Parent-Principal Meetings

The first in a series of Parent-Principal meetings was held Monday, September 23rd at the Burns Avenue School, reports Principal, Frank E. Burke.

An enthusiastic group of parents discussed the topics of concern they would like to pursue during the school year. Much in keeping with parental concerns on a national level, the Burns Avenue parents gave priority to the following topics for discussion: discipline, curriculum, testing and reading programs.

The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 9th, at 10:00 A.M., at Burns Avenue. The intended audience is the parents of children in Grade Kindergarten thru Grade 3. Topics to be discussed are the testing program in the District and the Language Arts curriculum in the primary grades.

Republican Club Meeting

The Ernest F. Francke Republican Club of Hicksville will hold their regular monthly meeting at 8:30 P.M. on Friday evening, October 11.

The meeting will be held at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, Wm. M. Gouse Jr. Post No. 3211, located at 320 South Broadway in Hicksville. (The hall is situated south of the Firestone store and north of the H.I.P. Building). Refreshments will be served.

PROGRAM

The principal guest speaker for the evening will be Congressman Norman Lent. Also featured as guest speakers will be Assemblymen George Murphy and John Kingston.

Crime Rate Rises

Serious crime in the United States rose 16 percent during the first six months of 1974, the largest first-half increase in six years, according to FBI statistics released today.

The crime increase contrasted with actual decreases of one percent during the same periods of 1973 and 1972.

In announcing the statistics, Attorney General William B. Saxbe said, "This sharp rise in serious crime is disturbing to all law-abiding Americans. It means EXHIBIT: The auditorium of the Hicksville Library jammed with color and enthusiasm as friends and relatives enjoyed the Arts and Crafts exhibit on August 14th. On display were the works of local youngsters who participated in the Program sponsored this summer by the Children's Room of the Library.

Hicks vfw Answers HAD's Financial Appeal

Once again, the membership of Hicksville's Veterans of Foreign Wars, William A. Gouse, Jr. Post No. 3211 has responded positively to HAD's request for financial support. Since the creation of Help-Aid-Direction (H.A.D.) close to five years ago, this fraternal group has consistently proven itself to be a deeply concerned, active community-service organization. The men of Post No. 3211 have always been extremely generous in their financial donations to HAD sponsored projects.

Recently, John Maniec, H.A.D. Executive Director, spoke before the membership of Post No. 3211. He outlined the various individual, group and family counseling services offered to residents of the Hicksville area by his agency. Along with these counseling services, HAD provides a variety of recreational and socialization activities for teenagers. Furthermore, the Had agency operates a hot-line, crisis program (telephone number 433-6118); performs drug abuse prevention and treatment work; and assists families in the reduction of antisocial, self-destructive behavior among their teenage children. Its major activities are performed in its walk-in facility located at 389 New South Road, Hicksville.

During this same speaking engagement, Mr. Maniec described a very serious financial crisis facing his youth and family counseling, drug abuse prevention center. New York State allocations have been reduced to local community agencies. H.A.D. is threatened, with layoff of its professional part-time staff and elimination of many successful programs unless it can get additional financial support from local community sources. More specifically, HAD must raise locally $8,000.00 to $10,000.00 through March 31, 1975. Otherwise, these threatened actions will become realities.

The Hicksville Veterans of Foreign Wars responded quickly and substantially to HAD's severe fiscal predicament. Post No. 3211 has decided to financially support one of H.A.D.'s part-time staff lines from January 1, 1975 through March 31, 1975 when state funding sources have been completely exhausted. Over this thirteen week period, Hicksville VFW will provide approximately $455.00 toward the gross salary of this H.A.D. employee. Without this generous contribution, all counseling relationships developed between this staff member and his clients would have been terminated by late December 1974. Now they may continue uninterrupted.

H.A.D. can not truly express in words the warm feelings it has for the men of Post No. 3211 for their generosity and human compassion. They have a sincere concern for their community. Their deed speak louder and clearer than words. H.A.D. can only hope and pray that other community minded and dedicated groups and private citizens will hear its call for help and respond as quickly and positively as Post No. 3211.

Gas Retailers Rights

Nassau County's Energy Coordinator, Francis E. O'Connor, in a letter to gasoline retailers in the County, advised them of their rights under the federal law.

County Executive Ralph G. Caso last week revealed that a Federal Energy Administration ruling protected the over 1200 gas station operators from "unilateral discontinuance of deliveries."

O'Connor's message indicated that the rule clarification was the result of his Bureau of Energy Conservation pressing the federal office in behalf of a Nassau station operator. He further advised that the Bureau is prepared to handle complaints and inquiries concerning the rights of the retail businessmen

Trinity Teachers Have Interesting Summers

Teachers at Holy Trinity High School in Hicksville spend their "VACATION" time doing a wide variety of things, including another job, travel, study or simply the discovery of a new experience.

