Hicksville Fire Dept. Open House, Dec. 4, Sun-

By Ex-Capt. Owen Magee
 The Hicksville Fire Dept. will host annual Holiday Open House, Fire Prevention Program, on Sunday, Dec. 4, at Fire Station No. 1, Gebhardt Plaza (formerly E. Marie St.) between the hours of 2-5 p.m. Santa will be on hand to greet visitors and will have a free gift for the kiddies.

The purpose of the Open House is to make aware to our local residents the importance of fire prevention and fire safety - knowing what to do if fire does strike. Many fires in Hicksville are preventable. There has been an excessive number of electrical fires, which are very dangerous, in that many times they are hidden in walls and ceilings. Many are preventable by not overloading circuits, by not using cheap extension cords, multi-cube taps, etc.

There will be apparatus displays, fire equipments demonstrations, and displays such as the Hurst Rescue Tool, high expansion foam units, Probeye infrared heat detector, and the Paramedics will be on hand to demonstrate their equipment. There will be information on smoke detectors - another life-saver. Dress warm, as the line to get in is long at times. So be prepared! Come on down - you could learn a few tips that could save your home and your life.

Fire At Mid Island Plaza

A fire, believed to have been caused by electrical wiring shorting was found in the space above the ceiling near the National Shirt Shop on the Mall. Vamps on the scene stated had the fire gone undetected an hour or so more it might have become a major blaze.

Hicksville firefighters were called out at 8:03 p.m. Sat., Nov. 26.

Vamps using their newest piece of fire detection equipment - the Probeye Infrared Heat Detector and some additional sniffing, members located the hidden fire. Some wood beams were burned but the damage was very slight if at all. In a future issue we will do a feature story on the Probeye Unit, the only one of its kind on Long Island and most of the Eastern Seaboard. The device which was quite expensive has paid for itself several times over picking out hidden fires.

Fire Report

Hicksville firefighters responded to 33 alarms during the period of Nov. 20 through Nov. 26. There was 3 malicious false alarms, 12 fire calls, and 18 rescue calls. The 3 false alarms all came from Box 114, Bond Lane and Belfry Lane, a frequent false alarm location.

To prevent further waste of taxpayer money, possible accidents with responding apparatus the box was put out of service till such time as its feasible to restore it to service. So far this year 152 M.F.A. have been received. About 50 per cent has come from street located boxes, the remainder from the district's public school system. Anyone who witnesses a false alarm being turned in or any tampering with alarm boxes, please call the Fire Dispatcher at 931-0026, immediately. The malicious false alarm is a drain on hard earned tax money and is a safety threat to fireman and citizen alike. Your cooperation is appreciated.

News From The Galileo Lodge By Joe Lorenzo

Any organization, in order to reach it's peak, needs men and women whose performance goes far beyond what is normally expected of them.

Two such men are Ralph Vestuti and Anthony Previte, two stalwarts of the Galileo Lodge.

Ralph Vestuti, the Treasurer of the Lodge, handles all financial matters and problems which, when one considers the hundreds of members who belong to this organization, are very similar to those connected with a fair-sized business. This means of course, that the Galileo Lodge has to be run accordingly. The bills, mortgage, taxes, public utilities, etc. have to be taken care of. Financial ledgers and bank balances have to be in order as well, and all this means that thousands of dollars run thru his hands monthly. Responsibility is heavy and exactness is mandatory. Needless to say Ralph Vestuti handles all these conditions well.

But such a role is not enough for Ralph Vestuti. He still finds time to serve on many committees of the Lodge, and, I might mention, that he attends practically every affair held by this organization. He is modest, unassuming and very dedicated. The Galileo Lodge is fully cognizant of his remarkable record, which it certainly commends. Then again, how can any organization repay such unstinting devotion?

Another member of the Lodge, Anthony Previte, it's second Assistant Venerable and former Orator, ranks with the very best the Galileo Lodge has. He has a fine scholastic background and is about to receive his Doctorate very shortly. His role in the Galileo Lodge just about defies description. Anthony Previte is completely civic-minded and this is revealed by the amount of time he spends with the Hicksville community and it's relationship with the Galileo Lodge.

Anthony Previte is prominent in the affairs of the Hicksville school board, the Hicksville fraternal business and civic organizations, and his role in the Bicentennial program was certainly prominent. He is active in Columbus Day Parades, Christmas parties for handicapped children, and social and cultural programs in the community. He was responsible for the formulation of our by-laws. He has served on many committees and participated in many affairs held by the Galileo Lodge. His guidance and interest in the

LODGE HAPPENINGS

Christmas Parties for handicapped children and those of Lodge members to be held December 2, at the Lodge ... December 3rd the Lodge will hold it's Christmas Dance. Tickets are $7.50 per person ... New Years party will also be held at Lodge.

