Early Morning Blaze Destroys Garage

By Ex-Capt. Owen Magee

A Hicksville family narrowly escaped injury on Feb. 21 when fire destroyed the attached garage of their Levitt style cape home at 192 Brittle Lane. The alarm was received at 6:13 am. The occupants were alerted by a city fireman who spotted the blaze while on his way to work. 9 pieces of apparatus, 70 men responded under 1st Asst. Chief Roy Schaaf.

Upon arrival, Hicksville Vamps found the garage fully involved and spreading into the house. The first hose line was brought into the home and halted the blaze before it could do much damage. The fire damaged overhead high tension wires and for a time it was feared the wires would fall. The wires feeding power to the house were also shorting out and LILCO had to be called to cut the power lines.

The fire, which is believed to have been caused by an electrical short, started in a wall in the attached garage. The garage and a car inside was destroyed. The house sustained minor damage, but was uninhabitable. Due to the damaged electrical service and plumbing, Chief Schaaf, who said the occupants were not aware of the blaze until alerted, credited the city firemen's fast action in saving the family's lives. Schaaf also praised his vamps' fast knockdown of the blaze in saving the house. The fire was under control in 10 minutes. 3 pieces of apparatus were used to fight the fire as the other units stood-by. A routine investigation was requested.

"Hicksville Fire Report"
During the past week - Feb. 18 thru 25 Hicksville firemen responded to 21 alarms. There were 4 malicious false alarms, 5 rescue calls, 12 fire calls.

Vamps Win Award for Rescue

Hicksville Vamps won the 2nd place award in the January N.Y. News Fire Award Contest with their rescue of a 76 yr. old fire victim from his blazing kitchen at 19 E. Carl St. on January 11. Although the victim died hours later at the Medical Center the Vamps were cited for their efforts and risks. The 1st place award went to Putnam Valley Vamps for their dramatic rescue of a boy who fell through ice 250 ft. from Shore of Lake Oswawana in Westchester County.

Vamps Mourn Their Loss
Hicksville Vamps mourn the loss of retired fireman Fred Braum of Chemical Co. No. 3. "Fritz" as he was known by all died of cancer at Mercy Hospital after a long fight. We, in the fire service will miss Fritz, a dedicated worker for the Hicksville community, always a good friend, who with his sense of humor helped make our work much easier. We commend our departed and pray he will rest from a job well done in eternal peace.

A get well wish is extended to honorary fireman John Goscinski of Ladder C who is in the hospital as we go to press. Get well quick John. The "outhouse" is not the same without you.

Installation Dinner
Floodlight Company No. 8 of the Hicksville Fire Department held their ninth annual installation dinner on Sat. Feb. 8th.

The following men were installed as officers for the ensuing year:

- Captain Mario Piscitelli
- First Lieut. Dominic Aiello
- Second Lieut. Bill Schuckman
- Secretary Kevin Brady
- Treasurer Fred Rus.

Trinity Lutheran Anniv. Celebration

Trinity Lutheran Church of Hicksville will begin its 125th Anniversary Celebration on Sunday, March 2nd. The preacher for that day will be the internationally known speaker of The Lutheran Hour, The Reverend Dr. Oswald Hoffmann. He will preach at the 8:30, 9:45, and 11:15 a.m. services. The community is welcome to attend.

Last July Dr. Hoffmann served as North American chairman for the World Congress on Evangelism held in Lausanne, Switzerland. In 1973 he was named "Clergyman of the Year" by Religious Heritage of America. This award is presented annually to the clergyman who has made significant contributions to religious understanding through his service to church and the nation. He has been very active in many Evangelism Congress' which are facing the issue of bringing Christ to Modern Man.

He has served the Lutheran church in various capacities from parish pastor of America's oldest Lutheran Church, St. Matthew's of New York City, to college professor and head of the Department of Public Relations of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. Currently Dr. Hoffmann is working throughout the world as both preacher and lecturer in bringing Christ to those who have yet to hear the Good News. He can be heard locally every Sunday on radio WHN at 9:30 a.m.

Throughout the year Trinity will be celebrating its 125th Anniversary under the theme, "Teaching, Loving, Caring for 125 Years." There will be other guest preachers as well as special events in order to highlight Trinity's 125 year history of serving the Mid-Island Community.

WINNERS: Miss Flanagan's class has been awarded the PTA Mascot this year. The class attained the highest percentage of PTA memberships.

A contest was held, within the class, to decide on a name and he has been called "Timothy the Bear" after a character in one of the reading books. We're sure that the Mascot has found a loving home for this year.

MR. DONALD KEHOE, the Publicity Director for "OFF-TRACK BETTING" (O.T.B.) in Nassau County is shown addressing the members of the Ernest F. Francke Republican Club of Hicksville at their last monthly meeting which was held on Friday evening February 14th at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, Wm. M. Gouse Jr. Post No. 3211 in Hicksville. Mr. Kehoe was the featured speaker for the evening and he presented a very interesting talk on the newly created OFF-TRACK BETTING AGENCY. PHOTO BY BOB SCHMEELK

The Boy Scouts of America are the focus of a large, month-long exhibit by the Historical Committee of Hicksville's Gregory Museum. Honoring the 65th Birthday of Scouting, the display includes much of a collection of Scouting memorabilia presented to the Museum recently by Scout Master Robert Hughes in tribute to Irving Southworth "grand old man of L.I. Scouting" and a foremost authority on the American Indian.

MRS. THOMAS L. MARK: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rogger of Lee Avenue, Hicksville announce the marriage of their daughter Shirley Jean, of Holley, N.Y., to Mr. Thomas Lawrence Mark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mark of Park Place, Holley, N.Y., on Saturday the 15th of February. The wedding took place at the Holley First Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Paul Altaner officiating. A reception followed at the Brockport Country Club. Miss Janice Rogger, of North Chili, New York, was maid of honor for her sister. Other attendants were Miss Diane Mark, sister of the groom, Mrs. Rochelle DelPercio Capelli, of East Massapequa, L.I., and Miss Laurie Outermans of Rochester. Mr. Richard Brunette was best man. Ushers were James and Robert Mark of Holley, brothers of the groom, and Steven Arnold of Brockport.

The bride, a graduate of Hicksville High School, attended Indiana University of Pennsylvania. The groom is a recent graduate of Roberts Wesleyan College in Rochester. After their honeymoon, the couple will reside in Holley.

