Letter To The Editor

Dear Resident:

To keep you up-to-date in the matter of the Town of Oyster Bay's legal actions to stop Mr. Vincent Agostino from operating a cement hopper on the property at 21 Railroad Lane, Hicksville, I am pleased to inform you that the Town has been successful in obtaining a court-ordered stay which prevents this firm from using the hopper, until the court makes a determination as to the legality of the entire operation.

This action on the part of the Town was undertaken within days after Alexander Pankoff, Chief Zoning Inspector of the Town of Oyster Bay, discovered that the hopper had been erected at the site between September 17 and September 30 of this year, without any of the necessary building permits, C.O.'s, etc.

Presently, the Town will await the decision of Justice Meade about the legality of the entire operation.

Very truly yours,
THOMAS L. CLARK,
TOB Councilman

Board And Secretaries Reach Agreement

Hicksville School District Secretaries have a new three-year contract. The secretaries have worked one year without a contract.

On Monday the Board of Education and the Secretaries Association ratified this contract which includes raises of approximately 6 per cent each year and increments of 2.9 per cent for experienced secretaries.

All terms and conditions in force from July 1, 1978 through June 30, 1980 remain in full force and effect except several changes involving those on Step 10, and those involving Personal Days.

Also, the following substitution was made: "for each year of this agreement, full-time annual salaried employees shall be entitled to 21 paid holidays, the specific dates to be determined

LEGAL COMPLAINT FILED

As we go to press, a legal complaint filed by the Board against a former HHS graduate, Carrie Clark, which accused Ms Clark of trespassing and illegally encouraging students in the school to stay home during this month's negotiations between the Hicksville Board of Education and the Hicksville Teachers Association, was to be reviewed by the Nassau County District Attorney.

The possible strike was solved at the last minute before school reopened after the Columbus Day holiday.

Election Day Cake Sale

Once again the Burns Avenue school is having their annual Election Day Cake Sale. Some of our proceeds from this sale go to our Hicksville Council of PTA Units Bernard H. Braun Scholarship Memorial Fund.

The Burns Avenue Parents have baked many cakes, cookies, cupcakes, etc. for your enjoyment, so please stop in and purchase something to bring home and remember to VOTE on November 3.

Pumpkin Time

On Thursday, October 22nd, the Kindergarten children of Old Country Road School, accompanied by their teacher, Miss Patricia Musynske, and a few parents, took a trip to Filasky's Pumpkin Farm.

At the farm, the children saw how vegetables grow in the fields, how farm machinery is used, spoke to "Mr. Peter Pumpkin" and then selected a pumpkin from the pumpkin patch to take home with them.

The children brought lunch with them and ate on the farm.

A good time with a fine learning experience was enjoyed by all.

wedding anniversary on October 8. The Vevantes have four sons and a beautiful granddaughter.

The whole family helped make this occasion very special for Tess and Fred.

And we have to wish a very happy birthday to Tom Clark, Town of Oyster Bay Councilman, who celebrated his birthday on October 19. Tom is a truly dedicated Hicksville resident who is committed to serving his community. Best wishes from your family, friends, neighbors and constituents, Tom.

For a change of pace, we'll tell you of a birthday celebration that was held on October 23. This time it was Bill Frech of Hicksville who had birthday festivities in honor of his special day. Good luck and best wishes to you, Bill.

Happy Birthday to Arthur Marcus, son of Marge Marcus of Hudson St., HICKSVILLE. Arthur celebrates his 17th on Oct. 31.

GALILEO LODGE

(Continued from Page 7) mood will prevail at the Galileo Lodge on Saturday, the 31st of October, because that's the time when it presents its Halloween Dance. Tickets will sell for $9.50 per person, a modest sum which entitles you to a dinner, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and live music from the Dynatonics. Jeff Wallick (681-8428) will chair this activity, assisted by Armand Del Cio (938-5082), who will handle ticket sales and seating arrangements. Note that a "bring-your-own-liquor" policy will be in effect that night. For an autumnal diversion, how can you beat this dance and what it has to offer.

WRAP BOTH YOUR HOME AND CAR IN ONE BLANKET OF PROTECTION

We have an innovative policy called PCP—Personal Comprehensive Protection—from The Continental Insurance Companies. And if you own a home and a car, PCP offers you exceptional value.

Separate policies often mean differing amounts of protection for your car, for your home and for its contents. And separate policies often cost you more, in time as well as money.

PCP, on the other hand, gives you one amount of property protection for your home and its contents. And one amount of liability protection for your car and home. Plus, PCP gives you the option to include your hospital, disability income and mortgage life insurance in the same plan.

PCP is easy to understand, efficient and time-saving, and in many cases, more economical.

Come see us or call. We'll be glad to show you what PCP can do to make you—and your property—more secure.

CHARLES WAGNER POST #421
HICKSVILLE, N.Y.

"One Of the Grass Roots Of The American Legion"

Well comrades, we have another Las Vegas Nite all set to go for tomorrow, October 24th, so tell all your friends we open our games at 8 P.M. Come one, come all, the more the merrier. And on the following Saturday evening we have another piece of action to which you, your friends and the general public is invited to attend and enjoy. This is our first social event of this Legion year and as the sign reads, "HALLOWEEN PARTY ON OCTOBER 31."