Social Security Information

QUES: I haven't worked since I retired a year ago at 65. My social security check is $225 a month, which adds up to $2,700 a year. But if I return to work, how much could I earn before losing all my benefits?

ANS: If you work and earn over $3,000 for 1977, you will lose $1 of benefits for each $2 in earnings over $3,000. Assuming you would earn about the same each month, you could earn over $8,000 for the year before no benefits would be payable to you for that year. But no matter how much you earn for the year, you can get your full social security check for any month you neither earn as much as $250 nor do substantial work in your own business.

Holiday Safety Measures Are Important

Reflections of colored lights bounce off the sparkling ornaments that hang from the tree. All is well with the world, and you feel safe and secure.

And you will be safe if you take a few precautions before you sit back and enjoy the holidays.

Every year fires and severe electric shocks from holiday decorations end the season abruptly for thousands of Americans. Sports and recreation equipment and toys - great holiday gifts - also increase the injury toll if they are not selected and used with care.

The following accidents were taken from the files of the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission. The names are fictitious, the facts are true.

A malfunctioning Christmas tree lights threw off sparks that ignited the presents and carpets underneath the tree in the Fisher home. Lorraine tried to put out the fire, but it spread rapidly through two floors of her apartment building, causing $250,000 in damage. Some residents had to jump off their balconies to escape the smoke and fire.

Six-month-old Jack fell onto his toy truck. The metal prongs on the truck penetrated his skull and had to be removed at a hospital emergency room. He was hospitalized for two days.

Thirteen-year-old Peter Daly was permanently paralyzed from his waist down when he fell off his skateboard after it hit a rise in the sidewalk.

To help you prevent such accidents and keep your holiday season joyful, the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission offers these safety suggestions.

TREES

A dry tree is a fire hazard, so before you buy a cut tree, check it for freshness. The needles on a fresh tree will blend, needles on a dry tree feel brittle and break or fall off when you try to bend them. When you bring your tree home, cut the butt end of diagonally one or two inches from the bottom. The diagonal cut allows more water to be absorbed into the tree. Make sure the tree is held securely in a sturdy tree stand. Fill the tree stand with enough water to completely cover the cut line and check it every day to make sure there is plenty of water in it.

Set your tree up away from the fireplace, heat vents, and other heat sources. And make sure it is not in a heavy traffic area where someone could knock it over or fall into it.

LIGHTS AND DECORATIONS

Before you put the tree lights on, check the strings for frayed or exposed wiring, loose connections, and broken or cracked sockets. Throw out or carefully

Pistol License

The Nassau County Police Department is requesting county residents who hold a Nassau County pistol license expiring December 31, 1977, to file their applications for renewal early.

Deputy Inspector James Kinney, Commanding Officer, Records Bureau, said, "The renewals have been slow coming in so we are urging prompt filing to avoid delay and inconvenience due to heavy holiday mails." Kinney also noted that licensees should be aware that the failure to file renewal application prior to their expiration is cause for revocation of the pistol license.

For additional information or assistance, call the Police Records Bureau at 535-5163.

repair any damaged sets. Replace burned out bulbs before you put the strings on the tree, so you don't have to stretch to some hard-to-reach place later. Be careful not to overload extension cords and wall sockets.

Never decorate metal trees with electric lights. This could present a severe shock hazard. Instead, use a colored spotlight to light up the tree.

When you put on the ornaments, remember to place the delicate glass ornaments high on the tree, out of the reach of children and pets. And don't use lighted candles to decorate your tree; they can easily start a fire. For outdoor lighting, make sure the lights are designed and clearly marked for outdoor use. As with the indoor tree lights, check the strings carefully before you set them up outside. Always turn off and unplug your holiday lights, inside and outside, when you leave the house or go to bed.

The Consumer Product Safety Commission has put together a checklist for toys and recreational equipment for your convenience.

TOYS

Keep the child's age, interests, and skill level in mind, especially when you buy toys for pre-schoolers.

Look for well-constructed toys. Make sure there are no sharp edges or points on the toys.

Check for small, loosely attached parts - including buttons - that can be pulled off and swallowed.

Avoid toys that produce excessive noise that can damage hearing and propelled objects that can injure eyes.

Electrical toys with heating elements should only be bought for children over 8 years of age.

Remember that adult supervision can prevent accidents.

