Homecoming 1976

On Saturday, October 23, Hicksville tied Oceanside 20-20 at the Hicksville Homecoming game. A pregame parade of floats, marching bands, cheerleaders and coquettes entertained the crowd of Alumni and students. A group of Hicksville High School Alumni Awarded first prize to the float made by the senior class of 1977. The floats included a boat from the class of 77 entitled "Steam Over The Sailors", "A Wave" by the junior class to "Wipe out Oceanside" and a Shark with Moving Jaw and Flashing Eyes by the sophomore class entitled "We'll Munch To That".

All students and the class officers are to be congratulated for the work in planning and building such beautiful floats. At half time the Homecoming Queen Nancy Oates was crowned by Mrs. G. Schaal, President of the Alumni Association. Her Court was made up of the other candidates:

Roseann Curcio
Donna Hess
Donna Johnson
Mary McGowan

The Marching Band, The Fyfe and Drum Corps along with the Couquettes put on a show at half time, while an aircraft flying a banner, "Comets Sink Sailors", flew overhead.

Our thanks for all the work to the many students, teachers, parents, Alumni and to the Hicksville Fire Dept. with Ex Capt. Owen Magee who supplied the truck to carry our Queen and her Court around the field.

H.H.S. Homecoming Game "Outstanding Player" award won by McCauley and Begin.

Following Hicksville's come from behind 20-20 tie with Oceanside, the Alumni Association hosted its annual reception in the High School Cafeteria. Cider and donuts were served to the football team, band, cheerleaders, parents and alumni.

The voting for outstanding player in the game was so close that the association decided to declare a tie and obtain a second trophy.

Hicksville Town Annex To Be Relocated

Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark announced that the Town Board has taken initial steps leading to the relocation of the Town Hall Annex in Hicksville from 65 Broadway to the municipal parking garage on the corner of Newbridge Road and Duffy Avenue.

"Based on conversations I've had over the past few months with members of Hicksville organizations and other interested residents of the community, I believe that there is general acceptance of a plan that will provide an Annex that has greater accessibility for the public and will permit further economy within government," stated Clark.

"The limited availability of parking at 65 Broadway makes it inconvenient for residents who wish to avail themselves of the services offered at the Annex," continued the Councilman. "Since the idea of having Annexes in both Massapequa and Hicksville is to make these services readily accessible for residents in all sections of the Town, moving the Hicksville Annex to the existing public parking garage makes good sense."

Clark said that necessary

design work for the new Annex, which was authorized by the Town Board today (Tuesday, October 26th), will provide plans and specifications for the creation of office facilities next to the existing parking garage of the structure, facing Duffy Avenue. When the new Annex is ready for use sometime next Spring, an area will be set aside for limited time parking without charge for those who enter the parking garage solely to use the services of the Annex.

"By consolidating all the functions at 65 Broadway with existing Town facilities, the present Annex will become a surplus building that will be offered for sale," stated Clark. "Immediate benefits of this sale include the elimination of the maintenance and operating costs which the Town presently incurs, as well as the fact that this property can be placed on the tax rolls."

The Councilman continued: "Thoughtful discussion between Clerk Ann Ocker, members of the Town's Department of Public Works and myself has resulted in a plan that will assure that Hicksville residents and those of surrounding communities can continue to receive centrally located services while the other functions that are not directly related to service to the public can be moved to the Town buildings in Oyster Bay hamlet."

Clark said that Oyster Bay's Public Employment Relations Board (PERB) will move to the Town Hall complex in the hamlet as will Town records presently filed at the Annex. The new Annex at the parking garage will operate with a clerical staff providing residents with direct services such as renewals of dog, hunting, parking and shell-fishing licenses; distribution of building permits and applications for pools and boat basin dockage; sale of electrical, plumbing and housing code books as well as zoning maps, and other services presently available at the Hicksville Annex.

More Dear Friends:

It's not often that you get two "Dear Friends" messages in one week... but I forgot to end my political endorsements with this thought... "However, whatever way you plan to vote... please don't forget to do so." I'm sure you all know how strongly I feel about this. So, remember on Tuesday, Nov 2nd... it's your right and your responsibility.

And while I have your ear, I'd like to remind you that the Charles Wagner American Legion Post 421 of Hicksville and their Auxiliary will be traveling out to Kings Park Hospital to visit, treat and entertain the hospitalized veterans and handicapped children on Sunday, Nov 7th. They would appreciate any donations of clean, useable clothing, books, toys, games, sporting equipment, working electric shavers, radios, phonographs, phonograph records, cosmetics, jewelry, toothpaste, tooth brushes, hair combs, hair brushes and shampoo. Donations may be left at this active Post's headquarters at 24 East Nicholas St., Hicksville.

A REMINDER... there will be sanitation collections on Election Day, Nov. 2 and on Veterans Day, Nov. 11th. The next holiday that will be observed by Town Sanitation Collection crews is Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25th. However, a special collection on Sat., Nov. 27th will replace the Thanksgiving Day collection. All other Town offices will be closed on Nov. 2 and Nov. 11.

Mr. Frank Jopp, who is active in several local organizations, both in Plainview and in Hicksville tells us that some bicycles do NOT have reflectors on them. This is a dangerous situation at night. So, we both remind you... please be sure that your children's bicycles have the necessary reflectors on them. Better to be safe than sorry.

This Friday a Retirement Testimonial Dinner for the former principal of East St. School, Mr. John McGovern is planned. We hope to have pictures of this gala event for you in the near future.

THAT'S ALL FOR THIS WEEK. Stay well, and please, don't forget to vote on Nov. 2nd.

Dear Friends...

VOTE ROW B

We have been Republican for the past 25 years and we feel now, more than ever before, that this Grand Old Party which is in the national minority, stands for our views on local, national and international levels.

It's true that from time to time very fine, individuals have run on other lines, but fundamentally their views as to how this Country should be run differ from ours, therefore we could not endorse their candidacies. We do not do so now.

More than ever we believe that the Republican platform which our candidates are pledged to follow, and the fact that the GOP stands for less bureaucracy and more stimulation of business so that more jobs can be created, is the only way to solve the problems that this nation must solve in the next few years.

We cannot see any way that the individual taxpayer (and you had better believe that it is he who will be asked to pay) can pay any more to run our country.

We hope that each voter, when he hears the promises of those who believe that our government can be a big brother to all, will ask himself the question, "even if I liked these programs, CAN I AFFORD TO PAY FOR THEM?" If he asks himself this, the working taxpayer will vote Republican. And that's what we advocate...

Board Adopts '77 Budget

The Town Board adopted a 1977 budget which reflects slight increases in the General Town and Highway tax rates, no increase in the Part-Town rate and decreased tax rates for the Town's two Sanitation Collection Districts.

"The 1977 budget is a tight one," Town Supervisor John W. Burke said. "That permits the Town to sustain its efforts on the part of all residents during the coming year and move forward with necessary public works improvements in neighborhoods and communities throughout Oyster Bay."

Burke said, "While the budget holds the line with respect to the number of Town programs and number of full-time employees, the additional costs of necessary materials and supplies as well as debt service have resulted in a rate increase in the General Town tax. On the average home assessed at $7,500, the new rate will result in an increase in actual taxes paid of less than .32 cents a month."

