CHIROPRACTIC OUTLOOK

BY DR. PETER J. ROCCO

WHY IT MAY HURT TO SIT

I don't understand why I have pains in the lower part of my back. I don't do anything strenuous. In fact, in my job I sit most of the time. What can I do about it?

It may seem strange that you can hurt your back by "just sitting," but not when you know that you put ten times more pressure on the vertebral discs in the lower back when sitting as when standing. Learn to sit correctly.

Make sure that the chair you habitually use really fits your body. Your buttocks should fit easily into the angle between seat and back. Your legs should reach the floor with ease.

Sit tall. Imagine a string running from the top of your head to the ceiling, but work for a natural "up-straight" posture rather than a stiff, tense one. Get up occasionally and stretch. Seek care from your doctor of chiropractic. He or she is trained to spot back problems at the very beginning, and to treat them before they become more serious. ## Assessors Offer Speakers To Local Groups

Abe Seldin, Chairman of the Nassau County Board of Assessors, announced recently that service clubs, civic associations and other community-based organizations in Nassau County can arrange to have a free public-service program on assessment at their group's meeting by contacting the Nassau County Board of Assessors Speakers Bureau.

"The state legislature extended its moratorium on revaluation until October, in order to try to agree on legislation to protect homeowners and tenants from the potential impact of court-ordered revaluation," Seldin said. "This and other developments make assessment a constantly changing subject of vital concern to every homeowner in Nassau County."

The Speakers Bureau program covers such things as: how property is now assessed in Nassau; the impact of court decisions on local communities; Seldin's own legislative proposals to cushion homeowners from the impact of court-ordered revaluation; and the latest actions from the state legislature in Albany.

Reservations for the fall and winter meeting season are now being accepted. Program chairpersons or presidents of organizations wishing to arrange a program on assessment should call (516) 535-2490, or write the Speakers Bureau, Nassau County Board of Assessors, 240 Old Country Road, Mineola, New York 11501, at least a month prior to the planned meeting date. A number of choice day and evening dates are still available.

Restaurant Of The Year

William Rueck, a distinguished member of the restaurant and catering industry as well as of the Long Island community has been cited Restaurant of the Year 1981-82 by the Long Island Restaurant and Caterers Association, in recognition by his peers of maintaining the highest standards in the preparation and service of food to the public.

LIRCA will pay tribute to Willy Rueck at their 18th Annual Banquet on Tuesday, October 27, at La Grange Inn in West Islip.

Highlight of the dinner will be presentation of an inscribed plaque emblematic of the RESTAURATEUR OF THE YEAR. The New Hyde Park Inn is the creation of Mr.

Rueck and his wife Rita, both of whom came to the United States from Germany in 1930. Both of their families were innkeepers and restaurateurs in Germany for more than 100 years.

Willy's first business was a small tavern in the Bushwick section of Brooklyn, but the Rueck's ascent to notable recognition in the restaurant and catering industry began when they purchased a hotel and tavern in New Hyde Park which was frequented by Long Island farmers commuting to the city. At that time the Inn accommodated 300 people; today 1,000 patrons dance and feast in the Grand Ballroom. The New Hyde Park Inn is a culinary landmark on Long Island, providing a delightful and friendly setting for comfortable and casual dining. Willy Rueck is the fourth generation of restaurateurs.

It is evident that when he and Rita joined together their prosperity was ensured.

IN SUPPORT OF OUR FIREFIGHTERS: Hempstead Town Presiding Supervisor Thomas S. Gulotta (seated, center) chairs the first meeting of the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Firearmics held at Town Hall.

Congress Moves For More Protection Against Radiation From Man Made Sources

By Cong. Norman Lent

One of the most insidious threats to our health comes from unnecessary or mis-handled medical and dental x-rays. Although there is great public concern over nuclear power plants, they contribute almost nothing to human exposure to radiation.

It is a scientific fact that 50 percent of all the radiation exposure we receive comes from natural sources — primarily from sun rays. But radiation also comes from rocks, granite, bricks, etc. The remainder of the radiation to which we are exposed is man made. But 90 percent of that man made exposure comes from medical and dental x-rays.

When the House Commerce Sub-committee on Oversight and Investigations, of which I am a member, uncovered these and other facts during hearings on radiation dangers last year, we agreed to try to do something to reduce the man made hazards, particularly unnecessary exposure to medical and dental x-rays.

