Hicksville's Gold/Silver Industry To Be Recreated

Plans for recreating this village's one-time large "gold and silver beating" industry at the Hicksville Gregory Museum have been exciting interest from many quarters of this village, Long Island and out of the state. The exhibit is targeted for public viewing on November 9th. The Museum program committee reports they've received an enthusiastic response to letters in the Hicksville press and a feature article in Newsday requesting information on the gold beating craft and loans or donations of tools and materials.

Among the local residents whose family members worked as gold beaters of gold leaf trimmers and who have responded with telephone calls and letters from such distant places as the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia and El Paso, Texas have been former Hicksville residents: Rose M. Becker Francis Munch; Marie Staehle of Princeton, N.J.

and Mrs. Helen Timoney.

Interviews have provided a wealth of information about this craft which once provided shop and cottage work for many Hicksville men and women: Among the present or former residents who told of their father's or relative's work at gold leaf manufacture were: Fred Turner, Henry Schnepf, Al Auer and Warren Munch of Bethpage. Arnold Morhouse provided information about his work with gold leaf rolls on fine leather, and he has loaned and donated tools.

Three long-time gold beaters have been located and interviewed and may be available for demonstrations of the art of gold leaf hammering: Art Scott of Seaford and Charles Graf of Massapequa Park who worked in the Solan Gold Beating Shop in Brooklyn and John Bilek of Massapequa. These veteran one-time craftsmen are a fund of information about the Museum Historian Dick Evers has located the sites and existing buildings of

What has 200 legs and makes geometric patterns in the grass to the sound of beautiful music?

If your answer is the "Marching Comets" — including the Hicksville Marching Band, the Coquettes, the Flag Corps, and the Color Guard — you were correct, and their dazzling new half-time performance was made possible by a special experience they shared early in September.

The group of 100 students traveled by bus to North Haven, located just north of Sag Harbor, on Saturday, September 11, to begin an intensive three-day marching band clinic. Accompanied by eight parent-chaperones, the Marching Comets were eager with anticipation and ready to learn their new routines in preparation for the new season.

A marching band camp is not a new concept; many school districts send their ensembles to summer camp for as long as a week. However, this was a first for Hicksville, and Superintendent of Schools Dr. Wilber D. Hawkins and the Board of Education lent their full support to a project they believed would benefit the program and instill a high level of spirit into each member.

Marching Band Director J. David Abt spent many hours during the summer revamping the entire program and making arrangements for the three-day clinic. He was assisted by Robert Bidnick, industrial arts teacher at the High School and Assistant Marching Band Director, in working out the last-minute details. While the plans were being made, Denise Koegel, a math teacher and Director of the Coquettes, was conducting final auditions and making her own preparations for the departure for North Haven.

The students spent most of the three days in marching practice, musical rehearsals, and dance routines, but there was also some time for fun, relaxation, and eating. The 11:00 pm curfew found all the students in their cabins — but not necessarily asleep. On Saturday night, Jeff Agnoli was awakened from a sound sleep by the dulcet tones of a tuba being played in his ear, and the continuous banging of the girls' lavatory door from 5:30 am on was not conducive to a great deal of sleep. However, nothing could dampen the Comets' spirit and enthusiasm for another day of hard work and learning.

High School Principal Dr. William Rieck, undisputed champ in the area of school spirit, arrived at camp on Saturday to watch the Comets at work, and was so impressed that he returned on Sunday with his family to spend the day. He was particularly pleased to see the high level of commitment on the part of the students. "The kids worked hard all day," he noted, "but during those few spare minutes between sessions or before meals we would see someone alone practicing an instrument or running through a flag routine." William Golecke, Chairman of Comprehensive Arts at the High School visited the camp on Monday to check the facilities and watch the students at work, and he echoed the feelings of Dr. Rieck in praising the entire endeavor.

The chaperone found their jobs rewarding but tiring, since shepherding a large group of high school students is no small job. However, Charles Green, father of Comet Lorraine Green and a graduate of Hicksville High School himself, summed it up late

Monday morning. As he looked out over the playing field where the Marching Comets were "strutting their stuff," he said, "The high school is bringing back some of the old values."

