Accident Kills Worker

By Ex - Capt. Owen Magee

A 23 year old Lindenhurst man was killed in an accident at the Asphalt Plant off West John St. in Hicksville on Monday, October 31. Hicksville Firemen received the alarm at 1:04 P.M. Police of the 2nd Pct. had arrived just moments before. Ronald Seaman had his arm torn off in a rock crushing machine. How he got his arm caught was not immediately known.

Hicksville Vamps had nothing but praise for the County police and ambulance paramedic Baxter. They said both units worked efficiently to control bleeding from the massive wound. Seaman had to be lowered by rope and stretcher from the catwalk around the machine. The entire operation - start to finish - including the trip to the medical center, took 17 minutes. But the shock from such a massive blood loss was more than the victim could stand. He was dead on arrival at the hospital.

The only snag in the entire operation was reported when a "911" operator put the fire dispatcher "ON HOLD" as he was trying to call for the police helicopter. Personnel at the scene got on the police radio - requested radio clearance and called for assistance; however the type helicopter that was needed was not airborne. It was stated that the unavailability of the chopper did not effect the survival of the victim. The best possible emergency treatment was given as fast as possible, but survival from a wound of this type was almost impossible.

FIRE REPORT

During the period October 4 thru November 1, Hicksville Firefighters responded to 128 alarms. There were 12 malicious false alarms, 41 fire calls, 75 rescue calls.

A fire in a vacant store in the West Village Green at Newbridge Rd and Barter La. caused heavy damage. The alarm occurred October 22, 11:38 P.M. 75 Vamps under Chief Roy Schaaf, responded. The Jericho F.D. was called for stand-by assistance as Hicksville Vamps were at the scene of another alarm, an electrical fire.

As one can see, the rescue squad has been extremely busy, as they responded to a record number of rescue calls. One Vamp stated, if the calls keep coming at this rate the ambulance is going to expire due to overwork.

Best wishes to Fire Commissioner John Hannigan of Hicksville who is in Nassau Hospital, Mineola, recovering from an emergency operation. Special thanks go to the Montauk Point F.D. who brought Commissioner Hannigan in from out east when he was taken ill. That's what you call service.

School Board Meeting

By Linda Stroggin

The Hicksville Board of Education approved a salary adjustment of one-half percent for clerical personnel at its regular meeting last week. This adjustment is contained in the terms of their contract and is retroactive to July 1, 1977.

Absent from the meeting were Trustee Cornelius McCormack, due to personal reasons; and Superintendent Fred Hill and Business Manager Richard Weigang, who were attending a business administrators conference.

President Tom Nagle announced the formation of school board advisory committees and the Board later formally adopted a resolution to that effect. The Policy Committee will be headed by Trustee Bill Bennett. Vice-President John Ayres and President Tom Nagle will head the Long Range Planning Committee. The Budget Committee will again be headed by Secretary Dan Arena. Pete Fujimoto will chair the Goals and Objectives Committee. Tom Nagle will head the Building and Grounds Facility and Bus Committee. The Building Use Committee will be headed by John Ayres and Bill Bennett. Residents are urged to join these committees.

Trustee Iris Wolfson serves on the Nassau-Suffolk School Boards Association and is involved in the state school board network.

The Administration withdrew a request for a selection of option for payment of unemployment insurance. Two options are available: the contribution method or the benefit reimbursement method. Assistant Business Manager Richard Helfont explained the advantages and disadvantages of both. However, many questions remained unanswered and the request was withdrawn and will be resubmitted at a future date.

Under a new state law, effective January 1, 1978, all employees who meet the criteria, including substitute teachers, part-time personnel and excessed full-time personnel, would be eligible for unemployment benefits.

Assistant Superintendent Manus Clancy reported that a testing committee had been formed and is currently reviewing and evaluating the testing program. He also announced the program for Conference Day on November 8.

After meeting in executive session for one hour with representatives from Seaman and Eisemann to discuss the awarding of the Long Term Disability Policy, the Board called for an open meeting on Monday, October 31. (See follow-up). Also on the agenda for that evening will be the establishment of the teacher salary schedule for 1977-78.

During the public speaking session, the Board heard Mrs. Lorraine Losch, President, Hicksville Council of PTA's, read a letter from the Council urging the parties concerned to reach a speedy decision in regard to the Council contract.

Also speaking were Mr. Ruel Jackson, who questioned the difference between the actual table of organization and authorized table of organization and suggested that monies appropriated for a certain expenditure be used in that area; and Mrs. Arlene Rudin, President, Dutch Lane PTA, who gave a progress report on the recreation program sponsored by Dutch Lane PTA. Barbara Goldman, senior high student government representative reported that students with eight period free on Tuesday were cleaning up Halsey Street.

