Boy Scout Troop 591

Boy Scout Troop No. 591, a non-sectarian troop operating out of the Hicksville Jewish Center, is looking for new members to share in the troop's Adventurous experiences. Under the leadership of Scout Master Jay Rogers the boys during the past year went on 10 camping trips and copped off their year by taking part in a rugged 76-mile hike along the Apalacian Trail to commemorate the American Bicentennial Year.

They also attended Ontario Scout Reservation in Livingston Manor, N.Y. as a troop and won several awards. Interested boys and parents can see for themselves how the boys operate in planning their overnight trips by attending meetings at the Hicksville Jewish Center, located at Maglie Drive and Jerusalem Ave., every Thursday night starting at 7:30 p.m.

At The School Board Meeting

By Marge Marcus

The September 8th Board meeting coincided with the first day of school, and Hicksville residents had standing room only when the meeting was called to order at 8:45 PM. Mrs. Wolfson, School Board President, had come from the Conference Room to explain to the crowd that Board members were interviewing personnel for Athletic Director. When the meeting began all were present except Mr. Lari who arrived later. Mr. Bruno did not accept the minutes of the previous meeting due to a deletion of an item he had requested on the agenda. He had been absent from the two previous meetings therefore this item had been deleted, but the Board voted to include same on the Sept. 29th Agenda. Dr. Hill, Superintendent of Schools, stated that the people of Hicksville had voted for a "no growth budget". This required a change in transportation service in the Junior and Senior high school, with bus service cut-back half a mile. This increase in walking distance saved the District over $178,000, but still came within the State mandated distance of 2 and 3 miles in the elementary and secondary schools. When the public, consisting of parents and students, were given the opportunity to address the Board many problems and much dissension was expressed.

Unfortunately many residents were unaware of the change in transportation reporting that they had not received the Budget Report mailed to all residents. As transportation was not a separate issue many assumed that there was no change in distance. Other parents were questioning their dilemma because busses were going near their home, many not full, and yet their children had not received passes. A "Fifth wheel", an extra wheel attached to an automobile is used to measure exact distance. This is checked against the District surveyors map for school records. SCOUTS SALUTE AMERICA. When the Nassau County Council of the Boy Scouts of America opens its Bicentennial Show to the public on Saturday, Oct. 2, at 10 a.m. in Eisenhower Park, East Meadow, up to 8000 boys will stage a tremendous display, as well as activities sure to interest and entertain the whole family throughout the day. The weekend campout by the Scouts, who will pitch their tents near Parking Field No. 1 on Friday, Oct. 1 and depart on the following Sunday, represents a tremendous amount of time and effort on the part of Nassau's troops, and is their contribution to the celebration of the nation's 200th birthday. The variety of demonstrations run the gamut from a bicycle rodeo, rope-making, baking bread and doughnuts, to a display of rocks and minerals. The show will culminate at the Lakeside Theatre beginning at 7 p.m. with two hours of entertainment MC'ed by the famed TV personality Ray Heatherton. Highlights include a sing-along with the Banjo Rascals, a singing group called the "Folklores", a mini-circus, and music by a "light" rock group, "Children of the Night." Co-sponsors of the event are the Nassau Council of Boy Scouts and the County's American Revolution Bicentennial Commission, with the cooperation of Nassau's Department of Recreation and Parks.

Fall Schedule

With the coming of Fall, several activities offered by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks go on a new time schedule.

At Grant Park in Hewlett, the jaunty pedal boats will keep rounding the lake on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays through Oct. 31, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Two-hour roller-skating sessions start at 3:30 p.m. on weekdays and at 10 a.m., 12:15 and 2:30 p.m. on weekends and holidays, with the final go-rounds set for Election Day, Nov. 2.

Bicycle rental at Eisenhower Park in East Meadow is available on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. through the end of October, and on Sundays only during November, from 12 noon to 4 p.m.

Wantagh Parks bicycle rental facilities are open through Oct. 31 on Sundays, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

For further details, call 292-4200 or the individual parks.