You can come as you please or wear a costume (Prize for the best costume) and for only $10 per person there will be free beer and Smorgasbord plus live music for your dancing enjoyment. Starting time is 9 P.M. and tickets are available from Chairman Al Cinotti whom you can contact at 796-6268. Repeat, repeat "General public is invited." Remember this, you do not need to feel that you must have a large party to have fun, so if only you and the wife can make this affair, that's just fine with the chairman. Come on out and support YOUR Post. And we saw a lot of faces long missing from the meetings at last Monday's business meeting, causing the Commander to state there were a lot of strangers in the house whom he did not recognize. I did. Just keep coming, fellows, even if AL CINOTTI won the Dark Horse for the 3rd consecutive time, it was nice to have you present. The Color Guard is sorely pressed for manpower but despite this nagging, persistent problem will attend the Nassau County Memorial services at Eisenhower Park on Sunday, November 8th. And the boys will also be on hand for the Hicksville Veterans' Day service at the Junior High School on Wednesday, November 11th, at 10:45 A.M. There will be another Rally For The MIA's in Washington on November 1st and the Post has purchased 4 tickets for our representatives to make the trip. The kicker is that this is the morning after our Halloween Party and the bus leaves at 6 A.M. Incidentally, if you would care to make the trip, the bus fare is $14 per head and you can contact the Commander about this. We had an official visit from Jim Blake, the 3rd Division Membership Officer at the meeting and he wished us good luck in our

In addition he was awarded the Bronze Star during World War II as a member of Counter Intelligence Corps in the Pacific; Past Commander American Legion, Member Kiwanis, St.

FRIENDS MEETING (Continued from Page 1) is brought up from the floor. The group meets only a few times a year. The purpose of the organization is to help broaden the cultural, membership drive but not to surpass his own post (Williston). The attention of the delegates who represented us at the state convention is directed to the October 29th meeting of the 10th District at Brentwood. This is the first of 3 District meetings you should attend as part and parcel of the state delegate's duties.

As a member of this Post you are being offered the opportunity to purchase fuel oil at 5¢ per gallon off the posted price by GLF. And all service contracts from other dealers will be honored by them. (You also can get a service contract from GLF if you so desire). This offer will hold good as long as you are a member in good standing of Charles Wagner Post. Please contact Commander Lou Braun if you decide to purchase your fuel oil deliveries from GLF, this is important. So there you are fellows, a chance to cut the costs of your fuel oil deliveries for the coming and now, at hand, heating season.

Come to the next meeting which is Monday, November 2nd.

Love Letters Led To First Postage Stamp

Sir Rowland Hill, an English schoolmaster, was staying at an inn in 1837. A postman called with a letter for one of the inn's maids. Looking at the letter and seeing that it was sent collect, the damsel returned it to the postman. "You will just have to destroy it," she said. "I can't pay the postage."

Sir Rowland, who overheard the conversation, sympathized with the maid and gallantly paid the charge. The postman left.

"I'm sorry you did that," the maid said.

My sweetheart and I have adopted the plan of putting our messages on the outside of letters. We read those messages and then turn the letter back. In that way it doesn't cost us anything to exchange messages."

The maid's scheme made Sir Rowland think about the English Post Office Department and how it operated. Hill began examining the postal system which was complicated and generally inefficient.

Many of his conservations and proposals were later adopted.

For example, he proposed that all mail be prepaid and that postage stamps be used to indicate payment by the sender.

In 1840, the "Penny Black" stamp appeared in Britain. The issue, showing the profile of young Queen Victoria, became the world's first adhesive postage stamp.

Seven years later, the United States adopted adhesive stamps for use as prepayment of postage. Since that time hundreds of the tiny collectible items have been issued in this country.

Carman Submits Bill To Improve Social Security

Long Island Congressman Greg Carman this week introduces legislation that would save the social security trust fund millions of dollars each year and eliminate abuse of the retirement provisions. The amendment entitled Suspension of Benefits for Inmates of Penal Institutions would prevent convicted felons from receiving social security benefits while serving their prison sentences.

"It's outrageous that convicts are eligible for social security payments," stated Carman. "It costs the government nearly $15,000 a year to keep a criminal in prison, and on top of that, some of them receive monthly social security checks. We pay their room and board and then give them cigarette money."

Current law allows certain inmates to receive early retirement benefits even while they are serving sentences for crimes as serious as murder. Although the average payment is only $250 a month, some prisoners receive as much as $500 and more. Over the next twenty years, the Carman amendment would save the American people over $100 million!

"It's a criminal act to give felons social security checks when the program is having such trouble," continued Carman. "Law abiding citizens suffer and convicted murderers are getting higher benefits."

The Carman initiative comes shortly after disclosure by the government of massive fraud in the social security program. Auditors discovered that over 8000 checks each month were being issued to people who had died. These payments were being used fraudulently by family members and friends who were cashing the checks illegally. One case involved a man who had been dead for over 15 years! Eliminating this illegal practice will save the social security program over $60 million overall and $26 million this year alone.

American Legion Combats Arthritis

The 58 posts of The Nassau County American Legion have launched a campaign to raise $15,000.00 for the benefit of the Long Island Arthritis Foundation.

Nassau County American Legion Commander Edgar D. Smith of Massapequa Park said directives have gone out to all Post Commanders and Post Arthritis Chairmen throughout the County recommending methods of soliciting public support. Included among the many special events to be hosted for the Arthritis Foundation will be pasta festivals, bingo, Las Vegas nights, dinners and "50-50" raffles.

"We look forward to the full support of each of our 58 American Legion Posts," said Past County Commander and Arthritis Chairman Joseph J. Devine. "We're also calling upon all residents of the County of Nassau to give full support to their local American Legion Post, and their programs in this fight against our nation's No. 1 crippling ARTHRITIS."

