Community Chorus Plans Spring Activities

The Hicksville Community Chorus is beginning rehearsals for its spring concert which will feature selections from Gilbert and Sullivan's "H.M.S. Pinafore" and operetta highlights.

Director William Goleek invites people of all ages who enjoy singing to join the chorus and be a part of the gala spring program. All voice parts are needed. There are no auditions or music fees.

The Hicksville Community Chorus and Community

Orchestra (directed by Dr. Charles Gouse), are part of the Continuing Education Program of the Hicksville School District. Residents of nearby communities are also invited to become members.

Chorus rehearsals are held each Tuesday evening from 8-10 p.m. in the Chorus Room of the Hicksville Sr. High School on Division Avenue. All those interested in singing with the group are invited to attend this Tuesday's rehearsal. Music will be provided.

Town Names Bogut, Maurino

Supervisor Joseph Colby announced the appointment of Anthony J. Maurino as Director of Legislative Affairs. Maurino is a resident of Hicksville and has served on the Town Attorney's staff since October 1973.

He received his B.A. degree from Hofstra University and his Law degree from the Fordham University School of Law. Maurino was admitted to the New York State Bar in October 1973 and served on the Legislative Advisory Committee of Assemblyman Joseph Reilly of Glen Cove in 1972 and 1973.

The Oyster Bay Town Board appointed John F. Bogut as Town Attorney to replace Joseph Colby who was sworn in as Town Supervisor this week. Bogut had served as Director of Legislative Affairs since last January.

A resident of Syosset, Bogut has served as counsel to the New York Senate Towns and Counties Committee and the Joint Legislative Committee on Local Government; he has been responsible for the coordination of state legislation as it affects Nassau's towns, villages and cities. Bogut has also served as counsel to the Senate Committee on Crime and Correction, the Senate Subcommittee on Right of Privacy and the Temporary State Commission on Tax Liens and Mortgage Frauds.

He earned his B.A. at St. John's

University, Minnesota, where he won an award as Distinguished Military Graduate. After his discharge from the U.S. Army as a First Lieutenant he earned his Law degree at St. John's University, Brooklyn.

Bogut is a member of the Nassau County Bar Association, and a former member of that body's Municipal Law Committee. In 1970, he received an Outstanding Service Award for his volunteer efforts as a participant in the Nassau County Assigned Counsel Defender Plan. He has also served as a lecturer on the operation of the State Legislature for the Taft Institute, State University of New York at New Paltz.

The carriers of the Hicksville P.O. Office took time out at the height of the busy season and United Parcel strike to think of the others less fortunate - the children at Port Jefferson Hospital. The packages shown are just some of the trinkets that these men brought to those wonderful children on Dec. 21.

Meeting Cancelled

The Joint Water District meeting between officials of the Towns of Oyster Bay and Hempstead regarding the application of the Hicksville Water District for approval of increase in improvement of the water supply and distribution facilities, scheduled for January 11th, is cancelled until further notice.

Inasmuch as the Hicksville Water District is presently looking for other sites there will be changes required in the application.

School Board Meeting

The Hicksville Board of Education will hold a public meeting on Wednesday, January 12, 1977 at 8:15 P.M. in the conference room of the Administration Building.

The public is invited to attend.

Winter Concert

The Hicksville High School Music Department will present its first 1977 Winter Concert on January 12th at 8:15 P.M. in the High School auditorium.

The Orchestra, Concert Band, and the Symphonic Wind Ensemble will perform on this program.

The Boccherini Cello Concerto, with Joann Sicard as soloist, will be featured by the orchestra.

The grand finale will feature the combined Concert Band and Symphonic Wind Ensemble in a performance of "Praise to the Lord," by Vaclav Nelhybel.

Films At Library

The Hicksville Library will present a program of "cliff hanging" serials Friday evening January 14 at 8:00 p.m. in the library auditorium. The films to be shown will be "Girls in Danger" and "The Story of the Serials." Various scenes of 'ladies in distress' from films of the Twenties with such famous names as Gloria Swanson, Mae Marsh and Lillian Gish will be seen in "Girls in Danger." The second film shows the development of the serials from the early silents of Pearl White in 1914 to the advent of sound of the twenties.

Pension Reform Saving More

State taxpayers are in for a bit of good news, according to Joseph P. Halwachs, President of Citizens Public Expenditure Survey (CPES).

CPES is the Albany-based taxpayer research and publishing organization.

"The latest estimates show that over the next ten years, public employee pension reform will save a half billion dollars more than was originally estimated," Mr. Halwachs stated.

When the state's pension system reform was enacted in July of this year, state officials estimated a savings of $1.4 billion over a 10-year period, compared with what the old system would have cost. That estimate has now been put at $1.8 billion.

This encouraging information comes from Otto Kinzel, Chairman of the Permanent Commission on Public Employee Pensions and Retirement Systems, known as the Kinzel Commission.

The pension reform, which was actively supported by CPES and 10 regional Action Councils, cuts back pension costs to the extent of 50 per cent of Social Security expenses (the portion paid by taxpayers) and requires each public employee to contribute three per cent of his salary to his pension fund. The new, uniform system applies to all non-uniformed municipal-state and local-employees hired after July 1, 1976.

According to Edward Brown, Retirement System Actuary in the State Department of Audit and Control, a greater savings figure was projected after increased study of the reform measure. Mr. Brown noted that between 3,000 and 4,000 new municipal employees are enrolling in the system each month, statewide.

The savings predictions take into account projected annual salary increases of 4 to 4½ per cent, changes in Social Security benefits, and mortality rates.

Mr. Brown said that the layoff of state and New York City municipal employees was not a factor in determining the increased savings.

Encouraging economic news also came this month from Standard Brands, Inc., the major food company, which announced it had rejected the idea of leaving New York City.

At The Town Board Meeting

by Gerry Kahn

It was standing room only at the Town Board Meeting held on Tuesday, Jan. 4th.

State Senator Ralph Marino presided as Master of Ceremonies and the Honorable John W. Burke, N.Y. State Supreme Court Justice, officiated as the installing officer as Councilman Thomas Clark and Supervisor Joseph Colby were officially sworn into their respective offices.

The boardroom was filled with friends, relatives and dignitaries from local, county and state levels.

Councilman Saladino, senior board member led the assemblage in the Pledge of Allegiance. Rabbi Samuel Press, Oyster Bay Jewish Center, gave the invocation and after the acceptance speeches by Clark and Colby respectively, The benediction was delivered by the Rev. John C. Siedenschwang, Principal, Holy Trinity H.S.