During a discussion on the authorization to purchase equipment for all schools, several questions were asked concerning the need for various items. Trustee Pete Fujimoto questioned the AV equipment needs and asked when the last inventory had been taken. The administration informed the Board that an inventory had been taken November 10, 1976 and that most requests were for replacement of old, worn beyond repair equipment.

Also questioned was the request for a nylon parachute. Mr. Richard Hogan, Director of Athletics, explained it was widely used for coordination exercises. Several items were deleted until questions could be answered. The total equipment request was then reduced to $65,460.71 which the Board approved.

The Board approved an Aides for Handicapped Students Project for 1977-78. The project is completely funded and paid for by the Nassau County Office of Manpower Programs under C.E.T.A. (Comprehensive Employment and Training Act) at a cost of $68,572.02.

FOLLOW-UP: The Hicksville Board of Education awarded the Long Term Disability Insurance Policy to Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company after meeting in executive session for over two hours at its "open" meeting on Monday. According to President Tom Nagle, questions arose concerning the insurance versus a higher premium with an insurance carrier and the Board needed to discuss the issue with representatives of Seaman and Eisemann. Voting no to this motion was Vice President John Ayres.

The Board did not reach a decision on the teacher salary schedule after again meeting in a second executive session for one hour. Dr. Manus Clancy provided figures to the Board; however, the Board felt the figures needed to be looked at again.

It's Official - Gebhardt Plaza

On Saturday October 22, 1977 the portion of East Marie St. between Broadway and the LIRR was re-named in honor of the late Hicksville ex-chief Henry Gebhardt. It is the first time a street in Nassau County was named in honor of a person - a volunteer - of any type.

TOB Supervisor Joseph Colby presented the family of Henry A. Gebhardt a proclamation to proclaim October 22 1977 Henry A. Gebhardt Day. The proclamation stated Hicksville will forever be the beneficiaries of the skills he directed to assure our residents a conscientious and vigilant volunteer Fire Dept. It was a day that was dedicated in respect for a man whose esteem shall stand forever as his own living memorial.

Present at the ceremonies, held next to fire headquarters, was

At The Town Board Meeting

By Gerry Kahn

The Town Board Meeting, held on Tuesday, Nov. 1st, was graced by the presence of the Farmingdale Little League All Star Team, the Nassau County Champs.

The 15 man Squad and their Manager and Coaches were guests of the Town and had a full tour of Town Government guided by that highly capable Lady Ms. Leslie Bell.

Prior to the start of the formal calendar, Supervisor Colby and the Town Board presented a Proclamation to the retiring Commissioner of the Syosset Youth Athletic Council (SYAC).

The 23 item agenda was led by three hearings; two (2) were amendments to the Code of Ordinances and the third was to amend a local law relative to Vehicular Speed Limits. The purpose was to delete the Syosset-Woodbury Rd. from the 40 M.P.H. limit. The amendment was based on a recommendation from the Nassau County P.D.

The twenty items that formed the balance of the meeting were dealt with in swift succession.

Supervisor Colby made note of the fact that the proposed budget was passed in its entirety and mentioned the fact that the Plainview "Y", possibly an item that took longer than any other item in Board History has been approved. He added that in most cases the safeguards that had been suggested by the various community groups to insure community privacy had been adopted. He felt the granting would be an adjunct to the broad town effort to improve the many facilities in T.O.B. for recreational and planned activities for all ages.

During the informal discussion that followed the regular meeting, Judy Jacobs discussed the Woodlands Pond on Picquets Lane in Woodbury and noted that it was an imminent danger. Councilman Diamond and Supervisor Colby reassured Mrs. Jacobs that the pond will be fenced and that it will not be of any great depth.

Phylis Singer addressed the Board relative to a traffic light on Washington Ave. in Massapequa.

Michael Polansky the last speaker of the day wished to know if any of the suggestions and discussions he had with the Board relative to the Annual Budget were taken under advisement. Supervisor Colby stated that a letter would be forthcoming.

The meeting concluded at 11:35

Dear Friends:

WELCOME: We are pleased to report that on Tuesday, our Town Board approved the application of the YW and YMHA to be built at the former Manetto Hill Road School. There are many restrictions imposed to protect nearby residents. Only an emergency fire exit may face Manetto Hill Road. Buffer areas of trees and a fence will protect nearby residential property. And, after 10:15 pm no outdoor lighting will be permitted. But, all in all, the community of Plainview, and greater Plainview, will have many more excellent programs available to their young people. We're sure the "Y" will be a good neighbor and an asset to the community.

We think that the application of the new "sunshine" law, needs clarification. For example, last week, in a meeting that they requested to be placed in this newspaper, the Hicksville Board of Education held a very short meeting, then a two-hour executive session, then, another very short meeting and another hour-long executive session.

