Town Beats OBI In Court

Town Councilman Warren M. Doolittle praised a State Supreme Court decision for "getting down to the facts" in ruling that alterations for a proposed discotheque in Hicksville must be halted and the owners must apply for a special use permit before the Town Board in order to open such a facility.

"In stopping the O.B.I. from expanding the facility on Levittown Parkway," Doolittle said, "Justice (Joseph) Stozzi upheld the Town's contention that such major alterations required a Town Building Permit which had not been granted. The decision also showed that the court could not agree with the O.B.I. claim that they were a restaurant and should be allowed to open without first obtaining a special use permit, after a public hearing before the Town Board."

According to Doolittle the Oak Beach Inn West Corp. had claimed that the enlargement of the facility to almost twice its original size did not constitute a major alteration requiring a building permit but was actually only repairs. The court did not see it that way and ruled that to continue that work the O.B.I. would have to obtain a Building Permit.

"This brought up the second position of the Town, which was that no Building Permit could be granted until the O.B.I. obtained a special use permit from the Town Board," Doolittle said. "John Paider from the Town Attorney's office argued that while the Town Ordinance permits restaurants to operate in the Business F. Zone, the O.B.I. was not a restaurant but rather a business that required a special use permit."

Doolittle explained that the O.B.I. claimed that since it planned to serve food it was a restaurant. "But Mr. Paider clearly made the court aware of the Town position that the O.B.I. would better fall into the definition of being primarily a tavern or place of entertainment that incidentally served food and not the other way around," Doolittle noted.

He concluded by saying that he was "very much pleased with the court's decision. At least now, if the O.B.I. wants to open, the people will have to be made aware of it." Doolittle also noted under a recently enacted amendment of the Town Zoning ordinance, "if the O.B.I. still hopes to use the building at 161-173 Levittown Parkway, it would have to request a change of zone. Under our amended ordinance an operation such as described by the O.B.I. must be in a Business G. Zone if it is to have an allowable occupancy of more than 99 people. That also means that the O.B.I. would have to present its plans to the Town Board at a public hearing."

Property To Be Developed

The Montana Agency, Inc., a long established Realtor firm in Hicksville has just announced the sale of a six-acre parcel of land on historical Cantigue Rock Road in Jericho contiguous to Birchwood Park West. Mrs. Effie Krogmann, an associate broker with the Agency for many years was instrumental in concluding the negotiations.

The land was long held in the Neubrecht family and the 100-year old homestead was recently occupied by the Berning family, descendants of Neubrecht. The parcel is located near Cantigue Park containing many recreational facilities as well as a 9-hole golf course open to residents only.

The purchaser is Frank Scappaticci a well known Nassau County builder who has done a great deal of building under the name of FAMS Homes. He plans to develop this tract of approximately twenty quarter-acre plots into very attractive prestige homes in the mid-sixty thousand dollar price range. There will be three types of homes built; a Colonial, a Splanch, and a Ranch model. Excellent financing is available.

Ground will be broken shortly and inquiries are solicited by the Montana Agency from all interested prospective purchasers. Floor plans and model specifications are in the Montana office at 115 North Broadway, Hicksville, telephone 938-3600 where all information as to this development will be gladly furnished.

SHOUT; HE IS RISEN INDEED
An empty tomb greeted the women who came to anoint Jesus' body that first Easter morning. What a surprise to find the huge stone rolled away... no guards and most startling of all - no body. Suddenly two angels appeared to them and asked, "why are you looking in a tomb for someone who is alive? He isn't here! He has come back to life again!"

Who among us today would visit a cemetery to pay our respects to someone who is alive. Yet many Christians act as if Jesus were just another dead historical figure. Yet He lives! That's the Easter message. In a world filled with so much bad news this is God's good news for each of us.

