

Movie Premier Crowds Slow Vamps Response

During this past week the premier of the movie "Jaws" has drawn such large crowds of people and traffic that firemen have been delayed getting to the main fire house on E. Marie Street to answer alarms. Movie goers have parked on the ramps of the fire house, or have tied up traffic to the extent that apparatus cannot leave the fire house.

Much of this problem is caused by people stopping in the middle of the street to pick up or discharge passengers. Repeated calls to police have not helped.

How long will this practice be allowed to continue? A delay in response to a fire or rescue call could be fatal. A solution to this problem must be found - and quick - before a life is lost or an accident occurs.

Town and County officials - Take note. Adequate policing of the area is needed. One Police Officer can't

Fire Damages Bar, Ceramics Shop

By Ex. Capt. Owen Magee

An early morning fire caused heavy damage to the Bisque Box Ceramic Shop at 12 W. Marie St. Hicksville. The fire was discovered by a Plainview fireman who was passing by on June 19 at 6:49 AM. A general alarm brought out 8 pieces of apparatus and 65 men under Asst. Chief Roy Schaaf. The fire apparently started in Johns Tavern next door to the Ceramic Shop. The Building which was very old, had metal walls and ceilings. The fire was believed to have been burning for hours within the walls and ceiling before being spotted.

The fire was brought under control in 15 minutes. No injuries were reported. An investigation by the County Fire Marshals office was requested. (See Photos) An early morning fire caused

Fire Report

During this 2 week period Hicksville Vamps responded to 52 alarms. 20 fire calls, 22 rescue calls, and of course the weekly drain of taxpayers money was advanced by 10 malicious false alarms. Most of these turned in during the early morning hours by no doubt the same group of perverted sick individuals. We wish to bring to the attention of all residents an incident which occured on June 21 at 7PM. A youth attempted to cross over the active LIRR tracks with his bicycle when if apparently fell. The bicycle struck the 3rd rail carring 640 volts of electricty. The bike was destroyed, but the youth escaped unharmed. It would be wise to instruct your children to stay clear of the rail road tracks. Once anyone comes in contact with the 3rd rail - its all over you don't get a second chance. over you don't get a second chance.

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John Burke criticized the wording of the bill for causing "a jurisdictional mixup". But he did reassure Mrs. Avallone that he would review the Farmingdale situation and perhaps help with the residents' complaints.

The Board declined to give support to Kessel's proposal, which he claimed, would take the plans "out of the hands of partisan polities". He charged that the Board had been insincere by the voters in early June.

The non-partisan commission which he proposed would have to come up with a complete plan, including salaries, boundary lines and other pertinent matters. The commission would also be charged with holding public hearings.

In emergency action, the Board approved the contract with CSEA County employees, retroactive to January 1.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mrs. Noeth: And now Farmingdale. Nassau OTB's traveling troupe of community wreckers, fresh from stuffing another unwanted betting parlor down the throats of Jericho residents, has moved on Jericio residents, has moved on to Hempstead Turnpike, where the scenario will be repeated again. The legitimate objections of local Farmingdale residents will be ignored, just as in Jericho and Massapequa, and before long OTB will be peddling its wares in the midst of still another residential area.

What is especially interesting is Oyster Bay Councilman Carman's stated opposition to the Farmingdale Betting Parlor. It's relatively safe and easy for Mr. Carman to come out in opposition to something when there's nothing he can do to stop it as the nothing he can do to stop it as the law now stands.

Legislation has been introduced in the Assembly by Assemblyman Lewis Yevoli which would require OTB to file an application with the Town, Village or City where the site for a betting parlor is proposed. The elected officials in these municipalities would then, after holding a formal public hearing. municipatities would then, it is holding a formal public hearing, have the right to approve or deny the application. Until the Yevoli bill becomes law, the people of our Town and County, however outraged they may be over a proposed OTB site, have no place to turn to even get a hearing for their point of view, and the OTB gang will continue to ride roughshod over local communities. Team No. 8 (Meatgrinder) went into the win column for the ninth straight time this past Saturday, after defeating Team No. 6 (Pathmark), a real fine ball club. On the mound for the Meatgrinders were Tom (The Bullet) Callahan and Ron (Right On) Nakashian, a.pair of excellent pitchers, Great offense was supplied by power house Wayne Soderlund, whose smashing triple drove home three runs. Also great hitting: a double by Ron Nakahian, and singles by Tom Callahan, Jim Hughes, Paul Eleniö, Jim Dougherty and Ralph Santantonio. Great defense was supplied by Joe Spinosa, Dan Rivera, Ed Rolston, and George Danko.
Team No. 2 (Coronet Toy) was involved in a close game last Saturday pitched by Scott Gilchrist and Joe O'Connell. Joe also supplied the offense, as he went three for three and drove in Dean Spadaro in the bottom of the sixth, to win the game. Dean also contributed to the attack with two hits of his own. In another game earlier in the week, the heavy bats of Joe Spadaro 6 for 6 (two homeruns, a triple and three singles), Wayne Fisher (four hits, including a homerun) and Jeffrey Knuth with a homerun, supplied all the necessary offense, while Joe Spadaro and Anthony Scibelli combined to pitch a one hit shutout. In doing so, Coronet Toy) has won its division by allowing only a total of ten runs in ten games.