"Dr. J" To Don Tux For March Of Dimes Gala

Super basketball star and March of Dimes Superwalk Chairman, Julius (Dr. J.) Erving, will be honored at a gala dinner dance on Saturday night, September 18th, at the Sands at Atlantic Beach, when he is presented with the March of Dimes "Children's Award."

The dinner is a sell-out, reported Industry Chairmen, William Brandt and Daniel Weissberg, of East Meadow, as they noted that more than 650 guests will be present at the Sixth Annual Mildred and Leonard A. Javer Medical Research Fund

March of Dimes Dinner Dance. Winner of numerous basketball awards and honors, Mr. Erving may be professional basketball's most charismatic player. He makes magic on the court with the ball, and excites crowds with his dazzling moves. "Considered by many to be the greatest of basketball players, Mr. Erving has not forgotten those less fortunate and gives his active support to many charitable and recreational programs. He has made the March of Dimes fight against birth defects his first priority," said Mr. Weissberg.

Bus Route Map Available

The Metropolitan Suburban Bus Authority today announced the introduction of a new, easy-to-read interim bus map covering all of the 54 routes of the publicly owned bus system in Nassau County. The map will increase public awareness of the extent of bus service available in Nassau County and broaden usage of public transportation by County residents. In addition, the updated map shows MSBA's routes into Flushing and Jamaica with connections to the subways and Transit Authority buses. This map details the first phase in overall re-structuring of MSBA services.

The purse and pocket size, black and white maps (overall size 24" X 25") will be given out on buses and the public may also secure them by calling the Bus Information Center at (516) 626-3000 or by mailing in a request to MSBA Maps, One Old Country Road, Carle Place, New York 11514.

"Intake" Unit Hours Extended

To make its services more readily available to county residents, the Nassau Dept. of Drug and Alcohol Addiction has extended the hours of its "Intake" unit, Commissioner Harold E. Adams announced recently.

"The 'Intake unit,' Adams explained, "is where the helping process begins for Nassau residents with drug-and alcohol-related problems and for members of their family." Intake, which is free and confidential, includes the identification of problems, evaluation of the client's needs, and

The Bicentennial Barge!!

The long awaited New York State Bicentennial Barge will drop anchor off Theodore Roosevelt Memorial Park in Oyster Bay on Tuesday, Oct. 5 and welcome visitors through Thursday, Oct. 7 from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Admission is free.

Present for the opening day ceremonies at 9 a.m. will be Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso, Town Supervisors John W. Burke of Oyster Bay, Francis T. Purcell of Hempstead, and Michael J. Tully, Jr. of North Hempstead, as well as the mayors of Nassau's two cities, Vincent Suozzi of Glen Cove and Hannah Komanoff of Long Beach. The vessel's sojourn at Oyster Bay is co-sponsored by the County's American Revolution Bicentennial Commission and the Bicentennial Commissions of Nassau's three Towns. This will be the only visit by the Barge within the County.

Throughout the three days, entertainment will be provided, with the Town of Oyster Bay presenting its own program on Tuesday, the Town of Hempstead on Wednesday, and North Hempstead, on Thursday.

The 250' by 39' vessel, officially christened "The New York Festival Barge," is chock-full of historical memorabilia reflecting all facets of life in New York State during Colonial days, from 1765 to 1789. The refitted Reading Railroad car float boasts two decks of relevant audio-visual exhibits, artifacts, reproductions and even room settings. The latter include an 18th century log cabin, counting house, printing shop, and general store. On the upper deck, a temporary postal station will be kept busy with a special commemorative hand-cancel and visitors may mail their stamped letters and cards right on board.

The expected crowds won't have a chance to be bored even while they're waiting to go through the Barge. Lively bands from several Nassau high schools, the U.S. Army, the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy, Senior Citizen groups, and the All-American Banjo Team are only a few of the talented musical performers that will provide pleasure for visitors. Folk-singers, choral groups, guitar music, folk-dancing, Colonial dancers, a one-man band and even a clown will share the spotlight during Nassau's three-day celebration. In addition, the County's Liberty Van will be at the park for the convenience of those who may have missed it in their own communities.

