Storytime

The Fall season is again upon us and this signals the start of storytime at the Hicksville Public Library. On Thursday, October 7th the very first storytime of the new school year will be held at 10:30 a.m. or 1:30 p.m.

Board Meeting

The next meeting of the Hicksville Public Library Board of Trustees will be held on September 15th at 8:00 PM at the Library.

Thereafter, each Thursday at the same time picture book stories, fables, flannel board tales, films, and games are in store for all Hicksville children who are 3½ to 5 years old.

Registration is required and will be held in the Children's Room the week of September 20th.

All children who wish to participate must be 3½ years old by October 1st.

Good weather and a near record turnout for the Hicksville Fire Department's 54th Annual Labor Day Parade and Drill was spoiled by several fights near the end of the Drill. Four Nassau County Police Officers were injured in the fighting. The Drill was called to a halt. Three events were not completed and as a result, the State Officials lifted the sanction which resulted in no team credit for points scored in the Drill.

Fire Chief William Donlon expressed dismay at the end of the Drill. Officials from the Department, Teams and the State did not want to deprive the majority of the spectators, but were afraid more fights and injuries would result if the contests went on. Thirteen arrests were made and some of the youths were the same who caused trouble the last two years at the Levittown Parkway site.

Several firefighters and spectators were injured, none serious. Local Vamps were at a loss to explain why trouble once again plagued the annual event that is a vital part of the fund raising efforts of the Department, not to mention the pride the Department held in hosting the State's largest attended drill. Attendance was estimated at 7,500 persons.

Hicksville Fire Chiefs wish to thank the majority who attended and were deprived, but who also left in an orderly fashion. Thanks also to the County Police, who, under most difficult conditions, controlled the troublemakers. Sorting out, and extracting the trouble makers from a huge crowd can be most difficult. Thanks also went out to neighboring rescue units from Jericho, Plainview, Bethpage and Farmingdale.

Not to be forgotten are area residents and businesses who co-operated with the Committee, especially those concerns on Karen Lane itself. Without their co-operation, the job would have been impossible. Thanks also to all agencies of the Town of Oyster Bay and the Town Board.

What Happened At The School Board Meeting?

A lengthy agenda greeted the approximately forty residents who attended Wednesday's School Board meeting.

The only correspondence received by the Board was a letter from a teacher at the Lee Avenue School, Mrs. Francoise Brown, who asked the Board to reconsider her request for an extension of her leave of absence. Mr. J. Mateer, principal of the Lee Avenue School and Mrs. Peggy Gill, president of the Lee Avenue PTA both asked the Board to grant this leave. "We don't want to lose her, but if this leave is not granted this will happen," they said. "She is a fine teacher and the children in the future should have the privilege to study under her," they stated. Later in the meeting the Board granted the leave on a 5-2 vote, with Mr. Nagle and Mr. Bennett voting "no".

co-chaired the Budget Committee last year asked why the persons who served last year were never thanked by the Board. She found it difficult to ask these people to again give up their time and to work, when a simple "thank you" has not been forthcoming.

Mrs. Virginia Germer reminded the Board that last year she was criticized for not having her list in on time to the then-secretary, Mrs. Anci, who was to write to all persons who joined all School Board committees.

A Board report was given on Council negotiations. Mrs. Anci stated that she had met with the Council for ten hours in two days and that "meaningful negotiations are now taking place."

For over an hour the Board discussed whether a job description was a policy, or not. Up to this point they have been passed on and placed in the policy book of the Board. On a 6-1 vote the Board will follow policy and remove all job descriptions from the policy book. Mr. Ayres voted "no". During the information section two presentations were given as follows:

Dr. Fenton spoke on the Evaluation Report of 4-6 Gifted and Talented, in-depth Studies Program.

Mr. Greenberg reviewed the proposed changes in the Federal Regulations regarding Public Law 74-142. These changes affect our Handicapped Student procedures. Mrs. Wolfson asked all parties to review this proposed change very carefully. "They do much more than relieve paper work," she stated.