Senator Marino stated, among his comments that "John W. Burke in his tenure as Supervisor of the Town of Oyster Bay over the past seven years has left an indelible mark in the history of the Town and it is only fitting and proper that the citizens of T.O.B. have seen fit to elevate John W. Burke to the high honor of Judge of the Supreme Court of the State of N.Y."

Supervisor Colby stated in his acceptance speech his concentration on four elements of town concern:

1. Taxes and the Budget: His first priority is to appoint a budget officer. "His function will be to permit the Town Board to compensate for mandated cost increases, thereby stabilizing our tax rate while working toward a budget reduction.... We will recognize the Real Property Tax as the most important, pressing issue we must face."

2. Landfill: "Man, in the form of governments and corporations, is spending millions to protect his water while still meeting the Herculean task of disposing of his waste.... We can safely say that the recycling, energy-producing Black Clawson plant at Mitchell Field already under construction, can become the keystone of this Town's solid waste management program.... the landfill which we are currently designing would be utilized only for sterile, non-recyclable and non-pollutant and non-leachate producing matter." The Black Clawson plant would cost the Town $14.50 a ton to dispose, approximately $4.00 less per ton than present costs.

3. Planning and Zoning: "The series of zoning plans initially undertaken between 6 and 7 years ago must be preserved and yet not become inflexible. If we were to permit planning to cease simply because we have already planned then valued goals such as...stabilization of residential areas, proper and rapid development of areas planned for commercial use, the increase of our assessment base and the necessary preservation of open lands might be frustrated by a change today that might render yesterdays plan obsolete."

4. Construction: "the construction industry is ailing. Municipal work projects can only be a partial cure. The intelligent exercise of zoning authority that meets today's needs while looking realistically to the future is another cure."

At the completion of the morning ceremonies the formal Town Board Meeting was held. Twenty-seven resolutions filled the calendar.

Item No. 5 a resolution to advertise the Notice of Hearing on Jan. 25th for the petition of United Jewish Y's of L.I., Inc. for a special use permit to conduct, operate and maintain an eleemosynary institution at Plainview.

The item drew response from Carole Fishman, civic leader from Plainview, who indicated that the Board entertain a meeting site to accommodate a minimum of 500 to 600 people who plan to appear at the Hearing.

Item No. 7 was a resolution relative to the petition of Slavan Shopping Center, Inc. for a change of zone e/s South Woods Rd. n/o Jericho Turnpike and the n/e corner of So. Woods Rd. and Jericho Tpke. The Hearing date is Feb. 15th and will in effect be an expansion of the commercial zoning of the present shopping area.

Apply For Grants To Transport Handicapped

The State Transportation Department has approved applications for federal grants totaling $182,600 so three Nassau County non-profit organizations can purchase 14 vehicles to transport the elderly and handicapped. Nassau County Executive Ralph G. Caso announced today. The grants will fund 80 per cent of the costs, with each organization contributing 20 per cent.

The grant applications, prepared with the assistance of the Nassau County Office of Public Transportation, now go to the U.S. Urban Mass Transportation Administration where final approval is expected.

"This is an excellent example of how a county agency can assist organizations in the private sector by sharing with them its expertise in the complicated area of federal grant applications," Caso said.

The non-profit groups involved are the Nassau County Economic Opportunity Commission, which will purchase seven vehicles, the Nassau Chapter of the American Red Cross, which will purchase five, and the Port Washington Community Action Council, which will purchase two.

The specially-equipped vehicles will be used to provide transportation services for the elderly and the handicapped in Glen Cove, Hempstead, Roosevelt, Long Beach, Rockville Centre, Port Washington, Manhasset-Great Neck and the Red Cross service areas.

"Right Turn On Red" Requires Caution

Pedestrians throughout New York State should be extra careful when crossing streets, now.

The Automobile Club of New York issued the warning. Effective on January 1, 1977, the measure applied everywhere in the state except New York City or where specifically prohibited by a sign.

Though the new law specifies that "right turn on red" traffic must yield the right of way to pedestrians, the Club stressed the importance of caution, particularly in business areas.

The Club suggested that

Warning On Snow Blowers

The Nassau County Police has issued a warning to operators of snow blowers.

Deputy Chief of Operations Charles Spahr said, "Unsafe operation of snow blowers during this past snowstorm has resulted in the loss of fingers for at least three Nassau residents."

Spahr added, "most of these accidents occurred when the pedestrians follow these practices to reduce the chances of an accident:

Look all ways before crossing; in particular, youngsters and the elderly should be careful.

Be doubly alert when bad weather or darkness may reduce a motorist's vision.

Watch for turning cars while you are crossing with the green signal.

For their part, drivers must remember to come to a full stop at a red light, and cautiously enter an intersection only if the way is clear of both traffic and pedestrians.

basic rules for safe operation were ignored." Spahr further stated, "Most snow blower accidents can be avoided if operators follow this safety warning: Never put hands or feet near rotating parts, keep away from intake reel, and blower fan. Never work on snow blower while engine is running and disconnect the spark plug wire before doing any repairs."

Detente-Not Appeasement

By Congressman Norman Lent

The Soviet Union continues its persecution of minorities and political dissidents in violation of the Helsinki Agreement of 1975. There is no question that we in the United States must continue to bring the weight of world opinion to bear on the Soviets to honor the human rights provisions of the Helsinki Agreement and to permit free emigration from the U.S.S.R. It is clear that this public opinion has an effect on conditions in Russia. Some Soviet dissidents have even been allowed to leave for freer societies.

The United States signed the Helsinki Agreement in the spirit of detente, or peaceful coexistence with the Soviet Union. But while we can hope for the best, I believe we should keep a sharp lookout for the worst from Mr. Brezhnev and the other communist leaders.

The respected Foreign Affairs Research Institute of London has offered a pessimistic view of the result of detente. The Institute points out that, while there has been no direct armed confrontation between the Western World and the U.S.S.R. in more than thirty years, the Soviet Union continues to spend more to increase its military capability and to stir up friction in Africa, Europe, and other world hot spots. Because people, the media, and democratic governments all over the world want peace, the tendency has been toward lower free world expenditures for national defense. This trend can be observed in Britain, Canada, the Netherlands, and Denmark. The Atlantic Alliance must, according to the Institute, beware of the self-deceiving error of ignoring the dynamic character of Soviet Russia. If the Russians are not competing militarily—and they are—they are working for world dominance in the economic and political arenas.