The Bicentennial Barge, which began its four-and-a-half month voyage to ports of call on major waterways within New York State on June 1 at the South Street Seaport in Manhattan, will make only two more stops, at Rye and World's Fair Marina in Flushing, Flushing, before it returns to the Seaport on October 18.

Female Offender Program Extended

Nassau County's award-winning Female Offender Rehabilitation Program will be extended through June 30, 1977, with a $76,000 grant from the federal government.

The third year renewal funds granted by the federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration to the Nassau County Criminal Justice Coordinating Council will continue the program of pre-release and post-release counseling and activities aimed at preventing recidivism.

The funds are utilized by Nassau County Women's Services and will involve some 200 women during the year.

"This program which addresses itself to the special needs of incarcerated women is an excellent example of inter-agency cooperation," County Executive Ralph Caso said. "Women's Services uses its expertise to help women inmates at the county's correctional center, which is run by the Sheriff's Department. The counselors in the program call upon and use the people and resources of other county departments such as Social Services, Manpower Programs and Family Court Clinic.

"This cooperation helps avoid duplication and encourages maximum use of facilities. The female offender project has received an award from the National Association of Counties. I am happy to see its work continue."

Lurana Tucker Campanaro, director of Women's Services, said the Nassau program was a pioneer in recognizing the plight of women in jails and prisons.

"It's basic aim is prevention," she said. "When you realize that it costs about $12,000 a year in this county for a woman's incarceration, then the necessity for a prevention program is obvious."

Gladys Goodstein, the program's supervisor, explained how it operates.

"Recognizing that employment problems are most often responsible for the cycle of poverty and failure that leads to repeated arrests," she said,

"vocational counselors work with the women to assist them in formulating goals and plans.

"The program includes both individual and group counseling at the Correctional Center. One of the unique features is the post-release follow-through. After leaving the center, each woman continues to work with the counselor with whom she has developed a relationship. This helps ease the transition, particularly in the face of the many personal problems ex-offenders find on returning to the community.

"If the woman is job-ready, placement is sought for her; if not, she undertakes some kind of training or a combination of part-time work and training."

Caso said: "We believe it is possible for ex-offenders to develop fulfilling, productive and socially acceptable lives by changing the self-defeating destructive patterns they have used to cope with problems. We believe the Female Offender Rehabilitation Program is a means of achieving that end."

Making Capital At The Capitol

By Cong. Norman F. Lent

Investment capital is to a nation's economy what seed is to a farmer. If farmers didn't save some of their crop to use as seed the following year, there would be no crop after the current one was eaten.

American business and industry need capital to grow. In the United States, we get the capital through the voluntary savings of some people who let others use their savings for investment. Totalitarian countries - be they communist or fascist - also need capital to fuel their economies. They get it by requiring their people to sacrifice some current consumption to invest in the tools of production.

In our country during recent years, the economic panacea has been the equivalent of eating our seed corn. When the economy falters, the cry quickly goes up either to increase spending by the government - which is the greatest consumer of all - or to cut taxes so the average individual consumer will have more spendable income. The only encouragement given to saving comes through making borrowing more difficult by raising interest rates and through automatic accumulation in insurance and pension trust funds. This politically expedient policy of stimulating demand as a cure for all economic ills is one reason why our real annual growth has lagged behind other industrial nations. During the 1960's, Japan led the list with an 11 percent annual growth rate while the U.S. was in 18th place with a 4 percent growth rate. We can argue about the best way to create new jobs and income, but nobody is advocating that we refuse to meet the job and income needs of our expanding population. Yet, businessmen computing our need for investment capital see that we are not investing fast enough to meet our expectations. Congress has to deal with this problem.

A collectivist would advocate

Dear Friends...

