Town To Consider G-1 Zone Changes On March 4

Town Supervisor Joseph Colby and Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark will be urging Town Board approval of reducing restrictions of the G-1 Zone in downtown Hicksville as a first step to bring about redevelopment of the area.

"We are hoping to have the reduced restrictions brought before the Board by the March 4th meeting and, as quickly as possible following that, we will propose a new zone for the Broadway strip," Colby said.

Clark said that the Board would be asked to go with the amendments to the G-1 office building zone prior to any other changes in an effort to bring about construction movement. "We determined that it would be best to act on that portion of the changes already prepared rather than wait for the drafting of the new zone ordinance and the necessary public hearings," according to Clark. He noted that in addition to the Broadway zone, future Town action in the Hicksville Triangle will include Town construction of a commuter garage on the north side of the railroad, the extension of Duffy Avenue to improve east-west traffic flow and encouragement of condominium development in the southwest area of the triangle.

Clark noted that many of the changes that he and Supervisor Colby are looking to make were among the recommendations of the Hicksville Community Council's Ad Hoc Committee for the Development of Hicksville.

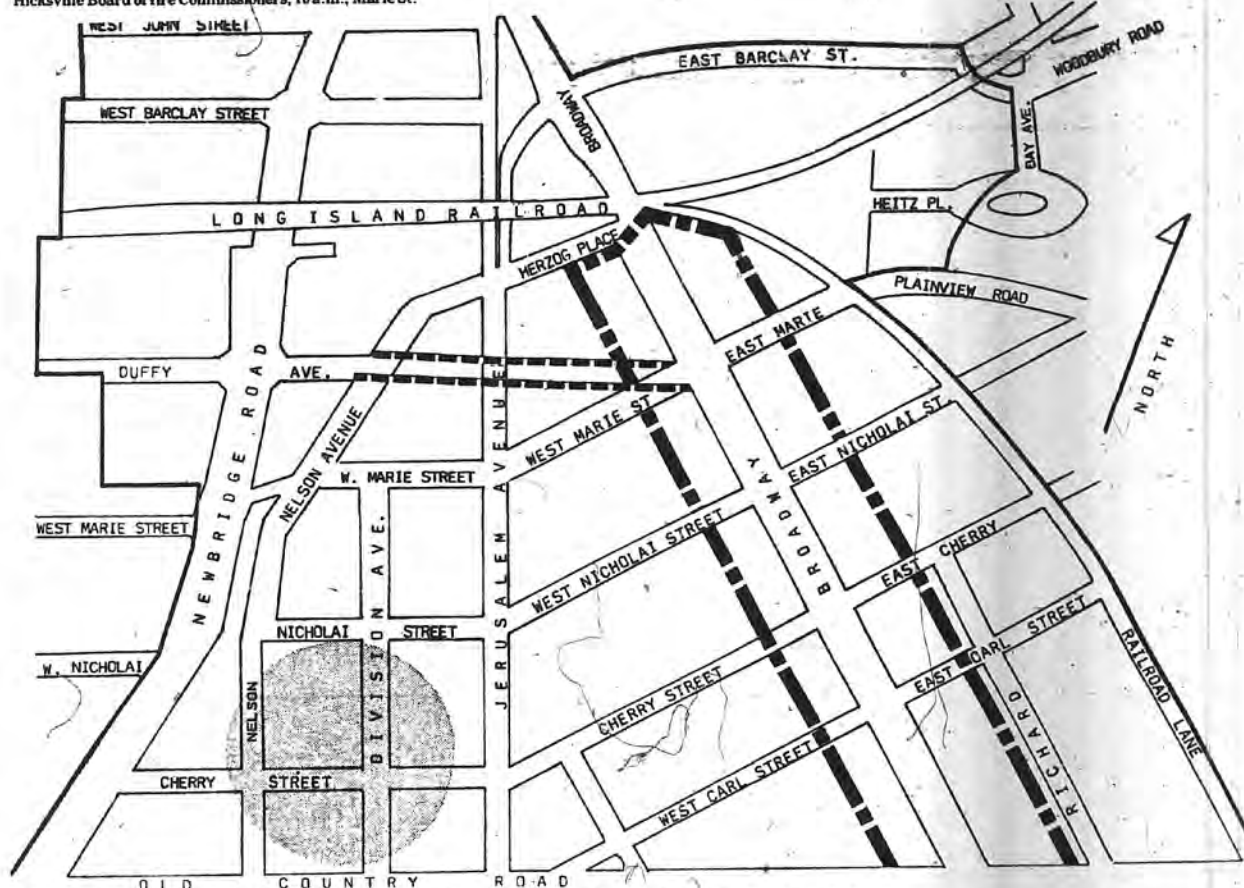

"We couldn't take the actions exactly as recommended because certain planning considerations required certain modifications," Clark said. He cited as an example the Committee recommendation that additional commuter parking be added by adding levels to the Town's existing commuter garage on the south side of the station. "Here some very practical considerations led to the recommendation that the Town look, instead, to construction of a new garage on the north side of the station. Traffic was one of the heaviest considerations. Doubling the size of the current garage would prove a disaster in the amount of traffic being generated at one small location."

