Judge Francis Donovan To Be Museum Counsel

An outstanding reinforcement to the community volunteers coming forward in the last week or so, to help preserve the Hicksville Gregory Museum is the law firm of Donovan and Donovan of Hicksville. The Board of Trustees of the museum, Long Island's Earth Science Center, has gratefully acknowledged the acceptance by attorneys Francis and Joseph Donovan of the position of counselors to the museum.

The Donovans' father and son warmly associate themselves with the Hicksville Gregory Museum, an institution which is housed in the very building in which the senior Donovan was sworn in as Nassau County District Court Judge in 1959. It was in the historic Heitz Place Courthouse also that Judge Donovan often presided during his fourteen years on the County Bench, in a distinguished civil court career. Prior to his judgeship, Donovan served brilliantly from 1948 to 1959 as Deputy County Attorney. In this position, as counsel to Russell Sprague Nassau County Executive, the young attorney successfully guided his chief through much of the legal tangle slowing the post-World War II development of Nassau County. The Judge's courtroom career was notable for a record number of published opinions which have been cited and discussed in publications of major law schools, a rare tribute to a lower court jurist.

Joseph Donovan is a young attorney, a cum laude graduate of the State University and a graduate of the University of Southern California Law School, where he was a Bauer Academic Scholar. He has served as Village Judge of South Floral Park and, as attorney, with the firm of Fleck, Fleck and Fleck of Garden City. Now associated with his father in private practice, Mr. Donovan was raised in Hicksville and knows well the community served by the Gregory Museum.

Richard Evers, President of the Hicksville Gregory Museum, who approached the Donovans to serve the museum in its critical hour, said in a press release: "I have known Judge Donovan for many years and consider him a man of utmost integrity and splendid resourcefulness as a lawyer. The museum is honored to have the services of Francis and Joseph Donovan, and we look forward to a fruitful relationship."

Fuel Oil The Subject

Fuel oil costs was one of the main topics of discussion at the Hicksville Board of Education meeting on Wednesday. Under awarding of bids, the Board approved the award to Reliance Utilities Corporation in the amount of $166,566 for 213,000 gallons of number two fuel oil.

Mr. Bill Becker, Director of Building and Grounds, emphasized to this reporter that the cost was an estimate "based on last year's degree days." It is also calculated as of Sept. 25 at 70 cents per gallon. Number two oil is used to heat the eight elementary schools, temporaries and administration building.

Number four heating oil, used to heat the junior and senior high schools, is estimated to cost $183,750 for 245,000 gallons using the same 70 cents per gallon as of 9/25 and based on last year's degree days. The contract for number four heating oil has not as yet been awarded, but the discussion brought out that this item would come under a state contract.

Mr. Becker stated, in answer to a question from Board Secretary Bill Bennett, that the fuel oil would last "a whole year" based on gallons used the previous years but again emphasized it could change, based on the number of degree days.

Vice President John Ayres pointed out that the estimated total for fuel oil would be over the amount budgeted, which is $230,000. "Where will the money come from?" he asked. The deficit is estimated at $100,000.

Mr. Richard Weigang, District Business Manager, stated there were several options: transfer funds from other items where there is a surplus; hope for more heatless days, and possibly the State aiding school districts.

Superintendent Dr. Wilber Hawkins stated that $60,000 had been carried over from last year, which would reduce the deficit. This statement led Mr. Ayres to ask: "Is the amount carried over part of the total surplus?"

Mr. Weigang replied the amount "is over the original surplus."

Later, during the last public speaking session, resident Iris Wolfson asked if the carry-over encumbered for fuel was legal and "why isn't it done for other categories in the budget?"

President Dan Arena stated that "encumbering the $60,000 was legitimate and legal." Mr. Weigang concurred.

A discussion of the definition of "encumbered" then followed. Mr. Ayres stated that he thought "encumbrances were for goods received but paid for in the next quarter." Dr. Hawkins explained the $60,000 was not spent in 1978-79 and "carried over and applied to fuel oil for 1979-80."

Mrs. Wolfson questioned if this would set a precedent.

The Board also discussed the increase in architectural fees from 2 1/4 to 4 1/4 for capital projects for the 1979-80 school year.

Dr. Hawkins explained that in order to receive state funds for these projects, architectural blueprints, specifications, etc. are required to be submitted to the State Education Dept. for their approval. He added: "The going rate is 10%."

Mr. Bennett clarified the 10% saying it was for new projects. He added: "On the surface, it (10%) seems reasonable if they do all the work (on capitol projects), but Mr. Becker already has the specifications and the architect is giving the consent."

Mr. Ayres stated he preferred to "obtain information before getting a bill for the increase." The Board approved the fee of $9,800 on capital projects of $245,000.

During the first public speaking session, Mr. Bill Spettmann, chairman of the Continuing Education Advisory Committee, asked if the Board could resolve the problem of appointing a new

Questions And Suggestions About G-1 At The Community Council

By Carole Wolf

The October meeting of the Hicksville Community Council was vibrant and exciting as many people in the audience made comments and suggestions about the stagnant condition of G-1 zoning.

