Honor Society Aluminum Drive

By Maria Carone

The National Junior Honor Society of the Hicksville Junior High is sponsoring an aluminum salvage drive. We see two basic reasons for this drive. First, the collection of aluminum cans will help clean up our environment, and, the recycling of waste cans would help save our resources of unused aluminum. Secondly, the money collected from the sale of the scrap aluminum will go to a charitable organization.

We would like to invite the entire Hicksville community to join in our Junior High School scrap aluminum drive. Instead of throwing away your used aluminum cans, please save them. You may help this cause by emptying each can completely, stepping on each can and bringing your accumulation to the Junior High School during school hours. Barrels for the used cans are located in each of the three cafeterias, and also in the (the Fourth Street Entrance.) We will take care of the rest.

The National Junior Honor Society of Hicksville is trying to make this conservation drive a huge success. Please, save your aluminum, and in turn, you may be helping save our environment and even a life.

Gregory Museum Membership Drive

The Gregory Museum is currently engaged in an expansive plan to increase membership in the earth science center which serves so many schools and geological clubs on Long Island.

"We have much to offer members", President and Acting-Director, Richard Evers, announced, recently, as he and Membership Chairman, Elery Bean, opened the drive. "A membership in the Gregory Museum offers free admission to the museum and to Museum shows, a ten percent reduction on all Museum Gift Shop items, receipt of the museum newsletter, reduced rates for in-service training courses offered at the museum program announcements, identification services for rock and mineral collectors, and reduced rates for museum field trips and rock-hunting excursions. Then, too, there is the esthetic pleasure of associating with people who love the wonders of nature and are interested in local history, which members may experience regularly in the Old Heitz Place Court House, a National Historic Place which is the museum's home."

Membership Chairman Elery Bean is hoping to arouse support for the museum among a broad spectrum of community life. The museum's mailings recently involved the beginning of a four-fold target effort: renewals of current memberships; contact and support, once again, from old friends of the museum's earlier years—whose memberships somehow lapsed, and two new areas of support. "We are hoping to arouse support via memberships from Hicksville and Long Island clubs, organizations and business and industrial firms as well as reaching out to enroll new family and individual members."

Membership dues for the Gregory Museum are as follows: Student dues: $5.; Adults: $10.; Family: $20.; Sponsor: $50.; Patron: $100. and Benefactor: $250. Checks made payable to the Gregory Museum, a non-profit educational institution, are tax deductible.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

As the festive moods of the holiday season invade the air, the Galileo Lodge is also wrapping itself in the spirit and tempo of this season by announcing the dates for the scheduled events and dances. On December 2, the Lodge will hold its annual Christmas dance at its quarters. Price of admission will be $7.50 per person, with the bill of fare including fasty food, coffee and cake, beer and soda. And I am not leaving out lively dance music and the congenial and noticeable hospitality that our organization is becoming so famous for. Come and sing your Christmas carols at our Lodge and become a part of the Yuletide season which will be upon us very soon. For tickets and reservations please call Skip Monteforte (Chairman) at 938-7081.

Also in time with this coming holiday season is the Christmas party scheduled for the handicapped children of Hicksville, and the one set for the children of the Lodge membership. The date announced for these events is Sunday, the 17th of December, at the Lodge quarters. As we have stated before in this column, these parties are moments never to be forgotten because it is difficult to forget the warmth, kindness and friendliness that are brought to these children as a result of these parties. And, of course, there is that magic of Santa Claus with his beaming face and bag of toys. The Chairmen for these parties are Jim Rerisi and Joe Ianotti, and they can be reached by calling 931-5351.

To cope with the Thanksgiving holiday mood, the talented ladies Auxiliary will hold their Fashion Show on Thursday, the 16th of November, at the Lodge quarters. Price of admission is $7.00 per person, featuring a fine dinner which starts at 7:30 P.M. To be featured will be men's and women's fashions from the Korvettes organization. For reservations and sale of tickets please call chairpersons Jo-Ann Wallick (681-9428), Rose Riccardi (681-0966) and Mary Monteforte (938-7081). Since the fashions to be shown appeal to both sexes, the Ladies Auxiliary reports that males as well as females are cordially invited to attend this affair.

LODGE NEWS

They are still talking about the 'Pasta Night' held by the Ladies Auxiliary. Chaired by Jo-Ann Sarrero and ably assisted by her fine Committee. The quality and quantity of the food served that evening defied description. There was so much for so small a price of admission that it is almost unbelievable that all it cost anyone who attended that affair was $2.50....Mario Misturini, a member of the Galileo Lodge and past chief of the Hicksville Fire Department, will try his luck at running for the Fire Commissioner on December 12th. Reports state that Mario Misturini will be the first Italian Commissioner of Hicksville, if elected, and there is no reason why this capable civil servant should not make it at the voting place, which will be the Hicksville Fire House. So, please come and vote for Mario. All persons must be registered, of course....Mr. and Mrs. Joe Giordano are beaming with pride these days as their daughter Alison was awarded her Masters Degree in Science (Early Childhood Education) from Cortland University in Cortland, New York. Congratulations, too, from the Galileo Lodge....Many committees in the Galileo Lodge are undermanned, so the Lodge wishes to take this opportunity to ask all members who currently are not associated with any committee, to share his time and efforts to aid others who volunteer so often....

Asks Investigation Of CETA Youth Funds

State Senator Ralph J. Marino has asked the U.S. Attorney to investigate the use of federal funds to pay wages to violent juveniles confined to secure facilities. A preliminary survey conducted by Marino, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Crime and Correction, indicates that the funds were granted by Governor Hugh Carey under a Comprehensive Employment Training Act program which allows the Governor broad discretion in spending.