According to Devine, the drive will end in March 1982 with the 8th Annual Stop Arthritis Telethon.

Nassau Trust Reports Record Earnings

Nassau Trust Company reported record quarterly and nine month operating earnings for the periods ended September 30, 1981. Income before security transactions and extraordinary item for the third quarter was $359,374 or $4.3 per share, up 284.6% when compared with the same period one year ago, while the first nine months resulted in income before security transactions and extraordinary item of $905,520 or $1.09 per share, up 216.7% versus the first nine months of the prior year.

J. Devine, Chairman of the Nassau Legion Arthritis Program. The County Executive urged all residents to support their local American Legion Post in its campaign to raise funds for the benefit of the Arthritis Foundation.

During the third quarter of 1981, the Bank sold certain low yielding investment securities resulting in security losses after the benefit of income taxes of $119,398 or $1.14 per share. The proceeds were reinvested at tax adjusted interest levels.

In Nassau County ...

COUNTY EXECUTIVE FRAN PURCELL!

He keeps his word. He does his job.

- ★ He's actually reduced the County's share of property taxes three years in a row.
- ★ He's cut the County welfare caseload to its lowest point in 14 years, and removed welfare recipients from luxury motels.
- ★ He's brought thousands of new jobs to Nassau.
- ★ He's won the fight to keep the islanders here, and turned the coliseum from a money-loser to a money-maker for the tax payers.
- ★ He's cut the county payroll by nearly $10 million.
- ★ He's eliminated sales tax on home heating fuels.
- ★ He's doubled police anti-vandal patrols ...

In Oyster Bay ...

Supervisor JOSEPH COLBY

His is a proven commitment to the best.

His knowledge of Town government and ability as a "taxcutter" are a matter of record. In 1979, Supervisor Joe Colby led his Republican Town Board members to adopt a budget that cut the general town tax by the largest amount in 20 years ... and has held the tax rate to that reduced level.

Forward-looking Supervisor Colby and his Republican team have also

- ★ Provided for almost 20% more senior citizen housing.
- ★ Brought many companies' corporate headquarters to Oyster Bay, which increased jobs and enhanced local business.
- ★ Saved the Town's tax-payers over $1 million by switching to a sound self-insurance plan.
- ★ Fought full-value reassessment to give relief to residential property owners.

And they have done so much more to improve government efficiency, fight crime and keep Oyster Bay progressive, but suburban.

Read The Ballots On Election Day

By Sup. Joseph Colby

On the ballot for voter consideration this November 3 will be constitutional amendment #1, which, if passed, would authorize an increase in the bonding limit of the New York Job Development Authority (JDA) from the present $150 million to $300 million. Funds for these loans are raised through the sale of bonds to private investors.

The Job Development Authority is a self-supporting, public benefit corporation whose goal is to stimulate the growth of private sector employment in the State of New York by assisting with the financing needs of individual companies already in the State that wish to expand or build new facilities. It also assists companies not in the State, but which are seeking locations for new plants.

JDA functions as a bank and may lend up to 40% of a project cost for construction, rehabilitation or improvement of plants, for research and development facilities or other eligible business facilities. The loans are made through non-profit Local Development Corporations, of which there are nearly 200 located throughout the State. The JDA raises money used for this lending program by selling tax-exempt bonds to individual and institutional investors; the bonds are guaranteed by the credit of New York State. Funds to repay and retire the bonds come from the repayment of loans by the borrowers.

The Authority consists of nine members, with the State Commissioner of Commerce as Chairman, the State Industrial Commissioner and the State Superintendent of Banks serving ex-officio, and six members appointed to four year terms by the Governor with the consent of the Senate. Under the provisions of the JDA Act, all loans must be approved by a vote of at least five Authority members, with each application reviewed and acted upon within the framework of a set of program guidelines.

Since 1967, JDA has not received any money from the State for its programs, operations or administration. The program has aided more than 1,000 business organizations throughout the State. More than 33,000 jobs have been created on Long Island, representing a payroll of more than $330 million each year. More than $70 million a year in state and local tax revenues has been generated and JDA loans of $183 million have produced $560 million of private sector investment in buildings, machinery and equipment throughout the State.

Amendment #1, calling for the doubling of the JDA bonding capacity of $300, will enable the JDA to intensify its efforts to finance business expansion and provide job opportunities.

Take the time to learn all you can about Amendment #1, and be sure to vote!

More Police Needed

On Oct. 25 Assembly Republican Leader James L. Emery called for state financial assistance to increase the number of professional police throughout the state and called for volunteer police at the local level to assist in stopping the growing tide of violent crime.

At the same time, in advocating "a show of authority in the streets," Emery accused Governor Carey and the Legislature of failure, "to do all they can to provide the protection we need to live free of fear and violence." He said that the Governor's continued opposition to the death penalty shows that "he really doesn't care about protecting you and your families."

In remarks prepared for delivery before over 600 delegates at the 48th Annual Legislative Conference of the Volunteer Firemen of the State of New York in Albany Sunday morning, Emery presented a checklist of new laws he advocates are necessary "to ensure that the innocent are protected and the guilty are punished." These include:

- a mandatory sentencing law that will ensure that a person sentenced to a specific term will serve the full term with no time off for good behavior, no parole and no conditional release.
- the right for prosecutors to appeal lenient sentences.
- the imposition of consecutive - and not concurrent - sentences on people who commit felonies while they are out on bail or on an appeal from another felony charge.
- the tightening of parole procedures by providing for presumption against release of a violent offender.