Board policies were again discussed. Changes were proposed to delete the point of order after midnight. Mr. Bennett, Mr. Arena and Mr. Ayres all believe that this policy should remain intact. Mr. Ayres stated, "We could be here all night!" The public has a right to hear the Board's logic and decisions, but we should not be addressing important issues at one, two or three a.m., they stated. Another suggestion was to conclude at 1 or 1:30 a.m. The objection to this was, to cut off at a certain time, no matter what is going on, is wrong. Further discussion on this matter will take place at the next Board meeting which is scheduled for Sept 22 at 8:15 pm in the Board room of the Administration Building.

The Board approved the Lease Purchase of the Xerox

Outstanding Leadership "Getting To Know You" Frank Chlumsky--"Mr. Hicksville"

Congressman Norman F. Lent (R-East Rockaway) was recently honored by the Nassau County Council of Young Republicans for his "outstanding leadership and dedication to the needs and concerns of his constituents."

Lent, a 20 year veteran of public service, is currently seeking his seventh term in the U.S. House of Representatives.

In accepting this award, Lent declared, "I am honored to have been chosen the 'Outstanding Republican Leader of 1982' by the Nassau County Young Republicans. It is indeed rewarding to have my efforts in the Congress recognized in this fashion. I certainly hope that I will be able to continue to warrant such a distinction in the years ahead."

By Rosemary Grant

Illness forced Frank Chlumsky to leave Hicksville last May. At 97, the man who lived at 29 Ernest Ave. and was well known for public service in his long and productive life, moved to his daughter's house in Roslyn. He is a man who has given a lifetime to community service spanning a period of over sixty years.

It became increasingly difficult for him to live alone because of loss of hearing and partial loss of vision. Still, until he left Hicksville, he went to the Kiwanis Club meeting every Wednesday with Henry Brenzel, Sr. and also remained active in the Salvation Army as Chairman of the Hicksville Unit. He enjoyed working in the Salvation Army because, through his effort, a share of the raised funds remained in Hicksville. One of his most cherished honors is the "Others" plaque, an award given by the Salvation Army to only an exceptional few, which symbolizes peoples concern for others.

of the Town of Oyster Bay from 1943 to 1955; served over 30 years in the Kiwanis Club, holding all offices of the club and is a past Lt. Governor of Kiwanis International.

He helped servicemen in World Wars I and II. One of his wartime projects was to send something each month to every servicemen from the Hicksville area. Through community efforts, money was collected from the residents and packages were sent.

In addition to his service in the Kiwanis and Salvation Army, Mr. Chlumsky was a member of the Hicksville Fire Department for over 20 years and was active in the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce and in Boy Scouting. One of the many honors bestowed on him is the Good Neighbor Plaque of Nassau County Newspaper Assn.

Frank Chlumsky was born on December 3, 1885. He was raised in the Yorkville section of New York City, where his parents were cigar makers. Young Frank packed cigars and at work he met his wife, Caroline. They were married in 1907 and had two daughters Frances McKillop of Roslyn and Ruth MacIntosh, who lives in California. Frank and Carolyn were married 73 years until her death in 1958. He had two sons, formal education, but is self taught and has a great command of the English language. He was a salesman for over 40 years for the J.E. Linde Paper Co. in New York City.

Frank started to come to Hicksville in 1908 to visit his wife's sister, who lived in what is now Mid Island Plaza. Life then was very primitive in Mid Island. There was no running water or electricity and they walked to get water from a pond in front of the Main Main Inn.

In 1913 the family moved out to stay and Frank was one of the early commuters, taking the 6:30 a.m. train to the Long Island City Ferry and then an elevator train to Harlem. He remembers early Hicksville as being agricultural and many German immigrants were engaged in the craft of gold leaf beating.

He also recalls that Hicksville was the home of the Heinz Pickle Works.

He often went with German singing groups to entertain at Sagamore Hill and is proud of the many times he met and spoke to President Theodore Roosevelt, remembering him as "very easy to meet - very easy to talk to."