For detente to continue to work, the United States must win, in these arenas, as well as make concessions. In order to win our points, we must retain our ability to negotiate from a position of strength. I am, therefore, wary of President-elect Carter's promise to slash the defense budget. If there is fat or inefficiency, it should be wiped out. But the Foreign Affairs Research Institute warns we should not let a spirit of detente lull us into a false sense of security where the Russians are concerned.

Govt. Should Exercise Restraint

By Congressman Jerome Ambro

Even during this season of giving, the recent extravagant proposal of a special Presidential Commission that Congressional, Judicial and high-level Executive Branch salaries be raised up to a whopping 48 percent is one that should be greeted by a resounding "Bah, humbug," from the Congress.

The conclusions, which were endorsed by the President and are subject to Congressional approval, are based on the often cited comparability scale between government and industry salaries. The argument is made that to attract people to government service, salaries should be comparable to those paid by private industry.

There are two things wrong with that approach - it's not true and will never happen.

There are no indications that this government has or ever had, any problem attracting people to run for the House of Senate, serve as Justices of the Supreme Court or as a member of the President's cabinet.

The honor, challenge and rewards, connected with those positions compensate far more than any paycheck ever could. Secondly, there will never be direct pay comparability between those high offices and similar positions in the private sector. Men and women qualified by training, talents and experience to serve in those offices will always be capable of earning far more in the private sector than in the government.

Included in the recommendations is one to increase Congressional salaries almost $13,000 to $57,000 annually. Yet a majority of the U.S. Congress is made up of successful lawyers and businessmen with outside earning potential in the six-figure range.

Public service has traditionally been a great honor with opportunities for awesome challenge and incomparable rewards. It has never been a money making venture for the honest.

Leadership should be based on example. If this government asks industry and labor to exercise restraint in wage and price demands; those who run the government should do the same and reject these recommendations.

There is only one formula for Congressional salary increases I will accept: one which accepts a salary increase recommendation by the commission, which is voted on long before the nominating, electing process and one which goes into effect for a succeeding Congress.

Dear Friends ...

WELL, here we are well launched into 1977, which I am sure you'll all agree can be "one of the best" ... of course, it is up to all of us. But the challenge is always with us and I must tell you that it is an inspiration to know so many of you in each of the communities we cover, so dedicated and concerned. So, on with the New.....

ONE MATTER we've been meaning to mention to you, is the change in the New York State Banking Law which now states that you must present your bank books (either by mail or at the bank) to have the interest put on, at least every five years, or the state will take your money and it will go into their general fund. You may be able to retrieve it, but it would take a lot of red tape, etc. So, I'd suggest that at least once each year you see that your bank books are brought up to date at your bank. I'm sure your bank will give you more of the legal details if you ask them, but basically what I've said is what it amounts to.

WE WERE unable to attend the inauguration of our new Town officials this Tuesday (reason? ...work.) but we wish them all well ... there certainly is a great deal to do. We urge all of our readers to get in touch with their local elected officials on any matter that they feel is important and in which they are elected to represent us. Letters are probably better than phone calls as they can be studied and checked into. But whichever way you chose, we're sure that your elected representatives on any level will be pleased to hear from you.

THAT'S ALL for this week. Stay well and remember that our LETTERS TO THE EDITOR column is yours, anytime you wish to use it.

The meeting is sponsored by the Nassau County Chapter of the Democratic Socialist Organizing Committee, the public is invited and admission is free.

Town Board To Seek Zoning Code Change

The Oyster Bay Town Board has proposed a revision to its Zoning Code that would tighten controls over the non-residential use of land in residential zoning categories, according to Town Councilman Salvatore R. Mosca.

Mosca said that the Board's proposal "addresses itself to specific concerns regarding places of public assembly, and seeks to insure the integrity of established residential communities."

"Adoption of the proposal would provide for off-street parking spaces in a manner that should not adversely affect neighboring properties," he stated, "and would redefine the standards for determining the number of spaces required." The proposal would apply to every residential zoning category other than those permitting construction of garden apartments or condominiums.

The subject of a hearing on Tuesday, January 11, 1977, the proposal would require that off-street parking spaces be located no closer than 10 feet from adjacent property lines and that curbing be placed at the end of each parking space so that no vehicle can park within this buffer. Side and rear yards will have to be enclosed with six-foot fences where the property abuts residentially-zoned land, and densely planted trees or shrubs at least five feet in height will be required to accompany the fencing. Suitable blacktop of pavement will be required for the parking areas, which will have separate entrances and exits where possible; low on-ground lighting will be required for each parking area. These provisions would not apply to the offices of a professional who resides on the premises.

Minimum requirements for the number of off-street parking spaces would be redefined as:

a minimum of one space for every four permanent seats in a place of public assembly

one space for each sixty square feet of floor area assigned for assembly purposes where no permanent seats are employed or, one space for each 200 square feet of floor area in buildings not used for residential purposes and not used for public assembly.

These provisions could apply to existing structures only when they are added to or altered in excess of 30 per cent of their existing area.

Off-street parking is now computed on a basis of one space for every seven existing or potential seats used for public assembly.

The hearing on the Board's proposal will begin at 10:00 AM in the Hearing Room of Town Hall East in Oyster Bay hamlet. The amendments can be viewed in the Town Clerk's office on the second floor of this building, Monday through Friday between 9 AM and 4:45 PM.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To The Editor: While Oyster Bay's new administration faces the challenges which any Town of this size and nature must meet in the modern world, it also has new opportunities.

One of the points I touched on in my remarks after taking the Oath of Office from State Supreme Court Justice John Burke, is that now is the time to provide our government with a new outlook. While Oyster Bay has been well cared for by those who preceded me, the answers provided by yesterday's knowledge may require revision to meet today's needs.

An important aspect of this outlook will be found in the initiative this administration takes to trim the costs of government. Some of these steps will be new to Oyster Bay, and should benefit all Town residents. The goal of compensating for mandated cost increase to stabilize our tax rate must remain a high priority because the real property tax affecting all homeowners presents an important, pressing issue which must be faced.

Our new outlook is already being applied to Oyster Bay's solid waste management system to assure the integrity of the environment while providing all the other benefits made possible by today's technology.

If this outlook is to permit an overall strengthening of our existing, good government, it must be applied to all aspects of daily municipal life. We must approach the activities of government with consistent energy and positive thinking. In doing so, we can combat slowness of response, a condition fostered by bureaucracy and reflected in all levels of government.

