Gyms To Be Open On Saturdays

By Shirley Smith

At last Wednesday's meeting, the Hicksville Board of Education voted to open the Burns, Lee and Woodland Avenue school gyms on Saturdays for use by various athletic groups in the community. The water damage to the High School gym floor has forced the closing of this facility and consequently high school indoor athletic activities have been moved to the junior high, pushing their activities into elementary schools. This has forced the school district to deny outside groups the use of various school gyms. However, with the opening of the buildings on Saturdays these groups can now be accommodated.

William Bruno was the only board member to vote against this action, because there were no fees attached and custodians, who must be in the buildings when they are open, are paid by the district for weekends. The district hopes to have the high school gym floor repaired and the gym in use by January, but settlement problems with the insurance company may delay this until February or March. The Hicksville athletic program is experiencing many difficulties and hardships while the gym is out of use.

The school board approved the writing of a 5th and 6th grade speech curriculum by two of the

Apartments Is A Dirty Word

Our Chamber of Commerce Fights For Hicksville's Future

BY LAWRENCE M. SCALERA, A.I.A.

G - I Zoning

Apartments is a dirty word! It makes strong men see red and politicians turn white. Probably because they think apartments will turn the neighborhood black, maybe they are yellow. The reality is apartments could turn Hicksville green!

What are the facts about apartments? Well the majority of apartment dwellers in Nassau consists of young couples who, usually for financial reasons, have to live in an apartment and Senior Citizens who no longer wish to maintain a one-family home. In fact, the percentage of persons over 65 goes up each year, thus further increasing the need for apartments.

It is interesting to note that one out of four apartment dwellers in Nassau County moved from a single family home in the same or adjacent community. Further, two out of five previously lived in single family houses. Sixty-four percent of the apartment dwellers in Nassau County came from either Nassau or Suffolk Counties, and only 22 percent came from New York City (with most of these living in the western part of the County: Valley Stream, for example). (Source: Nassau County Planning Commission).

Because of these two major categories of Nassau Apartment dwellers, the number of public school children living in apartments is very low, averaging less than one such child for 20 single bedroom apartments, and one such child for each 5 two bedroom apartments. Accordingly, apartments pay more school taxes per child living in the development than the estimated cost of educating a child.

The Master Planners hired by the Town of Oyster Bay Raymond, Parrish & Pine) stated in their report the Hicksville Triangle Plan that a density of 50 apartments per acre would be necessary in order to provide a reasonable return on equity to a developer. If this was true in 1971 when the report was released, it is more than true today, given the higher costs of construction and money. Since the Hicksville Triangle is primarily bounded by the Long Island Railroad on the North and East, by Old Country Road on the South, and by Newbridge Road on the West, and since all the land "across the street" from the Triangle (except East of the LIRR) is zoned Business, the Triangle, is the perfect place for apartments.

- It is within walking distance of six churches in downtown Hicksville.
- It is a short walk to the Hicksville RR Station.
- It is located on a bus route to shopping areas.
- It is within walking distance to downtown shopping areas.
- It is NOT adjacent to any Residential Area, being located entirely within Business Zones.
- Apartment Dwellers in the Triangle Zone would not be as dependent on cars because of the nearness to the facilities outlined above. Thus, number of parking spaces required could be reduced to a minimum, because of this, and because of the location of municipal parking areas which we will discuss in a future article.

It is an especially ideal location for Senior Citizen housing for these same reasons. The Senior Citizen Housing presently located on Jerusalem Avenue South if town suffers from its distance from such facilities and makes it more difficult for Senior Citizens to be mobile. (It is hard to understand how the Town fathers in their wisdom would permit apartments such as these to be built in one-family Residential areas but not in the Hicksville Triangle!)

The problem before us is how to zone the area to make it profitable for a developer to come in, assemble land and build apartments at a density that is compatible with a suburban environment. Raymond Parrish and Pine, the Town of Oyster Bay Planning Consultants, place this number at fifty apartments per acre.