I joined with Rep. Thomas A. Luken (D-Ohio) in cosponsoring a bill entitled the Consumer-Patient Radiation Health and Safety Act. The bill is designed to deal with the problem that perhaps half of all the operators of x-ray equipment in the United States have received any formal training or have been certified as competent. Less than a dozen states have any formal licensing procedure at all, although I am happy to report that our New York State does have such a procedure.

Our bill authorizes the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) to encourage states to set up licensing procedures; to establish standards for institutions training radiology technicians; and to establish certification standards for technicians who operate x-ray equipment.

It is a pleasure to report that my legislation has now become a law. President Reagan signed our bill into law this month. I believe it will play an important part in reducing unnecessary exposure to radiation, and thus help reduce the serious health problems which can stem from overexposure.

Q
I'll bet the cost of Shoreham is the real reason why we have such high electric bills. Am I right, LILCO?

A
The fact is only about 5% of your bill pays for Shoreham while more than 50% pays for oil.

The base electric rate you pay Long Island Lighting Company has pretty much kept pace with the inflation you've experienced in paying for other necessities.

The real culprit is not Shoreham but the high cost of oil which is the main generating fuel Long Island has had to depend on.

Oil has gone up nearly 1,000% since the beginning of the OPEC oil embargo in 1973, and its price has doubled in the last year alone.

This has meant that today more than 50% of your electric bill goes just to pay soaring oil bills — which remain astronomical despite the recent "promise" of OPEC to hold present prices through the end of the year.

That's why we're working hard to complete our Shoreham nuclear plant. It will decrease our dependence on OPEC oil by almost one third and save customers like you hundreds of millions of dollars on your electric bills in years to come.

No responsible expert, in government or industry, thinks oil prices are going to go anywhere but up in the long run. That's why we'll all be in a better position to weather OPEC price increases with Shoreham in operation. Paying about 5% on your electric bill today will really turn out to be a small price for being prepared in the future.

There's no way we can ease the impact of oil prices right now. However, getting Shoreham in operation will save us 8 million barrels of oil a year. That will help all of us. Long Island Lighting Company.

Parola Wants Gas Tax Law Enforced

Assemblyman Fred Parola (R-C, Wantagh) wants an end to the failure of some gasoline station dealers to comply with the state law requiring them to collect the gasoline sales tax.

Parola said today, "New York State and local governments are being cheated out of millions of dollars per year and it is about time the Carey Administration does something about it."

"Some gas station dealers in Nassau and Suffolk counties are evading the sales tax on gasoline."

"As a result, the state and local governments are losing nearly $100 million annually through service station dealers who either pocket the sales tax or don't collect it at all in order to undersell legitimate dealers."

"Legitimate station owners are faced with the choice of going out of business or cheating themselves to remain competitive."

"The local governments of Long Island alone may be losing as much as $20 million a year — money that could be used to lower our skyrocketing property taxes."

"New York now requires the state's 12,389 service stations to collect sales tax at the pump and forward it to the state Tax Department usually on a quarterly basis. By buying gasoline from a legitimate supplier, the dealer can report sales tax on exactly what was delivered. But 'bootlegger suppliers' will sell the dealer extra gasoline which he then pays for in cash and never reports the purchase or the sales. Thus, the state has no way of knowing how many gallons were actually sold."

"The sales tax per gallon is 8.5 cents in Nassau and Suffolk and 10 cents in Queens. Some experts estimate that as much as $62.2 million in sales tax collected from motorists could end up in the pockets of gasoline station operators in this three county area by the end of the year."

"The fact that the situation has been developing for some time, reflects the aloof attitude demonstrated by the Carey Administration from state aid for education to state assistance to localities."

"Proper enforcement of the collection of gas revenues would have provided the $100 million which will be realized by the recently instituted 1 percent increase in the sales tax. I fought and voted against this tax in the legislature."

"It is crucial that Governor Carey spend more time in Albany attending to these state matters and less time traveling in the Mediterranean. The complexities of state government requires a chief executive who is concerned with all aspects of state policy."

"Hopefully, the suffering endured by suburban residents would be better understood if the governor attended to state affairs on a day-to-day basis."

"I am calling on Governor Carey and his tax Commissioner James Tully to act immediately to crack down on the gas tax cheaters so that Long Island localities get their share of the sales tax that they are entitled to receive."

Mary Monteforte is pleased with her new career. Mary is employed at Fougere, a pharmaceutical firm located on Cantigue Rock Road, Hicksville. We wish you much success in your endeavors, Mary.

