Community Council To Hear Assessor

The first meeting of the 1976-'77 season of the Hicksville Community Council is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 7th, starting promptly at 8:30 p.m. downstairs in the Hicksville Library on Jerusalem Avenue.

This opening meeting will have as part of its program a spokesman for the County Assessor's Office to explain and answer questions about the re-assessment of all of Nassau County and how it will affect one's taxes.

The second part of the meeting follows the New England Town Meeting format where anyone may make announcements or ask questions on any subject providing that it pertains to Hicksville. The Town Councilman from Hicksville, Thomas Clark is expected to be present, as in the past former Councilman Warren Doolittle was. He will answer questions directed to him, or, if they take research, will get back to the questioner with the answer.

Refreshments will follow the adjournment of the meeting.

All recognized organizations in Hicksville, plus individual residents, are invited to join this Council as it enters its seventh season of working together "For A Better Hicksville." Yearly dues are: for individuals, $3.00; for couples, $5.00; for organizations, $3.00; for students, $1.00 and for Senior Citizens, $1.00.

Breakfast To Honor Clark

Oyster Bay Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark, a candidate for election on November 2nd, will be honored at a breakfast on October 10th at the Holiday Manor in Bethpage. The affair, sponsored by the "Committee for Councilman Clark," will begin at 10:30 A.M. Tickets are $7.50.

Committee Co-chairmen Anthony Maurino and Joseph Jablonsky, Jr. have encouraged Town residents "to enjoy breakfast with their friends and neighbors on October 10th. This is a relatively inexpensive fund raising event, and provides a good opportunity for many of those who have expressed interest in assuring Councilman Clark's election to actively participate in his campaign."

Clark, a resident of Hicksville, was appointed to the Town Board earlier this year and is seeking to fill the unexpired term of Warren M. Doolittle, now a Judge of the Fourth District Court.

Tickets for the breakfast may be obtained by calling Tony Maurino (333-7220) or Joe Jablonsky (WE 5-1717) during evening hours.

Consumer Protection Law Violations

The Nassau County Office of Consumer Affairs took action during August in eighteen cases involving violations of county and state consumer protection laws. Commissioner James E. Picken said on Sept. 27.

In each case a hearing was held, the company agreed to discontinue the practice without admitting guilt, and was penalized as specified.

Failing to notify consumers of their right to cancel orders placed with door-to-door salesmen within three days was the charge against Eastern Home Products, 183 Broadway, Hicksville. Under a Federal regulation, on sales of $25 or more, a cancellation notice must appear on the contract or receipt, and consumers must be given two copies of a form addressed to the company.

"Let me make it clear, however," Picken said, "that the three-day cancellation rule does not apply to merchandise bought at a store or a regular place of business."

Eastern Home Products, he said, contacted young consumers through bridal shows and failed to make refunds when they changed their minds. The firm has now agreed with the Consumer Affairs Office that it will give cancellation cards and acknowledge cancellations in writing. It paid $300 in costs of investigation without admitting guilt.

Innovative Products, of Stamford, Conn., which sells lace, non-woven towels and other products through mail order ads, was accused of misleading advertising and assessed $300 in investigative costs.

Hicksville GOP Club To Meet

The Ernest F. Francke Republican Club of Hicksville will hold their regular monthly meeting at 8:30 P.M. on Friday evening, October 8th. The meeting will be held at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall - Wm M. Gouse Jr. Post No. 3211, located at 320 South Broadway in Hicksville. (The hall is situated south of the Firestone Store and north of the H.I.P. Building). Refreshments will be served.

New members to the club are always welcome. If interested in joining the Hicksville Republican Club please call club President Bob Jackson at 681-6196 or Membership Chairman Bill Gaborow at 433-3544.

The guest speakers for the evening will be Congressman Norman Lent; District Court Judge Warren Doolittle; Town Clerk Harold McConnell and Town Councilman Tom Clark.

"This promises to be a very informative meeting and all are welcome to attend," said a club spokesman.

Friends Honor Duncan

Friends and supporters of Bruce S. Duncan, of Hicksville, will honor him at a cocktail party, Saturday, Oct. 2nd, at 6:00 p.m. at the old Anderson Home on Hagemans Lane in Brookville.

Duncan was a Republican candidate for the New York State Assembly in the recent primary election for the 10th Assembly District.

Lent Praises Reservists

Critics of Military spending who are "Over relying on Americas might are dangerously diluting themselves," United States Congressman Norman Lent of East Rockaway told a dedication ceremony at Fort Totten on Saturday Sept. 18 marking the relocation of an estimated 200 Army Reservists to Long Islands South Shore.

Reserve Command, said that in performing its mission the Reserve is doing it markedly cheaper than the Regular Army. "It costs ten times more to keep a man on active duty than in the Reserve," said mcGrath. "This is a massive saving since the Reserve comprises 45 percent of total Army man power" he said.

The Bellmore facility was previously under exclusive use as an Active Army sub-installation supplying various types of repair parts for tactical vehicles and general purpose equipment.

The new Reserve units reassigned to Bellmore include the 766th Supply Company, and three medical service detachments under the 8th Medical Brigade. The Bellmore facility originally housed elements of the months the reserve has opened new centers at Rocky Point and Amityville.