Both E-2 and E-3 Apartment House Districts in the Zoning Law of the Town of Oyster Bay permit apartments to be built to a height of 35 feet. Suppose apartments were permitted in certain parts of the Triangle with a maximum height permitted of 35 feet. With proper design this would allow a developer to build four stories. Then, give him an incentive to cover less of his property with buildings and more with landscaped areas. For example, if a developer only builds on 30 percent of his land, he would be permitted 50 apartments per acre. Can this be done? Assume the 50 apartments required 50,000 square feet of building (800 square feet per apartment plus 200 square feet for common areas). On 4 floors this would result in 12,500 square feet of building per floor which is only 28.7 percent of an acre. The minimum plot could be set at five acres with additional bonuses provided as the acreage increased. Thus, for each acre over the minimum the number of apartments per acre could be increased.

A bonus could also be given for providing central recreational facilities such as swimming pools, tennis courts, playgrounds, meeting rooms, handball courts, etc. This is not an attempt to write the law, but to show what possibilities exist which could result in apartments that would meet the needs of the community. We do not want all of our young marrieds moving away or all our Senior Citizens going to Florida or to continue to live in houses they can no longer maintain. Ideas like these, properly developed, properly planned, properly supervised by the Town Board through a Planning Board with power could result in a Central Hicksville that would be alive and vibrant. And it would be green! The buildings would only occupy 30 percent of the land!

We know you have comments to make, and we would like to hear them. Please call or write this newspaper or the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce at 356B Mid-Island Plaza, Hicksville, N.Y. 11801.

Next Week: Multiple-Use Buildings.

HCBE To Meet

"What is BOCES and how does it Affect Us?" will be the subject of the next meeting of Hicksville Citizens for Better Education (HCBE) on Monday, November 25th at 8:30 PM in the Hicksville Library.

The panel for the discussion, to be moderated by HCBE President Eugene Edelstein, will consist of Joan Brenner, Vice-Chair BOCES School Board, Erwin Rozran, Asst. Supt. Personnel and Pupil Personnel Services, Edward Bellow, Hicksville School Board liaison to BOCES, Iris Wolfson, Vice-President Hicksville School Board, and Mary Mallen and Michael Martignette, students at BOCES. As the title indicates, BOCES is largely a mystery to many of us. Since we send such a large number of students to BOCES, it behooves us to find out as much as we can about it. Our panel has been selected to provide a cross section of viewpoints on the impact BOCES has on our district. If you would like to get some information, or make your own opinions known, come to our meeting on the 25th.

DEVOTIONS

By the Rev. John H. Krahn,
Trinity Lutheran Church

Most of us want to be where it's at. We want to be accepted, happy, fulfilled. In our quest for happiness and acceptance we seek membership in various in-groups of our society.

Among the more popular in-groups today is what I call the "Enlightened Unbeliever" in-group. For many, membership in this group usually begins at college age. To qualify one must become increasingly impressed with himself and what he knows. He must also find faith increasingly childish. Members in this group have yet to learn that the truly intelligent man is more impressed with his ignorance than with his knowledge. To accept God, one must first accept his own limitations.

Another popular in-group is the "Free and Easy Unmorality" in-group. College students tell me that it is really tough to have Christian morals on campus today. More and more men and women who have been happily married for many years seek membership in this group. They think they should travel into the land of "foolery" around to sample the delights of forbidden fruit. Unfortunately at the end of their rainbow they most often discover a pot full of bitter pain and broken lives.

Much of what's "in" for society today is fortunately "out" for the believer. Yes, fortunately, for God has planned a better thing for him. There are many in-groups to choose from today, but there is only one really important in-group to which everyone should belong. The Church is that in-group. Those outside of it are unfortunate. Those inside, engaged...engaged with a present God who sees them as the most important thing in the world to him. More important than His majestic mountains or mighty rivers. Church members are the Almighty's personal pleasure. Joy results from His presence in their hearts, for their God is not a cosmic kiljoy but the Way to worthwhile life.

When those inside the church gather for worship or for work, a smiling face and a reaching hand characterize a present Christ. Even when life deals them one of its low blows, they are not sidetracked from present joy or eternal reward. They are insiders and that makes the difference.

PASTOR GRIFFIN: Trinity Lutheran Church, 40 West Nicholas Street in Hicksville invites you to hear Pastor Robert Griffin on November 24th, 25th, and 26th, at 7:30 p.m. He will be speaking on the New Life in Christ. The service will feature special music, a message for today from the Bible, fellowship and spiritual renewal.

