School Board, HCT Reach Accord

by Linda Strongin

The Hicksville Board of Education and the Hicksville Congress of Teachers reached a contract settlement after the teachers voted 211 to 140 to accept the contract.

Supt. Dr. Wilber Hawkins stated "In speaking for the Board and the administration, we are pleased to have negotiations culminate with a three-year contract. The district can now turn its attention to providing the best possible education for the students of Hicksville."

"Negotiations, by its very definition, is a give-and-take process. What one hopes to achieve in the beginning finally has to be reconciled with the demands of the other side during the process."

"These negotiations have been long and hard and frustrating at times. It is most satisfying to have a three-year contract and with it a grace period in order to direct our attention to other endeavors."

Negotiations went around-the-clock beginning at approximately 9 p.m. on Sunday evening and continuing until 12:30 p.m. on Monday.

Teachers begin walking a picket line at 6 p.m. Monday morning, although the strike officially began at 11 p.m. on Friday, May 11. Schools were open and attendance was low. Many parents took their children out of school when discovering that there was an insufficient number of substitutes to cover the classrooms.

Dr. Hawkins informed this reporter when questioned about the inadequate number of substitutes available, that the administration had been assured, after receiving positive responses from many individuals, that coverage would be more than adequate. However, when the individuals were called at 6 a.m. on Monday, many of these individuals had refused.

The contract provides salary increase of 3.8% the first year; 4.4% the second and 4.7% the third year, including increment. Many teachers had stately publicly that money was not an issue in the negotiations.

Several items that were in the previous contract were taken out. These "give-backs" include, among others:

- elimination of sabbaticals;
- elimination of pupil-personnel-student ratios which include school-nurse teachers; guidance counselors, speech therapists; and psychologists; These ratios are guaranteed only through the second year of the contract (1979-80). Dr. Hawkins stated it "was not the Board's intent to eliminate these services but to have the prerogative to be flexible."

- requiring the HCT President to teach a full load of five classes per day. Currently the president has been assigned three classes.
- requiring, on the secondary level, that teachers have three preparations or levels of teaching instead of two;
- raising the total student load on the secondary level by five students; In English, this will increase to 130 students; in the other subjects it will go to 150.

-on the elementary level, district-wide averages will come under a "10% wobble" figure, with no teacher being hired if student enrollment increases 10% and no teacher being let go if it decreases 10%.

-under workman's compensation, teachers will continue to receive full salary and benefits for two years and then must apply for benefits under the state program; or for social security benefits. The previous contract was "open-ended" in this area.

Hicksville Congress of Teachers Treasurer Max Josephs stated: "The Board has achieved its 'flexibility'". It is now up to the public to watch how they exercise their options. We are concerned that the public will accept the reduction in offerings and a lower standard in education for their children. Increased class size on the secondary level can only lead to greater impersonalization of education at the critical adolescent ages."

"Other portions of the school board's 'gains' can-only lead, in my mind, to less teacher involvement."

"The public has always owned the schools; the public still owns the schools and I hope the public will always own the schools. I cannot help but feel that I am less a member of the public than I was in the past."

She was made Music Supervisor for all the Hicksville Schools in 1954, a position she held until her retirement. Since then, she has been giving vocal lessons and singing in the church choir of the United Methodist Church. She was a founder of the Community Concerts in Hicksville and is a member of its Board for over 20 years. She is a gifted, sensitive musician with a fine voice.

Kindly remember me to all of your friends and my friends at the luncheon.

I am wishing I could be with you for the celebration.

It is kind of you to respond to former students who inquire concerning my welfare. I must say that concerning my MANY BIRTHDAYS I am happy, busy and quite well. My keen interest in all of my students in Hicksville remains the same.

I hope your plans for May 11 will be a delightful and happy occasion.

Very sincerely yours,
 Mabel R. Farley"

A Message From The Board of Education

The long and arduous negotiations have ended in a three-year settlement between the Board of Education and the Hicksville Congress of Teachers. Salary increases amount to an average of 4.3% over the three years, including increments. In return, the Board was able to retrieve many of its management prerogatives. Sabbaticals were eliminated, as was the half-time off for the union president, and a limit was placed on certain benefits. The Board of Education is pleased with the settlement in that it met our chief criterion; that of reaching a fair settlement that represented the interests of the employees, the community and the students. Now that negotiations are behind us, the Board wishes to return to its main order of business - educating students.

We wish to thank the many citizens of Hicksville who supported us during these often difficult times and urge everyone to continue being involved in the affairs of the school district.

Important First Steps Toward Improving Jones Inlet

Forty thousand boats a year use Jones Inlet to go between the sheltered waters of Long Island's South Shore and the Atlantic Ocean. The inlet is one of the more dangerous stretches of water on Long Island's hundreds of miles of coastline. It's a shallow, narrow channel, partially blocked by constantly shifting sandbars, made more treacherous by swift-running currents. It takes a skilled skipper to navigate Jones Inlet and if your boat's too big it'll run aground.

Last week, at my request, the House Public Works and Transportation Committee took a major step toward improving the inlet and making it safer for both the pleasure boats which use the inlet and the commercial and party fishermen who use it now and want to make greater use of it with larger, more efficient boats. The committee authorized $950 thousand for an engineering and economic feasibility study of enlarging and deepening both the Jones Inlet and the Freeport Channel.

This study is not aimed at stop-gap measures to clear portions of the channel for one summer of boating. Rather, it's a long-term project aimed at stabilizing the inlet, deepening the channel, making the inlet safer for all boats which use it, and making the rich Atlantic fishing grounds more accessible to Long Island-based fishing fleets.

The fishing industry on Long Island already generates some $75 million annually for our economy and employs between 9 and 10 thousand people. Many of the businessmen who earn their living from the sea tell me they want to expand, providing more jobs for Long Island and fresher, higher quality seafood for our tables, but they cannot because the larger fishing boats needed for such expansion cannot make it through Jones Inlet to Freeport and Point Lookout where the fish-processing industry is already located.

Both the House Public Works and Transportation Committee and the Army Corps of Engineers have recognized the need for a study of this dangerous, but heavily traveled, inlet. These approvals are crucial first steps in developing a comprehensive plan for improving Jones Inlet to foster Long Island's burgeoning fishing industry and to make the inlet safer for every skipper who uses it.

I am now urging the House Appropriations Committee and the Army Corps of Engineers to do all that they can to expedite action on the study. I hope it can begin later this year. The sooner the study is underway, the better for Long Island.

County Recreation News

A Medieval Fair and Festival highlighting exciting demonstrations of more than 20 crafts of the Middle Ages in a castle courtyard-like setting will be held Saturday, June 16 at Eisenhower Park.

Continuous displays of Medieval artistry will be set up in the picnic area adjacent to Parking Field No. 3. Festivities begin at 10 a.m. and continue until 6 p.m.

The 18th Century setting will be enhanced by a moat and drawbridge, heraldic flags and banners, strolling minstrels and madrigal singers, knights in armour, acrobats, jugglers and jesters.