Steve Didier, the Chairman of the ad hoc Committee for the Development of Hicksville began the meeting by discussing the questionnaire which was sent by the Town to all the residents of Hicksville. 13,000 were distributed by mail, 200 were given to the Chamber and 100 were in the library. Yet as of 4 P.M. on Thursday, October 4th, there were 425 mailed to the town. He urged everyone to get involved.

There was a complaint from the audience that the survey was not sent to the landowners. Sieg Widdler then took the floor and said that he, himself, walked in the G-1 area, personally giving the survey to the businessmen there. He delivered 155 door to door and intends to go back with 200 more. He heard comments, such as "It's about time someone is doing something about this mess" and "I refuse to put anything into writing for the town to feed it into a computer." Businessmen are generally unhappy about what the town is doing in Hicksville and feel that G-1 is economically unsound.

Sieg then explained quickly what G-1 consisted of—20,000 square feet of property, 60 percent of which is to be used for building purposes—offices, churches, theaters, shops and stores, with a 25 foot front yard, 20 foot back yard and 90 percent of parking underground.

What do property owners want? Judge Lebkuecher mentioned that all he wants is to be able to present to the TOB a reasonable plan; he doesn't want any more or any less than any of the neighboring communities. If a building burns down in the G-1 zone, he is out of business, for he cannot rebuild. Murray Margolis asked if the property owners have gotten together? The Judge mentioned that he had tried when the ordinance was first passed.

Zachery Levy, a landowner in G-1, mentioned that the people cannot be afraid of building. We have to allow for the profit motive. Building one store at a time becomes infectious and he stressed, "Don't be afraid of improvement."

King Kelly suggested that building in G-1 could possibly have the same height as the LIRR tracks which is 105 feet. Construction around the Railroad could be that high and it could be scaled down to 3 stories along Old Country Road. He asked, "What happened to Hicksville," and mentioned that "What is really needed in Hicksville is spirit."

Then Murray Margolis suggested that people with small pieces of property adjacent to one another get together and form a corporation.

Steve Didier again mentioned that the Committee for the Development of Hicksville was an Ad Hoc Committee of the Community Council and it consisted of 15 people representing 48 organizations so they can go back and explain the work of the committee to the residents of Hicksville. But one thing is certain—the zoning must be changed...soon.

Next week: The Council hears Strand III.

Information About Your Volunteer Fire Dept.

There are many misconceptions about the Volunteer Fireman and his role in fire protection. A closer look may clear up any questions you may have.

Social Atmosphere
 When you see volunteers at the firehouse, they're there for various reasons — a training session, meeting, cleaning and maintenance work on the apparatus. There are social functions which are paid for by themselves. One or two functions a year are paid out of District or Department funds.

Allowances
 Each volunteer is issued a dress uniform, a used one at first; after three years of service a new one. He pays for the maintenance himself. He is assigned fire fighting protective clothing which he also must maintain. As far as car use, the Chiefs are provided with a District owned vehicle and gas allowance. The other volunteers get no car allowances. The mileage the average volunteer puts on his vehicle is substantial.

He gets no break on his auto insurance, no repair allowance, and no tax break of any kind. After five years of service, he is exempt for local jury duty.

Is the volunteer a professional?
 You'd better believe it, because if he weren't, Nassau County residents would have one of the highest fire insurance rate premiums around and for the record, it is one of the lowest. Remember, the word professional has nothing to do with money. Your volunteers are

Seniors Enjoy First HHS College Day

High school seniors flocked to Hicksville High School's first Long Island College Day, held last Wednesday at the Division Ave. School, According to Principal Raymond Rusch, the college fair was sponsored by the school's guidance department in conjunction with the LI Regional Advisory Council on Higher Education (LIRACHE).

Thirteen college and universities were represented at the fair: Adelphi University, C.W. Post College, Dowling College, Friends World College, Hofstra University, Molloy College, Nassau Community College, New York Institute of Technology, St. Joseph's College, the State University at Stony Brook, State University Colleges at Old Westbury and Farmingdale and Suffolk Community College.

Most high school seniors will complete college entrance applications by December 1, and they took advantage of the opportunity to review the programs and course options each institution offers on an informal basis with the schools; admissions representatives in addition, college catalogues and other printed materials were available to the students for at-home review.

Mr. Rusch, commenting on the College Day program, said, "This was a first for Hicksville and the evident enthusiasm indicates a probable repeat of the program next year."

A Message From Cong. Ambro

I watched a throng of inspired New Yorkers at Manhattan's Battery Park warmly embrace this man of charm, strength and intellect. With the Statue of Liberty rising over his shoulder, I heard him say, "... It (freedom) will always remain one of the glorious achievements of this nation. This tradition must be honored also today. The freedom that was gained, must be ratified each day by the firm rejection of whatever wounds, weakens or dishonors human life."

