"Taxation without representation is tyranny...Give me Liberty or give me Death...All men are created equal"...these deathless words from America's heritage will ring forth this Sunday, voiced anew by young thespians of the Hicksville High School in the community's tribute to the Nation's Bicentennial.

The public of Hicksville is invited to hear other excerpts from great Revolutionary speeches and documents at the Fourth of July program at the Hicksville High School playing field, beginning at 11:45. Climaxing three years of periodic local historical celebrations building toward the Bicentennial climax in 1976, the people of Hicksville, led by their Bicentennial Committee, will begin the great holiday with a short patriotic procession and a formal July Fourth program, to be followed by an "Old-Time Country Fair".

The following tentative timetable is provided to assist families and Fair participants in planning their day:

Dear Friends

During the coming weekend we will all be celebrating the 200th birthday of our country. This is a comparatively short time, as the history of many nations go, but in this time we have received a proud heritage.....built day by day and year by year, by individuals of varied cultural and educational backgrounds. The degree of our country's progress is marked by the virtues and the faults of our ancestors, who, according to their vision, worked to attain the goals set down by our founding father in our Constitution.

NOW IT IS OUR TURN.
Today our country needs what it has always needed....dedicated, honorable leaders and just as dedicated, honorable citizens.

On July 4th, when you listen to the bells ringing out throughout our nation, when you salute our flag as it is presented in our local ceremonies, when you sing our national anthem, why not resolve to avoid apathy and demonstrate individuals concern on all levels, whenever and wherever the occasion demands? In other words become an active, concerned citizen. Remember, when you say, "Happy Birthday, America," it is your birthday too.

Take your turn and do your share. That is what America is all about.

Minor League

An impossible dream becomes a reality as Pancake House wins championship.

Approximately three weeks ago after losing their first game of the second half, manager R. Holmes and coach G. Tamborello advised the players of the Pancake House that it would take an "Impossible Dream" to make the playoffs. The team in the first half did not play up to its expectations and finished with a 3-4 record. However, the Pancakers did the impossible and won their last six straight games including the Championship game to become "The Champs" of 1976 in the Hicksville American Minor League.

The Flapjacks ended their season in a flourish, scoring 40 runs and collecting 32 hits in the last three games, enabling them to romp their way to the '76 title.

The last three wins began with a victory over Firestone 13-12. George Tamborello, John McAleese, John Pizzo and David Stein all had two hits apiece and were responsible in defeating Firestone for the 2nd time this season.

The stage was then set for a show-down with Jim Rankel's Long Island Collision who were the first half winners and tied with the Flapjacks for first place in the second half. The team put together two seven run innings in a low and defeated Collision 14-2. John McAleese pitched his fourth complete game of the season collecting hits along with Michael Parker to pave the way to victory. This enabled the Pancakers to meet Collision for the 1976 Championship.

The very next night without wasting anytime, the same two teams collected again and once again the Pancakers dominated

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

A dear friend recently told me he committed to memory and carried off to World War II the following magnificent words written by Tom Paine in the dark days of December 1776:

"These are the times that try men's souls. The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will in the crisis, shrink from the service of his country; but he that stands it now, deserves the love and thanks of man and woman.

"Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered; yet we have this consolation with us, that the harder the conflict, the more glorious the triumph. What we obtain too cheap, we esteem too lightly: 'tis dearness only that gives everything its value. Heaven knows how to put a proper price upon its goods; and it would be strange indeed, if so CELESTIAL AN ARTICLE AS FREEDOM SHOULD NOT BE HIGHLY RATED."

As we stand poised on the brink of celebrating with great joy our beloved country's Bicentennial, let us pause and reflect upon the terrible price of freedom and its marvelous benefits.

Cordially,
Mrs. Joan Jones,
Hicksville

their apposition 12 - 3. Chris Fume turned in a magnificent pitching performance allowing only three runs and four hits. George Tamborello and Keith Kolovich provided the offensive punch while Bob Boeggeman, Michel Calabrese, Scott Madine, and Michal Parker sparked the team in the field.

John McAleese in his final game of the season collected two hits to extend his consecutive game hitting streak to 14 games.