Magicians will astound young and old alike with startling feats of the Black Art. A witty fortune teller will hold visitors spellbound with intriguing and often mysterious visions revealed in her crystal ball. There will also be breathtaking fencing duels.

The artisans will be clad in enchanting period costumes. Among the crafts to be demonstrated are woodcarving, whittling, metal tooling, calligraphy, pottery, weaponry, glass staining, book illuminating, silversmithing, glass blowing, musical instrument-making, heraldry, candlemaking, blacksmithing, weaving, quilting, spinning, bookbinding, Herbariums and more.

High school baseball at its very best will be on tap during June at Eisenhower Park's field B as Section 8 holds its championship playoffs with the cooperation of the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks. Admission is free.

The Republican Police Committee opposes passage of the First Concurrent Resolution on the Budget for fiscal 1980 and strongly supports the passage of a Republican Alternative - The First Year of a Republican Five-Year Budget Plan - a positive response to the public's desire for balanced federal budgets and lower taxes.

The Republican Five-Year Budget Plan will provide responsible spending restraint in 1980 and balances the budget in 1981 with modest surpluses in 1982, 1983, and 1984. In addition, the Republican Five-Year Plan will reduce the tax burden to the average of the post-Korean war years (18.6 percent of GNP).

H. Con. Res. 107, The First Concurrent Resolution on the Budget for fiscal 1980, demonstrates clearly that the Democrat-controlled Congress lacks the resolve to cut federal spending in response to the overwhelming sentiment of the American people. The Fiscal 1980 Congressional Budget Resolution proposes increasing federal spending above the President's request to a level of $533 billion and calls for approximately $4 billion more in tax revenues. Rather than cutting back on spending and move toward balancing the federal budget the Democrats propose cutting the deficit by increasing taxes. This is a film-film of the American taxpayers.

The First Concurrent Budget Resolution for 1980 offers precious little restraint and more than a double dose of tax increases. It severely cuts defense spending, furthering the decline of our national defense capabilities, and increases spending for social welfare programs. It proposes an inexorably large deficit of $25 billion in view of the whopping tax increases which would drive up revenue collection to record peacetime highs and in the fifth

The interesting exhibit is co-sponsored by the African American Heritage Assn. and the Museum Division of the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks.

The Black History Museum is located at 106 N. Main St. in Hempstead. For further information, call 538-2274.

Bicycles built for two will be available for rental at Eisenhower Park daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. beginning Thursday, May 31 and continuing through September 5. Until then rentals are on weekends and holidays only.

Single seaters are also available. Tandems rent for $3.25 the first hour with an additional charge of .75 every 15 minutes thereafter. Singles rent for $1.75 for the first hour and .40 for each additional 15 minutes. There is a maximum daily fee of $10. Senior citizens pay $2 and $1 respectively with charges of .25 and .50 per 15 minutes thereafter.

A Republican Alternative

full year of economic recovery.

The Republican Five-Year Budget Plan proposes an alternative budget which taxes, a weakened national defense and a pervasive federal government. Instead, they continue to accelerate and redistribution of income and wealth from productive segments of our society to the non-productive.

When President Carter took office, inflation was running at an annual rate of 4.8 percent and declining due to the For Administration's steady and restraining economic policies which were producing a solid non-inflationary recovery. Since then, the Democrat budgets, despite their characterization as "lean," "tight" and even "austere," have in truth been highly stimulative, devoid of sound fiscal policies, and have produced runaway inflation and an overheated economy.

The Congressional budget process enacted in 1974 was designed to reestablish Congress' control of the purse, to decide the total levels of spending and taxing each year, so that Congress could make comprehensive rather than piecemeal decisions about fiscal policy and the size of the federal government.

The Democrats have subverted the budget process to their own purposes as evidenced by the Third Budget Resolution for fiscal 1979, piggybacked onto the First Budget Resolution for 1980, which increases federal spending for this current fiscal year. The Democrats are also subjecting budget process to the dangerous game of "wheeling and dealing" to special interests. These special interest programs are put in the budget with relatively modest spending impact in one budget year but large doses of budget authority to spend in future years. By then, these programs have developed powerful constituencies which make spending Highlights of the tour will be visits to the Whaling Museum and quaint village shops. Lunch at the participants' own expense will be at a picturesque restaurant overlooking Shelter Island Sound.

Automobile lovers can look forward to two top-notch car shows during June at Eisenhower Park, co-sponsored by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks.

The Long Island Triumphant Association will stage its Second Annual Concourse and Show on Sunday, June 17 beginning at 9 a.m. in the Lower Maples picnic area adjacent to parking field No. 6A.

The Model "A" Ford Club of Long Island will hold its annual fun-filled extravaganza on Sunday, June 24 beginning at 9 a.m. on ball fields No. 4 and No. 5 adjacent to parking field No. 1.

for them, "uncontrollable" or compounds the task of cutting back on eliminating the programs.

The Republican position is that every federal budget ought to be "austere," taking as little in taxes as possible from the productive segments of our society and providing funds for only the most essential federal programs and activities.

The Republican Alternative Five-Year Budget Plan presents the Congress and the American people with a clear and distinct choice in economic and fiscal policy. Passing the first year of this Republican Alternative is the kind of response the American people want and deserve.

At Bailey Arboretum

Seventeen varieties of Japanese Peonies will burst into bloom from May 15 to May 20 at the beautiful Bailey Arboretum in Lattington, a facility of the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks.

Ranging in color from white to pinks, yellows, reds and deep purple, their Japanese names defy pronunciation although botanists will undoubtedly find them familiar.

Their intriguing common names are a delight to the imagination and in the pink strain include the Jewelled Lotus, Cherries of a Poet, Joyous Lion and Intoxicated Face. A yellow and purple beauty is tagged Gate of Springtime, a white with a red base is called Brocade in the Dark while a pure white with a yellow center is dubbed Flight of Cranes.

The Bailey Arboretum, located on Bayville Road and Feeks Lane in Lattington is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. with an admission of 50 cents per person, including parking.

Letters To The Editor

The Hicksville School Board and the Teacher's Union are to be congratulated on averting a disastrous strike. The entire community breathes a great sigh of relief. No doubt each side feels that some matters will have not been satisfactorily resolved but negotiations are completed and now is the time to close ranks and to begin again to work for quality education in the school system.

One advantage of all the public discussions was the revelation of the existence of certain conditions in the schools. For instance, the talk about workmen's compensation finally publicized the fact that a high school teacher had broken up a drug "buy" on school property and was stomped for his trouble by the youths involved. This may have been known to some parents and taxpayers before, but it certainly never made page one news. Such terrorism is intolerable, and whatever conditions exist that permit first of all, the introduction of drugs onto school property and secondly a brutal attack on a teacher - must be eliminated.