Sister Barbara Ann Lenniger, O.P., teacher of English, worked as a volunteer for three weeks in the Christian Appalachian Project in Kentucky. She said that she decided to get a first-hand experience of radical christianity, that she was tired of talk and no action.

The work consisted basically of an all-day Bible School which included class, art, music, recreation and free lunch. Besides these activities, home visits were conducted and there were plenty of varied jobs to be done. Sister Barbara Ann commented that she learned a lot and was happy that she went to the center, St. Clare's in Berea, Kentucky. "Living conditions were hard and the awareness of stark poverty was almost overwhelming," she said.

Amy Liberatos, teacher of Spanish, celebrated the summer by completing her final course towards her master's degree at Hofstra. "There were times when I felt it would take forever to complete all the requirements while working," she explained happily.

Most teachers will swear that they've had enough of school after the Master's Degree, but, like many of them, Amy is already thinking about starting Russian. She explained, "Now that I've completed all required courses, taking the courses I want to take will be a joy." It seems that Hofstra will be seeing her again real soon.

"Retain Allocation Program"

Rep. Norman F. Lent told a House Subcommittee on Communications and "POWER TODAY THAT "if we allow the Mandatory Petroleum Allocation Program to die, we are in effect endorsing monopolies by the major oil firms and deserve the label 'derelict'." Lent's message to the Subcommittee was in connection with its consideration of several bills to extend the Emergency Petroleum Allocation Act, which insures adequate supplies of gasoline, home heating oil, and other petroleum products through the normal distribution systems.

Lent is the original sponsor of legislation to extend the Emergency Petroleum Allocation Act for one year past the February 28, 1975 expiration date. He said he was primarily concerned about independent dealers in the Northeast, who provide large segments of the population with gasoline and heating oil, and who would suffer seriously should the Act expire in the middle of the winter.

The East Rockaway Republican said "we simply cannot afford a recurrence of the crisis situation we had last winter. With inflation and the sky high prices we have to pay for petroleum products, any interruption of our supplies will be disastrous. Long Islanders will be hit as hard, if not harder, than they were last year."

Lent pointed out to the Committee that all the proposals presently before it for consideration had one common purpose—the extension of the program. The only difference is the period of time which their sponsors feel is most effective in our present situation. The important concern is to have an extension until the Congress has adequate time to deliberate the overall effectiveness of the program. Without the extension, it is feared that the prospects of a lame-duck Congress and traditional delays in organizing the next Congress will allow the Act to die, thus allowing the major oil companies to "pull out" of their current obligations to supply long-time independent buyers.

Lent said that if this were to happen, "I also expect we will see them desert many of the branded independents—the small local businessman who leased the station and uses the sign of the major oil company—by exerting company takeovers. There is no doubt that we will need to retain the allocation program, if only to provide a measure of competition that would surely disappear without."

CARE Rushes Aid to Hurricane Victims

In response to an urgent request telephoned from Tegucigalpa by Jerry Lewis (of New York City), CARE country director in Honduras, the international aid agency which had begun distributing food to hurricane refugees the day after the storm struck, has undertaken to rush more than $237,000 worth of additional food and medicines to the hapless victims. Included are 2,000 cases of nutritious biscuits, 4,200 cases of ready-to-eat pudding, 1,000 cases of carbohydrate supplements, and other foods, as well as 100 cases of medical kits.

CARE, which has an ongoing child-feeding, self-help development and medical aid program in Honduras, was able to swing into immediate relief action there. Charles Kiser, (of Baltimore, Md.) Assistant Country Director, worked all night after the hurricane hit and arranged the first food distribution by any foreign agency, on September 19, the day after the storm — thousands of pounds of food and utensils to 1,200 refugees gathered in the stadium in San Pedro Sula.

Since then, all told, CARE staff in Honduras has made available, from its regular child-feeding and emergency stocks hundreds of sacks of milk-powder and wheat-soya-blend and cases of oil, some 8,500 pounds of flour to be baked into bread and distributed, as well as 500 cases of nourishing biscuits. These are being rushed by truck or airlift to various areas sorely affected by the hurricane and flooding rivers.

CARE-MEDICO nurses Susan Payne, (of Oklahoma City) and Kathy Nimmo (of Hopkins, Minnesota) and the 31 Honduran nurse-trainees they have been teaching at Hospital del Sur in Choloteca have gone out to Monjares and to a newly established refugee center in San Lorenzo to provide emergency medical aid, including anti-typhoid injections. Meantime, Charles Kiser's wife, Maria, headed a group of women volunteers working all night cutting up 3,000 yards of sheeting into 1,300 sheets for refugees.

