G-1 At The Community Council Meeting

By Carole Wolf

What has happened and what will happen to the G-1 triangular zone in Hicksville was presented at the March 6th Community Council meeting by TOB Planning Director Anthony Maurino, Councilman Tom Clark and the Hicksville Community Council's Ad Hoc Committee for the Development of Hicksville Chairman Stephen Didier.

Maurino explained the resolution which was passed by the Town Board on Tuesday, March 4th. Resolution # 222 reduced the land requirement to build from 20,000 to 17,000 square feet, eliminated the underground parking requirement, and allowed the ratio of retail and restaurant use in a building to be increased from 10% to 33%.

A circular area in the southwest corner of the zone and a rectangular section five blocks long and 180 feet on either side of Broadway would be undergoing approximately 60 days of legal study and then will be the subject of a public hearing to determine whether any new zones should apply. The circular area might be conducive to condominiums and/or apartments and Broadway could possibly be two-story retail stores conforming to the same frontal facade, with parking in the rear.

Instead of repeating what Maurino said, Councilman Clark entertained questions from the floor. Asked if there were any applications for office buildings in the area, Clark said there was a recent proposal for an office building next to Manufacturers Hanover Trust on Duffy Avenue, just north of the parking garage. Another application, received by Town Hall, was received from an executive car rental agency for the land east of the Post Office on W. John Street, presently the site of Kroemers.

Discussion then turned to traffic and parking. West John Street and Newbridge Road is the third highest traffic accident area in Nassau County. Clark favors an east-west extension of Duffy Avenue to relieve the cross-town traffic. Sieg Widder, Executive Director of the Chamber, mentioned that he had met with representatives from the county who were not in favor of the Duffy Avenue extension and who said that if the parking garage was not built as close to Duffy Avenue as it was, Duffy could have been gently curved to meet with Marie Street. As it stands now, the county would not purposely curve the street because it would be too dangerous. Clark had even mentioned, "The county is not going to spend money to build a crooked road."

Gus Cotsonas discussed the Fire Department's objection to the Duffy Avenue extension.

Clark said that he had met with the members of the department and he felt that there was no harsh objection to his stand.

Town parking was the next item of discussion. Everyone was in agreement of the need for more parking spaces but finding a site was a problem. Although Judge Lebkeuker wanted the town to take land off the tax rolls to build a parking garage, most people in the audience wanted the town to use existing parking lots and build up. A general feeling was to build a parking garage on the lot east of the station so that people north and east in the community would have easy access and so that they would have shelter walking to the station.

Steve Didier, Committee Chairman, announced that the "committee has come full circle" and that it has completed its work. He thanked all the committee members including Gus Cotsonas, Charlie Lynch, Norma Goerke, Vern Wagner and Sieg Widder who were present at the Council meeting. Thanks also goes to Committee members Richard Evers, Bill Foley, Bill Lee, Bill MacDonald, Joe Normandy and Anthony Previte who represented groups and to Joan Eannucci, Millie Pino, Eileen Szabo and Arlene Didier who helped with the clerical duties of the committee.

To The Consumers Of The Hicksville Water District

Due to increased cost of operation in the area of energy, escalating costs of chemicals for water treatment, the need for additional help and equipment due to sewer construction within the confines of the Hicksville Water District, necessary increased sampling of our water supply during this construction period, it has become necessary to increase the water rates.

As part of the pilot 208 program, our wells are being tested for organics at more frequent intervals, these tests are very costly, eventually, all water districts nationwide will have to assume these costs.

The District has also purchased a new well site and installed two (2) new wells without going to Bond Issue, at today's rates, this would be exceeding costly. The Hicksville Water District in one of the very few Districts without bonded indebtedness.

We reluctantly must, therefore, increase our rates an additional five cents (5 cents) per thousand gallons to bring the new rate to fifty cents (.50 cents) per thousand gallons beginning with the billing period in April, 1980.

Museum "Over The Top"

With over 4,000 signatures collected toward its petition for the Oyster Bay Town Board, the Hicksville Gregory Museum volunteers and cooperating community organizations are on the 'home stretch' of their effort at gathering supportive residents' names.

