30 G FIRE HITS HICKSVILLE TEMPLE

By Ex Capt. Owen Magen

An early morning blaze caused considerable damage to the Temple Shaarei Zedek, Old Country Rd. and New South Road, Hicksville. Hicksville Vamps received a report of smoke in the building at 5:35 am. Nine pieces of apparatus, 60 men responded under 1st Deputy Chief Roy Schaaf. The fire, which is believed to have burned about an hour before being discovered, originated in a basement storage room. The fire was confined to the basement. The remainder of the building suffered smoke damage. Heavy smoke forced Vamps to break windows because they could not be opened. The floor area directly above the fire was also destroyed. The sacred Torahs were removed safely. The Vamps were on the scene for over two hours. The Second Pct. County Police closed off a portion of Old Country Road due to hose lines. The Jericho F.D. sent one engine co. to stand by at the Marie St. headquarters while Hicksville Vamps were tied up. Chief Schaaf requested an immediate investigation by the County Fire Marshals. The fire was not considered suspicious.

FIRE REPORT

During the period of Oct. 15 thru the 29th Hicksville firemen responded to 40 alarms. 7 were malicious false alarms, 20 were rescue calls and 13 were fire calls. On Saturday Oct. 26th Hicksville Vamps were called to Jericho while Jericho Vamps battled a stubborn blaze in a large home on Route 106 opposite the Cider Mill. Hicksville F.D.

supplied one engine & crew for stand-by at Jericho headquarters while the floodlight co. no. 8 was sent to the scene to supply additional air tanks. The Syosset F.D. supplied an aerial ladder. Damage to the home was considerable due to the fire not being found until it was well involved. 1 Jericho fireman was hospitalized with back injuries resulting from a wild hose line and 1 Hicksville Vamp R. Ficarella of Co. No. 1 was treated & released from Syosset Hospital after he fell through the floor into the flooded basement. Vamps even recovered the "Ficarella Tool" from the flooded basement. A job well done!

FIRE PREVENTION- HOW SAFE IS YOUR KIT-CHEN?

A study made a few years ago indicates that many fires in the home start in the kitchen. Whenever high heat, flames or red hot coils are present, faulty equipment and accidents of misjudgment, neglect and carelessness are likely to lead to FIRE.

Are there wood cabinets over the range? Is there an excess of grease in the hood over the range? Are there window curtains or a paper towel roller too close to the stove or over the counter where a toaster or broiler might be placed?

Most kitchen fires are caused by accidents involving grease. Keep the stove and the range hood clean. The housewife contributes to fire safety by cleaning - using a nonflammable cleaner. Electrical appliances can be ignition sources. Be sure the wiring is in good shape - no do it yourself repair jobs. Be sure your range is grounded properly. Just because it is plugged in on a three-pronged connection doesn't necessarily mean that the grounding is adequate. If you are not sure, or if anyone has felt light shocks have the grounding checked out by an electrician.

Keep all matches in metal containers. Beware of flammable cleansers near hot surfaces. Whenever there is a choice use non-flammable cleansers. If you have a gas range be ready to react promptly to an odor of gas. If it is a pilot light that has gone out or a burner valve still open a crack the matter is easily corrected. If you are not sure what the cause is, immediately open windows and call Lico, and the fire dept. if it is necessary.

Keep children away from the stove. They could pull a pot of cooking food or boiling water over on themselves or their clothing could be ignited. Each year many children are seriously burned in the kitchen.

Protection for the kitchen: Be sure you have a dry chemical or a dry chemical multi purpose fire extinguisher on hand. The latter is suitable for fires in paper, wood, cloth as well as flammable liquids or electrical fires. A box of baking soda is a good extinguishing agent. Be sure its baking soda not a can of baking powder. Baking powder contains flour or starch and can blaze up if thrown on a fire.

HAD Reports On Its Recreational Activities

H.A.D. (Help-Aid-Direction) provides many services to the Hicksville community, among them a recreational activities program. We've done such things this summer as: canoeing trips on the Delaware River, weekly trips out of Oyster Bay, bicycle hikes to eastern L.I. We also have daily activities at our facility i.e. volleyball, ping pong, billiards and noc-hockey.

We've found that supervised recreational activities are an invaluable tool in working with adolescents. First, because in many cases we've been able to expose young people to positive social activities, they other wise would have no means to participate in. Secondly, through these activities we're able to help kids with problems they may have in relating to adult/authority figures. Through supervising and participating in these activities the counselor is afforded a unique opportunity to develop a rapport with these adolescents. This rapport can then be used to help the young person with specific problems he or she may have.

Unfortunately, however, because of our present financial situation we will be forced to make severe cuts in our recreational program. This is a very painful decision for us, because we've seen the proven value in such a program. We must, though, when forced with the decision, give preference to maintaining our youth and family counseling services, our hot-line crisis services, and our extensive referral services. Unless additional money can be raised by December of this year, even our counseling services will have to be curtailed.

We are state funded, but state monies are tight. So, we must turn to concerned members of the community for support. Any and all contributions are gratefully needed and are tax exempt under federal tax law 501(c)(3).

If you wish to find out more about us or if we can be of any assistance to you feel free to visit or call us H.A.D. INC., 389 New South Rd. Hicksville - phone 935-8858.

Kindergarten: Rachel Poltorek

First-Year Primary: Timothy Lupo

Second-Year Primary: Susan Gross

Third-Year Primary: Laura Spiegel

The Old Bethpage School's Parent-Teacher Association, led by Mrs. Fran Chorney, generously supported the program by purchasing book-record combinations that were presented to all winners.

Shown in the photograph is Susan Gross receiving her award from Murray Fessal, principal of the Old

Bethpage School. Winning posters are on display in the school lobby. Many of the other posters have been on display in the school corridors.

N.Y. State Reimburses School Districts

The Nassau Board of Cooperative Educational Services this week gave back $1,440,985 in state aid reimbursements to the local school districts of Nassau County.

The payment was the second of six installments on an estimated $17,291,820 that will be distributed to the districts by BOCES during the 1974-75 school year.

This week's payments are reimbursements for BOCES services purchased by Nassau's school districts during the 1973-74 academic year.

