Local Man On State Advisory Group

Nassau County Police Commissioner Louis J. Frank today announced that Det. Lt. Patrick G. Looney of Hicksville, commanding officer of the department's Juvenile Aid Bureau, has been appointed to the New York State Juvenile Justice Advisory Group by Governor Hugh L. Carey.

Commissioner Frank said, "Lieutenant Looney is most deserving of this appointment. He has spent the better part of his 18 year career as a police officer working with young people and will be able to furnish highly valuable input to the group."

Governor Carey, in a letter to Lt. Looney notifying him of the appointment said, "The Commissioner of Criminal Justice Services and the Crime Control Planning Board will, I know, look forward to your advice and guidance."

Among the primary functions of the Advisory Board will be reviewing and commenting on the Juvenile Justice Section of the State Comprehensive Crime Control Plan and grant applications and use of federal funds for juvenile programs. Monies to finance these grants were recently appropriated by Congress.

Det. Lt. Patrick Looney

In his 18 years as a police officer, Lt. Looney has been with the Juvenile Aid Bureau for the past 11, the last three years as its commanding officer. Last April he was elected, by acclamation, president of the newly formed State of New York Police Juvenile Officers' Association. He has been a leader in the development and implementation of new procedures in the handling of young offenders and the promotion and establishment of specialized juvenile units within law enforcement agencies.

Postmaster Anthony M. Murello, Hicksville takes this opportunity to announce a series of Bicentennial Era stamps and envelopes of varying denominations are on sale now at your local post office.

Everyone will enjoy these new issues and the Post Service's recognition of the Bicentennial of the American Revolution.

Postmaster Murello went on to say that special philatelic paks are also available for beginners who are just starting the rewarding hobby of stamp collecting. With the Christmas Holiday almost here, these items will make a most wonderful and educational gift for every member of the family.

Board of Supervisors Meeting

By Marcia Yeates

Interest centered around the 1976 County Budget and the Board "gadflies" at the Monday Board of Supervisors' Meeting. The two topics dominated the marathon session which lasted well over 2 and a half hours and which was marked by long and emotional speeches.

The County Budget, adopted unanimously by the Supervisors, is $3.5 million less than originally proposed. The total budget is $949.5 million, which means a yearly tax increase of about $18 for the average Nassau home owner.

Dr. Ralph Sorley, Carl Schmitt and Irving Flammenbaum urged the Board to make further cuts in the budget. Dismissing County Executive Ralph Caso's claim it was a "bare bones" budget, Sorley remarked, "You are dying of cholesteraemia."

The Board's persistent critics united in a show of strength and objected strenuously to the new procedure which goes into effect in January whereby only two of the supervisors will remain after the regular meetings to listen to complaints and suggestions from citizens.

Rallying behind their new unofficial title of "gadflies," the critics of the proposal blithely ignored the loud ringing of a kitchen timer which had been set up on a clerk's desk to cut off speechmaking and spoke well over the newly imposed five-minute time period allotted each speaker.

Richard Kessel of Merrick stated he was "shocked and appalled" at the new proposal, calling the sessions after the meetings "the last, only chance for the people to be heard." He listed several improvements which had come about due to suggestions and recommendations made during these post-meeting sessions.

Phyllis Garvin of Levittown urged the Board to reconsider its decision. "I am in distinguished company," she stated, referring to the "gadflies" who regularly attend and speak at Board meetings. "It isn't easy to be heard," she said. She also recommended that the Board hold night meetings once a month so that more people could attend.

Walter Sterling of Woodmere, who had become the center of the controversy following a coal-throwing incident at last week's meeting, presented a list of abuses he claimed were rampant in the County jail. He had been imprisoned for a 25 day term and fined $250 for refusing to pay a 25 cent fine on the Atlantic Beach Bridge. Sterling had been released when Dr. Ralph Sorley, another gadfly at Board meetings, raised the money to pay the fine.

Carl Schmitt of Rockville Centre, another of the regulars, expressed his disapproval of the Sterling sentence. He also urged the Board to continue the post-meeting forums.

Dr. Sorley staunchly defended Sterling in his statement which went well over the five-minute limit. He waved aside attempts to cut short his speech, concluding in an emotional voice choked with tears, "our democratic institutions are in jeopardy."

Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso of Merrick and guest star St. Nick listen intently as Alexis Mahoney of Syosset talks about the puppet show she just saw on Mr. Caso's "Executive's Round Table" Christmas show. Alexis, Peter Johnson of Uniondale (center), and Christopher Orizon, also of Syosset, are special guests on the program which features a discussion of the Eisenhower Park Puppet Theatre. As part of the program the children were treated to a scene from Charles Dickens' "Christmas Carol," the show presently playing at the theatre for the holiday season. The show will be aired on Channel 21 on Tuesday, December 23 at 8 PM and will be repeated at 6:30 PM, Sunday, December 28.