I hope you will share in my confidence and optimism, and that you join with me to meet the challenges which face our Town.

I wish you and your families health, happiness and prosperity in the year ahead.

Joseph Colby
TOB Supervisor

The solution to national problems such as unemployment, inflation, energy conservation and economic prosperity of a type that makes the American dream a reality for all our citizens to continue to allude as I believe progress will be made during the next twelve months in all of those areas.

The priorities and goals of the new Administration are, for the most part, well directed. We in the Congress will cooperate with Presidential initiatives. The new President, in turn will assist the legislative branch by developing overall approaches and implement those policies we have tried so long to achieve.

The renewed spirit of cooperation between the Executive and Legislative Branches should propel this nation forward and away from the stagnation that has gripped us for too long.

I think we should lay partisan considerations aside for the time being and give the new Administration and the new President a chance.

Entering the new year, I hope that we can join together as a people and as a government and address the problems we all face. I wish you a happy healthy and prosperous 1977.

John Maniec To Coordinate '77 Dem Fund Raising

Oyster Bay Town Democratic Chairman James A. Weir announced this week that Hicksville civic leader John Maniec has been appointed to coordinate Town Democratic fundraising efforts for the 1977 campaign.

In recent years, Maniec has become a well-known figure in local civic affairs. He is the Director of the Hicksville-based Help-Air-Direction organization and has held several offices in the Hicksville Community Council since 1971. He has also served in various capacities with Kiwanis, the Hicksville Lions, and the Hicksville Americans' Soccer Club. An active force in the local Democratic Party, Maniec was a candidate for Oyster Bay Town Clerk in the 1969 Democratic Primary, and has played an active role in most other recent Democratic campaigns, most prominently in the 1975 campaign of Judge Francis Donovan for Oyster Bay Town Supervisor.

Maniec has some big fundraising plans for the year ahead. He noted that a "couple of things are already on the drawing board" - including a $6 a person Valentine Eve Cocktail Party scheduled for February 13 and a "Roasting" of a prominent TOBAY Democrat slated for April 17.

"The cost of our fundraising affairs will be kept as low as possible," Maniec promised. "We hope to involve all rank-and-file Democrats in this effort, and not depend on a few 'fat cat' large contributors. Fundraising should be fun, and should be participated in by a broad base of people who believe in the Democratic Party and in a viable two-party system in Oyster Bay". For tickets or information about forthcoming Democratic Party functions, call John Maniec at 931-8788.

CRITIC'S CORNER CLUB

Would you like to be the first to read the new books in our library? Join Mrs. Ness' Critic's Corner Club which will meet Saturday mornings at 10:30 to 11:30 AM January 15, 29 and February 12 and 26, at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library.

Planned for children in grades 5-7, members will review new books for other children and parents. Some reviews will be taped for reply over Plainview's own radio station. A Critic's bulletin board will review these books for our readers.

Plainview-Old Bethpage School Board Reports

Page 5 - MID-ISLAND/PLAINVIEW HERALD - Thursday, January 6, 1977

DRUG AND ALCOHOL PROGRAM REPORT: The Board received a report on the Drug and Alcohol Program as provided under a grant from the Nassau County Department of Drug and Alcohol Abuse. The administration reported on extent of involvement recommended for a zero based budget approach.

REGENT BOARD ACTION AND DISTRICT NEWS

REPORT ON ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES
The Superintendent reported to the Board his recommendations on Administrative Staffing at all levels of the school district. The recommendations were made following a study of such staffing as required by District Objective No. 4 approved earlier in the school year by the Board. The report includes recommendations for retention, modification and elimination of positions over the next several years. The Board has taken no action on the recommendations pending a full review of the report. Citizens wishing to read the report may do so at the District offices between the hours of 9:00 A. M. and 4:00 P. M. on all days schools are in session.

SAFETY REMINDER - NEW RIGHT TURN LAW. A new State law has become effective January 1. The law permits motorists to make a right turn after stopping at most red lights unless the intersection has a "No Turn on Red" sign. All pedestrians, and especially school children, should be alerted to this new law and should be advised to look for turning vehicles when crossing. A survey of the community is underway to determine intersections at which "No Turn on Red" signs will be posted. All motorists are asked to stay alert to children and pedestrians who may not yet realize the implications of this new Right-Turn Law. The cooperation of all residents is asked and Dr. Savitt, School Superintendent, has sent a letter to parents regarding the new Right-Turn Law. Students have also been advised to exert caution.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENTS. Five Plainview-Old Bethpage High School students have been commended for their volunteer service every Saturday at the Suffolk Development Center in Melville, N. Y. Those cited include: Ami Gorelich, Joseph Ingante, Robin Kaplan, Michael Stanj and Jeffrey Weinstein. This is but one example of how students can be constructively involved in their best interests and to the advantage of society.

REGENTS SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS AND ALTERNATES. The district is pleased to announce that 127 seniors have been designated winners or alternate winners of a New York State Regents Scholarship. There were a total of 565 students at both high schools who took the exam. Ninety-one students, or 18 percent of those students who took the six hour exam were designated winners - almost 1 out of every 5 students who took the exam. Thirty-six students were alternate winners. The 127 winners and alternates represent 25 percent of those who took the scholarship exam - one out of every 4. Arthur D. Babitz achieved the second highest score in Nassau County. We are proud that our students have achieved this honor and we congratulate them, their parents and their teachers.

SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAM. The Board of Education has engaged the services of Educational Food Management to manage the school lunch program for the district. EFM will provide a Type A program throughout the district at 60 cents for students attending the Plainview-Old Bethpage Middle School, the H. B. Matlin Jr. High School and the district's high schools. Students attending elementary schools will be charged 55 cents. The firm has experience with special nutritional foods. The initial contract with the firm will run from mid-January to June 30th, with a thirty-day cancellation option which can be exercised by either party. Sandwiches will continue to be served a la carte. FREE AND REDUCED LUNCHEES FOR NEEDY STUDENTS. The Board has voted to participate in the Type A lunch program under rules established by the State which requires free and reduced lunches for needy students. The family eligibility criteria for free and reduced price meals and free milk are on file at the District offices. If you feel you qualify or if you have any questions in this regard, contact the Director of Pupil Personnel Services at 938-5400.

