Hicksville Community Council To Meet

Again, it is the time of year when our thoughts turn to budgets - how much is it going to cost the average homeowner for this year's taxes? Are there going to be any cuts in services? Is a rise in taxes contemplated? Well, the first of the budget people - the Hicksville Public Library is presenting their budget to the general public at the Hicksville Community Council meeting on Thursday, March 4th at 8:30 P.M. downstairs at the Library. It is an opportunity for the people of Hicksville to contemplate the wisdom of the Board of Directors as they compiled the figures together. The presenter of the budget, Mr. Kenneth Barners, the Library Director, will be happy to answer any question or note any comment that pertains to library business.

Entertainment of any kind is a welcome addition to any meeting; especially to the Hicksville Community Council. So for next Thursday night, Mr.

Charles Gouse of the Hicksville School District, is going to scout the elementary schools and come up with the best talent around. So, watch out Van Cliburn, Beverly Sills, Frank Sinatra, and Marie and Donnie Osmond - your competition will be making their public debut on March 4th.

And, as usual, the Community Council will be holding their "Town Meeting" where any notice can be given, any statement can be made, and any trouble can be aired, as long as it pertains to our Community, said a spokesman for the Council. Our "Town Meeting" is an ongoing project that tries to notify both sides of an existing problem so that a solution can be reached by them. The "Town Meeting" is the voice of the people.

So, since there is no snow to keep you away, mark your calendar for Thursday, March 4th, in the large auditorium of the Library. You will be glad that you decided to come.

Fire Dept. Report

By Ex-Capt. Owen Magee

VAMPS BATTLE HOUSE FIRES

Hicksville Firemen, on Sunday Feb. 22, responded to a general alarm blaze at 36 Fern Ct. upon arrival, fire had a good hold on a second floor bedroom and flames were leaping out 2nd floor windows. The occupants all escaped unharmed. Vamps were on the scene in minutes and although a heavy fire and smoke condition hampered them, an aggressive attack confined the major fire damage to the point of origin and the roof, although as in any fire the remainder of the split level dwelling suffered smoke and water damage. Seven pieces of apparatus, 80 men responded to the 5:07 P.M. alarm under Chief Roy Schaaf. 3 pieces of apparatus were used to douse the blaze. The other apparatus were kept ready for other alarms. In firemen's lingo the vamps made "A Good Stop" stopping the fire in the room it started in. The cause was listed as careless smoking.

On Monday a homeowner working on his leaking car gas tank in his attached garage touched off a blaze when he used a drop light and gas dripped on the hot bulb, a common cause of many gas station and garage fires. The car and garage were lost to fire but quick action by 45 Hicksville Vamps, 7 pieces of apparatus under Asst. Chief James Huttie halted the fire before it could damage the home. There were no injuries reported. The alarm came in at 3:08 P.M. on Feb. 23.

FIRE REPORT

During the period February 16 thru 24th the Hicksville Fire Department responded to 22 alarms. There were 3 malicious false alarms, 5 rescue calls, and 14 fire calls. Hicksville firemen were called out on February 19 at 12:04 P.M. to stand by for Plainview Vamps while they fought a stubborn house fire.

While on stand-by Hicksville vamps responded to a brush fire. The fire was off the road and vamps were forced to go off the road to fight the fire. In the process the pumper got stuck in the mud and the vamps "didn't cuss, they called Gus" to haul them out and Gus Reidinger towing service had a job. It was over an hour before Engine Co. 4 was in service.

TO REPORT A FIRE.....

Hicksville firemen are called out many times during the course of the year. Our reports give you a good idea of the work the vamps do for your tax money, but in this report we'd like to put in a word for the fire dispatchers. Many times the dispatchers report the people calling in don't really know where they live. The dispatchers wish to point out that they know that when people call in an emergency is involved and it's natural that they are excited. But it is important that we point out that in order to get the help you need, he must know what help you need and where you are.

