No Staff Reduction In Proposed Budget

By Shirley Smith

The Hicksville School Board approved remaining budget codes and set a total figure of $25,516,638.00—this is an increase of $1,816,283 over the 1973-74 budget, and a $1.75 increase in the tax rate. Board president, Robert Pirrung, reminded the public that "what we do here is not cast in concrete; it can be changed at the public hearing." The board will have an open budget meeting, Wednesday, May 22 at 8 P.M. in the High School Auditorium.

Increases in the 600 code (operation and maintenance of plant) are due primarily to increased fuel and utility costs. Mrs. Iris Wolfson suggested the board consider reductions in the custodial staff. She will report further on this at the budget hearing.

Code 500 (transportation) includes the same policy as in previous years, with a continued 60-70 per cent return in state aid, which will be paid to the district during the 1975-76 school year. The recreation code (400) provides, again, for matching funds from the Town of Oyster Bay to implement a summer recreation program. There is no increase over last year's figure. Trustees Bruno and McCormack felt this code should be on a separate referendum. Code 300 (continuing education) provides for some fee changes in the adult education program in order to effect more revenue. However, nothing has been finalized at this point.

In discussing Code 200 (regular day-school, including the professional staff and educational supplies), Mr. Pirrung said the board had been "ill-advised" and "some of the recommended cuts in personnel (in the physical education and music programs) could not be accomplished." He added the "board was a little premature and didn't do enough homework on some of its proposals." Mr. Pirrung admitted the board "doesn't know exactly what learning resource specialists are." The figure for Code 200 which was adopted by the board does maintain the current personnel level (580 teachers plus the addition of 3 learning disabilities teachers) and all programs, including 4 elementary assistant principals. However, it was explained, the APs will be doing more curriculum, and less administrative, work and the public should be aware these men may not be in a particular building all the time. Mr. Bruno objected to the retention of the APs and said "the issue is the job and what it costs, not the individuals involved." Mrs. Wolfson and Mr. McCormack pointed out that reduction of the surplus the past two years in order to present a low increase in the budget is taking its toll now, therefore causing this year's budget to be higher than it might have been. Messrs. Bruno and Bello voted against the figure for Code 200 and the total budget amount.

The board approved a two-year teachers' contract, which provides for lower class size in the elementary schools and a staffing pattern of 595 teachers which can be reduced to 575 without consulting the HCT. With mutual consent, there may be a further reduction to 560. The school board and administration may reduce one teacher for every 30 students of declining enrollment without consultation with the HCT. The contract also provides for a 6.3 percent increase + increment the first year and a 6.4 percent increase + increment (approximately $315 - $450 on a range of steps) the second year. In addition, there is a provision if the cost of living increases more than 10 percent, which allows a corresponding increase in salary (for example: if the cost of living goes up 12 percent, the increase will be 8.3 percent instead of 6.3 percent). Messrs. Bello and Bruno voted against the contract, Mr. Bruno stating the board needed more time to consider it before voting. He said it's not important what other districts are doing: "only Hicksville is important and what the town can bear." Mr. Bruno was also opposed to the reduction of class size. Mrs. Wolfson called the agreement, "a contract of education."

The board approved summer elementary and summer high school as contingent budget items (in the event of a budget failure, these programs will continue.) Summer high school includes $17,750 for driver's education. Mr. Bello voted against this proposal, stating he felt driver's ed should not be a contingent expense.

Items on a travel allowance policy and school hours for next year were tabled until the next meeting—Wednesday, May 29 at 8 P.M. in the Administration Building.

Hicksville Lions Are First Recipients of H.A.D. Award

On Wednesday night, May 9, 1974, John Maniec, Executive Director of Help-Aid-Direction (H.A.D.), spoke before the Lions Club of Hicksville at the Maine Maid Inn on the present services of the H.A.D. agency and goals for the future.

On behalf of H.A.D., Mr. Maniec presented to Mr. Joseph Gentle, Lions Club President, a plaque honoring his club for their consistent financial support of H.A.D. program services during its 1973-74 contract year. Over the past year, the Hicksville Lions have contributed more than $400, to H.A.D. to assist in helping young people in trouble.

The Lions Club of Hicksville became the first community-service organization of Hicksville to be officially honored by H.A.D. this year with the presentation of its "Friends of H.A.D. Award." The plaque read as follows: "Help-Aid-Direction hereby presents the Friends of H.A.D. Award to the Lions Club of Hicksville, Inc. for their consistent support and concern for young people in times of crises. Hicksville, May 8, 1974."

