Salute Committeemen

Hicksville. The Hicksville Republican Committeemen's Council held their annual Christmas celebration last Sunday evening at the Old Country Manor, 244 Old Country Road, in the community.

Jay Schwartz, Hicksville Republican Leader extolled the work of the Council and its dedicated committeemen, who with the assist of hundreds more volunteering their time, coordinated the successful victory of Supervisor John W. Burke and the entire Republican slate.

A highlight of the evening, was a presentation by Jay Schwartz to Joseph McNamara, of an engraved wrist watch, citing his 17 years of tireless service in behalf of the Hicksville Republican Committee, the Committeemen's Council and the community-at-large. Mr. McNamara, who resides at 70 Myers Avenue, has been a Hicksville resident for the past 23 years, a parishioner at St. Ignatius R. C. Church, and a member of the Joseph Barry Council, Knights of Columbus. It was a proud time in his life and came as a complete surprise to "Joe," as he is affectionately known to his many neighbors and friends.

Thank you, Joe for all your effort and dedicated work is the wish of his host of Hicksville friends.

"Foley, New Fire Commissioner"

William Foley defeated incumbent Fire Commissioner James Taxter and ex-Chief John Specht a candidate for Commissioner also. By a 705 vote victory. James Taxter received 76, John Specht 402 for a total of 1,197 votes, 14 of which were blank.

The voter turnout was very low considering the very important function of the office of fire commissioner.

William Foley, a member of Engine Co. 7, wishes to thank all those who were interested in their fire department and came out to vote.

He praised his committee for the job they did and thanked all his supporters.

"H.F.D. OPEN HOUSE DRAWS A CROWD:" In spite of a steady downpour on Sunday December 9, the annual holiday open house sponsored by the Hicksville Fire Dept. drew a crowd of almost 3,500 people. Santa was on hand to talk to the kids. His planned arrival by helicopter had to be canceled due a high fee for insurance for the 5 minute landing required by the town to use the town parking field.

Outside demonstrations were washed out but it was hoped that those who came learned a thing or two on fire prevention. The officers and men wish to thank all those who braved the elements.

"Fire Report"

During the past week Hicksville firemen responded to twelve alarms. Seven of the alarms were false alarms, and five rescue calls. One of the calls (Dec. 11) was at 44 Alpine Lane, an electrical fire. On Nov. 15, firemen raced to a fire at 44 Alpine Lane—that one was electrical, too. Sounds like it's time to get a professional to do the job before someone gets hurt. We urge caution with do-it-yourself electrical work or hiring incompetent repairmen. Using electric heaters to fool the oil man is not too good an idea. You aren't fooling the power company. Heaters are very dangerous. All it takes is some cloth or paper to come in contact with the heater and woosh! Up it goes.

It is also dangerous to use extension cords with electric heaters. Why? In most cases people will use any old cord available. You are asking for trouble if the cord you use is not a heavy duty one. Some safety tips, if you must use an electric heater:

- All heaters should carry the UL label (Underwriter Lab. Seal)
- All heaters should have an automatic switch to shut heater off in event of overheating.
- All heaters should have a tip-over switch to shut the heater off if it should tip over.

One Nassau man died already as a result of a fire caused by a heater. Don't be a statistic.

Hicksville Public Library

The Hicksville Public Library will present the Ivy Lane Repertory Theatre in "Come Back Little Sheba" on Saturday evening, December 15 at 8:30 p.m. Tickets are necessary for admission to this performance. There are still some tickets available at the library and on the bookmobile. If you are unable to come to the library to pick up tickets, a call to WE-1-1417 will reserve tickets in your name for you.

On Sunday afternoon, December 16 at 3 p.m. the Fine Arts Committee of the Hicksville Public Library will present Sam Baron in a recital. Mr. Baron, a well known flutist in the metropolitan area, will be accompanied on the piano by Carl Baron. This program is presented by the library through a grant from Nassau County.

A Musical Holiday Around The World

Music is another way to trace the history of the world, and from the songs we learn about the customs of other places. The songs heard today were sung and played by The Lyric Singers, under the direction of Carl Olsen. This program "A Musical Holiday Around the World" was provided by the co-sponsorship of the Old Country Road School PTA and The Town of Oyster Bay, Cultural and Performing Arts Division. The children of all the grades listened, sang and applauded. An enjoyable time was had by all.