Congratulations to Joe Jablonsky, Hicksville. Joe recently completed the Masters program in criminal justice. His title is now Joseph Joblonsky, M.P.S. (Master of Professional Studies). When are you starting on your doctoral program, Joe?

We just learned that Nellie McClure is home from the hospital and feeling better. Nellie, we hope each day finds you stronger and may good health soon be yours.

Kitty Weiss will celebrate her birthday on September 20. Her husband, Sam, (our recently elected Water Commissioner) and the rest of the family are taking Kitty out to dinner at newly decorated restaurant, the Lighthouse (formerly known as the Alibi). Happy birthday to you, Kitty.

Hicksville's octogenarian,

Ida Mae Herfurth, had a wonderful time at the Octoberfest held in Hicksville. She invited fifteen of her friends to accompany her on Sunday. They reserved a table at the affair and stayed until all the festivities were concluded and the event had ended. We have to admire Ida Mae — she has the indomitable spirit of the pioneer women.

"An Ounce of Prevention" will be the subject aired on "Viewpoint on Drugs," Sun., Sept. 20, on WLIR (92.7 FM) at 7:00 A.M. and on WGBB (1240 AM) at 10:15 P.M.

Being interviewed by Commissioner Harold E. Adams, Nassau County Dept. of Drug and Alcohol Addiction, (R), is Al Peck, director of Help-Aid-Direction (HAD), a substance abuse agency in Hicksville.

Peck's agency provides education and prevention programs in addition to treatment for young substance abusers and all others who need help.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

The people of Hicksville have been sending out messages to the Town of Oyster Bay that they do not approve of the Duffy Avenue extension, by letters to anyone who will read them, by their attendance at our one meeting in Hicksville, where their protests were clearly heard, and finally by a petition with 1,735 signatures, and have received no firm answer as to whether or not this extension is going to be constructed.

In a recent letter to the editor, Gary Burke and Merle Campbell reported that the Town Board is planning a "feasibility study" of the Duffy Avenue extension; and in a form letter to the signers of the petition, Mr. Clark stated that "someone early next year" at a Town Forum he would present us with a comprehensive plan.

However, at the July 2 Hicksville meeting with residents and businessmen present, he spoke as if he already considered the plan comprehensive. Also, the County, allegedly on an austerity budget, were evidently convinced that the plan was sufficiently feasible, to allot one million dollars for the extension. Why then, this new "feasibility study"?

Our disapproval of this plan is based on sound reasoning.

Established businesses will be forced to close, due to the dead-ending of a segment of West Marie Street. This is of dire concern to those businessmen who make their living there.

The Fire Department calls it a hazard for the easy mobilization of trucks and equipment.

The Trinity Lutheran Church will lose some access to parking facilities.

The residents of Plainview Road and connecting streets are justly concerned about the danger involved in further inundation of traffic on an already overloaded residential street. Not only was there an accident on this street between East and Elm Streets just two weeks ago, but only a few weeks previous to this one, in the same place, there was an accident that resulted in a fatality. One house in that area has been struck more than once. I am also told of other accidents on this street where cars and property have been damaged. We do not dare think of the results of further traffic on this road.

The character of Hicksville is being ruined to all, because it is already changing.

It is a pleasant, safe residential community, to a predominantly industrial one, made up of numerous thruways which benefit neither our businesses nor our residents, and are of little advantage to non-residents who pour into Hicksville, only to find insufficient parking available. Thus, costly new parking lots have to be provided to supply their needs. Mr. Clark, himself, said that they are a cancer that rot our town.

All of this is a drain on our taxpayers whose taxes are among the highest on the island. One can only hope that these considerations will be of primary concern in this new "feasibility study," which we hope will be brought to a speedy conclusion.

Our patience has been stretched to the utmost during this long period of waiting for some affirmative answers and action.

Is Duffy Avenue going to be extended, or isn't it? We want an answer now, not "sometime early next year".

Sincerely,
Dorothy Margot,
Hicksville

Congratulations to Joe Jablonsky, Hicksville. Joe recently completed the Masters program in criminal justice. His title is now Joseph Joblonsky, M.P.S. (Master of Professional Studies). When are you starting on your doctoral program, Joe?

We just learned that Nellie McClure is home from the hospital and feeling better. Nellie, we hope each day finds you stronger and may good health soon be yours.

