Residents Fight Camping Area For Rec. Vehicles

In response to community opposition to a proposed campground for recreational vehicles at Stillwell Woods in Syosset/Laurel Hollow, a meeting was held Friday, July 21st among Deputy County Supervisor James Nagourney, Board Members of the Syosset Village Civic Association and other community representatives. The meeting was called at Nassau Park Department Headquarters after members of the Association angrily informed the County Board of Supervisors at their meeting on Monday that the pilot plan for intrusion of 30 recreational vehicles had been developed, and work started, without any notice to the community and without any thought as to its negative impact on the Syosset-Woodbury-Laurel Hollow area. At the meeting with Nagourney, attended by close to 50 concerned people, residents angrily itemized the reasons for their opposition to the plan and suggested several other uses for the property.

In response to Deputy Supervisor Nagourney's claim that the property had been purchased with County taxpayers' funds and that the proposed campground would benefit all taxpayers, Syosset Village Civic Association vice president, Ronald Kadin, pointed out that the proposed action would benefit neither local residents nor County taxpayers. "Those who will benefit from this development will be only that very small minority of County residents who own recreational camping vehicles," said Kadin. In order to truly benefit all residents of the County, including those who live in the affected area, Kadin suggested the property be used "in its natural state, perhaps as a nature study area where Nassau County school children could observe nature and small wildlife in its natural habitat."

Dr. Ray S. Crampton, one of the local residents, strongly opposed to the County's plan, condemned the "piecemeal approach to development". Crampton argued that "There should be a permanent plan for the property's entire development," one which takes into account the needs of residents of the area as well.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Dr. Crampton handed Deputy County Executive Nagourney an additional 400 signatures of residents opposing the campground, reminding him that this brought to over 1500 the number of names collected in response to the Syosset Village Civic Association's petition drive. Nagourney promised that work on the site would remain stopped in order to give the County Executive time to consider the objections raised at the meeting and to arrange for a second meeting to discuss other possible uses for the property.

Clark Schedules Meeting On Sewer Installations

Oyster Bay Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark has scheduled an informational meeting for residents of the Hicksville area on the installation of sewers, which is now underway in the community. The meeting will be held on Thursday, August 3, at 8 PM in the auditorium of the Hicksville Senior High School, on Division Avenue.

"People have many questions concerning the construction schedule, street closings, connecting their homes and other matters relating to this project," Clark said, "so I have asked representatives of the various agencies concerned to be present at the meeting to answer them."

The special panel, chaired by Councilman Clark, will include representatives of the Sanitation and Water Supply Division of the County's Department of Public Works and the Town's Building Division and Department of Public Works.

Hicksville Community Forum

Assemblyman Angelo F. Orazio (D-15th-Albertson) will conduct a Hicksville Community Open Forum on Saturday, July 29, at Levittown Hall, Beech Lane, Hicksville. Local problems will be the major concern of the Assemblyman who is extending a special invitation to those who reside in the five Hicksville election districts that are part of the 15th Assembly District to meet with him from 10:30 a.m. to noon.

"The Hicksville community is beset with a host of conditions that impact on the health and safety of its residents," said Assemblyman Orazio. "I have invited local residents to attend the forum and to speak out on such local concerns as: Accident Prone Intersections, Off-Street Parking, Safety of School Children, Traffic Flow Problems and Vandalism. Such other local problems as may be brought to our attention will also receive our careful attention."

Over the years Assemblyman Orazio has been most successful in being able to identify and solve local problems directly related to the safety of constituents. "I am especially concerned by the danger to our school children as identified by Mr. Ralph Cerbone," said the Assemblyman. He has shown the kind of concern and interest in the community which is most meritorious and worthy of emulation."

Those who may find it impossible to attend the Hicksville Community Open Forum on Saturday morning, July 29th are invited to write to Assemblyman Orazio at 174 Hillside Avenue, Williston Park, N.Y. 11596 or call him at 747-8953 and give him the benefit of their input in the solving of local problems.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

If education is a 'force majeure' in American life, if it is a towering presence in every home, can we assume that the study of foreign languages is akin to the educational environment? The answer to this is probably yes. Thus, with this thought in mind, we would like to report some distressing news from the Hicksville High School Language Department. This department, states that the interest in the study of the Italian language has apparently waned, and that this condition is reflected by the decreasing number of enrollments in this course. Such a condition, especially if it remains as it is, will present a danger - a danger that Italian language courses may be dropped from the curriculum. If this happens, it will be a serious blow to the ethnic progress made by the Italian-American community and its affiliated organizations in their quest for recognition and parity.

