"Gold Beating" Craft Comes To Life Nov. 23

"Gold beating", an industry which once provided work for over 300 Hickville people at one time and existed in over three dozen shops and homes, will be brought to life in the newest historical exhibit of the Hickville Gregory Museum on Tuesday, November 23rd.

The latest in the museum's historical committee's efforts to focus attention on Hickville's past life, traditions and growth — the memorable Mike Caruso exhibit and tribute to the sport of midget car racing just recently ending — the new exhibit recreates a

The newest exhibition has aroused the interest and support of quite a few surviving gold beaters and associate workers such as one-time cutters, trimmers and fillers, all of whom excelled in the craft of making the 22 carat gold leaf so desired by yesterdays artists and decorators in the furniture, glass, leather, china-ware and sign painting fields. A wealth of heretofore unrecorded data concerning the craftsmanship and working lives of Hickville and Long Island gold leaf artisans between 1850 and 1950 has come to light.

On display, starting November 23, every day but Mondays, at the Hickville Gregory Museum will be many of the tools used by gold beaters and their assistants; pictures and locations of over twenty gold beating shops or their sites in today's Hickville; photographs of local gold workers and their reminiscences for all to read. Numerous and lovely examples of the decorative uses of gold leaf will be on display. Presented, also, will be an exhibit illustrating and describing the industrial and commercial uses of gold. During the exhibition this winter, one-time gold beaters, from time to time, will be at the Gregory Museum to explain and simulate the gold beating process.

The Hickville Gregory Museum is located in the Old Heitz Place Courthouse, a National Historic Place. The museum is open Tuesday through Friday, 9:30-4:30 and Saturdays and Sundays 1-5. Admission is free to Hickville residents and senior citizens. Non-resident admissions are $1.25 for adults and 75¢ for school children.

The Jones Institute of Hickville, a shelter for the poor, was closed in September 1980, surrounded by deficits and lawsuits. Now, Jones Fund trustees have entered into contract to purchase Tareyton Manor Home in Bayville to replace the Institute.

and either renovate a building or build a new one, since there would be a requirement for zoning variance or change." If everything goes well, Dawson feels operations could begin within 3 or 4 months.

Tareyton Manor Home has been operating between 8 and 9 years as an adult home. It is located on Bayville Ave., site of the former Clarkson Estate. It has all double and single room occupancies, rather than the dormitory style of the Hickville residence. It is a much more compact facility with more safety features. Presently, 43 elderly and disabled people are living in the home and they would remain there. Average age is in the high 60's. The residence can accommodate 46.

To Donate Funds To Statue Of Liberty

By P.P.C. Carmine Somma

On December 4, the Wm. M. Gouse Jr. Post 3211 V.F.W. will be conducting a "Las Vegas Night" at Post Headquarters 320 So. B'way, Hickville, from 8:00 p.m. to 2: a.m.

Our membership has gone on record to donate 1/5 of the proceeds that evening to the "Statue of Liberty", Ellis Island Commission, to help defray the cost of giving our world famous lady a face lift for her 100th birthday.

Won't you come out to support this endeavor?

Holy Family School To Host "Indian Night"

All monetary donations resulting from this affair will be sent to aid the Indian Children at St. Paul's Mission, Montana.

trolled by 5 trustees, sold the Jones Institute on West John Street in Hickville in 1980 after 55 residents were relocated. Trustees said the home was costly to operate, had no taxing power and became victim of the financial system and rising cost.

The 13.2 acres of property was sold to King Kullen for millions of dollars. A coalition of community groups brought suits against the Trustees because they felt the authority of the will of Samuel Jones was being exceeded. In 1836, Jones left $30,000 for the support of the poor of North Hempstead and Town of Oyster Bay. The Trustees won the case in the Court of appeals, but were ordered to come up with an alternate plan for reopening the Institute under the scrutiny of the state Attorney General. The state recently asked for a court order to force Trustees to reopen in a new location. Dawson feels that "the litigation is behind us" and blames it for the delay in finding a new location.

