Hicksville Wins One And Loses One

The Tri-Meet with Garden City and Cold Spring Harbor on January 21 brought one win and one loss to the Hicksville High School Swim Team.

The team, with effective swimming by Mike White in the 500 free and the 200IM, Chris Blake in the 100 back, Tom McGirk in the breast and Jimmie Mund in the 100 butterfly, defeated the swimmers from Garden City. Both the Medley Relay team of M. White, T. McGirk, C. Blake and Ken Drummond and the Free

Relay swimmers, J. Mund, E. Sottile, B. Eberle and K. Drummond were victorious over the Garden City team. Donna Hoffmann, our only diver present, showed outstanding skill and placed second.

In the competition against Cold Spring Harbor Tom McGirk again won the breast and Mike White won the 200 IM, but the team lost the overall competition. The next meet will be on Jan. 30 against Great Neck North at the Great Neck pool.

Hicksville Republican Club News

By Harriet Maher

Summer with its warmth and hot breezes is still months away. Winter's cold and the concomitant use of fuel we must use to keep warm has become a crisis situation for many of us. Therefore, the following is a timely report prepared by Frank Jopp, chairperson of our senior citizen committee:

"The frigid temperatures of the last several weeks brings home to us how very important fuel oil is to all of us to maintain comfortable conditions in our homes, especially where the elderly are living. I received a news release from the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizen Affairs which is of prime importance.

"Two programs are now in place to assist elderly Nassau County residents who experience difficulty in meeting their home heating needs. For the second year, Nassau County has allocated special funds through the Department of Senior Citizen Affairs for an emergency fuel oil delivery program for those aged 60 and over. The EMERGENCY FUEL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM, administered by Family Service Assn. of Nassau County, provides assistance, on a one-time basis, to older persons with limited resources, who have run out of fuel oil and are unable to get delivery, due to lack of funds. Special arrangements have been made to ensure 24-hour coverage. During weekdays, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., call 495-4600. On weekends and evenings, older persons needing this service should call the Nassau County Police Department at 535-4321. The Oil Heat Institute facilitates emergency fuel delivery through participating oil companies.

"The Nassau County Department of Senior Citizens Affairs is also coordinating efforts to reach senior citizens, aged 60 and over, who may be eligible for the HOME ENERGY ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (HEAP). For eligibility, total gross monthly income may not exceed $420 for one-person households, $673 for two, $924 for three, if all members of the household are 60 and over. All income is counted including Social Security, S.S.I., pension, earnings, rental income, etc. Bank interest income is counted only if entered in the month application is made. Persons living in most public or subsidized housing are not eligible for this benefit. Renters who do not pay for heating bills directly can apply for assistance towards their utility bills (electric and/or gas). Tenants who rent includes heat and utilities should also file an application.

"The amount of assistance, on a one-time basis, ranged from $120 to $250 for the 1980/81 winter season. The Home Energy Assistance Program, federally funded through the New York State Department of Social Services, has established a high priority for senior citizens. The priority status makes it possible for senior citizens to apply by mail and entitles them to special consideration on income eligibility Applications and additional information may be obtained by calling the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizen Affairs Personal Services Unit at 535-4414.

"I urge all of you who may be eligible to take advantage of these programs to contact the Department of Senior Citizen Affairs for further information."

Our fortieth president, Ronald Reagan, is aware of the energy crisis and the devastation it can wreak on our national economy and that of the world. As President Reagan said, "Conservation is fine—we're all for it—but you can't conserve when there's nothing to save. Instead, we have to get the federal government out of the energy business—and we have to let private enterprise produce the domestic reserves that will end once and for all our crippling dependence on foreign oil."

The Big Brothers and Sisters of Nassau County were invited to present a program for the Hicksville Kiwanis Club on January 21.

Volunteers between the ages of 16 and 75 are being sought to spend time with single parent children. These volunteers may be college students, business people, or retirees. Volunteers are trained, and then matched with Little Brothers and Sisters according to compatibility and interests for a period of about one year on a one to one commitment.

Social workers supervise the training and match.

"One Of The Grass Roots Of The American Legion"

Happy to report that we had a successful Las Vegas Nite last Saturday night and the entire committee and patrons are looking forward to our next one. Sorry to report that P. Ed Hodgkinson and Fred Blackley had hospital stays with Ed's being the more serious. Again let me remind you that the Auxiliary girls are having their annual VALENTINE DANCE on February 14th featuring baked ziti, meat balls, salad, fruit cup, coffee & cake and free beer for the evening, plus music for your dancing enjoyment all for $15 per couple. Please give the girls a break and make your reservations early so they can do a bang up job and make your evening real pleasant. Call now, either, FLO RUHE 822-3876 or JOAN RIZOS 433-7429 or MARIE GAMBLE 938-2163 or ELEANOR WALSH 931-3299 and make your reservations for a good time.

