Consumer Beware

Dillon Points Out Home Improvement Frauds

Nassau County District Attorney Denis Dillon today announced the filing of charges against 14 Home Improvement firms for doing business in Nassau County without a license. The penalties for the conviction of this unclassified misdemeanor were recently elevated at the request of the District Attorney to a maximum of one year in prison and/or a $1,000 fine.

Dillon said, "The charges were filed after consumers were complained of being bilked by these businesses. A check of the records by the County Consumer Affairs Office, showed that these firms were not licensed, as required by local law."

"One example of a complaint comes from a Hempstead homeowner who contracted with Concorde Home Center of Franklin Square to have his kitchen remodeled. In June of 1981, a deposit of $2,600 was given to the contractor and to day, no work has been done. This is one of three complaints filed against Concorde Construction.

In another case, a Hicksville resident contracted with Formica Specialist of Levittown to install countertops in his kitchen. The total cost was $700 and the down payment of $300 was made in December of 1980. To date, no work has been done.

In addition, in August of 1981, a Lynbrook homeowner contracted with Creative Carpentry and Contracting Company of West Hempstead to have a two car garage constructed. A down payment of $10,000 was made and only partial work was done. Again, this is one of three complaints filed against Creative Carpentry and Contracting Company.

Dillon said he would continue to crack down on firms in Nassau that operate without a license. "A license is security for the homeowner that the firm is not a fly-by-night operation. It is important that residents considering home improvements contact the Consumer Affairs Office to make sure the businesses they're dealing with is licensed," said the District Attorney.

The firms charged today are the following:

- William Nardone, doing business as - Concorde Home Centers, Inc. (three counts), 9 New Hyde Park Road, Franklin Square.

- Russell Cafaro, doing business as - Formica Specialist, 12 Cherrytree Lane, Levittown.

- Anthony Minio, doing business as - Creative Carpentry & Carpentry Co. (three counts), 351 Hempstead Avenue, West Hempstead.

- Edward Kirchner, doing business as - Kirchner Masonry Construction, 2371 Cedar Avenue, Lake Ronkonkoma.

- Bruce Asbury, 312 28th Street, Lindenhurst.

- Michael D'Agostino, doing business as - MND & Company & MND Landscape (two counts), 36 Columbine Lane, Kings Park.

- Michael Tchaban & Dec-O-Rus Seamless Flooring & Contracting Corporation (two counts), 2938 Hempstead Turnpike, Levittown.

- Dominic Barbuto, doing business as - All Weather Roofing, 3583 Naomi Place, Seaford.

- William Sullivan & Sullivan Energy & Fuel Savers, Inc., 80 Winter Lane, Hicksville.

- Henry Ray, doing business as - Ray's Painting and Decorating, 7 Marwood Road, Port Washington.

- Daniel Sofia, doing business as - Just Linoleum, 3161 Trinity Street, Oceanside.

- Abraham Reed, doing business as - Northeast Investigation Agency, 35 Main Street, Hempstead.

- Joseph Groth & Groth Industries, Inc., 2931 Western Boulevard, Baldwin.

- Melvin Adler & Rhoda Rose Gerry, doing business as - EBI Industries, Inc., 5 Wateredge Court, Babylon.

In the past two years, charges have been filed against nearly 100 firms.

A very timely program is planned for our February 12 Club meeting. Our guest speaker is Mr. Theodore Jenkins, Cooperative Extension Agent for the Cooperative Extension Association.

Mr. Jenkins' presentation will deal with energy-saving tips. He will utilize charts, an energy kit and an electronic environmental simulator to illustrate various methods of coping with inflation and saving precious fuel during this inclement period of cold and bitter weather.

For instance, are you aware that windows and doors cover 20 percent of the sidewalls in an average home? Heat losses through and around windows and doors may be responsible for as much as 50 percent of your fuel bill. Storm windows and doors conserve energy as well as add to the value of a home. It is estimated that storm windows and storm doors will pay for themselves in seven to ten years or less depending on energy costs (based on 12% interest charges). After that, they will return a dividend of 13 to 18 percent.

Did you know that a thermostat, off by one degree, can effect your fuel bill as much as three percent. Have thermostat(s) checked seasonally by a heating service specialist. This can be done when your furnace is serviced. The dust should be removed, the accuracy checked and adjusted if necessary, and the contacts cleaned, if possible. You can check your thermostat's accuracy with a centrally located, reliable thermometer, but if a discrepancy is noted, a professional should be called in to make adjustments.

If you would like to learn about additional ways to conserve energy in your home, make sure you attend our Club meeting, 8:30 p.m., February 12, VFW Hall, 320 South Broadway, Hicksville.

Hope you were all able to hear President Ronald Reagan's recent State of the Union address. His reflection of tax increase proposals portends many many effects in the Nation's economy. The President believes that any tax increases this year would hamper the progress of his Economic Recovery Program. The impact of tax changes takes time to work its way through our economy. Our Nation's economic structure is a huge behemoth and it takes much time and patience to turn it around.

In order for President Reagan's program to succeed, we have to give him and it the time and support for it to triumph over the present state of affairs.

VENERABLE TONY PREVITE'S MESSAGE: 'Egotism' is the anesthetic which nature gives us to deaden the pain of being a fool! Old Saying

'Oh, how I love thee, let me count the ways', or words of a similar nature, wrote one of the great poets of the page as he indulged himself in moods of ecstasy and love. Now I am sure that each of us can count the ways in which we love, but it seems to me that another way to show the love we feel for our dear ones would be to attend the St. Valentine's Day Dance to be held on Saturday, February 13th.

