'77 Bicentennial Committee

The first 1977 meeting of the Hicksville American Revolution Bicentennial Committee, on January 19, was a congenial and well-attended gathering of program leaders and workers. Held at the Library, the meeting was marked with fond recollections of 1976's exciting commemorations and by plans for continued community-wide programs sponsored by the Committee.

Among those in attendance and looking forward to 1977's programs were: Cochairmen Richard Evers, Jack Landress and Sigfried Widder; Steve Fidler, Chairman of the Bicentennial Parade; Millie Pino of the Lee Avenue PTA, who chaired the wonderful Fourth of July Old-Time Country Fair and Anne Gregory, Cochairman of the Bicentennial Ball. On hand lending support and ideas were Bicentennial representatives of many organizations: the Public Library, the Hicksville Community Council; the Gregory Museum; Parent Teacher Association leaders; the Bicentennial Committee of Our Lady of Mercy Church; the Hicksville School District; Sons of Italy; Nautical Cadets of the Police Boys Club; the Junior High Music Department; Boy Scouts of America; American Legion and others. Extending the Town of Oyster Bay Bicentennial Commission greetings and well wishes was Dorothy Horton McGee, noted local historian and the Commission's Chairman since 1971.

Declaring that, "the American Revolution Bicentennial is far from over", Cochairman Evers, in a spirited address, reminded the committee that "the Declaration of Independence only asserted freedom from Britain, it still remained to be won, in seven years of battle and struggle. 1777 was a critical year in the Revolution, New York State's "big year," and the North Country and Hudson Valley communities will be going all-out to commemorate the crucial events of the 'year of the three sevens', as our forefathers called this time."

"The coming year is filled with the 200th Anniversaries of military and political events many schools and communities will want to commemorate," the Cochairman recalled. "The battles of Oriskany, Bennington and Saratoga, the adoption of the First United States Flag on June 14, 1777, the creation of the First New York State Constitution and Washington's loss of Philadelphia to the British are but a few of the year's Bicentennials worthy of some sort of recollection."

The Committee was told that in Nassau press circles "the Hicksville Bicentennial programs and newspaper coverage was 'outstanding'. In a discussion of projects and possible events for 1977, the Committee reacted affirmatively to the many favorable comments from citizens regarding the Old-time Fair held on the Hicksville High School grounds, on the Fourth of July. With a large vote of approval, the Bicentennial Committee agreed to begin efforts at organizing a Second Old-time Fair, to be held on Sunday, May 22, the weekend of the 329th Anniversary of the Robert Williams Indian Land Purchase. Organizations interested in participating in the Fair are urged to set the date aside. Invitational forms, booth fees and details as to exhibits will be forthcoming via the mail and newspaper releases.

Among the projects authorized by the Hicksville Bicentennial Committee at this discussion meeting was an effort to create a permanent Bicentennial Memorial in Hicksville. Steve Didier and Millie Pino will Co-chair efforts to utilize remaining funds from 1976's Old-Time Country Fair in establishing such a memorial. Ideas from community residents for such a memorial may be forwarded to Mrs. Pino or Mr. Didier.

In another project, Gardiner Gregory, Director of the Gregory Museum and Richard Evers will undertake to duplicate the best of the many privately-owned slide pictures taken during the community's memorable Bicentennial Year. The collaborating film-historians will create a taped narration-slide set to take its place with their five other Bicentennial historical slides and photographs in school and community organizations.

A Message From Your School District

VANDALISM

The wanton destruction which occurred during the month of January in both the Junior and Senior High School has not only cost you, the taxpayer, more tax dollars but has interrupted the education of our children in both these buildings. Destruction for destruction's sake by the perpetrator has caused students to miss classes in computer science and typing, since equipment in both these areas was destroyed by the vandals. The rest of the students are also inconvenienced since repairs must be made during school time.

VANDALISM HAS COST YOU, THE TAXPAYER, THIS YEAR—

Normal surveillance	$12,000.00
Security lights and maintenance thereof	7,000.00
Annual glazing replacement (plastic and glass)	10,000.00

Replacement of lavatory and laboratory fixtures, plumbing, heating controls, all of which are wantonly ripped from walls

The above figures do not include the cost of labor which is approximated at 30,000.00

Including the recent vandalism done at the Junior and Senior High School, the total expenditure for vandalism is projected for this year at $75,000.00.