This is an unsolicited testimonial...but we'd like to put in a word in favor of the bicycle safety device which consists of a long pole with a small plastic flag (usually red or orange) on the top, which would appear to be fairly inexpensive, but is visible to all drivers, because it extends over car height. Of course, reflectors on bikes are a must...but in addition, this simple safety device is most effective.

Many thanks to those local organizations who have already mailed in their completed "Roll Call of Organizations" to us. We will be carrying this form again during the next few weeks and hope that you will get it back to us as soon as possible. It is most helpful to us in serving all our fine local organizations from week to week. Also, if any of you have any questions or need help in doing publicity for your local organizations, do not hesitate to phone me at WE 1-1400, I'll be glad to help.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS: congratulations to Ed and Harvey Kolin of the Kiwanis Club of Hicksville, who BOTH received six-year perfect attendance pins at a recent meeting of this popular local Service Club. What a father and son team...Ann Marie Cummings, daughter of Jim and Dolores Cummings of Myers Ave., Hicksville celebrated her twentieth birthday at a surprise family dinner at the popular Stack O'Barley in Hicksville. Where else would a pretty Irish colleen celebrate?...congratulations, Ann. Phillip S. Vassallo has been elected a vice-president of Grumman. He will continue in his present position as Director of Corporate Procurement Operations. Mr. Vassallo has been with Grumman since 1957. William Stukenbroker of La Grange Inn in West Islip has been selected as the "Restaurant Man of The Year" by the Long Island Restaurant and Caterers Association. He will be honored at a dinner on Oct. 18 at Carl Hopp's Malibu in Lido Beach. The MC will be Ray Hentherton and Bob McCarroll of The Good Steer in Lake Grove in Dinner Chairman....

Visited last week with Elery and Jo Bean of Hicksville and can report to you that Elery looks great. As we told you last month, he had a heart attack while this popular couple were vacationing in Canada. It may take awhile, but in a few months we're sure Elery will be back playing tennis again...not only that, he has a beautiful, 24-hour nurse. Jo, has taken a leave of absence from her work.

Also saw Jim Cummings, who is busy again with his usual work. Jim is Nassau County Press Secretary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and founder of the Hicksville Unit Commodore John Barry Division Eleven, now in its 18th year of fraternal service. Good to see you up and busy again, Jim.

Now that the primaries are over, we will undoubtedly see many local headquarters for political candidates opening, if they haven't already. The Hicksville GOP are planning their headquarters at 195 Broadway. It will be opening soon. It should be an interesting year.

THAT'S ALL for this week. Stay well, and remember the old saying, "Don't complain about getting old...many are denied this privilege."

Sincerely,
SHEILA

Letters To The Editor

Dear Neighbor:

Last May, 'Hicksville' School District officials informed me of an inadvertent clerical error in applying for State Transportation Aid. As a result, $450,000 in revenue to the district would be lost and Hicksville taxpayers would bear the burden of increased school taxes.

With the assistance of school district officials, I immediately prepared special legislation enabling the application for transportation aid to be filed under a new law. I am pleased to report that the bill which I introduced in the State Legislature (A-13006 Yevoli) was signed into law by the Governor on July 24th. Consequently, the Hicksville School District will receive the full $450,000 in State Aid and you as a taxpayer will not be forced to pay for a critical loss in revenue.

I am particularly proud of this accomplishment because it produced a direct benefit to the taxpayer as well as the educational system. It is a privilege for me to serve as your representative in the community and in Albany. Being responsive is a major part of being an Assemblyman. I will continue to make every effort to act in your behalf on the important issues that affect all of us.

My local Assembly District Office is there to serve you. Please feel free to call upon me at any time for assistance.

Sincerely,
Lewis J. Yevoli

To the Editor:

Taxpaying citizens of Hicksville were again surprised on the first day of school when they realized approximately 1800 school students that were bused to school last year will now walk. The resulting school tax decrease? ...None.

All residents concerned with the ever decrease in services and increase in taxes should contact their local PTA presidents shown in the Hicksville School Calendar asking... "Where are the petitions that I hear are circulating which demand restoration of this service?"

