The Hicksville Board of Education will hold a public meeting on Wednesday, December 1, at 8:15 P.M. in the cafeteria of the Senior High School.

Salute To Jerry Trotta Set For Nov. 30

The "Friends of Jerry Trotta," will hold a victory cocktail party at the Holiday Manor Restaurant, 345 Hicksville Road, Bethpage, on Tuesday evening, November 30, between 6 P.M. and 9 P.M.

Jerry, a long time resident has recently been through trials and tribulations - more than could beset one man in his lifetime and which recently culminated with the rendering of a minor fine by his peers. In fact, as reported in the daily media, the presiding Judge pointed-up in his summation the fact that the government had present a "weak case," against this individual.

Those who come to know

"Jerry," and the numbers run in the thousands, are aware of his community activities over these many years and his endeavors in Town government to provide leadership in the sphere of his work programs.

Tickets at $50.00 per person are now available through Mrs. Angie Sotallaro, 9 Prince Street, Hicksville.

Please remember the net proceeds will help to defray the enormous legal costs incurred during this long and trying period for Jerry, and his family.

We look forward to seeing you on the 30th of November, at the Holiday Manor.

Willet Ave Book Fair

The Willet Avenue School will sponsor a student book fair on November 18, 19, 22, 23, and the 24th. Students will be open during the hours of 11 A.M. to 3 P.M. in the all Purpose room of the school.

The book fair will display new books in popular price ranges. These books will be good for gifts with the holidays coming. The committee is working with Educational Reading Service, a professional book fair company, to furnish an individual selection of books for the fair.

All students, parents, and visitors are welcome to the book fair.

At Fork Lane

The Council's Nov. Meeting

By Carol Wolf

To open the Hicksville Community Council Meeting, we had asked Father Cianella, the Pastor of Trinity Episcopal Church to pray with us and give his blessing. But Father Cianella gave us something extra. As only he could do with his beautiful and melodious voice, he gave us a dissertation concerning the elections interspersed with readings from the Old Testament, which was informative and very enlightening.

We moved right along into the panel discussion, "What Hicksville Can Do For Our Youth...What Our Youth Can Do For Hicksville." Moderated by Judge Doolittle, this informative panel presented ideas for and about youth, Denise Vitelli, President, of Student Government at Hicksville Senior High School, told us of the High School's need for an ongoing project, because they would like to compete in the High School of the Year competition. If any adult organization needs assistance, please contact Denise in care of the High School, for the Student Government has to make a decision shortly. Ellen Diamond stated that her paper, "The Comet" is an excellent source of youth news and the space in the paper is available to those organization who need help. Just write the Comet at the High School. Sue Popper, an informative representative from 4 H felt that we should utilize the youth to help the younger youth of our Community, and that we should start training leaders very early. Sue said that, "By helping others, we help ourselves."

Ellen, and Sue, as well as Councilman Tom Clark, Marge Gianelli, and John Naiec for their excellent presentations as well as to an enthusiastic and well-informed audience.

Rolling right along to the Hicksville Town Meeting, we heard that the Hicksville Alumni Association is holding a co-ed basketball tournament on Wednesday, November 24th. HAD has enormous coloring books for $3 apiece. They are also sponsoring co-ed basketball and volleyball at Lee Avenue every Monday evening supervised by staff. Hicksville High School Thespian Society is presenting a Variety Show on December 9th, 10th, and 11th. The Friends of the Vitelli, (H.H.S. Student Court President) and Judge Warren Doolittle, all were participants in the Youth Panel at the November meeting of the Hicksville Community Council. (Photograph by Robert Berkowitz).

Library is working on their project to aid the handicapped, and they and the Library are busy with their 50th Anniversary celebration. On Friday night, the 19th, there will be a concert by Frank Warner, a tea, and an official cutting of the cake. All are invited to attend. On November 19th there will be a concert at the High School. At the next Junior High School PTSA meeting, a representative from the Fire Department will come and demonstrate procedures. There will be a High School Gong Show with Mr. Rusch as a fearless leader, with the cost being $1 and 75c with a GO card. The American Legion is again

Library 50th Anniversary

Plans for the 50th anniversary observance of the founding of the Hicksville Public Library include appearances by Assemblyman Lewis Yevoli, Councilman Thomas Clark and County Supervisor Ralph G. Caso. On Friday night, November 19th the program will include reminiscences by long-time residents including Frank Chlumsky, Henry Brengel, Sr. and Henry Schnepf and brief remarks by Library Board President Abraham Fishman and Assemblyman Yevoli.

The highly acclaimed slide series of "Old Hicksville" will be presented by Mr. Richard Evers, who has taught history in the Hicksville schools for a number of years. Mr. Evers has been very active in local history, serving as co-chairman of the 325th anniversary celebration in 1973 and the bicentennial celebration on July 4, 1976. He has compiled a widely used community study called "Hicksville Today and Yesterday" and he spent years visiting long-time residents collecting this outstanding series of slides.

On Sunday, November 21st, the library will present a concert by Frank Warner, well known Long Island folk singer. The program will be prefaced by an Open House starting at one o'clock, tea will be served by the Friends of the Library. Supervisor Caso plans to attend the Sunday program.

Everyone is invited to both these events.

LIA Breakfast

Long Island Association of Commerce & Industry President Jack Rettaliata today announced that Owen T. Smith, Chairman of the Nassau County Planning Commission, will address the LIA membership on November 30.

"The topic, 'Business and Government, a Partner for Growth,'" Rettaliata said, "will specifically deal with: (1) why people are leaving Long Island; (2) trends in vacant retail office space; and (3) what Nassau County is currently doing to attract new businesses."