Burke said that the rate per $100 assessed valuation, which has been 77.5 cents for the past two years, will become 82.5 cents on January 1st and that "based on these figures, the General Town portion of the average home owner's tax bill will be $61.88 in 1977 as compared to the $58.13 paid in 1975 and 1976."

The Part-Town rate for 1977 (Building, Zoning, Planning and Development) reflects no increase in the 9.6 cent rate while the Highway tax increases by four cents to 75.2 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Also included in the adopted 1977 budget are rates for special districts, some of which are administered by locally-elected Commissioners who prepare their own budgets.

New York Telephone Co. Vice President - Technical Services - State Region, Robert M. Burke, a member of the United Way of Nassau-Suffolk's 1976 Campaign Cabinet is shown reporting on the status of Division II at the United Way Luncheon Rally held at Colonial Hill, Hauppauge, October 5. Division II solicits contributions from employees of Government, Education, and Welfare. Some 1,000 people-volunteer workers, contributors, guests, United Way administrative staff, and visitors-heard Mr. Burke remark that "This year, trendsetter campaigns were run in 12 Postal Service locations." The 12 set a trend that is expected to be carried throughout the combined Federal campaign solicitation. Of the 1,439 employees involved, a per capita gift of $17.65 was received. This amounted to a total of $25,242; reflecting a 49 percent increase over the total for those locations last year.

The second area on which Mr. Burke reported was fund-raising campaigns from agencies supported by the United Way of Nassau-Suffolk. Some 8 agencies were identified and their per capita gifts given. These included: Melville House, $24.87; Freeport Family Community Center, $45.50; Suffolk County Boy Scouts, $51.43; Community Organization for Parents & Youth, $60.00; Salvation Army at Blue Point, $68.25; Nassau-Suffolk Health Systems Agency, $91.00; United Way of Nassau-Suffolk, $208.85; and L.I. Labor Education & Community Services, $234.00.

President Ford To Speak

President Ford is coming to Uniondale on Sunday.

Ford will speak at a giant rally, with all the Nassau Republican candidates, at the Nassau Coliseum, beginning at 7:30 p.m., it was announced by Assemblyman Joseph M. Margiotta (R-Uniondale), Nassau GOP Chairman.

"It is a great honor to our county organization and obviously significant to the national campaign," noted Margiotta, "that the President has decided to come here on the Sunday before Election Day."

"We anticipate having a jam-packed rally in support of the President and all our candidates."

Free tickets are still available and may be obtained by contacting area Republican leaders or Republican Headquarters at 538-6400.

Ford's visit caps a hectic week for the Nassau GOP, coming in the wake of an 11-hour campaign visit to Nassau by Vice President Rockefeller.

"We have conducted an all-out campaign for all our candidates," Margiotta said, "and this is the year to turn the tide in Albany and the State Legislature, as well as maintain good government in Washington."

Highway Deaths Decrease

Albany - New York State highway deaths decreased significantly in August 1976 - the largest monthly decrease in 23 months.

Motor Vehicle Commissioner James P. Melton announced today that 222 persons died in traffic accidents in August 1976, compared to 281 for the month in 1975. The number of fatal accidents also declined for the month to 196, compared to 240 in August 1975. The statistics also show that for the first eight months of this year 1,538 persons died in highway accidents, compared to 1,607 for the similar period in 1975.

"The August decline in traffic deaths, which represents a decrease of 21 percent compared to August 1975, is indeed a significant event," Commissioner Melton said. "These latest monthly figures bring our yearly traffic fatalities to a 4.3 percent decline in deaths compared to 1975. We can only encourage motorists and pedestrians alike to be especially cautious during the last months of 1976 which will enable New York to improve upon last year's traffic safety record."

The August 1976 traffic statistics also show: a decrease in pedestrian deaths from 63 in 1975 to 48 in 1976; an increase in motorcyclist deaths from 20 in 1975 to 21 in 1976; a decrease in bicyclist deaths from 14 in 1975 to 10 in 1976.

New York City reported 45 traffic fatalities for the month, which include 22 pedestrian deaths.

The four counties reporting the highest number of deaths were: Erie (14); Orange (12); Onondaga (10); and Suffolk (10).

Fourteen counties reported no highway deaths in August: Albany, Cayuga, Clinton, Columbia, Cortland, Hamilton, Lewis, Montgomery, Rockland, Schoharie, Schuyler, Tioga, Warren and Yates.

Welfare Costs Continue To Rise

The public assistance caseload in Nassau County is lower today than at any time in this decade, according to figures released by the Nassau Social Services Department, but welfare costs continue to rise.

In its quarterly report to County Executive Ralph G. Caso, the department noted a 10 percent decline during the first nine months of 1976 in the number of people in the home relief and aid to dependent children categories of public assistance.

"As encouraging as it is to see people finding employment and no longer needing public assistance, we still face the reality of seeing our costs continue to rise," Caso said. "The culprit is the medical assistance program mandated on local governments in this state.

"I have waged a six-year battle to tighten the administration of the welfare program," he added. "We have eliminated the costly practice of housing welfare recipients in motels. We have weeded out cases of fraud and abuse. We probably have reduced the caseload more than any other area of the state, but we don't have the money to show for it."

Caso said Nassau's statistics further support the findings of a U.S. Senate committee investigation that "New York has the worst managed Medicaid program in the nation."

Since January of this year, there has been a drop of 3,481 persons receiving home relief and aid to dependent children payments, bringing the total to 31,403. The number of people in those same two categories in September, 1976, was 44,572.

Caso pointed out that every person receiving public assistance is eligible for medical assistance. In addition, there are more than 22,000 persons not receiving public assistance who are eligible for medical care. Medical assistance accounts for 54 percent of the current Social Services budget of $210 million.

Nassau Social Services Commissioner Joseph D'Elia said the department receives an average of 1,800 public assistance applications monthly and that about half are found to be ineligible for assistance. About 900 cases are closed a month because the individuals no longer qualify for assistance.

Form Task Force

Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso has appointed four members to a Task Force designed to help stimulate building construction on Long Island.

Appointed are Fred Scalapandrea of the Council of Long Island Contractors Association; Al Lambert of the Building Trades Council of Nassau and Suffolk; Attorney Erwin Popin of Garden City, and Nassau Commissioner of Commerce and Industry James R. Wells.

The Council of LI Contractors Association, which represents twelve major trade associations in the commercial building area, asked Caso to form the Task Force in an attempt to relieve the depressed state of construction.

The committee's aim is to gather information on proposed building and expansion projects and to seek financing to get projects underway. It would also look into any other building construction problem to try to help expedite it.

At Cantiague Park

Once again the Thanksgiving season provides impetus for two Cross-Country Turkey Trots conducted by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks.

Carter To Visit Nassau

Jimmy Carter will appear at a rally at Hofstra University on Thursday evening, October 28th at 8:00 p.m.

Carter's first Long Island campaign appearance will take place at Hofstra's Physical Fitness Center located north of Hempstead Turnpike. The event is open to the public.

Receives Endorsement

Burton S. Joseph, Republican candidate for District Court Judge, has received the endorsement of the Metropolitan Police Conference, the largest statewide police association in the country.