Thank You,
James A. Mango,
Hicksville

Dear Editor:

As your readers may be aware, Grumman Ecosystems Corporation has just signed with VKW (Vereingte Kesselwerke) of West Germany to be the sole licensee for application of VKW's refuse power plant and co-disposal technology in the United States.

The VKW technology features a co-disposal of municipal refuse (solid waste or garbage) with sewage sludge (waste water residues), with salable steam power resulting.

The VKW approach may well turn out to be the ultimate solution to the Town of Oyster Bay's solid waste disposal problem. It certainly seems to be one more viable alternative to the ill-advised Plainview landfill scheme. In addition, it offers a strong potential economic benefit to be residents of our Town - the prospect of providing hundreds of additional job opportunities at Grumman, the Town's largest employer.

The VKW / Grumman agreement presents our Town with a tremendous opportunity. Here's hoping Supervisor Burke takes advantage of it. At the very least, the Town should give the VKW approach its most careful and openminded consideration.

Very truly yours,
Michael Polansky
Editors Note: Details of Grumman's acquisition are brought to Herald readers in an article on Page 7

Dear Editor:

In the Mid Island Herald last month, a letter to the editor from Owen W. Magee of Hicksville complained about the Town Highway Division's failure to remove fallen trees after Hurricane Belle.

While there was a certain amount of hurricane damage in the Hicksville area, our Highway Division's responsibility was to give first priority to clearing fallen trees from blocked public roads. The most serious area of such damage was in the southernmost communities of the Town and it was in that area that initial cleanup programs were concentrated.

However, so strong were the sentiments of the letter that the Division believed it should investigate to determine if the conditions near Mr. Magee's home were as serious as those in other sections of the Town. While continuing to concentrate work forces in areas of known serious damage, some Highway Division personnel were sent to investigate. They found one branch in front of Mr. Magee's home. They removed it.

But, because this situation may have existed in other areas, where there was some damage but not as extensive as in those sections in which the Town had to concentrate its initial cleanup efforts, I am enclosing a photo showing one crew at work in an area that was given a top priority. Perhaps Mr. Magee and others were not aware of the extent of damage in other communities of the Town. The pile of fallen trees and branches in the picture is representative of the amounts that lined the streets in the Massapequas. It was not an isolated condition in one spot but rather a typical condition being handled by the highway crews.

While the Highway Division would like to have been able to have removed the more than 4,000 fallen trees throughout the Town of Oyster Bay within a week, fortunately for the taxpayer, the Highway workforce is kept to a size meant to handle routine duties and is not so large as to enable it to routinely handle rare disasters.

Sincerely,
Frank DeStefano
Public Information Officer, TOB.

L.I. National Bank Now "L.I. Bank"

The 59-year old Long Island National Bank last week became a State bank and shortened its name to "Long Island Bank" following the announcement by State Banking Superintendent John Heimann, that he had approved the changeover.

The move was made in anticipation of the bank being acquired by LITGO, a State-chartered holding company that is the parent of the Long Island Trust Co. The acquisition, which now has the approval of Superintendent Heimann still needs approval of the Federal Reserve Board.

COMMUNITY SALUTE TO ST. IGNATIUS ALL-GIRL CADET CORPS: Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John W. Burke (second from left), presents Town citation to Thomas R. Costa, Director of the St. Ignatius All-Girl Cadet Corps in recognition of their placing first in the WORLD-OPEN competition for all-girl corps, for the fourth consecutive year. (1973-1974-1975-1976). Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark, (right) and District Court Judge Warren M. Doolittle both of Hicksville, observe the occasion held Labor Day, during special ceremonies at the 48th Labor Day Tournament sponsored by the Hicksville Fire Department.

Two Grants In -- One More Needed For Local Dial-A-Bus

Oyster Bay Town Councilmen Kenneth S. Diamond and Thomas L. Clark have learned that with the receipt of one more federal grant the Nassau County Dial-A-Bus project will be able to begin service in the Hicksville-Plainview-Bethpage area.