Over 1,000 names were gathered this past week as the Museum and its admirers demonstrated their approval of the proposal-to-be to the Town leaders for some appropriate way of town or village-based administration and financing of the museum.

The petition signature drive is drawing support also from letter writers from other Oyster Bay communities who report they have been writing the various town councilmen and Supervisor Colby to help keep the Earth Science museum in Hicksville, at the historic Heitz Place Court-house. The drive to obtain signatures for the museum began a month ago, and double the "hoped for" numbers of citizen supporters have signed. Rejections of the proposal have been very few and far between, volunteers gathering petition sheets report.

It is expected that the petition will be presented formally to the Town Board, later this month, (Continued on Page 12)

A Message From Sup. Colby

Town residents receiving Town of Oyster Bay Sanitation Collection have an opportunity to help our environment and lower taxes every time they put out their refuse for collection.

Instead of putting newspapers into the container with the rest of the refuse, if residents would tie the newspapers in bundles and place the bundles at the curb, the Town will keep the newspapers separate and sell them for recycling.

Under a revision of the Town newspaper recycling program, newspaper will be collected on every collection day. This means that our homeowners do not have to save them or remember a particular day of the month. All a homeowner must do is tie the newspapers together and keep that bundle separate.

By making this effort the homeowner will be helping our environment in two ways. First, the newspapers will no longer be burned or buried in a landfill. Secondly, recycled newspaper lessens the demand placed on our natural resources.

Another virtue of the program is the revenue that is provided to the Town. First, the cost of incineration is reduced since it is less waste going into the incinerators. Secondly, the Town receives a good return on the newspaper it sells. Currently old newspaper is increasing in value. Under the contract the Town has with its recycling firm, we not only obtain advantage of that increase in the market price. That means the more people who cooperate, the more revenue the program provides.

Certainly the program is beneficial to all of us and asks very little effort on our part. If the environmental benefit and the financial advantage are not enough to encourage your participation, the ordinances of the Town of Oyster Bay require that homeowners bundle newspapers separately.

The ordinance, however, cannot make the program successful. Only cooperation by our homeowners will.

Yevoli To Carey: No More Gas Taxes!

Assemblyman Lewis J. Yevoli (D-Old Bethpage) blasted Governor Carey's call for an increase in state gasoline taxes to offset the financial problems of the deficit ridden Metropolitan Transportation Authority. The Assemblyman called the Governor's proposal "irresponsible, it is patently anti-motorist, and anti-Long Island."

The Old Bethpage lawmaker said "New York State is reaping wind-fall profits from the sales tax it is receiving on the inflated price of gasoline. It is inconceivable that the Governor is proposing a tax increase that would drive the price of gas up another 5 cents a gallon." He continued, "What makes the plan ludicrous is that even with the anticipated $200 million in new revenues from his tax plan, the M.T.A. will still almost certainly increase the fares on the Long Island Rail Road." Assemblyman Yevoli added "As Nassau and Suffolk residents we are already paying the highest real estate taxes in the country, now the Governor is asking us to pay more for gasoline with no guarantee that it won't cost us more to ride the rail road. This is unconscionable and unacceptable. In my opinion, the Governor is displaying an insensitivity to our economic problems that borders on contempt." The M.T.A. oversees the operations of the city subway and bus systems, as well as the L.I.R.R. The Authority says it is facing a $331 million deficit and it is looking to Albany to ease the burden.

But, Assemblyman Yevoli claims many of the M.T.A.'s financial problems are self imposed. He cites mismanagement, waste, and impractical priorities for many of the super agency's shortcomings. "A typical example", he says, "of the M.T.A.'s self-inflicted deficits is its complete failure to develop anything even vaguely related to area mass transit needs at its airport facility at Farmingdale. The M.T.A. investment at the Republic site has amounted to more than $50 million in ten years, and it continues to operate at losses that exceed one-half million dollars annually. Here is a facility that doesn't service one daily commuter, yet taxpayers and commuters are forced to finance this white elephant. A highly critical audit released by the State Comptroller last spring revealed the exorbitant amounts of money spent by the M.T.A. to perpetuate the Farmingdale facility. The report noted the authority's mismanagement of Republic and recommended that its operation be discontinued.

