hopefully to establish mutual cooperation in projects for the benefit of Hicksville.

Assemblyman Fred Parola (R-C, Wantagh) sharply criticized the Public Service Commission for allowing New York Telephone to withdraw its restructuring plan to equalize rates throughout the state.

Parola spoke out saying, "I am outraged that the Public Service Commission has allowed the New York Telephone Company to withdraw its proposal to restructure current billing rates. In essence, the PSC has forced Long Island customers to continue subsidizing lower telephone rates outside of the Nassau-Suffolk area."

"The plan, presented as a way to make telephone rates more uniform throughout the state came under attack, mainly from upstate customers who claimed their rates would be unfairly hiked.

"We have been paying unfair rates for years and it's about time the costs were shared with other consumers throughout the state."

"The PSC asked the phone company to withdraw its proposal because of the American Telephone and Telegraph antitrust settlement that may influence the future of telecommunications. The phone company has not decided whether to resubmit the proposal. They expect that it will be at least 18 months before the AT&T case and other pending actions are resolved."

"In response to this situation, I have reintroduced legislation which would require the phone company to take into account during rate-setting procedures, the number of phones that a customer can reach and the geographic boundaries that can be called before an extra charge is required."

"The phone rate inequities illustrate the indifference that the PSC has consistently shown for the plight of Long Island utility customers. This is why I have vigorously advocated the public election of the members of the PSC. In fact, through my work on the Task Force on Long Island Utility Rates, this is one of the issues favored by the vast majority of my constituents."

"It is difficult to understand how the PSC forced the phone company, which attempted to reform its system, to withdraw the proposal, except that PSC members are politicians who did not have the courage to act properly. This only strengthens my argument that by publicly electing the members, they would be more responsive to consumers."

"There is an obvious glaring need for the PSC to take a more responsible approach to the interests of Long Island consumers. I am calling on them to rethink their action and require New York Telephone Company to resubmit its proposal at the first opportunity."

A Class Studying Long Island

By Susan Manson

Our class, the fourth grade class of St. Ignatius School, is studying the history of Long Island. The Hicksville community dates back to 1646.

Once a week we go to the library in our school for research to find out about Long Island. We took out two books on Hicksville. One is entitled, "Hicksville's Story", published by Fred Noth for the Tercentennial in 1948. The other book is "Hicksville Today and Yesterday". Those books were of much help to us. One of the things we are interested in is the Indians that once lived on Long Island. We found the old houses interesting also. We are writing to places of interest on Long Island. We hope to go on a walking trip in March to the Gregory Museum to study things on Hicksville.

If anyone could possibly give us any information on Long Island or parts of it, or about St. Ignatius School, we would greatly appreciate it. Please get in contact with St. Ignatius School, 30 East Cherry St., Hicksville, N.Y., 11801. WE 1-0631... we will return your call.

Variety Show '82

Hicksville Senior High School students will present "Variety Show '82". The show is comprised of many acts, ranging from comics, jugglers, singer, to heavy Rock Band.

It's everything a Variety

Show should be.

It will take place on Thursday, March 11, and Friday March 12, at 7:30 PM. at Senior High School auditorium. Tickets will be $2.00 and can be purchased at box office. Refreshments will be available.

Remember - test your hearing by calling 822-4121.

Hearing Test Available

If you dial 822-4121, you can test your hearing in the privacy of your home or office. This hearing test is made available to you through the courtesy of the Hicksville Kiwanis Foundation, Inc. and Seaman & Elsmann, Inc. as a public service.

When you dial 822-4121, you will be given instructions to listen for four (4) beeps. The four beeps vary in frequency, or tone, and volume. Then you will be asked to listen with the other ear for the same four beeps. If you hear all eight beeps, your hearing is essentially OK. If you don't hear four beeps in each ear, it is suggested that you see your doctor.

For further information, you can write to Hearing Test Chairman, P.O. Box 7, Hicksville, NY 11802.

The Hicksville Kiwanis Club is providing this service to the public in conjunction with the 1982 Kiwanis International theme of "SHARE GOOD HEALTH", and because of its concern for the well-being of all of the residents, business, and professional people in Hicksville.

The Hicksville Kiwanis Club urges everyone to take advantage of this free hearing test, and especially suggests that parents let their children take the test to possibly detect unknown problems with their hearing ability.

Your Home Burglary Prevention Test

By Officer Jerry DiGiovanna
Fifth Precinct Crime Prevention Officer

1) Stand in the street directly in front of your home and look at the front of your house. Is the house number readily visible to insure that responding police officers will not lose time searching for the house?

