Blood Drive

The Long Island Blood Services, formerly inter County Blood Services, will be conducting a mobile unit blood drive at the Mid Island Shopping Plaza, in Hicksville, on February 16, between 2 and 7 p.m. The Friday afternoon drive is being held to help keep blood supplies at a safe level over the Washington's Birthday weekend, when blood donations drop off sharply.

Long Island Blood Services provided more than 125,000 units of blood to 43 hospitals on Long Island last year, all of it collected from voluntary donors. The non-profit blood collection and distribution service moved to new headquarters in Melville this past January in an effort to provide more effective coverage for all of Long Island. It's centralized location should allow it to transport blood more rapidly to needy patients at hospitals on the east end, while still allowing total coverage of the western portions of The Island. The former collection center in Rockville Centre will no longer be in use.

Anyone between the ages of 17 and 65, and in good health can be a blood donor. The procedure is safe, painless, and takes just a short while. For more information call LIBS at 752-7300. Give blood, it was meant to circulate.

H.H.S. Volleyball - County Champs 1979

The atmosphere was one of apprehension, but also of excitement and anticipation of a victory or victories to come. The Hicksville Girls' Varsity Volleyball Team had come to the Nassau Community College Physical Fitness Complex for the County Championship tournament. This was the fourth straight year that the girls had made it to the playoffs, but there was a little more confidence or determination this time, the girls were going to go all the way...and they did.

The results of the county playoffs were as follows:

1st game - Hicksville vs. Levittown Div. - W 15-4, 15-12 (2nd place Div. A - Conference III).
1st 1/4 final game Hicksville vs. Plainview JFK W 15-10, 15-5 (1st Place Div. A - Conference II).
Semi final game Hicksville vs. North Shore W 15-10, 15-11 (1st Place Div. A - Conference IV).
County Championship Game - Hicksville vs. Uniondale W 15-13, 15-3 (2nd Place - Div. B - Conference I).

It all started back during the first week of November with tryouts; from that first day until the county championship game on January 19th, the girls practiced long hours, 6 days per week. Each girl develops a specific skill that when put together makes the team gel. This was a team of experienced hard workers, 10 seniors and 2 juniors, most of whom had played in the county championship game last year.

The girls would like to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Mary Sue Carr for another year of dedication and hard work in helping them achieve their outstanding record.

Town Seeking Bids On Former Annex Building

The buildings that formerly housed the Oyster Bay Town Hall annexes in Hicksville and Massapequa will be put up for sale or lease through public bidding, according to Town Supervisor Joseph Colby.

"The Town services formerly provided at these locations have already been relocated to other existing Town facilities," Colby said. "and the disposal of these now surplus buildings can produce additional revenue to the Town as well as return these properties to the tax rolls." The Hicksville Annex was relocated to the Town parking garage at Newbridge Road and Duffy Avenue last August, and the Massapequa Annex moved to the John J. Burns Town Park administration building last month.

At the direction of the Town Board, bid specifications are being prepared by the Town Attorney and the Commissioner of General Services, who have jurisdiction over Town properties. The Board has set an upset price of not less than 85 percent of the appraised value for each property and for leases, minimum terms of 10 years subject to increments every three years.

Leases will not be assignable, and each bidder must state in his bid the nature and type of business or profession that is proposed for the property, which also must conform to the present zoning.

Army Holds Open House For Washington's Birthday

From February 20 thru February 24, the U.S. Army recruiting stations in Brooklyn, Queens, Nassau, Suffolk, and Staten Island will celebrate George Washington's birthday by holding Open House from 9 AM to 8 PM, each day.

There will be displays and souvenirs at each station.

Also, during Open House Week, Career Counselors will be on hand to answer questions about the Army's new two year enlistment and bonus plans.

Under the new two year program, a person who qualifies can serve in Europe for two years and receive up to $7,400 in educational benefits.

There are job openings, at present in 35 career fields.

The two year option is limited to High School seniors or High School graduates.

A High School senior may enlist during the current school year and, under the Delayed Entry program, report for active service after graduation, as long as the reporting date is not later than December 31, 1979.

