Congress Accepts Budget Responsibilities

By Cong. Norman F. Lent

Last year, during the first session of the 93rd Congress, I received criticism from some of the media when I refused to support Congressional legislation that would have ended the Presidential practice of "impounding" funds which the House and Senate had voted to expand certain governmental programs.

I felt at the time that the Congress had little room to blast the President for his decisions on how much of your money to spend or not to spend when our own leadership had refused to set limits on the amount of that money the legislative branch was designating for a host of federal programs. I had said that I would reluctantly abide by Presidential spending restrictions until the Congress itself began to exercise some fiscal responsibility in the programs it approved, and allocated funds for.

Last week, the House and Senate approved, with my support, a bill establishing a Congressional Office of the Budget, with its own director and professional staff, that will be making the first effort ever undertaken to prepare a well thought out and responsible alternative budget program for the Nation. Two new Committees on the Budget will be established in the House and Senate, to oversee the till now uncoordinated work of the many committees responsible for the preparation of appropriations bills.

The House Committee, for the first time in Congressional history, will not be beholden to the seniority system, but will have a rotating membership, with a maximum of 4 years of service out of every 10 permitted any one Member. The Senate's Members, while not similarly restricted, will have to give up other committee assignments in order to serve on the new Budget panel.

If approved by the President, this landmark legislation will change the federal government's fiscal year to a period from October 1st through September 30th, allowing the Congress more time to prepare a budget alternative to that submitted to it by the Executive branch. In an attempt to avoid last-minute hassling over appropriations for various government agencies, a specific timetable for preparation of the President's Budget and the Congress' alternative is established, with submission and response dates specifically set by law.

Lastly, the bill does include legislative control over Presidential impoundment, but now that the Congress has established a clear definition of its own responsibility for writing a realistic national budget, and faced the reality that money must be raised to pay for it, it's just possible that the impoundment controversy might hereafter be moot.

Social Services Topic Of Caso Press Meeting

By Janet Gosnell

The Nassau County Department of Social Services was the primary topic of this month's press conference of weekly newspaper editors with county Executive Ralph G. Caso, held in his office on Friday, June 21st. Also present at the conference were Joseph D'Elia and Richard Ornauer, of the Department of Social Services, and Mrs. Anne Basker, County Executive of Jefferson County, Oregon, and former Rockville Centre resident.

In response to questions, D'Elia described some of the activities of the Social Services Department and the categories into which those receiving assistance fall. These include Aid to Dependent Children; assistance to the Aged, Blind and Disabled; Home Relief.

Two innovations made in Nassau County regarding Social Services are the Public Works Project, under which 25 per cent of the employables receiving assistance work in county positions to repay the grant, and the practice of depositing welfare checks in an account for withdrawal by the recipient, rather than the mailing of checks to recipients which often result in lost, stolen checks and forged endorsements.

The Social Services client load is presently about 36,000. D'Elia said, costing the county one-third of its total budget. This expenditure is mandated by the state and federal governments. The state recently ordered the county to increase amounts dispensed by 12 per cent because of the inflation. Abuses removed in the last year have saved the county $12 million, D'Elia said.

The Department imposes strict eligibility requirements, with an 11-page application form to be filled out by those seeking assistance.

Caso's State Role

One reporter asked Caso what he felt he could contribute on a state-wide basis if he were elected Lieutenant Governor next election day.

"Here's where I have the edge over other candidates," Caso said, "having served as County Executive. I'm aware of the roadblocks that the State often throws in front of us. I think I'll be more aware of the problems of the local municipalities and will be able to be a real service in that area."

June 29 Crafts Show

In recognition of the limitless creative energy and hard work of struggling Long Island artists and craftspeople, Middle Earth Switchboard, a non-profit community service, is sponsoring its first major crafts and art show on Saturday, June 29th, in Hempstead.

Dozens of artists and craftspeople will be showing their original works from noon to 9 p.m. in the large vacant lot directly across the street from Middle Earth Switchboard's house at 465 Fulton Ave., Hempstead (just east of the intersection of Fulton Ave. and Peninsula Blvd.) In the evening the show will wind up with several hours of live original music performed by Long Island musicians.

Admission is free and there is plenty of free parking. For more information, call Middle Earth Switchboard at (516) 292-0100.