Assemblyman Yevoli concluded "There are no easy solutions to the complex problems of financing mass transportation in our state. But Governor Carey's half-baked approach of asking those who can ill-afford it to pay for the M.T.A.'s incompetence, is totally unacceptable. I know I speak for

INFLATION: A Crisis Since 1977

By Cong. Norman Lent

In a reaction exactly like his sudden recognition of the danger of Russian aggression, President Jimmy Carter discovered last week that inflation had reached "crisis proportions" in the United States. What prompted this belated recognition of a long-standing problem was the release of government figures showing that wholesale prices soared at an annual rate of 18 percent in January, while retail prices galloped ahead at an annual rate of 16 percent during the same month. Both increases came on the heels of a whole year of 13 percent inflation!

The President's pronouncement that inflation had reached a crisis stage was so ludicrous that comedian Johnny Carson got a big laugh simply by repeating what Jimmy Carter had said.

The truth is we have been in an inflationary crisis of increasing seriousness since 1977. It has been caused by federal budgets which for the past three years have been set down with no effort to end deficit spending, and by a majority in the Congress which has not only failed to restrict federal spending, but which has voted consistently for even greater deficits than recommended in the budgets. The crisis has been deepened further by the President's so-called anti-inflation program whose major adaptation to worsening conditions has been to raise its widely ignored voluntary limit on employee salary increases from seven to nine-and-a-half percent.

Now that the President has proclaimed this largely self-generated crisis, he is pondering, with his economic advisers, what to do about it. Those of us in the Congress who believe in fiscal responsibility have been urging him for three years to take proper action. Each day that passes without such action makes it more difficult to control inflation and increases the financial burden on every family.

The President must: Reduce wasteful government spending, end the federal deficit with a balanced federal budget, and stick to that balanced budget!

Reduce taxes on all American workers and businesses across the board, thereby generating healthy expansion of investment, creating new jobs, and helping families cope with soaring prices and taxes.

It's no laughing matter that Jimmy Carter has just recognized inflation to be a crisis for our country. But recognizing the fact three years late will be better than nothing, if he takes the proper corrective action now.

Town Board Set To Consider Recreational Facility Fees

At its regular meeting on Tuesday, March 18 the Oyster Bay Town Board is expected to consider establishing recreation fees to help offset the increased energy cost of its recreational facilities.

Under consideration by the Town Board is the Commissioner of Park's recommendation of fee schedules for use of lighted athletic courts, meeting rooms and portable lighting units. A complete review of Town fees was undertaken in response to the recommendations of the State Comptroller's Office.

The new fees being considered include a $20 fee for the use of meeting rooms for other than Town-sponsored functions, and $10 per hour, per unit for the loan of portable field lights. An energy charge of $4 per hour is being considered for after-dark use of tennis, platform tennis, handball and basketball courts.

Increases in fees for community pools, beaches, and marinas were approved last many of my colleagues in the Legislature in opposing Governor Carey's unwarranted tax proposals. If he spent as much time in straightening out the Metropolitan Transportation Authority as he has in conceiving of new ways to pick our pockets, we would all be better off. New York's taxpayers and particularly those of us on Long Island need a plan to ease our economic plight not one that adds to it."

week. The Town Board has approved an average increase of $10 in pool/membership fees, raised boat slip rentals from $16.50 to $22 foot of length with a minimum seasonal fee of $350, and increased seasonal resident beach passes from $6 to $10.

Hicksville American Soccer Club News

GENERAL NEWS

The outdoor Spring season begins this week (3/15) and the Club has entered 24 traveling teams of boys and girls in the Long Island Junior Soccer League. This means almost 400 children that will play 241 soccer games all over Long Island this Spring. With the Regional and L.I. Cup competitions and the numerous tournaments, these boys and girls will play close to 400 soccer games by the summer.

