This year's Christmas tree stands majestically trimmed and lighted in the downtown Hicksville triangle area thanks to the efforts of the Hicksville Rotary Club members who take on this project each year.

Involved (and braving the worst of the elements last Saturday) were rotarians Ed Johnson, Bill Buchman, Joe Trebitz, Win Piechutski, Joe Jablonsky, Joe DePaola, Harry Peltz and his children Laura and Daniel.

Community Council's Holiday Meeting

By Carole Wolf

Mime Stephanie Rich, the Pegge O'Connor School of Dance and The Holy Family Players filled the December program of the Hicksville Community Council with cheer and good tidings.

Ms. Rich, who was born in Tennessee and who received her B.A. and M.A. from Trinity College in Texas, gave an "informant" during which she performed both verbal and non-verbal scenes.

Ms. Rich, who studied under Marcel Marceau, demonstrated her art, which is based on muscle tension and relaxation.

Five acts from the Pegge O'Connor School of Dance then performed for the Council.

The "Little Ones" featured Danielle Andrew, Tara Hooper, Nancy Hogan, Patty Higgins, Meredith Lambert and Megan Xiques. They performed a line dance number.

Seven year old twins, Andrea and Allison Zuzzolo did a tap routine. Ballet star Eileen Varley confided that she has been in dance for 11 years.

The Kelly Sisters - Kristen, June and Lauren - performed Acrobatic and Aerial work.

In full make-up and costume Meg Rosen, Teresa Slattery, Allison Green, Lauren Joachim and Elisa Weiss did a jazz routine to Pippin.

All dances were choreographed by Miss Denise O'Connor Lambert.

To conclude the evening, the Holy Family Players, 41 strong, entertained the audience with several selections from their production of "Sing a Rainbow." Besides such colorful songs as "Red, Red Robin," "Black is the Color of My True Love's Hair" and "It's Not Easy Being Green," the Players moved the audience with the Sabbath Prayer" from FIDDLER and the intertwining of "Let There Be Peace On Earth" and "Ave Maria."

At the Hicksville Town Meeting, Siegfried Widder, President of Kiwanis mentioned that Kiwanis donated 22 turkeys for Thanksgiving. They were distributed by the school district. This club also plans a Christmas Party at the Jones Institute.

The next Hicksville Community Council meeting will be held on Thursday, January 3rd, at 8:30 P.M. downstairs at the Library. It will be hobby night at the Council and four different crafts taught at Hicksville Adult Education will be featured. Come down to the Library on January 3rd and see what you can do on a snowy winter evening.

All the officers and the members of the Hicksville Community Council wish you and yours a very Merry Christmas and a Healthy and Happy New Decade.

Parents As Reading Partners

The children's Department of the Hicksville Public Library is participating in the "Parent's as reading partners" program which will run from December until May. All Hicksville Families with children from pre school to age 12 are invited to join this very special program.

Because good readers frequently come from homes in which the children are regularly read to, parents are requested to set aside at least 15 minutes a day to read with their children.

The library has many fiction and non-fiction books on all topics. Any book which interests your child may be chosen as reading material.

Rueal Jackson Retires

Hicksville School District administrators paid tribute to a well-known employee who resigned recently, when they presented a retirement plaque and gave best wishes to Rueal Jackson. Mr. Jackson, who was a member of the Hicksville staff for 15 years, worked as a codian in every school in the district during his tenure here.

A Hicksville resident since 1950, Mr. Jackson was a former fighter pilot in the U.S. Air Force, he retired as a captain in 1957. He was vocal in school matters, and, in a recent interview, said, "The criteria for good education are devotion and dedication to children. I did my best to make that point. I fought for what I believed was right."

Mr. Jackson's opinion is highly respected in the school family. He was asked to, and did, sit on the ad hoc committee which screened the current superintendent of schools, Dr. Wilber Hawkins. He has also participated in community affairs, and even made an unsuccessful bid for a seat on the Hicksville Public Library Board of Trustees. "Nothing ventured, nothing gained," he ruefully commented.

Mr. Jackson has ambitious plans for his retirement, hoping to spend considerable time in Florida and the Adirondack region of New York State.

School Board Adopts Amendments

The Hicksville Board of Education has adopted amendments to its policy regarding open meetings. The new policy is now in conformity with the New York State Open Meetings Law, which was recently revised to close loopholes. Mr. William Bennett, who proposed the changes in the policy, noted that the intent of the law has not changed.

The preamble of the law, which is restated in the policy reads, "It is essential to the maintenance of a democratic society that public business be performed in an open and public manner and that the citizens of this state be fully aware of and able to observe the performance of public officials and attend and listen to the deliberations and decisions that go into the making of public policy. The people must be able to remain informed if they are to retain control over those who are their public servants..."

Any covering of a public body to discuss public business must be open to public observation. A public body is defined, under state law, as consisting of two or more members of an entity (in this case, school board). It includes committees and subcommittees, which formerly were not included under this heading.

Executive sessions, those portions of meetings which are not open to public observations, have been further limited by the state revisions, which now require that a specific reason be stated prior to the convening of an executive session. Those reasons, as they pertain to school board meetings, include: specific personnel matters; collective bargaining and negotiations; the preparation, grading or administration of examinations; the proposed acquisition of real property or securities, when publicity would substantially affect their value.

While the New York State law provides that minutes of executive sessions may be taken, they are not required to be opened up to the public. The Hicksville Board of Education policy provides for open minutes of executive sessions when a formal vote takes place. They would include a record of the action taken, the date of the action and the vote.

Minutes of regular open sessions will be made available to the public within two weeks of the meeting's occurrence. Minutes of executive sessions become available to the public one week after the session, and have the status "unapproved."

Ceramics Workshop

Because the art of ceramics is so popular, the Children's Department of the Hicksville Public Library is sponsoring a special ceramics workshop for all grade school children. Anetta Williams will instruct the children in the techniques of making ceramics and students will create their own objects.

There will be a materials fee of $2.50, payable at the time of registration. Class size is limited, so make plans to join us for this holiday treat.

Classes will meet on Thursday, December 27th at 1:00 to 2:30 P.M. or 3:30 to 5:00 P.M.

"If you fit into one of these categories, a Bowery IRA or Keogh Account should give you a big tax shelter."

-Joe DiMaggio

(A terrific break in taxes
in this roller coaster economy.
Talk to The Bowery to see if you qualify.)

You may be paying more money to the I.R.S. than you legally need to—

■ If you're a self-employed professional—physician, dentist, lawyer, accountant, director of a company, put up to $7,500 a year in a Bowery Keogh Account and deduct that amount from your taxable income.

■ If you do free-lance work. Put a portion of these earnings into a Bowery Keogh Account—even if you regularly work for a firm that has a qualified pension, profit-sharing or other retirement plan.

■ If you're self-employed and do not have a Keogh Account because of its requirement to cover your employees, open a Bowery IRA Account instead.

■ If you are not covered by a retirement plan where you work. You may be able to open a Bowery IRA Account.