Special thanks to the parents, League officials and the Sponser for making our dream become a reality.

Goldman Bros. battled Steve's American for 8 innings before Dave Pietramala drove in the winning run for Goldman's who then held Steve's American in the bottom of the 8th, and went on to win 6-5. Jim Hoosack, and Greg Christoforou pitched the first 6 innings, and allowed 5 runs on 5 hits. Pietramala got the win in relief allowing only a hit in 2

To the Editor:

This letter expresses my thanks and gratitude to those who worked for my election and to those who supported me with their votes.

The election results will in no way diminish my criticism of the educator-dominated school board. Quite the contrary as there will be much to write about as the school board attempts to stay within the spending limits my candidacy imposed upon them while at the same time maintaining its pledges and promises to voters. Their fiscal gymnastics will make interesting reading.

Sincerely yours,
Frank H. Willard

To the Editor

An item on this week's Town Board calendar asked for the purchase of special equipment to be used in Oyster Bay's leaf composting program. This apparatus, a portable shredder mounted on the front end of a payloador or tractor, will shred the thousands of cubic yards of leaves that are collected each Fall by Highway Division crews and brought to the composting site.

The leaves are dumped in long rows over which the shredder moves, reducing the leaves into small particles. Experience in other municipalities has shown that this single-operator unit is much more efficient than the innings. Dave also went 3 for 4 at the plate. Goldman's was behind 4-0 going into the 6th but Larry Sullivan had a bases loaded hit which drove in the go ahead run. Larry totled 4 rbi's on the day. For Steve's American Vic Porcasi pitched perfect ball for the first 3 innings. Frank Macchio relieved, and did well until the 6th inning. Ken Higgins was the loser in relief. Ken although had a big game at the plate with a home run, Vic Porcasi tripled, and Frank Macchio drove in 2 with a bases loaded double.

Cotton Lillian romped Goldman's 12-3. For Cotton Lillian Kevin Kerbs pitched 3 scoreless innings. At the plate Ron Rosenthal, and Joe Cotton each had 2 hits, Chris Kerbs had a home run, and George Maggio had 2 hits, and an unassisted double play in the field. For Goldman's Greg Christoforou, fixed, hopper-type machine that uses a three-man crew.

Shredding not only significantly reduces the volume of leaves but also enhances and speeds up the natural decomposing process which eventually converts this material into rich black humus soil. It is estimated that Highway crews collect about 100,000 cubic yards of leaves each year which, through composting, can be reduced to a little over 3,000 cubic yards of enriched soil.

When mixed with soil, compost enhances moisture retention, prevents erosion and helps plants utilize available nutrients in the soil. Its availability to our Parks and Recreation Department and Beach Division, which are responsible for the care and maintenance of over 600 acres of parkland, should result in significant cost savings to the Town.

As a resource recovery project, it is expected that New York State will fund about 25 percent of the cost of the new equipment, subject to approval by the Bureau of Resource Recovery, Division of Solid Waste Management of the State Department of Environmental Conservation.

Through the leaf composting program, the Town will convert a solid waste disposal problem into an environmental asset.

John W. Burke
Supvsr T O B

Jim Hoosack, and Dan Devine shared the loss despite the fact that most of the runs were unearned. The hitting was unusually light with Dave Pietramala, Larry Sullivan, Terri Rosenberg, and George Sotlong collecting all four of Goldman's hits. Steve's American ripped Marder Shell 13-2. Frank Macchio started, and gave up 2 runs in the 3rd. Vic Porcasi then relieved, and shut out Marder the rest of the way. Big sticks were Craig Schellin who went 3 for 4 with 4 rbi's. Ken Higgins went 2 for 2. Lisa Torrigrass, Vic Porcasi, and Mike Livingston all added rbi's. In the field Vic Porcasi started a beautiful double play, and Tony Kappa got a assist when he cut down a runner trying to stretch a hit.

Bicentennial Reflections

By Dick Evers

The Bicentennial of the American Revolution is, indeed, more than parades, historical reenactments, costume balls and other appropriate but physical celebrations. Reflection as to just what we are supposed to be commemorating so joyfully and proudly brings to mind so many human traits, characteristics and traditional attitudes we Americans have long associated with our heritage.

