Adult Education Registration Extended

The Hicksville School district has extended registration for evening adult education courses beyond the week of October 1. According to Mrs. Marjorie Giannelli, Director of the program, the extension has been granted because some Hicksville residents have not yet received course offering brochures.

Residents will be able to register for the courses through the week of October 8—excluding

Monday, Oct. 8, which is Columbus Day—and final sign-up has been slated for Monday, October 15.

One charge in the cost of the driver education course for adults was noted by Mrs. Giannelli. While the course is listed in the adult education brochure as costing $100, the cost has been reduced to $60 per student.

Hicksville Museum Launches Fund Drive

By Richard Evers

Setting its fund drive goal at $100,000, the Board of Trustees of the Hicksville Gregory Museum has begun an all-out effort to save the well known Long Island Earth Science Center from having to close within six months. The Museum's fund drive under the chairmanship of Joseph Hernandez of Plainview, a retired foreign trade authority and Federal governmental administrator, is designed to offset an estimated budget deficit of $20,000 for the year 1979-1980, to provide an endowment fund for the museum and to obtain funds for the next eighteen months of the institution's many services to Long Island education and well-being.

"The Museum has never before operated at a deficit," Hernandez says. "But neither has it ever before attempted to pay its Curator a salary truly commensurate with professional worth and reality, or had to operate without some financial support from the New York State Council on the Arts."

The Fund Drive Chairman is correct, of course. For years, the Museum operated through the volunteer devotion of Gardiner and Ann Gregory and a group of Hicksville community-minded residents from all walks of life. Now, however, the 'labor of love' of a relatively small group cannot keep the Earth Science museum afloat. The Gregorays are retired. The Council on the Arts wants the Museum to develop more self-support. In addition the need for a salaried part-time Director and the necessity of enriching services require that larger financing be attempted.

The Museum Fund Drive getting under way will be directed at numerous sources of financial help so as to enlist the aid of the entire Long Island community. The museum serves, Chairman Hernandez has already been contacting the public utilities and large defense industries "whose future scientists, engineers and technicians may well come from the pool of youngsters thronging the museum each week, delighted and stimulated by the wonders and diversity of natural exhibits. It is nothing for 5,000 elementary school kids and their teachers to tour the Hicksville Gregory Museum in a year's time. We are a 'seed-bed' for scientific motivation and inspiration of children, who in most cases, have little early exposure to the great natural history museums of the metropolitan area."

Another community leader

working with the Museum's Fund Drive is Museum Trustee, Irwin Botto, President of the Botto Mechanical Corporation. An alumnus of the Hicksville schools, raised in the community, engineer Botto is leading the Museum fund drive into the realm of businessmen and contractors. "We hope to give the builders of so much of our municipal road and sewage system an opportunity to help enrich the cultural and social life of the communities already sustained and improved by their engineering expertise," Botto says.

As Museum President, this writer will seek to organize a community-wide effort at building museum memberships. Every 90 annual family memberships, for example, will keep the museum functioning for a month. Elery Bean, Museum Membership Chairman, reminds us that all memberships are tax-deductible and may be obtained by mailing a letter to the Hicksville Gregory Museum at the Heitz Place Courthouse, Hicksville, enclosing a check for any of the following categories of membership: Student - $5; Adult - $10; Family - $20; Sponsor - $50; Patron - $100; Benefactor - $250. Memberships provide admission to the museum at any time, discounts at the Museum Gift Shop, receipt of museum newsletters, in-service course and program bulletins.

We are contacting all community organizations in Hicksville - and we welcome contact with neighbors who have visited us from Plainview, Jericho, Syosset and others - to help the Museum to meet its deficit and larger goal by doing the following: 1. Donating to the Museum Drive from the organizational treasury; 2. Encouraging through meetings and newsletters all group members to become Gregory Museum members, donors or fund drive workers; 3. Appointing a member to represent the organization in a liaison capacity with the Museum Fund Drive Committee. Mrs. Diane Otten of the St. Ignatius Loyola Parish Council is an example of the 'liaison representative'. She will help the Fund Drive by providing the St. Ignatius Parish community, through its weekly Church Bulletin and Council meeting reports with news of the fund drive and progress of the fund needs. Hicksville is a community of many concerned groups and clubs: religious; fraternal; service; civic; veterans; youth; political; sporting and business. I appeal to all one-time, or present colleagues and fellow workers in many a community endeavor to volunteer to serve their organization as 'liaison representative' with the Museum Fund Drive Coordinating Committee.

The Museum fund drive will attempt, also, to elicit support from consortium benefactors. We would appreciate the help of any community-minded members of the banking, real estate or medical and legal professions coming forward to help the museum fund drive leaders obtain support from specialized groups within the financial, real estate and professional communities.

Memorial donations and gifts will be much appreciated and duly commemorated by engraved plaques at the Museum. A number of museum exhibit cases are still available in the main exhibit hall of the museum for dedication to the memory of loved ones.

In addition to seeking financial aid from the private sector of society, the Museum Trustees will continue to apply for available governmental grants. In this regard, the trustees are engaging the services of a professional 'grant applications writer.' No area of potential, legitimate support is to be rejected.

Publicity for the Hicksville Gregory Museum Fund Drive is island-wide indeed, will likely include the metropolitan area before the drive is concluded. The Museum and its fiscal dilemma are catching the attention of the media. On October 1, alone, Newsday's Joel Rubinton had a fine feature article which triggered immediate response from Channel 21, whose John Miller was out at the Heitz Place Courthouse with a camera crew by mid-morning and featured the museum in his evening Long Island News Magazine. Hempstead's Radio Station WHLR taped an interview with the Museum President for broadcast to its thousands of teenage and young adult listeners. Many of these youngsters will recall visiting the museum, no doubt, for it is a favorite tour site with schools.

The feeling is widespread that the Hicksville Gregory Museum: the Long Island Earth Science Center is a unique force for good in today's confused, materialistic world. It provides an educational, inspirational impulse, having a true capacity to motivate and stimulate the young or to enrich everyone's attitude toward nature and Long Island's historical heritage.

Town Board OK's Escalating Fines For Repeated Litter Law Violators

An amendment to the Town of Oyster Bay's litter ordinance that provides for stiffer fines for repeated violations was adopted by the Town Board recently.