Later that afternoon, two busloads of tired students, parents, and directors returned to the high school where they deposited their equipment and headed wearily home. They were back in school the following day full of enthusiasm and good memories about their camp experience and ready to take the field once again for marching practice.

Hicksville residents can see the results of the hard work invested by all those involved by catching the half-time performance by the comets during football games this season. There's nothing like a good marching band, and we've got one right in our own community.

Band members, the Flag Corps, and the Coquettes out in long hours of practice inspired by their intensive band camp experience.

the living and working standards of our membership."

In endorsing Lent, each organization expressed its desire that Lent would be overwhelmingly returned to Congress in the upcoming election. Lent, the Dean of Long Island Congressional Delegation, was applauded for "consistently voting to further the welfare of our nation."

In accepting these critical endorsements, Lent said, "I am extremely pleased to have been endorsed for re-election by the Uniformed Firefighters Association, the Nassau Police Conference and the New York City Fire Department Steuben Association. I firmly believe that these endorsements are testament to the fact that throughout my years in the Congress I have always striven to further the needs and interests of the working men and women that I represent.

"I sincerely hope that in the years ahead I will continue to warrant the support and approval of the middle class working men and women that comprise such a large portion of my district. I pledge that I will continue to combat those who would follow the sorry policies of the past which have led to our Nation's current economic difficulties. Those that would tax and tax and spend and spend would not only bankrupt the American taxpayer but our entire Nation as well."

"ENCORE" Comes To Nassau And Suffolk Counties

"Encore - The Best of Hollywood Every Week" is scheduled to start at United Artists' Meadowbrook Theatre in East Meadow on Tuesday, October 12th and United Artists' Smithtown Theatre in Smithtown on Thursday, October 14th.

Encore is being presented in cooperation with the N.C.O.A. (National Council on Aging) nationally and the A.A.R.P. (American Association of Retired Persons) locally.

The program brings back those memorable films of the past and appeals to the nostalgia of our Senior Citizens, the curiosity of our youth and the penetrating interest of film buffs everywhere.

Fred Schwartz, President of Encore stated, "The administrators of Nassau and Suffolk counties' Councils on Aging, the N.C.O.A. and the A.A.R.P. and directors of centers and clubs with whom we have met believe it most important to keep Seniors in the cultural, social and economic mainstream of the community, leading a healthier, happier and longer life. They also believe that "Encore" can possibly contribute towards that end."

Schwartz also advised that while the program was and continues to be designed for Senior Citizens, engagements elsewhere have thus far attracted audiences of all ages. These films cut across generation gaps and grandparents are now bringing grandchildren.

There will be one matinee showing every Tuesday at 2:00 P.M. at Meadowbrook and one matinee showing every Thursday at 2:00 P.M.

Houten, variances, lot area occupied, enclosed existing porch, side yard, maintain detached garage & enclosed patio, E/s Thoreau Ave. 300 ft. S/o Oak St. Interested parties should appear at the above time and place. By order of the Board of Zoning Appeals.

at Smithtown. Admission price is $1.50 for all. The first films to be shown will be: "The Sound of Music", "The King and I", "Singin' In The Rain", "Seven Brides For Seven Brothers", "An American In Paris" and "Gigi".

In order to establish the fact that there is truly no substitute for seeing a fine film in a well-appointed motion picture theatre, "Encore" invited the administrators of Nassau's and Suffolk's Councils on Aging, presidents, directors and staff of centers and clubs, religious leaders, university and college representatives and the media to a screening of "Singin' In The Rain" at United Artists' Meadowbrook theatre.

Schwartz stated, "We know that these films have been on television, however, the only way to enjoy the full measure of a memorable film is to see it in the professional surroundings of a motion picture theatre with its large screen, high quality sound, no constant interruptions from commercials, unedited as for television and surrounded by an audience. The scope of classic musicals, the contagion of laughter, the over-whelming sensation of large scale epics and magnificent scenery and settings can only be truly enjoyed by sharing the experience with your fellowman."

Dear Friends . . .

There is a firm named ENCORE with an exciting new idea which has recently been formed by three gentlemen whose combined years of service in the motion picture industry carries a surprising total.