On Saturday, November 13 (Rain date Nov. 14) at Cantiague Park on West John Street in Hicksville, junior high school youngsters will race a mile-and-one-half course and senior high schoolers three miles beginning 11 a.m. The winner in each group will trot off with a turkey contributed by the West John Street Delicatessen.

On Sunday, November 21, the Eisenhower Park Turkey Trot takes off with turkeys awaiting the winners in each of five categories: one-mile race for females through age 15; two-mile, females age 16 and over and males through age 15; three-mile, males age 16-39 and males age 40 and over. Runners will toe the line at the starting line near parking field No. 4 at 1 p.m., rain or shine. Prize turkeys will be contributed by Zorn's Poultry Farms.

A Leisure Pass and registration near the starting line prior to the start of the races are required at both parks.

What's Your Opinion?

By Marcia Yeates

In this final week of the campaign we have asked the candidates for the Assembly: "What do you think will be the most important problem facing the legislature in the coming session?"

14th Assembly District

"Key issues are our economy and runaway state spending. Next year, I will put together a 16-state legislative economic coalition to get our fair share of federal economic assistance. I have written a Sunset Law to put wasteful state agencies out of business, and a law to give their funds back to the taxpayers."

Joseph Reilly
Assemblyman, 14th A.D.

"The key problem facing the 1977 Legislature will be to ensure the economic survival of the middle class homeowner and taxpayer."

"We desperately need tax reform and tax relief for the overburdened taxpayer. The sales tax increase must be rolled back, and spiralling real property taxes must be controlled once and for all. The present method of financing education through the property tax must be discarded in favor of a method that will more equitably distribute the tax burden and ease the tax load carried by middle class homeowners."

"We must also overhaul the regulation of LILCO and other utility companies to more effectively control the kind of costs that the utilities can pass on to the public. The utilities have been picking the pockets of the consumer for far too long."

"In short, significant financial relief for the middle class must be our Number One priority in 1977."

Ronald Kadin
Democratic-Liberal Candidate

Vincent De Meo, Conservative
No answer received.

10th Assembly District

No answers received.

We also questioned the candidates for the Oyster Bay Town Council. Their question is "What will be the most important problems facing the Town of Oyster Bay in the coming year?"

"Protecting our suburban values in the town as we enjoy them today. The quality of our lives is very much shaped by our surroundings. For that reason I propose strong commitments for sound planning and zoning practices; for the maintenance of the town's recreational facilities and for the continued deliverance of fine services to the residents of Oyster Bay township."

"These goals can only be realized by comprehensive reviews of each and every proposal that might disrupt the orderly growth of our community."

"Protection and enhancement of our environment and way of life must be maintained. An integral part of this planning must include Senior Citizen housing and youth services."

Tom Clark, Councilman
Republican-Conservative candidate

"The most pressing problem facing the Town is the arrogance of power that comes from one party controlling the political and economical lives of all the residents. At a time when homeowners are taxed to the hilt, the all-Republican Town Board proposes a 35 percent tax hike. Despite the threat to our drinking water, the Town continues to excavate the Plainview landfill site."

"The taxpayers need relief from these actions. I will be an independent voice and will work to eliminate the arrogance and provide tax relief sorely needed."

Gerard Twombly
Democratic-Liberal candidate.

Book-Author Luncheon

The Long Island Alumnae Club of Wellesley College will hold a Book-Author luncheon on Tuesday, November 9, at the Piping Rock Club in Locust Valley. Dr. Helen DeRosier, distinguished psychiatrist of New York University and editor of the American Journal of Psychoanalysis, will discuss her most recent publication, The Book of Hope, which tells how to cope with the stresses unique to the modern woman. Autographed copies of the book will be available for sale.

TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mrs. Noeth:

After reading the "Dear Friends" column of September 30th regarding side-yard requirements in residential districts, I checked with the Superintendent of the Town's Building Division to discover the rationale for what appeared to be a discrepancy in existing zoning provisions with respect to permitted non-residential uses in a residential zone. The Building Division's explanation of existing side-yard requirements belies the apparent discrepancy, and I believe your readership would be interested in knowing of the side-yard provisions as they exist today.

You'll recall that the September 30th column item, in apparent reference to construction within the "D" residential zone, asserted that tax paying property owners are permitted to build up to 20 feet away from their property lines while religious organizations or other non-tax paying property owners can build within eight feet of the property line in the same zoning classification.

You stated your belief that this should be changed, and I am pleased to point out that the provisions, as they were outlined, are not part of the Town zoning code.

Side-yard requirements in the "D" zone are as follows: an aggregate of 20 feet for two side yards on properties containing one-family dwellings is required, with a minimum of eight feet on either of the sides. The same standard applies for other permitted uses in this residential zone; in addition, in cases such as houses of worship where off-street parking is required, the driveway right-of-way leading to the parking area may be no less than 30 feet wide.

I hope the above clarifies any misunderstanding which may have previously existed.

Very truly yours,

James T. Bell
Public Information Officer
Editors Note: I hope so too.

To the Editor:

Governor Carey's abdication from the law suit to bar drilling for oil off our shores was a shock to most environmentally concerned citizens. In weighing the potential of an ecological disaster versus the dream of more jobs, Carey apparently opted for the latter.

As State Commerce Commissioner Dyson put it, according to one newspaper report, the danger to shore resorts and the coastline did not seem that great, weighed against the compelling needs of the city and state for more energy.

The oil industry is predicting that the development and production of major oil and gas fields in this area will create about 28,000 new jobs - a juicy carrot indeed to dangle before the Governor's eyes. The crucial question here is the presence of economically developable, vast reserves of oil and gas - and the petroleum industry will be the first to point out that the odds against such finds are very high.

I also question the assumption that New York will be the major beneficiary of this employment picture. There already exist more than a half dozen major oil refineries with tanker terminals and storage facilities in New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland that are equally accessible to service offshore production as any New York area.

A report attributed to Exxon, which bid more than $340 million for drilling rights in this area, would appear to support this suspicion. Exxon's shoreside support facility will be situated at Quonset Point, Rhode Island - not New York. This will create only 20 or 30 new jobs for Rhode Islanders during the exploratory drilling phase with the significantly greater number of jobs materializing only when and if vast quantities of recoverable oil and gas are found. It should be noted that Exxon's major refinery complex is located in Linden, New Jersey.

At present, it would appear that the only additional employment offshore drilling will bring to Long Island will be the hundreds of workers that will have to be hired to clean up the oil spills on our beaches.

Dear Mr. Hilker:

On behalf of Help-Aid-Direction, I would like to express my deepest thanks and very sincere gratitude to you for permitting the sale of Halloween candy and giant coloring story books at your beauty salon over the past weekend.

Through your kind cooperation, more than $150.00 was raised in this fund-raising endeavor. This money will greatly assist H.A.D. in carrying on its free-of-charge, confidential youth and family counseling services.

You are to be commended for your community-minded spirit and concern for the survival and continuation of our valuable counseling services.

I also wish to express my agency's thanks to your fine staff members who conducted the sale on our behalf. Of course, a special expression of appreciation must go to your generous customers who supported our cause by purchasing either candy or coloring books.