SPORTS AND RECREATION EQUIPMENT

Select equipment that is right for the age, size and interest of the person. A child could lose control, for instance, of too large a bicycle that he is supposed to "grow into."

Look for well-built equipment. Buy protective gear for competitive sports.

SKATEBOARDS

Look for a well-constructed skateboard. Make sure both the wheels and trucks (connects wheel and boards) are properly secured.

They should be checked regularly during use.

Beginners should practice the basics before trying tricky maneuvers.

Never skateboard in the street or around cars.

Wear tennis shoes, long pants and a long-sleeve shirt. Even better, dress like skateboarders do: elbow pads, knee pads, heavy gloves and helmet.

The following safety tips are for specific winter sports equipment:

SKI EQUIPMENT

Equipment must be properly fitted, adjusted and maintained. The beginner should rely on a reputable ski shop for fit and adjustment.

The ski boot should fit well into the binding. To avoid a mismatch, take the boots along when you purchase bindings at a ski shop.

SNOWMOBILES

When you buy, look for: Guards for the drive chain and all other moving parts.

Adequate padding on the dash, steering bar, and back end of the seat.

A snowflap in back to keep snow off the tail light.

A windshield which does not have a sharp edge that the driver could hit on collision.

A built-in emergency shut-off switch that is easy to reach.

Shielding around exhaust pipes and other high temperature engine parts to protect you from burns.

When you use a snowmobile, wear warm, windproof protective clothing, including snowmobile-type mittens and two inner-liner boots. A safety helmet and goggles are necessary.

SEDS, TOBOGGANS, AND SNOW DISKS

Check for sturdy construction. Look for secure handholds.

Avoid equipment with sharp, jagged edges and protruding rivets.

Look for an energy-absorbing pad for the seat of toboggans. Check sleds for easy steering without jamming.

If you want further information, or wish to report a product hazard or a product-related injury, write to the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, Washington, DC 20207. In the continental United States, call the toll-free safety hotline 800-638-2666. Maryland residents only, call 800-492-2937.

Guest Editor

Daniel P. Guido, Commissioner Nassau County Police

For your protection special patrols will be instituted by the Nassau County Police Department for the month of December in an effort to impact the incidence of burglaries and robberies during the holiday season.

These patrols will consist of unmarked police cars, each manned by two (2) plain-clothed officers. They will give special attention to areas where increased criminal activity is anticipated.

The patrols will go into effect starting Saturday, December 3, 1977, and will continue to operate until January 1, 1978.

Chief of Operations Charles E. Spahr has arranged for the cars to patrol in "close proximity" to each other and to maintain communications through normal radio channels and by the use of walkie-talkies.

In addition, the Bureau of Special Operations will maintain close liaison with precincts and detective squads so as to make more manpower available in critical situations.

To further enhance the effectiveness of the patrols, "maximum use" will be made of electronic sensing crime deterrent equipment in robbery prone locations and in industrial and commercial locations.

Dear Friends:

Though you may be shopping for thermal underwear, it's the right time to think of summertime picnics at Eisenhower Park. Reservations for 1978's crop of group picnics will be accepted as of 9 a. m. on Tuesday, January 3 at the Eisenhower Park Field House near parking field No. 2. Only parties of 100 or more need reservations. Other picnickers use areas of the park where reservations are not required.

Last year, over 800 companies, fraternal organizations and other large groups reserved for picnics in Eisenhower Park. In accordance with Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks rules, 75 percent of the picnickers in any group must be Nassau County residents and the person applying must have a valid Leisure Pass. Reservations for spots under the cedars, maples, scarlet oaks or other designated sector of the park will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis daily from 9 a. m. to 4:45 p. m.

As you read this issue of your community newspaper, you will note that the officials we have elected to serve on our Town Board are wasting no time, getting down to business. For example... "New Guidelines for Political Activity at Town Parks and Beaches" (hearing on Tues., Jan 10)... "No Public Drinking Allowed in TOB"... "Consider Increase In Garbage Disposal Charges" (hearing, Dec. 20), etc. etc. If you wish to testify at any of these hearings, get in touch with the Board at WA 2-5800 and they will tell you how.

The 1977 Rockefeller Center Christmas tree will be lighted during the traditional outdoor ceremonies to be held on Monday, Dec. 5 from 7:30 to 8 pm. A half hour of entertainment - singing, skating, dancing and music - will precede the moment when the 45th annual Rockefeller Center Christmas tree is lighted in its place of honor on Rockefeller Plaza overlooking the skate pond. Alton G. Marshall, president of Rockefeller Center, Inc., and a group of youngsters will push the button to light the tree at the conclusion of the program which will be telecast live and in color over WNBC-TV, Channel 4, on Dec. 5, from 7:30 to 8 pm.