"This section of the ordinance deals with litter in parking lots serving commercial establishments such as shopping centers," Town Supervisor Joseph Colby noted, "but apparently some merchants have found it cheaper to flout his law than to conform to its requirements. Today's action is intended to correct that situation."

Under the ordinance, which was adopted a little more than a year ago, parking lots for stores, shopping centers or other retail businesses with a capacity of more than 10 cars must have an approved number and type of litter receptacles. Excepted are lots of over 100 cars capacity that are maintained and swept once every 24 hours.

The amendment adopted today sets a minimum fine of $25 and maximum of $100 for a first offense, a minimum of $100 and maximum of $250 for a second offense, and a minimum of $500 and maximum of $750 for each subsequent offense.

"I am writing to Administrative Judge Charles Heine of the District Court to apprise him of this amendment and request that it be brought to the attention of all District Court Judges that reside in the Town of Oyster Bay," Colby said. "An anti-litter campaign is an exercise in futility unless the containers in which to dispose of the litter are available, and strict enforcement of this ordinance, plus the stiffer penalties, should bring this about," he added.

AHRC Meeting

Association for The Help of Retarded Children (AHRC) Hicksville-Levittown-Wantagh Auxiliary will hold its next monthly meeting at Levittown Hall on Monday evening, October 8th at 8:30 P.M.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

CAMARADERIE! BROTHERHOOD! FRIENDSHIP. UNITY. These are the answers I gave recently when I was asked why I belonged to the Galileo Lodge and not to some other organization, whether that organization was fraternal, political, social or ethnic. Since I was more or less caught 'off-guard' by the question, and since I did not trust the motivations of the questioner, I felt at that time that my answers were too spontaneous, too pat or too ineffective as I was unable to give enough thought and consideration to them. Were my answers also too premature, I asked myself? But now, a short time later, I have neither misgivings nor qualms about these answers. Actions speak louder than words, and recent events taking place at the Galileo Lodge have provided me with conclusive evidence that the above-mentioned characteristics are firmly implanted in the very soul of the Galileo Lodge. Thus, I might add that my impressionable nature had gotten the better of me a long time ago, which is probably another way of saying that first impressions are usually the best impressions.

Since Columbus Day is rapidly approaching, I might mention that the parade is scheduled for next Sunday, the 7th of October. Oceanside is the site for the parade which will commence at 2:00 P.M. The marchers from the Galileo Lodge will meet around 12:30 P.M. at 200 Levittown Parkway, and from there they will head for Oceanside. It is reported that the Marco Polo Lodge of Levittown will feed the marchers upon their return to their home base. Columbus Day, obviously, is a big day for the Italian-American community and our reponsiveness to this memorable day and occasion would be heart-warming and a true measure of the feelings we hold for the founder of America, history's great navigator by the name of Christopher Columbus. Call Skip Monteforte at 938-7081 for more information on this activity.

Another affair with all the Fall trappings is the Halloween Dance to be held by the Galileo Lodge on October 27th, the last Saturday of October. Price of admission will be $8.50 per person and it will include food, beer, soda, set ups, coffee and cake. As we had mentioned previously, prizes will be awarded to those with the best and the worst dressed costumes, and needless to mention that costumes are optional. The Jo-Vin Band will provide some pleasant and relaxing dance music, and if you don't dance, well, just sit and listen. This dance, by the way, will feature a 'bring-your-own-liquor' policy, which is certainly consistent with the policy associated with many of the Lodge dances. So, if you are seeking a nice Fall evening of good fun and pleasant relaxation, why not attend this affair. Please call Skip Monteforte (938-7081) and he will make seating reservations for you. This dance will start at 9:00 P.M.

The 'Feelies Follies', which will be presented by the Ladies Auxiliary, will also be one of the Fall's super fun-filled affairs held by the Galileo Lodge. This revue will be held on October 12th, featuring spaghetti with chicken cacciatore, cake and coffee, beverages, etc.; and all this, plus the entertainment spun around the talents of Galileo Lodge personnel, will cost you only $7 per person. Jo Ann Wallick of the Ladies Auxiliary, with the aid of Joe Lappano of the Galileo Lodge, will collaborate in this effort to bring to all Lodge patrons a night of fun and relaxation. Dial OV 1-8428 (Jo Ann) for more information concerning this event. It promises to be a hilarious night for all those seeking something different in form of entertainment.

As we have mentioned in our previous article, the Galileo Lodge, ever mindful of the social activities and events which can add immeasurably to the well-being of its members, has presented its Entertainment Program for 1979. And as you can witness from what has been written in this installment, many activities are already on the verge of being presented. If you are desirous of joining an organization that can and will provide you with the most diversified activities, why not call the Galileo Lodge and speak with a member or an officer whom I am sure will offer a great deal of information and facts concerning the Galileo Lodge. Call 931-3151 and all this material will be furnished to you happily and gladly.

Long Island Host Families Sought For Scandinavian Students

1) American host families are being sought for twelve Scandinavian high school students from Sweden, Denmark, Norway and Finland for the 1980-1981 school year, in a program sponsored by the American Scandinavian Student Exchange (ASSE).

Interested families in this area should contact Mrs. Margaret Anderson, 479 Duryea Terrace, West Hempstead, NY 11552 (516) IV 6-5729.

The students, ages 16 and 17, will arrive in the United States in late August 1980, attend the local high school and return home in late June 1981. The students, all fluent in English, have been screened by their school representatives and have pocket money and medical and liability insurance.

American families with small children or grown children, as well as those with teen-age children, are welcome to participate in this program.

2) ASSE is also seeking American students, ages 16 and 17, who would like to spend a high-school year with a Scandinavian family or participate in a five-week family stay in the summer of 1980.

Persons interested in either of these programs should contact

Mrs. Anderson immediately.

The ASSE is the official Swedish high school exchange program in the United States operating under the auspices of the Swedish Board of Education. The ASSE program is officially designated as an Exchange Visitor program by the U.S. Department of State. Since 1938, more than 150,000 students have taken part in student exchange, home stay and school exchange program in the United States, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Finland, Germany, France, England and Switzerland. ASSE has representatives in all areas of the United States.

Nassau County Executive Francis T. Purcell recently issued an urgent plea to the private business sector to consider the employment of several hundred skilled public service workers whose federally-financed jobs will end on Sept. 30.