These are your schools and you tax dollars. Help us to help you. Protect your schools by reporting any acts of vandalism or suspicious acts around them. CALL: SECURITY - 733-2137; if no answer, call: ELECTRONIC SECRETARY 935-3436 You need not give your name.

The most important thing that you, the parent, can do, is teach your child to respect school property as they would their own.

"Family" means a group of related or non-related individuals, who are not residents of an institution or boarding school, but who are living as one economic unit. This includes son, daughter, relatives, etc. "Income" means all sources of earned or unearned monies before deductions for income taxes, insurance premiums, bonds, alimony, child support, etc. which would be available to the "family" to pay the price of a child's meal.

"Hardship deduction" See below.
"Foster Children" A foster child placed in a private residence, where adoption is not involved, would be eligible under the criteria for a family of one, if the income for that child does not exceed the applicable Family Eligibility Criteria. This provision is in effect regardless of the gross income of the foster parent.

"Income can be adjusted for the following special hardship conditions which could not be reasonably anticipated or controlled by the household:

(I) UNUSUALLY HIGH MEDICAL EXPENSES: Total actual payments above $30.00 per year per family member, made by the household for physician or dentist services, hospitalization, prescription drugs, prescribed medical and dental services, transportation to and/or from sources of medical or dental treatment, nursing care in or out of the home, payments for Medicare and/or health insurance. Special diets are not an allowable deduction. Full or partial payments, made by outside agencies such as welfare, Medicare or insurance companies are not part of the household costs and should not be included as part of the deduction when adjusting the "income."
(II) SHELTER COSTS IN EXCESS OF 30 PERCENT OF INCOME: Shelter costs include rent and utilities such as heating, cooking fuel, electricity, water and sewage disposal fees. In the case of a household which is buying or owns its own home, shelter costs would include mortgage payments which includes principal; interest on mortgage principal; real estate taxes; school taxes; water taxes; sewer taxes and special assessments required by State or local law. When the shelter costs exceed 30 percent of the household "income," only that amount in excess of the 30 percent can be deducted from the "income" as an adjustment.

(III) SPECIAL EDUCATION EXPENSES DUE TO THE MENTAL OR PHYSICAL CONDITION OF A CHILD: Total payments made for tuition and/or mandatory fees by the family to a school or institution in meeting the educational needs of a child can be deducted from "income."

(IV) DISASTER OR CASUALTY LOSSES: Unusual expenses incurred due to an individual household disaster, or casualty losses which could not be reasonably anticipated, can be deducted from "income". This can be uninsured costs of fire, flood, theft or death which directly affects the family "income" through an expenditure of funds.

Families falling within these eligibility criteria, which provides for adjustment for uncontrollable financial hardships, are urged to apply for free or reduced price meals and/or free special milk for their children. They may do so by filling in the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school.

At The Town Board

by Gerry Kahn

Fern Place Hearing To Be Continued

The morning portion of the town Board Meeting held on Tuesday, January 25th concluded at 11:50. The evening portion of the Public Hearing was adjourned in the morning too, only to be Wednesday at 1:45 A.M.

The meeting led off with two hearings: the Petition of United Jewish Y's Of Long Island for a Special Use Permit in a residence "D" District in Plainview; and the Petition of Page Motors for a Special Use Permit for an Auto Body Repair Shop in Bethpage.

The first of the hearings relative to the use of an existing unused school building for an eleemosynary institution or a private club (The Fern Place School) in Plainview was to be continued in an evening session commencing at 8:00 P.M.

John F. Coffey, counsel for the petitioner, made a few opening comments but reserved most of his commentary for the evening session.

Twelve members of the audience addressed the Board. Four were opposed to petition and eight were in favor of the granting. It appeared that some of those in opposition weren't fully aware of the facts surrounding the situation.

At the completion of the initial hearing, the Hearing by Page Motors was presented and went unchallenged by the audience. Although the Board asked many questions relative to hours of operation, signs, employees, rubbish removal, outside storage, leases etc. The question as posed by Councilmen Diamond, Losca and Carman.

The balance of the morning meeting concluded without interruption as each Resolution followed one another in quick succession.

The evening session, starting at 8:00, was Standing Room Only, with the aisles crowded and the doors open to permit those in the lobby to hear the proceedings.