The 8:30 a.m. breakfast meeting, being held at Antun's, 244 Old Country Road, Hicksville, is open to LIA members and their guests for $3.00 each.

'Y' Finalizing Plans To Build

The United Jewish Ys of Long Island, in cooperation with the Mid-Island YM and YWHA, is now finalizing plans to replace a 21 year old, vacant school building, the former Fern Place Elementary School in Plainview, with a modern three-million dollar educational, health and recreational facility.

The United Jewish Ys of Long Island was organized in 1976 to provide overall leadership in building, planning, developing, co-ordinating and expanding YM and YW services in Nassau and Suffolk Counties. United Jewish Y's raises capital funds for the construction of major buildings in regional areas which will provide additional services through satellite programs utilizing other facilities such as synagogues and schools and each

"Y" building, it's hoped will become a Jewish Community organization center.

Overwhelming approval for the sale of the school to the United Jewish Ys for this project was given by local residents in a referendum vote of the Plainview-Old Bethpage School District. The result was a resounding 3,578 votes "for," and only 196 votes "against."

In response to this mandate by the local residents, membership in the new facility has been opened up on a "first-in" basis to 2,200 families in Plainview, Old Bethpage and other neighboring communities presently served by the Mid-Island YM and YWHA.

Percy Abrams, executive director of the United Jewish Ys, commented, "I expect the largest percentage of new members to come from the Plainview and Old Bethpage areas."

Special Collection

When completed, the new Mid-Island YM and YWHA headquarters will include: a 450-seat auditorium, 2 gymnasiums, an indoor swimming pool, tennis courts, a Judaical library, classroom, an art gallery, art and crafts studios, a health club, exercise rooms and a parking area large enough to meet the requirements of all members and their families.

Oyster Bay Town Councilman Joseph J. Saladino reminded residents who have Town sanitation collection that there will be no collections made on Thursday, November 25th, Thanksgiving Day, and that those regularly scheduled for collections on Thursdays will receive a special collection the Saturday following Thanksgiving.

"Thanksgiving is one of the five sanitation collection holidays," Saladino said. "However, instead of losing that collection for the week, the Town will collect refuse from those areas regularly scheduled for Thursday collection on the Saturday immediately after the holiday."

'My Fat Friend'

Saladino, Chairman of the Town Board's Standing Committee on Sanitation, explained that homeowners formerly lost the collection when holidays fell on their regularly scheduled day, "but, under the collection schedule initiated last April, on the five days that remain as collection holidays, the Town schedules a special collection on the next Wednesday or Saturday."

The New Nassau Repertory in cooperation with the Nassau County Office of Cultural Development will present Charles Laurence's smash Broadway Hit "My Fat Friend" on December 3, 4, 5 and 10, 11, 12 in the County Theatre located in the Social Services Building, County Seat Drive in Mineola. All tickets are priced at $3.00 General Admission and are available in advance by mail or at the door the evening of the performance. Group rate tickets are available. County employees with I.D. will receive a discount. Curtain time for Friday and Saturday performances is 8 pm, Sunday evening performances are at 7:30 pm.

Urges Early Renewal Of Dog Licenses

Oyster Bay Town Clerk Ann R. Ocker is encouraging dog owners in the Town not to delay renewing their pet's licenses for the coming year.

Renewal applications are currently being mailed, and Mrs. Ocker has asked that "dog owners within the unincorporated areas of Oyster Bay take a few moments to complete the forms when they receive them and return them with the appropriate fee."

The renewal application comes in three parts:

--the top sheet that residents receive is an instruction sheet indicating information such as the January 1st deadline for renewal and the licensing fee schedule: $2.35 for males and spayed females and $5.35 for unspayed females.

--the second sheet is the application itself, which must be completed and signed by the owner, and mailed or delivered to the Town Clerk's office in Oyster Bay hamlet with the appropriate fee.

--the third sheet is an affidavit of non-liability to be completed by those who no longer own or otherwise harbor dogs that had been registered and licensed for the current year. Under these circumstances, residents are required to complete the non-liability form, including the reference number for their former pet, indicated on the license renewal form, and return the form to the Clerk's office without fee.

Mrs. Ocker reminded residents who own dogs that have been spayed since they were last licensed, or new dogs that have been spayed, that a spaying certificate must accompany their applications.

All dogs over the age of six months are required to have a license, which proves ownership, and an identification tag, which is to be worn by the dog at all times. "These regulations protect both owner and animal," stated Mrs. Ocker. "The tag serves as identification in the event the animal strays, and the license verifies ownership." A dog without a tag is presumed to be unlicensed and is subject to being picked up by the Town dog warden.

Relatively new owners of dogs, or those who may have misplaced their license renewal or non-liability forms, may obtain them from the Town Clerk's office in Oyster Bay hamlet or the Town Hall Annexes at 65 Broadway in Hicksville and 95 Grand Avenue in Massapequa.

Federal Fund Hearings Set

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor John W. Burke announced that the Town's Department of Planning and Development will conduct public hearings on December 8th and 9th at 8 PM in the second floor hearing room of Town Hall West in preparation for the submission of a pre-application for federal funding of a community development project.

Burke said that citizen comment will be considered in the development of a pre-application for third year funding under the discretionary funding portion of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. The maximum that can be requested in the pre-application is $300,000. Should Oyster Bay be invited to submit a formal application based on its initial submission, additional hearings will be held regarding a specific application.