"Also it is doubtful that the current garage could be doubled, and any additions to the existing garage would require the total closing of that facility for as much as 18 months," Clark said. "That is certainly unacceptable." In addition to the location of a garage on the north side of the tracks, Clark said attention will be given to improving east-west traffic flow in this area just as the Duffy Avenue expansion will improve the flow south of the tracks.

In the action Colby will call on the Board to take on March 4, 1980, the 'current restrictions in the G-1 Zone will be amended to add some impetus to office construction in the area. The amendments will allow an increase in the permitted floor area of a building for incidental uses, from 10 percent to 33 percent with a minimum of two stories in building height. Bars, cabarets and night clubs within an office building structure would be allowed as a special exception if granted by the Town Board after a public hearing. The amendments will decrease the minimum lot size from 20,000 to 17,000 sq. ft. and increase the total percentage of a lot that may be developed from 60 to 70 percent with a minimum area of 10 percent for greenery, and

The G-1 (Office) Zone (outlined above) will be amended to reduce restrictions placed on office building construction.

A new zone will be developed for Broadway to permit construction of attached stores with uniform facade and off-street parking in the rear. These may have a mixed use of retail at ground level with offices on the second floor.

Developers will be encouraged to develop plans and apply for zoning to permit construction of condominiums in the southwest area.

The Town also proposes to extend Duffy Avenue for improved east-west traffic flow.

31,000 PEOPLE CAN'T BE WRONG: Crowds of interested Long Islanders jammed the aisles of the Long Island Energy Expo held at the Colonie Hill Convention Center during the Feb. 1-3 weekend to gather information on fuel savings and energy conservation. The response to the expo was so great, a second edition will be presented Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 22, 23 and 24, in order to provide the same service to other Long Island residents and business people who were unable to attend. Many exhibitors who were in the first edition will return while dozens more new products and services will be displayed. In addition, there will be lectures and seminars to acquaint visitors with means of saving energy and saving money. The Long Island Energy Expo Second Edition will be offered at Colonie Hill Friday, Feb. 22, from Noon to 10 p.m.; Saturday, Feb. 23, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Sunday, Feb. 24, from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Second Energy Expo

The first Long Island Energy Expo — a smash success at the Colonie Hill Convention Center — will return in a Second Edition in the same location on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 22, 23 and 24 to fulfill public demand. More than 31,000 jammed the huge exhibition hall during the first three days of the expo and on the Sunday of that event, many turned away because of the jam of traffic around the site.

The Second Edition of the Long Island Energy Expo was thus born of demand by the public and a majority of the exhibitors. Management of the show agreed to re-stage the event to allow other thousands of Long Island to see the exhibits, gather information and advice on fuel savings and energy conservation.

The first expo featured manufacturers, distributors, installers and dealers in every conceivable type of energy-efficient heating system. Dozens more products and services designed to conserve energy were displayed along with alternative power systems, fuel saving vehicles and home products.

Thousands of dollars in special prizes were awarded to visitors without charge. They ranged from a wood stove valued at more than $600 to home chimney fire extinguishers valued at more than seven dollars.

For the Second Edition of Long Island Energy Expo, many new exhibitors will be on hand to join those who were in the first show. Some $5,000 in free door prizes will be awarded.

As a special show feature, the Colonie Hill management will offer a free drink to every adult ticket-buyer in the luxurious Top of the Hill lounge.

Second Edition Expo hours will be Friday, Feb. 22 from Noon to 10 p.m.; Saturday, Feb. 23 from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m., and Sunday, Feb. 24, from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Parking is free at Colonie Hill, located on Motor Parkway, just north of exit 57 of the Long Island Expressway.

Here's a chance to conserve energy, save money and have a fun-filled, family day out.

Choose Tax Preparers Carefully

Taxpayers who choose to pay a preparer to do their Federal income tax returns should select the preparer wisely, the Internal Revenue Service advises.

George Alberts, IRS district director for Brooklyn, Queens, Nassau and Suffolk says that most tax return preparers are honest and ethical, but a few misuse the responsibility involved in completing a tax return for someone else. He says that taxpayers should be particularly suspicious of preparers who claim that they have a special relationship with the IRS, or knowledge of ways to beat the system. Other preparers who should be avoided include those who guarantee refunds, or base their fees on the size of the taxpayer's refund.

All-Wood Craft Exhibit At Mid-Island Plaza

The Plaza at Mid-Island will be holding an all wood craft exhibit on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, March 7, 8 and 9.