John Coffey led off the Hearing with an explanation and full descriptive analysis of the Petition. He presented as professionals, recognized in their field, Traffic Consultant Ed Sharskey, a Professional Planner, Mr. Morton Goldman, Director of the Mid-Island YMHA, and Ronald Matuzza a Real Estate Appraiser.

Eric Roedel, counsel for the Hoffman family of Fern Place, spoke in rebuttal and presented a Mr. Geiber, Traffic Consultant, as his expert witness.

Both Mr. Gerber and Mr. Sharskey, agreed on the traffic impact, the number of cars generated, the peak hours and general conditions.

The real estate expert who spoke on behalf of the petitioner, used two examples of similar facilities currently in existence that have created no adverse affect on the communities that abut their properties. (Human Resources in Searington and the YMCA in Glen Cove).

To clarify much of the false information being circulated relative to the petition it was stated that the Fern Place School had been purchased conditionally for an amount of $750,000.00. The conditional sale is based upon approval by the Town Board of the petition. The operation of the facility will be self-sustaining with no cost to the taxpayer. The sale by the Plainview Board of Education was by referendum indicating a majority approval of the residents of the school district.

The $500.00 fee is not for membership but for a building fund. It is payable in five installments (annual) and the pledge entitles the registrant to a discount in annual dues. The annual dues will be either $100 or $150. Membership is open to all on a first come first serve basis.

The Fern Place Community Assoc. sent 10 speakers from the audience to address the Board. Basically, their arguments against the granting were: depreciation of real estate values, traffic impact, was there really a need? Their comments became repetitious.

At the conclusion of the presentation by the Fern Place Assoc. Michael Aaron, a young man from Jericho who has participated in a Y program for several years, spoke out in favor of the granting indicating the many ways that membership in a Y has helped him and many of his friends.

The hour was past 1:40 and the Supervisor asked for a show of hands to indicate how many more members in the audience wished to speak either pro or con on the petition. The public stenographer could hardly continue after almost five and half hours and Supervisor Colby, asking the audience's indulgence, entertained a motion to adjourn which was immediately acted upon by the Board, adjourning the Hearing until Tuesday evening Feb. 1. at 8 p.m.

A study of food chains shows that industry net profit in 1975 was 0.62 cents per dollar of sales, down from 0.67 cents in 1974.

Dear Friends...

In a new program the funds for which are over 87 per cent reimbursable to the County through the Federal Parent Locator Child Support Program, Nassau County has recently negotiated a contract through Social Services Commissioner Joseph D'Elia with the Wackenhut Corp. of Rockville Center, to locate absentee parents who fail to provide support payments for their children. This will put a major detective agency at the service of the County Dept of Social Services for the next year. The contract calls for expenditure of not more than $35,000 and is an example of utilizing private, skilled resources to accomplish a professional job for government.

We hear that Cong. Norman Lent will be interviewed on this Sunday (Jan. 30th at 12:30 pm) "Public Hearing" program on WCBS TV, Channel 2. Lent, who will be joined on the program by Rep. Andrew Maguire (a Dem from New Jersey) will be discussing President Carter's inaugural address, economic affairs and other issues facing the newly-elected 95th Congress.

The St. Ignatius Girls' Cadet Corps is interested in promoting an Alumni Association. Any past members that would be interested in joining please call 938-7939. We are sure that many past Corps members have thought how nice it would be to see some of their old friends. Here is the opportunity. Also, this Corps is still recruiting new members between the ages of 10 and 18. No musical or marching experience is necessary. For further information call WE 8-7939 or WE 8-7939.

This week TOB Supervisor Joseph Colby appointed Dr. Benjamin C. Radzka Chairman of the Town's Environmental Control Commission. Dr. Radzka replaces Anthony Hamlik who asked to be relieved as Chairman but will remain as a member of the Commission.

THAT'S ALL for this week: Stay warm.

Fight Carey's Budget Cuts

State Senator Ralph J. Marino is preparing to do battle against Gov. Carey's budget calling for a serious curtailment in aid to local governments and school districts.

Said Marino, "The Governor's proposals to slash $150 million in formula aid to elementary and secondary schools, alter transportation aid and eliminate the 'save harmless' provision that guarantees our suburban school survival will have a catastrophic impact on local taxpayers."