"ONE FLEW OVER THE CUCKOO'S NEST" COME TO SYOSSET THEATRE: The perfect casting of Jack Nicholson in the Ken Kesey novel of "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" projects him into the Academy Awards spotlight.

In "Cuckoo's Nest," Nicholson takes the difficult role of a 1960's free-wheeling non-conformist culture hero and convincingly brings this character into focus. To prepare for the role of R. P. McMurphy in "Cuckoo's Nest," Nicholson did time in the violent ward of a mental hospital and plays scene after scene in this comedy for the kind of laughter that begins and ends in shudders.

"ONE FLEW OVER THE CUCKOO'S NEST" is now showing at the UA Syosset Theatre for an Exclusive Long Island Engagement.

By Lou Palladino

We had a visitor, speaker, and prospective member, all in one person, his name is Lee Hayes, and he was on the ship that was taken prisoner by the North Koreans, he gave a fine speech on POWs and MIAs, Lee happens to be a friend of Bob Kelly, and Bob told him to keep his talk short. He was very interesting, and it was too darn short. He covered as much as possible in as short a time as he was able. A number of eye opening and almost unbelievable things were mentioned. I for one would like to invite him to an open meeting with guests invited, and let him go full force, after all we of the V.F.W. are very much involved and are interested in all of our POWs and MIAs.

Abe Feldman gave the date for our Charter Night Dinner and Dance, Feb. 28th, 1976, he promised it to be a great one. The price is still tentative, so no one giving the bad news yet, but Abe will try to make it as reasonable as possible, it will be first come first serve basis. OK Abe go to work.

Vinnie Edwards is handling the Journal and that's another big job, Vinnie also gave a report on the voice of Democracy Contest, quite a few number of schools participated. Winners of the 6th grade essay contest were first place from Dutch Lane, Janice Lane, second from Willet Ave. Janice Richards, and third Burns Ave. School Anthony Neff. From the High Schools on tape, Holy Trinity winners were first place Vincent Coiro, second Joseph Murphy, and third Patricia Lauth. Hicksville High School had two winners first Karen Bolongnese, and second Josephine Lombardi. I'm not going into another speel on how proud we are of these children because you already know.

Bob Kelly reports the Christmas party for the kids is moving pretty good, please remember Bob needs your cooperation, so please send him the age and sex of the child up to ten years old, the response has been very good, so far.

We received a report, the life membership drive has been great. We have gotten quite a few letters from Comrades wanting more information. It's a good deal, and in the long run saves you money. While on the subject of membership, we are waiting for your dues, if you haven't paid them. We are trying very hard to get our 100 percent before the year is out. We already have about 90 percent in now, so if you are one of the 10 percent please don't hold us up. We want Harry Wurth, from our Post who is County Cmdr to be able to show the whole County, and proudly that his Post did their job, now they should carry on. Also our Cmdr. Joe Normandy who has worked so hard on so many projects deserves this feather in his hat. So lets get going.

County will hold their meeting in our Post on Jan. 20th, and the Dept. Cmdr. Jim Kinsella is supposed to come. It should be a very interesting occasion. Jim is a little guy in a big stature, but a giant for the V.F.W. a real powerhouse with words and thoroughly V.F.W. This one I'd like to attend.

Holiday Open House

The annual Holiday Open House at the Old Bethpage village restoration is set for Friday, December 26, and Saturday, December 27, with special hours for Open House days only from 1:30 to 9:30 p.m. The weekend of December 20 and 21 will feature the Holiday Bazaar during normal winter hours of operation from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

As evening falls on December 26 and 27, the staff will light kerosene lamps and candles in the village homes setting the valley a-twinkle. Refreshments will be on tap at the tavern where the Jeff Folk Singers - Warner and Davis - will perform. In the Layton House, June Goldenberg will be at the old organ hitting responsive chords for listeners with parlor music songs reverberating through the Victorian parlor.

At the Manetto Hill Methodist Church, concerts will be given each evening at 7 and 8 p.m. Choral music of the early 19th Century will fill the simple church warmed by a pot-bellied stove and the energy and goodwill of the music.

During daylight hours, "Hog-Guessing," the precursor of carnival weight guessing, will be open to visitors young and old. A prize awaits the person who enters the closest guess to the actual weight of the "pig in the pokey." Hog guessing was chronicled in the Hempstead Inquirer of December 25, 1833, and holiday visiting, the basis for Holiday Open House, was described in the same newspaper dated January 6, 1836. Among the items offered for sale at the Holiday Bazaar at the Noon Inn will be hand-crafted goods made at the restoration such as scarves, pin-cushions, aprons, pot-holders and gloves. A limited number of whittled whimsies, stuffed animals, dolls and doll-beds will be offered at prices ranging from 50 cents to $5. Confections, books and toys will also be sold.