Kitty Weiss will celebrate her birthday on September 20. Her husband, Sam, (our recently elected Water Commissioner) and the rest of the family are taking Kitty out to dinner at newly decorated restaurant, the Lighthouse (formerly known as the Alibi). Happy birthday to you, Kitty.

Hicksville's octogenarian,

Ida Mae Herfurth, had a wonderful time at the Octoberfest held in Hicksville. She invited fifteen of her friends to accompany her on Sunday. They reserved a table at the affair and stayed until all the festivities were concluded and the event had ended. We have to admire Ida Mae — she has the indomitable spirit of the pioneer women.

"An Ounce of Prevention" will be the subject aired on "Viewpoint on Drugs," Sun., Sept. 20, on WLIR (92.7 FM) at 7:00 A.M. and on WGBB (1240 AM) at 10:15 P.M.

Being interviewed by Commissioner Harold E. Adams, Nassau County Dept. of Drug and Alcohol Addiction, (R), is Al Peck, director of Help-Aid-Direction (HAD); a substance abuse agency in Hicksville.

Peck's agency provides education and prevention programs in addition to treatment for young substance abusers and all others who need help.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

The people of Hicksville have been sending out messages to the Town of Oyster Bay that they do not approve of the Duffy Avenue extension, by letters to anyone who will read them, by their attendance at our one meeting in Hicksville, where their protests were clearly heard, and finally by a petition with 1,735 signatures, and have received no firm answer as to whether or not this extension is going to be constructed.

In a recent letter to the editor, Gary Burke and Merle Campbell reported that the Town Board is planning a "feasibility study" of the Duffy Avenue extension; and in a form letter to the signers of the petition, Mr. Clark stated that "someone early next year" at a Town Forum he would present us with a comprehensive plan.

However, at the July 2 Hicksville meeting with residents and businessmen present, he spoke as if he already considered the plan comprehensive. Also, the County, allegedly on an austerity budget, were evidently convinced that the plan was sufficiently feasible, to allot one million dollars for the extension. Why then, this new "feasibility study"?

Our disapproval of this plan is based on sound reasoning.

Established businesses will be forced to close, due to the dead-ending of a segment of West Marie Street. This is of dire concern to those businessmen who make their living there.

The Fire Department calls it a hazard for the easy mobilization of trucks and equipment.

The Trinity Lutheran Church will lose some access to parking facilities.

The residents of Plainview Road and connecting streets are justly concerned about the danger involved in further inundation of traffic on an already overloaded residential street. Not only was there an accident on this street between East and Elm Streets just two weeks ago, but only a few weeks previous to this one, in the same place, there was an accident that resulted in a fatality. One house in that area has been struck more than once. I am also told of other accidents on this street where cars and property have been damaged. We do not dare think of the results of further traffic on this road.

The character of Hicksville is of deep concern to all, because it is already changing from what was once primarily a pleasant, safe residential community, to a predominantly industrial one, made up of numerous thruways which benefit neither our businesses nor our residents, and are of little advantage to non-residents who pour into Hicksville, only to find insufficient parking available. Thus, costly new parking lots have to be provided to supply their needs. Mr. Clark, himself, said that they are a cancer that rot our town.

All of this is a drain on our taxpayers whose taxes are among the highest on the island. One can only hope that these considerations will be of primary concern in this new "feasibility study," which we hope will be brought to a speedy conclusion.

Our patience has been stretched to the utmost during this long period of waiting for some affirmative answers and action.

Is Duffy Avenue going to be extended, or isn't it? We want an answer now, not "sometime early next year."

Sincerely,
Dorothy Margot,
Hicksville

Dear Editor:

John Spinelli of Kuhl Ave., Hicksville, passed away on Labor Day after a long illness.

He was known to many as the "Mayor of Kuhl Ave." because he was always there to help others and also ran all the Kuhl Ave. block parties for many years.

His fine family, who loved him dearly, will miss him so much and he will be thought of and missed by many of his neighbors and friends.

Sev and Grace Knudsen

East Plainview-Old Bethpage G.O.P. Report

PRESIDENT
Jeanne Nonnan

P. O. BOX 283
OLD BETHPAGE, 11804

EXEC. LEADER
Dr. Chas. Artale

Vacation is over and we are back at giving the real G.O.P. word.

Through a little timing mix-up we had no notice of our meeting in this paper, but Pres. Jeanne had a meeting notice mailed to all members. Do make a mental note: our meetings are the 3rd Wednesday of the month at the Legion Hall. Food also!