Is it visible score one point, if not score -1.

2) As you look around your home, is the exterior lighting situated in such a way that you could unscrew the bulb without having to climb a ladder to do so?

If you answered no, score 1 point, if yes, score -1.

3) Check the bulb in your exterior lights. If the wattage is 40 or less score -1, over score 1.

4) Now let's check your doors. Do this procedure with all the exterior doors in your home. Open the door and while it remains open turn the locking key or knob so the bolt protrudes. Now take your finger and try to push the bolt in. If it does not move score 1 point, if it does, score -1.

5) Next take a pair of pliers and attempt to grab your door lock from the outside. If you can maintain a grip on the lock attempt to twist the lock to the left. If you can grip the lock with the pliers and the lock unscrews, score -1, if you can't grip the lock, score 1 point.

6) As you look at the outside of your door, if the hinges of the door are on the outside and the pins of the hinges are exposed, score -1, if not score 1 point.

7) If you have glass in the door, ascertain if you were to break the glass and reach in would you be able to open the door from the inside? If yes, score -1, if no score 1.

8) Again, with the door open, turn the locking device until the bolt protrudes. Take a ruler and measure just how far out that bolt extends from the door. If it's less than one inch, score -1, over one inch score 1.

9) With the door closed and locked, stand outside the door and push on it. If the door moves even slightly, score minus 1, if not score 1.

10) Stand outside your home and check your windows. As you stand there can you tell where the latch to unlock the window is? If you were to break a pane of glass closest to that latch could you open the window? If yes, score -1, if no, score 1.

11) If you have locks on your windows, do you need a key to open them? If yes, score 1 point, if no, score -1.

12) As you take this test right now, ask yourself, are there any locks, or securing precautions that you have taken in addition to the original lock that came with the window? If no, score -1, if yes score 1.

13) If you have sliding glass doors, hold the handle of the door and attempt to lift the door straight up. If the door raises up from the track, score -1, if not score 1.

14) As you look at your house, ask yourself, are there any bushes covering your windows or doorways? If there are, score -1, if not score 1.

15) If you do not have lights or a radio automatically turned on by a timer in your absence, inclusive of the hours you are at work during the day, score -1, if you do, score 1.

If you scored fifteen points you are most probably as protected as you can be, short of an alarm system, a guard dog, or your own personal security guard. If you scored ten to fifteen you obviously have taken some precautions to secure your home. Hopefully you will now be more aware of those few additional things you may do. If your score was ten or below, please give some SERIOUS consideration to better securing your home.

If you need assistance call your local precinct and ask. In the Fifth precinct a Home Survey is possible by calling 825-5500 ext. 44.

St. Patrick's Dinner To Benefit Mercy Hospital

Over 370 of the business, political and social leaders of Long Island will gather at the restaurant for an evening of Irish music, a delectable dinner and an evening of Irish memorabilia as seen through the eyes of Jack McCarthy.

Midway into the evening, the Most Rev. John R. McGann, D.D., Bishop of Rockville Centre will select the $1000 cash prize winner. To be included in the drawing, send $100 for your ticket. Should you not wish to be included in the drawing, send $75 for your ticket. Tickets and further information can be obtained by calling 678-3066.

D'Amato: Action Needed To Avert Drinking Water Crisis

Warning that "an impending threat to Long Island's drinking water will be realized in the late 1990's if a remedial program is not begun soon," U.S. Senator Alfonse M. D'Amato (R-NY) announced late last week his active support for legislation aimed at protecting the region's delicate water table.

The Senator has co-sponsored an amendment to the Safe Drinking Water Act that would protect the Long Island Pine Barrens, the most important and least polluted groundwater supply on Long Island. According to D'Amato a cooperative effort involving all levels of government and supported by matching federal and state funds, is necessary to safeguard the region's remaining water supply.

"On Long Island, 2.8 million people depend on three aquifers as the sole source of drinking water," the Senator explained.

"Over the years, contamination has occurred from several sources: leaking landfill dumpsites; aging gasoline storage tanks; failing septic tanks; accidental, illegal, or improperly regulated discharges; and runoff or drainage from agricultural areas."

"A concerted effort must be undertaken to protect our remaining water supply, we can no longer take it for granted," D'Amato said. "If we are to heed the predictions and warnings of experts, we must take steps now to prevent a water crisis from replacing the energy crisis of the 1970's."