"It would appear that the Governor, in his discretion, has deemed the payment of the minimum wage to 13, 14 and 15 year olds in secure detention as one of the state's priorities," said Marino. "Preliminary figures show that a total of $1.2 million in federal funds is being paid by DFY to youths in its custody.

"This is horrendous, especially when taxpayers are already paying $22,000 a year to support each youth in custody and when unemployment among honest citizens is climbing. Even adult prisoners with family responsibilities are being paid wages of only 32 cents per hour for hard labor."

Marino cited the payment of CETA funds to William Lindsey, the Long Island youth currently being held on an attempted murder charge. "According to records we have obtained from the Division for Youth, Lindsey was paid $2.65 an hour for 'maintenance' inside the Goshen secure facility for violent youths beginning last April. These are funds intended to better life for people unable to find steady work. Using taxpayer revenues to pay off violent youngsters inside institutions is no better than bribery. This must be investigated and stopped."

Marino is continuing his survey of DFY records of CETA and federal countercyclical spending on juveniles in its custody.

Hobart's is meter reading!"

What does Hobart know that you don't? He's read our Guide to Meter Reading and Your LILCO Bill, which explains the mystery of it all once and for all. Drop us a line, and we'll send you a copy. Our address is on your bill. Then you can do the same things Hobart does, like double-checking the accuracy of our readings or estimates and helping control costs by keeping a running check on energy use. While we're on the subject, a note to those of you who get bimonthly readings and bills. Sure, a bimonthly bill is higher than a monthly one. But we respectfully point out that this procedure helps keep down both paper work and the size of our meter-reading staff. And that means a saving to you and all our customers.

We received a nice letter from Mr. A.S. of Baldwin. "Thank you for your prompt response to my request for help in computing my electric bill...with the clues you gave me, I was able to arrive at the right figure." P.S. "We are shareholders and proud of LILCO employees." Thank you, Mr. A.S.

Letters To The Editor

Councilman Clark in enlarging upon his proposal for an extension of Duffy Avenue into Broadway, via the closing of West Marie Street up to that point, states that "there will be some who are automatically opposed."

Having read of a number of his past proposals, I imagine it would be a just assumption, and I can only hope that this new proposal will be opposed by all of the residents of Hicksville. But there is nothing "automatic" in my feelings concerning what a few of our leaders wish to do, to despoil what is left of our once pleasant village.

I happen to live on Plainview Road, which is an extension of East Marie Street, and I would like to ask Councilman Clark if in this proposed plan he has outlined, he has given any thought as to where the traffic from Duffy Avenue will go, after it reaches Broadway. Am I wrong in assuming it would continue down East Marie Street and Plainview Road? Even if this road were widened - a project once proposed, which all of its residents prevented - to make room for the additional traffic load, there would be an even worse bottleneck than now exists, before reaching South Oyster Bay Road, in spite of the syphoning - off of traffic down New South Road onto Old Country Road, which is already carrying more than it can adequately handle. Of course, as has been mentioned, there is Woodbury Road. But that is also a heavily traveled road.

The ideal objective should be to disperse the traffic away from already crowded areas - not to bring an additional load through the town. As it stands now, although not an ideal condition, the drivers, upon leaving Duffy Avenue, have a choice of alternate routes to take, thus thinning out a portion of traffic before reaching Broadway.

I wish I could understand what advantages there are, in this proposal, to the established residents of Hicksville. After all, it is they who pay the taxes. In the heavily residential section in which I live, why should the occupants have to tolerate the added burden of entering and leaving our thoroughfare if a heavier load of traffic is poured into it?

What about the stores that are situated on Broadway? It seems to me their businesses would be badly hurt by this change. There is only one fairly adequate parking area left in the center of town - behind the theatre, and that, often unable to contain the cars requiring parking spaces. People walking from there to these stores will find the flow of traffic so heavy, it will be almost impossible to cross the street to get to the only very essential drugstore in which is situated the only Post Office sub-station in the area. I've already experienced difficulty, with the present flow, and I can still run across.

And what of the people who use the services of the National Bank of North America, which is now easily reached and has sufficient parking for all? If the proposed change is made, the bank's patrons will have to make a left turn either on or off a heavily traveled road, creating what I predict will be numerous jam-ups in the flow of traffic.

These are only a few of the many disadvantages of the proposed changes that will have to be tolerated by the townspeople who use the services currently available to them. Can Councilman Clark blame us if we object to some of his far-out plans for our town, when they inconvenience the majority of the population of Hicksville. When he comes up with something of real benefit to all of us, he'll have our support. The only benefits I have noticed that he mentions seem to be to a few new businesses such as the foreign car concern that wishes to add another small parcel to its establishment. Let us make some concessions to new business. But let's not make the ones that alter the entire face of Hicksville, cutting it up into pieces like a pie, until there is nothing left but an intricate and confusing network of roads that can only be hazardous to life and limb.

If as Councilman Clark tells us, money is being made available for this project, it originally came, or will come from the taxpayers' pockets, and it should be put to a popular vote.

Sincerely and without malice,
Dorothy Margot

A Message From Sup. Colby

It was 60 years ago this coming Saturday that "the war to end all wars" came to its end at the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month, 1918, and I am sure survivors on both sides of the lines that day in the battle-torn fields of France must have cursed the warped dramatic sense of the negotiators that delayed its end even those few hours.

War isn't heroic, but from it have come heroes and men of fortitude and honor. These are men who have survived the hell-fires of war and, having been tempered by them, are a source of strength and leadership in the development of our country.

We are grateful to these men and women who have served so nobly and so well in the defense of our country and our freedom. Though these veterans are justifiably proud of their service, few of them would consider themselves as professional military. They are lawyers, clerks, nurses, bricklayers, laborers. In other words, they are your neighbors who responded to the call of their country in its times of need.