Under the BOCES state aid system, local school districts pay tuition and fees to send pupils to special and occupational education programs and to subscribe to data processing and other services provided by the cooperative board. The State then reimburses the districts, through BOCES, under a special formula.

Reimbursements average about 60 percent of the district's original cost, and are paid in the year after the costs are incurred.

BOCES aid payments are in addition to the regular state aid that local school districts receive directly from Albany.

Following is a list of the total payments this school year to date: Hempstead -- $90,493.86; Uniondale -- $99,139.76; East Meadow -- $63,691.54; Levittown -- $63,691.54; Merrick -- $16,139.04; West Hempstead -- $46,976.12; North Merrick -- $15,274.44; Syosset -- $51,587.26; Plainview -- $59,944.98; Jericho -- $31,701.68; Hicksville -- $222,468.08.

AT SUPERVISOR'S MEETING:

Controversy Brews Over Access to County Records

By Janet Gosnell

The confirmation of rules for Nassau County regarding access to public records and some attendant controversy took most of the time of the Nassau County Board of Supervisors at its regular meeting on Monday.

Several other matters were covered, however, including the establishment of a new sewage collection district in southeastern East Meadow; the reduction of fees for copies of documents from $1. to 25 cents per page; and the comments of three candidates for public office in this pre-election week.

Rules for access to public records, by New York State requirement, had to be established this week pursuant to the Freedom of Information Law enacted by the State Legislature at its last session. Several anomalies in the County rules differing from the state law pointed out by speakers led most of the supervisors to qualify their required "aye" vote with conditional statements.

Most eloquent in pointing out differences was N.Y. State Senator Karen Burstein, of the 9th Senatorial District, who said the rules were "in derogation of the state law" because of their limitation of access to records to "bona fide members of the news media" rather than all individuals, and the complete blackout of all information from law enforcement agencies, including the police department, probation department, county attorney's or district attorney's office. She said the limitation should extend only to cases "under active investigation."

County Executive Ralph Caso pointed out that the matter of personal privacy, especially in case histories of the probation department, should also be considered.

Others who spoke on the county's action included N.Y. State Senate candidate Richard Kessel, of Merrick, who asked for specific stipulations in the law of which records are available when and to whom; Dr. Ralph Sorley, of Rockville Centre, who cited difficulties in obtaining records; and Norman Blankman, of "AWARE" protested his initial difficulty in getting the list of people employed under the Emergency Employment Act of 1971, and later his inability to also have their addresses once he had their names.

D.A.'s Expenses

Once again, in connection with the Freedom of Information Law, the matter of District Attorney William Cahn's expense account came up via the comments of Henry Morris, of Westbury, Patrick Brostowin, of Garden City, and Denis Dillon, Mr. Cahn's Democratic opponent in the current race for District Attorney.

Mr. Dillon, quick on the draw, took potshots at Mr. Cahn's year as president of the Association of District Attorneys. Was he billing the county for expenses reimbursed by the association? Mr. Dillon wanted to know. He had asked the association, which would not release the information. It had been ascertained that another president of the association had been reimbursed by the association for his expenses.

Supervisor Hannah Komanoff, the first lady supervisor in Nassau's history, one of two Democrats on the Board, suggested that the county Comptroller ask the association for the information.

Caso disagreed. "Do you expect us to jump through hoops every time a candidate for office comes in here and makes a charge, Supervisor Komanoff?" he asked.

He also said that he is not Cahn's boss; that he does not appoint Cahn; and that he has to rely on Cahn as to the propriety of his expense account which he, Caso, okays for payment.

East Meadow Sewer District

No one spoke at the public hearing on the establishment of a new sewage collection district in East Meadow bounded by the Southern State Parkway on the South; the Wantagh parkway and Bellmore Road on the East; Stewart Avenue on the North; and Carman Avenue on the West. According to a spokesman for the sanitation division of the Department of Public Works, it will be about two years before residents of this area see any evidence of digging. The principal interceptors are in, he said.

Pickets Present

Several teachers from Nassau County Community College were picketing the meeting and the building on Monday seeking a salary agreement and carrying placards reading: "Don't Hide. Come Out and Bargain" and "We are Doing Our Jobs Now You Do Yours." According to a spokesman, the teachers work fifteen "contact hours" per week.

Program in Central Nassau; Joseph Normandy, chairman of the VFW drug abuse committee and member of the EOC board of directors; John L. Kearse, EOC executive director; Vincent Esposito, VFW Nassau Council commander; Gloria Pitts, director of the EOC drug abuse program in Central Nassau; Robert Caspain, director of the central administration of the EOC program of drug abuse education, prevention and intervention. The ceremony took place on October 16, at the EOC office in Hempstead.

VFW Council Donates To EOC Program For Drug-Addicted Infants

The Nassau County Council of the Veterans of Foreign Wars has taken the lead among local service organizations in cooperating with the EOC, the county's designated anti-poverty agency, on programs beneficial to the constituents of both groups.

A demonstration of the VFW-EOC cooperation was given on Thursday, October 17, when the Nassau Council's Commander Vincent Esposito presented a check for $300 to EOC executive director John L. Kearse. The donation was intended for the EOC's program of drug abuse education, prevention and intervention, specifically for its effort on behalf of infants born addicted (to mothers on drugs).

The 1974-75 legislative program of the VFW Nassau County

Council provides other examples of collaboration between the two organizations. In addition to supporting legislation to continue and expand all drug abuse programs, the Council urges the establishment of housing for low-income residents and for senior citizens, among others. The EOC conducts programs serving both groups.

A key role in the drafting of the legislative program (adopted at a VFW meeting on October 15) was played by Mr. Joseph A. Normandy, member of the Council's legislative committee, who is also chairman of the Council's drug education committee and who initiated its cooperation with the EOC drug program marked by the donation of $300 last Thursday.

Mr. Normandy is also a member of the EOC board of directors, representing the Community Action Program in Central Nassau (which serves Hicksville, Levittown, East Meadow, and Uniondale). The director of the CAP, Mr. Clive Chilton, and Ms. Gloria Pitts, director of the CAP's drug abuse component, participated - along with Mr. Kearse, Mr. Esposito, and Mr. Normandy - in the ceremony accompanying the presentation of the $300 check. The money for the donation was collected by VFW posts in the following towns: Albertson, Glen Cove, Hicksville, Farmingdale, Floral Park, Oceanside, Levittown, Syosset, Oyster Bay, Franklin Square, Jericho and Merrick.