From April 1, 1973 through March 31, 1974, the H.A.D. organization had to raise close to $4000 by way of local effort means and donations. The money from the Hicksville Lions thus represented 10 per cent of the total amount raised.

Of this $4000, approximately $2500 went to pay salaries of H.A.D. staff not covered by its funding grant from the NYS Drug Abuse Control Commission (DACC). The remaining $1500 was expended on such items as: H.A.D.'s 1973 summer play, Lign in Winter; its share of the financial loss in the Kiwanis-H.A.D. Saturday Matinee Winter Movies ($650); H.A.D. sponsored Sells and Gray Circus; and various youth-centered recreational athletic activities.

As a result of the regular monthly donations from the Lions Club of Hicksville, the H.A.D. agency was able to appropriate more than $200 toward emergency food, clothing, rent for rooms, transportation expenses to vocational rehabilitation program for young people in trouble and under various forms of pressures and hardships. Part of this money was also used to hire young people to do various clean-up and beautification projects within the hamlet of Hicksville. "Not only did these young people earn a little honest spending money, develop self-reliance, and a sense of independence, but they also worked with volunteer adults toward a more beautiful Hicksville community."

Mr. Maniec spoke on several important goals of the H.A.D. agency for the upcoming 1974-75 contract year. One of these goals centered around the creation of part-time jobs for young people living within the Hicksville area. H.A.D. hopes to raise enough funds through donations and fund-raising events to be able to pay young people to clean up the yards and homes of senior citizens. These residents of Hicksville would be people who are either physically and/or financially unable to handle these tasks anymore.

Together with frequent community clean-up and beautification projects, having young people help out long-time residents of Hicksville and be paid for their efforts will truly provide the Hicksville community with a vital service. H.A.D. welcomes this opportunity to serve the youths, parents, and adults of its community in various significant ways. Help-Aid-Direction hopes to develop a very viable, total community service agency helping people with all forms of problems and difficulties.

"C" For Culture

Forty-three French and Latin students visited the Metropolitan Museum of Art Thursday, May 9, on a trip sponsored and arranged by the Hicksville Senior High School Latin Club. Chaperones were Samuel A. Goldberg, their teacher and chairman of the school's Foreign Language Department, Mrs. Goldberg, and Mrs. Weinstein, the mother of one of the students.

The students toured and enjoyed the Roman and Greek exhibits, admired the museum's restaurant, which is a duplicate of the peristyle or outdoor portico and garden of an ancient Roman's home, and examined the many French printings and furnishings. Unrelated exhibits that some were able to visit included women's clothing of the 1910's - 1930's and musical instruments from the entire world.

(2) PROPOSALS ORIGINAL

A "Letter To The Editor" That Never Made It!

To Mr. Attwood, President, Newsday:

On several occasions in the past two months, persons identifying themselves as Newsday reporters have called me or members of my staff seeking comparative information between our facility and the Nassau Coliseum.

Subsequent to each of these several lengthy telephone conversations we have received clippings of the articles which you published. The most recent appeared on April 7th and quoted Don Werner, my assistant. Mr. Werner has informed me that the quote attributed to him was completely fabricated by your reporter. He also tells me he gave your reporter a list of many large arenas to check for information. Why then was Mr. Werner the only arena official quoted in a story which was intended to criticize the Nassau Coliseum on a subject which Mr. Werner refused to be drawn into? If you could support your claim that operators of other publicly owned Coliseums across the nation criticized the Nassau Coliseum's ticket arrangements, why didn't you do so with a few examples?

It has been obvious to us for some time that your publication through Mr. O'Hearn has been attempting to do a political hatchet job on the Nassau Coliseum. At best, some of the things you have published are totally irresponsible.

I note, for example, that you have completely avoided many of the things we and other arena operators have told your reporters concerning normal operating practices in our field. We noted that you did not make any mention of the fact that the Nassau Coliseum is recognized as one of the top new arenas in the country. You also failed to report that some of their rental and franchise agreements are the best of any publicly owned arena in the country.

You have made a big thing about the Frank Sinatra concert. I personally spoke to your reporter at length on this subject and made the following points:

1. Every major arena in the country would be delighted to have Sinatra even for a single performance at any reasonable price.