In a meeting that encourages the public to attend, this is to say the least, discouraging. And, too, the question arises, is the specific matter under consideration at these lengthy executive sessions one that the public should be able to hear under the new sunshine law, or not. We don't know.

CONDOLENCES to Mr. Charles Carroll, chairman of the board of the Long Island Bank, upon the deaths of his daughter (the former Mary Elizabeth Carroll) and son-in-law William Lambui, in a tragic airplane crash in Vermont. The couple were returning with another couple from a vacation. They leave five children.

It seems important at this particular time to bring up two unrelated matters....

(1) No editor is required to print a "Letter To The Editor" in its entirety. Length is one reason for such shortening, but another, much stronger reason is that cases of libel are rightly brought not only against the writer of libelous material, but also against the newspaper printing it.

(2) It has always been the policy of this newspaper to refrain from printing controversial political material in the last issue before elections, because such charges cannot be answered before Election Day. Several poorly-timed, last minute news releases from candidates have not been used for this reason.

THIS WEEK OUR TOWN BOARD adopted a 1978 budget which holds the General Town tax rate at its current level of 82.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation. TOB Supervisor Colby tells us that this budget will permit our Town to maintain the needed services we have always provided for our residents. He said that the trimming that took place was essential to overcome increasing costs for costs for electricity, telephones, fuels, wages, equipment and supplies, but that there will be no reduction in our essential services. Quite an accomplishment in these times.

As we go to press we received a long letter from State Senator John Dunne to Hal Christ endorsing him for re-election to the office of Nassau County Comptroller...from this letter we excerpt: "You are the first comptroller to insist upon appointing only CPAs to key staff positions and for this your office earned its reputation for professionalism. Your re-election is the only way we can be assured of a continuation of those high professional standards."

The people of Nassau County have greatly benefited through your service as County Comptroller, and I will be urging them to re-elect you. Cordially, John R. Dunne."

We agree with Senator Dunne in his high opinion of our present County Comptroller Hal Christ.

As you can read in our editorial we have not attempted to sidestep our political endorsements, as have some dailies in our area. But, we sincerely mean this, no matter whether you agree with us or not, just be sure to cast your vote next Tuesday, Nov. 8th. That's what our government is all about. (Editorial On Page 12)

THAT'S ALL for this week. Stay well. Enjoy this beautiful autumn weather...and don't forget to cast your vote on Nov. 8th!

The Hon. Francis Purcell

Each of us as an American has a very important duty on Tuesday, November 8th. Little happens that affects our daily lives as much as the decisions that are made by our elected officials. Everyone of us should know the importance of Election Day. Certainly this year it is most important to every resident of Nassau County. This year we select our highest local officials.

Perhaps you think Election Day is important only in those years that we select a President or a Governor. Under our system of government our National and State officials are important, but local officials are those who make decisions that affect us most directly at home.

Regardless of your political affiliation you should know the issues in your local races. County Executive is the most important office on the ballot this year, along with Supervisors of the Towns of Oyster Bay, Hempstead and North Hempstead.

Each voter in each Town will also select three councilmen. Legislating your local ordinances is their chief duty. Living, as you do in the Town of Oyster Bay, you should know your candidates and what they stand for.

Republicans, Democrats, Conservatives, Liberals and independents should become familiar with the issues and the candidates. Our system of government depends on it. Whichever way you vote, be sure to vote. Being a voter is your most important duty as a citizen.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

The efforts of local suburban governments to stop the Tri-State Regional Planning Commission from adopting a plan that would herald the destruction of the suburbs as we know them today are finally having some effect. The plan calls for construction of 1,900 units of low-income housing in our County each year for the next twenty-five years, and includes provisions to implement this quota-based goal through coercion and blackmail of local governments.

As Supervisor and as chairman of the ad hoc committee of Nassau municipalities that is fighting the Tri-State plan, I sent representatives to a meeting conducted last week by the Commission's Housing, Community Development and Social Services Committee. As Tri-State saw it, the purpose of that meeting was to ratify proposals that had been developed to date, and ship them over to the voting members of the Commission to make them official this week.

The committee changed its plans when it was directly confronted with the same arguments which we have been making all along, and it finally recognized that the Commission could not in good conscience vote on the proposals as they had been developed by the Tri-State staff and HUD.

The first point made by the Town and ad hoc committee at last week's meeting was our opposition to the concept that some super agency such as the UDC be given the power to override local zoning decisions. Our position was clear and firm — local, representative bodies have the obligation and right to plan and zone for the betterment of their communities and their local constituencies; the right of home rule cannot be stripped from local authorities or weakened by outside influences.

Recognizing the strength of this position, the committee voted to delete the override recommendation and to insert an affirmative statement that local decisions should not be overruled. "We'll wait, and watch most carefully, to see if these changes appear in the final document."