Help-Aid-Direction is indeed grateful to have the support of concerned businessmen like yourself. You are a credit to our Hicksville community.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mrs. Noeth:
The Town of Oyster Bay is considering an increase in the penalties for violation of the Town's "anti-litter" ordinances

This is a fine idea, as far as it goes. Unfortunately, it doesn't go nearly far enough.

The real problem is that the basic "anti-littering" ordinances are themselves so imprecise as to be almost unenforceable. For example, Section 11-106 of the Town Code reads, in pertinent part, as follows:

"Persons owning or occupying a place of business within the Town shall keep the sidewalk adjacent to their business premises free of litter."

Lovely sentiment indeed, but not nearly precise enough, no matter how stringent the penalties for its violation.

The best way to keep shopping centers and other public business areas free from litter is to provide the public with a place to put the litter. It's surprising how few of our local shopping centers have installed even one waste receptacle for public use - and nothing in the Town Code requires them to do so.

In order to really do something about the disgraceful condition of many local shopping centers, I suggest that the Town amend the present text of Section 11-106 by adding such as the following:

"Further, every owner and every landlord of a place of business within the Town shall maintain a sufficient number of authorized private receptacles in, on and around said place of business so as to prevent litter from being deposited by persons or carried by the elements upon any property in the Town."

The above could be made even more precise by requiring at least one such waste receptacle per a specified amount of square footage of sidewalk and parking area surrounding the premises. Either way, the net result is sure to be cleaner shopping areas at only a relatively minor cost to the owners of the property. An ordinance of this type has already been adopted by at least one Long Island municipality - the incorporated Village of the Branch in Suffolk County.

What say, gentlemen of the Town Board? Why not open up another front in the war against litter.

Very truly yours,
Michael Polansky,

Court Again Upholds TOB

Agreeing with the Town of Oyster Bay position that it has acted in accordance with all regulations governing solid waste disposal facilities, State Supreme Court Justice William Sullivan dismissed a suit seeking to stop the development of a sanitary landfill facility in Plainview.

In dismissing the action brought by the Tuxedo Hills Civic Association of Huntington and others, Justice Sullivan cited the fact that "the construction and operation of a garbage disposal facility is a legitimate governmental purpose." He pointed out that the regulating of such development was a duty given by the State Legislature to the Department of Environmental Conservation.

Supporting the Town's claim that it has acted fully in accordance with every requirement of the State DEC, Justice Sullivan's decision stated:

"Approval for the facility, was obtained and there is no showing that the defendant (Oyster Bay Town) has violated any of the conditions of the permit issued to it or that it violated any rules and regulations in excavating and construction of such a facility."

Justice Sullivan also took note of the fact that Town Supervisor John W. Burke in a letter of September 16, 1976, "wrote to the Commissioner of the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation indicating that the Town supports a public hearing on the environmental questions which have been raised."

Last month Supreme Court Justice David T. Gibbons dismissed a similar suit brought by the Town of Huntington against Oyster Bay. In that decision it was also noted that Oyster Bay wasn't "doing anything illegal or contrary to or in violation of the conditions of the permit issued by the Department of Environmental Conservation."

Both of these decisions were based on facts concerning the Town's actions in planning this facility rather than on much of the misinformation that has caused this development to become an emotional issue. Burke noted, "I have no doubt that, by the time all the facts are fully explored and developed, those with the knowledge and responsibility for assuring the protection of the environment will also base the final decision on the facts. Certainly the Town will not use the Plainview facility for a sanitary landfill until and unless the facts show such a facility to be environmentally sound."

Burke recalled that earlier this month the State DEC arranged a technical meeting for a environmental and health officials and engineers to review the preliminary information that has been developed up to this point by Town Consulting Engineers Lockwood, Kessler and Bartlett.

"I understand that State DEC officials felt that this meeting did serve the purpose for which it was intended: to open up the planning of the facility to responsible officials and uncover all questions which they believe must be answered in the final plans," Burke said. "The Regional DEC Director, Don Middleton, indicated that the technical meetings will continue throughout the development of the final plans and will be called as is warranted by the development of more detailed information."

Burke noted that he is very encouraged by the great efforts (Continued on Page 15)

Drafts State Law To Curb Spending

"This state agency may self-destruct in five years."

That provision, translated into appropriate legal language, will be written into every state spending program enacted in the future, and will be made RETROACTIVE to cover all existing programs, if Assemblyman Joseph Reilly has his way.

Reilly (R-Glen Cove) announced today that he is preparing a state sunset law that would limit the life of all existing and proposed state agencies and programs to five years.

"In the past, once a program got started, it acquired a life of its own and went on forever without being questioned," Reilly said. "Budget makers took its existence for granted and agency directors came back year after year asking for more money to build on top of what they already had."

Those days will be gone forever under Reilly's bill.

Under the sunset law, each state agency will automatically come under a legislative microscope every five years. As if it were just starting for the first time, the agency must prove to the Legislature that a genuine need exists for the agency and for every program that it administers.

"If it cannot justify its existence, its sun will set," Reilly said, "and it will go out of business to save the taxpayers money."

Reilly said that he would stagger the sunset years for existing programs to avoid overloading the review process but that no existing agency or program could continue longer than five years without getting a new lease on life from the Legislature.

"The important thing is that it will require a positive act of the Legislature to keep the agency going," Reilly said. "No agency or program can slide by the review process. It will be automatic."

Reilly said that his sunset bill is analogous to zero based budgeting techniques pioneered in private industry. Sixteen states are now using zero based budgeting or sunset laws or a combination of both to hold down the costs of government, Reilly said. He said that he was encouraged by the fact that Massachusetts had cut spending by 10 per cent after two years of using the system, and that the New Jersey budget had dropped three per cent in the first year and risen only 2.1 per cent in the second year, compared with the previous annual average increase of 16.8 per cent.

"What it means is that the bureaucrats who manage our massive state agencies must justify every dollar they want to spend," Reilly concluded, "not just the latest increase over last year's budget."

Avoid Winter Burn On Evergreens

Homeowners can avoid winter burn on their evergreens this winter if they start to take protective measures now.

Although we can't look into a crystal ball to foresee the coming winter conditions, there are a few precautionary suggestions which might help.

A mulch of leaves, wood chips, bark chips or pine needles, about 3 or 4 inches deep will help conserve the moisture now in the ground and also keep the soil at an even temperature. It will help prevent deep frost penetration.

Consumer Affairs Takes Action

The Nassau County Office of Consumer Affairs took action during September in 19 cases involving violations of county and state consumer protection laws. Commissioner James E. Picken said today.

In an unusual move, Picken has turned to the courts for recourse against a firm of baby photographers which violated a 1975 Assurance of Discontinuation.

He obtained a court order which assures restitution for 160 consumers and prohibits Laurel Color, Inc., of West Hempstead, from advertising a "free" photograph which actually costs $2.95. The order, signed by Supreme Court Justice Bertram Harnett, also levied a $1,000 fine.

Picken said that since January, 1975, when the Assurance was signed, Consumer Affairs has received 160 more complaints about Laurel. The consumers, mothers of new babies, claimed that they were not informed of the "shipping and handling charge" until after the proofs were presented and it became difficult to resist.