In a 1976 taped interview on file in the Hicksville library, Frank Chlumsky sums up his feelings. "Hicksville has been very good to me. I have enjoyed doing anything and everything that was asked of me. I have had a full life and thank Hicksville for what it has done for me."

In turn, Frank Chlumsky has been very good to Hicksville. His life of outstanding achievement and service is an inspiration to us all.

MVB In Plaza Closed On Jewish Holy Days

Nassau County Clerk Harold W. McConnell announced today that the branch office of the Nassau County Motor Vehicle Bureau, located in the Mid-Island Shopping Center, Hicksville, will be closed for the Jewish Holy Days as follows:

- Friday, September 17th for Rosh Hashanah AND

Takes Over Dr. Dunbar's Practice

Dr. Donald Polatschek, Chiropractor, of Hicksville has recently taken over the practice of Dr. Walter Dunbar of 200 Jerusalem Ave. Hicksville after his passing. Dr. Polatschek is a long time resident of Long Island and spent his youth in Westbury attending Westbury High School and is a graduate of Nassau Community College and C.W. Post College.

Dr. Polatschek attended New York Chiropractic College in Old Brookville and received a special certificate for being on the Dean's List. At the completion of the four year curriculum, Dr. Polatschek interned for a year at the Greenvale Chiropractic Out-Patient Facility on Northern Boulevard.

Dr. Polatschek seasoned his credentials by working as an associate chiropractic physician for Dr. Beller and Dr. Goldfarb. He frequently attended post-graduate seminars to sharpen his skills in handling the problems of many different types of patients. He currently has another office in New Jersey but plans to give that office up shortly to devote his time and energies to the Hicksville office.

Dr. Polatschek is married. he and his wife, Lisa, have a young daughter, Melissa.

Dr. Polatschek is very happy to continue the quality of Chiropractic care offered by Dr. Dunbar and is looking forward to serve the people of Hicksville.

Mr. Chlumsky's concern for his fellow man is evident by many accomplishments. He was a member of the Hicksville Board of Education from 1919 to 1943, serving as President from 1932 until retiring from the board in 1943. He was Councilman

Apple Season Opens At Masker Pick-It-Yourself Orchards

The 1982 apple harvest at Masker Pick-It-Yourself Orchards in Warwick, New York begins Saturday, September 11. The tart, crisp McIntoshes and Greenings are now hardripe and ready for do-it-yourself harvesting.

Nestled in the Hudson Highlands, the 250 acre orchards offer city and suburbanites the beauty of an autumn apple harvest at budget prices. Parking, admission, and bushel bags are free and picnickers are encouraged to spend the day. Picking poles are available at a nominal rental fee. Apples are only $7.50 per 3/4 bushel (about 30 pounds of fruit), for any apple variety.

Masker Pick-It-Yourself Orchards offer the apple enthusiast eight different varieties.

The orchards are open 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. seven days a week, throughout the fall as long as the apples last. Visitors are encouraged to drive up to the top of the farm's mountain for choice picking and a breath-taking panorama of the surrounding autumn countryside.

Only an hour and 10 minutes from the George Washington Bridge, the farm, off Ball Road in Warwick, N.Y., is easy to get to. Coming from New York City, drivers should take the Lincoln Tunnel to Route 3 to 17 North or the George Washington Bridge to Route 4 then Route 17 north to Route 17A Westbound which runs directly to Ball Road and the orchards. For more information, apple pickers should call Masker Pick-It-Yourself Orchards at (914) 986-1058.

What A Volunteer!!

By Thomas W. Pauken, Director of ACTION

magic into the lives of Meadowbrook's 125 residents.