The battle against the Tri-State plan is far from over. Four other significant proposals that are clearly unacceptable to local governments remain in the draft. We have submitted detailed commentary in opposition to these proposals, and have been told that our remarks will be considered prior to the finalization of the plan.

The Tri-State committee will consider this plan in mid-October, and intends to forward it to the voting members of the Commission for acceptance in early November.

We must — and will — remain watchful, and we will continue to battle against those provisions that would be clearly harmful to our local neighborhoods and communities.

Joseph Colby

The Pros and Cons of Propositions On The Ballot On Nov. 8

(Courtesy N.Y. State Assemblymen Thomas Gulotta)

PROPOSITION 1 Economic Development Bond Issue

This proposition would authorize $750 million in State debt for the general purpose of economic development, including funds for industrial parks, tourism, recreation, environmental improvements and local transportation.

SUPPORTERS SAY: New York State's loss of industrial employment opportunities, a major factor in the fiscal crisis of state and local governments, necessitates increased public investment in capital facilities for business and industry. The State's expenditure can be expected to generate additional funds from both the Federal Government and the private sector. Jobs will be provided for the still-depressed construction industry with permanent, private jobs created statewide. The major employment role of the tourist industry in several areas in the state justifies its inclusion. Although other programs in this area exist, a unified approach is now needed to obtain the maximum return on the State's investment in terms of additional funds generated and the number of jobs created.

OPPONENTS SAY: The lack of private, job-creating investment in the State is primarily the result of the State's onerous tax structure and spending levels. Our total state and local debts now total $40 billion, an amount greater than the combined indebtedness of 30 states, and by far the largest in the nation. The burden of an additional $750 million in debt can only worsen the fiscal strain, as a commitment to debt service will last at least 30 years. Further, $2.4 billion in voter approved funds already remain from previous bond authorizations (e.g., Pure Water, Transportation), and these funds could be used for projects of the type envisioned under the new bonding proposal. Other points are also raised noting: the jobs created by the proposed bond issue may be temporary; the lack of a legally binding project list opens up the possibilities of political manipulation; and other more specific programs to create jobs and promote tourism already exist and may prove to be more effective.

QUESTION 1

"Shall there be a Constitutional Convention?"

The State Constitution provides that periodically, the general electorate shall vote on whether or not there should be a convening of a state constitutional convention for the purpose of drafting amendments and recommending changes.

SUPPORTERS SAY: The sentiment expressed in the 1967 Constitutional Convention's opening statement — "New York's Constitution serves not as a blueprint for effective government but as a maze of frustration" — still persists and that there is a need for the wholesale revision of the State's highest law. It is argued that the constitutional convention is the best mechanism for that purpose.

OPPONENTS SAY: First, the notion that there is a need for complete revision of the Constitution is false. Second, the convention, should it fail to present reforms acceptable to the voters as occurred in 1967, would be a vast waste of time and money.

AMENDMENT 1

Judicial Selection

This amendment is designed to provide for the appointment, rather than election, of the Chief Judge and the six Associate Judges of the Court of Appeals. Those justices in office on April 1, 1978, will hold their offices until the expiration of their terms.

Their successors will be appointed by the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, from a list of persons found to be well-qualified and recommended by a 12-member, bi-partisan judicial nominating commission.

SUPPORTERS SAY: The election of judges is inappropriate since the nature of a justice's position requires decision-making based on concerns of law that are exclusive of political consideration or popular demand. Additional objections to the existing process arise from the concern that partisan nomination procedures do not guarantee the selection of candidates with the requisite experience, learning and integrity to serve on the State's highest court.

OPPONENTS SAY: The change from election to appointment is a step in the wrong direction. The reform proposal would only replace the politics of the partisan nominations with the politics of gubernatorial appointment and Senate confirmation, and the appointment of judges would leave the general populace without any direct control in the selection process. It is one more step to take away the people's election rights in favor of political appointments.

Centralized Court Administration

This amendment is designed to restructure the authority and responsibility for the administration of the Unified Court System of the State. It provides for the establishment of the Administrative Board of the courts which would appoint a Chief Administrator of the Courts, to supervise the operation of the Unified Court System and establish standards and administrative policies for general application throughout the State.

SUPPORTERS SAY: A new court system is needed to replace the existing fragmented system and establish clear lines of administrative authority. It is further held that the change is an essential mechanism for cost effectiveness in view of State assumption of the costs of the Unified Court System.

OPPONENTS SAY: The potential power that the Chief Administrator of the Courts may accumulate and the reduced independence of the lower courts is a matter of concern created by this amendment.