"Indian Nights"

Judging from news reports and press releases on recent movies and television shows this is the year of the "Indian." And yet, how many of these highly polished, expensive films actually deal with the ancient arts, culture and beliefs of the American Indian.

The faculty and students of Holy Family School, Hicksville, would like to invite all who are interested to come to Holy Family's "Indian Night" on November 25, at 7:30 pm in the school gym at 25 Fordham Avenue. Here, our 7th grade children who have been studying the American Indian will greet you in authentic Indian dress and give you an idea of the ancient cultures of the Indian tribes who have inhabited our great country. There will be Indian dances, food, music and our special guests "Dancers of the Red Feather." Admission is 25 cents and no admission will be charged for children who are in the care of adults. All money collected will be donated to the American Indian Mission.

Trinity Raffle

On Sunday, November 10, Mrs. Cathy Walker of Manhasset won a 1975 Ford Granada at Holy Trinity High School in Hicksville.

The drawing climaxed over one month of selling chances on the car. Most of Trinity's 2000 students participated in the drive which brought in over $5500.00 to the school.

Mr. Neil Pistana, Assistant Principal, who coordinated the student's efforts, reported that the work of Trinity students is hard to beat. "In six months they have raised nearly $17,000.00. It's quite a tribute to their spirit of generosity and love for their school," he said.

New Nassau Repertory Premiere Performance

The New Nassau Repertory, a professional repertory company established under the Nassau County Office of Cultural Development, will open its 1974-75 season with Alan Ayckbourn's comedy "How the Other Half Loves."

Performances will take place in the County Theatre in the Social Services Building, Mineola, on Friday and Saturday Evenings - December 6th and 7th, and December 13th and 14th, at 8:30 P.M. Tickets are $2.50 and can be purchased at the door the evening of the performance.

"How the Other Half Loves," a two-act farce, revolved around the sexual misadventures and marital misunderstandings of three frustrated couples. The frenzied action takes place in the upper crust home of a bungling business executive and the shabby apartment of his cuckolding employee. Not until a third couple is drawn into the sexual intrigue is the solution to "How the Other Half Loves" hilariously resolved.

British playwright Alan Ayckbourn is also the author of "Absurd Person Singular." The New Nassau Repertory is Long Island's first County-sponsored professional resident company. The six member troupe will perform in four shows this season including Mark Medoff's "When You Come Back Red Ryder?" and Joe Orton's black comedy "Loot."

For further information on the New Nassau Repertory, contact the Office of Cultural Development at 484-9333.

"How the Other Half Loves" is recommended for mature audiences only.

NCPD Begins Holiday Season Anti-Crime Enforcement Patrol

The Nassau County Police Department will begin its special holiday season anti-crime enforcement patrol aimed specifically at preventing crime and arresting persons who commit them, at the end of the month.

This special beefing up of patrols within the Police District is called Operation "Crime Stop," and has been in effect for the holiday season for several years.

To help implement the operation, Commissioner Louis J. Frank said all members of the department engaged in patrol duty have been told to "be alert and exert a maximum effort, giving special attention to areas known to experience an increase in crime during the holiday season."

The special patrols will go into operation on November 30th in each of the department's eight precincts and will include members of the Detective Division and the Crime Prevention Unit, all of whom will be armed with special weapons. Unless otherwise directed, the special patrols will end on January 1, 1975.

Commissioner Frank said, "We are confident that Operation Crime Stop will be an effective deterrent to many, would be criminals and prevent any marked increase in crime during that period."

TOB Co-Sponsors Concert Band at Plainview High School

For those individuals who remember with nostalgia the fun and ambience of Sunday concerts in the park, concerts under the stars, and the stirring thrill of an American marching band - this feeling will be re-created on Sunday, November 24 with the appearance of the American Concert Band at Plainview High School, Central Park Road, Plainview, starting at 3:00 P.M. Co-sponsored by CAPA, the Cultural and Performing Arts

"Fall Foodstuffs" at Old Bethpage Village

"Fall Foodstuffs," a weekend devoted to the interpretation of Thanksgiving as it was celebrated on Long Island during the mid-19th century, will take place at the Old Bethpage village restoration on November 23 and 24.