A new board of directors, comprised of Tom Clark, Pres., Jody Morrison, Vice-Pres., and Pete Collins, Tres., has been formed. They are interested in suggestions from the community, both from youths and adults.

Bill Nash, the Project Director, will have a meeting on Thursday, Dec. 27 at 2 P.M. at the Library for all junior and senior high students who want to become involved with this project in the setting up of its programs. The types of programs - from field trips to assorted workshops to seminars - will depend upon the active involvement of this community's teenagers. So come to the Library on the 27th and find out what's going on.

Furthermore, since it is a community project, the Hicksville Youth Council will hold public meetings on a monthly basis; the next scheduled one being on the 8th of Jan., 1974 at 7:30 P.M. in the Youth Center at 22 W. Nicholas St. All are invited. We are looking forward to you. For further information, call Bill Nash at 822-7594.

The Message Of Chanukah

The first 25 years of Modern Israel's history is stamped with a heroic quality which has stunned and changed the world. Jewish history is indeed stamped with an epic and heroic quality which is often overlooked. This quality derives from the fact that no history records as many revolts against tyranny and oppression as does the history of Israel. From the first revolution against Egyptian bondage, through the revolt of the Maccabees, and extending to the sanguinary revolution of Bar Kochha, Jewish resistance against totalitarianism, has woven an unbreakable thread in the tapestry of its national existence.

The Jew is voracious and insatiable in his hunger for freedom. He is possessed of an unquenchable vision of the human Bill of Rights inherent in the teachings of Judaism. Chanukah is merely another chapter in this unending saga. The Maccabees are the gramatis personae which led to the Chanukah Feast of Lights. Open the history book to any page and you will find Jews in the vanguard of every uprising against evil, injustice, and inequity.

Year after year, the grandeur of Chanukah acquires a new dimension. The international immorality which regards with impunity the defilement of human life and the violation of basic human rights calls for a new Chanukah.

The Hasmonian battle cry: "Whoever is for the Lord, follow me." must be clarified anew in our generation.

Hicksville Community Park Task Force Holds First Meeting

The Hicksville Community Park Task Force met on December 3.

The following members were present: Clara Bennett, Peter C. Collins, Peter N. DeNinno, Jack Landress, Maynard G. Munch, Sheila Noeth, Amadeo Tomaini and Robert Willis. The following advisors were present: James Arvantis, Warren M. Doolittle, George Finn, Edward Gaynor and Donald McLean.

1. In order to facilitate communications among members of the Task Force, it was requested that each be supplied with a roster of members and their addresses. The membership list is attached.

2. The goal of the Task Force is to develop a proposal for recreational facilities at both the Giese property and triangle site that best meets with the needs and desires of residents of the Hicksville Park District.

3. Following considerable discussion of various proposed recreational facilities, it was proposed that the Task Force develop a list of recreational needs on a priority basis. In order to properly reflect the desires of the residents, it was proposed that a questionnaire be prepared by the Town of Oyster Bay Planning and Development Department for subsequent distribution to all park district residents. The possibility of using the Hicksville School District mailing list is being explored.

4. The Town will provide the Task Force with the following information to assist it in the development of its proposals:

- a. Multi-use facilities.
- b. Development and construction costs of typical facilities.
- c. Size requirements for recreational facilities.
- 5. It was proposed that the Task Force give consideration to the joint development and operation of special recreation facilities with the Hicksville School District.
- 6. The next meeting of the Task Force has been scheduled for Monday, January 21, 1974, at 8:00 p.m., in the Conference Room of the Town of Oyster Bay Parks Division, 800 South Oyster Bay Road, Hicksville, New York.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,
We would like to ask your assistance in helping with an altruistic program.

There are approximately 12 retarded children of the Suffolk State School in Melville, N.Y. whose parents reside in the Town of Oyster Bay who are eligible to attend a Saturday morning recreation program at either the J.F. Kennedy High School in Plainview or the Jericho Lanes in Syosset.

Neither the Suffolk State School nor the Group Activities Program of the Town of Oyster Bay have any funds for transporting these retarded children.