Tickets sell at $10 per person, a modest sum which entitles you to a delicious hot dinner with all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake, setups and live music from the 'NOW AND THEN' music combo. Tony Coppola will be the chairman of this dance, ably assisted by Andy Griesehaber. Both, incidentally, can be reached every Monday and Thursday nights, from 8 to 9:30 P.M. at the Galileo Lodge (931-9351). Come and enjoy the warmth and hospitality of the Galileo Lodge and come and partake of the mood and message offered by St. Valentine. Dinner will be served from 8 to 9:30 P.M. and the music will move you (and your feet) from 9:30 to 1:30 P.M.

Although a trifle premature, I would still like to remind you of the Galileo Lodge's recreational program for the coming spring months. At St. Joseph's Dance will be held, an Anniversary Dance, and then a May Dance. So keep yourself posted to this column and find out the dates for these enjoyable activities. Drive away the winter 'blues' and put that fire back into your life.

Patrons, friends and members of the Galileo Lodge were treated to a special evening last Thursday as Dr. Reick, principal of the Hicksville High School, offered an enlightening, informative and bombastic talk on education as it was years ago, as it is today and what it will be in the future. Dr. Reick maintains that parents should be active in the curricula offered by schools for their children. The Galileo Lodge fully acknowledges the scholarly efforts of Dr. Reick and it sincerely thanks him for a very moving and interesting talk.

LODGE TIDBITS: Frank Governale will enter the Nassau Hospital on February 2nd to treat an affliction that pops up in senior years. A speedy recovery to Frank from all of us here at Galileo Lodge. Tony and Mary Moschera will leave for Florida shortly for a one-month much needed and greatly anticipated vacation. A pleasant trip wish from the Galileo Lodge, of course. The new fishing trip date to be held by the Galileo Lodge will be May 2nd. The boat will be the 'Mainstay' and it will hold approximately 38 people, so please contact Jules Meszaros, John Keiper, Jeff Wallick and Jim Pino by dialing 931-9351 for more details. Cost will be announced shortly, and the site will be the Captree Boat Basin. I wish to thank Lou Morace as he again made me the recipient of two more issues of 'Attenzione', that excellent Italian magazine. Andy Guilianai was in Italy for a month, which was made more enjoyable as he was able to visit his mother and family. He had a beautiful time. Jack Riccardi Sr. and his wife were in an ecstatic mood as his son Augie and wife, and their beautiful children included, spent one week with them. John Sarera will soon enter a hospital for surgery, a speedy recovery wish from the Galileo Lodge. Kindly be informed that Dr. Thomas Tumbarello, Chiropractor, of the Galileo Lodge is always available to members and their families if they are in need of chiropractic services, or even services that are associated with other medical problems. Dr. Tumbarello's address is 381 Gardiners Avenue, Levittown.

Plainview DECA Broadcasts On Radio

On Tuesday, February 2, five students from the Plainview-Old Bethpage Chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) put on a radio show to promote the free enterprise system.

Allen Cohen led this radio show by describing our government in depth, and explaining how the free enterprise system works. Other members in the show were Leslye Dornbush, executive vice president; Perry Luisi, vice president; Mike Shrubstein, fund raising vice president; and Glen Gold; these students related our free enterprise system to DECA. The radio show will be aired the week of February 8, on WPOB, 88.5 on your FM dial. I'm sure you will find this show enjoyable as well as educational.

In addition to our radio show, on free enterprise, Plainview DECA has many civic appearances scheduled for the month of February. Our main goal is to create community awareness to our free enterprise system and how it works in today's economy.

LEGIONNAIRE'S LOG By Artie Rutz

CHARLES WAGNER POST # 421
HICKSVILLE, N.Y.

"One Of The Grass Roots Of The American Legion"

Let me give you the results of the American Legion National Oratorical Contest, Nassau County level, held two weeks ago at our Post. Andrew Mylott, Garden City High School was the 1st place winner, and Patrice Kelly, of Sacred Heart Academy, Hempstead was the runner up from among 7 contestants. They will next compete at the 10th District level against contestants from Queens and Suffolk Counties finals. This contest will be held at the Massapequa Post, this Sunday, February 7th, at 2 P.M. and of course is admission free to all who wish to attend and listen to the youngsters expound on the Constitution of the United States. Sorry to report that our oldest member, FRED TURNER, lost his beloved Wilhelmnia last week. And Legion Services were held for ARTHUR J. INNES last Sunday evening in Farmingdale. A book will be placed in his name in the Legion Memorial Library at Hofstra University. And to continue the bad news, our House Committee Chairman, JOHN SHEPPARD, has suffered a stroke and is confined to the Mid Island Hospital at this time. Our Color Guard will attend the annual 4 Chaplains' Service on February 7th and will leave the Post at 2:30 P.M. if you wish to attend.

P.C. FRANK MOLINARI is making an appeal for used men's clothing for the veteran patients at Kings Park as it was noticed during our annual visit in November that too many men were attired in unserviceable clothing. If you have men's clothing that you would care to donate, please bring the articles to the Post headquarters at 24 E. Marie Street and they will be accepted for delivery to Kings Park sometime in early March. P.C. Molinari and the Post thanks you for whatever you can do in this direction.

On February 13th, P.C. MOLINARI will make the monthly visit to Suffolk State School and he needs help now that John Sheppard is laid up. So if you wish to help Frank on this Child Welfare project, please get in touch with him before the 13th or be at the Post on that date before the leaving time of 12:15 P.M.