And so it has been since the founding of this nation when the farmers in New England left their plows in the field to defend their homes over 200 years ago and earned the name by which they are remembered to this day: the Minutemen. They were among the first patriots who won for us our freedom, but not the last who would be called upon to defend it.

Let us all remember the debt of gratitude we owe them this coming Veterans Day. Theodore Roosevelt said it this way:

"In a great war for the right, the one great debt owed by the nation is that to the men who go to the front and pay with their bodies for the faith that is in them."

At The Library

On Sunday, November 12 at 3:00 p.m. the Hicksville Library Music Series will present Jeanne and Arthur Goldstein in their Harp and Horn lecture / recital. The program shows the historical development of the harp and brass instruments with music ranging from medieval to contemporary. The Goldsteins bring with them a variety of harps and brass instruments that help make their presentation not only an educational experience, but enjoyable as well. This family oriented program is one that the Hicksville Library is pleased to repeat, having had the Goldsteins appear in the Music Series in 1975.

The concert will be held in the library Community Room. The public are welcome to attend this free program.

The Library Board of Trustees will hold their regular meeting on Thurs., Nov. 16 at 8 p.m. at the Hicksville Library.

the Long Island Lighting Company as part of a U.S. Department of Energy Demonstration project.

The largest contractor selected by the government for this program, LILCO will obtain 60 electric vehicles. The utility will use 40 of them in its fleet to replace gasoline-powered cars and trucks, and the remaining 20 will be sold by LILCO, acting as a manufacturer's representative, to some of the firms and government agencies who attended today's program.

The Company believes that with the new additions to its present fleet of 12 electric vehicles - consisting of trucks, cars and vans - it will be one of the world's major operators of electric vehicles for meter reading, motor pool operations, and in a pilot van-pool operation for LILCO employees.

During the Nov. 2nd showing, at the New York Institute of Technology, LILCO executives demonstrated the five new models that will be available through the program. They include three different types and sizes for vans and a pickup truck, manufactured by Jet Industries, Inc., (Austin, Texas) and compact station wagon, manufactured by Electric Vehicle Associates, Inc., (Cleveland, Ohio).

American Education Week

November 12-18, 1978

Sponsored by the New York Educators Association and the National Education Association in association with the Hicksville Congress of Teachers

*A Checklist for Measuring School Quality
Provided by Local Teachers for Parents Visiting Schools*

EXAMINE YOUR SCHOOLS:

Most parents want to know if their child's school is providing a good education. It's difficult, however, to find out by just visiting schools during American Education Week. The following checklist has been prepared as a guide for parents and interested citizens who want to find out more about their schools. After asking the questions on the checklist, think about what you've found and feel free to contact your local teachers' education association for more information.

ASK YOUR CHILD'S TEACHER IF . . .

- there are more than 25 students in your child's class.
- your child is a fast learner (in reading, math, etc.). Can the teacher provide special books or programs that allow the child to continue growing at his or her own pace?
- your child is having learning problems (can't keep up with the rest of the class). Are there special teachers and materials available to diagnose the problem and spending extra time working with your child?
- your child has a handicap. What kinds of special assistance can he or she expect to receive?
- your child has a problem (doesn't like school, doesn't get along well with other children, etc.) Are there full-time guidance counselors or psychologists available in the buildings to help?
- your child has a problem (doesn't like school, doesn't get along well with other children, etc.) Are there full-time guidance counselors or psychologists available in the buildings to help?
- there are activities you can do with your child at home that will help your child be more successful in school.
- he or she has enough time to spend with each individual child.
- every child has textbooks of his or her own or must they share books?
- there is enough equipment and supplies available for good teaching (movie projectors, tape recorders, science lab equipment, business machines, paper, art materials, etc.)
- he or she has ready access to the equipment and supplies.
- he or she has an aide to help in taking attendance, correcting papers, supervising playgrounds, etc. to allow the teacher to concentrate on teaching.
- he or she receives adequate support from the building principal.
- he or she is able to decide what to teach and how to teach it.

ASK YOUR CHILD'S PRINCIPAL IF . . .

- the school has a full-time School Nurse Teacher(s) to administer aid in case of accidents and illness and to help classroom teachers teach health lessons.
- he or she visits each class and gets acquainted with the students and teachers.
- he or she evaluates teachers regularly.
- parents or the PTA are involved in planning school programs.
- substitute teachers are fully certified to teach so they can do more than merely babysit.
- the school has art, music, physical education, reading and other specially trained teachers. Are they full-time or part-time?
- all "elective" courses are available each semester.
- the district meets all state educational requirements.

CHECK YOUR CHILD'S BUILDING TO SEE IF . . .

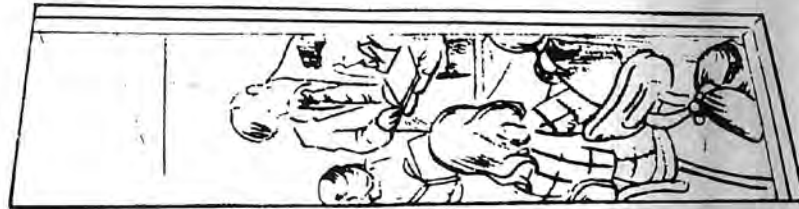

- the school has a library which is open each day and supervised by a librarian. Are there six or more books per child?
- your child's textbooks (particularly history, reading and science) are copyrighted within the last five years.
- textbooks present male-female stereotypes or exclude minorities. For instance, are women always pictured as housewives or are they shown working and learning? Are there references to and stories about black, Hispanic and other ethnic Americans?
- there are separate rooms for art, music and physical education.
- swings and other playground equipment are in good repair.
- hallways and rooms are well-lit and pleasant. Would you want to spend all day there?

ASK YOUR SCHOOL'S PTA PRESIDENT IF . . .

