicksville Soccer Scores Again

The C.Y.O. Hicksville "Hearts" soccer team has established Hicksville as a community to be reckoned with in county and state competition. Organized in 1971, they quickly rose to prominence with a championship season in 1972 with 74 goals scored and only 4 goals against. Their ability and sportsmanship was recognized and commended by opposing coaches and players alike.

More recently, Spring 1973, in the L.I. Soccer League the "Hearts" established a 17 goal - 9 against record in the New York State Cup competition, the "Hearts" stayed in contention to the semi-finals.

The Hearts achieved a career "high" in the recent Oceanside competition, where they had the satisfaction of defeating all comers, including all previous competition winners. As a team, over the past 3 years, these boys have scored 129 goals with only 21 goals scored against them.

Soccer is a coming sport in America. In Hicksville, we have Peter Collins, Tony Camara, Roger Fremgen and staff, ready willing and able to advance the aspirations of boys and the spirit of soccer. These pioneers hope to establish soccer here, in the position it holds as the No. 1 sport in the rest of the world.

Soccer And Field Hockey Teams Off To A Good Start

Hicksville Junior School Girls' Soccer and Field Hockey teams have gotten off to a great start under sunny, cool skies. Mrs. Ostro, Soccer Coach, and Miss Steinback, Field Hockey Coach, are looking forward to a good season. The Soccer team will play their first game October 1, at Wantagh. The Field Hockey team plays their first game October 5, 1973, at Southwoods.

Retired Persons To Meet, Oct. 2

The Central Nassau Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons will hold a regular meeting on Tuesday, October 2, at 1:30 PM in the Parkway Community Church, 95 Stewart Ave Hicksville.

All interested National A.A.R.P. members are invited to attend. For additional information contact the President at WE-1-0736.

HICKSVILLE LIBRARY

The third Annual Hicksville Library Old Time Country Fair was held from September 19 - 22. This event, that is the highlight in many of the people of the communities calendar, was again a tremendous success. The entries this year were more varied and more categories had to be added for the judging, the handwork that the citizens of our town produce is so beautiful that we all, even the non-doers, must share in their accomplishments. The judges worked hard and long in choosing the winners.

We wish to thank the Nassau County Home Extension Cooperative Division for supplying Mrs. Barbara Leno, Mrs. F. Mrs. Catherine Gray to judge the handwork, art and crafts, cooking, baking and preserves; Mr. Charles Cochrane of Purcell's Florists, for choosing the winners in the plant and floral arrangement division; to Mrs. Genevieve Koszalka for judging the beaded flowers to Jean Passeralli for the ceramic division. We also have to thank the Hicksville Chapter of the Homemakers Council for the many members who acted as watchers and guides and especially to Mrs. Queen Stenger who supervised the hours of the volunteer schedules and herself sat many hours the library was open to see that none of the precious handmade objects displayed were handled. To our Queen, many thanks from the entire staff of the Hicksville Library. We also wish to thank the members of the Friends of the Hicksville Library for their assistance.

In this week's issue the list of the Honorable Mention winners will be announced, and in the following weeks we will list the second and first prize winners. The Honorable Mention winners are as follows: Rose Grillo, Theresa Humphreys, Lydia Duffy, Mildred Breвик, Cathy Van Derlaske, Marie Barraco, Irene Schoenthal, Amy Ratzken, Barbara Cheslock, Lillian Phelara Leno, Mrs. F. Fisher, Amy Cott, Muriel Sherrad, William Hundt, Anna Mae Null, Mildred McLaughlin, Kerri Kear, Helen Rotkamp, Karin Ponzia, May Burke, Cindy Cardinal, Paul Goldberger, Kim Oldenborg, Jackie McKeever, Monica Murphy, Kevin Walsh, Queen Stenger, Ann Walsh, Ronnie Szabo, Henry Elks, Gladys Spinner, Wendy Elks, Virginia Slutter, Cora Verity, Joan Healy, Kerri McLaughlin, Teri Kear, Mrs. Cressman, Eileen Nathan, Eleanor Kostolnik, Christine Stoffel, Phebe Klein, Jean Rolland and Vince Barraco.

How to choose your house plants, how to help them flourish even though you may be a novice, and how to use them to advantage in your home will be discussed at the Hicksville Public Library on Thursday, October 4 at 10 a.m. by an agent of the staff of the Nassau County Office of Cooperative Extension. The program, "Bring Nature Indoors with 'Foliage Plants'", will help you increase your enjoyment of the green things grown in your home and your satisfaction from their use for household decoration.

West Nicholas St. HICKSVILLE: Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gulekuni of Scooter Lane HICKSVILLE, who will celebrate their 15th wedding anniversary on Oct. 4th.

Happy Birthday to Nicole Taorminis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Taorminis of Farmingville, who will be one year old on Oct. 5. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Filko of PLAINVIEW.

Joseph Paul Eberle, son of Mr. and Mrs. WILLIAM H. Eberle, Switzerland Rd., HICKSVILLE, will be 7 years old on Oct. 4. Happy Birthday, Joseph.

Happy Birthday to Kevin MacPherson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Colin MacPherson, 39 Haverford Rd., HICKSVILLE, who was 13 years old on Sept. 22.