This special event will include original work in furniture, toys, frames, signs, sculpture, etc.

For further information write to Roberta Osborne at 358B Mid Island Plaza, Hicksville, N.Y. 11802 or phone 935-9700.

Carter's Budget: A Guide To Continued High Inflation

By Cong. Norman Lent

At the conclusion of a year which saw the worst inflation in 35 years — the cost of living soaring by more than 13 percent — President Carter has given the nation a guide to continued uncontrolled inflation.

I am talking about President Carter's budget for Fiscal Year 1981. President Carter and his economic advisers know — just as you and I know — that massive federal deficits are the root cause of inflation. They do more to generate continued upward pressure on prices, wages and taxes than any other single factor in our economy. Yet the President has done absolutely nothing in his FY 1981 budget to curb those massive federal deficits. Last year, the President and his advisers emphasized the "austerity" in his 1980 budget — which resulted in a $40 billion deficit. This year, the chief budget official in the Carter Administration, James T. McIntyre, Director of the Office of Management and Budget, admits that the 1981 budget "is not what I would call an austerity budget."

Yet the Carter Administration audaciously claims the deficit in 1981 will be "only" $15.8 billion. But you can bet your last tax dollar the actual federal spending in 1981 will produce a deficit far larger than $15.8 billion. In fact, I can point to just two "miscalculations" in the President's budget which almost double that projected deficit.

1) A miscalculation on the cost of imported oil. The Carter budget estimates are based on the assumption that imported oil in 1981 will cost $24 per barrel. Actually, imported oil presently costs about 20 percent more than that and is likely to rise still higher in 1980. But even if imported-oil prices remain at present levels, the added cost will increase the federal deficit by $5 billion.

2) A miscalculation in Agriculture Department spending estimates. As I pointed out in an earlier column, the President budgeted a reduction of $3.5 billion in Agriculture Department spending for FY 1981. Yet the Carter budget does not include the cost of President Carter's pledge that the federal government will absorb farmers' losses from the Russian grain embargo. That cost is conservatively estimated at nearly $3 billion. Add on extra costs for the food stamp and child nutrition programs already exceeding the 1980 budget, and you have a shortfall of perhaps $4 billion.

In just those two items, therefore, we have added almost $10 billion to the federal deficit. That's just the beginning. The Defense Department will almost certainly get far more than the 5.4 percent increase in "real" dollars in its spending allotment. And with unemployment increasing, it is likely that welfare costs will be far higher than projected.

All this indicates a federal spending deficit at least twice the size predicted by the President, with a continuation of the disastrously uncontrolled inflation for our country.

The federal budget should be an example of discipline, an instrument for restricting demand and reducing inflationary expectations. But, sadly, President Carter's budget for FY 1981 is just the reverse.

I intend to do all in my power this year to restore discipline to federal spending; to curb wastefulness in federal programs; and to end federal deficits. This is the only way to begin the long, hard process of getting inflation under control. I'll be reporting on the battles over these issues in the Congress as they come before the House of Representatives.

BOCES Cultural Arts Center Will Audition Applicants

If you're a teenager with a talent for music, drama, dance, or the fine arts, hear this:

The Nassau BOCES Cultural Arts Center is looking for such talent, and has scheduled three weeks of auditions for public high school students who hope to enter the Center next September.

The auditions begin February 25, and will be conducted at the Center, on Ketchams Road in Syosset, on weekday afternoons by appointment.

Teenagers who wish to audition must apply through their high school guidance counselor, who can provide them with application forms and all details.

The Cultural Arts Center is operated by the Board of Cooperative Educational Services of Nassau County. It enrolls ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth graders who seek professional careers in dance, drama, instrumental or vocal music, playwriting, or the visual arts.

Students attend the Center for half of each school day, and receive intensive training in the fields of their choice. They spend the remaining half of the day in their home high schools, pursuing their other academic subjects.

For the upcoming auditions, students will be required to perform before a jury of professional artists. They must also submit an essay and, where applicable, a portfolio of their work.

CALLING FOR FREEDOM: Oyster Bay Town Councilman Gregory W. Carman (left) and Nassau County Executive Francis T. Purcell makes calls to help promote the Long Island Committee for Soviet Jewry's First Annual Freedom Dinner.

The gala event is scheduled for March 8 at the Atlantic Beach Club. Looking on are Lynn Singer (standing left), president of the Long Island Committee, and Hela Lysaght of the Long Island Trust Company, which loaned its facilities for the telephone campaign.

Dear Friends...

Two important matters THE HERALD brings to your attention this week:

CHANGES IN ZONING FOR DOWNTOWN HICKSVILLE

We hope you read the details and study the map on page one of our Hicksville Edition this week, as it will affect all Hicksville residents and taxpayers eventually. Also, please note that on March 4th at the Town Board meeting in Oyster Bay, these recommendations will, in all probability, be put into action. If you have any opinion or suggestions or recommendations we'd suggest a detailed letter to the Town Board before that date so that they can take your letter into consideration.