If enacted, the amendment would allow areas such as Long Island, containing sole source aquifers, to be designated as special protection areas. "Such designation would ensure that our water supplies are protected and managed in such a way as to maintain or improve the existing water quality," D'Amato explained.

The measure would authorize $180 million for planning and the implementation of plans for the special protection areas. In addition, funds may be used for land acquisitions. The federal funds must be matched, dollar for dollar, by the states.

"The time has come for Congress to focus on the critical problems facing the water quality of our nation. The price of prevention is well worth the cost of protecting what may well be considered this nation's most precious resource - water," Senator D'Amato concluded.

Senator D'Amato said that this legislation is the result of a bipartisan effort involving Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan and Long Island Congressmen William Carney, Gregory Carman, Norman Lent, John LeBoutillier, and Ray McGrath.

The War On Deadbeats

By Cong. Greg Carman

It's about time the federal government started collecting some of its bad debts. Currently, individuals and corporations across the country owe the United States government over $33 billion in overdue debts. That's right - $33 billion!

If that $33 billion were repaid, the money could go towards social security for our senior citizens or financial aid for students attending college or financial assistance for our nation's poor. That money could even go towards reducing our awesome federal budget deficit.

Nearly $21 billion is owed in delinquent taxes, most of that by giant corporations. Another $3 billion is owed on delinquent student loans. The remaining $9 billion is owed for farm loans, small business loans, and overpayments of government benefits.

President Reagan has recently stepped up efforts to recover this money and to eliminate this kind of abuse. In his budget message to the Congress, the President said, "A comprehensive effort to collect $33 billion in delinquent debts has been launched and will recover $1.5 billion in 1982 and $4 billion in 1983."

I heartily agree with the President, and I'm encouraged by the fact that government bill collectors have been added to several federal agencies. The sooner they get this money back, the sooner we can put this money to good use. There are many people across Long Island and the nation who are in legitimate need who are being deprived because of these delinquent debts.

I am particularly concerned about the future of many of our young people who are planning to go to college. A great deal of student loan money is tied up because graduates refuse to repay their loans. The $3 billion owed the Department of Education could go to help many students right here on Long Island. I know how difficult it is to make ends meet with a child in college, and I want to do all that I can to ease the burden on the families putting their kids through school. That's why I support the President's war on deadbeats.

Long Island Marathon

Applications are still available for what promises to be the largest Long Island Marathon in the history of the 26 mile 385 yard race, to be run Sunday, May 2 starting at 8 A.M. in Eisenhower Park and traversing Wantagh Parkway to Jones Beach and back.

The annual event, conducted by the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks and co-sponsored by Newsday, the Long Island State Park and Recreation Commission and Herman's World of Sporting Goods, will be limited to 5,500 competitors.

Recreation and Parks Commissioner Abram C. Williams said regular entries would close on Thursday, April 1. The fee is $5. Late entries may be made in person only at the Eisenhower Park Administration Building. The late fee is $10.

Dear Friends...

On one of my first day's out after a bout with pleurisy, it was my pleasure to attend the Hicksville Council of PTA's 29th annual Founders Day Dinner, last Thursday. The food at the Galaxie was delicious, the company of so many concerned community leaders not only of this fine organization but also of other community organizations such as the Hicksville Community Council, plus many teachers, administrators, and board of education members, was inspiring, and all the speeches were interesting, as the Honored Guests recalled the many years of working together for the children and for PTA which, as one speaker told us, means "People Taking Action". All, in all, it was a great evening and we extend congratulations to the Council's Honored Guest Lorraine Losche, to the Council's recipient of an Honorary Life Membership, Fran Loiacono, and to the following Unit PTA Honored Guests: Burns Avenue...Helen Mellillo and Nancy McNamara; Dutch Lane...Pearl Blaustein and Phyllis Baccini; East Street...Dominick Giacomelli and Fran Kenyon; Fork Lane...Vicki Martin and William Eisenhauer; Lee Avenue...John Mateer, Honey Singer and Goldie Scher; Old Country Road...Joan Martin, Ginny Kratochvil and Ria DiNicholas; Willet Avenue...Pat Falk and Pat Longo; Woodland Avenue...Mary Cerino; Septa...Mike Sheridan and Mil-dren Hayden; Jr. High...Norma Goerke and Gerald Klein; Sr. High...Fran Loiacono and Mary Cordier.