All Army recruiting stations in Brooklyn, Staten Island and Suffolk will be open until 8 PM, during this special celebration.

In Nassau the Hempstead, Levittown, West Hempstead and Massapequa will be open.

In Queens, the participating stations are Jamaica, Springfield Gardens, Flushing, Jackson Heights, Far Rockaway and Glendale.

Guest Cantor At Midway

World-renowned singer and Cantor, Misha Alexandrovich, a recent emigre from the Soviet Union, will be the guest Cantor at Shabbat Services at the Midway Jewish Center, on Saturday morning, March 3.

For 25 years Cantor Alexandrovich was one of the Soviet Union's most celebrated artists, having been awarded The Stalin Prize and named a Distinguished Artist of the USSR. Throughout his distinguished career he has proven as accomplished on the concert stage as on the pulpit. Because of his long expressed desire to emigrate to Israel, he was not permitted to leave the USSR to perform abroad, and with the advent of the Cold War, even the pulpit was denied to him. Finally, he was granted an exit visa and made his first appearance in Israel in 1972 as a singer and cantor. Since that time Misha Alexandrovich has sung to audiences in America, Europe and Israel to great critical acclaim.

Midway Jewish Center invites the entire community to attend services on Saturday morning, March 3rd, to hear Cantor Misha Alexandrovich. The Center is located at 330 S. Oyster Bay Road, Syosset.

Admission is $1.50 for both days. Featured at the show will be a dazzling display of Cambridge's Caprice in blue by Mr. Charles Mikulik of Elizabeth, New Jersey. Mr. Mikulik is one of the northeast's leading collectors of Caprice and will be on hand to discuss his collection.

Eighteen selected dealers from seven states will display the standard D.G. patterns such as Princess, American Sweetheart and Cameo as well as Cambridge's Crown Tuscan, Duncan Miller's Early American, Fostoria's June and Versailles and many beautiful pieces of Heisey.

A Message From Sup. Colby

I would like to remind senior homeowners in the Town of Oyster Bay that, commencing this year, those 65 years of age and older can apply for new "circuit breaker" income tax credits or rebates on their real property taxes.

In order to qualify, the homeowners or renters must not have received more than $12,000 gross annual income and can apply for the rebate or tax credit with their New York State income tax returns filed this year for the 1978 tax year. The tax credit is designed to provide some relief for the hard-pressed older homeowner on a fixed income.

Even those individuals who do not file State tax returns may still qualify for a tax credit, which they would receive in the form of a rebate check from the State.

Senior citizens can receive help in applying for the real property tax credits, as well as free, complete preparation of their federal and state income tax returns through the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizen Affairs. The Department has arranged for field representatives of the federal Internal Revenue Service and the New York State Income Tax Bureau to provide these services starting February 14, through April 6 at the Department's branch offices in Freeport, Roslyn, Long Beach, and Elmont.

Be sure to bring all pertinent tax records, including a copy of last year's return, with you. It is suggested that you call ahead for an appointment. For more information on these and other senior citizen services, you can call the department at 535-4414.

Town Receiver of Taxes Sol Newborn has asked me to also remind homeowners who qualify for senior citizen exemption on their property taxes that a new application must be filed each year. The filing period for this exemption is January 1 to May 1.

Marino Notes More Tax Goofs

A major rate cut is being thwarted by another administration tax bungle in Albany according to State Senator Ralph J. Marino (R-Syosset).

Unless taxpayers in the $21,000 plus earned income bracket obtain a special form IT 250, they will be unable to benefit from a tax reduction voted by the Legislature last year. And unless they read a boxed reference in the tax packet received by four million taxpayers, many will not even know that the maximum tax liability has been reduced from 15 to 12 percent.

According to Marino, when taxpayers in the 21,000 dollar plus bracket do obtain and fill out form IT 250, they will also be referred to another new form IT 220. This must be used if there are "N.Y. State Items of Tax Preference" to be entered as deductions before one's "Personal Service Taxable Income" can be completed.

Recently, Marino warned taxpayers with dependents in college that the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance neglected to change tax forms enabling them to apply for tuition tax benefits.