In the near future the Post will present copies of "America's Medal Of Honor Recipients" to Hicksville Public Library, Hicksville High School Library and Holy Trinity High School Library. This book has more than 1000 pages and contains the history of the medal and the individual story and record of each recipient. The books will be dedicated to our own Medal Of Honor winner, GEORGE LANG. And that brings up the thought that our own 20th ANNUAL AWARDS & CEREMONIAL NITE will take place on Saturday night, MARCH 14th. The night that we reserve for Legionnaires of Post 421, and Auxiliary members too, to observe initiation of new members, continuous membership awards, the Post Everlasting Ceremony and other awards. We will be serving Corned Beef & Cabbage at COST so you will be assured of a good meal at a very reasonable price. Our own "boys" will do the cooking. You will be able to enjoy for your dancing pleasure the music of "TOPSEY". There is no admission charge and admission will be by your paidup 1981 Dues Card which will be checked at the door since this is a strictly closed affair for our members and wives and Auxiliary members. I realize that not all our membership knows one another but this makes for an interesting evening and getting to meet some of your fellow comrades could be challenging and entertaining. After all, by this time, you probably know your friends' stories by heart so to hear other tales from unknowns (at this point) could be refreshing. As chairman of this affair I will take the responsibility of reserving table space for you if you are willing to pick up the phone and call me at 935-1860. If you do not call, then you will have to find space at unreserved tables which could or could not be fun. However you decide, COME and enjoy a night with your fellow members as this night comes but once a year. The ceremonies are really short and conclude with the cutting of the Birthday cake in honor of our organization's birthday.

At Old Bethpage Village

On Saturdays and Sundays during February, from 2-4 P.M., the Old Bethpage Village Restoration will recreate 19th century literary society meetings.

Museum interpreters at the Village will revive a form of social, literary and political activity which was common on Long Island in the 1800's with meetings of the Village Literary Society on the Sunday afternoons of February 1 and 8 and Saturday, the 28th, at the Noon Inn.

These gatherings often took place in private homes or, as in the case of the Old Bethpage Village Restoration, in community buildings for the purpose of discussion concerning current issues.

The topic to be presented will be, "Should All Men From Age 16 to 60 be Required to Serve in the Militia?" Visitors who have formed opinions about the current draft registration legislation will have an opportunity to relate to this 19th century question and are most welcome to join in the discussion.

The Old Bethpage Village Restoration, operated by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks, is located on Round Swamp Road, south of Long Island Expressway, exit 48. It is open 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. and is closed on Mondays. Admission is $2.75 for adults, $1.50 for children. Leisure pass holders pay $2.25 and $1.25, respectively.

For further information, call 420-5290.

George Washington's Birthday will be re-enacted at the Old Bethpage village restoration on Sunday afternoon, February 22, from 2 to 4 pm at the Church and at the Noon Inn with all the patriotic enthusiasm reminiscent of the 1840 era.

Events will be patterned after descriptions found in contemporary Hempstead and Huntington newspapers and will include poems, songs, speeches and a recitation of selections from the famous "Farewell Address" by the "Father of Our Country." Visitors are invited to join with costumed members of the Washingtonian Temperance Society and Hempstead Light Guards Militia as they march up the hill to the restored church to the beat of a drum.

After the formal ceremonies, visitors who have not been convinced to sign up in the Temperance Society may proceed to the Noon Inn, where a cake will be cut, toasts offered and glasses raised to the memory of our first national hero.

The village, operated by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks, is located on Round Swamp Road (exit 46 on the Long Island Expressway). It is open from 10 am to 5 pm, except Mondays, with a cafeteria and gift shop adjoining the reception center. Admission is $2.75 for adults and $1.50 for children age 5 through 17. Nassau residents pay $2.25 and $1.25, respectively.

Task Force Calls For Crackdown On Vandalism

On Jan. 22 the task force on vandalism, created last summer by Nassau County Executive Francis T. Purcell, issued an interim report calling for a crackdown on vandals and wide dissemination of data on the incidence of vandalism in the county.

Its recommendations - labeled "urgent" by its chairman, Nassau District Court Judge Robert Roberto - were addressed to county and local governments, school districts, the courts, police and the New York State Legislature.

"Vandalism is as much an assault on society as on the individual whose property may be destroyed," the 28-member task force stated in a summary of its report. "Society cannot remain passive in the face of this assault. It must vigorously assert and protect the rights of public and private property owners. The vandal and, in cases where the vandal is a minor, his or her parents, must be held responsible. They must make restitution to the fullest extent possible."

Among the task force's recommendations were:

- * Recognition by the courts that vandalism is the possible start of a criminal career.
- * Adopting a policy of strict accountability under which all public and private agencies will hold vandals responsible for their actions and will use the juvenile and criminal justice systems to prosecute them.