■ If you work for a firm that has a waiting period before you qualify for their retirement plan. You may also be able to open a Bowery IRA Account.

■ If you're switching jobs. Shelter your retirement plan money from a huge tax bite with a Bowery IRA Rollover Account.

■ If you retire early. The Bowery IRA Rollover Account can save you a lot in taxes.

■ If you have a non-employed spouse, you may make annual tax-deductible IRA contributions that total up to $1,750 on your and your spouse's behalf.

Find out how you can benefit from one of these tax-deferred accounts. There is an IRA/Keogh specialist today at The Bowery nearest you.

Dear Friends....

Long Island will soon have its own song, hopefully as successful as the NY State I Love New York tune. The Long Island Tourism Commission has announced the "Long Island Song Contest."

The Commission is searching for the best song writing talent Long Island has to offer; something original, creative. The entries must be recorded on a cassette tape with only piano or guitar accompaniment and must not exceed three minutes. Finalists will be invited to a gala event at Colony Hill, May 2, 1980. A select panel of judges will choose the winner at this gala event. The winner will receive full recognition, publicity and entry to music publishers. If the song is recorded the winner will receive 100 percent of the proceeds derived from sales.

Entry forms may be secured by writing to "Sing a Song of Long Island" c/o Long Island Tourism Commission, L.I. MacArthur Airport, Ronkonkoma, LI, NY 11779. Deadline for submission of the musical composition is March 3, 1980.

The Nassau County Chapter American Red Cross will conduct a FREE blood pressure screening on Tuesday, January 8th, from 9 A.M. till 12 noon, at their South Shore Service Center, 42 No. Village Avenue, Rockville Centre.

Find out now what your blood pressure is. When blood pressure remains elevated, you have Hypertension. The earlier in life that treatment for Hypertension is started, the better. It can be controlled and serious complications can be prevented.

Take advantage of this program. Register now for the session on Tuesday, Jan. 8th. Call 784-6251 for an appointment.

The staff of the HERALD extends best wishes for a Happy Holiday Season to all its readers.

May each day in the coming year bring you growth, love and continued concern for those whom you may help.

New Dumping Restrictions Planned For Hazardous Industrial Wastes

Changes in Oyster Bay Town's Garbage, Litter and Waste Ordinance will be the subject of a public hearing before the Town Board on Tuesday, January 15, 1980, according to Town Supervisor Joseph Colby.

The proposed changes include separate definitions of hazardous waste and industrial waste, excluding from them being considered as rubbish or garbage, and makes special provisions for acceptance of industrial waste at the Town's disposal facilities. Hazardous wastes are specifically banned. "The more specific definitions of what constitutes hazardous materials and what is industrial waste will provide the means for more effective control and greater safety in our disposal operations," Colby said.

A new schedule of disposal fees is also proposed. If adopted, the new fees will go into effect on February 1, 1980, raising the rate for disposing of garbage and rubbish to $14 per ton. These fees will be increased another $1 per ton on July 1, 1980. Landscapers will also be charged the $14-per-ton disposal rate to dispose of grass clippings, prunings, leaves and other landscape material.

No fee will be charged for the disposal of dead animals under 100 lbs., including dogs and cats, but such disposal is handled separately by appointment.

"As with previous rate increases," Colby said, "the new rates will maintain parity with those of Hempstead and North Hempstead so that no one town will have lower fees that might attract outside carters to use its disposal facilities."

By Sheila Noeth

At its regular meeting held at the Town Hall on Dec. 18th the Town Board acted on the following local items:

Held a hearing to consider a proposed contract (standard procedure) for the rental of fire hydrants between the Town of Oyster Bay and the Plainview Fire District for use by the Plainview Fire Protection District for the year 1980. The Board reserved decision after this hearing.

Approved a resolution relating to the extension of the agreement with the Town and the contractor to use the Giese Property in Hicksville to store equipment until Jan. 31, 1980. This keeps much equipment off the streets and, at the completion of this work the site will be refurbished, at no cost to the taxpayer.

Set a hearing of Jan. 15th on proposed amendments to the Code of Ordinances of the TOB regarding the removal of snow and ice from the streets and sidewalks of commercial buildings, which, if approved, will put them on a par with the requirements governing residential property.

Approved a hearing date of Jan. 15th on proposed strict amendments to the code of ordinances of the TOB, regarding garbage, litter and waste. See story on page 4.

Approved a resolution relating to the award of a bid proposal for surplus newspapers. Note: just a reminder that properly-tied bundles of your surplus newspapers may be left out on either of your weekly garbage collection days.

Approved a resolution reappointing Daniel Casey of Hicksville as a member and vice chairman of the Board of Zoning Appeals for a five-year term.

Approved a resolution relating to preliminary study and aid grants in connection with commuter parking facilities throughout the TOB. This is to investigate what Federal and State funds are available for developing such much-needed facilities.

Approved a resolution authorizing consulting engineers to proceed with construction phase on contract for the construction of storm drains and appurtenances and road improvements on West Babylon Barclay, Marion and Wyckoff Streets in Hicksville. This went to Zara and Sons in the amount of $503,000.

Approved a resolution relating to extending additional appropriations for street lighting. This was necessary because the extend of rewiring needed for underground cable is never known until digging takes place.

Approved three resolutions relating to property acquisition of 18.6 acres, covering property of the Nassau Brick Company which is adjacent to the Old Bethpage landfill site. This covered authorizing the issuance of serial bonds in the amount of $600,000.

Approved a resolution relating to highway dedication of Karin Lane in Hicksville.

Approved a resolution relating to amendments to the TOB code of ordinances defining more clearly what Fast Food means. This definition, now adopted, will be covered in a story in THE HERALD's Jan. 4 issue.

Hobby Night

The Hicksville Community Council will feature Hobby Night as the theme of its January 3 meeting. Six teachers of adult education courses in the Hicksville Public Schools' Continuing Education Program will display examples of their work and will make presentations about them.

The participating teachers are: Annemarie Kwaschyn, Trash Art; Stella Giovenco, Sewing; Ines Tarantelli, Quilting; Jean Passarelli, Ceramic Decoration; Helen Lupski, Cake Decorating; and Dyan Palmer, Macrame.

The meeting will be held at Hicksville Public Library, in the Community Room, starting at 8:30 P.M.

Holiday Sanitation Schedule

Changes in the Town of Oyster Bay sanitary collection schedule for Tuesday customers resulting from the Christmas and New Year's holidays were announced this week by Town Councilman Joseph F. Saladino.

"Residents who normally have sanitation collection on Tuesdays will receive special pickups on Wednesdays, December 26 and January 2," he explained. "Following these holiday changes, service will revert back to the regular schedule."

Saladino noted that all Town offices will be closed on the afternoons of December 24 and 31, as well as all day Tuesday, December 25 and January 1, in observance of the holidays. Town park facilities will also be closed on Christmas and New Year's days.