The homes in the village will have a holiday air, decorated in the tradition of the 1840s. Yankee ingenuity will be demonstrated in the display of pre-Civil War toys at the Layton Store.

The Old Bethpage village restoration, operated by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks, is located on Round Swamp Road in Old Bethpage. Admission is $2.25 for adults and $1.50 for children, ages 5 through 17. Nassau County residents with Leisure Passes pay $1.75 for adults and $1.25 for children. The village will be open daily during December except for Christmas Day. It will be closed on New Year's Day.

Recreation For Handicapped

Year-round recreation is offered by the Recreation for the Handicapped Unit of the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks at the Special Activities Center (Parking Field No. 8) in Eisenhower Park, East Meadow.

On Thursday evenings, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m., beginning Jan. 8, a variety of programs is open to all interested County residents age 30 and over. Activities include crafts, holiday socials, and diversified table games.

Young adult residents 18 and over are invited to attend the Friday evening sessions, also held from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. Featured in this series are music, drama, arts and crafts, arrangements for bowling, and general socializing.

For further information, call 292-4254.

"FIDDLER" AT HOLIDAY INN - By now almost everyone has seen several versions of the award winning musical "Fiddler on the Roof," with which to compare the THANOS Dinner Theatre-Richard Dolce production, and it compares favorably with any we have seen thus far. It is the story of Teyve, the milkman, and his family in Czarist Russia. This dinner theatre offering of the familiar story is a marvel of clever staging to accommodate the entertaining production numbers.

The cast, featuring Martin Haber as Teyve, is uniformly excellent. We were especially impressed with Terry D'Andrea, Phyllis VanHouten and Amy Sufrin as the daughters, and with Director Pat Dolce, who filled in unexpectedly as Golde in the absence of Ewale Cohen.

The THANOS Dinner Theatre, in the Hempstead Holiday Inn, operates Wednesdays through Sunday nights, with special Wednesday matinees. The dinner on Wednesday and Thursday nights starts at 7 PM, with the show at 8:45 P.M. On Fridays and Saturdays, dinner begins at 7:30 with the curtain going up at 9:45 P.M. Sunday dinner is at 5 PM and the show begins at 6:30 P.M. For information and reservations, call 486-1223.

"Fiddler" will run through January 18th, to be followed by "Stalag 17" (Jan. 21st to Feb. 22nd) and Edward Albee's "Everything in the Garden" (Feb. 25 to March 28th), and "Godspell" (March 31st to May 2nd.)

Dear Friends . . .

IN AN EFFORT TO STIMULATE the homebuilding industry and to cut down unemployment which affects 90 per cent of their members, bricklayers unions covering approximately 9,000 workers on the Island and in New York City, have voted to take a one-third cut in wages and fringe benefits, during the next three years, on residential work as well as on renovation and remodeling jobs. We certainly commend this union for this action and hope that it will inspire others in related unions to do the same. We're sure that if this should happen it would stimulate the residential construction industry. So many young marrieds need homes and so many others need to add to the homes they already own, but cannot do so due to the high cost of construction. Then, if interest rates on mortgages could go down slightly, success would be assured! If this should happen it would be a positive step in the right direction and an inspiration to the rest of the country. Our problems, tough as they are, can be solved, but only with team efforts on all levels.

ELECTIONS COMMISSIONER Isabel Dodd gives us the following figures relating to new County registration: 13,509 are registered as Republicans, 11,110 as Democrats, 617 as Conservatives and 505 as Liberals, and 5,499 as independents. These figures cover those who have recently moved into the County, those who have recently changed their party affiliation, and first-time registrants. All will be eligible to vote in their respective party primaries. These newly registrants are in addition to 638,099 county residents on the books in the spring of 1975. Mrs. Dodd tells us that the election board is presently in the process of cancelling the registration of many voters who either have moved or who have not voted in the last two general elections. We'd suggest that you check out your own registration with the Nassau County Board of Elections; if you have any doubt as to its validity. Phone them at 535-2411, and remember, if you wish to register by mail, it is now possible to do so.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Mrs. Wolfson:

The Executive Committee of Hicksville Citizens for Better Education, after holding a special meeting, wishes to express the position of the organization regarding the recently concluded McCarthy Tenure hearing.

The incident, hearings and subsequent School Board decisions raise several critical and disturbing questions. Although the School Board voted unanimously to accept the findings of the panel deeming the teacher to be guilty of conduct unbecoming a teacher and using excessive force, it then voted 4 to 3 to impose a fine of $1,000 with no further penalty.

We believe that Board members, as representatives of the community with responsibility for protecting the health, safety and welfare of the students, have a moral obligation to explain to the public the reasons for their actions.