- school board members ever attend PTA meetings to hear what parents are saying.
- PTA requests or suggestions taken to the school board are given quick attention and a fair hearing.
- there are opportunities for parents to visit classes during the regular school day or if there are ways that parents can assist teachers in working with children.

ASK YOURSELF IF . . .

- you belong to the PTA and attend meetings.
- you have ever attended school board meetings to find out how your schools are being run and how your tax dollars are being spent.
- you voted in the last school board election.
- you found out what all the board candidates' positions on education were.
- you are registered to vote in school budget elections. If so, did you cast your vote on this year's budget?
- you make it a point to get to know your child's teacher and talk about things you can do to help your child learn.
- you talk to your child about school.

Perhaps from time to time each of you have had one. I have. But more prevalent in my experience in the ministry is several recurring conversations. There are images and beliefs in God that baptized Christians hold which do not correspond to the testimony of Scripture and its description of God and His attributes. Therefore, this morning, our sermon title might seem somewhat unorthodox as we look at the subject, "The God I Don't Believe In."

The first god that I run across in recurring conversations, which I don't believe in, is what I call a good and evil god. A god who on a whim snatches life before it has blossomed fully. I can recall a conversation with a woman who lost her husband. He was killed in the city as he tried to aid two elderly people who were being robbed. He was 35 and dead. She, 30, widowed, with two children. "Pastor," she said, "I've lost my faith. I no longer believe in God." I asked why. "I can't believe God would take Paul so tragically from me. Why did he do it?" I told her that I do not believe in that God either. God is not the source of the evil that visits us in life. He does not sit in heaven and say, "Who am I going to do in today?" The God I believe in is good, loving, steadfast ... there is no evil found in Him.

Another god I do not believe in is a god that can be put on the pad. On a religious broadcast last week I heard a man say that he just swung a $400,000 deal, and he attributed it to his faith in God. The way in which he told his story gave me the uneasy feeling that he had put God on the pad... was paying him off for special favors. In recurring conversations, I sense that some believe in a god that grants them great success in life, protection against calamity and long life if they will give him weekly worship, token prayers, and occasionally a few major contributions. God can't be bought. The point is not what we need to lay on God in order that He will continue the shower of blessings, but rather what we need to give God in response to His daily goodness.

There are other gods that I meet in recurring conversations, but I will mention just one more. I (Continued on Page 7)

Statements like, "It doesn't matter what we believe, what really is important is that we all believe in god" ... Christianity is not one of many acceptable religious expressions of God, but it is the way of salvation. And we must be about inviting people onto that road.

Now what about the god I do believe in. The God I believe in has an unmatched gift for all of us. Heaven is that gift, eternal life with God forever. It is not something we can earn; it is not something we deserve. My God is a god of unreasonable mercy. In

A Happy Halloween Night

A unique costume party for the young children of the Hicksville community was held on Halloween night at the Hicksville Public Library. The party, sponsored by Help Aid Direction, Inc. and coordinated by Doretta Borow, was presented without charge as a public service to the children and parents of the community.

The response was overwhelming. Over 300 costumed youngsters came ready for a safe fun night, full of Halloween treats, games and prizes. Safety and fun was the main theme of the night. All through the Hicksville Library Community Room, smiles and giggles abounded from behind the colorful masks and grease paint. The festivities included a costume parade, a giant "Simon Says" game, a dance contest (you haven't seen anything until you've seen a four year old disco), musical chairs and dunking for apples. We were surprised to find how many children have never "dunked" before. Help-Aid Direction was pleased to welcome all the parents that stayed and shared their children's glee.

There was also a happening at the HAD Halloween Party. A special guest appearance by the Great Pumpkin. The Great Pumpkin singled us out as his "most sincere pumpkin patch", and graced us with a visit. The children loved him as he walked around the Community Room speaking to his costumed friends and handing out candy.

The great success of the Halloween Party was made possible through the efforts of the Help-Aid-Direction staff, Board of Directors, and the many agencies, organizations, and individuals that donated time, money and materials. HAD would like to give special thanks to the Long Island Street Truckers Inc. for their contribution of time and enthusiasm. Twenty members of this organization worked tirelessly to help create, organize and run the party. We would also like to thank the many local merchants, who through their community spirit and generosity, donated the refreshments and prizes for the party. Those community minded merchants were House of Pancakes, Subway, Yummy Yogurt, Zips, Baskin-Robbins, Mid Island Bowl, Flakowitz Bake Shop, The Clothes Pen, Grandma's Donuts, Hicksville Bicycle Shop, Marcal 5-10 Stores, Jones Card Shop, Brooks Stationary, Twist of Lemon, Hardees, McDonald's, Ground Round, Darienne Coffee, Bellwood Candy, W & B Distributing Company.

Our biggest thanks goes to all the children with their smiling faces who made this Halloween Party a huge success. This was our first Halloween Party, but not our last. In order to make those that follow more enjoyable, we would appreciate your comments.

In the top picture the Great Pumpkin hands out candy and speaks to the costumed children at the HAD Halloween Party.

After 8 weeks of the Fall traveling season, the Club has recorded 62 wins, 49 losses and 13 ties. Three of the 19 traveling teams remain undefeated (Pat McHugh - '65 boys, John Harris - '69 boys and Jimmy Dolan - under 19 girls). Five additional teams have only one loss; Rich Hanna and his under 9 Tigers, Steve Florio and his under 12 Red Express, Walt Karlewicz and his under 12 Blue Lightning, Frank Schnur and his under 13 Hicksville Throstles and Kathy McCausland and her under 14 Majors. Most of these five teams still have a shot at the championship but, Oh those ties ...

