County Allocates $1 Million For Extension Of Duffy Ave.

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor Joseph Colby announced that plans for the extension of Duffy Avenue in Hicksville received a $1 million shot in the arm due to action taken by the Nassau County Board of Supervisors.

"The eastern extension of Duffy Avenue to allow it to intersect with Broadway should help ease traffic congestion in that business section," Colby said. "Councilman (Thomas) Clark worked with me and County officials for months to bring this about and the action of the Board of Supervisors in approving a $1 million allocation for this extension should start it toward becoming a reality."

Colby noted that Duffy Avenue currently dead-ends just east of Newbridge Road. "Under the extension plan, it will continue east through Jerusalem Avenue and out to Broadway, where it will line up with Gebhardt Plaza (East Marie Street) to provide a more direct route for east-west traffic through this busy section."

In examining the Duffy Avenue extension, Councilman Clark had predicted that it would promote proper development in the area while at the same time decrease traffic congestion.

The capital expenditure authorization approved by the Board of Supervisors allows the engineers to design the extension but actual work is not anticipated to begin until next year.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

VENERABLE TONY PREVITE'S MESSAGE:
"People will listen a great deal more patiently when you explain your mistakes than when you explain your successes."

The membership rolls of the Galileo Lodge grow steadily, a condition indeed not unusual in view of its progressively-modern attitudes and highly estimable social values, which climb rapidly to new heights of amazement regardless of your station in life, your occupation or avocation, your professional standing, your ideals and ambitions, the Galileo Lodge has something to offer you. The Galileo Lodge caters to your needs, and it can tailor its policies to suit your most discerning tastes. The Galileo

Lodge epitomizes such conditions as diversification and versatility just as it prides itself in its humanistic approach to organizational excellence. CALL 931-9351 and inquire for yourself exactly what the Galileo Lodge stands for.

The month of April rapidly moves into obscurity. And before you know it, the Galileo Lodge's May Dance, scheduled for Saturday, the 16th of May, will be upon us. from the Diatonos. Hard-working Mary Monteforte of the Ladies Auxiliary will 'chair' this dance and she will be aided by her equally hard-working co-Chairladies, Ann Palermo and Sue Lurenti. Mary Monteforte (938-6454) can also be reached during the Galileo Lodge's Bingo sessions every Wednesday night, from 6 to 9:00 P.M., for ticket sales and seating arrangements. Or you can call any of these committee people at 931-9351. A 'bring-your-own-liquor' policy will be in effect that night, and I might say, as I usually do, that the Galileo Lodge will have a fantastically eye-appealing 'summery' look that evening. Imagine all this and the congenial atmosphere served up by the performance-minded Ladies Auxiliary.

Please note some changes in the presentation of the Galileo Lodge's 15th Anniversary Dance, scheduled for Saturday, the 25th of April. A change in menu will offer you a cocktail hour, a delicious Italian dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, unlimited liquor and the

Hicksville's Leadership Heritage

By Howard Finnegan

For all the encounters he had with governors, mayors and legislators, it was for Robert Moses, as he rose before a distinguished audience at Jones Beach to honor his master building, on his ninetieth birthday, that "dam Dentist" from Hicksville who, after sixty years, still vexed him most. This crusty remark tickled many in the long standing Hicksville community - as "that Dentist" was Hicksville Civic Leader, Dr. Elwood E. Curtis. He was a citizen of the highest caliber.

Involved in Civic, cultural, business and athletic activities he sacrificed wealth, energy and time to forward his community.

He fought Moses and New York City's Tammany Hall in the attempt to annex the oceanfront land which was to become Jones Beach.

He led and rallied support to convince New York State to take control and build a State Park on the gleaming stretch of sand.

He also persuaded the State to reserve a special beach exclusively for the use of the people of the township of Oyster Bay.

It stands to this day as Tobay Beach.

He also affected a transfer of land for the owners of Old High Hill Beach securing space at Gilgo and West Gilgo.