"This is an experienced pool of workers, each of whom has at least 18 months of on-the-job experience in the public sector under the CETA program," Purcell said.

"They have backgrounds in such areas as teaching, counseling, electronic assembling, machine tooling and clerk typing and, in many cases, have added to their skills during their tenure in the public service jobs program by participating in the training programs offered by the Nassau Office of Employment and Training.

"They are a motivated group of men and women in need of employment in the private sector," Purcell stated. "I hope those in the private sector looking for good workers will respond."

The county executive said the county Office of Employment and Training has been working for more than three months to help the workers enter the private job market and has enlisted the assistance of such agencies as the State Job Service, the Urban League, Nassau Community College and Long Island Affirmative Action. The program included a two-week job search workshop conducted by Nassau Community College on resume writing and job interview techniques.

Another service rendered was the preparation of an "employability profile" on each worker through personal interviews and standardized testing administered by the Nassau Board of Cooperative Educational Services (BOCES) counselors.

"We are down to the wire now and need private industry cooperation and interest to prevent these workers from being forced to return to the ranks of the unemployed," Purcell said.

Inquiries and requests for additional information should be made to the Office of Employment and Training at 538-8000 Ext. 295.

Cong. Wydler For "Limited Syn. Fuels Dev. Program"

U.S. Representative John W. Wydler of New York recently announced he will support a limited synthetic fuels development program. The Ranking Republican Member of the House Committee on Science and Technology said the Government's role "should be limited to technology development and initial commercialization not replication of plants with identical technology."

In explaining his position, Wydler said "the Federal Government's direct financial commitment should not exceed $25 billion including demonstration plants already authorized."

Wydler called his program a practical alternative to the President's "unrealistic" proposal, and said he is pressing for "a larger role for the Department of Energy in Getting the Synthetic Fuel industry on its feet."

Wydler advocated "fast track" construction time tables and environmental compromises in order to deploy a national synthetic fuels industry in the next decade.

Wydler stated that: "The Federal Government must provide broad and flexible financial and regulatory incentives for industry. This is needed because of the tremendous diversity of companies involved. These include everything from oil companies to small high technology firms, to regulated entities such as utilities and pipeline companies and a spectrum of unregulated firms. We must use regulatory relief to encourage construction of plants incorporating current technology."

Wydler noted, "We must tighten our definition of what we mean by synthetic fuels so that, priority is given to incentives for coal conversion and alcohol fuels. We must retain firm and optimistic production goals."

The Congress also favored incremental price subsidies such as included in the House-passed Moorhead bill as a means of stimulating industry to develop synthetic fuels. He cautioned that plants owned by the Government and operated by contractors should be "a mechanism of last resort" when all other incentives have been exhausted.

A Message From Cong. Lent

FREE IDA NUDEL NOW

I would like to share with you a message from one of the most courageous women I have known, Ida Nudel, a Russian Jew, whom I have adopted as the Fourth Congressional District's Prisoner of Conscience.

I met recently in my Washington office with my sister, Elana Fridman. With typical Soviet cruelty, the Russian officialdom permitted Elana to emigrate to Israel, but stubbornly refuses to grant freedom to her sister. The sisters have been separated by this wall of persecution for nearly eight years. Through all of those years, Ida Nudel has fought steadily - not only for her freedom, but for the freedom of countless other Soviet Jews. Those who have benefited from Ida's efforts describe her as their angel of mercy.

But Ida Nudel is in desperate straits now. Last year, the dreaded KGB, the Soviet secret police, arrested her after she displayed a banner from her Moscow apartment which read: "KGB, give me my visa." She was sentenced to four years in exile in the bleak, cold Siberian wastelands and shipped to the distant land in a railroad cattle car, jammed with woman criminals, who beat her. The trip took a month - a month of continual torment for Ida.

But her arrival in the Siberian village of Krivosheino brought no relief. She found herself billeted in a hostel with 60 male criminals who threaten her with harm because they are convinced she is a spy.

A film smuggled out of the Soviet Union at great risks shows Ida's bleak existence in a tiny room. There is only one washroom in the hostel, despite its 61 occupants. The water supply is full of rust. The toilet is a cesspool with a shed over it. The temperature plunges to 60 below zero during the winter months.

As if that weren't bad enough, Elana brought me a disturbing report concerning Ida's health. She has received word indicating Ida is very ill, but cannot find out whether she is receiving any medical care. "Every day may be her last," Elana warned me solemnly. "We are desperate, because she cannot survive another Siberian winter."

Yet, in the film smuggled out of that distant land, Ida's own words show her indomitable courage. She said: "No matter how I am tormented, how weak I am, how lonely or senseless my present life, I do not regret or renounce any of my actions. But if our suffering will not force every one of you to rush to help us, then it is in vain. We believe our suffering is not for nothing, and this belief save us from despair. I believe that some day I will walk up the steps of an El Al aircraft, and my suffering and my tears will remain in my memory only, and my heart will be full of triumph. God grant that it will happen soon."

I join in the prayer that Ida Nudel will soon find freedom. I have redoubled my efforts to persuade the cruel leaders of the Soviet Union to release their hold on this heroic woman. I urge those in my Fourth Congressional District who share my concern for our Prisoner of Conscience to petition Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev, the Kremlin, Moscow, RFSFR, U.S.S.R., and Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin, Embassy of the U.S.S.R., 1125 Sixteenth Street N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036, demanding freedom for Ida Nudel.

Together, I believe we can succeed.

A Warning From The D.A.

Nassau County District Attorney Denis Dillon is warning residents to be on the lookout for a person or persons involved in fraud by the use of a confidence game. The details of the "con" game were provided by a Glen Cove resident who was almost victimized by the con man.

Dillon said "The con game works by having the con man convince the victim to give him a large number of $10.00 bills, and by the use of a chemical process convert the bills into larger denominations. The victim is told that he must leave the bills with the con man for two weeks because the process consumes that amount of time. Of course, when the victim returns, the con man cannot be located."

Dillon advises Nassau County residents who believe they were the victim or potential victim of this "con" game to contact the District Attorney's Complaint Bureau at 535-4800.

Dear Friends ---

In a recent news release the Nassau County Fire Marshall's Office commented on the fact that, due to the current high cost of fuel oil, many residents are installing wood-burning stoves in their homes. This Office emphasized that proper installation of such stoves is necessary so that the installation does not create a fire hazard.