"With the recent approval of a federal grant of more than $375,000 for the purchase of equipment, only another federal grant to fund operating costs is needed for the County to begin the program," according to Diamond, chairman of the Town Board Committee on Transportation.

Clark noted that the County already had approval of more than $100,000 in state funds for the program that will service the major part of Hicksville, Plainview and Bethpage as well as portions of Jericho, Syosset, and Woodbury. "The dial-a-bus concept might prove very helpful to residents and retailers in this area," Clark noted. "It will provide door-to-door service at a rate that is less expensive than a taxi while the resident has the convenience of just telephoning to be picked up."

Clark, a resident of Hicksville, said the area of service will include such locations as the Mid Island Shopping Plaza and Hicksville Railroad Station as well as the Plainview Industrial Park. "The consumer, the worker and the businesses should all benefit from the project, if the federal government releases operating funds to the County," Clark pointed out.

Diamond, who, since March 1975, has been in contact with County officials working on the plan, said there has been no indication as to which way the federal government might decide on the County application for almost $400,000 in additional operating funds. "But the federal grant to purchase the minibuses is certainly an indication that the U.S. department of Transportation still considers the program a viable method of solving some of the mass transportation difficulties in suburban areas."

Grumman Acquires Technology To Make Energy From Waste

Grumman Ecosystems Corporation, a Grumman Corporation subsidiary, with headquarters in Bethpage, Long Island, has concluded an agreement with VKW (Vereinigte Kesselwerke) in West Germany to be the sole licensee for the application of their refuse power plant and co-disposal technology in the United States on a turnkey basis.

VKW, a major subsidiary of the German Babcock Group with over 75 years experience in the power plant business, has developed unique capabilities in refuse disposal and waste water treatment.

The recent trend in this technology, which is particularly applicable to the United States and most especially Long Island, is the co-disposal of municipal refuse (solid waste or garbage) with sewage sludge (waste water residues).

The co-disposal process, a safe, economical and environmentally sound solution to a critical modern problem, occurs in a dual purpose refuse power plant. The refuse, itself, is used as fuel - to dry and incinerate the sludge - and - to generate the electricity required to drive both the sludge treatment plant and the refuse disposal plant. Power - in the form of steam - results from this process. The steam can be used directly in a large manufacturing operation or it can be converted into electrical power for various industrial applications, or both.

An individual township probably has sufficient refuse-fuel to process and dispose of an entire county's sludge through such a process. A county and a town, therefore, could be compatible partners in such a venture since each would cooperatively solve an individual problem. However, the economic sense and efficiency of a refuse power plant operation is contingent upon the availability of a large consumer willing to buy the energy supply which would be generated.

Grumman Ecosystems possesses the necessary expertise and experience for such a project, having successfully undertaken the construction of major municipal facilities for waste water treatment and refuse disposal in a number of states including New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Florida and Hawaii.

Grumman, as both a technology center and special energy customer, has a unique opportunity to provide a solution to a local as well as a nationwide problem.

Open House On Sept. 25

Nassau Educational Chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association will hold an Open House on Sept. 25 for CSEA members at its enlarged and refurbished headquarters at 111 Old Country Road.

Local legislators and dignitaries and CSEA leaders will attend according to Edward Perrott, president of the 4,000 member chapter of non-instructional employees of the Nassau County school system. Walter Weeks, president of the CSEA Suffolk Chapter, representing 4,000 Suffolk school employees, will also attend. Refreshments will be served from 11 A.M. until 3 P.M..

The Civil Service Employees Association is the largest union in New York state and is devoted exclusively to public employees. On Long Island, the CSEA has more than 55,000 members.