Dear Friends ...

THERE ARE MANY, MANY SEGMENTS of community life, which this newspaper covers throughout the year. But in this particular issue, the last before Election Day 1974, naturally politics comes strongly to the fore.

THE EDITORIAL "WE", has a royal sound, but it isn't strictly true, not even in the largest dailies in the country...for there is always a chairman of the board lurking in the background with power enough to say...this is what "we" are going to stand for editorially. And so, in this small group of community newspapers, we will not use the editorial "we", but, just for this occasion the pronoun "I" will do just fine.

I HAVE ALWAYS BELIEVED in the policies and principles upon which the Republican Party has been run. I like the results they have accomplished in Nassau County, where I live, work, pay taxes and publish these newspapers. I am not happy with the national scandals which have rocked our Country and caused such a tragic gap in our Country's political effectiveness and in our national and international clout, as the leading nation in the world. Neither am I convinced that all those who have served in our Republican Party are tarred with the same brush, any more than I believe that all Democrats are tarred with the same brush as those in the democratic-controlled Congress who as members of strong congressional committees are to this very day accepting large, large sums as campaign contributions from major lobbyists. These sad facts were carried in their entirety in a front-page article in the Oct. 16th Wall Street Journal, the only national, daily newspaper in this country, and one whose news coverage is known to be factual at all times. No, I don't blame all Republicans for the crimes of a few...nor all Democrats for the equally abhorrent crimes of a few who are still operating on levels of conduct that are almost unbelievable in these times.

I AM NOT A FAIR-WEATHER REPUBLICAN any more than I expect those who are firmly convinced that the principles of the Democratic Party are close to their own, to change. I am going to vote for the qualified people who are running for office under the aegis of the Republican Party. They have done a fine job in the past and I expect them to continue to do so if they are re-elected.

AS TO THE PROPOSITIONS, I believe that a "yes" vote for both Propositions is indicated at this time. The Bond Issue is small and well defined. The change of our Board of Supervisors to a County Form is not only another layer of government, but another way to contribute to the present inflation, witness, the short editorial in Oct. 28th's Newsday where they state:

"In general we believe that skimping on the salaries of elected public officials is a risky method of economizing; fair compensation tends to attract better candidates to seek office. So we support the move in the Suffolk County legislature to increase the salaries of the county executive and the 18 county legislators. But not a 16 per cent increase, from $42,130 to $48,780 for the county executive and from $15,820 to $19,540 for the legislators. We prefer the compromise plan that calls for $1,500 raises. That would help both officials and taxpayers cope with inflation."

Not only would a new layer of government be created...with its aides, secretaries, additional office space, etc, but, as one can see in Suffolk County already...more expenditures...ad infinitum! I am going to vote to retain our present form of County government, which, with the exception of Ralph Caso, is favored by all on the present Board of Supervisors, democrats and republicans alike.

ONE MORE ITEM...something of which I think we

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor,

We've been privileged to be able to participate in a unique experience - an opportunity not too many people are fortunate enough to have.

As an adjunct to our academic course at the State University at Farmingdale, we have been placed, through a field work experience course, at a community service organization called HELP-AID-DIRECTION (H.A.D.). This organization provides a vital and necessary service for the youth of these times.

Formerly, HAD was called Hicksville-Against-Drugs. It operated a store-front at 75 Broadway in Hicksville. It has moved to its present location, a character drenched house, at 389 New South Road in Hicksville.

Initially, the objective of H.A.D. was dealing with adolescent drug abusers. Since this was segregating a large majority of the Hicksville youth, the concept and scope of H.A.D. was expanded to reach out and include all types of people of the community.

The atmosphere at HAD is on an informal setting where the kids can come to rap and express their anxieties, without fear of judgement, reprisal or reprimand. This is conducive to involving the clients into a therapeutic situation.

HAD provides an alternative to roaming in the streets, a setting where they can express themselves in a constructive manner by assuming responsibility for the maintenance and programming of H.A.D. itself.

The staff, few in number but many in heart, are dedicated to the helping of their fellow man. This feeling pervades even though there are many obstacles from the community at large which really isn't aware of the accomplishments achieved by HAD.

The times we're living in today give us all much cause for worry about our youth and our society as a whole.

HAD is one bridge to a healthy and better society with its intervention with the youth of the community.

We could all stand to be more involved with the problems of our community rather than standing on the sidelines criticizing what's not being done.

Board Votes on New Principal for JFK

At the regular meeting of the Plainview-Old Bethpage School Board on Monday October 28th, board members voted to appoint Dr. Arthur C. Colver as the new principal of the John F. Kennedy High School. Though objections were raised by the Plainview Old Bethpage Congress of Teachers, Dr. Savitt emphasized his support for the new administrator. Dr. Colver, who has served as Principal of the Niles East High School in Skokie Illinois since 1968 has been involved in the planning of a new 4-year high school, creating a school within a school, developing open campus plans, and was active in the development of the Self-Directed School Day.

Before the school board meeting Mr. Paul Rubin, President of the PCT sent a telegram to Board President Alvin Delman stating that the candidate has "been found wanting in several respects." At the meeting, David Linton, vice president of the Association criticised the Board for not interviewing more candidates, and commented later that the candidate did not seem committed to a program of academic excellence. Barry Liebowitz, 17 year old senior at JFK also remarked that during meetings with student groups, Dr. Colver tempered many of his remarks with concerns for discipline at the expense of the academics.

Dr. Savitt reported that Mr. Linton's remarks were inappropriate. He commented that a reputation is precious to a professional and it is not to be idly treated. He said that a detailed investigation was made into Dr. Colver's ability and experience and he should be given a "fair opportunity to perform." Board member Jay Bernstein said that choosing a principal is not "a popularity contest."

He explained that a courtesy was extended to the staff and student groups to meet the candidate and that their opinion was not solicited by the board.