First of all, this Office does not recommend the use of kerosene stoves nor the use of charcoal stoves indoors.

Secondly, they tell us that information on the proper installation of wood and coal-burning stoves is available from the Fire Marshall's Office, as well as the answers to any questions on this subject that you may have. Their address is 899 Jerusalem Ave. (P.O. Box 128) Uniondale NY 11553. They may be reached by phone at 292-4820.

NOTE TO ALL PUBLICITY CHAIRPERSONS: Our news copy deadline is Wednesdays at noon at our office. Please type the name of your organization plus your name and phone number on the top of page one of your news releases. If pictures are submitted they must be very clear, whether they be colored or black and white, and they should be accompanied by a caption with a left to right identification in it. If you are new at this volunteer job please do not hesitate to phone me at WE 1-1400... I'll be happy to help you get started and to answer any questions that you may have. If I'm out, leave your name and phone number with my answering service and I'll get back to you as soon as possible. The job of the volunteer publicity chairperson is a very important one. Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

This is an open letter to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Turner, whose letter appeared in last week's issue of this newspaper. The Hicksville School District would like to take this opportunity to respond to them and the numerous falsehoods they expressed.

First, the Turners have charged that an "executive suite" was constructed in the administration building this summer at a taxpayer cost of $100,000. This is not true. There is no executive suite in the administration building. The following is a statement of costs incurred by the Hicksville School District for necessary renovations.

Supplies
Seven cartons of ceiling tile	$150.00
Grids and Ties	20.24
Electrical Supplies, outlets, plugs, wiring, etc.	162.30
Paint, plumbing fittings and other electrical outlets	270.00
Perpeting
Pupil Personnel Services, Personnel Office, and Conference Room	2,520.00
Locks
Lock service, approximately	100.00
Equipment
File cabinets, conference room chairs, office machines	4,700.00
Copying machine
Duct system - ventilation of duplicating room	285.65
Moving charges for relocation to second floor from first floor	400.00
(Note: The district has been issued a $400 credit for venting, which will offset moving costs.)
Shelving
Projected shelving, cabinets (material cost)	200.00
Telephones
Changes in system to accommodate staff rearrangements	641.25
Labor
In-district maintenance staff (based on man hours multiplied by standard pay rates)	6,116.00
TOTAL	$15,566.52

All of the work - excluding carpet installation, copy machine relocation and dumping of debris from construction - was accomplished, as stated above, by the district's own maintenance staff. All of the above renovations were budgeted in the current district budget, in the accounts of the Buildings and Grounds Department. It must be noted that these kinds of renovations are budgeted every year.

The reasons behind the renovations are simple: 1) the copy machine was moved to provide greater accessibility to staff; 2) the Pupil Personnel Services Department was consolidated for efficiency of services; 3) the Conference room was enlarged to provide an alternative to meetings in the board room, and to allow greater use for more people.

In their letter, the Turners imply that Mrs. Lorraine Losche was appointed media aide at Lee Avenue School after her endorsement of Strand III. Sex Education for the Hicksville School District. This is not true. Mrs. Losche was media aide at Lee Avenue School in the 1978-79 school year. She resigned, and then reapplied for the position. She was reemployed by the district upon the recommendation of Mr. John Mateer, principal at Lee Avenue. She was appointed to her position long before the Board of Education considered the adoption of a Strand III curriculum.

The Turners question the appointment of school board Vice President John Ayres as assistant treasurer of the Hicksville School District. They charge that it is a conflict of interest. This is not true. It is a common practice for school districts to appoint a school board member as assistant treasurer, in the event that an emergency requires that the position be filled. It should be noted, in any case, that the actions of the treasurer are always subject to audit.

To answer the questions posed by the Turners in relation to a Coordinator of Cultural and Performing Arts, that position will replace the job formerly held by Dr. Charles Gouse, who left the district as Supervisor of Music. The new position was created to broaden the responsibilities to include the arts, as well as music. The salary will be equal to or less than that received by Dr. Gouse.

The Turners charge that the administrative workshop held at Shelter Island prior to Labor Day was financed by a $10,000 grant of the Hicksville Board of Education. This is not true. District taxpayers did not finance the workshop through their school taxes. The funding for that workshop - in which 30 administrators, principals and supervisors participated - came from a New York State grant of $10,000 for the improvement of educational administrative services. The actual cost of the two-day seminar was $2,346.75. The remainder of the grant will be applied to educational management consultants and workshops, and attendant materials.

The Turners charge that the Hicksville School District deliberately delayed the ratification of a teachers' contract on the night of Sept. 4, because of dissatisfaction with agreements made with the Hicksville Congress of Teachers prior to the signing date. The truth is that the ratification of a teachers' contract was delayed because of mutual disagreements in the amounts of coaches' salaries. The board later ratified the teachers' contract.

Residents are the people who pay for the education of their children, and who have every right to question the affairs of their district. As the Hicksville School District's staff, community representative, I welcome inquiries and will answer any questions which are posed for the good of the district and the information of its residents. My phone number is 733-2089.

I also welcome - on behalf of the Board of Education and Superintendent of Schools Dr. Wilber Hawkins - all residents to attend the regular school board meetings, scheduled for the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month. The next meeting will be held next Wednesday, Oct. 10, at 8:15 PM in the second floor conference room of the administration building, Division Ave.

Sincerely,
 Kathleen M. Hogan

To the Editor:
 The latest turn of events in the continuing sex education controversy has the Administration finally coming out of the closet by deciding to have the Community consider sex education all the way up to the 12th grade. This is an astounding development.

At every public meeting during the past year the public has been assured, and in fact lectured by Mr. Fujimoto on the fact that only a program for K through 3 was being considered, and that comments regarding any other grade levels were out of order. In a Memo to Elementary School Teachers, Specialists and Administrators, dated September 22nd, the Superintendent stated that the concepts to be taught in a typical Strand III K-12 curriculum will be explained at meetings to be held soon at each school. The meetings will be several hours long, and at the end of the meetings parents will be asked to state their preference for the kind of program they want, or don't want. There is no provision for an organized presentation in opposition. Presumably only parents' questions will be entertained.