Working around the clock to speed all possible aid are CARE Assistant Country Directors, Harold Northrup, (of Santa Rosa, Calif.) and Louis Ziskind (of Monticello, N.Y.). Some CARE staffers have been flying to the disaster areas in Honduras military helicopters which rescue families clinging to life on rooftops, using the flights to bring good to isolated sections. In the devastated Choloma area, one of CARE's Honduras staff, Maneleo Bardales, a native of that city, who has lost an aunt and two cousins in the disaster, is also working around the clock on CARE's relief program.

Describing the devastation in once bustling San Pedro Sula, CARE's Jerry Lewis said: "Residents told me the whole city of 130,000 people spent the night after the hurricane cold, dark and in silence, the only sounds being the children crying, the rain falling, and the raging wind and flood waters. Now the streets are full of blown down trees, tin roofing and other debris from destroyed homes. People are wandering about dazed. You see many small children shivering in the streets, clutching a toy, which probably was the only possession they saved as they were rushed out of their homes."

"Honduras is a poor country and must depend on outside aid to help feed and provide emergency assistance to the tens of thousands of hurricane survivors and for the massive reconstruction that will be essential."

Frank L. Goffio, CARE Executive Director, issued an appeal for funds for continuing crucial emergency aid to the victims and for vital rehabilitation and reconstruction. Contributions may be sent to: CARE Honduras Hurricane Relief, 660 First Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10016, or to any regional CARE office.

As election day draws closer the taxpayers of this State have an opportunity to meet their candidates and ask them some pertinent questions before casting any votes.

Candidates running for election to the New York State Legislature will be highly accessible as they carry out their individual campaign schedules. This is the ideal time for all of us to give these legislative candidates a quick test on issues of vital importance. We can question these candidates as they appear for local and regional functions and obtain a reading as to how they will respond to issues of major concern. Or we may write to them regarding these and any other questions we may have.

The New York Legislature is accountable to the people of this State. There have been some improvements made over the last two years, but there is a great deal, yet to be accomplished. Here are some important questions:

• Because "empty chair voting" violates the concept of proper representation and deceives the electorate on legislative actions, would you agree that it is a practice which should be ended? If elected, would you actively seek its elimination?

• Keeping in mind that legislatures in other major states have found that electronic voting helps them stop abuses in their voting systems, would you favor a return to total electronic voting in the New York State Legislature?

• New York State's citizens carry the highest tax burdens in the nation. Will you stand up for the rights of taxpayers - regardless of political pressures?

• Will you work for tax reductions where possible?

• Will you oppose unnecessary tax increases in 1975 - even if it means battling the spending forces?

• It's no secret that hundreds of bills are passed each year without proper consideration or debate. How do you feel about the unwarranted use of "messages of necessity" under which scores of bills are railroaded into law? (A "message of necessity" allows a bill to be voted upon immediately instead of aging three days as is normally the case. This year 121 "messages of necessity" were used and there was a great deal of complaint that legislators didn't know what they were voting on.)

• Would you support legislation to improve the accountability of the 46 regional Boards of Cooperative Educational Services (BOCES)?

• Would you vote in favor of a good lobbyist control measure?

• Only the Governor can call the Legislature back into special session and decide what issues will be considered by the lawmakers. This year a constitutional amendment was passed in both houses which would allow the Legislature to call itself back into session to consider issues it feels are important, or to act on bills which have been vetoed by the Governor. This constitutional amendment must be passed again at the next session before being submitted to the people for their approval. How will you vote on this amendment?

• Should the New York State Employees Retirement System be permitted to invest its funds in securities of foreign governments?

These questions are designed to help taxpayers get an indication of how responsive candidates will be to the issues which will affect the pocketbook.

Supervisor

JOHN W. BURKE

Reports

One of the most important activities of Town government is the public meeting of the Town Board. With its September 24, 1974 meeting, the Town Board returned to its regular schedule of meeting every Tuesday at 10:00 A.M. here in Town Hall.

At these weekly public sessions, the Town Board covers a wide variety of matters that have a direct bearing on the quality of life we enjoy in the Town of Oyster Bay. Public hearings are often scheduled at which the Town Board gives consideration to such matters as zoning, special use permits, amendments to ordinances, expenditures of funds for special districts, and the Town budget.

For example, at the September 24, 1974 meeting there were three hearings on petitions by business interests in the areas of Jericho, Greenvale and Bethpage. A fourth hearing was held to give interested parties the opportunity to comment on a proposed local law relating to the posting of price signs at gasoline stations.