It has been suggested that either a fraternal, civic, veterans' or service organization might be in a position to enlist the assistance of two drivers of station wagons to pick up these retarded children at approximately 9:30 a.m. on Saturday mornings. The program ends at 12:00 at which time the drivers would return the retarded children to Suffolk State School. This program will run to June, 1974 and a schedule of dates will be delivered to the volunteers. If more than two people volunteer, then the number of times one must drive is proportionately decreased. The only requirement the volunteer must meet is that he must sign up as a registered volunteer at Suffolk State School. We would appreciate any assistance you can give us to obtain these volunteers.

JEROME M. NESS, President

Editors Note: Here is a wonderful opportunity for a few station wagon owners to be a great service. Phone 427-0078 to volunteer.

County Fund Transfer Meets Coliseum's Lack

By Janet Gosnell

At its regular meeting on Monday, December 10th, the Nassau County Board of Supervisors voted to establish a "transfer of funds to the Coliseum" account, and then transferred $425,000 to the Coliseum to meet a deficit caused, according to county sources, by renegotiation of union contracts with service employees. These employees include the maintenance workers, plumbers, ticket takers, carpenters, electricians, ushers and parking attendants, the spokesman said.

The supervisors also raised the tuition for students attending Nassau Community College to $235. For residents and $470. For non residents. For individual courses, the cost per credit was set at $18. For residents and $36. For non-residents.

Mitchell Park, now in the planning stages, once again came onto the agenda with a resolution approved by the supervisors to apply for federal and state grants totalling $5,538,750. For site work, including lakes, fountains, bicycle and pedestrian paths, picnic areas and playgrounds. A resolution the previous week to float a $6,000,000 bond issue, also for site work, appeared to conflict. However, as explained by Hempstead Town Presiding Supervisor Francis Purcell to one speaker, the bond issue of the previous week applied to the total expected cost of $44,900,000 for the park, and was for different types of site work. He mentioned sewage and roadways.

Other Business
In other business, the supervisors voted to accept a federal grant of $54,534, in relation to the program entitled "Retired Senior Volunteer Program" administered by the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizen Affairs. The cost to the county for the program, (25.8 of the total cost) is $19,032.

The Supervisors also renewed licensing agreements to lease part of the Woodfield Road School in Rockville Centre for the Children's Day Care Center operated by the Nassau County Department of Social Services at an annual cost of $30,258, or $2,521.50 per month. Appearing high at first look, this price includes cleaning, repairs, maintenance, heat and water in addition to use of gymnasium kitchen, classrooms, playground and parking areas.

Next Week
Next week, the supervisors are expected to adopt the proposed county budget for 1974 and levy taxes. They will also vote on allocating an additional $73,566 for the Retired Senior Volunteer Program and will vote on rendering additional financial aid in the amount of $113,333, to the Economic Opportunity Board.

The supervisors will also vote on giving Sylvania Commercial Electronics Corp. the franchise to rent television sets to patients at the Dynamic Care Building at the Nassau County Medical Center and also on selling a 10' x 100' foot strip of land on the southeast corner of President Street and Madison Avenue in Hempstead to the owner of the adjacent property for $150.

Jericho Preserve
The question of the county's setting aside a triangular parcel in the vicinity of Route 107 and Jericho Turnpike in Jericho as a historical area is also scheduled to be resolved next Monday, according to another calendar item. A public hearing on the proposal took place earlier this year, during which attorneys for residents took opposition. One of the homes included in the proposal is the former Elias Hicks house, now occupied by the Arstark family.

According to the clerk of the Board of Supervisors, a 3-acre parcel included in the original proposal has been omitted from the historical preserve. This parcel is designated as parcel 5 on the map of the preserve.

The adjacent Maine Maid Inn, located on a 17 acre parcel owned by Mutual of Omaha, is not included in the proposal.

Point of View!

This is the third of a series of articles in what will be a continuing effort to present to the community the views of the teaching and clerical staff represented by the Plainview-Dia Bethpage Congress of Teachers.

The articles will speak of problems that are important in Plainview, but some will, of necessity, also extend beyond Plainview's border to neighboring districts, and have even state or national implications. Local topics will include articles on planning the district's budget, early childhood education, 2-year community college, students' accountability, individualized instruction, and specific educational policies in Plainview, state-wide and national problems include tax reform to take the financial burden off small property owners, and the Federal government's lack of support for public education.

We hope that these articles will stimulate response from the community in the form of replies and questions. Please feel free to write us.