Learning the Italian language is an experience to cherish. It is beautiful, romantic, melodious and so dramatic. It is one of the oldest languages in the world, and its architects - Dante and Petrarch - are two of the most fascinating names in history. Therefore we ask all parents in the Italian-American community to urge their children to enroll in Italian language courses this fall.

Italian-Americans must share the opinion that their language is part of their culture and traditions, and that the actual learning of it is merely an extension of that desire to promote intellectual and material betterment among themselves and those with whom they come into contact. And, as an afterthought, wouldn't the Italian language act as a useful tool in the light of increasing tourism in Italy. We think so.

The Hicksville High School offers the most advanced language courses in our country. It even offers Conversational Italian, which is very light in a grammatical sense. We might add that the Galileo Lodge, in conjunction with the Order of Sons of Italy in America, supports enrollment in Italian language courses, in fact, the Galileo Lodge offers a plaque and a $250 scholarship award to the student who maintains excellence in this subject.

Italian-Americans must not be oblivious to their heritage - a heritage that has contributed so greatly to the growth of America, which is one good reason why they cannot afford to lose the cultural advantages currently available to them in the Hicksville High School language courses. And the advantages are plentiful, especially when it can be noted with apparent ease that the Italian language is held in high esteem and used so extensively in our current media - the arts, music and films, etc. If Italian-Americans are desirous of projecting their image and enhancing their position in today's world, and I am sure that they are, it is suffice to say that such advantages are sorely needed. They must heed the clarion call by acting now - the message is clear and loud.

Thus we implore all parents of Italian extraction in the Hicksville community to contact Mrs. Vera Galente, Director of the language programs offered in the Hicksville High School, who will be more than willing to give guidance and counselling by helping your children to enroll in the Italian language courses. As parents of these children, you play important roles in instilling pride and maintaining the integrity needed for racial advancement. And, in the Italian community, who can say that these are not the ingredients needed to preserve and perpetuate the Italian image?

The Galileo Lodge this week will hold its annual Italian Feast, from the 26th to the 30th, at 200 Levittown Parkway, Hicksville. And what is this feast but another manifestation or extension of the Italian experience.

Lent and Wydler Announce Grant

The Environmental Protection Agency has awarded a grant of $342,338 to Nassau County for pilot projects for disposal of sludge from the Bay Park and Cedar Creek Water Pollution Control Plants in Nassau County, according to an announcement today from Congressman Norman F. Lent (R-E. Rockaway) and John W. Wydler (R-Garden City).

The E.P.A. informed the Long Island Congressmen that the funds will be used to set up pilot projects for disposal of dewatered sludge in composting (where it may be used as a fertilizer or soil conditioner) and/or through processing at the Town of Hempstead's recycling plant now under construction.

The County is seeking feasible alternatives to the current ocean dumping of sludge from the two plants which, under E.P.A. regulations, must be ended by Dec. 31, 1981.

The grant of $342,338 is in addition to an original E.P.A. grant of $1,145,022, made in February, 1977, for design of the expansion of capacity in the water treatment facilities at the Bay Park Plant. County public works officials say the design of the expansion is nearly completed.

Lent and Wydler expressed their gratification at the federal action and praised Nassau County officials for "their forward-looking efforts in controlling water pollution in Nassau County and in nearby ocean waters."

Computers To Catch Welfare Cheats

The State Senate has passed and sent to the Governor major legislation co-sponsored by Senator Norman J. Levy (R, C-Merrick) which establishes a comprehensive computerized wage reporting system to catch and eliminate an estimated 18,000 Welfare cheats.

Levy said the proposal would: Require all employers to report the names social security numbers and quarterly earned income of all employees to the State Tax Department;

Establish a penalty for cases in which employers fail to report;

Authorize the use of information maintained in the wage reporting system in the State's efforts to detect fraud and abuse in the Welfare system and unemployment insurance benefits system by computer cross checking recipient's names against the list of wage earners; and Establish controls to ensure the confidentiality of information collected under this system.

Presently, under New York State's $4.5 billion Welfare program, there is no systematic method of verifying employment by an applicant. Such a loophole invites widespread abuse," said the Southshore legislator.

"This bill will affect only those who are ineligible to receive both welfare and wages illegally," said Levy. "Working poor families, families with working minors, and people who receive part-time employment and who declare it, would not be affected by this proposal because such employment would already be recorded in their case records and welfare assistance could thus continue without interruption.