"At the same time, he is freezing aid to local governments, backing down on a commitment to take over 25 percent of Nassau's court costs, and slashing drug and youth programs. The meager personal income tax savings he proposes will be more than wiped out by the increase in local taxes needed to make up for the loss of vital school aid, program grants and assistance to local government," said Marino. "We cannot allow the Governor to succeed at his anti-suburban fiscal gimmickry."

Marino and the other 11 members of Nassau's Republican delegation in Albany have united to block the Governor's budget cuts in both the Senate and Assembly.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Mrs. Noeth:

As a homeowner and taxpayer, I was sincerely intrigued by Town Supervisor Colby's call for a Town fiscal "diet" and his promise to make every reasonable effort to "trim" current Town expenditures. I sincerely hope that his actions in this regard will speak as loudly and clearly as his words. The "trimming" process might well start with the salary presently paid to our Town's Receiver of Taxes. The sole function of the Receiver of Taxes is the relatively straightforward one of serving as a clearing house for the dispatch of tax bills and the receipt of tax payments. He has no responsibility for the assessment of taxes, or otherwise for determining the amount of taxes due. For this essentially clerical function, the Receiver of Taxes is currently paid the sum of $28,000 per year, an increase of $1,000 over his 1976 salary. His job is quite clearly only a part-time job. When, at the Town's Budget Hearing last fall, I inquired as to the amount of time that the Receiver of Taxes actually devotes to the job, neither Supervisor Burke nor any member of the Town Board was able to give me an answer. In my opinion, this in itself is indicative of the somewhat slipshod approach that the Town Board has heretofore taken in evaluating budgetary line items. In any event, I suspect that the Receiver of Taxes actually devotes only a small amount of time to his Town responsibilities.

It is interesting to note that the office of the Receiver of Taxes contains only 32 employees and administers an annual budget of only $447,009. The 32 employees include the Receiver himself, two deputies, one accountant, and one accounting assistant. The remaining 27 are clerks, messengers and other non-professionals, pointing once again to the essentially clerical nature of the Receiver of Taxes' job. In contrast, the Commissioner of General Services, who supervises 47 employees in a department having an annual budget of $1,368,808, is paid $29,800 for administering the complex and varied functions of his Department on a FULL TIME basis. Similar contrasts are found throughout the Town's 1977 Budget.

Another interesting contrast is presented by the salaries paid to the Receiver of Taxes in other towns. In terms of population (probably a reasonably valid guide as to the relative work loads involved) the closest two towns to Oyster Bay's 332,233 people are the Towns of Brookhaven (304,102 people) and Islip (288,309). While Oyster Bay pays its Receiver of Taxes $28,500, Islip pays only $23,000 and Brookhaven pays only $21,740.

Admittedly, only a relatively small amount of money is at issue here. Perhaps a reduction of no more than five or six thousand dollars in the current salary paid to our Receiver of Taxes would be in order. However, action by Mr. Colby in this regard would at least be some indication of his intent to keep his promises with respect to fiscal conservatism and his pledge to see that the taxpayers of the Town of Oyster Bay receive full value for their tax dollars.

Very truly yours,
Michael Polansky of Plainview
Editors Note: Mr. Polansky is active in the local Democratic organization.

To The Editor:
This week, the Governor announced a budget plan that promises savings to the taxpayer. But while some State residents may see a savings of about $23 a year in State Income Tax, homeowners in Nassau will be expected to make up, through property taxes, some $19 million the State will take away from our school districts.

I immediately sent the following letter to all the State Legislators representing parts of the Town of Oyster Bay and hope our residents will not hesitate to write their support of this position:

"I have read newspaper accounts of the Budget message of Governor Carey. While he may call it a scheme to reduce taxes, I suggest it is a further attempt by this Governor to shift to the suburban homeowner even more of the burden for financing services.

"His plan and his attempt to label it as a blessing for the taxpayers are matters I strongly protest. They are nothing but false economies that are aimed at shifting the tax burden from the more equitable State Income Tax to the most oppressive property tax -- a burden affecting, primarily, the suburban, homeowner residents of this State.

"If lines are drawn on this issue, I cannot believe them to be partisan ones. The Governor's scheme is obviously a continuation of the damn-the-suburbs approach he adopted during the first half of his term.

"The suburban taxpayer cannot accept a greater share of the State's responsibility for financing the system of public education.

"If, as has been stated in the past, the State's system for financing education needs to be revised, the revision must be total, and must be equitable to all residents of the State. It cannot be designed to be entirely at the expense of that one segment that is struggling to retain the dream of home ownership.

