Hicks Community Councils Hears HCBE President

At the December meeting of the Hicksville Community Council, those present were privileged to hear Mr. Eugene Edelstein, President of the Hicksville Citizens for Better Education, deliver the following address:

"Good Evening! Hicksville Citizens for Better Education is a non-political, non-sectarian organization, organized to promote good education in Hicksville. Membership is open to all parents, taxpayers and district employees. This is our third year, and we have been active in two principal areas: as an educational 'forum', if you will, for presenting and exchanging ideas, and in the area of school board politics, and of course, school budget politics. Here I use the word 'politics' in its true sense - the science of government. It seems to have a bad connotation these days, but we make no apology for our involvement in the science (or perhaps the art of school government in Hicksville. We have been successful in both areas. We have sponsored interesting discussions on such subjects as school budgets and the job our schools do in preparing our children for later life, and we have actively (and successfully, I might add) carried on campaigns for School Board Trustees.

It is the prime purpose of our organization to maintain and improve the quality of education in the district. Among the goals that we emphasize, and here I shall abstract from our constitution, are: Participation of the citizenry of the district in school affairs; accountability of the teachers, administration and School Board to the citizenry; full expression of free speech and free exchange of ideas, and freedom of thought and expression within the classroom, as long as this expression does not interfere with the rights of others or hinder the school program.

HCBE was founded in the fall of 1972. Its formation actually began the preceding summer. You would have to say that the prime impetus was the makeup of the School Board at that time. It was primarily a strong concern on the part of the founders that the educational system (meaning the School Board) was in the hands of those who were not going to be responsive to the community.

Many of the founders were active in previous School Board campaigns, and several had been involved in 'ad hoc committees' for certain candidates the previous year, but HCBE itself was a new entity. Our biggest problem, as we organized ourselves, was reconciling two factions, both in agreement in opposition to the then-current School Board, but divided partially ideologically and partially by personal differences. That year, to seats were up, and they were 'wing' seats in that, if the candidates we supported won, the tenor of the board would change. I won't easily forget what we went through in interviewing candidates, and in the stormy meeting at which we selected the candidates we were to support. I could write a novel about it - maybe someday I will. That year, a third seat became available, when one of the board members had to resign suddenly for health reasons - the seat became available just too late to avoid a break between our two factions (which might have happened anyway). The candidates we supported won all three seats. Only one of the candidates was an HCBE member, and the following year, when we were united and the two candidates we supported ran and won, neither was an HCBE member. And while some may be members now, NONE OF THEM CAME TO US FOR ADVICE EVEN PRIVATELY AND WE HAVE NO CONTROL OVER THEM. We told all the candidates right off that they owed no allegiance to us - that we were supporting them because we felt that they could do a good job, that they were intelligent, reasoning people with a serious interest and bias toward good education, and that we felt that they would be responsive to the needs of the total community. We also felt that they had a concern for the pocketbook as much as any of us. But, speaking frankly, we feel, and we hope that the board agrees, that you have to consider the cost, but you must move forward in education. I'm not talking necessarily about new ideas; I'm talking about im-

Attracting Private Capital To Hicksville

Our Chamber of Commerce Fights For Hicksville's Future

BY KENNETH S. BARNES, PRESIDENT

The Community of Hicksville is probably unmatched on Long Island as a natural location for commerce and industry. Consider the following:

• It is the home of the busiest Long Island Railroad station in Nassau with easy access to both the North and South shores. The Long Island Railroad and Hicksville have had a very long association dating back to 1837.

• The community is located just one mile South of the Long Island Expressway and the Northern State Parkway and is transverse several of the busiest highways in Nassau County.

• The Mid-Island area is the prime location of light and heavy industry for much of Long Island. More business of all kinds are located in Hicksville than any other community in Nassau except Farmingdale.

This happy combination of circumstances should enable Hicksville to be a thriving center of transportation and industry, small businesses, banking and finance and all of the other elements of prosperity. Instead the potential of downtown Hicksville is scarcely scratched. The Hicksville Chamber of Commerce believes the community deserves a new look by the Town of Oyster Bay particularly concerning zoning regulations. The advice of the Hicksville Advisory Committee on Transportation and Development, working with the Nassau County Planning Commission from 1968 - 1970 and the Town's planning commission both submitted reports that called for modification in the zoning legislation regarding building height, parking regulations and apartments that bear little similarity to the G-1 zoning now in effect in the triangle area. On the basis of one public meeting in the high school where considerable vocal opposition was generated the suggestions of the Town's own planning commission were scuttled. The Advisory Committee on Transportation and Development's recommendations were never

DEVOTIONS

Dial-A-Devotion 931-2221

By the Rev. John H. Krahn,
Trinity Lutheran Church

J.C. = P:J:P:

J.C. P:J:P! is the formula for a happy and successful life. The formula begins with a few shepherds and a suddenly appearing angel who tells them of a wonderful event happening in Bethlehem.