"While there may have been good intent, I believe the litigation was ill advised," he said. "It has delayed, cost the fund a tremendous amount of money by holding up the sale of the property for almost a year and the proceeds of the sale could have been invested at high interest."

He looks to the Bayville site "as a new beginning... to provide good service to whomever our residents are."

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

VENERABLE SKIP MONTEFORTE'S MESSAGE: "Silence can't be misquoted, but it can be misinterpreted." Old Saying.

Show business came to the Galileo Lodge. Bold, brassy and so "vaudevilian" in scope and presentation. Yes, I am referring, of course to last Friday night, the 12th of November, at which time the Ladies Auxiliary of the Galileo Lodge presented their 1982 version of the crazy-named "Foolies Follies." This revue, as I have mentioned, consists of a series of comedic sketches and skits intertwined with music and dancing.

Close to 300 people, consisting of members, friends and patrons, jam-packed the Galileo Lodge, and as the sounds of hearty laughter reverberated throughout its environs, well in evidence was the fact that all were having an uproarious time. And why not, considering that besides the show, all were offered a delicious meal, coffee and cake, beer, soda and music from a live disc jockey, all for the sum of $10 per person.

Rose Riccardi effectively and capably directed the "Follies," ably assisted by Florence Perotti, who was in charge of Costume Design, and a scintillating and exciting cast consisting of Millie Caputo, Sue Laurenti, Jack Riccardi, Terry Gatto, Marion Fried, Lorraine Garra-mone, Mary Monteforte, Joe Aglio, Joe Crivella, Millie and Armand DelCioppo, Bert Molinelli, Mickey Russo.

After many months of grueling rehearsals, painstaking preparation and planning, effective casting and tons of energy, the "Foolies Follies" was born and culminated in an outrageously - humorous

Two men were arrested at gunpoint outside a Bethpage Motel at 12:30 a.m. Nov. 3 and were charged with various charges stemming from the arrests.

Nicholas Maricondo, 19, a Landscaper, of 53 Florence Ave., Hempstead and George Barowoz, 20 unemployed, of 27 Terry St., Hicksville had allegedly conspired to steal a car and commit a robbery. At about 11:30 p.m. Nov. 2 they started looking for a car to steal in Hicksville but were seen by the owner and they fled. A while later they managed to steal a Ford Mustang, in Hicksville and went to one of their homes to get a rifle belonging to the father plus having a Halloween mask they went to the Hicksville Motor Inn, Hicksville Rd. and Duffy Ave., Hicksville where Maricondo allegedly got out, with the rifle and mask on and looked into the window of the Inn. On seeing three men inside he fled back to the car and they left the scene. He was seen by one of the men as he looked in the window and police were called with a description of the car and its occupants.

The two then rode to the Astro Motor Inn, at S. Oyster Bay Rd., Hicksville, where, once again Maricondo, left the car and went into a nearby phone booth to check if anyone was inside. He saw people inside and went back to the car with the Halloween mask on top of his head. He was seen by the Inn's mgr., who also called police.

At a short time later, P.O. Tony Esposito, 8 Pct., saw the car and occupants turning into the Bethpage Motel, on Hempstead and he called for assistance. Assistance arrived and Barowoz was apprehended in the car, at gunpoint and Maricondo was apprehended hiding by a tree in the rear of the motel, where he had jumped a fence. This was at 12:30 a.m. on Nov. 3.

P.O.'s Tony Esposito, Vincent Capasso and Ray Bruno made the apprehensions aided by other assisting members of the Eight Pct.

Both men were charged with Unauthorized Use First Degree, Conspiracy Fourth Degree (To commit Robbery) and Attempted Unauthorized Use, First Degree.

Arrignment was held in First District Court, Mineola.

A Hicksville Gas Station was robbed by two men at 12:30 A.M. Nov. 16. Both men were armed with hand guns.

Mark McDonough, 23 years, of No. Massapequa was on his job as a Gas Attendant at the Crown Station located at 502 S. Broadway Hicksville, at about 12:30 A.M., when two men wearing Ski Masks, walked into the service booth, displayed hand guns and demanded the money. McDonough handed over approx. $40-$50, from his pocket, and was told to lie on the floor while the perpetrators ran out. The victim last saw the men entering a vehicle "operated by a third man, which then drove off in an unknown direction.