We had a report of sorts of doings at the Mid Winter Conference in Albany from P.C. DICK HOCHBRUECKNER, who attended as Department Oratorical Chairman. One of the items mentioned at the conference was the very possible sale of the Legion camp and hospital at Tupper Lake for a sum in excess of $1.7 million and the possible use of some of the annual interest for rehabilitation purposes of both the Legion and the Auxiliary. Another item of interest was the failure of the brand new Hilton Hotel to accommodate 750 Legionnaires at a scheduled Reception and thus left everyone up the creek, with the paddles, but no boat!

Incidentally, last week I mentioned the American Legion Library at Indianapoils keeping the names of, and their Legion records, all National and Department Officers and Chairmen. Well, DICK HOCHBRUECKNER, is the only member of his Post who qualifies in this category as he is Department of New York Oratorical Chairman. Congratulations, Dick, you are the first and only.

Our Auxiliary will have their annual St. Valentine's Dance on Saturday, February 13th at the Post and music for your dancing pleasure will be furnished by Ben Serzo. And for $20 per couple you also get chicken, ribs and salads which will be served family style, and coffee and cake will be available. For liquid refreshments there will be an open bar. For an fun-filled evening come out with your friends and help make our girls' annual affair a complete sell-out. For reservations call MARIE GAMBLE at WE 8-2163 or JOAN RIZOS at 433-7429 after 3 P.M.

Now that JOHN CICILESE is back from Arizona he has opened up his own heating repair business and if you need this type of help, give him a call at WE 1-7792. See ya.

Seminar Set For L.I. Conference Planners

A Long Island Meeting and Conference Seminar will be sponsored February 16, by the New York State Department of Commerce and the Long Island Tourism & Convention Commission. The seminar will be conducted by Assistant Deputy Commissioner for Tourism, Mr. Robert Rosenberg, and by Bruce Luckner and Walter Johnson, the leading experts in the field. It will be held at the Island Inn Motor Hotel, Westbury.

Included in the extensive program will be a profile of the market, information outlining sources of business, review of product needs and a special session on "how to sell - hotels, transportation and attractions." The program will conclude with a group discussion and a luncheon with James E. Jones as guest speaker. Mr. Jones is director of conference planning for Connecticut Life Insurance Company and is one of the foremost meeting planners in the country.

The seminar begins at 8:30 A.M. and is scheduled to conclude following luncheon at 2 P.M. Reservations, at $25 per person, may be made by contacting Debbie Hobbs, LITCC, Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum, Uniondale, NY 11553. (516/794-4222).

One of the most important growth areas of Long Island business lies in the field of conferences, seminars and business meetings. This highly specialized market, with its own needs and requirements, standards of service and supervision is contributing increasing sums to the L.I. economy each year.

The physical location of Long Island with its superb airport access and unequalled airline service provides an unusual opportunity to reach this important market. At the same time the conference, seminar and meeting business has become highly competitive with thousands of hotels, cities and areas of the nation competing vigorously for this business.

The Meeting and Conference Seminar offers valuable training to all those engaged in the meeting and convention business - representatives of hotels, motels, attractions, transportation companies and others. The market will be analyzed in depth, the principal prospects will be identified and the tools required to develop business will be discussed.

Those planning to participate are urged to register for the event by February 10.

Why Do You Drive To And From Work?

Many of us who drive alone back and forth to work every day may never have stopped to analyze the alternatives. If we've been driving for years, we may still be hooked on attitudes formed when gas was 33 cents a gallon and our annual insurance premiums were $100. Even though we think we realize how expensive driving has become, we are so used to jumping in the car and tooling off to work that the cost of the habit may have escaped us.

With triple-digit gas prices and soaring insurance premiums, repairs, parking and tires - to say nothing of the staggering cost of a new car today - it may be time to take a serious look at what it means to commute daily by car.

The American Automobile Association pegs the outlay for operating an average intermediate car at 25 cents a mile. That means if you live only five miles from work, it will cost you $12.50 a week, or more than $600 a year, to commute. A 20-mile round trip will come to $1200 a year. And if you work in one of the larger cities, tolls and parking can add significantly to your total commuting cost.

Most bus, subway or train fares are a lot less than this. It's a common sport nowadays to poke fun at and gripe about mass transit, but although it may not be perfect, it has quite a few advantages over driving.

As a daily automobile commuter, you have to contend with the aggravation of traffic jams and the risk of accidents. You must worry all winter that ice or snow storms may stop or delay you. You have the hassle of finding a place to park and the concern over what the attendants may do to your car. You face the problem of starting the car on really cold mornings, shoveling snow from around it and scraping ice from the windows. And all the way to work you ponder why all the other motorists are out to get you.

Also, you pay dearly for personal mobility and independence when you park your car all day at work to collect dings and dents and paint scrapes, when you shorten your car's life by the extra mileage and pay a higher insurance premium for that added driving.

If your driving habit is well established, you may not have thought about these factors, or about what you can save by using public transit. If you don't have access to mass transit systems, carpooling is a good alternative that will relieve you of many of the headaches and costs of driving your own car daily.

Perhaps it's time to ask the question "Why do I drive to and from work?" More to the point, it's time to answer that question honestly.

Break the drive-yourself habit - give public transportation - or carpooling - a try. But be careful: leaning back and reading the morning newspaper on the way to work can be habit forming, too.

