Architectural Barriers Survey

Hicksville Public Library received a New York State grant for an Architectural Barriers survey last year. The completed report can be seen at the main desk of the library. The Library Board has complied with one recommendation of the survey noted. The front entrance now is a ramp into the building, instead of the previous step. This improvement not only makes wheelchair entrances easier, but is also aids other persons with motor difficulties.

The Friends of the Hicksville Library has sponsored several fund raising events for a "Life For The Handicapped." Thus far they have raised about $2,000.00. The total figure for the installation of all they survey recommendation is far beyond this amount. However the "Friends" will continue to have book sales, plant sales and other fund raising events in an all-out effort to achieve this goal.

Grounds Supervisor, for consultation. By the end of the evening the two parties had reached an agreement on time available and the Board approved same.

Mr. Nagel reported that he had gone to the Old Country Road PTA Open House and was impressed with how well things were being run.

The Board Chairlady, Mrs. Wolfson, reported the acts of vandalism to the home of the Supervisor of Transportation, Mrs. Rosemary Walsh, Board Member Mr. John Lari, and some concerned citizens will join together to assist her in any way possible. Mr. Campanella stated that, "The School Administration does not have any authority to help unless it was due to their neglect". He gave his legal opinion as Counsel for the School Board.

The democratic process has set the way for a Referendum Vote on December 15th to bring school transportation back to the 1975-76 limits. Over 5000 signatures were submitted by petitions, to the Board requesting this change and now all registered voters may express themselves at the polls. No earlier date could be set due to the publicity necessary, registration, and the use of voting machines for the national election.

At the same time two other propositions will appear on the ballot. The School Board and Administrators would like to take advantage of Federal funds, under the Public Works Employment Act of 1976 to build needed facilities for Hicksville school performance. A request for $1.6 million to cover the cost of a garage and service building, swimming pool, and various school improvements. The only cost to the District residents is the architectural ones of drawing blue prints and plans to submit to the government. No guarantee can be made that Hicksville will receive this grant, or the program will continue; this just leaves the District prepared.

Because of the time factor in preparing plans for the Federal Program the former school architect firm Knapp & Johnson Inc. would be employed.

A third proposition to vote on will be an additional request for Federal funds for the Hicksville Library. In its desire to service the handicapped the Library Board would like to install a ramp and elevator within their present building. A cost estimate of $150,000 was already made but no monies have been available.

All personnel matters were reserved for Executive Session. At the public session many expressed their shock and concern for the misfortune of Mrs. Walsh. A statement of disapproval was read from the Council of PTA's in Hicksville.

The meeting ended at 11:15 PM when a Principals meeting was to begin.

Artists Needed

The Town of Oyster Bay is again seeking artists and craftsmen to exhibit their works as part of the 1977 Cultural and Performing Arts (CAPA) Division's Rotational Art Exhibits program.

Registration forms are now available to artisans wishing to commit an exhibit of their works to a one-year tour of town libraries and banks. All types of art and crafts will be considered. The 1976 program included displays of scrimshaw, hand-carved and painted toys, macramé, batik, sculpture and photography as well as oil and water-color paintings.

Artists will be responsible for the safety of their exhibits in transit and will set up and dismantle their displays. Exhibits will be at a given location for one month at a time. The sale of works will be permitted with the understanding that if a piece is sold, it will be replaced with another.

To obtain a registration form, contact Lois Manning, CAPA Superintendent, at 823-5800 ext. 245 between 9 AM and 4:45 PM, Monday through Friday. All registration forms must be returned by Monday, November 1, to CAPA Division, Department of Community Services, Town Hall, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay, N.Y. 11771.

Dear Friends ...

LAST WEEK it was my pleasure to pay the City of Seattle (and my sister and her many friends) my semi-annual visit. Added to the usual pleasures of meeting so many hospitable people, was a visit to this fine city's newest park, which was completed and dedicated on July 4th of this year. As far as we know, this is the only park in this country which is built over a freeway...and it is certainly an amazing sight, as you can see in the three pictures below, which were graciously loaned to me by Mrs. Jo Barneault of Seattle.

The Seattle Freeway Park, to quote from the opening day brochure, "possesses the kind of grandeur one usually associates only with natural wonders. It encompasses many moods and balances the extremes of dynamic motion and peaceful reflection. Square elements, box overhangs and neat terraces reflect the shapes and textures of the surrounding city. Concrete surfaces bear the imprint of the milled timbers used as forms.

Yet as you stand in the canyon with the thunder of falling water in your ears, your imagination suggests you have come upon a natural cascade hidden in the mountains.

Through a curtain of water, cars flash past a window on the freeway, indistinct blurs of color and chrome.

The freeway has been silenced, bested on its own terms, its power and scale matched and opposed by the natural force of churning water.

Away from the canyon, grassy retreats and unexpected spaces open among the concrete cliffs. Small spaces restore a sense of human proportion, and shrubs, trees and grass create softness and a sense of belonging. Occasionally the city reasserts itself and architectural details outside the park demand attention - a row of arched windows, the geometry of a downtown tower, the white dome of a church, or the arch of the 6th Avenue overcrossing.