It was reported that Dr. Colver was principal of one of the largest and most highly regarded high schools in the mid-west. Board Vice-President Scholnick in moving the appointment said that after learning of his history, background, experience and an interview he strongly moved the Superintendents recommendation. The Board agreed and voted unanimously.

Citizens Committees Meet
At the onset of the meeting Board President Delman and Dr. Savitt met with all citizens interested in participating on Citizen Advisory Committees. Committees were then formed in the areas of Adult Education, Budget Study, Outside Grants, Transportation, Vocational Education, and Planning Comprehensive Community Center.

Other Business
It was announced that safety precautions were lacking at Plainview Rd. where children cross enroute to the Central Park Rd. School. Additional stop signs will be requested by Mr. Callahan.

The Superintendent presented recommendations relative to professional objectives for the coming school year. These objectives will serve as a basis for intensified professional study. Areas of study include unused facilities, the ungraded k-4 school, the middle school, the 4 year high school, pupil personal services, a new approach to supervision, and improving community relations.

East Rockaway also got the nod of two of the largest local police groups, the Nassau Police Conference, headed by Michael Limongelli, and the Long Island State Parkway Police PBA whose President is Barney Aversano.

are all guilty is the way we elect people and never communicate directly with them again. I for one plan to communicate much more frequently with all our elected officials, in the pages of this newspaper, as the weeks go by. You should do so too. Don't kid yourselves that this is ineffective. We may not win them all, but in enough numbers we will be listened to. So, during the next year, and for many more years, I hope that when you do write to your elected officials you put in a carbon and send it to me. I'll be happy to print responsible opinions of our readers.

hazard and crumbling eye-sore of a vandalized building into a place of delight for many visitors.

January, 1973 marked the completion of Phase I in the restoration and conversion of the building. The exterior has been restored to its original appearance, and as much of the interior woodwork as possible has been retained, including window cornices, trim, and the period newel post and banister. In the main area are exhibited a comprehensive collection of rocks and minerals, with smaller displays of fossils and shells. The long hall running parallel with the prime exhibit area contains recessed cabinets for butterflies and moths from all over the world. There is also a small shop where specimens or pertinent printed material may be purchased. The original jail now contains one cell (for exhibition purposes) and a fine local historical collection of photographs, maps, tools, and other artifacts gathered primarily by Museum Historian Richard Evers.

In the months since its reopening as the new home of the popular Gregory Museum, the courthouse has undergone further interior renovation. Phase II of the Museum's Board of Trustees' plans involves the creation of classrooms for the teaching of courses in mineralogy, geology and the lapidary arts to both adults and children. The upper floor of the old courthouse has been framed out, sheetrocked, insulated and wired for classrooms, again with donated materials and union and volunteer help. A fire escape being erected to the rear of the building will permit the holding of earth science and nature courses on the second floor. Every effort is being made to retain the historical appearance of the building's exterior; only essential concessions to fire safety being undertaken.

Zara Permit Renewed; Lizza Balks on Bid

BY JANET GOSNELL

The Town of Oyster Bay held a speedy public meeting this Tuesday at which no public hearings were held. The Board made a few decisions, however, of interest to the readers of this newspaper, including the extension of a special permit use to conduct a portable asphalt plant in Hicksville to Zara Contracting Co., and the award of a nearly $2 million bid to Lizza Industries, Roslyn, for improvements to Teddy Roosevelt Memorial Park, Oyster Bay, on which Lizza claimed a monetary error had been made.

The Zara operation, violently objected to by residents near the industrial area on Engel Street where it is located, was granted a permit carrying 23 restrictions on it in 1973. The renewal granted Tuesday, effective for 18 months from July 30th, 1974, carries 28 restrictions, or five additional conditions to be complied with by the petitioner.

One new condition is that the petitioner erect an eight-foot steel bulkhead along with an eight-foot wood stockade fence along the Laurel Street line of the premises, adjacent to the residential area. The petitioner must also install a sprinkling system to maintain raw materials in a wet state to eliminate dust, all vehicles carrying raw materials must be covered and that raw materials being transferred from trucks to storage bins must be wet down to prevent the emission of dust.

Behind the award of a bid in the amount of $1,973,190. to Lizza Industries for rebuilding of the ramps and marina and other work at Theodore Roosevelt Memorial Park was a lawsuit which was in process in the Supreme Court at the same time the bid was being awarded on Tuesday. According to Lizza, the sum of $500,000. had been omitted from its proposal through an oversight. The real sum, said Lizza, should be nearly $2½ million.

According to Town Attorney John Conroy, a bidder is always held to his bid after the bids are opened. Should the court find for the Town in the current litigation, the Town can re-open the bidding and charge Lizza for the difference between its bid price and that of the next highest bidder. On the other hand, said Conroy, the court might find that it was an honest mistake and find for Lizza.

The Town was hoping that the improvements to TR Memorial Park would be complete in time for the 1975 sailing season, Conroy said.

In other business, the Town engaged the services of Dr. Roy Sullivan, an audiologist and hearing expert from Garden City, in connection with proposed injunction litigation in the Supreme Court directed at prohibiting Benjamin Shapiro and Commander Oil Corporation from conducting a trap rock operation on its premises at the foot of South Street, Oyster Bay.

Dr. Sullivan's services include the study and preparation of a report and affidavit at the rate of $200. and appearances in court at $200. per day. His fees are anticipated not to exceed $1,000.

Dr. Sullivan will attempt to prove that the effect of noise from the trap rock operation is deleterious to the health of nearby residents, according to Town Attorney Conroy.

against inflation... performance, not promises:

We all agree that inflation is the Nation's #1 problem. In our area, the man who's been getting killed by it is the little guy and his middle-class neighbor your neighbor and Norm Lent's neighbor.

No, there isn't any simple solution to the problem, but one effective answer is for Congress to stop voting countless millions of dollars for questionable programs that benefit the few at the expense of many. Our national debt has risen to an incredible $495 Billion, thanks in part to those Members of Congress who have attempted to solve our problems by throwing money at them.

Norm Lent has been careful with your money, believing that Congress ought to be pulling in the reins on questionable spending. He knows that to cover the bills for unnecessary federal programs, the Treasury simply prints more money... making the money in YOUR pocket worth less.

