Pat Doyle Honored

At a meeting on Tuesday, October 14, Mrs. Patricia Doyle, 109 E. Cabot Lane, Westbury was awarded an Honorary Life Membership in the New York State Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The Dutch Lane School PTA presented the award in recognition of Mrs. Doyle's dedicated service to children and youth in the school and community.

This distinguished award was made possible through a contribution by the Dutch Lane PTA to the New York State PTA Jenkins Memorial Scholarship Fund, and the Teachers Fellowship Fund. Contributions to these funds enable the New York State PTA to provide scholarships to students entering college with an education major. And Fellowship to teachers enrolled in summer study programs.

This award, an honorary one, is given in recognition of recipient's involvement in PTA affairs. Pat Doyle has been an active member of the Dutch Lane P.T.A. for 18 years and has held various executive posts including President for 2 years. In the past she was a Den Mother in our Cub Scout Troop and a great help to our Boy Scouts. Mrs. Doyle has volunteered above and beyond the call of duty for innumerable organizations and committees. She is currently the chairlady of the Bicentennial Committee of the Dutch Lane P.T.A. Her other activities include being on the Hicksville P.T.A. Council and being an executive officer of the Hicksville Citizens for Better Education. She is also a lay teacher at Confraternity at Holy Family Church in Hicksville.

Doris Gottlieb Honored

At a meeting on Tuesday, October 14 Mrs. Doris Gottlieb, 4 Boulevard Dr., Hicksville was awarded an Honorary Life Membership in the New York State Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The Dutch Lane School PTA presented the award in recognition of Mrs. Gottlieb's dedicated service to children and youth in the school and community.

This distinguished award was made possible through a contribution by the Dutch Lane PTA to the New York State PTA Jenkins Memorial Scholarship Fund, and the Teacher Fellowship Fund. Contributions to these funds enable the New York State PTA to provide scholarships to students entering college with an education major. And Fellowship to teachers enrolled in summer study programs.

This award, an honorary one, is given in recognition of recipient's involvement in PTA affairs. Doris Gottlieb is the Dutch Lane School secretary. She is the indispensable "Gal Friday" to the P.T.A. In addition to all the secretarial chores she does for the Dutch Lane School and its staff, she helps with all the P.T.A. paper work, too. Over the years she has done typing, stenciling, mimeographing, collating, and mailing for our organization. She supports all our fund-raising activities and lends a helping hand whenever asked. She has immeasurable patience with all the children and the parents who descend upon her in her office, as well as all of us from P.T.A. We thank her for all her time and efforts.

The very active Cub Scout Pack 683 at Willet Avenue School, Hicksville, recently staged a most successful recruitment drive. In order that publicity might reach all eligible boys, a display of the Pack's awards and projects, with many pictures of their past activities, was set up in the school's Media Center.

Here Todd and Leon Maufroy, Stephen Gurny, and Danny Dennerlein discuss plans for this year. Stephen generously loaned his uniform for this display.

Once Must Enforce Sabbath Laws

Nassau County Police Commissioner Louis J. Frank has reiterated the department's historic policy of enforcing the Sabbath laws and its determination to continue to do so until they are amended by the Legislature.

The Commissioner said the Department has "no choice but to continue" its general policy of Sabbath Law Enforcement.

"Any attempt by us to pick and choose what laws should be enforced and what laws should not be enforced would strike a dangerous blow at the heart of our constitutional system of government," Frank stated.

Commissioner Frank contended that the Police Department cannot "sit in review" of the authority and discretion of the legislature or the judiciary.

The Commissioner continued that the Department's general enforcement policy would continue and would, as previously, be based upon citizen complaints, previously open advertised violations, and eye witness observations of police officers.

He said, "This degree of enforcement is consistent with our general enforcement policies."

Until the laws are changed or they are ruled unconstitutional, these policies will remain in effect and will continue to be enforced in a fair and reasonable manner, the Commissioner added.

"We must adhere to our solemn oath of office to enforce all valid laws and ordinances," the Commissioner concluded, "until such time as a legislature amends the Sabbath Laws, or an authoritative appellate court again rules on their validity. The citizens of Nassau County can expect no more of us than this and we will provide no less."

He said, "We have neither the right nor the power to ignore legislative mandates or the generally unanimous opinions of generations of judges who have sustained the validity of the Sabbath Laws."

The Commissioner pointed out that as recently as three years ago the Court of Appeals unanimously (7-0) upheld the constitutionality of Sabbath Laws and decreed the Legislature is the proper branch of government to change them.

Mission Accomplished

November 3 will be a very special day in the Cherry household on Summer Lane in Hicksville. On that day, Mary Cherry will graduate from the Nassau County BOCES LPN Course. She went back to school last fall after raising a family of seven children.

This will be the fulfillment of a lifelong dream for Mary, who also has three grandchildren and another on the way. Her oldest daughter, Ann, is a Registered Nurse and her second oldest daughter, Mary, is an LPN. "She has worked hard and long for this," said her husband Francis, beaming proudly, "and all my children and myself say congratulations and a job well done."

Besides attending classes for the past year, Mary has worked in several hospitals in Nassau and Suffolk as part of her training. She will take her State Board exams in the spring of next year.

Endorse Clark

The Nassau Policemen's Benevolent Association has announced the endorsement of Thomas L. Clark (Republican-Conservative) for election in the 4th Legislative District.

News of the endorsement came from PBA president Danny Greenwald following an open political forum last week.

Clark, the former president of the Hicksville School Board, said he welcomed the PBA support. "I think we are operating on the same wave length," Clarke said.

Political Program

Ballot issues slated for the November vote will be discussed at a program at the Hicksville Public Library on Tuesday, October 28 at 8 p.m. A representative of the League of Women Voters of Nassau County will be the speaker.

The 90-minute program will consider the pros and cons of such topics as the Equal Rights Amendment of New York State, the Nassau County Legislature, Judicial reform amendments and other state amendments. Ample time will be allowed for questions.

The program is cosponsored by the library, the League of Women Voters and the Nassau Library system.

Scouters Receive Silver Beaver

The several leaders in the Nassau County Council, Boy Scouts of America were singularly honored at the Council's Annual Recognition Dinner held at the New Hyde Park Inn, on Tuesday, October 21st.

The Silver Beaver is the highest Award within the bestowal of a Local Boy Scout Council and is presented for Distinguished Service to boyhood.

Among those who received this honor were: Siegfried Widder of 191 1st. Street, Hicksville, and Grant Wright of 349 Sylvan Lane, Westbury.

Lee Ave. News

The Lee Ave. P.T.A. will hold its annual Election Day Cake Sale on Tues., Nov. 4, in the Lee Ave. School hallway.

The P.T.A. is also holding a "Father and Daughter Square Dance" on Wed., Oct. 29, at 7:30 p.m. Admission is $1.00 for escorts and $.75 for the girls. A raffle will be held and refreshments will be served.

Meet The Teacher

The Woodland Avenue School is having "MEET THE TEACHERS" night on Tuesday, October 28th at 8:15 PM for the parents with children in grades 4 through 6.

Coffee and cake will be served about 9:30 PM by the Woodland Avenue School PTA.

"Please come and meet the teachers your children tell you about," urged a PTA spokesman.

REASSIGNED: At a ceremony held recently in the Sheriff's Office in Mineola, Correction Officer Joseph P. Jablonsky was reassigned to the new Nassau County Work Release Facility as assistant to the Director. Work release is an innovative program, the first in the state which enables inmates to leave in the morning for their employment outside the facility and return in the evening, thereby contributing to their own support and that of their families. They also pay the County $35 a week for their room and board.

Nassau OTB Is In The Black

The president of Nassau Downs-OTB, Easa Easa, announced today that the county's off-track betting corporation is now operating in the black, six months ahead of schedule.

Easa said he would buttress this news with an additional check of $750,000 to be delivered to County Executive Ralph G. Caso later this week in total repayment of the $1.5 million in start-up money funded by the county. Repayment of the county's loan was not anticipated until 1976.