"The omission of the necessary forms and instructions denies taxpayers the opportunity to reduce their taxes as the Legislature intended," said Marino. "The forms, in any event, are so complex that I am encouraging taxpayers to seek help from the Tax Department to see if they qualify for tuition deductions or a lower tax rate."

The Nassau Office of the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance is located at 114 Old Country Road, Mineola, 516-741-0950.

Dear Friends:

It has always been my contention that at least some of the flowers (or accolades) should be given during the lifetime of those who are activists and constructive workers around us. So, it was heartwarming to be present at the Hicksville Kiwanis Luncheon on Wednesday when both Dr. Charles Masek and "Uncle Frank" Chlumsky were honored. The nicest part was that both of these fine gentlemen are still around and still helping. God blesses them and us, in that we have each other.

Best wishes for continued success go to the genial owners of the popular Stack O'Barley Pub located on South Broadway in Hicksville, for on Wed., and Thurs., Feb. 21st and 22nd, they will be celebrating their third anniversary with a great party. Music will be by Pat Roper and Tommy Doyle. Everyone is welcome. A hot and cold buffet is planned and reservations are recommended.

If ever a restaurant is really Hicksville it is the ever-popular Frank's Alibi on Old Country Road in Hicksville. We have mentioned before how pleasant it is. Also, you won't want to miss the absolutely delicious food prepared by their chef. Along with everything else about this long-time favorite of ours, it is really great.

In line with this praise, did you ever stop to think how many fine local businesses there are right here in our own home town? Shop locally in all ways possible has many advantages. Try it, if you haven't already. We are sure you'll be pleased.

THAT'S ALL for this week. Stay well and warm during these cold wintry days.

Another Tour of the Scriptures

Tuesdays during Lent, beginning March 6 and continuing through April 3, The Rt. Rev. Jonathan G. Sherman, biblical scholar and retired Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Long Island, will visit Holy Trinity Church, Hicksville, for a continuation of a Tour of the Scriptures. Last Spring Bishop Sherman toured with St. Paul. This Lent he will present the biblical literature of St. John which is most appropriate for Lenten reflection on the Gospel and the interior life of the Christian.

The community is especially welcome and invited to attend these Tuesday evening Tours, which will begin at 8 PM in the Church with a brief devotion of hymns and prayers followed by Bishop Sherman's biblical presentation and refreshments. Holy Trinity Episcopal Church is presently celebrating the 80th year of its founding in 1899 as a Diocesan Mission. This 80th anniversary year began with a commemoration on the Feast of the Epiphany. A gala dinner dance is being held on Friday, February 23, at the Holiday Manor, Bethpage. In addition to Bishop Sherman's Tour of the Scriptures, the anniversary year will include a week long mission directed by the Friars of the Society of St. Francis, Little Portion, Mt. Sinai, between the Feast of Pentecost, June 3 and Trinity Sunday, June 10. Also, a retreat weekend for adults is being offered by Holy Trinity Church at the House of the Holy Nativity, Bay Shore, the weekend of March 9, 10 and 11. Couples from the community are invited to attend this retreat weekend. Interested persons please call the Church Office, 931-1920.

Letter To The Editor

To the Editor:

President Carter is proposing to eliminate Social Security benefits for children 16 to 21 whose fathers or mothers are dead. On the surface, this appears to be an arbitrary federal economy at the expense of widows and orphans.

Current Social Security taxpayers, however, should consider what it means to them. If we were given a choice, we could put our Social Security payments into college funds for our children.

and that money could not be taken away. Our children's future would be covered.

But we have no choice. If this proposal goes through, we will all be paying higher Social Security taxes and buying less protection for our families.

President Carter's Social Security insurance plan is no bargain.

Sincerely yours,

S. Gertrude Rothenberg

John Anderson, son of Francis and Lillian Anderson of HICKSVILLE, was promoted last month to Commander in the U.S. Navy. He is now stationed at Charleston, S.C. His proud parents flew down to Charleston for the ceremony. He has also been selected to go to a Senior Service College any time before Aug., 1981. He, his lovely wife, Marti, and two sons, John and Justin, returned from a two year hitch in Scotland (Dunoon), where he worked aboard a submarine tender as a Supply Corp. Officer. John graduated from Hicksville H.S. in 1959 and Colgate University in 1963. He entered Officers Candidate School in Newport, R.I. in Sept. of 1963.