Other speakers at the afternoon event included Assemblymen George A. Murphy of Seaford, Hempstead Town Councilman Martin Bernstein, and Nassau County Commissioner of Commerce and Industry James R.

Wells representing County Executive Ralph Caso, Wells presented a proclamation from the County Legislature, praising the Reserve for its "Commitment to programs and projects aimed at making communities like Bellmore better places to live."

A similar proclamation from the Hempstead Town Council welcoming the Reserve to the South Shore was presented by Martin Bernstein to Captain Mitchell S. Pickman, Center Commander.

Air Defense Command, and had Nike Missile repair capabilities.

The move to the installation is part of an overall increase in Army Reserve activity in Eastern Nassau and Suffolk Counties. In the past eighteen

Dear Friends...

RIDICULOUS is the only word for it... but whatever imbeciles were responsible for a law that curtails political campaign spending so that the political team of each party may not bring whatever forms of promoting they like in whatever amounts they chose, to the attention of the voters, these unknown persons, should really have their heads examined.

In the first place they are downgrading the intelligence of the individual voter if they believe that he is not capable of coming to his own conclusions no matter how much information is available to him... believe me, better too much than too little. It is only by getting each candidate on record as to what he stands for and what he will try to do if elected, that we can determine, at the end of his term, just how much he has delivered.

And secondly, what could possibly be wrong about naming the full team, when the full team is running? Such a mystery... and really ridiculous.

The thought occurs to me, why not rescind these stupid laws? Many of our laws need Changing... many need enforcing... but this one needs to be rescinded.

WHILE WE ARE THE SUBJECT OF LAWS, we would like to bring to your attention the fact that the Town of Oyster Bay at present carries laws ordinances on its books, in the Town Building Zone Ordinances, which, in residential areas have different setback rules for taxing property owners, than they have for non-taxpaying property owners. For example, if you are a tax paying property owner you are permitted to build up to 20 feet away from your property line... but if a Church or Temple or other non-taxpaying property owner buys your property, they are permitted to build up to 8 feet of the next property. Why? We believe this should be changed.

A WARNING to all residents of our fair Town, but particularly to the area where THE HERALD is located... as you have read in the dailies, there has been three, possibly four attacks on women in the area... two on the street and one even in the home. We are sure that the Police Dept. has already increased surveillance in these areas, but, do everything you can to protect yourselves and your loved ones... and keep the correct Police Dept phone number near your phone... more on this later.

THAT'S ALL FOR THIS WEEK. Stay well and remember the old saying, "It is better to be safe than sorry."

At The Town Board

by Gerry Kahn

The Town Board Meeting held on Tuesday, September 28th, contained a calendar of 28 items and wasn't adjourned until 2:45 P.M.

The four hearings that paced the opening hours was led by the Petition of Rose Masone for a special use permit to conduct, operate and maintain a restaurant and bar business in a shopping center at Massapequa, N.Y. Mrs. Masone was represented by Counsel Carl Cohn. Mr. Cohn presented a thorough description of the proposed premises, its usage, represented that there would be no live entertainment and agreed to submit covenants that would in any way appease the neighbors and the board in order to obtain approval of the petition.

Appearing in opposition to the hearing were Maureen Pacereckes, Josephine Cook and Katherine Daneen. The second item on the agenda was the Petition of Earle's Automatic Transmissions, Inc. for a special use permit in a Bus G District to extend an existing gasoline station by adding a 20' x 30' addition onto it for use as storage space. The petitioner was represented by Council Arthur Arno, he produced Mr. Earl Gross, owner, and Mr. Burt Nelson, professional appraiser (real estate) as witnesses. The only party appearing in opposition was Mrs. Ethel Amolona a tavern owner and landlord in the area.

After a short recess the meeting reconvened at 12:20 at which time the Hearing on the Petition of Howard Johnson Company Inc. for a special use permit to modernize and add to existing restaurant facilities located at Massapequa, N.Y. The petitioner was represented by Mr. Coffey who called upon an expert traffic witness, the Chief of Operations of Howard Johnsons and Mr. Burt Nelson an expert Real Estate Appraiser.

In essence Mr. Coffey's presentation was a carbon copy of his petition of a year ago with the exception that this time 4 parking spaces were eliminated to provide additional planting along the south perimeter and new planting and screening along the westerly side.

Mrs. Marie Murray spoke in opposition to the granting. She stated that she represented the Crown Village Civic Assoc. and adjoining areas. Mrs. Murray presented a petition in opposition containing 192 signatures.

The final Hearing of the morning was to consider proposed amendments to the Code of Ordinances "Traffic Control" specifically the Birchwood Shopping Center in

Nassau OTB Chief Seeks Senators Help

On Sept. 30, Easa Easa, President of Nassau Downs-OTB, said that he has sent telegrams to New York Senators Buckley and Javits, urging them to lobby on behalf of the state's OTB corporations to prevent Federal legislation that would prohibit the taking of bets on out-of-state races.

Easa said the banning of out-of-state wagering, which recently passed the House by a 4-1 margin, would prevent OTB from accepting bets on such popular races as the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness.