THERAPEUTIC SWIM HOURS. The Saturday Swim Program will be extended an additional hour, from 3:30 P. M. to 4:30 P. M. to serve those residents who require swim activity for therapeutic reasons, as prescribed by their physicians. Admission will be granted upon the presentation of medical documentation and the payment of $10.00 to the school district for the balance of the school year. For further information, contact the Director of Adult Education and Recreation at 938-5400.

PUBLIC NOTICE: You Have A Right To See Public Records: The Freedom of Information Law which took effect in 1974 gives you the right of access to certain public records. The school district's regulations governing when, where, and how you can see public records can be seen at all places where records are kept - at all district schools and at the District offices. The Records Access Officer and Fiscal Officer is the Assistant Superintendent for Business. If you are denied access to a record, you may appeal to the Superintendent of Schools who has been designated Appeals officer. The Records Access Officer and the Appeals Officers are located in the Administration Wing of the Jamaica Avenue

At The School Board Meeting

By Marge Marcus

The last meeting of the Hicksville School Board for the 1976 year did not get underway until 9:25 pm, in the high school cafeteria, which gave Board Members an opportunity to attend the High School Choral Group Holiday presentation. All Board Members attended but the public attendance was very small. Being the end of the year Board Members reported or expressed their feelings on issues of concern. Mr. Bruno, spoke of a double standard existing. Wanting to know why there are enrollments of less than twenty-five students in a class and why each Elementary School had to do with one secretary? A committee was formed with Mr. Bruno, Mr. McCormick and Mr. Ayres to look into actual facts. It was explained by Board Officials that once a program was offered in lower grades the school had an obligation to continue same even with declining enrollment. Mr. McCormick reported that the High School Common Shop was in the black for over $3000, and Adult Education was ahead by $2000. The purchase of supplies for Board authorization was postponed for further inspection of inventory. A purchasing clerk was to be appointed to suggest and buy supplies. Under Non-Certified Personnel the reclassification of the clerical staff was again postponed for further fact finding. An eligibility list for Substitute, Clerical and School Monitors was approved by all Board Members. A special item on the agenda involved a Hicksville High School graduate who was continuing her education at BOCES. She had been advised that this year her family must pay for the tuition. State Law has made this policy necessary and Board Members did not want to make special exceptions. Unfortunately the student blamed her guidance counselor for not giving her proper information. The Educational Goals Committee recommended three new courses to be offered within the Senior High School; Consumer Studies - a six-month course given through the Business Department, Practical Mathematics to be divided over a year, and Intermediate Algebra a half-year program. These courses would help all students as they mature and gain self-sufficiency. Intramural Sports will be offering equal programs to Boys and Girls and possibly a Co-Ed Team for Volley Ball, subject to further investigation. Special Funds were allowed for Coaches and a Program Coordinator of all Athletic Events, with some financial assistance to come from State Funds. Approval was given for eleven handicapped students to attend non public schools. At this meeting at 11:30 PM the Report of the Special Election for three propositions was given. As has already been reported all were defeated with the Transportation - Proposition No. 1 losing by only thirty-five votes. Less than 3000 residents voted.

INDOOR TOURNAMENT

The Club hosted the first of 8 indoor tournaments last week at Lutheran High School in Brookville. The Pee Wee Division (under 8 yrs. old) was won by Hicksville and our hats are off to all the boys and coaches Joe Neto and John Harris. The First and Second Place trophies were donated by Pat O'Malley's Soccer Camp and Gene Bodenstein's Massapequa Soccer & Sport Shop. A plaque was also presented by Hicksville to Mr. Dave Sommermeyer and the Lutheran High School in appreciation for their cooperation and support of the youth of Long Island.

Mark your calendar for the remaining tournaments which in total will include 122 teams from 29 clubs and will field 1100 children playing indoor soccer.

Music Students Honored

The district music office announces that the music department has again been honored by having 30 high school music students selected to participate in the 1976 Nassau Music Educators Association High School Music Festival.

These students were selected on the basis of individual audition from thousands of High School students throughout the county. These students will have the experience of rehearsing Friday afternoon and evening and all day Saturday, January 7 and 8 at the C. W. Post College in Upper Brookville under the direction of nationally known conductors.

The chorus will be directed by Dr. Charles C. Burnsworth who has served as guest conductor of numerous festivals throughout the Northeast.

POB High School

Stephanie Ghimenti, chorus; Bonnie Gershenfeld, chorus; Randy Bluth, chorus; Shiela Steginsky, chorus; Denise Degan, chorus; Michael Geierstein, chorus; Leslie De Gioia, orchestra; David Lennon, orchestra; Lyle Brooks, orchestra; Barry Levine, orchestra; Judy Harrison, band; Pat Montuori, band; Mindy Jaffe, band; Michelle Presser, band.

JFK High School

David Van Wess, chorus; Steve Wexler, chorus; Kathy Eckmann, chorus; Michael Peck, chorus; Randy Schwartz, chorus; Lenny Chipkin, chorus; William Greenhaus, orchestra; Joel Brodsky, orchestra; Ronald Harris, orchestra; Elizabeth Johnson, orchestra; Beth Shapiro, orchestra; Eric Fisherman, orchestra; David Ferris, band; Gail Cooper, band; Ed Dransite, band; Maude Adams, band.

"The Music Department is proud of the achievement of the large number of students who will be representing the music department, schools and community and who have brought recognition and honor to us," said a spokesperson for the Dept.

Grand Opening

Mrs. Gertrude Nolan, a life-long Hicksville resident, has opened an antique shop at 103 Broadway in Hicksville. The hours of this new shop are 11 am to 5 pm. Best wishes for success!

A Correction

The following students were inadvertently omitted from the list of Regents Scholarship alternate winners from Hicksville High School: Jon R. Rabinoff, Barbara A. Reiser, Allison D. Ricciardi, Mark B. Rose, Patricia E. Seif, Paul H. Sone, James J. Toscano, Jayne A. Vianeste, Gregory Walsh, Joe E. Yetman, and Peter R. Zenneck.

Week of Prayer For Christian Unity

January 18-25

The Mid Island Ecumenical Council in union with world wide Christendom keeps the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity with the theme "This hope does not disappoint us... because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit." (Romans 5:5) The Mid Island Ecumenical Council is made up of the Christian Churches of Bethpage, Hicksville and Plainview.

In addition to its primary aim of bringing Christians of every denomination together in common prayer to the Father, the great contribution of the Week of Prayer to the ecumenical movement is that it has made Christian Unity an understandable goal to millions of people at the grass-roots level.