No injuries were reported by the victim. Police Officer Frank Guidice, of the Eighth Squad is investigating.

There was a burglary at a residence on West Land Dr., Plainview on Nov. 8. The front door was forced. No loss was reported. Two white males were seen leaving the scene.

A residence on Blueberry Lane, Hicksville, was burglarized on Nov. 11. The rear window was pried open. A ladies engagement ring was reported stolen.

CRIMINAL MISCHIEF
In addition to the reported burglaries, the following acts of vandalism were reported in the Hicksville, Plainview, and Old Bethpage areas. These crimes involve damage to property, with no specific purpose other than to cause annoyance and inconvenience to the owners. The prevention of criminal mischief can only be

St. Ignatius Loyola School Seventy-Fifth Anniversary

Three Generations of Memories of St. Ignatius School

St. Ignatius School celebrates its Seventy-fifth Anniversary this year. When the request for information regarding the school appeared in the Bulletin, I thought it would be interesting to gather the memories of three generations of students of my family. Since most of my Aunts, Uncles and Sisters no longer live in Hicksville, it took a bit of letter writing and phone calls to gather the precious memories.

Uncle Frank Munch, who now resides in El Paso, Texas recalls, "It was an awfully long time ago, and things fade from memory... I remember I was in a school play when I was in third or fourth grade and I had one line in the entire play. Can't recall if I was on stage or just walked on to say, 'music hath charms to sooth the savage beast'. There were two sisters that I remember. Sr. Anna Barbara taught the 7th grade and Sr. Rosarita was the principal and also taught 8th grade. I also remember we had to go to College Point to take the New York State Regents as our last test."

"When the original school was becoming too small to hold all the students, they held a fund drive to build a new school (presently the 'old' school). Father Fuchs was our pastor and he was getting up in years. A new Assistant Pastor arrived. He was an Irish priest who had been an army chaplain. Father O'Mahoney was a live wire who organized the fund drive and made sure it succeeded. Everyone helped to excavate the earth from the basement. They had to make a pretty big hole because it covered the whole building. All the farmers came in with their team of horses and scoop plows and the town people, including kids, brought shovels to dig out the hole. I don't remember how long it took, but we all did it."

Aunt Margaret (Muench) Hogan has returned to Hicksville to live with her son and his family.

While speaking with her recently, she recalled that almost every student attending St. Ignatius School would attend Mass before classes began. Sometimes she would arrive late for Mass, as she had to purchase the milk for the family. She, along with her two older brothers, Frank and my Dad Al, graduated from the Old Wooden Building on Broadway. Each nun taught two classes in the same room. Even though the family lived across the street on Cherry Street, when the weather was nasty, all stayed for lunch. After school she would dust the pews in the Church. As many of you readers might recall, Sisters never travelled alone then, so very often she would go with Sr. Rosarita to College Point. Once, she stayed overnight... which she didn't care for at all. She too remembers all the farmers coming to help dig the foundation and how her Mother and other ladies of the parish would bring lunch to the workers.

Aunt Helen (Muench) Cliff presently lives in Brookhaven with her daughter and her family.

"I was graduated from St. Ignatius School in June of 1923. I attended school in the wooden building that was located on Broadway next to the Church and my class was the first class whose graduation exercises were held in the auditorium of the 'New Building' on Nicholas St."

Aunt Helen also remembers how the parishioners of St. Ignatius helped in the construction of the building and how her mother made coffee and sandwiches for the workers. She recalls how there were two grades in each room and all the grades were taught by nuns. To this day she remembers Sr. Rosarita and Sr. Anna Barbara. She also had to travel to College Point in order to take the required Regents examinations.

"Families from neighboring areas sent their children to attend parochial school at St. Ignatius. One family from Bethpage (which was then called Central Park) was named Looney, and Francis Looney came to be Police Commissioner of Nassau County."