NEXT WEEK, as we're sure you all know, we will be celebrating St. Patrick's Day. And, at the ever-popular STACK O' BARLEY, on South Broadway in HICKSVILLE, they are planning a Pre St. Patrick's Day Celebration on Tuesday, March 16th. The music, which will start at 5 pm, will start at 5 pm, will be by the Druids. A special corned beef and cabbage dinner will cost only $7.95...not only delicious but reasonable! If at all possible, this is one you won't want to miss.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS: congratulations to Victor F. Labbate, recently elected Senior Vice President of Suburbia Federal Savings and Loan Association's Board of Directors. Mr. Labbate, who with his wife, Barbara and their two children, resides in HICKSVILLE, is Division Head of Suburbia's Management Information Systems Division...best wishes to Leo C. Flynn of Prudential Insurance Co.'s Midwood District who has recently earned an invitation (for the 10th time) to attend this company's annual eastern regional business conference for leading sales representatives. Mr. Flynn and his family live on Manetto Drive in PLAINVIEW...congratulations to newly-inducted Eagle Scout Paul Ehl of Troop 291, HICKSVILLE. Paul received Boy Scouting's highest rank last month.

Handicapped Parking Permits

By Sup. Joseph Colby

Town of Oyster Bay residents may not be aware of a State law which went into effect on January 1, 1982, which amended the vehicle and traffic law relating to handicapped parking spaces in shopping centers.

The Law provides that any firm or corporation or individual who owns a shopping center or facility with at least five separate retail stores and at least 25 off-street parking spaces, must provide a minimum of five percent of those spaces, or at least 10 spaces (whichever is less) for use by the handicapped. The spaces should be located as close as reasonably practicable to the shopping center facility and must be clearly marked and identified as handicapped parking spaces.

Handicapped parking permits, which are displayed on the vehicle dash-board or sunvisor may be obtained through the Office of the Handicapped, Nassau County. A phone call to 535-3881 will provide residents who are in need of such a permit with all of the information necessary to obtain one.

In addition, the State Department of Motor Vehicles can issue a license plate for the disabled bearing the international symbol of access followed by six numbers. Such plates are available for vehicles currently entitled to passenger series plates and for vans equipped with wheelchair lifts, ramps or special fittings. The fee is the usual registration fee for the vehicle, plus the reflectorized plate fee and the plate replacement fee. The disabled individual must be the vehicle registrant and must wait until the current registration is due for renewal before applying for the special plate.

Qualified disabled registrants are entitled to only one set of plates to be used on one vehicle, and must obtain a statement signed by their physicians, on the doctor's letterhead, in which the physician certifies that the applicant has any one or more disabilities or impairments which are permanent in nature. A physician's statement is not required when disabled plates are renewed. Information on how to apply for these special registration plates is available at any motor vehicle issuing office.

As State and Local governments attempt to provide easier access for the disabled through the issuing of special permits and licenses and by requiring designated parking spaces, the cooperation of residents who are not handicapped is to be encouraged. Please be aware of this new law (there are penalties for parking in designated handicapped parking spaces without the necessary permits) and help us, and our many handicapped residents, by obeying the law.

Rocks and Minerals Display At Library

"Nature's Rocks and Minerals" is the subject of a new display at the Hicksville Public Library. Sponsored by the Hicksville Gregory Museum, this exhibit will run throughout the month of March and features the variety of mineral color, crystal shape, and uses.

The striking exhibit is on display in the non-fiction area. Beautiful and informative, these specimens from the Gregory Museum's recently acquired Charles Mayer collection illustrate the ways in which rocks and minerals serve man.

There are gemstones on display as well as minerals which are sources of raw materials used in our everyday lives. Nature's unique beauty is quite visible in this Hicksville Library exhibit.

Dutch Lane PTA Founders Day Guests

By Ann Frayesen

On Thursday, February 25th Hicksville PTAs held its Annual Founders' Day Dinner. Dutch Lane PTA was proud to honor Mrs. Phyllis Bacchi and Mrs. Pearl Blaustein.

Mrs. Bacchi has been a member of PTA for 11 years. She has not only headed but worked on many, many committees. Whenever a job needs to be done Phyllis is always first to volunteer. She works very closely with the children of Dutch Lane School and is respected and admired by them. She is what PTA is all about. Not only is she a working member of Dutch Lane PTA but also belongs to the Junior High PTA and the High School PTA. An organization is only as good as its members and Dutch Lane is proud to boost at having Mrs. Bacchi as one of its outstanding members.