In this nondescript place the Savior, Jesus Christ, is being born. The angel is now joined by the armies of heaven praising God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men."

Peace came to earth as the Son of God struggled out of a human womb. God became man. The Price of Peace was born. That peace can now become ours. For peace is to know Christ is mine and all is well.

Yes J.C. = P! but it also equals J! With Jesus Christ and His peace also comes joy. Christianity is a religion of joy and enthusiasm. There is nothing dull about it! If you cannot stand excitement, it has little to offer you. Long faces and sad eyes are out of place. So if you see someone who is smiling, give him one of yours.

Ecumenical Council News

On Sunday, December 15, 1974, the Mid-Island Ecumenical Council will hold its last meeting of the year at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 449 Stewart Avenue, Bethpage. A Worship Service in the Church at 7:30 P.M. will precede a Fellowship Hour at the meeting.

"The Year in Review" will be discussed at the meeting along with plans for the upcoming Week of Christian Unity, Jan. 19-26, 1975.

At the November meeting, the following officers were elected for 1975: President, Rev. Roland Perez, St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, Hicksville; 1st

Vice-Pres. Rev. Robert Osgood, Bethpage Methodist Church; 2nd Vice-Pres. Mrs. Donald Mulvaney, St. Martin of Tours Church, Bethpage;

Treasurer, Miss Julie Fling, Plainview Methodist Church; Secretary, Mrs. Peter Botto, Holy Trinity Episcopal, Hicksville.

A successful and a happy life is one in which the Holy Spirit works J.C. = P! J! P! For in Jesus we can have the peace of God that the angels sang about. In Jesus Christ we can have great joy enabling us to sing all the way through life. In Jesus Christ we can have the power of God that even makes the impossible, possible.

Caso Cuts Salary $2500; Asks Officials to Do Same

In a move that reflects Nassau's deepening financial crisis, County Executive Ralph G. Caso today announced he will cut his salary $2,500 and has asked other county elected officials to do the same.

In addition, Caso revealed that upper echelon county officials — those who earn $25,000 or more — will receive no pay increase for 1975.

"These are drastic steps that we must take if we are to have any hope of coping with our budgetary problems," Caso said.

Caso's salary cutback — from $60,000 to $57,500 — is approximately a 4 per cent decrease. He is asking the County Clerk, County Comptroller, Chairman of the Board of Assessors and District Attorney to consider voluntary 4 per cent decreases as well.

The no-raise provision for county employees earning more than $25,000 pertains only to those in the executive staff category. These employees are not included in the graded service salary plan and are not within any bargaining unit.

Exempt employees who earn between $15,000 and $25,000 will receive the 4 per cent pay hike already provided for the 1975 budget. Exempt employees who earn less than $15,000 will receive parity with those workers represented by the Civil Service Employees Association.

Caso called on the presidents of the Civil Service Employees Association, the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, the Community College Faculty Association and other employee groups to recognize the county's serious fiscal plight and to bargain more realistically.

President Ford and Gov.-elect Carey ought to make proportionate cuts in their salaries to demonstrate dramatically to the citizenry their willingness to sacrifice as the worldwide recession worsens, Caso said.

In other moves, Caso announced he plans to "mothball" the limousine that the county provides for him and travel on official business in an unmarked police car. The limousine would not be used for the duration of the recession except for rare public circumstances.

Caso also plans to turn back to the county the cabana it provides him at Nassau Beach. "The cabana can be rented out and thereby produce some revenue," Caso said.

All moves are effective Jan. 1, 1975.

Nassau-Suffolk Fight Offshore Oil Drilling

Nassau and Suffolk Counties joined this week for the first round in a legal fight against offshore oil drilling. The last round may be fought in the U.S. Supreme Court. The counties are suing for a TCO against the U.S. Department of the Interior.

The decision to file suit in federal court before the end of the year was reached at an emergency meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 19, in Hauppauge. The meeting of officials from both counties was called after the Interior Department had announced its intention to begin selling offshore leases in December, 1975.

It has been obvious for a long time that the Interior Department is committed to Atlantic offshore drilling no matter what evidence comes in that it would be hazardous. Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso said today.

Caso said that the two counties are not going to permit Long Island to be gobbled up by the oil industry without a fight.