We hope the following will help you. If you should ever have need of our services:

First, call your Fire Dept. direct or the operator. Don't call (Continued on Page 7)

Garbage Collection Facts

There are currently three collections of garbage per week with one of these days scheduled as rubbish collection day in various areas. Under the new schedule there will be two collections of garbage per week with one of these days scheduled as rubbish collection in various areas.

The only difference remains that there will be one less garbage pick-up per week. All other collections remain the same.

Under the current contract the Town permits 11 sanitation holidays. On these 11 days the homeowner loses the collection and must wait for his next regularly scheduled collection date. In cases where the holiday is on the homeowner's rubbish collection day, the homeowner must then wait until the following week to put out his rubbish. The proposed new schedule eliminates 5 of the 11 sanitation holidays, keeping the legal date for the celebration of New Year's Day, Memorial Day, July 4th, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day only. On the occasion that one of these holidays fall on a collection day, the collection not made on the holiday will be made on the following Wednesday or Saturday. This assures the homeowner of twice a week garbage collection and the added assurance of once a week rubbish collection.

The current schedule provides Monday, Wednesday and Friday pick-ups with rubbish days divided between Wednesday and Friday; and Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday pick-ups with Thursday and Saturday serving as rubbish days.

The revised schedule will provide Tuesday and Friday collection in areas currently on the Monday-Wednesday and Friday schedule. Rubbish collection will continue to be on Fridays in those areas where that is the current schedule and will be offered on Tuesdays in those areas currently scheduled for Wednesday rubbish days. The new schedule will be Monday and Thursday in those areas currently on the Tuesday-Thursday and Saturday schedule. Rubbish days will continue on Thursdays in those areas currently on a Thursday schedule and will be on Mondays for those homeowners currently scheduled for Saturday rubbish collection.

Under the current system the sanitation collection personnel are on a five-day work week, but collect on a six-day-a-week schedule. By use of rotating shifts the Town has been able to maintain such a schedule by employing a collection crew approximately 15 percent larger than would be necessary if the work week and collection schedule matched. Under the proposed schedule the work week and collection schedule will match and the sanitation collection force is expected to be reduced by approximately 15 percent. This will be accomplished, without the firing of current full time employees, mainly through attrition and due to the fact that for the past several months the sanitation division has been hiring temporary personnel to fill vacancies where it has been feasible. It is expected that the sanitation collection staff will be reduced by approximately 35 men. Some of these men might be transferred to other divisions where the 20-month job freeze has left openings of which some must be filled to maintain existing Town winning way. Do not quarrel with an angry person, but give him a soft answer. This is commanded by Holy Writ and, furthermore, it makes him madder than anything else you could say.

Under the current system a sanitation man collects 5 of one week's trash due to the fact that he only works 5 of the 6 collection days under most circumstances. Under the proposed schedule the same man will now be responsible for the full amount of weekly trash. This means that each man, under the proposed schedule, will exceed his current productivity by 20 percent.

Under the current schedule, the trucks are on the road six days a week, limiting the time available to the vehicular maintenance division to make necessary repairs, on occasion requiring overtime be put in by the maintenance men and, in some cases, by the sanitation men who are delayed in handling their route due to a truck breakdown. Under the proposed schedule, the maintenance division will have the trucks available for repairs and preventive maintenance a full day each week, in addition to the current after-route time.

Through the reduction in manpower, reduction in the number of days trucks will be on the road, the elimination of a great deal of overtime forced by the six day schedule, it is expected that the Town will be able to save close to a half million dollars a year in sanitation collection through adoption of the proposed revised schedule. While this savings may be diminished in other cost areas of sanitation collection—such as increased gasoline costs, increased parts costs—it is believed that these savings will allow the Town to realistically look to the possibility of maintaining current sanitation collection district tax levels in the 1977 budget.