Break out the smiles, for now there is hope for you and me. Christ not only overcame His death but overcame ours too. We need only believe in Him. I haven't the slightest doubt that the Lord is still in the resurrection business. We can rejoice that Jesus spoiled every funeral He ever went to... even His own. They buried Him, but He didn't stay buried. Brothers and sisters, He is also ready to spoil our funeral if we will only let Him. Nothing in life is more important than our appointment with destiny - our date with death. When we know Jesus Christ and the power of His resurrection, we are prepared for even that.

The very earliest Easter greeting in the ancient church consisted of one person shouting to another, "The Lord is risen!" and the other shouting back, "He is risen indeed!" As you read this devotion let's shape this greeting with each other right now. Don't be shy. I'm going to shout, "The Lord is risen!" And I want you to shout back at me with a big smile and all the breath you have. "He is risen indeed!" Now let's see those smiles beginning. Ready? "THE LORD IS RISEN!"

Dear Friends ...

Don't Cancel The June 10th Referendum

FAR BE IT FOR ME TO TAKE ON THE DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN PARTIES here in your County and mine (at least we do have the privilege of paying its taxes)...but I must report to you that now, County Democratic leader Stanley Harwood has come to our rescue, by advocating that the referendum on the proposed County Legislature which has been set for June 10, be cancelled. He feels that the June 10 referendum be cancelled because a majority voted "Yes" on the Proposition last Fall which, though strangely worded, did mean that a new division should be made that would conform more to the way the population density is at present, as ordered by the Courts.

To my knowledge AT NO PLACE IN THIS PROPOSITION did it say, "Yes, we want a County Legislature at any expense you may decide, after fighting only over political divisions"....

So, at whatever the cost that a County referendum may take, if we still do have a democracy here in Nassau County, then the people should have the right to vote on this horrendously-expensive proposition. The Courts may have decided that the County must be more equitably divided up....but I do NOT believe that even the Courts have the right to tell the embattled taxpayers what they have to pay for representative (???) government. I'm quite willing to allow the Republicans and the Democrats to work out a bipartisan agreement as to how to divide up Nassau County geographically, but in keeping with the realistic economic plight of each and every taxpayer, whether they be home owners or renters who get their tax raises indirectly in rent raises, NO MORE MONIES SHOULD BE SPENT, to govern Nassau County, than the present budget, which is already way out of line. Gentlemen, please be realists.....there is a breaking point to everything...and our County and our Country too, is so very near to that point.....believe me, whether you know it or not additional thousands in this County will be added to our welfare rolls needlessly, if you don't stop this constant adding to their tax burden....many barely have enough to eat....and even those who through their own industry have a balanced budget, are not in a position to keep it up endlessly. You MUST all realize the urgency of the situation of those whom you are elected to serve....change Nassau County voting districts, geographically but don't add to their taxes.

But, to get back to my original point....if the only way you can find to save money is to deprive our citizens of their right to vote, and if you succeed in so doing, I hope that each and every voter will remember

At The Supervisors Meeting

Two More Public Hearings Set On Proposed County Districts

BY JANET GOSNELL

Public interest in the 15-district, 95,000 population each, legislature proposed by the Nassau County Board of Supervisors ran so high at a public hearing on the plan on Monday, March 24th, that the supervisors postponed their scheduled note on the issue, reinstated a previously cancelled meeting for Monday, March 31st one hour earlier than usual at 10:00 A.M. and set an additional meeting for Wednesday, April 5th, time to be determined.

At Monday's meeting, after several hours of speakers on the topic, the Supervisors adjourned for lunch, reconvening later to complete the regular agenda at about 4:45 P.M., an unusually long Monday for the county heads of government.

Harwood Leads Off

Keynote speaker against the county's proposal was Stanley Harwood, chairman of the Nassau County Democratic Committee, who said the plan highly favored the Republican party and asked that the project be turned over to the New York State Legislature for determination.

He also complained that the supervisors made too much publicly of the cost of the new form of government.