In addition, he said that the corporations would face the

Bicentennial Scout Show

By Richard Evers

Scouts of all ages — senior troops, cub packs, Eagle Scouts and scout masters — and the countless people who identify proudly with scouting are converging on Eisenhower Park, East Meadow, this weekend for the Nassau County Bicentennial Scout Show. The Bicentennial spectacular has been months in preparation.

Organized by the Nassau County Council, Boy Scouts of America, the three day festival will provide thousands of scouts and many more of the public with an opportunity to take part or to witness an encampment, commencing on Friday evening and extending until Sunday noon. Saturday will be given over to a wide exhibition of "action" scouting demonstrations in the troop campsite areas.

As evening comes on, Saturday, the Lakeside Theatre, with a capacity of up to 20,000 spectators, will resound with applause for a gala stage show. "Name" entertainers, with Ray Heatheron as Master of Ceremonies, will brighten the night with song and laughter.

Setting the pace for the Nassau County Scout Council, in terms of units and boys taking part, is the Great Bear District which encompasses troops and cub packs in Hicksville, Island Trees and Levittown. "Show Chief," Stanley Woodcheke, of Troop and Pack 172, reports that "nearly a thousand scouts, cubs and troop leaders from the 'Great Bear' District are slated to participate this weekend, October 1-3rd."

Admirers of the Boy Scout movement and its long service to the training of youth for good citizenship and wholesome manhood will certainly want to share this great Bicentennial occasion with the boys and the men who devote so much time to Scouting Movement. What a host of fine troops and packs will be encamped and demonstrating "scouting in action" for the public.

From Hicksville will be: Troop 64, of the Kiwanis Club sponsorship, with Bernie Lett, Scoutmaster, demonstrating first aid; Trinity Lutheran's 291 Troop led by Scoutmaster Lohsen; the Methodist Church's great 293 Troop under Scoutmaster Greenbaum, featuring Indian lore at their encampment; Fork Lane PTA's Troop 378 will feature the skills of rope making under Scoutmaster Crawford. Troop 158, sponsored by the Dutch Lane PTA and led by congenial and most able Scoutmaster Saul Meltzer will be encamped; Troop 381, sponsored by Holy Family Church, Hicksville, will demonstrate "Dutch oven" cooking with Scoutmaster Brennan keeping an eye on things. Troop 91, whose sponsor is St. Ignatius Church, Hicksville, will feature a theme involving 'camp aides' under Scoutmaster McCann. "Show Chief" Stanley Woodcheke's Troop 172, sponsored by Redeemer Lutheran Church, has as its demonstration theme "pioneering." Scoutmaster Neil Gianelli's Troop 491 of St. Ignatius, Hicksville will feature a "bicycle camp" at their campsite. Hicksville will also be represented by two cub packs at the Bicentennial Scout Show: Pack 172 of the Redeemer Lutheran Church will put on a "golf game" under Scoutmaster Maloney While Pack 435, sponsored by Our Lady of Mercy Church will demonstrate handicrafts under Pack leader Livingston.

Among the well known Levittown troops and packs taking part in this Scout Bicentennial salute to the nation on the 200th Year of its Independence will be: Troop 316 of Levittown Community Church demonstrating "animal study" under Scoutmaster Peacock; Troop 326 representing the Karopycgallon PTA under Scoutmaster Inglesby with an action theme devoted to "Indian lore;" Troop 323, sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church, under Scoutmaster Boyd and having as its activity theme "American Carnival;" Pack 316 under Packmaster Jordan will feature "nail art" as its activity; Pack 319, whose sponsor is the Wisdom Lane School PTA, will be encamped under Packmaster Moser; First Presbyterian Church's Pack 323 under leader Kuhns will present as its action "Dad and Son outing themes;" Pack 330, whose sponsor is the Gardners Avenue School PTA, will reveal the fine points of knot tying under Packmaster Jakubowski; Pack 373 of the Abbey Lane School PTA under Packmaster Orabello will feature as its theme a "pinewood derby craft demonstration," while Pack 374 of the same PTA will present "Indiancrafts" under Packmaster Corsell. Also at the historic Scout encampment for the Bicentennial will be Pack 427 under Mr. Jacowitz, and Pack 600 of the Sparks School PTA revealing the fine art of "tooth-pick crafts" under Packmaster Bermudaiz.

Energy Expo '76

More than 40 exhibitors, with displays ranging from wind generators to electric vehicles, will be taking part in Nassau County's "Energy Expo '76" from September 30 through October 3 at Nassau Beach in Lido.

The displays are designed to give the public a firsthand look at the latest technology in the energy field and to show the suburban homeowner how to save fuel at home and on the road, according to Nassau County Energy Administrator Francis E. O'Connor.

O'Connor, who is also the General Services Commissioner, pointed out that approximately 50 per cent of the nation's energy is wasted because of inefficient consumption.

Exhibits will include a battery-powered bike, an electric car, various solar energy devices, wind generators, conservation techniques and many others.

A solar collector panel, developed by a young summer volunteer with the county's Bureau of Energy Resources, will also be on display.