Certainly in past history, regarding mundane and seemingly insignificant matters, Board discussion has continued unabated. Yet, in this obviously major motion, the 4 board members voting in the affirmative, Messrs. Arena, Lari, McCormack and Nagle, did not see fit to comment on their vote nor the motion.

Secondly, it is well known in the community that the Junior High School is an extremely difficult disciplinary area. Never-the-less, the teacher was returned to the same stressful environment. Has administration made a thorough evaluation of the propriety of a continuation of the same teaching assignment?

Finally, HCBE supports the suggested formation of a committee to improve the teacher student relationship. We also recommend that the limits of allowable student speech and behavior be clearly defined and encourage suggested efforts to revitalize the student court.

It is essential that the entire spectrum of the citizen conduct relationship be thoroughly discussed, analysed and codified.

Sincerely yours,
Eugene Edelstein
President
Kenneth Rudin
Vice-President
Executive Committee of HCBE

To the Editor:

The fiscal crisis in Albany is sending chills down the spines of municipal and school district administrators and local taxpayers alike. There is little doubt that the State has fiscal problems and that hard decisions will have to be reached.

However, I am particularly disturbed that the Governor's approach to this serious matter smacks so heavily of "brinkmanship." Some Albany observers feel that his attempt to tie the budget gap problems to the more immediate needs of the Housing Finance Agency is not in the best interests of the State as a whole.

IT WAS A DISTINCT PLEASURE last Sunday, to be among those who attended the Service honoring William F. Gropp and Siegfried Widder of Trinity Lutheran Church with the Lamb Award, which is a national award for adult Scouters and pastors who are Lutheran. It is made available through the Office of National Youth Agency Relationships of the Lutheran Council in the USA. Each recipient is presented with a medal designed by artist Warner E. Sallman and appropriately inscribed with Jesus' words, "Feed my lambs." (John 21:15.) Later at the reception which followed, TOB Councilman Warren Doolittle presented both men with citations from the Town of Oyster Bay, for their dedicated community service. Both awards were certainly deserved by these fine community leaders.

The Nassau Suffolk Contractor's Association, builders of the major roads and highways on Long Island have established a Traffic Safety Committee to dispense up-to-date driving information to the general public in order to elevate the safety consciousness of auto drivers, and to develop safer driving habits on Long Island's roads. The Association has recognized that a need exists to keep the motoring public advised of the latest innovations in safe driving techniques, traffic control devices, road markings, and generally to elevate the interest in the safe operation of motor vehicles.

The Traffic Safety Committee will release informative safety and driving informational material at regular intervals which THE HERALD will be bringing to you as received.

Milton Hendrickson, President of the Nassau Suffolk Contractor's Association says, "It's hard to believe, but true, that there is no planned governmental program for the maintenance of and or the development of safer driving habits. Once a vehicle operator is exposed to his initial driver's license test, years upon years pass and all are left to their own initiative to seek out motoring explanations and to formulate safety policies of their own which could be unsound. The Traffic Safety Committee hopes to bridge this gap providing a constant flow of soundly based "safety" tips and information hoping the result will be fewer accidents, injuries and fatalities."

THAT'S ALL FOR THIS WEEK. Stay well and enjoy a blessed Christmas.

SHEILA

The Governor last week proposed a plan involving $597 million in budget cutbacks and $705 million in new taxes, at which even Democratic legislators balked. As one Long Island Democrat is reported to have said, "We put New York City on the rack. There's a feeling that we've got to share that same kind of austerity before we say there should be more taxes." New Yorkers are already the most heavily taxed in the nation, and it is imperative that the emphasis be placed on reducing State expenditures in a manner that does not seriously impact upon these residents.

Of particular concern is the impact of the State's budget difficulties on local school districts which borrow funds for current expenses and pay them back upon receipt of local revenues and State aid. Many districts are finding themselves frozen out of the borrowing market because of the uncertainty of State aid. There is also deep concern over the effects that reductions in State aid are certain to have on local property taxes.

I would not presume to offer a solution to the problem. There are no easy ones. I do urge that political partisanship be put aside and our State officials work toward a solution that will be in the best interests of all New York residents.

John W. Burke
Supervisor, TOB

A New Teaching Tool

When Mrs. Estelle Mitnick, first grade teacher at Woodland Avenue School, got a new television set for her home, being the creative teacher she is, she thought what a good teaching instrument the empty carton would be.

After lining the inside of the carton with construction paper, she cut out illustrations of events in one of the battles of the War of 1812. She tape recorded a story about the "Battle of Baltimore" in 1814 and how our national anthem came to be written.

A child would sit inside the box, turn on the cassette recorder and follow the instructions spoken on the recording. The child would place the sun rising, "the dawn's early light", and the flag, "the flag was still there, etc." the "Star Spangled Banner" became a real living moment in history to the children. All the children agreed that when they now sing the anthem daily, it has a new meaning and pride to them.