"Only those who intentionally conceal a source of income would be caught by this system. In that case, it would not constitute grounds for losing the employment, but rather grounds for losing public assistance."

Levy said that under existing Federal Law, the Federal government will pay $900,000 of the $2 million required annually to operate the system. The system is estimated to result in gross savings of $30 million in 1979-80, $66 million in 1980-81, $92 million in 1981-82 and $104 million in 1982-83. Approximately one third of these savings will accrue to local government in their welfare budgets.

Breakfast With The Caucus

On Wednesday, August 9th, at 8 A.M. at Stouffer's Restaurant in Garden City, the 5th C.D. Conservative Caucus has planned a breakfast for prominent area business and professional people to familiarize them with the work of the Caucus.

Dear Friends

The lead story on our Hicksville edition this week, brings you the details of how the citizens of Laurel Hollow and parts of Syosset are fighting the possibility of the County installing places for a small number of recreational vehicles, on 20 acres of 287 acre Stillwell Wood Park. A County Park paid for by all County residents. We do not disagree with their right to fight against what they feel would be undesirable to them in their area. HOWEVER it poses this question ... in Hicksville where the residents recently voted down two 6-acre parks because of the expenses which would have to be born entirely by the Hicksville Park District (which has the same boundaries as the Hicksville School District), we were told that "each area must pay for the parks located in its boundaries...this is the way that it is done." OK Now, we don't know how the County came to own Stillwell Woods Park and all County taxpayers are paying for it but we suggest that a simple solution would be to form a "Laurel Hollow-Upper Syosset Parks District" and transfer this 287 acre County Park to that District thereby removing the cost for this luxury, from the backs of all County residents, and placing the expenses (and development) where they rightfully belong, and undoubtedly could be afforded.

We in Hicksville have not forgotten our two small 6-acre Park sites and in August this newspaper will be continuing its weekly survey searching for a solution to their development...one that can be afforded by taxpayers in our area. Or, if it is their wish, we may suggest that these two park properties be put back on the tax rolls where they can at least lessen our taxes instead of being a constant expense with no benefits. More on this later.

As you can see in their advertisement on page 3 Lee Castle and the World-Famous Jimmy Dorsey Orchestra is scheduled for a "Moonlight Disco", with dancing under the stars at Carl Hoppl's SALLIS-BURY INN in Eisenhower Park on Friday, July 28th, from 8 pm to 2 am. Advance tickets are available at The Inn and at the Gold Pro Shop, or you may telephone 794-6464 or 794-0390. The price is $6.50 per person which includes a free drink. This is an evening you won't want to miss!

THAT'S ALL for this week. We close this column with a snapshot taken not too many months ago from the front window of One Jonathan Avenue, our editorial office.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:

Last week I wrote of the "Champions" St. Ignatius Cadet Corp. Now it seems Hicksville has more than one champion.

"Pageantry in Brass" hosted by the St. Ignatius Cadets, was performed Saturday, July 22. The visiting Corps were brilliant in each of their performances, with their music, marching, and maneuvering. These kids put on a fantastic show, even when it became apparent that many of them were becoming ill because of the extreme heat. Not one performance was marred by the conditions surrounding them. The coordinators, parents of corp members, and the instructors can be proud of them. I might also add the spectators themselves should be applauded for enduring the hot humid night air and for showing their enthusiasm right on to the very end of the program.

The robust performances in the extreme heat had left some of the performers with difficulty in breathing, fatigued, and feeling faint. As the evening progressed and it was evident that there was a problem, the Hicksville Rescue Squad, Nassau Police Dept., and the Nassau-Hicksville Auxiliary Police worked together avoiding a catastrophe, that could have ended in panic. Their efficient handling of the situation kept everyone in the stands unaware of the forty or so people stricken with heat-related symptoms. When it was evident that help would be needed to assure the safety of all those concerned the Jericho, Plainview, and East Meadow Rescue Squads were called for aid. In addition the Levittown Auxiliary Police gave their assistance. Together they worked to help those who had fallen ill. St. Ignatius Cadet Corps would like to express their sincerest thanks to all Depts.

The Show is over but the practice goes on. The girls are now readying themselves for their tour of Canada and the Mid-Western States. They will be trying for their 6th ALL-GIRL WORLD OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP. After watching them practice this evening I'm sure they will bring that title back to Hicksville for the sixth year in a row.