2. The Nassau Coliseum deserves great credit for landing Sinatra for three shows.

3. The rental agreement for the three shows was tremendous. Most arena managers, including myself, would be happy to settle for one-half or less in order to get Sinatra.

4. Sinatra and his promoter have to go to the Nassau Coliseum. There are over 100 arenas who would love to have him.

5. Concerning the tickets, they are the property of the promoter who rents the building, who meets other conditions and takes all the risks. Tickets are not a public right.

6. On all sellouts, we encounter many disappointed fans. You can never have enough choice seats regardless of the ground rules.

7. Your promoter on the Sinatra show is one of the best known and most reputable in the the business.

To my knowledge, none of these and similar thoughts appeared in your publication which obviously tells us you were only interested in distorted, one-sided reporting.

I told your reporter that we have had some shows where the promoter has taken over 50 percent of the tickets and while we would have preferred otherwise, this is his right provided he operates legally. Once again, it's his show, his money, his risk. The public and the Coliseums aren't going to subsidize him if he comes up with a loser. So why tell him how he must operate when he has a sure winner? It's his business!

You may have opinions contrary to these but I feel it is entirely irresponsible to have taken the time of busy people trying to learn about industry practices and then completely ignore this input while at the same time creating the impression that your local Coliseum management was acting improperly in making the Sinatra arrangements and not following accepted practices in our field.

Earlier this month, in my capacity as President of the International Association of Auditorium Managers, I spent three days in Long Island. Your Mr. O'Hearn was aware of my visit and, as a matter of fact, I offered to meet with him to explain normal operating practices in our field. I don't need my name in your paper but I considered it significant that while we were in your backyard, Newsday, which seems so interested in Coliseum management, wouldn't take the time to speak to the twenty or more arena managers that were there. One can only think your people weren't interested in facts that might contradict some of their theories concerning your Coliseum.

While purporting to be championing the cause of the public, I can tell you that you are casting a national shadow on a great arena which will ultimately hurt rather than help your community. Promoters don't need the kind of abuse you are dishing out. Headline entertainers likewise have more opportunities than dates they can play. Touring shows accustomed to negotiating do not appreciate a gouging take it or leave it attitude. All of these can go elsewhere, probably pay less and be lauded rather than condemned by the local press.

In the end result it's the public and the community who suffer through lost entertainment opportunities and the declining Coliseum revenue which add to tax supported deficits.

Perhaps I should be thanking you for the service you are rendering to other major arenas. As you continue to throw clouds of doubt around the Nassau Coliseum, all of us look forward to increased events as promoters keep telling us "who needs all that bleep from that Long Island paper?"

I know nothing about the other allegations you have made but if your irresponsible reporting on the Sinatra matter is any indication, your readers should be suspect of the validity of your charges. And, as a minimum, they should be concerned about your repeated efforts to damage the reputation of the Coliseum which has brought national recognition and prestige to Nassau County.

Sincerely,
William A. Cunningham

EDITOR'S Note: We do not usually print letters involving news in other publications. However, we do believe in a fair "freedom of the press," which in responsible publications goes hand in hand with "responsibility of the press" to do a fair and objective job of reporting all the facts. Newsday is not always wrong, and in some areas has done some fine reporting, as evidenced by the Pulitzer Prizes

At County Supervisors Meeting

Attorney Appointment Spurs Praise, Welcome, Forensics

By Janet Gosnell

On the quiet calendar of Monday's meeting of the Nassau County Board of Supervisors, only one item was the subject of address to the supervisors by an individual in the audience.

This item was the fully expected appointment of John F. O'Shaunessy as county attorney, replacing Joseph J. Jansen, who was appointed to a judgeship. Mr. O'Shaunessy has been in the county attorney's office as acting county attorney for more than a week. He was formerly county attorney for the Town of Hempstead, and regret at losing him in this post was expressed by both Presiding Supervisor Francis T. Purcell and Supervisor Alfonso D'Amato.

Baird Returns
Parents' Aid Society Director

Bill Baird, who had appeared the previous week with a scarf-swathed mystery woman announced that she had withdrawn under pressure from parents and friends from any lawsuit against the county, regarding her treatment at the County Medical Center.

Also present was Jerome Seidel, attorney for the Nassau County Civil Liberties Union, who called the case "monstrous," and upheld Baird's right to picket the was at the Coliseum recently demonstrating against the song "Unborn Child" and to appear before the Board of Supervisors, if he deemed it advisable.