Homemakers Council

The Hicksville Chapter of the Nassau County Homemakers Council will be holding a regular monthly business meeting on Thurs., Jan. 3 at the Parkway Community Church, Stewart Ave., Hicksville, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The guest speaker will be Dr. Norman O. Stahl, M.D., F.A.C.S. from the Nassau Ophthalmic Services P.C., Merrick Rd., in Bellmore.

At The Town Board Meeting

Improve Traffic Flow For Route 107, Jericho

Oyster Bay Town Councilman Kenneth S. Diamond announced that the State Department of Transportation will install a left-turn arrow on North Broadway (Route 107) at North Marginal Road in Jericho.

"This turn signal will aid northbound traffic on North Broadway that wishes to make a left turn onto North Marginal Road and should significantly improve the traffic flow and safety at this busy intersection," Diamond said.

The Jericho Councilman singled out Mrs. Joyce Stahl, past president of the Oakwood-Princeton Park Civic Association, for leading the efforts to obtain the traffic safety improvement.

The installation will be scheduled and completed by Department of Transportation maintenance forces as their schedule permits, according to Acting Regional Traffic Engineer Walter Dunn.

According to a study by the F.B.I., the most probable months for burglaries are December, January, and February.

Unique St. Nick Gifts And Ornaments

A selection of unique, hand-crafted Christmas gifts and ornaments related to the traditional Dutch St. Nicholas Day origin of holiday gift-giving, await Long Islanders at the Old Bethpage village restoration gift shop this season. A Dutch holiday will be celebrated at the Schenck House in Old Bethpage village restoration.

A special St. Nicholas display features a variety of gifts and holiday decorations including various colorful and attractive hanging ornaments, paper cut-outs, decals, cornucopias, and decorative bins fashioned with the traditional figure of St. Nicholas and suitable to adorn Christmas trees, walls, doors or other household display area.

The gift shop also offers a unique and extraordinary Christmas card - a complete reproduction of the original 1848 New York illustrated version of "A Visit from St. Nicholas" (popularly "Twas the Night Before Christmas..."). Dutch items which recall the original St. Nicholas tradition include ladies' lace caps and wooden shoes imported from Holland and available in many novelty sizes, including wooden shoe tree hangings and key chains. A selection of hand cast lead toys made from original mid-1800's molds will delight miniature collectors.

The St. Nicholas items are also available in limited quantities at gift shops operated by the Friends of the Nassau County Museum at Tackapausha Museum, Seaford; Museum in the Park, East Meadow; and Garvies Point Museum, Glen Cove.

HOLIDAY CHILDREN'S SHOW AT ROSLYN SAVINGS BANK: Children from 4 to 10 are invited to take off for outer space at The Roslyn Savings Bank in Woodbury on Wednesday, December 26, when the Nicolo Marionettes will present two performances of Adventures in Star Worlds.

The popular children's theatre company will put on its first show at 1:30 p.m., the second at 3 p.m.

Seating is by reservation only. Free tickets may be obtained in advance at The Roslyn Savings Bank, 8081 Jericho Turnpike, Woodbury. Telephone: 367-9100.

The holiday happening is another in a series of community service programs presented throughout Nassau County by The Roslyn Savings Bank, the County's oldest financial institution. Roslyn also has offices in West Hempstead, Farmingdale, Bellmore and Roslyn.

Anyone For Singing

The Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks is looking for senior citizens who like to sing.

A community singing program for Nassau residents age 60 and over will begin Jan. 8 and continue each Tuesday thereafter from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. at Eisenhower Park's Special Activities Center.

The program is free and registration is not necessary.

Participants with exceptional voices will also get a chance to join the department's senior citizens choral group called the "Swinging Singers," a troupe of golden agers which performs at various functions throughout the country.

Persons wishing additional information are asked to call the Senior Citizens Unit at 292-4247.

L.I. Heritage Awards

The Long Island Tourism Commission announced the winners of the 1979 Ward Melville Long Island Heritage awards at a dinner held at Colony Hill December 12.

This is the second year the commission is presenting these awards to encourage Long Islanders to reflect on their rich historical and cultural past.

This year's awards were presented in four categories - community, major single project, private sector, individual, and a special award. The selections were made by a committee from the Public Relations Society of America Inc., Long Island chapter.

Winners included: Community: Freeport Boating Festival, submitted by Village of Freeport; Major Single Project: Huntington Arsenal Submitted by Town of Huntington; Private Sector: St. James General Store submitted by Andrew Havrisko; Individual: Luis Bejarano submitted by the Village of East Rockaway; and Special Award to Old Bethpage Village Restoration submitted by the Friends of the Nassau County Museum.

Ward Melville is remembered for his personal effort in the reconstruction of the hamlet of Stony Brook, LITC presented the first Long Island Heritage Award to the Stony Brook Community Fund following Mr. Melville's death in 1978. His work and vision will long stand as an example to those who follow and seek to preserve the Long Island heritage to the enrichment of others.

"Rent A Kid"

The Hicksville Youth Council Rent-A-Kid Community Service Program has an urgent need for odd jobs in the Hicksville area and kids are needed for jobs in Jericho and Westbury. Other areas will be serviced, if necessary.

The purpose of this program is to provide a vital service to residents and to encourage today's youth to develop skills and learn a trade.

Graduates

Airman Brett M. Levy, son of Beverly R. Martin of Post Ave., WESTBURY, has graduated from the U.S. Air Force Jet engine mechanics course at Chanute Air Force Base, here.

Graduates of the course earn credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.

Airman Levy learned how to inspect and repair turbojet and gas turbine engines.

His father, Howard D. Levy, resides in HICKSVILLE.

Winter Golf

Golfers who can't wait until Spring to get back out on the links can use the blue and white courses at Eisenhower Park throughout the winter.

The courses will switch to temporary greens on Dec. 24 but will remain open for 18-hole play on weekends and 9-hole and 18-hole play weekdays.

The winter rates are $3.50 weekends and $2.50 weekdays for 18 holes and $2.25 weekdays and $1.50 weekdays for nine holes.

All outlying 9-hole courses operated by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks will close for the season after play is finished on Dec. 23. They include Bay Park, East Rockaway, Caniague, Park Hicksville, Christopher Morley Park, Roslyn, and North Woodmere Park.

The normal schedule and rates for all courses will resume on March 17, 1980.

H.S. Track Meet

Entries have gone out to high schools throughout the downstate New York area for the 1980 Long Island Citibank Relays, the largest indoor high school track meet in America.

More than 5,000 school-age athletes are expected to participate in the two-day event, set for Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 4 and 5, at the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum, Uniondale.

The event is sponsored annually by Citibank and the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks.

In past years, the meet has seen several state and national records challenged and broken. Many past champions have gone on to world wide and Olympic recognition.

Tickets for the meet, which will run both days from 3 to 10 p.m., will go on sale in January at the Coliseum box office.

HHS Rambler

By O'D

When you enter Enid McAvoy's house, there, almost immediately to your right, is the entrance to the living room; and over the hearth, just beneath the mantelpiece, is Enid's motto - and her daily practice with her family and with all whom she meets - "Love one another." Christmas is everyday at the McAvoy's.