- * Establishing a permanent, countywide anti-vandalism committee to compile and disseminate data on the incidence and costs of vandalism and to share methods of combating it. Included would be a countywide reporting system for school vandalism.

- * Training key school personnel as peace officers and empowering them to issue summonses on school property for violations of ordinances on smoking, littering, trespassing and other non-criminal activities.

- * Creating a kindergarten-through-high school curriculum dealing with personal property rights, responsibilities, self-respect and a sense of pride in one's community.

- * Requiring offenders to pay legal fees of victims as well as costs of all damaged property through direct payments or through liens on their salaries and property - including liens against future earnings.

- * Legislative consideration of raising the minimum age for legal purchase of beer and liquor, and stricter enforcement of requirement that vendors check validity of I.D. cards when selling liquor.

- * Enacting "open container" laws and mandating substantial deposits on beer and soda containers to minimize hawking.

- * Making vandals' family court records available to the district attorney in adult courts.

The task force noted that its final report, expected in early spring, will be premised on the results of two surveys now circulating in the county.

One, mailed to Nassau's 57 school districts, is designed to gather data on the incidence of school vandalism and to compare how districts are coping with it.

The other, mailed to 1,600 hospitals, nursing homes, shopping centers, libraries and civic, social and religious groups, is designed to develop a statistical profile of the size and scope of the vandalism problem.

Purcell created the task force in July, 1980, in response to a report from Police Commissioner Samuel Rozzi showing that the number of reported cases of vandalism had risen 81 percent between 1969 and 1979.

Members of the task force were nominated by state legislators from among residents of their districts. Purcell today forwarded copies of the report to the legislators for their review and action on appropriate legislation. Copies of the report are also being sent to the county's 54 public libraries.

Two Area Students Win Columbia's Labor Law Award

The Emil Schlesinger Labor Law Award was given this year to two Columbia Law School students from Nassau County: Ronald Richman of Jericho and Randy Schneider of East Meadow, both members of the Law Class of 1981. The cash prize, named in honor of Emil Schlesinger, a 1924 graduate of the Law School who practiced and taught labor law for half a century, is given to students "who have shown the greatest promise in labor law studies during their first or second year," or to a student selected to serve as an assistant to a labor law professor.

Frequently on the Dean's List at Cornell University and a member of Phi Beta Kappa upon receipt of his bachelor's degree there, Mr. Richman was active in student government, both with the academic integrity board and the student government finance board. He has continued his undergraduate interest in urban affairs by taking courses at the Law School in government finance. He is a member of the administrative board of the Law School's Journal of Law and Social Problems. In addition to the Schlesinger Award, Mr. Richman was named a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar for his outstanding academic performance last year. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Richman, live on Merit Lane in Jericho.

Mrs. Schneider supplemented her undergraduate course work at Cornell University in dispute resolution by serving two summers with the American Arbitration Association under a Saul Wallen Scholarship. Her work there doing research and field work in collective bargaining, conciliation, and arbitration reinforced her decision to seek a law degree. She is also a member of the administrative board of the Law School's Journal of Law and Social Problems. Ms. Schneider was named a James Kent Scholar for her superior academic achievements last year. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Schneider, reside at Garden Street in East Meadow.

Community Council's February Meeting

By Carole Wolf

Everytime you pick up a paper or listen to the news, you generally hear a five letter word - water. The Hicksville Community Council is providing the residents of Hicksville with an opportunity to ask questions about the liquid that flows from our taps, questions that could not be answered anywhere else.

Superintendent of the Hicksville Water District, Louis Dettloff will be present at the Thursday, February 5th meeting at 8:30 P.M. to show slides and answer questions. Hooker Chemical will be sending a representative. And the Hicksville Citizens Alliance will be represented by Mr. Gregory Yalzyshyn.

Remember, if any senior citizen needs a ride to our April 2nd meeting which will be dedicated to Seniors, please call me on Friday, January 30th at 433-8776 from 10:30 A.M. to 5 P.M.

See you on Thursday at the Council meeting!

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:

In response to the unknown author, who wrote about the Alliance "non-political" meeting held on Church property (St. Ignatius):

The residents who wrote to me about the potential cement plant at Railroad Avenue, and those who expressed their views at the meeting, were well within their rights in voicing their opinions and concerns. I have already contacted the attorney involved, told him of the letters I received, and relayed the concerns of the local residents.

At the meeting, Mr. Schmidt and I explained that anyone can apply to the Town for a zone change, and if not satisfied, they can then take their case to court, requesting a reversal of the Town's decision. For this reason, I did not voice my opinion, as it could be used in court as pre-judging an application.

Now, in regard to the height of grass on West John Street, West John Street is mostly zoned industry on the south side, with a mixture of business and residential on the north side. There is no law requiring you to cut your grass whether your property is business or residential. The members of the Alliance who want the Town to operate illegally, and violate the owners' Constitutional Rights, by forcing them in some way to cut their grass, are out of line. And, to write an article asserting that the Town will do nothing, without informing readers of the existing law, is a distortion. This is an outright disservice to the community and in my opinion, an attempt to discredit Town government.