Aunt Ann (Muench) Harrison lives in Phoenix, Arizona. She recalls that she started school in the first grade in the 'old' school, and graduated from the 'new' school in 1928. Her first grade teacher was Sr. Salome. Sr. Irmagerd also taught her and her principal was Sr. Rosarita. "The sisters were very easy to get along with. We put on plays for the parents. I remember one play called the 'Glo Worm'. We all had flashlights that were supposed to be glo worms. During recess, the Sisters would play hop scotch and jump rope. In those days, that was a lot of fun. My three children also attended St. Ignatius School. On Saturday mornings I used to do some shopping for the Sisters."

Uncle Bill Muench lives in Wilmington, North Carolina. "I remember clearly the following good but strict Sr. Rosarita, Sr. Rose Sr. Rose Imelda and very kind Sr. De Chantel. Lunch time we played in the schoolyard and when 'egged' on by classmates, had a good fight. In those days, they didn't call the sheriff, they called Sr. Rosarita."

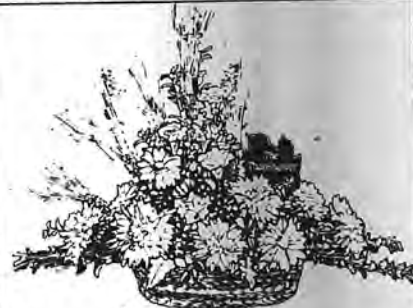

Uncle Bill recalled serving Mass for the Sisters in the Convent at some 'ungodly hour... 5 A.M.' He graduated in 1931.

Being the oldest of the second generation to attend St. Ignatius, it wasn't until two years after Uncle Bill graduated that I saw the light of day... Jane (Muench) Schreiber.

As I gathered the information for the Seventy-fifth Anniversary, I was surprised to learn that so many of the Sisters my Aunts and Uncles had in class, I did also. I can recall how my knees would shake when I had to stand before Sr. Rosarita in the Main Lobby of the school to report the absence of one of my younger sisters. Boys still played marbles, and many of the girls would play "Pussy in the Corner" using the large maple trees on the "Girls Side".

Second Precinct "Cop Of The Month"

THE SECOND PRECINCT "COP OF THE MONTH" AWARD HAS BEEN PRESENTED TO OFFICER RICHARD DUNLEAVY, SHIELD NUMBER 564.

On September 18, at 12:10 A.M. while on routine patrol assigned to Radio Motor Patrol 214, in the Second Precinct, Police Officer Richard Dunleavy, Shield 564, observed two men lurking in the alley between the stores in the vicinity of 115 Broadway, Hicksville.

Officer Dunleavy observed that these two men were attempting to pry open a cash register. As he approached the scene, the men ran off. One of the suspects hid behind a concrete sewer pipe. Officer Dunleavy parked his car and walked off away from the suspect in an effort to give him a false sense of security.

Officer Dunleavy came around from behind the suspect and took him into custody after catching him completely by surprise. After returning to his car he requested additional assistance.

A search of the area revealed that Antonio's Deli at 113 Broadway, Hicksville had been forcibly entered. The suspect in custody made statements as to the street name of the second subject.

Officer Dunleavy gave a description of the second subject to other officers at the scene.

Later in the evening Officer Dunleavy responded to a disturbance at the Hicksville railroad station. One of the men at this scene fit the description of the second subject. This man was advised of his rights and questioned about the earlier burglary. He made oral statements of admission and was placed under arrest.

At The Town Board Meeting

By Sheila Noeth

At the regular meeting of the Town Board held on Tuesday, Nov. 9, the Board acted as follows on these local matters:

- They reserved decision on three hearings on houses used as offices located on South Oyster Bay Road in Hicksville, she petitioned to have an R/O (residential office) zoning instead of a Res. D. One is occupied by Joseph Edelman and Jerome M. Ness, another by John F. Whitaker and the third by Sonia Lerner.

Neighbors from the area appeared and expressed their concerns regarding these petitions.

