The weather held out for the 53rd annual Labor Day Parade and Drill. Chairman, Lt. R. Chiz, Co-Chairman E. Pietzak reported a "full house" at the drill. Both the parade and drill were well attended by thousands.

Several fights by local youth and inexcusable behavior marred the otherwise smooth-running drill.

Hicksville Kiwanians Have A Busy Meeting

The first Wednesday of the month is the scheduled business meeting of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club. However, the September 2 meeting produced some pleasant variations.

Past Lieutenant Governor "Bill" Nielson, of the Long Island North Division, visited the club to make some presentations.

First, since Past President Dr. "Phil" Rubenstein, now a resident of Deerfield Beach, Florida, was making his annual visit to Hicksville, Bill presented Phil with a 26 year perfect attendance "tab" to be worn with Phil's Legion of Honor Kiwanis Pin.

The second presentation was made to Vice President Charles Montana, Jr., in the form of a "Distinguished Secretary Certificate" in recognition of his service to the Installing Officer.

The cost is $17.50 per person and includes cocktails, music, dancing and a buffet supper.

Town Board Approves First "R-O" Zone

Oyster Bay Town Councilman Salvatore R. Mosca announced Town board approval of a request for a change of zone from "D" residence to "R-O" residence-office for a one-family home located on the north side of Garden Street and the west side of South Oyster Bay Road in Hicksville.

Mosca said that "this was the first application that the Town Board has heard which requested the R-O zone. In this particular instance, the use of the building will be limited by covenants to two doctors, two nurses and to one non-professional worker."

Mosca added that in addition there are 11 other covenants and restrictions placed on the property, controlling office hours, parking, landscape screening, signs and the outdoor storage of materials and equipment, among others.

Old Time Country Fair

Hicksville Public Library Old Time Country Fair will be held on Friday, October 2, Saturday, October 3 and Sunday, October 4, library hours.

In 1970 the first Hicksville Library Old Time Country Fair was held. The library has held one every year since then with the exception of 1980 when an elevator was installed to relieve architectural barriers in the library.

The Hicksville Library Fair is a most comprehensive display of art, crafts and all types of handwork in one place at one time for exhibition only. Entries include knitted afghans, photographs, handmade baby clothes, carved wooden decoys, stained glass hangings, giant garden vegetables, hand hooked rugs, jelly and jams, oil paintings, embroidered doilies, crocheted coats to name a few of the objects that our talented neighbors enter in our Fair.

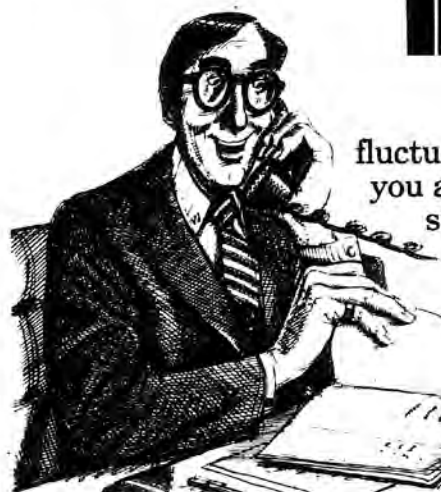

All entries are judged by agents of the Cooperative Extension of Nassau County.

CHEMICAL ANNOUNCES AN INTEREST RATE THAT HASN'T CHANGED IN YEARS.

At a time when interest rates seem to fluctuate by the hour, Chemical can assure you a rate of interest that's been steady for a very long time.

The interest we take in our customers.

You see, at Chemical-Long Island, we believe that knowing a customer's needs means getting to know the customer. Which is why the people who work here go out of their way to answer questions, make suggestions, or even just make conversation.

It's also why you'll notice that most of the people you see at our branches have been working there for years. Branch managers who know you by name. Tellers who take deposits and still take the time to say hello. And loan officers who care enough to call you at home, just to lend you an ear.

All in all, Chemical Bank has an exchange rate with customers that passes the test of time.

And when it comes to banking, that holds a lot of people's interest.

THE CHEMISTRY'S JUST RIGHT AT CHEMICAL.

Dear Friends . . .

Congratulations to the Ladies Auxiliary of the Hicksville Fire Dept., who have to date accumulated the highest number of points in Nassau County for this year for their excellent appearance and marching ability. This means that once again they will be winning top honors in our County, in this category.

As to the tournament itself, you can read the details on page one of our Hicksville edition. Although the crowd control of the stands and drill areas was handled well by our fire dept., groups of motor cyclists and some other groups moved to other adjacent areas near the pool and the areas close to the neighboring homes, with disastrous results, which are presently being investigated by those in authority.

One thing that this did prove, however, was that this particular site is not at all suitable for our annual Labor Day Fire Dept. activities, because crowd control, for two years now, has not been possible.

Years ago when stores did not find it necessary to be open on practically every day of the year, the Mid Island Plaza was a perfect place to hold this tournament, with adequate parking and space for events. We do not know what the solution will be but one certainly must be found so that we can still have this popular annual event in Hicksville.