Another twisted statement, about a man with a 2 million dollar investment, should have

William Feigin To Be Honored At Founders Day Dinner

importance of a good faculty for the early years of education.

Bronx born, Mr. Feigin was graduated from DeWitt Clinton High School and received his B.S. at N.Y.U. After serving three years in the army during World War II, he returned to N.Y.U. for his Masters degree and for his first salaried job in education, $1200 a year as a Fellow in Biology at N.Y.U. By this time he had married his wife Dora, and when he learned that obtaining a doctorate would lead only to a $1400 yearly salary, he opted for an education certificate instead. Before moving to Long Island, Mr. Feigin worked as a Laboratory Assistant in Physics and Chemistry at Taft and Washington High Schools and as a Grade Advisor at the High School of Industrial Arts.

The Feigins visited Hicksville one day at the request of a friend who was then teaching Science in the Junior High. The friend had an opportunity to become a principal if he could find a replacement for himself. Bill Feigin said yes, and that was the beginning of a long career. The friend was Harold Robbins, a principal for many years in our district.

Dora and Bill Feigin still live in the same Levitt house they bought almost thirty years ago. They have two scouting pals, and they still see each other often.

A chance decision brought William Feigin to Hicksville, and we will be honoring him on February 26th for all the years of dedicated service which followed that choice. Anyone interested in ordering tickets is asked to contact the PTA unit at each local school. The price is $12.50 per person. Cocktails are served from 7:00 p.m. and the dinner is at 8:00 p.m. The Founders Day Dinner will also be honoring guests from each PTA unit.

Chinese Auction

The Rosary Altar Society of Our Lady of Mercy RC Church, has scheduled a Chinese Auction for Thursday evening, Feb. 5, starting at 7:30 pm. in the School Auditorium on South Oyster Bay Road.

Admission is $3.00 which includes one envelope. Chairman Rosalie Branca and Assistant Chairman Kathleen Laine tell us that the items donated are "out of this world". Also, there will be door prizes and refreshments.

So, mark your calendar for this is an event you won't want to miss!

At The School Board Meeting

Salaries, Library And Senior Citizen Club Discussed

By Linda Strongin

Salaries, discussions on special requests from the Hicksville Public Library and St. Ignatius Senior Adult Club, and board policies were among the several topics discussed at the meeting Wednesday evening of the Hicksville Board of Education. The unusually short meeting included a presentation by Dr. Terrance Stackpole, Director of Cultural and Performing Arts, and a short executive session.

The salary topic was begun by Trustee John Ayres who questioned why the Superintendent's salary was not on the agenda for approval since a consensus of the board had been reached.

President Tom Nagle stated that although the board had reached a consensus on the salary figure, he felt an evaluation plus goals and objectives needed to be discussed with the superintendent, as members of the board had previously indicated. Mr. Ayres concurred with this proposal.

During the public speaking session resident Arlene Rudin stated that the "wrong signals" were being received by the community concerning the recent administrative salary increases. She questioned whether the increases were the Superintendent's recommendations or the board's.

Superintendent Dr. Wilber Hawkins stated he had originally recommended an across-the-board increase to the board (10%) after evaluating the administration.

Vice President Bill Bennett stated the Board had "arrived at the end result after weeks" of discussions. He added the board had not evaluated the administration.

Later, the board approved salary increases for the assistant director of building and grounds and supervisor of operations of 8% and 8.9% respectively. Mrs. Rudin stated afterward that it was "pleasing to see a substantial increase. It reflects the job being done at the top. I'm sorry it wasn't considered before." Mrs. Rudin was referring to the 5.4% increase given to the Director of Building and Grounds, who has been a long time district employee, compared to the 7.5% given to the short-term administrators.

Mr. Bennett defended the board's action stating Mrs. Rudin did not have the backup materials to make a determination. A brief three-way discussion on the topic ensued among Mrs. Bennett, Mr. Ayres and Mrs. Rudin on the subject.

In the request from the Hicksville Public Library, Kenneth Jones, President, Library Board of Trustees, requested the school board support the library's tentative petition to the Town of Oyster Bay board in which diagonal parking would be available to library users during the day, except from 8 to 9:30 a.m. and 2 to 3:30 p.m. The diagonal parking would be on Second Street and the times would be adjusted to provide for the loading and unloading of buses at the junior high school. BOCES has scheduled were to be looked into by Assistant Business Manager Robert McKeen and Junior High School Principal Gerald Klein before a decision by the school board is made.

Also discussed was the request by the St. Ignatius Senior Adult Club to be among those senior citizen organizations officially recognized by the District. According to current Board policy, the board recognizes four senior citizens clubs under specific policies. Mr. Bennett recommended the policy be amended to include this club.