To the Editor:

In the last few issues of the Herald, there have been a number of letters from Mr. Frank Willard and Miss Carrie Clark. At the risk of scathing replies from both parties, I wish to speak out for the one group no one has stopped to consider: the students of Hicksville.

Mr. Willard claims to be the knight in shining armor, out to slay everyone's enemy - the teacher-dominated School Board. Well, I have yet to see in any of his letters, any REAL concern for the students. He makes flowery overstatements about how the School Board goes around "bludgeoning children," but that's about all the concern I can find.

As for Miss Clark, whom I have known, worked with, and respected for a number of years, she has truly been a fine representative of the Hicksville student body to the School Board for the last two years. However, Miss Clark is and always has been, much more supportive of the Teacher's Union and the Board than the average Student. After such a long association with these groups, this is quite understandable.

The first subject of controversy both Mr. Willard and Miss Clark deal with is the FLES (Foreign Language in the Elementary Schools). Mr. Willard calls this program "one of the most ineffective programs in the school system." I have one word to say to that - BULL. Of all the programs, Hicksville has ever initiated, this is one of the most successful. Mr. Willard claims that children ages 6 to 12 are "just too young for foreign language schooling." Again, he couldn't be farther from the truth. The first six years of language do not deal with participial phrases and conjunctive adverbs. During these years pronunciation and vocabulary, the two most important milestones in learning a language, are covered. It is a proven fact that younger minds are more easily shaped and molded; thus enabling the youngster to comprehend and retain the foreign language more readily.

I would invite Mr. Willard, or any other person holding his views, to test those students who have studied a foreign language from the first grade, and those who have begun studying in grade seven, nine or ten. He will be shocked at how well the students who started the study of a foreign language when they were "too young," speak, write and comprehend that language. I, along with many other fine students, am living proof of this marvelous program's success. It is a damnable shame that his program is in danger of being terminated. Agree, some students did not fulfill the requirements of the course but that happens in every course. Rather than making the study of English harder, studying a foreign language makes these students' English Classes easier. The foreign language aids and supplements these youngsters' study of English; it does not hinder it.

I have yet to see Mr. Willard sit in on any classes in Hicksville High School. Therefore, I would like to know where he gets the colossal nerve to say any of Miss Clark's arguments "don't hold water." She, like myself, attends classes at Hicksville High every day. If anyone should know about mediocre, and, yes, even poor teachers, we the students should.

Yes, Hicksville has poor teachers. Show me a district that doesn't. Neither Miss Clark nor Mr. Willard mention the good teachers we have, which I think is grossly unfair. Also, what in Heaven's name has the Union got to do with poor teachers? If the Board was foolish enough to hire them, and is now too lazy to go through the proceedings to fire them, I see it as the Board's fault, not the teachers'.

The Teachers' Union in Hicksville is strong, and it does wield too much influence over the Board. In that respect, I agree with Mr. Willard. Many Board members have teachers in their families or are teachers themselves; thus they are sympathetic to the Union. This is hardly ideal for the taxpayers, which my parents are; however, defeating the budget doesn't hurt the Board, it doesn't hurt the Teachers Union, IT CRUCIFIXES THE STUDENTS OF HICKSVILLE. That is what Mr. Willard is preaching. Whether the budget is no growth, or cut, or we go on austerity, the teachers still get paid, the Board continues to exist, but the educational system in which we, the students, wish to learn is hamstrung.

I can't find it in me to blame the citizens of Hicksville, who are in financial straits, for voting down the budget, whether they have children or not. The fate of Hicksville's students is in their hands. Let them do with our fate as they wish.

I do object to people like Mr. Willard who get on their soap boxes and preach inaccurate, insulting, cruel remarks to anyone and everyone who disagrees with him. I think his attempt at metaphor in a previous letter went a little far with his ludicrous statements about the Board's "Devil Exorcism," and "bludgeoning children, blackjacking parents and punishing senior citizens, etc." I am no fan of the School Board, but I don't picture them as diabolical fiends, who go around applying the cat-o-nine-tails on little old ladies, either.

As to Mr. Willard's charge that our teachers are "overpaid, underworked, and over-privileged," they receive benefits similar to most other districts throughout the state. Or, does Mr. Willard wish to start a state-wide purge of all infidel teachers, and School Boards that don't conform to his personal liking?