By the time you read this report, most of us will have heard Cathy Langhauser from the N.S. Dept. of Consumer Affairs will have had a rally for our popular N.C. Executive Fran Purcell at the Imperial Manor; and know that Dr. Artale was re-elected our Exec. Leader for the next two years.

Boo! on Robert McDonald, N.C. GOP spokesman about our candidate for Controller Peter King against a Democrat named Berger. "The Berger-King contest would be a real whopper." Boo!

It's that time and as you know the candidates are at it full force. Please remember to avoid being trapped by charges which do not relate directly to a candidate, their personal actions and abilities on and off the elected job. Each of you, personally, would be "mad as hell" if every one judged you badly because of a drunken cousin or a close friend who became a hit and run driver. And yet, it seems to be a double set of values when political people are judged. Did you ever think that any candidate using this double standard thinks you and the public are stupid fools. Think about it!

We always need help at election time and if you can spend a couple of hours, etc., drop a note to Exec. Leader Charles Artale or Pres. Jeanne at our Post Office box.

We quote Elizabeth Dole, "Inflation is the poorest tax of all."

Our notices regarding our annual finance drive are late due to the problems and timing of moving our County Headquarters to the Westbury building that was purchased to save money and better do the job.

Bad luck is when you cheat and still can't win.

One thing you should always want to do-see tomorrow-AHE.

"Senior Citizens in the Town of Oyster Bay who enjoy ice skating will be able to use Town ice rinks at a reduced fee," Oyster Bay Councilman John Venditto announced, "and we are holding all other rates at last year's level."

"The Town Board has approved the reduced fee of 50 cents per session for seniors who show their ID cards at the Town's rinks at Syosset 1/2 - Woodbury, Marjorie R. Post and Bethpage Community Parks," Venditto said.

The general admission price remains the same as last season. Children, up to age 15, will pay $1 per two-hour session and those 16 and over will pay $1.50 per session.

"Special discount rates will be available at Bethpage Ice Rink," Venditto added. "Fee for skating on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, during the hours of 12 noon to 1 PM or from 1 to 2 PM, for both children and adults will be 50 cents per one-hour session."

Ice skating rinks will also be available for rental to groups upon written request to the Commissioner of Parks for a fee of $75 per hour.

The Town Board has also authorized use fo the three skating rinks by the High School Hockey League during the 1981-1982 season.

Weather permitting, the skating season will begin at the end of November and continue through March of 1982.

with David Marks in center, Tommy McBride on his right and Bobby Lichtman on his left. Billy Neway ran hard and was defensive of our goal from his fullback position alternating positions during the game.

The boys came home with some battle injuries with Mike Wozniak being badly scraped trying to slide tackle in the beginning of the game. Bobby Kratochvil sustained a substantial shoulder injury after being ripped over the 18 yard line. This will keep him out of the game for a couple of weeks.

The team wishes both boys a speedy and complete recovery.

The parents and the boys are anxious to host a game next Saturday at our home field against the Lindenhurst Gladiators.

The 1971 Plainview Traveling Soccer Team called the "Force", under the coaching of Mike Dorosin with Assistant Coaches Harvey Fischer, Bernie Arronowitz, started off the season by winning the Sept. 12 game against Valley Stream, 2-1.

The team's four horsemen of defense, David Weissfeller, Michael Goldstein, Mitchell Gettleman and Wayne Friedman, stopped every encounter of play Valley Stream had to offer. Then the "Force's" offense took control, with their learned skills of dribbling, heading, and finally two goals scored by Keith Hobbs.

The Sept. 12 game was won by Adam Iovino, Brian Woods, Brian Shields, Donald Hochstein, Keith Hobbs, Wayne Friedman, Mitchell Gettleman, Michael Goldstein, Michael DiAngelo, David Weissfeller, Avi Silber, Larry Arronowitz and Thomas Fadella.

Boys - you're off to a good start. Lots of luck in your season. And again, loads of luck in your Sept. 19 game against Hewlett.

You've got a great team with an excellent coaching staff. So, go! go! go!

DEVOTIONS

By The Rev. Dr. John H. Krahn

Trinity Lutheran Church

A MIRACLE AWAITS YOU EVERYDAY

I believe that every human being experiences many wonderful miracles every day. Unfortunately, most of us don't realize it. We might begin today's sermon by asking "What is a miracle?" A miracle is something wonderful that happens to us that we can't explain, where all odds are against it working out that way. It is also a stroke of divine providence over which we have no control.