Wheelchair Stars

A wheelchair sports tournament, consisting of many of the events normally conducted at the Paralympic Games, will take place at the Human Resources Center in Albertson, Saturday, March 8th from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

The meet, being held in conjunction with the Tri-State Wheelchair Athletic Association, will feature disabled athletes from New York, New Jersey and Connecticut. Included on the day's schedule is competition in swimming, table tennis, wheelchair slalom and weight lifting.

One of the unique aspects of the program is that it is being coordinated in part by the physically disabled students of Human Resources School, which has its own wheelchair basketball team and comprehensive adapted sports curriculum. The school's students, who last Spring ventured to Spokane, Washington and earned several gold medals in the national wheelchair track and field championships will also compete in the tournament. They are coached by Dan Sullivan, who is himself disabled and has competed in wheelchair sports internationally.

In summarizing the purpose of the meet, Sullivan stated that "this kind of competition means a lot to our kids not only because it's fun, but because they can prove things to themselves against older and more experienced." He added that "sports has always been a great equalizer because, no matter who competes or what level of ability or disability appears, it eventually becomes a challenge against odds and a good learning experience.

Admission to the sports tournament is $1.00. All those interested in more information may contact Dan Sullivan at (516) 747-5400, ext. 317.

Rocco Pucci, of HICKSVILLE, took two top prizes in the Second Annual Photography Contest of Long Beach Memorial Hospital recently, winning first prize in the color-slides category for his "Day Dreamer" and second prize in the black-and-white print division for "Mickey and the Cat."

First prize for a black-and-white print went to William Jung, Forest Hills, and third prize to R.M. Clark, Lynbrook.

The second and third prizes for color slides were won by Sally Rakow, VALLEY STREAM, and Norman Bunin, JERICHO, respectively.

Dr. Joseph N. Attie, GREAT NECK, won the color-print first prize.

Along with these winners, a number of specially selected photographs will be on display in the Hospital as a permanent exhibit for the enjoyment of patients, staff and visitors.

Some 500 entries were placed in the competition by photographers from all over Long Island — from Brooklyn to East Hampton. Francis Kedenkamp of BROOKLYN will receive a special Award, as well as Barbara Turner, EAST MEADOW, Constantine Lazuta, WESTBURY, and Sid Levitt, ROCKVILLE CENTRE, for outstanding color slides. Bruce Morgan, BALDWIN, will receive a similar Award for his color print.

Honorable Mention (for color slides) went to: Joseph Bacher, BAYSIDE; Joan Pinto, BRENTWOOD; John Gannon, DOUGLASS; Mortimer Gordon and H. Regoso, of FLUSHING; Harry Asher, Rita Baron and Lili Newman, of GREAT NECK; N.B. Lazarus, KINGS POINT; Joseph Trapani, LONG BEACH; Fred Engelmann, OLD BETHPAGE; Sid Levitt, ROCKVILLE CENTRE; and (for black-and-white prints) to: Harold Wicker, COMMACK; Harold Dunayer, EAST MEADOW; Russ Coughlin, EASTHAMPTON; Art Benko, FRANKLIN SQUARE; Dick Wolfeld, JERICHO; and Herman Rabinowitz, WANTAGH.

Contest judges were NEWSDAY photographer Stanley Wolfson, L.I. SUNDAY PRESS photo columnist Bill Wuest, PARADE MAGAZINE Associate Editor Arthur Rothstein, Melvin Ettinger and Sherman Paur, both of the Photographic Federation of L.I., and Joseph N. Attie, M.D., Attending Surgeon, L.I. Jewish-Hillside Medical Center.

Isidore Shapiro, ISLAND PARK, Nassau County Commissioner of Mental Health, spoke before a record contest audience in the Hospital Auditorium on the importance of the visual arts in creating a salutary environment for the patient.

Assisting Dr. Stanley R. Robbin, LONG BEACH, LBMH Contest Chairman, in organizing and conducting the competition were Federation members Constantine Lazuta, John Gannon, Henry De Rossi, EAST MEADOW.

This year's even drew 165 participants — 97 from nine Long Island camera clubs and 68 unaffiliated. The camera clubs represented were Flushing, Fresh Meadows, Glen Cove, Great Neck Color, Jamaica, Long Island, Nassau County, South Shore and the Wantagh Camera Club.

Chairman Robbin and Hospital Administrator Martin F. Nester, Jr., POINT LOOKOUT, are already looking ahead to the 3rd Annual Contest scheduled for 1976. Said Mr. Nester: "The contest is a most rewarding project for both the participants and the patients whose well-being is our primary concern. These beautiful photographs enhance our corridors, bringing public recognition to creative artists. They also have a highly beneficial effect on the convalescent, and are a source of pleasure to visitors and staff as well. We are very grateful to the many public-spirited photographers who cooperate in this fine work."

More On Nursing Homes

To Whom it may concern: Having been reading all the news recently in all the newspapers about the conditions of Nursing Homes etc., I would like to tell you a few things I have been happy about living here. I had been in several homes and health related facilities prior to coming to the Woodbury, Health Related Facility, in April, 1973. I have come to call this home. The grounds are like in a story book. Eleven acres of green grass, trees, a pond where the gold fish, ducks and geese are fed and enjoyed by all.

My medical needs are tended to 24 hours a day, whether I complain about a headache or a back ache someone is always there. My diet is watched and supervised, my room is cleaned daily, my religious needs are satisfied.

As a resident I have not been denied the luxuries that I had when in my own home, because administration has a tremendous feel and admiration for the Senior Citizen of today. We have helped the program and form our own Senior Citizen Chapter in the town of Oyster Bay. We are proud to state we have 125 members and the most wonderful part about it is to our knowledge the only Nursing Home-Health Related Facility that is so independent. We are called the East Nassau Senior Citizen Club, which I am Recording Secretary. We meet every Thursday. Our accomplishments are many, because we work together.

It is a small community of 200 residents. Many are not capable of getting around, but within our community we have recognized the need for the more alert and ambulatory to form our own volunteer group to help those less fortunate. We ourselves are happy to give of ourselves.

Having gotten together in group discussions, we are deplored to hear how others are suffering, this is why, I as a woman of 79 years of age must express to you how I and other residents are treated.

Mrs. Dorothy Gallagher, our leader deserves credit for all her encouragement and support in helping us organize and making this our greatest achievement... We all feel very proud that in such a short time (2 years), to have gotten so far and to be recognized by other Clubs and the Department of Health in Albany. Many are not aware that there is a fortunate and sincere side of life. This is why I must express my thank you to all for being welcomed into my new home.