In the beginning, as we learned in school, the early settlers (and generations of immigrants afterwards) came to this New World with a wish to better their economic status or to worship their particular creed required. The Puritan ethic may have been restrictive of liberties we prefer having today, but its beliefs were well suited to the cruel environment with which the early New Englanders contended. To their credit, they had a strong faith in God and a fear of his wrath and judgement. They treasured participation in local government, book learning as an aid to the study of the Scriptures and they stressed the dignity of, and the need for, hard work, personal effort and self-perfection.

It is good to remind ourselves that, from the beginning in all colonies of America, there developed among our forebearers such attitudes and qualities as: adaptability and self-reliance with yet a readiness to cooperate in larger community and personal needs. Our ancestors had a respect for law, a readiness to bring criminals and transgressors of the community code to quick, if harsh, justice. Theirs was an eternal alertness to the dangers of native tribes and an acceptance of required military duty with the militia.

We recall with pride and no little wonder that our forefathers were adept at conformity to community standards and yet capable of indignant opposition to enduring social and economic inequities. If they could accept Negro slavery in the South for too long or were largely indifferent or fatalistic about the destruction of Indian cultures and accustomed to careless use of the land and seemingly endless raw materials, much of this ruthless behavior was the result of too much freedom from governmental controls and of contending at great odds with a hostile and back-breaking wilderness.

By the time of the Revolutionary Era, our forefathers in this land were long accustomed to a variety of liberties withheld or wrested from a stubborn royal government.

They enjoyed freedom from excessive controls on migration and trade. They cherished freedoms of religion and of local and provincial assembly. John Peter Zenger's brave stand for freedom of the press was an expanding precedent, while the right of free speech and petition were considered a colonist's birthright. Trial by jury and freedom from illegal search and

Church Parade

Honoring with deep appreciation those who, in their search for religious freedom, settled this land. The United Methodist Church of Hicksville will celebrate our 200 birthday as a nation with a special church parade at 9:30 on July 4th ending at the church on Old Country Road and Nelson Ave. for a special 10 AM service of Praise and Thanksgiving to God. The 10 AM service with combined choirs and special instrumental accompaniment will present Wilhouky's stirring "Battle Hymn of The Republic" and Irving Berlin's moving, "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor".

"Because this is the land God gave us, we have the responsibility to make of it a light among the nations of the world", said Pastor James Jay Benson. By our actions, laws and deeds we witness our uniqueness as a nation created under God. Our nation fostered religious freedom and provided an atmosphere

Plan Memorial For Rev. David Duncombe

Following the death of Rev. David Duncombe, recently murdered at The Wind River Reservation, Ethete, Wyo., plans for a permanent Memorial for him at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Hicksville, were considered.

Father Duncombe became the first Rector of Holy Trinity in 1954 when through his efforts it achieved parish status. Father Duncombe had already served the parish as Priest-In-Charge in 1950, subsequent to his ordination to the priesthood.

Rev. Dominic Ciannella, present Rector, announces that Stations Of The Cross will be installed in the church in memory of Father Duncombe. The 14 stations are being fashioned by Mr. Anton Kost, Brewster, N.Y., made of bronze and ceramic tile. The stations will be inserted as floor plaques around the perimeter of the church interior, to become a Pilgrim's Pavement as well as the Way of the Cross. Each station will carry a number associated with one of the flowers of the Holy Land.

Contributors of this Memorial are invited. Interested persons should contact Father Ciannella for further details.

International Bicentennial Soccer Tournament

In one of the most ambitious and unusual competitions in the field of juvenile sports in this country, 38 boys soccer teams — ranging in age from nine to thirteen years — took part in the International Bicentennial Soccer Tournament at the Grumman and nearby soccer fields over the weekend of June 25-27.

Sponsored by the Hicksville Americans Soccer Club, the tournament saw teams entered from West Germany, Sweden, Mexico, Canada and the United States. The domestic teams came from Connecticut, Virginia, Pennsylvania and New Jersey, along with groups from seven Long Island communities.

Local teams included representatives from Garden City, Hicksville, North Babylon, East Meadow, Deer Park, Northport and Massapequa, with some areas entering more than one team.