In the east plaza above the garage, an irregular path skips across a grassy meadow. The American Legion water display splashes an invitation to rest awhile.

Yet the freeway has not been left behind. The roof deck affords a vantage overlooking 10 lanes of traffic.

Traffic surges along the concrete riverbed below, carrying an average of 133,290 vehicles a day during the week. At peak periods, more than 13,000 cars an hour pass through Seattle on I-5, making it the busiest single highway in the state. From this unprotected prow, you feel the wind and weather, and the freeway noise thunders up at you. To the south, the rectangular blocks of the park march down the grade, anchored at last by the Park Place building.

Freeway Park is filled with contrasts and surprises. Sometimes noisy and dramatic, sometimes calm and peaceful, it brings a new range of experiences to Seattle's already diverse downtown."

All of this is so unique, that we thought we would share it with you...perhaps the most impressive part of this entire $8,000,000 project, was watching the large numbers of people of all ages, enjoying the park, with its beautiful waterfalls and plantings.

If you are ever visiting in the great northwest, we hope you will include the Seattle Freeway Park on your itinerary.

OLYMPIC SIGHTS FOR MITCHEL PARK: Discussing use of the proposed Mitchel Park Sports Complex as a possible training center for the 1980 Olympic games are (from l. to r.) Colonel F. Don Miller, a member of the President's Olympic Committee; Ralph G. Caso, Nassau County Executive; Eugene Gibbons, Head of the Planning Consortium for Mitchel Park; Richard A. Fitch, Commissioner of the County's Department of Recreation and Parks and Ludwig C. Hasl, Senior Deputy Commissioner of the Nassau County Department of Public Works. Mr. Caso is investigating the possibility that Mitchel Park may receive federal funding as a regional Olympic training site built to olympic game specifications. Nearby Hofstra could be used as a hospitality center for the athletes and provide auditorium space in varying sizes. In addition, the park site is close to air and bus transportation and the cultural attractions of New York City. The meeting, during which Colonel Miller expressed an interest in the proposed complex, was held at Olympic House in New York City.

Nassau PTA Nutrition Symposium

Nassau Long Island District PTA is sponsoring a NUTRITION-HEALTH SYMPOSIUM to be held at the Long Beach High School, Long Beach, on SATURDAY, OCTOBER 23 from 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. This symposium is designed to spearhead a movement to remove junk foods, additives, artificial flavors and artificial colors from the school lunch program; to require total ingredient labeling on all foods, drugs and cosmetics; to inform parents, students and educators about food fads, fallacies and fluorides. WORKSHOP SESSIONS include: Eliminating Detrimental Foods from the School Lunch Program; The Fluoride Question; Truth in Food, Drug and Cosmetic Labeling; Hyperactivity and Hypoglycemia.

Dr. Ben. F. Feingold will be the Keynote speaker. Dr. Feingold began the practice of medicine in 1929 as a pediatrician, gradually shifting to specialization in child allergy, and then to treatment of both adult and child allergy patients. In 1951 he joined the Kaiser-Permanente Health Care Program at the Kaiser Research Institute in San Francisco, and shortly thereafter became director of the Institute's new Laboratory of Medical Entomology, where he developed the K-P diet.

Dr. Feingold has taught pediatrics at Northwestern University Medical School, and was chief of pediatrics at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital in Los Angeles and attending pediatrician at the Los Angeles Children's Hospital and the Los Angeles County Hospital. He is the author of Why Your Child is Hyperactive and numerous medical papers. He has also lectured extensively to professional and lay groups.

Other noted participants include nutrition specialists: Dr.

Juan Wilson, Dr. Henry Sackren and Dr. Joseph D'Agrosa. Dr. D'Agrosa is the consultant to the FEINGOLD ASSOCIATION in New York State - an organization formed of parents whose children are hyperactive and follow the Feingold Diet, and VICKIE GELARDI, president of the Feingold Association in New York City. DOMENICK F. PADUANO, former New York City Commissioner - Department of Water, Gas and Electric, and PAUL BEEBER, President and General Counsel of the New York State Coalition opposed to Fluoridation, will also be present.

PRE-REGISTRATION is required in order to attend this informative day-long event. It is a "must" for anyone working with children or concerned about the effects of nutrition on the behavior of children. PRE-REGISTRATION (with lunch included) is $3.00. Contact NANCY BECK - 160 East Chester St. Valley Stream, N.Y. 11580.

Over 100,000 New Students Registered

Over 100,000 new college student age voters will have the opportunity to cast a ballot on November 2 as a result of voter registration drives at 160 campuses located throughout New York State, the New York Public Interest Research Group (NYPIRG) reported today.

NYPIRG, a student based public interest group, working with the New York Student Voter Registration Drive, a coalition of six student groups, launched voter registration drives on 96 campuses during September.

NYPIRG Executive Director Donald Ross attributed the large increase in student voter registrations to New York's mail registration law which went into effect earlier this year. "Student apathy has been greatly overblown as the reason for low student voter turnout. In New York, the major problem has always been registration and absentee voting laws that discriminate against students. Until this year New York's registration laws made it impossible for student groups to conduct successful voter registration drives on college campuses."