The incident suggests that perhaps the Administration and the School Board have not recognized the dimensions of the problem or have not squarely faced up to it. Moreover, if a teacher can be brutalized, what does that say about the potential danger to our children? Have teachers, especially women teachers, been intimidated to the point where they are not doing all they could or should to stop this type of behavior? Why should parents have cause to fear for the safety of their children?

These are questions that must have priority on the School Board's agenda, before quality education can continue. The issues of physical safety and discipline are fundamental, and as a candidate for the School Board I pledge to work emphatically and persistently to improve control in these areas.

To The Residents of Hicksville:
Much attention has been focused on the "parents' group" in Hicksville over the past month. Questions have been raised as to how the group was organized and what goal it is attempting to achieve.

The "parents' group" is known as the Hicksville Parents for Education. It was conceived in order to unify the growing number of concerned parents who have children in the Hicksville Public School System. Through this unification, it was possible to increase community involvement in the educational crisis that took place in Hicksville. Though we were unable to bring the Board of Education and the Hicksville Congress of Teachers together at the negotiating table before the strike deadline, we feel that we were instrumental in bringing to their attention the fact that the Hicksville community is not apathetic in regard to quality education in our schools.

As a group we feel that our usefulness has not ended. Our goal is to increase community awareness regarding educational policy in the Hicksville School District.

In order to accomplish this goal it is necessary to keep the community informed of school board actions which influence the educational environment, and ultimately affect children and taxpayers of this community.

The Hicksville Parents for Education is presently seeking additional members. We would like to have representation from each area surrounding the individual schools in the district. This would enable the flow of information to be facilitated to all residents of the community.

If interested please call Pat Lambaunes at 931-7241 or Janet Schaub at 938-2156.

Sincerely,
Janet R. Schaub

To the Editor:

The Hicksville teacher strike is over, but feelings will be trampled upon and friendships marred for many years. Although I'm glad there has been some sort of settlement, I'm extremely distressed about the lies that have evolved. No I'm not talking about the teachers. It's the Superintendent and the Board of Education. People were told during board meeting public

Dear Friends ...

TEACHERS, like parents, children, senior citizens, and your ordinary, every-day taxpayers, come in all shapes and sizes, on a scale of say, "one to ten". Actually we would like to say something to encourage all our teachers because we know how important the work they do is to all concerned.

The vote to settle the strike was cast for different reasons by different teachers... that we know too.

Let's just say this, you know how important you are. You are really aware also, of the problems that affected all concerned in the recent negotiations. No one completely won or completely lost everything, even though, due to the times and the Taylor Law, it may seem that way to you. This is one negotiation period... there will be others. This is one point in time when not only Hicksville but the entire world is struggling to make both ends meet. We cannot all have everything we want or feel we deserve... but nothing is final... and there will be many other times when outside conditions that affect the spending habits of our nation will have improved.

In the meantime, all is not lost... those who represented you did the very best they could under the circumstances and present conditions. It is not a time to blame either your union representatives or the Board of Education, or the parents, or the taxpayers in your community.

The profession you have chosen has many more rewards than come through negotiations. It is a proud profession, justly so. And we are proud of you.

A Message From The Gregory Museum

Dear Neighbors,

In recent weeks, through letters and articles appearing in the Hicksville press and, this past Sunday, in the Long Island Weekly-section of the New York Times, the public has learned that the Gregory Museum is in trouble. The word is out that the popular Earth Science Center housed in Hicksville's National Historic Place, the Heitz Place Courthouse, is going to close this summer if some modest administrative and operating costs are not forthcoming from our community resources.

The Museum Board of Trustees, consisting of such community leaders and volunteer workers as Elery Bean, Kenneth Barnes, Irwin Botto, Edward Peter, Rosemary Barrow, Elizabeth Pearce, Dr. Richard Smith, Gardiner and Anne Gregory, Dudley Shannon, Stephen Bernheim and the writer have offered the Museum to the Hicksville School Board for its administration and funding at a cost of $35,000, or, approximately, $2.00 per year for each taxpayer.

Numerous efforts to obtain sustained annual funding already have been made through proposals to the County and Town governments, but for various reasons (unrelated to the value of the Museum services) the proposals have not materialized. The Museum Trustees, on the other hand, have had various eager offers for the splendid Gregory Museum collection of rocks, minerals, fossils and a magnificent butterfly and moth collection, but all such offers would take Hicksville's "pride and joy" - one of two local treasures - out of the community to locations such as the County's Garvies Point Museum, Vanderbilt Planetarium at Centertown or to the Stonybrook University campus.

To avoid such a tragic loss to Hicksville, the Gregory Museum's Trustees have prepared an extensive proposal for our Board of Education and Superintendent of Schools, suggesting ways in which the Museum's collections, programs and historic courthouse-jail building may be readily correlated and integrated with our schools' curriculums on all grade levels. In addition, the community and its School Board have been assured that the Museum is ready to undertake the transition in its status in a fully functional state, with an experienced Curator and a C.E.T.A. staff which is just beginning an 18 month contract with the Museum, salaries funded by the Federal government.

Friends and neighbors, if you or your children have ever visited the Museum and stood in wonder before exhibits of nature's diversity and beauty, if you remember with pleasure the many programs the Museum has fostered which developed pride in our community and national history; if you treasure the contributions you or your family made to the creation of the Gregory Museum, will you take the time, now, to help us retain the Museum in Hicksville?

Simply cut or tear off the following statement and mail or deliver it to the Gregory Museum, Heitz Place, Hicksville. Time is running out and we must show our School Board the support the Museum has in Hicksville.

To the Board of Education and Supt. of Schools:

We, the undersigned, resident voter-taxpayers, are in favor of your accepting the Gregory Museum proposal for making the Museum a part of Hicksville's educational program on a reasonable trial basis.

We do further agree to the Board of Education raising school taxes approximately $2.00 per year to cover the cost of the proposed merger.

With him are Felice Lippert, Vice President, Food Research for Weight Watchers International, Inc., and Albert Lippert, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the company. Mrs. Lippert developed the menu for the restaurant, which is designed to meet the needs of the overweight and the weight conscious. The 87-seat restaurant is for people who enjoy eating, want to eat well, but who also are careful about their weight.

During the afternoon, Chris Doyle livened the affair with a few beautiful Italian and Irish songs.

At this time the Association would like to express their heartfelt thanks to Miss Mabel R. Farley and Henry and Dot Brengel for their direct contributions to the Mabel R. Farley Scholarship Fund.

Miss Gloria D. Francke's untimely and sudden death saddened those who knew her through her many years of teaching in the Hicksville School District. Parents and her former pupils will long remember a very dedicated teacher whose main concern was for her pupils to whom she gave her undivided attention far above the standard requirements of a professional teacher. The Hicksville High School Alumni Association extends their sympathy to her friends and relatives.

TOB Memorial Day Is May 30

In keeping with New York State's return to the traditional day for observance of Memorial Day, all Oyster Bay Town offices will be closed on Wednesday, May 30th.