ALTERNATIVES TO THE PROPERTY TAX

The property tax, as we indicated in our previous article, is largely responsible for the rapid abandonment that has taken place in the past several years. It is a regressive tax that hits hardest on those least able to pay, and results in a mediocre funding of education in Plainview and elsewhere throughout the country.

Last year the Department of Education of the State of New York issued a report on raising funds for education, although several members of the county indicated it was not a fair and equitable way. The report proposes the following alternatives to the local property tax:

1. The Federal Government should, for the first time, provide general education funds. These funds should be provided on a large scale (perhaps as much as 20 per cent or 25 per cent of total needs).

2. The state government should provide the remainder of the funds needed.

3. The federal and state governments should get their money from: a) the graduated income tax, reformed in order to get rid of loopholes from personal and corporate income; and

b) a graduated tax on all property, and for the homeowner, an exemption on the first $25,000 of 100 per cent assessed value.

We think that the greatest emphasis in these reforms must be placed on greater federal funding and from corporate tax reform.

Presently, the federal government provides absolutely no general funds for education. The money it does spend is only for a narrow range of special education, such as compensatory education for the retarded, disabled and disadvantaged, who, while most deserving, recognize the importance of education to the national well-being by providing substantial portions of their budgets (up to 50 per cent) for the U.S. Governmental budget is a necessary complement of increased federal funding of education. Corporations are the greatest beneficiaries of the existing students receive in the American educational system, so they pay relatively little for this service. The corporations avoid paying a large portion of their already burdensome Federal and state income tax liabilities, and they avoid many property taxes which are not graduated as they should be by giving property tax concessions from local governments who are either afraid or unable to compete in a strict tax competition.

The reforms we are advocating are sound, we only hope that, like politicians as well as lawyers with commission, votes, salaries, and status to be earned, they will be carried out. We hope that education funding, no longer will commission be carried to state where budgets that are "balanced" as a facade to hide what require residents to pay more than they can afford.

There is no political potential in these reforms for getting all across teachers' students' community groups, school boards, and other organizations who are goal to provide good education, adequately funded.

All children deserve to have quality education. Their education should not and need not be dependent on their parents' incomes and other socioeconomic factors. These reforms are imperative if quality education is not to become the sole province of, and for the wealthy.

Those who are interested in hearing from organizations, individuals, school board members, students, who are ready to act, write to us for these changes.

On Wednesday evening, December 19, the Hicksville Community Orchestra and Chorus will present a staged, costumed version of Gian-Carlo Menotti's enchanting "Amahl and the Night Visitors."

The performance will begin at 8:00 p.m. and will end before 10:00 p.m. so that the entire family can enjoy the lovely story of the poor lame shepherd boy's encounter with the three kings. It will be held at the Hicksville High School Auditorium on Division Ave. and Sixth Street. Admission is free.

The Community Orchestra is under the direction of Mr. Charles F. Gouse, Supervisor of Music for the Hicksville School District. Mr. David Stowell conducts the chorus.

Council Caroling December 20

On Thursday, December 20, at 7:30 P.M., members of the Mid-Island Ecumenical Council will gather in the Mid-Island Shopping Plaza, Hicksville, for an hour of Christmas Caroling.

This will be the third year that carolers from the Council, which is composed of 17 Churches in the Hicksville-Plainview-Bethpage area, have appeared in the Shopping Plaza.

The Reverend Robert Osgood of the Bethpage Methodist Church, coordinator of this year's activity, extends an invitation to all shoppers to "join us and sing along."

Beware Of Christmas Tree Hazards

The Hicksville Fire Dept. Fire Prevention Bureau wishes to inform all residents on the use of Christmas trees. Don't think you are safe buying an artificial tree; most of them are made of some form of plastic. Whether it be polyvinyl chloride, polyurethane, or polyethylene enough heat, and up it goes. The main cause of this problem is faulty lights and wiring. Choose your lights carefully. Look for the UL seal.

For those of you who have a live tree, there is a new product on the market called "Prolong" by Texide. You simply add it to water and it keeps tree more moist. It can be purchased in department and discount stores.

ITALIAN STUDENTS ON CBS TV. On December 5, Mr. Ferraro, teacher of Italian at the High School, took a group of fifty students in Farham University to see an exhibition of Leonardo Da Vinci.