Christmas can be everyday for all of us. We, too, can make love, a real Love for each other, our daily practice; and a number of the students at Hicksville High School have given demonstrations of that Love over the past several months. I'd like to share with you some instances I have observed.

Several weeks ago, accompanied by some Senior Class Officers, I had occasion to visit the Flea Market, searching for Fund Raising ideas. While there I saw Jim Jannette, said "Hello," and commented, "We'll see you back at Tom Luongo's house." I left in my car, crowded with class officers, headed down Broadway, and passed an elderly man dressed in an old army uniform, hitch-hiking in the dark, cars flashing by - mine along with the rest. I made the comment: "I'm sure he'll get a ride soon: about 3:00 a.m." It was then 9:30.

About a half-hour after I got to Tommy's house, Jim finally arrived. "Where were you?" "Oh, I stopped to pick up a poor old guy who was hitching to work. He was already late; he's a night-watchman in Syosset. Poor guy. He didn't even have decent clothes, just an old army uniform. So I drove him to his job and just got back." Jim Jannette had just given a lesson in Love.

A few days ago, Joanne Pearl, who is right now celebrating her feast, Chanukah, came into my room before school began, armed with tinsel and miniature Christmas Tree decorations she had bought in the Plaza. Some years ago, a student had given me a 2 foot Christmas tree, green plastic, to decorate the room. Joanne came in Wednesday and, as she proceeded to trim the tree - "I'm not too good at this," she said. "I haven't had much practice." Joanne said: "It looked so lonely and naked up there. I had to do something."

Joanne had just give a lesson in Love.

There are many young children in hospitals, many young children in Orphan Homes, many elderly in Homes for the Aged. Most of us know that - but we don't really think about it. Pete Demas did. And Friday, in class, Pete volunteered to organize our class, 5th period, so that we could put on a simple show, sing a few carols, tell a few stories - "Hey, O'D, will you read 'Twas The Night Before Christmas,' and I'll dress up as an elf." The class's response was enthusiastic, because Peter had fired us with his enthusiasm. Peter had just given a lesson in Love.

More than a month ago, one of our students was on a bad trip: face a little battered, clothes a bit torn and dirty, eyes a bit wild. Most of us turn away from that scene, we don't want to get involved. Karl Milenkovic didn't turn away: He helped his Neighbor clean up - and then walked with him across the football field, reached out, gave a helping hand when it was most needed, and, perhaps, saved a soul. Karl had just given a lesson Love.

We can all give lessons in Love. Watch "It's A Wonderful Life" when it's presented on T.V., next week; reread A Christmas Carol; let a few tears stand in your eyes, and a few more sparkle your cheeks. And let that feeling grow all year long.

Be an Enid McAvoy; "Love one another."

THE CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

"I LOVE YOU"

Little in life can match the beauty of Christmas Eve—the holy night of celebration. Beauty in abundance surrounds us for a few fleeting hours. Each of us treasures these moments savoring every tradition. Somehow we love our children a little bit more this night. Our wife, how lovely she looks, our hearts feeling special love for her, for him. If we had the power to stop time's endless march—suspend it momentarily—most of us would do it Christmas Eve. For this is the night when peace pervades our hearts, as hands extend to greet friends and arms reach out to embrace family. How wonderfully good we all feel. We love and are loved. We forgive and are forgiven. We give only to receive in return.

Years ago, many years ago, there was a Christmas much unlike our own. The world didn't stop for the first Christmas.

Celebrate Christmas

The Mid-Island community is invited by the members of Trinity Lutheran Church, 40 West Nicholas Street, Hicksville, to worship the Christ Child at their Christmas Eve services: 6 p.m. Family Service, 7:30 p.m. Carols and Candles, 9 p.m. Candlelight Holy Communion; 11 p.m. Carols and Anthems; and 11:30 p.m. Candlelight Holy Communion. There will also be a Family Communion Service Christmas morning at 9:45 and on New Year's Eve at 11 p.m. there will be a special Holy Communion Service.

If you are not regularly attending a church in our community, you will be warmly welcomed at Trinity.

Obituaries

TERRENCE DONOHUE
Terrance Donohue of Old Bethpage died on Dec. 4. He was the husband of Alice, father of Erin; son of Dorothy and Melvin; brother of James, Brian and Patricia.

He reposed at the Thomas F. Dalton Funeral Home, Jerusalem Ave., Hicksville, Mass. of the Christian Burial was at St. Martin of Tours R.C. Church and interment followed in Calverton National Cemetery.

GRACE ELIZABETH RICKER
Grace Elizabeth Ricker of Hicksville died on Dec. 9. She was the wife of Frederick J.; mother of William H. She is also survived by her mother Marie Ambrose and a sister Edythe Hughes.

She reposed at the Thomas F. Dalton Funeral Home, Jerusalem Ave., Hicksville, Mass. of the Christian Burial was at Our Lady of Mercy R.C. Church and interment followed in Mt. St. Mary's Cemetery, Flushing.

hardly anyone even noticed. Fresh baked bread and chocolate chip cookies were not the smells of the first Christmas. Straw replaced tinsel and garland. Live animals replaced Hand-geschneitzte Holzfiguren and Hummels and they stood in a real creche. A virgin laboring at birth, a carpenter lending an unsteady hand. Animals annoyed at intruders. Angels preparing themselves to startle shepherds. God's wayward creation about to be invaded by the cosmic Christ. Coming into the humblest surroundings to a no-place city called Bethlehem. This was the first Christmas. How strange...how wonderfully and beautifully strange. The first Christmas can only be described as strange and surprising that the God of a million heavens and a million earths should grace a manger in Bethlehem. Swaddling cloths upon the back of a King, of a God, on the back of the one, true, and only God. Where was the finery one might expect? Nowhere, for it was to the poor He came, to those who were troubled, those who were not completely self-sufficient, those who knew they were not good enough to make heaven by themselves. He came for all mankind, not only that first holy night but every night of every year into the present, here, tonight, right now.

The Lord Jesus Christ is present with us. He speaks to us once again the message of Christmas as he says to each of us, "I love you. I love you. I want to be close to you every day of your lives, please be wise and invite me in. There is no one who is so perfect that they cannot welcome a fuller participation of my indwelling. There are some who have yet to welcome my powerful presence and, unfortunately, we are only occasional guests of one another and may be strangers in eternity. And to you I say, come, do not live another day without my abundant presence." Now may my Father bless and keep each one of you, and as this Christmas joins others as a cherished memory, may your voices and lives continuously sing the angelic chorus, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

Remember Our Hostages!

In this season of giving, and sharing and loving, Remember Our Hostages.

By mailing our hostages a Christmas card, we will be sending the Ayatollah Khomeini a signal.

He must be made to understand that 220 million Americans stand shoulder to shoulder, united in their demand that the 50 hostages held in the U.S. Embassy in Tehran be released immediately. He must be made to understand that in this most joyous of seasons, the hearts and minds of each and every one of us are focused on our countrymen whom he holds against all principles respected by civilized societies.