The preparation of the holiday meal which bears a remarkable similarity to modern-day Thanksgiving dinners can be seen at the Williams, Layton and Conklin homes, where the "village ladies," dressed in traditional garb, labor over open hearth fireplaces, ovens and woodburning stoves.

In addition to baking and roasting special holiday dishes such as turkey, duck, chine (backbone of the pig), boiled ham, clam chowder, cranberry and apple sauce, plum pudding and pumpkin and apple pies, the Powell Farm staff will be demonstrating the family's 19th century methods of preserving fall produce such as apples, pumpkins, squash, roots and cabbage.

Utilizing this year's hearty crop, the ladies will also be making homemade apple butter and cider; and jams, jellies and other preserves from a previous abundant year will be in evidence.

Authentic hunting equipment depicting the way the main meals of fish or wild game arrived on the table will be on view and will provide an interesting in-sight into the lifestyle of the people of that era.

Special scheduled performances by the Old Bethpage Village Brass Band and Singers add to the holiday mood in the village. The choir will perform in the Manetto Hill Methodist Church at 1:30 pm and 3:00 pm and the colorful Brass Band will make its appearance at 2:15 pm and 3:30 pm.

Thanksgiving, the traditional harvest celebration, is thought to have been first celebrated by the colonists in Virginia in 1619 as a day for giving thanks to Almighty God for a bountiful harvest or after a particular hardship had been endured.

The present tradition of a unified holiday is thought to have been set by President Lincoln in 1863 when in the months following Gettysburg, he named the last Thursday of November as a day of Thanksgiving in the North. It was then and still is today a holiday of great significance and celebration.

Amidst the fever pitch during this busy season, the normal way of life goes on as usual, in this charming "page out of history" village...the rigors of grain thrashing, blacksmithing, farming chores, domestic activities and crafts.

Old Bethpage village restoration, operated by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks, is a pre-Civil War Long Island community located on Round Swamp Road in Old Bethpage, exit 48 on the Long Island Expressway. The fee for Nassau County residents is $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children under 18. The non-resident fee is $2 for adults and $1 for children.

Town Board Seeks to Encourage Resident Attendance at Meetings

In an effort to encourage residents to attend the weekly meetings of the Oyster Bay Town Board, Town Supervisor John W. Burke announced that copies of the agendas of the meetings will be made available at local libraries prior to the Tuesday meetings.

"While we have been posting the agendas at our Town Hall in Oyster Bay and the two annexes in Hicksville and Massapequa," Burke said, "the Board members felt that more local distribution could better inform residents as to items on which the Board intends to act at its upcoming meetings."

Burke noted that the "Action Calendars," as the agendas are called, will be mailed by the Town Clerk as early in the week as they are prepared. According to Town Clerk Ann R. Ocker, this means that the calendars will be mailed to the 13 library districts in the Town on Thursday of the week preceding the regular Tuesday Town Board meeting and residents may go to any one of 16 locations to review the calendar.

"I am sure that there are probably many residents who are still unaware that their Town Board meets at 10 AM every Tuesday, and even fewer who have knowledge of the purpose of the Board meetings," Burke said. "Since local government is the one most involved in the everyday functions of the people, the Board felt some steps should be taken to encourage greater attendance by the people at our weekly meetings."

While recognizing that the calendars offer only limited information on the item that will be acted upon by the Board, Burke noted that in many instances residents will know what is involved in a local question just from the title of the resolution.

"It is also hoped that posting the calendars will allow residents more time to plan to attend hearings of interest to them, since some resolutions set the hearing dates," Burke explained. "Also, it is hoped that residents who are interested in an item listed on the calendar, but not certain of what it entails, will come to the Board meeting even if just out of curiosity."

Calendars will be posted at the Jericho and Syosset libraries.

New Indian Exhibit at Garvies Point

A special exhibit entitled "American Indian Art from the Eastern Woodlands" opens at Garvies Point Museum, Glen Cove, on Sunday, November 24, and will run through March 16, 1975.