Prior to the parents' meetings, there will be teachers' meetings for the same purpose, and teachers will be asked to express any reluctance to teach the material and to give their input on various types of training, materials, etc., that would help implement Strand III. Here, too, there is no provision for the opposition to present its side. All the information will be collated by Dec 1979 at which time decisions will be made regarding implementation of the program.

While the admission by the Administration that they are opening up grades 4-12 for discussion is welcome, many if not most teachers and parents of children in those grades have not been following the controversy in the mistaken belief that they would not be involved. Now they know, or will shortly know, that they will be involved and they have a lot of catching up to do to educate themselves on the issue.

The Coalition Against Strand III (C.A.S.T.) has strongly opposed the program from the beginning for many reasons. We feel that the arguments against the program are reasoned and compellingly persuasive. The literature available is plentiful, including recent scholarly articles by Professor Jacqueline Kasun of Humboldt State College in California and Dr. Rhoda L. Lorand, a practicing psycho-therapist of New York City. We plan to have people present at every PTA Open House and at every Board sponsored Strand III

Seldin Honored By State Association

Nassau County Board of Assessors Chairman Abe Seldin last week received the professional designation of Certified County Director (CCD) from the New York State Association of Directors of Real Property Tax. The award was presented during the New York State Association of Counties' annual fall conference at the Concord Hotel in Kiamesha-Lake, N.Y.

Seldin said that he was honored that his professional peers had conferred the certificate on him.

The designation was conferred by the association's Professional Admissions Committee after Seldin underwent an exhaustive oral examination administered by the committee. The examination was designed to test his professional knowledge of the real property tax law and assessment procedures.

The association's certificate reads in part: "Having been tested by your fellow professionals, you have proven your professional abilities in the administration of real property tax, its laws and assessment procedures. In the management of your office, you have been outstanding. Therefore, in recognition of these abilities, this association of your peers is hereby honored to add your name to its list of certified professionals."

Seldin, who has been Nassau County's board of assessors chairman and director of real property tax services for five and one half years, has been appointed as legislative chairman of the New York State Directors Association.

He is also a member of the Nassau County Assessors' Association and the International Assessors' Association and is a frequent lecturer on assessment procedures at Adelphi and Hofstra Universities and C.W. Post College.

called to get community feeling about it. Attending the meeting, which was moderated by Greater Plainview Community Association president Carol Eisenstein, was Roberta S. Marks (second from left), Community Placement Specialist for the Long Island District Development Services Office.

Hicksville American Soccer Club

Boys U/13

By Kevin Cunningham

On Sept. 29, Hicksville's Blue Lightning sponsored by Northville Industries and coached by Frank Cunningham, played host to the Valley Stream Rowdies at Grumman Field. Within the first minute of the game Ian Zaretsky took a beautiful chip by Bob Cunningham and volleyed the ball over Valley Streams goalies' head into the net from 35 yards out, making the score 1-0. The team was rolling, scoring 5 more times after, goals were scored by Ian Zaretsky, two by Joe Baggett and 3 by Bob Cunningham.

On the defense end of the game, Sam Masiello played tremendous in goal making save after save every time the situation arose. Late in the second half Sam was replaced by Andy Herr for a well deserved rest. Andy held off the pressure by Valley Stream. The team played an all around good game with the end results Hicksville winning 6-3.

The team wishes Rich Karlewicz a speedy recovery. Get back soon, we need you.

Big Red - U 11

The Big Red, coached by

J. McCann and V. Christiano, started the new season by winning their first two games at home. It was necessary for the team to come from behind twice before beating a strong Massapequa team 9-2. The goals were scored by K. McCann, D. Donosky, and D. Missimo. The assists went to S. Hertz and D. Missimo. The defensive unit which consist of G. Bentley, M. Boccafolo, A. Brill, R. Humann, L. Mejia, and D. Youngs helped goalie G. Tyranski hold off one attack after another. The key factors in this win were the combination of hustle, aggressiveness, and team-work. Also the move of adding an extra defender in the second half by the coaches contributed to this win.

The second game was not much of a contest due to the weak defense of Cow Harbor which allowed Hicksville to score on 3 breakaways. The goals were scored by C. Bentley, D. Missimo, and P. Ziembecki. The other goals were scored both by D. Donosky. The first one came on a direct kick and the other one came from a cross by left-winger P. Christiano. Goalie G. Tyranski led the defense in recording their first shutout of the season. The final score was 5-0.

Hicksville Thunderbirds
Joe Neto

The Hicksville Thunderbirds sponsored by Long Island Boating Publications won their second game of the young season as they traveled to New Hyde Park and came back with a 1-0 victory. Hicksville did dominate a good portion of the game and took many shots on goal but good goalkeeping denied Hicksvilles offense from getting the ball into the net. Halfway through the second half David Weinberg did manage to get the ball past the goalkeeper and score the only goal of the match. The New Hyde Park offense did put some pressure on Hicksville but the fallback line of Michael Ayres, Martin Jaycard and Paul Thompson played a steady and smart game and did not allow their opponent to take any shots on goal. Halfbacks Thomas Kenny and Richard Fraser played a super game. They played their position well and showed alot of hustle and determination.

Trinity Lutheran Begins Basketball Season

By James J. Lukas

Trinity Lutheran Church's Senior Basketball team begins its basketball season on November 10th. Hicksville is proud of its team which has won the Long Island Lutheran Basketball Championship for the past two consecutive years. All of the participants are boys from 15-17 years of age who are members of Trinity Lutheran Church located at 41 West Nicholas Street. Over the last two years the team has been virtually unbeatable with a record of 34 wins and 5 losses.

Coach Don Henderson is proud of the team's record, but is more impressed by the team's attitude. The team had little height last year with the tallest being only 6 feet. Still, the team utilized its speed to the best of its ability to score and play tenacious defense.

"This teamwork was never better illustrated than when we played as the New York State representative in the National Tournament in Valparaiso, Indiana," says Coach Henderson. In this age of the "hot-headed" athlete, Trinity received praise from each coach they played at the Nationals. The team's Christian spirit, fellowship, and discipline were all applauded.

The team finished fourth in the Nationals, but were lucky to get there. The boys worked diligently to pay their way to Indiana. Cake sales, car washes, and a "Buy a mile" program were well-responded to by the congregation.

Last year's co-captain Doug Endorf was voted All-Tournament at Valparaiso. Although Doug's leadership and all-around team play will be sorely missed, the team is working that much harder to continue their winning ways. They have already begun their conditioning practices in preparation for the season opener.