Trustee Dan Arena questioned whether in approving a fifth club, the amount of activities by the other groups would be limited due to a lump sum allocation for senior citizen clubs in the budget.

Trustee Virginia Germer also was concerned about recognizing the remaining senior citizens groups (Hicksville has nine, according to Mrs. Germer). She also was concerned about the clubs' age requirement conforming to the board's policy on age requirement and suggested that this area also needed to be looked into.

Currently there is approximately $4,000 allocated for the four clubs to pay for bus transportation and directors' fees. The policy will be voted on in 30 days and Mrs. Germer suggested that Mrs. McKeen, director of the St.

Ignatius club, be informed.

In the beginning of the meeting, Mr. Ayres pointed out that our district calendar was not in compliance with the BOCES calendar as had originally been assumed. Hicksville secondary students are scheduled to be in school the week following Regents Exams. Mr. Ayres was concerned about the educational plan for these students during that last week. Dr. Hawkins stated he would have to look into the matter.

The Cultural and Performing Arts presentation was introduced by Dr. Terrance Stackpole, who stated it contained achievement and realistic goals in terms of the district's priorities and resources. Cultural and Performing Arts centers around arts curriculum, arts enrichment and arts integration from grades K through 12. After the presentation Mr. Nagle thanked Dr. Stackpole for a "job well done."

During the first public speaking session, resident Larry Wolfson publicly thanked Dr. Hawkins for his presentation at a recent civic meeting in the community. The topic was on the future of education in general and in Hicksville.

A special meeting of the board will be held February 4 for the purpose of an executive session to discuss negotiations. The next meeting is scheduled for Feb. 11 in the board conference room.

One Nation Under God

By The Rev. Dr. John H. Krahn

On Tuesday, January 20, 1981, at 57th Street and Madison Avenue construction workers joyously erected a new sign which proclaimed, "444 Days in Captivity. Free at last. Free at last. Thank God they're free at last." We thank God for the freedom of the hostages. We pray for our new president and for our country. All of us have once again felt especially good about our country. We want to believe our new president that we are making a new beginning. I love my country. I proudly wore its uniform and I served God and country for five years as an army chaplain. To honor our country is noble, to honor God is even nobler. God Almighty has made America the beautiful, watered the fruited plains, given growth to the amber waves of grain and sparked the spirit of brotherhood among us. The words of the psalmist are so true, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord."

When George Washington took the oath of office on April 30, 1789, he spontaneously added four of his own words to the oath. It was an invocation that has continued until today in official oaths of office, and in courts of justice. The four words Washington spoke were, "So help me God." As great a man as Washington was, a victorious general, and an elder statesman, he was humble enough to invoke the help of almighty God. God help us we pray today to continue to uphold the laudable principles of one nation under God upon which our country was founded. There have been times in which our country has forgotten its roots as a nation under God.

In the dark day of the Civil War, Abraham Lincoln said, "We have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of Heaven; we have grown in numbers, wealth, and power as no other nation has ever grown. But we have forgotten God... Intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us." Lincoln's words, unfortunately, have been appropriate at other times in our history. When we as individuals or as a country are too proud to pray, then we divorce ourselves from the greatest source of blessings and strength available to us. "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord," the psalmist wrote. God's direction, His strength, His wisdom, must be welcomed, invoked, in order for us to be blessed fully and for us to continue to be a blessing to the rest of His world which He just as dearly loves.

Benjamin Franklin recognized this fact at the time our forebearers labored over the writing of the Constitution. He proposed that each session be opened with prayer. He supported his request by saying, "I have lived a long time, and the longer I live the more convincing proof I see of this truth - that God governs the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without His noticing, is it possible that an empire can rise without His aid?" Therefore we need always pray, "So help me God. So help us God. God continue to help our country."

Whether or not you voted for Ronald Reagan, I hope there is not a person today that is not praying that President Reagan will be the greatest president in the history of our nation. In a large measure, his degree of success or failure will reflect the composite success or failure of American citizens throughout our land. If you will be a better citizen in the next four years, you will make him a better president. If, in your place of business, you increase your productivity, you contribute to the increase of our nation's production. If you are a young man and volunteer for the armed services, you do your duty in strengthening our national defense. When a frenchman, who visited the United States, was asked what impressed him most, he said, "The size of your garbage cans." A government report has revealed that 20%, or 800,000,000, worth of food served children in public school cafeterias across the country is wasted annually. To the degree that each of us eliminates waste, be it food, water, or the use of energy, to that degree we will help America.