Curtis was a true ecologist. He persistently fought Moses on preservation of the shoreline, wildlife and general aesthetics.

After graduation from Princeton in early 1900 he opened a flourishing practice in an office overlooking the Town Square.

He met and married the gracious Anna Voight, daughter of a leading local lumber merchant.

Home was a stately house on West Nicholas St., graced with an enormous porch with large white columns.

Three children were reared within its walls.

It was there that Moses and leading politicians attended the successful Curtis Annexation dinners.

Anna started the Hicksville Choral Society in the home. It was later to evolve into the Long Island Choral Society. In wide demand, the high point of the year were concerts at the Cathedral of the Incarnation, Garden City, and Christmas at the Jones Institute.

At Christmas, the house was decorated gaily with bright lights, rare for the depression years. A lighted Santa at the chimney and giant tree on the porch delighted people who travelled many miles to see the pleasant holiday decor.

Splendid Teas were given after recitals at the house. In fact, through the years, it became a community social center.

The Doctor's hobby was raising prize poultry for show. His Rock Barred chicken strutted with character. The plumage was magnificent!

Top prize in the 1934 Chicago International Exposition went to the pleased Doctor. Many awards followed with perinial Blue Ribbons garnered at the Long Island Agriculture Society's Minnesota Fair.

Voters approved construction of the first Hicksville High School in 1915. It was not to the Doctor's style nor location. He campaigned hard in Albany and finally convinced the State Education Commission to vacate the vote.

Ten years later, a new bright and airy high school was built on Jerusalem Ave. It was regarded as one of the most educationally functional and beautiful schools in America, of that day.

Of course, there were losses. He was not enchanted with the Public Library, the land cost and sprawling additions required rocked the community.

He had long service on the school board with several terms as President. Particular pleasure with that affiliation was chairmanship of the community honors for Miss Virginia Stolz, daughter of the late Anne Stolz. Virginia was chosen as the outstanding high school student in New York State by the Daughters of the American Revolution. She represented New York at the Annual Convention in Washington, D.C.

Curtis joined Virginia's principal, Miss Mabel R. Farley in extending the community's pride.

Saturdays during the Fall, Dr. and Mrs. Curtis returned from his beloved Princeton Football games with interest and generosity for the village youth.

He was an early organizer of the Hicksville Field Club. He had 50 yard-line reserved seats every Sunday in the now demolished ten thousand seat Hicksville Stadium. The Semi-pro gridgers in their heroic white satin uniforms won six straight Long Island Championships.

He also served on the Hicksville Draft Board. The respected Hicksville Businessmen's Association had Curtis as an ally. He demanded and received service for Hicksville from the Oyster Bay Town Board. The Hamlet's needs were never neglected.

HHS Has 39 Regents Scholars

Hicksville High School has produced 39 Regents Scholars this year. The awards become effective in the 1981-82 academic year. Each Regents Scholarship entitles the recipient to an award of $250 per year for up to five years of study at an approved undergraduate program in New York State.

The winners of these scholarships are the candidates who earned scores on either the American College Testing Program (ACT) Assessment or the College Board's Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) prior to October 22, 1980. Approximately 97,000 candidates in 1400 high schools statewide participated in the scholarship competition.

Hicksville High School's proud winners are: Michael Berman, James T. Boehm, Denise Boyajian, John Bradley, Barbara T. Conboy, James P. Devlin, Cindi DiMerzo, Brian S. Drier, David A. Essex, Geraldine J. Farley, Joseph Filazzola, Howard Friedman, Patricia M. Galkowski, Mary A. Glenn, Sharon M. Grace, Ellie R. Greenblatt, Gary Koutsoubis, Pamela K. Martin, Elizabeth C. Mascha, Karen H. Matiejak, Anne M. McEvoy, Renee L. Murch, Jerrell A. Nardiello, Paul A. Nealon, John R. Petra, John J. Rodney, David J. Rolland, Nancy J. Santoriello, Gina M. Sebestiano, Jay B. Silbergliet, Kenneth C. Smith, Robert H. Sokol, Thomas P. Solaski, Charles S. Squires, Alan H. Steinhauer, David Straub, Thomas Sullivan, Phillip G. Toole and Ann C. Trubinski.