Karen first came to the center as a high school student, fulfilling a course requirement in volunteerism. It was love at first sight. She liked everyone she met; she wanted to meet them again and again. And so, two years ago, arrangements were made for her to become a daily volunteer. This required special transportation that was quite costly, but Karen's mother provided the means. That was fine, but Karen wanted her mother to join her as a volunteer and learn what the world at Meadowbrook was like. Mrs. Mullett agreed, and as Karen says, "Now she doesn't want to stay away. She loves it too much. One of us is always here." And where there are two Mulletts, there soon may be three, for Karen's father, who is retired, helps out on special occasions, and those occasions are becoming more and more frequent.

But what is it that Karen, as a volunteer in her wheelchair, brings to a nursing home where skilled attention is required? Maybe the questions should be--What would it do for your spirits if your days were empty of anyone who cared? If you had been left out on the ice, so to speak--and into the barren confines of your day, a young lady with a bright smile came wheeling and said, "Here I am. Here I am to talk to you, to listen to you, to love you." She's a young lady who has overcome her own infirmities in such a way that you are inspired to forget yours. You can't measure the effect of that. You can't compare it. You can only welcome and receive such feeling with open arms. And that's how Karen is received at Meadowbrook, whether she is visiting individually or aiding and participating in the Center's activities.

Last month the residents surprised Karen with a birthday party. They presented her with a plaque thanking her for her endless hours of volunteer work--which she refers to as her "ministry." She also was presented with a gift certificate to help pay for that special transportation when she needs it.

On the side of the Meadowbrook float at the Tulip Festival were the words, "Love is ageless." Just ask those who know Karen.

Dear Friends . . .

Call WE 1-1417 for a day or evening appointment. We're sure you'll be pleased with the help that this Service can give you.

This week we have started a bi-monthly series called "Orchids To The Living" . . . or, perhaps we should call it, "Getting To Know You". At any rate, we are sure you will enjoy Rosemary Grant's initial article in this series, which is about your friend and mine (and everyone's) Hicksville's Frank Chlumsky. There are many who will be a subject for this series in the next few months. If you have any suggestions to add to our list, as long as they live in the areas we cover, please phone me at WE 1-1400, and we'll talk it over.

We are sorry to have to report the sad ending of a fine Fire Dept. Parade and Drill which took place on Monday, Labor Day. It is a shame when the actions of a few have to spoil it for the thousands who usually attend and enjoy this famous annual event. See articles in this issue by the Fire Dept. and the Eighth Precinct.

The new owners of Seaman and Eisemann on Broadway in Hicksville are doing a major renovating job of the old building (a former bar and grill) located just on the other side of their side parking lot on Broadway. They would be glad to have any help other local businesses wish to give toward the completion of the renovation, for, when it is completed, they will offer it free to local organizations for community meetings. In addition to this public service, they are also willing to allow local organizations to use the parking property on the side of their building, free, for events such as flea markets etc.

We welcome the new owners of this venerable firm to Hicksville. . . . It is apparent that they are following in the footsteps of the esteemed former owners, who are well known for the many community projects and programs that they have worked on through the years.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

This is in response to an article which appeared on page one of your Aug. 20, 1982 edition concerning a fire which destroyed a house on Acre Lane, Hicksville. The article stated that "the neighbors", when the owner of the premises arrived, openly interfered with the efforts of the volunteer firemen to identify whether any chemicals were stored on the premises which were causing dangerous fumes and rendering the fire much more difficult to extinguish. These "interfering neighbors" did a service to no one and could have quite possibly caused needless injury to the volunteer firemen and much greater damage to the property. Their actions were appalling, alarming, and reprehensible.

It should be pointed out, however, that many of the people, who live in the immediate area and initially were at the scene of the fire, left the scene after the firemen came and well before the owner arrived, had no idea of how the volunteer firemen were being treated, and were outraged when these facts were disclosed in your article.

It is important that the members of the Hicksville Volunteer Fire Department understand that this interference, whatever the motivation, was a completely isolated instance and that the vast overwhelming majority of residents totally support the members of the volunteer fire department, knowing that these volunteers give up their own time, money, and efforts and in some cases their lives, to protect the lives and property of their neighbors.