The Nassau County Council of the Nassau-Suffolk Health Systems Agency, Inc. (NS-HSA) is seeking membership applications from both consumers and providers of health services. Applications are being accepted for membership categories including: health councils, health and mental health facilities, government, veterans organizations, youth groups and others. This Nassau County Council is an 80-member advisory body which provides the HSA Board with county perspectives on various health issues. The HSA recommends to state and federal officials what needs to be done in the region to improve health while restraining costs. Interested applicants should contact the Nassau-Suffolk Health Systems Agency at 560 Borad Hollow Road (Route 110), in Melville, New York 11736, or phone for further information 752-1700.

In preparation for the natural ice skating season which officially begins today, Dec. 1, for a three-month period at several Nassau County parks, employees involved in this program received a basic CPR review and instruction in first aid procedures from Bob Ingolia, Emergency Medical Technician, instructor.

On December 5th our friends of the Jewish Faith, begin their Chanukah celebration. We wish them "Happy Holiday"

THAT'S ALL for this week. Stay well and remember the old Indian saying, "May your moccasins make happy tracks along many trails, and may the rainbow always touch your shoulder."

"Viewpoints" Of Parasites And Fools

"GET INVOLVED." That's the noble war cry for free enterprise as business leaders big and small, all over the country climb aboard their soap boxes to denounce government control and bureaucratic overkill. They speak, not from positions of strength, but from a weakness that has developed from three decades of indifference and apathy on the part of all businessmen. There is a kind of mood among them that depicts a hopeless fear that now it may well be too late and that capitalism has indeed demised. Their pleas for involvement are quite meaningful; however, as they beg for businessmen to become politically motivated to do something positive within the system that can lead to the rejuvenation of free enterprise.

Let's face facts. Free enterprise, as we know it, will never return. It is now and shall henceforth be known by what it is - Regulated Enterprise. The extent of de-regulating business is then what our involvement must really be all about. The challenge is to swing the pendulum from the far left back to the right as far as possible. But don't for a minute believe it will ever be as it was. And government (the elected) cannot shoulder all the blame because, for the most part, it is responsive to action and pressure. For years, while businessmen chased profits and ignored the system that made those profits possible, unions were practicing the fine art of political power, lawmakers were passing law after law, bureaucrats were building a seemingly indestructible empire, Ralph Nader captured the money-market of consumers and parasites captured the money-market of "something for nothing" from our government. All the while we ignored the danger signs and simply passed our own increased cost to the consumer. All the while we ignored pleas to get involved because we were simply "too busy."

As we went on socializing, others were acting boldly, we finally awoke to what we had done to ourselves. We now can honestly take our fair share of the blame, Ralph Nader isn't really so wrong all the time, simply over-zealous. And the businessmen hasn't been right all the time, just sloppy. His code of ethics of the past was simply to just do enough to get by. It was an era of "bayer beware" and on with those profits. That indeed has changed.

So today our leaders extoll the virtues of political involvement as the salvation of capitalism. With that, they are right on target. However, many are inspirational to the point where they get us worked into a frenzy, but then neglect to tell us how to channel our energies into constructive action.

If you really want to get politically involved, the first step is to make a personal commitment that you will want to work for your party and causes. Then simply call your precinct committeeman and then volunteer. That's where it all begins.

Also, get to know your local state and federal legislators and communicate with them. They will welcome your involvement. In fact, if you believe in them raise funds for their campaigns.

But if you really want to make a commitment, then seek and run for public office yourself. Those who are now in office are simply there because they've wanted it more than anyone else and they've worked hard to get there. If you really want it, then sooner or later you'll get it. Persistence pays off.

Simply make a commitment to give a little back to the greatest system in the world. It really works. It rewards the active ones and punishes those who are apathetic. The real tragedy is that if businessmen won't take the time to preserve at least a balanced system, then the net result will most certainly and soon be a society of pure socialism.

Then we begin our total reliance on a government that has something for everybody at a cost to nobody. THAT'S A PARADISE FOR PARASITES CREATED BY FOOLS.

Editor's Note: And you and I know who the hard-working fools are who will pay for such socialism.

At The Town Board Meeting

By Gerry Kahn

A 56-item calendar faced those present at the Town Board Meeting held on Tuesday, Nov. 29th.

The prospect of a long day was diminished as the three Hearings were completed by 7:15 and after a slight recess the formal business and informal discussion that followed concluded at 12:40.

The first item on the agenda was a petition by Chrisna Restaurant Corp. for a Special Use Permit to increase its seating capacity from 109 to 134 at the Village of Sea Cliff at Glen Head.