Eligible activities for federal funding include rehabilitation of substandard housing; special projects designed to remove architectural barriers that restrict the mobility of the elderly and the handicapped; public works improvements; land beautification; and, acquisition of properties for the conservation, preservation or rehabilitation of historic sites.

Among activities specifically excluded from consideration are new housing construction; construction, acquisition or rehabilitation of public structures such as government buildings, stadiums, libraries and museums; and, the general expenses of government. Provisions of the Act do permit a portion of pre-applications and applications to cover the costs of administering the program for which funds are being sought.

Burke noted that the Town's previous participation in the federal program has included submission of two applications; the first has been approved and the second is pending. The first application provides for low cost loans and grants for rehabilitation of housing in the eastern section of Massapequa as well as for public works improvements and administrative costs; the second application was made for similar purposes in the Oyster Bay hamlet area of the Town.

Historic Bath House Donated

The Town Board has formally accepted a donation of an historic bath house, circa 1870, which has remained unaltered over the years and is a true representation of the Carpenter Gothic architectural style that was predominant in Oyster Bay hamlet more than 100 years ago. The gift is being made by the Merle-Smith family of Cove Neck and that the bath house, which measures 14x16 feet and is 15 feet high, will be relocated behind the Wightman House on Summit Street. Relocation and necessary renovation of the structure will be undertaken by the Oyster Bay Historical Society.

Board Cancels Nov. 23rd Meeting

Oyster Bay Town Clerk Ann R. Ocker announced that there will be no meeting of the Town Board on Tuesday, November 23rd. The next meeting will be conducted on Tuesday, November 30th. Meetings of the Town Board are held in the Hearing Room of Town Hall East in Oyster Bay hamlet at 10 A.M. each Tuesday of the fall, winter and spring months unless otherwise announced.

Pennsylvania Dutch Tour

Dear Friends...

AS WE HAVE BEEN SAYING, for the past 25 years in our local weekly newspapers, "An active, informed citizenry is the foundation of each local community." Followed to its completion on all levels of our government, this is what makes for more efficient government.

At the present time, both in Hicksville and in Plainview, voters are being asked to decide several matters, which are clearly explained in the legal notices which are presently running in this newspaper. We hope you take the trouble to read these legal notices.

In our issues of Nov. 25th and Dec. 2nd we will bring you the pros and cons of the Propositions upon which you will be asked to vote, in Plainview on Dec. 9th and in Hicksville on Dec. 15th. In the meantime we will alert you as to where meetings to discuss these Propositions are being held.

In Plainview five residents are running to fill the vacancy on the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library Board of Trustees created by the retirement of Trustee Joseph Carlson for reasons of health. We will be contacting these candidates for their resumes and pictures this week with the intention of running them in the near future.

AT THIS THANKSGIVING SEASON we'd like to thank all those who have taken the time to write us encouraging letters in the past. We seldom use these letters, mostly because every column inch is needed to bring you news of your communities and their local residents...but we are happy to hear from you and your encouragement is an incentive for us toward continual improvement. And to those who send us constructive criticism...that too is important and is certainly considered and used if possible.

Best wishes to all for a Happy Thanksgiving. God blesses us all in so many ways that it is good to set aside one day each year to thank Him...so good, that we like to do it much more frequently, as we know many of you do too.

A Thanksgiving Crusade Of Love

For nine years now, at Thanksgiving time, young people have been coming out - healthy and strong - to give of themselves for the children they care for - those who were not given that same right to good health. Thousands of Nassau students will be participating in the Nassau County March of Dimes annual Thanksgiving BREAD SALE this weekend, Saturday, November 20 and Sunday, November 21, selling fresh loaves of turkey-stuffing bread at $1.00 per loaf. The money raised will help the March of Dimes in its fight against birth defects.

Residents are urged to "open their doors...and their hearts" this weekend when a March of Dimes youth volunteer visits their homes. Encourage these concerned young volunteers in their endeavors, and perhaps in our life time, we shall see the day when every child can be given his undeniable right - to be born healthy.

For further information, please call the Nassau County March of Dimes BREAD SALE Headquarters at 741-4045.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Mrs. Noeth:

The Hicksville Bicentennial Committee is anxious to assemble a group of pictures of Hicksville's fantastic Bicentennial Program.

Our photographers took many pictures which we have available, but we know there must be many more out there which we haven't seen.

For instance, as we were marching in Hicksville's Bicentennial Parade on June 12, we saw many people along the line of march taking pictures. Also, there were many cameras in use at the July 4th Fair. Some of these pictures may be better shots than our photographers got.

Could we ask your readers to share these pictures with us? All we ask is to have the chance to see the pictures, so that we can decide which ones we would like to copy, with your readers' permission. We are interested in looking at snapshots and/or slides.

They can call me next week, if they will, at 931-0653 and I will gladly make arrangements with them. OR, they can mail the snapshots and negatives, or their slides, to me at 191 First Street, Hicksville, N.Y. 11801. All material loaned to us will be acknowledged and returned, unless the donor specifies otherwise.

Thank you for your cooperation in this endeavor.

Sincerely,
Sieg Widder,
Co-Chairman Hicksville
Bicentennial Committee

To the Editor:
A political campaign should be the "trial by fire" for an official's record and performance in office. In addition to passing judgment on the office holder's voting record, the process identifies those areas where changes can and should be made. Campaigned, ideally, refines and improves public service.

A number of ideas were suggested to me in the recent campaign, and my staff and I are now working on several major changes during this reorganization period before the 95th Congress convenes in January. Immediately after the election, we decided to begin negotiations for the leasing of a mobile office, a large motorized van, which will bring the resources and expertise of my Congressional office right to you in your communities.