Baird asked for a full investigation of the case, which Caso said would be done.

Sickle Cell Project
Also appearing before the Board of Supervisors was James Couch, Director of the Long Island Sickle Cell Project, who requested that all county funds available for sickle cell research be allocated to his program, which is headquartered at the county facilities in Plainview. He also asked that the state law making sickle cell testing mandatory for black youngsters be abolished. "Such testing should be voluntary, not mandatory," he said.

He also requested that September be designated "Nassau Sickle Cell Month."

Letter To The Editor

To the Editor:

I would like to respond to the account of the proceedings of the Nassau County Board of Supervisors meeting of May 6 which went into detail about the sad plight of a young girl who had elected to have an abortion performed at the county medical center and suffered psychological harm on several counts, according to an abortion advocate who appeared with her. (For now, he shall be nameless, since love of notoriety feeds on itself, and the more his name appears in print, the more he is inspired to provoke confrontations that get his name in print, with little concern about the pathetic people he uses as tools.)

The things that caused Ms. X such distress are not reserved for women who have had abortions. For what have been seen as good and proper reasons, recording of births and deaths of babies over a certain weight has always been practiced, since vital statistics became a government responsibility. Miscarriage and stillbirth of babies whose parents desperately wanted them are treated in the same way by data gathering government agencies as was the case in the abortion cited, I believe. A fetus of a certain degree of maturity (usually judged by weight) is considered as a birth, and a death. When there has been a human death, there must be a certified burial. Common decency demands this much respect for the body. I think it is correct that the same rules of its employees have received. But its reporting on the Nassau County Coliseum has obviously been slanted, as is most of its political reporting. A "hatchet job" may sell papers, but it also has a tendency to destroy the faith that a newspaper's readers have in the publication itself. Therefore, we think that as big as it is Newsday should not do this as much as it does. As to all of its readers, if the only lesson we can learn from this "Letter to the Editor That Never Made It," is, "do not always trust the printed word". Read, but do not necessarily believe all that you read. This is a tremendously important lesson and one that keeps the mind busy sorting out news that has fact and merit, from the "hatchet job" slanted reporting which will then soon be easily recognizable. It's a lesson well worth learning and that's why we are printing this letter.

respect should apply to remains of those who are loved and wanted as to those who are not. The lessening of such respect, according to past experience, leads to degrading of the society which permits it. So, it is not only mothers of aborted babies who must decide what to do with the remains, but the mothers of prematurely born, non-viable babies must also go through this experience. No matter what one thinks of this practice, in our culture, the process of grieving and mourning the dead include decisions about the mortal remains. There is ample evidence that mothers who choose abortion endure a grieving process, perhaps, in some cases more acutely than where there is no complicating guilt feeling. The saddest thing about this aspect of the complaint about harassment of abortion patients is that there is no one to tell these women what the realities of abortion and its aftermath may be. Of course these things (grieving, mourning and guilt) vary in degree from woman to woman, from very little to overwhelming. As a nurse with extensive experience in care of mothers and babies as well as experience in psychiatric work, I know first hand the traumas of any interruption of pregnancy. Unfortunately, most of the people I have met who participate in abortion counseling are simply abortion advocates—quite a different thing, entirely. They are enthusiastic and well-meaning, but woefully inadequate to deal with the physiological, psychological and social complexities of the Pandora's box opened by the concept of abortion-on-demand.

Acknowledgement of some of these factors seems to me to be clear by the fact that the woman on whose behalf the complaint was made was veiled to prevent recognition. Why was this necessary? She had not broken any laws. Why can the reader not know her name? She had not been veiled and anonymous when she sought the abortion. The ambivalent feeling that this seems to indicate made me wonder whether alternative resources were offered to her regarding resolution of her problem. Alternatives that would not leave her with bowed, veiled head, as she is pictured.

Another point made in the article as evidence of harassment is in fact accepted standard hospital practice. The fact that she was treated to the same protective care as any other woman who had gone through the birth process is to the credit of the hospital policy makers who recognize that the obstetrical unit is the one most free of infection and therefore, the safest place for abortion patients hospitalized in advanced stages of pregnancy.

The comparison of a fetus of the maturity date under consideration in this case with "a tumor, an arm or a leg or an extension of the woman's body" is so far off the mark, that it hardly needs refuting. However, for anyone who does not yet know that a fetus is not an extension of anybody, that it is totally different tissue from her mother, unique, complete of itself, I just offer those bare, beautiful, miraculous facts.