The OTB head has some other good news for the Caso administration and county taxpayers:

"In addition to repayment of the $1.5 million loan, Nassau County can also count on Nassau Downs for revenue of $1,250,000 by December 31st of this year," Easa said.

He added that $500,000 of the revenue will be operating profit for the final quarter of 1975 and approximately $750,000 will be surcharge money.

The feasibility study approved by New York State did not project Nassau Downs would reach the black ink stage until the conclusion of the first quarter of 1976. Nassau Downs, now operating with seven branches with the recent addition of a branch in the Sunrise Mall, Massapequa, is closing in on the $19-million mark in net handle since leaving the starting gate last January 31st, and anticipates reaching its feasibility projection of $28 million this year.

Easa also reaffirmed a statement he made in July, when he told Caso that Nassau Downs projects $4.6 million in revenue for 1976 with $3 million coming from profit on operations as well as $1.6 million in surcharge revenue.

REPAYMENT . . . Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso accepts a check for $750,000 from Easa Easa of West Hempstead, president of Nassau Downs, in final payment of a $1.5 million loan the OTB administration received from the County. Presentation was made at the OTB Headquarters in Hempstead.

County Legislative Candidates In Three Districts

First District

Syosset and Woodbury

PHILIP BARASH
LIBERAL

Philip Barash of Roslyn Harbor is the Liberal Candidate for the First Legislative District. He is a graduate of New York University, Washington Square College of Arts and Sciences. He is a US Army veteran of the Korean War. A management consultant, he is also active in many community affairs, including educational advisory boards, scouting and Little League.

On the proposed legislature he stated:

"The new legislature is going to make some changes. That is what it is for; and it can become a good way to redirect some of the very costly practices that have been going on in our county, providing that you don't go out and elect the same-controlled political people that have been doing all that, which is why I am running in the first place. You see, there is just no such thing as it being right just because it has always been done that way.

"This new county legislature will have the power to arrive at county-wide decisions on many issues that have been hanging in limbo for years; pollution, water supply, waterfront use, waste disposal, intercounty transportation, a unified plan for future growth in the industrial, business, multiple and single dwelling, and government property sectors, to name just a few. We must obtain dedicated people to fill this new legislature; it would be a pity to fill it with the same politicians and their old tired promises.

"The new legislature should examine every existing way of doing things, with an eye toward genuine improvement. No area should be hollowed, even if that means putting limits on the vast patronage system; to just single out one place where a political leader is most vulnerable. Our system of government is what we make it, either when we decide to pay attention, or if we decide to ignore what makes it tick. Change, is in the wind. A step forward is now possible."

JOHN BOGUT
REPUBLICAN

John Bogut of Syosset, is an experienced practitioner who has served as a counsel to Oyster Bay's State Senator Ralph J. Marino for the past five years. He is also a lecturer on the operation of the New York State Legislature at Taft Institute of the State University of New York.

Bogut's early background was in real estate where he derived expertise as a title insurance attorney. His real property experience led to his appointment in 1972 as chief counsel to the Temporary State Commission on Tax Liens and Mortgage Frauds instrumental in protecting homeowners' rights on Long Island.

Prior to that appointment, he served as a counsel to the Senate Committee on Towns and Counties and the Joint Legislative Committee on Local Government and has coordinated state legislation for its three townships, two cities and local villages. He currently serves Senator Marino as counsel to the Senate Committee on Crime and Correction and was responsible for organizing last winter's highly publicized hearings into conditions at county jails throughout New York State.

Born in 1937, the candidate is a graduate of St. John's University, Minnesota, where he won an award as Distinguished Military Graduate. After serving in the U.S. Army, he attended St. John's University, Brooklyn, N.Y., where he received his law degree in 1964.

Bogut has practiced law in Hicksville for the past 10 years and is a partner in the law firm of Saltzman & Bogut at 120 West Old Country Road. A member of the Nassau County Bar Association, he received an Outstanding Service Award in 1970 for his volunteer efforts as a Nassau County public defender. He won a second tribute in 1970, the Kiwanis International Award, for his distinguished service as first president of the Oyster Bay Kiwanis Club.

Mr. Bogut stated:

"Budget crunches and fiscal crises on local, state and national levels have marked 1975 as a turning point in our history. Soaring inflation has set up major reverberations, if not shock waves, through every unit of government as well as every family's budget.

"More than ever, 1976 will be no time for on-the-job training of public officials. The people we elect to office must have the background and experience to go to work directly on policy and not fritter away chunks of time attempting to learn about the basic forms and responsibilities of government. I believe we have those responsible, experienced candidates in the Republicans who represent our Towns on the Nassau County Board of Supervisors.

"If, however, the voters approve a Nassau County Legislature, I am prepared to represent the 1st District. For the past five years, I have served as counsel to State Senator Ralph J. Marino. In my capacity as legislative draftsman for the Senate Committee on Towns and Counties and the Joint Legislative Committee on Local Government, I dealt on a daily basis with the complexities, interrelationships and financing of local governments. I am ready to go to work.

"The biggest job ahead will be to reassess priorities in the changed economic climate. With the largest proportion of rising local costs mandated by State and Federal Governments, we have got to cushion the tax blow on our citizens. We must enhance our tax base by attracting more and diversified industry. We must scrutinize budgets and hold the line on spending! We must have vigilant leadership to assure that local interests are safeguarded on State and Federal levels. And we must readjust our programs to accommodate expanding Senior Citizen population.

Employment: Nassau has one of the richest labor pools in the country. By encouraging the expansion of business and industry, we will be increasing employment and keeping our vast middle class stable.

Transportation: Massive transportation proposals are too costly and unrealistic. Priorities must be concentrated on moving workers to their jobs. Focused mini-bus service must continue to be explored to keep the economy flowing. I strongly oppose a Long Island Sound bridge crossing in Nassau on environmental grounds. With Nassau a highly developed business community, a bridge would invite outsiders north of us to raid our job market without the obligation of paying their share of taxes.

Local Government: Recent history has proved the folly of super-government in terms of cost and effectiveness. Large city, state and federal programs are being dismantled in favor of decentralizing power. Local government, by contrast, remains as vital and responsive as ever. My job as County Legislator will be to safeguard home rule and serve as a liaison with our villages and towns.

DANIEL MOONEY
DEMOCRAT

Daniel C. Mooney of Locust Valley is the Democratic candidate for the newly created Nassau County Legislature from the First Legislative District.

A native Long Islander, Dan is a resident of Locust Valley where he lives with his wife and infant son. He is an associate in the law firm of Parnet & Epstein, Esqs., in Jericho. Coincidentally, therefore, he both lives and works in the district he hopes to serve.

A graduate of Niagara University where he majored in Philosophy, he also studied Theology for four years at Our Lady of Angel Seminary in Albany, New York. From 1966 to 1970, he served as associate pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic Church in Great Neck, during which time he became active in community affairs and earned an enduring reputation for integrity and courage.

From 1970 until 1973, Dan attended, as a member of the charter class, the Hofstra University School of Law. During his law school career, he was employed by the Nassau County Probation Department and assisted in establishing a law student volunteer program for the department's bail program. He has also spent a great deal of time as a volunteer in the Appalachian Mountains of eastern Kentucky and as a co-ordinator of volunteers for projects in that area. For two years, he was Vice-President of the Great Neck-Manhasset Economic Opportunity Council and also Vice-President of the Association of Rabbis, Priests and Ministers of Great Neck in 1969-1970. At present, he is a member of St. Gertrude's parish, Bayville, the Nassau County Bar Association, Treasurer of the Hofstra University School of Law Alumni Association, and a member of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Mr. Mooney gave as his reasons for running his belief that people are tired of the stereotyped candidate and are looking more for a public servant than a politician, and he believes that he fits this image.

Third District

Plainview and Old Bethpage
SALVATORE NICOSIA
REPUBLICAN CONSERVATIVE

Salvatore J. Nicosia of Farmingdale has been nominated to run for the proposed Nassau County Legislature as the Republican Conservative candidate from the Third District, which covers Plainview, Bethpage, Old Bethpage, Farmingdale and areas of Plainville and South Farmingdale.