In Plainview, the schools opened on Wednesday, although negotiations are still going on and teachers are working without a contract at present. For details see story on page one of our Plainview edition.

THAT'S ALL for this week. Stay well.

admission will be $9 per person, a modest sum which entitles you to a delicious home-styled dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake and music presented by a leading disc jockey. Rehearsals take place every Tuesday night, from 8 to 10, at the Galileo Lodge, and all those who wish to expand on their comedic talents can contact Sue and Mary at the numbers listed above. Note that this affair adheres to a "bring-your-own-liquor" policy, and that the dinner starts at the hour of seven, followed by the show.

First of all, the price of admission to the 7th Anniversary Dance will be $15 per person, not the price that was erroneously stated in last week's column. For this modest fee, you will be offered an appetizing cocktail hour, followed by a

This dance, as previously stated, marks the seventh year that the Ladies Auxiliary have been an enjoyable and exciting supplement to the Galileo Lodge and its activities. This dance, obviously, is being held by the Ladies Auxiliary, and their reputation for excellence and meticulousness in the planning of their affairs is well known throughout the community. Tuesday, September 8, two new parking lots opened in Hicksville, on the north side of the railroad station, west of Wyckoff Street. Both are accessible from West Barclay Street, and will provide 354 parking spaces away from the heart of our home area.

I started work on this project some three years ago, with the final concept to get the commuter cars out of Downtown Hicksville.

Since it is profitable for the businessman in the Downtown area to level his property, and convert it into a parking lot, why should he build a structure, and pay additional taxes and upkeep? I do not want to see our prime land area a series of private commuter parking lots. This real estate should be developed to its fullest potential resulting in benefits to the Hicksville taxpayers.

For example, the building currently under construction, across from our existing Town parking structure on Newbridge Road and Duffy Avenue, will provide its own employee parking consisting of approximately 980 spaces. I personally initiated this development over three years ago, and have been following it through, step by step, year after year, with continual and consistent involvement.

One of the ways to keep pace with the high cost of education, is to promote growth by expanding the tax base, and increasing the value of vacant land. The two new parking areas in West Barclay and West John Streets will light up, and clean up property that was overgrown, dark, and unsightly for years with FOR SALE signs, and no takers. West John and West Barclay are starting to shape up, and look better.

This is all part of why I became involved in Govern-

Congratulations to Stanford Weiss who was re-elected Hicksville Water Commissioner. Sam has donated his services and talents to the betterment of our community for many, many years.

He was born in Hicksville; attended the now defunct Nicholas Street School; married his wife, Kitty, 53 years ago; raised two children, and is past president of the Lions Club; member of the Manetto-Hill Lodge of Masons for over 25 years; served over 50 years as a member of the Hicksville Fire Department; is a Hicksville Republican Committeeman, and has been a Hicksville Water Commissioner for over ten years. We're all proud of you, Sam, for many jobs "well done."

Don't forget to come to our Club meeting September 11, 8:30 p.m. at the VFW Hall, 320 Broadway, Hicksville.

Our keynote speaker will be Peter T. King, Nassau County Comptroller. Pete is running for election to his post. He will present his viewpoint and background to support his credentials for election to the position of Nassau County Comptroller. To be informed, to be enlightened, to be active in community affairs, come to our meetings. You will see your friends and neighbors there enjoying themselves and listening to interesting programs pertinent to our community, county, state and nation.

PLEASE TELL ME:
Q - Who will remove the tree branches that are blocking my street light?

A - Call the Town of Oyster Bay Highway Department at 922-5800—they will take care of this for you.

Q - The sump near my home is in a decrepit condition. I don't know to whom I should report this matter.

A - Some of the sumps are under the jurisdiction of Nassau County; some are under the jurisdiction of New York State; and some are the responsibility of the Town of Oyster Bay Highway Department. First check to see if there is a sign near the sump indicating the agency that is responsible for its upkeep. If you cannot locate this identification, then call the Town of Oyster Bay Department of Public Works at 922-5800.

Q - Several times I have noticed street lights broken or burnt out. Eventually they are repaired, but I have wondered whom I should call to report these outages.

A - The Town of Oyster Bay Lighting Department will be able to provide assistance in this matter. However, they need to know if the street light is mounted on a wooden pole or a metal pole. In addition, please furnish them with the number of the house located nearest the street light in question.

Q - I'm a newcomer to the area and would like to go clamming. Do I need a permit to do so and if so, where do I go?

A - The Town of Oyster Bay requires all residents who wish to take shellfish—clams, mussels, oysters, etc.—from our waters to have a permit. This may be obtained at the Town Clerk's Office, Oyster Bay Town Hall, Audrey Avenue, between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. weekdays. Applicants at Oyster Bay will have their photo taken there. The non-commercial permit fee is $3. The permits are restricted to Oyster Bay Town residents only.