Mr. Willard seems to feel that teachers cannot try to better their positions without sacrificing their dedication. That is so far off base it's laughable. Does Mr. Willard want teachers to starve to show their dedication? Or isn't that enough for him?

Mr. Willard asks the citizens of Hicksville "to put children ahead of teachers and Administrative fatcats." I couldn't agree more. I ask something much harder, and something that takes much more devotion to the future. Put children before your wallet. I agree with Mr. Willard, taxes are too high. Everyone's taxes are too high. But don't defeat a budget when you know that the teachers won't feel the squeeze, which they won't. Defeat the worthless, hanger-oners who sit on the Board giving teachers everything and the students nothing. We may want lower taxes (who doesn't?), but can any of us afford a lower standard of education? Yes, it does cost more for a higher standard of education. Not to pay teachers more, but to enable us to have enough teachers to teach Honors programs and Advanced Placement College courses. It costs extra money to get the materials to teach these courses adequately. Don't the students who will become leaders of their community tomorrow, deserve a little extra treatment? Or are we to be shoved through school with an insufficient education in the name of economy? We are the ones who will suffer more than any other group. By cutting the budget those students who deserve a higher education are cheated because people like Mr. Willard want to save money today, even if it means a poorer tomorrow.

When a new budget is proposed, don't be like Mr. Willard, and close your minds to reason. Find out what the students are getting, find out what the teachers are getting. Then, and only then, make your decision. If after you evaluate the situation, you still want to vote against the budget, then do so. But don't let presumptions, hot-aired demagogues like Mr. Frank Willard make them for you. For all our sakes, next time a budget comes up for a vote, know what you are voting on, then decide by yourself.

Respectfully yours,
James M. Black

At The Town Board Meeting

By Gerry Kahn

The Town Board hearing held on Tues., July 25 concluded at 12:15.

The day session of the Day-Night Hearing on the petition of Myron Nelkin was the first item of business.

Charles Friesel, represented the petitioner and presented his case before the Board. (Change of Zone from Res. A. to Res. E-2 with a density covenant of 4.8 dwelling units per acre at Jericho.)

John Cleary, an attorney, represented the Village of Old Westbury, Hamilton Haddon, and the Meadowbrook Club. His clients were all opposed to the granting.

The 2nd item on the agenda was the petition of Amato Bros. Inc. for a special use permit to conduct an automobile dismantling shop for the purpose of operating a wholesale parts shop. Mr. Roeckl represented the petitioner.

The Board thoroughly interviewed the petitioner and determined that all vehicles would be stored internally, all combustibles would be properly stored, no acetylene interior work and acceptable working hours.

Mr. Alfred Hewlett, a neighbor, spoke in favor of the granting.

The site of the petition is at 5 Duffy Ave., w/o Charlotte St., Hicksville.

Mr. Herb Bollin represented Templeton Holding Corp. the petitioner on the 3rd item, presented his case for a modification of the restrictive covenants recorded 8 22 72 on that property known as Villas in Nassau (5 S Old Country Rd., e/s Plainview Rd., Plainview.)

The covenant restricted interior finishing of the basement area for use as a bedroom. Relief for the 24 units, that can utilize this area, for the interior finishing for use as a playroom or family room was requested.

Mr. Miriam Singer spoke relative to the petition and was not opposed to the granting.

Item No. 11 directed the Town Clerk to publish notice of a hearing (Sept. 12) relative to the petition of Ted-Val Realty Corp. and B & R Auto Body for special permission to maintain and operate an auto body repair shop at Hicksville (c/o John St. and Holman Blvd.)

hurting the children. When the District recommended exceeding the 35 faculty that are already gone, they presented a structured and detailed plan to the school board and public. Since you were not at those meetings, I will review some of the topics that were addressed.

Under the subject of class size: For Grades K-6 student teacher ratios for each grade in each school were itemized. This of course included regular and special classroom instructors and covered both optional and mandated programs.

For both the High School and Junior High School, the presentations covered class size for each and every course offered. In addressing this area, the Administration and the Board remembered that the district is required to offer multiple curricula and, as you are aware, each type of diploma has specific and different course requirements.

Since I am certain you would not want History teachers teaching Science, and Math teachers teaching Gym, your plan must address certification and training of both the excess staff and those that will remain. Further, your Plan must take into account New York State legal requirements governing excessing of teachers. Additionally, the Plan has to insure that all State and Federal requirements (e.g. curriculum, special ed.) are adhered to. Lastly, since the effect of a staff reduction is dollars, you should detail the salaries and fringe benefits that will be saved and what the off-set increased unemployment compensation costs will be.