AT SUPERVISORS' MEETING:

Nassau OTB Approved; SSI Woes Loom Large

— By Janet Gosnell

The supervisors underwent a long (three and a half hour) and grueling meeting on Monday, June 24th, during which they held a public hearing on Off Track Betting, and two items later on the agenda approved it; approved a map of the proposed condemnation of the Pratt estate, Glen Cove, for a county park; and heard many, many speakers regarding the economic problems of senior citizens and welfare recipients receiving supplemental money under the federal SSI program which began last January.

The supervisors also heard from Joseph Sanchez, president of the Old Brookville PBA asking that the county police take over their village police department as a unit, in view of their failure to reach a contract with village officials.

There were three speakers regarding the Nassau County Off Track Betting proposal, all opposed. Jonnar Rand, of Freeport, felt that OTB would be robbing poor people of money for food, and besides, that gambling is immoral. "Gambling is coveting," he said. Also speaking were Dr. Harvey Roth of Coram, who said OTB "can't do anyone any good anywhere," and William Devlin of the Life Lobby, who wondered how the county could draw the line between making OTB available, and promoting it, to what he felt was the detriment of many.

Two items later, the Supervisors approved the local law establishing Off Track Betting, and about 70 items later agreed to lend OTB $750,000, to get established.

SSI Problems

A long parade of speakers arose regarding the situation of crisis in which many recipients of federal SSI monies now find themselves. Barry Rock, of the SSI Coalition, asked for relief for the "victims" of SSI. Jesse Clark, of Freeport, said the SSI money was not enough to replace her food stamps, which were taken away when the supplemental money came.

Mary O'Brien, of Long Beach, asked why SSI recipients had to go through red tape to get Medicaid, when it is supposed to be automatic for SSI recipients. Lena Miller, who works with the Long Beach EOC reported increased impoverishment with SSI; Elsie Don of Roosevelt said that people are being treated like dogs and "this is not right. Even in politics this is not right."

Rhinehart Van Dyke, of the Family Service Association called the situation of "human tragedy," and said that one-third of all dog and cat food is being consumed by humans who can't afford to eat better.

Ruth Furman, of the Nassau Senior Forum, said people were selling their possessions so that they can eat. Robert Weise, of the Roosevelt Community Action Program said many of her clients are paying $190. per month rent out of a $206. welfare check, leaving them hardly any money for anything else.

Ralph Caso, while he had no solution for those present, said that the Nassau County Department of Social Services was filling the void of welfare recipients between the time they apply for SSI and their acceptance with the county Home Relief program.

Police Problem

In his presentation, Police Officer Sanchez of the Old Brookville Police Department, said his men and those of the four other villages (Brookville, Upper Brookville, Muttontown and Malinecock who make up the combined department have been working without a PBA membership-ratified contract since May 31, 1973. The village officials had presented a contract which was rejected by the membership, and refused to negotiate further.

Reynold Mauro, an attorney, also spoke. He said the formation of the five-village police department is illegal, and that in effect it does not exist in the eyes of the law.

Pratt Estate

The county, now considering the taking of the 225-acre Pratt Estate in Glen Cove, approved a map of the proposed taking preliminary to a public hearing set for July 22nd on the condemnation.

Two persons spoke in regard to the taking, both opposed. They were Luke Mercadanti, former Mayor of Glen Cove, who worked to defeat the purchase of the property by the city. "Neither Glen Cove nor Nassau County needs this park," he said. "We have needs that have greater priority." He mentioned a purchase price of over $3 million.

Mr. Coppell, an attorney, was present, representing the contract vendees of the Pratt estate who want to build condominiums on the land. He said his clients planned "total preservation" of the shore line; only 15 per cent land coverage; and "maximum consideration of ecological factors."

He said the property has 1700 feet on Long Island Sound and 2500 feet on West Pond. Present with him was John Galbraith Burdis, now a private planning consultant and formerly head of the Nassau County Planning Commission. He cited the Planning Commission's 1971 recommendation that more housing be built in the county and Mr. Galbraith's current similar recommendation. "I think he wrote it," said Caso.

Other Business

In other business, the Supervisors appointed Marvin D. Karp of Merrick as a member of the Nassau County Board of Assessment Review filling a vacancy created by the resignation of Aaron B. Cohen on March 5, 1974. Mr. Karp's term will expire September 30, 1976.