Mrs. Blaustein is one of the prominent teachers at Dutch Lane School. She has been a teacher in our school for 24 years. When you talk about what a teacher should be like Mrs. Blaustein's name comes right to mind. All the children who have ever had her loved and admired her. She is conscientious, understanding and dedicated. Mrs. Blaustein has and always will be a credit to the teaching profession. We are honored and proud to have her as a teacher in Dutch Lane School.

Mrs. Bacchi, Mrs. Blaustein, Dutch Lane PTA salutes you.

ments, it is said, always promise a new future. And all this brings me to the Ladies Auxiliary and the announcement that they will hold a Fashion Show on Thursday, the 18th of March, at the Galileo Lodge. Tickets will sell at $9 per person, and in the offering will be a delicious Italian meal, beer, soda, coffee and cake, and an open bar from which you can purchase drinks of your own tastes for reasonable prices. Mary Monteforte (938-9536) will supervise this activity, ably assisted by Rose Meszaros (931-9536). Or you can dial 931-9351, the Lodge number, particularly on Wednesday night, from 6:00 P.M. on. Many raffles and prizes will enhance the festivities, I might add. Think about it, an eye-appealing fashion display, delightful food and the congenial atmosphere offered by the Ladies Auxiliary. And, incidentally, men are also cordially invited to attend.

Those of you who attended the last two Flea Market activities held by the Ladies Auxiliary, under the direction of Mary Monteforte and the Ladies Auxiliary will hold another one. The arrangements will probably be the same, and the hours will also be from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. The price of tables will probably be $8 for members and $10 for non-members. Refreshments will also be served. But kindly be notified that the arrangements I write about here may be tentative, so please keep abreast of forthcoming information that concerns itself with this latest Flea Market activity. Dial Mary Monteforte at 938-9536 for more details if you so desire.

Coming events at the Galileo Lodge show more excitement and good times on the recreational horizon of the Galileo Lodge. An Anniversary Dance is in the works and so is a May Dance, two pleasure-filled spring activities that should warm the cold hearts caused by this last cold winter. More information on these activities and others that might be in progress in a later column. Remember, the motto of the Galileo Lodge is to "offer you the most for the least amount of money."

GOD'S CURE FOR ANXIETY

"How am I doing?" the illustrious Mayor of New York, Ed Koch, constantly asks. How are you doing? Have you taken stock of your life lately? Are you happy? If you put the positive things of your life on one side of a scale and the negative things on the other, how would the scale tip?

Are you worried about anything? We want to address the problem of anxiety.

Several years ago I went on vacation and something remarkable took place. During the second week of my vacation, I felt my body begin to relax and a calmness came over my entire being. I loved it. I couldn't believe how up-tight I had been. As a matter of fact, I didn't even realize I was up-tight. As we were returning to New York, gradually I could feel a tightness developing in my chest. How crazy of me, I thought. Over the years since then, the Lord and I have worked together to diminish the problem of anxiety in my life.

Sometimes all of our lives parallel the Old Philosopher's recordings of years back. "Is that what's troubling you, Bunky?" Even though there are many pressures in life, God has not intended our lives to be anxious.

The prophet Isaiah asks us in our text, "Why then do you complain that the Lord doesn't know your troubles or care if you suffer injustice? ... Don't you know? Haven't you heard? The Lord is the everlasting God ... He never grows tired or weary ... He strengthens those who are weak and tired." In other words, God is still around, he cares about us and continues to be helpful.

In Philippians, Paul says, "Have no anxiety about anything." Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount says, "Do not be anxious about your life ... even the basic things of life, what you shall eat or drink, about your health, the clothes you need. The answer to the burdens of life is found in God's love and care.

The apostle Peter writes, "Cast all your anxieties on Him, for He cares for you." All, Peter, all my cares? Does God mean every last one of them? God certainly does — the big problems, the little hurts, the unexplainable fears, the gnawing doubts, our worries — all of them, every last one. If the Lord wants them all, we would be a fool to hang on to them. But we do — we hang on too long. Often when I encourage people to let others help them, they say, "No-body wants to be bothered with my problems, they have enough of their own." There is an element of truth in this, but Christian people are to be a caring people and although we all have cares and concerns, we willingly bear one another's burdens. As we share our caring, God brings healing to both of us in the process. It is an indisputable fact that when we share our problems and anxieties with a sympathetic listener, we feel better even though nothing may have actually changed in our life situation. We need to especially involve God in the process. Share your anxieties with God. "In prayer and supplication make your requests made known to God," Paul says.

The Psalmist says, "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil." Why? Because there is nothing to fear? No, but because "Thou, God, art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me."