Our thanks to Mrs. Mitnick and all the other teachers who take that extra time to make our children learn in meaningful ways.

Coach Bob McKillop believes the exposure and experience of such competition will mature his boys more quickly in their quest for the championship of the Nassau-Suffolk CHSAA.

Six returning lettermen, led by senior Tom Kavanagh, should help the Titans wrestle that title from perennial champion, St. Agnes of Rockville Centre.

Students See 'Connecticut Yankee'

Two hundred and thirty-five children from Woodland Avenue School shared a musical adventure in seeing "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court", at the Westbury Music Fair, on December 4.

To help celebrate and understand the true meaning of democratic rule, and in honor of our bicentennial, the 3rd, 4th and 5th graders at Woodland Avenue saw how it was to live under a king's rule without many of the freedoms we know of today. The children also were made aware of a different century and the different types of clothing worn then.

The children unanimously decided that they preferred living in the U.S.A. with its freedoms and where citizens can express themselves to their government without fear.

It was very meaningful for the children in many ways. The experience of live theater, as well as the lessons learned from the play, made the outing very worthwhile.

Intern Program

Republican State Chairman Richard M. Rosenbaum announced the creation of an intern program at the Republican State Committee Headquarters in Albany.

Open to all young people 16 years through college age, the program is aimed at exposing and involving the youth in the daily activities and programs of the State Committee. The participants will work side-by-side with staff members as well as being a part of several special projects.

In announcing the program Rosenbaum stated, "The New York Republican State Committee Intern Program will give young people the chance to see the political process from the inside. While learning, they will be making a valuable contribution to the strengthening and the furthering of the two party system in our State and Nation."

The internships which will run on a three month basis, coincides with an academic semester. The Spring Internships will run from January 26, 1976 to April 30, 1976 and will require approximately ten hours of work from each student per week on a non-stipend basis. For the Spring semester, only five (5) students will be accepted for positions.

Anyone desiring further information on the Intern Program should contact Ted Krulwich, Director of Youth Activities for the State Committee, 315 State Street, Albany, New York 12210, (518) 462-2601.

"Many people think of us only during the Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon," District Director Richard Amper observed, "but we're here all year 'round campaigning to beat these dreadful diseases." Volunteers are asked to call or write MDA at 371 Merrick Road, Rockville Centre; (516) 536-9220.

Geologic Time Table Of Earth

By Lynn Rohnick

Have you ever wondered how old the earth is or whether our planet always looked the way it does today? Perhaps you have pondered over just what is the age of a dinosaur. These and many other questions are answered in a new exhibit at the Gregory Museum on geologic time. Explained through three different views the entire 4 1/2 billion years of earth history has been portrayed.

A 6 1/2 foot time line pictorially displays the entire period of earth development up to the present. Captions beneath the pictures emphasize the highlights of each sequence. A "geologic clock" encompasses the last 2 billion years. The recent emergence of man is emphasized with a red hand entering the human race at 1 1/2 minute to midnight. A time table is used to give an expanded view of the last 530 million years. The evolution of life is displayed in this portion of the display using fossils, pictures, and a diorama entitled "The Age of Dinosaurs".

The aim of the exhibit is to offer a basic explanation of the formation of the earth and the forms of life which have evolved through its history.

Buckley, Javits, Wydler and Lent Protest To President Ford In Letter

U.S. Senators Jacob Javits and James L. Buckley along with Congressmen Norman F. Lent and John W. Wydler have written President Ford protesting recommendations of the Office of Management and Budget to cut more than $700 million from the 1977 fiscal year budget to eliminate the production of various military aircraft.

The OMB recommendation includes the deletion of $393 million for the production of 99 A-10 aircraft, $180 million for 12 A-6E attack aircraft and $132 million for the production of 6 E2-C early warning aircraft.

In the letter dated December 8 the four New York Senators and Congressmen told the President: "We are very much concerned that the approval of these recommendations, should they be agreed to by the Congress, will have a most serious impact both on the high priority national defense needs and the economic situation in New York State."

They pointed out that the budget cuts would "adversely affect" NATO defenses, and would actually increase costs by deferring production to future years.

The Senators and Congressmen told the President that in 1976 the production of 99 A-10 aircraft would create "hundreds if not thousands of jobs, and the production of 18 A6E and E2C aircraft would create approximately 6,000 jobs, all in New York."

"A CHRISTMAS POEM" Footsteps In The Snow

So gently falls the flakes of white
As in the warmth of the windows glow,
The wreaths of Holly and Mistletoe
Footsteps imprinted on the falling snow.