Paul Houca-Pallone, sponsor of the event, was very impressed by the Hicksville students and their fluency and knowledge of Italian. Paul Pallone selected two Hicksville students to appear with him on CBS TV coverage of the Da Vinci exhibit. The TV stars are Helen Russo and Jerry Maida.

The students also had an opportunity to listen to a lecture by Dr. Raymond S. Stites of Washington, D.C., one of the most authoritative scholars on Leonardo in the United States, who discussed the life and works of Leonardo Da Vinci by showing a film and several slides.

As some students put it: "This was a most enjoyable educational experience."

QUES: My 80 year old uncle gets monthly social security payments of about $100. This is barely enough to live on. Will the new supplementary security income program be able to help him?

ANS: When this Federal program starts in January 1974, your uncle may be eligible for some supplemental security income payments even though he's getting social security benefits. The Federal program is intended to assure a basic income of at least 130 a month for a single person over 65 in financial need if the person has no other income.

In New York State this basic amount is increased to $206 through additional payment by New York State. If the person has other income this is taken into account. The first $20 of your uncle's social security won't reduce the supplementary security payment but the balance of his social security payment will reduce the benefit dollar for dollar. Your uncle could possibly get a supplemental payment of $126 a month in addition to his $100 social security check.

QUES: Since my ex-husband became disabled a couple of months ago, he hasn't been able to pay his child support. I know that he applied for monthly social security payments. Can my 15-year-old son and I also collect monthly checks? I'm 40.

ANS: You should apply for payments for your son. If your husband's benefits are approved your son will also be eligible. But you can't get payments now. As a divorced wife you may also be eligible for monthly payments on your ex-husband's earnings record if you are 62 or over and you were married to him for 20 years or more.

QUES: I'm a 62-year-old widower. Since I was totally dependent on my wife before she died, can I get monthly social security checks based on her work record?

ANS: Possibly, if she worked long enough in jobs covered by social security. Since January of this year, the age of eligibility for dependent widowers was lowered from 62 to 60. You should contact any social security office to apply for monthly payments. Your local office in Mineola is located at 1 Station Plaza North. The telephone number is P1-75470.

Few Attend TOB Hearing On Bruce Estate Purchase

By Janet Gosnell

Very few people were present, a fact taken to denote approval by those attending, to witness the public hearing held by the Town of Oyster Bay on Tuesday to "consider a map of property to be acquired by the Town of Oyster Bay for park purposes at Jericho Turnpike & South Woods Road, Syosset, a 120-acre parcel better known as the Bruce Estate.

Those who were present all spoke in favor, including Shirley Lang of Woodbury, representing the Joint Civic Council, Dorothy Horton McGee, chairman of the Oyster Bay Bicentennial Commission and the Oyster Bay Historical Society, and Judy Jacobs, president of the South Woodbury Taxpayers Association.

Others present came just to listen and to comment later on the beauty of the property and the charm and elegance of the moderate sized residence on it. Joan Davidson, of the Syosset School Board, said she was only able to describe the heavily guarded property second hand, from descriptions given her by her son, a boy scout, whowith other scouts was given access to the property for scouting activities.

According to descriptions, most of the property is wooded and wild. There is also a formal Italian garden, and several tracts of flowering tree orchards.

Wants Nature Walks
Judy Jacobs, in behalf of her association, asked for several assurances regarding the proposed acquisition. She asked for severe restrictions against the town divesting itself of the property at any future time. She said she would also like the town to be accessible to all, not just special groups, and more of a "passive" than an active park, providing a haven for bird watchers and a locale for nature walks. She also asked that the grounds be maintained in the same manner that they are now kept.

The parcel, for which the Bruce estate is to be reimbursed $2.5 million, will be purchased by the town with the aid of a federal grant, which will finance half of the purchase cost.

PUBLIC HEARING on the proposed acquisition of the Town of Oyster Bay of the 120-acre Bruce estate in Syosset for park purposes drew civic leaders to Town Hall on Tuesday, including (from left): Roberta Gilbert, of the Syosset School Board; Shirley Lang, of the Joint Civic Council; and Joan Davidson, also of the school board.

Attorneys for the Bruce estate earlier this year said they felt the cost was too low and that the estate intended to fight for a higher price with litigation.

According to Supervisor Burke, the estate will be a town-wide park, as opposed to a local community park like the Syosset-Woodbury Park. Definite plans for its development have not been made.