Although I maintained district offices and full-time Congressional staffs in both Nassau and Suffolk Counties during the past two years, the public is reluctant to approach a Congressional office with problems and requests for assistance. I learned during the

Hicksville Resident, NYPD Vet Enrolls In New Land

John Marks, NYPD Vet

A former New York City police officer, injured in the line of duty, who's always "talked like a lawyer," has become a member of the first class of one of the nation's newest law schools, Yeshiva University's Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law.

"A police officer should also know the spirit of the law," said John Marks of Hicksville, an eight-year veteran of the force, retired last year after a motor-scooter accident. "I've always been interested in the law; my ultimate goal has always been to become a lawyer and to add my knowledge to the field." Out on the streets, a police officer has to have a good sense of the system," he said. "There's no chance for a second guess - the decisions a police officer has to make may change the course of someone's life. He usually doesn't get a chance to take them back." He said he was often told he "talked like a lawyer."

His drive to learn about the law and the criminal justice system took him to John Jay College of the City University of New York, enrolling in 1968 shortly after he joined the police force. He earned his bachelor's degree in 1974, and then went on to C.W. Post College, earning his master's degree as of October 1976.

He plans to concentrate in criminal justice after he's earned his Juris Doctor degree from Cardozo School of Law, possibly doing research in the field, for which he says there is "a real need. There is a difference in knowing the law as it's written, and knowing the why of it," he said.

"I don't know if my background on the force helps or hurts me at law school," he said. "There are things that I think I know, but I don't know if I know them from my experiences or from my reading," he explained. "It's hard to keep that straight."

Marks said he chose to attend Cardozo because of the personal interest showed to him when he was applying by Deam Monrad Paulsen and the admitting faculty. "It was gratifying to be considered as a person and not a mere number," he said.

Marks lives in Hicksville with his wife and daughter. He has taken an apartment in New York City for the weekdays though, because he found the demands of commuting incompatible with being a full-time law student. "I'm a weekend husband and father," he said.

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, chartered in 1974 and opened in September 1976, prepares students for the professional practice of law or other activities in which legal training is useful. It was named to honor the memory of a distinguished Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court. Courses are offered in the standard areas of civil and criminal law, and in addition, there will be interdisciplinary programs with the social sciences and courses in comparative law, law in the Middle East, and the Judaic influence on the modern legal system. The program leads to the Doctor of Law degree.

At the Brookdale Center, 55 Fifth Avenue, Manhattan, Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law is an integral division of Yeshiva University, America's oldest and largest university under Jewish auspices, now in its 91st year.

Court Rejects Appeal

The U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia today issued a decision rejecting the principal contention of the Lloyd Harbor Study Group in its attempt to overturn the construction permit for the Long Island Lighting Company's Shoreham Nuclear Power Station. The decision stated that the Study Group's allegation that the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission had failed to give adequate consideration to the environmental impact of a class nine accident - an accident not considered to be credible - was without merit. This is the third time that the same court has dismissed such a contention in an appeal of an AEC permit.

As was anticipated, the Court also ordered that the case be remanded to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission for further consideration of the environmental effects of nuclear fuel reprocessing and waste disposal. This order parallels two previous decisions by the same court in July of this year remanding the operating permit of the Vermont Yankee Nuclear Power Station and the construction permit of the Consumers Power Company's Midland Nuclear Power Plant. A spokesman for the Long Island Lighting Company stated that the Company expects no delay or stoppage in the construction of its Shoreham Nuclear Power Station as a result of the Court's order.

As a result of the July decision, the NRC reopened a generic rulemaking proceeding relating to fuel reprocessing and waste disposal. The NRC has also proposed for use in individual licensing cases an interim rule relating to the environmental impact of these issues. On November 5 the Commission announced that the licensing procedures for nuclear plants may go forward and no existing permits or licenses would be suspended while the proposed interim rule is being considered. A decision on the proposed interim rule is expected within three months.

At The School Board Meeting

By Marge Marcus

The Board of Education meeting of November 10th was called to order later than scheduled due to an executive session with Staff Members.

A regular School Board Meeting of November 24th was postponed due to the Thanksgiving Holiday and was rescheduled for December first. This meeting will be started in the High School auditorium as an open hearing on the Referendum Vote of December 15th, and continued at the Administration Bldg. with the balance of the agenda.

Under unfinished business was compensation for Substitute-Teacher Calling Service, tabling was again necessary due to the illness of personnel involved.

Board members reported on their attendance at the Hicksville Community Council Meeting where young people in school are looking for things to do to serve the community as part of their education. Mr. Nagel and Mr. McCormick both commended the thought-provoking Town meeting. Mr. Bruno expressed his concern over the neglect in sending proper transportation forms to the State which could have cost the District money. Fortunately, corrections were made in time and Board Members have challenged State Administration to prove charges made via correspondence by a personnel visit to Hicksville. Request was made by the Board to have the school auditor, Mr. Sol Newborn, at the next meeting for report clarification.

Correspondence was received from Study, Inc., Mr. Lawrence Weinstein, indicating funds available from this travel program within the Hicksville account. As the immediate season has not planned for similar trips it was suggested that the money be set aside for scholarships within the Foreign Language Department.

A thank-you letter was received from the Hicksville American Soccer Club for the use of school facilities.

Under the Superintendent Report was the change in retirement plans for Mr. Chester Jaworski and the monetary problems involved. District and State policies being unclear made tabling necessary.

Instructional Personnel appointment were discussed in private session.

Para-professional instruction for Greek speaking students was approved for 14 hours weekly through February 1st. Mrs. Wolfson recommended inviting parents of these youngsters to the class for their personal enrichment.