Public notice of all hearings is published in local community papers at least ten days prior to the hearing date. In zoning and land use matters, the Town Board also requires the petitioner to notify every property owner and resident within 300 feet of the property concerned that a public hearing has been scheduled. On matters of major concern, the public notice is often supplemented by a news release prepared by the Town's Public Information Office and distributed to the news media.

The balance of the formal Town Board agenda, or calendar, consists of a number of resolutions on which the Town Board votes approval or denial. Again, the subject matter varies considerably in scope and topic.

At the September 24 meeting, the Town Board approved an amendment to the Plumbing Code requiring the direct supervision by a master plumber on all plumbing work. It also approved the extension of the Jericho Park District which will broaden the tax base and encompass a 25-acre site being considered for development as a community park for the Jericho residents.

Other resolutions approved the purchase of trucks and equipment, the resurfacing of various Town roads in a number of communities, two major drainage projects, and a system of traffic control for the parking areas of the Mid-Island Shopping Center.

These weekly Town Board meetings give the resident an opportunity to not only observe first hand his local government in action, but also to take an active part in those matters of direct concern to him.

Washington Report

Congressman
NORMAN F. LENT
5th District, New York

The virtually certain passage of legislation to establish some form of National Health Insurance for our citizens next year will require that a great deal of "groundwork" be laid before that program goes into effect.

With medical-hospital costs continuing to skyrocket, the Executive and Legislative branches of our federal government have come close to agreement on the need for such insurance to protect Americans from the overwhelming costs of catastrophic illness. Counter-proposals to the Administration's N.H.I. plan have been greatly modified, in fact, to insure earlier achievement of this goal. Despite such positive signs, the House Ways and Means Committee just recently abandoned any hope of coming up with a bill this year, and will now be forced to try again in 1975.

The Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, however, has been effective in helping lay the groundwork for eventual passage of an N.H.I. program, and what we've been able to accomplish is basically the following:

Working with the "case history" of what happened to demands for medical care for our senior citizens following creation of the Medicare program, health organizations across the country had become deeply concerned over current facilities' ability to handle an N.H.I.-inspired caseload. They urged the Congress to set up machinery to coordinate the planning and development of new, non-competing and convenient facilities to cope with a virtual onslaught of requests for insured medical treatment sure to arise when it becomes affordable (i.e., once all taxpayers share the bill for those of us who are ill.) The Committee responded by reporting out the National Health Policy, Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974 (H.R. 16204).

What this bill will provide, simply, is encouragement to non-profit health-related organizations to plan for adequate medical facilities, offering uniformly good treatment, for sufficient numbers of people, in all regions of the United States, once a system of national health insurance goes into effect.

I fully expect this legislation to be voted upon prior to the scheduled adjournment of Congress later this month, and am pleased to have played a role in encouraging an effective health planning and development program to help pave the way for a responsible national health insurance plan.

Roncallo Reports

By Congressman ANGELO D. RONCALLO

I introduced a bill last Wednesday in Congress which ought to give all of us who have children in college some financial relief on our taxes. The bill allows a tax deduction for higher education expenses.

Briefly, here's the way it would work:

A taxpayer would be allowed a deduction for the amount of the higher education expenses for himself or his dependents during the normal taxable year.

Higher education expenses would include:

- tuition paid by the taxpayer for an education above the 12th grade at an institution of higher learning for himself, his spouse or his dependent.

The institution of higher learning includes full or part time or correspondence courses at an accredited institution.

- amounts paid for required fees and charges and such things as textbooks and materials.

- room and board for those not living at home.

- transportation, one round trip per attendance period for those living away from home.

- daily commutation of up to 100 miles from student's place of abode to campus.

A taxpayer may claim as a dependent anyone whom he would normally claim as a dependent for tax purposes including the taxpayer's immediate family as well as other close relatives who receive at least half of their support from the taxpayer—this without regard to the dependent's age, income or marital status.

The bill states that since the amount of the deduction might be in excess of his income minus his other deductions this deduction can be "carried back" over three years or can be carried forward for an indefinite period of time until the entire amount of the deduction is taken.

The bill, now officially known as H.R. 16898, has been referred to the House Ways and Means Committee. I hope it receives prompt and favorable action. I think it is badly needed.

Helps Honduras

Under the inspiration and leadership of Sister Marcella Marie, teacher of English, students at Holy Trinity High School in Hicksville conducted a clothing and food drive for the needy in Honduras.

Appealing over the public address system of September 24, Sister requested such items as summer clothing, blankets, dry food goods, and canned fruits and vegetables. Already the next day there developed a tremendous need for boxes and cartons in which to ship the supplies.

The collection totaled the following: 15 cartons of food, 100 cartons of lightweight clothing, and $427 in donations.