And I remember that Madalyn Murray O'Hair said this man should not be allowed to say Mass on Washington's Mall Sunday for more than a million Americans, since the First Amendment directs that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion."

At Madison Square Garden, he beckoned to a bewildered little girl, one of 20,000 school children who had come to see him. She was handed up to him by the joyous crowd and he embraced her as his own, speaking to her privately, in hushed tones, words which she will cherish the rest of her life, words which her children and grandchildren will repeat to their children decades from now. The children had heard this Pope did such things. Now they had seen it. Boys and girls wept.

And I remember that Madalyn Murray O'Hair reminds us that the First Amendment says there shall be nothing "respecting an establishment of religion."

At Battery Park, he spoke to the American Jewish community of "our common biblical heritage." Of the leaders of that community who had welcomed him, he said, "whose presence here honors me greatly." He spoke of a "common determination to reject all forms of anti-Semitism and discrimination..." and of the "deep and permanent links between Jews and Catholics. As one who in my homeland has shared the suffering of your brethren," continued this former Krakow chemical worker, "I greet you with the word taken from the Hebrew language: Shalom Peace be with you."

But O'Hair warns, "nothing respecting an establishment of religion."

At Philadelphia's Logan Circle, he told the thousands there, "Freedom can never tolerate an offense against the rights or others."

But O'Hair objects to his pastoral work, cautioning "nothing respecting an establishment of religion."

At the Cathedral of Saints Peter and Paul, also in the Quaker City, he asks that, "... the common dedication and the united efforts of all your citizens - Catholic, Protestant and Jews alike - succeed in making your inner cities and suburban areas places where people are no strangers to each other, where every man, woman and child feels respected, where nobody feels abandoned, rejected or alone."

Everywhere he goes, his message is the same. He speaks of human dignity, respect for our fellow man, the sanctity of the individual.

Yet O'Hair claims he should not be permitted to say Mass for the millions of all denominations who will attend, participate or watch, because there shall be "no law respecting the establishment of religion."

At the White House Saturday, this author of six books, two doctoral dissertations and a play shared some of his quiet force and his character with the world's most powerful men. These national leaders grow in their brief association with this man.

A special raised platform was constructed on the Mall where a million join in his Mass. The platform stands almost directly opposite the National Archives where, under tight security in a hermetically sealed vault, rests the most august compact of civil government ever devised by man.

Following John Paul's Mass, I would have liked to walk Madalyn Murray O'Hair across the Mall to the building and up to that document and its Bill of Rights which begins, "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion..."

Read on, Madalyn: "... or prohibiting the free exercise thereof..."

Unlike some Americans, a federal judge last week knew the First Amendment contains more than its first ten words, and threw out O'Hair's suit to block the Pope's Mass. The judge ruled that her objections were "unfounded."

Budget Proposes General Town Tax Decrease

DAY NIGHT HEARING
SET FOR OCTOBER 23

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor Joseph Colby's proposed budget for 1980 decreases the General Town Tax rate by 2 cents, down to 80 and 1.2 cents per $100 assessed valuation, after having frozen the current rate for the past three straight years.

The Town Board set the public hearing on the budget for October 23, 1979 at 10 AM and 8 PM in the Hearing Room of Town Hall East, Oyster Bay.

"Our attempts to hold the line for the past three years while working towards a reduction of the Town's portion of the property tax was made more difficult each day due to growing inflation leading to the double-digit inflation we have today," Colby said. "Only because of the cooperation with every department of Town government have we been successful. The fiscal diet that if initiated when I took office in 1977 has remained as a top priority. By insisting that we always look for better ways, and through continued Town growth, I have been able to keep taxes level and the 1980 budget demonstrates the success of our continued efforts at putting a hold on the taxes."

Colby indicated that the accumulation of savings brought about by prior efficiency reforms and more recent initiatives aimed at combating the growing national inflation rate allowed for this reduction in the General Town Tax rate. "The elimination of purchasing full-size cars three years ago, the continued increase of computer capability, our recent switch to self-insurance and many other cuts that were all aimed at finding the most economical method of getting the job done, have added up to a reduced tax rate," Colby said.

According to Colby, one of the major factors involved in his being able to hold the tax rate each year has been the system of line-by-line, daily budget review that he initiated upon taking office. "The system has helped point up areas of high cost and of rising costs, allowing the administration to more readily focus on finding alternatives that may result in a change that allows us to operate more economically," Colby explained.

If Supervisor Colby's budget is adopted, it will provide the first reduction of the General Town Tax in 12 years. The rate had been lowered by one-tenth of a penny in 1968. The 2-cent decrease is the largest reduction of this tax in 20 years.

The Preliminary General Town Budget for 1980 totals $21,466,970. That budget is currently $20,532,958.