Jeffrey Forcelli, counsel for the petitioner, presented the case before the Board. Mrs. Ruth Biro questioned whether there would be a change in the existing tennis courts. There wouldn't be.

There was no opposition to the petition. John Marcin was the attorney for the petitioner Boe Sure Distributors, Inc., the second item before the Board.

The request was for a Special Use Permit for the operation and maintenance of premises for retail and wholesale sales and storage of automobile tires, parts and accessories and the installation of three signs at premises located on the n s Old Country Rd. E. S of Newton Rd. in PLAINVIEW.

The Board led by Supervisor Colby and Councilman Mosca ran the applicant through the ringer with a multitude of questions. They ranged from the number of employees, hours of operation, type of signs and whether or not any form of mechanical work was to be performed on the site.

Councilman Mosca's main concern was that if a retail business was permitted in an industrial zone how could the Town prevent proliferation of retail business along the entire industrial strip on Old Country Rd.

A representative of Mergenthaler questioned the parking and signs and indicated an objection if the signs facing its administrative offices were lighted and offensive.

Decision of the Board was reserved.

The third item was a petition by John W. Merende to modify restrictive covenants to permit the removal of a model house and the erection of two new model homes for display on the s e corner of Old Country Rd. and East Ave. in HICKSVILLE.

There were no objections to the petition. Decision of the Board was reserved.

Among the 53 resolutions that completed the calendar, the following were of local interest.

Set Hearing
A resolution was approved directing the Town Clerk to advertise notices of hearing relative to proposed amendment to Chapter 2, "Administration" of the Code of Ordinances of the Town of Oyster Bay, by amending Section 21 to authorize the Supervisor to review employee travel requests. The Hearing date has been set for Jan. 10, 1978.

Set Hearing
A resolution was approved directing the Town Clerk to advertise notice of hearing relative to proposed amendment to Chapter 19, "Parks and Recreation" of the Code of Ordinances of the Town of Oyster Bay, by adding new section 19-29, providing the guidelines for engaging in political activity in parks and recreation areas relating to the control of lettering. The Hearing date has been set for Jan. 10, 1978.

"Inside Nassau"

Nassau County Press Service
By Michael Bux

Everyone is entitled to one. The United States Constitution guarantees it to anyone accused of a crime. It is the chance to be heard by 12 of your peers and every week 2,000 Nassau residents get the opportunity to participate in the process.

According to Karl Danker, the Commissioner of Jurors 2,000 residents in this county each week get qualifying summonses which requires them to appear at the county courthouse in Mineola. Their name is then put into a drum and 1,200 people are called for possible jury duty. Those 1,200 people then received a trial juror subpoena and must plan to spend about two weeks either waiting around the State Supreme Court Building in Mineola to be called for jury duty or actually sitting on a jury itself.

"There is no definite time a person will have to spend fulfilling this obligation," notes Mr. Danker. "If the court calendar is light he may be dismissed after a week. If the calendar seems to be crowded officials may decide to hold an extra number of jurors around in the event they are needed. Also a person may be picked for a trial that lasts three months. There is really no way of telling."

Each court in the county judicial system makes a request for a certain number of jurors each day and names are then picked at random from a drum in the central jury room.

For many would be jurors waiting to be called to sit on a jury is a long boring vigil in a large auditorium in the State Supreme Court Building. Many watch television, read, and some make new friends. When one is called by a particular court for possible service they are screened by both the complainant and defense. If both sides decide they want either Mr. or Mrs. Nassau to sit on their jury they then become part of the 12 person panel.

"It really gets frustrating when a person is finally picked but never hears the case," says Mr. Danker. Both sides may decide to settle the case out of court.

The county uses lists ranging from the telephone book to voter registrations to call those 2,000 people a week. So if you are a United States citizen, a Nassau resident, and between the ages of 18 and 76, and have not been called in the last two years for jury duty you are eligible. In addition a person must be mentally and physically sound before he can serve on a jury.

"The two year period will change on January 1, 1978," says Mr. Danker, "and the law does not specify how many times a person can be called."

Even though a citizen is called for jury duty it does not mean he has to serve immediately. If he explains to the jury official that for some hardship reason he cannot serve at that time he can have his availability postponed.

There is a long list of people who do not have to serve on a jury and they range from medical doctors to military personnel.

Those who do make themselves available to serve are paid $7 a day, and ten cents a mile for travel, to and from their home. Most companies pay employees for the time they spend on jury duty and more and more unions are making this a requirement of their union contract.