Previously, New York had required most students to register by appearing in person before the county board of elections where their parents reside, often many miles distant from their campus residence. New York still requires most students to vote by absentee ballot, a complicated process that usually requires three separate mailings during the month preceding an election.

According to Dave Hopkins,

"THAT'S ALL FOR THIS WEEK. Stay well, enjoy each beautiful Fall day, and remember the old adage: "What you don't use, you lose."...for many who throw away their vote on each election day, we hope you realize what it is you are endangering. It's true that candidates, like all men, are not perfect...but whichever one comes nearest to believing in what you think is good for our country, certainly deserves your vote, and if possible, your attention during his term of office so that you can ascertain whether or not his pledges and promises are being carried out to the best of his ability.

What's Your Opinion?

By Marcia Yeates

For the next few weeks, we will turn this column over to candidates for various political offices in our areas of publication. We will ask the candidates a question and print their responses.

This week we are asking the candidates for the New York State Senate: "What do you think will be the most important problem facing the state legislature in the next session?"

Fourth Senatorial District

"The number one problem is to shake ourselves out of the malaise which has engulfed our state. This includes quite a few aspects. We've got to keep N.Y. state businesses in this state. We've got to give our state and municipal business to firms located in our state.

"Our high level of taxation has driven out businesses and enterprising middle class people. That is tied into the welfare ripoff.

"I have pioneered in legislation and personal intervention to save jobs, to create jobs and to lower the cost of government by mandating certain reductions in expenditures."

-Owen Johnson, State Senator

"The most important job for the legislature will be trying to find a solution for the problems of taxes and jobs.

"In order to bring rising taxes under control, I favor a plan to gradually eliminate the local group tax as a means of supporting public education, and the assumption of basic educational costs by the state through a surcharge on personal incomes, business profits and estates. Local voters should have the option to approve local enrichment programs financed through a similar tax raised in the community. Local school boards must retain control over planning and allocation of resources. The totally unnecessary Nassau sales tax increase must not be extended.

"Jobs could be spurred by a law requiring savings banks to invest in the state, limiting the proportion of their funds that could be invested out of state. I also favor state tax incentives to attract environmentally sound industries to the state and the island."

-Hillard Boss, Democrat
Michael A. Graziano, Liberal.
No answer received.

Fifth Senatorial District

"Getting control of our economy and inflation. I will again vote to defer tax assessments for homeowners improving their property. a measure vetoed by Gov. Carey. I will again vote to expand real property tax deductions for the elderly, a measure killed in the Democratic Assembly. I will again support reduction of business and personal income taxes as revenues increase, a proposal killed by the Democratic Assembly. I will again sponsor a Free Trade Zone for Nassau, capable of generating thousands of jobs."

s' Ralph J. Marino

State Senator, 5th S.D.

"Stimulating the state's economy to provide jobs and adequate or improved governmental services, while continuing to hold down the state's budget as we have for two years, and meanwhile slowing inflation by increasing productivity is our most important problem. We must also hold the line on taxes and repeal the county sales tax increase. Marino consistently voted for sales tax increases. We can hold the line by effecting economies; eliminating high-priced, no-work appointments; by federal welfare funding, with its budget reduced by increased in-home services for elderly, and day care for welfare parents who work. We must pay-as-we-go, minimizing costly bonds. We should require the state to purchase in-state when feasible, to stimulate N.Y. industries and return their taxes to our state. We can have the MTA buy and utilize light rail and other transit vehicles buildable by L.I. aerospace manufacturers, to provide jobs and decrease our dependence on the automobile and the oil industry.

To save our suburban lifestyle we need state environmental review to prevent improper actions by towns, such as the water-polluting Plainview garbage landfill. Marino, the town political leader, supports the landfill and purely local zoning with control, therefore, in his hands."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sheila,
I have never written to a paper before, but I guess there is a first time for everything.

I am writing about the mail trucks on West Barclay St. The other night when I went to pick up my husband, I counted nine large trailer bodies on both sides of the road. They have two right in front of the back entrances from the train. The men had to duck down to see if cars were coming so they could cross the street. With all the trailers parked on both sides, there is very little room for two-way traffic.

When they park right to the corner by Wycoff Street in front of the U.A. meeting house, you can not see the cars travelling east.

On the north side of West Barclay St., there were signs that allowed two-hour parking, but they have been run down.

There is enough vacant land for the post office to rent or buy and get the trailers off the street.

Someone is going to get hurt if something isn't done about them soon.

Thank you.

At The Town Board

by Gerry Kahn

Top billing on the agenda at the Town Board Meeting held Tuesday October 19th was the Hearing to consider the preliminary Budget of the Town of Oyster Bay for fiscal year 1977.

Due to the anticipated public response to the hearing the meeting was continued in the evening at 8:00.

At the morning hearing, Mario Colleluori, Co-Chairman of the Tax-payers Union of L. I., spoke strongly against the preliminary budget and urged the board to defeat it conditional upon their investigation of his charges.

He claimed that since 1970 the T. O. B. budgets were deceptive and that encumbrances (debts) were overstated and surplus funds understated. Mr. Colleluori claimed rather than an anticipated increase in taxes of 5 cents per hundred the T. O. B. could through proper accounting practices slim the budget and affect a 27 percent decrease in taxes for the coming year. Mr. Colleluori was followed by Assemblyman Lewis Yevoli, Rose Hester and Gerard Twombly.