West Germany won the 13-year-old competition, one of the Hicksville teams took the 12-year-old championship; Sweden, the 11 year honors, and a second Hicksville team headed the ten-year play.

Tudor Road Field, Cantiague Park and Grumman all were scenes of play in the preliminary rounds, with Grumman hosting the semi-finals and finals.

John Burke, supervisor of the Town of Oyster Bay, presented trophies to winners on Sunday afternoon, in a ceremony attended by a host of other town and soccer officials.

"It was a marvelous experience," said Charlie Frattini, co-director of the tournament and also a Grumman employee. "We had a bundle of headaches, but it was all worth it."

And indeed it was — if only judging from a letter from the INTERNATIONAL BICENTENNIAL SOCCER action is the scene here between 11-year old Swedish team and North Babylon Patriots. Setting is Grumman soccer field in Bethpage, where the Hicksville Americans Soccer Club played host to 38 teams in International Bicentennial Soccer Tournament over weekend of June 25-27. Teams — ages nine to thirteen — from West Germany, Sweden, Mexico, Canada and the United States competed. Sweden won the 11-year-old category. Tudor Road Field, Cantiague Park and Grumman all were scenes of play in preliminary rounds, with Grumman hosting semi-finals and finals.

West German contingent in accepting the invitation to play some weeks ago. "We are very grateful for the unique opportunity of your invitation," wrote the West German spokesman. "Here in our incircled city, Berlin, this is a special invitation to the Free World."

Co-director of the tourney with Frattini was Kenneth Rice, Jr., of Hicksville. He voiced much the same sentiments as Frattini.

Admittedly operating on a shoestring, the Hicksville Soccer Club showed a lot of ingenuity in arranging for the considerable logistics involved in the international event. For one thing, they handled the lodging problem of the foreign teams by stipulating that each of the local teams would have a certain number of their young foreign friends as house guests during the tournament stay. Publishing a journal proved another fruitful source of meeting promotional expenses.

Grumman donated the use of its soccer fields — in keeping with its continuing virtually rent-free arrangement for the fields with the Town of Oyster Bay. And so it went.

The idea of the tournament was the brainchild of Peter C. Collins, president of the Hicksville Soccer Club. Collins has been building up soccer with the young set on Long Island for many years. Just five years ago, he and a small group established the Hicksville Club, and each year their program got more ambitious. In 1975, Collins felt the local scene was ripe for international competition, and he pushed for the Bicentennial tourney which has proved so successful.

GETTING READY FOR A BIG WEEKEND: Oyster Bay Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark, right, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCann of Hicksville, Chairmen of the Hicksville American Soccer Club's International Dance, found time at Friday night's dance to go over the weekend's exhausting 88-game schedule. Soccer players from as far as Mexico and Germany competed, and awards were presented on Sunday, the final day of this International Bicentennial Tournament.

Schleith, Steve Brown, and Andy Stein. Paul Pisani made the play of the day relaying a throw from centerfield to the plate to cut off a runner heading home. In the second game Malvese won a real cliffhanger. The score was 5-5 going into the 6th. Jay loaded the bases with 1 out but Tom Yeager stopped the threat cold by fanning the next 2 batters to end the inning, and send the game into extra innings. Helmut Schleith then relieved, and got the win when Malvese rallied for 4 runs to put the game out of reach, and clinch the second half.

Malvese will go on to play M.D. Cesspool for the league championship. The game will be played at Cantiague Park on Tuesday June 29, at 5:30 all are invited to come out and watch our youngest players do their thing.

Cotton Lillien lost to Circle Texaco 5-4. For Cotton Lillien Kevin, and Chris Kerbs shared the pitching. Chris Kerbs belted another homer, Joe Cotton had 3 hits, Frank Bifulco had a double, and a single, and was robbed of a third hit by a great fielding play. Ron Rosenthal drove in 2 runs, and Jim Fiore, Dave Caggiano, and George Maggio each added singles. In the field George Maggio turned over a double play, and Frank Bifulco stopped a hit that would have easily been a triple which would have driven in 2 runs.