Caso and Suffolk County Executive John V.N. Klein announced their intention a year ago to file suit against any proposed offshore oil and gas drilling in the Atlantic Outer Continental Shelf (OCS).

The Interior Department is making a mockery of the concept that people in a potentially threatened area have the right to make their views known on a project that would radically alter their environment," Caso charged.

The department has fixed a sales schedule before even the first of the required public hearings on the draft environmental impact statement.

Caso called the hearings a charade and said that the department is going through the motions of complying with the National Environmental Protection Act even though the decision has already been made to go ahead no matter what facts come to light at the hearings.

Long Island's 13 towns — three in Nassau and 10 in Suffolk — have been invited to join the lawsuit as co-plaintiffs.

Caso warned that potential major offshore spills — called inevitable by the Bureau of Land Management which prepared the draft environmental impact statement — are only one of the hazards to Long Island's beaches and wetlands.

Offshore drilling would require extensive pipelines and a vast complex of onshore and island refineries and industrial facilities in every community in both counties that would irreversibly destroy the Long Island that we know," Caso explained.

"I saw what this kind of oil industry industrialization has done to the relatively underpopulated Gulf Coast of Louisiana. I shudder to think what it would do to Long Island."

Caso pointed out that a comprehensive report by the U.S. Council on Environmental Quality, released last April, had contained his testimony before the Council six months earlier when the oil and gas reserves in the Atlantic were much smaller than the oil industry had claimed.

The council concluded that Long Island was a "high risk" area for offshore oil drilling, stating that the onshore facilities necessary to support offshore production would cause property values to plummet. Other studies have since confirmed Caso's position that offshore production would not significantly lessen the nation's reliance on foreign oil nor reduce East Coast fuel prices.

Caso is scheduled to testify next month in Trenton, New Jersey, on the Bureau of Land Management's draft environmental impact statement.

Caso said that it is symptomatic of the Interior Department's attitude that it had quietly scheduled the hearing initially for Nov. 28, almost before the ink was dry on the 1,500-page, two-volume document. The department did not notify the county, even though an Interior Department official had telephoned Caso only days earlier.

In response to a letter from Caso to Interior Secretary Rogers Morton, assuring the county that the Seventy-five years of Nassau County history — tracing growth and development from the rural fishing and farming days before the turn of the century to the space age, intensified suburbia of today — are compiled in the more than 300 pages of a new, fully-illustrated book, Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced today.

The text, "Nassau Suburbia, U.S.A." by Edward J. Smits of Wantagh, director of the Nassau County Museum, has been published by the Friends of the Nassau County Museum in association with Doubleday and Co. of Garden City.

"This is a scholarly, yet completely entertaining and illuminating look at the 75 years of our great county's history," Caso said. "It is fitting this history should be printed to coincide with the county's 75th anniversary year. This book should help us find deep pride in our past achievements and prepare us to meet the goals of the future."

The book will retail in all book stores and at Friends of the Museum gift shops for $12.95 and will be on the shelves Dec. 16 in time for Christmas-giving. Proceeds from its publication will aid the non-profit efforts of the Friends.

The book, with a 5,000-volume first printing, contains some 115,000 words and more than 250 photos, both historic and contemporary. About half of the illustrations have never before been published. They were gathered from the county's archives, from private collections, from corporations and individuals.

But, more than statistics, "Nassau Suburbia, U.S.A." tells a dramatic story, tracing the changing face of the county from its simpler, earliest days, through the stress of municipal birth, wars, the days of the Gold Coast and its Gatsby era, Prohibition and its rum-running, the colossal problems of population explosion and development, of school-building and of governmental service in the modern day.

The cast of characters is filled with stars, people known across the nation and world... Charles A. Lindbergh, F. Scott Fitzgerald, Theodore Roosevelt, Robert Moses and more.

And in the panorama of Nassau County over 75 years, events are portrayed with startling clarity through Smits' words. He traces the development of manned flight for which Nassau was the cradle, beginning with the daring young men in wooden planes taking off and landing on grassy fields and winding up in the jet era when Nassau's products carried equally daring young men to the moon and across its craters.

It follows, too, the course of old steam-driven, wood-fueled trains that carried livestock, produce and a few hardy people from farm to market and brings the picture into today's focus on the Long Island Railroad, largest commuter line in the nation, a new bus system and a super-highway network.

"Packed in the eight chapters of this book is everything to please both the historic scholar and the schoolchild," Caso said. "It is a source of great knowledge and enjoyment for everyone who calls Nassau County home."