As to our opinion on these proposals...we are pleased to see any action affecting this neglected area of our community. We realize that the development of such a cut-up area will take time but ten years of the controversial G-1 Zone has certainly proven to all concerned that this is not the way to go. Let us hope that our Town Board will have made wise suggestions that will eventually work out for "a better Hicksville"...we know they are trying and we commend all on the Board and in the community Council ad hoc committee for their efforts.

HELP SAVE OUR HICKSVILLE GREGORY MUSEUM

As you will read in an article covering this problem, many have already signed the petition to request the Town Board to take over our museum, allowing it to stay in its present location, either through the Parks District or any other way they may deem advisable. Right now this drive is going ahead full steam. However, they need volunteers to help them cover various areas, possibly before and after church and temple services, and wherever Hicksville residents may be meeting. If you have time at all please consider helping this worthwhile cause. Let's SAVE OUR MUSEUM.

By the way, if you haven't visited this fine museum, you really owe it to yourself to do so...soon. Then we are sure you'll want to work together with other Hicksvillians on this community drive. Come on out...you'll be glad you did.

Letter To the Editor

Dear Editor:
Isn't it time for the State Legislature to finally clear up the confusion surrounding Memorial Day?

The Federal Government's Memorial Day holiday falls on Monday, May 26 this year. As the law now stands, the State of New York will observe Memorial Day on Friday, May 30. Thus, the Post Office and other Federal facilities will be closed on Monday, while banks and State offices will be closed on Friday. Observance by businesses will be unpredictable and confused. The net result will be continuing interference with any meaningful observance of the holiday.

How about it, members of the Legislature? Let's see some timely action to make the State's observance of Memorial Day conform once and for all with the Federal observance on the last Monday of May. Let's eliminate the confusion and re-establish Memorial Day as a single day of rededication and remembrance of those who have given their lives for our country.

Very truly yours,
Michael Polansky
Plainview

Committee Meeting

The Goals and Objectives Committee of the Hicksville Board of Education will conduct its next meeting on Monday, February 25, at 8 PM in the Little Theatre at Hicksville High School.

Co-Chairperson Mr. Pierre Fujimoto and Mrs. Virginia

Germer announced that the topics for discussion will include district-wide staff evaluation and use of school facilities and equipment.

The public is invited to attend, provide input, and ask questions.

Film Program

On February 23rd at 2 p.m. the Children's Department of the Hicksville Public Library will present the film "Free to Be...You and Me..." a celebration of the potential in every boy and girl to become whatever they choose to told in songs, stories, and sketches.

The "Ugly Duckling" will also be shown.

The film program is free and all are invited to attend.

National Letter Writing Week

By Postmaster Anthony Murello, MSC Manager

Perhaps William James, the famous philosopher and psychologist, said it best: "As long as there are postmen, life will have zest." I like to think that James' line is just as true today.

Americans send about 100 billion pieces of mail each year, many of them (about 3 1/2 billion) personal letters to each other. And the words they put on paper comprise the written records of our lives and our times.

In recognition of the importance of written communication, the Postal Service, with the cooperation of the National Council of Teachers of English, will sponsor National Letter Writing Week, February 24 through March 1.

Letters shape opinions, lift spirits and preserve memories. These are the sentiments expressed by three pairs of new stamps that the U.S. Postal Service will issue in February. Each pair includes a stamp that reminds people: "P.S. Write Soon."

There is a permanence to letters. Many people save notes they have received and look them over, at their leisure, years later. Indeed, letters take on added value, too, because they show that the writer thinks enough of the recipient to take time to express feelings and thoughts meant for another person alone. Letters from parents and grandparents for example, written years ago, often become the only lasting, tangible evidence one has of their special feelings and love for long after their passing.

WRITE ME A LETTER: Oyster Bay Town Supervisor Joseph Colby (third from left) proclaimed the week of February 24 through March 1 "National Letter Writing Week" to underscore the importance of letter writing as a form of communication.

Letter writing preserves an historical record of our thoughts and ideas. And it gives insight into what people were like.

Request Housing For Japanese Students

Louis F. Ferrara, Superintendent of Schools, Plainview-Old Bethpage Central School District, joins Abram C. Williams, Commissioner of Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks, in asking that "parents of high school age children open their homes for three to four days to house the Japanese physical education students who will participate in the international sports event at Nassau Community College, March 13."

Said Mr. Williams, "This event will provide the residents of Nassau County with an opportunity to see outstanding exhibitions in martial arts, samurai swords, folk dancing, and wrestling competition. (This team represents the finest Japanese athletes and boasts many Olympic and world champions as well as the up and coming Japanese hopefuls.) A highlight of the program will be male and female gymnastic demonstrations by Olympic gold medalists and gymnasts of Olympic caliber."