Construction On Schedule For Childrens Hospital

The Children's Hospital of Long Island Jewish-Hillside Medical Center has taken a giant step closer to reality as huge pre-cast panels are being set in place to enclose the steel framework. Construction is currently on schedule for a late 1983 opening of the five-story pediatric hospital - the first of its kind in Long Island.

In preparation for the new hospital's role as a center for total child health care, the EIJ Department of Pediatrics has expanded its full-time staff to include pediatricians in all major specialties. They are already providing in-hospital and ambulatory care in pediatric medicine, surgery, psychiatry and dentistry.

Dr. Philip Lanzkowsky, chairman of the Department of Pediatrics, said, "Fortunately we have had the luxury of time to conduct an intensive search for outstanding physicians to broaden our pediatric staff. When the doors of The Children's Hospital open, we will be ready to deliver the most sophisticated care and to expand programs that will fulfill many long-standing community needs."

Two such innovations in the 150-bed hospital will be the 15-bed psychiatric wing and a 15-bed unit for children requiring long hospital stays and rehabilitation. In addition, heavily utilized divisions will be provided with more space. These include Adolescent Medicine and Neonatal Center which cares for premature and newborn infants in jeopardy.

The modern, enlarged outpatient department will have 117 treatment rooms for highly specialized pediatric services including preventive medicine and chronic care. Such programs are the

Hand in hand with the expansion of medical services will be increased emphasis on research and teaching programs. These are recognized as valuable resources for practicing physicians as well as for medical students and

SAVE-A-HEART WEEK

For the fifth year, residents at Broadlawn Manor Nursing Home and Health-Related Facility (Amityville) will be taking part in a nationwide fund raising drive to benefit the American Heart Association.

The annual Save-A-Heart campaign began February 1 and continues through February 12.

This year's activities for the Save-A-Heart campaign include raffles, a plant sale, and a mini-carnival. Throughout the two weeks, residents will be selling homemade baked goods and candy. Also on sale will be handmade silk carnation corsages and other crafts that residents and volunteers have created for the Save-A-Heart campaign.

Last year, Broadlawn residents raised $2,200 for the Heart Association. In recognition of that contribution, the American Heart Association presented Broadlawn Manor with a pine rocking chair at a special ceremony.

All proceeds from the two-week campaign will go directly to the American Heart Association.

THAT'S ALL for this week. Stay well and remember the old saying "You are never poor when you reach out and help a fellow man."

Dear Editor:

I am sending you the following article which I hope will appear in your paper.

Ryan's parents are both from this area. Barbara, his mother, was brought up in Syosset and attended the local schools.

His father, Steve was a resident of Hicksville and went to St. Ignatius School and St. Dominic's H.S., in Oyster Bay.

Please help us to help Ryan live by publishing this story.

Thank you.

Gloria Keenan,
Lesley Dr.,

Ryan Remsen is 20 months old. He lives with his dad, Steve, his mother Barbara, his older brother and his sister.

Ryan has a very rare form of leukemia. The name of this disease is chronic Juvenile Granulocytic Philadelphia Chromosome Negative. Only four other cases of this rare disease have been known to occur on record.

Ryan began receiving chemotherapy treatment at Vanderbilt University eleven months ago. After a period of remission Ryan had a relapse in August. New medications were sought and administered. These are keeping Ryan alive gapvrxarily.

The doctors concur that Ryans only chance for survival is through a bone marrow transplant. Arrangements have been made to perform the transplant at the Mayo Clinic in Minnesota.

A bone marrow transplant involves total destruction of Ryan's bone marrow through chemotherapy and massive doses of radiation. Ryan's four year old sister will be the donor. Ryan is lucky to have a sister whose marrow is near perfect match to Ryans. This, plus the fact that Ryan has withstood the side effects of radiation and chemotherapy very well to date, make him a ideal candidate for a successful operation. During the transplant period Ryan must be kept in a sterile environment. His body will have no defense against other germs or diseases until the marrow is replenished.

This year long illness already has Ryan's family in many thousands of dollars of debt, and numerous bills are still to come. It is estimated it may take as much as $250,000 to see this illness successfully through.

Please join with us to help Ryan live! Individual contributions to the Ryan Remsen Rescue Fund are tax-deductible.

A successful campaign requires the support of civic groups, churches and business, and especially individual citizens such as you of the metropolitan area.

Thank You,

Hicksville Heritage Project

By Kelly Donovan and Lisa Grillo prediction was wrong. We think Hicksville is a very important place on Long Island, and we are really looking into it. So far this is what we are doing:

We are studying two books on Hicksville history. One is "Hicksville's Story" published by Fred Noeth for the Tercentennial in 1948. The other is "Hicksville Today and Yesterday" by Richard Evers. We took a guided bus tour of the older parts of town. Our guide was Mrs. Giannelli from Woodland Avenue School.

She showed us places we had never really noticed before, like the old dress factories, the house on Strong Street where the goldbeaters used to work, the beautiful golden doors on Trinity Lutheran Church, the murals in the Junior High School that were painted during the depression. We also saw Cantigue Rock that marked our boundary and has gotten much smaller over the years. We saw where the stagecoaches used to stop on Broadway, and where the trolley tracks ran on John Street. The old ice house from Braun's butcher shop is still standing near Goldman's on Broadway, but it looks as if it won't last much longer.

We are also tracing our roots to find out which of our ancestors came here first. We want to find out why they came to the United States and why they settled in Hicksville. We are writing letters and conducting interviews with grandparents, aunts, uncles, etc. to find out all we can about the past of our own families. Then we will see how this fits in with patterns of immigration.