Fire Prevention Week - October 6 - 12

By Ex-Capt. Owen W. Magee

Recently, I read an article which stated that the fire service should concentrate on the kids as far as fire prevention is concerned, that perhaps we should forget about the adults who put a heavy foot on the gas pedal and scorn seat belts. They're not going to pay attention to the dangers of fire either. The shocking thing about that statement is that it's true. Maybe it would be a good idea if all of us, and that includes firemen, would stop for a moment and dwell on the subject of fire prevention. Fire can and often does strike swiftly. Why just recently a TV set caught fire. The owner ran out to his vehicle got his trusty extinguisher, ran back in to do battle and guess what? The extinguisher was empty. Firemen responded and put out the fire but not before the fire caused some damage. We won't mention his name but he is capt. of a Hose Co. The same thing happened to a certain 1st Lt of Hose Co. Sunday, he too had a fire (oil burner) went for the extinguisher and...yep his oilburner in his kitchen. Quite often these oil burners burst into flame. The best thing to confine the fire is the metal cover that should be there. Bruce, the best thing to do is make sure your fire extinguisher is ready.

The point is that all of us treat fire prevention as an inconvenience, but when fire strikes we wake up. For some folks it's too late, they don't get that chance. It's not fair to our kids to ignore fire safety. They are counting on you to help them live to be an adult. Think of that, and of all those suffering in the burn wards when you want that last smoke in bed, store the paint near the furnace, overload that electrical circuit, keep unnecessary flammable goods stored in the attic or basement.

The next point to ponder is what to do when fire strikes. Plan now what to do. Be ready to make decisions. Even if the fire is small when discovered, decisions may have to be made. Fight it? Call the fire department? or get out? When your house is on fire don't stop to pack your lunch or your possessions gather up your family and get out. Account for everyone then call the fire department. Sound simple? You would be surprised how many people have died in a fire because they had no plan to escape from a fire, no second means of escape planned if the norman exit is blocked.

Some people don't know how to call the fire department. The delay could be fatal. Now is the time to plan. A few simple things could give you the edge over fire.

o Make up a home escape plan and hold drills.

o Know how to call your fire department.

o Be sure your house number is visible.

Those 3 points can be the deciding factor if fire strikes your home. There are many other life savers, like o Smoke and heat detectors.

o A good fire extinguisher (tested annually).

o Safe smoking habits.

o Don't leave children home alone, provide a sitter.

o Good house keeping.

o Tell your children about the dangers of false alarms.

Another good idea would be to encourage your school district boards to incorporate in the curricula fire prevention. Why not? We have drug, sex, health studies in schools now. One look at the yearly nationwide death toll due to fire prevention program. If we get to the kids when they are young they can be impressed. We hope you all will give this some serious thought. Another good thing to do is make every week fire prevention week. That's one good way to satisfy those folks who complain about those nasty fire horns and sirens. We wouldn't need them too much if we could stop fires before they start.

Coming up soon: More ideas on fire prevention; school poster contest winners.

False Alarm Suspect Caught

Bike-A-Thon — October 26th

Thousands of students and adults have already signed on to wheel into action for the benefit of crippled children and adults at the 2nd annual Easter Seal Bike-A-Thon set for Saturday, October 26th at Eisenhower Park from 9-4 p.m. Rain date, Sunday, October 27th.

Riders will be treated to free food, courtesy of Burger King, as they relax with friends and tune in to the high energy sounds of Syndicate and the soft, easy-listening rock of Sunrise Highway, both of whom are donating their talents to make the day's activities more festive. Emceeding the rally will be WGBB radio personalities and many deejays from metropolitan area radio stations are planning special promotions that will bring them into the midst of the action at the rally and throughout the day.

Residents interested in wheeling into action for the benefit of crippled children are urged to call the Nassau Easter Seal Society at 747-3553 to obtain your registration kit. For the information of newcomers to the Bike-A-Thon, here's how it works. Cyclists line up sponsors — organizations, clubs, companies or individuals — who promise in advance of the Bike-A-Thon to donate a certain amount per mile traveled. Any amount from 5 cents up will do, but riders must have a total sponsorship of at least $1 per mile to register.

After the cyclist rides the course, which is limited to 40 miles on a 4 mile pre-designated route in the park, he has his verification card, which has given to him upon registration, stamped by Easter Seals. Within a few days, he presents this card to his sponsors, collecting their tax deductible donations and turning them in to Easter Seal. If indicated on registration form, riders may credit their round trip to and from their home or school to the park against their 40 mile total ride.

An exciting Mount Snow Ski Weekend, donated by Travel Center Ski Tours, New Rochelle, is among the great prizes available for riders turning in the most dollars to fight crippling and promote rehabilitation of the handicapped. Other valuable prizes include ten - speed bikes donated by Jay Zee Cycle Shop, Freeport; Nassau Bicycle Exchange, Mineola; Willy Mae Bicycles, Levittown and Baldwin; Times Square Stores Corp., Brooklyn; and Rockville Centre Bike Shop, Rockville Centre.