The Supervisors also appointed the following people from this newspaper's readership areas as members of the Advisory Council for Senior Citizens Affairs: John J. Dowling, Syosset; Richard A. Fitch, North Merrick; Winifred Ward, of North Merrick; Edward J. Phelan, Wantagh; Morris Schulman, Uniondale; Alberta G. Schulz, Hempstead; Sydney Savrin, East Meadow; and Robert F. Bonner, Sr., Syosset.

The County also agreed to pay Dominick A. De Riggio $6,572.25 for property along Pines Brook in the vicinity of Collins and Madison Avenue, West Hempstead; and accepted a bargain and sale deed from National Birchwood Corporation for Lot 879, Block A Woodbury, for use as a storm water basin.

Nassau County Medical Center Completes Move Into New Quarters

Edward J. Rosasco, Jr., acting superintendent of the Nassau County Medical Center, announced today that the move of all services to the ultra-modern, 19-story Dynamic Care Building has been completed.

Rosasco said that the move of the Emergency Unit from the "B" Building this morning completed the shift to the towering facility overlooking Hempstead Turnpike in East Meadow. The move to the "DCB" began on April 18 with the shift of Pediatrics to the 18th floor. The most recent moves from the "A," "B" and "C" Building were the emergency room, the Intensive Care Unit, operating room facilities, the recovery rooms, anesthesiology, and surgical inpatients.

In announcing completion of the shift within just a few days of two months, Rosasco said: "A move of this magnitude requires the utmost in cooperation and concern for patient safety. It could not have been made as quickly and efficiently as it was without the dedicated effort of the hospital staff and county agencies."

Rosasco said that "While we were well aware of the systems in the Dynamic Care Building and knew fully how they would contribute to a more efficient operation, we have been even more pleased than we had expected by certain, subtle efficiencies which have developed through the centralization of patient services."

The next step in the continuing efforts to make the medical center even more efficient will be the so-called Phase II construction program — a program which will begin immediately. This will involve the demolition of the "C" Building and the linking of the remaining structures — Buildings "A," "B," "D," "E," and the "E-Center."

The older buildings to be demolished as part of the Phase II program include the structure once termed "The contagion building," where communicable disease scourges, including polio in the 1950s, were treated.

Dinner Postponed

The honorable Francis T. Purcell, Chairman of the second annual Distinguished Awards Dinner under the auspices of the Executive Board of the Nassau County Council, Boy Scouts of America announced today that the dinner scheduled for June 27th has been postponed. The new date is October 3, 1974. The honoree will be George

Morton Levy, a great friend and benefactor to many causes and who has given leadership to Scouting in Nassau County for many years.

Over 1,000 are expected to attend this affair to pay tribute to Mr. Levy. Tickets are $100.00 per plate and may be secured by writing to the Council Office, Roslyn.

Dear Friends:

ALL NEWS AND AD COPY must be in 24 hours early next week, because of the Fourth of July holiday on Thursday.

Two weeks ago we brought you a list of all the Republican and Democratic candidates. These listings were sent to us by their respective Nassau County Committees. However, we heard from Bill Cook, who is the campaign coordinator for Democratic candidate Hillard Boss who is running for State Senator in the Fourth District, inasmuch as Mr. Boss' name was not on the list. Probably because most of the Fourth District is in Suffolk County. Mr. Boss resides at 51 Hilltop Lane in Wyandanch. Later we will have more on all candidates, for your information.

There will be a meeting of the Hicksville Youth Council Board on Tuesday, July 2, at 8 p.m. at the Hicksville Library. It is open to the public.

That's all for this week. Stay well and, while enjoying your Fourth of July holiday next week, take time to say a prayer for our beloved country.

Plainview Remedial Classes Eliminated

The Plainview-Old Bethpage Congress of Teachers (PCT) charged defeated Plainview school board members with taking spiteful action against the children of Plainview in curtailing summer school programs in a late night session held on Thursday, June 20, with no members of the public present. Outgoing board members, with the support program classes for remedial reading, remedial math, and remedial speech. In addition, those attending the high school in an effort to improve their grades will not be permitted to attend. As a result, approximately 700 students who were scheduled for summer school will have no place to go. The Board has refused to meet with the PCT or parent groups to discuss their actions.

"In effect," said Paul Rubin, President of the PCT, "the board has decided to punish the children for the defeated budget." Plainview's budget was turned down by a narrow margin of 8 votes.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Mrs. Noeth:

You have a little by-line that reads "Shop locally and save gas".

You are absolutely right and I would like to add that you will also meet some wonderful shopkeepers.