What is God's cure for anxiety? — God himself — as we encounter him directly through prayer and as he brings his healing to us through the loving care of others — is the cure for anxiety.

The prophet Isaiah concludes, "But those who trust in the Lord for help will find their strength renewed. They will rise on wings like eagles; they will run and not get weary; they will walk and not grow weak."

Feeling anxious about something? Trust in the Lord and have your strength renewed. And as you let God lighten the load of worries, begin to soar in life again like an eagle, enjoying the majesty of God's great creation, regaining your youthful exuberance for life and living. Cast all your burdens on the Lord. Run again and not get weary, walk and not grow weak.

Plainview-Old Bethpage Roadrunners

Ralph Epifanio, Publisher and Editor of "Islandwide Runner," will be the featured speaker at the Tuesday, March 9 meeting of the Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club. The meeting will take place in the Cafeteria of H. B. Mattlin Middle School on Washington Avenue in Plainview, starting promptly at 8:00 PM.

Extra added attractions at the meeting will be a showing of the film "Running in New York," which features highlights of the 1981 New York City Marathon, along with a replay of the videotape of the 1981 Plainview PBC 10,000 Meter Run. The general public is cordially invited to attend.

Please note the new meeting place - H. B. MATTLIN MIDDLE SCHOOL, ON WASHINGTON AVENUE, NEXT DOOR TO MATINECOCK DAIRY BARN IN PLAINVIEW.

Congratulations to KIM GALKOWSKI for a super winter track season - culminating in a second place finish in the 2 Mile Run in the 1982 Nassau County High School Girls Championship meet on February 19. Kim, who has taken more than 15 seconds off her time for the 2 mile event this winter, will be competing in the State Championships at Cornell in mid March.

Congratulations to BURT JABLON for an outstanding winter racing season. Bert took second place in the 50-59 age group in the Miller Lite 15K championship in Eisenhower Park on February 7 and followed up with another second place in that age group in the Eisenhower Park 5K race on February 21.

Finally, congratulations to LARRY DAVIDSON, for another ultra Marathon - this time a 50K run in Eisenhower Park on February 14, which Larry finished in 4:01!

All Club members are welcome to join the Club Team for the March 13 Flushing Meadow 5 mile club competition. This will be a low key 5 mile run involving clubs from all over the New York metropolitan area. The run starts at 11:00 A.M. and we will be carpooling from the High School to Flushing Meadow.

It looks like a fairly large

POBRC contingent will be heading to Brooklyn for the second annual Brooklyn Half Marathon on March 21. It is a flat, fast course that looks to be a good prep for the Long Island Marathon. (For those of you who grew up in Brooklyn, it also will give you a chance to take a run through the "old neighborhood!")

Everyone in the local area who is interested in running and physical fitness is cordially invited to become involved in the Club. Please join us at our March 9 meeting, or call 433-0919 for more information.

Congratulations

Happy Birthday to Irene D'Amura of HICKSVILLE who celebrated her 37th birthday on March 4. Another reason for celebration with her family is that her brother, Jeremiah D'Amura, has received a Master's degree of Business Administration in accounting from the University of New Haven, Conn., where he now resides.

Congratulations and best wishes to both.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

VENERABLE TONY PREVITE'S MESSAGE: "Man's mind stretched by a new idea never goes back to its original dimension."

BEG PARDON: The names of Frank Bove and Tony Moschera, recently elected to the positions of Guards, were inadvertently omitted from the list of the Galileo Lodge's newly-elected officers presented last week.

Member Appreciation Night at the Galileo Lodge is as delightful as it is memorable, and to answer why is to state that on this particular night the members of the Galileo Lodge have the pleasant opportunity to get together with their families and friends. It's a time to socialize, fraternize, engage in amiable conversation, exchange social amenities and indulge their fondness for the delicious cuisine and 'mouth-watering' goodies served. Conditions such as these take on an added significance as it is no secret that this is the night when the Galileo Lodge absorbs all the expenses incurred for these offerings. And last Thursday night was no exception, and this prompted Venerable Tony Previte to extend his heartfelt thanks to all the members who toiled so laboriously to make this event a social success.