The staff and children of Dutch Lane School, under the guidance of the Media Center and the Student Council, participated in the Campbell Soup Company's "Labels for Education" Program, the goal was to collect enough labels to obtain a tape recorder for the Student Council to use for their radio show. This goal was reached on the very exciting last day due to the spirit and cooperation of all. Over 300 labels were collected during the last week of the Campaign. A contest, sponsored by the PTA, for the class which collected the most labels, was won by Miss Kieley's morning Kindergarten class. Shown are Nicole Smith, Matt Zeray, Susan Scavo and Tom Newby of the Student Council packing the last of the labels with the help of Vanessa Grecco and James Murphy of Mrs. Kaitlin's 1st grade class. (Photo and Story by the Dutch Lane Media Center).

In the top picture Lieutenant Governor Mario Cuomo presented Eugene Reilly with a check for $50 in a recent awards ceremony held at Holy Trinity High School, Hicksville. Eugene, a sixth grader at St. Ignatius Loyola School, Hicksville, was the winner on his grade level in an essay contest sponsored by the Nassau/Suffolk Federation of Catholic School Parents. Over 5,000 essays from 48 schools were submitted on the topic, "What is a Family?" Mr. Cuomo gave the main address at the ceremony. His theme which stressed the great importance of the family in today's world was enhanced by the vivid personal family experiences he related.

Following Mr. Cuomo's presentation, Hugh Carroll, Superintendent of Schools of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, presented a plaque to Sister Alice Byrnes, Principal of St. Ignatius. The plaque will serve to commemorate the school's award winning participation. (In lower picture).

Cathy Lennox of Hicksville Junior High School wins first prize in the countywide poster contest sponsored recently by the United Cerebral Palsy Association of Nassau County for junior and senior high school students. The presentation was made at UCP NASSAU's 8th annual Youth Conference, dedicated this year to the 1981 International Year of Disabled Persons.

skills for seniors only had been offered and fifteen students participated. The canoe belonged to the teacher. The program was taught at J.F. Kennedy High School, in the swimming pool, but was subsequently discontinued because of broken pool tiles. The program lasted four weeks and culminated with a trip down the Delaware Water Gap.

Mr. Blum concluded his remarks saying the report "lacks creativity. There is no cardio-vascular unit or curriculum." He wanted to know what CAP (Cooperative Area Project to develop the physical education curriculum) would be working on during the summer. "More substance is needed," he suggested.

Mrs. Ravad felt the district was moving "in the right direction in adaptive physical education", but added that more should be done in the CPR unit.

Dr. Murray Low, a Plainview resident, felt that emphasis should be on "life-time, carry-over activities" such as tennis, skiing, jobbing and canoeing. He felt that these types of activities were excluded from the present curriculum.

In other business, President Alvin Delman announced his decision not to seek re-election on the Board. Mr. Delman recently was elected to the Nassau County BOCES Board of Education for a five-year term. He has been a Plainview-Old Bethpage board member for 18 years. Mr. Delman thanked "the district for allowing me to serve."

The next meeting is April 27 at Jamaica Avenue School, 7:30 p.m.

GALILEO LODGE

will be Joe Giordano (333-4555), assisted by Pete Massiello (938-4335) and Joe Morace (931-2548), and this committee, by the way, was responsible for the tremendous success of the St. Joseph's Dance. Tickets will sell at $15 per person. To enhance its proceedings, this dance will feature a big-money lottery, which is also a reminder for all members to turn in their lottery tickets, and it is suggested that all officers in attendance resort to formal attire. Jim Rerisi will handle the collection of lottery tickets (931-6100). All members are urged to attend this Anniversary affair because it commemorates the 11-year existence of the Galileo Lodge. So for an enjoyable and leisure-filled night, why not head for the Galileo Lodge on the date mentioned here.