We send that message when we send a Christmas card to "An American" at:

American Embassy
280 Takht-e Janshah Avenue
P. O. Box 50
Tehran, Iran

The U.S. State Department has cleared this idea for expressing American solidarity for our hostages. A card will need 6¢ cents in postage. Cards may also be sent to Third District Congressman Jerome A. Ambro, 236 Cannon HOB, Washington, D. C. 20515, and he will forward them.

Send your card today.

which last year received more than 18,000 calls for help from watering eyes, abdominal pain, nausea and vomiting.

Alcoholic beverages: While the fatal dose of ethyl alcohol is from a pint to a quart in an adult, the fatal dose in children is a little over a teaspoon for every two pounds. Alcohol is especially dangerous in children since it may produce low blood sugar. Alcohol also depresses the brain.

The Poison Control Center, residents of Nassau, Suffolk and Queens and from hospitals throughout the area, also warned of liver and kidney damage from the fluid inside Christmas tree lights, cuts from tree ornaments, intestinal obstruction and choking from icicles or tinsel and an elevation of blood pressure from spending too much time by the fireplace when paper logs are being burned. In addition, parents should remember that children with allergies may develop symptoms when exposed to natural trees, puppies, kittens and furry toy animals.

Operation VFW By Lou Palladino

This is the time of the year for Christmas parties, and we are no exception. We had our Northport Veterans at the Post for their Dinner and party, which turned out very nice. Our Young Tiger Connie Steers did a great job in planning the affair. He also became the Star of the show with his red suit and white beard.

Connie got quite a few laughs because his pillow kept slipping. Joe and Louise Normandy did a great job cooking for them, and our Ladies Aux. bless them and the Jr. Unit did the serving. The Veterans that attended were very happy with their gifts, food, dancing and whatever else they had.

Well done Connie Steers.

Next came the children's Christmas party, which also turned out beautifully. Another young tiger was in charge of this party. Bill Schuck is the name. Bill had wonderful gifts for the children. We had over 130 children including grandchildren, (that gives you an idea how old we are getting and why I call us old war horses.) It's always a delight to watch the reaction from the children when they approach Santa. This year, numero uno was Al Martin and by golly he did surprisingly well.

Again we want to congratulate our two young tigers for a job well done, to our Commander Aldo Vitello for selecting these two enterprising young men, to our Ladies Aux. and our Jr. Unit for their helping hands.

Our Jr. Unit had their Christmas party. And our Ladies Aux. had their's also, and raffled off that Basket of cheers that was in the Lounge. The winner was Millie Schubert, she was so shocked when her name was called, she was dumb struck, and couldn't move. I think we will all go to Millie's house and have a blast.

Our Employment Agency will be moving very soon, I think it will be at the Bloomingdale Rd. school. Joe Normandy, the Director, explained it on the floor, but this tin ear of mine missed some of the explanation. However, even though it won't be in our Building, it is still our Employment Agency. They are doing very well getting people to work, and that is important.

Artie Fuelling gave his bingo report, and as usual it was in one word HELP.

Heard Ann Ruppert, and Rita Aug are ailing. Come on girls, let's recuperate fast so we don't have to worry about you, please.

Lucky winner of our raffle was Jerry O'Brien. WE OF OUR POST WISH TO EXTEND THE HAPPIEST, AND HEALTHIEST SEASONS GREETINGS TO ALL OUR COMRADES, AND TO ALL THE FINE FOLKS IN OUR HAMLET. We had our last meeting for the year.

The next meeting will be Monday, Jan. 14th.

Winter At Planting Fields

How colorful the greenhouses are at Planting Fields during the somewhat bleak months of winter. The Christmas Poinsettia exhibit will remain on display through January in the Main Greenhouse. In the Camellia Greenhouse, a true delight, the annual bloom of the Camellias, Camellias, a member of the Tea family, come originally from the Orient. Evergreen shrubs, they must be cultivated in greenhouses in our climate (there are a few semi-hardy varieties). It has been said that early tea traders were swindled by being given "worthless" Camellias instead of valuable tea plants.

Outdoors, also there are shrubs in bloom. In mid-winter? Yes. The Witch Hazels are located in Section "G-K" of the Synoptic Garden.

The Arboretum is located on Planting Fields Road, Oyster Bay (North of 25-A, West of 106).

Red Cross Warns Skaters Against Venturing On The Ice Too Early

The advent of winter today prompted the American National Red Cross to urge skating enthusiasts to stay off lakes, ponds, and rivers until they are solidly and safely frozen over.

"To forestall accidents on the ice, it is necessary to know when and where skating and ice boating are safe," William Bohan, Chairman of the Nassau County Chapter of the American Red Cross, cautioned. "The first ice of the season is attractive to skaters and iceboat users because it is normally quite smooth. But it also can be deceptively thin and not uniform in thickness."

"It presents a special danger for small children who are fascinated by a glazed-over body of water but too young to recognize its perils. Every year we read or hear of tragedies in which children are attracted to a newly ice-covered body of water, walk or play on it, fall through, and drown. Parents who live near bodies of water should be especially aware of such dangers, and should instruct older children and teenagers in rescue techniques in case of an ice accident." In early winter period, Mr. Bohan added, new ice is quite likely to be weaker toward the center of the lake or pond. Especially hazardous at all times is ice that has formed over rivers and other running water. Currents can erode and melt ice from below and the levels of many creeks and streams tend to vary. It's important to watch out for the dark spots that generally indicate weakened ice.

As a rule, he said four inches or more are safe for skating and hockey. Even then skaters should stay reasonably near shore. But snowmobiling, ice boating and other activities of this kind require seven or eight inches because of the extra weight.

He listed these important safety rules:

1. Whenever possible, skate at supervised areas, such as those operated by park systems. Shallow-water locations such as ponds and farm lakes are safest. Ideally the body of water should be no more than waist deep.
2. Use the "buddy" system - skating with a companion - and skate close to shore and never at night. Avoid gathering in large groups on the ice; ice fishermen should spread out also.
3. Never build a fire on ice, and unless it is a foot or more thick and known to be safe, never drive a car, truck, or snowmobile on the ice.
4. Always warn other skaters of dangerous ice conditions and areas where you know of their existence.
5. In case of accident, simple rescue equipment like a length of rope, pole, ladder or plank should be kept at skating areas. Rescuers can improvise with a tree limb, spare tire or sturdy article of clothing.

The safest way to rescue someone who has fallen through ice is to lie flat on the ice, edge forward and extend the rescue equipment toward the victim. When he has grasped it firmly, pull him to safety. Never stand on ice while trying to effect a rescue unless you are absolutely certain it is safe.

Where no rescue equipment is available, several persons, depending on ice conditions and how far the victim is from shore, can form a human chain by lying flat on the ice, holding the ankles or skates of the person in front of them. They then edge their way to the victim; the lead man grasps his wrists, and the entire line worms its way back to safety.