Making the announcement, Town Supervisor Joseph Colby stated that certain commercial and business activities would be required to suspend operation between the hours of 9 AM and 1 PM to allow for Memorial Day observances. Those businesses affected include all trades, manufacturers and mechanical employments, as well as real estate.

Restaurants, grocers, delicatessens, bakeries, farm stands, and fishing tackle and bait suppliers are not affected by the closing times.

"Since the Federal observance was changed to the last Monday in May, veterans groups have been urging that the Memorial Day commemoration be returned to the original May 30th date," Colby commented. "It is indeed a tribute to all those who have served and died in the defense of our country that this patriotic observance has been restored to its rightful date."

Thunderbirds
by Joe Neto

The Hicksville Thunderbirds sponsored by Long Island Boating Publications traveled to Huntington to face a team with the same 5-0 record. This Huntington team had scored 24 goals while giving up only 2 goals in 5 games. The game went off as expected, both teams putting pressure on each other, as the game went from one end of the field to the other. Huntington scored first on a real pretty goal. The inside left gave a pass to the left wing that was cutting in towards the goal and shot it in. Michael Pryves made a good dive towards the ball and managed to get one hand on it, but the ball was hit too hard and it went in the net. A few minutes later Huntington scored again on the same type of play only this time the play came from the right side of the field and now Hicksville was down 2-0. Hicksville played well in the first half and had a number of opportunities to score but could not finish their drives into the net.

In the second half it was altogether different. Hicksville took charge of the game and played the best 30 minutes of soccer they have played all season. Paul Thompson was moved up from left fullback to inside left and got things by scoring the first Hicksville goal on a pass from David Kanuck. Paul came back again and scored the tying goal on an unassisted goal from a corner kick. With the game tied at 2-2 the boys did not let up and kept putting pressure on the Huntington defense. The deciding goal was a well executed goal. Brian Mc Kenna passed the ball to Joey Neto, as the goalkeeper came out to challenge, Joey chipped the ball over the goalkeepers head and Joey Doherty charged in and put the chipped ball into the open net. Minutes later Brian Mc Kenna put in the insurance goal on a long shot from outside the 18 yard line.

The team made a tremendous come back being down two goals at half time against a tough Huntington team and pulling the game out with 4 goals in the second half. The defensive line of Michael Ayres, Darren DiFlorio and Martin Jaycard did a great job allowing very few shots on goal. Just before game time, while the boys were warming up on the side lines goalkeeper Richard Markey suffered a jammed middle finger and had to be taken to the hospital to be examined. Fortunately it was not severe and Richard came back to the field but was unable to play. Michael Pryves took over the goalkeeping and did a super job.

The halfback line also did a tremendous job. Richard Fraser, Thomas Kenny, Andrew Horne and Chris Dolan never let up and they deserve a lot of the credit for the win.

GENERAL

The 26 traveling teams have now passed the halfway mark of the season and have played 204 soccer games including League, Regional and Long Island Cup competitions. With well over 300 games scheduled for the season, after 7 weeks the teams have won 124 of the 204 games and have maintained their 60% winning percentage.

The 13 Division I teams kicked off the first round of the L.I. Cup last weekend and came out with 9 wins and 4 losses. Like the Regional Cup and State Cup competitions, the L.I. Cup is a one game knockout (one loss and you're out) until a Long Island Champion is established. Two teams have advanced to the Southern N.Y. State Finals in Regional Cup Competition and one in the State Cup. Pete Collins' under 19 Munitemen play their final in New Brunswick, N.J. next Saturday and Steve Florio's under 12 Red Express will meet Massapequa in their Final. John Harris' under 10 boys have moved to the finals of the State Cup. One of the biggest Tournament Weekends of the year (Memorial Day) is coming up next week and no less than 16 of the Club's teams (about 250 children - boys and girls) will leave Hicksville to participate and billet away for the weekend in tournaments in Massachusetts, Virginia, New Jersey and Upstate New York.

ROVERS

Pat McHugh's under 14 boys traveled 25 miles east to take on the Bohemia Timbers last weekend. In a very physical match, the Bohemia team became more and more frustrated with their inability to move the ball against the more skilled Hicksville boys. The first score came on a great volley kick from 25 yards out by Vinny 'The Pooh' Christiano off a corner kick by Adrian Pepi and, by early in the second half, the Robers had built a 3-1 lead. An inexperienced referee had difficulty controlling the conduct on the field and this match turned out to be one of the toughest and roughest the team has ever played. Rounding out front line striker duties are: Bobby Andrus, John Mitchell, John McCann and Gene Tyranski; the midfielders are Jimmy Demarco and Dave Smyth; and the defense is handled by George Marco, John Fitzgerald, Cliff Feldman, Jim McGeough and Steve Dolan with goaltending responsibility on Robby Pearse. Coaches McHugh and Mitchell talked the boys into finishing the game in a sportsmanlike manner and they came home with a 4-1 victory - their 5th in seven League games this season. Their total record in 17 games including league, tournaments and Cup competitions is 14 wins, 2 losses and a tie. After the match, the Rovers returned to Hicksville and visited their Sponsor - The Plainview Burger King for Whoppers, Fries and Coke. They have to meet this same Bohemia team in a Cup game next week.

CARDINALS - Boys U-8

Last Sunday, the "Cardinals", sponsored by Barenstone Productions, Inc., travelled to Deer Park to face the tough "Rascals". Earlier in the season, they beat the "Rascals" in a 2-1 thriller with the winning goal coming within the last seconds of the game.

Due to the inclement weather and horrible field conditions the game became a defensive one.

The first half score was nil and continued to be scoreless until 10 minutes into the second half, when Brian Finnell on a breakaway faked the "Rascals" goalie to the left and then put the ball into the right side of the net for the only goal of the day.

Continuous passing and hustling by Willie Sneddon, Chris Shearer, John Schneider, Brian Sacks, Stephen Postullo, Charlie Maione, Brian Hoeston, Bobby Himmel, John Fabrizio, Stephen Goulay, Robert Franzese, Scott Duca and Eric Bentley enabled the "Cardinals" to come back from Deer park with a victorious 1-nil score. This brings their record in the LIJSL to 7-0.

Boys "U" 9

On a foggy day in Bohemia town - the wet and tired "Grenadiers" fell down. The Hicksville "Grenadiers" lost to the tough Bohemia "Hawks", 4 to 2 last Sunday. Coach Tony Schiralli's team slogged through the mud and the rain playing the "Hawks" even, up to the last four minutes. The Hicksville boys, with no reserves available, were beaten on two breakaway goals by the home team late in the game.

Both Hicksville goals were notched by wing Anthony Schiralli. The first, to tie the score at 1 to 1 in the initial half, came at the end of some great passing and ball control the length of the field. Half back Craig Carson grabbed control of a goalie Tim D'Antuono boot. Carson flicked the ball downfield to the front line of Rich McCarthy, Jean Claude Balek and James Panchookian. This trio dazzled their hosts with a few passes, the last one from McCarthy to Schiralli sweeping in from the side, who rifled a shot high into the nets.