The book was some 10 years in preparation. It was that long ago that Smits began researching and gathering material for it. Smits, who grew up on the South Shore, was a cum laude graduate in history from Hofstra University and won his M.A. degree at NYU. A lecturer and author, he is a consultant in historic restoration and museum administration. Smits lives with his wife, Ruth, and three sons in Wantagh.

"This book and its preparation has been a leisure time project of mine all these years," Smits said, "but it has left me little leisure. As both a participant in and an observer of the major changes the county has experienced, I always felt compelled to complete it. The development of suburbia has been one of the major thrusts of American civilization in the Twentieth Century."

"It has been an exciting time for all of us who took part. I believe people in other municipalities across the nation, now embarked on similar growth and development, will find 'Nassau Suburbia, U.S.A.' exciting too."

United Way of Nassau-Suffolk Surpasses Goal for a Total of $3,504,120

Four-hundred volunteers heard Campaign Chairman, Robert E. Scheuing report yesterday during the luncheon at Salisbury Club that the United Way of Nassau-Suffolk exceeded its goal to reach a total of $3,504,120. The 1974 campaign goal was $3,500,000. Last year's goal was $3,100,000.

Jack Shinker, Executive Director of the United Way stated that, "the total amount of new dollars we have raised over the amount raised last year will be available for services. This will be possible since our fund-raising costs are less this year than they were last year. On a percentage basis, last year our total cost of operation was 15 percent. This year, it will be less than 13 percent. Once again, let me remind you — 100 percent of the increased dollars will be available for human care services." He also stated, "all campaigns are not completed. Since the employee groups we solicit must take into consideration many different happenings, some campaigns are not kicked off until late November or even December. These estimates have been thoroughly reviewed by loaned executives, Chapter Chairmen, volunteers, and staff. I do make a special plea to all volunteers and employee campaigns not completed as yet, to stick with the campaign, so as not only to secure these estimates, but to exceed them."

Commenting on the campaign, Mr. Scheuing said, "While today is the date of the last report luncheon, it is by no means the date of our final report. This campaign will live far beyond today, and its results will be felt for a long time. All of these reports today have indeed been 'Pieces of Dreams' which can be translated into one common dream for all of us: That we are now on our way to providing more and better services for our Long Island communities."

In addition to the reports, the guests heard John J. Russell, Campaign Promotion Committee Chairman, and Vice President of Customer Relations of Long Island Lighting Company, detail the broad promotions created during the year by the Committee: railroad and bus posters, billboards, TV and radio spots, and special events. He especially thanked the media for their valuable support of this year's campaign.

The invocation was delivered by Sister Adrian Barrett, Oyster Bay Community Chairwoman, and teacher, St. Dominick's High School, Oyster Bay.

NCPD Warns Against Free Parking Lots

Nassau County Police Commissioner Louis J. Frank, has announced the retirement of Chief of Inspection Vincent G. Thornton after 35 years on the force.

Thornton, who is in the top hierarchy of the department and one of its four, three-star chiefs, has been involved in much of the planning and policy making of the department, and responsible for laying the groundwork for department had no plans to take any new action on offshore drilling.

When Caso and Klein protested vigorously and demanded time to study the statement, the department rescheduled the hearing for Dec. 11 but refused to move it to Long Island.

bringing in more than $2 million in federal funds for various projects.

Starting in 1939, Thornton has held every rank within the department up to and including his present one. During his career he received international recognition as an identification expert, having specialized in fingerprint identification, criminal records and photography.

Chief Thornton commanded the old Identification Bureau for more than 18 years and in 1946 helped pioneer the use of color photography, a technique which has since been adopted by scores of other police departments.

Other federally funded projects Thornton was vitally concerned with include a talking rogues gallery, communications developments, computerization, and improvement in identification procedures.

Thornton is vice-chairman of the Nassau County Crime Council, a member of the Advisory Council on Criminal Justice at C.W. Post College, on the Advisory Council of the police science program at Nassau Community College, Chairman of the Uniform Crime Reporting Committee of the New York State Chiefs of Police and a member of various other police and fraternal organizations.

Chief Thornton lives in Laurel Hollow with his wife Dorothy, a librarian. He has three children: Cheryl and Jeff, teachers, and Patricia, a student at McGill University in Montreal, Canada.

Dear Friends:

WE HOPE that everyone reads TOB Supervisor Burke's column this week....

And, speaking of our TOB, did you know that there is a time at the conclusion of each meeting of the Town Board, when the public is permitted to speak?

We send best wishes to all our friends and neighbors of the Jewish Faith, who are celebrating Hannukah season this week.