O'Connor noted that BOCES students will be on hand at the exposition to demonstrate for homeowners how to install energy-conserving products such as caulking, weather stripping, insulation and storm windows.

Consulting engineers, architects and contractors will also be available to discuss individual problems of homeowners, and merchants, inventors and services industries will display modern inexpensive devices to save fuel.

"Shhhhhh. Money at work, earning high rates."

We don't actually have signs like that outside the seven convenient offices of The Quiet Bank. But we could have.

Because at Queens County Savings, your "bread-and-butter" savings earn high rates. Each of our two popular basic savings accounts — Regular Savings and Day of Deposit to Day of Withdrawal Savings — pays a dividend of 5.25%, compounded daily and credited quarterly for an effective annual yield of 5.47%.*

We've been helping New Yorkers with money matters for well over a century. In all that time, whatever the economic climate, we've never missed paying a dividend. And we've grown into a bank with over $660 million in assets.

Stop by the Queens County Savings office near you, and let us put your money quietly to work.

*To earn this yield, both principal and dividend must be left on deposit for a full year.

Bailer: "Progress Made Toward Postal Reform"

The Postal Service, despite its financial difficulties, has made "a wealth of progress since postal reform," Postmaster General Benjamin F. Bailer told delegates to National Postal Forum X today.

"Postal reform is working and will continue to work," Bailer insisted. "In five years under the Reorganization Act, the system has been steered off its collision course with disaster and put on the road of recovery. But it is still only a start."

"When we streamlined our operations and were able in the last 18 months to trim more than 40,000 jobs off our rolls at a savings of $690 million — that was postal reform," Bailer said. "When we re-evaluated service needs and were able in five years to close more than 1,400 post offices with out reducing the overall level of service — that was postal reform."

"When we halved the system's percentage of dependency on the tax dollar — advertising the true cost of postage for all to see on the face of each stamp — that, too, was postal reform."

"And when we installed a personnel system based on merit — that was postal reform," Bailer said.

"But above all," he contended, "postal reform has meant planning, building, mechanizing, modernizing, and introducing improved work methods and industrial engineering techniques on an unprecedented scale. As a result, the postal system, which in 1970 belonged essentially to the 19th Century, has properly moved into the modern era."

Those who believe postal reform has failed "are entirely wrong and, in focusing only on the faults, they have ignored a wealth of progress," Bailer said.

He said it should be recognized there were practical limits to the benefits Postal Reform was expected to produce.

Iris Wolfson, President of the Hicksville school board, served as a faculty member for the third annual seminar for school board presidents presented by the New York State School Boards Association at the Ramada Inn in Albany on September 17-18.

The workshop program emphasized the role of the school board as a corporate body. Special emphasis was given to the "art of presiding", using parliamentary procedure effectively, goal setting, a policy determination, conflict resolutions, and the legal responsibilities of school board presidents.

Faculty members included Dr. J. Calvin Callaghan, Professor of Speech at the University of North Carolina and Official Parliamentarian at the New York State School Boards Association annual convention; Dr. Gregory Benson, Executive Director of the Capitol Area School Development Association; Johanna V. Kooij, Senior Policy Editor, National School Boards Association; Michael Van Ryn, State Education Department; NYSSBA Past President Janet W. Richardson; NYSSBA directors, staff and other experienced school board members.

Mrs. Wolfson has been President of the Hicksville school board since July 1975. She has also served as Vice President of the board, past chairman of the Educational Goals and Objectives Committee, past chairman of the Community Relations Committee, and is currently co-chairing the Community Relations Committee for Long-Range Educational Facilities Planning. In addition, Mrs. Wolfson has aided the New York State School Boards Association in the past as a faculty member for the new school board members seminar, and will be a faculty member on the state level at the NYSSBA state convention to be held at Niagara Falls in October.

The New York State School Boards Association, which represents the publicly selected leadership of more than 3.3 million school children in the state, has its headquarters in Albany.

The Town of Oyster Bay Cultural and Performing Arts (CAPA) Division of the Department of Community Services will co-sponsor the Independent Art Society's Fall Juried Art Show, it was announced this week by Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark.

The show, which is also being co-sponsored by the Hicksville Library, will run from October 17 through October 31, it is open to Long Island artists only.

There will be three categories: Oil and Acrylic, Watercolor and Graphics, and Mixed Media. Works must be original and representative of Long Island's past, present and future. They must be framed and wired for hanging with frame sizes no larger than 32" x 40".

All paintings must be received at the Hicksville Library, 169 Jerusalem Avenue, on Thursday, October 7, between 10 AM and 8:30 PM. Entry cards and labels will be available at the library; a non-returnable $2.50 entry fee for each painting is required.

Judges for the show will be John Rogers and Jeffrey Webb. Rogers is an early member of the American Watercolor Society, Salmagundi and the Art League of Nassau County, and is noted for his paintings of Long Island's rural areas.

Webb is the director of the Pastel Society of America, a member of the American National Arts Club and is listed in Who's Who in American Art. A representational painter, Webb is skilled in both oils and pastels.

Prizes will include $150 for Best in Show and $75 for First Place in each category. Awards and ribbons will also be given at the discretion of the judges for Second, Third and Honorable Mention.