Trinity Sports Program Coordinator Bill Kuck and the entire Pastoral staff of Pastors Krabn; Froehlich, and Raap have totally supported the program. They welcome your attendance at any of the games.

This is the first in a series of articles on the Trinity team. We'll publish their schedule in the near future.

Concerts At Coe Hall

Friends of the Arts Chamber Music Concerts at Coe Hall begins with a performance by the Boehm Quintet on Sunday October 21, at 2:30 PM

These five chamber wind musicians, performing works from Bach to Barber, make up one of the foremost wind ensembles in the United States.

This fine series of Concerts at Coe Hall continues on Sunday November 11, with a concert by the New York Brass Quintet at 2:30 PM. The New York Times reported that their "brass playing was of a rare finesse and expressivity."

Coe Hall, located at Planting Fields Arboretum in Oyster Bay, is the perfect intimate setting in which to enjoy this music. Seating is limited to 150 people.

These will be the first two of Friends of the Arts two series of eight chamber concerts. Seating priority is given to subscribers. Series tickets are $28 for four concerts, or $20 for Friends of the Arts members. Single tickets are $7.00 or $5.00 for members!

Upcoming concerts include performances by Eric Friedman, the American String Quartet, and Carol Wincenc.

For further information on these concerts or membership in Friends of the Arts, call 922-0061.

Trinity Nursery School at 40 West Nicholas Street in Hicksville has over 100 happy children three- and four-years old. Here children are clapping along with the music as part of their preschool curriculum. Additional classes are currently being formed, and interested parents are encouraged to call 931-2211 for more information.

Operation VFW

By Lou Palladino

Remember this date, Sun. Oct. 28th, if you wish to make the Giant Rally in Washington D.C. for the M.I.A. P.O.W.s. We have chartered a bus, and we must leave early in the morning to arrive at our destination by noon. We will assemble at our Post Headquarters. We will not rest until every man is accounted for.

Through the grapevine, we found out we still have American prisoners in Viet Nam who are shifted around, when our inspectors go to one place our boys are taken to another so, consequently they are never discovered. We won't give up until we find them all. So if you wish to go to the Rally get in touch with Commander Al Vitello, Joe Normandy, Mike Monteleone, or Carmine Somma. The larger the group the more effective the Rally.

We just accepted another new member to our rolls. He is Mario Colletouri, a war horse from W.W. 2. We of Post 3211 welcome you Mario, and if you really want to enjoy our Post, get active. We can only help others if the members help the Post.

Weds. Sept. 26th our Post started the Satellite program, and will take place every Weds. and Fri. from 2:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M. from now on. I don't know too much about the program but when I get informed I will tell you about it.

Connie Steers reports we will have our Christmas party for the Northport Veterans Tues., Dec. 5th. It sounds like a long time off, but the months go by fast, and it's only two months off. We can use help, especially from our Ladies Aux. and bless our girls they are always there when we need them.

Carmine Somma reported that all letters went out to the schools for the Voice of Democracy contest. The theme this year will be, "My Role in the American Future." I'll bet these youngsters will do a great job with this one. It never ceases to amaze me what they can do, and how their minds work.

The report by Joe Normandy on the Veterans Employment Agency was encouraging, we are still putting people to work. For every Vet. we put to work, we save the National State and local Government money. We make useful citizens out of idle people who want to be useful and need a boost for their morale.

Remember Oct. 6th is the next Las Vegas Night, and we will need all the help we can get. We always need help, and we can always find something for you to do. The committee chairman, Augie Barone, or Frank Lotti will place you.

Lucky winner at the last meeting was John Brown. The next meeting will be Mon. Oct. 8th, so come on over and sit in at the meeting.

Meeting Set

Cancer Victims and Friends will present as their next speaker, Ann Wigmore, Director of the Hippocrates Health Institute, at their next meeting to be held on Sunday, Oct. 14, at the Plainview Library, 999 Old Country Rd., Plainview, at 1:30 p.m.

She will discuss, "How To Overcome Cancer."

Valuable information will be presented and films will be shown.

Admission is Free.

A Message From Sup. Colby

With next week (Oct. 7-13) marking National Fire Prevention Week, we will all be reminded of the dedication of our volunteer firemen who will be making an extra effort to educate us about fire safety in our homes.

Some time ago, I saw a response to the question "What is a fireman?" that I think accurately reflects the concern and contribution of these protectors of our lives and homes. In keeping with next week's theme, I would like to share it with you:

He's the guy next door.
He's a man's man with the sharp memory of a boy who never got over the excitement of engines and sirens.

He's a guy like you and me with warts and worries and unfulfilled dreams; yet he stands taller than most of us.

He's a volunteer fireman.
He puts it all on the line when the bell rings.

A fireman is at once the most fortunate and the least fortunate of men.

A firefighter's life is a story of danger, fear, courage, ingenuity, honor and satisfaction.

He's a man who savors life because he has seen too much of death. He's a gentle man because he has seen too much of the awesome power of violent forces out of control. He's a man responsive to a child's laughter because his arms have held too many small bodies that will never laugh again.

He's a man who appreciates the simple pleasures of life - hot coffee held in numb, unbending fingers - the flush of fresh air pumping through smoke and fireconvulsed lungs - a warm bed for bone and muscle beyond feeling - the camaraderie of brave men - the devine peace of selfless service and a job well done in the name of all men.

A firefighter's life is the life of vigilance and extends far beyond the world of smoke and flame. It carries to the hearts of countless women who share that vigil waiting for their men to return.

It takes a very special kind of community-minded persons to give so much and get so little in return.

He doesn't preach the brotherhood of man - he lives it.

Healthy Hearts Do It Better

A healthy heart can help you enjoy your life to its fullest, and longest. People with healthy hearts can look better, feel better and do more than those with heart disease.

Help your heart give you a healthy life. Don't start smoking, or, if you already do, give it up. Eat a well-balanced diet and watch your intake of fatty, fried and high cholesterol foods. Exercise regularly, and have your blood pressure checked. If it's high, follow your doctor's orders for treatment.

We want you to get the most out of life, and do it with a healthy heart.

This message is from the American Heart Association Nassau Chapter.