The Gregory Museum loaned us a slide program on Hicksville, tracing it back to the original land purchase. Next week we will visit the Museum where Mr. Evers, the Director, will show us artifacts, old maps and pictures of the town as it was in the past.

What we hope to do with the information we gather is to prepare material on the community that can be understood by young children. Second graders and fourth graders study Hicksville, but there is not much available that they can read. We would like to prepare some simple booklets, slide programs, tapes, interviews etc. for their use.

We need help. If you have any pictures, memorabilia, old papers, or any materials related to Hicksville's past, please contact us. A material will be photographed and returned. We would also be glad to interview you. If you can help us with our study of Hicksville, please call William Avenue School. The phone number is 733-2063. We will return your call.

Town Wins Appeal

"The Town of Oyster Bay has won an appeal from a judgment of the Supreme Court, Nassau County, which had declared the Town's zoning of property located at the northeast corner of Old Country Road and Sylvia Lane in Plainview, unconstitutional," announced Oyster Bay Town Councilman Salvatore R. Mosca.

"In July, 1979, the Town had denied a request or a zone change which would have permitted a developer to construct a Church's Fried Chicken Restaurant," Mosca said. "The developer sued the Town and in 1980, the State Supreme Court ruled in the developer's favor, saying that the Town's zoning was discriminatory."

"The Town took an appeal to the Appellate Division of the State Supreme Court," Mosca continued, "and in the decision received by the Town Attorney's office, the finding of the lower court was reversed. The Appellate Court found that the Town acted within its powers in denying the original zoning request, and in a second, concurring decision Justice J. Cohalan stated, 'Where the suitability of property for residential use is a debatable question, the court may not substitute its judgment for that of the local legislative body.'"

The answer is clear. Harlem Savings' 6-Month Savings Certificate.

Just look at the facts for yourself:

- Money market rates down. In fact they have been falling weekly for some time. Many economists believe that trend will continue.
- Today Harlem Savings' 6-Month Rate is Higher. And, that higher rate is guaranteed for the full 6 months, without change.
- Your Harlem Savings Investment is insured by the FDIC. That's a "plus" that no money market fund can offer.

Face the future with certainty!

And you'll have the confidence of knowing your investment is solidly secure at one of New York's strongest savings banks, with sixteen offices to serve you, and a billion five hundred million dollars in assets!

One of the most popular investments—ever.

A big reason Harlem Savings' 6-Month Savings Certificate is so attractive for investors is its familiarity. The rules are simple and have not changed since these Certificates were introduced. Your minimum deposit is still $10,000. Federal regulations prohibit compounding, although we can transfer interest to our exclusive Tandem Accounts where it will compound if you wish. Substantial penalties still apply for premature withdrawals. Remember—your account is covered by the FDIC up to $100,000!

Time is of the essence...

Today's higher rate at The Harlem Savings Bank is in effect right now. So it really pays for you to act quickly, and take advantage of this dollars—and sense—difference, today!

FDIC regulations permit withdrawal before maturity but 3 months interest is forfeited. On All Savings certificates there is also loss of tax exemption. Funds must remain on deposit for at least 6 months. Gifts may be picked up at any Harlem Savings Bank Office. Offer can be withdrawn at any time. ## News From The Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Road racing - getting started and getting better - will be the theme at the February 9 meeting of the Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club. Larry Davidson and Howie Greenberg, two of the Club's most experienced and successful road racers, will be on hand to offer lots of helpful hints on training methods and on the running of the race itself. It promises to be a very informative program - for veteran racers who want to get more out of their race performance, as well as for beginning racers and for those who are thinking about running their first race. Larry and Howie will be more than happy to answer individual questions. Also on the agenda is a replay of the videotape of the 1981 Plainview PBC 10,000 Meter Run.

The meeting will be held in the cafeteria of Plainview-Old Bethpage High School, starting at 8:00 PM. The general public is cordially invited to attend.

Applications are available for the April 3 Plainview PBC 10,000 Meter Run, the May 2 Long Island Marathon, and many other events of local interests, and can be picked up at the February meeting. A complete schedule of local road racing for the Spring months is now being put together and should be ready within the next few weeks.

Also coming up - the February 27 Northport Sunken Meadow Club Relays, sponsored by the Northport Road Runners Club. POBRRC's team of Howie Greenberg, Steve Hannwacker, Steve Miller, George Offenloch, Kim Falkowski and Nancy Rabinowitz finished in fourth place in the 1981 Relays. This year we expect to enter three teams, and have high hopes for an even better showing than last year!

For more information about the Club and about the local running scene, feel free to call 433-0919.

L.I. Indoor Soccer

The Long Island Junior Soccer League (L.I.J.S.L.) concluded its activities for the '81-'82 winter season with a full program of Indoor Soccer at Farmingdale University last week-end. In all, despite the ice, snow, rain and frigid temperatures, Tournament Director Al Greenspan managed to squeeze five playing dates into the month of January to accommodate 8 age groups of boys and girls playing this fast, exciting indoor game. The Long Island League, which is made up of 65 member clubs throughout Queens, Nassau and Suffolk counties, plays two outdoor seasons in the Spring and Fall besides this winter Indoor Tournament.