TOB Ready For Earlier Landfill Hearing, Asks Direction On Current Excavation

Town Supervisor John W. Burke has notified State Environmental Conservation Commissioner Peter A. A. Berle that the Town's special studies on leachate can be ready in approximately seven weeks.

In a letter mailed Friday (Sept. 24, 1976, (Burke referred to recent newspaper stories that indicated Commissioner Berle was considering setting a date in the spring of 1977 for conducting a hearing on the landfill planned in Plainview. "I have now informed the Commissioner of the probability of the Town's facts being available before the end of this year so that he will be aware of the time we will be ready for a public hearing," Burke said. "He, of course, has many other factors to consider in setting the hearing date but I believed this information would be useful to him in reaching his determination."

Burke noted that he was hoping that the hearing could be conducted by the end of this year.

In the letter Burke also indicated to Commissioner Berle that under a 1975 contract the Town is continuing excavation of the site. "Although the State had granted that permit, and while our engineers have assured us that the excavation itself represents no possible environmental damage, we wanted Commissioner Berle to know that we would cooperate, if it were determined that excavation did represent an environmental risk and his department directed us to halt it," Burke explained.

In presenting this to Commissioner Berle, Burke assured the Commissioner that, despite what opponents to the landfill may have said, the Town of Oyster Bay "does not now, and will not, hereafter, seek to establish that DEC's site approval be granted, continued or extended merely because the site has been excavated."

Burke was referring to claims by critics that the Town is continuing the excavation so that the completed work can be used to compel the State to permit use of the Plainview site as a sanitary landfill. "I felt I should assure the Commissioner of this because that criticism has been repeated publicly despite the fact that the Town has guaranteed that it would not use the Plainview site unless and until it is demonstrated to be environmentally safe."

Burke also repeated his suggestion that the Commissioner issue a statement in the interim that clearly shows the detailed work conducted by the State from the site selection process to the current stage of planning. He told the Commissioner that he felt such a statement "will answer many of the questions that disturb those who are unwilling to await the results of a hearing."

FORGIVENESS: PART I

I wish to consider with you something that each of us needs. There is not even one reader who can say, "Count me out, Pastor, this is not meant for me." I want to look with you at the concept of forgiveness. "How basic, how ordinary, how unexciting," some may be thinking already. But - hold everything - you might be one of many people who lacks a full understanding of this wonderful concept.

Back in the fourteenth century, a monk announced to the people of his village that he was going to preach the greatest sermon he had ever preached on the love of God. He begged everyone to come. At the appropriate hour the cathedral was filled with the old and young. They went through the usual liturgy, and when it was time for the sermon, everyone was breathlessly awaiting the discourse of the clergyman.

Instead, ascending to the pulpit, he went to the candelabra, drew a long burning candle and then walked to the altar where a sculptured form of Christ was nailed to the crucifix. He silently lit the candle until the glow was right underneath one of the pierced hands, and he held it there, with his back to the congregation. Then he shifted and held the candle below the other pierced hand of the Lord. Then he dropped it and held it along the side where the spear had punctured Him. And now he dropped to his knees, in prayer, holding the candle so the candle light glowed on the pierced feet of Jesus.

After a moment he stood and turned holding the candle before him so that the people could see the gentle and affectionate tears flowing out of his eyes, and he said to his congregation, "My beloved people, that is my sermon on the love of God for you." And he dismissed them with a benediction.

From the mouth of our Lord came words of forgiveness at the most poignant point in His life. "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." We always have a marked respect for final words spoken as life ebbs away. And here is the King of Creation, The Beautiful Saviour, fairer than the meadows, woodlands, blooming flowers in the spring, forgiving a creation bastardized by sin as he hung there positioned on a horrendous hill. Even the sound of its name, Golgotha, is ugly. He was forgiving us - not because we deserved it, but because we needed it. God's love in Christ acting in behalf of people who need it. Forgiveness is loving when it is needed. A Christian is one who also gives love to people who need it. Emphasis is on need.

Rabbi Jacob Kurland, is the new spiritual leader of Congregation Shaarei Zedek, located at New South Road and Old Country Rd., in Hicksville. Rabbi Kurland, a native of Rochester, is married to the former Miriam Grossman of New York.

The congregation extends a cordial welcome to all who wish to worship with us. Minyon every morning. Sabbath services begin at 9 a.m. For information, call 938-0420.

Faith Alive Weekend

Strong support from the ground roots of parish life at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Hicksville, has been given for a Faith Alive weekend to be held at the Church Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 19, 20 and 21. Faith Alive provides time for spiritual refreshment and renewal. Mr. Edward Koehler of Silver Springs, Maryland, has been invited to be the Coordinator for this weekend.

Faith Alive is essentially a lay-directed experience in christian prayer and witness with the building up of a christian fellowship surrendering itself to the action of the Holy Spirit. This obedience to the Holy Spirit is an essential feature of a Faith Alive weekend and is predicated upon God's promise uttered in Isaiah 44:3-4. "For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground; I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and they shall spring up among the grass as willows by the water courses."