Vince Hannigan, former Hicksvillian and Post Office Exec, now residing in Palm Beach, sends his best to all. He plays second base on the Leisureville team, and according to his local newspaper now, THE PALM BEACH NEIGHBORHOOD TIMES, he does a good job. You always did a good job, Vince, and we are pleased to hear from you.

Stay well, and remember the old saying, "You are never poor if you have a friend."

Cancel Plans for Plainview 'Betting Parlor'

Plainview and Syosset residents can rest easy on at least one score - plans for a Nassau County Off-Track Betting Parlor in the Plainview/Syosset Shopping Center on South Oyster Bay Road have been cancelled. Local civic groups, spearheaded by the Greater Plainview Community Association, had urged OTB to reconsider its plans, on the basis that a neighborhood shopping plaza such as the South Oyster Bay Road site was not an appropriate spot for an OTB outlet. A delegation of local community leaders, led by GPCA President Paul Eisenstein, met with OTB Vice President James Nagourney on Monday, December 2 to voice their objections to the planned OTB outlet, and GPCA Town Affairs Chairwoman Carole Fishman repeated those objections at the December 3 Oyster Bay Town Board Meeting.

The net result - OTB advised on December 4 that it has cancelled its plans for the Plainview/Syosset site and will now "concentrate on heavily commercial and major arteries in the County."

The Community Association was quick to applaud OTB's cancellation move. "I'm quite pleased that we were able to convince the OTB people to look elsewhere," observed GPCA President Eisenstein. "A neighborhood shopping plaza just isn't the right place for a betting parlor."

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Three questions please; Will a left turn signal ever be installed at West John Street and Newbridge Road?

-Why are cars never ticketed when parked illegally in front of the Elks Club on East Barkley Street? (By McNamee Printing - it's very dangerous at night)

-Why does the light for the East LILCO exit on Old Country Road work all of a sudden - especially all night when cars never exit there?

Warmest thanks,
Garry Hansen

Dear Editor:

I would like to thank our Better Business Bureau for the program presented at the Mid-Island Shopping Mall on Thursday, December 5th.

On that day through numerous satirical skits, the Covenant Players related Christianity to our modern world. Also throughout the day, the Lutheran High Folk Singers and the Trinity Lutheran Choir presented a message in song. I understand the Trinity Lutheran Church sponsored the Covenant Players also.

I feel they are to be congratulated for their wonderful service to our community.

Sincerely,
Barbara Cressman

Dear Editor,

I was upset to hear that a group of "concerned citizens" are trying to prevent the Oak Beach Inn from opening a discotheque on Levittown Parkway.

I realize the bars which were previously at this location may not have been up to the standards of the local residents. However, I doubt if any of these "concerned citizens" have actually gone into another Oak Beach Inn. The OBI's which I have been to have class.

As far as I could discern, they were strict about checking proof. OBI's are the type of discotheques which attract decent people. I hope the people standing in OBI's way, take a closer look and think a little before they act.

What's to happen to this building if OBI doesn't use it? The OBI is a respectable operation. Please let them bring some life to Hicksville. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Soda Pop, Ring Dings No Good, Says Board

BY SHIRLEY SMITH

At last Tuesday's meeting of the Hicksville Board of Education, Mrs. Iris Wolfson, Vice-President, criticized administration and the cafeteria for serving Ring Dings, soda pop and other items of "dubious nutritional value" in the elementary schools and for not listing these foods on the menu to advise parents they are being sold. Dr. Fred Hill, Assistant Superintendent, explained that these items contribute to the cafeteria operating "in the black," but board members felt it was more important to sell more nutritional-type foods. Teachers and principals have also objected to the additional fare on the menu and report that children sometimes spend their lunch money on "junk," rather than sandwiches. They also report many stomach-aches as a result of this. The school board directed administration to cut down on these items and sell them only in the secondary schools. At administration's request, however, the board gave some leeway in time to re-directing these sales, expecting some definitive action by the December board meeting.

The school board approved an additional $500 payment to the auditor for his work on auditing of student funds in the junior and senior high schools. He had originally requested $1000-$1500 but was willing to accept the lower fee this year. Next year's auditing and costs will automatically include the additional service.

The board of education also granted approval for the Hicksville American Soccer Club to hold its annual indoor tournament at the Junior High for three successive weekends early in 1975. The board voted to waive all fees (overtime custodial costs, etc.) totalling $702.