East Meadow's Sol Schrieber whose business career in this industry started in 1931 when he joined MGM's sales and distribution division, with eminent success, has been joined by Leon Greenberg, also of East Meadow, who joined Century Theatres 34 years ago as assistant controller, and last but far from least, Fred J. Schwartz whose distinguished career began in 1930 when he was employed by Century Theatres and worked through all their departments right up to its presidency in 1952. Later Mr. Schwartz careers varied; in 1953 he became president of Distributors Corp. of America, in the 60's MGM retained him for a special assignment to promote and distribute its film library of classics for world-wide theatrical release. Later he designed, built and operated a motion picture theatre in Lake Placid which received the Quigley Award as the best designed theatre in America in 1969.

By now, you must all be wondering what the exciting new idea these gentlemen are presently working on—well, ENCORE, their firm's name, is concerned with presenting classics of the motion picture industry, which will be shown at selected local theatres, starting at 2 p.m. for an admission price of only $1.50. Originally, this idea was to be for Senior Citizens. However, it was found when first presented in the City, that not only senior citizens were enjoying these presentations, but, also, their children and grandchildren! So that's how it stands now, plus, the exciting news that in Nassau County the United Artists' Meadowbrook Theatre in East Meadow, will be the first to bring all of us the following programs each Tuesday:

United Artists Meadowbrook Theatre, East Meadow, Tuesdays at 2 p.m. (admission price $1.50) Oct. 12, "Stugin' In The Rain" with Gene Kelly, Debbie Reynolds, Donald O'Connor, Oct. 19, "Gigi" with Leslie Caron, Maurice Chevalier, and Louis Jordan, Oct. 26, "An American In Paris" with Gene Kelly and Leslie Caron, Nov. 9, "Seven Brides For Seven Brothers", with Howard Keel and Jane Powell, Nov. 16, "The King & I" with Yul Brynner and Deborah Kerr, Nov. 23, "The Sound of Music" with Julie Andrews.

We wish you much success in this new concept in presenting fine film classics, gentlemen.

This is National Fire Prevention Week. At this time we extend our gratitude to the thousands of volunteer firemen who serve our County so unselfishly throughout the year. Their dedication is commendable.

For Our Children And Us

Equitable Distribution which is part of the new divorce law and has wide ranging implications for everyone in New York State is the subject of a free important seminar to be held Wednesday evening, Oct. 20th at 8 p.m. The seminar is co-sponsored by FOCUS "For Our Children and Us" and the New York Institute of Technology. The seminar will be held at Salten Hall on the Old Westbury Campus.

The guest speakers are: The Honorable George A. Murphy, Justice of the Supreme Court and an outstanding authority on domestic law and Joseph A. D'Elia, Commissioner of the Nassau County Dept. of Social Services and a member of numerous professional groups and agencies.

The seminar will offer a rare opportunity to learn the difference between "equitable" and "equal" distribution of marital property, the responsibility of the Dept. of Social Services for child support enforcement, the role of the parent locator and other similar topics.

Gentlemen:

It seems you would expect that with all the digging and improvements being done in coordination with the installation of sewers in Hicksville, that the inconvenience would bring neighbors together, rather than draw them apart.

For a month now, both sides of our street have been dug waiting for the installation of new curbs and driveway aprons. This inconvenience seems to have heated some tempers, even to the degree that rather than asking a neighbor to please move a car, the police were called. Since all the cars on the street were safely parked, this unnecessarily wasted police time and tax dollars; but most sadly this act, and the rude, nasty behavior that went along with it, broke up a long time friendship.

Why can't we all be appreciative of the improvements being done for us, and band together to help our friends and neighbors through this difficult inconvenience. Politeness, consideration and apologies go a long way.

Dear Editor:
A couple of weeks ago, my daughter was at the Hicksville Public Library and was told that she could not use the bathroom. It has to be kept locked because of vandalism. I went to the library, myself, and spoke with Mr. Barnes, who verified what my daughter said. It's another sad commentary on the state of things today, isn't it?

Someone is trying to tell us something, I'm sure. We are all disheartened at the way our society is deteriorating, but when we become aware of a situation like the one I've just described, we must work toward alleviating it.

If you are a senior citizen with some free time, why not volunteer to spend a few hours at the library once in a while, helping the librarians keep track of who uses the rest rooms?