The echo of the Carols sung
By children walking in the streets,
Bring back the thoughts of yesterday
Of Candy Canes and sugared sweets.
Christmas trees of colored lights
The ringing of the church bells chime,

Packages of gifts and toys
And once again its Christmas time.
Turkey, egg nog, fruits to eat
Joy to the world on high,
Is it a miracle that we see
That bright star in the sky?
Tradition change, so does the world...

But Christmas, this I know,
Must never fade and vanish thus
Like footsteps in the snow.

Little Known Facts About American Revolution The Continental Navy

By Gardiner Gregory

When George Washington assumed command of the American Army at Cambridge, Mass. in July 1775, he also took over many problems. Not the least of these problems was the scarcity of munitions.

Through his efforts, the efforts of individual colonial governments, and private efforts, a ragtag fleet came into existence. Over 2000 privateers cruised against English shipping without official sanction.

The privateers were a "salty" group of men. There were mixed feelings about them—some called them brave or foolhardy; boisterous; or mutinous; patriotic or selfish. History has shown us that they bravely matched their lightly-armed schooners and brigs against English vessels carrying heavier guns and larger crews and frequently bested them.

One of the first ships in Washington's navy was the schooner Hannah. Later in 1775 five more schooners and a brigantine were added to his fleet.

Because of the shortage of munitions these ships were sent to raid on British supply vessels. The schooner Lee, under the command of Capt. Manley of Marblehead, Mass., was the most successful of Washington's navy even though she carried an armament of only 4 four-pounders and ten deck swivel guns. On November 29th she captured the British brigantine Nancy, along with a large cargo of war supplies for the British Army, including 2000 muskets and bayonets, 31 tons of shot, several barrels of powder and a large brass mortar. To the colonial army this was one of the most important captures of the war.

As the privateers captured more and more English ships, the British sent more ships into our waters to protect their merchant fleet.

In December 1775 the Continental Congress voted funds for a squadron of eight ships and appointed Esek Hopkins of Rhode Island as the commander. In all only 13 frigates were built but the ships were ill-fated and soon destroyed or captured by the British Navy.

Two of the most famous American seadogs were Capt. John Barry from Philadelphia and Capt. John Paul Jones, an immigrant from Scotland. In the fall of 1776 they, along with Captains Wickes and Conyngham, carried naval operations to British home waters. In 1777 467 British

"The Singing Boys" Christmas Chorus

House lights dim, voices change to whispers which give way to quiet. Candles adorning the Christmas tree are slowly lighted. Aura of European tradition fills the room. The beautiful refrains of Silent Night, being sung by angelic voices rise above the sweet silence. Once again, the Singing Boys of Long Island remind everyone it's Christmas time. Here for you, in their choral program, you will hear traditional songs of Christmas.

The forty voice Concert Choir consists of boys and young men ranging in age from nine to eighteen. Under the direction of Gerald Barker, they strive to maintain the great choral tradition which dates back to the Renaissance. The choir composition is based on the famous St. Thomas Choir of Leipzig, Germany, whose renowned choir master was Johann Sebastian Bach. The very special sound of music as intended by the great masters remains pure in style as the Singing Boys Concert Choir stive to maintain an example of musical excellence.

The choir is internationally renowned for their appearances abroad and at home. During their five European tours, they have distinguished themselves in England, Italy, Germany, Austria, Spain, Czechoslovakia, Morocco, Holland, Belgium and France. They received a bronze medal from Pope Paul VI, for their magnificent Papal Concert with a Papal audience of 40,000 in St. Peter's Basilica. Were invited to sing a Mass with Cardinal Mindszenty in his private chapel in Vienna. Performed at Universities, Government Functions, Operas and Concerts.

"Christmas with the Singing Boys of Long Island" will be presented at the Interfaith Chapel of C. W. Post College, Brookville, at 8:00 P.M. on Saturday December 20.

Tickets are $2.00 for adults, $1.00 for students, and Senior Citizens are complimentary. This Concert is under the sponsorship of the Nassau County Office of Cultural Development.

How to reduce your current Federal income tax...

...and have more money for your retirement, too.

If you're working and not covered by a pension program, there is now a tax-favored way for you to build your own retirement fund.

You can defer Federal income taxes each year on up to 15% of your income or $1,500, whichever is less, by putting this income to work to set up your own retirement fund.

Think about that! You can purchase your own retirement plan with money you deduct on your income tax. You won't be subject to tax until years from now after retirement, when your tax bracket probably will be lower.

So if you're not scheduled to get a pension, call me and we'll arrange one.

At The Town Board Meeting

by Gerry Kahn

Approximately thirty-five people were present for the Town Board Meeting held on Tuesday, December 16th. Twenty eight items made up the agenda, the first four being Hearings.

Items no. 1 and no. 2, relative to rental of Hydrants by Water Districts to Plainview and Oyster Bay Fire Protection Districts respectively, were closed and decision reserved.