Judicial Discipline

This amendment is designed to restructure the system for disciplining judges in the State. It would abolish the existing Court on the Judiciary in favor of establishing an 11-member Commission on Judicial Conduct whose membership would be appointed by the Governor, the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals and by the four legislative leaders. The amendment ultimately gives disciplinary authority to the Court of Appeals and also allows, upon enactment of enabling legislation, for review of commission decisions on disciplining town and village court judges by the Appellate Divisions.

SUPPORTERS SAY: The abolishment of the Court on the Judiciary and its cumbersome disciplinary procedures is an essential element of any court reform effort. The greater ratio of non-judges as members of the judicial disciplining body and new procedures are expected to evolve a more responsible and effective judicial disciplinary procedure.

OPPONENTS SAY: Unlike the powers of the existing Court on the Judiciary, the proposed Commission on Judicial Conduct would act as both investigator, prosecutor and jury. This raises questions about violations of the rights of due process.

Court Jurisdiction

This amendment is designed to remove the constitutional provision which restricts the authority of the Legislature to prescribe the monetary jurisdiction of town, village and city courts outside New York City by limiting these courts to jurisdictions no greater than that of the District Court.

SUPPORTERS SAY: The arbitrary limitation of monetary jurisdiction to the $6,000 level of the District Courts does not allow the Legislature sufficient discretion to meet the needs of individual courts.

OPPONENTS SAY: The removal of the restriction might conceivably result in the raising of the monetary jurisdiction of town and village courts to levels greater than higher courts.

AMENDMENT 5

Increased Pension Benefits for Widows and Widowers

This amendment would permit the Legislature to provide increased pension benefits to any widow or widower of any retired member of a retirement system of the State or any of its political subdivisions.

SUPPORTERS SAY: Pursuant to current provisions of the Constitution the Legislature may provide for the payment of supplemental cost of living retirement allowances to public pensioners who retired prior to 1970. However, there is no similar constitutional provision allowing for the extension of these cost of living supplements to a widow or widower upon the death of a spouse. This amendment would remedy that situation.

OPPONENTS SAY: New York State now provides some of the best pension benefits, public or private in the nation. In 1977, the total cost for public pensions is expected to exceed $3.5 billion. Approval of the amendment would ultimately cost New York State taxpayers even more money.

Filling Vacancies on School Boards

This amendment would allow school boards, including New York City's community school boards, to fill vacancies which arise during mid-term on their boards until the next regular school board election, regardless of whether such appointments extend beyond December 31 in any year.

SUPPORTERS SAY: A 1973 court ruling held that a school board vacancy appointee could not hold office beyond the end of any "political year" — December 31. This ruling forces school districts to hold costly special elections to fill many vacancies. This amendment would remove that requirement by allowing interim appointments to continue service to the next regularly scheduled election.

OPPONENTS SAY: Appointed members of a school board should serve for the briefest possible time. New York City's community schools have been often times the center of political and social controversy. It is best to leave the school board memberships in the hands of the voting public, wherever reasonable.

AMENDMENT 7

Job Development Authority, Increasing Loan Capacity

This amendment would increase the Job Development Authority's loan capacity to $300 million from its current $150 million level.

SUPPORTERS SAY: This would allow the Job Development Authority to continue to expand its lending program to non-profit corporations for the construction of new industrial and manufacturing facilities. The loans have been incurred with relatively little risk to the state, and it is considered to be a successful program which has the general support of the business community.

OPPONENTS SAY: There is again the problem of increasing the state's total indebtedness, as discussed in the Economic Development Bond Issue proposition. Additionally, some of the loan moneys often go to firms that would have made the investment anyway, and thus few jobs are actually created.

Improvement of Employment Opportunities

This amendment would expand the power of the Job Development Authority allowing it to guarantee loans made by banks to eligible business facilities, to loan funds for the rehabilitation of existing facilities and to include all commercial facilities other than retail stores, apartment houses and hotels and motels.

SUPPORTERS SAY: The expansion of the Job Development Authority's powers is necessary to enable New York to offer the same benefits to business as other states. The loan guarantee provision will make it easier for firms to obtain bank loans required for financing in addition to moneys obtained from the Job Development Authority.

OPPONENTS SAY: Since banks will be guaranteed repayment under all circumstances, they would have no incentive to exercise discretion in granting loans. There would be no limit on the rate of interest for which the State would be liable. It can be further argued that the amendment is another attempt to circumvent the constitutional prohibition of direct State assistance to business.

Hicksville American Soccer Club

Wednesday, Oct. 26 saw the Hicksville G.O.P. meet Northport at Cantiague Field. The night was cool and the field muddy. The first half found Northport scoring 3 goals and Hicksville's Anthony Sgaraglio scoring a goal to make the score 3-1. In the second half, the team tried hard and, despite the mud, Peter Schnur and Larry Ziembecki each scored a goal to make the final score 3-3.