County Board Of Supervisors Meeting

Nassau County Press Service
By Michael Bux

The county board of supervisors on Monday, Nov. 28, approved the dispersal of state and federal funds for the Department of Drug and Alcohol Addiction.

In the Mid-Island area there are drug abuse programs like Help Aid Direction in Hicksville, and SCAN Syosset Concern About Narcotics.

The latest appropriation is part of a county budget that has risen from $1,460,000 in 1970 to $9,414,000 in 1976 for drug abuse programs.

In 1967 a commission was set up in Nassau to study the need for drug abuse programs, and today there are 79 agencies providing drug abuse treatment and family services throughout the county.

Ten years ago there were communities in Nassau who recognized local drug problems and began their own agencies to deal with them.

Then in 1972 the commission was turned into a formal county department and now it works with local agencies to set up their own programs. Before the county recognized the drug problem in 1967 local groups like the Parents Teachers' Association set up agencies such as the Hot Line to deal with their drug problems.

When the county entered the picture in 1967 it helped these local groups get the professional advice they needed to maintain successful ongoing drug programs.

Legal Aid

Nassau County Press Service
By Michael Bux

At the County Board of Supervisors meeting on Nov. 28, County Judges Henderson Morrison, and Alfred Robbins, as well as John Chamberlain are expected to ask the panel to empower the Commissioner Of Accounts to determine if a criminal defendant is entitled to legal aid.

Currently the Legal Aid Society conducts an investigation to find out if a defendant should receive free or reduced Legal cost. But an overcrowded court calendar has been overburdened while it waits for a determination on the defendant's eligibility. Also a number of defendants who could afford to pay an attorney's fee have been applying for free legal help.

There are an average of 150 cases on the criminal docket each day and a large percentage of the defendants involved in them request the county to provide legal assistance.

If the new plan is adopted a defendant wishing legal help would be interviewed by the commission who would determine his eligibility.

"The Commissioner of Accounts has subpoena powers," says Judge Morrison, "and if they suspect that he is lying about his finances they can check further into the matter without taking a lawyer's time."

Under the present system a defendant must fill out a questionnaire supplied by the Legal Aid Society before he can receive help. With the proposed method the commission would execute a quick screening process.

Before the Legal Aid Society was started in the early 1960s a defendant who requested legal help he would meet informally with an attorney who would decide whether or not he wanted to represent him.

Often however it was not until an attorney had worked on a defendant's case was it discovered that he had the capacity to pay a full fee.

"The lawyer would then ask the court for permission to be relieved from the case," says Judge Morrison, "and that would only delay the criminal system more."

Judge Morrison, now an administrative court judge noted that there were also abuses of the former system by attorneys.

"A number of them hung around the courthouse waiting for work like this," says Judge Morrison, "that pretty much constituted ambulance chasing."

Then in the 1960s Supreme Court decisions created a mood of social reform in American which laid the groundwork for the formation of a Legal Aid Society. Yet according to Judge Morrison, the Supreme Court did not supply the mechanics for the implementation of the system, and as a consequence abuses arose.

"Everyone these days knows they have the right to free counsel if they don't really have the ability to pay," points out Judge Morrison, "and the ability to pay is really the question we want to clear up once and for all."

If a defendant is charged with a criminal offense and has an income of $10,000 that does not automatically mean that he would not be able to obtain free or reduced legal fees from the society.

"He may have $100,000 in debts," says the judge, "but we just want to be certain that this is the matter so that we can proceed as quickly as possible with the justice system."

Volunteers Help Gregory Museum

Through the efforts of Irwin Botto, Botto Mechanical Corp., Robert J. Friedberg, Business Manager - Local No. 457, and Fred Formica, Business Agent - Local No. 457, plumbing apprentices spent a day working at The Gregory Museum in Hicksville.

The apprentices worked under the direction of Bruce Washeim, Senior Instructor, and Eugene Moravec, foreman for Botto Mechanical Corp.

A new hot water heater was installed and faucets and a drain installed in the mineral laboratory. A hot water line was installed in the crawl space to the hot water faucet in the first floor rest room. In addition, the outside faucet was replaced.

The following apprentices donated their time and skills on a beautiful sunny Saturday: Danny Grodotzke, Jerry Crennan, James LaLima, Tommy Sullivan and Harry Ammon.

Through the efforts of the above, full use can now be made of the mineral identification laboratory. Visitors and staff have hot water to wash their hands.

Volunteer workers and donations of money and material made possible the conversion of the former Heitz Place Court House to house The Gregory Museum.