"Laurel" agreed to inform consumers at the first contact that the photo was not free but they went right ahead and flouted the agreement. We had no alternative but to turn the case over to the Nassau County Attorney to end these deceptive selling tactics," Picken declared.

The Court order stipulated that the firm must attempt to rectify all outstanding complaints and must also inform consumers of their right to cancel their orders within three days. Picken said Laurel had paid the fine and is complying with the order by delivering pictures without charge or giving refunds.

In the following cases, a hearing was held, the company agreed to discontinue the practice without admitting guilt, and was penalized as specified.

Hi There. — Just a few words from your friendly roving reporter — The first thing I must report on is what a FANTASTIC FUN time was had by all at our Bicentennial Dance on Oct. 16th. We were honored by having the famous "Paul Revere" and his fair lady attend (Mr. & Mrs. Bob Gerlach) in full costume, and they really did - tear up the town. Also among our guest we were honored by the Post Commander and his lovely wife, Abe and Mimi Feldman, our Auxiliary President Virginia Byrnes and our new County President and her husband, Joan & Ed Chwaliz. The music provided by John Ollie and his band was really marvelous. The program that he wrote for the evening was based on the 200 years of our country, with a march and showing of our colors. The women outdid themselves in the march, without a rehearsal they marched in perfect unison. If you were not there — you really missed out on a perfect evening — if you were there, you know what I mean.

Being serious for a moment, let us not forget that, two hundred years ago our forefathers fought for the rights we enjoy today. In this Bicentennial year, you should exercise one of your most important rights VOTE, ON NOV. 2nd.

On Nov. 9th, some of our women and men will be making their monthly visit to Northport Hospital. We will have our regular meeting on Nov. 11th at the VFW Hall in Hicksville. If any women with the required eligibilities care to join us — please feel free to come down to speak to us.

Participating units evaluated increased standardization of doctrines, equipment and armaments among NATO forces plus command and control procedures for coordinated action by NATO sea land and air forces.

The convoy operation tested Allied capabilities to reinforce and resupply ground forces in Southern Europe. Acting as opposing forces, NATO units simulated surface, subsurface and air attacks along the convoy's route.

GREAT PEOPLE OF GOD! HOW TO BECOME ONE

Greatness as the world judges greatness escapes the grasp of nearly all. How many truly great men or women do you know personally? I guess the answer to this question is related to our definition of what constitutes greatness. In Holy Scripture there are many passages which lead us to understand greatness from God's perspective. God says that we need no longer be successful at being failures but that greatness is a thing all of us can attain.

Notice that the title of today's devotion is not, "Great People" How To Become One," but rather "Great People of God! How To Become One." There is little hope for any of us to become great, as the world judges it, but the possibility exists for all of us to become great people of God.

Then what are the characteristics of the great people of God? There are several. First, great people of God are people, who in spite of their weaknesses, know that God has made available to them an unlimited reservoir of power! They know that successful lives are only possible through following the Lord and appropriating His strength for their weakness. Great people of God realize that eyes fixed on their navels find few possibilities, better to redirect them heavenward where the King of the Universe directs His creation.

Next, great people of God know that they must listen to the Lord and then obey His command. When we get on our knees in prayer - a position from which to hear God - and then show that we trust what we hear by acting upon it, we will receive a blessing for ourselves, and we will be prepared to become a blessing for others.

Great people of God are positive people with a vision. It takes absolutely no effort to be a negative person. This is merely our natural, sinful self coming out. "Where there is no vision, the people perish," the writer of Proverbs states. You can't be a great person of God and be a negative person, lacking vision.

Finally, great people of God walk in the realms of the impossible. When we have seen the invisible then we know we can do the impossible. Ethel Waters, the great Gospel singer, put it this way, "God don't sponsor no flops." Unfortunately the Church and even its leadership has too many flops. And most of us here move in and out of "flopood." We pilfer away so much valuable time moving ant hills when God is calling us to tackle mountains. Instead we should look into the future from our knees, ears open, eyes on the Savior, our will in tune with His. Then we won't be afraid to take a big step if one is indicated, for you can't cross a chasm in two small jumps.

In review, we must lay claim to God's unlimited resource of power for our lives and ministry. We must pray to God, listening for His direction and then obeying it. Next we must say positive things about God's vision for our future. Finally, we must stay in the realms of the impossible for only then do we experience God fully. Lay, pray, say and stay - each a stepping stone towards being one of God's great people. And God can make you one. He can make me one too! And all of us together can make an impact in this world that will be amazing, truly amazing. Let's become one, everyone of us...what do you say?

Hallowe'en Dance

It is that time again, when witches ride across the moon and Jack-O-Laterns glow with ghostly light. And, this Saturday night, Oct. 30, the Charles Wagner Post of the American Legion will mark the spooky hours with its Annual Hallowe'en Dance.

Legionnaires, their ladies and friends are invited to brave the hobgoblins' devilries and dance away the away the hours to the tunes of "The Talismen" band. Costumes are hoped for and prizes will be awarded.

The cost for syncoating rhythms, a hot and cold buffet, free beer and a bottle of cheer at each table is $20 per couple. Tickets may be purchased at the door or preferably by calling Sal Graffeo, the Legion entertainment chairman at WE 8-9231.

IT'S WOLVERINE INSULATED

We started with the best waterproof leather. CUDAHY DRY DUCK LEATHER. It's a special treated waterproof leather guaranteed not only to resist water but also resists acids, alkalis, salts and perspiration.

One piece pattern with waterproof seams. A one piece pattern eliminates much of the stitching that is normally needed in a boot. And all the stitching that is needed employs a lock-stitch using strong, durable nylon thread. We also apply a rubber sealant to all the seams both before and after stitching to keep the boots watertight.

Waterproof molded soles.

They are made of oil and skid-resistant injection molded P.I. (P.V.C.) and backed with a cushioned insole for comfort. Then the boot is completely leather lined and fully insulated with INSOLITE for warmth.

HALLOWEEN PREPARATIONS AT WILLET AVENUE: The trip to Filasky's Pumpkin Farm in Brookville is an annual thrill for Geraldine Landgarten's kindergarten classes from Willet Avenue School, Hicksville. Re-Elect — Republican — Conservative — Rows B-C 4th District State Senator

Four years now, your personal friend and neighbor, Owen Johnson, has been doing a tremendous job serving you in the State Senate!

A FEW OF THE MANY REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD RE-ELECT OWEN JOHNSON:

— Senator Johnson is a full-time public official with a perfect attendance record in the State Senate. He maintains a district office through personal and not government funds!

— Senator Johnson has demonstrated true leadership and vision as an architect of the Tuition Assistance Program to aid State college students!

— Senator Johnson's priority concern is to stop tax increases of all kinds for 4th District residents!

— Senator Johnson has saved many jobs and has worked to create hundreds of new ones, as the State Senate's chief advocate for small business.

— Senator Johnson fought very hard to successfully get back increased aid to education for 4th District residents. Governor Carey tried to take it away from you. Your Senator challenged him!