In accepting the nomination, Nicosia, an attorney, vowed to present a direct campaign aimed at informing voters in the proposed district exactly what the court-ordered legislative form of county government will mean to them.

"I enter this campaign to win," Nicosia said, "but I have no intention of trying to convince the voters that a 15-member Legislature is in their best interest. The present Board of Supervisors has served Nassau residents well and at a cost far below what a new 15-member body will cost."

Nicosia said, however, that "if Nassau residents in their wisdom approve a County Legislature, I want to serve them."

Nicosia said: "I feel I am well qualified to serve the people of this district. I know our area well and I am dedicated to preserving the suburban interests of our County."

Nicosia and his wife, Barbara, and their two children, live in Farmingdale, where he graduated from Farmingdale High School in 1954. He was graduated from St. John's University School of Commerce in 1959, and from St. John's Law School in 1962.

He is commissioner of the Town of Oyster Bay Housing Authority, a past president of the Farmingdale Rotary Club, an active member of the Farmingdale Knights of Columbus Council and is active in community affairs.

Fourth District
Hicksville and Jericho

THOMAS CLARK
REPUBLICAN CONSERVATIVE

Thomas L. Clark, former president of the Hicksville School Board, has been named by the Republican and Conservative parties as their candidate for the proposed Nassau County Legislature, 4th District.

The 18-year-old Hicksville father of seven (with one on the way) is seeking to represent an area that extends southward from Jericho Turnpike, Jericho, to Hempstead Turnpike, Levittown.

Clark, an IBM employee, is no stranger among those active in community affairs. He served on the Hicksville School Board from 1970 through 1973, the final year as president of the board. He also serves as president of the Hicksville Youth Council.

A former Brooklyn College student, Mr. Clark has also taught religious education in the confraternity program at St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Hicksville, where he is a member of the Parish Council.

In 1966 he was treasurer and one of the founders of the Hicksville Conservative Club. He has twice represented that party in campaigns for public office, running for the New York State Assembly in 1966 and 1973.

The candidate is also a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Knights of Columbus and was co-chairman of the CYO journal, 1974-75.

Mr. Clark is in concurrence with many in support of the existing Board of Supervisors as the most economical and responsive form of government for Nassau County. "But," he adds, "the voters are the ones who will decide that issue. If they determine a county legislature will best represent them, despite its high cost, I feel I have the qualities and background to reflect their needs and desires as a legislator."

STANLEY F. MELTZER
DEMOCRAT

Stanley F. Meltzer is the Democratic candidate for Nassau County Legislature from the Fourth district, which includes Hicksville. Mr. Meltzer was a candidate for the State Assembly in 1972, recording the highest vote received by a Democrat in the 14th Assembly District. He is a practicing attorney, married, with two children enrolled in Burns Ave. elementary school in Hicksville. Stan has been a Hicksville resident since 1968.

Stanley Meltzer had served as campaign manager for Judge Francis J. Donovan's campaign for Supervisor until nominated by the Democratic Party to run for the legislative seat. Now they are working side by side in an attempt to bring new life to our town and county governments to bring a 15-man Nassau County Legislature into being, and rejuvenate Hicksville while working to keep its suburban character.

"This can be done by voting 'NO' on Proposition One, 'YES' on Proposition Two, and by voting for Meltzer rather than as opponent pledged to the same system," said a spokesman for Meltzer.

In addition to his involvement in politics and his active law practice, Stan Meltzer is a member of the Board of Directors of the H.A.D. program, a member of the Hicksville Citizens for Better Education, and has participated in community opposition to hazardous commercial down-zonings in our town.

Dear Friends. . .

THIS WEEK we bring you the material that has been sent to us for this purpose from the candidates for the proposed County Legislature. Next week, we will present material that is sent us, on the candidates from Our Township, and the judgeships, plus as much as possible, the material available on the propositions upon which you will be privileged to vote on Nov. 4.

Last week I spent in Seattle, Washington, visiting my older half-sister. This is the fourth visit to Seattle I have made in the past two years, and I must say it is a very beautiful part of this great country! If you ever get a chance to visit this area, don't pass it up....you'll really enjoy it, as you will enjoy the people, too. They are all very friendly. Much is being done in the City of Seattle to restore the downtown areas, keeping the exterior of the buildings as they were, and modernizing the interiors. It seems to be most successful. Also, the area reminds me of my own beloved Long Island....for they have Puget Sound, Lake Union, Lake Washington, and many beautiful islands for homes both permanent and vacation....also many people have boats, just as many of our residents do. In fact, all they have that we don't have, are many beautiful hills and mountains. Also, I must admit, they have some particular magic that prevents anyone from littering.... I don't know what they do, but even one lonely piece of litter is astonishing to see. I wish we had their formula for success in this area. But all in all, we are very similar. My original visits to Seattle were because my sister wasn't well. She is much improved now, with a great spirit for someone who has recently passed her 80th birthday....so now, she is feeling so much better that when I visit, I have a job keeping up with her....but it is always a pleasure.

That's all for this week. Stay well and remember the old saying, "Democracy is a system under which a fellow who didn't vote can spend the rest of the year kicking about the candidates the other fellow elected." So, don't forget to get all the information possible in advance, and then, VOTE on election day.

SHEILA

The Eisenhower Park Turkey Trot starts at 1 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 23, rain or shine, and will be run off on the park's cross country course, beginning near the roller rink (parking field No.

4). Boys and girls age 14-15 will compete separately over a one-mile course; boys 16-18 will race two miles, and men 19 and over, three miles. Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

In fairness to the person named, please permit me to respond to the letter from James Maloney (whose failure to provide an address precludes our answering directly) relative to the appointment of Mrs. Ruth Jacobson to the position of Reading Consultant in the Hicksville Public Schools. Since there is no specific certificate issued by The State Education Department for a Reading Consultant (see, "Areas of School Services for Which Certificates Are Issued", September 1974), and since the position does not include any supervisory or administrative authority or responsibility, according to Mr. Paul Dupuis of the Regional Office of The State Education Department, Mrs. Jacobson may serve legitimately as a Reading Consultant on her permanent certificate as Teacher of Nursery, Kindergarten and Grades 1-6. I trust this letter sets the record straight.

Very truly yours,
Erwin Kozran
Assistant Superintendent,
Hicksville School District

To The Editor:

Unquestionably, the most pressing issue facing Townspeople and Town government alike is the shrinking value of the dollar in a time of skyrocketing costs. The homemaker's weekly food budget purchases fewer items at the supermarket, meaning more meatless meals, cheaper cuts of meat and only an occasional dessert.

Specific measures have been taken by the Town to assure the continuation of those services essential to maintaining the quality of established neighborhoods without increasing the costs to those who live in these communities. Self-restraint and "belt-tightening" have become the watchwords of Town government.

This has meant a department-by-department streamlining of operations to achieve increased efficiency. A freeze on all but the most essential jobs has enabled us to decrease the payroll for the coming year by more than 40 positions through normal attrition without laying off a single individual.

The result: a 1976 Town budget that reflects no increase in the General Fund, Highway and Part-Town taxes next year.

Through our judicious and prudent fiscal policies, the Town easily sold its municipal bonds at reasonable rates of interest to finance our carefully conceived, long-range capital improvements program. This long-range planning is a key factor in our ability to continue to carry out local improvement projects throughout the Town that will maintain and enhance the quality of life we enjoy in the Town of Oyster Bay.

Fiscal stability, careful planning and effective leadership are the cornerstones of responsive government and will continue to be the guiding principles of this administration.

Dear Friends:

The Gregory Museum will hold its annual "Attic Treasure Sale" on November 8th and 9th at the American Legion Hall, 24 Nicholas Street, Hicksville.

Since the Museum is recognized by New York State as an educational institution, but is not subsidized by tax dollars, continuous fund raising events are necessary to maintain its educational and cultural activities.