With another 50 teams in the intramural program, the Club is extremely pleased to be able to provide this clean, healthy activity for 1000 Hicksville children in the Spring and Fall. The Club would also like to acknowledge and thank the men and women who spend countless hours coaching the youngsters, not only at the games but also at practices, picking up and dropping off, solving the many administrative and personal problems and teaching them sportsmanship, fair play and responsibility. These people deserve a tremendous amount of credit for the job they do fulfilling the charter of the Club to combat juvenile delinquency and to help the youth of Hicksville to become good, responsible citizens. Starting with the youngest, the under 8 year old boys are coached by Tony Camara (Hearts) and the second team by A. Shevchenko (Eagles). The two under 9 boys teams are headed by John Fabrizio (Cardinals) and R. Van Steen (Chargers); the under 10 by Stan Greenberg (Tigers), Joe Perry (Challengers) and Mike Kanuck (Hornets). The 1969 boys (under 11) are coached by Al Boccafolo (Rangers) and Jim Reardon leads the second team (Rowdies). Jack McCann has the Hicksville Big Red and Joe Neto the Thunderbirds in the under 12 group and Steve Florio is again at the helm of the under 13 Red Express. Frank Cunningham has the Hicksville Blue Lightning in the same age group. Steve Gourlay leads the under 14 Strikers, Duke Youngs has the Hawks and Bernie Sierra is out there with his under 14 girls - the Young Americans.

As we move into the older groups in the High School age, the job gets tougher. In the under 15 division, Peter Collins with Bill Cresham & Pat McHugh as has the Yankees and Jay Mulligan coaches the Settlers. Lee

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

Carmen Russo of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Galileo Lodge reports that their latest card party held on the 21st of February was a rousing success. And this certainly comes as no surprise, because these hard-working, dedicated women will accept nothing short of success in any of their undertakings. To Carmen Russo, the chairlady, ably assisted by JoAnn Wallick and Rose Riccardi, the Galileo Lodge extends its thanks for another effort on their behalf. And, by the way, may I take this fine opportunity to thank the Ladies Auxiliary, for your nice letter of thanks. But remember, I did nothing—only your laborious tasks were responsible for the success you all have achieved.

Spring is in the air. You can sense it. The harshness of the winter is fading and as the earth comes out of its deep sleep it brings us new vigor and vitality. So does the Galileo Lodge as it starts to unveil its 1980 Spring Entertainment Program. Starting off with the Lodge's presentation of Israel Horovitz' off Off-Broadway play entitled 'LINE' on March 14th. Price of admission is $5.00 and it features the talents of Anthony Sarrero, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sarrero of the Galileo Lodge. Contact Skip Monteforte (938-6454), Joe Pappano (935-6065) and Armand Del Cioppo (938-5052) for ticket sales and seating arrangements for this play. And then we go to March 22nd, at which time the Galileo Lodge will present its annual St. Joseph's Dance. Price of admission is the usual $8.50 per person, featuring a hot meal and all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups, live music and the extra-added pleasant atmosphere of the Lodge itself. Jeff Wallick (OV 1-8428), the chairman, and Joe Morace (931-2548) co-chairman.

Members are waiting for the new officers to don their regalia on the eve of March 27th, at which time all male and female officers of the Galileo Lodge and its Ladies Auxiliary will be installed. Many of the leading figures of filial lodges, Grand Lodge of the Sons of Italy in America, plus those of the Town of Oyster Bay, will officiate as well as lend their presence when the ritual of swearing-in unfolds. This is a momentous occasion for our organization because it obviously means that the future of this Lodge falls into new hands. The newly-elected Venerable, Tony Previte, will deliver a talk on the importance of the membership to the organization. This, of course, will be in the form of an acceptance speech. Visitors are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served also.

Nassau County Police Commissioner Samuel J. Rozzi inspects members of the Police Emerald Society Pipe Band prior to the St. Patrick's Day Parade in Garden City. The band will also march along Fifth Avenue in New York City on March 17th.