Said Mr. Ferrara, "This certainly is a unique opportunity not only for the students but for the families to be involved in a cultural 'happening', to entertain and be entertained by some of the best athletes in the world." Louis Flego, Director of Physical Education, Health, Athletics and Recreation, was delighted with the opportunity for "our students to be involved so closely in this outstanding program."

Parents who wish to participate in the Host Program for the Japanese Inter-Collegiate Exhibition are asked to pick up applications from the office of Michael Bennardo, Assistant Superintendent for Personnel and Operations, Administrative Offices, Jamaica Avenue School Plainview.

A bus will pick up the students at the airport and transport them to the Nassau Community College. The 'Hosts' will then be responsible for their transportation from the college to the local home, and for transportation to and from the college from Wednesday, March 12, to Saturday, March 15.

As a token of appreciation, the families concerned will receive two complimentary tickets to the exhibition as well as a memento of the event.

Applications should be completed and returned by February 29. Two performances are scheduled for March 13, at Nassau Community College; afternoon session 1:00-3:30 P.M. and an evening session 7:00-9:30 P.M. Limited seats are available. Deadline for advance sales is March 3.

Alumni Increases M.R. Farley Scholarship

The Board of Directors of the Hicksville High School Alumni Association has voted to raise the Miss Mabel R. Farley Scholarship to seven hundred and fifty dollars. Action on the increase came at the January meeting.

The award will be presented to a deserving student at the June 1980 graduation.

The Alumni will present as custodian or direct grant six scholarships totaling twenty-three hundred dollars.

In addition to the Farley Award, there are three Hicksville Alumni-Dr. Leon Galloway, the Empire Storage Warehouse Alumni and Miss Nina Plantz Memorial Scholarships.

Other actions by the Board included approving a Spring Cocktail Dance and reserving Antun's for the Homecoming Dance on Friday night, Oct. 17.

President Lester Ihele appointed Gwen Schaaf and Henry C. Brenzel as liaison with the Board of Education for the Dedication plaque and ceremony marking the naming of the High School auditorium in honor of Mabel R. Farley.

1,500 Have Signed Museum's Petition

The petition effort of the Hicksville Gregory Museum's Board of Trustees was "snow-balled" as the first week of the Museum drive ended. Many areas of community support are materializing for a petition appeal to the Oyster Bay Town Board to place the popular museum in the Hicksville Park District or other town agency for public financing.

Signature gatherers had obtained 1500 names of adult residents who favor a town administration of the museum, as this newspaper went to press. Museum leaders report that their effort to keep the financially-strapped earth science and local history museum as an Oyster Bay community resource continues to gather enthusiastic support.

At Thursday night's Annual Founders Day Dinner of the Hicksville Parents-Teachers-Student Association honoring Dr. Fredrick Hill, over 80 PTSA leaders and resident-teachers signed the petition. The Hicksville Gregory Museum is well known to educators, having served over 8,000 children and teacher-touring visitors in 1979. Response has been steady also at the Hicksville Public Library which, like the museum, provides outstanding educational and cultural resources for the community. At the library, petitions are available for signature at the book check-out counter.

Hundreds of shoppers at the Pathmark Shopping Center on North Broadway are signing up every day on which museum volunteer workers have been available to offer to the Town Board. Among other business establishments where petition sheets are to be found are the Images Shop and Hicksville Plate Glass Company at 88 Jerusalem Avenue; Goldman Brothers; Giese Florist on South Broadway; Bing Jew Hand Laundry, Broadway, and Charbeth's, W. Nicholas St. There are petition sheets available at the offices of Dr. Walter Dunbar and Doctors Catalano and Walker on Jerusalem Avenue and Dr. Richard Smith, South Broadway. Copies volunteer workers have been available to offer petition sheets for signature and to explain the museum's emerging appeal to the Town Board. Among other business establishments where petition sheets are to be found are the Images Shop and Hicksville Plate Glass Company at 88 Jerusalem Avenue; Goldman Brothers; Giese Florist on South Broadway; Bing Jew Hand Laundry, Broadway, and Charbeth's, W. Nicholas St. There are petition sheets available at the offices of Dr. Walter Dunbar and Doctors Catalano and Walker on Jerusalem Avenue and Dr. Richard Smith, South Broadway. Copies of the petition sheets are also available at the offices of Hicksville's two weekly newspapers, the Herald and the Times, both journals continuing to give unstinting support to the Hicksville Gregory Museum.