Around Our Towns

Harriet A. Maher

It's a small world. While up in Lake Placid at a N.Y.S. Kiwanis Convention, we met Mike and Joan (nee Lebkuecher) D'Auria and a host of other Long Island people. We also met Ken Stearns whose daughter, Joan Bubenik and her husband, Frank, live in Hicksville. The Bubenik's daughter, Theresa, just graduated last June from St. Ignatius Loyola School. Theresa, who is a member of the St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps, is now attending Queen of the Holy Rosary H.S. in Amityville.

While on the subject of Kiwanis Clubs, this past Saturday a number of Kiwanian Clubs, including the Syosset, Woodbury and East Norwich clubs attended an annual outing sponsored by the LaGuardia Airport Kiwanis Club. More than 5,000 children were guests of the Long Island Kiwanis Clubs, and they were able to board and inspect planes from the Coast Guard, the U.S. Navy, the N.Y.C. Rescue Squad, Eastern Airlines and American Airlines. They were allowed to sit at the controls of the parked planes, and personnel from the various agencies were available to answer any of their questions. The Kiwanis provided all the children with hamburgers, cold drinks and ice cream for lunch. The Hicksville Girls Cadet Corps gave a splendid performance for the benefit of the children at the airport. The Syosset Woodbury and East Norwich Kiwanis Clubs invited as their guests participants of the T.O.B. GAP program. This is a program designed to provide recreation for the handicapped youth of out Township. The kids in the GAP program thoroughly enjoyed themselves as did the rest of the invited guests and chaperones. The theme this year for the International Kiwanis is "Hand in Hand with Youth." This outing sponsored by the LaGuardia Kiwanis Club and supported and attended by local Kiwanis is only one example of the many community and civic activities the Kiwanians are involved with.

Recent visitors to Hicksville were Jeanne LaTourette, Nassau County's 1979 "Secretary of the Year." Jeanne is secretary to Sol Newborn, T.O.B. Receiver of Taxes. She was attending a local affair held at Antun's Old Country Manor with her friend, Isabel Dodd, commissioner of the Board of Elections. It is easy to see why Jeanne was chosen "Secretary of the Year." She is a very gracious, competent and intelligent person.

Betty and Frank Jopp were surrogate parents for three weeks recently. Their niece, Mary Atina, and her two brothers, Robert and Christopher, visited with the Jopps at their home on Briggs Street, Hicksville. The Jopps were delighted to have the children as their guests, and the kids had a great time. (Frank confided to us that he didn't realize teenagers had such voracious appetites.)

There were birthday celebrations in Senator Ralph Marino's family. Senator Marino and his lovely wife, Ethel, made it a festive event for their son, Jim's special day on August 31. Just prior to that date they helped their daughter, Judy, celebrate her birthday on August 23. Their son, Jim, is applying to the Hofstra Law School among some other law schools. Ethel, we learned just started in her own travel business in Oyster Bay. We wish you both success in your endeavors.

We understand Joe Donovan, Esq., Hicksville, has reached another milestone in his life—his 77 birthday. Joe's birthday was on September 28. Of course, his sweet wife, Karen, and the rest of the Donovan family helped Joe enjoy "his" day.

A former Hicksvilleite, Jimmy

Kennert, is a budding star. Jim, and three other talented musicians Ken and Mary Jensen of Hicksville and Tom Skinner, have performed at such places as Beefsteak Charlie's, Sullivan's Pub and the Oasis. This group has among its staunchest admirers Jim's wife, Maureen, and his parents, Ann and Bob Kennert, and his sister, Terri. Jim is also head teller at the Bank of North America in Huntington. Good luck to you all.

Francis and Murray Margolis, were delighted with a visit from their son, Carl this past month. Carl flew into Boston from California on business and then flew from there to visit his parents in Hicksville for a long weekend. Carl's a computer engineer with pick Associates in California.

Did you know Hicksville Harry Borley was a volunteer fireman for 54 years? He was Chief of the Fire Department during 1937-38, and organized Emergency Company No. 5. He is also past president of the Nassau County Firemen's Assn. and past president of Nassau County Fire Chief's Council. Harry is an example of the dedicated type of men who serve their community.

Neglected to tell you of the momentous event in the Donovan family. Judge and Mrs. Francis J. Donovan became grandparents for the first time. Ryan Donovan was born August 19, 1979, to Timothy and Marie Donovan. Congratulations and best wishes to baby Ryan and the rest of the Donovan family.

Hicksville residents, Bill & Lee Pietruszewicz were presented with a beautiful granddaughter, Bonnie Ann, by their son, Bill and his wife, Linda. Bonnie Ann was born August 20 and weighed 8 lbs. The Pietruszewicz family are ecstatically happy with the new addition to the clan. Congratulations, folks.

At Willet Ave. School

One of this year's special objectives at Willet Avenue School, Hicksville, is the development of an ongoing program of career awareness. The school has always had visits from policemen and firemen, but Guidance Counselor Barry Boriss now plans a much more extensive series of guest speakers and demonstrations covering a variety of positions in both industry and the professions.

An opening presentation, which took place in the school's Library-Media Center, met with overwhelming enthusiasm from the fourth grade students of Mrs. Roselyn Katz and Mrs. Doris Phillips.

David Weston, a commercial diver, is a Willet Avenue graduate. Returning to visit some of his favorite teachers, he heard about the career program and volunteered to return with slides and equipment. David told of his adventures in the off-shore oil rigs of Louisiana, and of laying underwater pipelines and building bridges. He showed slides of himself being dressed in 140 lbs of diving gear, and of the boats from which he worked.

One of his jobs was bringing electricity, via underwater cable, to the Island of Chincoteague off the Virginia coast. This island is famous for its wild ponies, and the students at Willet Avenue are avid readers of a series of horse stories set in that locale. They found it very exciting to see films of the ponies about which they had read so much.

Following the slide presentation, David unpacked his gear—air tank, wet suit, weights, underwater compass, special harness—tools, weapons and equipment. He explained some of the dangers of diving as well as its excitement, and answered the many questions posed by students.

Mrs. Katz was obviously proud of her former second grade student, and Mrs. Geraldine Landgarten was very touched that he had brought along his kindergarten class photo from her class of 1963.

Friends of the Arts will present the first of its five "Great Performances" at the Calderone Concert Hall on Saturday November 10, at 8:30 PM.