Bohemia took the lead again just before the half ended. They kept beating down wiry fullback Mike Conway's ally with relentless efforts by alternating attack lines. Conway's deep back mates, Tony DeRosa and Brian Magee were stymied by the well speak "Hawk" offense.

Hicksville's last marker tied the score for the last time at the ten minute spot of the second half. Again it was Schiralli racking up the tally. The play began as midfielders Tim Richards and Chris Kanuck ganged up on a wayward "Hawk". Richards dropped a pass off to Rich McCarthy darting straight at the Bohemia goal and in a classic move, snapped the leather to the trailing Schiralli, who rammed in the number two score.

Next week coach Schiralli, his aide Mike Kanuck and the "soldiers" will host the rowdy Cow Harbor herd on Tudor field at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Big Red-under 11 Boys

The Big Red team, sponsored by the Joseph Barry Council of the Hicksville Knights of Columbus again had a winning week-end. Saturday they recorded their sixth straight win of the season by defeating Syosset 8-0. The scoring goals came from C. Bentley, Keith McCann, D. Missimo, P. Christiano and a "hat trick" by P. Ziembicki with help from all their team mates.

Sunday they continued their winning streak by taking the first round of the Regional Cup. The game was a true test of their talent and fortitude. Both teams were evenly matched, and it was an exciting game.

Holy Trinity Episcopal Receives New Priest

Monday evening, May 14, was a time for celebration at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Hicksville. The parish church became the cathedral for The Right Reverend Robert C. Wither, Bishop of Long Island, and his Reception of The Reverend Lawrence Charles Donahue as a Priest in the Episcopal Church. Father Donahue has been with Holy Trinity Church since September, 1976. From then till now he has been preparing for Priesthood and ministry in the Episcopal Church. Besides the Rector, The Reverend Dominic K. Ciannella, he was attended by The Reverend Charles M. Sullivan, Priest-in-Charge of St. Mark's Church, North Bellmore. The Bishop was attended by The Reverend Herbert H. Beardsley, Church of the Advent, Westbury, and The Reverend

Donald C. Schneider, Holy Trinity Church, Valley Stream. One of the readers was Mr. John Meyers, recently graduated from the George Mercer Jr. Memorial School of Theology, Garden City, and awaiting his ordination to the Diaconate this coming June 23. Master of Ceremonies and Litanist for the Reception Eucharist was Mr. Calvin T. Roberts, Sr. The Offertory Gifts were presented by Father Donahue's mother, Mrs. Lawrence Donahue and his sister Mrs. Roger Bannister, and the Parish Warden, Mr. C. Guy Davids and Mrs. John Towle. Father Ciannella was the preacher at this service of Reception using as his text St. Paul's prayer from the third chapter of Ephesians. The theme of his text was the honor of being a captive of Christ and fettered with the chains of the Gospel. It is from this persuasion, Father Ciannella enunciated, that the priestly and pastoral ministry finds its authority, power and direction. Father Donahue participated with the other priests in celebrating the Eucharist, with the Bishop as chief celebrant. Following the service a reception in honor of the occasion was held in the auditorium where both the Bishop and Father Donahue and members of his family were toasted. Father Donahue was presented with a parish purse, a set of Eucharistic vestments and individual gifts from family and friends. As of June 1, Father Donahue officially takes up his position as Curate of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Hicksville.

The Hicksville Community Chorus, directed by William Goleekee will offer its annual Spring Concert this Sunday afternoon, May 20, at 3:00 P.M. in the Hicksville Public Library. The concert features a variety of choral music planned for everyone's listening enjoyment. Gounod's "Mass in C," a medley of songs from Cole Porter's "Kiss Me Kate," plus several of Robert Frost's poems set to music by the American composer Randall Thompson make up the afternoon's program. Soloists are Steve Weinblatt, Ned Portoghesse, Gerry Singer and Bill Goleekee. The chorus is accompanied on the piano by Marie Sgammato.

There is no admission charge and all are cordially invited to come and enjoy this program of fine choral singing. The Community Chorus and the Community Orchestra (conducted by Dr. Charles Gouse) are sponsored by the Board of Continuing Education.

Camp Fire Girls

The Hicksville, North-Central, District of Campfire held their annual Mother-Daughter Dinner on May 6. This gala affair was well attended by both mothers and daughters.

Her mother, Denise Baldwin, assisted. An award is given each year to the Campfire person who earns that distinction.

The dinner was held at the Ground Round in Hicksville and all in attendance had a marvelous time. The band was terrific.

All other Campfire's who earned 30 or more boosters took part in a drawing for 10 additional prizes.

Hicksville Fire Report

Hicksville volunteer fire fighters responded to 78 alarms during the period April 25 through May 14. There were 12 malicious false alarms, 36 fire calls, and 28 rescue calls.

The recent town board hearing on hazardous materials (decision reserved) brought out many fire chiefs from the Town of Oyster Bay, including Hicksville and Jericho. Deputy Fire Chief Owen Magee of the Hicksville F.D. asked the Board to pass the proposed ordinance to protect fire fighters from unknown dangers. He stated that fire fighters accept the dangers of the job, but need help in the form of laws requiring firms to post signs on their buildings warning firefighters and police of any dangerous materials stored inside. All firefighters use air masks, but many chemicals are absorbed through the skin. Warning signs would help firefighters avoid injury. The new proposal will require permits, notification of the Fire Dept., the Town Building Dept. and carries a fine of $250.00 and/or 15 days in jail for failure to comply with the regulations. A hazardous materials board made up of a fire service member, building department representative, industry representative would meet to approve permits or any other associated business.

Hicksville Vamps responded to a mutual aid call in Jericho on May 9 at 1:16 p.m. The crew stood by as Jericho Vamps worked at the scene of an overturned truck loaded with chemicals on the Expressway. Many dangerous chemicals were aboard the truck, which ran off the road after a tire blew out. There was no fire in-olved. It was feared for a time that nearby homes would have to be evacuated. Firefighters and bomb squad personnel working in 90 degree heat found the containers intact. The vehicle was marked with the proper warning signs.

Quick action by Hicksville Vamps on Sunday, May 13, prevented a fully involved blaze in an attached garage at 20 Rim Lane from extending to the house. A leaking gas tank on a motorcycle was listed as the cause. Damage was estimated at $3000.00. There were no injuries at the 5:32 alarm. Six pieces of apparatus, 65 men responded under Deputy Chief Richard Kershaw.

Vial Of Life Program
The Hicksville Lions Club has started the "Vial Of Life" Program for Sr. Citizens or disabled residents of Hicksville. The Hicksville Fire Dept. supports this important program which makes available emergency medical information to fire or police personnel when the victims themselves can not communicate. More information on this important life saving program will be forthcoming soon. Local Senior Citizen Groups are being contacted now.