School Board Meeting

Transportation Supervisor will be checking all questions of discrepancy. Wherever possible adjustment will be made should there be miscalculation. School Board members also sanctioned, and offered to assist with legal counselling, all students and parents who wanted to petition for additional bus mileage. The students were told that they may circulate additional bus mileage. The students were told that they may circulate petitions, but only legal voters could sign them. If enough signatures are obtained a referendum can be voted upon by citizens. The "referendum" would explain the additional cost to homeowners based on assessed valuation of their home. Mr. McCormick, Board member, suggested that Nassau County should provide more public transportation in Hicksville. It was also suggested that more Police crossing guards be assigned to the District. It was also suggested that a system similar to NYC with student crossing guards be started. It was 11 PM before the Board got back to the Agenda of the evening. Mr. Max Joseph was appointed as Mathematics Consultant for the Hicksville Schools. Mr. Richard Hogan will be Athletic Director, relieving him of two classes with additional salary of $2500.

As financial business the District report that Tax Anticipation Notes were being made available at between 4 percent - 5 percent interest. This represents a very low cost, and makes borrowing funds profitable with bank interest rates higher. Use of the school buildings were requested by several Charity Organizations but permission could not be granted unless medical assistance was available. The Board did vote to allow the County use of our facilities for Swine Flu Immunization.

The Federal Government is providing funds for Public Works Projects to maintain employment levels and Mr. Becker, Director of Bldgs. & Grounds, had built an exhibit for display. A scale model of a garage to store District equipment was shown to Board members. This was a modern structure and would replace the "barns" on Newbridge Rd. where the District now stores expensive machinery. Board members approved the cost of drawing plans, should public funds be offered to Hicksville. No action was taken on Clerical Contracts,

At The Town Board

by Gerry Kahn'

The first item on the agenda at the Town Board Meeting held Tuesday, September 14th, was a Hearing on the petition of MYTON W. IRELAND. Mr. Ireland was represented by a familiar face at the hearings, Council Oscar Summers. The hearing was for a change of zone from Res E to Bus G. District at Oyster Bay (N.E.C.) of intersection of W. Main St. & Maxwell Ave.

Mr. Summers indicated that the rezoning was necessary in order to construct a modern medical complex with additional shopping and banking facilities in an area that presently was storage for boats etc. and created a poor image on the town. The basic problem was inadequate parking facilities, a proposed construction that would require 107 spaces as opposed to an actual 59 parking slots. Mr. Louis Puccio and Edith Walder spoke in opposition to the granting. They owned property adjacent to the proposed site and complained that the air and noise pollution that would be created, would be unbearable and that the additional vehicular flow and the street parking would make it an unnecessary hazard as well as a nuisance to the people who live in the area.

The hearing was closed and decision reserved.

The basic height of 32 feet and additional appurtenances accounting for another possible 5 feet. The structure would contain 28 horse stalls and an indoor arena for horse shows. There would be toilet facilities, storage etc. within the confines of the structure to permit an all year round type of facility. Membership would be restricted to 200 members and it would be non-profit and operate as a private club.

The opposition to this petition was strong and well organized. Mr. Kops, the attorney for the Village of Brookville was the first speaker in opposition. He stated that the operation was a commercial one and didn't resemble anything close to a private club that the respected image of rolling hills and pastoral scenery would be entirely distorted if such an operation was permitted.

Among the many other speakers in opposition to the granting were: Frank Hilliard, Pres. Brookville Taxpayers Assoc., Alex Assael Harry Flowers, Richard Simon, Jacqueline Palmieri, Wm. Pasternak, Thomas Palmieri, Louis Eager, M. Ferris and Dr. Janet Randell, representing The Homeowners Chanticleer Assoc. of Muttontown.

The formal meeting concluded at 2:40. In the informal discussion that followed Mr. Ed Baron, President of the Tuxedo Hills Civic Assoc. addressed the board relative to the landfill program and disposal system. Mr. Baron claimed to represent 32 Civic assoc. as well as the Suffolk County Legislature and his talk dealt with the possibility of drinking water pollution as a result of the landfill program.

The informal session concluded at 3:30.

The second hearing of the morning was on the Petition of Old Mill Farms Riding Club, Inc. for a special use permit to erect, operate and maintain a private riding club at Jericho, N.Y., 700 feet W/O the W/S of Jericho E. Norwich Rd. (N.Y.S. Rte 106). Representing the petitioner was W.J. Meiselman. The petition was for permission to erect an enclosed facility of approximately 54,000 Sq. ft. with a

Committee For Election Of Clark

A group of Oyster Bay Town residents has formed a committee to assist the election efforts of Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark.