A well-known bank manager jokingly admonished his depositors this past week-end to "sign up now for the museum or we won't handle your accounts". Museum President Richard Evers was at the meeting of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce, Monday, discussing the petition with business men. The Museum Trustees are asking the Town for a budget of $70,000 which approximates an increased Hicksville tax levy of six cents per hundred dollars of assessed valuation. The cost to a typical homeowner would be about $3.60 annually if the museum was operated as part of the Hicksville Park District and considerably less if operated as a Town institution.

The youth of Hicksville are lending a hand in obtaining signatures for the petition. Last reports indicate 26 high school student volunteers are in the community with petition sheets, while the first of Hicksville's Boy Scout groups to help the cause are Troop 64 under Scout Master Bernard Lett and Cub Pack 435 under Dave Livingston Pack Master. The Hicksville Gregory Museum has long led the way in community patriotic festivals involving youth, notably the Bicentennial programs. In recent months, the Museum is a "nature study" focal point for Saturday morning scheduled tours for more and more scout and youth groups.

Among the community organizations where petitions sheets are available for member signatures are the Galileo Galilei Lodge of the Sons of Italy where Tony Previte, Lodge Bicentennial Chairman, has posted petition sheets. The members of the Joseph Barry Council, Knights of Columbus are signing sheets made available by Olaf Costello, Grand Knight.

The Museum hopes to have petition sheets available this week, also, at the Hicksville Fire House and at veterans and other fraternal clubs.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

LODGE TIDBITS

The peripatetic nature of some of the Galileo Lodge members is well in evidence as it is announced that Mr. and Mrs. Sal Milone are heading for the West Indies for eight days. Mr. and Mrs. Dante Perotti and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lappano are heading for Spain for a month's winter vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Dom Valente and their three lovely daughters are flying to Florida for a well-deserved vacation of ten days. The Lodge extends its best wishes to these devoted members. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeStefano, another devoted member, is moving to California to live with his son. His new address will be: 6 Carob, Irvine, California 92715. Ralph and his wife were honored at last Saturday's Valentine's Day dance. Good luck and best wishes from the Galileo Lodge. Bingo chairman Jules Mezaros announces that the heating system of the Galileo Lodge has been stabilized at great expense. Bingo patrons can now enjoy greater comfort during the sessions. Joe Esposito will enter Syosset Hospital on February 25th for special eye treatment. Get-well-quick wishes are extended to Joe from the Lodge. March 23 is the next Las Vegas night and the Galileo Lodge asks all members to lend some of their time and efforts for the chores involved, and don't forget to bring a friend. On March 22nd, at its quarters located at 200 Levittown Parkway, Hicksville, the Galileo Lodge will present its St. Joseph's Dance.

The new officers are eagerly awaiting the night of installation, at which time they will guide the Galileo Lodge to new heights of fiscal and social success. They are as follows: Venerable Tony Previte; 1st Asst. Ven. Skip Monteforte; 2nd Asst. Ven. Pete Masiello; Orator, Dom Valente; Rec. Secretary, Mario Tucci; Fin. Secretary, Joe Locasto; Treasurer, Jules Mezaros; Trustees: Pat Gatto, Joe Lopresti, Anthony Masiello, Joe Morace, James Pino, James Posillico, Gus Russo, Jeff Wallick, Ted Marotti. Masters of Ceremony are Andrew Guiliano and Joseph Ianotti. Guards are Anthony Pugliese and Jack Ricciardi. Committee of Arbitration are William Argento, Joe Esposito, John Keifer, Lou Morace, Anthony Iannucci. Venerable Tony Previte states that he and his officers will strive earnestly to keep the Galileo Lodge moving forward and that this can only be done with the help and loyalty of the membership, who are, in reality, the organization.

As February slips by, the Card Party to be held by the Ladies Auxiliary rapidly approaches, the date of which is February 22nd. Price of admission is $3.00 per person. To be featured will be beer, soda, cake and coffee, and an open bar. Carmen Russo (931-1059) is the chairlady. All the reports handed to me enthusiastically mention that the St. Valentine's Day Dance held on the 16th was a rousing success. The food was excellent, the music was fantastic and over 300 patrons enjoyed what the Galileo Lodge had to offer for this 'hearts and flowers' event. The Galileo Lodge, in acknowledgement of another fine effort from its personnel, wishes to extend to Joe Giordano and his committee its warmest thanks for the successful conclusion of another of its activities. Ralph and Ida De Stefano were the 'sweethearts' for that evening.

Beware the Ides of March, so goes the Shakespearian saying. But not at the Galileo Lodge where two new activities will be put in motion for the edification of its members and patrons. On March 14th the Galileo Lodge will present Israel Horowitz's one-act play entitled 'LINE'. Price of admission is $5.00 per person, and it will feature the acting abilities of Anthony Sarero, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sarero of the Galileo Lodge. Anthony is also the director of this play, which is quite an accomplishment and real proof of his capabilities. It was excellently reviewed by Clive Barnes and it was recently presented at the Lake Placid Playhouse because of its unusual theme of being first. It is actually an off Broadway production. Contact Skip Monteforte (938-6445), Joe Lappano (938-5065) and Armand DiCioppo (938-5052) for additional information about this play.