Happy 2nd Anniversary to Keith and Carol Wendel, Vincent Rd., HICKSVILLE on Feb. 19. Also, happy birthday to Keith, who celebrates on Feb. 27.

Among the local area Democrats who attended last Sunday's Nassau Democratic County Committee Cocktail Party at the Salisbury Restaurant were 10th A.D. Democratic Party Leader, Bernard Chetkof and his wife, Mickie of PLAINVIEW; Co-Leader Sally Shapiro of OLD BETHPAGE, Mike and Sue Polansky of PLAINVIEW; Sid and Judy Jacobs of WOODBURY and Audrey Hagemann of HICKSVILLE. Patrick McFormack of HICKSVILLE, Marvin Rosenthal of PLAINVIEW, and Larry Mista of PLAINVIEW. Local Dems were celebrating last year's victories and looking ahead to an exciting and successful campaign in this year's Town elections.

The Board of Trustees of the Greater New York Savings Bank, has announced the election of Rebecca Cunningham to the post of assistant Vice President. A graduate of Brooklyn College, she has attended the American Institute of Banking, as well as N.Y. University. She resides with her husband in HICKSVILLE.

Visiting HICKSVILLE from the sunny climes is David Von Hof of Seminole, FL. David is Karen Donovan's brother and he drove up here to spend a week with Karen and Joe. Enroute, David's pickup truck that he was driving broke down. David and his friend, with whom he was travelling, rented a U-Haul van which was large enough to accommodate the pickup truck. The fellows backed the van up to the incline on which their pickup truck was stalled, and then let the truck roll down the hill and into the van. They continued their trip in this fashion until they reached Long Island—and you guessed it, the van broke down, too. But at last report, all's well that ended well, and the fellows got the van back to U-Haul and their truck repaired. I thought things like this only happened to Burt Reynolds in his movies.

We were sorry to learn that Jim Mac Tavish is back in the hospital. He would be pleased to hear from his friends and neighbors via a card or note addressed to him at Sloan Kettering Hospital in New York.

Congratulations to Eleanor Francis, W. Nicholas St., HICKSVILLE, and Donald Hoose, North Massapequa. Eleanor and Don recently became engaged. Don presented Eleanor with a beautiful diamond in a Tiffany setting. Although no plans have been set for the wedding day, the happy couple are planning where they will go on their honeymoon. Following their marriage, they will spend some time in Hawaii. Best wishes, folks.

We finally got some more information about Bob and Ann Becker's new grandchild. Bob said the baby was a girl, named Angela, and she was born on December 8, or, er, maybe she was born on December 12. However Bob was sure of one thing...they love their new little granddaughter.

Happy "Sweet Sixteen" to Sharon Grace, of Ash Lane, HICKSVILLE, celebrating Feb. 16.

Honor Two Hicksville Kiwanians

Approximately 100 people attended a Kiwanis Luncheon honoring Dr. Charles Masek and Mr. Frank Chlumsky on Wed., Feb. 14th at the Millbridge Inn. It was Valentine's Day, but that wasn't even necessary to observe the love that exists between fellow Kiwanians, local Hicksvillians present, and these two fine people who have served the community of Hicksville for so many years and are still continuing to do so.

After innumerable "happy dollars" were given in honor of Dr. Masek and "Uncle Frank," the program which was conducted by the Club's vice-president Siegfried Widder, was turned over to Kiwanian Joseph Oliver, who presented a gift to Dr. Masek. In replying, Dr. Masek took a "trip down memory lane" with the following statement.

"This testimonial luncheon was one of the best kept surprises, until the press made an announcement.

"It is a very special privilege for me to share this honor with so great and so loved a man as Frank Chlumsky, who, throughout his great dynamic career as a public figure, and his unselfish and tireless work as a humanitarian, will never be equalled.