• the right of children to testify in certain criminal sex cases without corroboration.

But the emphasis of the Assembly Republican Leader's remarks dealt with the need for more police - both professional and volunteer. He told the volunteer firemen:

"Since you staff approximately 1,400 of the 1,900 fire departments in our state, you are providing our people with vital services that would cost at least a billion dollars if we had to hire professionals to do your work. You have shown what volunteer firefighters can do. Now it's time for us to see what volunteer crimefighters can do, too. With proper training and equipment, and serving under the supervision of professional police, volunteer police could be of immense help in many communities."

Emery, former Sheriff of Livingston County, has proposed legislation for creation of auxiliary police forces and the other laws he advocates. However, he maintained that neither the Executive or Legislative branches of state government was heeding the call. "The first duty of government is the protection of its citizens," he continued. "Yet in our state, I am sorry to say, our Governor and our Legislature have failed to do all they can to provide the protection we need to live free of fear and violence."

He said his call for more police was needed because "visible presence of police on the street is one of the most effective deterrents to crime. But unfortunately, many of our police departments are under-financed and under-manned."

Emery said his tough anti-crime stands should not be considered "bloodthirsty". However, the cost of crime in this state was over $5 billion in 1980, and "we cannot afford that either economically or socially." And he repeated his call "to take away the rubber stamp veto of the death penalty by Governor Carey."

Town Board Adopts '82 Budget

A General Town Tax rate of 80 1/2 cents per $100 assessed valuation, a rate that marked the first reduction of that tax in 12 years, has been held for the third consecutive year as the Oyster Bay Town Board on Tuesday, October 27, adopted the 1982 budget.

"I believe this budget will permit the Town to continue meeting the needs of our residents providing that all departments continue developing more efficient ways of delivering services," Oyster Bay Town Supervisor Joseph Colby said. "It will not be easy. This is a very tight budget that will demand greater productivity from every Town official and employee."

Costs reflected by the total 1982 General Town Budget amount to $26,830,404. The General Town Tax is levied on all properties throughout the Town.

The Part Town budget (Building, Zoning, Planning and Development) is set at $1,942,778, increasing that tax rate by 3.7 cents to 18 1/2 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The Highway Budget will increase the Highway tax by 7.6 cents to $1.14 and 4/5ths. Both the Part Town and Highway taxes are levied only on property in unincorporated areas of the Town.

Colby noted that "the Town budget also reflects the 1982 financial plans proposed for more than 50 special districts in the Town, which provide such services as fire protection, water supply, refuse collection, community parks, etc. Many of these districts are administered at the local level by boards of commissioners elected in the community and though their budgets are shown in the Town budget as required by State law, each special district sets its own tax rate." All of these budgets were adopted as proposed.

Colby pointed out that "only 5% of the tax bill paid by residents goes to the Town (including General, Part Town and Highway Funds), while 12% goes for local special districts. The remainder of the total property tax bill is comprised of local School District Taxes (57%) and 28% for such Nassau County services as its General Fund, Police District, Community College and Sewer District. Nassau County and the School Districts each prepare and adopt their own budgets."

New Postage Rates Begin Nov. 1

Ample quantities of a new "C" stamp and other postal stationery items are on hand at all area post offices, branches and stations in anticipation of postage rate increases which become effective Sunday, November 1.

The regular stamp bears the letter "C" instead of a denomination, and has a postage value of 20 cents - the new rate for one ounce of First-Class domestic mail.

Brown and white in color, the issue features an eagle with the legend "US Postage" beneath it. The letter "C" appears beside the eagle. Also included in the design are the words "Domestic Mail" to remind mailers that this particular stamp cannot be used for international mail.

The use of nondenominated stamps by the U.S. Postal Service began in 1975 when two special Christmas stamps were issued without a denomination. The stamps carried a monetary value of ten cents.

In 1978, the Service printed and put into use an "A" stamp which coincided with a postage increase for First-Class and other classes of mail.

In 1981, another nondenominated issue, the "B" stamp, was produced as a contingency ensuring that an adequate supply of First-Class stamps was available when new postal rates went into effect last March.

"Supplying our customers with postage stamps is a vital part of our operation," Postmaster Murello said.

Approximately 4 million of the new "C" stamp are on hand at the main post office and all branches and stations, he said.

The "C" issue is available in sheets, coils and booklets. Embossed stamped envelopes, bearing a "C" in lieu of the 20-cent denomination, also are on sale plus a nondenominated postal card which sells for 13 cents, the new postal card rate.

In addition to these items, Postmaster Murello said there is an abundance of one and two-cent stamps available to be used in combination with 18-cent stamps that mailers may have on hand.

Federal And State Awards To Museum

The Board of Trustees of the Hicksville Gregory Museum, the Long Island Earth Science Center, have announced that the museum will be the recipient of two governmental grants for the year 1981-1982. An award of $1500 for exhibit enhancement and development of our-reach services was made by the New York State Council on the Arts. This is the first state grant in several years and indicates that the Council favorably views the museum's services to schools and sees its potential for stable and larger public service.

A grant of $5100 for general support will be available to the museum trustees from the Institute of Museum Services, a funding agency of the Federal Department of Education. This award is a "breakthrough" in funding for the Gregory Museum, the first Federal support in the 19 years of the museum's existence. These general support funds are crucial to the museum's continuance, contributing toward the salary compensation of the museum director, here-to-for a volunteer, non-salaried administrator.