I am specifically referring to Botto Bros. Hardware. Any local resident who might be looking for assistance regarding the usual problems that plague the homeowner, will find a ready and capable ear at this place.

Today I came up with a problem of a leaky shower faucet that required a little more than a washer. I took my problem to Botto Bros., and in a short time it was resolved. The treatment I received from these people should not go unnoticed. Thank God for Botto Bros.

AT T.O.B. MEETING:

Hicksville, Syosset Petitions Get Reserved Decisions

By Janet Gonnell

There were three public hearings on the agenda of the second meeting of the summer schedule of the Town of Oyster Bay on Tuesday, on pertaining to Syosset and two pertaining to Hicksville. One of the Hicksville petitions, that of Vincent J. & Rachel Rerisi for a change of zone from Residence E to Business G for two parcels on Twin Lawns Avenue in the vicinity of the intersection of Bethpage Road and Woodbury Road, was continued at night on the strength of a 104-name petition submitted to the Town.

No one protested the petition of Dorant, Inc. for a special permit use to construct and maintain executive offices and garage and to store materials, trucks and facilities for a mason contracting business on property on the south side of Cedar Place in Syosset.

The petition was made in behalf of a tenant in the business and presented by Dorant's attorney, Anthony Quinn. The intent is to construct a one-story building for the storage of forms and three trucks. The Town Board requested the petitioner to submit a revised parking plan in connection with the application.

Zara Meets Opposition

There was opposition, once again, to the petition of Zara Contracting regarding its special permit to operate a portable asphalt plant on property located at the intersection of Engel Street and Hicksville Avenue, Hicksville. This time, Zara was requesting that its special permit to operate the asphalt plant, which had been granted for an 18-month period by the Town Board with many restrictive covenants set on it, be made a permanent permit "without any limitation as to the duration thereof."

Protesting were residents of nearby Laurel Street, who complained about the noise, the dust and a loud Public Address system operated in connection with the asphalt plant. Mr. Hawkhurst, of Laurel Street, complained that rock and sand were being pilfered from the property on Sundays when it was not in operation; that trucks were loading and unloading outside of the 7:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. restricted time limit. His neighbor, Mr. Bartels, also complained.

The petition, filed by Vincent J. and Rachel Rerisi, was the subject of a night hearing on Tuesday.

Charles Gloudinis, representing the Amperex Corp. on Duffy Avenue, asked for denial of the petition on the basis that the operation was spewing forth dust which settled on the cars in the Amperex parking lot, forming a film on the cars which was very difficult to remove. Oscar Summers, of Oyster Bay, protested the petition on the basis that it was Zara trucks which were removing rock from a new operation operated on its Oyster Bay pier by Commander Oil. His thesis was that without Zara trucks, Commander would have no rock operation.

Nicholas De Sibio, attorney for the petitioner, said that the Public Address system would be eliminated; that the petitioner would submit in writing some method of cutting down the dust emission of the blue stone as it is loaded.

Night Hearing

There were many speakers, and no one in favor of the petition of Vincent & Rachel Rerisi for a Residence E to Business G zone change for their property on Twin Lawns Avenue, 90 feet from the corner of Bethpage Road. The Rerisis own several lots beginning with the corner lots which are the locale of a nursery business and a stationery store. The lots behind these two corner lots are those in question.

Rerisi's attorney, Joe Giordano of Hicksville, said the petitioner wished to use the two lots for parking and wanted them zoned Business G to conform with those on the corner. He has already erected two metal sheds on the Residence E property, one a large one measuring about 60 by 20 feet on a concrete foundation, and the other a smaller one measuring about 20 by 8 feet on a wood foundation. The sheds are used for storing lawn mowers and peat moss, he said.

The Rerisis live on the lot just north of the subject property.

The Town of Oyster Bay building department and the Nassau County Planning Commission said that the parking arrangements in the petition were not satisfactory; that three of the indicated parking spaces were inaccessible and that the 20-

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

In consideration of the fact that the Hicksville Community Council does not reconvene as a group until its October 1974 meeting, this letter of deep appreciation and sincere thanks has been sent to your newspaper for publication.

We, the Executive Officers of the H.A.D. Board of Directors, on behalf of the entire organization, cannot truly express in words the great sense of pride and honor we feel over the recent presentation of the 1974 Hicksville Community Council's Outstanding Community Service Award to our organization, Help-Aid-Direction (H.A.D.).