The "Attic Treasure Sale" is one of our best fund raisers, but its success is entirely dependent on merchandise donated by friends and supporters. We need all types of salable goods - china, bric-a-brac, tools, clocks, books, jewelry, picture frames, small appliances and furniture.

In the past we were very fortunate in acquiring a fine selection of antiques, silver, and art as well.

The value of your contribution is tax deductible. Leave your name and address for an official receipt.

Please think about our needs and call 822-7505 to arrange for delivery or pick up of your donation.

The Gregory Museum is an important part of your community, and Hicksville's only accredited National Historic Place.

It needs your support.

Sincerely,
THE GREGORY MUSEUM

Dear Editor:

The League of Women Voters was founded in the struggle for women's suffrage, and one of its main concerns has always been equality of opportunity under law for all people. Thus, it is hardly surprising that the League has taken the forefront in the New York State campaign for ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment.

While it's true that there are a number of laws on the books prohibiting discrimination because of sex, the League believes these laws are simply not enough. Exceptions and exclusions to coverage are written into these laws, and they are susceptible to repeal or further weakening by amendment. In a Constitutional Government such as ours, we look to the Constitution for guarantees of rights and privileges. And any group that cannot point to Constitutional protection is, almost by definition, a group of second class citizens.

Passage of the 14th Amendment to the Federal Constitution in 1868 did not gain for women full rights under the law. An 1874 Supreme Court decision ruled that women were not entitled to all the "privileges and immunities" conferred upon citizens by the 14th Amendment. The very fact that an additional amendment—the 20th—was required to give women the vote demonstrates that the earlier provision did not grant women complete equality with men.

If passed on November 4th, the State Equal Rights Amendment goes into effect January 1, 1976. It seems fitting that the people of New York will thus be able to celebrate the Bicentennial by affirming their belief that "all people are created equal."

Career Awareness

Mrs. Wade's kindergarten classes in Dutch Lane School are studying Career Awareness. In conjunction with this she has taken her children on three field trips recently. The first was to the Pumpkin Farm in Brookville where the children saw corn, apples, pumpkins, and even got to sit on a tractor.

The next visits were to places of indoor careers. At the Carvel store on Old Country Road in Hicksville the manager, Hans, showed the children the ice-cream-making machine and explained a little about it. He gave each child a cup of Carvel when the visit was over.

After the dairy experience Mrs. Wade took the classes to Patsy's Pizzeria on Old Country Road so that the children could observe the pizza-making career. Itaip, the chef, showed how he makes the dough from all the different ingredients, how he forms the crust, and then creates the pizza. The children each sampled his product, too.

The children send their thanks to these local merchants for serving them.

The County Propositions - A 1975 Campaign Issue

What It's All About!

On election Day, Nassau County voters will have an opportunity to choose between two constitutional plans for county government. Voters will be able to vote 'Yes' or 'No' on both plans. These are:

NASSAU COUNTY PROPOSITION NUMBER ONE — Board of Supervisors with Weighted Voting: "Shall a Local Law to keep the present six-member Board of Supervisors, changing only the weight of their votes, be approved?"

NASSAU COUNTY PROPOSITION NUMBER TWO — Fifteen District County Legislature: "Shall a Local Law to establish, in place and instead of the present Board of Supervisors, a new County Legislature consisting of 15 legislators, one to be elected from each county legislative district, be approved?"

WHAT HAPPENS IF BOTH PLANS ARE REJECTED BY THE VOTERS? —

If voters reject both county propositions at the polls, the courts will IMPOSE the 15-member County Legislature in Nassau in January. Candidates for seats in the proposed legislature are already on the ballot to cover this eventuality.

WHAT HAPPENS IF BOTH PLANS PASS? — If both county propositions receive more 'YES' votes than 'NO' votes, the plan receiving the most 'Yes' votes wins.

WHAT HAPPENS IF THE PLAN TO KEEP THE SUPERVISORS WINS? — If County Proposition No. 1 (the plan to keep the Board of Supervisors) wins on Election Day, a 6-member Board will continue to function as the legislative branch of county government. Candidates elected to the County Legislature on Nov. 4th will not take office, since that governmental body will not exist.

WHAT HAPPENS IF THE COUNTY LEGISLATURE PLAN WINS? — If County Proposition No. 2 (the Legislature plan) wins on Election Day, a 15-member Legislature will replace the 6-member Board of Supervisors. The newly-elected legislators would take office in January, but another election would be held in April. Town Supervisors would continue to serve as Supervisors in Town government only. The City of Long Beach would lose its Supervisor, and in Glen Cove the Mayor would no longer serve additionally as a county government official.

WHAT DOES 'WEIGHTED VOTING' MEAN? — The term 'weighted voting' refers to the legislative system which allocates a varying number of votes to each member of the Board of Supervisors according to the population of the township city each represents. This system, as embodied in Nassau County Proposition No. 1, has been declared constitutional by the State's highest court, and does not violate the U.S. Supreme Court's "one man, one vote", edict. (State Court of Appeals, Franklin v. Krause, 1973). In other words, this system as proposed in Proposition No. one, will represent all our County fairly by population.

Building Trades Council Opposes County Legislature

The 50,000 member Nassau-Suffolk Building and Construction Trades Council announced today their endorsement of Oyster Bay Supervisor John W. Burke.

The announcement was made by David Richardson, Secretary-Treasurer of the powerful Trades Council, following a meeting at the Council's headquarters in Westbury.

The influential labor council, in addition, announced its support of Nassau County Proposition Number One, to keep the present six-member Board of Supervisors.

In announcing the Council's support of the present system of government in Nassau, Richardson said that it has been the Council's experience that the bigger the body of government, the less efficient the government. "We'll never get anything done with a 15-member County Legislature," Richardson said. "The present system is working just fine and we should keep it."

Richardson said that there is a high rate of unemployment among the working man of Long Island and the working man cannot afford the additional costs of this new government.

"We are urging all our members who live in Nassau County to work to keep the present six-member Board of Supervisors and defeat the proposed 15-member County Legislature," he explained. "And the only way to do this is to vote 'yes' on County Proposition One and 'no' on County Proposition Two. If both County Propositions are voted down, we understand that the courts will impose the 15 member legislature in January."

That's why a "yes" on Proposition One and a "no" on Proposition Two are important."

Mental Health Budget Hearing

Commissioner Isidore Shapiro announced that the Nassau County Department of Mental Health will hold a public hearing on the department's 1976 county plan and budget, on Thursday, November 13th, at 1:00 p.m., in the Board of Supervisors meeting room, on the 5th floor of the County Executive Building, 1 West Street, Mineola.

The hearing, which will provide a public forum for the examination of the department's 1976 planning document for the delivery of mental health, retardation and alcoholism services in Nassau County, will be co-chaired by Dr. Henry Brill, regional director of the New York State Department of Mental Hygiene.

Conservatives Oppose A County Legislature

The Executive Committee of the Nassau County Conservative Party voted unanimously at a regular meeting, to oppose the establishment of a County Legislature to be voted on in November in a Proposition to be presented to the voters. In opposing the legislature the committee cited the high costs involved in maintaining the legislature, the ultimate threat to the local town governments, and the imposition of the legislative plan on the County by judicial fiat instead of through the elected legislative body and the voting public as intended under state law.

In announcing the Conservative's decision to oppose the proposed legislature, Chairman John J. O'Leary said, "The party agrees with the concept of district representation by the voters in their local government but this plan should be put into effect on a town level rather than by imposing on the taxpayer another layer of costly and unnecessary government."

"Conservatives have always maintained that the more responsive units of government are those closest to the people which in Nassau County would be our village and town governments. The election of Town Councilmen by councilmanic districts rather than at large throughout the town would give the voters the local representation they desire and would strengthen our town governments."

"The establishment of a County Legislature and the 'empire building' associated with this form of government will inevitably lead to a pre-empting by the County of those powers presently resting with the Towns. We need only look at neighboring New York City, where the Borough governments have been stripped of almost all powers, to gauge the results of government a level removed from the voter."