Fire Department Drive Underway
The annual welfare fund drive of the Hicksville F.D. is now underway. All residents should have received the brochure by now in the mail. Proceeds of this fund drive are used to fill in the gaps where tax money is not allowed to be used. Certain department operations such as fire prevention, public relations programs, welfare fund for injured Vamps, office supplies, etc. This money does not buy fire equipment. Your tax money is used for that purpose. Your volunteers stand ready to help you anytime. A donation from you is a good way of showing you support the efforts of YOUR Hicksville Fire Dept. These men are your neighbors. They receive no pay for the job they do. They answer your call - will you answer theirs?

Recruits Needed For Youth Activities

The Hicksville F.D. is again starting the Jr. Firemen Program in Hicksville. A recent State Law prohibiting the Fire Commissioners from funding these youths set back a very active program that once had 50 youths in its membership. Many restrictions have been imposed on the Youth Group as it is now called. The youths will be trained in the use of fire fighting equipment and tactics. Until funds can be built up, parents will be asked to provide hard hats, rain suits, and boots for the youths, plus a simple parade uniform of white shirts, black pants, and shoes. The youths will be covered by insurance. They can not fight actual fires or work at fire scenes helping Vamps pack up equipment as they once did. The restrictions have hurt the original intention of the group and it is hoped that the law can be amended to permit additional activities. The program is open to youths 14 to 18 years old who reside in the Hicksville Fire District. If interested, contact the Hicksville Fire Dept. at 20 Gebhardt Plaza (E. Marie St.) Hicksville, N.Y. 11801.

Hicksville Town Meeting

by Carole Wolf

At the conclusion of the May 3rd meeting of the Hicksville Community Council, there was the usual Town meeting where anyone could announce anything as long as it pertains to Hicksville.

The Committee For the Development of Hicksville, under the Chairmanship of Steve Didier, announced that they gave a presentation at the Town Board meeting of April 10th. He mentioned that the Committee will be meeting with the landowners on Friday night, May 25th at the VFW Hall at 8 P.M., during which the Committee would like to hear the viewpoint of those who own land in the area.

H.A.D. is holding their first marathon volleyball game at Mid Island Plaza from 9:30 A.M. to 10 P.M. During the day, H.A.D. will be playing various teams to try to raise funds for H.A.D. and their opponents.

The meeting concluded with an announcement that the Hicksville Community Council is holding its eighth annual dinner at Antun's on Thursday, June 7th beginning at 7:30 P.M. This is the Council's last meeting of the year and for most of us, it is the last time we see our friends and fellow workers in the Community until the fall. At the dinner, as usual, we are planning to give a Community award and President's Award to citizens of Hicksville who love their community so much that they give of their time and talent to make it better for all of us.

After a short time of greeting everyone, we will all sit down to a smorgasbord at 8 P.M. Plates can be filled as often as you like with a complete smorgasbord of 20 hot and cold dishes. Coffee and a parfait will be served at the conclusion of the dinner. Tickets will be $8.00 per person and can be obtained by calling Cathy at 433-6437 or Carole at 822-3861. Come and end the season with the Hicksville Community Council. We will be looking forward to seeing you there.

NEWS OF AUTOS

BOLD AND BEAUTIFUL—Buick Skylark for 1980 has been designed and engineered from the ground up for efficient use of energy, materials and space while still providing the convenience and comfort traditionally associated with the name "Buick." Three series are available: the top-of-the-line Skylark Limited, the mid-range Skylark Sport and the standard Skylark. All three come in either coupe or sedan models and all feature front-wheel drive with the engine mounted transversely for the first time in Buick history. This configuration allowed engineers to retain virtually the same interior and trunk space compared to respective 1979 models, while permitting a reduction of exterior dimensions and a weight savings of some 750 pounds. Following in the footsteps of such current Buick successes as Riviera and Regal, the Skylark features a bold upright grille flanked by sloping fenders, a notchback roofline and wide horizontal tail lamps. Can be seen at Eineman Buick-Opel, 330 W. Old Country Road, Hicksville.

Tackle New Adventures On The Barbecue Grill

Backyard barbecue chefs who hesitate to tackle anything more ambitious than hamburgers or steak are missing a lot of the fun and adventure of outdoor cooking.

Though barbecuing originally meant roasting a large animal over an open fire, today it refers to a broad range of cooking techniques, both indoors and out, and a variety of ingredients in recipes. Grilling, rotisserie cooking, skewer cooking, and foil cooking are the most popular. The common element is the savory, open-air flavor of barbecued foods that comes from basting with barbecue sauce.

Simple tricks such as marinating economy-cuts of meat in barbecue sauce overnight, or adding the sauce as a spicy ingredient in vegetable side-dishes, relishes, and dips add flavor and versatility to any outdoor menu.

This recipe from the Kraft Kitchens for Barbecued Pinwheels demonstrates the flair barbecuing can give to transform ordinary round steak into a special "roulade." Round steak is first seasoned and topped with bacon strips. Then it's rolled, cut, and tied into pinwheels. The pinwheels are grilled on skewers to facilitate turning and brushing with barbecue sauce.

Barbecued Pinwheels

2-1/2 to 3 lbs. round steak,
1/2-inch thick,
trimmed, boned
Salt and pepper
8 bacon slices
Kraft barbecue sauce

Barbecued Pinwheels add a new twist to outdoor cooking. Round steak is topped with bacon strips, rolled, cut, tied and skewered, then brushed with barbecue sauce on the grill.

Sprinkle with salt and pepper, pound into meat with meat mallet. Lay bacon slices on meat along short side. Roll up meat starting at long side. Tie with string at each bacon strip. Cut into eight pieces. Place two pinwheels on each skewer.

Indoors: Broil 25 to 30 minutes or until desired doneness, turning and brushing frequently with barbecue sauce.

Outdoors: Grill over medium coals (coals will have a slight glow) 25 to 30 minutes or until desired doneness, turning and brushing frequently with barbecue sauce.

Indoors: Broil 25 to 30 minutes or until desired doneness, turning and brushing frequently with barbecue sauce.

NEWSTWORTHY TRENDS

CARPETING: THE TIME IS RIGHT

The prices of food, housing, energy—and almost everything else—have just about hit the ceiling in the past ten years. But the good news is that one major home expense—carpet—has only modestly increased.

As a result of significant changes in the carpet industry in the past 20 years, many experts point out that the cost of carpet is lower, and its quality higher, than ever before. This is due to a number of factors.

First, because of the industry's change from weaving to tufting, efficiencies of up to 40 percent have been achieved, and the savings have been passed on to the consumer.

There have also been some important improvements in fibers and manufacturing. The new saxony type of carpeting, for instance, has a tighter twist, and its yarn has more integrity. Its fibers have been developed with either a bright luster that results in clearer colors or a dull luster that resembles the finest wool.

If you are planning to purchase carpeting eventually, it might be wise to buy now. Experts in the fiber industries anticipate that the increasing cost—and perhaps scarcity—of oil will have an important effect on the price of fiber.