The New York City Parade will begin at 11:00 A.M. at 44th Street and Fifth Avenue and proceed to 86th Street and then east to Third Avenue.

Petersburg, Florida, has been announced. The bride-elect is the daughter of former HICKSVILLE residents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lehmann, now residents of Florida. The couple plan a June 1981 wedding.

Have you heard about the wonderful program sponsored by the Town of Oyster Bay? It's called the Group Activities Program (GAP) and the participants are handicapped youngsters and young adults from Hicksville and the other towns throughout the Town of Oyster Bay. We recently attended a Valentine's Dance that GAP sponsored. There were 75 teenagers and young adults who attended this festivity. We met a number of participants from Hicksville, Syosset, Jericho and surrounding areas. The Sam Garry Quartet donated their services and they played a variety of music that was enjoyed by all. MacDonald's of Syosset donated hamburgers and soda for refreshments. Valentine gifts were donated by the Sisters of Pythias. Members of the Oyster Bay/East Norwich and Syosset Kiwanis Clubs were on hand as volunteers and helped in a number of activities. This program emphasizes social interaction through arts and crafts, drama, special events, trips, music, dancing and an opportunity to meet with peer groups. If you know of a child, teenager, young adult or adult with a handicap that would be interested in this program, contact Dan Vogrin, Ph.D., superintendent of GAP at 922-5800, extension 301, for further information.

The "Boys from Hicksville," (Nick Caruso, John Ahearn, Les Snediker and Bill Kelly) spent a wonderful week at Lake Placid, New York. Although they missed out on the 1980 Olympic Games, their spirit was undaunted. They courageously braved frigid weather and skied on White Face Mountain. If the "Boys" practice enough, they might be Hicksville's Olympic Team at the next Winter Events, so we were told by Nick Caruso.

Hicksvillies, Janet and Frank Gioia's son, Anthony, was 8 years old on March 3. Anthony's parents and his brother, Christopher, helped him celebrate this special day.

Karen and Paul Benvenuto, twins, of Piscataway, New Jersey, and grandchildren of August and Helen Jud of HICKSVILLE, will be marching with the Superchiefs, the Piscataway, N.J. High School Band, in New York City on March 17 in the St. Patrick's Day Parade. The Band, which contains 260 members, was the 1979 winners at the Daytona Beach, Florida Marching Band Festival. In the 1979 St. Patrick's Day parade, the band received the Cardinal's Trophy. Karen plays the clarinet and Paul is on the drums.

Board of Education Meeting

The Board of Education meeting on Wednesday, March 26, at 8:15 PM will be held at Burns Avenue School. The press release dated March 4 incorrectly placed the meeting at the Administration Building.

While there is no educational portion planned for the meeting, the Board and Administration will continue to review the proposed 1980-81 school budget, following the regular agenda.

Teachers Honored

James Wellon, a respected and admired teacher in the Hicksville Public Schools, retired this month after 31 years of service.

Mr. Wellon started in Hicksville on November 13, 1948, following in his father Carl's footsteps. Carl Wellon taught history and, later, driver education until his retirement in June, 1963, with 32 years of worthwhile educational efforts for the children of Hicksville.

Jim Wellon began his Hicksville career at the junior high school, where he taught science and reading. In September, 1952, he began to teach at the high school, instructing students in English. At the same time, Mr. Wellon served as audiovisual coordinator for the school, and was the announcer for Hicksville High's basketball and football games.

A science man at heart, he was quite happy to teach physics, and later oceanography, starting in 1967. Never far from the teaching action, he was an instructor for Opportunity High School in 1970.

Mr. Wellon served as advisor to Hicksville High School's amateur radio station until it disbanded several years ago.

His plans for retirement? "To live one day at a time," he says with a smile. He and his wife of 33 years, Ilse, reside in North Bellmore and plan to remain there, as avid fans of Long Island life. Mr. Wellon says he may seek some free-lance writing or editing work to help him keep busy. He also jogs seven miles a day!