— Senator Johnson enjoys experienced respect among legislature colleagues. This is vitally important to 4th District Residents. His opponent would be controlled by New York City political bosses and be expected to vote with the Brooklyn-Manhattan "Carey-Orenstein-Sleingut Machine," just like a puppet on a string!

OWEN JOHNSON

WHEN HE WINS — YOU WIN!

Warnings For Trick or Treaters

"From ghouls and ghosts and long-legged beasts and things that go bump in the night, Good Lord, deliver us."

This Scottish prayer might well be a child's prayer on Halloween night. But while the ghouls and ghosts are probably just fellow trick or treaters, there are some precautions that should be taken to insure a happy and healthy Halloween for all.

Parents should check all treats before letting children have them, and not let them eat any food or candy which is opened or punctured. Parents should avoid letting youngsters enter strange houses (children should travel in two's and three's rather than alone and carry a flashlight to light their way as well as make them more visible. Trick or treaters should follow a route that avoids street crossings. Parents should accompany younger children during their Halloween travels.

Costumes should be selected to give the child maximum mobility. Light colors are preferable and store bought costumes should be checked to see that they are fire-retardant. Masks should have large holes for the eyes to permit unobstructed vision and should not block the mouth or nose.

CUMMINGS 'N GOINGS ROUND-THE-TOWN

by Jim Cummings

WE HEAR THAT: Hicksville Postmaster Anthony Murello, celebrates 28 years with the postal system on November 24 this year. Tony came up through the ranks too. He recently lost two good friends: Pat Foley, Bethpage Postmaster and Arthur Nichols, Postmaster of Cold Spring Harbor who passed away on the same day. Hicksville's newest Twin Theatre is open - great. Pat Cowan's celebrated their 10th wedding anniversary last week - I believe it was October 15 - Pat is the energetic Vice-President of the Commodore John Barry Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians - nominations for new officers will be held at the November 11, Veteran's Day.

DID'YA KNOW THAT: Iannone's Italian-American Restaurant on West John Street, in Hicksville, has added a beautiful dining room for private parties, anniversaries, etc., whatever the occasion - good food, fine hosts are Vinnie, Frank and Vito - stop by - that's at the corner of Kuhl Avenue...Rose Maggio, of Old Bethpage, long time Division head of the Town of Oyster Bay's Printing Section is retiring - we wish her well in what ever she may endeavor to do - most certainly she did an excellent job for the Town - good luck Rose... the surprise guest of honor at the recent Fight Nite sponsored by the Hicksville AOH was Long Island's Gold Medal winner, Howard Davis, of Glen Cove, Danny Donovan and Ned Bergen, co-chairmen really outdid themselves at this 3rd annual benefit for the Irish Christian Brothers - now we hope that he bagged a deer on his recent hunting trip, right Danny? the IRISH ECHO weekly publication carries the pic story of the event with Danny, Congressman Norman F. Lent, Davis and Tom Clark... Word has it that Tom Clark has a special Halloween surprise for the kiddies - what else - Clark candy bars.

HERITAGE COMMITTEE: Tim Finn, lon active in Hibernians circles has been appointed to President Ford's Heritage Committee - Tim is a past national organizer, he serves with Frank T. Nolan of Nassau County. On July 5th this year President Ford underscored his strong convictions that ethnic diversity is one of America's greatest strengths and that our nation's ethnic treasures must be preserved and we quote: "Ethnic Americans have enriched America with hard work, self-reliance and respect for the rights and needs of others. Groups reaching our shores at various times have given our country its unique identity and strength among the nations of the world. We recognize and value the contributions of these Americans to our free and democratic society. This most certainly applies to the Irish community." This was the first of many salutes to our nation's numerous ethnic groups, that make this great country tick. Don't forget to vote next Tuesday, Election Day.

Sept. Construction Tops $3 Million

In addition, 16 permits for other than residential alterations were issued valued at $57,056; and seven condominium permits valued at $1,404,509.

Councilman Greg Carman, Chairman of the Town Board's Standing Committee on Commerce and Industry, said that the total dollar value of all permits issued for the month of September was $3,371,147.

BOCES Reimbursement

The Nassau Board of Cooperative Educational Services (BOCES) this week distributed $1,462,877.10 in state aid reimbursements to the local school districts of Nassau County.

Hicksville received $78,995.36 (total payments school year to date $157,990.72) and Plainview received $40,375.41 (total payments school year to date $80,750.82.)

Little League

The awards night dinner for Hicksville American Little League which was held on October 19th at the Holiday Manor was termed "very successful" by the League President, Ron Jankowski. There were over 500 in attendance including such notables as Judge Warren Doolittle, Councilman Thomas Clark, Rep. Candidate for the Assembly Stuart Levine, and Met's short stop Mike Phillips.

The newly elected president of the League for 1977, Larry Gray, was introduced to the members.

The winners of the chance book prizes were picked. The lucky winners who received their gifts were:

J.D. Kachinski won the RCA XL100 color T.V.

R. Schaller won $100.00 cash prize

Lisa Caggiano won $50.00 cash prize

"He who has clear ideas can command." Goethe

"LUCKY WINNER." Yes, folks, we do have winners. One of the lucky winners of a basket of cheer was Joseph Iannotti (right) with his wife, Elizabeth. The occasion was the Hicksville Republican Committeeman's Council Cocktail Party and Dance, which was held on Friday evening, Oct. 15 at the Old Country Manor in Hicksville. Joseph Jablonsky, co-chairman of the Dance Committee, is presenting the prize. (Photo by Robert Schmeek)

At two recent Hicksville Rotary Club's Thursday meetings the history of the banking industry was the topic of the program held at the Milleridge Inn. Shown at the podium (left) is Morty Goldstein (upper picture) who talked on Savings Banks and John McGrath (lower picture) who discussed Commercial Banking. (Photos by Joe DePaola)

Hicksville Kiwanis Club President Harvey Kolin presents Kiwanian John Budnik with a certificate of participation for his work at the Nassau County Boy Scout "Bicentennial Scout Show" which was held Oct. 2 and 3 at Eisenhower Park. Kiwanian Bill Heberer also helped out with the show.

Lieutenant Governor Mary Ann Krupsk, right, and Assemblyman Lewis J. Yevoli recently toured Central Island Nursing Home in Plainview. They paid a visit to the well run facility and met with Senior Citizens to discuss State legislation affecting them.

Six More Endorsements

Four police groups and two labor unions have joined the long list of organizations favoring the re-election of State Senator Ralph J. Marino in the 5th Senate District.

The Nassau County Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, composed of 5,000 officers, has endorsed the four-time lawmaker in his campaign to retain his Albany seat.

The local police group joined the 45,000 member New York State Police Conference, the Nassau County Police Conference and the Suffolk County Patrolmen's Benevolent Association in urging the re-election of the Syosset Republican.

The New York State United Transportation Union and the Transport Workers Union of Greater New York are the latest in a long list of labor unions backing Marino's bid.

To date, Marino has won the endorsement of most major statewide and local unions and political action organizations as well as the editorial endorsement of the Long Island Press.

Among others supporting Marino are the New York State Teachers, the Civil Service Employees Association, New York State AFL CIO, Long Island Federation of Labor, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Nassau-Suffolk Building Trades and American Federation of Police. The Long Island Fire Districts Legislative Committee, representing 150 fire districts in Nassau and Suffolk also singled out Marino for special praise.