LODGE TIDBITS:

Mr. and Mrs. Augie Riccardi Sr. have just returned from a pleasant two-week trip to Florida. They were equally overcome with joy as the news that their son Augie and his wife Marie were blessed with a beautiful new arrival. Congratulations from all of us here at the Galileo Lodge...The Commission for Social Justice (Grand Lodge State of New York, O.S.I.A.) will hold a Breakfast at the Holiday Inn, Hempstead, on the 3rd of May, from the hours 9:30 to 12:00 P.M. Fred Vevante of the Galileo Lodge (and head of the Hicksville Republican Club) proudly reports that his sister, Esther, a Script Supervisor for Universal Pictures, has labored on such films as "Masada", "Jaws 2", "Centennial" and "Peter and Paul". She also has a son attending the University of Hawaii, studying to be a doctor. Very fine news from a very nice family, and congratulations are in order from the Galileo Lodge.

FOUR INSTRUMENTALISTS from Lee Avenue School recently performed at the Nassau Music Educators Association All-County Elementary School Concert. These students were selected from the most talented and advanced students from Eastern Nassau County. From left, they are Jacqueline Singer, cello (Orchestra); Jennifer Tower, flute; Donna Petrocelli, clarinet; and Barbara Delgado, French horn (Band).

Their teacher, Mr. Donald Larsen, heartily congratulated the youngsters on their achievements.

At Burns Ave.

Mrs. Jeannette Wade's fourth grade class at Burns Avenue School presented an immigration fair last week, for fellow students, parents and community visitors. Enthusiastic youngsters dressed in native costumes of the countries they represented, and each lectured on the immigration of the peoples they portrayed.

One of the highlights of the fair was the huge floor map of the world, created by Mrs. Yolanda Grigg, visual arts specialist, and her students. Mrs. Grigg said that her participation in the fair was representative of the integrated arts program developed by Comprehensive Arts Supervisor Dr. Terrell Slackpole and his staff. The integrated arts concept encourages students to experience their learning not only through books but through cultural expression such as art, music, dance, etc.

Another highlight was the luncheon of foods of different countries, prepared by the parents of the fourth graders. Not only did the minds learn, but the stomachs did, as well!

On The Campus

Kenneth Bruder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Bruder of Cottage Blvd., HICKSVILLE, has been named to the Dean's List at Colby College. He is a senior majoring in chemistry and economics.

Andrea S. Jason, daughter of Mrs. Edith Jason of Gilbert Lane, PLAINVIEW, has been elected a member of the Vassar College Daisy Chain. She is a graduate of John F. Kennedy High School.

Jean Brewi of PLAINVIEW has been named to the Dean's List at SUNY Brockport. Jean is in the Nursing Program at Brockport.

Arlene Curth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Curth of East St., HICKSVILLE, has been named to the Dean's List at Susquehanna University.

Burns Avenue Immigration Fair: Mrs. Jeannette Wade's 4th grade students learned about immigration through a fun and interesting fair, at which students dressed in native costumes and lectured on the migratory history of peoples who came to the United States to resettle. Here, from left are Julie Zamora, Krista Russo, Tracey Seitz and Denise Sciarabassi, who spoke on Italy.

HJHS Battle Of The Sexes

The ninth grade boys of Hicksville Junior High School were once again victorious in the second Battle of the Sexes of 1980-81. The event was held a week ago, and was sponsored by the Student Council.

Although unsuccessful, the girls fielded a vastly improved team, according to Mr. William Owens, coordinator of student activities at Hicksville Junior High. "They gave the boys a tough time, especially in the obstacle course, which was so close that a tie had to be called. Both teams performed extremely well," Mr. Owens commented.

The proceeds from this well-fought "battle" will be used to offset the cost of the Ninth Grade Dance, which will be held in the junior high boys' gym on June 5.