Although not fully explored at this time, and a matter that can only be considered if the new schedule is adopted and facts are learned as the new schedule proceeds, there is a possibility that this new schedule might allow for the reduction of incinerator and landfill schedules. This can mean future savings beyond the sanitation collection area.

If the new schedule is adopted by the Town Board it can be put into effect within three to four weeks.

The proposed schedule is one that is currently proving very successful among such largely populated areas as the Village of Farmingdale, the Town of Islip, and certain areas in Massapequa.

At The Town Board

by Gerry Kahn

The formal meeting of the Town Board, held Tues., Feb. 24, concluded at 4:55 p.m.

The agenda was comprised of five hearings and 42 resolutions. Items No. 1 and No. 2 monopolized the day concluding at 4:15.

The first hearing was a petition by Gilbert Tilles for a change of zone from Res. A and BA to E-2 General Residence District at Jericho. The property in question is 80 plus acres on the N/S Jericho Tpke., approximately 590 feet west of Route 107 intersection.

The petitioner was represented by Council, Michael J. Ricigliano. He was assisted in his presentation by Mr. Nelson, real estate appraiser, Mr. Ed Sharsky, a traffic consultant, and Mr. Seymour Stillman, a planning expert.

The request, if approved would create a housing area of 485 combined ranch and town houses. There would be 40 each of one and two bedroom ranch type and 95 two bedroom town houses and 310 three bedroom town houses. The complex would contain a golf course and the units would range in cost from $55,000 to $85,000 with approximately six units to an acre.

The presentation included drawings, layouts, documented traffic surveys, photographs, professional analysis of real estate usage and zoning changes.

Those present speaking in favor of the granting were: Attorney Fred Willets, representing Henry Willis Underhill, the present owner of the property; William Doremus, adjoining land owner; James A. Malcolm Jr., adjoining land owner; William Robertson, Brookville resident, welcomes change as a form of tax relief; Bert Titus, resident; Paul Ramona and Miss Lewis, residents in the area.

Those present speaking in opposition to the petition were: Milton Mensch, representing the Joint Civic Council of Jericho. He stated total opposition to granting; that passage would destroy present concepts of the Jericho community, and, would establish precedents that would enable an additional 500 acres to be similarly rezoned.

Also in opposition was Harriet Grill, speaking for Harry Seaton, president of the Birchwood Civic Association. She formalized the opposition by presenting a 1000 signature petition opposed to granting.

Wini Gaines of the West Birchwood Civic Assoc. Also spoke in opposition.

The basic arguments in opposition were: loss of community character, traffic impact, reduction of water reserves, abandonment of the Master Plan and a precedent for future rezoning.

Arguments in favor of the granting were: additional tax revenues, preservation of community character as opposed to other uses, no traffic impact, make way for advancement as property can be utilized and still maintain suburban character.

In addition to the speakers, the Town Clerk received several letters opposed to the granting and a 258 name petition from the Oakwood Park Civic Assoc.

The hearing was closed and decision reserved.

The second hearing was on proposed amendments to the Code of Ordinances relative to garbage, litter, and waste.

The amendments culminated an approximate two year study on one of several methods currently utilized to relieve town spending.

The amendments will include a two-day a week garbage pick-up with longer working hours, as opposed to the three-day pick-up currently in use.

Recognition of five sanitation holidays instead of the present 11 days that are observed.

The change would permit a reduction in the work force by 15 percent, and a reduction of approximately 100 driven miles per week per truck.

The adoption of the proposed revision will save the Town close to a half million dollars per year. The savings may be reduced by other costs but at the dimmest the Town would conceivably maintain current collection district tax levels in the 1977 budget even with the higher maintenance and fuel costs.

Set March 23 Hearing On Proposed Syosset Condos

The Town Board has scheduled a public hearing to consider an application of Ron-Con Realty, Inc. for a change of zone of approximately 14 acres in Syosset to permit construction of condominium units.