The Vestry of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church has given its support to Father Cianella and the Faith Alive Committee that has been gathered to steer this weekend. Evelyn Botto and Jean Blaha have been selected as Chairman and Co-Chairman. Members of the community, without a Church home, who are searching for a christian awakening in the Spirit, are invited to enter into the life of prayer and worship at Holy Trinity and be a part of the preparation for this Faith Alive weekend. Sunday worship is held at 8 and 10 A.M. In addition, a fully graded, Bible centered, Sunday School is offered at 10 A.M. with nursery care provided at that hour.

Ecumenical Council News

Clergy of the churches of the Mid-Island Ecumenical Council, embracing the churches of Hicksville, Plainview and Bethpage, met for a breakfast meeting on Tuesday, September 28. Mr. Clive Chilton, Director of the Action Council of Central Nassau, Inc. was invited to present his case for the continued funding of the two day care centers in Hicksville (at Holy Redeemer Lutheran Church and St. Stephen's Lutheran Church) which serve this central geographic area. The day care centers face the real threat of funding being withdrawn and the consequent closure of these valuable service agencies. The clergy present were the Rev.

Messrs. John Krahn, Roland Perez, Theodor Grant, Albert Miller, Robert Bernhardt, James Hanisian, Douglas MacDonald, Jack King and Domenic Cianella. It was agreed that full support should be given to the Action Council in operating the day care centers and that the County, through its Department of Social Services, be urged to review its funding procedures to insure the operation of these day care centers.

On Sunday, October 3, at noon time, the churches of the Ecumenical Council have been invited to share in the Blessing of the Animals from the porch of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Hicksville. This is a St. Francis-like ceremony which is offered as a call to peace and good will, together with a reverence for all life, as well as our good earth.

The Ecumenical Council will gather for a supper meeting on Sunday, October 10, at 7 P.M. at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Hicksville, during which preparations will be made for the Fall and the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. The present officers of the Mid-Island Ecumenical Council are: Rev. Domenic K. Cianella, President; Rev. Robert Osgood, Vice-President; Miss Julie Fling, Treasurer; Mrs. Evelyn Botto, Secretary.

Papal Blessing Bestowed On Choir

His Holiness, Pope Paul VI, has bestowed his Papal Blessing upon the Monsignor Eugene J. Crawford Latin Choir of the Church of Our Holy Redeemer in Freeport, Long Island. The magnificent, hand-painted document was accompanied by official Vatican endorsement of the Latin & English text introduced at Our Holy Redeemer in 1971, which already bore the Imprimatur of His Excellency, Walter B. Kellenberg, then Bishop of the Diocese of Rockville Centre.

Recognizing the need of the people to maintain the beauty and tradition of the Latin liturgy and music, Monsignor Crawford followed the Holy Father's wishes by celebrating a Latin Mass each Sunday, sung in its entirety according to the new rites.

The text was taken from the New "Missa Romanum" brought back from Rome by Fr. Joseph Catanzaro, and was translated, typed, printed and bound for use at Mass under the direction of Monsignor Crawford.

The volunteer choir was formed in 1958 by Mrs. Veronica M. Lynch of Baldwin, liturgical organist at Our Holy Redeemer for 17 years. It had 35 members, many of whom drifted away during the difficult period immediately following Vatican II when Latin virtually disappeared from the Churches on Long Island, and most of the choirs disbanded.

Monsignor Crawford, knowing the tremendous value of religious music toward inspiration and devotion, urged his organist and choir to remain in the hope that the Latin liturgy would return in some way. The obtaining of Bishop Kellenberg's Imprimatur was a milestone in Our Holy Redeemer history, and the regular Sunday Latin sung Mass (Missa Cantata) was reinstated immediately.

Today, the choir consists of 6 sopranos, 3 altos, 2 tenors and 2 basses. Mrs. Maria Zvitkovitch, Mrs. Philomena Pavia and Mr. William Hahn are original members. Miss Jacqueline Ehret, who began directing the group in 1960, is the director and Mr. Paul Phinney is organist and Musical Director of the Church.

It is interesting to note that most of the choir members do not read music. They sing difficult, 4-part Masses and traditional Latin and English motets for Offertory and Communion, with alternating religious and patriotic recessionals.

The choir came to the attention of the Holy Father when one of its members, Mrs. Luciana Simoneschi, sent a stereo tape of the "Missa Adeste Fidelis" and Christmas Carol pre-Mass program sung at Midnight Mass last Christmas Eve to her family in Rome. Her uncle, Monsignor Leonardo Magliozzi, was "thrilled at the depth, feeling and great beauty of the music. The fact that these voices are untrained and singers cannot read music is incredible," he exclaimed. The request for a Papal Blessing was made and unfortunately was received after the untimely death of Monsignor Crawford this spring.

"We are sure that the 'pledge of divine graces and favors' mentioned on the parchment scroll will follow us," said Miss Ehret. I cannot believe the music that comes from these few voices. It continues to prove man's ability to do anything, once he puts his heart and soul into it... and we certainly have our hearts and souls in this group effort."

The choir took Monsignor Crawford's name to perpetuate their memory of his goodness and holiness. "He never had a thought for himself," recalled his nephew. "His life, his strength and all his worldly goods were directed toward fulfilling his priestly vows and self-denial. He was a living example of the potential for goodness in mankind."