"Frank congratulations. "There are so many orchids that can be thrown in the path of services that the "K" club of Hicksville has achieved. In the limited time at my disposal, I would like to touch on two of my favorite objectives. One, our role played over 40 years of service in Hicksville, when the ugly face of welfare weed showed its image on the horizon; and two, our scholarship program, assisting worthy students to attain higher education.

"The labor market in Hicksville was always pretty sound. In 1938 and 1939, when the clouds of war were slowly floating over the nations of the world, we in America, were included in the dismal picture of the times.

Our economic picture began to change. Unemployment became a part of our life's pattern. Families were slowly draining their financial reserves. It then became apparent that "Kiwa is" had its work to do—help the needy. In those days, there was no instant relief fund. Kiwanis stepped in to fill the gap of immediate assistance until the T.O.B. became an effective agency in administering assistance to the needy.

"Our funds were limited, but we were filled with the spirit of assisting those in temporary need of help. I'll never forget Eskimos Joseph Oliver and Henry Brenzel, picking up food and toys at Thanksgiving and Christmas time—in the dead of winter. It was cold—even the Scotch lost its power to warm us.

Committee To Meet On Mental Health

The Educational Goals and Objectives Committee met on February 8th to discuss the proposed Mental Health (Strand III) curriculum. This segment of health education includes: personality development, human sexuality, and family life education. The Committee would like to thank the many members of the Hicksville Community who have shared their thoughts with Board members, Committee members, and the public at large, regarding the proposed curriculum.

Some of the concerns expressed by Community members include the types of reference works cited in the curriculum, the lack of an alternative program for students; who would teach the program; the use of clinical terminology for parts of the body; and the appropriateness of the activities to be included in the curriculum.

The Committee is in the process of revising the curriculum, taking these community concerns into consideration.

Dr. Wilber D. Hawkins, Superintendent of Schools, addressed the Committee and emphasized that before any health education curriculum is implemented, there would be an extensive period of teacher orientation.

wife, Maybelle and children Jackie who is working towards her R.N. degree in Nursing, Joanie (who celebrated her 18th birthday February 13) Patricia my godchild and the fabulous John L. We were there also to help at the annual Valentine's Day party for the residents of the Rockland County Health Complex, in Pomona, New York, where my brother-in-law John Twohie, assisted by members of the Monsey Lions Club, put together a special showcase for the patients. John is a born entertainer and master of ceremonies - he kept them laughing and singing, while I played the piano for the show put together with heart by several members of the Monsey Lions Club. Special thank you to Dr. Joseph Triestman, Chairman (who sends his regards to fellow Chiropractor, Dr. Walter Dunbar of Hicksville - we advised Walt that his talents are known throughout the State); George Sikorsky, who provided many magical moments for the patients and to the chorus lined by Maybelle and Joan Twohie who performed so well "Side By Side" - and several other audience participation songs that gladdened the hearts of these happy patients. This was the first time in many years that I became involved in a showcase - certainly nostalgia of the days when the writer led his own 14 pc dance orchestra in the metropolitan area. It was quite an honor to be invited by John to

Honorary Life Membership

At a meeting on Thursday, February 8, Mrs. Blanche Weiner was awarded an Honorary Life Membership in the New York State Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The East Street PTA presented the award in recognition of Mr. Weiner's dedicated service to children and youth in the school and community.

This distinguished award was made possible through a contribution by the East Street PTA to the New York State PTA Jenkins Memorial Scholarship Fund and of the Teacher Fellowship Fund. Contributions to these funds enable the New York State PTA to provide scholarships to students entering college with an education major. And Fellowships to teachers enrolled in summer study program.

This award, an honorary one, is given in recognition of the recipient's involvement in various areas.

Mrs. Weiner was the art teacher at East Street School for over 20 years. Last year she supervised an art exhibit by all the children which was a huge success. On the occasion of her retirement each child drew a picture and these were presented to her on Thursday evening at a covered-dish dinner.

SIX WOMEN OF COURAGE

A One Woman Show
Six Women of Courage - a one woman show by Janie Stockhamer will be performed at the Plainview Old Bethpage Public Library on Thursday, March 8 at 8 PM.