The third item on the calendar was a hearing to consider proposed amendments to the Code of Ordinances pertaining to the Protection of Purchaser Deposit Security when buying a new home and when the property has not been deeded to the builder prior to construction.

Mr. Tom Juneau, Secretary for the Long Island Home Builders Assoc. spoke in favor of the amendment and suggested minor changes. He stated that his organization has made inroads relative to the protection proposed by dealing with an insurance company who would bond security deposits through a form of group insurance at nominal costs.

nominal costs

Mr. Porcelli, an attorney who represents builders, spoke in opposition to the proposal. He claimed that the funds were utilized by the builders and its use was an accepted practice in the industry. If such moneys were denied builders it would in fact create additional hardships and if, as a result, they were required to seek replacement finances the cost would have to be passed on to the purchasers. He claimed that in these times of belt tightening etc. Builders were seeking methods of trying to reduce costs rather than increase them. Mr. Porcelli was joined by Mr. Richard Maurey and Bob Isotelo, builders.

The fourth and final item was a hearing on proposed amendments to the Code of Ordinances T.O.B. relative to Motor Vehicle and Traffic Rules in various hamlets of Hicksville, Plainview and Massapequa.

Mr. Michael Polansky, speaking for the Greater Plainview Community Civic Association, was in favor of the proposal after clarifying one of the intersections that the new proposals would affect. Marie Petrocca and Roberta Fine were opposed to the proposals. Residents of Massapequa, they claimed that the NO PARKING SIGNS to be placed across the street from their homes would only place an additional burden on the parking facilities already on the street. Beverly Ames and Lucy Simms, neighbors from across the street, were in favor of the proposal.

Supervisor Burke suggested that although the Hearing would be closed and Decision reserved that the board would consider any additional letters that may come in relative to the matter and that a thorough review of the situation and methods of relieving the problem would be considered, before the final amendment was passed.

The twenty four resolutions that made up the balance of the calendar were quickly dispatched.

Christmas At The Museum

The Gregory Museum, Long Island Earth Science Center will again have a lighted Christmas Tree in the tower of its building, located on Heitz Place, Hicksville.

The tree was donated by The Hicksville Garden Club; and was installed and decorated by volunteer workers Richard Sullivan, Robert Stosch, and Christopher Boyens. Be sure and stop by the Museum's Gift Shoppe for that unusual gift item you have been trying to find to give for Christmas.

Accident Report

Dec. 10-7:10 p.m. - Cars driven by Chris Schlegel, 75 Harvard Dr., Plainview and William Dunne, Levittown, collided on Manetto Hill Rd. at Country Dr., Plainview. Chris Schlegel was taken to Central General Hospital with severe bleeding of the head.

KNEELING TIME

The greatest story in the world begins as quietly as a single snowflake drifting down into a silent forest at midnight. "And in that region there were shepherds out in the fields keeping watch over their flock by night." Imagine the feeling of those shepherds as the sky filled with angels singing, "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace, good will toward men." No wonder they "came to the manger with haste" and arriving there they found the Holy Family. On the faces of our Lord's parents was wonder and reverence mixed with gratitude and joy.

In the Ozark Mountains, I am told, there is an old legend that at midnight on Christmas Eve the cattle kneel in adoration of the Savior who came into their stable so many years ago. A part of the legend, however, is that they will not kneel if any human being is watching. That, of course, makes the story safe from prying, scientific eyes. We shall never be able to prove it or disprove it with our senses. But isn't that the way Christmas is ... an intimate and ultimate experience which is forever beyond the eyes of proud minds.

Only the cattle know if they really kneel to the Savior at midnight - as only we ourselves know in the deepest regions of our hearts whether we too are really there at the manger. Christmas is kneeling time for the entire earth as the eyes of faith-filled hearts look upon the Only-begotten Son of the Father. And as we look, our hard and distraught faces melt into expressions of joy and adoration. For those who kneel at the manger rise again filled with the love of God which brings peace and joy to their lives.

Use Extra Caution Around The Home At Holiday Time

Don't let an accident spoil your holiday fun, warns Dr. John J. Dowling, Commissioner of the Nassau County Department of Health.

Electric shock, burns, poisoning and falls are among the many potential hazards of the season which can be avoided, with a little extra care, he said.

Wires, plugs and sockets on decorative lights should be checked to make sure they are in good condition, electrical apparatus should be Underwriters Laboratory (UL) approved, and lights placed outdoors should be specifically made for outside use, according to Henry Young, Director of Safety for the County Health Department.

A metal tree can be a serious shock hazard if electric lights are attached to it, Young said. The only way to illuminate a metal tree safely is to use colored floodlights. But since these floodlights can become quite hot, he noted, they should be positioned where children can't come in contact with them.