Mr. Wellon is one of several longtime outstanding Hicksville teachers who said their goodbyes to a grateful district this month. Another is Mr. Theodore St. John, a fifth grade teacher at Old Country Road, whose years of service number 23 in Hicksville. All have the thanks and best wishes of their fellow staff members, the Board of Education and the community.

GPCA To Honor Volunteer Firefighters

The Greater Plainview Community Association has announced that it will present its 1980 "Citizen of the Year Award" to the Plainview Volunteer Fire Department.

The Award will be formally presented to the Fire Department at GPCA's Annual Dinner Dance, to be held in the Victorian Suite at the Huntington Town House on Sunday evening, May 4, at 7:00 PM. Accepting on behalf of the Fire Department will be Abraham Weinschenker, Chairman of the Department's Board of Directors, and Department Chief Richard T. McCauley.

"We are especially proud to be able to bestow this honor on our volunteer firefighters," noted

GPCA President Carol Eisenstein. "Their record of 53 years of dedicated service to the Plainview community is unmatched and unchallenged."

Mrs. Eisenstein observed that the Fire Department had grown and adapted over the years to meet the continually changing needs of the community. "The Department started out with 26 men and one Model-T truck operating out of a tool shed as their first firehouse. In those years, the Plainview community did not even have electricity or water service. As Plainview grew, so did the Department—to a force of 140 firefighters and 16 trucks. Fortunately, for all of us, the years of change and growth in Plainview have been matched by unswerving dedication, and increasing efficiency and responsiveness on the part of our firefighters. It is a sincere pleasure to present them with GPCA's Citizen of the Year Award for 1980."

This is GPCA's Seventh Annual Citizen of the Year Award. Previous recipients were GPCA past President Carole Fishman in 1974, the Library Board's Mike Polansky in 1975, Little League President Irwin Zolotorof in 1976, the School Board's Al Delman in 1977, Plainview Water Commissioners John Edwards, Bill Bennett and Joe Segall in 1978, and POB Youth Council President Mike Weissman in 1979.

The entire Plainview community is urged to join with GPCA in honoring the Plainview Fire Department on May 4. Contact Dinner Dance Chairperson Audrey Saltsberg at 433-7397 for tickets and information. HELP US SAY "THANK YOU" TO OUR VOLUNTEER FIREFIGHTERS.

"Vaudeville"

Post Office Discount on 1980 Zip Code Directory

This year's National ZIP Code and Post Office Directory will be easier to obtain and a little cheaper to buy, according to Hicksville Sectional Center Manager-Postmaster Anthony M. Murello.

The Postal Service is offering its customers the option of buying the directory at any post office or by direct mail. Two discount plans allow customers to save $1.50 on single copy or up to $10.50 on a case of eight directories. Postmaster Murello explained.

The 1980 ZIP Code and Post Office Directory not only contains ZIP Codes for the United States and territories, but also gives information on various classes of mail, service improvement programs, new letter size standards, 3-digit ZIP Code maps and delivery statistics. The new directory also lists new streets, apartment complexes and new and discontinued post offices.

By "trading in" the front cover of any previous year's ZIP Code Directory (USPS Publication 65) or Directory of Post Offices (USPS Publication 26), mailers will receive $1.50 off the single copy price of $7.50. There is a limit of one front cover per single copy purchased.

Postmaster Murello said mailers who buy at a special case price of $52.50 receive eight directories for the price of seven - a saving of $7.50. "By taking advantage of both the trade in discount and the case price, customers can trade in up to seven directory covers for each case purchased, save an additional $10.50 and pay as low as $42.00 for a case of eight," he explained.

To order the 1980 ZIP Code and Post Office Directory by mail, customers simply send a check or money order plus any trade in covers to St. Louis Postal Data Center, P.O. Box 14872, St. Louis, MO 63180. Checks should be made payable to U.S. Postal Service. Mailers should specify the number of copies (at $7.50) or cases of eight (at $52.50) desired and to deduct $1.50 per copy for each trade in cover. No handling or service charge will be added to orders placed by mail.