In his inaugural address, President Reagan said, "The price of freedom has at times been high, but we have never been unwilling to pay that price. We are too great a nation to limit ourselves to small dreams. We are not, as some would have us believe, doomed to an inevitable decline. So, with all the creative energy at our command, let us begin an era of national renewal. Let us renew our faith and our hopes. We have every right to dream heroic dreams." I thought President Reagan's words were well spoken. Heroic dreams become heroic realities when we elicit the help of God. So help us God to dream big dreams, may they begin here as we seek to expand our efforts to share the good news of Jesus' love with one another and in our community. So help us God to become stronger individuals in order to be stronger churches, in order to be a stronger society, in order to be a stronger nation. On the cornerstone of our country is written "One Nation Under God." On our currency is written, "In God We Trust." Holy Scripture reminds us that, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord." We pray, "Bless us almighty God with a stronger faith so that we can become a stronger nation."

Colleen Donlon, Hicksville, wanted to celebrate her birthday on January 11, along with her family, but the "bug" invaded the Donlon residence and everyone was ill on Colleen's special day. However, plans have been revised and Colleen's parents, Martin and Gloria, and her sister, Kathy, have set a new date for a family dinner party at a local restaurant. Colleen is a student at St. John's University where she's majoring in sociology. She's presently interning at the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizen Affairs. Colleen will graduate from St. John's U in June of 1981.

Fire Department Warning

The Hicksville Fire Dept. as well as many other Nassau County Fire Departments, have been plagued during 1979 and 1980 by the presence of a smooth-talking professional solicitor hired by the Eastern Division of the International Assoc. of Fire Chiefs. He presents himself as a representative of the local Fire Dept. or says he has the approval of the local Fire Chief or Fire Dept.

His job is to obtain ads for the Eastern Division newspaper. It appears 1981 will be the same.

Furthermore, he states the donation will benefit the local Fire Dept. that statement is definitely a falsehood. Local Fire Dept.

programs count on their fund drives. The misrepresentation is costing your Fire Dept. needed funds used for fire prevention, invalid location programs, training seminars, etc., as many firms give only once a year.

The Hicksville Fire Dept. warns all businessmen none of the money donated to the Eastern Division of Fire Chiefs will benefit any local Fire Dept.

The solicitor has the right to seek an ad, but he cannot pass himself off as having approval of the Fire Dept.

If you have been contacted or desire more information, please contact the Hicksville Fire Dept. at 931-9670.

Your request will be answered.

Thank you.

Families For Life Club News

by Doug Harknett

Last Thursday a bus load of members of Families for Life marched for life in Washington, D.C. and afterward lobbied their legislators to pass a Human Life Amendment. Dot Blair, organizer of the trip for the Hicksville area, and Peggy McGeary for the Bethpage area, reported that it was both exhilarating and exhausting, leaving at 6:30 AM and returning at 11:00 PM. They were joined by thousands of others from Long Island and tens of thousands from all over the nation.

According to Capitol police, about 60,000 right to lifeers appeared at the rally in what was scheduled to be a media and political event. The New York media barely covered the story. The day before, in a test of their intentions, United Press International in New York City was contacted to see if they were going to cover the story. They expressed complete ignorance, and then refused to take any information over the phone. They insisted it had to be in writing, and refused to hear anything further, and abruptly hung up. So much for the openness of the "free" press. One wonders if Mt. St. Helens notified UPI in writing before it erupted. Nevertheless, a telegram was immediately dispatched so that it would be officially on the record.

As a political event, the March was an outstanding success. The Helms-Dornan Human Life Amendment was introduced in both houses that day, and was co-sponsored by Sen. Al D'Amato and Representatives Carman, Lant, McGrath and Le Bouthillier, all from Long Island, as well as by many others. Each of these men graciously received the hordes of protesters who flooded the halls of Congress after the March.

And in the White House, President Reagan received a group of pro-life leaders and repeated that he was in favor of a Human Life Amendment. A TV shot of that meeting was shown by two stations in the New York area. That is to say, only two out of seven VHF stations. Apparently Reagan's endorsement wasn't newsworthy for the rest. However, most of the stations did carry some brief mention of the event, but they gave as much time or more to half a dozen or so pro-abortion demonstrators as to the 60,000 pro life marchers.

The lack of proper news coverage by the (Eastern Liberal) media is an old story to right to lifeers. There was even a time when pro-life money wasn't good enough to pay for an ad in the New York Times and the Washington Post. However, over the years some influential newsmen and newswomen have changed their

ONE AND TWO AT FARMINGDALE

The Hicksville Yankees (boys born in 1965), returned to Farmingdale last weekend to participate in the quarter-finals of the Long Island Junior Soccer League's (L.I.J.S.L.) indoor tournament. The outdoor team was split into two teams and both teams qualified two weeks ago in the preliminary rounds. The two Hicksville teams were among eight that returned to play 3 rounds to decide the 4 semi-finalists. Once again, both Hicksville met and prevailed over their opponents to qualify for the semis.

The first team defeated North Shore (1-0), Massapequa (3-0) and Northport (2-1) and the second team was also undefeated with a win (Garden City 1-0) and two ties (Huntington 2-2, Massapequa A.C. 1-1). Since both teams came in first in their divisions, they did not have to meet each other in the semi-final. The first team defeated Huntington and the second team beat North Shore so the two teams would face each other in the Championship game.