He was reminded by County Executive Ralph G. Caso that it was at the behest of and as a result of litigation instituted by the Nassau Democratic Committee that the reapportionment plan was developed, with judicial decision specifically asking for a new plan to be developed by the supervisors themselves. The first plan featuring a weighted voting system devised by the supervisors was downed by the electorate at last November's election.

Alternate Plan

Presenting a suggested alternate plan to the county proposal, Harwood said: "Like a giant sausage maker, the Republican majority has sliced and stuffed Democrats into Republican strongholds until they have been completely submerged."

His primary objections were that districts cross town lines and divided incorporated villages and well established unincorporated communities unnecessarily and that the districting "circumvents the Municipal Home Rule Law which requires that a county legislature plan shall comply with specific standards."

Particular outspoken in their protests against the plan were representatives of the greater Roslyn area, comprising about five or six separate villages and communities, whose representatives said they nonetheless felt like a cohesive entity and wanted to be in the same legislative district.

East Meadow Speaks

Edward Grause, of East Meadow, said he was "distressed by the fact that your plan, as proposed, does not provide for the entire community of East Meadow to be included in one legislative district "with all its 66,000-plus population. He also felt East Meadow and its sister community, Levittown, should be allied, although the total population of the two is 132,105, exceeding the 95,000 population standard for each district.

Grause asked that "to the maximum extent, community lines be protected."

Eleanor Berger, speaking as president of the League of Women Voters, protested the splitting of Levittown and Hicksville, one from the other, as a cohesive community. She also protested the splitting of the Roslyn area and that of Roosevelt and Freeport.

At The Town Board

Condominium - To Be Or Not To Be

The Town Board meeting of Tuesday, March 25th, was adjourned at 1:08 P.M. The agenda consisted of 21 publicly listed items and 8 additional resolutions, added at the discretion of the Board as an expediency due to the fact that there will be no meeting of April 1st.

The 1st item was a Hearing on the Petition of P. Gerald Desimone for a change of Zone from residence D to E-2, Glen Head, N.Y. This was a request to change private housing to condominium zoning.

Mr. Desimone was represented by Councilman Mr. Cohen. The main speaker was Mr. Forbes, who presented his various plans, charts and other related items as evidence to the Town Clerk and the Board members.

The area under consideration is a 10 acre section adjacent to and south of Glen Head Country Club. The preliminary layout indicates a 40 unit condominium that will occupy approximately 13 per cent of the land with an additional 15 per cent occupied in the form of roads and parking.

The proposal is for 2 models, each a 2 bedroom, 1 car-garage type that would cost in the area of $80,000.00.

The buffer areas on the proposed site and its boundaries relative to the closest homes etc. were salient points of the discussion. In addition Councilmen Diamond, Carmen and Hogan questioned the width of the roads, on-site parking and accessibility for fire trucks and other emergency equipment.

In his presentation, Mr. Forbes used as a comparison the proposed 40-unit condominium as opposed to a 34 house, single unit, development and the impact each would have on the adjacent community.

Population wise, the condominium would have 104 people and approximately 24 less than the other form of housing.

There would be 6 students as opposed to 26 in the houses.

The condominium would have 50 cars or 12 less than its counterpart, while only 8 vehicle trips per day per unit as opposed to 12 per house.

The condominium would show an excess of $39,000.00 in the school budget whereas its comparative would indicate a loss of $810.00.

Councilman Diamond

questioned the impact of the additional traffic on the community. Council for the petitioner, Mr. Cohen answered that community facilities were found to be more than adequate to accommodate the increase in traffic.  premiums, if they were properly supervised by skilled negotiators or the doctors themselves or, by default, the government, provide that those who see the fewest patients pay less.

Carelessness has a relation to the number of patient visits. A fair revision of cost based on that acknowledged principle seems so easy to arrange. No change in our legal structure is warranted based on so patent an insurance fallacy.

"With a reasonable stroke of a pen Dr. Kane can resume seeing her one patient a day," Mr. Donnelly said.