And now, regarding the news concerning the Galileo Lodge's St. Joseph's Dance, which is scheduled for Saturday, the 20th of March, I must report that ticket sales, according to Chairman Joe Giordano

(333-4555), are fantastically good. So if you have intentions of attending this next spectacular dance, kindly contact Joe, who, incidentally, will head a committee made of all members whose first names begin with 'Joe'. Tickets are $10 per person, a modest fee that entitles you to a delicious dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and live music, of course. Please note that a 'bring your own liquor' policy will be in effect that night, and as I have always stated, that success knows no boundaries and if an organization is success-oriented or success-conscious, it will stay that way. Come to the Galileo Lodge and attend this dance, for here is where the good time begins and where all those pleasure-filled just stay with you.

Today, despite the economic doldrums in our midst, the state of fashion never seems to lose its enthusiasm. And to say, perhaps even suggest, that spring shows a paucity of fashion innovation is sartorial excellence erroneous. Fashion moves (Continued on Page 5)

Club News by Harriet Maher

Tom Callahue
Hicksville West
Executive Leader

Joe Jablonsky
Hicksville East Executive Leader

This week's column is a communication from our Club's new president, Hal Mayer. We know this will be the first of many informative messages from Hal during his tenure in office.

"In this, my first message as the new Club president, I would like to thank all of the members, officers and directors who have been so helpful to date, and to whom I am sure I can continue to look for cooperation and support. Special thanks must go to our past president, Fred Vevante, and our leaders, Tom Callahue and Joe Jablonsky.

"As we look forward to the coming year in which we will have the opportunity to elect a Republican Governor, I am personally asking all members as well as non-members who share our concern for good, suburban-oriented government, to join with us at our monthly Club meetings. Our next meeting will be held on Friday, March 12, 1982, at 8:30 p.m., at the V.F.W. Hall, 320 South Broadway, Hicksville, at which time there will be a very interesting program concerning the history of Long Island towns. As always, our program director, Bill Buchman, has done an excellent job in putting together a program schedule for this year which I'm sure will prove both informative and entertaining.

"If you have not yet paid your 1982 Club dues, the March 12th meeting will be a fine opportunity to do that, or just clip the coupon and mail it in with your check. Our Club has to be the greatest bargain around. Just think, only $3.00 (individual) or $5.00 (couple) for a year's membership in the E.F. Francke Republican Club AND home delivery of the Mid Island Herald is included.

"On the subject of great bargains, our annual Spring Dance and Cocktail Party will be held on Friday, May 14, 1982, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at Antun's Old Country Manor. This year the tickets are only $25.00 a person and includes unlimited buffet, cocktail's and live music for dancing. During the evening a fantastic basket of cheer and other great prizes will be raffled off as well as many free door prizes which are being donated by our local merchants. Our Club Journal is also being published in conjunction with this event and will be distributed that evening. While further details will be forthcoming in the weeks ahead, please feel free to call your local committeemen or special events chairlady, Harriet Maher, 433-5994, or her co-chairmen, Nick Caruso-681-1342; Joe Farrell-433-0319; and Frank Gioia-938-9565, for tickets or other information.

"In the meantime, we look forward to seeing you on March 12th.

Acquires Hooker Chemical

The newly formed Ruco Polymer Corporation has announced the purchase of the former Hooker Chemical plastics facility located at Hicksville, Long Island.

Joseph A. Ruffing, president of Ruco, said that he and other former management personnel of the Hicksville facility arranged to purchase the plant after an evaluation by Hooker determined that the plant no longer fit within its overall business strategy.

"This was an excellent opportunity for us to buy a viable business with growth potential in products used for many consumer and industrial applications," Ruffing said. He also stated

Madrigal Singers and the Pearl Drops. There was a wonderful spirit in that auditorium ... young and old alike were swaying, clapping and SMILING throughout the evening, marveling at the talents of our High School students and proud of the dedicated staff of our music department. A great big thank you should go to Dave Abt, director of both the Symphonic and Stage Bands, Chuck Arnold, accompanist and teacher of the Madrigals and Bill Golee, leader of the Pearl Drops singing group. How fortunate we are in Hicksville to produce musical offerings of such high calibre year in and year out.

The strains of "Aquarius" and "Let the Sunshine In" were still in my head the next morning as I dropped off my daughter at the High School to catch the bus for the All-County Elementary rehearsal. It took TWO buses to transport the Hicksville contingent of Chorus singers and Orchestra and Band members representing our Elementary Schools.

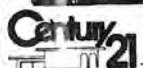

All is indeed well with music in Hicksville.

Sincerely,
Gerhard Singer

IRA

The Brand New IRA.

A Millionaire's Retirement Plan for the Wage Earner.