Yours truly,
Anna D. Berry

To Whom It May Concern: Having heard and read in the newspapers, radio and television about things that are happening in nursing homes, I would like to express how I feel about a "Health Related Facility" at Woodbury, N.Y. where I am a resident.

Our Home is kept very clean, nice rooms, very good services and meals. The nursing care we receive is the best and I know nothing is left undone to help us. Drs., Nurses and Aids and the staff do their best to attend to all our needs.

The activities couldn't be better and there is something for everyone to enjoy. The confused are given special attention to make them happy and to use whatever ability they have.

Our home is off the road and has nice places to walk and enjoy. This is truly a nice place to call home.

Nuclear Power Saves Oil

Electric production from nuclear power stations in New York State saved the burning of 756 million gallons of oil during 1974, the New York Power Pool reported in February, 1975.

The four nuclear power generators (units) located in New York State produced an amount of electricity which if replaced by oil-fired generation would have required the burning of an additional 18,000,000 barrels in existing generating stations. If this oil had been burned during 1974, utility fuel costs would have been increased by over $175 million.

The use of nuclear power as a basic energy source to generate electricity within New York State substantially reduced the need for utilities to burn expensive imported fuel oil. The dollar savings realized benefited customers by helping to hold down the recent increases in fuel charges on utility bills.

The New York Power Pool, a contractual association of the eight major electric power systems serving New York, coordinates the operation of generating stations throughout the State to insure reliability of service and to help conserve scarce and costly fuels.

The nuclear units, each operated by a Pool member, are: Indian Point No. 1 and No. 2, owned by the Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc., the Ginna nuclear unit of Electric and Electric Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation and Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation's Nine Mile Point nuclear unit. During 1974, these nuclear facilities generated 9 percent of the electric energy used by New York's 18,000,000 citizens.

Since the introduction of nuclear power in New York in 1962, in no instance has a member of the public been injured as a result of the operation of a nuclear power station. The 53 operating nuclear power reactors in the United States have logged more than 200 reactor years of safe operational experience.

The use of nuclear power must be increased to help reduce the statewide power system's reliance on oil as a basic energy source for the generation of electricity. In the interest of system development and economy of operation, the member systems of the New York Power Pool have announced plans to secure approval of 17 new nuclear units within the next 15 years. When operational, this nuclear expansion could save the burning of 250 million barrels of oil a year.

South Shore Christian School Schedules Mar. 22 Testing

The South Shore Christian School, 34 Smith Street, Merrick, Long Island, announced its next testing for Saturday, March 22nd, at 10 A.M.

Parents interested in enrolling their Kindergarten through Sixth grade children for the 1974-75 school year, are encouraged to write the school or call the school office for information.

According to the state law transportation within fifteen miles of the school is provided for students who attend private schools if transportation is applied for through the local district prior to April 1st.

South Shore Christian School is the only Biblically-based interdenominational Christian School on Long Island. If you are interested in an excellent academic education for your child in a Christian setting, call or write the school, or pay the school a visit if you prefer. A private testing would also be arranged for those interested in immediate enrollment.

All teachers are experienced and state certified. The curriculum is academically sound and compares favorably with the best schools on Long Island. For Parent's Handbooks, application forms, and testing information, feel free to call (516) 546-5299, or write to SOUTH SHORE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL, 34 Smith Street, Merrick.

"Shutterbugs"

"Shutterbugs" who are 60 and over would like to learn a camera more than just how to click a camera are welcome to join a senior citizens photography workshop now in full swing in the East Terrace of Nassau Beach, Lido.

The free classes, sponsored by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks and formed in response to popular demand, meet on Saturday mornings from 10:00 a.m. till 12:00 noon and will continue through spring and summer.

New students will be taught the many phases of darkroom techniques, such as developing, enlarging and portraiture by a skilled instructor with the assistance of advanced students.

Further information on the workshop may be obtained by calling the department's Senior Citizens' Unit at 292-4247.

Nassau Beach is located on Lido Boulevard.

To the consumer, the skyrocketing cost of food is a grim subject.

But Mrs. Elizabeth Linnehan, Chairman of the diet instruction Committee of the Nassau Heart Association, points out a silver lining in the inflation cloud:

"As inflation-conscious Americans become accustomed to the high cost of eating, they're abandoning many expensive dinner-time favorites, such as beef and pork. In place of these products that are high in saturated fats and cholesterol they're using lower-priced foods. So, besides relieving the strain on the pocketbooks, they're also helping their hearts."

Mr. Linnehan notes that the saturated fats and cholesterol in whole milk products, rich desserts and choice meats can increase the risk of heart attack and stroke.

"Substitutes for these foods — skim milk and its by-products, fresh fruit, and fish and poultry — are low in these dangerous substances," she says. "These substitutes not only add variety to your family's menu, but also help to cut your food budget and improve your heart health."

One exception to the cost-cholesterol confrontation, Mrs.

Linnehan says, is egg yolks. Eggs tend to go up and down in price with the season and market conditions.

"Don't get caught in the price squeeze by serving more eggs just because they make for less expensive eating than other foods," she cautions. "The whites of eggs are rich in protein and good for you, but the yolks are the greatest single source of cholesterol. The Heart Association recommends no more than three egg yolks a week, including those used in baked goods."

What does it mean if your regular diet is typically American — loaded with cholesterol and saturated fats?

Mrs. Linnehan explains that too much of these harmful substances in the blood can contribute to a disease called atherosclerosis, or hardening of the arteries — a condition in which cholesterol and other fatty materials build up inside arteries through which blood must flow to the vital body organs. As this continues to coat the inner walls over the years, the artery channels grow narrow. When a blood clot forms and reduces or completely blocks the flow of blood, the result can be a heart attack or stroke.

One easy, enjoyable way to eat well and have a healthy heart is to make the recently published A M E R I C A N H E A R T ASSOCIATION COOKBOOK one of your standard kitchen references, says Mrs. Linnehan.

"It's not a diet book, but one that emphasizes low-fat, low-cholesterol cooking. There are more than 400 heart-healthy recipes for everything from appetizers to desserts. And it even tells you how to adapt your favorite recipes for healthier eating."

Mrs. Linnehan suggests that when you shop, look at the price, but also check out the label for fat content and cholesterol. "Remember the three C's of shopping: cost, calories and cholesterol. In the long run, if all three are low, that means heart-healthy eating."

The Nassau Heart Association offers free nutrition information as one of its many programs supported by Heart Fund dollars. Mrs. Linnehan urges Nassau County residents to make a healthy contribution when a Heart Fund volunteer visits their homes during February — American Heart Month.