Other Business
In other business, the Town Board heard several speakers on proposed amendments to tow car licensees, who are divided into two groups, those allowed at scenes of accidents (unrestricted license) and those who are allowed to engage in all other towing activities except in the case of accidents (restricted license).

In order to hold an unrestricted license, the towing operator must have special equipment, provide 24-hour service, and in the case of new licensees, must have a terminal within the Town of Oyster Bay.

The Board also voted 6 to 1 (Councilman Lewis J. Yevoli voting nay) to an emergency resolution giving Supervisor John W. Burke power to allocate fuel within town departments, acquire fuel and storage facilities, regulate opening and closing of town buildings and discontinue town services when necessary. The resolution was passed on the basis that a state of emergency exists in the town in regard to fuel.

Annual Madrigal Library Concert: On Sunday December 23, the Hicksville High School Madrigal Singers will present a Holiday Concert at the Hicksville Public Library at 3:00 P.M. The program will include Medieval, Renaissance and contemporary music for the Christmas season. Admission is free and the community is invited to share in an afternoon of joyous music.

HHS German Classes

Forty Hicksville High School German students spent an entire day in a German environment, eating Austrian-type food at the Wienerwald Restaurant and seeing two German movies in Ridgewood on Tuesday, November 27 under the supervision of their teacher, Dr. Eric A. Hirst and Mrs. Hirst.

Leaving the school at 10:45 the students went by bus to the restaurant on Queens Boulevard where they had Bratkaendei (fried chicken), Bratkartoffel (home-fried potatoes), salad, various types of German bread, ice cream and coke.

After lunch the group went to the Ridgewood movie where they saw two movies: Die Seltsame Graefin (The Strange Countess), an Edgar Wallace thriller, and Das Dreimaderl Haus (The House of the Three Girls) based on the Rudolf Friml opera about part of the life of Franz Schubert, famous Austrian composer. This movie features scenes of Vienna as well as some events from the life of Schubert and a few scenes with Beethoven who spent a good part of his life in Vienna.

Students and staff appreciate the opportunity given by the school board to have experiences in the language they are studying. When possible, further adventures of this type will be undertaken.

What Does A Banker Do With A Bale Of Hay?

The man is Joseph Burger, the manager of Long Island Trust's brand new "barn bank" which opened Dec. 4 in Bethpage. The job at hand is what to do with a bale of hay delivered as a good natured jest by those friendly people at Suburbia Federal Savings and Loan Association, who thought it might be nice to honor the newly-opened branch with a gift appropriate to the occasion, or something like that.

In any event, the "barn bank" with its early American barn-type architecture, windmill in the back parking lot, heavy beams vertical barn siding, and interesting artifacts is designed to accommodate the banking public whose taste for rural Americana is bound to be pleased by the new Long Island Trust Company branch on Hicksville Road (near Grumman Aerospace).

The new Bethpage "barn bank" is Long Island Trust Company's 31st branch. The bank now has assets in excess of $500,000,000.

(And that ain't hay, Suburbia.)

Foreign Language Greeting Cards Displayed

The foreign language department of Hicksville senior high school is displaying greeting cards made by French, German, Italian, Latin, and Spanish students. With this year's theme being Peace, translated as Paix, Frieden, Pace, Pax, and Paz, there are cards wishing everyone Joyeux Noel et Bonne Annee; Froehliche Weihnachten and ein gluekliches new jahr; Buon Natale e Buon Capodanno; Laetum Natalem Christi et Bonum Annum Novum, and Feliz Navidad y Prospero Año Nuevo. There are also wishes for a Happy Chanuka in the various languages and quite a few Season's Greetings and Peace.

One student made a painting of the Nativity and another a pastel. Spanish students have made pinatas which are prominently displayed.

The only item displayed in the window that was not made by a student is an artificial Christmas tree that is not revolving and is not illuminated by a color wheel because of the energy crisis.

Supervisor JOHN W. BURKE REPORTS

The energy crisis has placed additional emphasis on the need for all of us to seek more efficient means of transportation to reduce the consumption of our dwindling fuel supply. One mode of transportation receiving considerable interest by the local commuter is the bicycle.

We have been studying the feasibility of constructing bicycling paths within Oyster Bay, and have begun the preliminary research necessary for construction of paths that will be practical for local municipalities and will meet the needs of the Town's bicycling enthusiasts.