He WORKS at his job... and FIGHTS for our best interests. Like "Whipping Inflation Now"

POB High Math Dept.

On Thursday, Oct. 24, Mr. Abraham Goodman of The Polytechnic Institute of New York, spoke to Mr. Stone's advanced math classes on the kinds of career opportunities for students who have a talent and interest in the fields of mathematics and science. He emphasized the growing gap between the number of technically trained students graduating from our colleges and the number needed by our nation to help solve the critical problem it presently faces.

He encouraged the girls who were present to prepare for scientific careers 1. because they are needed and 2. to undo the discrimination against them that once existed in these fields.

The kinds and extent of the education needed for such careers were indicated by the speaker. Approximately 75 students hear Mr. Goodman's presentation. He visited our school at the invitation of Mr. Harry Weiler, Math Department Chairman.

What A Difference Just One Letter Can Make!

Last week on page one of our Hicksville Edition, we carried a picture of TOB Supervisor John Burke speaking at the meeting of the Hicksville Republican Club. Our original copy read, in part, "Burke drove home the responsibility of everyone to vote "YES" on the County Proposition No. 1 to protect the form of government that has preserved suburbia for 36 years."

In the rush of going to press, our fine proof readers, who are usually pretty accurate, let the incorrect word "protest" go by without correction . . . just one small letter is wrong . . . but what a difference it makes.

We're sorry, John, but we're sure that everyone knew what you meant. It's vote "Yes", folks, if you want to preserve Home Rule and save money. But you all know that, we're sure.

Recital at Hicksville Library

On Sunday, November 10, the Hicksville Library Sunday afternoon Music Series will begin the season with a Harp and Horn recital/lecture featuring Jeanne and Arthur Goldstein.

Jeanne Fintz Goldstein studied harp at the Cleveland Institute of Music with Alice Chalifoux and is a graduate of the Curtis Institute where she studied with Carlos Salzedo.

Arthur Goldstein, studied French Horn with Josef Franzl and Willem Valkenier. He is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music and attended New York University.

They both spent several seasons as students at Tanglewood.

At present she is harpist with the Huntington Symphony Orchestra and also free lances in the Metropolitan area. Mr. Goldstein, is solo horn with the Huntington Symphony and is in the orchestra of the Broadway show "Pippin". He is also on the faculty of Hofstra University, Nassau Community College and the Waldorf School.

The program for Sunday will include traditional folk songs as well as works by Salzedo, Butt, Donizetti, Glazunov and Senaille. The concert will be held in the auditorium at 3 p.m. All the community are welcome to attend.

County to Try to Block LILCO Rate Increase

Nassau County will go to court to block the pending eight per cent increase in Long Island Lighting Company rates, County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced today.

Caso has directed County Attorney John O'Shaughnessy to join with Suffolk County legal authorities to go to court to block implementation of a Public Service Commission examiner's recommendation of the rate boost.

The two counties will engage special counsel to bring an action in Supreme Court in Albany this week to enjoin the PSC from granting the hike.

"It is our feeling the rate increase is unwarranted and would be a burden both on county governments and individual homeowners and businessmen," Caso said.

The petition for injunction is a second effort on the part of Nassau County to prevent the increase, which was subject of months-long hearings. The county, along with the three towns and two cities, combined to hire special counsel to oppose the LILCO request during the hearings.

Damage Insurance and Construction Bond will be required as set forth in Instructions to Bidders and the Contract Form.

Veterans Day Assembly

"Ask not what your country can do for you, but rather, what you can do for your country". Many thousands of men and women have followed this advice and have served their country with honor and courage and many have given the supreme sacrifice a human can give - his life.

On November 8th, at 10:A.M., Holy Family Elementary School in Hicksville will do honor to these men and women in a special Veteran's Day Assembly dedicated to all veterans living and dead who have served their country.

Mr. Robert Schroeder, Director of the Veteran's Administration in Wantagh has kindly offered to be guest speaker for this event and Mrs. Yannotti of the American Legion Women's Auxiliary of Oyster Bay has given poppys to the children to wear for this occasion.

The children will make a small donation for the veterans and this money will be used to buy small gifts for the men in the Veteran's Hospital at Northport.

I would like to thank all those dedicated men and women in the American Legion Posts and the Veteran Administration we have contacted who have been so kind and helpful to us in putting together this assembly," said a spokesman for the Board.

All who would like to attend are most welcome.

First Grade Mothers Help

Happiness is a helping hand, and a helping hand is what a group of ex-Kindergarten mothers (now proud First Grade mothers) extended to the present Kindergarten parents earlier this month.

In order to have as complete participation as possible in afternoon meetings at the Old

County Road and Dutch Lane Schools, Hicksville, Mrs. Wade requested "children sitters" so that the Kindergarten parents would be able to attend a meeting for an hour or so with a free mind.

Grateful thanks to Mrs. Fico, Mrs. Rudin, Mrs. Scolnick, and Mrs. Weinberg for their helping hands as willing children sitters. It was so nice.

Teachers For Roncallo

A group of teachers from the Third Congressional District has formed a "Teachers for Roncallo" association.

Walter Schnieder, a teacher in the Northport school system and a spokesman for the group, stated:

"Every teacher must be entitled to choose his own man for this important election on the basis of what he has done to further education and they must not vote blindly in allegiance to the choice of a few union leaders."

Schneider said the Executive Committee of the group is sending a letter to teachers residing in the district that they had been requested to "follow the leadership's choice without any supporting data."

Schneider said the letter would express the group's belief that Congressman Angelo Roncallo has demonstrated a favorable voting record for education, and that the letter would summarize Roncallo's record on bills he has sponsored or co-sponsored which help both students and teachers.

"An educated person is one who makes a decision after a thorough analysis of the facts," Schneider said. The leaders of NYSUT have neglected to adequately inform their membership as to why they recommend one candidate over another. They apparently expect teachers to simply follow without thinking.

"It is because of the leadership failure that we have become involved."

For further information - call Angela Sini - 735-8937 or Jean Acevedo - 731-2969.