Supervisor Burke thanked Mr. Colleluori for his suggested methods of correcting any errors that may exist and asked the following question, "Would it clarify matters if in the category of encumbrances the 1.9 million dollars in question was listed under a different heading."

The response to the Supervisor's question appeared to be academic. Mr. Colleluori was apparently more upset over the accounting methods utilized rather than in the end result.

It became apparent that the 1.9 million dollars that was listed under encumbrances was earmarked to be spent almost immediately in the following fiscal year.

Mr. Yevoli's comments, although abbreviated in length, were repetitious of those of Mr. Colleluori. He added however, that the Town Comptroller will be submitting fraudulent documents to the State Comptroller's office unless some changes were made. To the interested members of the assemblage the hour and a half spent in discussion of the first item of the agenda was more a question of accounting procedures and semantics rather than improving the preliminary budget.

To the Editor:

The Tri-State Regional Planning Commission, originally created by the states of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut to deal with regional transportation matters, later had its role expanded to include comprehensive planning for development of land and housing. Thus, the agency became involved in matters that are under the jurisdiction of local governments, but no provision was made to give these municipalities a voice in the activities of this super-agency.

I expressed this concern at a meeting of the Tri-State Regional Planning Commission over a year ago, noting that the agency "has a vast and substantial right to influence land-use programs which will affect the citizens of our towns."

It is imperative that local government have a meaningful voice in the regional planning process.

Board To Crack Down On Litterbugs

Town Supervisor John W. Burke announced that the Town Board has scheduled a public hearing for Tuesday, October 26th to consider adoption of substantial increases in the maximum penalties imposed for violations of existing laws prohibiting littering and scavenging as well as violations of provisions currently regulating municipal and private refuse collection and disposal.

"In large measure the residents and businessmen of Oyster Bay display a willingness to comply with regulations designed to assure the cleanliness and sightliness of the local neighborhoods, as well as laws that control the proper disposal of refuse," stated Burke. "However, a less thoughtful and less law-abiding minority can work against their best efforts."

"By increasing the penalties in various areas with regard to littering, scavenging and waste disposal, we hope to make violations more prohibitive, generally, and also to provide the Town's attorneys with the necessary tools to secure substantial fines in cases where

Burke was joined in announcement of the hearing by Town Councilman Joseph J. Saladino, Chairman of the Town Board's Standing Committee on Sanitation.

Describing the specifics of the Town's proposal, Saladino said the Board is "seeking to increase the existing maximum fine of $250 to $750 and or 15 days imprisonment for willful littering caused by tossing materials from moving vehicles, tossing litter on sidewalks, parks, waterways and other public properties, and sweeping litter from private properties onto sidewalks and into gutters." This increased penalty would also apply to those found tossing litter onto private properties, including vacant lots, and to the owners, occupants or controllers of properties who fail to maintain their premises free of litter except where the litter is placed in proper receptacles for collection.

Citing recent Board action aimed at cracking down on the scavenging of bundled newspaper placed at curbside for collection in Oyster Bay's mandatory newspaper recycling program, Saladino stated that the Town's current proposal "includes an increased maximum fine that will serve as a further deterrent against the illegal removal of newspapers. The penalty would increase from $25 to $500 and or 15 days imprisonment."

Individuals who fail to separate newspaper from other refuse before placing it at curbside are currently subject to the $25 fine.

Our Lady Of Mercy School Activities

The parents and teachers of Our Lady of Mercy School celebrated a "Community of Faith" Mass to invoke God's blessing on their efforts to educate our children. This had been an appropriate start of the school year activities for the past few years. Father Boessel, in his homily, stressed the importance of parents and teachers working as a team to educate the whole child in every phase of development, mental and spiritual.

A short "get acquainted" social followed in the school auditorium. Parents had an opportunity to meet their children's teachers informally, as well as to become acquainted with some of the other parents. This was especially important this year, because of the rather large number of new students. A good time was had by all.

An application for membership in our newly forming OLM School Aid Society has been sent to the families of all of our children. We are hoping for 100 percent membership. The organization has, as its main goal, providing parental help to the school in many non-teaching areas. For many years now, parents have helped out as lunch aides, library assistants, class and phone mothers, boutique assistants, and many other things. All of these jobs will now be coordinated by the School Aid Society, and we hope to enlist the help, in one capacity or another, of all the parents. In this way, we will be able to provide our children with all the services they require, not overburden any one person or group of persons, and still keep tuition to an absolute minimum.

On Friday, October 8, the second graders of OLM School participated in a special ceremony wherein the children renewed their Baptismal vows. Father Brassil, in his homily, reminded the children that these vows had been made for them by their Godparents at Baptism. Now that they were old enough to speak for themselves, they were given this special opportunity to do so. It was a beautiful service, with the children doing all the things normally done by adults, namely, carrying in the Cross, acting as lector and cantor, and assisting the Priest in handing out the certificates commemorating the occasion. It was a very proud day for the children, their parents and their teachers.