I enjoy photography. Often as I look at books of photographs I am amazed that most of the truly renowned pictures are of commonplace things. I feel that I could have taken that picture and become famous too! I guess I could have taken the magnificent picture, but first I would have had to notice how great it was. This is the problem, the renowned pictures, God's miracles, are there every day of our lives, but our eyes are not open to see them.

Why don't we see these miracles that are happening all the time in the most common places? Perhaps we can understand the answer to this question by remembering the last time we were in the hospital, suddenly the whole world looked different — cars, people, sky, trees. You noticed flowers blooming that were blooming when you went in, but you never noticed them. You had a tremendous, almost eternal dimension of awareness. The sensitivity of your human perception was heightened.

Another example is coming home from vacation — the same old house looks different when you first walk in the door. Why? Because a blanket of daily, accumulated anxieties, fears, depressions, problems and difficulties were temporarily lifted. What blinds us to the beauty of a budding tree, the ever changing formations of interesting clouds or a spring rain making small circles in a mud puddle, is our negative emotional attitude, our fears, anxieties, and problems. God is performing miracles every day, but we are so caught up into ourselves and our problems that we no longer see them.

Two of Jesus' disciples met the Lord on the road to Emmaus. Here they were walking and talking with the living Christ, and they were so burdened with their own sense of loss that they didn't recognize him. After he vanished out of their sight, they said to each other, "Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked to us on the road, while he opened to us the Scripture?"

Truly a miracle awaits us every day. But it takes two to make a miracle happen in our life. It takes God and us. God presents the miracle; we receive it through faith. What miracles will be yours today? Maybe you will walk outside in your yard and stretch your arms towards heaven sensing your insignificance compared with God's greatness, and then do something really smart—like welcoming the miracle worker's assistance in alleviating your problems and enhancing your successes. Maybe you'll take a half an hour and begin reading the first two chapters of Saint Mark followed by the first two chapters of Philipians and have your heart beautifully warmed by it.

Perhaps there is someone reading this who is not sure of their salvation, who has not opened himself or herself up enough to God so that he can work his miracle of forgiveness and acceptance in their lives. Now is the day of salvation; now is the time to let the greatest miracle that ever happened happen in your life. You can ask Jesus Christ to come into your life right now — and He will. Others of you who know Jesus as Savior may want to also let him become Lord of your life giving him control of every day.

Years from now you might look back on this and say, "Wow!" "I had planned to read that devotion." "I didn't realize that my faith could be deepened from that day on." "Wasn't it odd," you might think, "No, it wasn't odd. It was God!" Receive his miracle for your life today, for every day a miracle awaits you.

During the public portion of this meeting Democratic Candidate for TOB supervisor Leonard Austin spoke, proposing that all presently illegal, owner occupied two-family homes that meet certain standards of habitation be legalized, and that the construction of more two family homes be encouraged throughout the Township. He proposed new legislation that would legalize two family housing throughout the Town, so long as the owner of the property lives on the premises and that both dwelling units meet certain minimum space and other health and safety standards and that occupancy of each of the two dwelling units in a two family home be restricted to persons related by blood, marriage or legal adoption and a minimum of one off-street parking space be required for each dwelling unit.

Supervisor Joseph Colby spoke opposing these suggestions. He said that there is no way that such proposals would create anything but chaos. He said that he had always pledged to do his best to maintain the suburban character of all the fine neighborhoods in the Town of Oyster Bay and would continue to do so. He further stated that Mr. Austin's proposals were simply the Democratic philosophy which seeks to extend the City into the Suburbs.

The next meeting of the Oyster Bay Town Board is set for Tuesday, Sept. 22, starting at 10 am.

Legionnaires' Log By Richard Evers

One last report, comrades, before Past Commander Arthur Rutz, your regular columnist, takes over again with this log for Post 421's activities. Some interesting projects involving the good of the Legion and the promotion of Americanism are shaping up at the Charles Wagner Post. A set of slide pictures depicting the over 60 years of our post's history is proposed for this year. This writer has many photographs of post commanders, auxiliary members, notable events, color guard groups, post parties and dances, the Bellaires, bingo workers, school award presentations, etc. all of which can be copied onto 35mm slides. The set will be available when desired for post socials, parties, past commander gatherings - whenever camaraderie and pride in Legion may prompt its use. The cost will be negligible, putting the set together a joy for an historically-oriented guy like myself, and the resultant pictorial record a post asset of much value. Projected show time, fellows and gals? Flag Day, 1982, possibly.