Our initiation of this study was not solely in response to the energy shortage but more primarily was begun in a specific effort to increase bicycling safety within Oyster Bay and to meet an express desire among our residents for increased bike facilities.

We have studied information from local hiking organizations and enthusiasts and from other Long Island municipalities — as well as from County, State Federal and City agencies — in gathering basic data for the development of bike paths.

Construction of networks that could get bicyclers anywhere and everywhere within the Town is, of course, unworkable. There are incalculable difficulties in developing rights-of-way along smaller thoroughfares, and it is impractical to ask individuals to give up portions of their residential properties in our well developed Town.

The logical alternative, and the plan which I support, is the development of bicycle paths on existing and future public lands — Town, County and State owned — as well as along the rights-of-way of the larger thoroughfares within the Town.

This approach, a means of developing bicycling facilities under the safest of conditions, has the potential for meeting the needs of our residents with relative ease and minimal cost.

We stand in support of the concept of increased biking facilities and are prepared to take action and make recommendations for their logical development.

Blood Banks Merge

All resources, facilities, personnel, and activities of Inter-County Blood Banks, Inc. at Rockville Centre will be combined with the Greater New York Blood Program on January 1, 1974.

The merger was announced on Dec. 11 by Dr. Robert L. Hirsch, Director of the Blood Program at a press luncheon held in the Caucus Room Restaurant in Mineola.

As a division of the Greater New York Blood Program, jointly sponsored by the American Red Cross and the Community Blood Council of Greater New York, Inc., Inter-County will become an integrated part of the largest community blood program in the United States.

Inter-County Blood Banks established in 1942 by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Madden in response to the need for blood in World War II, turned its efforts at the conclusion of the war to providing blood for local Long Island communities through civic, business, religious, and fraternal organizations. Inter-County was established in January at Mary Immaculate Hospital and later moved to its present location at the old Nassau Star-Review building on Sunrise Highway.

Speaking at the news conference luncheon, Dr. Hirsch explained that "the merger of Inter-County into the Greater New York system means increased and improved blood services for Long Island residents consistent with the concept of community orientation. We intend to expand and modernize the operations and facilities," he said.

"We hope to develop this merger in such a way that it will stand as an example for other blood banking facilities throughout the country."

Dr. Kenneth Woods, Deputy Director of the Community Blood Council, represented that organization at the luncheon and Mrs. Helen Lenahan represented Inter-County. Now the Assistant Director of Inter-County, Mrs. Lenahan will remain with the blood services organization after the first of the year as administrator.

At the close of the luncheon session, blood bank officials paid tribute to Mrs. Madden.

JOHN F. KENNEDY HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

German Classes Present Play

The German IV and V classes at John F. Kennedy High School participated in a contest sponsored by Hofstra University on November 7. German classes from ten Long Island high schools met at Hofstra to present and perform various skits. The Kennedy students were awarded 1st Prize for their outstanding performance of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. Any resemblance to the original Grimm fairy tale was purely coincidental.

The students wanted to show this funny skit to their parents and relatives and performed for them on Monday night, November 19, in the L.G.I.

On November 20 they performed the same skit at two assemblies at the Joyce Road School. The purpose of these performances was to show the elementary students how much fun high school students can have in learning a foreign language. The youngsters in the audience were delighted and enthusiastic about the skits presented to them. Mr. Robert Goldstein, Assistant Principal at Joyce Road School, reports that students and faculty reactions were overwhelmingly favorable. The students also were delighted with the few words of German that they picked up during the performance.

Due to the success of this program, the Kennedy students have been asked to perform in three other elementary schools in the district.

Foreign language really can be fun.

It's Academic

John F. Kennedy High School is happy to announce that it has been asked to participate in the new It's Academic show broadcast on the new Channel 67, WSML, TV, Long Island.

Kennedy students Jason Fisherman, Bruce Gordon and Arthur Kurpi will be representing our school in a contest against Berner High School and Commack High School North, to be taped on Saturday, December 8. The alternates are Debbie Finn and Paul Steven. This show is currently scheduled for telecast on Wednesday evening, January 2, 1974, from 7:30 to 8:00 P.M. We wish them luck.

JAZZ FOUNDATION ACCLAIMED

BY MUSIC EDUCATORS
The Jazz Foundation of John F. Kennedy High School, under the direction of Dr. Kirby Jolly, returned last week from the Concord Hotel after a highly successful performance at the annual conference of the New York State School Music Association.