Students may contact the following local BIKE-A-THON Chairmen to obtain their registration kit and information: Plainview - Old Bethpage Jr. High - Jeff Jensen; J. F. Kennedy High - Craig Haller; Bethpage High - Phil Zebliisky. Or, if you prefer, call house at 316 Plainview Road, Hicksville in 1958. In 1960, they moved to the original frame church building on acreage facing New South Road. In 1963, dedication took place for a wing at the rear of the original structure. The 5,000 Sq. Ft. wing which will be dedicated on Sunday marks the third addition to be dedicated in little more than ten years. The general contractor for this addition was Elmer Henn of Bethpage, but a great deal of the finishing was done by the parishioners. Pastor Grant commented that this type of spirit has always existed in the congregation, a fact which is most gratifying in light of problems in the world today.

The design and specifications for the wing were drawn by Edwin Klein, P.E.

There will be a reception following the worship services on Sunday. All members of the Hicksville community are invited and welcome.

Overnight Campers At Jones Beach

Starting the first week in October, self-contained camper vehicles will be permitted overnight stopovers at Jones Beach State Park's west end Parking Field No. 2.

Begun on a trial basis last year, many requests for continuing this opportunity for healthful recreation promoted the Long Island State Park and Recreation Commission to allow such visits during the entire off season ending late in March.

Overnight parking in a proper camper can convert a weekend into a two day holiday with resultant economy in gasoline usage, also invigorating enjoyment of the seashore.

While others may avail themselves of the opportunity, the Commission believes local people will be the principal beneficiaries because long distance trips will be unnecessary.

None but self-contained camper vehicles may stop over at the beach because the parking field is not equipped with electricity or water hookups, nor is there provision for waste disposal.

Camper permits may be obtained at the Jones Beach State Park administration building upon payment of a $1.00 per night fee. The ordinary parkway toll will be the only other charge. Further information may be obtained by phoning 785-1600.

Town Taking Action On Woodbury Eyesore

By Janet Gosnell

RUBBLE AND LITTER on Varley property on Jericho Turnpike in Woodbury was surveyed by Councilman Kenneth S. Diamond with Judy Jacobs, left and Ida Ashendorf, representing the South Woodbury Taxpayers' Association about a month ago. The result of the tour was the service of violations on the owner for maintaining unsafe and unsanitary conditions on the parcel.

around the rink makes repairs costly, according to a study now being considered by the Department of Public Works. He said repairs might possibly be made some time in the future, but he could not confirm any date.

Plainview Senior Opening
Saturday, October 5th will mark the opening of the Town of Oyster Bay's seventh senior citizen housing complex, a 69-unit development on Barnum Avenue in Plainview of the garden apartment type, including a community recreation room. Several units are equipped for handicapped persons with kitchen and other facilities placed for easy accessibility from a wheelchair.

The $1,656,000. project was funded under the federal government's "turnkey" program, whereby the construction is done by a private contractor and turned over to the Town upon completion. It brings to a total of 433 the number of senior citizen units in the Town of Oyster Bay.

To demonstrate the progress of senior citizen housing in the Town of Oyster Bay, and as a campaign effort, Congressman Angelo D. Roncallo's committee is providing free transportation for 50 senior citizen residents of the Town of Huntington to attend Saturday's opening. According to Roncallo's spokesman, the Town of Huntington has only 10 senior citizen units.

"Many senior citizen residents of the Town of Huntington have told me that there was little in the way of housing for them in Huntington," Roncallo said, and added that "They were anxious to see what type of facilities could be developed by a municipality that cares."

Conroy Resigns As Tobay Attorney

By Janet Gosnell

John M. Conroy, Town of Oyster Bay Attorney since January 1, 1972, has submitted his resignation effective December 31, 1974, Town Hall sources informed this newspaper Wednesday.

Conroy's reported reason for resigning were the comments that "the fun was out of it," and that he would be happier in his own little niche in private life. He plans to devote full time to the law firm which he never left, that of Conroy, Giorgio, De Poto and Merritt in Syosset.

A resident of Syosset since 1959, the 45-year-old Conroy is a 1951 graduate of Fordham University. He received his law degree from Fordham Law School in 1956. He was admitted to practice in the eastern and southern federal district courts and in the U.S. Supreme Court.

He is presently a resident of 19 Cheshire Avenue, Syosset, with his wife, Verne and three children.

Consumer Protection Laws

Assemblyman Stuart R. Levine of Bethpage today reminded residents that two consumer protection laws he sponsored are now in effect.