The Preliminary Part Town (Building, Zoning and Planning and Development) Budget for 1980 totals $1,582,492. It is currently $1,555,086. If adopted, this budget will also result in an additional decrease of almost 2 cents. The Part Town Tax will go from a current rate of 13.4 cents per $100 assessed valuation to 11.7 cents. The Preliminary Highway Budget for 1980 will go from a current total of $5,658,231 to $5,837,003. The Part Town Tax reduction will, therefore, be offset by an increase of the same amount in the Highway Taxes which will go from 87.5 cents to 89.2 cents. The Part Town and Highway Taxes are levied in unincorporated areas only, where there are no village taxes.

The tax rates of assorted special districts, many of which are controlled by locally elected commissioners and vary according to community, reflect tax decreases and increases. These rates and other budget details are available for inspection at the Town Clerk's Office. As reprints of the budget become available, they will be distributed to local libraries prior to the public hearing.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:
 Kenneth Shepaki, son of Mr. & Mrs. Stanley Shepaki, a graduate of Hicksville High School, was performing with the "Winged Victory Singers" at the Raleigh Hotel, South Fallsburg, when Mary Pickard, of our Hicksville Senior Citizens, from Our Lady of Mercy, recognized him and spoke to him. Then he came over to our group, and was very happy to see his neighbors from Hicksville. He sang a solo, and an ovation was never given to any individual such as he received. Before leaving the Hotel Raleigh, he came over and bade us farewell and "safe trip home". Last summer, he was picked to sing with the first summer group, in Catalina, California. He studied under John Davidson, Bill Fellows, Ken Rogers, Shields and Yarnell, from whom he received instructions for singing, comedy and tap dancing.

professional in attitude, ability and training.

Training and Discipline
 The Fire Dept. is a semi-military organization. There is a chain of command, by-laws, regulations, that must be followed. Any infractions are dealt with at hearings and penalties are given. In Hicksville, as in many Departments, every member must make a certain amount of fire training sessions to keep up with the latest methods in fire fighting. Training is conducted in the local area or at the Nassau County Fire Service Academy. The volunteer must respond to a percentage of all alarms. Training for rescue personnel is in addition to fire training.

Do firefighters cause unnecessary damage?

Nassau County firefighters are thoroughly schooled in protecting life and property. If it means breaking down a door to rescue a person or make a search, that's what will be done. Property can be replaced - a life cannot. What may appear to be unnecessary damage is really quite necessary to assure the most efficient method of fire fighting. To make sure it's out.

by motor vehicle law and by the local Chief. Misuse means withdrawal of the privilege. They are used to identify a firefighter responding to an alarm. Your cooperation by moving over will mean men and equipment will respond faster. Remember, they could be on their way to your house.

Do firefighters speed unnecessarily to fires?

No, because the first few minutes of fighting a fire are crucial. Effective fire fighting is done by preventing the fire from growing beyond the incipient stage. Within the bounds of safety, firefighters must make every effort to reach the scene of a fire or rescue quickly. Seconds count.

Does the Volunteer System work?

It works so good that Nassau County is the only area where 1.5 million people depend solely on volunteer fire fighting service for protection. Next time you drive by your local firehouse, take a moment to think what's behind the doors.

Hicksville Fire Report
 From the period, Sept. 1 to Oct. 9, there were a total of 154 alarms: 81 fire calls; 60 rescue calls; 13 false alarms.

The next report will cover how you can get involved and become a volunteer.

Town Board Prepares To Dissolve Hicksville Escalator District

The dissolution of the Hicksville Escalator District will be considered at an Oyster Bay Town Board hearing on Tuesday, October 30, according to Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark.

"The special district was created by the Town of Oyster Bay about 20 years ago to finance the installation and operating costs of an escalator when the Long Island Railroad elevated the tracks at this location and failed to provide for an escalator," Clark explained. "This past July, the Metropolitan Transportation Authority finally agreed to take over the ownership and maintenance of the escalator after more than two years of struggle and negotiations by Town Supervisor Joe Colby."

The transfer of responsibility eliminates the need for the special district, which roughly encompassed all or parts of the communities of Hicksville, Jericho, Plainview and Syosset. This is reflected in the Preliminary Budget for 1980 which lists zero tax revenue under this item. Residents of the district had paid 1.9 cents per $100 assessed valuation for 1979.

Consumer Credit Counseling has been added to the regularly scheduled services offered by the Nassau County Office of Women's Services which is located at 1425 Old Country Road,

Meet The Teachers

Woodland Ave. PTA will hold its "Meet The Teachers Night" on Tues. Oct. 16 at 8 p.m. After a short PTA meeting, the parents will go on to meet their individual teachers.

After the classroom visiting time, both parents and teachers are most cordially invited to join the PTA for coffee and cake in the all-purpose room.

This will be an opportunity for all to meet Dr. Clancy, the new principal, and to welcome him to the community.

director for one of the senior citizens clubs.

Trustee Neil McCormack stated that he "was under the impression that the person in charge has the right to hire teachers and therefore should have the right to hire directors for the senior citizens clubs."

It was brought out in discussion that the position for Director of Continuing Education was posted in July. Dr. Salmon, Asst. Supt. for Secondary, was to handle this matter. He stated that he had discussed the matter with Mrs. Marge Giannelli, current director appointed last year, and added that "if others are interested, it is appropriate to accept applications."