IN RECITAL: Herbert Bradenstein, Jr., a resident of Hicksville, will perform an organ recital at the Church of the Heavenly Rest, 2 East 90th St. (at Fifth Avenue), New York City, on MONDAY EVENING March 3rd at 8:00 p.m.

The Gothic-style church houses a four-manual, 137-rank Austin Organ, on which works by Gabrieli, Cooperin, Bach, Franck, Langlais, and an original composition, will be played. Mr. Bradenstein is an organ student of Charles Dodsley Walker, Organist-Choirmaster of Heavenly Rest and the national president of the American Guild of Organists.

There is no admission fee for this recital and refreshments will be served following the program. (Photo by Robert Znach).

-Letter To The Editor-

Dear Mrs. Noeth,
To all those who knew Gertrude Wetterauer as a friend or whose lives touched hers in any way, her passing is a great loss.

Since 1935 Gertrude Wetterauer had been a dedicated and hard-working member of the Social Studies Department in Hicksville High School and from 1954 until her retirement in 1968, department chairman. Her administrative abilities naturally led to elected office. She served for years in many capacities in the Hicksville Classroom Teachers Association, including as its president. She gave unstintingly of her time and talents to the Social Studies Council both on Long Island and in the state. At one time she organized and led Saturday tours of Long Island to acquaint teachers with local history. Although an avid world traveler and teacher of world history, she never lost sight of the place and importance of local history in the larger picture. Her chairmanship of the week-long celebration of Hicksville's tercentennial in 1948 was a gigantic undertaking that put Hicksville on the map. To the great credit of the local P.T.A. it was a $50.00 PTA scholarship awarded to an outstanding senior that started this gifted person on a college education and a career in teaching.

It is for her personal qualities, however, that I shall always remember her. She had an extraordinary ability to analyze and understand people and events. A devout Catholic, she was always respectful of others' faiths and points of view. To me she was a very good friend with a wonderful sense of humor with whom I spent many fun-filled hours and whose advice and insight were always of great help. She bore with grace several illnesses that unfortunately plagued her after retirement.

A favorite quotation of hers also exemplified her life: "It is better to light a candle than to curse the darkness." I shall never forget her.

Sincerely,
Runhild E. Wessell

Mr. Robert Pirrung, President Hicksville Board of Education
Dear Sir:
The Hicksville American Soccer Club would like to express its appreciation to the Hicksville Board of Education for its cooperation in permitting the use of school facilities for the presentation of the Fifth Annual Winter Indoor Soccer Tournament.

The success of this tournament was due in large part to the efforts of district personnel in the dedicated performance of their assignments. Your custodial staff performed their duties with a dispatch and sensitivity that should be brought to your attention. They demonstrated, not only to the local organization, but also to more than twenty communities of the Metropolitan Long Island area, the efficiency and effectiveness of the Hicksville community. The work of Mr. Raymond Dunne and Mr. John Lennon of the Junior High School could serve as an example in community relations.

The services that we appreciated were more than doubly enjoyed by the Hicksville youth as spectators and participants alike. We are looking forward to this commendable degree of cooperation for future successful tournaments.

Our compliments to you and your organization for serving the community well.

Very truly yours,
Peter C. Collins, Pres.
Roger Fremgen, Roun. Chrmn.

Robert Estrin Recital

Robert Estrin, nineteen year old pianist of Hicksville, will give a recital of piano music at Emily Lowe Hall of Hofstra University in room 207 on Friday March 7, at 8:30 p.m. His program will include works by Bach, Mozart, Schumann, Bartok, and Chopin. Son of pianist Morton Estrin with whom he has studied since the age of seven, Robert is currently a student at the Manhattan School of Music where he studies with Constance Keene. Two years ago he spent the summer at the Mozarteum in Salzburg, Austria where he took master classes under Carlo Zecchi. A virtuoso French horn player young Robert has been a scholarship student at the Berkshire Music Center in Tanglewood, Massachusetts on that instrument. His studies on the horn have been under Hugh Cowden.

Admission to the Hofstra recital is free and open to the public

Hicksville American Soccer News

BOYS (RED) TAKES TRIPLE CROWN

The Boys (Red) team, sponsored by the VFW, William Gouse Post, have just completed an outstanding winter season in Indoor Soccer. This team certainly has continued to justify the confidence expressed by their sponsor. The VFW, William Gouse Post, was among the first organizations to recognize the growing importance and value of soccer to the youth of the Hicksville area. This team is now the reigning Division Champion of all Indoor Soccer Tournaments on Long Island.

The indoor season began with an invitation to the North Shore Tournament in December. The Boys competed against five teams from the Long Island area and four teams from the German American League. At the end of tournament play, and prior to the play-offs, Hicksville was in first place, with a record of 7 wins, 1 loss and 1 tie, scoring a total of 51 goals—allowing only 5. The four teams with the best tournament records competed in the play-offs. In the semi-finals, Hicksville beat Massapequa 6-1 and conquered Deer Park in the finals 3-2.

In addition to team victory, three boys won individual honors: Mike Humphrey was high scorer with 18 goals; John Rupp won the penalty shooting contest and Mike Collins took second place in the dribbling contest.

With this victory under their belt, the team looked forward to the home tournament back in Hicksville. The competition would be harder this time, with 18 teams competing—twelve from the L.I. League and six from the German American League. Again, at the end of regular tournament play the team was in contention and would be in the play-offs. They had won ten games, lost one and tied one; scored 39 goals and only allowed four. In the semi-finals they beat Deer Park 4-1 and continued on to up end Gottschee in the finals 4-0. Individually, Bob Bedell won the high scoring award, having scored 12 goals.

Now, with two down, the possibility of a "Hat Trick" became evident. The last tournament of the season, held at Oceanside, fielded 16 teams. Eight teams from the L.I. League and eight teams from the German American League were scheduled. Hicksville swept the regular tournament play with all wins and no defeats. They continued their winning ways in the quarter finals and semi-finals, first defeating the German Hungarians 2-0, followed by the 2-1 victory over the Greek Americans. Hicksville brought home the Triple Crown and finished the "Hat Trick" by defeating Oceanside 3-2 in "sudden death" overtime.

The outstanding goal tending of Dennis Barcavage, who allowed only a total of 15 goals in three tournaments contributed greatly to the teams success. The sharp shooting, ball control and combination plays of Mike Collins, John Rupp, Bob Bedell, Mike Humphrey, Jack Jablonski, Don Anglim, Alec Sakk and Mike Bell, rolled up a 127 goal attack. The fullback combination of John Shannon and Steve Solaski controlled the back court, to perfection rounding out this Hicksville powerhouse.