BOYS LENGTHEN LEAD

The Hicksville Rovers, sponsored by the Plainview Burger King, lengthened their first place lead to two full points by doing a job on the Huntington Boys Club Strikers in a home game at Grumman last week-end. Pat McHugh's '65 boys are now 7 wins and a tie with two games remaining in the regular season. Huntington and Brentwood are tied for second place; each team has been beaten once by Hicksville. Next week, the Brentwood Freespirits come to Hicksville for their second match and are 'hungry' to try to knock off the guy on top. Coaches McHugh and Mitchell will be keeping the boys 'up' for this important game for all the marbles. The strong 4-0 win over Huntington was a sweet victory as Hicksville was beaten twice by Huntington in the Spring and tied earlier this season. Up front this week were Adrian Pepi, John Mitchell, Bobby Andrus, John McCann, Glen Zakian and Gene Tyranski. With great help from the halfbacks Jimmy Demarco, Vinny Christiano and Bobby Cullen, Hicksville built a 2-0 lead at the half. The defense held good and solid and recorded the team's fourth shutout in eight games; goalkeeper Robby Pearce and fullbacks George Marco, John Fitzgerald, Cliff Feldman and Steve Dolan. The boys have now scored 31 goals and have given up 7.

HICKSVILLE RANGERS

The Hicksville Rangers (boys 1969) sponsored by the Hicksville Motor Lodge, suffered their first loss of the season 4-3 to a fired up Cow Harbor team. Hicksville opened the scoring in the second minute of play on a goal by Derek Missimo, assisted by Darren

Nathan. Five minutes later Derek Missimo put the Rangers up by two with an unassisted goal. Hicksville kept the ball in the Cow Harbor end, and had many good scoring chances, but could not put the ball in the net. It looked like another easy game for Hicksville. The Rangers play started to get very sloppy. Cow Harbor closed the score to 2-1, when, the Hicksville keeper Sean Smith slipped and fell on the loose dirt in front of the net and a high bouncing shot got over his head before he could regain his balance. The half ended with Hicksville in the lead 2-1.

Cow Harbor started the second half on fire, and tied the score at 2-2 in the first minute. Derek Missimo put Hicksville ahead, with his second unassisted goal at 13:33. The Rangers' defense continued to play poorly as Cow Harbor controlled the play and tied the score at 3-3 in the 17th minute. With Hicksville still unable to get on the right track, Cow Harbor took the lead in the 22nd minute. The Rangers could not get their offense started, and went down to their first defeat of the season 4-3.

P.S. We all wish Mr. Randy Smith a speedy recovery from his injury which he suffered while scoring the tying goal in the over 30 Coaches League.

Blue Lightning Boys U-12

The boys Blue Lightning team sponsored by Northville Industries, and coached by Walt Karlewicz, met and defeated a very strong Cow Harbor team 3-2, avenging its only loss this season.

The boys were up for this game and scored first on a beautiful throw-in, deep into the Cow Harbor defense by winger Richard Karlewicz to insider John Moehringer, who crossed it to left winger Tom Sumner, who chest trapped the ball and drilled it past the goalie. The second was executed through good team work, when the ball was up the field and insider Bobby Cunningham followed through with a beautiful ground shot into the corner of the net. The third goal was scored by midfielder Keith Campo, who was working well with front liners Richard Karlewicz, Bobby Cunningham, Terence Reed and Nick La Vacca, as he penetrated deep and shot the ball through the outstretched hands of the goalie. Midfielders Bobby Kissell, Ian Zaretsky, and Richard Diffley played hard and aggressively, breaking up the Cow Harbor play many times. Fullbacks Mark Habersaat, Scott Fraser, Joseph Baggett, Frank Kolovich and Mario Cabrera worked hard as team work was the word of the day. Goal tending duties were shared by Sam Masiello and John Moehringer, who both had a very busy day making many saves. The boys really wanted to win this one, and it showed. They are looking forward to this weekend, when they will take on the league leader Massapequa.

"Grenadiers" By Mr. Carson

The Hicksville "Grenadiers" were belted at home last Sunday, by the West Islip "strickers". The "soldiers" lost their fourth game of the season to the tune of 6 to 2.

Hicksville scored first on a short blast by forward Billy Stein. The tally was set up on a nifty crossing pass by half back Craig Carson to winger David Niensson, who slid the ball on to Stein's foot.

After that, "grenadiers" goal tender Tim Richards was hit with the biggest attack he can remember. The "strickers" forward line just dazzled the local full back trio of Tim D'Antuono, Brian Magee and James Panchookian. The visitors rattled off six straight goals. Billy Stein also notched Hicksville's second goal, a 30 footer, created by some fancy footwork and passing of Gabe Perry and Jean Claude Bales.

The "Grenadiers" got a little charged up by that score as Richard McCarthy and Anthony Schiralli made a couple of rushes on goal. One was after a nice maneuver and a long up field kick by half back Mike Conway. The other came as a result of midfield steal by Chris Kanuck.

Next Sunday, Hicksville travels to Northport to take on the Cow Harbor club. Coaches Tony Schiralli and Mike Kanuck are looking forward to having the "soldiers" even up their seasons record.

Throw ins - The crowd that travels with the West Islip youngsters a very cordial group. That was also noticed at indoor tournaments. Of course I know our own followers have to be the best. Kids could take a lesson on position play by left winger Dave Niensson. Hope we have some field markings by next game.

This past week the Hawks played 2 games and came away with a win and tie. On Wednesday night they played a good Port Washington Team and were down 1-0 into the last 10 minutes of the first half. James Youngs put a nice thru pass to John DeMarco to tie the score 1 all. The second half was marked with good defensive play by both teams. Bill Cheslock, Bryan Althaus, Bob McKenna and Steven Hiessenhuber played very good defense for the Hawks. With 4 minutes to go in the game James Kennedy passed across the goal box and Mark Adrio put the ball in for a 2-1 win.