Visit To A Pizza Parlor

All three Kindergarten classes at Old Country Road School were invited to the Pizza Parlor across the street, to see how a pizza pie is made, and then to sample the final product.

Mr. Norman showed us how he makes the dough, and then sets it aside to rise over night. After the dough spends the night in the refrigerator, it is ready to be tossed into a pie-shape, and spread with sauce and cheese.

Let the sunshine in!

That's what State Senator Ralph J. Marino has done with his landmark "sunshine" legislation to end secrecy in state and local government. Our right to know what our officials are doing is assured by Marino's laws on Freedom of Information and Open Meetings.

Ending secrecy is just one of Senator Marino's accomplishments. He has sponsored over 250 laws including ones that:

- banned construction of the Oyster Bay-Rye bridge
- mandate two year sentences for juveniles who commit violent crimes
- upgraded prison conditions
- increased compensation for victims of violent crimes
- established a State Commission on Judicial Conduct
- increased property tax exemptions for over 65's
- regulate auto repair shops
- expanded mass transit assistance for the LIRR
- restored Governor Carey's educational cut-backs that would have escalated property taxes
- exempt medical equipment and supplies from sales taxes
- restrict utilities from passing on fuel adjustment charges
- raised unemployment insurance and workmen's compensation
- permit appeal of the Commissioner of Education's decisions
- prohibit discrimination against women in granting credit
- authorized higher bank mortgages for one and two family homes
- prevent the unwitting loss of homes through tax lien sales
- require stringent food ingredient labeling
- set strict requirements for creditors to resolve charge account errors

Off-Duty Injury

Workmen's compensation is generally payable to anyone who is injured on the job. But suppose the victim is hurt while on his way to or from work. Is he covered then? Consider a case:

Joe, coming to work in the morning, parked his car in the company parking lot. But while walking toward the plant entrance, he slipped on a stray bottle and suffered a bad fall.

In short order he sought compensation for his injuries. At a hearing, the company insisted it did not become responsible for Joe's safety until he had actually begun working.

However, the court upheld Joe's claim. The court said workmen's compensation covers accidents that occur on company premises because those are special risks that "come with the job."

But in another case the claimant was hurt in an auto collision while driving to work. Here too, in seeking compensation, the man argued that the accident was connected to his job because he had to drive to get there.

Nevertheless, the court rejected his claim. The court pointed out that the risks he faced on the public streets were not different from the ordinary risks of the ordinary driver.

Of course, an employee would usually be covered while driving somewhere on company business. But even there, borderline cases arise. For example:

the chore it once was. There are heavy duty stand mixers available, such as one made by General Electric that makes short work of mixing and kneading. This mixer comes with special dough hooks and a powerful 225 watt motor for preparing bread doughs. The Head Lock latches the power head down for thorough kneading of a bread dough. The power head is also detachable for use as a portable mixer.

No doubt you have many bread recipes you're anxious to try, but here are two

PROTECTING AMERICA

Are We Selling Our Know-How?

If you asked an economist what lies at the foundation of America's world position (and high standard of living) the answer would most probably be it is our design and manufacturing know-how. Russia is richer in untapped resources, Europe has prolific scientists, and Asia has a billion workers. But in just 200 years, we've outdistanced them all, through the peculiar genius of Americans to turn laboratory dreams into realities.

Yet today, that mastery of design and manufacturing is being transferred, at a high rate of flow and by many pipelines. It is being transferred to "friendly" nations, to "non-aligned" nations, and to Warsaw Pact nations. The Task Force on Export of U.S. Technology, representing an important segment of industry, recently reported its findings on the subject to the Defense Science Board. The Task Force chairman and spokesman, J. Fred Bucy, President of Texas Instruments, pointed out that when this know-how is transferred to many nations, they can then use it to beat us in the international marketplace.

Yet knowing this, the United States continues to transfer know-how by many means. The most effective and therefore the most hazardous are those in which the "donor" organization is most active in teaching design and manufacturing techniques to the "receiving" organization.

If we are to protect American know-how, many experts feel that the answer lies not in additional export control legislation, but in a modern and efficient re-allocation of existing resources, to focus on export requests that would result in transferring essential design and manufacturing know-how to nations that can become our competitors in the world market.

WE'LL TRAIN YOU TO DO WHAT YOU'D RATHER BE DOING.

Bored with your job, but can't afford to take time off to learn a more rewarding skill? If you qualify, the Army Reserve will pay you to learn a skill you'd have to pay someone else to teach you. And then we'll give you a part-time job you can really be proud of. We're in the White Pages under U.S. Government.

THE ARMY RESERVE. PART OF WHAT YOU EARN IS PRIDE.

Little Known Facts About Gold

Gold coins have rapidly become big business in recent years, expanding far beyond collector and even big gold investor circles. Thousands of Americans have become interested in owning the precious metal.

Over half of all the gold bought by investors last year was in the form of gold coins such as the Hungarian and Austrian Crowns, the Mexican 50 Pesos and the Krugerrand. Close to 5 million Krugerrands were sold, making it the world's most popular gold coin. Gold coins are often preferred because they come in attractive, easily stored units that can be traded without being assayed.

To the growing ranks of gold coin buyers, the weight of a coin is much more important than the denomination shown on its face. Such markings as "Mexican 50 Pesos", "Austrian 100 Crown", and "Hungarian 100 Crown" no longer tell the buyer what he or she really wants to know—the gold content of the coin.

Austrian and Hungarian Crowns were part of the currency system of the old Austro-Hungarian Empire which ceased to exist in 1915. Today, Crowns dated 1915 and weighing just under one ounce are being sold by the governments of Austria and Hungary to capitalize on the market for gold coins.

Similarly, the 50 Pesos coin, which weighs just over one ounce and was originally issued in 1921 to mark the 100th anniversary of Mexico's independence, is minted by the Mexican government in quantity to meet today's free market demand for gold.

These coins, known as "re-strikes" and valued for their gold content, are based on earlier coins used by their respective countries, now treasured because they are rare.

The Krugerrand, newest and most popular of the world's gold coins, has no denomination on its face at all, but bears the inscription "1 Oz. Fine Gold"

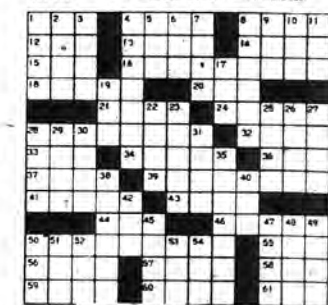

The Krugerrand is world's most popular gold coin.

It contains one troy ounce of pure gold (total weight: 31.55 grams or 1.0009 ounces, fineness: 916.6, 22 carats). The Krugerrand is regularly minted by the South African government in large quantities, is legal tender and has a floating value based on the latest market price of gold.

The Krugerrand's fine gold content of exactly one ounce is unique among gold coins and is convenient to buyers since its value closely parallels the daily gold price quoted in many newspapers.