To the members of the Hicksville Fire Department, we are grateful for your devoted selfless service and reassured that if ever we are in trouble and need help, you will always be there to answer the call.

Sincerely,

Concerned Residents in the Dutch Lane Area
P.S. A similar letter has been forwarded to the Hicksville Volunteer Fire Department.

Schools opened this week. We will all soon be back into 'he routines regulated by school hours. The slow, lazy summer patterns must be adjusted to meet new demands on our time and travel habits.

Children and adults alike must especially focus their concentration on traveling safely. Youngsters heading back to school, either walking or riding bikes, must be reminded of the safety rules and regulations which are designed to keep them free from harm - obey the rules of the crossing guards; cross only at corners; don't walk in the street; bicycle with the flow of traffic; wear reflective clothing when walking or bike riding at night. Bicyclists, especially young ones, should be cautioned by their parents to obey all the rules of the road; that means stopping at stop signs, using hand signals to indicate turns, and making certain that brakes, reflectors, tires and handlebars are all in tip-top working order. Children must also be reminded that "towing" or riding two on a bike is illegal as well as extremely dangerous. That kind of action can lead to very severe accidents.

Parents, too, must adjust their thinking to driving more cautiously. Many school crossing stops which have been tucked away in the back of our minds for the summer must now be brought to the forefront. And, take the time to check the safety of your automobile. . . .brakes, lights, tires, wipers, steering, etc. Make certain that your vehicle, like your child's bicycle, is in tip-top working order.

Be alert, especially during the first few weeks that school is open. Many children, such as those first entering school, are not aware of all of the dangers along the route to school. If possible, parents should walk or ride with their children during the first week or so, to inform themselves and their children about possible danger spots, and to instruct their children how to navigate these spots, safely.

Remember to be extra cautious when driving behind a school bus. Never, never, pass a stopped school bus and don't forget that these buses stop at all railroad crossings and do not make right turns on red signals. School bus drivers have passed stringent safety requirements and are charged with the safe transportation of our children, so help them to do their job properly by obeying all the rules yourself.

Start the new school year off right - stay alert and drive with care!

Second Precinct Police Report

By Police Officer John Lazarus

The 2nd squad is investigating the purse snatch by a male from a woman as she was walking to her car in Hicksville at 5:35 P.M. on Aug. 31.

Lucille Tortorelli, was walking from the train to her car in the Gertz parking lot when a male white, 19-21 brown hair, ran up behind her and tore her pocketbook from her shoulder. The pocketbook contained personal papers. She was not injured.

The investigation is continuing.

The driver of a Collica Cheese truck was assaulted and robbed in his company's truck at the intersection of Duffy Ave. and Newbridge Rd., Hicksville. Rosario Pellegrino, 19, was sitting in the cab waiting for a red light when a man with a ski mask entered from the passenger side, on July 21.

ski mask off the subject. Pellegrino was struck in the neck with a pipe and stabbed in the abdomen with a knife during the struggle. The subject then jumped from the cab with the money bag containing $11,000 in cash.

The subject fled the scene in a dark brown auto, in the company of another male white.

First Office Building In Old Brookville

An unfinished 15,000 sq. ft. building in Old Brookville is being renovated into the Village's only professional office building by JMF Construction Corp. (Central Islip, N.Y.).

The building, located at the intersection of Route 107 and Glen Head Road, is unusual for an office building in that it will conform to the traditional architectural style prevalent in the Old North Shore Community.

With this in mind JMF Construction is redoing the entire front of the building including the mansard roof. It has assisted in the design and is in the process of installing the offices as well as the electrical, plumbing, heating, ventilating, air conditioning systems and a new sanitary system. In addition, JMF will completely re-landscape the site and add a new parking lot. JMF also provided layouts for all office partitions.

"We plan to restore the exterior so that it will have the traditional charm characteristic of Old Brookville, and at the same time design the interior for maximum efficiency," said Fred Komson, president of JMF.

RC Management (Woodbury) purchased the building early this year, and it is expected to be ready for occupancy in January, 1983. As part of its $650,000 contract, JMF Construction worked with RC Management to obtain village approval for the new plans.