"The County Board of Supervisors, having a vested interest in maintaining the Towns as strong, independent, governmental entities, offer at present the best assurance of keeping government closer to the people. Until such time that the Towns can be absolutely assured of maintaining their rightful place in the governmental sphere, the Conservative Party will oppose any radical changes to our County charter intended to destroy 'home rule'."

Ice Hockey Season Opens On Nov. 3

The Town of Oyster Bay will mark the opening of its tenth annual ice hockey season with "Face-Off Night" at the Plainview-Old Bethpage High School auditorium on Monday, November 3, beginning at 8 P.M., it was announced this week by Town Supervisor John W. Burke.

In a program headed by Town officials, the coaches and assistants of the more than 40 Tobay League and All-Star teams will be introduced to the players and their families. Burke noted that a special guest of the evening will be Bill Chadwick, a former National Hockey League referee and a member of the National Hockey League Hall of Fame and the United States Hall of Fame. Films of the 1975 Stanley Cup play-offs between the New York Islanders and the Philadelphia Flyers will also be shown.

Today's ice hockey program, which is sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation, is the largest of its kind on Long Island. Founded in 1966 with about 250 players and 18 teams, Burke said the program has expanded to more than 40 teams and triple the membership. League Commissioner, Charles Millner of Plainview, directs a staff of 50 coaches, referees and league officials. The

CYO Sports Soccer News

On Monday Oct. 13 the St. Ignatius Midgets played St. Aiden's Frayers (East Williston). The St. Ignatius team lead the scoring of Pat Cullen 2 goals, Bob Cunningham 1 goal and John Rogers 1 goal assisted by Pat Cullen and a good defense by the team helped the St. Ignatius team to keep their record undefeated.

Lack of Support

The St. Ignatius CYO has four traveling team two of which are undefeated and the other two are still fighting for a chance to win in their respective divisions. The players and the coaches who are out there trying their best to win and become champs of the Nassau County CYO soccer league. One thing that is disappointing to the players and their coaches is the lack of support from the St. Ignatius fans. It is disappointing to be out on the field and hear all the cheering and look to the side lines and find it is coming from the fans of the other teams. The St. Ignatius cheerleaders are there and they also would like to be able to lead a bigger crowd in support of their teams to help them to victory. Most of the games are played on weekends either at Marydale (Melville) or Eisenhower Park field No. 1. So come on you St. Ignatius fans let's get out and help our teams to victory and show them that we are behind them all the way.

NEW MOTORCYCLE APPEALS

ECONOMY CYCLE—Students, businessmen, commuters are finding that motorcycles like the Kawasaki KZ-400D, which averages between 45 and 55 miles per gallon, are an efficient way of meeting their transportation needs.

The first of a new generation of motorcycles designed for economical operation by first-time riders is now being produced in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Lincoln is the site of the Kawasaki Motors Corporation/U.S. assembly and manufacturing plant, where more than 200 workers are turning out the KZ-400D.

This model, according to one leading motorcycle enthusiast publication, is the "Volkswagen" of motorcycles. A 400cc four stroke, two cylinder engine, produces enough power for extended cruising at freeway speeds, yet offers excellent in-traffic handling ability as well.

According to a company spokesman, "The KZ-400D was designed with the first-time rider in mind. Items requiring regular maintenance are easily accessible to even novice cycle riders."

Kawasaki says that it is a "total" economy motorcycle, averaging between 45 and 55 miles per gallon of regular gas.

The KZ-400D can be found at Mid-Island Kawasaki in Hicksville.

WITCHES AND GOBLINS fill the air at Trinity Nursery School, 40 West Nicholas Street in Hicksville.

Commended Students At Holy Trinity

Fourteen Seniors at Holy Trinity High School, Hicksville have been named Commended Students in the Merit Program by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC).

Principal, Reverend John C. Seidenschwang, announced that the following students received letters of Commendation:

Atchison, Mark C.; Blair, James V.; Butler, Donald; Delaney, John M.; Dominguez, Anthony J.; Ficker, Mary Ann; Grteeene, Daniel; Harrigan, Maura; Jordan, Peter R.; Junod, Thomas C.; Kelly, Eileen M.; Kennedy, Michael F.; Pagnotta, Michael J. and Scott, Mary E.

These students are among the 35,000 commended students named nationwide on the basis of their high performance on the 1974 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test National Merit Scholarship qualifying Test (PSAT NMSQT). Commended students represent less than 2 percent of those who are expected to graduate from High School in 1976. Although commended students ranked high on the PSAT NMSQT, they do not continue in the Merit Scholarship competition because their scores were just below those of the 15,000 semi-finalists publicly announced by NMSC in September.

To increase their opportunities for College, NMSC reports the Commended Students' names to the Regionally accredited U. S. Colleges they named as their first and second choices when they took the PSAT NMSQT in October 1974.

Free Course On Christian Basics

A free 15-Week Course on the basic teachings of Christianity will begin Wednesday, October 29th, at 8:00 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church, 40 West Nicholas Street in Hicksville. The course will meet in the gymnasium to handle the large number of participants.

"By the eighth or ninth week we expect participants to respond like the fellow in the Mennan Skin Bracer commercial who says when slapping the product on his face, "I needed that," comments the Reverend John H. Krahn, pastor of Trinity and course leader.

"Many people need work on their Christian foundations. Some have developed cracks over the years that need repainting. We invite Christians of all faiths to attend. We also invite those who are interested in exploring the teachings of the Christ."

Workshops Offered

The Nassau County Office of Cultural Development offers a series of lecture-demonstrations and workshops designed to stimulate the participants' awareness and knowledge of past concepts in the arts, along with 20th Century thinking, teaching and doing.

Curriculum will include stained glass, drawing, puppetry, sculpture with nature and concept, animation, learning to see, conservation in art, etching and the museum's role in art. All sessions are geared for students to experience the artist's point of view and, in some instances, experiment with specific art forms themselves.

BRIDGES RATHER THAN WALLS

There are basically two kinds of people in the world. There are those who build walls and those who build bridges. The great American poet Robert Frost wrote, "Before you build walls, make sure you know what you are walling out and what you are walling in." Unfortunately most of us have built some walls during our lives - perhaps even a few more than bridges. God suggests we rent a crane, one with a big steel ball at the end, and start knocking them down. With the walls crushed we can then build a bridge between us and a person with whom we didn't get along. Bridge built, now love and joy begin to pass between us.

Bridge building becomes possible for the Believer through the Cross of Jesus Christ. His cross bridged the chasm of sin, alienation, and death that separated God from us. Faith in Him now makes it possible for us to span the gulf that isolates us from certain family members and neighbors.

E. Stanley Jones tells about a teenage girl who was told that if she stayed out beyond a certain time, she would have to eat bread and water at supper. She stayed out too late, so at supper time she was given bread and water. But as the family started to eat, the father reached over and took the bread and water and gave the daughter his own meal. They ate in silence for a while, and then the girl, with tears in her eyes, came over and put her arms around her father's neck as she said, "Daddy, I'll never disobey you again." Something had happened to her - on the inside. No threat of punishment, no fear of consequences, could work a miracle like that. Only love, bridge-building love could do it.

When Christ came He bestowed a kiss on a weary world. We have

William M. Gouse, Jr. Post No. 3211
By Lou Palladino

Rarely does a meeting pass that Our Post doesn't get a new member, the last was no different. We are referring to the Year of 1975 of course. We accepted three more. Ed Brenna, and Rodney Jones, old war horses from W. W. II, and Wall Davis, a Korean Vet. Welcome Comrades. Welcome to Our Post.

Our Ladies Aux. held their Italian Night, and as far as this guest was concerned, it was a huge success. The lasagne was delicious, the wine and the other refreshments hit the spot, and the band was danceable. Everybody had a great time. This is no surprise because our Ladies always do a good job. Virginia Byrnes was the chairlady and deserves mention. While on the subject of our ladies, we received a letter from the Pres. Pat Williams, wishing the ladies of eligible Vets to join our Auxiliary. Wives, Mothers, Sisters, and Daughters sixteen years and over are permitted to belong.