THAT'S ONE WAY OF LOOKING AT IT. It was Chesterton who said... "Submission to a weak man is discipline. Submission to a strong man is only servility."

"Doctors can always sue a patient in a court of law if he fails to pay the bill. Patients' rights should not be less," he said.

Hicksville Soccer Club News

The arrival of spring brought joy to the hearts of Long Islanders, but particularly to the Hicksville Club. This, the fourth weekend of Spring League play saw twelve of thirteen traveling teams in action and for the most part, successful action at that. The Peewee battle, unfortunately was between the two Hicksville teams, Red and Blue. The division leaders, Hicksville Red, took the game 2 - 0. The Red began to show their strength in the second half as L. Ziembicki and L. Sneddon each booted a score, assisted by D. Spadero and M. Bell. The right side combination of J. Carroll and M. Bell brought the ball into scoring position innumerable times while B. Maguire and K. McCann did the same on the left. R. J. Nakashion took care of the goal keeping with outstanding effectiveness.

For the Blue, goalie K. Brutscum played a strong game which enabled them to stay close to the powerful Red until the closing minutes of the game. The teams had played a scoreless first half. Outstanding in defeat were L. Rubin, R. Newland and the fullback line of G. Grusso, S. Geerds and K. Merz.

The Bantam Blues won their game 3 - 1, despite Brentwoods persistent efforts to break thru the defensive wall set up by F. Schinur, B. Cheslock and T. Lewis. The very few times that our defense was penetrated, Blue goalie J. Rubins frustrated the scoring attempt. Blue scores were made by B. Cresham (1) on an assist by J. Maguire and D. Smythe (2) on a break away and an assist by D. Bell.

The Midget Red illustrated a determination to be proud of, by overcoming a 2 - 0 deficit at halftime and leaving the field 3 - 2 victors over East Meadow. The comeback trail was blazed by a triple header from Barcavage to Kerti to Anglim for the first Hicksville score followed in quick succession by two more, another by Anglim and one by J. Kerti. This combination of talent plus the efforts of M. Conway and M. Jung resulted in the winning score. Meanwhile, the defense contributed heavily in the persons of M. Andrus, Stemborg, M. Heller, M. Finkleman and T. Solaski.

In spite of uncountable saves by goalie M. Thomas and fierce defense by fullbacks R. Coiro, B. Hastings and J. Mejia, the Midget Blues took a loss to the league leading Glen Cove team 5 - 1. The single goal for Hicksville came on a neatly drilled penalty kick by A. Menzin into the lower left corner of the net. Despite the many attacks by a competent forward line and mid-line assistance by D. Cleary, P. Rubins and R. Zaretsky, the team was unable to penetrate the Glen Cove defense.

The V. F. W. sponsored Boys Red team demolished a powerless Plainview team 16 - 0 in a match that obviously should have been avoided by both teams.

The Boys Blue team, sponsored by the Marco Polo Lodge, also scored a shut out 4 - 0 victory over E. Meadow. While the mid-line force of D. Cusack, P. Fletcher, T. McCann and S. Playne kept the ball in front of the E. Meadow net, J. Janette scored 2 goals, 1. Anastasio and P. Fletcher scored 1 each.

The A O H Juvenile Red remains undefeated and in a tie for first place in the Division by whipping North Shore 4 - 2. Scores by T. Cusack (1), S. Halajian (1) and K. Anlim (2). T. Mercer and Halajian seemed to be the sparkplugs for this weekends victory.

The Junior Blue team squeaked out a thrilling 1 - 0 win over an untried, untested Bohemia team on a score 10 minutes into the game. The boot came from the foot of J. Gallant on a pass from J. Wayne. A game as close as this relied on the defensive work of J. Bungert, E. Hupier, P. McHugh and T. Denien. Balancing this work in the rear was the effort of P. Gramaglia and D. Davidson up front who helped provide the necessary respite from the dogged pressure of the opposing team.