One requires the brand name and strength of a drug be placed on all prescription labels. The law is designed to assist doctors in cases of poisoning or allergies or when forced to perform emergency medical treatment. The other law requires pharmacists to wear identification badges while on duty to insure that only registered pharmacists fill prescriptions for consumers.

"This enables consumers to compare prescription prices for the first time," the 10th District Assemblyman stated.

Ice Hockey Leagues Forming

Ice hockey players can register for Nassau County Hockey Leagues, sponsored by the Department of Recreation and Parks, now forming at four county parks.

Teams will be organized within the following age groups: 7 & 8 - Mites, 9 & 10 - Squirts, 11 & 12 - Pee Wee, 13 & 14 - Bantam, 15 & 16 - Midget, 17 & 18 - Junior, and 19 & over - Senior.

Mites will play only at the Christopher Morley Park outdoor rink in Roslyn-North Hills. Seniors only at the indoor rinks in Cantiague Park in Hicksville and the Nassau County Arena in Long Beach. Morley, Cantiague and the Arena will have team play for boys age 9 through 18 as will the outdoor rink at Grant Park in Hewlett.

On Saturday, October 5, ages 7 through 12 register at 9 a.m. and ages 13 and 14 at 1 p.m. On Sunday, October 6, ages 15 and 16 register at 9 a.m. and ages 17 and over at 1 p.m. at the parks where they plan to play.

Enrollment, for Nassau residents only, is on a first come, first-served basis. There is a registration fee of $15 and all players age 10 and over must have a Leisure Pass, which identifies them as county residents.

Polo at Bethpage State Park

Rain threw the Nassau versus Suffolk Bill Gray Memorial Match off schedule on Sunday September 29th at Bethpage State Park's polo field, but on Sunday, October 6th, Nassau and Suffolk will make it up.

Bill Gray loved being part of Long Island polo, volunteering in whatever capacity he could serve, assisting in refereeing as well as pitching in to further the sport. The match last year on September 16th honoring his memory one year after his death was hotly contested between Meadow Brook topping. The saddlery carrying Bill Gray's name still stands in Westbury and at Bethpage Park, Long Island Polo still remembers Bill Gray.

Though heavy rain does wipe out the Sunday afternoon polo game at the park once in a while, it never douses the accelerated action once the teams hit the field at 3:00 P.M. Games have been played during many a downpour but when the turf gets too slippery for mounts to have a good footing they must be scratched. All children twelve year olds and under accompanied by adults paying only $1.50 for admission.

vamps and 4 pieces of apparatus from Hicksville answered the mutual aid request.

On Sept. 26 at 9:25 a.m. a fire, believed to have started by an electrician short caused heavy smoke but minor fire damage to the basement of a dwelling at 284 Plainview Rd. Chief Mario Misturini was in charge. No injuries were reported.

On Sept. 28th, Hicksville vamps responded to a rescue call at 1:05 a.m. on South Oyster Bay Rd. near the Plainview theater. The GAP, which seeks to provide both mentally and physically handicapped youngsters and young adults the opportunity for a social and recreational experience within the community, is the oldest of its kind on Long Island. The GAP also works to integrate the handicapped individual into the mainstream of society and to increase community awareness of the handicapped person's strengths and weaknesses.

There is a Tuesday and Friday evening program for young adults and teens which runs from 7 to 10 P.M. and parent rap groups that meet both during the afternoon and evening for discussion and mutual problem solving.

4 Lawmen's Groups Endorse Lent

Rep. Norman F. Lent, candidate for re-election in the 4th Congressional District, this week received the endorsement of four police organizations representing over 200,000 lawmen in New York State and the Nation.

The four groups tapping Lent for re-election were headed by the International Conference of Police Associations, a 150,000 member body captained by ex-

N.Y.C. PBA President Edward J. Kiernan.

The two-term Congressman also got the endorsement of the 75,000 member New York Police Conference, headed by Al Sgaglione. Sgaglione, in his letter of endorsement to Lent said: "You have always shown grave concern for and have given your complete support to the police officers of our State.

Rep. Lent, who began his public service career in 1960 as an Associate Police Justice in East Rockaway also got the nod of two of the largest local police groups, the Nassau Police Conference, headed by Michael Limongelli, and the Long Island State Parkway Police PBA whose President is Barney Aversano.

Hicksville Soccer Club Harvest of Talent

The Club broke even on the weekend of Sept. 22nd with a win and a loss. First, the good news, which was the Junior victory over St. Rose of Massapequa. The four goals in this shut-out game were scored by Tommy McCann, driving in a deflected penalty shot, early in the first half. This score was followed in the second half on the drive by Peter Fletcher that went 60 yards. Almost immediately, Donald Cusack at the point, on an assist by T. McCann, scored the third goal. Before the cheers of the crowd had quieted, Steven Playne booted another score on a perfect cross pass from right wing, Jimmy Jianette.