If you are alone and fall through ice, don't try to climb out, Mr. Bohan advises. Instead, extend both arms along the ice and kick vigorously, pushing your body forward and flat onto the ice at the edge of the hole, then roll to safety. If you have a knife or other sharp object, dig it into the ice to get a grip on the slippery surface and pull yourself onto solid ice.

After rescue, if the victim is not breathing, it is most important to give mouth-to-mouth resuscitation immediately, Mr. Bohan said. Also, he must be given first aid for exposure to the cold. Recommended steps are: Get the victim to warm shelter as soon as possible. Warm the victim by wrapping him in blankets, or by placing him in a tub of warm, not hot, water. If he is conscious, give him hot liquids to drink but no alcoholic beverages.

"Throughout the winter, tragedies involving ice accidents occur often, and there are many incidents of narrow escapes and heroic rescues," Mr. Bohan added. "In the event an ice accident does occur, chances of a successful rescue are much better if those participating know how to rescue a victim and administer first aid."

St. Ignatius CYO Soccer

The Junior Division travel team of St. Ignatius C.Y.O. won the division championship this year with a record of 9 wins - no ties - no losses. The team, which was so ably coached by Tony Camara, received their individual as well as team trophies at the awards ceremonies at Caniague Park.

Members of the team are: Wayne Blatz, Martin Cowan, Danny Gahan, John Garger, John Keenan, Billy Leahy, David Mahoney, Robby McCormick, Jimmy Reinheimer, Eddie Skuppen, Matthew Smith, Tommy Sullivan and Bobby Walsh.

The Grand Banks of Newfoundland, Canada, average one foggy day out of three.

Hicksville American Soccer Club

The Hicksville Rangers, Hicksville American Soccer Club's representative in Division 1-1989 Boys, ended the fall season with a second place finish, two points behind the Division Champion Syosset Red Devils.

The Ranger's only loss came in the season's first game, against a visiting Valley Stream team. The Rangers wasted a 1-0 half-time lead, only to give up three late second-half goals for a 3-1 setback. The remaining games included an impressive 3-0 victory over Garden City, overcoming two goal deficits to gain 3-3 ties against both North Babylon and Syosset, as well as a Veterans Day 2-1 victory over a strong East Meadow team.

The Rangers were led by high-scoring Peter Thompson on the forward line, a mid-field of Berto Gerasi, Tom Boccafola and Joe Hanna, and a defense made up of Vincent Antaki, Craig Freyelsen and David Insana. The goal was shared by Darren Nathan (injured from final four games) Gerald McNamee and Ronald Sargeant. Cliff Heller and Alex that played admirably, switching from the forward line to defense throughout the season.

Coach Al Boccafola is justifiably proud of the fine young team and is looking forward to a strong winter and spring season.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

The spirit of Christmas would be just an idea, thought or expression, perhaps ever so meaningless and lifeless, if it were not for the spirit which emanates from the people themselves. So it is actually the human equation, so vividly and amply magnified and demonstrated this past Sunday, the 16th of December, by the membership of the Galileo Lodge, an itself transformed into a wonderland of smiling and beaming faces - over 300 of them, with eyes shining like beacons and riveted to the spot where Santa Claus would enter with his time-worn bag of toys and goodies for them. Incredible as it seems, over 300 children were warmly accepted into the bosom of the Galileo Lodge, where they were treated to macaroni and meatballs, sausage, ice cream, candy, soft beverages, fruit and Christmas stockings. Wine was also in the offering for accompanying parents.

Yes, on this day the Galileo Lodge presented two Christmas parties - one for the retarded children and the other for the children of the membership. Enhancing these activities were Richard Lagnese and his son, offering some beautiful and inspiring Christmas melodies (and modern ones, of course,) and dance performances by the Peggy O'Connor Dance Ensemble and then adding the warmth and graciousness of the members of the Galileo Lodge and the Ladies Auxiliary - the human element that I wrote about above. Needless to mention that Richard Lagnese, the Peggy O'Connor organization perennially donate their services and efforts.

The retarded children were cared for by the Association For The Help Of Retarded Children, located in Glen Head, accompanied by Milie Farrel, its president, and the Association For The Advancement Of Blind and Retarded Children, located in Jamaica, Queens, and accompanied by Mrs. Muriel Viciane Ray Moffitt of the Galileo Lodge played Santa Claus with his usual fervor, the kitchen chores were handled by Joe and John Iannetti and John Sarrere, plus the diligent efforts of the hard-working Ladies Auxiliary, headed by President Rose Ricciardi. Jim Rerisi was the coordinator for these two Christmas activities and he was ably assisted by the membership, whose ceaseless and untiring efforts were of immeasurable assistance.

Donations came from many sources: Maggie Beef Company gave 40 lbs. of chopped meat, and 25 lbs. of sausage; Frank Fiere donated 200 Christmas stockings; Jim Ingine gave donuts; Joe Aglie donated a Nativity manger; Lorraine Garramone donated a gift to Santa Claus; Jim Rerisi donated wine for the adults; Lions Club, Sir Speedy and Nassau Soda made financial contributions. To this list add House of Donuts, Dunkin Donuts, Donut Man, Grandona Donuts, Evergreen Farms, Mike and Al Stationary, Whale Drops of Hicksville, Sal Drugs, Pete Marchese, Blum Stationary and Eve and Jean Dell. These contributions came from the solicitations of Jim Ingine.

In the final analysis, one must say that it was worthwhile. That the spirit of the Yuletide season is actually the spirit of one human being giving of himself to others - and this is exactly what happened during these two Christmas parties where everyone gave so that all others would receive. It was a splendid and magnificent effort on the part of the Galileo Lodge, and it certainly takes this most auspicious moment to thank Jim Rerisi, the members of the Galileo Lodge the Ladies Auxiliary and all others, including Richard Lagnese and the Peggy O'Connor Dance School for making this past Sunday a day to be remembered.

An added note - very shortly the Galileo Lodge will be engaged in another membership drive. As you can see from what has just been written here, the Galileo Lodge does exist for itself, it also exists for others, bringing its own special kind of joy and happiness to so many others. If you are of Italian descent or married to an Italian, why not give this Lodge some consideration. Couldn't I and wouldn't you be proud to be a part of an organization that is predicated on good will and brotherhood. If you are proud of yourself and your heritage, why not join the Galileo Lodge and be proud of it? After all, it is the embodiment and the very personification of your culture and traditions. Call 931-9351 for more details. And, by the way, I would like to mention the Membership Appreciation Night and the New Years Dance, to be held on December 22nd and the 31st, respectively. It has been announced that Jeff Wallick (681-8426), Joe Squigna and Pat Catto are co-chairmen who will assist Skip Monteforte for the New Years Dance.

Special Credit Card Service

New York Telephone has introduced a special credit card service for the blind and physically impaired.

Latest in a series of service innovations for the disabled, the card is designed to help persons whose impairment prevents them from placing coins in a pay slot or limits their use of the coin phone.