My purpose in writing this letter was not to deny that Ms. X had suffered as charged in the complaint. It is instead to try to spread the word that abortion is not a cheap and easy way out of a relatively common dilemma. It is serious, fraught with tragic possibilities and should only be available to patients who have had thorough counseling which includes the procedure, the afterbirth, contraception information and exploration of possible alternatives.

Social Security Question Box

QUES: My friend has a 4 year old child by a previous marriage. Two months ago she remarried, and only a couple of weeks later her second husband was killed in an automobile accident. Can she and her daughter get any kind of monthly social security payments?

ANS: Your friend and her daughter may be eligible for survivors' payments if your friend's late husband worked long enough under social security. Dear Friends ...

We are all horrified at the actions of the Arab terrorists in using teen age students as their hostages and victims. Our hearts go out in sympathy to the grief stricken parents of the innocent victims. How far have we really progressed on this long road to civilization? We know there are no easy answers, but we should do all that we can, as individuals and as a country that is presently leading the world, to condemn such actions. And we believe that the United Nations should also take a firm stand against the nations who not only permit but encourage such terrorist actions.

ARMED FORCES DAY is Sat., May 18 and will provide the American public a close look at how the nation's defense forces operate while not involved in combat anywhere in the world for the second year in more than a decade. The main theme for the 1974 Armed Forces Day ceremony is "American Forces - Vigilant, Vital, Volunteer"...aimed at depicting the readiness of today's military men and women in a voluntary environment. Open house activities at most U. S. installations will show the military might of such a force as well as those aspects of life in which servicemen and women voluntarily involve themselves in contributing to the improvement of the surrounding community, while maintaining full effectiveness in the performance of the primary mission.

THAT'S ALL for this week. Stay well, and don't waste a day!

Orchestra da Camera In a Concert at HSHS

Dr. Charles Gouse will conduct the Orchestra da Camera in a concert at Hicksville Senior High School on May 21st at 8:15 p.m. This is a fund raising concert to benefit the Robert Hopf Memorial Scholarship.

Robert Hopf was the band director and instrumental music teacher at Dutch Lane School in Hicksville when he died in his mid-twenties. The Robert Hopf Memorial Scholarship Fund was established in 1972, and for the past two years it has awarded a $1,000 scholarship to competing seniors from Hicksville High who have been accepted at a conservatory, music school, or the like. Until this year, Bob Hopf's family has borne the onus of the entire scholarship. This year, the Scholarship Fund becomes dependent on contributions from other sources. The concert to benefit the fund is an enjoyable way to help send a talented high school music student through college.

The program includes Leonard Bernstein's Overture to Candide, as well as Smetana's Dance of the Comedians from The Bartered Bride, Lalan Parrott will be soloist in Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue, and Jay Brower will be soloist in William Strickland's

The Trumpet Shall Sound. The latter piece is a must for people interested in music history and trumpeters; it traces the development of the trumpet from its forerunner, the ram's horn of Joshua's time to the garden hose of today. For those who are "in to" the theatre arts and opera, Haydn's "Jupiter's Wanderings on Earth" should be of interest. Michael Feldman will conduct this portion of the program which will be presented by the New York Marionette Theatre, the Opera da Camera and the Orchestra da Camera.

Tickets are $2.00 each and the contribution is tax deductible. They may be obtained by calling 733-2090 between 8:30 A.M. and 4:30 P.M. Please contribute to this Scholarship Fund; you will be raising the curtain of a worthy student's career as a professional musician.

Hicksville Soccer Club News

Traveling team news

On Saturday, May 11, our Midget traveling team broke into the win column with a 2-0 victory over Cambria Heights. Coach Al Bar - cage's boys dominated the game with scores from the corner of Tommy Fletcher on a corner kick and J. Anglin from the same corner with an assist from T. Fletcher. Timmy Bell maintained the scoreless win by an outstanding performance as goal keep.

The Boys "B" team sustained a 3-1 loss to the Massapequa Santos in a closely contested struggle. The single goal by P. Jannette was supplemented by the excellent defensive work of Joe Schoner and Tom Anastasio on the field, with skillful jobs at goal keep by Scott Cahalan and Robert Fremgen. At Rockville Center the Boys "A" team romped thru an 8-0 game. As the score illustrates, the entire team played an excellent offensive as well as defensive game.