"The effort to stop this Governor's attempt to destroy the suburbs must be a bi-partisan one in the State Legislature. Political affiliation cannot be considered a reason for support or opposition. The full effort of anyone concerned about the existence of the middle-income, suburban homeowner of the State must go into this battle. I urge that you unite with your colleagues in the Legislature to block the hoax being proposed by the Governor. I hope you will leave no stone unturned in preventing the Governor from transferring a State responsibility to the homeowner of Long Island.

"I would also urge you to publicly express your opposition as early as possible to make it clear to the Governor at the start of this legislative session that he will have to alter his approach immediately if he truly intends to responsibly meet the needs of this State. I am sure the residents of this Town would also appreciate knowing our legislative delegation is united on this issue.

Sincerely,
Joseph Colby,
TOB Supervisor

Dear Mrs. Noeth:
As per telephone conversation concerning the USSR immigrants, I'm submitting a brief appeal on their behalf. I'm a volunteer job counselor and tutor for the International Center in New York City.

I'm in constant contact with immigrants from Asia, Europe and especially a large segment coming from the USSR. They were either sponsored by organization in support of Soviet Jewry, the Tolstai organization or churches and secular organizations.

The most difficult problem with most of these recently arrived refugees is the problem of acquiring employment in already a depressed economic market. In addition, the problem of acculturation which sometimes brings on periods of depression.

I would like to appeal to your readers, as a former active teacher in the Plainview system to help me to help those families who need a little boost for their morale.

They may suggest certain professional job openings via temple and church discussions, or they may open their house to weekend or holiday visits to these newly arrived Americans. In any case, many are highly qualified and technical skilled persons and appreciate a vast classical cultural background. Before accepting to entertain or to assist these people, all prospective hosts would be given preliminary information about their guests.

If anyone is interested write me at Harry E. Gilmore, 112 Carll's Straight Path, Dix Hills, N.Y. 11746, or telephone (516) 242-2857 Wed., Fri. or Sun evenings after 7 p.m.

Yours truly,
Harry E. Gilmore

Classical Guitar Series

The Guitar Workshop of Roslyn Heights has announced the opening of a new classical guitar concert series to be held at Fern's Harness Shop, 1431 Old Northern Blvd., in Roslyn. The first concert will take place on Wednesday, February 2, at 8 pm, with succeeding concerts on the first and third Wednesdays of February, March, April and May. The concert series will feature some of the most highly regarded young classical guitarists in the greater New York area. All ages are welcome. Tickets, which will be available only at the door, are $2.

Jeff Warner, Concert Director of The Workshop, outlined the special nature of this concert series. "We are, quite frankly, attempting to build a new audience for the classical guitar, while providing some exposure for some highly trained young classicists. We are providing beautiful music in the informal atmosphere of a wine and cheese cafe--and offering people an alternative to the high ticket prices and formal structure of most classical concerts."

The series begins on February 2, with the guitar duo of Christopher DeLoach and Jerry Willard. Both artists have taught classical guitar for years in Cleveland and New York, and Willard has appeared with the Cleveland Orchestra and The Metropolitan Opera. On February 16, the series will feature Edgard Dana, faculty member of the Jerusalem Academy of Music in Israel before joining the Workshop faculty several years ago. Subsequent artists in the series will include New York guitarists David Tanenbaum and Bonnie Robiczek, and the much acclaimed flamenco guitarist Anita Scher.

The Guitar Workshop is a non-profit, educational organization chartered by the New York State Board of Regents. This concert series is made possible by a grant from the New York State Council on the Arts. For information, call 621-7910.

Applicants Sought For 78 - 79 Rotary Foundation Awards

Rotary International District Governor Thomas A. Dent has announced the availability of 2 Rotary Foundation educational awards for young people in his district No. 725 for study abroad during academic year 1978-79. Rotary District 725 includes Brooklyn, Queens and Nassau. The awards cover the costs of language instruction, transportation, food, lodging, and tuition.

Rotarians are looking for scholars who are well-rounded, articulate, outgoing people who can interpret their homelands as well as absorb the cultures of their country of study. Candidates must apply for the awards by March 1, 1977 through local Rotary clubs where they reside or study.