Later, after a brief executive session, the Board agreed to have the position continue on for now with Mrs. Giannelli as Director with responsibility for hiring the appropriate personnel. Dr. Hawkins was to write her a letter to that effect.

Also brought to the attention of the Board by Mrs. Spettmann was the frustration of the senior citizen groups to find space for their activities.

"There are empty rooms in the schools that could be used for activities. The Board is always looking into it. What will you do? We had federal funds last year."

Mr. Arena stated "the question cannot be answered at this point." He added that the Committee could make a recommendation and the Board would act on it.

Also speaking was Mr. Doug Harknett, Coalition Against Strand Three, who stated that this organization was "denied the right to hand out literature at Open Houses."

Dr. Hawkins explained that the Open Houses were a school-sponsored activity and part of the Plainview. An especially trained counselor will be available on the 2nd and 4th Friday of each month, beginning in October, to assist individuals and families with budget counseling and to answer a variety of questions about credit. All of this is free of charge, but advance appointments must be scheduled.

In making the announcement, Lurana Tucker Campanaro, Director of the Nassau County Office of Women's Services said, "We're pleased to add this new service to our current roster of programs, workshops, and courses. The professional counselors, who are with Consumer Credit Counseling Service at its counseling center in Hempstead, have been specially trained to help their clients towards better management and control of income, spending, and debts."

The Consumer Credit Counseling Service was created late in 1973, and its work has been applauded throughout the New York Metropolitan area. It is chiefly supported through voluntary, tax-deductible contributions from major employers, credit grantors, corporations, foundations, and union groups.

"Inflation continues to be destructive to many people, and this crisis intervention type of assistance can help consumers to constructive debt management and ultimate solvency," continued Mrs. Campanaro.

Counseling, which is confidential, is on an appointment basis. To arrange for a private appointment, call 292-8855.

school program, representing school and administration policy. "It is not a place to distribute unauthorized literature," he added. Mr. Harknett implied that legal action would be taken and Newsday would be called.

Mr. Arena the Board Advisory Committees and invited the public to be part of them. Trustee Pete Fujimoto questioned several times what the function and the goals were of the committees. Mr. Arena stated that each Committee sets its own goals and most were functional. Committees include, among others, Continuing Education, Budget, Building Facilities, Educational Goals and Objectives and Policy.

Dr. Hawkins reported that vandalism costs for the period from 6/30 to 9/30 totaled $7,117, with approximately $4,962 in damages to facilities.

He also reminded the public that back-up materials were available to the public for inspection the day of a Board meeting.

The question of "open meetings" was brought up several times. This reporter asked if the district was complying with an amended law, effective October 1, which permits the "convening of executive sessions relative to medical, financial or employment matters concerning a particular person or corporation." Mr. Bennett stated that a draft of the policy covering the area of the open meetings laws was given to Mr. Campanella, Board attorney, for review. The policy is scheduled to be on the agenda at the next Board meeting.

Later, Trustee Virginia Gerner asked Mr. Campanella for his interpretation of the amended law. He explained that the new law "closes the loop holes" with certain minor changes (as stated above.) She specifically asked "Are study sessions illegal?" Mr. Campanella answered, "Yes, in general." He added that all meetings must start out as open meetings and then can recess to an executive session for a particular reason.

The Board approved extra-classroom activity (non-coaching) salary schedule. Mr. Bennett read each position, the amount to be paid this year and the amount paid last year. He voted no to the motion.

The Board withdrew the item concerning a team management agreement between the district and the Council of Administrators.

The next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 30, at the Junior High Cafeteria. Time to be announced.

Annual Alumni Fete Set

The 1979 Hicksville Alumni Homecoming dinner in honor of Ted Swedalla, scheduled for Friday, Oct. 19 at Antun's on Old Country Rd., Hicksville, stands just short of a complete sellout.

This information was reported to the Alumni Board of Directors at the monthly meeting held recently.

Reservations from the Class of 1929, which will celebrate its 50th anniversary, and the class of 1954, which will celebrate its 25th anniversary, are already in.

This true Hicksville party in honor of a great athlete and community citizen is the highlight of the Alumni year.

To add to the celebration, Alumni members Dorothy and Henry Brenzel Jr., have donated a bottle of champagne for each table.

Remaining tickets may be secured from Jim Fyle at the Long Island Bank and Harold Holden at his Stationary Store on Broadway.

Other business approved were the agreement for the Alumni to be custodian of the Nina Plantz Scholarship Fund. The award will be made at graduation along with five others that the alumni has the responsibility for.

Acknowledgment was sent to the family of the late Dr. Charles Masek for a generous donation to the Mabel R. Farley Scholarship Fund in his memory.

The Alumni Board, without dissent, voted an honorary membership to Miss Eleanor Miller for her many years of dedicated teaching to the youth of Hicksville.

Arrangements were also made for the Homecoming Game on Sat., Oct. 20. A reception for the Team, Band and Cheerleaders will be held in Cafeteria A of Hicksville H.S. after the contest.