The exhibit, featuring American Indian artifacts of outstanding artistic merit, encourages an appreciation of eastern Woodlands Indian aesthetics as represented in their material arts.

Among the approximately seventy-five items displayed are clothing, including a superb selection of moccasins; decorative accessories such as pouches and purses; wooden household utensils; weapons; smoking gear; musical instruments; medicine bags and other items of religious and ceremonial significance.

Most of the pieces are from the Northeast and Great Lakes regions and date primarily from the 18th and first half of the 19th centuries. Some of the Native American people represented include the Micmac, Penobscot, Delaware, the Iroquoian tribes of New York State, the Huron, Chippewa, Winnebago and Woodland Cree.

The Garvies Point Museum, operated by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks, is located on Barry Drive in Glen Cove. It is open daily except Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Years, from 10 am to 5 pm. Admission is 25 cents per person. For additional information call on 480-0000.

Dear Friends:

From the tax report column of the Wall Street Journal of Nov. 20th, we reprint the following interesting item, with the comment "Lucky Wanakah!":

A COUNTRY DOCTOR finds a touch of tender loving care in the Tax Court.

In Wanakah, N.Y., Dr. George M. Cooper had his office at home. His wife was his bookkeeper and often worked from her kitchen or breakfast room, not to mention washing the office linens in her basement. In addition, the doctor had widened his driveway to make a parking lot and went to extra trouble in winter to keep it clear (Wanakah being in New York's snow belt). Patients often chatted with Mrs. Cooper instead of waiting in the formal waiting room.

In 1970, Dr. Cooper deducted 50 percent of the house upkeep as a business expense. The IRS chopped that to 20 percent, based on the square footage of the office area. Dr. Cooper replied that the "formalism" of an urban medical office didn't apply to a "family-type" office. The Tax Court found some merit in that. It allowed the 20 percent plus another 10 percent for business use of kitchen, breakfast room and basement.

The court allowed 40 percent of outlays on yard maintenance. It said that use by patients required "a substantially greater expense" by Dr. Cooper.

THAT'S ALL for this week. We at THE HERALD extend best wishes for a Happy Thanksgiving to all. When we count our true blessings, there is much to thank God for, each day, not the least of these is the joy of working together with our friends and neighbors. Stay well.

Landmarks Preservation Law Passes by Split Vote

BY JANET GOSNELL

The Town of Oyster Bay Landmarks Preservation Ordinance was approved by a vote of four to one with two abstentions at the Board Meeting on Tuesday.

The Legislation had been sponsored by Howard T. Hogan, Jr., who, with Councilmen Warren Doolittle, Kenneth Diamond and Supervisor John Burke, voted in favor of the ordinance. Voting "No" was Councilman Gregory Carman; abstaining were Councilmen Salvatore Mosca and Joseph Saladino.

The Board also appointed the members of the Landmarks preservation Commission which has the responsibility to recommend designation of landmarks, landmark sites and historic districts to the town Board. The seven members of the Commission, who serve without compensation are: Gustave Rappold of Massapequa and John Collins of Oyster Bay for one year terms; Frederick Bentel of Locust Valley and John Harbour of Massapequa Park for two terms, and Dorothy H. McGee and George Pidol of Locust Valley and Robert McKay (Chairman) of Oyster Bay for three years. At least five members of the Commission must be present to conduct a meeting and the concurring votes of four members will be necessary to adopt any recommendations.

Under the provisions of the Landmarks Preservation Ordinance, any person may request the designation of a landmark by submitting an application to the Commission. The commission may also initiate proceedings on its own for such designations. The owner of the property on which the proposed landmark site or historic district is situated and owners of property within 250 feet of the boundary of the parcel will be given the opportunity to confer with the Commission prior to final action which will be taken within 30 days of receipt of the application or initiation of proceedings by the Commission.

Objections Voiced
In voting "No," Councilman Carman said he believed there were certain faults in this ordinance which forced him to oppose it. He said he did not believe there was enough room for appeal from the designation.

In voicing his abstention, Councilman Saladino expressed his concern for the preservation of historical structures and sites, but felt he could not vote for the proposed Town ordinance due to his "greater concern for the rights of private home owners."

Councilman Mosca abstained without comment.