Oyster Bay Town Dems Hear County Chairman Contenders

More than 100 Town of Oyster Bay Democratic committee people were on hand to hear the five contenders for the post of Nassau County Democratic Chairman, at a forum held in the VFW Hall in Hicksville on September 3.

The five would be County Chairmen—Eugene Bechtle of Rockville Centre, Walter Lowerstein of Jericho, Martin Mellman of Great Neck, David Peirez of Great Neck, and John Reddan of West Hempstead—each in turn gave the audience a summary of their background and qualifications for the post and their plans for the County Democratic Party. REHEARSING: Janet Rosano of Plainview and Melissa Shienwald of Hicksville are seen rehearsing for Gray Wig's upcoming production of "The Music Man", the musical "love story" written by Meredith Wilson and lyrics written by Meredith Wilson.

Melissa will appear in the "Music Man" chorus and will also act as Amoryll's understudy. Although this marks her debut with Gray Wig, Melissa is no stranger to the stage. She has sung and danced her way through such productions as "Way Down South", "The Princess, the Poet and the Little Gray Man" and "Flower Drum Song".

Ms. Rosano is a former, long-time resident of Plainview. She is a fourth grade teacher and secretary of the Gray Wig Executive Board. Janet has previously danced and sang her way through such productions as "Anything Goes", "How to Succeed", "Carousel", "Oklahoma" and "Sweet Charity". She is best known for her memorable performance as Hadel in "Fiddler on the Roof".

Six performances are scheduled in the John Cranford Adams Playhouse of Hofstra University as follows: Friday, September 11 and 18, Saturday, September 12 and 19 at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday, September 13 and 20 at 3 p.m. Tickets are priced at $7 for each performance, and at $5 for students, children and senior citizens. For ticket reservations call the Playhouse Box Office at 560-3283.

4 H Pathways To The Future

Throughout the month of September many projects completed by local 4H members will be on display at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library On September 17th, at 8 PM an informative meeting will be held at the Plainview Library to answer all questions about this unique learning program called 4H.

October 5th marks the beginning of NATIONAL 4H WEEK - One week in which 4H children are recognized for their accomplishments throughout the year. Our 1981 National theme is 4H- "Pathways to the Future." All around the Hicksville-Plainview area and virtually every community in the County, youth are learning to take care of other children, preparing nutritious meals, learning to make interesting crafts, and to build energy saving devices.

The professional 4H staff, train adult volunteers who in turn teach boys and girls with whom they work. An important strength of 4H is the relationship it has with Cornell University from which it derives informational and educational support. We encourage self-achievement and the concept of "learning by doing."

Make this your best year ever! Stop by the Plainview Library on Sept. 17th. Find out more about 4H.

Also, don't miss the display booth 4H will have at the Long Island Fair, which will be Oct. 9-12, 1981 at the Old Bethpage Village Restoration.

Singing Boys Of Long Island

The Singing Boys of Long Island is in the process of recruiting members for its preparatory choir between the ages of 8 to 18. This choir is open to any musical boy from Long Island.

The Singing Boys of Long Island is a non-profit, non-denominational choir of boys whose ages range from 8 to 18. They have travelled extensively both abroad and at home. Each summer they travel to a foreign country. This past summer the choir spent three weeks in Spain and Morocco.

The Singing Boys of Long Island promote both a better understanding of fine music and the greater facility in the factors associated with sound musicianship and skill in music reading.

Rehearsals will be held as follows: Hicksville, Valley Stream and Manhasset.

For further information please contact Mr. Gerald Baker, telephone number, 731-0298.

Firemen's Benefits Extended

An extension of benefits for volunteer firemen will be the result of action taken by the Legislature during the 1981 session announced Assemblyman Fred Parola.

Parola said, "New York's 150,000 volunteer firemen and women make a vital contribution to the safety and welfare of the state's citizenry. Staffing approximately 1,400 of the 1,900 fire departments statewide, volunteers constitute 90 percent of all firefighters in the State.

It is estimated that between three and four volunteers are the equivalent of one paid fireman. Given this equivalence and the prevailing wage and benefit rates, volunteer firemen provide communities in New York State with a $1 billion savings in personnel costs.

Legislation passed by both houses during the 1981 session indicates a growing concern on the part of Albany lawmakers with the problems volunteer firemen experience.

The Governor recently signed into law a bill to increase from $1,250 to $1,500 the maximum allowance for funeral expenses to families of volunteer firemen killed while on duty.

I was pleased to see the passage and signing into law of the so-called "Heart Law Extension" which expands for an additional two years the presumption that heart disabilities incurred by policemen and firemen are job-related and entitle them to accidental disability retirement benefits.

Legislation has been signed into law which, in addition to establishing a uniform fire prevention and building code, requires increased fire safety in places of public assembly. It was drafted in response to recent fires in hotels, motels and restaurants, occurring in New York and other states which have taken a toll in property damage and, more tragically, in lives.

Scheduled to go into effect Jan. 1, 1984, the legislation provides the public with protection during the interim. Municipalities lacking a building or fire prevention code will be required to adopt existing codes by March 1, 1982.