This above list of topics is far from complete. But since you and I both agree that the School Board must dedicate itself to the benefit of the children and not to any specific interest group, I want to make certain the presentation I expect you to make is complete.

It would really be a shame to think that your letters to the Herald which offered the student, senior citizen, and taxpayer so much for so little cost would not get a fully documented public hearing.

In fact, Mr. Willard, if you could spend your time and efforts in this type of presentation rather than on meaningless rhetoric, we all could come out ahead.

Sincerely,

STEPHEN R. KATZ

To the Editor:

I have been following the recent letters regarding the school budget, and I would like to reply to Mr. Frank H. Willard's letter of July 20, 1978.

First of all, I am a recent Hicksville graduate. As such, I feel qualified to discuss the current situation within the high school. Since I have not had direct contact with the elementary schools for several years, I will limit my argument to the high school and to my past experiences in the earlier grades.

I was involved in the foreign language program since first grade. Although I did not win a five week trip abroad, I was introduced to a language and a culture in a way which I might not have been able to experience if my Spanish education had begun at the junior high level. Early exposure to a language facilitates the development of the child's vocabulary. In retrospect, I see this program as beneficial to me and to thousands of others who have participated in it. Many of the others have careers involving language, such as travelling jobs, teaching, importing, translating, etc. Also, most colleges grant credit and/or placement for advanced studies in foreign language.

As for Mr. Willard's citing mediocre teaching, this is not a problem unique to Hicksville. There are mediocre accountants, doctors, lawyers, teachers, sanitationmen, policemen, etc., but one cannot generalize about all of the members of any of these groups. I can think of several excellent teachers that I had in

A party was held for Eileen Echezuria (nee McNierny) who celebrated her birthday on July 24. Eileen is a former graduate of St. Ignatius Loyola School and Hicksville H.S. Her husband, John, is a New York City policeman and they have three children; John, Jr. (6 yrs.), Chad (4 yrs.), and Danielle (3 yrs.). This lovely family lives in Hicksville.

Christine Gilmore, Alex and Louise Pankoff's daughter, doesn't believe in letting sleeping dogs lie - Geronimo did it again. This time at Katonah, Westchester, where he won "Best in Show." In addition to Geronimo, who is a Doberman pinscher, Christine has 3 more Dobermans and two cats. We heard from an authority that all the animals are on good terms with each other.

George and Frances Knight, HICKSVILLE, recently returned from a week's sojourn in Southampton where they visited with Frances' mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bodwick, and other members of the family. Mrs. Bodwick is 92 years young and capable, competent and charming.

An out-of-town visitor our community is Louise and Bill Malloy and their son, Billy. Bill's mother, Mrs. Malloy, is also joining them during their stay with Eleanor Francis of Hicksville. Louise and Eleanor are twin sisters who were raised on Long Island, but now Louise and her family are living in New Port Richie, Fl. The Malloys enjoyed the reunion and the various family gatherings they attended.

A combination vacation and hobby trip is planned by Maureen Burch of HICKSVILLE. Maureen is a member of the St. Ignatius Drum and Bugle Corps who will be on tour in Colorado during August where they will defend four national titles which they currently hold. Maureen has been a member of the Corps for over ten years and has traveled extensively with them. She is quite excited about this trip. Good luck to you, Maureen, and the other members in defending your titles.

AROUND OUR TOWNS

HARRIET A. MAHER

The Nassau Suffolk Horsemen's Association held their horse show recently. Terri Rennett helped groom "Irish Dawn" for this mare's appearance in the exhibition. Dawn Strick and Carol Dengler rode "Irish Dawn" in different events. These three girls are HICKSVILLE's budding equestriennes. Terri Rennett plans on actively participating in the "showing" of the horses in upcoming horse shows.

What a way to earn a living -- on a dude ranch in Peekskill, N.Y. Ed and Jeanne Boyens' son, Christopher, is doing just that during the summer vacation. Chris is enthralled with his job. He's a ranch hand and takes guests out on the trail for trips around the countryside. Alas, when summer is over, so is this paid holiday for Chris; he must return to Hicksville H.S. where he will be a senior.

On July 26 Mrs. Anne Bardenhagen celebrated her birthday with a party held in her honor by her daughter, Anne, and son-in-law, Bob Rennett. Her grandchildren, Terri and Jimmy, and Jimmy's wife, Maureen, helped to make this a truly "special" day for Grandma. Love and best wishes Mrs. Bardenhagen from your family and friends.