The card will entitle the caller to the same rates as those who are able to use coin phones unassisted. The service applies to local calls and long distance calls within New York State.

Application forms for the credit card may be obtained from local telephone business offices or state and private agencies that aid the disabled.

Among other service advances for the disabled, the company recently put into effect a 25 percent discount on usage charges for the deaf and others who use a relay system to communicate.

Charges also have been reduced for several equipment items used by the handicapped, the volume control telephone, the Signalmann - a light for people who can't hear the bell - and School-to-Home phone Service.

Some 16,000 persons unable to use a telephone directory because of visual or physical disabilities are exempt from the company's credit and charge plan for directory assistance service.

Over the years, various telephone installations have been designed on a custom basis to meet unique communications requirements for persons with hearing, speech, vision or motion disabilities. For example, one special arrangement enabled a paralyzed person to answer calls by breathing into a tube connected to a custom-made control unit which turned on the hands-free speakerphone.

Long Island's First "No-Frills" Drug Chain

They've turned back the calendar nearly fifty years on Long Island with the new and expanding chain of the island's, and reportedly the nation's, first "no-frills" health and beauty aids chain of stores. Known as Rock-bottom Warehouse Outlets, they are a new division of long-established Courtesy Drug Stores, and currently there are six outlets including East Meadow, North Massapequa, Massapequa, North Babylon, Brooklyn and the latest one just opened in Bayonne, New Jersey.

The stores have revived the true meaning of the term "cut-rate" as it was first introduced in 1935 when Samuel Otto, currently chairman of the board of Courtesy, opened the first truly cut-rate, no-frills drug store, known at that time as a pineboard store. That was the first Courtesy store, and skeptics said it wouldn't work out, but it did and the Courtesy chain grew and prospered.

However, like all other so-called cut-rate or discount drug chains, the term "discount" began to lose its meaning. Over the years, in order to attract more customers, competing chains added to their operating costs with more services, longer store hours, fancier fixtures, and an ever-increasing selection of product sizes and other factors. In order to meet these new expenses, stores had to keep raising prices to the point where today most stores labeling themselves discount chain or department stores are really that in name only.

Courtesy Drug Stores was no exception, but the company did something about it and became an inflation fighter by starting the Rockbottom chain.

"We went back to the basics," says Richard Otto, Courtesy's president. "and we are doing it all over again by cutting the costly 'frills' and rolling back prices to their lowest possible level, not just for special sale periods, but on a regular everyday basis. We feel that low prices are the most important thing to customers, especially in this inflationary period of ever-increasing cost of household necessities."

Richard Otto, noting the enthusiastic acceptance of Rockbottom in Long Island communities, sums it up simply by saying "I guess everybody likes to save money."

Hicksville Students Visit Adelphi

Students in Mr. Richard Gentile's advanced French classes at Hicksville High School participated in an unusual kind of exchange program recently: they visited French classes at Adelphi University, to see if their instruction matched the quality of that of college course work. Their decision? Hicksville High's advanced classes compare favorably with those at the collegiate level.

According to Mr. Gentile, Hicksville High School began offering foreign language courses for college credit about 13 years ago. The program is conducted in conjunction with Adelphi.

After attending the Adelphi classes, the 17 Hicksville High students joined their teacher in a tour of the university library, which impressed the students because of its size and the diversity of its collection, not to mention the computerized card catalogue. The day was rounded out by luncheon in the university's student center.

HOLIDAY HI-JINKS - John Findlay of Hicksville enjoys a laugh with members of the Telephone Pioneers of America during a recent holiday party sponsored by the group at the Jones Institute (Hicksville). The Pioneers, a community service organization of New York

Telephone employees, served refreshments, entertained with the antics of their clown troupe, and treated guests to hand-made gifts. Each yuletide, the group conducts similar activities at nursing homes, hospitals and children's shelters throughout the county.

Home Holiday Hints

The Nassau County Fire Commission and office of the Fire Marshall have prepared some Home Holiday hints:

Fire records show that a considerable loss of life and property occurs each year because of careless use of Holiday Decorations.

Adherence to the following safety rules will help to insure that accidents do not occur:

1. Christmas trees should be placed as far away from stairways as possible and in a position where they will not block or restrict exits.

2. The tree should not be located near a heat source, such as a radiator, and should never be placed near a fireplace or stove or candles.

3. Before erecting the tree, a fresh cut should be made on the base of the trunk to allow for absorption of water. The base should always be kept in water and the water level checked daily and replenished as necessary.

4. Natural trees should be kept up no longer than two weeks. They should be removed from the premises immediately upon being taken down.

5. Electric lights used on a tree should bear either the UL or FM label and they should be checked thoroughly for frayed or cracked wires before installation.

6. Other electrical devices such as toy trains or spark generating equipment should not be used under or near the tree.

7. Tree lights should be unplugged whenever the room is not occupied.

8. Only noncombustible decorations should be used.

9. The use of fire retardant sprays is generally not effective because you cannot cover the entire tree. Remember - Nothing is Fireproof!

10. Only artificial trees that are noncombustible and bear the UL or FM label should be used.

The Nassau County Fire Commission and Office of Fire Marshall, together with Nassau County's Seventy-One Fire Departments, would like to wish everyone a Happy, Fire-Safe Holiday Season.

ASSEMBLYMAN FRED PAROLA and his new bride, Susan Poster Parola, are seen here after their marriage, November 24th, at St.

Christopher's Church in Baldwin. Following the reception at North Hempstead Country Club, the couple honeymooned at Gurney's Inn in Montauk Point.

Eglevsky Ballet's "Nutcracker"

The Eglevsky Ballet is presenting six performances of the Tchaikovsky Christmas classic "THE NUTCRACKER" with guest artist, from American Ballet Theatre, Johann Renvall making his Long Island debut in the principal role of the Cavalier and Susan Lovelle and Salli Silliman alternating as the Sugar Plum Fairy, under the sponsorship of the Nassau County Office of Cultural Development, at the Nassau Coliseum in Uniondale, Long Island (516) 794-9100, on Wednesday, December 26th at 3:00 and 7:30 P.M. and Thursday, December 27th and Friday, December 28th, at 2:30 and 7:30 P.M.

Johann Renvall is a Swedish born rising young star of American Ballet Theatre who danced the leading roles in Tudor's "SHADOWPLAY" & "UNDERTOW" during ABT's 1979 Spring season and who won the Silver Medal at the prestigious 1978 International Ballet competition at Varna, Bulgaria.

Susan Lovelle was a principal dancer with the Dance Theatre of Harlem before joining the Eglevsky Ballet in 1979 and in 1977 she was seen with the DTH on the PBS-TV "Dance in America" Series. Movie audiences will remember her from the Bill Cosby movie "A PIECE OF THE ACTION".

Salli Silliman is a regular member of the Eglevsky Ballet since 1973 and some of the roles with which she is particularly associated are the leads in "PAS DE DIX", "MINKUS PAS DE TROIS" and "PETER & THE WOLF". Ms. Silliman recently danced a critically acclaimed Swanilda in the Eglevsky Ballet Company's "COPPELIA" at the Hempstead Adelphi Calderone Theatre.