We consider the Hicksville Community Council a vital link between the various segments of people residing and doing business in Hicksville. The Council has enabled many community-service organizations such as H.A.D. to have a viable public forum from which to disseminate information about its services. H.A.D. is very grateful for such opportunities to publicize its program.

Furthermore, it is the firm position of the H.A.D. agency that the Hicksville Community Council by its very existence will continue to play a significant role in helping to make Hicksville a finer community to live, work, and do business in. In the few years since its creation, the Council has presented many informative and useful programs to benefit our community. The use of an open forum, New England style "town meeting atmosphere", toward the end of each monthly meeting is rather unique in our times. This aspect of the program greatly helps in spreading of news on upcoming events and activities happening solely within the Hicksville community.

The Hicksville Community Council stands for improving life within our community. This is accomplished through the active participation of concerned individuals and organizations in the dissemination of useful, positive, constructive information to benefit those people living and working in our area. In this regard, the Council is a successful enterprise and on-going concern.

Thus, H.A.D. was particularly moved by the high honor paid to our agency by the Council's recent award presentation. H.A.D. will always treasure the support and faith shown by this award in its various youth and family counseling, drug abuse prevention services.

It has taken H.A.D. close to four years of hard work and perseverance to reach its present level of success and community acceptance. It plans to grow and expand in order to meet the changing needs of the people it services. Much of its drive and motivation to push on is based on regular support from community groups like the Council.

H.A.D. thanks the Council for its support and interest. It hopes never to lose the respect and support of the people making up the Hicksville Community Council.

Very truly yours,

Hicksville International Little League

By Joe Marcus

As the Hicksville International Little League's season winds down to a dramatic conclusion the action on the diamond continues hot and heavy with the pitchers trying to increase their effectiveness and the hitters attempting to gain the upper hand.

The Farm Division had several more exciting and well played matches last week which saw Steves American blank Carvel 1-0. Smith Pharmacy take Carvel 3-0. Steves American get past Miss Chocolate 2-1 and Smith Pharmacy shutout Steves American 1-0.

Mike Gonzalez' home run provided Steves American with the one run it needed to beat Carvel while John O'Reilly and Paul Saralano each pitched three innings allowing only a total of four hits.

John Curley smashed a home run with Connie Kilmets on base via a single to give Smith Pharmacy two of its runs in its victory over Carvel. Doubles by Craig Holzhauser and Ronnie Mitchell produced the other run while John Delellis, Connie Kilmets and Craig Holzhauser combined for the shutout on the mound.

Billy Diehl drove in Mike Gonzalez who had also singled for one of Steves American's runs with the other in the victory over Miss Chocolate coming when John O'Reilly homered in the seventh. Mike Gonzalez and Paul Saralano pitched the victory.

Smith Pharmacy withstood numerous attempts by Steves American to score but the losers stranded two runners in three separate innings.

In the Minors, Peter Weisgerber, who earlier this season connected for a grand slammer, drove in two runs while Dean DaCosta blasted two round trippers in leading the Pen-

Lee Ave Academic Awards

On June 20th, Lee Avenue School had their Awards Assembly for the 6th graders. For the first time two students won this award. The proud recipients of this award were on the basis that in-and-out traffic would be a hazard to little children who walk to the stationery store. Vito Dell'Elio said he couldn't see the need for 33 parking spaces, since the store itself wouldn't hold 33 customers. William E. Linscott, of 89 Twin Lanes and Mr. Westman, another neighbor, protested the encroachment of business on their residential area and opposed the zone change. Ed Tuohy, Mr. Dunlap, and James Lee protested on the same grounds, and Arthur Mann protested on the basis of traffic.

At the close of all hearings, the Town Board reserved decision.

In other business, the Town Board denied the petition of Alphabettland to construct a nursery school on Berry Hill Road, Syosset; and sold the Giese greenhouses on property the Town purchased for a park on Lee Avenue in Hicksville. The councilman also approved the new site plan submitted by the Beverage Barn, Washington Avenue, Plainview, and set public hearing dates of July 23rd for petitions of Jack's Backyard for a change of zone from Residence D to Business F for property on the corner of Jackson and Edward Avenue, Syosset and the petition of Leefield Realty Corp. for a special permit use to convert an existing building from industrial to office use at Fairchild and Adams Road, Plainview.