Live Christmas trees, if dry, will burn easily. The tree, which should not be brought into the house until you are ready to use it, should be placed in a container which will hold water and be refilled daily. The tree should not be placed near a heat source, such as a fireplace, radiator, or heating vent.

Some holiday decorations can be dangerous, the Commissioner noted.

Although decorative sprays may be perfectly safe once applied, Dr. Dowling warns, inhaling the aerosol propellants can cause nausea, vomiting or headaches.

Mistletoe berries are poisonous if eaten. They should be kept out of the reach of young children. Tree ornaments which are breakable or have small detachable parts should not be on lower branches where small children or pets can reach them and knock them off. The metallic salts used to make colored flames in fireplaces also are dangerous, if eaten by a child.

Proper handling of food, necessary, all year, is particularly important during the holiday period with special situations such as buffet parties and larger quantities of food being handled.

James Cutter, Director of Food and Beverage Control Bureau of the Health Department, advises that perishable items such as salads with mayonnaise, fish, poultry or cream-filled pastries should not be left at room temperature for periods of time.

Cold foods should be kept cold; hot foods hot. Potentially hazardous foods are in the danger zone when they have a temperature of between 45 and 140 degrees Fahrenheit for a length of time.

Foods cooked in advance should be refrigerated. Surfaces on which raw meat or poultry have been prepared must be cleaned thoroughly before being used for processing any other food.

Salads will keep better if the ingredients are chilled.

If salads are to be transported, the ingredients used should be pre-chilled.

Only home caterers who are licensed by the Department of Health should be used.

New Tax Office

Congressman Norman F. Lent today announced that beginning next month, the Internal Revenue Service will operate an Appellate Branch Office at 393 Old Country Rd., in Mineola.

"This new office," Lent said, "represents further recognition by the federal government that 2.6 million people living in Nassau and Suffolk should not have to travel to New York City for services."

Before the opening of the new Appellate Branch

Office, anyone who did not agree with the results of an audit of their federal income, estate, gift and certain other taxes, had to travel to 90 Church St., in lower Manhattan, for a hearing in the New York City Appellate Office of the IRS. This new office, employing about 25 people, will eliminate that long and difficult trip for Long Island residents

Fire Report

By Ex-Capt. Owen Magee

Hicksville Volunteer Firemen answered a total of 36 Alarms during the period 12-2-75 to 12-16-75. There were 8 malicious false alarms. 16 rescue calls, 12 fire calls.

A fire did an estimated $5,000.00 damage to a house at 40 Bridle La. The alarm came in on Dec. 11 at 7:39 a.m. Upon arrival Hicksville vamps found a fast spreading fire in the attic of the Levitt style home. Quick action by vamps confined the fire to one room in the attic. The rest of the dwelling suffered smoke damage. No one was home at the time of the fire, which was believed to have started on a circulator motor in the attic.

4 Hour Fire in Asphalt Plant
Fire broke out at 6:31 a.m. on Dec. 12 at an asphalt plant at 344 Duffy Ave. The stubborn blaze, in a machine that is used to heat up the asphalt, was fed by propane gas. Two alarms were sounded to bring all Hicksville Fire equipment to the scene. Over 3,500 ft. of hose had to be used as the plant is down in the sand pit area. Vamps were on the scene for over 4 hours.

Fire Watch Important During Holidays
As the Holiday season approaches, and we become busy with shopping and other preparations we tend to rush and get a little careless. The officers and men of the Hicksville Fire Dept. wish all our residents a fire safe, happy Holiday season. Along with that wish is an urgent request that you heed the following:

A) If you must use candles - keep out of reach of children.

B) Take care - not to overload your electrical system, electric bills are sky-high. -Play it cool and cut down. You will save money and prevent a possible fire.

C) Holiday parties are now in full swing. After the party, be sure all areas have been checked for smoldering cigarettes and cigars. Put the contents of all ash trays in a metal can outside.

D) When you retire for the night, DON'T have that last smoke in bed. It could be your LAST smoke.

E) Get rid of Xmas gift wrappings fast, don't let them accumulate inside.

F) If you have a real tree, keep it in water. A dry tree is a time bomb.

G) Keep all trees a good distance away from exits.

H) And last - a gift suggestion - Buy your family a smoke detector. They are now on sale in most local discount and department stores. It could very well save you and your family. A smoke detector will sniff smoke long before you do and warn you - give you that time to alert others and evacuate. In our opinion it is the best investment you can make. Don't put it off - Do it now.

Vamps Mourn Loss of Ex-Capt.

Ex-Capt John Wichmann of Eng. Co. 2 Hicksville F.D. passed away on Dec. 3. Hicksville Firemen mourn the loss of John, a big man with a big heart. The funeral was Dec. 8. Interment followed in Lutheran Cemetery.