If the Commission disapproves the application, all action with regard to the proposed landmark site or historic district will be terminated. If no action is taken on an application within 30 days, it will be considered disapproved. In both cases, no application can be reviewed for a period of one year from the original filing date.

The Town board, which ultimately decides on the designation, may call a public hearing on any application, whether recommended for approval or disapproval by the Commission. However, the Board can act on a designation without conducting a public hearing.

No building permit will be issued for any site that is under consideration as a historic district or landmark site until a decision has been reached.

In the event the Town Board grants the historic designation, any application for alterations, additions, repairs, landscaping or demolition must be reviewed and accepted by the Landmarks Preservation Commission. All changes will be made in keeping with the architectural or historic period of which the landmark site or historic district is representative.

In reviewing requests for changes, the Commission will take into consideration the historical and architectural significance of the building or structure, the appropriateness of the proposed change and any other aesthetic considerations it deems pertinent. It may bring in an outside consultant at the approval of the Town Board. All requests for alterations, repairs, landscaping or demolition will be acted on within 60 days of receipt of the application or it will be considered automatically approved. The Commission may relax its standards if an applicant establishes that strict adherence to the provisions regarding changes causes undue hardship.

The Commission has no jurisdiction over interior alterations and repairs and ordinary maintenance of a structure or building providing materials of similar quality and color as the original are used.

Once a site has been designated a landmark site or part of a historic district, the owner will be eligible for reimbursement of the General Town Tax, the Building, Zoning and Memorial Day Assistance Tax and the Highway Tax.

Violations of this ordinance will be punishable by a fine not in excess of $250, imprisonment of not more than 15 days, or both.

"Oyster Bay is privileged to have many tangible reminders of its history still existing," Hogan stated. "This ordinance is designed to protect them for future generations as well as preserve the historic flavor that pervades much of our Town and is a source of pride to our residents."

AT T.O.B. MEETING:

Dorant Permit Granted With 8 Restrictions

BY JANET GOSNELL

At its regular meeting on Tuesday (Nov. 19) the Oyster Bay Town Board approved the petition of Dorant, Inc. for a special permit use to construct and maintain executive offices and garage and to store materials, trucks and facilities for a mason contracting business on property on the south side of Cedar Place in Syosset.

No one spoke in opposition to the petition at a public hearing held on June 25th.

The petition was made in behalf of a tenant in the business and presented by Dorant's attorney, Anthony Quinn. The intent is to construct a one-story building for the storage of forms and three trucks. The Town Board requested the petitioner's attorney to submit a revised parking plan in connection with the petition at the time of the public hearing.

In granting its approval, however, the Board placed eight restrictions on the petitioner. These prohibited outdoor storage of vehicles, parts, or facilities; manufacturing of any kind; proper maintenance of structures, equipment and parking areas; that proper drainage of the premises and a neat appearance be maintained; that the improvements on the premises shall be in "substantial compliance" with the revised site plan presented by George J. Meitzer, Dated June 25, 1974.

Also, the Board requires that variances for compliance in all respects, including parking, with all applicable provisions of the Building Zone Ordinance of the Town of Oyster Bay shall be obtained prior to the issuance of a building permit, except that the foundation permit becomes immediately effective; that no vehicle body work or vehicle repairs or collision work be performed on the premises; and that any pre-existing special use permits on the subject premises are now cancelled, annulled and rescinded.

The First Annual John Burke Soccer Tournament, under the lights at Cantiague Park, this past weekend, provided a great deal of action. Four teams survived the elimination rounds and will be competing in the semi-finals Tuesday night 11/19, again in Cantiague Park under the lights. So far, Glen Cove, Our Lady of Lourdes, St. Ignatius, and the Hicksville Americans are still in contention. The two winners of the Tuesday event will meet on Friday, November 22 at 8:00 P.M., to determine the winner of the Tournament.

Continuing the action on Saturday, November 23 at 4:30 P.M. at Cantiague Park, the 1st Annual Ralph Caso Soccer Tournament will get under way for 12 year olds. These tournaments have provided the very best in athletic entertainment available in this area.