The Hicksville American Soccer Club will field 13 traveling teams for the first time in its history, as a part of the L.I. Junior Soccer League's Spring Season. This represents one of the most phenomenal examples of athletic club growth in all Long Island. The Hicksville club, with its 11 boys teams and 2 girls teams, will compete against an unprecedented number of teams, representing more Clubs than ever before. The opening whistle for this Spring Season will be blown around Long Island beginning this Saturday, March 1st.

Intense community interest has required that the Club open registration for the Spring Intramural Season. All children between the ages of 6 to 14 may register immediately. Call Pat Aimonovitch at 731-7543 for further information.

Trinity Lutheran School is participating in the Lutheran Night with the New York Nets vs. Denver on Friday, March 14th at the Nassau Coliseum.

This event is sponsored by local branches of Aid Association For Lutherans. The community of Hicksville is most cordially invited. Regular reserved $8.50 and $7.00 seats are $5.00 for adults and $4.00 for youth ages 18 and under. Tickets may be purchased on a first-come first-served basis at Trinity Lutheran School, 48 West Nicholas Street, from 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. Monday-Friday. Tickets will also be available Sunday, March 2nd, from 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. in the gym of Trinity.

The Canarsie Five

In Pauling, New York, July 1969 Manny Krevat, Dorothy Burman and George Margolin first met at a folk-singing weekend sponsored by the Folk Arts Ring. Back home in New York City they were joined by two friends for musical evenings that began just for fun. Since then by the natural processes that happen among musicians they have been entertaining delighted audiences in settings from college auditoriums to charity balls.

On Sunday, March 9 at 3 PM they will hold forth at Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library, drawing on a repertoire of hundreds of numbers, from solos, duets and trios to group instrumentals; singing folk, country, gospel and bluegrass music.

Free tickets for this program will be available to local district resident residents a week in advance of the program. Others will be seated just before the program as space allows.

A CONCERNED MAN - Ray Gould, father of two teenage daughters says: "Rape is the easiest of all crimes (against people) to defend against. Give me every woman in the Nation for 6 lessons in rape prevention and I will reduce the crime of rape by 80 percent."

With the nation's problem with rape getting worse every day, maybe someone should listen to Ray.

"Much is being done to help the woman after the fact, that is after she has been raped, but little is being done before the fact as a preventive measure," says Gould. "Many instructors try to teach rape prevention, but few are effective because they are not versatile enough. They teach fancy techniques that do not work under pressure. You must get into the woman's mind, as well. She has had it instilled in her from child hood that man is all powerful and can easily overpower her with his strength. This fact alone is enough to panic a woman. She can learn all of the techniques in the system, but if she panics and her mind is clouded, they will all be worthless."

Honor Vincent Pacifico

Mr. Vincent Pacifico, Plainview, was honored at a recent Red Cross Safety Programs Breakfast for his twenty-five years of service to the organization. Walter Klein was honored for fifteen years of service, and Shirley Ford was honored for five years of service. During the past year 22,445

First Aid, Water Safety and Small Craft Safety certificates were earned and 2,749 instructors, like those mentioned above, participated. Classes are held throughout the county. Information about their location and time can be obtained by calling Safety Programs at 747-3500.

NCMC Open Meeting

The next meeting of the Board of Managers of the Nassau County Medical Center will be "on the road" again, this time in Plainview, it was announced today.

Superintendent Donald H. Eisenberg said that the Board would meet at 11 AM, March 3, in the Davis Pavilion of the Plainview Division, at 1425 Old Country Road. The last meeting of the Board was held in the basement of the Bethel A.M.E. Church in Far Rockaway, across the street from the medical center's Inwood facility. Like the Inwood meeting, the March 3 meeting in Plainview was arranged to give residents who might not be able to get to the regular meetings in the medical center a chance to see the board in action and express their views, if they wish.

Becomes AAOS Fellow

On March 2 Ralph F. Parisi, MD, of Plainview, was inducted as a Fellow of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons at the group's annual meeting in San Francisco.

Dr. Parisi was one of a record-breaking 628 Fellows who were inducted in ceremonies during the Academy's 42nd annual meeting in the San Francisco Civic Auditorium. The previous record was 506 inducted in 1970.

The Academy is the nation's largest medical organization for specialists in bone and joint surgery. To be eligible for induction, all Fellows must have passed the certifying examination of the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery.

BOCES

"Three Penny Opera"

The Hicksville Library and CAPA, Town of Oyster Bay, will present the Studio Theatre in "Three Penny Opera" on Sunday afternoon, March 2 at 3:00 p.m. This musical work by Kurt Weill, with script by Berthold Brecht is based on John Gay's "Beggars Opera" written in the 16th century.

Bowling Party

The HICKSVILLE JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL PTA IS SPONSORING A 'BOWLING PARTY' AT MID ISLAND BOWL ON Saturday, March 8th at 7 PM. There will be bowling, buffet, coffee, cake and prizes.

"It will be a fun night. For reservation call 433-2479. It will be $7.50 single, $15.00 a couple," said a PTA spokesperson.

A New Twist

A marbling workshop will be conducted by artist Linda Stein at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library on Thursday, March 6 at 8 PM. Ms. Stein will carry this simple craft technique a step further by demonstrating how frameable originals can be discovered within a dried marbled print. This could become a fine hobby for anyone who enjoys a fanciful search for pictures in clouds or water reflections.

A small exhibit of a few of Ms. Stein's marbled paintings is now on view at the library.

UP IN ALBANY There is a well-known group called The Citizens Public Expenditure Survey, Inc. of New York State, located at 100 State St., Albany, NY 12207 (phone 518) 465-4506), that regularly sends out an Albany Report and many news releases which are interesting to those concerned with government spending. They have released one dated Feb. 12, 1975 headed "Massive State Tax Increase Mostly For Local Assistance", which is four printed pages long and contains, according to their first sentence, "The meaning of the proposed 1975-76 State Budget in a nutshell. It would be well worth sending for. The CPES has come out strongly against the proposed State Budget on the grounds that taxpayers would face a massive tax increase." Another of their releases is headed "Medicaid Program in State Budget Should Receive Thorough Legislative Scrutiny". There is a small charge for some of the materials put out by this watchdog group, but we think it is well worth it.