John Birch Society Viewpoint

Local members and supporters of The John Birch Society believe that October 24, United Nations Day, should be called a "Day of Shame," and between now and next Sunday they will be distributing materials supporting this belief.

"The history of the United Nations has been one long story of ignoring Communist aggression," says Mr. Lee Hayes, the local Birch leader, "and with the shift in the balance of power in the General Assembly in recent years, the picture is worse than ever. No longer are the UN delegates content merely to tolerate aggression like the Communist invasion of Vietnam, but now they go out of their way to criticize anti-Communist nations, including the United States."

One example cited by the Birchers as being typical of how the United Nations acts against the best interests of the United States, was the UN vote on December 8th of last year, in which the General Assembly passed, 89 to 6, a resolution that strongly deprecated the establishment of U.S. military installations on Guam, which is U.S. territory. The measure also questioned U.S. sovereignty in Guam, American Samoa, and the United States Virgin Islands.

Speaking of UN hypocrisy, Mr. Lee Hayes said: "Tell me, when has the UN ever condemned the Russian military presence in Cuba, or the Cuban troops in Angola, or the Berlin Wall, or questioned the U.S.S.R.'s sovereignty over Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia? And yet, "The UN was founded on October 24, 1945 and UN promoters call this day 'United Nations Day,'" explained Mr. Lee Hayes. "We believe, because of the UN's pro-Communist record, that October 24 should be called a 'Day of Shame' - and the expulsion of the Republic of China from this world body is just one of the many excellent reasons for our annual campaign. We shall continue reminding everyone of these facts each October, until the United States gets out of the United Nations."

The Birch leader said that the methods used to create understanding of the UN will include distributing literature and collecting signatures on petitions urging U.S. withdrawal from the UN (1,609,500 of which, bearing 8,047,500 signatures, have already been sent to Washington from all parts of the country). In addition, in what is perhaps the major thrust of this year's campaign, JBS members will invite all candidates for public office to state their position on the UN issue, so that voters may make an intelligent choice. The Birch Society does not endorse candidates, however, because its activities are strictly educational rather than political.

The local John Birch Society chapter welcomes all interested local residents to find out more about the United Nations and to join them in this "Day of Shame" project. They may be contacted at P.O. Box 122, Levittown, N.Y. 11756.

Editors Note: Whether or not one agrees with these strongly expressed views, their expression for your consideration is the duty of a free press. This newspaper is ready to present responsible opposing opinion.

Amer Soccer Club

GIRLS GO TO VIRGINIA
The Columbus Day week-end offered the girls under 12, coached by Madeline Mitchell and Barbara Dolan, a great deal of fun and excitement. The "Hawks" travelled to Virginia to play in the Washington Area Girls Soccer Tournament (WAGSL). Eight teams were in their division and the Hawks were billeted with Fairfax. The Tournament was to begin on Saturday but the weatherman was compassionate and decided to give the girls an extra day of rest to meet their strong competition.

On Sunday, the sun was bright but the Virginia Mud was ankle deep. Hicksville's first opponent was a very strong Springfield, Va team. A few minutes after the opening whistle, goalkeeper Diana Taylor knew she had her work cut out. The Springfield team put tremendous pressure on the girls' defense but Diana and her crew of fullbacks, Tanya Pfeiffer, Lisa Humann and Nancy Stefan stopped many shots on goal. At the half, Hicksville was down 3-0.

The girls were tired but not discouraged; their white uniforms were brown with mud, their cleats heavy with water but they were strong. Early in the 2nd half, Hicksville scored on a beautiful pass from Risa Bershod to Kathleen Conway. One minute later Denise Harkins took the ball up field and scored her goal. Patrice Kenny and Lisa Burke shared their goal as they both put their foot on the ball at the same time to make sure it got into the net. The O'Leary girls, Erin and Kelly, and Barbara Bruder gave their all to help their team. Kathleen Conway got herself the famous "hat trick" and tied up the score for her team. You could see the momentum building and the hard work of the entire team really paid off. Final score was 5-5 and coaches Mitchell and Dolan were proud of their girls. Hicksville had another very tough opponent to face in their 2nd game and the hard work in the first game took its toll. The girls played Braddock Road, a much more experienced and aggressive team. Goalkeeper Diana Taylor took a lot of punishment in goal and sustained minor injuries. Nancy Stefan replaced her in the 2nd half and gave her usual 110 percent. Final score 11-0. The girls felt bad but forgot quickly, washed off the mud and went to a skating party with their hosts and friends from Fairfax.

Their 3rd and final game was against their hosts from Fairfax. This team had already beaten Springfield 8-0 (the Hawks from Hicksville tied Springfield). Prior to the game, the girls exchanged addresses, laughed and took pictures. Both teams played very well with few shots on goal. Mid-fielders Maureen Collins, Sue Mitchell, Patrice Kenny and Michele Ench kept the ball out of our net. Final score was 3-0. This Tournament was a first for many of our girls and they played well together. From this experience, they reaped knowledge and in particular, friendships that will last forever.