VFW ROUND-UP

Post Commander; two men who took an active part in putting up our new building which has added prestige to the Hicksville area - not only for the V.F.W., but for all the people of Hicksville.

Harry is the first member of Post to reach this high office in the 39 years we have been in existence. We would, however, really be remiss if we did not mention our Past-Post-Commander, Frank Aug, who passed away before he had really begun his work.

These three men went to the County Council and made them sit up and take notice; they spread the name of Hicksville all over the State; the work is hard and time-consuming and Harry is the man to do the job. We are exceptionally proud of Harry and wish him success.

Neighbors said the lot would not be used, in any case, since most of the nursery business customers are violating "No Parking" signs and parking right in front of the business while they run in and out with mowers and other products.

Peter Czezio, of 36 Twin Lanes Avenue, said the property is flooded most of the time, and that traffic conditions at the corner of Twin Lanes and Bethpage Road are difficult.

nyssaver to a 12 - 9 victory over H.S. Auto Steve Sokol was the winning pitcher while for the losers Goldstein smashed a home run.

Troiano Express posted three impressive wins in the Majors beating Hills 10 - 3, Perkins Trucking 18 - 2 and Goldman 8 - 2.

Highlights of the victory over Hills was a fine mound performance by Jerry Sozio, a run producing double by Mike McTeague, a triple by Mark Doyle, a two - run single by Michael Corrado and a two - run double by John Harrah.

In the victory over Perkins Trucking, Troiano smacked out 23 hits with almost every man in the order getting clutch hits.

John Harrah doubled in the second inning to get the victory over Goldman underway with Richie Kershow, Michael Corrado and Mike McTeague also hitting doubles in the fourth while in the fifth Bernie Ordover hit for the distance. A double by Pat Brennan, single by Jerry Sozio and triple by Eugene Gray added to the winners margin while John Harrah went four innings and Pat Brennan two for the pitching honors.

We have been informed that in the playoff game for First Place in the first half of the Major Division Standings Marder Shell defeated Troiano 2 - 1.

Vamps Warn Against Fire Traps

By Ex-Capt. Owen Magee

During the past few weeks we have found, while at the scene of a few fires, a complete disregard for home fire safety. It has often been said that it is dangerous to build any type enclosure over an oil burner but a metal one, and that storage of any combustible item near a heating unit is also dangerous. On response to an alarm up on Bonnie Drive firemen found a very fine looking wood louvered enclosure over the oil burner. This is very deadly. The fire is already present inside the boiler. The fuel for that fire is all around it. Just last year a home on Jackie Drive in that same Area (off Cantiague Rd.) was almost destroyed when a fire which started in and around the oil burner spread to the wood cover and away it went after that. Many fairs in the Levitt Section Consider it fashionable to cover the ugly oil burner in the kitchen with a nice wood cover. Again if a fire starts there, there is no exit out of the bedroom area. If the fire blocks the one exit, there is no way we can help you. In plain English-you have built your own firetrap.

At another fire call we found a home owner who came very close to having a major fire. His oil burner, flooded, oil leaked out. It was lucky someone was home to smell the smoke. For around the oil burner was a large stack of tires. Had that oil ignited and set fire to the tires there would have been a miserable, hot smoky fire which would have caused a lot of damage and could have possibly caused an injury.

Your firefighter serves you free, any time, any day, any weather-all we ask is for a little more help in preventing fires. We know Everyone knows how to do it. We wish we could give a tour through a burned out home to show what fire can do. Last year during open house for fire prevention we had on display a burnt out room. A lot of work went into the display, but it was not appreciated. Instead, many thought it was too gruesome to show. But the sad part about fire is that it IS gruesome. A trip to the local hospital Burn Center will show you how cruel fire can be.

Please make "Fire Prevention" a household word in your home and practice it. Don't end up without a home or in a burn care unit.

John F. Kennedy High School News

After winning their first County Championship, the Kennedy Golf Team advanced to the New York State finals.

Competing in Pine Plains, New York, June 9 and 10, the golf team placed sixth in the state. Senior Jimmy Youngs, finished third in the state with scores of 78 and 77. Although the conditions were not ideal, Coach John Simmons feels his team played well.

The outlook is bright for the 1975 season as only three team members are leaving. Seniors Jimmy Youngs, Joe Shaub and Steve Nitzel are graduating. Jeff Berman, Marc Birnbaum, Mike Moskowitz, George Humphrey, Scott Price and Freshman Andy Kairey are remaining with hopes of winning a second consecutive county title.