On defense, goalie R. Brutschin helped maintain the shut out with the assistance of his full back, K.O'Lehahan and B. Raphael. The Georgia drive was maintained by B. Altheus and J. Fallacara. Delaware's efforts though unsuccessful were upheld by T. Kenney, A. Horowitz, J. Neto, L. Ziembicki, J. Laborati and L. Mejia.

Still later that day, P. Schnurr on an assist by R. Young scored the only goal for Massachusetts in their 1-0 victory against Maryland. The pressure for the victors was maintained by D. Borg, P. Herman and F. Freyksen. For Maryland, J. Bush, C.H. and G. Condron C.F.B. handled their defensive positions very well, while R. Newland on wing repeatedly brought the ball upfield.

In the Midget Division, N. Carolina sank S. Carolina 3-1. J. Swakata on an assist from S. Tandy scored once, followed by two goals from the foot of R. Fremgen on assists by J. Swakata. The single goal for S. Carolina came from a drive by F. Schnurr, while defensive efforts were handled by J. Frankel and M. Laguesse under the direction of goalie J. Rubins. The victors defensive work was dominated by J. Egbert, B. Cheslock and frequent strong tackling by W. Burke. C. Couellier and N. Storms continually worked the ball downfield for N. Carolina's scoring momentum.

Later in the day, New Jersey defeated New York 5-1. The aggressive field was dominated by the scoring of A. Pepi, (3) and M. Adrio (2) ably assisted by M. Sini. New York's only score by K. Jung thwarted the very capable defensive efforts by New Jersey's R. Altheus, W. Coakley, T. Putnam and K. Rohan at goal. T. Lewis & R. Brill held New York's defensive line together.

Under the lights, North Carolina squeaked a 2-1 victory over Pennsylvania. As B. Schuck scored for Penna. on a pass by W. Probst; C. Dietle, L. Sullivan, J. Morrisroe, D. Diamond, S. Thompson and G. Marco combined to form a defensive wall that an active and accurate B. Greaney at goal appreciated. Impressive goals for N. Carolina were bootied by N. Storms and J. Swakata. Defensive work was handled by B. Cheslock, P. Copp, D. Galloway and N. Raphael, while goalie J. Egbert handled many difficult shots.

Boys division play saw Rhode Island sweep Kentucky 4-2, or, single goals by G. Gates, M. Slezak, K. Cunningham and T. Handshuh. S. Borg and T. Devlin kept the game in balance with single scores for Kentucky. Strong defensive work by Kentucky goal keep Ed Thompson supported by M. Meyers and K. Storms helped make an exciting game.

Earlier in the week, Kentucky had suffered a similar frustrating loss to Vermont 3-1, as T. Sullivan posted all 3 goals for a "hat trick". B. Drier, S. Perkins, D. Chow and J. Mejia maintained Vermont's pressure against Kentucky's R. Skrynecki, T. Malarchuk, M. Meyer, M. Youngs and R. Stieveling. Kentucky's single score by K. Storm kept them in the game to the very end.

We hope to see all our readers share the excitement of this blossoming sport at the John Burke Tournament beginning Saturday 4:30 P.M., Nov. 16 at Cantiague Park.

BY MARK SILVERSTEIN

The Plainview Gull Varsity Football team will be winding up its season this Saturday at the Norman E. Merry Athletic Field, adjacent to the Plainview High School. The Gulls who have had a rather disappointing season will try to close out the season with a win as they host Oyster Bay.

Saturday's game will be the last high school football game for seniors Scott

Stein, Craig Martin, Ed Owsinski, Marc DeSimone, Howard Mofsen, Tony Marchese, Mark Schaeffer, John Lupo, Bruce Peikon, Kevin Bagnasco, Rob Edelbach, and injury riddled Henry Sadowski and Mike Rogers. I'd like to wish them all the best of luck. Saturday's game will also be the last game of Head Coach William McNamara's 25th season as a

If it's worth 3 weeks to pick out that gift, it's worth 3 minutes to wrap it right.

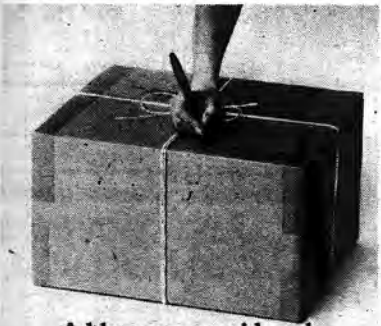

Wrap with enough padding to prevent damage.