"The number of volunteer workers at the Museum has decreased somewhat. Community support is necessary if the Museum is to continue serving children and adults by making them aware of the beauty, wonder, and value of "Nature's" gifts to mankind," said a spokesperson for the Museum.

"We thank all those who have helped in so many ways, to make our community museum possible," they concluded.

If you wish to volunteer your help, the Museum's phone number is 822-7505. They'll be happy to discuss the details with you and to discover just where you, as a community volunteer, can fit onto the Gregory Museum team. Why not give them a ring?

Lowian Wins L.I. "Dream House"

Sunday, November 27th, marked the day of a most exhilarating experience for Debbie Underwood, that's the day that thousands and thousands in the Nassau-Suffolk area had expectantly awaited.

The 27th marked the culmination of one years work that was started by the Long Island Builders Institute and its members, in the form of donated materials, services, and labor to build the "Dream House". Upon completion of construction and decoration, the "Dream House" was donated to the Nassau-Suffolk Heart Assn. to raise funds for their worthy cause. This concept was a "first" to anyone's knowledge.

A special reception for donors and volunteers was held at the Colonie Hill prior to the public viewing of the drawing for the lucky winner.

The winner - Debbie Underwood - was vacationing on Long Island when she purchased her book of tickets. She now resides in a small project apartment in Sioux City, Iowa. It is not certain when or if Mrs. Underwood will move into her new, beautiful mortgage free, 3 bedroom ranch, fully equipped, in Lake Grove. Mrs. Underwood is divorced, 26 years old and has a six year old daughter, who is as thrilled as her mother with the new home prize.

"TO VISIT L.I. IS TO BE A WINNER": (l. to r.) Joseph Weinstein (Plainview), Nassau Chairman of Raffle Committee of the American Heart Association; Richard Battista, pro bowling champ and heart transplant recipient; Thomas Junor, (Melville) Exec. Vice President of the L. I. Builders Institute (who built and donated the "Dream Home"); Dr. Rudolfo Domingo, (Bay Shore) President of Suffolk Heart Association; and Dr. Stanley Youdelman, (Fort Salonga) Board member of Suffolk Heart Association; line up after Battista picked the winning ticket for the $50,000 "Dream Home". The raffle was held at a cocktail reception at Colonie Hill on Sunday, Nov. 27th.

Winner of the house is Ms. Debbie Underwood of Sioux City, Iowa who was visiting our fair island in October and purchased her winning ticket at the Nassau Coliseum, proving that - "TO VISIT L.I. IS TO BE A WINNER."

It's a happy ending and a new beginning for Debbie Underwood who took a $1 chance ticket on a "Dream House" for a "Dream Come True"

Guidelines For Political Activities At Town Parks & Beaches

New regulations establishing guidelines for political activities in Town parks, beaches and other recreation areas will be considered at a public hearing before the Oyster Bay Town Board on Tuesday, January 10, 1978.

"The proposed regulations are intended to protect equally the rights of all candidates for political office as well as the rights of the Townspeople patronizing our recreational facilities," Town Supervisor Joseph Colby said. "We also want to control the litter problem from political literature at these facilities."

The proposed amendment to the Code of Ordinances specifies that existing ordinances, rules and regulations shall prevail regarding the admittance of anyone to such facilities for political activities. Candidates at beaches and parks are to conduct themselves "in an orderly manner" and not annoy or inconvenience other patrons or cause littering.

The regulations would be stricter at swimming pool facilities. Persons not dressed for bathing would not be allowed on the decks or walks immediately adjacent to the pools, and the distribution of any political material would be strictly prohibited in the pool areas.

The hearing will be held at 10 AM in the Hearing Room, Town Hall East Building, Oyster Bay.

A Reminder To TOB Dog Owners

Oyster Bay Town Clerk Ann Ocker reminded all dog owners that the license for their pets must be renewed by January 1, 1978, according to New York State law.

"The applications for the 1978 licenses are being mailed out this week by the Nassau County Police Department to all dog owners of record," Mrs. Ocker said.

New dog owners can obtain the necessary license application forms at the Town Clerk's office in Town Hall, Oyster Bay, or at either of the Town Hall annexes. The license fee is $2.35 for males and spayed females, and $5.35 for unspayed females. The Town Hall annexes are located at 65 Broadway, Hicksville, and 95 Grand Avenue, Massapequa.

TOB To Consider Increase In Garbage Disposal Charges

An increase in fees charged to private carters, villages and school districts for solid waste disposal will be the subject of a public hearing before the Oyster Bay Town Board on Tuesday, December 20, at 10 AM. The increase would be from $9 per ton to $11 per ton and bring the rates in line with new rates that the Towns of Hempstead and North Hempstead will adopt as of January 1, 1978.