While the official conversations by theologians of various Churches are making astounding progress, the Week of Prayer enables Christians to prepare for the possibility of reunion.

The Week of Prayer is no longer a time when Churches may consider their ecumenical obligations fulfilled for the year after engaging in only eight days of joint prayer and fellowship. It is rather an intensive period when Churches not only pray for unity, but also take stock of their ecumenical progress and map joint efforts for the entire year.

The Churches of the Mid Island Ecumenical Council have made the Prayer Groups of the various Churches available for members of the greater community to join in the prayer actions listed below. The hope is that persons will share daily in some group action of prayer as well as private prayer.

On Sunday, January 23, the newly elected officers of the Mid Island Ecumenical Council will be installed at St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, Hicksville, during the Prayer Service and Healing Mission starting at 7:30 P.M.

Wins Speech Contest

Thomas Reiter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reiter, 5 Cottage Blvd., Hicksville, was named the winner of the Fall Speech Contest for State University College students at Cortland sponsored by the Cortland County Chamber of Commerce.

A junior student at SUCC, and an English major in the field of secondary education, his winning speech was on the subject of gun control.

Reiter won the contest in a field of approximately 50 students from college speech classes who entered the contest. There were 12 semi-finalists and six finalists.

He received a $50 prize from the Chamber of Commerce. The contest was the 26th in the series which began in 1964.

Fire Report

By Ex-Capt. Owen Magee

House Fires Mar Holiday Season

Several house fires in Hicksville caused considerable damage over the holidays. Those fires and a false alarm spree gave vamps little rest.

Hicksville firemen were called on an early Christmas morning when a smoky blaze erupted in the basement of a house at 280 Plainview Rd. 60 men, 7 pieces of apparatus under Chief Schaaf responded to the 6:14 AM alarm. A family of 5 escaped unharmed. Cause of the fire which was confined to the basement was faulty insulation around the base of a fire place, the rest of the house suffered smoke damage.

Another house fire, this one at 10 Edgewood Dr. on Dec. 27, $5,000 damage resulted from a fire which started in an attic storage area. Hicksville Vamps were on the scene for over 2 hours. The family quickly escaped without injuries.

On January 3 fire caused $5,000 damage to an attic at a home at 1, Bridle Lane. The alarm came at 10:24 AM. Vamps, hampered by heavy smoke fought the fire for over 30 minutes. The cause of the fire was believed to be smoldering cigarette.

Fire Report

During the period Dec. 20 thru Jan. 3 Hicksville firemen responded to 65 alarms. There were 30 rescue calls, 25 fire calls; including the first reported fire for 1977 in Nassau County. As most folks were toasting the new year, a rubbish fire on the R.R. tracks at Bethpage Rd. called out Vamps at 12:01 AM. Ten malicious false alarms were sounded, 8 of which came in early December 22. More on this spree as it becomes available. The boxes pulled were 1st St. and Frevort Pl.; Linden Blvd. and Lee Ave. and Lawn Pl.; Summer and Autumn (2); Nicholia St. and Broadway; Alexander and Palermo St.; Old Country Rd and Monroe St.; Sr. High School; Woodbury Rd. and Miller Rd.

In other news, bids will be opened this month for a new 1,500 gpm Class A Pumper for Co. 3, and a Chief's car. Recently arrived new equipment included new rescuers for most apparatus. The new rescuers can be used while life saving C.P.R. is being performed, whereas the old units were not effective, and manual devices were necessary. Also arrived is the new Hurst Rescue Tool. Rescue personnel are now in training on its many uses. More on this in future issues.

Faulty Extinguishers

The Consumer Product Safety Commission is re-newing its warning about a fire extinguisher it said may rupture causing injuries. Involved are model FEIBUL disposable fire extinguishers made by Bernzomatic Corp. in 1970. We wish to add that there are several disposable fire extinguishers on the market. The problem is that the fact that they can be used only once is not clearly stated. It is mentioned in very fine print. When buying - be sure you know what type you want - a disposable or rechargeable extinguisher. A rechargeable extinguisher can be purchased for about the same price as a disposable one - you decide which one is best for your needs. We report this because of complaints that many purchased the disposable type, not knowing it was good for one time only. Beware the fine print.

Facts To Help You Make Up Your Mind About Important Public Issues

WHAT PRICE REGULATION?

By H. R. Logan
of W. R. Grace & Co.

In the past two decades, federal spending has risen by 424 percent while our Gross National Product has grown by only 275 percent. And while federal spending continues to climb, U.S. business profits after taxes have been steadily declining in the past 10 years. Without profits, a company and a nation has no way to invest in future expansion, for profits are the only source of growth capital.

Our government today regulates more business practices than most other democracies. We have a vast political patchwork of government agencies, commissions and boards, many with overlapping constituencies, and all with the power to act independently for what they perceive to be the public welfare. What has resulted is a massive body of confusing and often conflicting laws, administrative regulations and court decisions, which has prompted inefficiency, waste and higher costs to the consumer.

It may seem surprising to some, but the nation's energy crisis was, to a large extent, wrought by regulation.

In 1964, the Federal Power Commission was empowered to set the price of natural gas sold by producers to interstate pipelines. The FPC responded by setting the price of natural gas below the cost of all other energy sources. The decision had a guaranteed twofold effect: The low-cost natural gas stimulated a tremendous increase in consumer usage, and the low ceiling price predictably dampened industry's initiative to invest in natural gas exploration. Ill-conceived regulation, once again, insured the public of a widening gap between natural gas production and consumption.

A similar pattern has developed with respect to oil—most of which was put under price controls at the time of the wage-price freeze of 1971.

In the 2½ years since the Arab oil embargo, crude oil imports have increased by 74 percent while our domestic production has declined by 5 percent. U.S. coal production during the same period has risen by only 10 percent. And every nuclear power plant scheduled to come on stream between now and 1985 has either been cancelled or delayed.

W. R. Grace & Co., the chemical company with growing natural resource investments. For instance, holds a valid federal lease to a coal property containing about 200 million tons of coal with the highest quality of any Western coal. Increasingly strict national clean air standards make such coal a necessity for utilities which can no longer rely on dwindling supplies of oil and gas, and for utilities and industries which are today burning high-sulfur coal which exceeds clean air standards. Large-scale production of coal from this basin has been hampered by the lack of governmental approval for a rail spur.