Permission was given for the Gregory Museum to hold its annual Gem and Mineral Show at the high school next spring. The museum had agreed to pay all costs ($885) but Daniel Arena's amendment that the school district pay $500 as in past years was approved by a 4-2 vote. Trustees Nagle, Mc-

Supervisor JOHN W. BURKE REPORTS

This week's column could be considered a sequel to the one I wrote this past September on the procedure followed in having stop signs and other traffic control devices installed. The procedure involves a traffic survey, a Town Board hearing, then the amendment of the Code of Ordinances after which the sign is installed.

Unfortunately, after this lengthy procedure some of these signs disappear within a week, winding up in someone's bedroom or den as a souvenir. This fad among young people is not only a crime, but is also a serious threat to the health and safety of the residents.

Another popular target of these collectors are street name signs. This too is a serious threat to the safety of the community. Fire departments responding to an alarm could pass a street from which the sign had been removed, and these few minutes of delay could mean a total loss of a house or even of some lives. The delay of an ambulance or a police patrol car looking for an unmarked street could also be literally a matter of life and death.

According to our Sign Bureau, the Town has installed and is responsible for over 100,00 signs of all types along the 800 miles of Town road. Normally our Sign Bureau could expect to replace between 50 and 100 of these signs each year due to natural wear and tear and damage from road accidents. In the past three years, the rate of replacement has been on the order of 600 to 650 signs as the result of vandalism.

The cost of replacing these signs is not insignificant. The materials alone for a stop sign cost about $50.00 and for a street sign about $35.00. When we add in the cost of labor this results in an additional $35,000.00 to $40,000.00 of unnecessary costs to the taxpayer.

Parents are urged to vigorously discourage this practice by their children. I would also urge any resident who observes a missing or damaged traffic or street sign to report this information immediately to our Sign Bureau by calling 921-7347. Every effort will be made to replace traffic control signs within twenty-four hours.

Applications Now Available for Rotary Foundation Awards

The Hicksville Rotary Club announces that applications are now being taken for Rotary Foundation Awards for International Understanding for 1976-77.

An opportunity for study abroad is available from The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International to outstanding young men and women who are interested in world affairs and who can fulfill a dual role of student and "ambassador of good will." Rotary Foundation Graduate Fellowships, Undergraduate Scholarships, Technical Training, and Teachers Awards offer qualified students, technicians, and teachers of the handicapped an opportunity to contribute to better understanding between the peoples of their home and host countries while pursuing their own career interests.

An award covers round-trip transportation, educational, living and miscellaneous related expenses for one academic year, plus in certain cases, a period of intensive language training in the study country prior to the commencement of the regular academic year. Awards are made for study in most any field and are assigned for study in countries in which there are Rotary clubs.

Any interested student may obtain a detailed list of qualifications and an application by contacting Hicksville Rotary Club President William Buchman at 938-4007.

As the holiday season approaches, Hicksville Rotary will continue its dual tradition of many years standing.

Hicksville Soccer Club News

REGISTRATION

In an unprecedented move, the Hicksville American Soccer Club is instituting mid-season registration on Saturday December 14 at the Hicksville Public Library from 1 PM to 5 PM. This registration for boys and girls is an extension of the annual registration period which ends June 30, 1975.

ELECTIONS

The results of the recent election of officers for 1975 is as follows: President - Peter Collins; Vice President - Alec Sakk; Secretary - Virginia Smyth; Treasurer - Bud Brill.

INTRAMURAL TEAMS

As the fall soccer season winds down to a conclusion, the intramural teams are striving for a berth in the expected playoffs. In the Bantam Division, Georgia defeated Conn. 4-1 on goals by B. Althaus (2), L. Rubin (1) and F. Christiano (1). Conn's lone goal was scored by J. Carroll.

Later in the week, Conn. came closer in their game against Maryland when W. Maguire and D. O'Leary scored goals against a strong Maryland team. Maryland won 4-2 on scores by R. Cunningham (2), R. Nakasian (1) and C. Bentley (1) with many assists by their team mates. Later Massachusetts demolished Delaware 4-0 on scores by I. Peskowitz (2), P. Schnurr (1) and F. Musumeci (1) in spite of defensive efforts by T. DeMeo, K. Rice, J. Neto and C. Bier.

Georgia and Massachusetts played to a 0-0 tie as was almost expected since both teams are in a tie for first place. Observable efforts acted by Massachusetts' P. Herman, P. Pisani, P. Schnurr, I. Peskowitz and F. Musumeci. On the same field, later, N. Hampshire swamped Del. on goals by L. Sneddon (2), P. Massello (1) and D. Block

(1) on assists by their teammates. Delaware's defensive efforts were handled in a spirited manner by A. Horowitz, T. DeMeo, C. Bier and J. Spero.