The hearing has been scheduled to take place on Tuesday, March 23 on the applicant's request for a change of zone from Residence B-1 (1 unit per 20,000 sq. ft.) to Residence E-2 (6 units per acre) for an irregularly-shaped parcel of land located north of Syosset-Woodbury Road, approximately 280 feet east of Cold Spring Road, the easterly portion of the property abuts the lands acquired by the State Department of Transportation for a right-of-way when the State agency contemplated an extension of the Seaford-Oyster Bay Expressway.

Plans submitted by the realty company indicate an intention to construct 87 condominium units with a total of 257 parking spaces, land coverage of the structures, roadways and driveways is projected at 27.5 percent. The applicant has designated 3.5 percent of the land for recreational use and contends that 69 percent of the total acreage will remain as open space.

Dems Plan "Hoe-Down"

10th Assembly District Democrats have another exciting function in the works - an old fashioned "Hoe down" to be held on Saturday evening, March 20 (8:30 PM) at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Old Country Road (the Waldbaum's Shopping Center) in Plainview.

The "Hoe down" Committee - chaired by Marsha Elowsky and Elene Arowesty - is putting together a fantastic evening. Highlighting the event will be square dancing to the calling of Lew Flego, a "Celebrity Auction" (wait until you see what we're auctioning off...), a Country Auction, and lots of good old fashioned country cooking. Great entertainment, great food (and lots of it), prizes and surprises for all - what more could you want? And the price is equally great - only $15 a couple.

For tickets to the "Hoe down" or more information, call Marsha (WE 1-8821) or Elene (681-9188).

Dear Mrs. Noeth:

Nearly 3500 Tenth Assembly District Democrats signed one or another of the Democratic Party Designating Petitions that were circulated in our area during the past month. This record performance is indicative of the kind of interest that has been generated in our Local Democratic Party. Whatever their preference as to candidates, it is indeed gratifying to see that so many Democrats have become involved with their Party on the local level.

Much of the credit for this record performance is due to the inspired leadership of local Democratic leaders AARON BRITVAN and CAROLE FISHMAN. By re-electing Aaron and Carole as our State Committeeman and State Committeewoman in the April 6 Democratic Primary, we Democrats can ensure two more years of continued progress for our Party. A vote for Aaron and Carole on April 6 is a vote for the kind of leadership our Party must continue to have in the Plainview-Hicksville-Bethpage area.

Very truly yours,
s Michael Polansky

Dear Mrs. Noeth:

My letter printed in your paper last week pointed out the abhorrence I felt when confronted with the business-as-usual budget presented to the school board's budget advisory committee. It was an appalling document, containing only expenditures which were increased by 1.192 million dollars and ignored revenues completely, even though decreased revenues will increase Hicksville's tax liability by about an additional 2.2 million dollars.

A budget is nothing more than a plan to spend a certain amount of money to accomplish certain objectives. Using the school superintendent's example of a triangle, it can be described as having one side for the objectives, the second side for the costs of attaining the objectives, and the remaining side for revenue-taxes to pay the costs.

1. Under a business-as-usual

Letters To The Editor

concept, the stable side of the triangle budget is composed of all present programs, regardless as to the necessity for the programs and or regardless of the numbers of students benefited. The second side is then increased in length to cover increased operational costs, and then of course taxes must be increased on the third side to pay the increased costs. What hurts most though is the tax rate increase that occurs as the revenue portion of the revenue-tax leg is decreased by decreased state aid.

2. Under a fiscal no-growth budget, the revenue-tax side of the triangle becomes the stable side and programs are reduced or eliminated to keep costs within present revenue-taxes.

The business-as-usual budget given the committee was a deceptive attempt to have the committee approve expenditures without knowing how much revenue-taxes would be available. If the committee approves the expenditures, it will provide the window-dressing needed for school administrators to defend a big budget - for after all, wasn't the expenditures approved by Hicksville taxpayers, members of the committee? That is nothing more than the like-type defense used by the administrators to justify all present programs in being - for after all, the programs have been approved by the Hicksville Education Goals and Objectives Committee. Any blatant attempt on their part to pit resident against resident over an inflated budget will be doomed by the realities of the situation: tax money is scarce, will become scarcer, and will result in many policy changes in the future.