Another project for Commander Braun's year involves Americanism: the organization of an American Legion Junior Oratory Contest at the Junior High School, if it can be arranged. The well known National Legion Oratorical Competition Program our post has promoted at the Hicksville High School, over the years, frequently fails to arouse the interest of sufficient student speakers. The reason? Legion oratorical competitions call for a real effort and ability by students. A contestant must write his speech on the U.S. Constitution, know American history and have speaking ability give an 8 minute address without notes! Our plan is to try to interest the J.H.S. administration, faculty and students in conducting a training, preparatory speaking contest involving short, memorized speeches on some general theme involving American ideals and traditions. A well motivated Junior High "speaking contest" would do much to foster a good turn out of experienced orators for a Senior High competition. Dick Evers is hoping to explore this worthwhile idea, shortly, with Principal Gerald Klein and Junior High social studies teachers. Dates and happenings to remember: Sept. 21, next Business Meeting; Sept. 26, Las Vegas Night; Oct. 31, Halloween Dance; Nov. 15, Annual Kings Park Vets Hospital Visit.

Friends, it's been a privilege to try to fill Artie's shoes this summer with this column of news and reflections. My sincere thanks to Commander Braum for the opportunity and a hearty "welcome back," Arthur.

"Ability Is Ageless" Job Fair

Long Islanders 55 and over who want to reenter the job market will have the opportunity to obtain expert employment advice at the "Ability Is Ageless" Job Fair. The Fair will take place on September 23 from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM at the Polo Field of Bethpage Park.

Representatives of government agencies and private industry will be on hand to offer information on the types of part-time, seasonal and full-time jobs older workers can fill, and also to tell the job seekers where to look for these jobs. New York State Department of Labor staffers will help Job Fair attendees fill in resume forms that will be matched against several hundred job openings for older workers filed in a computer bank.

LILCO Vice President Ira L. Feilicher, General Chairperson of the Job Fair, said the all-day Fair is "intended to give older Long Islanders an overview of the job market. The Job Fair will also provide employers with an opportunity to meet these mature workers who already have a variety of skills and usually require no further training."

Other members of the Job Fair committee include Adelaide Attard, Nassau County Commissioner of Senior Citizens Affairs, and Adelaide Silkworth, Director of the Suffolk County Office for the Aging, who are Co-Chairpersons of the Public Sector Committee; Roger A. Poletti, Vice President of Hazeltine Corporation, Chairperson of the Industrial Committee; Harvey Taub, Superintendent of the Long Island District of the New York State Department of Labor, Chairperson of the Job Evaluation and Referral Committee; and John Sheridan, Director of the Long Island State Park Commission, Chairperson of the Site Committee. Honorary General Chairpersons are Nassau County Executive Francis T. Purcell, Suffolk County Executive Peter F. Cohan and Charles R. Pierce, LILCO's Chairman of the Board.

Mr. Feilicher added that the Job Fair will have a "county fair" atmosphere, with participating agencies and organizations manning information centers set up in tents on the Polo Field. Many of the tents will be loaned and set up by the First Marine Corps Battalion of Garden City. The coordination of the fair site will be under the direction of Capt. John Barry, U.S.M.C. A large central tent will be used for the opening ceremonies and also for the entertainment that will be presented throughout the Fair.

The Polo Field of Bethpage State Park may be reached from Exit 36A (the Bethpage State Park exit) of the Seaford-Oyster Bay Expressway in Nassau County.

National Merit Scholarship Semi-Finalist

Mr. Robert Weinberger, Principal of John F. Kennedy High School in Plainview, is pleased to announce that David P. Sywak, a 12th grader, has been selected as a Semifinalist in the competition for National Merit Scholarships.

Over one million students entered the Merit Program by taking the PSAT/NMSQT in their junior year. The semifinalists represent the highest scorers in each state. Over 90% of the semifinalists are expected to reach finalist status and qualify for highly prestigious Merit Scholarships worth between $1,000 and $8,000 over four years of undergraduate study.

David Sywak is a strong student in all academic areas, but he is particularly interested in science and music. Since 8th grade, he has played the viola in the All-County Orchestra, more recently with the Long Island String Festival, and for the last two years with the New York State Orchestra.