The other March activity is the St. Joseph's Dance to be held by the Galileo Lodge on March 22nd. Price of admission will be $3.50 per person, with a fine dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and live music coupled with the congenial hospitality of the Lodge itself. A 'bring-your-own-liquor' policy will be in effect. Jeff Wallick is the chairman for this dance and he will be ably assisted by Al Borello, Skip Monteforte, Joe Morace, Andy Guiliano and Tony Previte. Thus, to ward off the inconsistent climate of March, why not contact the members mentioned above and have yourself a good warm time at the Galileo Lodge. Jeff Wallick and his committee can be reached by dialing 931-9351.

Down at the Hicksville Library, one of their pleasant and efficient employees, Loretta McNierney, and her husband, Jack, became grandparents via their son, Frank, and his wife, Barbara. Their adorable daughter, Tatem Marie, was born on December 11, and is residing with her parents in their Huntington Station home. Not to be outdone, the McNierney's daughter, Eileen and her husband John Echezuria, had a beautiful baby girl on January 11. Little Renee is residing with her parents on Berry Lane, Hicksville. Congratulations to all.

Try not to miss the free film on the Indo-Chinese Boat People which will be shown Friday, February 22 at 8 p.m. in the St. Ignatius new school cafeteria. There will be refreshments served following the film and a presentation will be given by members of the American Friends Association. A truly ecumenical project is presently underway. The United Methodist Church, St. Ignatius Loyola R.C. Church, and the Trinity Church, all of Hicksville, are working together to sponsor five boat people who are in desperate straits. These unfortunate people should arrive in Hicksville within the next three months. If you would like to have further information and/or volunteer your help on this project, the Friday film meeting will afford you the opportunity to do so.

A frigid weekend was enjoyed(?) by Joe Jablonsky, Jr., Nick Caruso, John Cranmer and some of their other friends skiing at Gore Mountain in Lake George. With the wind chill factor, the weather was a mere minus 70 degrees; however, it did warm up on Sunday to a balmy minus 25 degrees. We learned from a good source that they imbibed some inner fuel which winterized their bodies for even lower degrees than what they endured.

Vic Ingram took advantage of the three-day holiday weekend to drive down from Exeter, NH to visit the Maher family. He joined in the family birthday party that was held for Vic's Uncle Bill and his cousin, Mike. Vic is a former resident of Hicksville and attended our schools. He is employed by Computer General in New Hampshire and also attends the University of New Hampshire. He plans to buy property in Maine this summer and within the next two years have his house built on the property. He's an ambitious young man, and we're proud of him.

Positive Approach To Learning

The educational portion of the February 27 Hicksville Board of Education meeting will be on the topic, "Positive Approaches to Learning." The meeting will begin at 8:15 PM and will be held at Willet Avenue School.

The theme, according to Dr. Daniel Salmon, Assistant Superintendent for Secondary Education, is designed to inform the Hicksville community of happenings in our schools. The three presentations which will be given during the meeting span diverse academic aspects of Hicksville education.

Mrs. Rosemary Barrow, librarian at Willet Avenue School, will present the subject, "The Library as a Media Center."

District Helping Math teachers, Ted by Mr. Donald Fournier, will speak and present a visual show on, "The Helping Math Teacher."

"The Art Experience," will be presented by Willet/Woodland art teacher, Mrs./Marie Schneider.

The public is invited to attend the meeting and ask questions on these "positive approaches to learning."

CUMMINGS 'N GOINGS

By Jim Cummings

IRISH ENTERTAINER: When Mickey Carton and Company return to O'Hagan's Irish Inn in Hicksville this weekend, it will be by popular demand. Mickey, and his accordion have truly become a legend in his own time — his music was the talk of Irish circles back in the 40's as his band packed the floors of the Mayo House in Rockaway, every summer we can remember. Today, he continues in a truly professional style. This popular Irishman's following joins with him in singing the traditional Irish airs. It was like "old home week" at O'Hagan's when Mickey played for their grand opening, and the hosts were requested by their patrons to bring Mickey back and that they will this Friday and Saturday evening, February 22 and February 23. This quaint Irish Inn is at 50 East Barclay Street, Hicksville and Jimmy O'Hagan, and popular dispenser of good spirits, Ed Byrnes will be on hand to greet you — remember reservations are suggested, please phone 931-9669 — "It's Just a Little Inn, Where the Irish Meet."