The measure authorizes local governments to administer and enforce the new code with the Secretary of State empowered to assist municipalities financially in such administration. Funds will be distributed through a formula based upon both the population of the local government and the full value of real property within that government.

Local governments may, through contractual agreements, join with other local governments or with the county enforcing the fire prevention and building code.

The uniform code will address standards for building construction, standards for passenger elevators and public assembly criteria, including fire protection systems and classification and maintenance of interior finishes. This last area of concern will permit regulation of materials and mandated use of finishes which will retard smoke and flame when fire does occur in a structure.

The interim standards, relating to areas of public assembly, will apply to buildings whose construction or renovation begins after April 1, 1982, and will be administered by local governments. All public assembly provisions will be incorporated into the uniform code on Jan. 1, 1984.

Also provided by the fire prevention and building code is creation of a 17-member council consisting of representatives of state and local government, fire services and the construction industry.

The council will publicize the new state uniform fire prevention and building code and also develop and periodically review it, assuring that provisions and regulations are kept updated.

While I cannot claim this law by itself will be sufficient for dealing with those types of fires which have destroyed places of public gathering and taken lives, it does put New York State on the right path in providing needed fire prevention regulations.

Considering that the conscientious men and women involved in fire protection throughout New York State provide an invaluable service, it is fitting that the Legislature assist their efforts through the passage of these bills.

Undetected Alcoholics Occupy 20% Of Nation's Hospital Beds

Twenty percent of all patients occupying hospital beds in the United States are not being treated for their real problem - alcoholism, Joseph A. Pursch, M.D., a member of the President's Commission on Alcoholism, said during a Philadelphia press conference today.

"Alcoholics and problem drinkers are being treated, but they are being treated for alcohol-related problems - gastroenteritis, liver disease, heart muscle ailments, broken bones, burns - rather than the underlying disease, alcoholism," Dr. Pursch explained. "The average alcoholic spends a lifetime in and out of hospitals for alcohol-related problems, but is almost never treated for alcoholism."

Dr. Pursch, medical director of Comprehensive Care Corp. (CompCare), the nation's largest private provider of alcoholism treatment, points out that most physicians and most hospital personnel have not been trained to "diagnose alcoholism in its early and middle stages; therefore, they treat patients only for the medical complications of the disease."

"Sadly, this approach offers only temporary relief from the ailments while the alcoholism worsens. This deterioration continues until the afflicted person either discovers he or she is a victim of alcoholism and seeks treatment or dies," Dr. Pursch added.

Known as the "alcohol doctor," Dr. Pursch has treated alcoholics for more than 20 years, including Former First Lady Betty Ford, Billy Carter, Sen. Herman Talmadge and astronaut Edwin "Buzz" Aldrin.

Alcoholism and problem drinking afflicts some 14 million adults and adolescents in the United States and is growing by some 398,000 new cases annually,

Dr. Pursch pointed out. Some 85 percent of these people do not receive any treatment for their alcoholism, although they frequently are treated for the medical complications of the disease. Once hospitalized for liver, gastrointestinal and other alcohol-related ailments, they stay from 15 to 69 percent longer in the hospital than non-alcoholic patients would.

"Alcohol-related problems cost this nation $65.5 billion annually, and $12.9 billion of that figure is for hospital care," Dr. Pursch said.

He stressed that hospitals can substantially reduce the high costs of alcoholism to society by having a staff trained to diagnose alcoholism and problem drinking, by utilizing newly formulated laboratory screening techniques for detecting alcoholics, and by providing treatment which includes both detoxification and therapy programs. If the hospital is unable to provide treatment, the staff has a responsibility to refer patients to a quality treatment program.

Sharing the lectern with Dr. Pursch was Sister Irene Kraus, D.C., outgoing chairman of the Board of Trustees for the American Hospital Association and president of Providence Hospital in Washington, D.C. She urged hospitals to be more responsive to the needs of the communities they serve.

"One of those needs is providing specialized and comprehensive alcoholism treatment," she said. "Our hospital has had an effective alcoholism treatment unit for three years. The CARE-UNIT has treated almost 1,500 people with alcohol and related drug problems and has a 60 percent recovery rate. That means that we alone have been responsible for helping some 900 people lead healthy, normal and alcohol-free lives. Think of how many more people could be helped if hospitals not offering treatment began doing so. Think of all the problem drinkers and their families who would be spared the physical, emotional and financial burdens that alcoholism imposes."

1981 Friends Academy Football

The Friends' Academy footballers have just completed their special training camp held on the Quakers newly expanded campus.

This is the twelfth year that the Friends team is under the direction of Varsity Coach Joe Umbria (Woodbury).

When questioned on his squad this year Joe's capsule appraisal was - "I like what I see but I wish that we had more."

The 1981 Friends football team, determined to make up for last year's poor record will be led by tri-captains - senior tight-end Chip Sealy (Glen Head), senior wing-back Dale Shaddock (Bayville) and junior tailback Rob Miller (Merrick).