On Sunday, Massapequa squeaked out a 2-1 win over our Juvenile team. J. Gallant put in our lone goal while K. Barcavage & Andy Garger at half back and full back respectively, together with Richie Fremgen at goal maintained the strong defense. Our Juniors recorded a win over S. Huntington as a result of a forfeit. The day was saved by our Bantam team, coached by Tony Camara, when they rolled over Brentwood 6-0. Bobby Andres pulled a hat trick by scoring 3 goals, John McCann scored 2 goals and John Mitchell scored 1 goal from the half back line. David Smyth controlled the C.H. position beautifully. The whole team excelled in both offensive and defensive play as the score indicates, thanks to the excellent coaching they are receiving. This is the youngest team in the traveling league and they are still looking for a sponsor.

For sheer frustration, Saturday's New York State Cup semifinals game against Massapequa was unmatched. After spending all but the last 3 minutes in front of the Massapequa goal, shooting repeatedly, our team, Boys "A", watched in total disbelief and dismay as a break-away play found the ball in Hicksville's net for the only score of the game. Intramural news

The intramural weekend saw much action and close scoring in all seven games. In the Bantam Division, Michael Sini's Delaware team defeated Mr. Sak's New Yorkers 2-1. M. Sini Jr. booted two (2) goals for the victors while S. Singer performed an outstanding service on defense, restricting New York to a single goal by W. Frame. New York's defense was aparked by J. Frattini and Keith McCann, but it wasn't quite enough to keep a strong Delaware team from winning.

In the second game, Virginia rolled over Kentucky 5-0 on the goals of Alexander Brill (2), Chris Habersaat (2) and Leigh Rubin (1). Kentucky's goalie, Howard Mertz had a busy day and handled it well. New Jersey, under J. Maguire romped thru a 4-1 win over Vermont. Vermont's only goal by N. Storms was more than matched by 2 goals apiece by Matthew Bell & Mark Adrio of N. Jersey. Freddie Musumeci on defense kept Vermont's scoring ace, N. Storms, in check.

The Midget Division witnesses a 4-1 win by Maryland, coached by A. Lozio, over Mr. Zaretsky's N. Carolina. Goals for Maryland were scored by Jeff Molin (1), Tony Oliva (1) & Chris Couteiller (2) in spite of superb goal keeping by N. Carolina's Julian Jiminzi. N. Carolina's scoring effort, the goal by Lee Gitlin was helped by the defensive play of R. Zaretsky at C.H. and Rafael Villalta at C.F. Thomas Delenicz, John Wagda & George Marco helped provide the winners hustle. Meanwhile, Rhode Island defeated S. Carolina 3-1 with goals by Jerry Magliolo (2), Tom Cusack (1). Larry Moore scored for S. Carolina with help from the field by the driving play of Juan Majia. The Rhode Island team presented a high powered attack and defense by Felix Grusso, Peter Hue, Marty Shannon, Walter Probst, Tom Maggi & Sam Potente.

The oldest intramural boys got into the action as Connecticut beat New Hampshire 3-0. Goals for the winners were made by Dennis Chow and Tom Handshuh with help from their wings, K. Meyers & J. Morga. E. McCann & B. Jennings helped maintain the shut out. N. Hampshire stayed in the game on the talents of K. Kelly, H. Fulton, B. Drier, M. Mize and M. Murray. The close contest of the day was a 1-0 Massachusetts victory over Pennsylvania. M. Neidercorn scored the only goal of the game with help from his teammates, particularly T. Garger, L. Strickland, K. Strynecki, O. Malamud and K. Cunningham. Pennsylvania's T. Edgar at F.B. and M. Malle at forward helped make this game the tightest contest in the intramurals.

Special thanks to those soccer experts who filled in as referees and officials this weekend e.g. Tony and Ed Camara, Joe Sanna, and Harry Habersaat.

Adult Education Crocheting Class

Nothing is wasted in the Hicksville Adult Education Crocheting class. As part of their preliminary work, each student is required to make squares of the various practice stitches that are introduced to the class by their teacher, Mrs. Phyllis Givens. They, in turn, donate these practice squares and Mrs. Givens makes them into beautiful, warm afghans. These afghans are then donated to various charitable organizations who have received them with great appreciation. In a way, this is recycling the students' work. It gives them a chance to see their practice squares used to great advantage.