Awarding of bids for supplies and maintenance construction were all approved.

Disposition of cafeteria inventory will be made by the end of the school term with bidding open to commercial luncheon service and the general public. The paper goods were going to be offered to the PTA and Maintenance Crew for their respective needs.

A change in the Scholarship Fund was suggested by Mr. Rozran, where funds would be given annually rather than in a large sum. This was approved by the Board.

Mr. Campanella, School District attorney stated that, as of the Board meeting no definite details on the status of employee contract negotiations, could be reported.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:15 p.m.

Pay State Aid To Schools

The N.Y. State Dept. of Audit and Control recently paid $169,198,172 to school districts in the 57 counties outside New York City. $17,329,610.02 of this amount went to Nassau County.

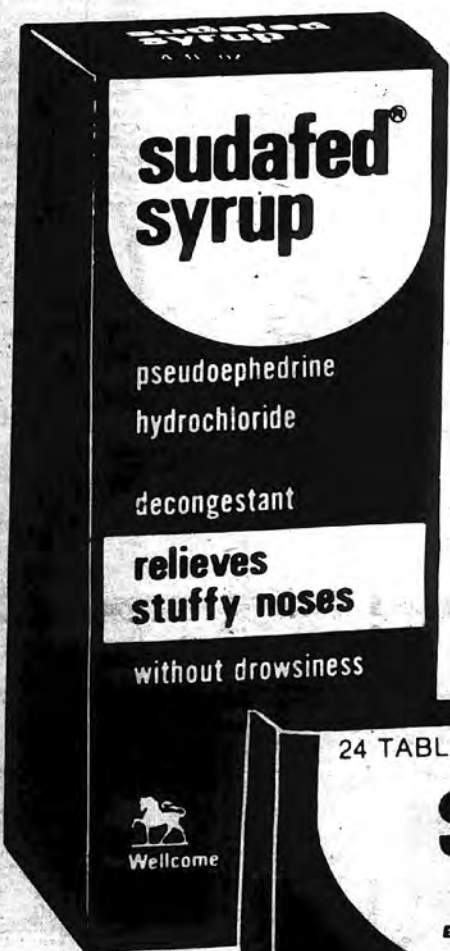

The payment represents the November portion, approximately 8 1/3 percent, of the State aid for public schools which is due during the 1976-77 State fiscal year. State law calls for payment of 25 percent of the yearly total in April, 25 percent in May, 25 percent in June and 8 1/3 percent in September, October and November. Each school district's share is computed by the Department of Education under a formula which is prescribed by the State Legislature and based primarily on the number of pupils in the district in the 1975-76 school year.

Mr. Arthur Levitt State Comptroller, said he was withholding New York City's share, $66,306,580, toward repayment of advances made last spring to New York City by the State.

SAVING TOO LITTLE CAN COST TOO MUCH

The New York State Society of CPAs reports that because the cost of servicing small savings accounts makes them unprofitable, some banks and other institutions are imposing a one-dollar-per-month service charge on accounts with balances under $500. On a $1000 account, that's an annual charge of 12 percent, way over the 5 or 6 percent interest the account earns, which suggests closing it out.

Ecumenical Council Enters Fourth Year

Rev. Theodore S. Grant, Executive Director of the Ecumenical Consultation Center and Rev. Roland Perez, Director of Pastoral Services, admire the new sign presented to the center in honor of the 3rd anniversary of its incorporation.

The Ecumenical Consultation Center, 30 Grand Avenue, Hicksville, has observed this November the 3rd anniversary of its incorporation as a non-profit agency chartered under the State of New York. Founded in 1973 under the sponsorship of the Ecumenical Council, a group composed of churches in the Hicksville, Plainview and Bethpage areas, the center was created to fill an existing need in the community. As a result of a survey made several years ago, states Rev. Theodore S. Grant, Executive Director, it was discovered that a gap existed in mental health services in the area. Local clinics were available to serve those families whose income met their particular guidelines and private therapists were present to help those able to afford higher fees. However, many families in the middle income range faced a dearth of services. Therefore the Ecumenical Consultation Center was formed to provide high quality comprehensive professional care at a moderate fee to meet the needs of those individuals.

Once the need for such a facility was established in 1972, a search was instituted to find appropriate headquarters for the center. This task proved difficult due to the high rentals required for offices in most existing buildings. However, at that time St. Stephens Lutheran Church owned a house on Grand Avenue which had previously served as church offices, but which was then vacant. The congregation generously offered this house to the Ecumenical Consultation Center rent free and it has served as its location ever since. Once a building was found, furnishings were needed. An appeal was made to the local churches. Volunteers from the congregations immediately offered to paint and help furnish the center. Rugs, chairs, desks and other items were donated by local citizens. Certainly it only through the initial support and enthusiasm of the people of the area that the concept of the Ecumenical Consultation Center was brought to reality.

The center offers today a wide range of services dealing with individual and family counseling, parent-child problems, school difficulties, premarital and marital therapy, vocational and career guidance. These professional services are available by licensed or certified psychiatrists, psychologists and social workers. They are designed to assist those families

THANKSGIVING - TABLE TIME

Thanksgiving Day has always been a special day in my life. It is a family day ... not just the immediate family but grandparents, aunts and uncles, and cousins. It is a happy day, a day of good feeling, friendly conversation, the excitement of a parade and at least one good football game. But the most important part of the day comes when we all sit down at the table ... we are all so close ... there is a good feeling of love in the air ... the food looks and smells great, and we usually can't wait to dive in.