Now that Rita's testimonial dinner, and the ladies Aux Dance are over, next on the agenda is Our Game Night Oct. 25, and Nov. 8, 1975, is our Luau. The cut off date for tickets to the Luau is Oct. 25, according to Frank Lotti chairman of both affairs, the tickets are moving fast, and it's first come first serve basis. Don't get shut out. It sounds like a good deal.

We received a letter from the Oyster Bay Bicentennial Comm inviting us to attend their services. Now get this, they didn't want any Veteran Organization to participate in any way, not even to display colors, all they wanted was a crowd to impress the Secretary of the Navy. Our Comdr. Joe Normandy wrote a letter of protest, as did County Comdrs. District, and Dept. Many other organizations have taken offense and let their feelings be known. Joe received an answer, but no apology of an oversight. It wasn't said in so many words, but they let it be known it was their thing, and they wanted no outside interference. Could be a big stink will come of this mess.

Vinnie Edwards again ran out of the Bicentennial flags, and more are being ordered. If you don't already have yours be patient, Vinnie says the company can't make them fast enough to keep up with the orders.

Comrades wishing the Lifetime Membership will soon be receiving mail from George Walden. If you are interested he is the guy you want to see, and he will tell you how it's done.

Artie Fuelling doesn't change his tune, it's the same old song, we've heard before Help. Help. for Bingo.

We received a letter from Northport Hospital Thanking us again and Charlie Timpano also reports Visit to Hospital is October 14. Visit will be made by the time you read this.

Also the Legislative breakfast will be passed, which promises to be a good one.

Lucky winner of the raffle last meeting was George Walden.

Oh yes a reminder of the next meeting. All new members will receive their rituals as a group. A drill team from Queens will be present. It should prove very interesting. Guest are invited, so come on over. The date is Mon. October 27, 1975. Hope to see you then.

Board Grounds Grumman

by Gerry Kahn

Twenty-one items filled the calendar at the Town Board meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 21.

A formidable crowd was in attendance to witness the board vote on Item No. 19, the "resolution relating to Amendment to the Code of Ordinances relative to prohibition of airports in certain district with T.O.B."

In deference to the crowd, which included housewives, children and commuting wage-earners, the Supervisor passed over Item No. 1, "a finance hearing to consider the preliminary budget T.O.B.," and started the calendar with Item No. 2.

Items 2 through 21 were voted on in order with no commentary either pro or con and at the conclusion, the Supervisor called a 10 minute recess before returning to the first item on the agenda relative to the budget.

On the resolution pertinent to the airport control, the board vote was affirmative with but one dissenting vote on the part of Councilman Hogan. The Councilman cited a 1934 Town Board approval of an airport at the Grumman site. He felt that "in our times of economic duress it was not appropriate to interfere with the time honored usage of that facility by the Grumman Corp."

Supervisor Burke prior to casting his affirmative vote stated the strongest possible control should be exercised by Town Board legislation in order to respond to the will of the majority when it pertains to their health, safety, and general welfare.

Councilman Mosca added his comments by stating his appreciation for his fellow councilmen in demonstrating that local government answers the best needs of the public.

After the vote, the audience responded with a standing ovation.

Ronald Grimaldi, President of the Civic Association of Bethpage, summed it up by stating that the board has demonstrated the courage of their conviction by voting affirmatively and disregarded the substantial pressures exerted by big business and have proven to the public their true commitment to the Master Plan.

At the resumption of the calendar all attention was concentrated on Item No. 1, relative to the Budget.

Mario Colletuori was the first speaker and it was the intent of his commentary to determine whether Supervisor Burke agreed with Assemblyman Yevoli's contention that each year-end surplus was not properly distributed to the following year, thereby permitting the padding of the budget for an election year in order to relieve any pressures necessitating a tax increase for that year.

Supervisor Burke answered that it is inconceivable for an auditing team to presuppose requirements in October that will present financial guidelines for the year aren't concluded for an additional six months.

Mr. Colletuori's remarks were filled with statistics.

Dr. Charatan followed and expounded along the same avenues only instead of figures he added comic relief in on saying that an increase of 177.6 percent rather than 177.5 percent in the tax rate would reflect the bicentennial image.

Additional commentary on the budget was made by Carole Fishman, Terrance O'Donnell of Syoset, William Rheinhardt, Oscar Summers, and Michael Polansky.

The meeting was adjourned at 12:40 with a resumption of proceedings relative to the proposed budget held that evening at 8:00 p.m.

He is a former President of the Birchwood Civic Association founder of the Jericho U. J. A. and has been extremely active in many youth and senior citizen programs. Judge Diamond is the proud recipient of the Senior Citizen "Humanitarian" Award, the Ben Gurion Award and many others.

How to reduce your current Federal income tax...

and have more money for your retirement, too.

If you're working and not covered by a pension program, there is now a tax-favored way for you to build your own retirement fund.

You can defer Federal income taxes each year on up to 15% of your income or $1,500, whichever is less, by putting this income to work to set up your own retirement fund.

Think about that! You can purchase your own retirement plan with money you deduct on your income tax. You won't be subject to tax until years from now after retirement, when your tax bracket probably will be lower.

So if you're not scheduled to get a pension, call me and we'll arrange one.

Help Is As Near As The IRS

In a word association game, the word "taxes" would probably draw such responses as "tension," "money," "problems," and the like. Because the IRS is aware that taxpayers do not find "taxes" an especially easy or appealing subject, it recognizes its responsibility to help people as much as possible. For the small business operator, this help comes in various ways.

For example, IRS assists small business operators by issuing a large assortment of free publications, which may be obtained simply by a call or visit to an IRS office. The most popular handout — and one especially designed for persons just starting out in business — is IRS Publication 454, "Your Business Tax Kit," a folder-type packet which includes tax forms, instructions, answers to common questions, and other material pertinent to the taxes and reports applicable to a business. A checklist of some of the Federal taxes that a sole proprietor, partnership, or corporation may be liable to pay is also included. Featured on the back of the kit is a tax calendar, listing deadlines for filing various types of returns, for issuing wage and tax statements to employees, and for making Federal Tax Deposits.

Some of the other free business-oriented publications available include the "Tax Guide for Small Business," IRS Publication 334, which explains in considerable detail how the Federal tax laws apply to sole proprietorships, partnerships, and corporations. This comprehensive, 192-page publication includes a discussion of recent developments in the tax laws that may affect a business, as well as a section on IRS audit of returns and appeal rights. Also featured in Publication 334 is a checklist of commonly used forms, including a sample of various forms already filled in, a checklist of some of the taxes for which a businessperson may be liable, and a 1975 Tax Calendar listing tax deadline dates for business operations.

Written very much in the same vein with similar types of features is the "Farmers Tax Guide," IRS Publication 225, geared to the special tax problems and situations of farmers as well as those engaged in commercial fishing. The 64-page publication is also available without charge, either by visiting or calling an IRS office.

There are a number of other free pamphlets of interest to businesspeople available from the IRS. These cover such topics as "Losses from Operating a Business," "Tax Information on Accounting Periods and Methods," "Recordkeeping Requirements and a Guide to Tax Publications," "Tax Information on Depreciation," "Tax Information on Business Expenses," "Tax Information on Partnership Income and Losses," and more. However, for the individual looking for a handy, up-to-date, and comprehensive compilation of business-related tax information, the IRS suggests Publication 334, which covers just about everything there is to know.

In addition to the wide array of publications, the IRS is also ready to provide year-round assistance to businesspeople either at an IRS office or on the phone should the taxpayer be some distance away from an office or find it inconvenient to make a visit.