The business-as-usual budget is in effect, complete abandonment of school administrator responsibilities for which they are being paid up to $42,000 per year. Budgets are not prepared by approving expenditures without consideration of revenues and tax liability, unless the budget makers having a "hand in the taxpayer's pocket" don't concern themselves with costs and tax liability because the taxpayer always pays, or unless, there is an "invisible hand of self-interest" guiding the budget preparation.

The business-as-usual budget is a clear indication that the school board is not providing the leadership necessary to counteract either of the reasons which may be involved in the preparation of the budget. It must be pointed out that we are way behind in planning for the effects of increased costs and decreased revenues. All our neighbors, in all directions, Syosset, Mineola, East Meadow, Farmingdale, and Plainview have not been afraid to face hard facts, and are making difficult decisions. Soon the Hicksville School Board must make the difficult decisions.

The board is respectfully invited to make those decisions while absolutely ignoring:

1. The fallacies repeated continuously by the school superintendent that bigger spending makes better education and that property values increase because of the supposedly better education achieved by the bigger spending.

2. The rumbles of the Hicksville Teacher's Association who sit in the back of the board room like a gaggle of turkeys, occupying most seats, and ready to pounce on any pearl of wisdom dropped by a taxpayer or a board member. Most of the teachers don't even live in Hicksville. The remarks of the Hicksville teacher who resides in Merrick urging the board to disregard the warnings of state aid cut backs "because the cut backs just won't happen" is an outstanding example of self-interest involved in teacher advice to the board. Furthermore, the board need not listen to teacher non residents give advice as to how much Hicksville tax money should be spent.

The taxpayers must attend school board meetings and move to get the board working on alternatives and options to the business-as-usual budget. The board cannot ignore taxpayers desires with impunity.

Sincerely yours,
Frank H. Willard

Accident Reports

Tragedy was averted following a three-car collision on Jerusalem Ave., near Tobias St., Hicksville, on Tuesday, Feb. 24, thanks to a two-man crew of a Nassau County police helicopter. At 8:30 a.m. cars driven by Joan Fagan, 18 Picture Lane, Hicksville, and Catherine Annunziato, 34 Salem Lane, Hicksville, collided on Jerusalem Ave. The Annunziato car was pulling out of a parking lot and the Fagan car was northbound. The Fagan car jumped the divider and collided head-on with a car driven by Joseph Joosten, 61 Friendly Rd., Hicksville, who was southbound.

The helicopter was on patrol over that area when it picked up the call for ambulance assistance. Frank Madonna, the pilot of the helicopter, set it down in a vacant lot on Jerusalem Ave.

Two of the cars were jammed together and John Cerasani, the ambulance medical technician aboard the helicopter saw that one of the drivers, Joosten, was having difficulty breathing. Cerasani cleared away some of the debris so that Joosten could breathe. At that time, two police cars arrived and they worked to remove Joosten, give him an IV (intravenous sodium solution) and get him into the ambulance that had arrived. Taken to the Nassau County Medical Center, Joosten is listed in poor condition following surgery for facial and internal injuries.

Also in the Nassau County Medical Center is Joan Fagan, who was hospitalized with leg injuries and several lacerations. She is listed in fair condition. Catherine Annunziato was not injured in the accident.

No action was taken by the police against any of the drivers. Feb. 19-9:45 p.m. Cars driven by Ann Marrone, 112 Wilfred Blvd., Hicksville and Daniel McGee, 89 Circle Dr., Syosset, collided on Woodbury Rd. at Moeller St., Hicksville. Ann Marrone was taken to Syosset Hospital with neck pains.