The 21st Louis Millevoite Outstanding Player Award will be presented at the reception.

A number of our HICKSVILLE residents were fortunate enough to see Pope John Paul II on his recent visit to New York City. On Mayfair Lane, Anne Rennert and Olga and John Glinka saw him at Shea Stadium. Other Hicksvillites present at that time were Margaret Clancy, Rosemary Dolan and Katherine Gill. Although we don't have the names of the rest of the Hicksville attendees, we understand quite a group of people from our area travelled to NYC to see the Pope.

Carole and Hal Mayer spent a delightful week recently at Amagansett with Hal's parents who own a summer home on eastern Long Island. Of course they had with them their adorable son, Hal, III, who will be six months old on October 27.

Congratulations to Theresa and Fred Vevante who were married 30 years on October 8. To celebrate this occasion, the Vevantes had dinner at a New York City restaurant and then attended a show. The Vevantes have four sons: Kevin, Brian, Ferdinand and Barry.

The Hendersons (Helen and Cliff) mentioned that their daughter, Patricia, celebrated her birthday on October 7. Patricia is a nurse at Nassau Hospital. The Hendersons held a family party in honor of the occasion. Their son, John, made it a point to be present for his sister's birthday. John is attending Nassau Community College where he's majoring in business administration.

The "boys from HICKSVILLE." (Nick Caruso, Bill Gannon, John Ahearn) all wish Doreen Lupski good luck with her education at Pace University. Doreen is a graduate of Hicksville High School and has just started at Pace.

Mel Councilman Greg Carman who was visiting in HICKSVILLE. Greg is very involved in campaigning for the upcoming elections and being active in community affairs. In addition, his family keeps him on the go. He and his wife, Nancy, have three sons: Greg, Jr. (17 yrs.), who is on the Farmingdale Varsity swimming team; John (15 yrs.) who is very active in tennis tournaments; and Jimmy (13 yrs.), who plays for the Farmingdale Hawks-midget football. Greg and Nancy adopted their Korean daughter, Mira (10 yrs.), over six years ago. Nancy is teaching Mira to play the piano besides being involved in the Brownies on Mira's behalf. Greg told us the whole family is also helping him in his campaign.

Happy Birthday to Gary Nelson Anderson, grandson of two sets of HICKSVILLE grandparents, Mildred Bernert and Lil and Francis Anderson, who celebrated his fifth birthday on October 4. His parents, Pat and Bill, and Gary live in Commack.

The Zakrewski family of HICKSVILLE had many reasons to celebrate during the month of October. Their daughter, Linda Cathoun, had a birthday on October 4; daughter, Mary, was 13 years old on October 7; daughter, Joyce, celebrated her birthday on October 13.

Almost neglected to wish a happy anniversary to Jo and Bob Kluck of Suggs Lane, HICKSVILLE, who celebrated their 31st wedding anniversary on September 12.

October 5 was a special day to HICKSVILLITE Jim Rogan-it was his birthday. Congratulations and best wishes from your family, friends and neighbors, Jim.

HICKSVILLITES Mella and Gene Burke's grandson, Wesley Eugene Bauman, was two years old on October 1. His mother, Anne Marie, and his dad, Wesley, live in Levittown. Ann Marie attended the Hicksville schools and is a graduate of Hicksville High School.

Ida Mae Herfurth is currently in Central General Hospital where she recently underwent surgery. We know she would appreciate cards, telephone calls and visitors since she has been in the hospital for some time. Ida Mae is one of HICKSVILLE'S sparkling and energetic octogenarians. We wish her speedy good health.

'65 BOYS
The under 15 boys started their fall season with a convincing win over North Shore last week by a score of 3-0. Last season's Rovers are now the Hicksville Yankees and have newcomers Steve Thompson on the front line and halfbacks Billy Chresham and Paul McGeough. The team is coached by the three Irishmen who helped start the Hicksville Americans almost 9 years ago and are now back together: Pete Collins, Bill Cresham and Pat McHugh. This is the first season that high school players are being allowed to participate in club ball (only on weekends) but at least the coaches can work with the boys on Saturday and Sunday.

The Yankees took a 2-0 lead in the first half on goals by Jimmy DeMarco and Adrian Pepi, who were assisted up front by Steve Thompson, John Mitchell and Robby Pearse. As the half ended, the skies opened up and many spectators fled to the warmth of their cars to view the 2nd half. Referee Imry Tandy (the regular ref was a no-show) quickly donned his rain gear to prevent further shrinkage of his wool sweater.

Despite the downpour, the 2nd half began, but not before Coach Cresham warned the boys that one goal by North Shore would make this a very close match. The defense, handled by Jimmy McGeough, Steve Dolan & George Marco at fullback, Cliff Feldman at sweeper and Gene Tyranski in goal completely closed the door, stopped every North Shore attack and pushed the ball up to mid-fielders Robby Cullen, Vinny Christiano, Paul McGeough and Jimmy DeMarco who fed the strikers to keep the ball in the North Shore end of the field.