Eight years ago in the winter of '74-'75, the League began the indoor tournament for boys under 19 and, each year has expanded and added additional age groups. Presently, there are eight groups involved and each is named after a famous or beloved Long Island soccer personality as follows:

AGE GROUP AND TOURNAMENT NAMES:

Boys under 19 - Ernie Green Cup

Boys under 17 - Rudy LaMonica Memorial

Boys under 16 - Carl Knoblauch Memorial

Boys under 15 - Pat Ryder Cup

Girls under 19 - Pat Connell Cup

Girls under 17 - Jack Bauman Cup

Girls under 16 - Lisa Gozley Cup

Girls under 15 - Elsie Vaas Memorial

Besides receiving individual trophies, the champion in each age group receives a perpetual Cup in honor of the person named.

The team or Club retains the Cup for one year and; any club that wins the cup three years in succession, 'retires' the cup. This has only happened once - in the under 19 boys Ernie Green Cup where Hicksville retired the cup twice by winning the championship four years in a row.

This year, League President Peter Collins presented special plaques to the persons (or family) who the Tournaments are named after.

The indoor soccer match is an abbreviated version of the outdoor game; a smaller field, reduced number of players and shorter games.

Peter Collins, in his third year as league president, describes the indoor game as "... a vigorous, healthy sport that utilizes most of the outdoor skills such as trapping, shooting and heading. The children learn one touch control which is to take control of the ball (trap) and to pass or shoot in one motion".

Tournament Director Al Greenspan added that goalkeepers get much more action than outdoor and that the game is more intense with all players, including the defenders, having the ability to score from almost anywhere on the court.

In this year's event, 152 teams participated with each team playing four games in the preliminary

"Calling All Volunteers"

Central Island Nursing Home located at 825 Old Country Road in Plainville, wishes to announce the expansion of its volunteer activities program. Both the young adult and adult volunteer, is now being recruited in order to better serve the social and recreational needs of the 202 ill and disabled patients of the Home.

It is the volunteers who give so generously of themselves, their time and friendship, that would be helpful in this program".

The patients of Central Island Nursing Home have benefited from the volunteers who have come in for the purpose of entertaining at parties, and taking them for walks around the grounds of the nursing home. Other examples of services volunteers may provide with proper guidance and supervision are: friendly visiting with patients, reading to patients, assisting with social functions, such as birthday parties and sing-alongs, assisting wheelchair patient to and from activity functions, and assisting with art and craft activities on an individual or group basis. ## Scott Ross Turns The Tide For Hicksville

By Howard Finnegan

Scott Ross drilled home baskets as Hicksville reversed its downward spiral 49-40 against homestanding East Meadow.

It was Hicksville's eighth win against six losses.

Not since the incomparable Dick Alcock attacked the nets, back in the late forties, has the Orange had such pure shooting from a player.

Ross had five clean baskets in the first half as the Comets struggled against a superior opponent in height and strength.

Michael Meyer and Dave Smyth battled underneath and the tenacious Orange defense kept the hosts in range.

The constant steals of Kevin Burket, Ross and Steve Mancini gained Hicksville possession and set-up.

Mancini, a precision shooter himself, had two crucial first half baskets.

Hicksville trailed 24-23 at halftime but was ahead 34-29 after three periods.

For most of the fourth period, both teams matched goal for goal. Ross astonished the crowd with four shots from the right hand corner to keep Hicksville in the game. 10 of 11 foul conversions were also telling.

With the insertion of Charlie Chatterton, Coach Buddy Bryon offset the Jets board crashing. He scrambled all over the floor disrupting the down court charges of the losers.

Hicksville finally took a three point lead on a determined effort by Smyth under the offensive Board with 2:34 remaining.

Mike Jordan staggered Meadow with two direct line drives and the win was preserved.

Hicksville has the impossible assignment against Farmingdale, away, Friday night. Tuesday, the Comets are home against Bellmore-Kennedy.

Hicksville - 15, 8, 10, 16 - 49.

East Meadow - 9, 15, 11 - 40.

Comets scoring: Bungert, 1-3-5; Mancini, 4-19; Ross, 9-3-21; Magnuson, 1-0-2; Smyth, 1-3-5; Jordan, 3-0-6; Chatterton, 0-1-1.

To do this, two games had to be played simultaneously which kept Field Director Peter Masot quite busy directing traffic and moving teams and age groups on and off the field. Chairman Greenspan, in conjunction with Peter Collins and Sportsmanship Chairman Rocco Amoroso, added another first this year - a Sportsmanship Award in each age group selected by the referees.

Listed below for each age group are the four finalists, the champion and the winner

GOD'S CURE FOR LONELINESS

"My days are so busy with lawyers, people stopping by, letters to write... and I'm so lonely through it all," so writes a woman who has just lost a husband.

After the death of her husband, Queen Victoria said, "There is no one left to call me Victoria." Even though she was a queen, she knew what it meant to be lonely. Loneliness is no respecter of persons.

Loneliness plagues us in many ways. There is the loneliness of success as when a person who has had success can't talk about it because people will think he's bragging. There is the loneliness of failure. No one jumps onto a sinking ship to keep the Captain company as he goes down. There is the loneliness of standing up for what you believe is right and finding that you are only a majority of one. There is the extreme loneliness of not feeling loved. Everyone seems to have friends but you. And you would guess that even your death wouldn't cause anyone to break stride. Some feel alone before God. This is especially evident if they have sinned in a manner in which they believe He won't forgive them.

Confronting all of these feelings of loneliness is the shrilling cry of the Newborn from Bethlehem. And as we listen to the God-Babe now born, we discover that He is the Father's cure for loneliness. Christ is the answer to loneliness. A simple answer to a complex problem? Yes, but no less an answer. Christ is the answer to our every baffling perplexity. In Him is found a balm for bereavement, a healing for hurts, a sufficiency for our insufficiency, and the answer for loneliness.