4TH ANNIVERSARY: Next Wednesday and Thursday, February 27 and 28, the STACK O'BARLEY PUB of Hicksville will celebrate its 4th year of providing its many patrons with the very best in Irish entertainment every Wednesday thru Sunday, in addition to a delicious menu, for lunch or supper. We wish Harry Shelton and his bride the very best of continued success in serving the thousands of Irish-Americans in the Hicksville and mid-island area. Pat Roper and Tommy Doyle will provide the music for the Anniversary Party and this is the best traditional Irish Music in the land.

IRISH GOLFERS MEET: Pat Cowan, Chairman of the newly-formed Shamrock Golf Club reports that the first general meeting of the group is next Thursday evening, February 28 at 8:30 P.M. The lads are looking forward to playing at Middle Island, Spring Lake, Pine Hills at the first sign of spring. If you're Irish... this is the place for you.

HS BAND TO PARADE: The Hicksville Senior High School Band, color guard and "co-quettes" have been invited to lead the Commodore John Barry Division Eleven, Ancient Order of Hibernians up Fifth Avenue on St. Patrick's Day, Monday March 17, in New York City. Following discussion with Raymond Rusch, principal of the Senior High School, with whom this reporter has met with, all signs are good and I am hoping for firm approval following the winter school recess. This will mark the 4th year the youngsters have traveled with us to New York. It is again a proud moment for the Hicksville community as the banners, beautiful "co-quettes" and 120 piece marching band will cross your TV screen on Channel Eleven, usually between 3 PM and 3:30 PM. We have also been privileged to have with us the Charles Wagner Post American Legion Color Guard — these gentlemen have been participating with the Division of the Green Berets these past twenty-two years. Grand Marshal William Burke, a spry 70-year-old Irishman will step off at 46th & Fifth at the 12 Noon whistle salute by New York's Finest, the New York City Police Department. Additional details in the weeks to come.

ZONE CHANGES

deletion of floor area ratio regulations.

The current requirement for 90% of all parking to be underground or within-a-structure parking will be eliminated and screened, off-street parking areas allowed.

The Zone that will be developed for Broadway is intended to be tailored to encourage development of the small lots along that strip. In general the zone will be aimed at allowing a Neighborhood Shopping District to be developed. It would run from the railroad to Old Country Road having a depth of 180 feet on either side of Broadway. "We will permit zero-lot line construction to allow for attachment of the buildings and we are going to require a 'uniformity of architecture and style with regard to the facade of the buildings," Clark explained. "They will certainly be permitted to have a second story and for it to be utilized as offices."

"The new zone will require provision of off street parking on each block," Clark said. "This is not going to be a simple task and will require cooperation among property owners. It is our intent to write the ordinance establishing this zone in such a way as to make such cooperation a part of the legislation. It will not be easy but the Supervisor and I feel it is necessary."

Clark said the revision of the traffic flows in the triangle area is absolutely essential. "The concept of having a main east-west artery on the south side of the tracks is essential to the movement of cars in all directions of the triangle," Clark said. "In addition, the extension of Duffy Avenue will permit the closing of other smaller roads within the triangle area and the selling of that additional land to adjoining property owners to further encourage the office construction of that area."

Concerning the ad hoc committee recommendation for permitting the construction of condominiums within the triangle, Clark said no zone change will be made although the Board will encourage applications for a change of zone to permit condominium development in the southwest 16 acres of the triangle.

"We won't change the zone and allow development by right," Clark explained. "We can retain far greater control by requiring an applicant to come before the Town Board with plans for condominium development. Requiring such a proceeding will permit the Town to adjust a developers plans for the protection and betterment of the community."

Clark and Colby indicated that the change in the restrictions of the G-1 Zone should encourage some development in that area and the road changes and other steps to be taken will bring about more positive action in the development of the triangle area. "But none of this will take place overnight," the two officials agreed. "What we will be doing is providing changes that should encourage the development of this area in a way that will meet the needs of the community and the Town. Naturally the national economy will still have a strong say in the amount of time it takes for this development."

At a recent meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Hicksville, "Uncle Frank" Churasky has just pinned Russell Coniglio with a nine year perfect attendance pin. This is especially noteworthy as Mr. Coniglio has been a member of Kiwanis for exactly nine years. A years perfect attendance is making every weekly meeting or attending another Kiwanis Club meeting to make up for missing the Hicksville meeting. (upper picture)

Alfred B. Hsley Jr., Vice President of the Kiwanis Club of Hicksville has just presented Bill Maher a Certificate of Appreciation for his excellent talk on the GAP Program. This talk was made at the weekly meeting in Milleridge Inn. (Lower picture)

rear). Volunteer Director Michael McCabe (left rear) noted that "music is an essential element to the elderly and this fine organ will receive many hours of use and provide enjoyment to our patients."

Looking on include: Administrator William St. George (center) Sanford Smith (right a volunteer), John Jordan (at organ), Cecil Neville and Mary Shand.

The Jack Kahn Music Company gives away fifty organs each year to churches, schools, non-profit groups, and charitable concerns.