The program features the Moscow Pops with the Nekrasov Russian Folk Orchestra and stars of the Bolshoi Opera and Kiev Ballet. The full orchestra of master musicians is devoted to a centuries-old tradition of trilling balalaikas and demras. Performing with the highly versatile stars of the Bolshoi Opera and Kiev Ballet, they achieve a joyous musical unity unique in every way.

Tickets are $7, $9 and $11. Discounted subscription tickets are still available for all five programs in the series, which include performances by Alicia de Larrocha, Itzhak Perlman, Andre Watts and Charles Treger, and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra conducted by Antal Dorati.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY: Kelly Ann, who will celebrate her 2nd birthday with a party at the home of her grandparents (their first) John and Betty Finnegan of Kuhl Avenue, Hicksville. Proud parents are Shawn and Peggy Mahoney (and that's the way he spells it) who are looking forward to a new home out of state shortly. John and this reporter go back more than 25 years on the "Irish" desk - that's when nobody in Nassau County were aware of the AOH and what the Ancient Order of Hibernians were - well 25 later there are few and far between that do not know the workings of the Order and its activities as the oldest Catholic lay organization dating back to May of 1836, right John?

ROUND OUR TOWN: Pete Hamill (NY Daily News columnist) who was recently honored as "Man of the Year" by the AOH Feis Committee tells me we can now tell the story about his two brothers, Brian and Dennis - the story (which we'd known about for weeks) is that Dennis' novel "Stomping Grounds" will be published by Delcorte books - coming out in March (hope its the Great Day, March 17) and his brother, Brian (who does the still photos for all Woody Allen pics), is about to produce the screenplay ... The film (reported at $5 million) will be shot exclusively in New York. To my son, Jimmy and Tom Groody (now of Park Slope, Bklyn) - thanks guys - we enjoyed the recent Hicksville visit with Pete, Brian and Dennis - and will advise readers to watch Pete Hamill's "The Gift" to be presented on Channel 2-CBS on Christmas Eve - quite an honest story we've learned from the recent screening ... Proud to hear that my son, Patrick, has commenced his studies at the Institute of Audio Research (IAR) in New York - the 1 year intensive course will put Patrick in multi-track recording as an engineer - let's hear from you and the good news in your family.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY: Edward and Eileen Byrnes of Woodbine Drive South in our community make it 27 years of wedded bliss today, October 4th - we understand the couple and friends will gather at the Slack O Burley for a gala celebration on this grand occasion featuring music by Pat Roper and Tommy Doyle, what a grand way to top of the big day - every good wish to you both.

IRISH CONGRESS ELECTS: The Nassau County Chapter of the American Irish Congress elected its first slate of Officers on Monday evening, October 1, at the Irish American Center, Mineola ... John Mulrooney, Chairman, Martin Gannon, Vice-Chairman, Patricia Mulrooney, Recording Secretary, Margaret Fitzgerald, Corresponding Secretary; William Bowe, Treasurer and John Campbell, Financial Secretary ... The seven (7) elected members of the Board are: John Sugrue (Past Chairman); Francis E. O'Connor, Jim Cummings, Anthony Jackson, Danny Donovan, Mary McCarthy and John Reddan ... The Public Information Committee of the Nassau Chapter, American Irish Congress is conducting a drive to collect monies to fight back the British Government information office and its control over the news we read about the conditions prevailing in Northern Ireland - forward your check to Nassau County Chapter, American Irish Congress, PO Box 381, Lynbrook, NY 11563.

LOVE TO DANCE? - well next Saturday evening, October 13 at the Joseph Barry Council, Knights of Columbus, the Irish will show how its done for their annual Cella sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Hicksville Division of the "Green Berets," AOH, Past President Peggy Donovan is Chairperson and may be reached at 433-8568 for tickets at $6.00 - you don't have to be Irish to Cella, say Peggy.

WE HEAR THAT: Don Caslin, president of the Irish American Society of Nassau, Suffolk & Queens will host a new Irish radio show on WTHE - 1520 AM - my good friend Martin Gannon of Massapequa Park is Grand Knight of Our Lady of the Isle Council, Knights of Columbus in that community. Supervisor Joe Colby recently installed "Knights of Columbus Blvd" at Heitz Place adjacent to Joseph Barry Council, Knights of Columbus - the sign will remain for the month of October in a salute to this fraternal organization.

To March In Honor Of Columbus Day

"Plans have been completed for the annual Sons of Italy Columbus Day Parade sponsored by the 29 Lodges in Nassau and Suffolk Counties, to be held on Sunday, October 7, in Oceanside", it was announced today by Vincent Andreano, Parade Chairman. The theme of the parade will be "Famous Italians". The rain date for the event will be Sunday, October 14.

Over 3,000 marchers are expected to participate in the parade, which will start at 2:00 P.M. The 1.8 mile parade route will start at Fordhurst Road, and will proceed south on Long Beach Road. The annual event is the largest single parade held on Long Island, and the extravaganza is expected to last for about three hours.

It has been traditional for one of the many Lodges to host the parade. The Rocky Marciano Lodge in Oceanside will act in that capacity this year. Over 20 bands will provide the music for the marchers from the Sons of Italy Lodges and other participating groups, including fire departments and veterans groups.

Miss Columbus Day Parade Queen, Joanne Vetri of New Hyde Park, who was crowned at the Sons of Italy Parade Ball on September 23, will be featured at the parade, along with baton twirlers, cheer leaders, Boy Scout Troops, and floats depicting famous Italians.

The Grand Marshall of the parade is Ray Searage of the Constantino Brumidi Lodge in Deer Park, and the Honorary Grand-Marshal will be Alfonso D'Amato, Presiding Supervisor of the Town of Hempstead.

The Order Sons of Italy in America parade is worked on year-round with an established bi-county parade committee. The parades are held alternately in Nassau and Suffolk Counties. The Lodges expected to participate are located in Glen Cove, Port Washington, Commack, Massapequa, Freeport, Syosset, Valley Stream, Lindenhurst, Centereach, New Hyde Park, Deer Park, Levittown, Oceanside, East Islip, Brentwood, Shoreham, Hempstead, Shirley, Hicksville, Smithtown, North Lindenhurst, Uniondale, Bellmore, Copiague, Inwood and Lake Ronkonkoma.