Saturday, Oct. 29 again at Cantiague Field, Hicksville met Cold Spring Harbor for their first league confrontation. The hero of the game was Ron Nakashian who scored the proverbial hat trick 3 goals. Hicksville won 3-0.

On Sunday, Oct. 30, Hicksville travelled to Cold Spring Harbor to make up a rained out game. In the first half Lloyd Sneddon scored on a rebound off the post. In the second half Ron Nakashian scored a goal from the left side. Defensively Robert Newlands and Fred Freyeisen really hustled and contributed more than their share to the victory. Both teams played good soccer which made it an enjoyable way to spend a fall afternoon.

NOTICE

The general meeting for all members will be held on Friday, November 4, at the Hicksville Public Library at 8 P.M. sharp. All are urged to attend this important meeting.

K of C Team

Saturday October 26th was a beautiful fall day and a great day for playing soccer. The K of C sponsored team played Farmingdale in their sixth game of the season and came away 4-1 winners. The first goal was scored by Dave Smyth on a free kick from the 20 yard line. A few minutes later Michael Lagnese gave Chris Habersaat a beautiful cross which Chris put away for the second goal. The second half was played against the wind but Mike Sini managed to take the ball down the wing on a pass from Smyth to score the goal which broke the 2-2 tie. David Bell put the final goal in the Farmingdale net to seal the win. This under 12 team, coached by Ollie Bell, is making its mark in the L.I. Junior Soccer League. Next weekend they meet Massapequa, which should be a great game to see.

Ice Hockey Season Opens On Nov. 7

The Town of Oyster Bay will mark the opening of its 12th annual ice hockey season with "Face Off Night" at the Plainview-Old Bethpage High School auditorium, Washington Avenue, on Monday, November 7, beginning at 8 P.M. it was announced by Town Councilman Joseph J. Salandino.

In a program headed by Town officials, the coaches and assistants of the more than 40 Tobey League and All Star teams will be introduced to the players and their families. Special guests for the evening will include Town Supervisor Joseph Colby; Dave Maloney and Don Murdock, defenseman and right wing for the New York Rangers; Bill Chadwick, former National Hockey League referee; and Ed Brody, editor of "Long Island Ice," a periodical focusing on youth hockey leagues on Long Island. Films of the 1977 Stanley Cup Playoffs will also be shown.

Tobey's ice hockey program, which is sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation, is the largest of its kind on Long Island. Founded in 1966 with about 250 players, the program has expanded to more than 40 teams and triple the membership. The teams compete on the Town's three ice rinks located in the Syosset-Woodbury, Bethpage and Marjorie R. Post (Massapequa) community parks.

Shep Messing At Barclays

On November 5 and November 12, Shep Messing, goalkeeper for the Cosmos Soccer Team, will be appearing at the new Jericho Office of Barclays Bank of New York. Shep, as part of Barclays' opening celebration will be conducting a mini-clinic, signing autographs and answering questions.

"We at Barclays think that Shep Messing, obviously a goal setter in addition to a goalkeeper, epitomizes the Barclays' image. Through discipline, knowledge and control, we want to bring the best banking services to the Long Island area," commented John Whicker, President of Barclays Bank of New York.

A Bowling Invitation

By Frieda Federal

This year, the Lee Avenue PTA Bowling League is celebrating its 14 year of bowling. We would like to invite you to join our league (it's never too late).

We meet every Tuesday at 9:45 a.m. at Mid Island Lanes where we share a couple of hours of fun and relaxation and at the same time we are helping our PTA and our children.

We have several mother-daughter combinations, sister and sister-in-laws. At the end of the year we hold our annual luncheon where we give out various awards.

So come on down. If you've never bowled before, we'll still be happy to have you with us.

Last year the most improved bowler award went to a woman who never bowled before ("her daughter talked her into bowling"). Last year's contribution to the PTA was over $700.

If you have any questions, please call me at 935-3087.

PAT QUINN of Hicksville High School's cross-country team was the individual winner in the North Shore's held at New York Tech's 3 mile course. Pat's winning time of 15:26 was 12 seconds better than the next runner.

Hicksville's 50 points placed second to a strong Bethpage's team 17 points. The top runners for Hicksville in the 16 team race were Bob Corrado, 6th place; Mike Dealy, 11th place; Bob Lanier, 13th place; and Tom Kellher, 19th place.

Where Comradship Carries On

This is one of the few times this year the meeting was opened and no new members were brought in. No doubt our Commander Vinnie Edwards was disappointed. Well you can't win them all.

It did seem a little different without any names being recommended for membership. While on the subject of membership, Vinnie's aim and a dream is to get our Post 100% before the year is out. We have over 80% of the dues in already, and it's always the last 20% that makes you work so hard to attain the goal. So please, if you haven't already done so, send in your dues as soon as possible. Make the task easier for every one, and it will make Vinnie very happy. It will make our Sr. Vice Augie Barone very happy too, because he is the new membership chairman, and the Post will again achieve it's 100% at an early date.