We never forget to pray on Thanksgiving as has happened on occasion during the week. This occasion always seems to call for something more than the traditional table grace. The prayers are longer on Thanksgiving because it is also a day of remembering ... remembering our good God who has blessed our country abundantly and our home especially. Yes, gathering around the table is the heart of Thanksgiving for me.

I believe the table is the most important piece of furniture for the family. It is hard for us to function without it. Even the poorest home has a table, and is by that very thing not so poor at all. For the table is the gathering place for the family ... for work, for exchanging ideas, for learning and sharing. In a society where both parents work and where children are involved in many activities after school and at night, the table during the dinner hour has become the last regular meeting place of the family.

In Father Capon's book, Bed and Board, he has a memorable postscript called "Dinner at Our House." It reads in part: "I look down the table over which I preside. I feel like God partway through Creation. Before me stretches a chaos. Self, wife, sons, daughters; dishes, silver, food. My carving tools rest now upon leg of lamb (presented wrong side up - my wife cooks marvelously; why doesn't she look at what she does?). My first-born must have no gravy on his rice; the third-begotten bets off the mushrooms. My eldest daughter loves lamb, of course, but not that much. Before we are very far into the meal the youngest knocks over a glass of milk. Down toward me it races like a flood across the land. I jump up and back, but over the edge it pours and I am hit; right trouser leg, below-the knee. It is the third time this meal and the sixth or ninth today. She has spilled it backhand, forehand, sidearm and elbow first. She has upset glasses with her head, her feet, her shoulders and knees; her belly and the middle of her back. And with endless variety of time and circumstance. Upon thick tablecloths yielding a white swamp which spreads toward us all; or upon plastic tablecloths for a high velocity attack. (I can remember only one successful escape from milk spilled on plastic. I nearly broke the chair to do it.) My second daughter is silent. The corner of my eye catches her, head lowered. I know what it is. Patricia. Get rid of that book. She is on her 29th Nancy Drew mystery and has smuggled it to the table to read in her lap."

Table time is an important time in the family's life. Its significance is further enhanced when it is used as a time of loving, caring, and sharing. You would do well to share how good God was to you during the day, and how Jesus gave you strength at a rough time. Table time is a good time for God-time. The family having eaten, take time to read God's work, maybe even sing a hymn, and then join in prayer.

It is interesting to note that one of the last things of great significance that our Lord did before His death was done at a table. He sat down to have fellowship with his disciples, break bread, and celebrate the Passover. He knew what was coming shortly, and He needed to be with those He loved. As He ate the Passover, He gave thanks for God's many blessings even with death staring Him in the face. As

K of C Honors Volpe

Past Grand Knight of the Joseph F. Lamb Council No. 5723 Knights of Columbus, Peter B. Volpe was the guest of honor at the Joe Lamb Testimonial Dinner-Dance held in his honor last Sat. evening, Nov. 6, at the Lamb Council Chambers in Plainview. The smorgasbord dinner was enjoyed by a capacity crowd of his brother Knights and friends, together with their wives, who were all on hand to express their appreciation of the outstanding job he had done in his tenure of Grand Knight from July '75 to June '76.

During his regime, the renovation of the present beautiful Council Chambers, which was only a large, bare, open room, was started and completed. Included as the finished product was a beautiful Council Hall, a bar, foyer and various council chambers. The Lamb Council is now located at 1139 Old Country Rd. in the Waldbaum Shopping Center in Plainview. Activities and programs for the youth of the community were particularly stressed during the Volpe term of office.

Many important dignitaries from the Knights of Columbus were on hand at this important occasion including: James Foley, Supreme Director of the N.Y. State K. of C.; Richard F.

Marczyk, Nassau-Suffolk K. of C. Chapter Chairman, and George Raplee, Nassau Conference K. of C. Chairman.

P.G.K. Volpe was a member of the Lamb Council since its inception in May 1965. He joined the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus Bishop Walter P. Kellenberg D.D. General Assembly in 1966. He is presently a Lieutenant in the 4th Degree Color Corps and is serving as a Faithful Captain in the General Assembly 4th Degree.

Other achievements of Pete Volpe are: District Warden of the 11th N.Y. District K. of C.; 1976 CB Vice Auxiliary Chairman; and also Vice Grand Commander of the Order of the Alhambra. Truly, this is one busy man.

P.G.K. Volpe was presented with the following gifts: a "down payment" on a Bi-Centennial Clock, known as a Grandfather's Clock, presented to him by the Lamb Council, together with a special plaque from his fellow Knights at Lamb; a plaque from the Nassau-Suffolk Chapter for cooperation in chapter programs; a Bi-Centennial certificate from James Foley; is certificate from the Supreme K. of C.; and finally, another certificate from the New York State Council.

Accident Reports

Nov. 13 - 8 a.m. - A car, driven by Bernice J. Schultz, 63 Moeller St., Hicksville, collided with the second car of a L.I.R.R. train at the Robbins Lane Railroad crossing. At the time, the Schultz car was southbound and the train was westbound. Mrs. Schultz was taken to the Nassau County Medical Center, where she was pronounced dead at 9:40 a.m.

Nov. 14 - 9:50 a.m. - Otto Rettberg, 91, of 199 W. Marie St., Hicksville was struck by a car driven by David C. Boglioli, 376 Newbridge Rd., Hicksville, as he crossed Newbridge Rd., 25 feet south of W. Marie St., Hicksville. Mr. Rettberg was taken to the Nassau County Medical Center where he was pronounced dead at 10:20 a.m. No charges were filed by police against the driver.