The final match was a thriller with the second team being more hungry-jumping to a 2-0 lead in the first half on goals by Bobby Andrus and Steve Thompson. Adrian Pepi sent one of his rifle shots in a few minutes later for the first team and it was 2-1 at the half. After regulation time, the teams were tied at three, due in great part to several outstanding saves by Gene Tyranski. The next step was a five minute overtime to break the tie. The first team proved too much & quickly poured in three goals (Smyth, P. McGeough, Demarco) for a 6-3 victory. It was an exciting game - thoroughly enjoyed by players and spectators alike and coaches McHugh and Cresham were quite thrilled to take all the 'gold' home to Hicksville. Each boy received an individual trophy and the coaches were presented a large team trophy in memory of Carl Knoblach, after whom the tournament was named.

In all, the boys played 9 games; the first team won all 9 and scored 33 goals while giving up only 4 (three of them to their own teammates) and the second team had 5 wins, 3 ties and 1 loss (the final game) scoring 18 goals and yielding 12. It was a great tournament with quite a few close, action packed games and was a good warm-up for the North Babylon tournament next week and the Holy Trinity event in March.

Hurricanes Take First At Yorktown

The Hurricanes travelled to Yorktown, N.Y. on Jan. 10 and 11 for the Yorktown Indoor Tournament.

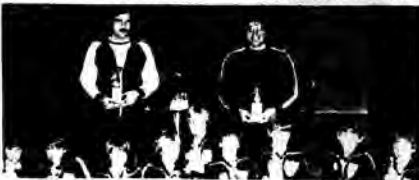

The competition was tough, including many Long Island teams that they meet in regular outdoor play.

In spite of being down a goal in many of their games, the boys never gave up. Their determination paid off with them losing only one game the entire weekend.

Forwards, Bobby Ladimir, Drew Donohue, Brian Garneto, David Kuck, and Chris

Planagan constantly attacked the opposing goal, while Stephen Pine, Matt Adelstein, and Chris Santarelli continually made excellent defensive maneuvers. Goalie Neil Cambrono was great, allowing only 3 goals in regular play.

The final was the most exciting seen in many games, with Hicksville vs. Massapequa. The score was tied at the end of regulation, as well as the two overtime periods. It came down to a shoot-out, which the Hurricanes won on the last shot.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

VENERABLE TONY PREVITE'S MESSAGE: Nothing is impossible... and if we have sufficient will we should always have sufficient means. - Proverb.

St. Valentine's Day heralds the advent of spring. The weather shows signs of change. The sun of winter seems warmer, making the days and nights a little more comfortable. Currents of warmer air start to seep through the cold earth. It affects us. It engulfs us. And as Mother Nature starts to thaw out, so do we. We feel a sense of exuberance and vitality and as we fight our way out of the doldrums of winter, we find our hearts gayer, our minds livelier and our spirits merrier. St. Valentine's Day, symbolized by the figure of the human heart, is a special day in our lives because it offers us a delightful opportunity to express and exchange the feelings of admiration for those whom we love.

If you are seeking a pleasant way in which to enjoy St. Valentine's Day, why not head for the Galileo Lodge on Saturday, the 7th of February, at which time it offers a Dance for all those who wish to immerse themselves in an atmosphere of love. For the modest sum of $8.50 per person, you will be offered a delicious chicken dinner, with all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and some lively dance music from the 'Now and Then' combo. Brother Jeff Wallick (681-8428), the chairman of this activity, reports that additional entertainment will be provided for those who attend. Assisting in the presentation of this dance will be Brothers Joe Morace (931-2548), Frank Malassa (931-2843) and Armand Del Cioppo (938-5052). Please note that a 'bring your own liquor policy' will be in effect that night. So why not come down to the Galileo Lodge with your loved one and enjoy the full meaning of St. Valentine's Day.

One small facet of democracy in action will be well in evidence on Thursday, the 12th of February, and I am referring, of course, to the election of officers of the Galileo Lodge. Actually, the voting will consist of filling the positions of Venerable and Trustees. That the election of officers is of paramount importance to the Galileo Lodge needs little verbiage here, especially if we consider the times in which we live, with double-digit inflation, high cost of living and an unstable world. Every member should exercise his right, duty and privilege to choose the officers who he feels can perform intelligently, effectively and diligently in order to bring the Galileo Lodge to the very pinnacle of social and fiscal success. But please remember that any member who is arrears in dues cannot vote, so please check your dues status and come down to the Galileo Lodge on the 7th and vote for the man of your choice.