New IRA rules broaden eligibility requirements

If you work for a living—for yourself or someone else—you qualify for the new tax-sheltered IRA. Moreover, if you're part of a company-sponsored pension plan, or have a self-employed Keogh Plan, you can still qualify for an Individual Retirement Account.

By far, this is the most beneficial, most liberalized and most discussed retirement plan ever offered to the American worker.

For the first time ever, it is actually possible for any working individual to build a retirement fund that could exceed two million dollars; possibly more. And it's all done with tax deductible dollars in special IRA investment accounts.

The yields are high and all deposits (plus earned interest) are insured by the FDIC for up to $100,000 in each IRA account.

If you and your spouse work, you can shelter up to $4,000 a year—every year. If you're an individual with a non-working spouse, you can shelter up to $2,250 a year. For someone filing an individual return, the new higher deposit limit is $2,000 a year. Remember, every dollar you deposit is tax-free until you start withdrawing your funds between the ages of 59½ and 70½ when you will conceivably be in a much lower tax bracket.

Early withdrawal of funds will incur a 10% tax penalty by the IRS in addition to other penalties imposed by the Bank.

Rest easy. Let our pension experts tailor an affordable retirement program fit for a millionaire. Details on all IRA investment accounts and current rates available at all branch offices. Visit one today!

LEGIONNAIRE'S LOG By Artie Rutz

CHARLES WAGNER POST #421
HICKSVILLE, N.Y.

"One Of the Grass Roots Of The American Legion"

Membership Officer RAY GAMBLE reports that we are now just 13 members short of 100% and if a few more laggards would do the right thing he would have a successful year ... Maybe we should have a 'delinquent barrel' as the 40 & 8 has ... Saw some very familiar names in their barrel ... Our ST. PATTY'S DANCE is to be held at the Post on Saturday evening, MARCH 13th ... Reservations and other information may be had from either Chairman AL CINTOTI at 796-6268, or Commander LOU BRAUN at 212-359-7346 or FRANK MOLINARI at 935-1934 ... Being that it is a St. Patty's affair, HOT CORNED BEEF & CABBAGE will be served, along with COLD BEER, and some lively Irish music in the spirit of the evening ... The price is more than right at just $10 per person ... And we do have a limit on table space so get your call in to the committee as soon as possible ... The Color Guard again has changed Sergeants and P.C. FRANK MOLINARI has again accepted the responsibility ... And now, if he had some NEW blood to work with, perhaps the Color Guard uniforms might be more noticeable at meetings ... The long blue line is getting shorter and shorter ... At Monday's meeting which was social in nature, JOHN SHEPPARD made his first appearance since his illness ... And who do you think won the Dark Horse? Why JOHN SHEPPARD, of course!!! ... We had a report that ARLENE HOWARD'S husband is hospitalized in a serious condition ... And we had another report that Past Commander ANNE STATON is hospitalized in Georgia or maybe Florida (that's where she lives now) ... Our annual AWARDS & CEREMONIAL NITE is scheduled for Saturday evening, APRIL 3rd, so make a note on your calendar to attend this once-a-year special night either as a spectator or an awardee ... P.C. RAY GAMBLE, our Membership Officer is currently making a survey of our records for the purpose of notifying those members who will be eligible for continuous membership certificates and badges ... The list of deceased members will be forthcoming from the Adjutant's office for the purpose of transmittal to POST EVERLASTING ... Our Color Guard will add additional practice sessions to polish the now familiar routine requirements of this special evening ... Our grand AUXILIARY UNIT will aid us materially on this occasion as we also celebrate the birthdate of our national organization with the cutting of the birthday cake by the Post Commander and Auxiliary President ... And of course, coffee will be available to go with the cake, but ... The Post will also furnish food and music for the evening, while all you have to furnish is yourself and your spouse or escort ... The least expensive bar in town is available to serve you should you feel a bit thirsty during the evening ... And finally, the Master of Ceremonies for the evening will be PAST COMMANDER ARTIE RUTZ (for the umpteenth time) ... So come to our annual night dedicated to members of OUR Post and meet someone new or to renew old friendships as the old hall will be filled with Legionnaires and Auxiliary members ... Attention, all members of the EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ... There will be a meeting of this group next Thursday, March 11th at 8:30 P.M. ... Please make every effort to attend ... Commander LOU BRAUN has named 5 Past Commanders to the NOMINATING COMMITTEE ... Those named are RAY GAMBLE, FRANK MOLINARI, DICK HOCHBRUECKNER, LOU CESTA & ARTIE RUTZ ... Have fun, fellows.