Steve's American buried Cotton Lillien 25-9 under an avalanche of hits. Frank Macchio went 4 for 4 with 4 rbi's, Graig Schelini went 3 for 5 with 5 rbi's, Mark Domrore went 3 for 4 with 2 rbi's and Larry Edelstein drove in 2 with a bases loaded single. Lisa Torregrossa started on the mound and allowed only 2 runs on 4 hits. Bob Delhaye, and Vic Porcasi relieved, and were tagged for 7 runs but by then it didn't matter. A relay play in the 2nd (Louis Cannaua to Ken Higgins to catch Frank Macchio) cut down a runner trying to stretch a triple.

TO THE VICTOR. John Burke, supervisor of the Town of Oyster Bay, presents trophy to Kevin Cahalan, member of winning 12-year-old Hicksville team in International Bicentennial Soccer Tournament sponsored by Hicksville Americans Soccer Club over weekend of June 25-27. Teams from West Germany, Sweden, Mexico, Canada and the U.S. competed ... 38 teams in all. Preliminary games were played in Tudor Field Road, Cantiague Park and Grumman soccer fields. Semi-finals and finals took place at Grumman.

CHANGING YOUR OIL
First it was every thousand miles. Then somebody said every fifteen hundred. Then somebody else told you six thousand. It depends on who you ask. And it's enough to confuse anybody.
The time of year and climate have a lot to do with it. Also, your driving habits can be a factor. Oil should be changed more often under conditions of heavy stop-and-go traffic, trailer pulling, driving in dusty conditions, and short trip operation at low temperatures.
An oil change at least every 3,000 miles or 3 months is recommended, but never exceed the automobile manufacturer's recommendation.
Read your owner's manual carefully. Especially the fine print, which might reveal some exceptions according to your climate and driving practices.

Fire Report

By EX-CAPT. OWEN MAGEE

PARENTS - Ban These Fire Works

July 4 has not arrived yet and already the grim toll of injuries to children playing with fireworks is mounting. We in the fire service can only repeat the warnings already issued - Don't let your children play with fireworks. You may end up celebrating the Bicentennial Fourth in a hospital emergency room and spending vacation money on a plastic surgeon.

Another summer time accident is also mounting. A 52 year old Inwood man died of burns he suffered while lighting a backyard barbecue. The can of liquid starter he was using exploded in his hand. He suffered burns over more than 50 per cent of his body. DON'T use lighter fluids on an ignited fire. DON'T use gasoline.

In a future issue we will list the do's and don'ts on safe use and storage of chlorine for your swimming pool.

On June 21 a fire in a garage at 20 Field Ave. destroyed a car and damaged the garage slightly. Quick action by vamps held the blaze to the attached garage. On June 27, Hicksville firemen battled a spectacular blaze in a group of barns located on Newbridge Rd & Barter La. Vamps were on the scene for 3 hours. On June 29 a serious accident required the teamwork of County Police, Plainview Firemen & Hicksville Vamps. The auto accident occurred at 9 AM at New So. Road & Old Country Rd. Several injured were taken to local hospitals.

Is it any wonder that Americans resisted King George III when his policies seemed to intrude upon the colonists' beloved liberties? - It only remained for Thomas Jefferson in the Declaration of Independence to brilliantly summarize the 18th Century's emerging ideas as to man's status as a creature of God, endowed with the dignity of inalienable rights, for Americans to resist tyranny to the bitter end.

As the Colonial Era with its powerful, pervasive influence upon the course of American eras to come ended, there stretched ahead still later stages of our phenomenal history as a people: political wisdom, valor in peace and war, inventive and mechanical genius; an enduring belief in progress, in reform of evil; belief in the equality of sexes and races and expanding capacity for tolerance of incredible diversity.

Through it all, until this troubled, amoral century, Americans have tried to guide themselves largely by the precepts of the Western, Judaic-Christian religious and moral tradition. Within limits of course other, non-religious motivations are also a part of our American heritage: Social Darwinism, Freud's teachings, pragmatism and socialism among others.

These, then, are most of the heritage of the American centuries we celebrate during the Bicentennial. In following articles this writer hopes to consider how well our lives, today, exemplify the traditional values and beliefs of our people and to what extent, in the future, this nation may pursue perfectibility on the course of our forefathers.