The Nassau County Office of Cultural Development is sponsoring the EBC's "NUTCRACKER" at the Nassau Coliseum for the sixth year.

Tickets for the performances are $4.00 and $6.00 and are available at the Nassau Coliseum, Uniondale, N.Y. For information: (516) 794-9100.

Rozzi Warns Residents On Con Game

Nassau County Police Commissioner Samuel J. Rozzi today issued a warning to county residents that at least one ring of con artists using the "pigeon drop" scam are presently operating in the area.

"Unfortunately, the holiday season attracts many of these 'con-artists' to the metropolitan area," stated Rozzi. "They prey upon the public in general but particularly on senior citizens. Their approach is so professional that they repeat their con, word for word, from one target to another."

Rozzi's warning follows the complaint of a North Babylon woman who was approached by a woman while shopping at Sunrise Mall in Massapequa. The woman struck up a conversation complaining about the prices of goods and told the complainant about a woman finding a bag with $2,000 in the parking lot. A second woman approached and reprimanded the woman for telling anyone about her valuable find. They then discussed the money and the second woman said she would ask her boss, supposedly at a local financial institution, what to do if the other two women would wait for her. She returned a short time later and said her boss told her to split the money three ways providing the others could each produce $2,000 to prove they wouldn't spend their share of the money before three months (the supposed time the loser had to claim the money). The first woman immediately produced an envelope containing an insurance claim she had just received. The three of them then looked in the bag of money and found another envelope containing an additional $1,000.

The complainant drove with one of the women to the complainant's home in Babylon and then withdrew the money from her bank. The exchange was made back at the mall and the two women disappeared...naturally without giving the complainant a penny.

"These con men and women consider themselves the elite of the underworld," stated Rozzi. "They often brag that they are so smart they don't have to steal, people voluntarily give them money."

The "pigeon drop" is usually worked by two women who are deliberately mismatched. This is done so that the victim does not feel the women know each other or are at all connected. They will work one area a number of times and then move to another location.

Anyone who has been a victim or has any information regarding these types of incidents is asked to contact the Nassau County Police Department's 7th Detective Squad at 785-7700. All calls will be kept confidential.

Care During Holiday Time

The Nassau County Medical Center's Poison Control Center advised that "caution" be at the top of the Christmas list this year.

"Christmas is a happy, joyful time of year but unfortunately, it is also a time of high risk for children. More little boys and girls are accidentally poisoned during the Christmas season than perhaps any other time of the year," said Dr. Howard Mofenson, the director of the medical center's Poison Control Center. Dr. Mofenson urged that parents keep their children under close supervision during the Christmas season and to remember that on Christmas morning it is usually the child who is the first to awaken and start snooping.

The director of the Poison Control Center warned particularly of these familiar items:

Angel Hair: Can cause serious irritation to the eyes, skin and the gastrointestinal tract.

Mistletoe: All parts of the mistletoe plant are toxic. Death has occurred within 12 hours of ingestion of a "tea" brewed from the berries. Symptoms are nausea, vomiting, abdominal pain and diarrhea and possibly perspiring and convulsions.

Rhododendrum species: The Rhododendrum species includes laurel, rosebay and azalea. All parts of these plants are toxic and some fatalities have been reported. Symptoms may be immediate or be delayed up to six hours. These could include

More about birthdays. Harold McClure celebrated his on December 12. His wife, Nellie, shared Harold's happiness on this occasion. We wish you many more birthdays as nice as this one.

Good news. Ray Zurawel is home from the hospital and recuperating. Ray's wife, Marion, is delighted to have him back home with her where she will give him plenty of "T.L.T." Their daughter, Barbara Wallner, flew in from Colorado to visit her parents. With a few days, her husband, Richard, and their children will arrive from Colorado and the family will spend the Christmas holidays with Marion and Ray. The Zurawels are longtime residents of Hicksville. We wish good health to Ray and speedy recovery.

They did it again. The Court Queen of Angels, Catholic Daughters of America.

HICKSVILLE, put on a fabulous show at Antun's Old Cuntry Manor December 6. A delightful evening was had by all - and we mean all. We don't know who had the most fun, the cast or the audience. For the past few years this group has produced an original program - complete with music, songs, jokes, comedienne, dancers, etc. And included in the price of the tickets was a delicious buffet dinner. If they put on another show next year, make it a MUST to see... you'll really enjoy yourself. Congratulations to the cast and producers - well done.

Fork Lane Math Olympiads

Mr. Jennett, Principal of Fork Lane School, Mr. Maiorino, the Helping Math Teacher, and the Fork Lane Faculty and Staff, would like to extend their heartiest congratulations to those fifth and sixth graders who participated in the Math Olympiads on Tuesday, Dec. 11th at East Street School.

District wide, Fork Lane tied for second place with Woodland Ave. School, just one point short of first place, which went to Old Country Road School.

The questions were as tough as was the competition. Fork Lane is proud of two of its students. Richard Human answered all five problems and Anthony Luparello answered four out of five problems.

Try your luck. See Richie and Tony for the answers.

Contest Winners At Willet Ave.

Fairy Tales, Folk Tales, and Fables were the subjects of a colorful contest in the Library-Media Center at Willet Avenue School, Hicksville. Third, fourth and fifth graders competed with great enthusiasm.

Students were asked to bring in small dolls, figurines, artifacts, which reminded them of characters in the tales. These were then supplemented by library visual materials and placed on display in the Media Center. Each item was assigned a number. Students were then given numbered answer sheets on which they filled in the names of characters. Mrs. Barrow, the Librarian, kept score.

Tied for first place were Mara

Trapasso, from Mrs. Phillip's fourth grade, and Richard Buck, from Mr. Monfredo's fifth grade. In second place was Ronald Caputo, also from Mr. Monfredo's class. The prizes were English porcelain turtles, since the turtle is Willet Avenue's symbol.

Season's Greetings

The clergy and other staff members join with the parishioners of Holy Trinity Church, Hicksville, in extending greetings of this holy season to the community at large. To Jewish brothers and sisters the record of heroic deeds are recorded with joy and Shalom is extended as Chanukah is celebrated. To all Christian brothers and sisters are the New Covenant salvation history is shared and celebrated and forces are joined in Christian discipleship. Christmas services at Holy Trinity Church will be celebrated Monday night, Christmas Eve, organ music and carols 11-11:30 P.M.; the Mid-night Eucharist 11:30 P.M.; Tuesday, Christmas Day, Eucharist 8 and 10 A.M.

Last Sunday was celebrated as Family Day at Holy Trinity Church. The Parish Priest, The Rev. Dominic C. Ciannella, led the congregation in acting out their salvation history. The children of the Church School all joined in dressing the Jesse Tree with the symbols of the Messianic Prophecies. Church School classes are held regularly on Sunday morning at 10 A.M. New members are always welcome.