MIDGETS LOSE 2-0
After three consecutive wins, the Joseph Barry K of C midget red team suffered its first loss of the season at the hands of a very strong Massapequa opponent. These two teams had clashed last month in the KLM tournament with "Cresham's Crunch Bunch" coming out on top. This time it was Massapequa's turn. Hicksville had a bad day and the boys just couldn't put it together as a unit. The score would have been much higher but several spectacular defensive plays kept Hicksville within striking distance. Robert Pearse in the goal made 3 or 4 outstanding saves that had "goal" labeled all over them. Todd Lewis turned in a solid defensive performance and Steve Dolan & Billy Cresham broke up several attacks and sent the ball upfield to the front line. Glen Zakian, on one occasion in the 2nd half, saved a sure goal by overtaking an opponent & tackling the ball out of bounds. Glen injured his knee on the play & had to be helped from the field. It wasn't all defense & Hicksville did have opportunities to score but just couldn't click. The boys will try to put it together again next week against Glen Cove.

Breakfast For Clark A Success

A fund-raising breakfast held in honor of Oyster Bay Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark at the Holiday Manor in Bethpage last Sunday (October 10th) was a huge success.

In thanking the hundreds present for the benefit of their support, Councilman Clark briefly outlined the philosophy that guides his actions as a public official and touched on a number of Town-wide goals he personally feels are of great importance to all Oyster Bay residents.

Noting his active involvement in community affairs, and the positions of responsibility he has held, Clark recounted that years ago he left "New York City in search of a better way of life for my wife and growing children...I've been learning and working (as Councilman) to protect that which is good about our Town and to provide for improvement where improvement is warranted."

A businessman with seventeen years experience, Clark said that his prime concern as a member of the Town Board "is the protection of the suburban quality which we all enjoy today. (A quality) worth fighting to keep."

Clark noted that he has made it a point to visit all agencies of Town government "from the administrative offices in Town Hall to greeting the sanitation men as they arrive for work at 6:30 in the morning" to become personally familiar with all operations of local government. He further noted his scheduling of public forums in various locations throughout Oyster Bay "to learn first-hand of the view of the people."

The Councilman explained that "as a public official, I recognize the absolute need to remain open and accessible to all comments - whether they be favorable or not favorable - to weigh all information, and to act in a manner that best serves the needs of the Townspeople and their neighborhoods."

Calling public office "a position of public trust...a trust I hold most sacred", Clark said "there can be no room in government for those who sway in the wind, bending with the shifting breezes of political expediency (or for) those who make false promises."

The Councilman cited his belief in several responsible goals of Town Government, including the "adherence to balanced planning and zoning that preserves existing communities"; "a continued commitment to fiscal integrity and fiscal conservatism" in the daily operations of government"; the commitment to provide housing for the Town's older residents, "under the mantle of local control, with no strings attached by any higher form of government"; and the "the absolute need to remain open and accessible; to listen carefully to the people of the Town."

Stating that proper service in public office "requires the common sense to make good judgments and the courage to make tough ones", Clark once again thanked all in attendance.

Bicentennial Commissioners Reappointed

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John W. Burke announced the reappointment of four members of the Town's American Revolution Bicentennial Commission to three-year, non-salaried terms.

Richard Evers of Hicksville, William Johnston of Oyster Bay hamlet, Martin Moran of Massapequa Park and Albert Wahnon of Bethpage were reappointed to the Commission, which was created in 1971 to encourage participation in the Nation's Bicentennial commemoration and to distinguish the particular role Oyster Bay played during the American Revolutionary times.

Other members include Miss Dorothy Horton McGee, Chairman of the Commission and a resident of Locust Valley; Ira Cahn, Marjorie R. Post, and Marc Roncallo of Massapequa; Dr. Howard Imhof, John Collins, Mrs. Harold Kraft, and John McGrath of Oyster Bay hamlet; Mrs. John F. ## DEVOTIONS

Trinity Lutheran Church
Dial-A-Devotion 931-2221

By Rev. J. H. Krahn

THE TRUTH SHALL SET YOU FREE

"The truth shall set you free" I think that is quite an interesting verse. How you and I cherish our freedom. It is almost unimaginable to consider being without it. But what is freedom, and how does God want us to use it?

Christian freedom comes when we are controlled not by the negative agent of our wrong desires but rather by the positive agent of the Spirit of God. To be able to be free from the power of our sinful nature, we must receive a greater power that only comes through a relationship with God. The bondage of sin comes so naturally. How many of our parents taught you to sin as a child? If you want a first-hand demonstration of our sinful nature, just remove a bottle from a hungry infant's mouth. You'll see anger and rage right before your eyes.

Now, rather than being captured by our sin, we can experience freedom in two important ways. First there is the freedom from the sin-produced spiritual death. Jesus took your place on the death tree. His blood dripped from the nails instead of ours. Brutal pain consumed His flesh as ours stays warm and comfortable and relaxed. And when with eyes fixed on Golgotha we say of Him, "My Lord and My God," all the benefits of His substitution become ours. That's a miracle of undeserved kindness.