Robert Cohen, president of RC Management, said that the building will be divided into several areas, one which will have 21 offices - each with 100-110 sq. ft. - and a common conference room. It is expected that these will be desirable rentals for salespersons and corporations with Nassau and Suffolk representatives.

According to Mr. Cohen the remaining 11,000 sq. ft. will be divided to suit tenants, who will probably be doctors, lawyers, computer companies, etc. RC Management will also have offices in the building and plans to offer free layout services by JMF Construction to any tenant as part of its rental package.

Misleading Social Security Ads

One of the signs of the times that is causing increasing concern among Social Security officials is the proliferation of misleading advertisements that offer people services for a charge that are available free at any Social Security office. It seems that, as the complexity of modern life increases, more and more firms are seeking to profit from the desire of people to simplify their lives, to get services and benefits in the easiest possible way.

We offer one primary suggestion to anyone who is thinking about responding to an ad about Social Security services or information. Try us first. If we can't get it for you—then try the other source if you still think they can help. You will find that we have the latest, most accurate information. More importantly, we have information that may be based on your Social Security record and therefore applies specifically to your situation. In other cases, you will get enough information from us to recognize the "catch" in the ad, and will probably elect not to respond.

The ads are taking on increasing variety. Some offer to find out for a fee how much Social Security has credited to your Social Security record. Another offers to get your name changed on Social Security records, again for a fee. Such services are available free of charge at any Social Security office.

Other ads may go great lengths to offer Social Security "secrets" that are not available anywhere else. Still other may sell insurance with the implication that Medicare or Social Security is somehow officially connected. Social Security, of course, cannot promote any private firm.

In recent cases, the U.S. Postal Service has drawn the line at the use of the mails for misleading ads that they considered fraudulent. A consent order was signed by two publishing companies in 1981, promising to stop misleading ads promoting books on Social Security. One advertisement had asserted "hidden secrets of the Social Security Department" and had promised one's money back if a person did not realize a savings of $500 from reading the

Gerry Kaufman Wins Medals In Wyoming Valley Triathlon

Gerry Kaufman of the Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club swam, biked and ran to the 3rd place medal in the 40-44 age group in the August 29 Wyoming Valley - Back Mountain Triathlon.

The 41 year old Syosset attorney finished 57th overall out of more than 200 starters in the event, which consisted of a one mile swim, a 37.4 mile bike race and a 10 mile run through the hills of northeastern Pennsylvania. Gerry completed the course in 4 hours, 32 minutes.

Considering Gerry's accomplishments as a runner, it's not surprising that he was at his best in the 10 mile road run portion of the Triathlon. Gerry was in 80th place after the bike race, but he "just kept passing people" in the run.

It was Gerry's first triathlon, but probably not his last, even though he found training for the three sport event a pretty tough grind. But for the rest of the year he'll be concentrating on running, and is already into training for the November 7 Marine Corps Marathon in Washington, D. C. Gerry also hopes to be sufficiently recovered from the Triathlon to come up with a big effort in the September 11 Great Cow Harbor 10 Kilometer run, where he'll be competing head-to-head against his oldest son Michael.

Playorena Open House

Playorena will hold open houses for the fall session at both Mid-Island and South Shore locations. Parents and their children ages 3 months to 4 years, grandparents, siblings and friends are all welcome.

In Hicksville, Playorena is located at the Parkway Community Church, 95 Stewart Ave. (between Carmen Ave. and Levittown Parkway). The Open House at the Mid-Island center will be held on Wed., Sept. 22 at 10:00 to 11:00 (Babies 3 months to 1 year come at 9:30 to 10:00) and Sat. Sept 25 at 1:30 to 2:30 (Babies 3 months to 1 year come at 1:00 to 1:30).

Remember when you were a toddler? You wanted to play but all the playgrounds were too big. When you found the perfect place to jump your parents yelled that the beds were not for jumping! Today's toddlers are luckier. There is a greater awareness of the importance of play and its relationship to learning. There are more programs now for the pre-nursery school child.