Since early 1974 Grace has been seeking approval to build such a rail spur and open a mine. In the interim, it has spent nearly a million dollars studying the environmental impact, including socio-economic, land use, and air and water quality assessments. The conclusion of these studies is that Grace can produce a greatly needed product without harm to land or environmental values or to the social and economic well-being of the local communities.

Our way of life is founded on industry's ability to adapt quickly and efficiently to change. If the swing towards oppressive legislation continues, growth and productivity must ultimately suffer, profits decline and higher unemployment result.

There will have to be an effort made to better educate the public about the economic system under which we operate. In the final analysis, it is the voter alone who can reverse the current trend.

Government does have an important role in stimulating healthy competition in the private sector. The trouble occurs when government ceases to monitor and seizes control. Our experience with wage and price controls should be proof enough that centralized planning hampers productivity, cripples imagination and acts finally as a threat to individual liberty. In every instance where we have chosen to substitute artificial planning for the natural forces of the free marketplace, the consumer has paid the price.

The solution is to preserve in the face of unprecedented economic and political change the principles of a free competitive system, effective limited government and individual incentive and initiative.

Loss of freedom—economic and political—is the price of overregulation. The only great society is a free society.

Tips To Help You

The Electronic Industries Association recommends that you unplug your TV set and disconnect the antenna if you plan on going off and leaving it for any length of time.

Before you buy a calculator for yourself or as a gift, consider what it will be used for. You won't need logarithms in the supermarket. Also, see if the read-out and push buttons are the right size for your fingers and eyes.

Make certain that outdoor TV antennas and lead-in wires are kept well away from power lines. The antenna mast should be permanently grounded and a lightning arrester installed in the lead-in circuit.

Everybody Wins In Chicken Cooking Contest

The first of March is the deadline for entering the 1977 National Chicken Cooking Contest which offers a first prize of $10,000 and other prizes bringing the total to $25,000.

There are a few special requirements for contest entries. Among them: The recipe should make approximately 4 servings, contain a broiler-fryer (2 to 3 1/2 lb. chicken, whole or any part or parts), at least 1 teaspoon Ac'cent flavor enhancer and at least 1/4 cup Mazola corn oil. Ingredients must be exact and nationally available, instructions complete. Judging will be based equally on simplicity, interest, appearance and flavor. The top 5 or so recipes from each state and Washington, DC winners will be judged in state cook-offs. The 51 state and DC winners then compete in a national cook-off in Jackson, Mississippi, on July 27, 1977. State transportation costs and all national cook-off expenses will be paid by contest sponsors. Sponsors' employees, directors, representatives and their immediate families, along with previous first place national winners, are not eligible.

For further contest information and a folder with some of the chicken recipes that have carried off first prizes in the past, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to: Chicken Contest Folder, Box 28158, Central Station, Washington, DC 20005. Send your contest recipes to this same address, each clearly marked with your name, address and telephone number. Any recipes received after March 1 will be held for the 1978 contest. The National Chicken Cooking Contest is sponsored by the National Broiler Council and the makers of Ac'cent flavor enhancer and the makers of Mazola corn oil. At the national cook-off, ranges will be supplied by White-Westinghouse.

This recipe for Chicken and Asparagus Casserole was adapted from Clem Holley's 1973 $10,000 winner. It meets all 1977 contest specifications.

- Chicken and Asparagus Casserole
- 2 whole broiler-fryer chicken breasts, halved, skinned, boned
 - 1 teaspoon Ac'cent flavor enhancer
 - 1/8 teaspoon pepper
 - 1/4 cup Mazola corn oil
 - 1 package (10 oz) frozen asparagus

- 1 can (10 3/4 oz) cream of chicken soup
- 1/3 cup real mayonnaise
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1/2 teaspoon curry powder
- 1/4 cup shredded Cheddar cheese

Cut each chicken breast half into thirds. Sprinkle with flavor enhancer and pepper. Heat corn oil in fry pan over medium heat. Add chicken and brown on both sides. Cook asparagus 3 to 4 minutes following package directions. Drain. Stir together soup, mayonnaise, lemon juice and curry powder. Place asparagus in shallow baking dish. Place chicken over asparagus. Spoon sauce over chicken and asparagus. Sprinkle with cheese. Cover with foil. Bake in 375°F oven 30 minutes or until fork can be inserted in chicken with ease. Makes 4 servings.

MANAGING YOUR FAMILY'S FINANCES

Pension For Housewives

There's good news in store for American housewives. For the first time they can qualify to receive a pension by staying home and doing their job—housework.

This new retirement plan, part of the Tax Reform Act of 1976, is designed to relieve some of the financial burdens many women face when they get older. Effective Jan. 1, 1977, it is set up through an Individual Retirement Account (IRA), a government-authorized program in which individuals may invest for their retirement.

The recently signed law permits a husband who is not covered by a company retirement plan to make contributions to an IRA on behalf of his non-employed wife and himself. For such an account, the maximum yearly contribution is $1,750 or 15 percent of annual earnings, whichever is less. Working wives who support non-employed husbands may also take advantage of the program.

Interestingly, IRAs can be set up in a variety of investments, like savings accounts, government retirement bonds and annuities. They can also be invested in any one of a wide range of mutual funds whose objectives vary from achieving a high rate of interest to maximizing growth of capital. A mutual fund pools the money of many investors who have similar financial goals and invests this money in different securities to spread the risk.

Take, for example, a married man who earns $300 a week, files a joint return and is in a 25 percent tax bracket. He sets aside $1,750 into a "joint" IRA for himself and his wife during his tax year. But, in effect, he only contributes $1,125 out of pocket because Uncle Sam contributes $437.50 that's what he would have paid in taxes if he had not opened an IRA.

WIVES AN ASSET— Though salary for housework is still improbable, pensions for housewives are now quite possible.

When these contributions are eventually taken out, regular income taxes will be paid on them. But most people in their later years have lower earnings and will therefore pay less taxes on their income. Moreover, the dividends and other earnings on these IRA contributions won't be taxed again normally after retirement. So less taxes will be paid on them, too. These contributions over the years can accumulate into a comfortable nest egg—especially helpful in the face of inflation.

For more information about tax-sheltered retirement plans, write to the Investment Company Institute, Dept. B, 1775 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006 for a free booklet called "Take A Tax Shelter Break."

The first American medical school was at the College of Philadelphia, which offered medical training for the first time in 1765.

The Rev. Bernard J. McGrath, vice officials, will become pastor of Holy Family Church in Hicksville. It was announced by Bishop John R. McGann of the Rockville Centre Catholic Diocese recently. This appointment is effective Friday, Jan. 7.