COME, MAN...I NEED YOU!
Right in the middle of the rush of life the telephone rings. "Hello... (long distance)... Hello, Hello... You're kidding me. Oh come on, this must be some kind of prank. What do You want? ... But I am following You. I make church fairly often and give what I can... that's not enough? Well, what do You want?... Me?... You want me completely?... Because You need my help. How can I be of help to the Lord of the entire universe?... By giving myself up? Now I'm completely confused. What do You mean. "By giving myself up"... Replace me as the number one concern of my life so that You can take charge... and you want a decision now... Today. Can I think about it?... I'll call you back if that's possible... not possible... it's urgent... time is short... much to do... people dying... world in trouble... my own problems are killing me... thinking not necessary. You want obedience... forget about me and just follow You."

There are times when each of us questions our general worth. Some of us dislike ourselves and believe others dislike us. Often we feel friendless and lonely. And into the jungle of these dark feelings, the phone rings... it's Jesus. "Come, man." He says, "I need you." Impossible we feel, but scrawled across the pages of scripture over and over is a God who looks at ordinary people like us and says, "Come, man... I need you." He wants us to join the team of those who have said "yes" to Him with their lives as well as their mouths.
He also has a tremendous love for us personally, and a strong desire for us to get our lives all together. He wants to set us free from our worries. Will I have a job in 1976? Will I get sick? Will my boyfriend or girlfriend continue to like me? Will my marriage improve? Will I ever be able to handle my loneliness?
Although these are important questions, they are overshadowed by the joyous personal affirmation of our worth. "Hey," we can exclaim like an excited child, "you know what? I'm needed by the Power behind the universe. Jesus needs me." Set free, we are able to do great things in our own lives and in the lives of others. "Count me out of the rat race." We can say after giving our "yes" to discipleship. Of course we can't get rid of all worry, but we now have help in handling it. Jesus' joy becomes ours as we let go and let God rule our lives.

This morning He calls us. He calls us to discipleship. To freedom. To enjoy the power which helps us deal with all kinds of circumstances. "Come, man... I need you." It's a personal request demanding each individual's response. Some will put this paper down and forget the whole thing. Others will wrestle with the idea but never make a decision. Some may decide to do something about their lives and follow Him more closely. But everyone will decide. The phone is ringing. What will it be for you?

911 that is for Police Emergency.

Second, give the dispatcher your house number and street name. What is very important is that you give him the closest street corner nearest your house. There are many streets that have similar names or, in some cases, the same name. A second street name nearest yours is very important. If you are not sure take a walk and check out the nearest corner or intersecting street to yours. Jot it down and keep it handy near the phone number of your Fire Dept. Your house number should be posted and clearly visible. A house without a number is like a man without a name, without it it can't be identified. Over half the homes in Hicksville don't have house numbers. Hard to imagine that for lack of a $1 dollar set of numbers your fire fighter or police officer can be delayed in giving you the aid you need? Believe it. It can and does happen often. Help your fire department help you. All the time they spend training to give you professional service is not going to help if you don't know how to call your Fire Dept. and give the dispatcher the information he needs, or that you don't have a house number displayed.

While you're at it why not invest in a home battery operated smoke detector. You owe it to your self and your family. As you can see by our report in this issue fire starts when you least expect it. A $35.00 smoke detector can save your $35,000 home and your life. Look into it today. Information on smoke detectors is available by dropping me a note c/o Hicksville F.D. 20 E. Marie St., Hicksville, N.Y. 11801 (Ex-Capt. O.W. Magee) I'll be glad to send you details at no cost.

Providing Income Tax Help for Retirees

By Harriet Miller

During a Congressional committee hearing on Social Security, the discussion shifted momentarily to the problems many retirees were having computing their annual income tax returns.

"It's very confusing," commented Sen. Frank Church (D-Id.). "I have tried . . . making out my mother-in-law's income tax returns. Having tried to figure it out and in one case, having made the computation incorrectly myself, I understand the problems that taxpayers face in trying to do it, trying to get through that maze of calculations . . . The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Department admitted he couldn't figure the retirement income credit himself."