Playorena is a unique parent-child adventure created specifically to meet the special needs of parents and their children ages 3 months to 4 years. It is a play environment planned to stimulate the sensory-motor development of young children. Playorena is like a giant toy box to end all toy boxes. It is based on the philosophy that play is a child's work and toys are the tools of their trade. A child learns more in the first four years than at any other time and most of that learning occurs through physical activity. With this in mind, Playorena has provided a safe and supportive environment where infants and young children can climb, crawl, rock, spin and explore the specially scaled equipment. The atmosphere is non-competitive and happy. While it sounds like all fun and games, (which it is), there are also important pre-learning skills being established such as body awareness, spatial awareness, balance, coordination, motor planning and gross and fine muscle development. Most of all Playorena is a special time for parents and young children to share in the excitement and fun of learning, playing and growing and making new friends.

Susan Astor is the originator of Playorena. She is a Long Island resident of Playorena. She is a Long Island resident who has written a book, "Gymboree - Giving your Child Physical, Mental, and Social Confidence Through Play," published by Doubleday. It is about the philosophy underlying Playorena and a similar program she started 7 years ago in Marin County, California. Ms. Astor moved to New York three years ago with her husband and two young children. Unable to

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

VENERABLE SKIP MONTEFORTE'S MESSAGE: "Our mistakes won't irreparably damage our lives unless we let them." Old Saying

One of the most pleasant aspects of the human experience is when one human being recognizes the worth of another and when one human being recognizes the good that another human being has done. With this pleasant thought in mind, the Ladies Auxiliary, has fittingly decided that they would hold a Testimonial Dinner and Dance in honor of Jo Ann Wallick, the energetic and effervescent President of the Ladies Auxiliary from 1979 to 1982. This event takes place on Saturday, the 25th of September, starting at 8:30 P.M. Tickets sell at $17.50 per person, and they can be purchased from Chairlady Rosa Meszaros (931-0878), Marion Densiglio (8D 4-6860) and Carmen Russo (931-1059). This 'easy-to-live-with' sum entitles you to a full course dinner, beer, soda, set-ups, coffee and cake, unlimited liquor and the engaging live music from the Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow dance band. Cut off date is September 21st and all tickets must be paid in advance. All members of the Galileo Lodge, male as well as female (with families, friends and relatives, of course), are urged to attend. Let us make this affair an auspicious as well as an eventful one by attending en masse.

MAN! MAN! What do these three letters represent? To a few, probably nothing of significance, but to the membership of the Galileo Lodge they represent Member Appreciation Night. Member Appreciation Nights are nights when the Galileo Lodge offers its membership free food, drinks, music and a congenial atmosphere with which to socialize, fraternize and engage in pleasant conversation. On Friday, the 17th of September, the Galileo Lodge presents another Member Appreciation Night, at which time all members, male and female, are cordially invited to attend. Please come and enjoy the gratuities (free food, drinks and music) offered by the Galileo Lodge. Please note that any member can also invite a prospective member to this activity and that all are offered the same hospitality. A disc jockey will also be in attendance. Come on down - bring a friend and he can talk to Venerable Skip Monteforte himself about the many great aspects of membership in our Lodge.

The "Foolies Follies" is coming to the foreground. On Friday night, the 12th of November, this hilarious comedic revue will become a reality. Tickets will sell at $10 per person, a modest fee that also offers you a hot roast beef dinner, with all the trimmings, beer, soda, set-ups and delightful music from a leading disc jockey. Jo Ann Wallick will 'chair' this activity and she will be assisted by Rose Riccardi, who will act as co-Chairlady. Needless to mention that rehearsals still take place every Tuesday night at the Galileo Lodge. Male and female members of the Galileo Lodge are urged to attend, and please note that your talents, professional or otherwise, are sorely needed to bring this production to fruition. It takes practice, time, effort, resourcefulness to ensure the success of this production. Contact Jo Ann at 681-8428 and Rose at 681-0960 for additional information. Tickets will soon be available and that information will appear in this column soon.