Mr. Owens concluded, "Both teams are to be congratulated for their fine effort in making the evening most enjoyable for all those in attendance. It must be said that given this demonstration of school spirit, there are only winners in the Hicksville Junior High School."

Hicksville Hot Line

A few months ago, an information hotline was established by the Hicksville School District to help residents find out anything they would like to know about their schools and their district. Many calls have been received on a variety of subjects.

The taped message tells callers their inquiries will be answered within a few days, either in writing or by phone. The hotline will continue to operate, and residents are encouraged to call at any time with comments or questions.

As budget time draws near (the Board of Education has set June 10 for the vote), the community is urged to use this additional avenue of communication to clarify any questions about expenditures or programs that it may have.

The number is 733-2104, and may be called 24 hours a day.

have a "parade of champions" ... some years ago Charles Wagner Post sponsored a resolution which attempted to correct this situation by calling for an increase in the national per capita tax of an additional dollar to be used solely for the purpose of bringing all departmental uniformed groups champions to the national conventions free of cost ... this resolution got as far as a mid-winter conference at Albany and then died for lack of 421 personnel to pursue the issue ... This was about ten years ago and if the situation was in need of help at that time, consider how much worse things are today ... not to worry, there will be a national American Legion champion decided at each convention no matter where they're held but it will be the local corps who do not have to travel who will win it

On Wednesday night at the home of Director Bob Rothschild, the five farm teams and two instructional teams were picked by lottery. The farm managers Ralph Coppola, Tony LaViola, Glen Perloff, Bill Rizzo and Phil Savarese, and the instructional managers Vincent Luparello and Danny Rehman should have their teams on the field by the weekend (monsoons permitting). To the seven managers and the 76 boys, welcome to the baseball diamond. May you all have a successful year.

Because the Nassau County Police Sergeant's Test will be given on May 2nd, no parade permits are being issued. HBA will still have their parade, though. We will begin the parade on the school property near the old minor field opposite

Hicksville Baseball Association

Levittown Hall and march around the field. The official opening day ceremonies will take place at the major field and Ann Ocker, Town Clerk and Tom Clark, Town Councilman will be there. All parents are invited to attend on Saturday, May 2nd and then stay to see their child's first game of the season.

As of the April executive meeting, there are 322 families registered with the HBA, down from last year's total of 417. However, Ponies and Colts have yet to register. (Registration deadline for the older boys is May 7th.) This year we have 288 boys, down from 345, and 162 girls, up from 135. That is what is known as girl power.

The rules for the HBA leagues are being typed by the directors and will be presented to the board for approval on the 15th. I will bring them to you next week. League games will end by July 3rd, followed by playoffs. Little League Tournament will begin the week of July 13th. Bob Rothschild needs one boy either 8 or 9 years of age to become the 55th child in the farms. Bob is a very exacting person and would love to see 11 boys on each team, so if you see an 8 or 9 year old boy playing in the streets, lasso him and bring him over to 55 Ballpark Lane to register.

The subscriptions are slowly reaching the magical number of 100. We now have 86 with 14 more to go. Help us reach our goal while you read the local baseball news. Send your subscription today.

LEGIONNAIRE'S LOG

By Arlie Rutz

CHARLES WAGNER POST # 421
HICKSVILLE, N.Y.

"One Of The Grass Roots Of The American Legion"