South Africa began exporting the Krugerrand in November 1970. During the next three years, just under two million Krugerrands were sold. In 1974, sales increased to over three million coins, and in 1975, almost 5 million Krugerrands were sold. Krugerrands bearing the date of each year of issue from 1970 through 1976 are becoming popular with coin collectors.

To cut spending and taxes...

During 22 consecutive years of Democratic majorities in Congress, federal spending has multiplied many times. This reckless spending stimulated the recession from which we are now emerging. Norm Lent believes the long-term solution is to have a majority in Congress that "really practices the kind of fiscal restraint it now only preaches at election time."

Norm Lent fights for lower taxes year-round, every year, placing the highest priority on immediate tax relief for middle income taxpayers and senior citizens. Because Lent knows that inflation — the cruellest tax of all — will threaten your quality of life if spending goes unchecked.

Renew Marriage Vows

Last weekend saw the culmination of over a week's celebration of the Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Albert of 68 Harrison Avenue, Hicksville, residents there for over ten years. October 12 was indeed a special day for these special people, since it also marked the 80th birthday of Mrs. Albert, known to many of her friends as "Peg."

The celebration started with a trip to Clearwater, Florida to visit their oldest grandson, the Reverend Richard G. Krogmann and his family, which includes two of their five great-grandchildren, Audra and Scott and his wife Patricia. One of the highlights of their stay in Clearwater took place at Pastor Krogmann's church, St. Paul's Lutheran, where Carl and Peg renewed their marriage vows on their anniversary, significantly following a service written and conducted by their grandson. The ceremony was attended by family and friends there, and was followed by a special celebration dinner held at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Richard Hollinger, also of St. Paul's and Clearwater.

Upon returning home to Hicksville, last Sunday the congregation of Redeemer Lutheran Church attended a reception following the worship service there. The Alberts are long time members of Redeemer Church, where Mr. Albert has served as superintendent of the Sunday Church School, as a member of the church council and is still soloist with the choir. Flowers were presented to the "celebrating couple," and the organization of Lutheran Church

Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Albert and the Rev. Richard G. Krogmann.

Women presented Mrs. Albert with a special gift in recognition of her 80th birthday. Following the reception, the Alberts hosted a small celebration dinner at the New Hyde Park Inn, attended by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. August B. Krogmann, long-time residents of this area, The Rev. and Mrs. Theodore S. Grant of Redeemer Lutheran Church, and other friends.

Although their other grandchildren and great-grandchildren were unable to share the celebration in person, telephone congratulations came from The Rev. and Mrs. Henry Wuerz of St. John's Lutheran Church of Gibraltar, Pennsylvania (Mrs. Wuerz is the former Loretta Krogmann), and Mr. and Mrs. David B. Krogmann of Glens Falls, New York, where David is now a practicing attorney.

Garden Clean Up Time

Always clean-up the garden in the Fall. NEVER wait until Spring. For sanitation purposes any remnants of cultivated plants should be removed from the garden area. Many insects do not overwinter successfully if their habitat is pulverized. The European Corn Borer, for example, overwinters as a larva in corn stalks. Breaking up these stalks with a shredder and burying them in the garden will reduce this problem. Moving plant waste from the garden to the compost pile is also effective sanitation. If definite evidence of disease exists, play it safe and put these plants in the garbage. Even if some diseases exist, the high temperatures in the compost will kill many unwanted organisms. Weed control is also recommended at this time for reducing next year's weed problems. One large mature weed plant in the garden is capable of producing from 2,000-50,000 seeds, depending on the species. The most troublesome of these weeds that grow well into the late Fall are Pigweed, Lambs quarters, Galinsoga, Ragweed, Crabgrass, and Purslane. Some of these are killed by frost, while others continue to grow until the ground freezes. The best way to rid your garden of these weeds is cultivation with a hoe. Weed control along the edges of the garden as well as in the grassy areas surrounding the garden is equally important. This can help prevent seeds from being blown into the garden as well as reduce the breeding area for insects and virus problems.

Fire Report

By Ex-Capt. Owen Magee

False Fire Alarm Nets Two Teens

Two Hicksville teens, aged 14 & 15, were caught by an alert resident after they turned in a false alarm Monday, October 25, at New South Road and Edward Ave. That box and another at Robert & Jonathon have been pulled during the past week a total of four times.

Local Vamps are hoping that the court system takes stern measures to halt this deadly game. If the alarm system is to continue to be of any value, the courts have to do the job they were set up to do. The Hicksville

Fire Dept. salutes this resident that got involved. Each week in our Reports we list the alarm boxes that are used for false alarms in hopes that neighbors near these or any other alarm boxes will keep an eye out for anyone tampering with them. It could save a life.

Fire Report

Forty three alarms were received by the Hicksville Fire Dept. during the period of October 11 thru 25. There were 34 fire calls, 12 rescue calls and 7 false alarms which came from Old Country Rd. & Charles St., 2 from Charles St. & Clinton St., 2 from Robert & Jonathon, 2 from New South Rd. & Edward Ave.

A smoky fire in a single family home unoccupied at 224 Lee Ave. caused heavy damage to a portion of the 1st floor. 1 Vamp, Mike Scanlon was injured fighting that fire. The fire occurred on October 13 at 3:52 p.m. The cause was undetermined pending investigation.

"Smoke Detectors on Sale"

Recently in the Daily News an article appeared about a man who lost his family in a fire, that if it was detected in time, no doubt they could have escaped

HICKSVILLE Lodge No. 1931 B.P.O. Elks hosted the visitation of Thomas Earey, District Deputy of the Grand Exalted Ruler of the B.P.O. Elks of the United States at their Lodge recently. The District Deputy delivered the Grand Exalted Rulers programs and goals for this year to the members of the Hicksville Lodge.

unharmd. Charles Evans felt so strongly about the value of Smoke Detectors that he gave away as gifts 4,000 Smoke Detectors to his children's classmates, friends, business associates. It cost him $130,000. As a result of the publicity he was deluged with 40,000 requests for detectors, something he didn't anticipate. He is leading a crusade now so that no one has to experience the loss he suffers. He is selling 3 types wholesale $25.50 each. Anyone who wants to give his family a gift - a gift of life - can write:

Crusade for Fire Detection
745 Fifth Avenue
New York, N.Y. 10022.

This organization is non-profit. He is hoping to raise funds to develop a detector for the deaf. These detectors are also available at just about all local department stores, discount stores, electronic outlets. Buy a gift of life. Don't be one of the 8,000 who die each year in residential fires.

Firemen in Your Neighborhood. Hicksville firemen will be in your area during the next few weeks with an appeal for donations to the Annual Fund Drive. Every member has an I.D. card. If in doubt, ask to see it.

Nassau Downs Signs Hicksville Lease

Officials of Nassau Downs-OTB have announced the signing of a lease for a mini-branch in Hicksville.

The Hicksville branch, located at 24 Newbridge Road, is a small (474-square feet) office designed to serve the commuters of the Hicksville railroad station and downtown Hicksville business people.

Earlier this month, Nassau Downs-OTB turned over another $1,250,000 to Nassau County, making the total $2.5 million for the year to date. Nassau OTB, with 19 offices open, has handled more than $36,000,000 in bets this year.

Do not over-fertilize house plants. Two or three times a year is usually enough.