What a lovely way to spend July 25, by having a party. And that's just what Francis Knight of Hicksville and Francine had her loving family in attendance, and they gifted her with a beautiful gold bracelet. Congratulations.

On June 25, PLAINVIEW's Gloria and Monty Schwartz's son, Mark, was married. Monty, who is a manufacturer of wedding gowns, made his future daughter-in-law, Sharon's, wedding dress. This dress was an original design and was featured in "Brides Magazine." The bride and groom were married in Temple Emanuel of Great Neck. We were told by some of the guests that the ceremony was beautiful, and the reception was truly outstanding.

Do you know who was "breadwinner for the day" (or should we say "fishwinner for the day") in the Bardenhagen family? The answer is 12-year old Tommy Bardenhagen, who was vacationing with his parents, Marge and John, and the other three children in the family at Highland Lakes, N.H. Tommy caught a widemouth bass and his clan enjoyed a repeat fit for a royal family that evening. This was the high point of the whole two-week vacation.

Birthday greetings go to Gail Pearce, East Ave., HICKSVILLE. She celebrated on July 19.

David Katz of PLAINVIEW was recently presented a citation by Oyster Bay Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark, on the occasion of being named an Eagle Scout. He is a member of Troop No. 13.

Welcome home to Zaida Sidlacek of Georgia St., HICKSVILLE and Ann Krisando of Kyhl Ave., HICKSVILLE. They have recently returned home following a cruise to the Bahamas, aboard the "S.S. Oceanic."

Congratulations to Kevin Lorensten of HICKSVILLE on his recent appointment to the U.S.

Air Force Academy in Colorado. He will enter the Academy this summer as a member of the class of 1982.

Birthday greetings go to Michael Schneider of Mill Rd., HICKSVILLE. He celebrated his on July 19.

Assemblyman Angelo F. Orazio awarded New York State Assembly Eagle Scout certificates to Edward Dicks, Brian Hinphy and Thomas McCormick of HICKSVILLE, at an Eagle Scout Court of Honor held in Levittown Hall. All three scouts are members of Troop No. 381 of Hicksville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Testa of Lee Ave., HICKSVILLE, recently returned following a cruise to the sunny isle of Nassau. They sailed aboard the "S.S. Oceanic."

Happy birthday to James Morgan, N. Fordham Rd., HICKSVILLE celebrating this week.

State Senator Owen H. Johnson recently addressed the Nassau County American Legion at their 60th County Convention in the Williston Post 144.

James I. Duggan of Troop No. 378 of HICKSVILLE, was recently presented with a citation from Oyster Bay Town Councilman Salvatore R. Mosca, as he was inducted as an Eagle Scout. Congratulations.

Spec. 5 John F. Manke II, son of Mrs. Joan Manke, of Closter Lane, in HICKSVILLE, recently was assigned with the 4th Infantry Division as Fort Carson, Colo.

Manke entered the Army in October 1973.

He is a 1973 graduate of Hicksville High School.

The annual event, which ran for three days, was a huge success. Thousands turned out to watch the games that had soccer teams from Germany, England, the Republic of China, Canada, Sweden, as well as Long Island and several states participating.

The play took place on a field donated by Grumman Aerospace at South Oyster Bay Road, Hicksville.

Girls Soccer Tournament

It used to be that soccer in Hicksville would take a breather during July and August. Not so anymore; this week-end (7/28-7/30), the girls will go at it for 3 days in the Second Annual Hicksville Americans Girls Soccer Tournament at the Grumman complex on South Oyster Bay Rd. Tournament chairman Sam Masiello expects great weather as 34 teams of girls in four age groups take to the turf for four rounds of qualifying matches on Friday and Saturday. The top four teams in each age group (under 19, 16, 14 and 12) will return on Sunday for the semi-finals & Championship games.

Out-of-town teams that will be represented include: Springfield, Va.; Braddock Road, Va.; Springfield, Mass.; Brick Town, N.J.; Hamilton, N.J.; Bowie, Md.; Mount Laurel, N.J.; St. Andrews, Canada.; Edgewater, N.J.; Vienna, Va.; and Fairfax, Virginia. The visiting girls arrived Thurs. night and will billet with the Long Island girls which is what the tournament is all about; besides playing the same international game, the girls benefit tremendously by meeting new friends from different parts of the country and also re-newing friendships as our girls have visited these states in previous tournaments.