I've already spoken with Youth Leaders at my church, St. Ignatius, and suggested that they incorporate a community service project as a prerequisite to receiving Confirmation. Perhaps, the other churches and temples could do the same. Our youngsters could arrange to be at the library after school to help make sure that no one is abusing the privilege of using the rest rooms. They'd be doing something for their town and getting points for their projects.

Let's hear ideas from other people too.

Sincerely,
Diane Otten,
Hicksville.

"Getting To Know You"

Happy Birthday Charles I. Montana

By Rosemary Grant

Sixty Five years ago this past Monday, Charles Montana was born in Hicksville, a time when it was still a farming area. Since then, Hicksville has come a long way and so has Charles Montana. He celebrated this milestone last Saturday evening at a family party held at the Brookville Country Club and was honored by his employees at a breakfast at a local restaurant on Monday.

Mr. Montana's father, Dominick, came to Hicksville just after the turn of the century and operated a barber shop on East Marie Street for almost fifty years. Charles Montana was born on Broadway opposite St. Ignatius Church. As now, Hicksville was a central shopping place for neighboring communities. It was headquarters for the Long Island Railroad.

Charles Montana

Montana was in fifth grade at Nicholai Street School when the East Street School was opened and marched behind Miss Nina Plantz from Nicholai Street to East Street on the day of opening in 1927.

He remembers being a caddy at Salisbury Country Club (now Eisenhower Park) at age twelve and seeing Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig coming there to play golf. Train fare from Hicksville to Westbury was 12c. He used to go to mass at 6 a.m. on Sundays to the chapel at St. John's Orphanage and Farm on North Broadway on land where the Mid Island plaza is now located.

Always interested in music, he was band leader in high school for dances, was in the glee club, and acted in plays. Montana was handed a high school diploma in 1934 by Frank Chlumsky.

Starting his working career as a hamburger chef at Jones Beach, a year later Montana became employed by Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank. He graduated from a 4 year night school course at the American Institute of Banking and became licensed in real estate in 1939 and insurance in 1940.

He started selling real estate in Hicksville in 1936 with the sale of Wonder Homes, a small development east of Bay Ave. His

Hicksville American Soccer Club

Coached by Steve Florio

By Len G. and Joe Matz
The Hicksville Tornados coached by Steve Florio, sponsored by Westbury Federal Savings and Loan beat the V.O.B. Cougars by a score of 3-1 this past weekend at Grumman Field.

In a tough 1st half, the Tornados were losing 1-0. The Cougars showed excellent skills and defensive in repelling the continuous Tornado attack.

However, the second half proved to be a different story. The Tornados came out the 2nd half with a determination and confidence instilled by Coach Florio, that they would be victorious.

In the opening minutes, Forward Michael Pierson tied the game with a shot that the Cougar goalie couldn't hold on to. Assists on the play were by halfback Erik Matz and Kevin O'Hea. The Tornados now drew blood and couldn't be stopped.

Defense is the Tornado strength. Goalie Matt Greenspan, Fullbacks Jason Kilmatis, Timmy Carroll, Michael Donovan, Larry Neuberger, and Stopper Brian Whitman shut out the Cougars the second half.

The Tornados 2nd goal was scored by Michael Pierson, his second of the game, and was assisted by Todd Zeff and Michael Kent.

The final goal assisted by halfback Hermes Furlin and Brian Centrone was scored by forward Barry Mannion on a left footed shot into the far post.

The boys are playing solid soccer utilizing the skills being taught by Coach Florio and are representing their Club admirably.

The Tornado record is now 2 wins - 1 loss, 8 goals, scored vs 2 goals against.

Handicapped Awareness Sunday

Trinity Lutheran Church, 40 W. Nicholae St., Hicksville, is planning a special service on Sunday, October 10, to celebrate HANDICAPPED AWARENESS SUNDAY.

Reverend John H. Krahn commented, "our church wants to be available and of help to those who are disabled. We want our congregation to be a caring one - able-bodied and handicapped members learning from one another. Each has much to offer. The person who is handicapped has had to face problems and find answers concerning such areas as self-image and independence, that can be of tremendous help to everyone. The able-bodied Christian can provide the assistance and acceptance of which Jesus lived and spoke."