The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International, the world's oldest service club association, seeks to promote international goodwill and understanding. Its awards programs are supported by voluntary contributions of Rotarians and others worldwide.

The Foundation's awards are placed into five categories, the largest of which is the graduate fellowships. Each graduate fellow must be twenty through twenty-eight years old and have earned the equivalent of a Bachelor's degree.

Students who have completed only two years of study on the university level may apply for the Foundation's Undergraduate Scholarships. Applicants may not be married and must be eighteen through twenty-four years old.

Technical Training awards are available to people who have the equivalent of a secondary education and have worked for two years in a technical field. In the past, students have studied vocations from bookkeeping to hydrofoil construction. Technical Training awardees must be twenty-one through thirty-five years old.

Also available are awards for teachers of the handicapped and journalists which are granted to winners of a worldwide competition of candidates sponsored by Rotary clubs. In 1978-79, the journalism awards program's first year, the Foundation will grant twenty awards. Up to 120 teachers of the Handicapped awards will be presented the same year.

Teachers applying for this award must have the equivalent of a secondary school degree, have worked with the handicapped for two years, and be twenty-five through fifty years old.

Applicants for journalism awards, if students, must have completed at least two years of secondary education in journalism. Professional applicants must have been working for two years and be twenty-one through twenty-eight years old.

Over the next three years the Foundations' trustees have committed U.S. $22 million for their programs. And in concert with their motto of "Service Above Self," none of the program's awards can be made to Rotarians or their families.

DAR Program

An unusual program on the Tall Ships in Bermuda was shown to members and guests of the Oyster Bay Chapter DAR on Monday, Jan. 24 by Jane and Norton Hutchinson. The slide program is one that Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson have prepared, using some of the pictures they took and those taken by friends when visiting Bermuda last June. At that time many of the tall ships were sailing into the harbors of Bermuda after racing across the Atlantic Ocean in preparation for the huge July 4th Operation Sale event in the New York City harbor.

The dinner meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Irving Hutchinson in Oyster Bay.

Mrs. Nancy Gundry, chapter regent, of Hicksville and Mrs. Charles Ardovino, East Norwich, Long Island's District X Director, reported on the Queens-Nassau-Suffolk Regents Round-table meeting held last Saturday.

Message From Kiwanis

During the 1975-76 Kiwanis Administrative Year, the 350 Kiwanis clubs in New York State collectively spent over $900,000, for various charities and service projects. The money raised by the clubs is usually earmarked for service to the local community. It is collected through a variety of fund-raising activities carried out by each individual Kiwanis club.

The Kiwanis Club of Hicksville supports such charitable activities as the Boy Scouts, sending needy children to Camp Kiwanis, the St. Ignatius Bugle and Drum Corps, scholarships, and projects such as putting on a Christmas show for the elderly at the Jones Institute, distributing food baskets to needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas, sponsoring a Physical Education and Academic Improvement program at the Hicksville Junior High School, and by sponsoring the junior team of the Hicksville Americans Soccer team.

The heart of Kiwanis is the club itself. Each club is composed of men in a wide variety of occupations, representing the diverse forces of the community. Each Kiwanis club has officers and a specified number of directors as prescribed by the bylaws of the club. These officers and directors comprise the Board of Directors, the administrative body of the club. Clubs perform their community service work and their internal administration through standing committees. Each member is assigned to one or more of these, depending upon his particular desires and aptitudes.

All Kiwanis clubs are organized according to a standard basic plan. Each club has great freedom in developing its own service projects, fund-raising activities, meeting procedures, customs and character. Each club through its own imagination and growth lends flavor and excitement to the entire Kiwanis organization as it adapts the ideals and Constitutional Objects of Kiwanis to its own community. Clubs have an almost limitless variety of opportunities to raise funds needed for sponsored service projects. The type of fund-raising projects a club undertakes depends largely upon the accepted customs of the area. Funds obtained from the public cannot be used to meet administrative obligations of the club.

As a Kiwanis member, a man can help pinpoint his community's needs and work with men of similar persuasion to meet those needs.

The Hicksville Kiwanis Club meets at the Milleridge Inn at 12:10 PM on Wednesdays. Prospective members can call Dr. Richard Smith at 931-4938 for more information.

AL Oratorical Contest

David Niebuhr, a senior, has won the Annual American Legion Oratorical Contest held at the Hicksville High School, triumphing over eight contestants in a competition designed to foster student understanding and appreciation of the United States Constitution. The contest winner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. William Niebuhr and aspires to a medical career.