The line will be anchored by lettermen led by Stefan Tufano (Glen Head), a senior, sophomore guard Glenn Lostritto (Glen Head) and junior guard Gordon Ifill (Dix Hills). Junior tackles Chris Dunlay (Dix Hills) and Buddy Coleman (Port Washington). Junior Matt Ryan (Glen Head) has the ability to really help at any position up front.

Quarterbacking is in the capable hands of senior Steve Titus (Glen Head) and Junior Jim Cerny (Jamaica Estates). The receivers will be led by junior Rich Pecoraro (West Hempstead) and Junior Phil Hamilton (Huntington). The running backs are led by sophomore Frank Zecca (Huntington Station), senior Mike Reid (Hempstead) and sophomore Reggie Odom (Hempstead).

The Quaker coaching staff, in addition to Head Coach Umbria includes Alan Quackenbush (East Meadow), Rick Sullivan (Huntington) and Jeff Cutts (Locust Valley) - the latter is also coach of the freshman football team.

As indicated above, the Friends squad could be larger for the Fall football season but recently after a strenuous camp session

Coach Umbria said "Our team is ready to win."

Legionnaires' Log By Richard Evers

This week's Tuesday social meeting was marked by a fine report by Boy's State representative, Vaughn Burke, of Holy Trinity High School. Accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Burke of Roosevelt, Vaughn was given a tour of the Charles Wagner Clubhouse. He so impressed our members with his poise, voice and command of the language, that P.C. Dick Hochbreuckner, Department of New York American Legion Oratorical Contest Chairman, lost no time in "selling" the young man on the idea of taking part in the 1981 Oratorical Competitions. Vaughn had the distinction of being selected as the State Party Chairman for the Federalist Party at the Boys State Convention, in June, and was also elected a State Senator. This was the finest achievement ever by a candidate we have sponsored, and we have sent some choice boys up to Morrisville from the Hicksville High! Our thanks again to Principal Father Seidenschwang of Holy Trinity High for recommending Vaughn on such short notice.

In sad contrast to the pleasure of the above meeting, is the news that John Spinella, a long-time member of the post, died this week of cardiac arrest, at age 65. John is remembered for his frequent service to the post during the 'Fifties and for preparing many a zesty Italian meatball dinner for our parties in later years. The members of the post held a memorial service for their congenial comrade at Wagner's Funeral Home, on Wednesday evening. We extend sincere condolences to his family on their loss.

The current membership drive has brought in the dues of 177 legionnaires. This is good, but not nearly notable. Come on fellows, get that $8 to Ray Gamble this week, while you are reminded... That was quite an ovation the Color Guard got, going by the reviewing stand for its super appearance in the German-American Week Parade, August 30, kicking off Holy Trinity's grand annual Octoberfest. The marching was not as easy in the Labor Day Parade. For all their expertise and precision, the St. Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps are not an easy band to march behind or in front of too quick a beat for men trained in the military

Frank Molinari reports that in firmity, age and job needs have cost him three stalwarts. He need a few new standard bearers and rifle-men. Frank's phone number is 935-1934. The Color Guard is set to take part in Oyster Bay's 80th Anniversary of Teddy Roosevelt Becoming President, on Sept. 20, and the day before, is Mineola's 75th Anniversary.

Dates and Coming Events: Post Executive Committee Meeting Sept. 19, the same day - important Legion Zone Meeting of key Legion chairmen, at noon, at Amityville Post; Monthly Suffolk State visit is Saturday, Sept. 12, leaving post at 12:30; Next Business Meeting is Sept. 21... Las Vegas Nite is Sept. 26th and we'll need workers to set up Sept. 25... Not too early to make plans for the Halloween Dance on Oct. 31. Call Al Cinotti (796-6268) for reservations; $20. a couple for usual fun night of music, eats and free beer. Hang in there, gang. Artie Rutz will take over penning the Log, Sept. 21.

CAPA Fall Brochure Available

By TOB Supervisor Joseph Colby

For the past fifteen years, the Department of Community Services, Division for Cultural and Performing Arts (CAPA) has offered Town residents the opportunity for educational and cultural enrichment by providing a broad spectrum of programs designed to interest every age group in our Town.

Programs are offered at moderate cost, at easily accessible facilities, throughout the Town during day and evening hours to give residents the opportunity to participate in as many different workshops as their individual schedules allow. Registration is a simple matter. Mail-in registration forms are printed on the last page of the CAPA Fall Brochure, which is now available at libraries, Town Hall and both Town Hall annexes.

Residents are certain to find workshops of interest from among the many offerings for this Fall. Courses run the gamut from Art (watercolor, calligraphy, portrait painting) to Crafts (dressmaking, crewel, quilting) to Current Events, Dance, Games (bridge), Literature, Personal Interests (interior decoration, antiques) to Physical Fitness (dancersize, Hatha Yoga.)