The annual Glenn S. Cohen

Memorial Golf Tournament will be held at the Colonie Hill Country Club, June 21, 1974.

The tournament was established in memory of Glenn Cohen. Glenn was a member of the golf team although he had a bad heart. He underwent corrective heart surgery and appeared to be recovering when he passed away in December of 1972. In his honor, scholarships are awarded to deserving Kennedy students. Susan Kusby and Robert Lincer are the recipients of this year's awards. This year's tournament has four divisions to assure fair competition. They are 1-Kennedy H.S. students; 2-Nassau and Suffolk Varsity Golf teams; 3-Kennedy Alumni and 4- guests. Anyone interested in competing should contact John Simmons at 249-7425.

Basketball stars Seth Greenberg and Mark Iavoroni, will be attending Fairleigh Dickinson University and the University of Virginia, respectively, on full scholarships.

Soccer Club News

JUNE 20 REPORT

Traveling Teams
The Hicksville American Soccer club Traveling Teams performed admirably this weekend at home and away. In Massapequa's First Invitational Tournament, two of our teams survived (with excellent scores) Saturday's elimination rounds to return for final competition on Sunday, 6/16. Although our Bantams finished "out of the money," the quality of their play was more than commendable. They more than redeemed their only Saturday loss by defeating the Tournament winners (Deer Park) 1-0 in the opening match of Sunday's play, but unfortunately took an unexpected loss to Massapequa in an overtime penalty kick situation, at the end of a game that saw a 0-0 tie. Our 1-0 loss to Glen Cove did us no dishonor, since the team we beat earlier in the day came back to down Glen Cove, therefore securing the Tournament Title. Our Bantams, under Tony Camara, have become a force to be reckoned with, in and out of the Long Island Junior Soccer League.

At the same tournament, our Boys "A" Team provided Hicksville fans with the glow of victory by defeating three competing teams in rapid succession, both Saturday and Sunday. Billy Dalton as goalie excelled in penalty kick situations, saving the day for Hicksville in the tie - overtime games on Sunday. Tim Cusack, Mike Collins and J. Jablonski scored for Hicksville in the last game to provide the 3-1 win that enabled them to take first place Intramurals.

The Midget Division S. Carolina team defeated Rhode Island in another close one on a single score by Larry Moore (S. Carolina). Noticeable defensive effort for the winners by K. Kolwick and C. Fisolare helped produce a most satisfying first win by a team comprised of the new members of the Club at this age level. Pat O'Reilly's (S.C.) offensive play was offset by the defensive effort of Peter Hue and M. Shannon at half back for Rhode Island.

Maryland and N. Carolina fought to a 1-1 tie on goals by Jeff Molin and Julio Jimenez (assist by Peter Rubins). Maryland's spirited effort was led by T. DelVecchio, G. Marco, T. Oliva and Chris Couteller while N. Carolina's effort was shown by Jhn Egbert (at goal), Roby Zaretsky, Raphael Villalta and Leon Murphy.

In the boy's Division, Massachusetts defeated Penna. 3-0 on single scores by Roy Skrynsnecki, Larry Strickland and Matt Meidercorn. Penna.'s John Stafford couldn't withstand the offensive press and the defense by Ken Bungert and Tommy Garger.

In the second game of this Division, Connecticut rolled over New Hampshire 5-0. Goals for Conn. were scored by T. Handschuh (2), D. Chow (2), J. Morga (1) while K. Meyer was busy providing 4 assists. In spite of the efforts of New Hampshire's Richard Maclay, the defensive wall constructed by F. Almonovitch at goal, W. Stenborg, E. McCann and Brian Jennings, was impossible to penetrate.

All in all, it was a full and exciting Soccer weekend.

Our intramural season winds up this weekend with All-Star competition in each division. On Saturday at 4 P.M., at Dutch Lane, Midget Champions, Maryland, will face All-Stars selected from the other three teams. On Sunday, at 3:30 P.M., also at Dutch Lane, Boys Division All Stars from the first and fourth place teams will battle the second and third place teams (7 players from each intramural team).