This is another repeat, Mike Znach reported again about the new cemetery in Calverton. You probably feel who is thinking of dying, when it's tough enough just staying alive, yet comes the day in the future, you or a member of your family might be looking for this information. Pinelawn will be filled in the next two or three months, so the Government has appropriated money. There will be 900 acres for burial purpose. They plan to have a portion ready by the time Pinelawn is filled.

Okay, so now we have the price on our Christmas party. The cost will be five dollars a head. It will be for members and their ladies. The date is Dec. 17th, the Childrens party will be the next day, the 18th. You should be getting a letter on that soon, if you haven't already received it. Again we say please give the sex and the ages of each child. It would be kind of silly for a seven year old getting a rattle or some other such inappropriate toy.

Our fund raising chairman, Max Bergsohn has come up with an idea for a trip to Hawaii, or a $1000 dollar prize. Okay so its a raffle. However, the limit is 500 hundred tickets to be sold, no more at $5.00 a chance. Out of 500 chances, its just a matter of who is the luckiest. If you are interested get in touch with Max, if he sees you first he'll probably grab you anyway. Remember first come, first serve, limit 500.

Our Ladies had their dance Sat. Oct. 29th. It was a fine affair. Carolann Fullerton was the chairlady, and a terrific job was done by all.

Incidentally, if you received any mail concerning G.I. Insurance dividends whether or not your policy is still in effect, don't believe it. It's a lot of hogwash. Just thought you might like to know. Sorry if you are disappointed.

John and Jan Alexander enjoy cafes in the Village, art galleries, winter vacations, two separate incomes and their two retirement accounts from Eastern Savings Bank.

No matter how big your family income is—even if you have two incomes like the Alexanders—you still have to be concerned about your retirement years. Because inflation, stock market fluctuations and unforeseen expenses can whittle down the funds you've set aside.

That's why Eastern offers you two safe, solid retirement plans—each with excellent tax-deferment benefits:

The Keogh Plan (which John Alexander has) is for people who are self-employed. It lets you set aside as much as 15% of your earned income (up to $7,500) in a high-interest savings account. But you don't pay any taxes on it until you retire—when your taxable income is less.

The Individual Retirement Account (which Jan Alexander has) is for people who work at a company that has no pension or profit-sharing plan. It lets you set aside as much as 15% of your earned income (up to $1,500—or up to $1,750 if you have a non-working spouse) each year. Tax-free until you retire!

To get all the details, stop in at any branch of Eastern Savings Bank. That way, you can enjoy the Eastern life now. And when you retire, too.

At Lee Ave. School

By Ted Savalas

Lee Avenue now has a weather station. You might have noticed some outdoor instruments on the peak of the north roof in front of the school. The indoor instruments are in my room (205).

I would like to feel that this station has a level of sophistication to provide us with short range forecasts and information vital to decisions about outdoor recess and recreation, to mention just one area of importance.

The weather station will be able to provide wind chill information so that, conceivably, the cold could be equal to 21° with the wind blowing at 15 MPH.

The weather station is also equipped to give temperature, barometric pressure, relative humidity, inches of precipitation, cloud formations, and wind speed and direction.

An open invitation will be extended to all grade levels to visit my class for instructions on the meaning and use of weather instruments and data.

Editorial We Believe In Teamwork

In the race for Nassau County Executive, all polls show Republican-Conservative Francis T. Purcell running ahead of his Democrat-Liberal opponent, Irwin Landes. Purcell's lead, in fact, appears to have widened since Assemblyman Landes recently admitted that "due to personal financial losses", he hasn't paid any federal income taxes in years and didn't file a state tax form for three years.

That admission, made reluctantly by an elected official whose total annual income is more than $75,000, is incredible.

Thousands of voters are now asking: "How can Landes, who doesn't pay taxes, understand the problems of the average Nassau homeowner?" Others are wondering: "If Landes has such difficulties handling his own affairs, is he really competent to make decisions affecting our county services and tax rates for the next four years?" These are legitimate questions in this election, and we can imagine the embarrassment they now pose for Landes.

We hope, however, that voters won't lose sight of the fact that Town of Oyster Bay Supervisor Joseph Colby and his Republican teammates, Councilmen Hogan, Diamond and Saladino, have had a lot more going for them in this campaign. On both town and county levels, they have demonstrated that they are "close to the people" on many issues which impact on the quality of life here in Nassau County and in the Town of Oyster Bay. They have done much to keep our town and county taxes from soaring during a period of extreme fiscal pressure, including severe cutbacks in federal and state aid.