A 'Blazin' Over The Years

Ten years ago, Chevrolet introduced a four-wheel-drive sports utility vehicle (bottom) that could go far off the beaten path—in style. Over the years the Blazer, combining high styling, excellent maneuverability, a large cargo and passenger area and many comfort, convenience and appearance options, has steadily grown in popularity. "This vehicle is designed for both business and pleasure use," said Donald A. Bouchard, Chevrolet's Truck Sales Manager. "We estimate that we'll sell a record 90,000 Blazers in the 1979 model year. We can sell as many as we make, but this vehicle is so popular that we're capacity restrained." Available at Robert Chevrolet S. Broadway, Hicksville.

POT POURRI INCREDIBLE INFLATION

Just how bad is inflation? Well for starters, it costs more to buy a new car in North America today than it did for Columbus to purchase and outfit three ships for his expedition to the New World.

In these days when a 4 percent inflation rate would be considered good news, perhaps some figures produced by a Wall Street broker forecasting prices and wages in the year 2050 are worth bearing in mind. In 71 years the average salary will have increased to $620,000 a year, which is a little over $50,000 a month. But forget those dreams of a life of luxury. A loaf of bread will cost $40.00 and a pound of sugar about $280.00. Your newspaper or a phone call will be $9.40, a $4500 car will retail at $281,000 and McDonalds will be selling the umteenth billion Big Mac at $60.00 a piece. A $25.00 tab at the grocery store will rise to $1,562, while a $150.00 suit will set you back a cool $9,000, and that's without alterations. It will cost $37.00 for the mint to produce a nickel and gas, assuming a now price of 80 cents a gallon, will increase to where it will cost about $1,900 to tell the attendant to "Fill her up". Oh Yes, and that $50,000 house that you thought you paid too much for? Well, it'll be worth a paltry $3.2 million.

And finally, looking backwards on inflation, it has been estimated that if the $24.00 that was paid for Manhattan Island had been placed in the bank gathering compound interest, it would now total a sum equal to the value of all the real estate in Manhattan.

sessions that if there was a strike, the education would continue as usual. Either the board and superintendent were trying to put one over on the public or they were extremely naive.

I was not going to attend school because of the strike and my respect for the teachers. However, I was forced to enter the school in order to seek out an administrator. What I saw amazed me. I was told to sign in and go to class. That was impossible because the second and third floors were blocked off. There was very little education in existence. Most of the students were in the cafeteria. Some education. In the junior high there were students hanging out of windows, loitering on the front lawn, and being rowdy in general. Why weren't they in class being taught? After all, there was "education as usual." In other schools there was not adequate teacher coverage so students were herded into gyms and shown movies. Again, what education?

It wasn't the striking teachers who weren't open and honest and they weren't the ones who sacrificed the students' education. One teacher said it well when she said the contract was ratified because of the children. No one wanted the students to suffer. When did the Board, the educational leadership ever consider the students' education and stop worrying about how much money they were going to save? How important is a sound and satisfying education in Hicksville?

Very truly yours,
Carrie L. Clark

To The Editor:

In a letter published in last week's edition, a writer editorialized on my letter that appeared in your May 3rd issue.

I. He said: "Mr. Frank H. Willard appears to be unaware that the cost of everything has jumped out of sight in the last ten years." He must have missed reading my comment that: "the budget and tax rate soared 'because of inflation' but it also grew at a much faster pace because of the advent of teacher's unions and spend-thrift school boards." The proposed budget increase of 1.4 MILLION DOLLARS for 1979-80 with its tax rate of 48 CENTS of the first 20 school budgets passed this year exemplifies what I mean. AND that increase is AFTER the $350,000 is considered that was caused by the elimination of EXCESS teacher spaces.

2. He further implied that I deliberately failed to mention one of the few items to go down is the cost of teachers due to a reduction of staff. The Hicksville school population has declined an average of 460 students per year over the last TEN YEARS. Teacher reductions have not kept pace. This year the board rightfully reduced the staff in line with our reduced enrollment. I SUPPORT THAT MOVE. I have continually called for such reductions in the past. Because the board began to make such reductions, the teacher's union moved to usurp the board's responsibility for policy and control of Hicksville's education system and to "featherbed" its contract this year. AND that is ONE OF THE REASONS WHY I SUPPORT THE BOARD'S POSITION IN ITS NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE TEACHER'S UNION. Those teacher reductions and the savings in money reinforces my argument that even with the elimination of excess teachers, the budget is TOO LARGE.

3. He further implied that with the reduction of teachers will come a reduction in educational standards. I TOTALLY DISAGREE with his implication. The opposite is true - if the staff is too large for the job to be done the job will suffer. Elimination of EXCESS teachers does not harm the education process. But retaining them would be TOO HEAVY A BURDEN on our elderly and our low/middle income taxpayer - especially those on fixed incomes.

Because I believe in sound education coupled with fiscal responsibility, because I believe in resident control of Hicksville education, and because I have great compassion for the money-strapped taxpayer whose increased taxes comes from his table, I will run for election as Trustee on the Hicksville Board of Education.

Sincerely yours,
Frank H. Willard

Named Outstanding Student

A 23-year-old coed from New York State was named the most outstanding University of Nevada, Las Vegas hotel student for 1979.

Jayne Linda Siegel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Siegel of Hicksville, received the second annual William Weinberger Award during the hotel college's 10th graduation luncheon at the MGM Grand Hotel yesterday.

Named for the former president of Caesars Palace, the award was established by that hotel in 1977 when Weinberger left to become president of Bally of New Jersey, Inc. The award consists of $250 and a plaque.

"Jayne was selected from approximately 75 students for her contributions to the college, her high degree of professionalism and for her consistent academic achievement," said Jerome Vallen, hotel college dean.

Siegel interned at the Las Vegas Convention and Visitor's Authority and worked there during her school years as part of graduation requirements. She came to UNLV as a sophomore, transferring from Farmingdale Junior College in New York.

Recipient of the Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges Award and the 1978 Outstanding Young Women of America Award, Siegel was UNLV's 1977-78 homecoming queen.

She served as president of the university chapter of the Hotel Sales Management Association (HSMA) in 1977 and editor of the Southern Nevada Chapter's newsletter, Las Vegas Hotline.

She also is a member of the Las Vegas Chapter of the International Food Service Executives Association and UNLV's largest student organization, the Hotel Association.

Her hospitality industry experience includes all phases of hotel work in New York hotels and country clubs. She has accepted a position as sales and convention coordinator at the Summit Hotel in Dallas, Tex. from among a dozen job offers.

"When I decided to transfer to UNLV I made a commitment to myself that I would get the most from my college years," Siegel said. "I have always been a strong willed and determined person, and as I look back, I feel content with the insight I have obtained while attending UNLV."

Annual Dog Show

The Long Island Kennel Club Annual Dog Show will be held on Sunday, May 20th, at Hofstra University, Hempstead, New York starting at 9:00 A.M.

Over 120 different breeds will be judged during the day for awards by individual breed, and then by groupings of winners in similar categories. A beautiful display of sporting, hound, working, terrier, toy, non-sporting and miscellaneous groups will be judged later in the day.