The older girl's team showed what it is like to play as a team and know the satisfaction of coming from behind and winning over Deer Park 5 - 2. D. Conway and K. Jung each scored 2 and P. Decker booted the finishing touch. They had help from their friends in the back line, M. Flynn at CH and J. O'Shea at LFB. Keep up the good work, girls. On games reported the Club has a 22 - 11 record as of now

Pioneers To Plant 30,000 Trees

A big effort to rescue Long Island's South Shore barrier beach gets underway Saturday, April 5, when New York Telephone Pioneers and other community groups gather at Robert Moses State Park to plant 30,000 Japanese Black Pine trees. The mass planting is an attempt to stop the rosin which is steadily wearing the beachfront away.

Members of the Pioneers, Future Pioneers, Pioneer Life Members, Long Island Beach Buggy Association, Great South Beach Mobile Sport Fishermen and Boy Scouts of America (Nassau and Suffolk Councils) will assemble at 10 a.m. in Parking Field 5. The planting will take place between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m., followed by a picnic for the expected 1,000 volunteers. Participants are asked to bring their own lunch. Beverages and a barbecue chicken dinner will be provided by the Pioneers.

Funds for the purchase of the trees and food are being raised through the sale of certificates by the various groups involved.

The project is being conducted with the approval of the Long Island State Park Commission.

PATIENTS AID

(Continued from Page 13) carrier collected $170 million in premiums, yet paid out only $68.5 million in claims. Its books also are kept from public scrutiny.

In at least two other states, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, Argonaut has tried the same baseless premium grab. There, the doctors, recognizing the true culprit, have instituted legal actions predicated on bad faith against Argonaut.

"It is lamentable that here, in New York, the doctors turn instead upon their patients, asking for new legislation depriving the patient of a right everyone else has, his right to sue in a court of law. The doctors instead call for arbitration, with doctors among the arbitrators. There will be no jury and no right to appeal.

"Only doctors would enjoy this immunity from suits based on their carelessness.

"There is no real crisis in malpractice except that which the doctors and the insurance companies, artificially create. The State will see that the doctors are not left without insurance. The provision in a bill sought by the Governor, which provides for a state insurance fund, warrants everyone's support.

"There is no need to change patients' rights while this remedy is available," he said.

Mr. Donnelly continued: "Doctors are not closing their doors because of insurance costs. There are the usual retirements, but which of us knows a doctor in this highest paid profession who quits because his deductible insurance premium cost is too much? Notice that when they move, it is to Florida, Arizona or California, where insurance rates are similarly high.

"One Medical Society advertisement, in papers throughout the state cites one case of a Dr. Kane who claims her $14,000 insurance costs $54 per patient visit. Some quick arithmetic discloses that she only has 259 patient visits a year, about 5 a week. She has a full time job as head of a clinic elsewhere. What is she giving up in private practice, one patient visitor a day?

From the single example, unverified, the advertisement would persuade the patient consumer public that "doctors are being lured out of practice." There is "ballooning" for you!

"It is known that through this malpractice insurance obtained for medical societies, millions in insurance brokerage fees are earned. Cannot a proper rate structure be arranged so that a part-time practitioner like Dr. Kane or a doctor just starting his career has a different category premium rating? Would not

Local Firemen Complete Course

Deaths from heart attacks in nine Long Island communities will be reduced because of the dedication of the fifty volunteers who recently completed an Advanced Cardiac Emergency Course, co-sponsored by St. Francis Hospital, Roslyn, and the Vigilant Fire Department, Great Neck.