Mrs. Marie Matassa of East End Ave. stated that she had met with the petitioners and seen the plan and that she was still concerned about her privacy.

Mr. Charles Werder of East End Ave. expressed his wishes that the restrictions should apply to all three of these residences. He stated that he wanted the residential character of the area to be maintained.

Mrs. Margaret Steadman was concerned about the number of tenants in the residence owned by Messrs. Edelman and Ness. She felt that this constituted an over-use of this residence and creates parking problems.

They approved Resolution 930-1982 directing the Town Clerk to advertise notice of a Nov. 23 hearing to consider proposed amendments to the Code of Ordinances of the TOB Motor Vehicle and Traffic Rules and Regulations.

- They approved Resolution 944-1982 regarding the request of the OHLI to maintain an office in the frame building located at 132 West Cherry St., in Hicksville, subject to several conditions including the installation of a smoke detection system and exterior exit doors.

- They tabled Resolution 960-1982, relating to the

- They approved Resolution 959-1982 relating to the petition of LeBaron Restaurant for a special use permit to use an existing patio for restaurant purposes in nice weather. It was noted at the August 17 hearing that existing parking spaces were adequate for the extra diners that this would involve.

petition of Parkland Plaza Association for a special use permit to construct and maintain an office building and a warehouse adjacent to the Mid Hampton Asphalt Corp. on West John St. and Charlotte Ave. in Hicksville. This property covers nine acres and is presently zoned for light industry, which did not include office space zoning. At the Sept. 14 hearing it was stated that the building would be four stories high and would cover 150,000 square feet for warehouse spaces and a like amount for office space.

The next regular meeting of the Town Board is set for Tuesday, Nov. 23, starting at 10 a.m. in the Town Hall on Audrey Avenue in Oyster Bay.

A Holiday Suggestion

Sectional Center Manager-Postmaster Anthony M. Murello invited holiday shoppers to consider several stamp collecting items available at the Hicksville Post Office for their gift-giving lists.

Postmaster Murello said that the post office has the ninth edition of The Postal Service Guide to U.S. Stamps, as well as the 1982 Mint Set which contains all 29 commemorative and special stamps issued during the year.

The 280-page The Postal Service Guide to U.S. Stamps is priced at $3.50 (the same as last year) and contains full-color reproductions of all U.S. stamp issues and the most current values assigned to each one. The book, designed to provide interesting philatelic information for both the novice and the experienced stamp collector, also includes many stories and philatelic articles about the stamp subjects and designs. The 1982 Mint Set, priced at $6.50, is the latest in a series of annual sets of commemorative and special stamps released by the Postal Service each year prior to the holiday season. The cover of the colorful set features a montage of artwork related to the stamps inside.

Postmaster Murello said this year, the mint set is designed to be used as an album. Individual plastic mounts are included for mounting and protecting each stamp issue. Informative copy about each stamp issue is also included.

In addition to these two items, the post office also has several popular stamp collecting kits available, priced from $2 - $3 each. Of particular interest to beginning collectors, these kits focus on a variety of topics including "Outer Space".

Each kit includes a small 20-page album, 25-30 stamps, mounting materials, insert sheets for additional stamps and a booklet entitled "Introduction ABCs of Stamp Collecting."

Letter To The Editor

Peter Mancuso, Assistant District Attorney Commercial Fraud Bureau 262 Old Country Road Mineola, NY 11501
Dear Mr. Mancuso:
Sears, Roebuck has put up an illegal freight depot on Bay Avenue, Hicksville, a residential area, and since, we residents have been subjected to gas fumes, pollution, etc., to an unbearable, very unhealthy point. We do not know what to do. Can you help us?

Mr. Richard Pfeiffer mentioned this problem to you at the Community Council Meeting, Thursday night, November 4th.

Monday night, November 8th was one of the worst nights since October 1st. The diesel trucks, six of them, each carrying two containers, were parked all over in the freight depot. Two were parked alongside the fence, motors running constantly and the unbearable gas fumes.