Second and Third Place winners were James Black and Susan Maters.

Sponsoring the forensic competition for the 18th year in Hicksville was the Charles Wagner Post 421 of the American Legion which awarded handsome Patrick Henry medals and United States Savings Bonds of $100, $50 and $25 to the three placing contestants.

The student orators contending for speaking honors were required to research, write and deliver 8-10 minute orations on some constructive viewpoint regarding the United States Constitution.

Winner Niebuhr's oration was on the theme "Our Changing Constitution" and evoked memories of Hicksville's outstanding orators, Gene Nye and Barry Lebowitz, who went all the way to the State Legion Oratorical Finals and set standards to which today's youth may aspire. The winner of the rousing competition at High School will now compete in the Nassau County Championships this week at Carle Place.

This year's Legion oratorical contest drew the most contestants in many years, thanks to the recruitment efforts and coordination of Messrs. John Pitrelli and Department Chairman Kenneth McGinnis, teachers of Social Studies at Hicksville High, Lending her forensic coaching talents to the efforts of the three placing contestants was Mrs. Marie Saunders of the Language Arts Department.

Judging the contest were Mr. Lawrence Olvani, Assistant Principal and former Social Studies teacher; John Kearns, Chairman, and Mrs. Elsie Strong of the Language Arts Department.

Richard Evers of the Charles Wagner Post was Contest General Chairman and represented Commander Palmer Walsh of the American Legion.

Plainview Senior Speaks Out For Elderly

Cornelius Ryan, a retired policeman from Plainview, was a speaker at the opening session of the National Association of Counties Conference on Aging in Washington, D.C. on January 10.

Officials representing 28 states attended the two-day conference at the Shoreham Americana Hotel. The meeting was the first of three national conferences on County Resource Development for Aging sponsored by NACO which is the national spokesperson for county government in the United States.

In an address entitled "What I would like to see my county do for me," Mr. Ryan stated, "The elected representatives in Nassau County can help the senior community by facilitating the building of additional low and middle income housing, providing transportation that will service interior areas as well as main arteries in the County, and support legislation which will reduce the tax burden on senior homeowners and those who rent." In addition, Mr. Ryan asked County officials to earmark adequate funds to improve employment opportunities for older workers and for more vigorous enforcement of legislation which prohibits age discrimination in employment. "Chronological age should not be the sole criterion for retirement," said Mr. Ryan. "A flexible policy should be adopted based upon the worker's desires and needs and upon his physical and mental capacity."

On January 11, the second day of the Conference, Commissioner Adelaide Attard of the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizen Affairs was a featured speaker. On a workshop on Socialization where she showed a slide presentation of her Department's Lillian M. Pierce Senior Center in Roslyn - a County operated multi-service senior center. Also shown was a 27-minute T.V. documentary called "Growing Older in Nassau County" which highlighted the programs and services of the Department.

The Department of Senior Citizen Affairs has been cited by the National Association of Counties as being an "outstanding example of how a county works with and for its elderly citizens," and for three consecutive years was the recipient of Naco's National Achievement Award.

By Jim Cummings

WE HEAR THAT: An AM daily is contemplating a PM edition, too... a number of Hicksville residents will have art exhibits at local banks and the Hicksville Public Library during the month of February. Jane & Eugene Ziegler of Linden Boulevard, in our community just celebrated 35 years of wedded bliss - they were joined by son, Grif, his wife, and their two grandchildren of Middleburgh, N.Y. for the happy occasion.

DID'YA KNOW THAT: Mrs. Constance Clark, manager of Central Federal Savings & Loan Association is back at her desk after a bout with the flu? NY Telephone workers completed their work at Jerusalem Avenue & Nicholai Street intersection quickly (near school crossing) - our compliments for safety measures provided and their cooperation with our item of last week... the Heitz Place Courthouse (opposite the Knights of Columbus building) is among the eight Historic places located in the National Register of our great country.

ROUND OUR TOWN: Have you noticed the number of vantage (the "v" is right) styles in Vans that even provide custom-built sun roofs, special engraved letterings, etc- quite the fashion for the younger set... Researchers are not only checking into the food we purchase, but now they have added beverages including beer and liquor-claim some components are not good for you- next we'll be just taking a food