Ms. Stockhamer, a former teacher, has been acting for many years most recently in original dramatic presentations of her own creation. She is well known to young student audiences throughout the Metropolitan area and on the West Coast. Now parents of those children and other adults can experience her unique bright talents as she portrays: Pocahontas, Debra Samson, Dr. Elizabeth Blackwell, Annie Oakley, Annie Sullivan and Amelia Earhart.

Different as each of these American heroines was Ms. Stockhamer moves into each character with the knowing confidence of another self.

People who know her work have written "You captivated our interest and stimulated thinking in a most important area of human rights" and "For one hour I was transported to the temper and time of the eighteen hundreds."

There is no charge for admission but free tickets are required. These will be available to local school district residents one week in advance of the program. Others will be seated just before the performance as space allows.

PHOTOGRAPHY BY VINCENT DE PRIMA ON EXHIBIT

Through the month of February photographs by Vincent de Prima will be on exhibit at the Plainview Old Bethpage Public Library.

Mr. de Prima is a former commercial artist and Professor Emeritus of the Art and Humanities Department of New York City Community College and accomplished world traveller.

HONOR TWO

"The girls, to mention a few, Marion Masek, Gladys Schwartz, Minnie Rothstein, Ruth LeBaron, Lillian Anderson, and many more. They set up tables in chain stores, banks, restaurants, to sell their tickets. Our treasury was the envy of every "K" club in our division. After the War, our welfare program continued and still continues today.

"Our number two objective, education, is very much alive. Kiwanians Dr. Leon Galloway, King Kelly, Russ Coniglio, are the men who select the worthy student to receive our yearly scholarships awards. Our beneficiaries are students in all progressions. We are all pleased to be a part of these worthwhile programs."

Next Dr. Leon Galloway presented a gift from the Club to Mr. Chlumsky. He made a touching speech in which he recalled his first meeting with the then-school board member Chlumsky and his colleagues, when he first applied for a position in Hicksville. In those days, as today, Uncle Frank was known for his ability to "make a person feel at home and relaxed" and to encourage him in what he wanted to do. Times change, but not the fine people like Uncle Frank and Dr. Masek, who continue serving our community year after year.

Mr. Chlumsky's reply although brief, due to the time element, was inspiring to all present for one could know that at no time do men of his caliber stop helping their fellow men and their communities.

Town of Oyster Bay Councilman Sal Mosca made a presentation on behalf of the Town of Oyster Bay, to both award recipients complimenting them and the Club on a long and fine record of accomplishment.

One left with the feeling that all present were benefited by hearing the record of these two fine local Kiwanians. In a changing world, one needs such examples so that progress can be in the right direction.

Continued next week. S. Noeth

Opposes Emissions Inspections

Assemblyman Kemp Hannon (R-C-Nassau) recently urged the State Department of Environmental Conservation to suspend its plan to immediately call for an annual emissions inspection of all vehicles registered in the New York Metropolitan area, including Nassau County.

Hannon stated that despite the high cost of the program, only a minimal reduction in exhaust fumes can be expected. "According to the Department's own plan, replacement of older vehicles would be five to ten times more effective than an automobile emission inspection and maintenance program," Hannon said.

"An annual inspection would probably cost between $10 and $30. It is also calculated that the cost or repairs, to comply with the inspection standards, could run as high as $100 per vehicle," Hannon noted.

Hannon stated his opposition to the emissions inspection plan in a statement submitted to the Department in conjunction with a hearing held on January 30, 1979. The hearing is one of a series conducted for comment on the proposed State Implementation Plan (as revised) for the Federal Clean Air Act, as amended in 1977.

New Law

The Village of Hempstead may now claim fire insurance proceeds on properties where unpaid tax liens exist under a local law adopted unanimously by the Village Board. The resolution adopted the law under the provisions of Section 22 of the General Municipal Law of N.Y. State was passed after a public hearing at which nobody spoke in opposition to the proposal. The amount of insurance claims by the Village is limited to the extent of the lien for unpaid taxes.