In applying for these grants, this past March, the museum leadership made every effort to convince the award panels of the government that strong local support existed for the museum. The successful conclusion of service contracts with the Hicksville Public Schools and the Public Library carried much weight with the Federal and State award panels, the Museum Trustees have been informed.

Efforts to enlist the financial support of the Town of Oyster Bay for the maintenance of the town-owned Old Heitz Place Courthouse, the museum's home, so as to create a triad of local governmental support for the museum, are still under way. Oyster Bay's Intergovernmental Affairs Agency is considering the very possible employment of Town Community Development Funds for the needed preservation of the courthouse, a National Historic Building.

WRAP BOTH YOUR HOME AND CAR IN ONE BLANKET OF PROTECTION

We have an innovative policy called PCP—Personal Comprehensive Protection—from The Continental Insurance Companies. And if you own a home and a car, PCP offers you exceptional value.

Separate policies often mean differing amounts of protection for your car, for your home and for its contents. And separate policies often cost you more, in time as well as money.

PCP, on the other hand, gives you one amount of property protection for your home and its contents. And one amount of liability protection for your car and home. Plus, PCP gives you the option to include your hospital, disability income and mortgage life insurance in the same plan.

PCP is easy to understand, efficient and time-saving, and in many cases, more economical.

Come see us or call. We'll be glad to show you what PCP can do to make you—and your property—more secure.

Families For Life Club News

By Doug Harknett

The two reasons most often given by candidates of the Republican, Democrat and Conservative parties in Nassau County for not seeking Right to Life Party (RTL) endorsement are that they don't believe in single issue parties, and that the abortion issue is not relevant at the local level.

Single issue parties have to be judged on the basis of what their issues are, that is to say on the merits of the issue, not on pious incantations from the other world verbalizing nebulous "principles." The RTL has five main principles: (1) to pass a Human Life Amendment (HLA); (2) and if that doesn't happen, to work for a constitutional convention that would pass one; (3) to ratify a HLA at the state level; (4) to inhibit abortion pending a HLA, and (5) to prevent the legalization of euthanasia.

If candidates disagree with any of these purposes we understand why they do not ask for RTL endorsement, because it would be refused, and RTL people should vote against them. If they agree with all these purposes, why would they not ask for RTL endorsement? They would not be bound to any greater degree by the party's requirements than by their own consciences.

The reason must lie elsewhere. Perhaps they want to be able to waffle on the issue when out of hearing range of right to life. Maybe they want to fog up the issue with other issues so that anti-life voters won't notice their pro-life stand. These reasons would show a lack of character and principles. Or maybe it would be the possible loss of campaign support from their county chairmen. This would mean they are more beholden to their party apparatus than to the public who will vote for them. There are obvious possibilities for conflict of interest where their party's desire for a particular outcome on an issue will not be in the best interests of the public.

The basic questions are whether the man is the creature of the party, or the party is the creature of many men, or whether both the party and the man are the creatures of the county chairmen.

So much for the single issue. The other reason given for not seeking RTL endorsement is that nothing can be done about abortion at the local level; that the state and federal governments have reserved the entire subject to themselves. The answer to that is that ordinarily before a man becomes a state or federal legislator he starts in politics at the local level. Last year Al D'Amato went from the Hempstead Presiding Supervisor's chair to the U.S. Senate; and Gregory Carman went from a seat on the Oyster Bay Town Council to the U.S. House of Representatives. It was and is very relevant, indeed, whether these men were and are pro-life or not. If candidates declare themselves in a timely manner they have the opportunity to rally the pro-life vote. Were it not for the pro-life vote, Al D'Amato would still be in Hempstead. From the point of view of the RTL movement, there is no point letting an anti-life gain skill and expertise in politics at any level at public expense when there is the chance that he will sometime later seek state or federal office where he could do damage to the pro-life cause. If a politician doesn't declare himself to be on the side of RTL he will have an exceedingly difficult time later trying to convince RTL'ers that he is really pro-life, and not just an opportunist.

The bottom line is to vote straight Right to Life, where what you see is what you get.

Hicksville
Cannonballs
(1973 Boys)
By Pete and
Diane Fujimoto

On Oct. 24th, the Cannonballs traveled to Plainview to meet an improved team, the Plainview Terrors. We took the field with some changes in the line up, but got off to a slow start. After many attempts, the Terrors made a goal as our goalkeeper, David Knuth, came out on the play. Alex Shevchenko had a long kick for the net, but Plainview saved it. Several more tries by the Cannonballs were stopped and the half ended with Hicksville down 1-0.

During the second half, the Terrors scored again, increasing their lead to 2-0. The Cannonballs got tough, Larry Bag, Tommy Baron, John Diamond, Michael Donovan, Dan Fujimoto, Gino Ianucci, David Knuth, Dan McGoe, Brian McNamee, Thomas Nieman, Jasori Pinsky, Alex Shevchenko, Brian Sierra and Les Spence started to play the type of soccer they are capable of playing: Brian Sierra had many good defensive kicks from the back line. The defense closed the door to the net and the offensive played very aggressively. Out ball, controlled second half enabled Toomas Nieman to score two spectacular goals. Unfortunately, time ran out and the game ended in a 2-2 tie.

The Tornados traveled to Bohemia to play the Bohemia Pumas this past week. In a very exciting game the final score resulted in a 2-2 tie.