The 176-hour course, the first on Long Island certified by the New York State Department of Health, enables the paramedics, mostly rescue squad members and police and fire officers, to give emergency medical assistance and pre-hospital cardiac care. This care includes such techniques as: defibrillating victims of cardiac arrest, sending electrocardiograms, starting intravenous solutions, administering drugs under radio instructions from physicians and transmitting telemetry readings to hospital emergency rooms. Rescue squads manned by these AMT graduates will stabilize heart patients at the scene of heart attacks, and will be constant communication through Nassau County's Emergency Service System with cardiologists and emergency personnel at the hospital of destination. Since most fatalities from heart attacks now occur because victims do not get to the hospital in time to receive these life support techniques, the mobilization of paramedics trained in these techniques should certainly reduce heart attack deaths in their communities.

The graduates received their certificates and were honored in ceremonies held recently at the Flower Hill Hose Company in Port Washington. Certificates were presented to the graduates by Sister Joan Kister, F.M.M., administrator of St. Francis Hospital, Course Coordinator Ralph Fliedner, Jr. president of the Vigilant Fire Company, and Course Medical Director Dr.

Eugene Calvelli of the St. Francis Staff.

Dr. Calvelli conducted the medical training with the aid of physicians and nurses from the hospital's emergency room and coronary and intensive care units. The local graduates, all of whom had previously completed a 81 hour emergency medical technician course were:

LETTERS

Instead, Mr. Loiacono was subjected to a petty attack from Board supporters for making what was termed a "political" proposal; and rather than deal with the substance of his proposal, these persons delivered a personal attack.

Mr. Loiacono did not respond in kind to that attack, because he considered the source unworthy of a response. I am writing now, however, because I feel there is a lesson to be learned:

One should not allow his preoccupation with partisanship and bias to blind his recognition of constructive criticisms and viable solutions.

Sincerely,
Lenore Macpherson

Bill Passes

A bill intended to lower prices on brand name and trademarked consumer products passed the New York State Assembly on March 19 by an overwhelming majority.

Assemblyman Lewis J. Yevoli (D-Old Bethpage) said "this bill prohibits the fixing of prices on what have erroneously been called fair trade items. It is designed to give the consumer a long overdue break on prices by lowering the costs of many items." The bill repeals sections of the Feld-Crawford Act commonly known as the Fair Trade Law which has been in effect since the 1930's.

Yevoli said "The Feld-Crawford Act was passed after the Depression to allow small businessmen to compete with giant companies. Through the years it has been abused to a point where both the consumer and the small businessman are at the mercy of the large manufacturers and chain stores. A perfect example is the case where a major manufacturer sells a so called fair trade item like a T.V. to a small businessman who is required to sell the item to the consumer at an inflated fixed price. The same manufacturer can sell the same T.V. set to a major chain who markets the set under their own brand name at a decreased price, completely bypassing the fair trade law. The consumer is unaware of the deception and the small businessman is powerless to do anything about it."

"The old Fair Trade Law has outlived its usefulness," Yevoli said, "and all it has done in the last decade is to create artificially high prices that hurt consumers." The new bill now goes to the State Senate for approval and if it passes that house Governor Carey is expected to sign it into law.

Nassau Downs OTB Continues To Expand

Continuing with its plans to locate additional branch offices in areas already established as part of the business community, officials of Nassau Downs-otb announced today that they are negotiating leases for four additional branch offices and also are presently considering three other locations as potential branch sites.

Nassau Downs-OTB has had an office operating in Hempstead since January 31st and three leases have been signed for branches in Bethpage, Green Acres (Valley Stream) and Island Park.

"All of these 11 branch locations are either in major shopping centers or along the county's major thoroughfares," said Easa Easa, President and General Manager of Nassau Downs. "And all the properties in question are already zoned for business, commercial or industrial use."

"At least three of the potential branch office sites represent alternative locations to those originally proposed and reflect our responsiveness in working with the local community."

The three alternative locations are in Massapequa, where OTB is negotiating for space within the Sunrise Mall Shopping Center as an alternative to its original site on Sunrise Highway; in Levittown, where a decision has been made to locate in the vacant Howard Johnson's on Hempstead Turnpike (the original site had been in the May's Shopping Center); and in Plainview, where various sites in the Plainview Industrial Park are under consideration (Nassau OTB had shown previous interest in locating in a shopping center on South Oyster Bay Road).

opposed to the proposed rezoning as he felt the impact on the community would adversely affect it. Mrs. Kathleen Toombs was additionally opposed to the proposal for the same reason. Both parties stated that the members of the community had not been adequately notified of the hearing.