TRAVEL

By Norman Diamond

Although often considered a chore, packing need not be difficult at all. The first rule to remember is never pack more clothes than you'll need. If you're traveling outside of the country, you'll probably be limited to a certain amount of luggage. Even if you're planning a short trip, excess baggage can be a bother.

Begin by considering where you're going and what the weather will be like. Then decide what your activities will be. If you're going to a family resort area, you'll probably want to dress casually. More elegant surroundings may require formal evening wear. Will you be swimming? Golfing? Touring? Then you'll need clothes for these activities.

Roll socks, undergarments, and pajamas and place them on the bottom of your case. Shoes, wrapped in tissue or plastic bags should also be placed on the bottom. Hang dresses and suits on travel hangers with the sleeves folded to form a V in the back. Tuck small items between larger items or place them in the case pocket. When you arrive at your destination, unpack immediately and place clothes on hangers. We hope these little tips will help you in your packing for travel.

HICKSVILLE INTERNATIONAL LITTLE LEAGUE

Some of the final scores might well resemble those turned in during the football season but nevertheless the youngsters competing in the Senior Majors Division of the Hicksville International Little League are waging a real struggle in the race for the divisional championship.

During the past week there were some interesting developments, all of which proves the old adage that anything can and usually does happen when youngsters gather to play our national pastime sport.

In one of the games AOH defeated Parr-Hansen 22-16 and that's no typographical error you're reading.

AOH received 21 walks, had one batter hit by the pitch and collected six hits as O'Connor gained credit for the victory. Parr-Hansen got eight hits, 13 walks and also had one of its batters hit by the pitch. Losing pitcher was Tom Mullaly.

In another contest Keith Schrieffer went three-for-four driving in four runs and Tim Gibride chipped in with a two-run bases loaded double to lead Gilson Knitwear to a 15-5 win over AOH. Winning pitcher Art Kappel allowed only three hits while striking out nine. Tim Curley took the loss while Bob O'Connell got three hits and drove in two runs.

Tom Pirrone allowed three hits and struck out seven in pitching V. F. W. to an 11-3 win over Maxwood. Bobby Schairer went three-for-four and scored three of the runs while Craig Sadowski got three RBI with two hits and Mike Azzue smashed a triple. John Poggioli was the losing pitcher.

Maxwood came back in their next game topping Agway 6-3 as Bill Meslin pitched a one hitter. Joe Haggerty led the Maxwood attack with three hits while Richard Kilfoil, the losing pitcher, drove in two runs for Agway.

Gilson Knitwear ripped Maxwood in another game 18-4 with Joe Santanillo getting four hits and driving in six runs, Joe Sherry getting four hits and four RBIs and Marty Diaz pitching a four hitter for the win.

Next week we'll report on some of the other action in the growing Hicksville International Little League.

'Fade Away' Your Gray

Time-lapse photographs show how gradual action of Grecian Formula 16 lets him control just how much gray he slowly gets rid of—some of it or all of it.

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y.—Thousands of men all over the country are discovering they don't have to dye their hair a solid dark color to look years younger. Grecian Formula 16 is not a dark messy dye. It is a colorless liquid as easy to use as hair tonic. Used every day, the gray slowly 'fades away' and is replaced by natural-looking color. The change occurs so slowly over a period of time even closest associates don't notice it happening. The user has complete control of just how much gray he slowly gets rid of—some of it or all of it. Once the desired results are obtained weekly use thereafter is all that's necessary. The hair definitely does not have a dyed look. Get Grecian Formula 16 today at

John F. Kennedy High School News

Each year, at the New York State Association of Future Homemakers of America State Meeting, four scholarships of $200.00 are awarded. The student winners are chosen by a faculty scholarship board. This year, our district was honored to have Susan Hurwich of the John F. Kennedy High School as a scholarship winner. In addition to the scholarship award, Sue was the only recipient of the State Degree Award which is symbolized by the Bafour Charm. The State Degree Award is granted to those members who have successfully completed a program of work which culminates several years of effort in the degree program.

Margaret Stumpp, a sophomore in Mrs. Sacerdoti's German III class at the John F. Kennedy High School in Plainview, is a winner in the National German contest sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of German.

This examination is administered annually throughout the 50 states, and Margaret is a regional (Nassau-Suffolk) first-place winner. This is quite an accomplishment, since this year there were 71 students in Nassau-Suffolk who scored in the 90th percentile or better.

The winners and their teachers will be honored at a picnic on June 7 in Salisbury-Eisenhower Park.