The Pumas scored an early goal on the Tornados, but a goal by Matt Green-span with assists from Erik Matz and Mike Kent tied the game before the half. Both teams continued to play tough the 2nd half displaying fine soccer skills. The Tornados eventually scored with Jason Kilmatis and Todd Zell setting up the play to Hermes Furlin who put the ball by the Pumas goalie to make the score 2-1.

Goalie Rex Gerner and the defense led by Gerrit Nijboer, Timmy Carroll, Brian Centrone, Larry Neuberger, and Kevin O'Hea did a good job in defending their goal. This fine Puma team never gave up and scored the tying goal in the closing minutes of play. The Tornados record is now 3-1-2 and the boys should be commended for their fine playing in their first season together.

Field to play the Hicksville Comets.

The Comets kept taking shots on goal in the first half all of which were denied. The Comets power was in the front line which consisted of Anthony Conte, Jamie Curley, Tim Doyle, John Giuttari, Frank Humphreys and Tommy Pedicini.

All the Comets played great but I have to complement the half backs who were Tommy Bell, Ryan McCann, Michael Segal as center, and Steven Postullo, who did excellent in pushing the ball up the field for the front line.

The fullbacks for the Comets did excellent in stopping the Flyers from scoring. The Comets fullback line are Scott Germer as center, Bobby Himmel, Thomas Reilly and Brian Sacks.

The Comets even played a stronger second half. The Comets front line got a goal on a beautiful pass from Ryan McCann to Tim Doyle who kicked it in. The second goal was a beautiful shot by Michael Segal unassisted.

Scott Van Steen did especially well as a stopper. The Comets goalie, Chris Margaritis, displayed all the skills that a goalie needs and that is what enabled him to make this his third shut out of the season.

All the Comets played great and it is because of Barbara McCann and Anthony Luongo, their coaches.

HHS Girls Swim Team

The week of October 19 was a busy and exciting one for the Hicksville H.S. Girls Swim Team. They met in competition with the Garden City Team at the pool in Central Islip High where they practice with coach, Walter Olsewsky. Divers Anja Wittig and Donna Hoffman placed second and third and the swimmers performed well against their opponents. Second place points were scored by Jemine Mund in the 200 IM, and 500 free, Teri Montalto in the 100 fly and 50 free, Pam Sheridan in the 100 free and Lorna Mund in the 100 back. The Medley Relay of Jemine Mund, Andrea Pitta, Teri Montalto and Lorna Mund and the Free Relay of Pam Sheridan, Aimee Pitta, Anja Wittig and Ann Siery also placed second. The third place winners were Andrea Pitta in 100 free and breast and Lorna Mund in the 200 free.

The second meet of the week was held at Great Neck North and was the closest and most exciting competition of the season. Jemine Mund broke the standing records for the 200 and 100 freestyle with her first place swims. Also placing first was Lorna Mund in the 200 IM and 100 back and the Medley Relay on which she swam fly, with Sabine Arnold, Barbara Moore and Jemine Mund. Teri Montalto took second in the 50 free and the 100 fly. Pam Sheridan was second in the 100 free and Aimee Pitta was second in the 500 free. Hicksville West

This year's election campaign in the Town of Oyster Bay has demonstrated a contrast of styles. The Democrats have been scrambling around to anyone who sounds like they might have a complaint about something and making any sort of promise that sounds good at the moment. They have been so quick to promise simple solutions to any questions that they are now stuck with one of their own thoughtless promises: the one where they promised to allow across the board legalization of two-family homes. As more facts come out as to what that means, it really makes one wonder how long it will be before the Democrats start saying they never made the promise.

By the way, what that promise could mean is that more than 72,000 apartments could be added to the Town of Oyster Bay and double the number of commuters coming into Hicksville. A quick look at costs-not counting schools, fire protection, water district-shows that if only half those apartments came into existence (not you but your neighbor converts his house), it would mean an additional $86 million for taxpayers to pick up. The entire General Town budget for this year was only about $25 million. With only half those apartments, we would have an influx of 115,000 people, all of whom would be renters with absolutely no vested interest in keeping up our communities.

On the other side, the Republicans have asked people to look at the positive accomplishments they have already achieved. They point to proven facts and official records that show our Republican candidates have provided efficient, reliable services while holding down government costs. Town Supervisor Joe Colby notes that since taking office in 1977 he has had to overcome a 40 percent rate of inflation. Then he turns to official records and points out that implementing innovative approaches to trim costs allowed the Republican Town Board to lower the Town tax for the first time in 12 years, and by the largest amount in 20 years. The lowered rate, first adopted in 1979, has been retained by the Town Board, and will stay at that same low rate next year. If your home is assessed at $6,000, you pay only $48.30 in Town taxes--thanks to our Republican tax cutters in Oyster Bay Town Hall.

And while the Democrats are on one side pushing for high density housing, the Colby Team--Supervisor Colby, Councilmen Tom Hogan, Ken Diamond, Douglas Hynes and John Venditto and Town Clerk Ann R. Ocker--is out explaining the fact that the Town is fighting in court against yet another group that wants to destroy suburban areas by adding thousands of apartment units. That suit, similar to the NAACP case that the Town won a few years ago, was brought by the ACLU, but its goals seem to coincide with the Democrat proposal.

Joe Colby must be wondering if the Democrat proposal to add 72,000 apartments isn't just another attempt by the Tri-State Regional Planning Commission to bring about the urban housing scheme Colby blocked when he successfully led officials from three states against that group's regional plan to destroy our suburban neighborhoods.