Bobby Andrus, sidelined with a bad back, was with his teammates and David Smyth was away for the weekend. Next week, the Yankees will meet the Huntington Boys Club Strikers in an away game.

1970 Hicksville Frontiersmen
By Frank Van Cise
On Sunday, October 7th, the Frontiersmen journeyed to the settlement of Valley Stream to challenge the Roadrunners.

The only goal of the game for Hicksville was scored in the first half by Bobby Karlewicz.

There were many shots on goal by Hicksville's Jean Claude Balek, Mike Brigandi and Gabe Perry. The halfbacks Neil McKenna, Timmy Van Cise and Craig Schultz came through again with strong defensive returns for Hicksville. Fullbacks Bobby Laine, Jimmy Ort, Glen Rose and Jimmy Scheider, did a super job protecting our goal throughout the game.

Good goal tending by Matt Conroy, Kevin Taylor, and Bobby Laine resulted in a tie game, 1 to 1.

On Sunday, Oct. 14, the Frontiersmen will be hosting the Hurricanes from Lindenhurst.

OK, boys, they might be a strong wind or just a weak breeze. So, play your best, and we'll all be pleased.

Boys U 10
by M. Kanuck
The Hicksville "Grenadiers" hosted the Levittown Strikers at the Grumman complex on Sunday and proceeded to roll to a 4-0 win. From the onset of the match to the final whistle, the Grenadiers provided the large crowd with exciting, top-notch team soccer. A few minutes into the game, Mike Conway received a through pass from wing Mike Kowalczyk and quickly put the Grenadiers on the score board. This was quickly followed by a pass from Joe Santarelli to wing Mike Kowalczyk who delivered a shot on goal kicked in by Mike Conway for the 2nd Grenadier goal. Scoring frontlinemen were supported by the aggressive playmaking of Craig Ench, Chris Kanuck and Brian Doyle.

During the entire game the exceptional offensive and defensive play of the halfback trio of Mike Olive, Mike Wozniak and Ralph Maresca was bolstered by the super playing of Mike Brown, Craig Carson and Rich Chakrin.

While the "Strikers" were being frustrated at midfield, the Grenadiers did not let up and the third goal came in the middle of the second half by a fantastic header by J. Santarelli on a skillfully placed Ralph Maresca corner kick. The fourth goal was on a penalty kick by Craig Carson carefully placed just above the goalie's reach. Goalies Kenny Hamel and Brian Doyle shared in the blanketing of the "Levittown Strikers Team."

On Oct. 8 the "Grenadiers" traveled east to Brentwood for a makeup game and proceeded to scalp the "Tomahawks" with a 2-0 score. In addition to the tough "Tomahawk" defense, they had to contend with gusts of 40mph wind. However, the soldiers quickly adapted to the elements and took an early 1-0 lead on a center pass from left winger M. Kowalczyk to Mike Conway who chipped the ball into the Brentwood net. Later in the period, Mike Kowalczyk outmaneuvered the "Tomahawk" defense and fired the ball into the right corner of the goal to make the final score 2-0. Next week the "Grenadiers" travel south to take on the experienced East Meadow "Passers."

HICKSVILLE CHARGERS
BOYS U - 9 DIVISION B
On Sept. 16, 1979, the Hicksville Chargers made their first appearance on the Soccer field. The Chargers, under the direction of Head Coach Bob VanSteen, and Asst. Coaches Paul Landman and Bob D'Anbrozio, won their opening game of the Fall Season 4-1 over the Albertson Hustlers.

In the 1st half, Ryan McCann scored the first goal of the game temporarily giving the Chargers the lead. The Hustlers came right back to score and tied the game 1-1. The score remained unchanged at the end of the 1st half.

Hicksville took charge and gained control of the entire 2nd half. Ryan McCann scored his second goal to put the Chargers ahead. Then, Scott Barer booted a nice shot stretching the lead to 3-1. Ending a sensational day, Ryan scored again to bring the final tally to 4-1. Scott VanSteen did a great job by assisting on all 4 goals.

Goalies John Beggs and Lawrence BritVan were on the job protecting the Chargers' goal. Aggressive playing by the powerful defensive line of Joey Schillan, Michael Segal, Josh Landman and Kenny Coumou. Todd Bertman, Tom Bell, Michael Rodriguez and Mark Michell skillfully set up the plays in mid-field. The forward line of Michael McCarthy, Scott Barer, Scott VanSteen and Ryan McCann displayed impressive form. Overall, it was a fine combined effort by the team.