Now there will always be times in our lives when we will be alone, but we need not be lonely. There is a difference. Christ can be the difference. He is our Savior, our Companion and our Friend. Alone but not lonely is the Christian's possibility. It is God's gift to us. We talk with the Lord throughout the day for He is with us wherever we are, wherever we are, no matter what kind of life we've lived.

Trinity Lutheran Church Believes In Hicksville

On Tuesday night, January 26, 350 members of Trinity Lutheran Church crowded into their school's gymnasium and voted a $1,300,000 expansion program scheduled to take place in two years. The building planned will be a multimillion dollar facility which will both ease crowded conditions in Trinity's growing Christian school as well as other areas of her many faceted ministry.

The new facility will also give Trinity an opportunity to reach out to more of Hicksville's residents through new and innovative programs of Christian caring.

Dr. John H. Krahn, Trinity's pastor, commented, "At a time of too much negative thinking in our country, the members of Trinity have made a positive vote for the future. Our church has served the people of Hicksville and surrounding communities since 1850. We believe in our community, and we encourage others to join us in working to make Hicksville a better place for all its residents."

The members of Trinity invite those who are not actively involved in another religious community to join with them in shaping an exciting and positive future. Come and worship either Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m. or Sunday morning at 8:15, 9:45, or 11:15 a.m. Trinity has an excellent Sunday School (which meets at 9:30 a.m.) for children 3 years old and older.

Trinity is located at 40 W. Nicholas Street, between Broadway and Jerusalem Avenue, two blocks north of Old Country Road. All faiths are welcome. You need not be a Lutheran to worship at Trinity.

The Championship games in all divisions were the highlight of the Tournament where the two best entries went at it "for all the marbles". In the four Girls Divisions, the teams were so evenly matched that in three out of four, the Championship game had to go into overtime and two of those had to be decided by penalty kicks.

Greenspan noted that the Tournament was highly successful but he was glad to conclude it and get back to his job as League Registrar.

DECA Promotes Free Enterprise

By Allen Cohen

Each year, the Distributive Education Clubs of America (DECA) and Phillips Petroleum Company make available to students, such as myself, many projects that help us learn more about economics and the American Free Enterprise System.

These projects are offered as competitive events to all chartered associations of National DECA.

Team, Ladies Auxiliary, Ceil, Family Picnic, Feis and Tommy Mulvihill featured at our Fall Dance. Keep Your Irish UP!

As a senior at Plainview-Old Bethpage High School, I have been given the opportunity to represent my chapter in these competitive events. This opportunity has given me the chance to greatly improve my knowledge of the free enterprise system. I will be making civic appearances in front of the Lion's Club and Rotary Club, and have already visited Mrs. Eleanor Dobrow's classes at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Middle School on Thursday, February 4. There, I introduced the free enterprise system to the eighth graders in a manner that was not only enjoyable to the students, but also to myself.

As a result of my demonstrations, I hope my audiences will have a stronger commitment to the American Free Enterprise System.

Pride Is A Key Ingredient In Life

By Francis T. Purcell
Nassau County Executive

President Reagan's State of the Union message the other night presented patterns for his administration in coping with the nation's problems both at home and abroad. His speech was greeted, expectably, with different reactions from different quarters. Points were made in many areas, but my view on an overall basis was that Mr. Reagan has one major thought in his mind. That is, simply stated, to give Americans back a sense of pride in themselves and in our nation.

While I may agree or disagree with specific points in the message, I sincerely believe in the sense of pride he wishes to re-establish. Pride is a key ingredient in every facet of life both to the individual, the group and the nation. Without pride, accomplishment is empty.

I am not talking about the false pride sometimes seen, where someone achieves a goal far below his or her capabilities. It is easy for a big guy to win a fight against a little, weaker opponent. There's no pride a big company smothering a small outfit or a group of them.

I feel when a real challenge is taken on and success is attained, whoever is involved can enjoy justifiable pride. I have seen it on athletic fields, in business, in the political arena and in my personal life. One must respect a team such as the San Francisco 49ers, who just won the Super Bowl. They were discounted in the pre-season on the basis of their prior year's record.

There they were, however, when the championship game came around. No team, whether it be in athletics or in business, ever won a title without pride in itself. Each member had to strive to achieve a high level of personal excellence and then blend that individual effort into the working of the team.

Pride is very personal. The person who has it presents his or her best face in the world in appearance, in cooperative spirit, in honest effort and in willingness. It is a striving to do the best one can, whether your position be high or low. A friend once told me of his father's advice. That father wouldn't urge or channel him into any specific niche in life. He simply said, "If you are willing to be a street cleaner, be the best there is. Make certain the streets you are responsible for are the cleanest anywhere. Then, you are a success."

The 17th Annual Nassau Council of Girl Scouts, Inc., Cookie Sale is now underway as Girl Scouts throughout Nassau County are busy ringing doorbells, selling seven, scrumptious varieties of ever-popular Girl Scout cookies.

Choose from THIN MINTS, everyone's favorite Girl Scout Cookie; or a new treat called CARMEL DELITES, a cookie confection made with melted caramel, toasted coconut with a special chocolate coating or OLD FASHIONED OATMEAL, PEANUT BUTTER PATTIES, ASSORTED CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL residents who carry into the community what they have learned at this teaching hospital.

