the drum corps world as the "Miracle Corps of '82". In February, they had only 54 members remaining after those girls left to start college, or jobs, etc. They had only one snare drummer, one contra-bass player, and 18 horn players in all. There 18 horn players in all. There was no money, and it seemed like the world was abandouing them. The prospects for the famous St. Ignatus Girls Drum & Bugle Corps looked bleak. It was a dismal and trying time for the administrators and the girls.

Eight months later, the St. Ignatius Girls proudly mar-ched off the competition field of the Drum Corps International Championships in Montreal, Quebec, Canada, flying the flag of the United States and carrying their finalists trophy. What happened in the interim would be good material for a novel. Suffice it to say that sheer tenacity and perseverance in tenacity and perseverance in the face of all odds were the factors with which they pull-ed themselves through:

"Fielding a corps at all for the 1982 competition season was as big a challenge as we had ever faced", said Corps Director Don Graziose recently. "So the staff and the girls really pulled together. We accepted this challenge, and we lashed ourselves to the mast of the

DEODORANT

SAGE: 'Why you are born and why you are living depends entirely on what you getting out of this world and what you are giving to it. Old Saying.

There was an old adage to the effect that if you frown, you frown alone; but if you laugh, the whole world laughs with you. This might be an old idea but is surely has its merit. But if I may recommend something that can produce laughter, well, it would have to be the crazily-named 'Foolies Follies'—that laugh-infested and comedy-ridden slapstick and comedy-ridden slapstick revue presented by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Galileo Lodge on Friday, the 12th of November, with tickets selling at $10 per person, a reasonable sum that offers you (show in-cluded) a hot roast beef dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and live music from a leading disc jockey. But please note that a 'bring-your-own-liquor' policy will be in effect that night. Jo Ann Wallick (681-8428) will direct this show and she will be very capably aided by Rose Riccardi (681-

Please note that hearsals for the 'Follies' take place every Tuesday night, at the Galileo Lodge starting at 8:00 P.M. All male and female members of our organization are urged to attend and offer their talents, professional or otherwise, to ensure the otherwise, to ensure the successful conclusion of this revue. You don't need very much only a desire to participate.

A beautifully added note concerning Joseph Pino, one of the recipients of the Galileo Lodge's Louise Masiello Memorial Scholarship Awards, is that Joseph graduated 13th out of a class of 700 students. He also received a Gold Medal for excellence in Italian studies and language, was also re-cipient of a 4-year Gover-nor's Scholarship Award from Adelphi University where he will major in Accounting. Congratulations from the Galileo Lodge, of course. Joseph is the brother of Jim Pino of our Lodge.

Recently we wrote about recognition, but another condition which also has a nice ring to it is acknow-ledgement. And this exactly what the Galileo Lodge did last Friday night, the 17th of September as Venerable Skip Monteforte nowledged the efforts. sacifices and sincerity of its membership—male as well as female—by offering another Member Appreciation Night, at which time varieties of delicious food, beverages, an open bar, coffee and cake and music from a disc jockey were gratuitously offered to over 150 people which included members and their wives and families (and friends, of course). Everyone who attended enjoyed himself or herself to the fullest extent by really taking advantage the Galileo Lodge's hospitality. And to make this activity even sweeter was Skip Monteforte's announcement that many more Mem-ber Appreciation Night will also take place. Also in attendance that night was Dominick Ambrose, an official of the Grand Lodge and Ann Palizano, of the Ann Bambino Lodge and a mem-ber of the Com. of Arbrita-tion. Venerable Skip Monte forte, again in acknowledgement, extends his sincerest thanks to the members who made this Appreciation Night so socially success-fully, namely, Chief Chef Jim Posillico, Frank Matassa, Ed Palmese, Pat Gatto, Al Matello, Joe Morace, John and Bert Molinelli at the bar: and a special thanks to all members who attended and ful conclusion of that affair.

Venerable Skip Monteforte once again proudly pro-claims the involvement of the Galileo Lodge community affairswith community affairs—pro-viding even greater evidence of its charitableness and consideration for many other causes-as he announces that the Galileo Lodge recently has donated $500 to the Gift of Sight. Another $500 was donated to the St. Francis Hospital Gift of Life program. The Gift of Life program offers the best medical and surgical services for those who are indire need of them but are not financially equipped to pay for them. The Gift of Sight program helps to con-tact children of Europe who need cataract or eye treatneed cataract or eye treat-ments which are provided with the help of the Lydia Park Hospital of Long Island. Incidentally, this donation to the Gift of Sight was the first of its kind ever to be given to it by any organization. The Galileo Lodge has opened the doors for more contributions, so any member of the Galileo Lodge can personally donate any sum he or she wishes by making out checks to the Gift . of Sight, Galileo Lodge, 200 Levittown Parkway, Hicks-ville, N.Y. 11801. In another installment we will go more into detail about the Gift of Sight program.