Supervisor Burke explained that a Public Hearing was unquestionably as indicative of the Democratic Process as anything anyone could imagine. That ample time was given, in the form of notice, to the members of the community to voice their approval or disapproval to the Board either in writing or verbally.

Four other members of the community including Mr. John Anderson and Mr. Peter Milton voiced their approval of the proposed condominium with some qualifications. In closing they concurred, however, that the application for the con-

Patients Aid Society Issues Warnings

Do residents of this area want their legal rights "amputated"? But that is what could happen if a multi-million dollar slush fund campaign being waged by the medical profession in this state achieves its goal.

This warning was sounded today by the 5,900-member non-profit Patients Aid Society, Inc. which pointed out that the State Medical Society has assessed each doctor $100 to promote this $2 million campaign, which takes the form of a barrage of TV and radio commercials, advertisements and full-scale legislative lobbying.

In a statement, James F. Donnelly, Society president, warned that "patients now and patients to be, here and throughout the state, must be alerted to this insidious Madison Avenue huckstering approach that imperils their constitutionally guaranteed rights."

The thrust of this campaign, Mr. Donnelly said, is that the cost of malpractice insurance is sending medical costs "through the roof" and forcing physicians to close their doors.

However, he stressed that some "basic truths" must be examined:

1. Statistics show that no matter what their expenses, the medical profession in this country has by far the greatest net income of any business or profession in the world (insurance premiums are a deductible expense).

2. There has been no untoward increase in malpractice suits in New York. Less than 270 cases of malpractice were placed on New York State Supreme Court calendars last year, by actual count. The figure has remained relatively steady for 5 years or more.

"Rather than rely upon the Medical Society's propaganda, the public should be aware of the federal government statistics that show that New York malpractice claims only rose 3.6 percent from 1948 to 1970, 15th in a list of 25 states audited.

"Of course, the figures of settlement increased. What has not increased during these last ten years? In malpractice settlement, much of what is paid is for the medical and hospital costs incurred due to the doctors' carelessness. Since the health care industry is the sole arbiter of its own costs, its complaints have a hollow ring," Mr. Donnelly said.

He pointed out that every settlement in a malpractice case results from an agreement among the patient, the insurance company who pays it and the doctor, who, while he pays nothing, insists on maintaining the right to approve or disapprove the settlement. Less than 2 percent of all claims go as far as a jury verdict.

Thus, if the insurance company and the non-paying doctor have agreed that the settlements are fair, why do the doctors claim that they gave "ballooned"? Mr. Donnelly asked.

3. There are factors monumentally wrong in the relationship between the medical profession and the insurance industry which pays claims against doctors.

"The insurance company has a virtual monopoly in New York. It charges what it pleases with no regulations and no competition. It bases its charges not on experience but on whimsy," he said.

Mr. Donnelly noted that the present insurer of the bulk of New York physicians (Argonaut of California) collected $78 million in premiums in 1974. After 6 months' experience, during which it paid out $35,000 it announced it was increasing rates by 200 percent. When a hearing was called and its books were to be examined, Argonaut announced its withdrawal. The hearing was strangely cancelled by the Superintendent of Insurance and thus a public inquiry was thwarted.

In the past years, he said the previous monopolistic insurance (Continued on Page 8)

you for doing this.....not only will there no longer be a democracy in Nassau County, but we will have been deprived of any control whatsoever on your expenses. God help us.....and eventually (and sooner that you think) God help you.