Both the weather and game results were perfect for the Club this weekend. All three traveling teams came home victorious from their Sunday games. In the opening game, the "Teens" team defeated a much improved St. Rose team on a score of 5-0. The individual high scorer was Sal Musumeci with 4 goals on assists by T. Luongo, J. Jannette, J. Brill & T. McCann. Providing icing for the cake was the breakaway, scoring drive by J. Jannette. D. Cusack at Left Half Back added offensive and defensive punch to the quick defensive moves of A. Luongo, T. Luongo and M. Magner on the back line.

Next, the Midgets continued the Club's winning ways, booting a 3-1 triumph over Glen Cove. While the defensive combination of B. Stemborg, M. Andrus, T. Solaski, D. Cochran and T. Fletcher, were driving Glen Cove back, J. Cusack scored twice and J. Anglin once in a game that was never in doubt.

Another rout occurred as the Bantams rolled over Brentwood 7-0. Scoring by B. Andrus (2), B. Cresham (2), S. Dolan, D. Bell, and G. Zakian added one apiece. Goalie J. Maguire held the shut out intact. He was ably assisted by the defensive work of R. Spires and J. Fitzgerald.

INTRAMURALS
The balance and tightness of play in all the intramural contests is shown by the low, closely scored results.

In the Midgets, Penn was defeated 2-0 by N.Y. on scores by K. Jung and L. Moore, while teammates T. Lewis and R. Brill showed a lot of hustle. For the losers, G. Marco, J. Morrisroe and G. Geigle on defense, helped to keep the score down, as did the goalkeeping activity of B. Greiny.

In the second Midget game, New Jersey topped N. Carolina,

4-1. M. Adrio and A. Pepi got 2 each, with all assists to the credit of M. Sini. Fullbacks K. Rowan and R. Pierce, with P. Holden at Half and D. Ench at goal put N.J. into scoring position, with M. Morga on wing to bring the ball down N.J. showed an example of coordinated team effort. N. Carolina's efforts to stop the attack were borne by J. Swakata, W. Burke and S. Hughes. The single goal was from the foot of R. Fragan, on an assist by Tandy.

In the Club's first game under lights at Cantiague Park, N.J. downed Penn. 4-1, on Mon. Oct. 28. Two scoring boots by M. Adrio on assists by M. Morga, plus single break-away scores by A. Pepi and M. Sini, more than turned the tide. N.J.'s defensive efforts were handled with noticeable skill by R. Pierce and H. Meltzer. This passing team followed the example of D. Ench and P. Holden, with their fast footwork. Sweating the defense for Penn. was W. Probst, G. Marco and L. Sullivan. D. Diamond and S. Thompson, on the line, helped produce B. Schuch's goal. While attending goal keeping duties in the first half, S. Thompson handled the heavy action well.

A trio of close games were played by the Bantams. The Mass. team scored a 3-1 win over Conn. P. Schurr took all scoring honors with an assist by M. Habersatt. J. Knuth was outstanding at goal, as were defensive backs P. Herman and G. Brennan. Conn.'s only goal was bootied by W. Maguire, while N. Lavacca, H. Mertz and R. Bell handled the defensive needs.

An even closer game was next as Delaware slipped past Maryland, 2-1. J. Neto made both goals, while K. Rice and J. Laborati, in the forward line helped make it possible. The sharp defense of K. Rice at goal, with J. Speros and P. Egbert at fullback, with S. Pilutik, kept up constant pressure. R. Cunningham scored for Maryland as B. Muller brought the ball upfield from his halfback position.

Georgia and N. Hampshire made their game as close as you can get with a 1-1 tie. Georgia's goal came from F. Christiano on a pass by D. Spadaro, Goalie R. Brutchen was outstanding in defense, with exceptional help from fullback A. Brill. B. Altheus handled a strong center half on both sides of mid-line. N. Hampshire tying goal came from L. Sneddon, unassisted. Goalkeeping assignments were also handled with finesse by S. Masello and M. Rosenback. Forward liners M. Lewis, M. Meyer and T. Leavy were aided by I. Zaretsky and E. Flanagan at halfback, who combined for a skilled attack.

Boys Division excitement was offered by the 3-2 win by Kentucky over Virginia. R. Skrynecki, T. Mularchuk and P. Delvin each bootied one for the winners. S. Borg and J. Garvey performed well on offense, while on offense, K. Storm, T. Devlin and R.

Stiaveling did the same on defense. Va.'s 2 goals were by J. Morga, helped on the forward line by P. Bedell and A. Menzin. Goalkeeping chores were handled well by M. Thomas, while M. Murray and R. Bush maintained the back line.

Four (4) goals by R.I. overwhelmed Vermont's one (1). G. Gates scored twice, with one apiece by M. Seizak and C.

Fiscalare P. Heller also worked hard on the forward line while defensive responsibilities were carried by N. Stafford and J. Stafford.

Vermont's S. Perkin kicked the only goal from a strong forward line consisting of J. Mejia, B. Driers and M. Stuppiello. The overtaxed defense was bolstered by the noticeable striving of J. Bostwick, and T. Sullivan.

Exciting soccer will be available to all fans of the sport at our own Nassau County; Cantiague Park lighted Soccer Field almost every night of the week. Check it out around 6:00 each night.

Viva La Tuna!

Hicksvillites will again have the opportunity to spend an evening with La Tuna. La Tuna is a group of Spanish student minstrels from the University of Barcelona, Spain.

The young men come garbed in the traditional 16th century costume of black velvet breeches and capes. The cape serves as a cover and a place to pin the many colored ribbons given to the "Tuna" by admiring senioritas. The "tunos" play a variety of instruments - bandurria, tambourine, guitar, mandolin - as they sing traditional student songs, delighting the audiences with their contortions and clowning. It is like a scene right out of an El Greco painting.

The Hicksville High School PTA is the sponsor of LaTuna for their return engagement on Friday, Nov. 8, 1974 at 8:00 p.m. at the High School auditorium. Don't be disappointed - buy your tickets now from any member of the Foreign Language Department at the elementary, junior high or senior high schools. The donation is $1.00.

Plainview - Old Bethpage High Sports

The Plainview Gull Football team won its first game of the season last Saturday. The following is a completely detailed outline on all of the exciting action.