That was in July 1973, and the situation remains essentially unchanged today. The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Department may have since learned how to figure the retirement income credit correctly, but millions of older taxpayers still haven't—and, as a result, nearly half of them overpay their income taxes each year.

Why is this such a perplexing problem for retirees who, after all, have been filing income tax returns for most of their working lives?

In a way, it is like the old saying about changing horses in midstream. As soon as a person reaches age 65, the income tax rules change dramatically. Suddenly, it's a whole new ballgame with even more complicated guidelines for determining deductions and liabilities.

"Quite frequently," notes Sen. Church, "these provisions can pose formidable challenges, even for experienced tax experts. But for the untrained—and oftentimes unsuspecting—elderly taxpayer, these complex tax relief measures can prove to be mind boggling."

While many of these measures were enacted to reduce the personal tax burden of retirees, their rules have grown so complicated over the years that they have now become more of a hindrance than a help. If these old age tax relief measures are to fulfill their original promise, a complete overhaul and simplification of the current tax computing procedure is essential.

One thing that would help immensely is a "senior short form" designed especially to fit the needs of older taxpayers—a form which could be completed as easily as the short form currently used by wage earners.

Legislation was introduced in both houses of Congress last year to restructure and increase the present retirement income credit, and to simplify the calculation process. Even if this legislation were to be passed immediately (which is highly unlikely), it would not affect the income tax returns you will be filing out during these next few months.

Help, however, is available to older taxpayers through Tax-Aide, a free program through which their fellow retirees help them prepare their own returns. Sponsored by AARP and NRTA in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service, and staffed by IRS-trained volunteers, Tax-Aide has been assisting senior citizens since 1969. This year, some 5,000 volunteer counselors will be available to aid retirees in 1,200 locations in 48 states.

Tax-Aide counselors are not accountants, and function solely as advisors, explaining to their "clients" what forms are required, and what information should be included on those forms. When a problem is so complex that the services of a professional are called for, the counselors refer them to the IRS's own counseling service or to a qualified accountant.

If you need assistance in preparing your income tax return or if you want to help your fellow retirees with their tax problems, you can learn the location of the Tax-Aide program nearest you by writing to Tax-Aide c/o AARP-NRTA, Dept. PT, 1909 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20049.

Even if there isn't a Tax-Aide program located near you, you can still benefit from the helpful hints contained in Your Retirement Income Tax Guide just published by AARP and NRTA. For a free copy, write to me at the Associations' address above — and many happy returns!

GIFTS FROM THE KITCHEN

Need gift ideas? Something for the bazaar? Party Mix, the snack made with bite-size cereal squares, is perfect for the hard-to-please person on your list, your child's teacher or as a holiday hostess gift.

Make double recipes and freeze. When needed, thaw Party Mix at room temperature and package. Decorate cans and jars, buy inexpensive glass containers, spray and fill a plastic bucket. The ways you can give this popular snack are limited only by your imagination.

PARTY MIX

- 6 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 teaspoon seasoned salt
- 4 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
- 2 cups Corn Chex cereal (bite-size crispy corn squares)
- 2 cups Rice Chex cereal (bite-size crispy rice squares)
- 2 cups Wheat Chex cereal (bite-size crispy wheat squares)
- 3/4 cup salted nuts

Melt butter in shallow pan over low heat. Stir in seasoned salt and Worcestershire sauce. Add Chex and nuts. Mix until all pieces are coated. Heat in 250° oven 45 minutes. Stir every 15 minutes. Spread out on absorbent paper to cool.

To vary, substitute the teaspoon of seasoned salt with 3/8 teaspoon onion or garlic powder and 3/8 teaspoon salt. Makes 6 3/4 cups.