The Monsignor Eugene J. Crawford sings the 9:00 a.m. Mass every Sunday at Our Holy Redeemer Church, 37 So. Ocean Avenue in Freeport. Carlo Rossini's "Missa Adeste Fidelis," incorporating familiar carols throughout its parts, will be sung this year at Midnight Mass, preceded by a half-hour of new and old carols arranged by Mr. Phinney and Miss Ehret.

At The Fair

Gardino, the great, "Mesmerist," will confound the cynics and delight fair-goers of all ages with his spectacular performances at the Old Bethpage village restoration during the Long Island Fair. Possessor of "great occult powers of the mind," Professor George Gardino will reach back to 1851 for inspiration when he involves his audience in remarkable feats of mental telepathy. Even the future holds no secrets for Gardino, whose act is one of the highlights of Long Island-wide event set for Friday, Oct. 8 through Monday, Oct. 11, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. each day.

The fair is sponsored by the Agricultural Society of Queens, Nassau and Suffolk Counties, Inc. Old Bethpage, a working mid-19th century farm, is being restored and maintained by the Museum Division of the Nassau County Department of Recreation and parks. It is located on Round Swamp Road, off Exit 48 of the Long Island Expressway.

Admission to the Fair is $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for youngsters from five through 17, with those under five admitted free.

Maybe we did not have Foster Brooks or Rich Little at the past Post Commander's Roast for Wm. J. (Spike) Frohnhoefer. What we did have has to be considered the very best of V.F.W. Post 3211. The past Post Commanders did the honors of turning on the burners and gave Wm. Frohnhoefer one heck of a roast.

Vincent Edwards Senior Vice Cmdr. lead the ceremonies with a beautiful prayer. Past Post Cmdr. Frank Lotti was the M.C. for the evening and introduced the honorable Family Judge Julius Schwartz to begin the roast. I can't figure out where the judge found so many nasty things to say about Frohnhoefer, but he took it like a veteran that he is. Town Supervisor John Burke presented to Frohnhoefer a proclamation for an outstanding job he has done for the last 30 years. For the Post 3211 and the community as well.

All the Post past commanders took their turn on the dias to roast their fellow comrade. It was just beautiful the way the roast went; their was no rehearsing at all but a lot of hard work and effort was put into the affair to make it a success. The roast was well received by the guest and friends and the ladies of the Auxiliary. I firmly believe Town Supervisor John Burke enjoyed himself because he stayed and making no attempt or excuses to leave.

I suppose by now your wondering when I will get to the punch line. Yes I've had the pleasure of working with my fellow comrade Spike for one year but Wm. J. (Spike)

Frohnhoefer goes back 30 years of unbroken service for Post 3211. Just this year he was voted in as all State V.F.W. Quarter Master. This is quite a record and achievement and Spike is an unselfish person and keeps on going on and on and I quote Wm. Frohnhoefer when he did address his friends Comrades and relatives that he hopes he can go on for another 30 years. That is beautiful and Post 3211 and the community of Hicksville are proud of you. We want to thank you again Spike. I like to keep on writing about all that did take place the evening of Sept. 18, 1976 but I don't want to be selfish and take all the space in the local newspaper. For the people who attended the ceremonies you had an evening you could never forget. I know Wm. J. Frohnhoefer won't.

Lent Blasts Coleman On SST

Calling it an "unvarnished insult to the people of Long Island," Congressman Norman F. Lent today a statement by Secretary William Coleman that New York must accept the SST in order to remain the U.S. "gateway to Europe."

"If this is progress," Lent said, "then we do not want it."

Secretary Coleman told a news conference in New York City that, "In the long run, if JFK intends to remain the primary port of entrance and exit from the United States, it's up to them to give consideration to new technology."

Lent attacked the statement of the Secretary, saying that, "It's up to technology to also consider the needs of the half a million people who live in the area immediately surrounding the airport. To expect these people to suffer even more noise pollution to satisfy the desire of a few jet-setters for a faster trip to Europe is indefensible and unconscionable."

"Coleman said the SST is no noisier than we expected," Lent observed, "and that's true, but it's also true that we expected the SST to be much noisier than other aircraft. It's too bad the Secretary didn't say that the plane is quieter than he expected. Coleman's own words confirm that the Concorde SST is too noisy to take off and land in a densely populated area like ours."

Lent criticized the Transportation Secretary for "not only making up his mind before the test results were in, but for disregarding facts collected by his own department."

Lent expressed the hope that the commissioners of the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey would continue to resist the SST until such time as an SST can meet the same noise level standards expected of every other aircraft in the skies over Long Island.

"We must look upon conservation as the number one energy alternative until we can bring down the price of converting sun and wind power to every day use," O'Connor said.

It's best wishes to Thomas Clary, Jr., of HICKSVILLE, who recently celebrated twenty-five years with Grumman. Clary works on the Pride Line in the Bethpage facility. He will be receiving an Accutron watch at Grumman's 25-Year Club Luncheon in the near future.

Birthday greetings to Bob Berkowitz, of PLAINVIEW, who celebrates his 24th on Sept. 18.