The meeting between N. Hampshire and Georgia was completely frustrating on both sides since the final score was a 0-0 tie. As the score indicates, the defensive efforts of both teams was fantastic. Under the lights at Cantiague Park, W. Maguire scored the only goal for Connecticut as they defeated Mass. 1-0. In the next game, Delaware lost to Maryland 3-0 in spite of the defensive efforts of J. Egbert, J. Spiro, P. Ziembicki and the striking talent of L. Ziembicki, but the next day, Maryland lost to N. Hampshire 3-1.

Time-lapse photographs show how gradual action of Grecian Formula 16 lets you control just how much gray you slowly get rid of... some of it or all of it.

White Plains, N.Y. — Hundreds of thousands of men all over the country are now using a remarkable product to control just how much gray they slowly get rid of. It is called Grecian Formula 16 and the results are simply amazing. Grecian Formula 16 is a practically clear liquid, as easy to use as hair tonic. This remarkable formula works for any color hair because it combines with the natural chemistry of the hair to recreate natural-looking color. There is no mess and no rub-off. You simply use it every day for two or three weeks until you slowly get rid of just as much gray as you want. Some of it, most of it or all of it. You can stop where you like. You are in complete control of how much gray goes or stays. Once you get rid of as much gray as you want, simply use Grecian Formula once a week or so to keep it that way. Since Grecian Formula 16 works gradually over a period of time, even close friends won't notice the change happening. The resulting color is so completely natural that the hair definitely does not have a dyed look. Grecian Formula 16 is available at

"Consumer Deputies" Check Toy Department Shelves

To make certain that no hazardous toys are offered for sale in Nassau this Christmas season, the Office of Consumer Affairs has recruited and trained a group of volunteer "Consumer deputies" to check toy department shelves, County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced today.

"We want people to feel secure that the toys they buy will not harm the children they love," said Caso.

The deputies, who are members of the Academy of Marketing Science at C. W. Post College, will carry with them the list of 1,500 unsafe toys which the U. S. Consumer Product Safety Commission has banned.

"If a deputy finds any of the items on the list," aid Consumer Affairs Commissioner James E.

Picken, "he will immediately report it on the Toy Safety Hot Line and investigators will move in."

The deputies have been trained to recognize such hazards as sharp edges or points that could cut or pierce a child's skin, tiny parts that could break off and be swallowed, loud noises that could damage hearing, propelled objects that could injure, or electric toys that could shock or burn. Hazardous toys that are not now on the list will also be reported.

"All toy retailers in the county have been informed that the consumer deputies are coming," Picken said, "and we expect full cooperation. We all have a common aim."

This is the second year that the toy deputy program is under way, according to Picken. In 1973, relatively few hazardous toys were found on the shelves—a drastic change from the situation in 1971 when the County Executive was impelled to call for strong Federal protection. Now, with the Consumer Product Safety Commission as well as State and local agencies on the job, the public has less to fear, he said.

"But," said Caso, "even one toy-related injury is one too many."

Anyone who wishes to volunteer to be a consumer deputy in Nassau County, to work between now and Christmas, is invited to call the Office of Consumer Affairs at 535-3284.

bombers in top shape for the winning crew.

Burke for rescuing a girl from an overturned minibus last winter. Boyce, who was joined at the ceremony by his wife, Mary, works out of the telephone company's Hicksville garage, located at 202 Duffy Ave.

Hicksville Man Commended

John Boyce of Hicksville, a lineman for New York Telephone, has been commended by his company for helping to rescue a little girl from an overturned vehicle.

Mr. Boyce, who works out of the telephone company's garage at 202 Duffy Ave., Hicksville, received a special certificate of commendation from company vice president Robert M. Burke.

Boyce was working on an assignment one day last winter near the Long Island Expressway when a mini-bus and an auto were involved in an accident. Boyce ran to his company truck and drove it to the scene, placing the truck in such a way as it served as a protective barricade. He then put flashing warning lights that he carries in his truck on the roadway detour traffic.

Finding that a small girl was trapped in the mini-bus and apparently injured, Boyce tried to remove one of its doors, which had jammed. About this time, Old Westbury Patrolman Joseph LoMastro came along and, using a crowbar, the two

NCPD Chief of Inspection Retires

Although auto thefts in Nassau County are down some 16 per cent from 1973, Police Commissioner Louis J. Frank, has warned motorists that they stand a greater chance of having their cars stolen if they leave them in free parking lots.

Frank revealed today the results of a survey recently conducted by the department in cooperation with the Federal Bureau of Investigation which show that 63 per cent of cars stolen during daylight hours are taken from such free parking areas as shopping centers.