Both Purcell and Colby have used their voting power on the Nassau Board of Supervisors to eliminate a number of unnecessary and expensive programs and projects. This cut millions out of the county budget, and it was reflected in our county tax rate. They also helped put a rein on county hiring, and served as advocates of a strong Nassau Police force to insure the safety of our homes and streets.

Fran Purcell, Joseph Colby and the Republican team have always been staunch supporters of Home Rule, which is so important to the protection of local zoning laws guaranteeing our County's suburban atmosphere.

Keeping taxes down, fiscal integrity, preserving Nassau's life-style. These are big issues in this campaign, and they explain why the polls show voters like Purcell and his Republican team in county and town government. We do, too, and we urge that you vote Row 'B' all the way on Election Day, giving your support also to M. Hallsted Christ for County Comptroller and Gregory Peterson for Nassau District Attorney.

As Mr. Purcell noted recently: "The continued fiscal integrity of our county requires teamwork. To do the best job possible for Nassau taxpayers, I hope we can score a team victory on Election Day."

We hope so, too.

Haunted House Lives On

Held over, due to popular demand, the Nassau March of Dimes announced an extension of its spectacular Haunted House in the Mids Island Shopping Plaza in Hicksville, which was originally scheduled to close Halloween night, October 31st. The giant fund-raiser (and hair-raiser) will be open weekends beginning Friday, November 4th in order to accommodate the many people who are requesting that the "House" remain open to visitors.

This unique attraction has proven to be tremendously popular, drawing thousands of people from all over Long Island, as well as the entire metropolitan area during its two-week run. Over $17,000 has been raised to date by the event. A $1.50 donation per person is the admission price for those who dare to enter the unknown world behind the eerie facade located amidst the other storefronts in the Mid Island Plaza. Plaza officials are generously extending to the March of Dimes the use of the donated store space, and the many volunteers and actors are eagerly signing up to continue spooking audiences.

ALL HAUNTED HOUSE proceeds go toward the March of Dimes battle against birth defects. New weekend witching hours are: Fridays: 6:00 pm - 10:00 pm, Saturdays: 11:00 am - 5:00 pm and 6:00 pm - 10:00 pm, and Sundays: 12:00 pm until 5:00 pm.

For further information and details about special group rates, call the March of Dimes at 741-4045 or the HAUNTED HOUSE at 681-1601.

Church Women United

It is with a great deal of pride and pleasure that we can tell you that Gov. Carey has declared October 30 to November 5th CHURCH WOMEN UNITED WEEK.

There are fourteen units of C.W.U. in Nassau county, the name of the local unit in this area is called the East Nassau Unit. There are 12 churches of all denominations from Hicksville, Levittown, Plainview, Bethpage, Farmingdale who gather in Christ Name for worship and service to their community.

On November 4, Friday, at 8 P.M. St. Stephen's church will host WORLD COMMUNITY DAY. EVERYONE is welcome. Please join in the fun of seeing a balloon rise up and go on its journey - proclaiming the finder of the message inside of that balloon, a recipient of a GOOD NEWS BIBLE.

So be on the alert for a balloon carrying inside the message that CHURCH WOMEN UNITED want to give the joy of knowing the Lord to not only the one who finds it, but to all who would like to join us and help to do our Father's will. We are waiting to hear from you.

See you W.C.D. at St. Stephens Lutheran Church on Broadway in Hicksville. There is no charge, and there will be dessert served.

GEBHARDT PLAZA
cluded representatives of surrounding Fire Departments and county fire associations.

Hicksville Chief Roy Schaaf spoke of the love his brother firemen held for him. Gebby as he was known to his friends, loved to talk about the good old days in Hicksville. Chief Schaaf said the nick name "Gabbby" would also have been a good one for Henry. Ex-chief Medard Ofenloch, who spoke in behalf of protection H.C.L. Co. No. 1, put it best when he mentioned that the recent world series saw Babe Ruths long standing record fall to Reggie Jackson, but, he said, the record of Henry Gebhardt will never be beaten.

The Town proclamation was presented to Henry Gebhardt's daughters, Marion Braun and Ruth Sauer. The grandchildren, great grand children were also present. Benediction and a short speech was given by Father Kenney, the Nassau County Firemen's Chaplain. Town councilman Tom Clark served as MC. Special thanks go to the Jr. High School Band directed by Harry Gates, and the St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps who provided some entertainment.

Others present were fire commissioners Foley, Munch, Mrs. Carole Wolf, community president, Herald editor, Mrs. Sheila Noeth and members of the Hicksville Fire Dept. It was a beautiful day. Following the ceremonies the sign changing took place to honor Henry A. Gebhardt, distinguished citizen, fireman extraordinary. As chief Schaaf said in his closing remarks, it was a shame Henry couldn't have been present. He would have been thrilled by it all.