Place in corrugated box.

Seal with tape and tie with twine.

Address on one side only.

When you send someone a present, you want them to receive it looking like a present. So they'll know you not only cared enough to take the trouble to pick out a gift. You also cared enough to make sure it arrived in the condition a gift should arrive.

Follow these steps:

1. First, make sure whatever you're mailing is well-cushioned so nothing is loose inside. (Yesterday's newspaper makes a good padding.)
2. Even if your gift is in a gift box, put it inside a sturdy corrugated box. (Make sure this is well-cushioned, too. More newspaper will do that.)
3. Put a slip of paper with the full address and your return address inside the corrugated box. Seal with tape and tie with twine. (That address inside the box is worth remembering because if the outside becomes unreadable, the Post Office will still know where to deliver the package.)
4. Write or print the destination address and your return address (both with Zip Codes) on the side of the package you put the postage.

In a real hurry?

When you need to send your gift in a real hurry, then send it Priority Mail—that's Parcel Post by air. That will get it anywhere in the country in just 2 or 3 days. And if the gift is valuable, be sure to have it insured.

You'll find that when you take a few minutes to wrap it securely, your gift should get where it's going still looking the way it did when you bought it at the store.

Get Rid of Gray Hair Some of it or all of it

1st Day 6th Day 12th Day 18th Day

Time-lapse photographs show how gradual action of Grecian Formula 16 lets you control just how much gray you slowly get rid of - some of it or all of it.

White Plains, N.Y. — Hundreds of thousands of men all over the country are now using a remarkable product to control just how much gray they slowly get rid of. It is called Grecian Formula 16 and the results are simply amazing. Grecian Formula 16 is a practically clear liquid, as easy to use as hair tonic. This remarkable formula works for any color hair because it combines with the natural chemistry of the hair to recreate natural-looking color. There is no mess and no rub-off. You simply use it every day for two or three weeks until you slowly get rid of just as much gray as you want. Some of it, most of it or all of it. You can stop where you like. You are in complete control of how much gray goes or stays. Once you get rid of as much gray as you want, simply use Grecian Formula once a week or so to keep it that way. Since Grecian Formula 16 works gradually over a period of time, even close friends won't notice the change happening. The resulting color is so completely natural that the hair definitely does not have a dyed look. Grecian Formula 16 is available at

Social Security

Students, housewives, and other people planning to get holiday jobs should apply soon for a social security number if they don't have one, according to Sydney Savrin, Social Security District Manager in Mineola, New York.

"Applications from people who don't recall having had a social security number before generally are screened against central files in Baltimore to make sure a second number isn't issued to the same person," Savrin said.

Screening takes time so you should apply for your number at least several weeks before you need it for a job covered by social security.

People can get information about applying for a number by calling or writing any social security office. More than 9 out of 10 jobs are covered by social security.

A worker builds retirement, disability, survivors, and Medicare protection by work and earnings credited to his social security number. Your social security number is yours alone and remains the same for life. When you get a job covered by social security, be sure your employer copies your name and number correctly from your social security card to his records.

People applying for a social security number for the first time may be asked to prove their age, identity, and citizenship, according to Savrin.

If you've lost your social security card you can get a duplicate by contacting any social security office. You can get a duplicate faster if you can show the people there the stub that came with your original social security card.

The Mineola Social Security Office is at 1 Station Plaza N, and the phone number is PL-7-5470.

The Museum had offered to cover any costs incurred through overtime by the custodial staff. However, the board felt they were not aware that this amounts to $950 for the two-day exhibition. This item will be acted upon at the next meeting.

The board of education approved a leave of absence for Dr. Eric Hirst to participate in a Mutual Educational Exchange Program. He will go to West Germany to teach and one of their teachers will come to the high school.

The board took no action on a request from the Hicksville American Soccer Club to use the high school gym for its indoor tournament. Since the gym may not be ready and the junior high may not be available, alternatives will be considered and the request acted on at a later date. The Lions' Club's request to use the high school auditorium for a show was approved.