The "Committee for Councilman Clark" is chaired by Anthony Maurino and Joseph Jablonsky, Jr., both residents of Hicksville, and is composed of coordinators from neighborhoods and communities in various areas of the Town.

Clark, a resident of Hicksville, was appointed to the Town Board earlier this year and is seeking election to fill the unexpired term of Warren M. Doolittle, now a Judge of the Fourth District Court.

"Councilman Clark is a man of proven capabilities," said Maurino and Jablonsky in announcing formation of the Committee.

"Residents from throughout the Town have expressed interest in assuring his election on November 2nd," they continued. "This Committee is a vehicle through which those who are interested in retaining responsible, responsive local government can work to make their wishes known."

The Co-Chairmen cited Clark's extensive background as the main reason why people are attracted to his candidacy. The Councilman has devoted years of effort in various leadership positions within his hometown, including service as President of the Hicksville School Board and President of the Hicksville Youth Council. He was chosen by the people to serve on the County Legislature in the last general election, the same time that the concept of changing Nassau's present form of government was rejected.

Councilman Clark presently serves as Chairman of the Town

Rotarians Hear Mrs. Landis

The cause and the prevention of diabetes are still unknown and at present it can only be treated not cured. This was one of the themes of an address given by Rhoda Landis of the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation to members of the Hicksville Rotary Club last Thursday.

Board's Standing Committee on Community Services, Co-Chairman of the Committee on Youth, and as a member of the Committees on Commerce and Industry, Public Transportation, and Parking. He is also the Town Board's liaison with Oyster Bay's Senior Citizen Advisory Council and Youth Board.

For information on Councilman Clark's candidacy, contact the coordinator in your local area or Tony Maurino (333-7220) or Joe Jablonsky, Jr. (WE5-1717).

Mrs. Landis also said that for the reasons stated, the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, a nationally accredited voluntary health agency, has its primary objective the support and funding of research to find a cure for the complications and, ultimately, for the disease itself.

By definition, Diabetes Mellitus is a chronic, metabolic disorder which adversely affects the body's ability to manufacture and/or utilize insulin, a chemical needed for the conversion of carbohydrates into energy. Diabetes now affects ten million people in the U.S., one million of whom are juvenile diabetics.

The Nassau-Suffolk Chapter of JDF is located at 268 North Broadway, Hicksville, N.Y. 11802. Mrs. Landis and Jessie Warren are volunteer workers for the JDF and stated that additional volunteers are needed. For further information and a 1976 fact sheet on diabetes visit to the above address or call 516 822-3232.

A check for $200.00 was presented to the JDF by the Hicksville Rotary members.

"Seesaw"

If you take a world-famous play and make it into a musical with the talents of the people who are responsible for such shows as "The Miracle Worker", "Sweet Charity", "Wildcat", "Follies", "Company", and "A Chorus Line", what do you get? "SEESAW".

William Gibson's "TWO FOR THE SEESAW" was first produced on Broadway with Anne Bancroft and Henry Fonda in 1958. It reached the screen four years later with Shirley MacLaine and Robert Mitchum in the lead roles. Over a decade later, on March 19, 1973, "SEESAW" was steered into the new Uris Theatre by composer Cy Coleman, lyricist Dorothy Fields and Director-Choreographer Michael Bennett. The result was a big brassy musical and an intimate, bittersweet comedy all rolled into one.

The "up-and-down" romance between Jerry Ryan (Bill Wagner) and Gittel Mosca (Janice Lee) is still very much the heart of this musical reworking of Gibson's 1958 hit play. But to match the tempo of the 70's a virtual third character now shares the stage in the form of an exuberant and affectionately stylized New York City.

"SEESAW" is a musical fulfilled Valentine to lovers of all ages. Don't miss it. Running September 15th thru Oct. 24th.