The architecture of The Children's Hospital is based on the concept that environment is a major factor in lessening children's fear and families' stress in a hospital setting. The core of the building will be a tree-filled courtyard that will provide

That is an uncomplicated as advice can be and as solid as a bit of wisdom can be. Similarly, I believe Mr. Reagan's statement held a similar message. Our nation must strive to win back the respect of other nations and people. We will be firm and fair in our treatment of others and will demand the SANDWICH CREMES, SHORTBREAD, AND PEANUT BUTTER SANDWICHES. All 7 varieties are completely natural and free of artificial preservatives and flavors.

25 cents of the selling price of each box (called the TROOP REBATE) goes back to the individual troop, helping girls earn money for special interest projects not usually funded by troop dues. Each girl who sells 300 boxes of cookies will receive a $65 cookie credit, which can be applied to camp costs, or national/international travel experience.

Provisions are being made for parents' sleeping accommodations in children's rooms, an on-site accredited school and day care arrangements for other children in the family.

same in return. Teamwork is necessary, the President said, to solve our problems domestically at government levels, in the economy and in the paths of daily life.

Pride in ourselves as individuals and as a nation is a vital ingredient in the process.

Not only is Frank delighted with his promotion, but so is his lovely wife, Barbara, and their two children, Frank, Jr. and Renee. In fact, Barbara said Frank many times can get home for lunch-a treat for the whole family.

Anne and Bob Rennert had a New Year's Eve bash at their house which was delightful. The guests enjoyed seeing the new year in with pleasant company, merriment, good food and plenty of libations. If all the good wishes that were made that night come true, we will all enjoy a healthy, happy and prosperous 1982.

The Rogozas of HICKSVILLE also combined holidays with birthday celebrations. Bill Rogoza and his sister, Catherine, both celebrated their birthdays on Christmas Day. Best wishes, folks.

On the other side of HICKSVILLE, Charles Morris celebrated his birthday on December 27 ... right between the holidays. Best wishes from your family, friends and neighbors.

Jason Hirsch, son of Arthur Hirsch, Jr., and Paula Hirsch, has celebrated his sixth birthday on December 15. His brother, Brian, was ten years old on December 20. Their proud grandparents, Hicksvilles Alma, and Artie Hirsch, helped make their birthdays "special." Alma and Artie also helped their adorable granddaughter, Janet, celebrate her fourth birthday on December 21. Must be an expensive time for the Hirschs what with birthdays and Christmas so close together.

In a recent study published in Public Opinion magazine some of the most influential journalists and broadcasters in the nation were revealed to be overwhelmingly pro-abortion and strongly liberal in general.

The profile of these 240 people included the fact that 81% voted for McGovern in 1972 and the same percentage for Carter in 1976. Eighty-six percent seldom or never attend religious services. Less than half admit to a religious affiliation with 20% identifying themselves as Protestant, 14% as Jewish and 12% as Catholic, and the rest as non affiliated.

Ninety percent agree that a woman should have the right to have an abortion, 54% do not consider adultery wrong, while 75% view homosexuality as an acceptable lifestyle and 85% believe it should not be a bar to teaching in public schools. These are the people who mold the public opinion of the nation every day.

The study by Lichter and Rothman also asked the journalists to rate seven leadership groups in their effectiveness. In descending order of influence the ratings went to business leaders first, then the media, then labor unions, consumer groups, intellectuals, black leaders and feminists. On the other hand, when asked which groups should have the greatest influence, they listed the media first, then intellectuals, then consumer groups, black leaders, business leaders, feminists, and labor unions. Religious leaders were not listed at all.

Then, of course came the disclaimer. The article says that the findings, "Do not tell us about the content of the news they present nor, indeed, whether the content is affected by their personal views at all". Of course newsmen would like everyone to think that their stories are as objective as a photograph, but it seems obvious that even a camera takes only certain pictures of certain events, selecting some and rejecting others. This power, together with the ability to emphasize and diminish various aspects of a story as surely shape the mind of the reader or viewer as some other more transparent techniques of editorializing. Is it any wonder that the pro-life movement has such a difficult task in getting equal exposure in the media to express its views?

IRA. The retirement plan that pays off right away.

With a new Individual Retirement Account at Eastern Savings, you'll enjoy a great tax shelter now while looking forward to a comfortable retirement. And you're eligible even if you have a pension plan at work.

You'll get two big tax breaks. First, every dollar you contribute up to the new higher maximum is fully deductible—every year from now on. Individuals can now contribute up to $2,000, or 100% of your annual earned income (whichever is less). Married couples with one spouse working can contribute up to $2,250. If both of you work, the limit is $4,000. To show you just what it can mean in dollars and cents, a working couple in the 40% tax bracket can actually save $1,600 in taxes every year!

The second tax break: The interest you accumulate is tax deferred until you retire (when you're likely to be in a lower tax bracket).

You'll retire with a fortune. At Eastern Savings, we've come up with four types of IRA plans that really add up for you. Choose between 2 Fixed Rate Accounts, a Variable Rate Account or an Accumulation Account that can be opened with as little as $75. We'll even arrange to rollover your existing IRA into a 6-month money market CD, provided the total amount is $10,000 or more. The chart will show you just how rich you can be. It's really amazing. And your investment is FDIC insured up to $100,000.

Our IRAs are just one more reason it's smart to be an Easterner. Open one soon, and you'll also get 100 free personalized checks. Stop by the Eastern Savings Bank in your neighborhood and let's chat about how an IRA figures into your plans for a richer life...today and tomorrow. Do it now.