On HANDICAPPED AWARENESS SUNDAY Trinity Lutheran Church wants to acknowledge the context of the worship service, that God's power shows up best in weak people. No matter what our handicap, whether it be a broken neck or a broken heart, we have a God that cares about our pain. The church wants to declare His sovereignty, power, and love to a world that is hurting and unbelieving.

The services are at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday and 8:15, 9:45, and 11:15 a.m. on Sunday. Sunday School and Nursery Care are held during the 9:45 a.m. service. The church is located between Broadway and Jerusalem Avenue in Hicksville.

real estate and insurance career was interrupted with World War II. Montana was a Chief Petty Officer in the United States Navy, serving during the war in Europe. Upon his return to civilian life in 1946 he opened The Montana Agency, the oldest established realtor and one of the oldest insurance agents in this area.

He married Marguerite L. Fenning of Lynbrook and Jamaica in 1943. Marge was active in local and church affairs, including the League of Mercy Hospital. She served as President of St. Ignatius Mother's Club.

The father of three children, Peggy Ann, Charles Jr. and George, Montana became active in Boy Scout Troop 91, where he served as scoutmaster and has fond memories of Memorial Day Parades and weekend camping with his troop at Camp Wauwepex, Wading River.

A member of the Kiwanis Club for over 30 years, Montana was President in 1952. He also served as a member and Chairman of the Adult Education Advisory Board and helped to sponsor and found the Hicksville Chapter of Cerebral Palsy Association.

Charles and Marge Montana have seven grandchildren and one on the way. They now spend a part of the year in Florida at Cape Coral.

Since his sons, Charles Jr. and George are now active in the business Charles Montana's thoughts are turning in a new direction "trying to get used to the idea that retirement from active business is here or just around the corner."

At 65, wherever the future leads him, he has left his mark on Hicksville as a distinguished and respected businessman and a caring human being.

Charles Wagner Post is only one of many veterans organizations sponsoring a Halloween affair that night ... Mrs. Henretta Timoney and her children did work in an apartment on East Carl St. . . It is said that Mr. Esslinger, the jeweler and optician, whose shop was a familiar place for generations of Hicksvillians on West Broadway also did gold beating in his earlier years in the village. The Gregory Museum's gold beating exhibit is focusing increasing attention on this one-time center of the gold leaf production. The New York Times has referred to the museum and its coming exhibit in a recent feature on the use of gold leaf on building exteriors. Similarly, the American Institute of Architects of Washington, D.C. has written for historical data on gold beating in old-time Hicksville for a traveling exhibit of American crafts. The Institute's Octagon Foundation has in preparation.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

VENERABLE SKIP MONTEFORTES MESSAGE:
'Expect disappointments, but scorn defeat.' Old Saying

Some of our moods are synonymous with Spring and Summer, others are symbolic of Fall and Winter. But at this point in time I would like to digress on Autumn and Winter, and that's to say that the Galileo Lodge, ever so mindful and cognizant of what pleasure and relaxation mean to our lives, announces that its Fall And Winter recreational program is now in readiness. Starting with an activity that enhances our autumnal diversions - Halloween - the Galileo Lodge appropriately states that it will hold a Halloween Dance sometime in late October. Then, to herald the coming of the Yuletide season, the Galileo Lodge announces that it will hold a Christmas Dance, possibly in mid-December, and also two Christmas parties, one for the handicapped children of Queen and Nassau and the other one for the children of the Galileo Lodge membership, and then finally the Galileo Lodge adds warmth to the cold season as it will also present a gala New Years Party and Dance to help usher in the new year. This program is designed primarily for the sole gratification and edification of its members, friends and patrons. It is also a recreational program starstudded with fun, jolly good times and leisure. Keep attuned to this column for dates and more information.