Team No. 8 (Meatgrinder) and Team No. 2 (Coronet Toy) have won their respective divisions. Congratulations to both teams and their managers for a fine season. These two teams will be involved in a playoff to determine a first and second place winner.
On behalf of myself and the boys involved, I would like to thank the managers and coaches for their time and dedication, which resulted in a very successful season. Also, a special word of thanks to those who sponsored our teams.

SENSORY GARDEN...A short introduction to the Sensory Garden in Nassau County's Wantagh Park is inscribed in braille for the benefit of the visually handicapped, who participate in the varied programs offered by the Department of Recreation and Parks at the Garden.

The Sensory Garden, primarily designed for blind adults, features a large collection of plantings, with identifying placques in braille imbedded in the railing in front of the specimens. The path, too, varies in texture, and utilizes cobblestones, concrete, asphalt, and brick surfaces to alert the visitor as to whether the plants are grouped for fragrance, touch, sound, or even taste.

Supervisor Burke adjourned the meeting at 1:35.

The first speaker, at the informal meeting that follows the regular meeting, was Mr. Rocco Mange of Syosset. Mr. Mango spoke out against the construction of the 6 story bank, office building and shopping complex under construction by the L.I. Savings Bank. He had prepared a scaled presentation indicating the absurd relationprepared a scaled presentation indicating the absurd relation-ship of the existing buildings on Jackson Ave, as opposed to the 83 foot building that is intended. He maintained that the relative maintained that the relative surburban, even quaint at-mosphere of Syosset would not only be challenged and invaded but would be blotted out. He maintained that the traffic level maintained that the traint ever at Jackson Ave. and Underwood Blvd. would create an im-passable situation as well as a hazardous conditons for pedestrians. Mr. Mango added various other comments indicating the adverse affect the construction had on the asthetics, health and general safety and environmental conditions and requested that the Board take some form of action to prevent this continuing travesty.

Supervisor Burke listened patiently and then stated that he too was a taxpayer and a resident of Syosset. He too lived in and loved his community and that his home was in close, if not closer, proximity to the construction site that that of Mr. Mango. However, the subject property is in a G. Zone.

Zone.

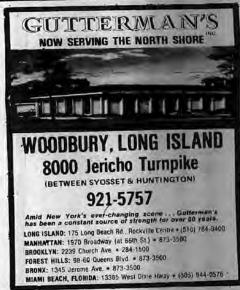

The building ordinance in Syosset, as well as almost every town and hamlel on Long Island, permits under the law, or almilar laws, structures up to 50 feet in height with additional allowances for appurtanances, such as water towers etc. The L. I. Savings Bank seguined or variances or Public. towers etc. The L. I. Savings Bank required ne variances or Public Hearings because their plans and specifications met all local requirements. Supervisor Burke made it quite obvious that he was not pleased with the satuation and stated unequivicably that in his opinion the L.I. Savings Bank has made an inwise and imprudent business dicision.

Mr. Mango was followed by several speakers who spoke out against the proposed construction and beseeched the Board to intervene, they included Joyce Glynn, Beverley Klineberg and others.

Strict Rules For Ice Cream Trucks

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John W. Burke has announced Town Board approval of legislation designed to improve safety conditions for children and other pedestrians who flock around ice cream trucks and similar peddling vehicles. Burke, in announcing the ac-tion, stated that the Town Board acted on an ordinance that was developed by two of its mem-bers, Town Councilman Joseph J. Saladino of Massapequa and Kenneth S. Diamond of Jericho.

It will go into effect July 15th.
Councilman Diamond, who compared similar laws of other municipalities, explained that a major provision of the new law requires that an 18-inch swing arm be extended from the left side of peddling vehicles whenever they are stopped for business. The arms are to be yellow with black lettering, bearing the legend "SLOW --Children Crossing" on both sides, and will be equipped with flashing lights.

"This requirement is equitable," Diamond said, "and many vendors have already begun to make the required physical changes on their vehicles.

"The new law mandates additional lighting and mirrors on peddling vehicles, as well as new restrictions regarding where the vehicles can stop," Diamond noted

The Councilman explained that all vendors are required to do business at curb-side and their vehicles must be stopped (for peddling purposes) at the ex-treme right-hand side of the roadway. Peddling vehicles may not stop within 50' (feet) of any intersection, or on any street where the speed fimit exceeds 30 miles nor hour.