We also have freedom in another way. Freed from sin that leads to death, we now have freedom for a life that leads to God. Yes, a life that can lead to increased meaning and joy and fulfillment as we seek discipleship. How? Jesus gives this answer, "If you continue in My Word, you are truly My disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." Most of us grievously disappoint Christ at this point. When we come to faith, we cross the border into His kingdom and then settle in it - but little more. Often I've been part of a conversation that goes something like this, "Yes, Pastor, I was confirmed at St. John's Lutheran Church in 1943."

"Have you studied His Word much since then?"

"No, I can't say that I have...but I believe in the Golden Rule and the Ten Commandments. I try to lead a good life." But there is so much more. It is infinitely better to press on to win the fullness that there is for us in Him. We must grow up in Christ rather than remain crude, immature, undeveloped and childish. The life of Christ is like climbing a mountain which seems constantly to draw back its head, so that each peak gained reveals another, and that in turn another. Standing at the bottom of the mountain, we did not realize that such grandeur was possible for us to behold. But it was always there - the foolish stayed on the plateau and did not venture forth.

Fish prices & the 200-mile limit

Norm Lent's successful six-year battle for a 200-mile American fishing limit was promoted by concern about consumers paying skyrocketing prices for fish and the unrelenting harassment of American fishermen by foreign trawlers. Earlier this year, President Ford signed the bill Norm Lent originally sponsored.

"Many of us have seen the huge foreign trawlers," Lent has said, "while they vacuum every living creature from the seas." These trawlers have depleted many fish stocks, and driven up the price of fish. Norm Lent did something about it.

Re-Elect - Republican - Conservative - Rows B-C 4th District State Senator

Four years now, your personal friend and neighbor, Owen Johnson, has been doing a tremendous job serving you in the State Senate:

A FEW OF THE MANY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD RE-ELECT OWEN JOHNSON:

□ Senator Johnson is a full-time public official with a perfect attendance record in the State Senate. He maintains a district office through personal and not government funds!

□ Senator Johnson has demonstrated true leadership and vision as an architect of the Tuition Assistance Program to aid State college students!

□ Senator Johnson's priority concern is to stop tax increases of all kinds for 4th District residents!

□ Senator Johnson has saved many jobs and has worked to create hundreds of new ones, as the State Senate's chief advocate for small business.

□ Senator Johnson fought very hard to successfully get back increased aid to education for 4th District residents. Governor Carey tried to take it away from you. Your Senator challenged him!

□ Senator Johnson enjoys experienced respect among legislature colleagues. This is vitally important to 4th District Residents. His opponent would be controlled by New York City political bosses and be expected to vote with the Brooklyn-Manhattan "Carey-Drenstein-Stelmag Machine," just like a puppet on a string!

You are invited to attend the Annual Family Day festivities run by the Parent Teacher Association at Old Country Road School on Rhodes Lane in Hicksville on Saturday, October 23rd, from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM, at which time the children and parents will have their famous "Parent Child Races" (each grade will have its own races.) We will once again have games for the children, where they can win small prizes, or collect their winning slips for a larger prize. We are featuring the "Space Pillow" outside for those who want to simulate a Moon Walk. Hot Dogs, cotton candy, and snacks will be available. We are again featuring an old fashioned candy booth, which has proved so popular in past years.

A special Door Prize will be raffled off with first prize being a television set, and second prize a basket of fruit. Another favorite from past years will be the return of the money tree, where CASH will be won by some fortunate visitor.

A Trip To Pumpkin Farm

Picking pumpkins at Filaski's Farm is a big event for the Kindergarten Classes at Old Country Road School, Hicksville. After the trip, the children dictated stories to their parents, describing their experiences. This story by Thomas P. Reilly is an excellent example of their work. Mr. DeWitt Allen, one of the parents on the trip, took pictures.

"On my trip to the Pumpkin Farm I sat on the bus with Mrs. Schlecker and Sean. Once at the pumpkin farm, I saw pigs eating inside a fence. I saw the talking scarecrow - it wasn't real - it had a wire and speaker in it.

There were a lot of pumpkins just lying around. After the scare-crow, we went to see the horses. One gray, and one was brown. One horse was very very big. Then we went to see the pumpkins. We could pick our own pumpkin. I picked a big one I liked for Halloween. Then we went on the bus. I sat with Sean and I had a "Great" time. The pumpkin was a little heavy to carry home, so getting off the bus my mother carried it home from the bus stop. I am going to make a face in it. 'Eyes to see and teeth to bite, so we have fun on Halloween night.'

At the farm a man took a picture of me sitting on a pumpkin, and I smiled.

The pigs at the farm smelled terrible. I won't want to hold one - they were too fat. The pigs were eating on the sand, and in the mud outside their house.

The farm was pretty. The grass was up to my belly button. They had a big red barn. They had a broken fence. We had to wear sturdy shoes because of all the rocks. They had one big rock that was very shiny. Most of the other big rocks were dirty. We tasted apples in school after the trip - all different kinds. One was yellow - one was red. I didn't like the yellow apple but I liked the others."

March of Dimes Makes Waves

"Everybody into the pool." That's the invitation extended to the county's handicapped by the Nassau County March of Dimes. For fourteen years, the March of Dimes Swim Programs for the Handicapped have provided beneficial water experience, swim lessons, and hours of social enjoyment to Nassau's handicapped children and adults, under the supervision and instruction of experienced volunteer water directors and teachers.