Student Council Is Active

This year the Hicksville Junior High School Student Council will carry on a tradition begun by the Student Council of 1976. That tradition is indicative of the type of young people we have here in Hicksville. The Junior High Student Council is indeed young and inexperienced, but what it lacks in maturity is more than made up for in spirit and the desire to extend a helping hand where needed. Our students are more than willing to work hard for a cause once they consider that cause worthy of their efforts. And so, the Hicksville Junior High School Student Council ardently initiated a Sports Night Competition - a Battle of the Sexes - for the bragging rights of the Hicksville Junior High School. This competition between the sexes developed as a means to an end. That end is to raise money for an individual within our "own" district who is in financial difficulty.

Last year, a Junior High custodian received $704, that was raised by students selling tickets at a dollar a piece to the Sports Night Competition. This year, even more money is intended to be raised to help defray the medical costs of a District

Workshop On Second Careers

A morning workshop designed to show how to use education as a tool to obtain a better - or first - job is scheduled for the Nassau Community College campus in Garden City on (Friday) Dec. 3. There will be no charge for the event.

The "Second Careers" workshop is intended to attract the nontraditional student - such as early retirees, empty-nest housewives, widowed or divorced women, the technologically unemployed, and the under-employed, according to Prof. Sivia Kaye of the college, who is directing the workshop.

An impressive list of professionals in various fields has been lined up for the program, which begins at 9:30 a.m. at the college's Administrative Conference Center on Miller Avenue on the campus, which is adjacent to the Stewart Avenue main entrance. The Women's Faculty Association will greet those attending with coffee and donuts.

Among those participating include counselors and psychologists to explain how to avoid anxieties about changing jobs, marketing specialists to explain how to use a job interview to one's advantage, and advisers and continuing education experts to describe career options now open and the advantages of further education.

"We are aiming the workshop specifically toward those who are returning to the work force, and for those whose positions no longer hold adequate challenges," Prof. Kaye reports, "as well as for those early retirees too young to withdraw from the labor force."

SAINTS PORTRAYED: On Friday, October 29, the children in the first grade at St. Ignatius Loyola School held their annual Saints' Parade. Marks To Speak

The Cultural Affairs Committee of Hofstra University will present John Marks, Director of the Center for National Security Studies and co-author of The CIA and The Cult of Intelligence. This Film / Lecture Presentation will be held in the Student Center Theater on December 2nd at 8:00 PM, admission for the general public is $2.00 at the door.

Mr. Marks shall survey the shadowy, but immensely powerful influence exerted by the CIA in nearly all post-war crisis and political upheavals. His knowledge of intelligence operations was gained through his work at the Sensitive Center of the State Department's Intelligence Operations, and from associations with his co-author, former CIA operative Victor Marchetti. Exploring the extensive web of over-seas and domestic infiltration and subversion, he exposes the often frightening, sometimes laughable of the American intelligence machine.

John Marks is presented by the Cultural Affairs Committee; a non-profit organization at Hofstra University which sponsors important cultural events and activities for Hofstra students and the general public.

Fall Festival A Success

Two youngsters thoroughly enjoyed themselves searching for "buried treasure" at the very popular Mini Mine, one of the attractions featured at The Outdoor Fall Festival held on The Gregory Museum grounds and adjacent parking facility, on October 16th & 17th. The children delighted at their "find" of polished rocks, stones and minerals hidden for them to seek and keep.

Although the weekend of the show turned out to be one of the coldest, wind-blown and wettest the Fall has ever seen, those brave people who did come out to the Outdoor Festival had the opportunity to see and purchase some really outstanding crafts.

Some of the displays of the multi-talented craftsman included vivid pressed floral arrangements under glass and framed; lovely intricate macrame hangings for plants; adorable handmade material clowns and dolls; wire sculpture; glass-blown figurines; beautiful silver jewelry; hand-carved wooden toys; inspiring paintings and so much more.

Free admission to the museum for the week-end afforded many the chance to see current exhibits featured inside both the exhibit room and the historical room.

Many thanks to all the hardy volunteers and visitors for their support of the show.

A Trip To The Super Market

On November 9th, the Old Country Road Kindergarten classes were given a marvelous tour of the Mid-Island Plaza Pathmark, thanks to Mr. Savorino, the General Manager. They separated into two groups, and while one group toured the aisles, looking for the various things they studied about in their lessons on food. The other group took a tour of the areas that make a supermarket work. First, they visited the Meat

Refrigerator - a big room where the butchers cut up the meat. From there they went to the packing room, where the meat was wrapped by women and then weighed and priced automatically on a large machine.

Next they went into the compactor room where the cardboard boxes are bundled into six hundred pound packages, all held together with baling wire, where the large waste compactor is, and where the spoiled garbage is placed. It was very interesting to see how the machines worked.

The next area Mr. Savorino took the class into was the big refrigerated rooms where the food is stored until it gets put on the shelves. There were three rooms, each one a different temperature - one for dairy products, one for produce, and one for frozen foods. Next came a ride upstairs in the large freight elevator.

Local Daily Interviews Students

Two Plainview students, Robin Kaplan and Joseph Inguanti, writers for the Plainview Old Bethpage High School newspaper, the Islander, along with other school newspaper representatives, were invited to an interview at Newsday, November 5. Mr. Al Cohn, "People Page" writer for the Newsday Sunday Magazine conducted this interview.

The topic of discussion was student involvement and appreciation of culture and the arts on Long Island. The students were asked how they prepared for their columns and their comments on Newsday reviews were solicited.

Robin Kaplan does the book review column for the Islander and Joe Inguanti writes the restaurant review. Other districts represented at this meeting were Huntington, Amityville and Mineola.