On Sunday the Hawks played the first place team East Meadow. In the first encounter E.M. won 1-0 so the boys knew it would be a tough game. Again both teams played good defense but E.M. drew first blood and took a 1-0 lead at the half. Joe Abbiello, Mike Lagnese, Bryan Althaus played excellent defense. In the middle of the 2nd half John DeMarco passed to Scott Greenspan who put the ball in for a 1-1 tie. The game went back and forth from that point with neither team able to score again. The Hawks record stands at 4-3-1.

Parents Booster Club

During this past summer, when the school budget in Hicksville seemed headed for another defeat and the Hicksville Schools faced a year of austerity, a group of interested parents formed the Hicksville Parents' Booster Club, a non-partisan organization dedicated to the support of students in their pursuit of extracurricular activities.

The first task that faced the Booster Club was a drive to get out the vote. Hundreds of parents and students were contacted; a petition drive was organized; students blanketed Hicksville with fliers urging the voters to go to the polls. The large voter turnout and the successful budget vote, ending the bleak prospect of austerity, were in no small way due to the efforts of this infant organization.

The founders of the Booster Club have had several organizational meetings. They hope to make the Club a vibrant and continuing vehicle of support for Hicksville's students. But they need support. They need members. They need the parents of students engaged in extracurricular activities.

The cost is low: $3.00 for an individual; $5.00 for a family. For further information call Mary Ann Saur, 796-6318; Sue Losco, 931-3029; Theresa Shubert, 681-4773; Louise Corrado, 433-3190.

Support your children; join the Hicksville Parents' Booster Club!

At Fork Lane

On Nov. 16, at 8:00 p.m. in Fork Lane School Library, parents of children eligible for kindergarten in 1979 at Fork Lane are asked to come and register their children for pre-school.

There will also be a short discussion outlining our goals and objectives in the program. It is a new and different schedule this year and we would like your reactions to an suggestions for our new program.

Terri Rennert, HICKSVILLE's own equestrienne, garnered three ribbons in the Little Plains Horse Show on October 29. Terri took Third, Fourth and Sixth place in three different classes in which she competed. She's a ninth grade student at Hicksville Jr. H.S. Terri's parents, Anne and Bob Rennert of Mayfair Lane, are very proud of their daughter's accomplishments. Terri confided to us that her greatest ambition is to compete in one of the Madison Square Garden Horse Shows. Good luck, Terri; with your talent and perseverance, we know you'll make it.

November 7 was an important day for the Lynch family of HICKSVILLE. Dianne Lynch became 14 years old, and it was also Election Day. The family helped Dianne celebrate at a birthday brunch party they held for her at the Red Coach Restaurant, and Dianne received a pair of beautiful gold earrings. Dianne's parents are Charles and Pat Lynch. Charles is also president of the Ernest F. Franck Republican Club of Hicksville.

Rene Lauritsen recently returned from a marvelous vacation in Florida. She was part of a group, Grumman Retirees, that toured Cypress Gardens, Disney World, and other sites of interest in that state. A reunion dinner was held in the Elks Club in FL, and many retirees from that area also attended. Unfortunately, the first day out on their trip home, the bus in which they were travelling had an accident. No one was hurt, but it curtailed some of the activities they had planned for enroute home. Rene said in spite of this incident, the group had a wonderful time.

Joe and Dolores Magee's son, Michael, and Dave and Ginny Smyth's son, David, are not only best friends but also both are players on the Holy Family CYO Traveling Team. Mike is a seventh grade student at Holy Family, and David is a student at Old Country Road School. These young men are terrific athletes for their age, we're told.

Tom Clark, councilman from HICKSVILLE, said that three of his sons are planning on a trip to Washington, D.C. the weekend of November 11. Since the boys will be away, Tom and Corinne's daughter, Jeaning, has scheduled a pajama party and invited five of her girlfriends to stay in her brothers' vacant bedroom. Latest flash from Tom: the Washington, D.C. trip might be cancelled; then what will he do with the pajama party group? Tune in next week for the concluding chapter in the exciting saga of the Clark family.

Heard that Michael Jackson was 14 years old on November 2. Michael is the son of Ann Jackson and the late Bob Jackson. For his birthday celebration, his grandmother, Mrs. Jean Rutiga, made three pans of lasagne for Mike and ten of his friends. Needless to say, the boys had a feast. Michael is a ninth grade student at Holy Trinity School.

Gladys and Jack McCann of Malone Street, HICKSVILLE, spent a very enjoyable evening in the "Big Apple" recently. First, they had dinner at Ma Ball's restaurant; then they enjoyed the show, "Da." They had such a good time, they plan on doing this more frequently.

Sorry to hear that James McTavish, HICKSVILLE, is in Syosset Hospital recuperating from surgery. Get well soon, Jim, your friends and family miss you.

October was the month for birthdays at the Fioretti household. Dick's wife, Liz and his son, John, both celebrated their birthdays on October 11. His other son, Jimmy, was nine years old on October 22. The Fioretis have two more sons, Andrew and Thomas. We'll report on them at another time. Dick is a local attorney who has his office at 10 West Cherry Street, HICKSVILLE. Happy birthday to all.

Thanksgiving Clothing Collection

The Catholic diocese of Rockville Centre has announced that the annual Thanksgiving Clothing Collection will again take place in all Catholic parishes in Nassau and Suffolk Counties during Thanksgiving week, November 19 to November 25.

This Thanksgiving tradition dates back to 1950, when Catholic Relief Services sponsored its first national clothing drive for the needy overseas. Since then, American families have provided CRS with more than 450 million pounds of usable wearing apparel and blankets for distribution to the poverty-stricken around the world. Last year alone some ten and a half million pounds of clothing and bedding with an estimated value of 3.5 was placed at the disposal of the poor in 38 countries through the combination of American generosity and the CRS world-wide network of distribution centers.