Pre-Game: The scene was the Great Neck South football field where the Gulls (0-4) would be taking on the Rebels who were (1-3). The game scheduled to begin at 1:30 was delayed 15 minutes because of heavy traffic on the expressway, not allowing fans and coaches to get to the game on time. For the Rebels, it wouldn't have been a bad idea to cancel the game right from the outset.

First Half: Quarterback John Lupo completed a 29 yard pass to Jim Keckerson for a Gull touchdown. After stopping the Rebels several times, Craig Martin had a 3 yard carry for the Gulls second touchdown. Before you knew it, the first half was over and the Gulls led 12-0.

Half Time: While John Lupo was 9 for 9 in passing, senior Howard Mofsen was suffering from a probable dislocated elbow which was sustained during the first half. Our fans were ecstatic over the score. For myself, I must say I didn't know whether to join them or just stay quiet and hope the Gulls would have a good second half. I did neither - I went to the concession stand to get something to eat!

Second Half: The Rebels came back strong. Jim Hoak ran three yards to give the Rebels their first touchdown. Then "Super" Sam Brown drove two yards to tie the score at 12. It was well in the fourth and final quarter when Great Neck South had to give the ball away but Junior Kevin Purdy blocked the punt and the ball went out of the end zone which gave the Gulls a safety. The score was 14-12 in favor of the Gulls when the Rebels had the ball with 10 seconds left. The Gulls' good defense did not allow the Rebels to go anywhere. The Gulls won! The Plainview Gulls had won their first game of the season which was hard to believe after all the disappointments we had seen earlier in the season. It was all joy and glory for everyone except Howard Mofsen and Bruce Pelkon. Bruce was on the bench suffering most of the 4th quarter and after the game. I won't go into the details of Bruce's injury, but the players responded by giving Bruce the game ball.

Post Game: The bus ride home was a pleasant one. Head Coach William McNamara was proud of his players who played a super game. Quarterback John Lupo ended up completing 13 out of 15 passes for 87 yards, and Jim Keckerson got three passes for 56 yards. When the team returned to Plainview High their fan club, "Spirit of '76", gave all of the players a fine reception. The players showed their excitement by throwing Assistant Coach Sam Goldmeier in the shower.

Seaford lost last Saturday and the Gulls will be playing them this week at home. If you can't get to the game you can hear all the action on delayed tape on WPQB - 88.5 on your FM dial.

Heitz Place Courthouse Now "National Site"

Hicksville's old Heitz Place Courthouse and Village Hall has been designated a "National Historic Site" by the Federal government, according to a letter from Town Supervisor John Burke to Gardiner Gregory, Director of the Earth Science Museum which is now housed in the well known building.

For a local historic property to be "entered in the National Register of Historic Places" is a distinction for a community to be proud of. It serves notice that the property is authentic in its architectural style and details, occupies its original premises, has considerable documentary proof of its historic past and its evolution to the present period, and affords some distinctive opportunity for the public to view and experience a contact with a bonafide reminder of our nation's past.

Reliable sources indicate that such Federal recognition greatly enhances the stature of a historic site and affords numerous possibilities for its renovation, permanence and a broadened awareness of its historic importance.

Efforts to obtain Federal recognition of the old courthouse, now the home of the Gregory Earth Science Museum and location for an excellent local historical collection, were begun about a year ago by Dorothy H. McGee, Chairman of the Oyster Bay Town American Revolution Bicentennial Commission. The application for Federal recognition was based upon historical data concerning the courthouse and its jail which was obtained by Hicksville historian, Richard E. Evers and photographs prepared by Gardiner Gregory.

The late 19th century clapboard and cupola-styled building was erected in 1895 on land donated to the Town by Arnold Heitz, son of a founder of Hicksville. Established as a meeting hall for this then-agricultural village, it contained a small "lock-up" for the detention of local rowdies, and soon became a courthouse where Oyster Bay justices of the peace presided. In 1915, the brick jailhouse was added to the courthouse. Consisting of three jail cells of Bessemer steel with the latest plumbing facilities, it served until 1935. Here the transgressors of old-time Hicksville—distributors of the peace, drunks, tramps, wifebeaters, thieves and auto-speeders—were held overnight until the judge could see them. The old newspapers tell us that the jail was shut down on a melancholy note; the last inmate, despondent over marital problems, hung himself. Closed, the jail served the next thirty years as a storeroom. Today, the quaint little brig with its maniken inmates is invariably a scary thrill or interesting social relic to school children and adult visitors alike. It is believed to be the oldest jail remaining in Nassau and is open to the public daily.

Among the notable Town of Oyster Bay Justices of the Peace and, later, County District Court Judges to preside at the Heitz Place Courthouse were: Joseph Steinert, Charles Stoll, Andrew Heberer, Joseph Lebkuecher and Francis Donovan. The latter popular Hicksville jurist elected along with Judge Benjamin Zipper-to be sworn-in at the picturesque site by Nassau County Surrogate Court Judge John Bennett during the 1960's.

The Heitz Place landmark, where now school children are enthralled by the wonders of the Gregory Museum's mineral, fossil and butterfly collections, has served many public uses in its near eighty years. Oldtimers in Hicksville were accustomed to refer to the building as the "village hall". Here, at the turn of the century, local taxes were brought in by storekeepers in flour bags, and community meetings were held. Clubs of various sorts and agricultural fair communities met here. Various district elections, such as those for water and fire commissioners, brought out the earlier voters. It was the World War I Draft Board Headquarters and later a mustering place for thousands of mid-Nassau draftees entertaining at Hicksville for World War II service. The conscripts received a breakfast of coffee and doughnuts at the Courthouse. They marched to war from the locust-lined mall which then framed the building, often behind John Harbes, farmer and American Legion Commander, who lead the procession with the national colors.

In the post-war era, as its civil case load increased, the building also continued to serve as Nassau County's Fourth District Court, but it also housed the County Probation Officers and the office of genial Joseph McCarthy who counseled returning veterans for the Town of Oyster Bay Veterans Agency. In 1967 Nassau County closed its courtrooms at Heitz Place and moved them to other, more modern Hicksville location.