The past weekends play in the Bantams saw Delaware defeat

Virginia 3-0, with 2 scores by Kevin Jung and 1 by M. Fisolare in spite of the efforts of Bill Verhagen at goal and Tom Wenzler on defense, for Virginia. Frank Acevedo and Michael Sini Jr. played an excellent game for Delaware. Later, New York beat Georgia 3-2, on goals by J. Frattini, G. Gittlin and B. Frame, while scoring efforts by Georgia's L. Sneddon and R. J. Nakashion kept Georgia in the game. In the third game in this Division, Vermont and New Jersey duplicated the previous score with Vermont taking the game 3-2. Winning scores by N. Storms, F. & P. Schnurr with help from the dedicated efforts of Larry Ziembicki and John Laborati. New Jersey strikes were made by F. Musumeci and B. Maguire, with commendations due to M. Bell and T. Kenny.

In our Midget Division, N. Carolina swamped Rhode Island 4-0. Goals for N. Carolina were made by P. Rubin (2), J. Jimenez (1) and S. Stafford (1) in spite of the defensive efforts of half back F. Guosso and M. Shannon as well as full back Peter Hue. On the same field, an upcoming S. Carolina team tied the league leader Maryland 1-1. T. Oliver struck for Maryland while Stuppiello scored for S. Carolina.

Bookmobile Stops Rescheduled

The Hicksville Public Library announces a change of bookmobile stops effective July 1, 1974. The reason for the rescheduling is to provide bookmobile service to previously unserved areas, and also to discontinue stops that have proven unsuccessful.

The stops to be eliminated are: Old Country Road and Lee Place; East Cabot Lane and Canyon Lane; and Heitz Place and Pierce Street.

The new stops will be: Levittown Parkway Pool, Monday from 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.; Bunker Lane, near Wishing Lane, Monday 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.; West Village Green Pool Tuesday (2nd, 4th and 5th) 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.; Border Street and McAlester Avenue, Tuesday (1st and 3rd) 9:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

The bookmobile staff hopes to make new bookmobile friends at these locations. To get the utmost use of this neighborhood service, come visit the new stops and tell your friends and neighbors about them.

In September the schedule will again be re-evaluated and perhaps other new areas will be reached.

For further information, call WE 1-1417.

VFW Round-Up

AT THE VFW: Past Dept. Commander Gumo presents Past Post Commander Tom McCabe plaque for outstanding service as newly-elected Post Commander Frank Lotti looks on (upper).

Past Dept. Commander Joe Gumo congratulates Frank Lotti on his election to Post Commander as Past Post Commander Tom McCabe looks on (center).

Mrs. Joan Chwalicz, Mrs. Rita Aug, Mrs. Pat Williams, Hicksville Ladies Auxiliary; Ed Chwalicz, Frank Lotti; Hicksville Post Commander, Harry Wurth. (lower).

V.F.W. IS ALIVE — V.F.W. IS ALIVE IN HICKSVILLE! This was the cry from the Department of New York Adjutant Joseph T. Gumo.

Past Department Commander Gumo appeared at the Hicksville Post on June 10th to make a presentation to Post 3211 for the continuing support we have given to the New York Cottage. For those of you who are not aware of what the Cottage is, it services the children of deceased veterans in every way possible. Mr. Gumo complimented the Post for the great work that Harry Wurth, Ed Chwalicz and the Ladies Auxiliary have done on the County level, and the fact that they have not lost sight of the fact that this Post was created to serve your fellow man and community, although they have now grown in size so that the Hicksville Post is the 8th largest in the County.

After a tremendous round of applause, Mr. Gumo assured by the newly-elected Post Commander, Frank Lotti, that we would continue to serve our community and never forget that we are V.F.W. and that the V.F.W. is alive in Hicksville.

MEMBERS ELECTED TO COUNTY COUNCIL: The members of the Hicksville V.F.W. and the Ladies Auxiliary have made their mark in the Nassau County Council.

As of June 29, Mrs. Theresa (Rita) Aug will become Nassau County Auxiliary President and Mrs. Joan Chwalicz will be Jr. Vice-President; both a FIRST for the Hicksville V.F.W. These two great ladies, as well as those who have supported them all these years, have made us very proud. It takes a great deal of time and effort in going through the chairs and you may wonder if it is worth the many night away from their families to reach out to every corner of our County to lend a helping hand whenever, or wherever, it is needed. We take our hats off to you ladies and wish you continued success in your great work.

BUT— it's not only the ladies doing this work! On the same day that Mrs. Aug and Mrs. Chwalicz assume their posts, our own Harry Wurth will assume the position of Sr. Vice-Commander of the Nassau County Council, and Ed Chwalicz as Judge Ad-