Jeff Wallick once again reminds all golf enthusiasts that the next Golf Tournament associated with the Galileo Lodge will be held on Sunday, the 26th of September, at the Swan Lake Golf Club. Fee for members will be $20 and $25 for non-members. There will be an open bar for two hours and the breakfast will be omitted. Tee off time is 12:00 noon, with prizes and trophies and green fees being part of the program. Cut off date is September 16th. Contact Jeff Wallick at 681-8428 for more details.

Major Construction Program At Central General Hospital

Central General Hospital in Plainview will begin a major construction program this week. The project will cost the facility over two million dollars, and will bring to the surrounding communities the latest technology in medicine.

According to Robert Bornstein, Administrator of Central General, "Among the many improvements residents will notice are new laboratory facilities, a new radiology department, a new surgical intensive care unit, a new physical therapy department, expanded emergency room facilities, and expanded operating room facilities. We anticipate at this time that the project will be completed in September of 1983."

Bornstein added that a total of four contractors will be involved in the program, and all firms are based on Long Island. The construction program not only includes additional facilities at Central General, but also renovation of certain existing areas.

Central General Hospital employs more than 800 workers in the area, handles more than thirty thousand emergency cases each year and has bed facilities for over 300 people.

Walk-Jog-A-Thon

The Association for the Help of Retarded Children (AHRC), Nassau County Chapter will hold a Walk-Or-Jog-A-Thon on Sunday, Oct. 17 at Eisenhower Park, parking field #1. The course is three miles.

Registration is from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and the event will be over at 4 p.m.

Sponsor sheets may be picked up at the Library or by calling Myra Giansante, Hicksville Chairlady at 935-4680.

Lecture On Headaches

The Levittown Health Council is proud to present Doctor Thomas Tumbarello's Lecture/Discussion entitled "Headaches - What YOU Can Do About Them!" at the Levittown Public Library on September 16th at 8 p.m.

The program promises to be informative and enjoyable. All are welcome. For further information, you may contact the Levittown Public Library or Doctor Tumbarello's Levittown office.

All participants who turn in over $350, will be given a 12" black and white TV set or a bike.

One-Man Circus Sept. 12

Anyone who loves a circus will want to see Jean Paul Jenack's one-man circus, which will be at the Syosset-Woodbury Community Park Center for one performance only on Sunday, September 12.

Oyster Bay Town Councilman Salvatore R. Mosca announced that the circus will begin at 3 PM in the Community Park Center, 7800 Jericho Turnpike, Woodbury. Sponsored by the Town's Cultural and Performing Arts (CAPA) Division of the Department of Community Services, the free program is open to all Town residents. No tickets are required.

"Jean Paul Jenack has been a professional performer for more than 20 years, appearing in shows and circuses throughout the United States," Mosca commented. "His one-hour performance includes juggling, unicycling, balance acrobatics and plate spinning, among other feats."

"I hope residents will join me for what would be a delightful afternoon of entertainment."

For further information contact CAPA at 922-5800 ext. 281.

Around Our Towns

Our sincere congratulations to May and Joe Bonarigo who will celebrate their 25th Wedding Anniversary on September 7th.

May and Joe were introduced to each other by Julie and Tony Previte and were later married at St. Helena Church in the Bronx in 1957. Moved to Hicksville in November 1959. One month after moving to 81-8th St. their twin daughters Joanne and Lenore were born.

The twins arranged a surprise Dinner Party for their parents which was held last Saturday at The Blue Dolphin Restaurant in Huntington. Sixty one guests were there to celebrate. A good time was had by all. Although it was a very hard job keeping the whole affair a secret.

Congratulations are also in order for their daughter Joanne and Richard Einhorn who will celebrate their 1st wedding anniversary on Sept. 5th.

I know you will all join us in wishing these two couples many more years of happiness.