Tax assistance from the IRS can run the gamut from, as an example, the specialized recordkeeping requirements that might be advisable for, perhaps, someone opening a new pizza parlor in town to the best way, taxwise, for a clothing store operator to depreciate the mannequins. Most important, the IRS is ready to help when a taxpayer anticipates having tax problems; such as not being able to meet the deadline for deposit of quarterly employment taxes. In this connection, the IRS always advises the businessperson who anticipates tax difficulties to

Federal Govt. Competes With Savings Banks

The Federal Government has supplanted commercial banks as the "chief competitor" of the State's savings bank industry, a spokesman for the Savings Banks Association of New York State charged here tonight.

Ira Scott, Executive Vice President of the Association, declared that the Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board has "made it clear the housing and thrift institutions that finance housing occupy a relatively low place on his scale of values."

"It would appear that in Dr. Burns' view, housing should bear virtually the entire burden of the Government's fight against inflation," Scott told a dinner meeting of the Savings Bank Women of New York State.

The Treasury Department also came under Scott's fire for its low-denomination, short-term notes which are "siphoning personal savings out of thrift institutions."

"What good is it for Uncle Sam to define the limits of our competition for individual savings — through the device of maximum rates of interest we may pay — and then turn around and outbid us in our own market for those same savings?"

Commenting on changes being contemplated in financial reform measures, Scott accused the commercial banks of New York State of having "consistently followed an obstructionist course" in blocking legislation that would authorize savings banks to offer checking accounts, personal loans and more realistic amounts of low-cost savings bank life insurance.

"The trouble is, when they win on these issues — as they have in recent years — the banking public of New York State loses."

Given the problems of merchandising, advertising recruiting and hiring, employee relations, labor unions, purchasing equipment and the like, it's not an easy job these days to operate a business. Yet, at least when it comes to tax matters, help is as near as the IRS.

Heroic Captain Escapes Shark Attack

Captain Harold Medina aboard the Kerri M., displays his "Medina Panel" now in use by the entire U.S. tuna fleet.

Americans who fish for tuna on the high seas are known for their resourcefulness and daring.

But who could expect a fisherman to dive into a school of 75 sharks to untangle a fouled propeller?

Not Captain Harold Medina.

He did the job himself. A native of San Diego whose first tuna fishing voyage was on his father's boat when he was seven, Medina has his own "Jaws" tale to tell.

Fifteen years ago U.S. tuna fishermen devised a maneuver called "backing down" which helps free porpoise accidentally entrapped in the purse seine nets used to catch the prized tuna. "Backing down" is a time-consuming procedure involving delicate handling of a large boat (250 feet-plus) and a much larger net.

During one such "backing down" as can happen during a heavy sea—the net and cable on Captain Medina's vessel, the Kerri M., caught on the propeller.

A diver was sent below to survey the damage and he quickly bounced out of the water, reporting a school of sharks astern the boat.

Medina donned the diver's gear and went into the eastern tropical Pacific waters, leaving orders for a pair of sharpshooters to "knock off any sharks" they saw. The rifleman had a field day, but every time a shark was blasted, it was immediately devoured by the killers who returned to menace Medina.

Says the captain: "It was either clear the propeller and get the boat out of there—or lose thousands of dollars in fishing time."

Medina got the mess free and his reaction is a masterpiece of understatement. He comments: "It surely wasn't a good feeling. I can tell you that."

He faced menacing sharks.

Stories like this are commonplace in the U.S. tuna fleet and because porpoise help the fishermen locate their "harvest", their protection has a number one priority.

It was just that concern which motivated Medina to develop a gear modification that has earned him an international reputation in the world tuna fisheries. In 1971, he devised a strip of close-mesh webbing which greatly lessened porpoise entanglement and assisted in their escape to open seas.

The "Medina Panel" is now required by the U.S. government for all purse seiners fishing on tuna schools associated with porpoise, but the majority of the U.S. fleet had voluntarily adopted the innovation before it became mandatory.

Bravery, inventiveness and concern for the marine mammal—all are factors which continue progress in an industry whose product—canned tuna—is enjoyed in 80 per cent of American homes.

GOOD NEWS THAT AFFECTS OUR LIVES

NUCLEAR ENERGY IS HERE

Surprisingly, there are many Americans who think that nuclear energy is still in the experimental stage. The fact is that nuclear energy is with us today. Right now there are 55 nuclear reactors operating in the United States and another 75 operating around the world.

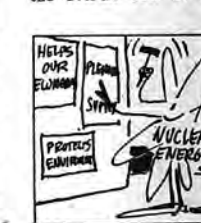

The decade of the '70s marks nuclear energy's arrival as the source of a significant part of our electric power supply. In 1974 nuclear power plants represented eight per cent of the total U.S. generating capacity — by 1980, they will account for 20 per cent, many experts predict.

This dramatic increase comes as a result of the three significant advantages of nuclear power: its technology is available today, it helps our economy and it protects our environment.

Because we have awakened to the danger of our dwindling gas and oil supply and the danger of relying heavily on foreign oil, we must increase our reliance on nuclear energy for the generation of electrical power.

The increase in the cost of energy has had a harmful impact on our economy. Nuclear power can help hold down the cost. Though the construction of a nuclear plant is more expensive than fossil plants, the over-all cost of elec-

SPORTSMAN'S CORNER

by Clark Webster,
Remington Wild Life Expert

Code of Ethics

NEW YORK (ED) — Every sport has players who don't follow the rules. In baseball, it's the spitball specialist... in boxing, the rabbit punch expert... in football, the man who roughs the passer.

But nowhere are the penalties for misconduct as stiff as those facing the errant hunter: He loses his license, pays a fine or spends time in jail. Fortunately, the "rotten apples" in the hunting barrel are few. Today's sportsman lives by more than the written law, he also observes an ethical code or code of honor that he places on himself.

The wildlife experts at Remington Arms support the sportsman who follows the code of ethics:

- Know the limits of your gun and your shooting ability... and always try for a clean kill.
- Treat your quarry with compassion. Don't leave wounded game behind.
- Protect the property and livestock of the farmer who allows you to hunt on his land.
- Follow the principle of "fair chase". Don't shoot a pheasant on the ground or a duck swimming in the water.
- Shoot only a fully mature big-game specimen. The removal of a bull or buck beyond breeding age benefits the rest of the herd.
- Give generously of your time and knowledge to introduce others to the sport... and to the sportsmanlike conduct that wins friends for all hunters.

YOUR LIFE INSURANCE

Q. This inflation we're having has me a bit worried. My wife's diamond increases in value, her fur coat increases in value but what about my life insurance? Life insurance may do a lot of things but one thing it doesn't do is to keep pace with inflation. Does it?

A. Actually, it does. When your dollars lose value, not only the face value and cash value of your policy are affected, but also the premiums you have to pay. In short, the money is simply cheaper at both ends. As inflation progresses, you may indeed get less out of a policy's proceeds in terms of purchasing power, but you also put proportionately less into the policy.

Interestingly, since most families recognize that the shrinkage of the dollar and increased incomes go hand-in-hand with inflation, most families buy additional life insurance during these inflationary periods.

Statistics bear witness to this expansion. Today, families owning life insurance policies average a total of $10,700 in protection as compared with $3,700 in 1955.

tricity generated by nuclear power is less than coal, oil and gas because the fuel costs are lower.

And finally, because nuclear power plants release no carbon dioxide or sulfur compounds into the atmosphere, they are less harmful to our environment than oil or coal plants.

With the United States and the world running out of the traditional fossil fuels (oil and gas), nuclear energy — the cheapest way to generate electricity — is not only here, it is here to stay.

BANKING IS EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

Labor Day Special 1975 — New Bill-Paying Service

By Willis W. Alexander
Executive Vice President
American Bankers Association

Though you may not have noticed, Labor Day 1975 brought more than just a holiday and hotdogs. For millions of Americans, it also brought the possibility of a new, labor-saving, money-earning, bill-paying service.

At midnight, Sept. 1, two new regulations from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. and the Federal Reserve Board went into effect, allowing banks for the first time to offer a general bill-paying service to their customers through a pre-authorized transfer of funds from savings accounts.