The band, one of two jazz groups selected to perform, played to a standing room only audience on Monday night, November 26. After the program, the audience which was made up of about 400 jazz educators, professional musicians and students gave the band a spontaneous standing ovation and showered the director and individual members with compliments and questions. The bands performance consisted of selections composed and arranged by members of the Jazz Foundation, as well as the best published arrangements for jazz groups. Among the members of the band to have arrangements performed were David Hirsch, Jeff Zweig, Mitchell Klein and Alan Bernstein. Three selections were arranged by members of the alumni, Michael Maisel and Elliot Semel.

Mits Haene Frankel, vocalist and Elliot Semel, trombonist, graduated in June 1973 and returned to perform on this occasion. The Jazz Foundation of Kennedy was created about six years ago as an after school extra-curricular activity. In September 1972 with the advent of modular scheduling and its inherent flexibility, the Jazz Foundation became a curricular subject with students earning 1/2 credit per year for the two hours of weekly rehearsals within the school day.

Students are selected from and must be members of the concert band which performs the usual concerts and marching band programs.

Full sections were first achieved in September 1971 and in the spring of 1972 and 1973, the Jazz Foundation of Kennedy competed in the Berklee College of Music Northeast High School Jazz Festival. Both years found the group winning a Citation of Excellence in honor of being one of the top jazz ensembles and several students were recipients of awards.

1972 - Michael Maisel - arranger and saxophonist

1972 - Elliot Semel - arranger and trombonist

1972 - David Hirsch - the only drummer cited from 65 bands

1973 - Raena Frankel - vocalist

1973 - Elliot Semel - the most outstanding jazz musician of the festival for which he wrote 2 arrangements.

Student writing is encouraged especially in both the Theory I and II classes which are taught by Dr. Jolly. These classes in addition to the regular theory work utilize a creative writing approach for which the Jazz Foundation provides an outlet of performance at dances and concerts. In addition students have also written for both marching and concert bands. Members of this group are as follows:

Trumpet - Scott Melamerson, Frank London, Michael Levine, Phillip Miller, Trombone - Andy Jacobs, Scott Herschman, Tuba - Sandy Lopater, Drums - David Hirsch, Lawrence Eagle, Guitar - Jeff Zweig, Piano - Jerry Reiss, Saxophone - Ross Block, Gary Weiss, Doug Laub, Mitchell Kihaner, Joel Peck, Bass - Michel Klein, Peter Nemarich, David Resnick, Matthew Goldberg (Piano)

Congratulations to Dr. Kirby R. Jolly and the Jazz Foundation of Kennedy for their excellence in jazz which brings honor to our school music program and our community.

JOHN F. KENNEDY HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS

With the arrival of winter, the football and soccer season came to an end. The football team finished with a 5-3 record. This enables them to end up in third place in Division II.

Four players received post-season honors for Kennedy. Vinny Caracciola, Pete Cerrone, Jim D'Angelo, and Bill Turello

Soccer Club News

The Hicksville American Soccer Club, Juvenile Division-

The soccer team also had a good season ending up in 5th place in Division I. Kennedy made the playoffs and edged Cold Spring Harbor 1-0 on a goal in overtime by Ken Berlin. But in their next game, they were defeated by a tough Great Neck North team.

Ken Berlin received post-season honors as he made all-Division and All North Shore. Now Kennedy will have to rely on the basketball, wrestling and swim teams. The basketball team led by Captains Marcus Ivaroni and Seth Greenberg are expected to win their division barring injuries. They will open their season against North Shore, Lawrence, and Wheatley at home and then away against Syosset. The basketball teams are mostly seniors this year with junior Jay Fielstein giving the Eagles extra strength.

The wrestling team after being 9-10 last year is expected to have a much better year. Coaches Ben DeGenova and Charlie McKaney feel the team is well organized and will have a good season. Kennedy is led by Captains Steve Goodwin (126) and Tom Downey (119). The wrestling team is a young team with only Jeff Blinder (157) and Jeff Siegel (138) graduating. Marc Zarceno (147) will be wrestling for the Eagles after a 10-0 season for Mattlin. Kennedy's first match is against Plainview December 19. The swim team is expected to have a good year led by Coach Bill Cahill. The Eagles first meet is against Herricks.