Courses are offered at the Syosset/Woodbury Community Park Center, at the Marjorie R. Post Community Center and at the John J. Burns Park Marine Building, as well as at library facilities and banks in various communities.

An interesting variety of programs are offered for children and teens at the Syosset/Woodbury Community Center. The fee is $20 for ten sessions, beginning on October 1, with twenty-two different workshops offered - one or more of which will surely interest your children. Included are such programs as Cool Kids Cookery for youngsters aged 5-7, and a Kitchen Wizards Class for children aged 8-12. Many art courses are offered, as well as dance, guitar, and physical education classes including baton twirling and gymnastics. For the budding scientist in your family, a science enrichment program for three age groups is available to help develop your child's understanding of plant and animal life, astronomy, nutrition, first aid, energy conservation and weather. The children and teen programs are offered during late afternoon, early evening and Saturday hours that won't interfere with "homework" assignments.

The Fall CAPA Brochure lists many more interesting workshops and programs than I could possibly write about in this column.

Reps And Dems To Meet Head On In Swim Contest

Just days after making a big splash with voters in the primary, Nassau Republican and Democratic candidates will test the waters in a swim contest in the Mid-Island YM & YWHA's new olympic size swimming pool.

Nassau G.O.P. Chairman Joseph Margiotta and Democratic Chairman Stanley Harwood will be on hand as captains of their respective teams when the event gets underway at 11:30 A.M. on Tuesday, September 15th at the Y, 45 Manetto Hill Road, Plainview.

In announcing the event, called the Polympics, Y President Norma Feinsod said that this will be one of the first events held in the Y's $4 million Health & Physical Education wing which includes indoor racquetball courts, jogging track, gymnasium, steam-rooms and sauna.

Both Margiotta and Harwood are hand-picking the members of their swim teams and both promise to select the brightest and best stars on the political waters. United Jewish Y President Al Levy said that this competition is expected to be the first time that candidates will be meeting in head-to-head competition since the primary and he promises that it will be a "whale of a good time."

Our Armed Forces

Airman Paul J. Fray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Fray of Willfred Blvd., in HICKSVILLE, has been assigned to Keesler Air Force Base, Miss., after completing Air Force basic training.

The airman will now receive specialized instruction in the communications-electronics systems field.

He received an associate's degree in 1979 from State University of New York at Farmingdale.

Ronald J. Schley, son of Irene M. Schley of Fordham Ave. in HICKSVILLE, has been appointed a sergeant in the U.S. Air Force.

The new non-commissioned officer completed training in management, in leadership, human relations and NCO responsibilities, before being awarded this status.

Schley is a security specialist at Ellsworth Air Force Base, S.D., with the 44th Missile Security Squadron.

Kenneth W. Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne G. Meyer of Amherst Road in HICKSVILLE, has been promoted in the U.S. Army to the rank of chief warrant officer two.

Meyer is a helicopter pilot at Fort Hood, Texas.

His wife, Nancy, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Webster III of 140 Ninth St., Hicksville, N.Y.

He received an associate degree in 1981 from Central Texas College, Killeen.

On The Campus

Janet Innes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Innes of Autumn Lane, HICKSVILLE, has been named to the dean's list of distinguished students for the spring term at Roanoke College. She is a 1978 National Honor Society graduate of Long Island Lutheran H.S. and placed in the upper 10% of her class.

When George Palumbo and Eric Tieman of PLAINVIEW, entered the Student Art on Campus Competition at SUNY Purchase last spring, neither realized that their vision of a modular sculpture would become a reality this fall. As winners of the competition, the first of its kind at the College, they received $700 in funding to construct a sculpture which will be suspended eight feet off the ground and rise to a height of twenty-four feet in the Main Lobby of the College's gym. The sculpture will be on view from Sept. 1 to December.

Eric is the son of Evelyn Tieman of Gilbert Lane, PLAINVIEW, and Norman Tieman of East Hills. He is a graduate of John F. Kennedy H.S.

Galileo Lodge News

VENERABLE TONY PREVITE'S MESSAGE:
"There is nothing so fatal to character as unfinished tasks." David Lloyd George

LODGE TIDBITS:
It's a pleasure to announce that Jim Posillico Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Posillico Sr. of the Galileo Lodge, has won the Gold Medal in soccer at the Empire State Games in Syracuse, N.Y. These are Olympic games sponsored by N.Y. State, with a total of 5800 contestants who compete in a variety of sports. Jim Jr. scored a total of 2 goals out of the 5 goals scored at all the soccer games played. Jim Jr. represented Long Island in this competition.