Before these amendments, the regulatory agencies had specified that banks could offer bill-paying services only for real estate loans or mortgages. Now, the only restrictions forbid use of the service to cover overdrafts, or bills from a checking account line of credit. It may be used, however, to pay bank card bills, including those from the financial institutions providing the service.

In addition, the service might be used for such other regularly recurring bills as those from utilities, department stores, gasoline companies and automobile dealers.

The advantages of such a service to consumers are obvious:

- The time-consuming business of writing checks to pay recurring bills each month can all be turned over to a bank for a small service fee; and

• Rather than hold large amounts of money in a checking account, bank customers may increase the amount of funds held in their interest-bearing savings accounts to cover monthly bills.

To inquire about the possibility of a bill-paying program for yourself, visit your local bank, and ask an officer to give you specific details. The new regulations give banks broad, general authority to design and offer a bill-paying service but do not specify the form they must take. Consequently, there will be variations from one institution to another. In addition, some banks may decide not to offer the service, and others may not yet be geared up to offer it.

In setting up a program, you will probably be asked to sign a written contract authorizing the transfer of funds to third parties. You will indicate the names of the organizations or individuals to whom funds are to be transferred, and either the specific amount to be paid to each, or a maximum amount, and the frequency of payment. Subsequent additions or changes in the agreement may be communicated to the bank in person, by telephone or in writing.

Your bank will handle the actual transfer of funds, either through an internal transaction or by sending a bank check, and will keep you up to date on the status of your account through regular monthly statements.

Entertaining ODDITIES!

That landmark of Paris, the Eiffel Tower, which was erected for the Paris Exposition of 1889, later boasted the world's greatest advertising sign. From 1925 to 1938 the word "Citroen" in electric lights of six colors ran down the length of the tower—the letter N alone measured over 68 feet in height—and could be read 24 miles away.

A monument that nobody could really see would be an oil rig built 54 miles off the coast. To see just the tip of a 200 foot drilling tower, a person would have to stand, on a hill a full 1,662 feet above sea level. This is 412 feet higher than the Empire State Building. Among the Atlantic offshore tracts proposed to be offered at oil drilling lease sales by the federal government, experts at the American Petroleum Institute have pointed out that the nearest is 54 miles from shore!

Next time you're visiting that American landmark, the Washington Monument, chances are you'll notice that the top half is not exactly the same color as the bottom half. That's because so long a period had elapsed between the times when the bottom and top parts were erected that the quarry had run out of the same color stone.

Supreme Court: Nassau County, Abraham Bender, Pl. v. Wallace.

PUTTING PRODUCTIVITY AND BELT-TIGHTENING TO WORK:
The debut of Oyster Bay's In-House Computer drew the attention of Town Comptroller Joseph Macedonio, left, and Supervisor John Burke this week as machine-operator Anna Brandt prepared the first run of the Town's new payroll checks. This new computer procedure is estimated to save the Town $10,000 this year and $25,000 thereafter, and represents just one of the measures initiated this year to assure that Oyster Bay's 1976 taxes will not increase.

Newspaper Wins National Rating

The Pioneer, student newspaper for Long Island University's C.W. Post Center, has been awarded a First Class Rating from the Associated College Press (ACP) semi-annual rating of college newspapers. The Pioneer was given marks of distinction in editorial leadership and in coverage and content.

"We're very proud of this award," said Steven R. Ferber, Editor-in-Chief, "and view it as a reflection of the hard work done by the Pioneer staff."

Ferber explained that the issues rated were published during the last spring semester. The award places the Pioneer in the top 18 percent of the nation's college publications.

"We are close now," said Ferber, "to receiving an All-American rating, which is the best given by the respected ACP."

Ferber pointed out that many of the staffers on last year's Pioneer now are working in the publishing field. The ACP was founded in 1933 and is a national organization of college yearbooks and newspapers and has about 1,000 member publications. ACP operates out of the University of Minnesota School of Journalism.

Ice Skating School

Even if you never managed to stay perpendicular on a pair of ice skates, a brand new Nassau County Recreational Skating School will probably have you doing figure 8's within the ten-week period of the school's duration.

The school will be conducted by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks at the Cantiague Park indoor rink in Hicksville, beginning on Saturday, Oct. 18. All Nassau residents, from age 5 to senior citizens, are invited to participate, with a Leisure Pass required of all those over 10.

The Recreation Skating School will consist of a series of half-hour weekly classes geared to the individual's present ability, which will be determined during the first week. Classes will be offered on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays at various hours until Mar. 31.

Upon completion of the Skating School, tests prepared by the Ice Skating Institute of America will be given and appropriate ISIA badges awarded to students who pass their particular courses. A skating exhibition will conclude the program.

Registration for the School is from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. A fee of $30 for the ten weeks of classes will also cover admission to the public skate session that follows the half-hour of instruction. Checks are to be made payable to "Treasurer, Nassau County."

For registration information and further details, call 935-3501. Cantiague Park is located on West John St. in Hicksville.

Nutrition Course

The Nutrition Education Center will have as its next guest speaker Dr. Jose Rodriguez, D.C. who will speak on "Applied Kinesiology," which includes Muscle Testing and its relation to nutrition, bodily deficiencies, allergies and common acupuncture points.

Also included that evening will be a continuing course in nutrition, as is the Center's format.

The date is Monday, November 10, at 8:00 P.M., at the Plainview Public Library, 999 Old Country Road, Plainview, Long Island, N.Y. The NUTRITION EDUCATION CENTER holds its monthly sessions on the Second Monday of Every Month. Admission is $1.00. For further information, write N.E.C., P.O. Consumer Tips For Seniors

If you're troubled by an incorrect bill that a store won't straighten out, or defective merchandise a store won't repair, or faulty service by a home improvement contractor who ignores your complaint, call the Nassau County Office of Consumer Affairs for help.

Commissioner James E. Picken has set up a program for the "Senior Consumer," featuring a special SENIOR HOTLINE number: 535-3282.

"We're all consumers, young or old," Picken says. "We all face the same problems with shopping and buying. But solving the problems is sometimes more difficult for older people if they can't get out to comparison shop, or if they are victimized by a mail order house or an unscrupulous salesman."

Through the Senior Consumer program, people can get advice or can get their complaints resolved more quickly. Retired business and professional men from the Department of Senior Citizen Affairs RSVP Program are available to assist Consumer Affairs investigators and work with senior citizens' complaints.

Commissioner Picken reminded consumers that the following laws have been enacted to protect them:

- Small quantities of prepackaged produce must be made available on request.

- Mail order companies must ship merchandise within 30 days or give a refund or substitute.

- Advertising merchandise and not having sufficient quantity available for sale is a violation of Nassau County law.

- Supermarkets must not mark up the prices of items already on the shelves at lower prices. The only exception is sale merchandise which can be restored to its regular price.

- All home improvement businesses operating in the county must be licensed. This gives the consumer recourse against firms that fail to fulfill their contracts.

Hypertension Screening

Free screening for hypertension (high blood pressure) will be available at the Mid-Island Shopping Plaza in Hicksville from noon to 9 P.M., Thursday through Saturday, October 30 through November 1 and at the Plainview Public Library from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. on Sunday, November 2.

The screenings are sponsored by the Nassau County Hypertension Seek and Treat Program in cooperation with community groups.

Student nurses from BOCES will take the blood pressures at the Mid-Island Plaza.

The screening at the Plainview Public Library, 999 Old Country Road, is co-sponsored by the National Council of Jewish Women, who will provide the volunteer nurses.

Seek and Treat is funded by a Federal grant under the Nassau-Suffolk Regional Medical Program. As part of the program, referral and follow-up are given, when needed. High blood pressure can be kept under control.

If untreated, hypertension shortens the lifespan in proportion to the degree of severity, according to Dr. John J. Dowling, Commissioner of the County Health Department. It also often results in strokes, heart failure and kidney disorders.

Yet, according to the State Health Department statistics, about half of the people who have hypertension are not aware of it, he said. It is a leading cause of death — particularly in the black population.

Dr. Dowling advises anyone who has not had a blood pressure test in a year to do so.