The old courthouse, a picturesque example of late 19th century rural governmental architecture, fell prey to vandals until 1970, when arrangements were made between officials of the Town of Oyster Bay and the Trustees of the Gregory Museum for a long term lease of the facility to serve as Long Island's Earth Science Museum.

This enlightened example of government vision and action preserved a historic landmark and its surrounding park, thus providing a cultural, educational and esthetic resource for the public in a rapidly changing community.

Under the custodianship of the Trustees of the Gregory Museum, hundreds of Hicksville residents of all ages and callings, aided by donations of materials from local merchants and craftsmen and the skilled workmanship of the trade unions, have turned a fire-

DECA ATTENDS WORKSHOP
The Plainview-Old Bethpage High School DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) Chapter attended a very exciting and informative workshop at Calhoun High School on October 24th. The Workshop Day was held for all DECA members in Nassau to get first hand information about each area of competition - what to expect from the judges, how to prepare for the contest, how to dress and how you will be rated. Plainview DECA is on its way, thanks to the fine job done by Calhoun DECA in preparing this Workshop Program recognition by the Chair to speak against the condemning resolution, the delegate from the United States stated with diplomacy facts and statistics which seemed to justify the position of the United States. At the close of the conference a sense of accomplishment was projected by the members of the secretariat and delegates. They had formulated and carried into action a successful education experience

This year the Plainview High School United Nations Club, under the competent leadership of Glenn J. Abramson, Rick Murad, Jean Singer and Julie Polifka, will be attending three model U.N. conferences on state and national levels. At these conferences members will further their education in the powers and responsibilities of the United Nations today. The United Nations Club is a rapidly growing organization which has proven in the past to be one of the most qualified U.N. clubs on the East Coast and hopefully will continue this reputation in future years.

County. The purpose of the session was to inform all the students of the various contests they can enter within the DECA Competitive Program. These contests will be held at the local level on January 15th at C.W. Post College.

There were three workshop sessions at Calhoun, each one ran for forty-five minutes. Included in this workshop day were the following contests: Public Speaking, Job Interview, Wholesale and Retail Sales, Display, Billboard, Display Diorama, Chapter Activities Scrapbook Career Manual, Studies in Marketing Manuals, Management Decision, and Merchandising Math. The students who attended all agreed that this was a great opportunity for them

A MONUMENTAL EXPERIENCE (by Glenn J. Abramson) - On Friday, October 25th, the Plainview High School United Nations Club, with the advice and wholehearted cooperation of our advisor, Ms. LeMay, held the Fifth Annual Session of the Plainview Model United Nations. Weeks, days, and hours of preparation paid off when the cries of "point of order", "point of information", and "point of parliamentary inquiry" permeated the rectangular double history room. At one point during the conference the delegate from the United States was astounded by the vocabulary as well as the diction expressed by the delegate from Kuwait in his oratory denouncing the United States' intervention in the Panama Canal Zone. ## Get Rid of Gray Hair

Some of it or all of it

1st Day      6th Day      12th Day      18th Day

Time-lapse photographs show how gradual action of Grecian Formula 16 lets you control just how much gray you slowly get rid of - some of it or all of it.

White Plains, N.Y. — Hundreds of thousands of men all over the country are now using a remarkable product to control just how much gray they slowly get rid of. It is called Grecian Formula 16 and the results are simply amazing. Grecian Formula 16 is a practically clear liquid, as easy to use as hair tonic. This remarkable formula works for any color hair because it combines with the natural chemistry of the hair to recreate natural-looking color. There is no mess and no rub-off. You simply use it every day for two or three weeks until you slowly get rid of just as much gray as you want. Some of it, most of it or all of it. You can stop where you like. You are in complete control of how much gray goes or stays. Once you get rid of as much gray as you want, simply use Grecian Formula once a week or so to keep it that way. Since Grecian Formula 16 works gradually over a period of time, even close friends won't notice the change happening. The resulting color is so completely natural that the hair definitely does not have a dyed look. Grecian Formula 16 is available at

Residents Oppose Proposed Discoteque

The Concerned Citizens For Hicksville held a meeting on October 17th to protest the proposed opening of Oak Beach Inn, a discoteque, on Levittown Parkway (adjacent to Levittown Pool) in Hicksville.

Over 300 residents participated as arguments were presented in opposition to Oak Beach Inn's opening. The arguments centered on:

1. The zoning laws. (The site is Zone F, small neighborhood business. The proposed discoteque would have a capacity for over 400 persons and triple its present size.)
2. Problems with the previous small bar. (There are innumerable complaints listed with the police department because of noise, midnight drag races and brawls. The fire which burned out the last bar was listed as 'suspicious arson'.)
3. Parking. (Although there is a small municipal parking area it was argued that it would not be able to service the capacity of O.B.I., without necessitating some possible spill over on to residential streets.)
4. The close proximity to Levittown Pool, Levittown Hall, Dutch Lane and Old Country Road schools and playing fields.
5. Oak Beach Inn's reputation which could draw elements from the entire Island as well as New York City into this residential area.

There was general agreement that the neighborhood is residential and does not complement such an operation. Over 500 signatures on petitions expressing this sentiment have thus far been signed.

Councilman Warren Doolittle, representing the Town Board, explained the actions the Town was taking against O.B.I. because they felt that O.B.I. did not have an adequate building permit for the work they were doing, and because they had not answered the summonses issued. A Temporary Restraining Order is answerable in Supreme Court Mineola on October 29th.

The Concerned Citizens Committee has been in contact with the State Liquor Authority in hopes of preventing the issuance of a liquor license. This is pending at the present time.

We urge ALL residents of Hicksville to help us preserve our neighborhood by writing TODAY to:

Deputy Commissioner
License Bureau
State Liquor Authority

and
Supervisor
Town of Oyster Bay

Town Hall
Oyster Bay, N.Y. 11771

Any group that uses Levittown Hall; any group that uses the Dutch Lane or Old Country Road Schools or playing fields; any group that uses Levittown Pool for meets, has a vested interest in objecting to Oak Beach Inn. Let your organization's voice count also.

Any individual or group interested in helping can contact - The Concerned Citizens Committee, 73 Abbott Lane, Hicksville, N.Y. 11801.