Albert Bossong -- One Man Show

From February 24 until March 16 the oil paintings of Albert Bossong will be on exhibit at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library. Though first interested in painting at the age of eighteen his interest was put aside to be resumed twenty five years later at the age of 43. A native of Hickville for over 20 years, Mr. Bossong is a natural painter who paints primarily from the stored visual images that have captured his imagination on vacation trips and shorter holidays.

Enlisted

Richard Panetta of PLAINVIEW, has enlisted in the U.S. Air Force. He selected a job in the General Aptitude Career Field. Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aniello Panetta of 17 Agatha Drive, Plainview. He was graduated from Bethpage High School in June 1970.

His engaging landscapes succeed in conveying the peace and joy that one keen observer of nature seeks to share with others through his art.

His formal art training to the basic adult education art courses he has taken at the library.

Hickville landscape artist Albert Bossong explains his technique to a viewer of his one man exhibit of oil paintings at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library. His oil paintings will be on display at the library now through Sunday, March 16.

Full Circle Electronic Music Orchestra Performs

The junior high school students of Plainview-Old Bethpage will be introduced to one of the newest innovations in contemporary music when they attend a performing arts program on electronic music. The programs have been arranged by Richard H. Hague, district director of music and coordinator for the Performing Arts Programs. Double performances will be offered at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Junior High on March 6, and at the Mattlin Junior High on March 10. The performing arts program entitled, "Full Circle" will bring to the audience a combined effort of a prepared orchestra, instrumentalists and synthesizers in a live performance. The idea of the program is to demonstrate the possibility of new electronic music techniques played "live" before an audience rather than assembled in a recording studio. The music ranges in style from jazz to serious. The make up of this performance will include 2 Arp 2600, synthesizers, tape recorded music prepared for synchronization with the orchestra 4 jazz players, electronic instruments and a string quartet. The music will consist of three separate pieces, "An Electric Fanfare," a "Pop" style piece "Ondine," and a seven movement sound collage bearing the same title as the program "Full Circle." The players will for the most part use standard instrumental techniques, though for some effects instruments will be subjected to electronic processing. Techniques involved will include phase-shifting sections of the orchestra, playing through synthesizers, and the use of prepared tapes. The program is the result of a collaboration between composer Willy Strickland, synthesist David Brody and guitarist Brad Strickland. These programs have been subsidized through BOCES by the Plainview Old Bethpage board of education, the National Endowment for the Arts, Professionals Teach the Arts, Music Performance Trust Fund and the Orchestra Da Camera Service for the Performing Arts.

Open Forum On Gun Control Legislation

Despite the many proposals for stronger gun control legislation that have been introduced over the past several years, control, or lack of it, remains as it was before the emotional impact of the assassinations of the sixties hit the nation. Proposals are locked in committee or are otherwise pending.

Are existing laws enough if properly enforced? Will stronger legislation eliminate the Saturday night special?

The pros and cons of gun control will be discussed in an open forum at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library on Sunday, March 9 at 7:30 PM by a most interested line up of participants.

Speaking in favor of stronger legislation:

Mr. Dennis Dillon, District Attorney of Nassau County
 Mr. Matthew J. Bonora, Investigations Inc.
 Mr. Danny Greenwald, president, Nassau County P.B.A.
 Speaking against increased control:

Mr. Eugene C. Ludin, President, N.Y. Rifle & Pistol Association

Mr. Arnold Marshall, Esq., N.Y.S. Rifle & Pistol Association.

Mr. Jerome Simonoff, President, Sagamore Rifle & Gun Club.

The discussion will be moderated by Mr. Irwin Enten, Chairman of the Library Board of Trustees and the program's format will include time for questions from the floor. Admission is free and all are invited.

Zeolite Minerals at Gregory Museum

By Gardiner E. Gregory Dir.

The Gregory Museum, Hicksville, New York, has one of the finest collections of New Jersey Zeolites and their associated minerals in existence. The specimens were collected by Mr. Gardiner Gregory, Director of the museum, during a ten year period from traprock quarries in New Jersey. Most of the specimens came from the Paterson, New Jersey area.

The minerals of the Zeolite group are probably the best known and most characteristic of the secondary minerals of the New Jersey traprocks. Zeolites are hydrated aluminosilicates of the alkali and alkaline earth elements which can lose their water without a change in crystal structure.

Ten zeolite minerals are found in New Jersey traprocks. They are natrolite, mesolite, scolecite, chabazite, gmelinite, laumontite, stilbite, thomsonite, heulandite, and analcime. They usually occur in distinctive and well crystallized forms. The museum has excellent cabinet specimens of these zeolites.

The basalt quarries in the Paterson, New Jersey area are famous for their glauberite and anhydrite casts.

In addition, the museum has several hundred micros of zeolites and their associated minerals, including the rare mineral greenockite.

The main commercial use for the zeolite minerals is as water softeners. Beautiful cabochons can be made from some of the prehnite, datolite, and natrolite found associated with the zeolites. Clear quartz from traprock quarries can be faceted.

When visiting The Gregory Museum, one should especially look for the following: crystals of chabazite in various colors and sizes up to 1"; crystals of datolite associated with golden calcite and prehnite; 2" crystals with apophyllite associated with pectolite and thomsonite; 1 1/2" crystals of analcime associated with pectolite, thomsonite, heulandite and stilbite; 1" crystals of white stilbite associated with apophyllite; globular and stalactitic masses of prehnite in various shades of green-many in cavities; anhydrite casts filled with apophyllite, laumontite, and heulandite; 3" crystals of natrolite; babingtonite associated with prehnite; red stilbite; 3" balls of pectolite with thomsonite; 3/4" natrolite crystals on prehnite; heulandite associated with chabazite, amethyst and calcite; 3/4" blades of chalcophryite; and, smoky quartz crystals on prehnite.

The Gregory Museum also has zeolite specimens from India,

Brazil, Nova Scotia, Pennsylvania, California, Canada, and other areas.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:
The Town of Oyster Bay is continuing to press its fight to obtain Federal funding under the Seventeen of the nineteen largest towns in New York State are excluded from applying for grants under the present regulations for eligibility. I have written letters to New York

Housing and Community Development Act of 1974.

This Act brings together federal grant programs from many categories into a single package for funding a wide range of community renewal and development programs.

State's thirty-nine Congressman and two Senators, citing the discriminatory provisions of the Act and asking their support in rectifying this situation. At my direction, the Town's Director of Planning, Gustave Rappold, brought this matter to the attention of the delegates at the annual meeting of the Association of Towns. As a result the Association unanimously called for a revision of the Act to eliminate this injustice.