As in recent years, the greatest need in the 1978 collection is for lightweight clothing, with special emphasis on infants' and children's wearing apparel and men's work cloths. There is also a need for blankets, quilts, and comforters; if and when disaster occurs, CRS ships them immediately to the scene as a top priority.

The cost of transporting the clothing and blankets from the local parishes to CRS distribution centers has skyrocketed over the past few years. On Long Island, the diocesan St. Vincent de Paul Society will be helping with transportation, but a donation to the local parish for CRS transportation costs would be most welcome.

Individuals interested in making donations of usable clothing and blankets this Thanksgiving should contact the nearest Catholic church.

Operation VFW

By Lou Palladino

Those of you who missed our initiation ceremony at our last meeting, missed a very interesting event. It's the third time we've had this drill team from Queens come to our Post. Each time it's as interesting as the last. Our Commander Augie Barone managed to get them to Hicksville again. There was one draw back, it was done in the old Building so the space was limited for the participants as well as the spectators. We won't go into that because it was a necessary evil. A short meeting was held to pay the bills and then we opened the doors to all present. We also had three new members join the Post that evening. Two were old war horses of W.W.2, and one young tiger from Vietnam conflict. The horses were Jack Weingarten, and Frank Fitale, the tiger Jan Korb. It's a little late fellas, but welcome to our Post. We hope you are as glad to be one of us as we are to have you. All in all it was a very pleasant evening. Services for Veterans Day Nov. 11th, will be held at the Jr. High School on Jerusalem Ave. at the Memorial. The assembling will be at 10:15 A.M. and to be concluded at 11:00 A.M., so if you are free at that time, and wish to participate, or spectate, why not attend. This report was made by Louis Klein. At first this was scheduled for Nov. 12th, but we wouldn't go with it, after all we did put up quite a fuss to bring it back to its proper date, so even a day later would be out of order. It would be like celebrating the Fourth of July on the Fifth. If you want to call it Armistice Day, it's all right too. That was the original name anyway. On the same night we are having our Octoberfest. This looks like another good deal. Food, refreshments unlimited, and a good danceable band the tab will be $15.00 per. I don't know how many more tickets are available but get in touch with Frank Lotti, or Augie Barone, they will be able to help you. It should prove to be a very good and reasonable evening, so why not come and have a good time with us. Our Ladies had their halloween dance, and it turned out just great, but that is never any surprise, they always have a good affair, and a great job was done by the Chairlady Edna Barone, and the help of all the Ladies. Congratulations girls we had a wonderful time. Some of the costumes were great. Incidentally, we went to the second phase of the High School diploma bit, again it was quite simple. All that had to be done was to write a paragraph of not less than four sentences on a subject you know. They give you a dictionary to make sure the spelling is correct, the comma and periods are in their proper places. This is for those wishing to get their diplomas and afraid to try, you will hear more of the next step, when we get it. Mike Monteleone has a trip set for the Circus at the Coliseum, on Nov. 25th when you get your News-letters, and are interested in sending your youngsters, make sure Mike gets all the necessary information. I know I would like to go myself, after all who gets too old to enjoy the Circus. On that same evening, we will be having our Night of Chance, it will be our first Vegas night since it has been legalized. Help can always be used, if you wish to help see Frank Lotti so that you can get cleared, you must have your picture on your badge, the same routine as getting cleared for Bingo.

Supervised Sledding

When the first snowflake hits the ground, Nassau youngsters of all ages will start scurrying around to find their sleds, toboggans, or anything else that can be used in the time-honored way on hills of every variety.

From December 1 throughout the winter, supervised sledding goes into action at several parks operated by the County's Department of Recreation and Parks, whenever there's enough snow.

Preparing for the onslaught are: Christopher Morley Park in Roslyn-North Hills; CANTIAGUE PARK, HICKSVILLE; Grant Park, Hewlett; Roosevelt

Park; Hempstead Harbor Beach Park in Port Washington; EISENHOWER PARK, EAST MEADOW (Parking Field No 1); and Cedar Creek Park in Seaford. All hills are open to sledders from 9 a.m. to dusk daily, with the cooperation of Jack Frost, except Cedar Creek, which stays open until 9 p.m.

To find out if there's enough snow, call 486-4455 after 1 p.m. for a daily taped announcement, or contact the individual parks.

97 Alarms For Vamps

The Hicksville Volunteer Fire Department during the period October 15 to Nov. 7 responded to 97 calls for assistance. There were 5 malicious false alarms, 50 fire calls and 42 rescue calls.

Structure Fires
During the past few weeks there have been several serious fires causing considerable damage. On October 26 a general alarm was transmitted for a smoky blaze at Jacks Deli on the mall at the Mid Island Plaza. The alarm came in shortly after midnight. The sprinkler system kept the fire confined but the total damage was approximately $25,000. The cause was believed to be accidental.

The former Shay Kennels on West John St. Scene 9 A disastrous blaze a few years ago which killed 26 show dogs was again damaged on October 31st. The general alarm came in 10:26 pm. Evidence at the scene indicated the fire was set. The following day at 8:10 pm a flammable liquid was tossed inside causing more damage. The County Fire Marshals office is investigating.

A freight car stocked with 15 large rolls of paper was set afire on the railroad siding behind the Agway Co. on West John St. on Nov. 2nd at 5:02 PM. Two alarms brought out all available Hicksville Vamps and all equipment. Power had to be shut down on the third rail and all West bound rail traffic out of Hicksville was stalled for over an hour as Vamps extinguished the blaze. Over 2,000 feet of hose was dropped to supply water to the Vamps. The Jericho F.D. stood by in Hicksville till the fire was extinguished.