Although the scoring was frequent, the defensive work of Anthony Luongo, Tommy Luongo, Mike Magna at full and the brilliant efforts of Jimmy Brill at center half, clearly dominated the game. The entire game was an illustration of soccer as an art. This competitive, hustling, well-coordinated team is coached by Michael Sini and sponsored by the Levittown Sons of Italy, Marco Polo Lodge.

This team continued their winning ways this past Sunday, Sept. 29, with another shut out victory - this time over St. Raphael of East Meadow. The score was 5-0, achieved as a result of a total team effort, both offensively and defensively.

The Midgets, under the direction of Al Barcavage, John Kerti and Perry Jung suffered their first defeat Sept. 22nd, to Garden City. Our obviously very strong team had "one of those days" where nothing went right. Hopefully, this basically first place team has "it out" of its system in spite of their 5-0 loss.

The Midgets bounced back on Sunday, Sept. 29, with a 2-1 victory over Brentwood and a beautiful rainy Sunday afternoon. The well rounded defense of both teams kept the scoring low. Martin Conway and John Kerti Jr. on our offense get the credit for the assists since the Brentwood defenders actually scored both our goals.

Rather than let a team lay idle in a "Bye" weekend, Tony Camara, coach of the Bantams scheduled an exhibition game for his team in N. Babylon on Sept. 22. Our Bantams took it 3-1. In this game, in which the goalie Gene Tyranski saw much action, David Smyth booted the first goal on an assist by Kevin Cahalan. The second score by right wing John Mitchell came on an assist by D. Smyth. The third and most spectacular score came out of a crowd in front of the N. Babylon goal when Glenn Zakian lifted the ball with a good boot for a well timed header by Bobby Andres.

At Deer Park on Sept. 29, the Bantams lost a heartbreaker, 5-4 in the last minutes of the game. Gene Tyranski, at goal, suffered a tough loss in spite of valiant efforts. The lead see-sawed continuously from the opening whistle to the bitter end. At no time did either team have more than a one goal lead. This team, the youngest of the traveling teams is definitely the team to watch.

All home games will be played at our new home field located on South Oyster Bay Road near Stewart Ave. Kickoff time for our only home game (Midgets) will be at 3 P.M. on Sunday Oct. 6th against Glen Cove.

Goals were scored by Kevin Cahalan, John Mitchell, John McCann and Bobby Andres. This entire game demonstrated excellent offense and defense in total team effort.

outstanding creations for all to admire and purchase.

A special attraction children especially will enjoy is a visit to the "Old Jail Cell", an authentic jail preserved in the Historical Room of The Gregory Museum, Sponsor of the Fall Festival, and Co-Sponsored by The Town of Oyster Bay, Dept. of Community Services.

Free Admission to show for all adults and children.

Interesting Demonstrations of the art of pottery making with a potter's wheel, cabochon making, portrait drawing and floral designing with dried flowers are just some of the unique features presented for your enjoyment.

Light refreshments to quench your thirst will be available for purchase.

Bill Would Give Deduction for College Costs

Congressman Angelo D. Roncallo introduced a bill which would provide for a tax deduction for high education expenses.

In introducing the bill, the Congressman who has two children in college himself, said, "While the present tax structure allows plenty of room for all sorts of business deductions, it does not allow for one of the major and vital expenses connected with raising children today—the costs of an education. I hope this bill will give some relief to those parents who are caught in the crunch of constantly increasing college costs." The bill was referred to the House Ways and Means Committee.

The Roncallo bill would apply not only to full time but also part time and correspondence courses at an accredited institution of higher learning.

Time-lapse photographs show how gradual action of Grecian Formula 16 lets you control just how much gray you slowly get rid of - some of it or all of it.

White Plains, N.Y. - Hundreds of thousands of men all over the country are now using a remarkable product to control just how much gray they slowly get rid of. It is called Grecian Formula 16 and the results are simply amazing. Grecian Formula 16 is a practically clear liquid, as easy to use as hair tonic. This remarkable formula works for any color hair because it combines with the natural chemistry of the hair to recreate natural-looking color. There is no mess and no rub-off. You simply use it every day for two or three weeks until you slowly get rid of just as much gray as you want. Some of it, most of it or all of it. You can stop where you like. You are in complete control of how much gray goes or stays. Once you get rid of as much gray as you want, simply use Grecian Formula once a week or so to keep it that way. Since Grecian Formula 16 works gradually over a period of time, even close friends won't notice the change happening. The resulting color is so completely natural that the hair definitely does not have a dyed look. Grecian Formula 16 is available at