The County Legislature which you suggest, would more than triple our County budget for this item as compared to what we have at present, even by your figures and estimates.....and it is my belief that these figures would rise each year, just as rapidly as in Suffolk County, where in less than five years they went from approximately $6,000 a year to $20,000..with more demanded each year, as usual. Let the people vote specifically on such expenditures, as they will in the June 10th referendum.....and then you will see how they feel about such additional layers of government.....you have never spelled out such a plan on any past referendum.....never.

This is a bi-centennial year.....and the old saying rings down through the ages... "Taxation without representation is tyranny".....gentlemen....please, don't permit this to happen.....allow us the privilege of voting in the June 10 referendum.

Dear Mrs. Noeth:
The proposed County Legislative plan now awaiting action by the Board of Supervisors proves once again that the Town of Oyster Bay is Nassau County's stepchild.

While the attempt was obviously made to develop Legislative Districts that would keep many major communities in the Town of Hempstead intact (e.g. Floral Park, Garden City, Freeport, Rockville Center, Wantagh, Seaford), it is equally obvious that no such attempt was made in Oyster Bay.

The map of the County Legislative drawn by the Board of Supervisors rips asunder such cohesive and homogenous communities as Hicksville, Syosset and Plainview/Old Bethpage. The community of Plainedge is entirely divorced from its sister communities in TOBAY and joined in a strange marriage with Wantagh, Seaford and Levittown. Highlighting the County's plan for Oyster Bay is the strangely shaped 12th District, which wanders across our Town along a narrow strip into the Nassau Suffolk line into North Hempstead, and which includes oddly assorted fragments of Woodbury, Syosset, Plainview, Hicksville, Jericho and Westbury.

At the March 24 hearing on the plan, a strong and well-reasoned plea was made by the Greater Plainview Community Association for realignment of Legislative Districts along traditional community lines. No such relief appears to be in sight. Indeed, after the hearing, Hempstead Presiding Supervisor Purcell noted that while some rewarding of lines might be possible to reunify the Five Towns area (Hempstead) and Roslyn (North Hempstead), similar requests respecting realignment of lines dividing Plainview/Old Bethpage and other TOBAY communities would be "impossible" to honor.

Presiding Supervisor Purcell appears to be looking out for the interests of the Town of Hempstead. Presumably Supervisor Tully is looking out for the interests of North Hempstead. It's high time that TOBAY Supervisor Burke raised his voice as well, to ensure that TOBAY and its local communities will have fair representation if the planned County Legislature becomes a reality.

Very truly yours,
Michael Polansky

To the Editor:
I read with great interest the Board Statement released last week. Most interesting was the statement that the Board is considering submitting several alternative budgets "on a one time basis."

Last September when the taxpayers of Hicksville were in the throes of austerity and about to vote on the school budget for the third time, Charles Loiacono proposed the very same plan. The Board is now considering. It was printed in these pages, and Mr. Loiacono spoke to the plan at a September Board meeting.

While I am pleased that the Board has finally seen the wisdom of his proposal, I cannot help but wonder how they came to reconsider. At that September meeting the Board paid no mind to the substance of the proposal.

Social Security

QUES: My mother cancelled her Medicare medical insurance 2 years ago; but would now like to have this protection. Can she re-enroll?
ANS: If she has cancelled her Medicare medical insurance only once, your mother can sign up for the protection during the first 3 months of any year.

QUES: Back in January of this year, I hired a maid. I pay her $15 a week. Do I have to report her wages for social security purposes?
ANS: Yes. People who pay a household worker $50 or more in cash wages in any 3-month calendar quarter must send a report of the wages, along with the social security contributions, to the Internal Revenue Service within one month after the end of the quarter. Wage reports for the first quarter of 1975 are due by April 30, 1975.

QUES: My property was assessed a few months ago and the market value of my home was listed as $24,000. Will this affect my eligibility for supplemental security income payments?
ANS: Under the supplemental security income law, your home is not counted in determining your resources if it has a market value of $25,000 or less ($35,000 or less in Alaska and Hawaii).