And speaking once again of pleasure, of which laughter is certainly an integral part, it is always a pleasure to announce that the Ladies Auxiliary of the Galileo will present the 1982 version of the 'Foolies Follies' which, as you probably know by this time, is a laughter-filled series of acts, sketches, routines (with dances also), skits and situations that should provoke more laughter than you could imagine in a single night. Rose Riccardi (681-0966) will direct this revue and Marion Freed (249-4313, 931-9351) will handle ticket sales and reservations. Tickets sell at $10 per person, a very modest sum that offers you a hot

Roast beef dinner, coffee and cake, beer, soda and music from a leading disc jockey. But please note that a "bring-your-own-liquor" policy will be in effect that night. Incidentally, Marion Freed will be at the Galileo Lodge every Tuesday and Wednesday nights for ticket distribution. And, as we have mentioned before, rehearsals take place every Tuesday night at the Galileo Lodge, so all members who

"One Of The Grass Roots Of The American Legion"

We have a HALLOWEEN DANCE waiting to happen on October 30th so put this date on your 'must go' list ... This annual affair is being chaired by P.C. FRANK WALSH (796-5266) and he is aided and abetted by another P.C. by the name of FRANK MOLINARI (935-1934) ... Call either of these two Legionnaires and make known your wishes to attend. This affair is open to one and all for the nominal cost of only $15 per couple ... There will be cold platters on each table and prizes for the best costumes although dress is optional ... So you can come to be looked at or to just look ... Music will be from 9 til 1 and features Gary Mendolia (Metro Music, D.J.) ... Get your 'gang' together and have a great Halloween ... I don't know who sets up the various dates but at last Monday's meeting we had a visitor in the house making a pitch for attendance at a MIA/POW rally in Washington, D.C. at 12 noon on October 31st ... The visitor was TOM KAISER, of the Lindenhurst Post, and chairman of this event ... Tom was quite certain that many of the MIA's are still alive and OUR government is sitting on the biggest coverup ever ... We were impressed by his remarks and voted to pay the fare of ATTENTION - Residents of Hicksville STOP US IF YOU HEARD THIS ONE BEFORE!

Recently the residents of Hicksville were justifiably disturbed, due to the construction of a sump at the Dutch Lane Elementary School.

Their letters, pleas and public appearances, directed to the Town Board, received the old "arrogance of power" treatment. In short, the Town Board turned a deaf ear!

Why?

● These citizens could be toyed with - patronized because they were a small group lacking political clout. Their concerns were real, their position reasonable. BUT they could be ignored -- so they were!

● The Hicksville Public School Administrators can relate to these feelings of frustration and anger ... We too are being toyed with ... We too are victims of an "arrogance of power"

● We are the only professional bargaining unit in this school district without a contract! We have been waiting patiently since 1981. We too are a small, vulnerable group lacking political clout.

● Our concerns are real, our position reasonable, But the Board of Education can ignore us -- so they are!

● The same Board of Education that championed the cause of those Hicksville residents against the town Board -- now adopts the same tactic that the Town Board used.

● We are puzzled as to why we have been singled out for mistreatment?

● We wonder why we cannot receive equitable treatment and consideration?

● We ask for a reasonable settlement so we can get on with the business at hand -- EDUCATION.

Marmorra - Banigan

Miss Christine Marie Marmorra and Mr. Russell Walsh Banigan were united in marriage on Saturday, September 25, at the Church of St. Ignatius Loyola in Hicksville. The Reverend Alfred Rogers celebrated the Nuptial Mass and officiated at the wedding ceremony. An Apostolic Blessing was granted. Brian Goerke, the bride's godson and cousin served as an acolyte.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Michael Marmorra of Victor Court, Hicksville. Mr. Marmorra Sr. is Manager of Administrative Services for James Seeman Studios, a Division of Masonite Corporation. Her mother, Edmee Marmorra, was for many years the former Spanish teacher in the Continuing Adult Education Program at the Hicksville High School. Grandmothers are Mrs. Michael Marmorra Sr. of Astoria and Mrs. George Rodriguez of Hicksville.

Mr. Russell Banigan is the son of Mrs. Edward Vincent Banigan of Rockville Centre. He is the son also of the late Mr. Banigan.

Mrs. Banigan wore an ivory satin gown with a Queen Anne neckline, fitted sleeves, natural waistline and a cathedral train. The entire gown's insets of Alencon lace were French embroidered with tiny seed pearls. Her waltz length veil was held in place by a matching satin, lace and pearl headpiece. She carried a tear drop bouquet of white roses, stephanotis, freszia and baby's breath.