The Kitchen Almanac

Just for fun dept. — Some time back, we made mention in this space of an early recipe for "Potted Pigeons". Well, Rose Barry of East Haven, Conn. saw the mention and promptly sent us this version of the dish. (Happy flying or eating — or whatever!!) And, our thanks to Ms. Barry for passing the recipe along . . . Wonder if these could be called "Bicentennial birds?")

- Potted Pigeons
- 6 pigeons
  - 3 slices bacon
  - Any simple stuffing
  - 1 diced carrot
  - 1 diced onion
  - Chopped parsley
  - Hot water or stock
  - 1/4 cup fat
  - 1/4 cup flour
  - Buttered toast
- Clean and dress pigeons, stuff, truss, and place them upright in a stew-pan on the slices of bacon. Add the carrot, onion, and a little parsley, and cover with boiling water or stock. Cover the pot closely and let simmer from 2-3 hours, or until tender — adding boiling water or stock when necessary. Make a sauce of the fat and flour and two cups of the stock remaining in the pan. Serve each pigeon on a thin piece of moistened toast, and pour gravy over all.

Safety And Economy Hints

If you're switching from a black and white to a color set, your old antenna may be all right, or it may not. Often a worn antenna, particularly one designed for black and white reception, will deteriorate the picture or cut out some of the color signal. The best solution is to connect your new color set to the old antenna, and if you don't get a good picture have a new one installed.

The type of television stations in your area should be considered in your selection of a set, say experts at the Electronic Industries Association. If there are several UHF stations, you'll probably want to consider a set especially designed for UHF tuning.

TV sets are provided with ventilation openings in the cabinet to allow heat generated during operation to be released. If these openings are blocked, heat build-up within the TV may result in a fire hazard. So never block the bottom ventilation slots of a portable by putting it on a bed, sofa or rug, and never place a set in a built-in enclosure unless proper ventilation is provided.

Hicksville Wrestling

Reminiscing over the past Hicksville High School wrestling season is an absolute experience in ecstasy. High School teenyboppers listening to the Bay City rollers augmented by Elton John,

Bob Dylan, and the Grateful Dead could not feel as euphoric. Heretofore, one seldom read or heard about our wrestlers. In fact, a losing football or basketball game garnered more print than the wrestling team did in an entire season. But now, our wrestlers and the team are known - they have made their marks in the record books of the 1975-1976 sports season.

Each member of the team has in some manner and at some time made us sit on the edge of our seats, stamp our feet against the floor, push and swing around with our arms and shoulders, scream at the top of our lungs, stretch our fingers in anguish, or slump in abject misery. Nevertheless, every match was exhilarating with every bout a traumatic affair for the spectator - well worth viewing. Therefore, how can we, the fans, applaud them and show our appreciation for their efforts except by spelling their names out loud and saying to each one: "CONGRATULATIONS, THANK YOU FOR A JOB WELL-DONE."

Hicksville Soccer Club News

After taking 1st place in the preliminary rounds, the Knights of Columbus Red Midgets emerged as 'giants' last weekend at Oceanside. Mitchell & McCann's 'Marauders' again went undefeated eliminating Clarkstown 2-0 in the quarter finals & Rockville Center 2-1 in the semis. The team grew stronger as the day wore on and in the Championship game, overwhelmed Garden City 4-0. Bobby Andrus scored 3 goals in the final game, assisted most ably by his teammates on the front line Mike Jung, Adrian Pepi, Anthony Coiro & Bobby Stenborg.

Eddy Thompson had a relaxing day in goal due to the fortress in front of him. The ball rarely got by those 'fearsome fullbacks' - Tommy Fletcher, Mike Andrus & Glen Zakian. The few times it did, Eddy was there to make the save. This defensive unit kept feeding the ball to the front line to knock repeatedly at the opponents front door. The only goal to get by was a penalty kick in the Rockville Center game with 17 seconds left. Fullback Steve Dolan was home sick but phone communication after each victory helped speed his recovery.