At the same time the judging takes place in the many breed rings, the obedience dogs will be put through their paces by eager owners anxious to score the points needed to officially classify their carefully trained pets for special ratings.

With almost 2,000 dogs on display throughout the day, it will be a marvelous opportunity for a family outing. There is plenty of parking right at the show site.

The Long Island Kennel Club was organized over 75 years ago and is considered a "breeders club" with most of its members recognized throughout the country for their excellent quality show dogs.

Guided Nature Walk

Each Saturday beginning May 26 through October 27, a free guided nature walk will be offered visitors to the Muttontown Preserve, operated by the Museum Division of the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks.

The informative walks will leave the Nature Center at 10 a.m. and return at Noon. Visitors will learn about the various habitats of the preserve as they observe plant and animal life in woodlands and fields covering some 300 acres. Knowledgeable guides will help in locating and identifying interesting species while presenting an overview of the preserve's ecology.

Binoculars are recommended to make the trip more informative and enjoyable.

Interested groups are advised to call 922-3123 in advance as numbers may be limited. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

The preserve entrance is at the end of Muttontown Lane, one block west of the intersection of Northern Boulevard and Rte. 106.

CELEBRATING THEIR 25TH ANNIVERSARY: On Sunday May 20, Trinity Lutheran School, 10 West Nicholas Street, Hicksville, will celebrate its 25th anniversary. The celebration will begin with special worship services in Trinity Lutheran Church at 8:15, 9:45 and 11:15 a.m. The guest preacher will be the Reverend Edward H. Stammel who served as pastor of Trinity for 32 years and who was responsible in building Trinity Lutheran School 25 years ago. In the evening a special banquet will be held in celebration of the school. Mr. Richard Rath, executive director of Long Island Lutheran High School, will be the main banquet speaker with Dr. Richard Engebrecht, Trinity's first principal. There will be many former teachers, as well as alumni, who will participate in the celebration.

Trinity Lutheran School has been blessed in providing children of the mid-island area with a Christ-centered education these past 25 years and looks forward with joy to the future.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

Lo and Behold, the summer months have arrived and the Galileo Lodge once again dons its summer regalia. With sunshine in their hearts, the various entertainment committees don their summer thinking caps as they prepare so many fun-filled activities for Lodge members, their families and friends. Last Sunday the golfing program was held, and many members of the Galileo Lodge (and friends) enjoyed a beautiful and warm Sunday golfing at the Netherwood Country Club. More sessions are planned, so if you are a golf enthusiast please contact Skip Monteforte at 931-9351. Another Member Appreciation Night is being planned, and on June 8th the membership (and friends) will be rewarded with another happy evening with all expenses being paid by the Lodge itself. This is done in appreciation for the time, efforts and loyalty that the members have shown to their organization. Please attend and enjoy the fine hospitality offered by the Galileo Lodge.

There is more to come...a summer picnic program is being considered by the Galileo Lodge, it now appears that Eisenhower Park might be as good a place as any for the members of the Galileo Lodge (families and friends, too) to enjoy a picnic in true summer style. Needless to mention that everything associated with a summer picnic will be featured, including the food and delicacies, fun and games, and the opportunities to just sit and relax on the grass warmed over by the summer sun. The date and time for this picnic will be announced in later columns...Another very pleasant piece of news is that the front of the Galileo Lodge building will be given a 'new face'. The remodeling will start in about two weeks, and when completed, we feel, the attractiveness of the outside should match the inner beauty of the Lodge quarters.

The Galileo Lodge's Bicentennial Memorial was completed this Saturday, the 12th of May. Pete Massiello, Mario Tucci, Tony Previte and James Pesilico look charge of the completion. James Pesilico, if my memory serves me correctly, was one of the mainstays of the program that developed the inner decor and atmosphere of the Galileo

Lodge quarters, and there is every reason to believe that his knowledge and ability, along with those of his fellow workers, should further enhance the beauty of the Bicentennial Memorial. Tony Previte, the director of the program, states that the unveiling ceremony will take place on Memorial Day. This will give them time to landscape and decorate the grounds around this structure.

In last weeks column, when we mentioned the names of the Lodge members and friends who worked at the Galileo Lodge's 'Pop Shop', we inadvertently left out the name of Dante Perotti, another member who is always there to give his time and efforts to insure the success of any program that the Lodge undertakes. On Saturday, the 19th of May, the Galileo Lodge will hold its nostalgic 1950's Dance. A variety of foods will be served, including coffee and pastries, etc. Tickets will cost $8.50 per person and the innovative feature will be a disc jockey playing taped music for four hours. Contact Joe Piccolomino (938-2426), Pal Gatto (443-6708) and Joe Pino (832-7060) for more information and ticket reservations for this affair.

Empire Storage Starts Scholarship Program

At the regular monthly meeting of the Hicksville High School Alumni Association held May 14, 1978 at Frank's Alibi, the following letter along with a check was personally delivered to the association by Henry & Dorothy Brengel, Jr.:

Dear Friends:
In celebration of the 75th Anniversary of Empire Storage Warehouse, Inc., we are pleased to enclose our check, in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500.00), as payment for the first Empire Storage Warehouse Transportation Scholarship. We are pledging an equal amount for seven years, including this payment.

It is our sincere request that the following "conditions" be imposed upon the granting of this particular Scholarship; that it be awarded to a student accepted by a four-year college.

offering a Bachelor of Science degree in Transportation. As a suggestion only, Syracuse University, New York University, and Wharton School of Finance in Philadelphia would be suitable.

The winning student should be a person interested in Transportation as a definite career field, not merely a college major. He, or she, can indeed be categorized as an "average" student, but it is imperative that they have contributed to the growth of Hicksville High School - a young man or woman who has taken part in various extracurricular activities - to put it simply, a well-rounded individual.

In the event that there should be more than one student in any graduating class meeting these qualifications, we feel that the person evidencing most financial need for the stipend should be given the award.

As graduates of Hicksville High School, it is most gratifying to be able to offer this small gift - we have fond (yes, even reverent) memories of the many faculty members who were so very kind to us, and so instrumental in being of assistance with our own education.

Sincerely yours,
EMPIRE STORAGE
WAREHOUSE, INC.

LILCO'S Balanced Billing Plan

LILCO has asked permission from the Public Service Commission to make a Balanced Billing plan available to all residential electric and gas customers by September. The improved plan is completely voluntary. LILCO's electric and gas heating customers who already have budget plans will be automatically transferred to the new combination gas and electric plan.

Most residential electric and gas customers now receive bills every month. Under the new voluntary plan these customers will receive level monthly bills. This should make it easier for them to budget their energy costs.

In order to calculate a customer's monthly bill, the Company will first determine how much gas and electricity that customer used during the past 12 months. Then they will calculate how much that energy would cost under the rates, fuel cost adjustment, and taxes in effect at the time balanced billing is started. Dividing this amount by 12 gives the monthly payment for the customer under Balanced Billing.