The Nassau Chapter of the American Association of Teachers of French has awarded Fred Kahan, a student at the John F. Kennedy High School in Plainview, a full scholarship for summer study in France this year. This outstanding French student was among hundreds of Nassau County high school students of French who competed for this scholarship.

His winning this award is a tribute to his particular academic ability and to his teacher, Mrs. Albertine Griffith.

"This service should be especially helpful to those who are too busy during the day to call the Department but want to know what recreational and athletic opportunities and other events are currently available," said Mosca, who is Chairman of the Town Board's Standing Committee on Parks and Recreation. Members of the Department's staff can be reached during regular working hours at 433-8020.

his round-the-clock service has been established at the direction of William H. Brown, Commissioner of the recently established Parks and Recreation department.

Washing On The Ides

HICKSVILLE BANTAMS NEED SPONSOR: The Hicksville American Soccer Club proudly presents its Bantam Team, (the youngest raveling team in our league) comprised of 7, 8 & 9 year olds. Already proven in inter-club competition, the boys want to join the four other sponsored traveling teams in devoting their efforts to interstate and international competition. While officially representing their town and their sponsor, they will be gaining the expertise that their older club members have gained thru this type of competition. Interested parties may call the President of the Hicksville American Soccer

The Roman eagle at the Hicksville railroad station will be given its ninth annual scrubbing and washing Wednesday afternoon, the Ides of May, at 3 o'clock by members of the Hicksville Senior High School Latin Club.

The five-foot granite bird, weighing 5000 pounds and mounted on a five-foot concrete base, is one of fourteen that once graced the exterior of Pennsylvania Station in New York City that was originally an architectural copy of an ancient Roman Bath. Brought to Hicksville by the Long Island Railroad at the request of the Latin Club, it was dedicated on the Ides of May, 1965. The well publicized ceremony involved not only students and teachers of all departments at the high school but also officials of the railroad and the Town of Oyster Bay and leaders of local service clubs.

Since then Latin students at the school have made an annual pilgrimage to make sure that no one ever refers to that impressive granite monument as a "dirty bird".

Latest Cantiague Rock Race Report

By Richard Evers

Interest is building for this year's Second Annual Cantiague

Rock Run, a two mile race open to athletes between the ages of 12 and 18 and scheduled for Saturday, May 25 at 9:30 A.M.

Invitations have been extended to public and parochial schools in Hicksville, Jericho and Plainview, the present-day communities lying within the Robert Williams 1648 Indian Land Purchase whose anniversary is observed in central Long Island on May 20th of each year.

At latest report, runners probably taking part will represent Hicksville's three Catholic Youth Organizations; members of Coach Fred Healey's Hicksville Junior High cross country team; basketball and baseball team members and, it is rumored, a few young women's libbers.

The race, a two mile run from the north side of the Mid-Island Plaza at Nevada Street, will be under police escort with a course west on Nevada, through the Cantiague Park and south on Cantiague Rock Road to the historic rock site, a Colonial town boundary marker dating to 1745. Runners will compete in two sections, junior and senior athlete grounds, about fifteen minutes apart.

While regrettably not eligible to compete for any of the Charles Wagner Post's Legion prizes, Hicksville's Aloysius Lawn, Junior High science teacher and an outstanding coach of school oarsmen, has promised to "sample the course" this week for any of his athletic young friends who are accepting the challenge of the race.

Any school track athletes from Jericho & Plainview schools not participating in interschool meets on this day are extended a warm invitation to take part.

Women's Communion Service

On Tuesday evening, May 21st, the women of Trinity Lutheran Church, 40 West Nicholas Street, Hicksville, will hold their annual Holy Communion Service for the ladies of the congregation. Women from the church will serve as Ushers, assist with Communion, and read from Scriptures. Mrs. Alma Kern, President of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League, will give the sermon. Following the service there will be light refreshments and fellowship.

Hicksville Library to Meet May 21

There will be a meeting of the Friends of the Hicksville Library on Tuesday, May 21, at 8:30 in the library. There'll be a discussion on ways to increase our membership and also on our August book sale.

"On behalf of the friends, Mr. Emil Emmelsberger our president would like to thank Mrs. Carol Wolff for her contribution to the friends as vice president, and to wish her much success in her new duties at Holy Family. He would also like to welcome Miss Joan Horan as our new vice president," said a spokesman for the group.