When you compare the two states, one has to wonder how any party in the suburbs could favor some of the "promises" being made by the Democrats this year. Maybe the ultra-liberal swing suddenly taken by Nassau Democrat party officials is just being made obvious by the campaign of their slate of candidates.

As a homeowner, I sure hope the voters in Oyster Bay base their decision on the facts. The proven facts and even the Democrat promises show that the Republican slate is the only one offering responsible suburban leadership.

At the October 21 meeting of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club the guest speaker, Mary - Poli Russell, an Astrologer, presented a unique program, as she expressed her concern with the astrological part of our beings, and her interest in universal law and order as it applies to man's every day affairs. She said that astrology is a wonderful tool to gain peace of mind and the acceptance of ourselves.

Ms. Russell is a world traveler, has studied in India, and was initiated into the "Pyramid of Gizeh" in the Ancient Amber Ceremony of the Queen's Chamber.

For the highlight of her program, Ms. Russell discussed a previously prepared astrological chart of Kiwanis Vice President Ronald Wagner.

In the photo, Ms. Russell is displaying the certificate of appreciation which Mr. Wagner had presented to her for her unusual program.

PEAK TO PEEK TO PEAK

When the gaze of God focuses upon our lives, it can cause dramatic ramifications. Business as usual rarely results after an encounter with the Almighty. If you question this for a moment, just ask Zacchaeus when you enter into the realm of eternal timelessness and glory. For one day in the oasis of Jericho, the transforming gospel of God reached Zacchaeus, and in the process it redeemed his past, changed his present, and re-directed his future.

Until his Jesus encounter, Zacchaeus was a candidate for little more than contempt. He was a short Jew who was having a mid-life crisis. He had chosen the unpopular profession of tax collector. Not only was he a member of the Jericho branch of the IRS but was probably the supervisor of the region with the title of Chief Tax Collector. Small in stature but large in power, he was into some of the big bucks of his time. Much of the money he collected in the name of Rome stuck to his fingers before the rest made its way into the Roman treasury.

Tax collectors and robbers were spoken of in the same breath and considered one and the same. They were also considered to be collaborators with the despised Romans. Therefore, people avoided them, and we can surmise that they were very lonely people.

Although Jericho was a nice place, Zacchaeus, like his fellow tax collectors, had all the popularity of terminal cancer. It is quite understandable why no one was willing to move over so the little fellow might be able to see. We can even imagine that he might have been pushed and shoved into the background. But Zacchaeus was not going to be so easily denied.

Judging the route Jesus would take, Zacchaeus ran on ahead and climbed up a sycamore tree to a peak which would assure him a peek at the man who had a reputation of taking interest in his kind of people. As the Son of God moved down the road, his gaze fell upon the little man with the big reputation. Jesus said to him, "Zacchaeus, make haste and come down; for I must stay at your house today." Quickly climbing down the tree, Zacchaeus received Jesus joyfully. Do you hear it? All the murmuring which always is spoken against anyone who associates with the wrong kind of people. When Zacchaeus had climbed to the peak to peek, nothing was probably further from his mind than that the prophet from Galilee would choose to stay at his home.

So far we have seen Zacchaeus' resourcefulness in the presence of handicap, his religious hunger, and his decisiveness in opening his home and his heart to the Lord. Now we witness his power for radical repentance and restitution. Putting his money where his confession was, Zacchaeus said he would give half of his riches to the poor and return four-fold to any he had defrauded. Zacchaeus' radical repentance and restitution was made possible by Jesus' radical love and redemptive power.

When we open ourselves up to God and allow the love of God in Jesus Christ to invade us, only then are we empowered by the Spirit to realign our lives with God's will. Only then can our way be transferred into his way. From the peak of the sycamore tree in order to peek at the Lord, Zacchaeus' eyes were opened, and his life was changed to the peak of becoming a disciple of Christ.

When we come to worship the Lord, do we enter with eyes and hearts open to the possibility of a God encounter? Most of us rise to the peak of the church's sanctuary to peek at the Lord to see what he might have to enhance our lives. Few of us come with the thought of the possibility of a dramatic change in our lives brought about by the peak experience of becoming a disciple of Christ.

It was not long after Zacchaeus climbed the sycamore tree that the Son of God ascended a tree of his own, the hardwood tree of the cross. And from that cross all humankind observed the unparalleled love of the Father.

From the peak of the cross, Jesus sees you and me standing below, having tied his hands to the cross bars by our offenses and having impaled his feet to the stump by our neglect. Not only does his body and blood communicate the father's love, but his words assure us as he utters, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." Only foolish people keep themselves away from the love of God in Christ.

There are those of us who have received Jesus as their Savior, but have failed to have the peak experience of having him as the Lord of their lives. We have not had the supernatural high that comes from the peak experience of having Jesus' will so intertwined with our own. To put it simply, we need to let go and let God direct our lives. And when we do, we face the exciting risk of ascending the pleasurable peak of discipleship.

Today the Lord is challenging each of us to go for it — go for it all — to let God rule our hearts and lives not only from peak to peak but to the peak of the life of a disciple of Christ. In other words, to go from peak to peak to peak.