Father McGrath, ordained in 1956, has served in the Diocesan Tribunal since 1972.

He was educated at St. Teresa's School, Woodside, and Cathedral Prep. and College. He completed studies for the priesthood at Immaculate Conception Seminary, Huntington.

He earned a Master's Degree from Fordham University's graduate school in 1962.

He served in St. Lawrence Martyr parish, Sayville; St. Anthony of Padua, East Northport; and Mary Immaculate, Bellport. Father McGrath also taught at St. Pius X Preparatory Seminary, Uniondale, and was a Newman chaplain at Hofstra University, Hempstead.

In 1969, Father McGrath was elected as a Deanery representative to the diocesan Priests' Advisory Council and was re-elected in 1971.

St. Pius X Plans Meeting

The St. Pius X School Board is pleased to announce its plans for nursery and kindergarten class for the school year beginning in September, 1977.

Your child will be offered all the nursery-kindergarten activities within a stimulating environment in addition to religious training in the Christian community by an experienced and qualified faculty. Development of your child will be closely observed, making the transition to first grade easier and more beneficial.

If, in the meantime, you have any questions relevant to our plans, please call Steven Zellem at 681-2407, evenings, or Joan Kaweck, principal, St. Pius School at OV 1-9530.

The Women's Missionary League of Trinity Lutheran Church, Hicksville, welcomed a former Trinity Lutheran School student, Mr. J. Gropp, as guest speaker at their December meeting. Mr. Gropp is a missionary on the staff of Inner City Impact, a Christian Community Center in the heart of the depressed Humboldt Park area of Chicago's inner city.

Mr. Gropp's lecture, accompanied by a slide presentation, covered need for mission work in an area where the youth feel there is no meaning to life as it is today, and told the group what his organization is doing through Christian love and teaching to help alleviate the condition. Mr. Gropp is also the editor of the Inner City Impact News.

After Mr. Gropp's presentation, the women wrapped Christmas gifts for the students at the Suffolk School For The Retarded in Elville.

Shown in the photo are Mrs. Lucille Sluder, Mrs. Ruth Saurer, Mr. J. Gropp, Mrs. Renate Widder and Mrs. Signe Hastings. The ladies are the officers of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League of Trinity Lutheran Church, Hicksville.

Holiday Celebration

At the Plainview K. of C. Christmas Party, well over 150 children were on hand. The party, sponsored by the Joseph F. Lamb Council, No. 5723, Knights of Columbus, Plainview, was held on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 19, at the Council Hall in Plainview. The children were entertained by two clowns, one magician, and, of course, Santa Claus. Photo above show Santa holding Bill Sheridan (age 9) on the left and Michael Walsh (age 9) on the right. We are reliably informed that Santa was really genial Edward J. Boyle Sr., Deputy Grand Knight of the Lamb Council. (Photo by Frank W. Jopp).

SCHOOL BOARD REPORTS

Education is considering an amendment to one of its policies that would establish rules governing the "public participation" portion of meetings of the Board. The amendment proposes that there be provision for public participation at all Regular Education and Business Meetings and that public participation be at the discretion of the Board of Education at all other open meetings. Persons desiring to make comments or raise questions shall, when recognized, (1) state their name and address; (2) indicate on whose behalf they are speaking, if a non-resident; (3) limit their presentations to a single statement or question or to a maximum of two minutes. The President shall not entertain public discussion on matters relating to staff or students at which the reputation, privacy, or rights to due process of third parties could in some way be violated.

Persons wishing to comment on the proposed amendment should do so, in writing, no later than January 11th. Mail your comments to: Plainview-Old Bethpage Central School District, Plainview, N. Y. 11803, Attention: Personnel Office.

Christopher's for allowing Plainview DECA members to bring a good time to all. "We will all be going back in January to have a winter outing with the children," said a DECA spokesperson.

The DECA members who shared in this experience were

They were accompanied by DECA teacher Mrs. Gloria Jones Plainview DECA Chapter.

John Raymond a resident of Hicksville since 1919 will attain age 101 on January 6th. He is shown in the photo with his wife Rose, age 92 and his new great grand-son, Jason Raymond

Boglioli who was born on November 2nd, election day. The Boglioli's moved their address on East Avenue from Central Park, now known as Bethpage. He has seen Hicksville grow from a population of less than 1000 to the present 50,000.

The surrounding area where they live is now a typical suburban area. At one time it was a large meadow which was occasionally used as a landing field for airplanes. In fact Clarence Chamberlain, who flew over the Atlantic Ocean, shortly after the historic Lindbergh flight used to land his plane near the Boglioli residence barely missing his chimney while tutoring a Hicksvillite in flying lessons.

At one time Hicksville consisted mostly of Meadows and farm land. Some of the finest

Sterling Optical is now open here in Hicksville

Open your eyes to a new world of value, fashion and service!

An eye opener! Unless you've shopped at a Sterling before (we've spread from New York to locations throughout the country), you're in for a dazzling experience. The bright and beautiful Sterling Optical now in the Mid Island Plaza will show you why we've become one of the fastest growing optical organizations in America. We believe optical shopping should be fun—and inexpensive. Come see for yourself. And see everything new in eyeglasses and contact lenses. Come open your eyes to a new world of savings, fashion and service.

Have fun at our frame bar! You've never seen such a selection of eyeglass and sunglass frames for women, men and children. You'll find thousands of styles, colors and shapes in frames to flatter your face. You'll find a fashion show in the Sterling Designer Collection which includes style creations by Oscar de la Renta, Pucci, Dior, Gloria Vanderbilt and others.

Sterling shines for value! For six decades, Sterling has been the shining example of optical value. And if you want to see the proof of this, compare Sterling value with eyeglass costs anywhere.

Look into some new ideas! Look into the new beauty of fashion-tinted lenses that change your look and your outlook. Discover the new lightness and comfort of plastic lenses. Try amazing Photogrey or Photosun lenses that magically darken when you step into bright sunlight. For contact lenses, ask about Sterling's policy that assures satisfaction or refunds your money.

Our service is fast and bright! Thanks to modern technology, many eyeglass prescriptions can be filled in a matter of hours. So you can have same-day service. You can stop by in the morning, have your eyes examined, select your frames — and have your new glasses that very same day. But Sterling never, ever sacrifices quality to speed. And we strive to make your day a little brighter with cheerful, helpful service. For everything optical, come open your eyes to the bright name in sight - Sterling Optical.