Mr. Cohn proved to be a courteous and gracious host. The students were treated to a personal tour of Newsday. The exchange of ideas between the school representatives, Mr. Cohn's tour and his interview all provided an exciting and stimulating afternoon.

At Fork Lane

This is the second year that Fork Lane School is continuing a new and very successful innovation. Ms. Zalon, Foreign Language teacher in Fork Lane, used the talents and Spanish language facility of three of her sixth grade students to aid her in a beginning Spanish class. The three girls, Laura Mazzie, Susan Sarnelli and Jeanine Angstadt quickly responded and actually finished the year by teaching some of the Spanish lessons guided by Ms. Zalon. All enjoyed and benefitted from the experience. The girls discovered that being a teacher was very rewarding but also hard work.

This year, 6th graders Danielle Antonio, Randie Libster and Cathy Teppner are working with a new group of second graders.

Childrens Christmas Toy Drive

The Joseph F. Lamb Council No. 5723, Knights of Columbus, Plainview, is now in the midst of its "Annual Children's Christmas Toy Drive" for the underprivileged children of the community. Good usable toys, games, books, etc., are urgently needed to help this drive accomplish its main aim, which is to help make the needy children of our area just a little bit happier on Christmas Day.

We are appealing to the general public as well as to our membership. Last year, your response to our appeal was overwhelming. Please try to do it again this year. Check out that attic or basement and see if you have a toy or game that could help make some little child's Christmas a happier one.

If anyone has any usable item, please contact the Children's Christmas Toy Chairman, Jim Peck at 938-1776 or at 935-0224.

The Co-Chairmen for the Toy Drive are Maurice Curran, who can be contacted at 249-6897 and Tom McKenna who can be reached at 681-8596.

Woodland Avenue School

Racquets were heard swinging in the gym this fall at Woodland Avenue School. The racquets were in the hands of 5th and 6th graders competing in badminton and tennis under the capable direction of Miss Way and Mr. Quinlan, Woodland Avenue gym teachers.

The badminton tournament was a single elimination contest held at the conclusion of a 5th and 6th grade badminton unit in class. The finals were held during lunch time, to the delight of about 50 cheering spectators.

The tennis tap-up contest consisted of having participants tap the ball up with the racquet as many times as possible. Practice in the eye-hand coordination skill was given in class.

The contest with admiring observers was again held at lunch time. Winners were the 3 top students in each class scoring the highest number of consecutive taps without missing the ball.

In the spring, the students of badminton will switch activities with the boys and girls who had tennis-tapping. In this method the skills are developed and enjoyed by all.

The noteworthy champions were as follows:

5th graders Badminton
Glen Smith

Lisa Robilotto
Richard Loria

recent campaign that too many people had a number of needs, inquiries and complaints, but, maybe because of lack of transportation, or perhaps out of anxiety, did not use our resources, despite frequent publicity that a broad range of services was available at those Long Island offices.

Working on legislation vital to the district, Long Island and the nation is only part of the job of a Congressman. I am also in office to help in every way possible with Federal problems of all kinds. If my staff and I cannot assist directly, we will put you in touch with those who can and then attempt to expedite a solution.

Since so many district residents do not avail themselves of these services, I will bring my office to you in shopping centers, schools, community centers and anywhere else that you request. I ask only that you stop in to see either myself or my staff.

The HHS Symphonic Wind Ensemble performed for the children of the Fork Lane Elementary School, Friday, November 12. Many of the members of the Wind Ensemble are former pupils of the school, making it an occasion for renewing acquaintances.

Mr. Eisenhauer, music teacher at Fork Lane, was a guest conductor and clarinet soloist with the group in a medley of Duke Ellington songs.

Members of the Fork Lane P.T.A. Cultural Arts Committee served lunch to the Wind Ensemble and faculty members. An interesting sidelight is the fact that the 48 musicians devoured 75 hero sandwiches.

"Oliver"

By Carole Wolf

A cultural and musical experience is coming to Holy Family School, Hicksville. On December 3rd, 4th, 10th, and 11th, the play Oliver will be presented live, on stage with a 12 piece orchestra. Because of the determination of the producer, Joe Trapp, and the directors Carol Callery and Millie Fitzgerald, the play will be living proof of what work will do. Everyday at lunch, and often two to three times a week, the seventh and eighth graders are smoothing their lines and perfecting their music for opening night.

It all began the afternoon of June 8th, when auditions were held for the then sixth and seventh grade boys. Two days later the girls were auditioned. On June 21st, the movie was shown to the 5th, 6th, 7th grade students. Several practices were held over the summer, and on August 30th final auditions were held. On September 10th work began in earnest for Oliver (Chris O'Rourke), Fagan (Steven Kaleda), Dodger (Leo DiNicola), Sykes (Patrick Byrnes), Nancy (Cathy Hughes) and the rest of the gang.

In order to have the play done as professionally as possible, there will be hidden mikes, new amplifiers, rented costumes, choreography by dance instructor Peg O'Connor, and even a borrowed coffin.

Tickets can be reserved by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to Alice Brenna, Holy Family School, 25 Fordham Avenue, Hicksville, N.Y. 11801. There are 500 tickets available for each performance, so get your tickets early for reserved seating. The donation they ate, Christ instituted what is now called Holy Communion or the Lord's Supper. In an act of love, He said, "Take eat, this is My body which is given for you." And He gave the cup and said, "this is My blood of the Covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins."

Thanksgiving is a time when the table in our home is at the height of its importance. As you gather around it for dinner use the time well... praise and thank God and really love one another. This is family at its best.