Great coming events loom on the Spring horizon. For example, on the 21st of March, Saturday, The Galileo Lodge presents its St. Joseph's Dance, then on the 25th of April, Saturday, it offers its Anniversary Dance. On the 16th of May, Saturday, the Galileo Lodge presents its May Dance. More particulars on these coming attractions will be printed in future installments, so keep your eyes riveted to forthcoming issues of this publication, remember our motto, which is that we offer you the most for the least amount of money, and in these days that is news!

Hicksville Baseball Assoc.

By Carole Wolf

The Hicksville Baseball Association is proud to announce that the following businesses have agreed to sponsor a baseball team for the 1981 season (in alphabetical order): Thomas Dalton Funeral Home, Discount Liquors & Fine Wines, Harbor Distributors, George Malvese & Co.,

Meenan Oil, Northern 5 & 10 cent Stores, M. Solomon Insurance, Sparkling Beverages, Vernon Wagner Funeral Home and Walters Donaldson Volkswagen, Porche-Audi. The banners are being made that will be hung at the backstop during every game and these sponsors will receive two visits from their managers, as well as giving their team a name which will be used every week in the HERALD. If you have a business, think about joining these sponsors to provide good recreation for the children of Hicksville. The next open meeting of the Hicksville Baseball Association will be held on Thursday, February 19th at Levittown Hall. Vice-President Donna Rehman will be available to answer any questions. Remember to circle the April 18th date on your calendar for a special wine and cheese night. We take pride that the foundation of the Hicksville Baseball Association is an instructional league of seven year olds. As your child is learning how to bat, how to throw the ball and run the bases at the age of seven, in five years he might be a member of a major team just like the 1980 team which was the Major District 33 Champions. The HBA is also proud that our Pony's were 1980 Long Island Champions and our Connie Mach won the Season Division. We give boys and girls over 10 years of ball. Register with us on February 21 & 28.

And as you register, remember that your Mid Island Herald subscription will be coming due. Not only is the Herald the only place where you can follow your team week after week, but it is a source of local information during the whole year. The cost is 8 cents a week and not only will you be reading the latest in Hicksville news, but you will be contributing to a fund raiser. Renew your subscription.

Speakers from the floor included Mr. Glaser who asked if the Nassau County Dept. of Parks and Recreation could provide entertainment for the Nassau County patients at Pilgrim State Hospital in Suffolk County. He stated that residents of the A. Holly Patterson Home were entertained. The Board of Supervisors responded that such entertainment for Pilgrim State would have to be done on a volunteer basis.

Mr. Hammond spoke on fire prevention in County Buildings. He urged that fire extinguishers, fire pails and bulbs on exit lights be frequently checked to make sure that they are operable. He also showed the Board a device which may be attached to panic bars on coliseum doors, so they can not be opened from the outside. This device would only be used when there are no people in the buildings, except night watchmen or security officers.

included the entire remarks. If a neighbor accuses you of a violation, factual or not, you would fight to protect your $5,000 or $50,000 investment. Can you picture how hard a businessman would fight to protect his 2 million dollar investment, especially when little or no proof of a violation is available.

The law says innocent until proven guilty.

Last, but not least, I am surprised at the local press for printing such a article without identifying the writer. For all appearances, the writer could be politically motivated, or a citizen trying to force the Town to act illegally, or look bad.

Sincerely,
Thomas L. Clark
Councilman

Town of Oyster Bay

Dear Editor:
I was quite surprised by Councilman Clark's response to complaints by the Hicksville Citizens Alliance regarding the overgrown lots on West John Street.

As reported in last week's Herald, the Citizens Alliance is concerned about the threat to the safety of local residents posed by these lots, in an area where a woman was bludgeoned to death in October of 1979.

Councilman Clark's response was that the owners of the lot have a "constitutional right" to keep their property in the condition it is in.

Mr. Clark, that's just not true! No one has a "constitutional right" to keep their property in such condition that it poses a threat to the life, safety, or general health and welfare of other people.

The Town of Oyster Bay has already recognized the need to protect local residents in this regard in its "Dangerous Building" ordinance, Sections 6-70 through 6-89 of the Oyster Bay Town Code of Ordinances. Per that ordinance, the Town may require a property owner to properly repair or demolish and remove any structure or structures which "have become dangerous to life, safety, morals or the general health and welfare." If the property owner does not do so, the Town can itself effect the needed repair or demolition and recovery the cost of doing so from the owner of the property.

It would be a very simple matter for the Town to expand its "Dangerous Building" ordinance to cover dangerous empty lots as well. The Town could then require the owner of any empty lot that has become so overgrown, strewn with debris, etc., as to pose a threat to the health or safety of local residents to remedy the situation. If the owner does not do so voluntarily, the Town could take the necessary corrective action at the owner's expense.

It's a relatively simple solution, and one that requires no more from the Town than the expansion of an existing ordinance. More to the point, it requires greater imagination and energy from our Town Fathers in responding to the legitimate complaints of local residents. How about it Councilman Clark?

Very truly yours,
Michael Polansky