Dear Friends

Two weeks ago we explained this newspaper's position in favor of Amendment Number One...the improvement of employment opportunities through an expanded Job Development Authority. We are also in favor of Proposition No. One...secure correctional facilities bond issue. It is sad that money has to be spent for larger prisons. All our local and state prisons are at present overcrowded. This is inhumane to those who have broken the laws and must be so confined. Certainly the alternative, would be to release convicted criminals, thereby making it highly probable that they will continue their lives of crime! In fact, that is exactly what is constantly happening today. Many, many crimes are committed by criminals either out on bail or on parole. Although we sincerely hope that rehabilitative work may be accomplished within prison walls, we feel that the potential victims (you and I and our families and friends) must be protected. Certainly less prison overcrowding can only be accomplished at present by approving this Bond Issue. We urge a "Yes" vote on Proposition Number One.

As to those who are presently running for office we heartily endorse the following candidates:

COUNTY EXECUTIVE Francis T. Purcell who has been doing a great job of holding the line of taxes and spending, maintaining the County's fiscal stability, attracting new business and industry to help lower our taxes, and generate new jobs for County residents. We are sure that he will continue these successful policies during his next term.

COUNTY COMPTROLLER Peter T. King who promises to use the power to audit creatively and aggressively. He believes that by insisting on accountability and proper financial procedures, the office of county comptroller can sharply reduce waste and duplicative services.

COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY Denis Dillon is running unopposed, which speaks well for the way in which he has conducted this important office in the past.

TOWN SUPERVISOR Joseph Colby who has been able to reduce our Town taxes by continuing to cut government waste while maintaining services. He has been instrumental, on a County level, in passing legislation repealing the County sales tax on home heating fuels, gas and electricity. He has spearheaded the implementation of a modern energy resource recovering system which, when sufficient testing has been done, will be a reality here in the Town of Oyster Bay.

FOUR TOWN COUNCILMEN, Kenneth Diamond, Howard Hogan, Jr., John Venditto and Douglas Hynes, all incumbents, who have been instrumental in working toward keeping the Town on a sound financial footing, by eliminating waste and maintaining productivity in services.

As a team, the Town Supervisor and these Councilmen while struggling to maintain fiscal responsibility, are determined to keep the quality of our Town as mainly residential. It is our feeling that, while minor differences always occur between those elected to govern and those whom they represent, the general direction in which our Town is proceeding is not only according to our wishes, but is fiscally sound.

THAT'S ALL for this week. Stay well...don't forget to vote on Tuesday. Also, thank God that we are all living in a Country where you still have this freedom.

SHEILA NOETH

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

NEWS FROM THE GALILEO LODGE VENERABLE TONY PREVITE'S MESSAGE: 'Experience is the name everyone gives to his mistakes'. — Old Saying.

Autumn is an invigorating and stimulating time of the year. Its the time when trees shed their leaves and blanket our surroundings in rich autumnal shades of rust, tan and brown. Its the time when lonely wheatstalks stand like sentinels of nature, anxiously seeking the company of orange-faced pumpkins and raggedy scarecrows in the fields. And, of course, its time for Halloween.

Please note that the festive mood of Halloween will be very much in evidence next Saturday night, the 31st of October, at which time the Galileo Lodge will present its Halloween Dance. Tickets sell at $9.50 per person, a nominal fee that entitles you to a delicious hot dinner with all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and live music from the Dynatonics. Jeff Wallick (681-8428) will 'chair' this activity, assisted by Armand Del Cioppo, who will also handle ticket sales and seating arrangements. Call Armand at (938-5052). Please note also that a 'bring-your-own-liquor' policy will be in effect that night. If you are seeking a dance with a real Fall flavor, and one that can really put you in a festive mood, why not head for the Galileo. Lodge next Saturday night and immerse yourself in the enjoyable proceedings. Costumes can be worn and prizes will be given to those which are the most 'Halloween-ish'.

Very sorry to report that Joe Giordano, the Grand Trustee of the Galileo Lodge, has been recently hospitalized after suffering a heart attack. Joe is now resting at the Nassau Hospital in Mineola, and needless to mention that he is one of the stalwarts of the Galileo Lodge and his dynamic and responsible leadership is an undeniable asset to our organization. The Galileo Lodge and its membership wish to take this opportunity to wish Joe Giordano a speedy recovery for his family and for those of us who appreciate the qualities he has given to the Galileo Lodge.

With the holiday anxiously waiting to make its seasonal debut, at which time it will engulf us in waves of joy and glad tidings, the Galileo Lodge announces that it will offer a Christmas Dance and New Years Dance. The Christmas Dance is scheduled for the 5th of December, with tickets selling at $9.50 per person and which includes a hot dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and live music from a leading band to be announced. The New Years Dance is scheduled for December 31st and the price of admission for this affair will be $60 per person, a modest sum that offers a cocktail hour, a delicious dinner, coffee and cake, beer, soda, set-ups, unlimited liquor and live music from a leading band. More information on these two particular activities will be forthcoming shortly. Make your plans early to attend these two enjoyable dances which will certainly help to stamp out the dreariness and bleakness of winter.

Membership drive of the Galileo Lodge is still one of its most important activities for 1981, and although the new membership rolls have risen considerably during this past year, the Galileo Lodge would like to see many more names added to them. New membership means the instilling of new blood, the promulgation of new thoughts and ideas and the renaissance of a new spirit. Anyone desirous of joining an ethnic organization that is either tailored or structured to suit individual tastes and needs, no matter how discriminating or sophisticated they may be, can seek out the Galileo Lodge and what it has to offer. The Galileo Lodge is diversified enough to socially entice everyone and intellectually-inspiring enough to interest everyone. Call 931-9351 and find out for yourself what the Galileo Lodge can do for you.