If you want to see some good exciting soccer played by the girls, visit the Grumman fields this week-end.

the high school. They range from biology to trigonometry to history to AP English. Besides teachers I had, there are dozens of qualified and well-qualified teachers in the high school alone. Any educated person knows stereotyping is unjust and dangerous.

Money was mentioned by Mr. Willard too. Teaching IS a job. Most teachers DO NOT teach just for the money. They derive a sense of satisfaction from their work. As a student tutor for several years, I can testify that nothing is more fulfilling than teaching someone else and having them understand the subject. Likewise it is heart-breaking when you simply cannot get through to the student.

Remedial programs are necessary. Putting a child who needs extra help into a regular classroom only compounds his problem. Discipline becomes a factor because the child is bored and restless. As a result, both he and his classmates must suffer. Remedial programs help slower students keep up instead of being left hopelessly behind. The taxpayers are not throwing their money away on needless programs as Mr. Willard claims.

Students who need this extra help ARE NOT a result of poor teaching. Sending a child to school does not insure he will be a genius. ALL children need to learn outside of the classroom, as well as within the school walls. One cannot blame teachers for having slower students. Several experts, including Marie Winn, author of The Plug In Drug, and Rose Goldsen, a professor of sociology at Cornell University and author of The Show and Tell Machine, attribute the general misuse and abuse of television to low reading scores nationwide. Instead of turning on Sesame Street, parents should spend more time helping their children learn. As long as these youngsters are not receiving help at home, remedial programs will continue to be necessary.

The budget defeat, another point discussed by Mr. Willard, was not based solely on voters without children, but also on apathy in general. Less than 4700

CUMMINGS 'N GOINGS

By Jim Cummings

CADETS STILL NO.1: We proudly address these comments to Hicksville's St. Ignatius all-girl Cadet Corps, World Champs who will depart this weekend to defend their title in three (3) major competitions...Their first stop is Lynn, Massachusetts for the World-Open Championship (which they presently hold for 3 successive years)-then up to Canada for the International competition and return late next month to Marion, Ohio for the United States Open...We're sure they will maintain the precision timing techniques and first class appearances that they and the girls before them gained under the direction of Thomas Costa, who directed the Corps since its inception 20 years ago...We can vividly recall the excitement in the community when news flashed of their wins over the years and this direction and guidance was given a big assist from dedicated people (in those early days) like the late husband of Agnes Minihan William-who traveled the circuit with his wife, who now resides in Bethpage- we'll never forget Agnes. Good people like the Vincent Murphys of Hicksville, their instructors and coaches and one fine gentleman Louis Costella, who passed away suddenly this past week - Lou worked many years with the Cadet Corps and will be long remembered by the girls and his fellow employees in the Highway Division of the Town of Oyster Bay, where he worked since 1955 - we look for a great reception when the Corps returns once again STILL No.1.

NEW ARRIVAL: Mr. & Mrs. Glen Moody of Hicksville, are the proud parents of a son, George Michael, born on July 14 at Central General Hospital - the proud new mom is the former Diane Daly, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. George Daly of Jonathan Avenue in our community - this item was given by my daughter, Ann Marie Schmidt, of Cedar eligible voters of Hicksville. If the majority do not care enough to vote, how can they be concerned about quality or cost?

Teachers ARE NOT overpaid, underworked, or overprivileged. In many communities beginning teachers have smaller incomes than sanitation workers. Teaching is a fight that is not easily acquired. Some teachers must work harder to get their point across, others have less difficulty. In either case, teaching is a strenuous job which requires after-school preparation, as well as, in-school presentation.

I do not believe the teachers are saying they have not been producing their best. Nor have I ever heard them say they will try harder if they are paid more. Reading any newspaper, listening to any radio news program or watching any television news show will enforce what most of us already know: The economy is in a slump. Inflation is high and so are prices. Teachers deserve cost of living increases as much as any other profession. This will not cause them to "produce any differently," but will aid them in coping with inflation.

Subsequent budget defeats WILL NOT HELP, THE STUDENTS. Each vote costs the taxpayers money; money which could be better spent within the schools.

Austerity is not a solution either. Education is the key to opening doors on the socio-economic ladder. It is essential that we offer education to tomorrow's leaders. I sincerely hope that the voters of Hicksville keep this in mind and vote "YES" as soon as possible.

Sincerely,
Barbara Goldman