"For the past several years, the three Nassau Towns have maintained uniform waste disposal rates to discourage 'out-of-town' refuse being attracted to any one Town's disposal facility because of a lower disposal fee," Town Supervisor Joseph Colby explained. "Hempstead and North Hempstead have notified us of their planned increases in fees to cover increased operating and maintenance costs, so we really don't have any alternative."

If adopted by the Town Board, it can be expected that the new rates would go into effect early in 1978.

Christian Women's Club

The Nassau North Shore Christian Women's Club will hold its Christmas Midday Dinner at Salisbury Restaurant, Eisenhower Park, on Tuesday, December 6, at 11:30 A.M. ($9.50). Soloist will be Arlene Gagath, Soprano. The Speaker will be Oscar Bakke formerly in charge of F.A.A. eastern region and now directing transportation of Newark and its airport.

Reservations can be made by calling Elizabeth Morgan (742-2568) or Dorothy Ave (746-0762). Cancellations necessary.

In Germany

The Hicksville Homemakers' Council

Homemakers Council, Hicksville Chapter, is an educational organization, which provides an opportunity to learn, share ideas, work and have fun with others. It provides an opportunity to get acquainted and work in the community. Part of the educational program comes from the New York State Extension Service.

As a member of the Hicksville Chapter, you have the unique opportunity to receive the latest information in everyday living from specially trained members who give willingly of their time and talent. Their only remuneration is the satisfaction in helping you "learn" and share your learning with others.

The chapter has classes in all phases of clothing (members learn selection of, use of new fabrics, wardrobe upkeep and clothing construction techniques) Projects in food and nutrition (members learn buying, preparation, meal planning and good nutritional practices). In home and housing, (members learn refinishing, reupholstering, making draperies, slipcovers, selecting and framing pictures, making lamps and lampshades).

Members discover and develop their artistic abilities in classes on hooking, quilting, tating, painting on glass, rushing, macramé, knitting, crocheting and many other arts and crafts.

Charitable projects are chosen by the membership and the time and talent of members wishing to work for these projects do so at the community table while classes are taking place. Many of the members have been very busy knitting and crocheting such items as lap robes, slippers, hats, and vests, while other members donate gifts as candy, combs, curlers, cards, nail polish, cookies and many other items for the Northeast Nassau Psychiatric Hospital.

Another project undertaken this year was a bicentennial quilt (log cabin design). About fifty members under the leadership of Helen Hannah. A beautiful quilt was made from scraps of material donated by members and was on display at the Hicksville Library. At the chapters December Luncheon the quilt is to be raffled off and the funds will be donated to the Lutheran School for the Deaf at Mill Neck.

The Hicksville Chapter has existed since the year 1921, when it was known as Farm and Home Bureau. The chapter celebrated its fiftieth anniversary in 1971 and put a cook book together with recipes from members to commemorate this half way mark. Ways and names have changed but the objective of this organization has remained and that is to help people to help themselves through learning and sharing. The magnitude and scope of the Hicksville Chapter would not be possible without the aid of the numerous unpaid volunteer leaders. The Hicksville Chapter has its business meetings on the first Thursday of every month, at Parkway Community Church, Stewart Avenue, Hicksville. At present the membership is 200.

The following women are the executive officers: President, Virginia Slutter; 1st Vice Chairman, Helen Black; 2nd Vice Chairman, Marion Koren; Recording Secretary, Virginia Handwerk; Corresponding Secretary, Barbara Doherty; Treasurer, Eleanor Draycott.

John and Jan Alexander enjoy cafes in the Village, art galleries, winter vacations, two separate incomes and their two retirement accounts from Eastern Savings Bank.

No matter how big your family income is—even if you have two incomes like the Alexanders—you still have to be concerned about your retirement years. Because inflation, stock market fluctuations and unforeseen expenses can whittle down the funds you've set aside.

That's why Eastern offers you two safe, solid retirement plans—each with excellent tax-deferment benefits:

The Keogh Plan (which John Alexander has) is for people who are self-employed. It lets you set aside as much as 15% of your earned income (up to $7,500) in a high-interest savings account. But you don't pay any taxes on it until you retire—when your taxable income is less.

The Individual Retirement Account (which Jan Alexander has) is for people who work at a company that has no pension or profit-sharing plan. It lets you set aside as much as 15% of your earned income (up to $1,500—or up to $1,750 if you have a non-working spouse) each year. Tax-free until you retire!

To get all the details, stop in at any branch of Eastern Savings Bank. That way, you can enjoy the Eastern life now. And when you retire, too.