Congratulations to Jim Jr. and his fine family from the Galileo Lodge. Nice to report that Frank Governale of the Galileo Lodge has just retired from government service after 31 productive years. Best wishes for a successful and happy retirement from all of us here at the Galileo Lodge. On Sunday, the 27th of September, the 2nd Annual Golf Tournament of the Galileo Lodge will be held. All participants will get a prize, and the fee is $20 for members and $25 for non-members. This includes green fees, golf carts and a buffet dinner. The site of this tournament is the Swan Lake Golf Club, with tee-off being 12:30 P.M. Those wishing to attend should pay up as soon as possible, because there will not be late-minute entries. On Monday, 7th of September, members of the Galileo Lodge and their families, namely, Jeff Wallick who shot an 85; Skip Monteforte who shot a 68; Bert Molinelli with an 84; Gus Russo with an 81; Jim Posillico Sr. with a 77; Jim Posillico Jr. with an 80; and Don Posillico with a 78.

attended a golf session of their own at the Heatherwood Golf Club, and they report that they had a grand time. Nice to hear that Dina Wallick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Wallick of the Galileo Lodge, is recuperating nicely after suffering a broken arm.

Laughter, it is said, is good medicine. It is a palliative, a sedative. It warms the heart and relaxes the body. Even from a medicinal point of view, it would be a great idea to be present at the Galileo Lodge on Saturday, the 17th of October. Why? Well, that's the night when the Ladies Auxiliary of the Galileo Lodge present their version of the 1981 'Foolies Follies,' which is a revue consisting of a series of outrageously-funny skits of comedy (and dance), designed primarily to split your sides with laughter. Sue Laurenti (WE 1-0036) will 'chair' this activity, aided and abetted capably by Mary Monteforte (938-6454), and both will also handle ticket sales and seating arrangements. CHIROPRACTIC OUTLOOK

BY DR. PETER J. ROCCO

WHAT IS SCIATICA?

The sciatic nerve is the largest one in your body. That's why sciatica, an inflammation of that nerve, causes in the spine are subjected to pressure, irritation or "pinching," by improperly aligned vertebrae in the lower back, sciatica results.

The patient may have had occasional bouts of low back discomfort—so mild that it doesn't seem necessary to do anything about them. Then, suddenly and with the slightest lifting, stretching, bending or other small movement, the pain flares up. Since it usually attacks only one side, the sufferer tries to lessen the pain by leaning the other way. Actually, this produces a greater imbalance and aggravates the condition.

Proper chiropractic diagnosis and treatment can eliminate the cause of the sciatica. The doctor of chiropractic, with the use of highly specialized techniques, is trained to remove this extremely painful type of nerve pressure. Presented as a service to the community by

DEVOTIONS

By The Rev. Dr. John H. Krahn

Trinity Lutheran Church

In today's world of sophisticated armaments, I am sure there is much conjecture as to which weapon is the deadliest. Having been an army chaplain for five years, I remember how impressed I was with the fire power of the weaponry issued to only one company of about a hundred men. This is nothing compared to the scope of the deadliest weapons.

Even in the face of fantastic modern weaponry, the Bible is still correct when it suggests that the deadliest weapon in the world is a rather small muscle, pinkish in color, that is housed in the mouth of every human being. What is so amazing about the tongue is its dual capacity - it can both build up and tear down; it can praise God, it can curse him; it can encourage a brother, it can stab him in the back, it can lead you to heaven, it can land you in hell.

We would all do well to consider the health of our tongues. When you get a checkup, one of the first things a doctor will examine is your tongue. If its color is not pinkish-white, he knows something is wrong. In a physiological sense, the health of the tongue often reflects the health of the body. Likewise, in a spiritual sense, the health of the tongue often reflects the spiritual health of the person.

God, in his Word, encourages us to check into the spiritual condition of our tongues. There are many kinds of spiritually sick conditions reflected by the tongue that cause me to refer to it as the deadliest weapon known to humankind. One of the worst conditions is a tongue that is out of control. Loss of temper often brings on this problem. It is caused by several things: irritation, impatience, resentment, and bitterness. A wise person has said that if you are in the right, you need not lose your temper; if you are in the wrong, you can't afford to. Jesus said, "Everyone who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother shall be liable to the council, and whoever says, 'You fool!' shall be liable to the hell of fire."

Another sickness of the tongue is profanity. "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain, for the Lord will not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain." When we use the Lord's name in vain, we show we do not respect and love him enough to control our tongues.

Lying is another sickness of the tongue. The apostle Paul writes, "Do not lie to each other." A lie is any kind of designed deception. If the deception is not designed, it is not lying, but if we design to make an impression contrary to the naked truth, we lie. This is a tough definition, but I believe it speaks the truth. In business or social relationships we often perpetrate falsehoods. By words, actions, and looks, we design to make an impression that is contrary to the truth.

We all must exercise care not to tear down a brother or sister. We would do well to remember that Jesus loved that person enough to die for (Continued on Page 12)

Report Shows Declining School Enrollments And Higher School Taxes

By Francis T. Purcell, Nassau County Executive

A Nassau County Planning Commission report, released on Sept. 3 by County Executive Francis T. Purcell, shows that enrollments in the county's 56 school districts have plunged 34 per cent in the past ten years - while total school district budgets have climbed from $588.2 million to $1.0 billion, an increase of 70 per cent, and school taxes have soared 76 per cent.