The Hicksville Chargers took on the Plainedge Tornados on Oct. 7, at Grumman Field. Their second game of the season proved to be a tough one with the Chargers losing 2-0 to Plainedge. The team tried their best to keep the Tornados from scoring despite the 2 goals in the first half. Josh Landman and Michael McCarthy showed plenty of hustle throughout the game. Lawrence BritVan did an excellent job in goal. The Chargers have put the game behind them and are ready to come back and challenge the next team.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

We all take great pride in our ethnic backgrounds, culture, heritage and traditions. With this thought firmly etched and deeply ingrained in my mind, I would like to ease myself up to the subject of the Galileo Lodge, an organization so deeply entrenched in its own ethnicity that it also beams with pride as it announces that Tony Preville, one of its officers and members, has been inducted into Who's Who In America - a society national in scope, prestigious and highly acclaimed. This society has embraced and accepted Tony Preville for his scholarly achievements in science, for his diligent pursuit of higher educational goals and for his continuous efforts to advance himself in its chosen field. The Galileo Lodge, in acknowledgement, wishes to take this fine opportunity to extend its sincere congratulations to Tony Preville.

As the Fall season makes its debut, so do some of the 'up-and-coming' events. I am referring to the Halloween Dance, scheduled for the 22nd of October, from the hours of 9 to 1. There will be a fine dinner to tantalize your taste buds, some fine dance music to get your feet and bodies moving, and to round out the evening there will be a few additional items such as beer, soda, coffee and cake. This activity will also feature a 'bring your own liquor policy,' but just think of what you will be getting for only $8.50 per person. Prizes will be given out for various type costumes. Music, incidentally, will be provided by the Jo-Vin group, so why not call Skip Monteforte (938-7081) for additional information.

Another activity that will highlight the Fall season is the 'Foolies Follies' which is scheduled for Friday, October 12th. Besides the menu which will consist of an excellent dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, etc., there will be a fun-packed entertainment program consisting of the talents of the members of the Galileo Lodge and the Ladies Auxiliary. I would think that this combination of good food and good entertainment, unbeatable at the price of $7 per person, was designed primarily to "split your sides" and "tickle your funny bone," and if I am the judge from the reports I received from all those who were able to preview this hilarious program, I would have to say that it does all that and more. If you want to put a little fun in your life, pick up the phone and dial Jo-Ann Walliek at OV 1-8428 and she will give you more details concerning this revue.

LODGE TIDBITS

We hear that Pete Zuzolo, Grano Venerable of the Grand Lodge of the Sons of Italy in America, was graciously accepted into the Order of the Holy Sepulchre. This, obviously, is a great honor and distinction, and the Galileo Lodge, in acknowledgement, wishes to take this opportunity to extend its congratulations to Pete Zuzolo, who, incidentally, maintains an interest in the Galileo Lodge and its activities, and can be often seen at its activities. With the holiday season so close, I am sure that the Galileo Lodge will find

Hicksville Residents See The Pope

By Carole Wolf

Over 150 residents from Hicksville braved the rain last Wednesday at Shea Stadium to see and hear Pope John Paul during his first trip to America. Many shivered in the cold, driving rain for hours waiting to get a glimpse of the man who is the spiritual leader of the Catholic Church.

When he finally arrived at Shea after one o'clock, the rain suddenly stopped. He climbed into his 'popemobile' and blessed the people in the stands. After he walked through the crowd and stepped onto the podium, the sun broke through as if someone had given a signal.

He joined in some of the songs and prayers and seemed happy to be surrounded by 65,000 people. As he began to talk in halting English, he warmed the hearts of all who were there. He spoke of the skyscrapers and residential areas that he had visited and about New York's soul. He received thunderous cheers from the crowds when he mentioned that there were people from Long Island, Connecticut, and New Jersey. And it seemed that everyone cheered when he mentioned Brooklyn.

He smiled when a choir broke into Polish song and then easily slipped from one language into another giving the audience a cheerful message. He warmed the hearts of a chilled crowd. And then he was gone.

Memories of a father who loves his children, of a man who enjoys

Trinity Lutheran Church Adds Cheerleaders

By James J. Lukas

The Dallas Cowboys have them, now so does Trinity Lutheran Church. Trinity has recently begun a cheerleading program to complement its fine basketball teams.

Cheerleading Coordinator Louise Bopp is enthusiastic about the initial response. "At our first organizational meeting over 20 girls turned out, which is great with the limited publicity we've had," says Louise Ms Bopp, who was a cheerleader for four years at Lutheran High School is being ably assisted by Doreen Valencia, Pam Pulitk, and Alberta Bopp.

At present, the girls have been divided into two groups. One cheerleading squad consists of girls from eight to twelve years old. The other group has girls thirteen years of age and older. The younger girls have been fortunate with their uniforms, which came from the Red Devils II Team. The older cheerleading girls are busy making their own uniforms.

Practices are held each Wednesday night from 7:00 - 8:30 p.m. in the Trinity gym. Doreen Valencia begins with a conditioning exercise program to help get the girls in shape. Louise Bopp teaches the cheers and routines they will be using. Coordinator Bopp says, "the key element we try to teach are coordination and the ability to make themselves heard".

The cheerleaders will participate at the church's Bantam, Junior, and Senior Boys' league games. Intensive cheerleading practices are underway in anticipation of the Trinity Pep Rally and the beginning of the season in early November.