The swim session schedule for the '76-'77 year has been released by the March of Dimes for its three locations. Opening session for the Westbury High School pool is on Saturday, October 23, between 10:00 AM and 12:00 PM; for Uniondale High School's pool on Sunday, October 24 between 12 noon to 2:00 PM. The North Shore University Hospital pool is limited to adults and opening night is Wednesday, October 27, from 7:30 PM until 9:00 PM. New registrants are now being accepted for the three programs. Each program consists of 20 sessions. A $6.00 registration fee entitles a participant to take advantage of the facilities of any or all three programs. Last year's March of Dimes Swim Olympics, in which every registrant was invited to participate, was so successful that it has now become a regular part of the program and creates an exciting climax for the year. For further information, please call the March of Dimes at 248-4950

Grumman Develops Flight Simulator Visual System

A low-light level, color television system for flight simulators, which will save as much as 90% of the electrical energy currently required to run conventional visual systems, has been developed by Grumman Aerospace Corporation's Training Systems.

This system uses the field-sequential technique with a camera modelboard to provide higher resolution and better color fidelity than the home-television-type simultaneous system presently used for simulation. Grumman estimates the reduced lighting and air-conditioning requirements of this new system would save $50 million in energy costs over the course of a typical flight simulation program.

Grumman, a company with complete across-the-board training capability, from classroom materials to "hands-on" hardware, has developed and produced simulators.

 "Since the beginning of Carey's first full state fiscal year, the number of civil service positions filled has dropped by 4.5 percent. However, during that same time, non-civil service appointments soared by 26.9 percent," Senator Johnson stated.

"Collecting A Popular Hobby:" Murello

"There's no rule that says you have to buy a lot of expensive equipment and brand new mint stamps to enjoy the hobby of stamp collecting," Sectional Center Manager Postmaster Anthony Murello said today.

His comments coincide with a reminder that October is National Hobby Month, and the week of November 16-20 is National Stamp Collecting Week. "A person's pleasure in finding or trading a canceled stamp is just as real as a collector's in buying a rare stamp," Mr. Murello said.

In fact, in the last 135 years, stamp collecting has become so popular it is the world's favorite hobby. In the United States alone, an estimated 16 million men, women and children collect stamps, Sectional Center Manager-Postmaster Murello said.

So widespread is stamp collecting that practically every community of any size has both adult and children's stamp clubs where collectors meet regularly to share their discoveries and interests in stamps, Mr. Murello said. For the children, he added, Benjamin Franklin Stamp Clubs have been started in several thousand schools. Procedures for getting a club started are supplied to teachers from the Office of Stamps at Postal Service Headquarters in Washington, D. C. 20260.

In addition, he noted, many newspapers feature a regular stamp column, and several newspapers and magazines are published solely for the purpose of keeping collectors informed of stamp news. Since stamps are a worldwide system of payment for postal services, there is never a lack of news on the subject, Sectional Center Manager-Postmaster Murello said.

"Someone interested in starting stamp collecting might do well by beginning right at the post office," Sectional Center Manager-Postmaster Murello said. "The Postal Service offers several starter kits featuring sports, space, history, birds and butterflies, and masterworks of art. Each kit contains a little album, some stamps, stamp hinges and instructions on how to mount the stamps in the book."

Don't Leave Leaves On County Roads!

Public Works Commissioner H. John Plock, Jr. reminded Nassau homeowners and business proprietors that placing of leaves, tree branches and other debris in County roads is forbidden by law.

"There is a certain amount of confusion because some villages allow residents to rake leaves and branches into the road for village forces to pick up", Plock said. "But this rule applies only to village roads not County roads."

"If you don't know whether or not your street is a County road, call 938-8110 and our Road Maintenance people will advise you" he added. Plock also urged people not to stuff leaves or branches down drains because if followed by rain, flooding can occur since the runoff has no place to go.

"Bagging leaves and bundling branches for pickup by local sanitation departments is the best disposal method", Plock said.

On Veterans Day

The community is invited to attend the Veterans Day Ceremonies to be held on October 25 at the VA Hospital in Northport. The guest speaker will be Congressman Jerome A. Ambro.

This year, all Veterans Administration hospitals, as part of a nationwide Bicentennial activity are including a tree planting ceremony recognizing Medal of Honor recipients. Congressman Lester L. Wolff will officially dedicate the copper beech tree chosen by Northport as its living tribute to those individuals who have received the nation's highest award for military valor.

Ceremonies will begin at 10:00 a.m. followed by an Antique Car Display. Neighbors from all of Long Island will be most welcome. Refreshments will be served.

Grandmothers Club Celebrates

The Nassau County Grandmothers Club, Charter 531, will celebrate their 18th anniversary on October 26. On Tuesday, October 26, the Installation of new Officers will be held at a dinner and dance at the Old Country Manor on Old Country Road, Hicksville, from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. Pegge and Tom O'Connor and their group will entertain during the evening.

Please call Helen Swenson at WE 1-7839 to place reservations. Tickets will be $6.00 and reservations must be made before October 22.

It's surprising how much time one thinks he will have tomorrow.