When the U.J.A. planned to send a special Leadership Fact Finding Mission to Israel and Lebanon, I was happy to have been chosen to be part of it. Too many questions had been unan-swered. Having known Israel, its people, and its Army, the picture painted by the Media ever since the War started on June 6, War started on June o, seemed incomprehensible. Did the Israeli soldier, a family man, a "civilian", with a no-nonsense attitude toward the defense of his country, because he knows he'll never have a second chance, become the blood chance. chance, become the blood thirsty villain portrayed on T.V. and in the Press? Is he the one who set out to bomb schools, hospitals, homes and make innocent civilians homeless?

Many questions had been raised in my mind, and dur-ing this Fact-Finding Mis-sion I intended to find the

Our group was applauded, cheered, and greeted with smiles. There was very little evidence that War had barely passed thru. Many of the houses, totally unharmed, still flew white flags. Then, on the way to Beirut we saw a monstrous vision: An entire Town, almost fully deserted. Much evidence of shelling. Literally a ghost town. Damur. Once a beautiful city inhabited by Christian Lebanese. The population driven out by force by the P.L.O. during the Civil War of 1976!

Because shelling was exchanged between Moslems in West Beirut (who had been given arms from the P.L.O.) and Lebanese Army Units, and Syrian Army contingents were vacating West Beirut and were heading toward Damascus, we were not allowed into the city of the control of the co Damascus, we were not allowed into the City proper. Instead we went into a beautiful Christian Town east of Beirut, Dir-El-Tamar where we were received by many of the villagers and many of the villagers and treated to fruit and sweet cakes. I was fortunate to find an Architect among the Villagers with whom I first talked "shop" and then asked him specifies. (He did not object to my taping the conversation.) His village had been occupied by the Syrians. Because they were Christian Lebanese, the occupation became unbearable: curfews, harrassments, occupation became unbear-able: curfews, harrassments, confiscations. He moved his family to Junich, a beach resort North of Beirut. Does he like the Israelis? He wel-comes them because they comes them because they liberated him and he, as a minority in a Moslem World needs an ally. How come no Arab Country accepts the Palestinians and does not want to take in P.L.O. fighters? Who says they don't like the P.L.O. They like them; they are their Army; they do the fighting for them. If it were not for Israel, Palestinians would be welcome throughout the welcome throughout the Arab World. Will the newly elected President Gemayel be able to Unite Lebanon? He doubts it seriously because as far as he is con-cerned, some of the Moslem factions will not tolerate dominance by religions other than Moslem. Will peace ever come between Israel and her Arab neigh-bors? Not for many years: "you are at peace with Egypt for 4 years. How close has the individual Israeli gotten to the individual Egyptian?" The next morning, Sept. Ist, we were in Galilee. We were in Kiriat Shemona, the northern most Town which lst, we were in Gailise. We were in Kiriat Shemona, the, northern most Town which for years took the brutal shellings from P.L.O. guns and rockets. We went to the shelters where the population had to take refuge during the incessant shellings. That day there was "Peace in the Gailiee." No enemy shellings. That day there was "Peace in the Gailiee." No enemy shellings. That day also school opened. The new kindergarten class was initiated. Going to school became a joy. The first time in years that a new class did not have to be shown the way to the shelters ahead of all else.

As a by product of Israel's campaign "Peace for Galilee" Lebanon is on the verge of finally getting rid of her occupyers and oppressors, the P.L.O. and the Syrians. This beautiful country, the Switzerland of the Mid-East deserves again to be free and live in peace with her neighbors. So does the population of Israel, israel, the only reliable and proven ally of the Western World against Soviet incursion into this oil rich region. Both countries need our unstinting whole-hearted moral and financial support.

Clark said that "pothole repairs will be made where required, after which a layer of oil, followed by a layer of bluestone, will be distributed on the road. Area residents will be able to drive on the newly coated roads approx-imately one hour after the imately one hour after the job has been completed. Traffic on the roadways dur-ing the following ten days will improve the surfacing treatment as more stones are imbedded into the oil base."

After the ten-day period, sweepers will remove the excess stone which is then reused in other areas.

Clark noted that residents

At our last Club meeting, one of our fellow Republican Club provides the weekly issues of the Mid Island Herald newspaper to each of our members. programs and refreshments we offer at our meetings. It was nice to hear these positive comments; and we thought you would like to hear about them, too.

Speakers at our September meeting included Judge James Brucia, Tenth Judicial District (Nassau and Suffolk Counties) who is running for District Court Judge. Judge Brucia spoke about the rights and duties of our society. He said when a Judge listens to disputes, he considers the duties and considers the duties and rights of all parties concern-ed; i.e., civic duties, social duties, duty to come forward as a witness to a crime, etc. He said the pendulum has swung too far in favor of the rights of the criminal as opposed to the rights of the vic-tim. Judge Brudic said that justice must be tempered constantly— that there are no "computerized" solu-tions. Each and every case must be listened to and then a standard applied to protect the victim as well as judge the criminal. His presenta-tion and understanding of the court system was very impressive.