High

Green House Destroyed
A fire of suspicious origin destroyed the Greenhouse behind the Hicksville High School. The plexiglass enclosed structure was leveled. The alarm was reported at 12:18 AM on November 4th by security personnel. The Greenhouse was attached to a chemistry classroom. Fire was kept out of the classroom area by security using CO2 Fire Extinguishers. Many youths were seen at that location shortly before the blaze broke out. The secluded court yard is a favorite gathering place for beer drinking youths. Damage was estimated at $5,000. The County Fire Marshals office is investigating. Firefighters brought hose lines in through hallways to get water on the blaze. There are no hydrants in the area.

Insured Vamp Still Confined
Injured Hicksville fire fighter Richard Kishanuk is still confined as a result of injuries he sustained responding to a false alarm. Complications have delayed his recovery and also led to an emergency operation for a blood clot. Firefighters nationwide have repeatedly warned people about the dangers of sounding a false alarm. In many areas alarm boxes have been removed because they cause more hazards than they prevent or contain.

So please - Lecture your children and young people on the dangers of sounding a false alarm.

SEPTA Meeting

Septa, Special Education PTA, will hold a general meeting Nov. 14th, at the Hicksville Jr. High School, 2nd St. entrance, Teacher's Faculty Cafeteria in honor of our Hicksville Special Education Teachers, within the Hicksville School District.

At St. Ignatius

There will be an important meeting for St. Ignatius Loyola parishioners and school parents on Wednesday, November 15, at 8:00 p.m. in the New School Cafeteria. Everyone is encouraged to attend. Reports on the School's financial status and long-range planning will be presented. Following these presentations there will be ample time for questions and answers. Refreshments will be served.

Adult Ed Registration

Registration for the Hicksville School District Adult Education and Evening High School classes is still being accepted in Room 133 of the Senior High School, Division Avenue, from 8 to 9 p.m.

Assemblyman Lewis J. Yevolo is thanked by Michelle Agostino of Bethpage for his part in obtaining a visa for her fiancée. Italian recording star Gino Trioli. The happy couple were married last Saturday at Our Lady of Pompei Church in New York City. The occasion culminated weeks of effort on the part of Assemblyman Yevolo's and Congressman Jerome Ambro's offices to cut the red tape that had held the pair apart since last spring. The newlyweds will remain in the United States where Gino will be recording and making personal appearances.

On Wednesday, November 15th at 7:30 PM Willet Avenue P.T.A. is holding its first Card and Dessert Party. The proceeds of this event will be used for cultural programs and class trips for the students. The Card Party Committee has been diligently working to enlist the aid of local merchants for prize donations and the response has been very encouraging. There will be something for everyone: raffles, door prizes and table prizes. Cards will be provided or bring your favorite game. This is also an opportunity to join the teachers and your neighbors for a relaxing social evening. Admission of $2.00 includes a bounty of delicious desserts prepared by the members of the P.T.A. Above we see Phyllis Vlar, Chairlady Rosemary Dello, and Geri Gurrieri of the Willet Ave. P.T.A. examine a few of the prizes donated for their card party.

Kindergarten Homework

On Oct. 19, the Kindergarten Class of Old Country Rd. School took a trip to Filaski's Farm, Brookville.

Here are two stories dictated to the parents by two students, explaining what they saw, did, liked best of all, and wish they could have:

William MacMelville, a student in the A.M. session dictated: We took our trip on a yellow school bus. I saw big trees turning different colors. Some trees were yellow-brown, red and orange. I saw a brown and a black horse. When we got to the farm -- we looked in the store. I saw round red apples, green celery, and a funny looking vegetable called a zucchini. It looked like a cucumber. I touched Indian corn and it felt hard. I saw a talking scarecrow -- who played "Simon Says" and gave us directions to the pumpkin field. I felt happy playing with the scarecrow. The rabbit was eating lettuce and carrots. It made me feel hungry. The part I liked best of all was picking my pumpkin. I wish I could have taken a ride on the horse. Jessica Fondacore, a student in the P.M. session dictated: I saw apples that were red and round and smooth. I saw grapes that were small and smooth and light green. Apples are seed holders. I saw celery that was light green and is the stalk. The onions are the root. I felt all the fruits and vegetables and some were smooth and some were rough. The onions and apples are spheres. I saw a talking scarecrow. It was sitting in a jeep. It had a pumpkin head, beets for eyes and peppers for ears. He had rags for clothes. I think there was a speaker in it. I saw horses, a rabbit and a donkey. I rode on a school bus for the first time. I liked the talking scarecrow the best. I liked when it talked to me and my friends. It was fun to pick a pumpkin because I never picked one before. I felt like I was in a meadow when I was picking one pumpkin. I felt like I was in a forest when I walked through the tall grass. I wish I could have rode on the horses.

We're the neighborhood bank with a retirement plan that pays off now!

If you're a full-time or part-time employee not covered by a qualified retirement plan, an Eastern Individual Retirement Account (IRA) can mean substantial tax savings right now!

You may deposit any amount you wish up to 15% of earned income each year (up to $1,500-per-year maximum -- or $1,750 if your spouse does not work). And you may deduct the total amount you deposit each year from your taxable income.

What's more, both principal and interest are exempt from taxes until you begin to withdraw the money (any time between ages 59½ and 70½). By then, you'll probably be in a lower tax bracket and able to realize significant tax savings.

Best of all, opening deposits as low as $500 currently earn 7.75% a year -- for an effective annual yield of 8.17%. That's the highest interest rate allowed by law! So stop by your neighborhood Eastern branch for complete details. We'll help you retire with a bundle later while you save on taxes now.

After all, that's what neighbors are for. Individual Retirement Accounts... another reason why it's great to be an Easterner.