Meanwhile, the Town has elected to seek a grant under the discretionary funding portion of the Act for which it qualifies. If these funds become available, the Town will be able to carry out a wide variety of research and development projects that would otherwise have to be postponed. These projects will assist the Town in continuing to meet both present and future social, economic and environmental needs of our community.

DEVOTIONS

Dial-A-Devotion 931-2221

By Rev. J.H. Krahn

Trinity Lutheran Church

WE HAVE GREAT POTENTIAL

Until Jesus Christ permeates every fiber of our being, we can never begin to appreciate the power and potentiality available in us. Without Christ we usually don't expect the unexpected, and so we never find it. We continue to doubt whether we can do this or that or be what we want to be. Yet, God wants us to reach the heights of our recreated potential. God wants us to develop a faith that can handle both problems and opportunities. He desires that we capture His vision of our worth and our innate potential.

A couple of years ago I saw the play MAN OF LA MANCHA at the Westbury Music Fair. I believe it illustrates what I am saying...We need to be able to capture God's vision of our worth and potential.

The Man of La Mancha comes to the Wayside Inn. Here the camel drivers stop. The Man of La Mancha sees Aldonza the waitress there who is also the local prostitute. Aldonza is dirty and smells from perspiration. "Ho my lady. You will be my lady...every knight needs a lady, and you will be my lady. And I will give you a new name, it will no longer be Aldonza but Dulcinea." She looks at him. "Me, your lady, ha," she kicks up her heels, grabs his money out of his hand, runs off stage and expects to see him alone later. Every time the Man of La Mancha sees her he says, "You are a lady, you have a new name. I have given it to you. It is Dulcinea."

Then there is a scene, the curtain opens...the stage is empty. It's dark, it's night, and suddenly on to the stage comes this woman Aldonza. Her hair is disheveled, and she has blood, and dirt, and mud on her, and her skirt is torn. She's been raped, and she is hysterical. And she runs lost and confused and crying to the middle of the stage. And off to the side comes the Man of La Mancha. When he sees her he says, "Ho, my lady." To which she replies, "Don't call me a lady, look at me, I was born in a ditch, my mother left me naked and cold and too hungry to cry; I never blamed her; I'm sure she left hoping I would have the good sense to die. Ah...look at me, I'm no lady, I'm only a kitchen tramp, wreaking with sweat, a trumpet men use and forget. Oh God, I am no lady I am only Aldonza. I am nothing at all"...then she runs away and is gone.

And now it is the last scene. The Man of La Mancha, like Jesus of Nazareth has been despised, rejected of men, a man of sorrow, acquainted with grief and he is dying, like our Lord, from a broken heart. And on his death bed there comes to his side a beautiful queen, a Spanish princess apparently, with a beautiful mantilla, the black lace shawl wrapped to cover herself modestly. Then she kneels at his side, and says, "My lord, my lord." And through a haze he looks, and says, "Who are you." "My lord look, don't you remember? Try to remember my lord. You sang the song remember, remember, to dream the impossible dream, to fight the unbeatable foe. My lord you gave me a new name. You called me your lady." And through eyes clouded with death, he recognizes her and says, "Dulcinea," and he dies. She was born again. If any man is in Christ he is a new creature. He can reach his great potential.

4-H News

Hi, this is Tina Morris. We are the 4-H Busy Bee Club of Hicksville.

We are working with flower arrangements. We made a paper wate. Next week we are going to make a flower basket. We are making a scarf on our own. We made a other stuff to. That's all for now. Good by.

Active All Season Campers

Boy Scout Troop 591 of Hicksville has successfully demonstrated that winter camping and hiking for youngsters is not only possible but thoroughly enjoyable.

On Saturday, February 8, the 65th anniversary of Boy Scouting in the USA, 8 boys, 11 to 13 years of age, with their scoutmasters out from New York for Alpine scout camp in New Jersey. The hike took them across the George Washington Bridge followed by a precipitous climb down to the shore trail at Palisades Interstate Park. This 10 mile historical trail-Cornwallis' Headquarters is on the route was challenging and beautiful. Its exquisite views of both river and cliffs make it the best in the Greater New York area. A steep climb up the palisades, and then into the scout camp, completed the 12½ mile walk. Tents were pitched on 2 inches of snow and welcome fires set in subfreezing weather. After consuming extraordinary amounts of food, the boys turned into piles of sleeping bags at 6:30. It had been a big day, and there was a lot more to do Sunday.

Careful instruction and detailed preparation for these monthly adventures occurs at weekly troop meetings. Troop 591 meets 7:30 P.M. every Thursday night at the Hicksville Jewish Center, Maglie Road and Jerusalem Avenue, Hicksville.

FLORA '75 Goes International

Faraway and exotic places like Mozambique, Kenya, Pakistan will be represented at FLORA '75, the New York flower show to be held at the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum in Uniondale, from March 1-9. Dry flowers and arrangements from fifty countries, including Holland, Mexico, India, Japan and many African nations will be displayed at the show's Flower Time exhibit, according to the firm's president, Bob Ench. The items are so unusual, says Ench "I am sure it will be hard for people to believe that these are natural, that have been dried or bleached, and not artificial!"
The arrangements, as high as $2,000 in value, will be shown in a simulated Dutch pottery shed within and surrounded by pottery made in the Old World tradition and including early American Dutch-type crocks, pitchers with a special salt-glaze process, handmade copperware, big cooking pots, etc. Flower Time has, literally, gone to "the ends of the Earth" for its FLORA '75 exhibit.
The Flower Time exhibit is one of many that will range far and away for display material to bring an international facet to FLORA '75, the non-profit flower show co-sponsored by the Long Island Nurserymen's Association and the Long Island Retail Florists' Association.

Fork Lane Ext. Readiness Program

The "Extended Learning Readiness Program", a Title I, ESEA project, is in operation daily at the Fork Lane School, Hicksville. The program operates for fifteen kindergarten students who spend the noon to one P.M. period daily, with two especially hired teachers to work on those readiness skills so necessary for success in first grade in September. Those A.M. kindergarten students selected for the program eat a light lunch under the supervision of one of the noon-time instructors while the other teacher meets the bus of the P.M. kindergartners arriving at school one hour earlier than the regular session. It is expected that the ratio of seven students to a teacher in programs adjusted to the individual students' needs will facilitate progress before these kindergartners find themselves behind the group in readiness to do formal learning activities

Hicksville Parks Task Force To Speak At HCC Meeting

The Hicksville Parks Task Force is scheduled to speak at the regular March 6th meeting of the Hicksville Community Council, according to Council President Sieg Widder.