He has taken an Honors Science program since his freshman year at Kennedy and carried Honors programs in English, Social Studies, and Mathematics. David has a natural curiosity and is both interesting and interested. His future is, indeed, a bright one.

Voter Registration And Enrollment Deadlines

Deadlines for voter registration for the November 3 election are approaching, according to Nassau Elections Commissioners Isabel R. Dodd and Stanley Harwood.

Those who did not vote in either 1979 or 1980, and also those who have moved since they last registered, may become eligible to vote in the elections for County Executive, Town and City Supervisors and Councilmen, and other offices in either of the following ways:

1. File a registration-by-mail application with the Board of Elections. These forms are available at post offices, libraries, and village, town and city halls, or may be obtained by phoning the Board of Elections (335-2411). An application that is mailed must bear a Postal Service postmark not later than Monday, October 5 and must be received at the Board by 5 p.m. on Friday, October 9. A hand-delivered application must be received by the Board by 5 p.m. on Monday, October 5.

2. Register in person on one of the two local registration days: Tuesday, October 6, between 1 p.m. and 9 p.m.; and Saturday, October 10, between noon and 9 p.m. Two registration places in each of the county's twelve Assembly Districts will be open on these days (see below), and a registrant may go to whichever one is most convenient.

The Commissioners urged that in registering, voters also enroll in the political party of their choice, so that they will be able to vote in the 1982 primary elections. "New Yorkers will elect both a U.S. Senator and a Governor next year," they noted, "and those who do not enroll in a party miss half their chance to pick the eventual winners in November, 1982."

October 10 is also the final deadline for any person who is already registered but who may wish to change his party - either from one party to another or from independent to a party - to file a change of enrollment, in order for it to be in effect for 1982. This change may be made in person at a local registration place. Or it may be made by mail - either by using a mail registration application or by asking the Board to send a change-of-enrollment form.

Boy Scout Troop 382 welcomes young men and their parents to an open-meeting at 7:30 on September 24 in the all-purpose room at the Lee Avenue School, Hicksville.

Troop 382 meets on Thursday evenings at 7:30 at Lee Avenue during the school year. Each month, the boys go on a weekend camping trip which can be close to home like Tobay, or more distant like Fahnestock State Park in upstate New York. Boys who are 11 years old or in the 8th grade are eligible.

Scouting helps boys develop independence and cooperation. On camping trips they learn how to plan meals and cook them; prepare their gear and take care of it. They also learn that the meal gets prepared more quickly when some get the water while others get the wood.

The boys who took the Astronomy Merit Badge course at Onteora Scout Camp, this July, saw the rings of Saturn live. They also learned that the three bright stars lying close together in evening sky were Venus, Jupiter and Saturn. Scouting gives boys the opportunity to develop an interest in many skills and subjects through the merit badge and skill award programs.

Boys who are interested but who cannot attend the open-house are invited to attend a regular troop meeting. Troop meetings are not held during vacations or when they clash with school events, so please check the school calendar.

Audio Visual Nature Show

The Hicksville Public Library will present a Multi-Image Audio Visual Nature Show on Friday evening, September 25, at 8 p.m.

The program presented by Richard P. Meyer is seen through the use of two projectors and a sophisticated sound system that project the images in conjunction with various types of music, creating illusions, fantasy and feelings of joy over natural objects and phenomena. Included is a brief photographic history of a former Gold Coast Estate owned by Childs Frick, showing the buildings as were and are today. At present the estate is owned by Nassau County and used as a Fine Arts Center. Slides of the art works currently on display at the museum will be shown, as well as sculptures on the spacious grounds. Related information will be distributed and a question and answer period will follow at the conclusion of the program.

Mr. Meyer was raised on the South Shore of L.I. He attended the New York Institute of Technology as an architecture major. He teaches natural history for BOCES and the Nassau County Museum. During the past years he has photographed natural panoramas and close-ups of natural objects while traveling, backpacking and hiking. The photographs are then arranged to music and projected through two projectors to recreate those special moments when surrounded by natural environments.

All library programs are held in the Community Room and are free to the public.

The Hicksville Youth Council is a community, tax exempt, non-profit organization supported by the Town of Oyster Bay Division for Youth, Nassau County Youth Board and the New York State Division for Youth.

following areas: yardwork, housecleaning, mother's/father's helpers, party helpers, car washing, tutoring to name but a few of their many talents.

The main areas are: Hicksville, Jericho, Westbury. However, we will serve other areas, if necessary.