THE GRADUATES, Nassau County Comptroller, Hal Christ, awards a certificate of completion to Pauline Dittman of Westbury as fellow Nassau County employees proudly display theirs. Left to right are Dr. Frank Grusso of Hicksville, Minnie Herzog, Ann Leap and Clement Thall, all of Westbury. The certificates mark the successful completion of an eight-week course, Supervision in County Government, sponsored by the Department of General Services.

The speaker will give special attention to plants that flourish under minimum care and those that can adapt to the unnatural, sometimes adverse, conditions in today's homes. There will be discussion of basic cultural requirements for house plants that are commonly used and available.

Supplementary Material will be distributed, and ample time will be allowed for questions.

The foliage plant program is sponsored cooperatively by the Agricultural Division of Cooperative Extension, the Nassau Library System and the Hicksville Public Library. Arrangements were coordinated by Estelle Goldstein, Adult Services Specialist of the Nassau Library System, the service center for the 53 public libraries in the County.

For additional information the program at the Hicksville Library, please contact the library. Information on similar program at other public libraries in Nassau County may be obtained from Mrs. Goldstein (741-0060).

The improvements are bright lights on all stations to illuminate the ball field and renovation of the existing ball field at a cost of about 340,000. The lighting would be in close proximity to the homes of South Woodbury residents.

Town Hall spokesmen said that Supervisor Burkhead held up all work on the improvements to the park pending a meeting with the South Woodbury residents.

A CONTRIBUTION: Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John W. Burke (right) presents a check to Joseph Giordano, Venerable of the Galileo Galilei Lodge, Sons of Italy, Hicksville, for the lodge's annual Columbus Day Parade. The Town Board voted to help defray the cost of the parade which has become a very popular event for Town and nearby residents.

To Present Show

The Hicksville Adult Education Department is again sponsoring a show by Simplicity Patterns. It will be presented on Wednesday, October 10, at 8:00 P.M. in Cafeteria A of the Hicksville High School, Division Avenue at 6th Street. Simplicity's new fall line will be seen on slides as well as modeled by members of the Adult Education sewing classes. A representative from Simplicity will describe the garments and answer questions from the audience. All interested people are cordially invited. For further information, call 733-2103 during the day or 733-2172 in the evenings.

The Hicksville High varsity football team opened its 1973 season last week with a tough loss to Bethpage 20-0.

The Comets won the opening coin toss and co-captains Paul Curcio and Walt Sygney elected to receive. For the first few series of downs neither team was able to launch a sustained drive and both teams were forced to punt. Late in the first quarter Glenn Pfaffle punted for the Comets from about their 35 yd. line. The Comets were unable to stop the Bethpage punt returner as he ran 70 yards for the touchdown. The extra point kick by Bethpage was no good.

Early in the second quarter Walt Sygney sacked the Bethpage quarterback for a 10 yd. loss. Bethpage punted and Hicksville took the ball on their own 21. On a run by Paul Curcio a 15 yd. penalty was tagged against Bethpage. In the same drive Steve Cannone fired a strike to Pfaffle for a first down and then again to Pfaffle for a 7 yd. gain. Cannone, on third and eight, rolled out and passed to Ed DeDominico who brought it down to the nine. Hicksville fans at last had some hope but it was short-lived. The Comets fumbled on the next play. Bethpage, taking advantage of Hiskerville's mistake, marched down the field and culminated their drive with a screen pass for their second TD with 30 seconds left in the half. Once again they failed to make their extra point kick good.

The second half was not that much different from the first. Bethpage marched downfield and went over from the 3 for their third TD. They faked an extra point kick and passed for the 2 pt. conversion. Bethpage now led 20-0. Late in the third period Bethpage fumbled on the 26. A third down pass to Ken Lawhon brought the ball down to the 20. The Comets went for the first down on the next play but were stopped.

Early in the 4th quarter Leo Orsino forced a Bethpage fumble on the Hicksville 20. A pass interference call brought the ball up to the 40. Then a Cannone pass to Orsino brought the ball to the Bethpage 30. The Comets were hurt by a 15 yd. holding penalty which brought the ball back to the 45. A screen pass brought the ball to the 36 and Cannone then ran for a first down to the 17. Cannone was blindsided on the next play on the 27. A pass to Pfaffle brought the ball to the 15. An interception was taken by Bethpage on the next play and with it any hopes the Comets still had.

Hicksville pursued mainly a running attack which was hard to maintain. Backs Geoff Thrope and Sam Lippin had sustained injuries in a pre-season scrimmage and Ed DeDominico and Paul Curcio were forced to work overtime.

The Comets have a bye this weekend and their next game is at home against Farmingdale on October 8. If the Dalers win this weekend the Comets will be trying to stop a 21 game winning streak which is not an easy task. Game time is 1:30. J.V. football, which also lost its first game, will play its next game at Farmingdale on Oct. 8 at 10:00.

Soccer Starts
The varsity soccer team opened its season with two losses and a win. The Comets lost their first game to Cold Spring Harbor 3-2. Howie Schwartz and Frank Noble tallied goals. In their second game they beat Westbury 4-3. Schwartz and Gramaglia had one apiece and Scanlon scored 2. In a 3-1 loss to Glen Cove Bob Norjean converted a penalty kick.

Tennis Faults
The tennis team trying to improve on last year's 3-10 season had their debut spoiled by Westbury losing 6-1. Bill Hack and Ray Seelz had their doubles match in straight sets 6-3, 6-4.