The average cost of educating a single student in the public schools has skyrocketed 156 per cent, from $1,801 in 1970-71 to $4,602 in 1980-81. Purcell said, while the average school tax bill has risen from $739 ten years ago to $1,298 last year.

The report projects the loss of another 26,506 public school students by 1983-86, for a total 15-year drop of 145,371 or 45 per cent.

The report also said that, during the same 10 years, private school enrollments in the county had dropped from 62,504 to 46,285, and projected a drop to 35,772 by 1986, a 15-year loss of 26,732 or 43 per cent.

The report released today is an update of a report originally prepared in 1975 and first updated in 1977. It notes that the trends evidenced by the earlier report are continuing at a more rapid pace.

Purcell called the statistics startling, pointing out that school districts were forced to rely on property taxes for 68 per cent of their operating costs last year compared with 62 per cent ten years ago, and that the state school aid formula will force them to dig down even deeper as enrollments continue declining. He said declining enrollments put more real property wealth behind each student, and state aid is reduced accordingly.

With enrollments projected to continue declining, Purcell said, the State Legislature must take action to offset the crushing tax burden on homeowners.

Purcell noted that, while school taxes have soared over the past decade, the county's general fund tax rate, the tax he controls, has gone down nearly 10 per cent, and that general fund spending has actually declined nearly three per cent since he took office. He said school taxes represent between 50 and 60 per cent of a homeowner's total tax bill, while the county tax that he controls represents only about 20 per cent. He said his administration has managed to hold down costs and taxes despite state-mandated spending pressures such as Medicaid (now costing $46 million and projected to rise ten to 12 per cent next year), station maintenance (boosted from $5.4 million to $9.5 million by Gov. Carey) and education for the handicapped (up from $8,041 in 1961 to $7.7 million in 1981).

Over 50 performing groups will be represented at an Arts in Education Showcase, sponsored by Nassau District PTA, on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 15 and 16, 1981, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at 6 School, Church Avenue, Woodmere.

During the two days, 26 groups will be performing, 13 each day in 15 minute segments. In addition, over 25 groups will be available in an exhibit area for information and questions.

The Showcase will highlight numerous interest areas. Among the programs offered will be drama, opera, music, pantomime, dance and storytelling. The performances are designed to stimulate, educate and entertain audiences of all ages. The Showcase should prove invaluable for those scheduling programs for children K through 12.

Pre-registration is $3.00 for both days. Registration at the door is $2.00 per day. Bring your own lunch. Coffee will be served. For more information contact Showcase Registration Chairmen Benita Miller, 921-0852 or Althea Travis, 364-2119.

Meeting On Air Quality

If you are interested in Nassau County and want to help improve our air quality, why not attend the next Nassau County Citizens Advisory Committee Meeting on Air Quality?

The Committee is seeking suggestions and citizens' involvement in a Transportation Control Plan which will examine alternative methods to curb air pollution for our County.

This meeting will be held on Thursday evening, September 17 at 7:30 p.m. at the Nassau County Planning Department, Conference Room 246 located at 222 Willis Avenue, Mineola.

For further information contact Doug Aloise or Fern Kitograd at (516) 535-2236.

Chamber Music

The Nassau Symphony Orchestra will present an "Afternoon of Chamber Music" on Sunday, September 20th. A string quartet and brass and woodwind trio will perform from 3:00 - 5:00 pm. The performance will be held in the Old Grace Church located on Merrick Road in Massapequa.

Admission is free.

Harry Chapin Theatre Center Benefit

Mr. and Mrs. Castro and Dr. and Mrs. Peter M. Guida, of Lloyd Harbor, will once again open their home, on Sunday, September 13, for the second annual, HARRY CHAPIN CIRCLE OF FRIENDS AWARD presentation and party.

The recipient of the 1981 award will be the theatre's former Board Chairman, David Westermann. Mrs. Sandy Chapin will induct Mr. Westermann into the Circle of Friends. The four foot-circular plaque will later be displayed in the lobby of the Playhouse, at 185 Second Street, Huntington Station.

The award was established in 1980 in honor of Harry Chapin, by the Board of Trustees, and through the generosity of the Castro and Guida families. The award is presented annually to an individual who has demonstrated extraordinary contributions of self, talent, resources and leadership.

David Westermann,

former Chairman and CEO, of Hazeltine Corporation, joined the theatre's Board of Trustees in 1975, following a persistent, one-sided, two hour meeting with Harry Chapin. Westermann quickly became committed to the effort, and in five years of Board service lead the theatre to national recognition.

The evening will begin at 6:00 pm with cocktails and music, followed by an Italian buffet, prepared for the 300 guests by Mrs. Castro. Shakespearean vignettes from the theatre's Arts-in-Education Company's piece, WISE AND WONDERFUL, will be presented. The evening will conclude with the award presentation to David Westermann.

Tickets are $50 per person, and are available through Donna Rollins, at the Harry Chapin Theatre Center - 516/271-8319.