Miss Michele Marmorra of Astoria, served as her cousin's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Elizabeth Bugenis of Hicksville; sister of the groom, Ellen Fornaro of Oceanside; Ingrid Larson of Plainview and Deborah Varanouskas of Bethpage.

Best man for the groom was Thomas Giordano of Rye, New York. The ushers were Lawrence Banigan of Rockville Centre, William Fornaro of Oceanside, respectively brother and brother-in-law of the groom; Carl Johansson of Syosset and the bride's brother, John Marmorra Jr. of Hicksville.

A reception for family and friends was held at the Regency Gardens Suite of the Huntington Town House. After a wedding trip to Jamaica in the Caribbean, the happy couple will reside in Carle Place.

Last weeks Rotary luncheon meeting was highlighted by two major events. In the first instance the club was inspected and rated highly by the District Governor Bernie Greco. Hicksville Republican Club News

By Harriet A. Maher

Our next Club meeting will be held October 8, 8:30 p.m., VFW Hall, 320 South Broadway, Hicksville. Mark your calendars now so you don't miss this important meeting. You will have a chance to meet and listen to candidates and incumbents that make up the Republican ticket for this November's elections.

Last month, although New York State Senator Michael J. Tully, Jr. could not be personally present to address our membership, he did send his representative who spoke on his behalf. The information he presented was both timely and pertinent to all of us. Senator Tully is running for re-election and needs our help.

Another of our stalwart Republican officials who is seeking re-election this November is Congressman Norman Lent. Congressman Lent has done an excellent job of representing his constituency and acting on our behalf in Washington, D.C.

He has furnished the following toll-free telephone "hotlines" so citizens can report waste or fraud in the federal bureaucracy or the programs it operates: General Accounting Office, 800-424-5454; Agriculture Department, 800-424-9121; Commerce Department, 800-424-5197; Defense Department, 800-424-9098; Environmental Protection Agency, 800-424-4000; General Services Administration, 800-424-5210; Health and Human Services Department, 800-368-5779; Interior Department, 800-424-5081; Labor Department, 800-424-5409; Natl. Aeronautics & Space Administration (NASA), 800-424-9183; Social Security Administration, 800-367-5779; and Transportation Department, 800-424-9071. If you believe you have information indicating waste, fraud or abuse of federal funds, dial the 800 hotline number and report your complaint. If you aren't sure which agency or department is involved, call General Accounting Office and it will direct your complaint to the proper agency.

During the month of October the Hicksville Public Library will have on display in the lobby a collection of stained glass pieces by Marie Kramisen.

Recently Senator Tully, 7th Senatorial District, was the guest speaker at the Great Neck Lawyers Association meeting held at the Chateau Gardens in Great Neck. Senator Tully, who serves on the Senate Standing Committee on Crime and Correction and the Senate Select Committee on Crime, discussed contemporary legal concerns with a focus on criminal law. The Senator also discussed his upcoming Youth Vandalism hearings chaired by himself and Senator Ralph Marino, Chairman of the Senate

Standing and Select Crime Committees. The vandalism hearings will be held on October 13, 1982, at 10:00 a.m. in the Huntington Town Hall and on October 14, 1982, at 10:00 a.m. in the Nassau County Board of Supervisors hearing room, One West Street in Mineola. The accompanying photo shows, left to right, Abe Chouake, Treasurer; Murray Seeman, Chairman of the Board; Senator Tully; Philip Blumenson, President; and Donald Schecter, Vice President.

At The Hicksville Library

On Columbus Day which is being celebrated on Monday, October 11th, the Hicksville Public Library will be open from 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM for Adult and Children's Room service.

There are NO EVENING HOURS on that day.

On Friday, October 8th at 8:00PM, the Hicksville public library will present a French film (with English subtitles), "The Tall Blond Man With One Black Shoe". The movie is in color and lasts about 1 1/2 hours. Bugging, break-ins and Watergate-style shenanigans are the objects of timely satire in this hilarious farce. A young violinist unknowingly becomes the decoy in a cut-throat battle between political spies. They turn his life into total mayhem; but through it all the tall blond man remains a naive and lovable modern-day Buster Keaton, narrowly escaping peril at every turn. The film will be shown in the Community Room, which is on the lower level of the Library. All Library programs are free and everyone is invited.