After the last meeting, Tom Nikitas mentioned to me that he had some trivia for me and mentioned a picture of an early American Legion Drum & Bugle Corps complete with their World War I tin hats and long jackets and puttees. This immediately set the wheels in motion recalling traditionally, that the American Legion and pageantry have been synonymous without uniformed groups, parades and pageantry are out of the question. Yet today, too many American Legion Posts and Departments are allowing, and have allowed in recent years, their uniformed groups to dissolve, without encouragement, assistance or even a kind word in memoriam. But let's start at the beginning of the whole thing. Around 1921 The American Legion invented the drum corps, and perfected the beauty, excitement, and preciseness of the modern parade. Since that time we have been the unquestioned leader and staunchest supporter of amateur musical and drill units. As time went on, numerous improvements appeared in both the musical instruments and the showmanship quality of the drum corps. First came a change from the regulation bugle to the bugles with one or more valves. Then came change from the standard type of music played, to numbers thought impossible to be played by bugles. And then the corps were to increase their showmanship with intricate and precise marching and formations. Since the finest pageantry in the nation has consistently been an American Legion convention hallmark, at either local, state or national level, uniformed groups are American Legion "display cases" so to speak and at any level, they dramatize the American Legion's size, scope and substance to everyone within sight and sound. They afford everybody involved a sense of accomplishment, and a great deal of satisfaction and enjoyment and are one of the finest opportunities for post public relations. Today the cost of maintaining a first class drum corps makes it almost impossible for many post flight corps or departmental champions to meet in open competition at the national convention competition each year. Just the transportation costs alone, for example, say for a corps of 120 from Los Angeles to New York; their lodging for at least 3 days would bankrupt the sponsoring Post in short order. Some means of defraying the cost should be found so each Departmental champion can attend and compete at the national convention and we would truly

All-American Honors Go To Dolan

Another honor has been bestowed upon George Washington University freshman Theresa Dolan: in only her first year on the women's varsity soccer team Dolan has been named honorable mention to the team to be reckoned with next year.

To become an All-American is the highest recognition an athlete can earn, and Theresa should be proud of her accomplishment. Do not be surprised if next year her name will be among those on the first team.

Massapequa played the

A committee of eight coaches named 38 women to make up the first, second and honorable mention selections. Dolan, a resident of Hicksville, New York said, "I really didn't understand the significance of the award until everyone around campus started congratulating me, then I knew what a real honor it was."

The former Holy Trinity High School athlete played wherever Coach Rue Davidson needed the stability factor. Though Dolan played the sweep position much of the year, she was able to collect two assists in her limited action on offense.

In only the first year of soccer at GW, the women surprised everyone, except themselves, as they notched a 4-3 regular season record. According to Davidson much of the credit goes to Dolan. "She was the dominant figure on the field, whether controlling the defense or on occasional offensive thrusts," the coach said.

In addition to her dominant individual play, Dolan is the on-the-field quarterback, directing traffic and keeping teammates alert. Coach Davidson sums it up best, "She exemplifies to me what an All-American should be."

As far as next year, the shy freshman says, "To become an All-American is definitely a goal, but not at the top of my list. I'd rather win and go to regionals than make All-American." If Theresa has anything to do with it, the Colonial Women will be a

Old Westbury Gardens Opens

Old Westbury Gardens thrives today as it did in the early part of the 20th century when it was built as a private residence to recreate an 18th century English country estate. Opened to the public as a non-profit horticultural garden and museum in 1959, it has been offering visitors a view of the grandeur associated with Long Island. It is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

The spring visitor will be greeted by 70 acres of rolling meadows, green lawns and formal gardens. Masses of golden daffodils, tall, stately tulips and colorful primroses adrift in a sea of blue forget-me-nots are a few of the floral delights to be savored. A secluded path winds around a mirrored lake, past nesting Canada geese and across a hillside strewn with awakening wildflowers and native ferns.

A visit to Westbury House provides an opportunity to see an important collection of 18th and 19th century European furnishings and paintings in the more intimate surroundings of a home. The collection includes fine examples of furnishings in the Georgian, Queen Ann, Chippendale, Hepplewhite and Adam traditions. Paintings include works by Joshua Reynolds, Thomas Gainsborough, Henry Raeburn, and John Singer Sargent.

Old Westbury Gardens will open for the season on Saturday, April 25th. Hours are Wednesday through Sunday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission to Gardens is: $3.00 for Adults, $1.00 for Children (6-12). Admission to Westbury House is an additional $2.00 for Adults, and $1.00 for Children (6-12). Senior Citizens admission is $2.00 for the House and Gardens. Group rates are available.

For further information and membership information please call 333-0045.