Joyce Kling of PLAINVIEW will be going into Brooklyn Methodist Hospital. Our best wishes go to her.

Happy Birthday to Nancy Moyer, Center St., HICKSVILLE. She celebrated her 19th birthday on Sept. 25.

A Farewell Reception is being planned for them on Sunday, Oct. 17 at the Plainview Methodist Church. We wish them well.

TOB Bolsters Newspaper Recycling Program

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John W. Burke announced that the Town Board has authorized eight employees involved in the administration and implementation of Oyster Bay's mandatory newspaper recycling program to issue summonses to persons caught illegally removing bundled newspapers from curbsides.

"As the market value of newsprint has increased, so has the degree of illegal scavenging," stated the Supervisor in explaining the additional enforcement provisions. "The increased risk of being caught for the improper removal of newspapers will serve as a deterrent for unauthorized scavengers.

"At the same time," continued Burke, "greater numbers of residents should be encouraged to bundle their papers and place them at curbside for recycling since they can be assured of the Town's efforts to enforce the designated, lawful disposition of the newsprint."

Unauthorized persons who takes papers from curbside are subject to fines of $25 per household. Supervisor Burke said the Town Board is considering increasing the maximum fine. Town personnel given the power to issue summonses include the Superintendent of Environmental Control, the Superintendent of Sanitary Collection, four Sanitation Supervisors and two Labor Supervisors.

Residents are reminded that securely-tied bundles not exceeding twelve inches in height should be placed at curbside by 7 AM on the designated newspaper collection day. Those who have lost track of their collection day are asked to call the Town Newspaper Recycling Bureau at 921-3850 to learn the day of the week that the newspapers are collected and when the next bi-weekly collection is scheduled.

possibility of paying employee salaries during periods when no wagering was available at OTB because of weather or strikes, forcing the closing of local tracks. In the past OTB could accept bets from out-of-state tracks when a local flat track or harness track is forced to close.

The text of the telegram follows:

"We were very dismayed this week to see the overwhelming manner in which the House passed a bill banning any interstate off-track betting. If this bill should now pass in the Senate it will cost New York State and local governments millions of dollars annually in revenue. The House action, taken by a margin of four-to-one, can only be interpreted as reflecting an anti-New York posture. This measure will soon be brought before the Senate. We are urging that you strive to convince a sufficient number of your State colleagues that New York State looks to Washington for help, not for punishment."

Several of the official state minerals are also on display such as bowerite, the state mineral of Rhode Island and tourmaline from Maine which during the American Revolution was part of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Both bowerite and tourmaline are among the jewels in the necklace designed several years ago for our President's wives.

Other unusual minerals on display are purple heterosite, purple apatite, etc., from New Hampshire; vivianite from Virginia; unakite from North Carolina; artinite and marcassite from New York; and many many more.

The museum is now back to the regular schedule of being open seven days a week, 9:00 AM to 4:30 PM Monday through Saturday, and 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM on Sunday. Admission is $1.00 for adults, 50¢ for students, senior citizens and pre-school children for free. There are facilities for the handicapped.

Jericho. The proposal was for a "Fire Line" to be created in front of all the shopping areas and restrict the parking along the curbing. Speaking in favor of the change was William Mansberger, Fire Chief for the Jericho District.

The balance of the items were resolutions that were dispatched in quick succession terminating with the one negative vote for the day on a petition of J. & M. Kle for a change of zone at Glen Head.

The informal discussion that generally follows the regular meeting was held to ten minutes as a result of the lengthy hearing.

ADMIRATION: Janet Kempfski, Gregory Museum Curator, admires mineral specimens of the thirteen original colonies.

To enjoy a few leisurely hours come and visit The Gregory Museum, Long Island's Earth Science Center. For information please call the museum at 516-822-7505. Written by Janet Kempfski, Curator.

Carter-Mondale

The New York State Citizens for Carter Mondale Committee has formed a Speakers Bureau to send dozens of trained speakers across the State to meet the voters and discuss the candidates and the issues in the Presidential Campaign.

All of the Bureau's speakers are volunteers and they range from well known public figures to ordinary concerned citizens. The Bureau says it will make an effort to send a qualified speaker to any gathering in the State - ethnic, political, fraternal, religious or racial, so long as the interested group will provide the meeting place and the audience.

Group leaders who want a Citizens for Carter Mondale Speaker can call the Speakers Bureau at (212) 399-1981 or 399-1982, ask for the Coordinator, Emilio Paoloni and arrange the meeting.

I tend to be overweight, so I'm already worried about my baby daughter. Is there anything I can do now to establish good patterns for her later in life? NUTRITION OVERFEED INFANTS - They're more likely to become overweight adults. A. It's now believed that excessive caloric intake in infancy may contribute to chronic obesity. And the problem may be even greater when the genetic risk is high. The way in which new foods are introduced and the timing of this procedure are important considerations. More and more doctors believe that breast feeding or an infant formula such as Enfamil, as the sole source of feeding during the first six months of life, reduces the risk of excessive nutrient intake. And using formula or breast feeding for the remainder of the first year as the infant beverage—supplemented judiciously with solid foods—will help assure that the infant's nutritional needs will continue to be adequately met.