The largest percentage of cars stolen at night, 38.7, are taken from public streets in residential areas, the survey shows.

During the first 10 months of 1974 there were 4,380 cars stolen in the county, 600 less than during the same period last year, or a drop of 16 per cent.

Cigarette smoking is a healthy heart no-no. Ask your local Heart Association.

Vincent G. Thornton.

Other data disclosed shows that most stolen cars are more than five years old; most car thieves are under 18 years of age and, oddly enough, more than half the cars stolen from such areas as shopping centers, were locked at the time of the theft.

KEN MCINTYRE JAZZ QUARTET

On Sunday, December 15 at 3 PM, Ken McIntyre - composer, instrumentalist, educator, and masterful jazzman will lead his Quartet on cunas, woodwinds, piano and drums on an inspired trip to the African origins of jazz. The McIntyre Quartet, says the New York Times, mixes funky blues with post John Coltrane jazz and educates listeners without frightening them away. A veteran of the Newport Jazz Festivals, McIntyre has been applauded at many large city concert halls. Don't miss this one!

Free tickets are available at the library now.

publicly considered. The point is that nothing has happened. If it is pointed out that there has been virtually no construction in the last 10 years on Broadway's West side we are met with the observation that people do not want apartments or that office space is in demand but will be in X years. We do not think that the people once they are given the facts and provided with an adequate explanation would oppose intelligent planning even if the plans included some apartments. Certainly leadership means more than simply presenting a plan inadequately and then dropping it. If the recommendations of the professional citizens groups are valid they should be supported by the governing bodies, if not they should be rejected on the basis that it is not in the best interest of the community. It will be hard to prove that the best interests of this community is mud, weeds and deteriorating buildings comprising much of the downtown business area.

There is a state agency created by the legislature a number of years ago that may be able to assist in commercial development, apartment development, or perhaps a combination of the two. Unfortunately the agency, the Urban Development Corporation, is a scare word to many. The Urban Development Corporation was created in 1968 through the efforts of Governor Rockefeller to aid deteriorating residential or commercial areas that are in need of new development. The Urban Development Corporation was created as a non profit corporation that could raise money for projects through issuance of bonds and notes or grants from private sources. The Corporation was given unique powers including the right to override local building and zoning laws and acquire real property where necessary for the rehabilitation project.

HEARS HCBE PRESIDENT

proving the school system whenever and wherever it's needed. Because - and of course its a cliché - our greatest and most important resource is our children.

In our selection of candidates to support, it was interesting to note that two years ago we supported three people who had long been active in school affairs, whereas this past year we supported two who had previously not been involved. They were different kinds of people in many other ways, too, but we felt that they were all intelligent, were truly concerned for the children of Hicksville, and would make good board members. We expect to continue in this phase of our activities this year, when three board seats will be contested.

Why have I spent so much time telling you about our internal battles and problems? Well it's the plain fact that, unfortunately, more people are moved to get involved when there is something to argue and fight about. Although we've had interesting programs and have had some good turnouts for them, our meeting at which we decide on the candidates we support has, each year, been the liveliest and best attended.

What have we done recently? Well, we have just started a newsletter, to keep our membership informed of what is happening in HCBE and in the school system, and at board meetings. Information that's one of the big problems - things are continually happening and it is very difficult first of all to get the right information, and then to get it to people. I have some copies of our newsletter here; you're welcome to take them and show to your various organizations.

Our most recent meeting was quite successful, the topic was "What is BOCES? How does it effect us?" We had George Farber, a member of BOCES School Board; Erwin Rozran, Hicksville Asst. Supt. for Personnel and Pupil Personnel Services; Edward Bello, a former School Board member and now the Hicksville School Board liaison to BOCES; and Iris Wolfson, Vice President of the Hicksville School Board, on our panel. We also had two BOCES students on the panel. It was a really good discussion, and I learned a good deal about BOCES. BOCES also sent Jack Gormley, the Assistant Superintendent for Business, with a slide presentation on BOCES facilities and activities. The meeting was taped and shown on Cable TV - did anyone here see it?

Let me conclude with a little "pep talk". If you are concerned with what our schools are doing, but feel you don't know what's happening and can't find out, I urge you to come to our meetings. If you would like to be more involved in the kind of education the children of Hicksville are getting, but don't know how, I urge you to come to our meetings. If you have opinions to express, if you want to learn what's going on, if you want to help push School District 17 toward the goals I have stated, I urge you to attend our meetings.

Remember, if you can't find a little time to get involved with your children's education, then you have no right to complain about it.

Thank you.