The Task Force, which has been working hard at determining what would be feasible to develop on the two pieces of property in the Hicksville Park District, which are designated for community parks. One is the triangle of land behind the Church of the Redeemer, on Old Country Road and Plainview Road...the other is the former Giese Florist property on Lee Avenue.

The Council meeting will start at 8:30 p.m. in the downstairs auditorium of the Hicksville Public Library on Jerusalem.

CYO Sports

7th Grade Traveling Team

Sunday February 23rd

St. Ignatius 75 St. Martin's (Bethpage) 28

On Sunday February 23rd the St. Ignatius 7th grade traveling team played St. Martin's. It was the last game of the regular season for the team. The team played without the services of two of its stars, T. Harper and E. Sico. Coach B. Durkin's team still proved a little to much for the St. Martin's team. The St. Ignatius team was led by the scoring of J. Black 19 pts., T. Anastasio 11 pts., and B. Bergen, S. Sahn and T. Siry 19 pts. each and an all out good game by the team won by a score of 75 to 28. The win gave the team a 14 and 0 record. The team is now standing by waiting for the playoffs which start on the first week of March.

The 8th grade team like the 7th grade team is also waiting for the playoffs. Both teams are also involved in the St. Raphael's Tournament.

The Officers and the rest of the members of the CYO wish to congratulate the coaches of the both teams and the players and hope that they can go out and go all they way and bring the championship home to St. Ignatius.

7th Grade Intermural League

The 7th grade intermural league which is coming down the home stretch of a great season find the league as tight as a drum. The reason that the league is so close is because two of the teams that are supposed to be the weaker teams of the league came up with two great victories. The two team who proved to be the spoilers were the Passes 2 and 6 winning over the Squires 5 and 3 and the Rockets 3 and 5 winning over the O. L. of Mercy team 4 and 4. The two upsets left the league with 4 team in contention for the final honors. The next games for the 7th grade league will be on Friday February 28th. The following is the standings of the 7th grade league as of Feb. 21:

Team	W	L	Coach
Nets	6	2	R. Bentley
Squires	5	3	M. Acerra
Cougars	4	4	C. Muse
O. L. of Mercy	4	4	E. Heggerty
Rockets	3	5	E. Anastasio
Passes	2	6	A. Garger

The Commissioner E. Anastasio and the coaches would like to remind all the boys to bring an extra shirt with them to last game of season so that uniforms may be collected.

Little League

Registration

The Hicksville International Little League will hold a final registration on Saturday, March 1st, at the Hicksville Senior High School on Division Avenue, from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M.

Pack 293

Cub Scout Pack 293 is sponsored by the United Methodist Church of Hicksville. All den meetings are held at the church. We have a very active Pack and would like to extend an invitation to all boys eight and older who would like to join us.

February 23 we celebrated the anniversary of Cub Scouting at our annual Blue and Gold Dinner at the church. We feasted on a Virginia Ham dinner complete with all the fixings. Entertainment was provided by Mr. Dave Henderson who, complete in Scottish Regimental attire, explained the plaid, kilt, sporn and the workings of the bagpipes. He played the bagpipes beautifully. Our sincerest thanks to Mr. Henderson.

Thanks are extended to all those who helped to make the Blue and Gold Dinner a success. The time and effort of decorators, cooks, dishwashers and especially the Cub's mothers is very much appreciated.

WEBELO Robert Goodey and Bobcats David Jackson and Douglas Bowen, were inducted into the Pack at the Blue and Gold. A warm welcome to Pack 293.

The following awards were also presented at the dinner:

Den No.4 Tommy Caglioni-Bear Badge; Robert Pardi-Silver arrow; David Bowen-Gold arrow.

Den No.5 Van Icoboni-Bear Badge; Robert Aldag-Wolf Badge; Brian Rankel-Bear Badge, gold arrow.

WEBELOS - Kevin Hammond-Citizenship Badge, Sportsman, Traveler and two-year pin; James Hawkins-Sportsman and Citizenship Badge; Danny Morgan-Sportsman and Geologist; Kevin Carroll-Geologist; Robert Ohlinger-Sportsman; Eric Staehle-Sportsman; Errol French-Sportsman.

Congratulations to Van Icoboni who has advanced to WEBELOS.

Our activities for February included a trip to McDonald's. The cubs were given a tour of the famous Golden Arches eatery and were treated to a hamburger and french fries. Needless to say, a great time was had by all.

The WEBELOS have been bowling and playing volleyball as part of their requirement for earning their Sportsman badge.

Our next Pack meeting will be held on March 6, 1975 at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend. The program this month will include all the dens performing original skits. In the spring, these skits will be presented at our annual visit to the Holly Patterson Home.

A trip to the Gregory Museum is planned for March 8 where the boys will see a display of Scouting on Long Island over the past years.

If you would like further information about Pack 293, please call Cubmaster Jim Mills (796-7240) or Pack Chairman Dan Davidson (796-8426).

MR. GARDINER E. GREGORY, Director of the Curriculum Materials Center, Hicksville Public Schools, has been awarded the Freedom Foundation Award.

Mr. Gregory is the founder and Director of The Gregory Museum, Long Island's Earth Science Center. He has authored sixteen books and pamphlets, produced 35 slide sets and 6 16mm sound films.

The Freedom Foundation Award will be another to add to his "vita." Mr. Gregory is truly a humanitarian and well deserves each and every award bestowed upon him.

Fabulous Prizes

Mrs. Michael Cassano (Glenwood Landing) and Ms. Lillian Chiques (Woodbury), Co-Chairman of the Raffle Subcommittee of the 7th Annual Fashion Show and Dinner of the Nassau Heart Association, have announced four of the fabulous prizes to be raffled at the Dinner, March 3, at the Crest Hollow Country Club at Woodbury.

First prize is a glorious weekend for two at the Playboy Club Hotel in Great Gorge, New York.

Second prize lies closer to home - a weekend for two at the Wave Crest Resort, Montauk, Long Island.

Another weekend for two is the third prize - this time at the Sunny Craft Ponderosa, Walkkill, New York.

Fourth prize is a basket of cheer.

Raffle tickets are presently available at 5 for $1.00 - a price you certainly won't want to pass up.

For tickets and further information, call Mrs. Cassano 676-5121 or Ms. Chiques 367-3799.