One of the diesels after much loud banging took off at 11:35 p.m. The others all remained with their motors running and exhausting all those fumes. Another of those diesels in another part of the depot had their lights on and motor running. Stayed there from approximately 10:45 p.m. until 1:50 a.m. At this time the police were called and the motor stopped.

Tuesday night, the illegal freight depot closed down at 11:00 p.m., but Wednesday night was worse than Monday night, if that seems possible. The diesels and their containers came in the freight depot 6:00 p.m. and never left until 2:00 a.m. All this time there was loud noises, loud talking and gas fumes. Incidentally, the fumes were still in the air 7:00 a.m. Thursday morning.

Not only are the diesel fumes unbearable, but over 100 neighbors and residents in the immediate area have signed petitions. We want revue. The sketches were as varied as they were slapstick, like, for examples, Bert Mollinelli and Mickey Russo romping in 'Baby Face', Sue Laurenti's terpsichorean efforts, the delightful Tiger ladies undulating to the song 'Eye of the Tiger,' Joe Aglio doing his version of the old but time-honored 'April Showers' of Al Jolson, Lorraine Garra-mone and Joe Crivelli spoofing Jeanette McDonald and Nelson Eddy, Ed Smith doing the incomparable 'Mack The Knife,' Joe Aglio's version of Perry Como and his music, the Ladies chorus doing 'The Stripper,' an Arabian dance sequence by Jack Riccardi and Joe Crivelli, a mock version of Tiny Tim and his tip-toeing thru the tulips, etc. And then, in a burst of energy, The Finale, where the whole cast participated.

And there were many others who contributed to this successful venture, and they were Pete Ragone, Jerry Look and Ed Palmese in the kitchen; at the bar there was John Payne. And let's not forget Marie Brandisi and her friend Anna, Pete Massiello, John Sarrera, Pat Gatto; Terry Gatto's two friends Diana and George; Dante Paerotti, John Ianotti who prepared the salad and Ed Smith, who was remarkably good as the Master of Ceremony. Venerable Skip Monteforte and the membership of the Galileo Lodge wish to take this wonderful opportunity to thank these wonderfully talented, hard-working and loyal members and friends who contributed so heavily to the successful conclusion of the 'Foolies Follies.'

And now for some more good news concerning pleasure and relaxation. On Saturday, the 4th of December, the Galileo Lodge will present its Christmas Dance. Tickets sell at $10 per person, and in the offering will be a hot dinner consisting of stuffed shells and meatballs, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-up and music from a live disc jockey. Armand del Cioppo (938-5052) will 'chair' this activity and ably assisted by Frank Matassa (931-2843), who is also selling tickets which are now in readiness. A grab bag will be featured and the gifts should range between two to three dollars. Please note that a 'bring-your-own-liquor' policy will be in effect that night. For a perfect way to start off the holiday season, is there anything better than attending a Galileo Lodge activity.

Hicksville Cannonballs (1973)
By Pete Fujimoto

There was jubilation on the Hicksville side of the field on Sat., Nov. 13, after the Cannonballs delt the Brentwood Thunderbolts their first loss of the season and on their home turf. The victory was even sweeter because it was the first time the Hicksville team beat Brentwood in an outdoor game breaking a streak that included 4 losses and a tie.

The day was in the forties and there was an almost continuous wind between 20 and 30 mph running almost directly down field. The Hicksville coach sent out the starting team from his lineup which included Larry Bag, Tommy Baron, Danny McGooey, Brian McNamee, Toomas Niemann, Gerrit Nijboer, Jason Pinsky, Alex Shevchenko, Les Spence and Larry Wojtusiak. Brentwood won the toss and chose to defend against the wind for the first half.

The Cannonballs played hard. They wanted to win this game to break Brentwood's streak. They moved the ball well and were rewarded with a beautiful shot into the net by Danny McGooey. The thunderbolts were able to hold the Hicksville boys to their 1-0 lead until half time.

When the second half started the Brentwood team had the wind behind them. There was nervousness and anxiety on the faces of all the parents as they encouraged the boys to continue their great game playing. The Thunderbolts drove downfield and began moving towards the Hicksville goal area with kicks and passes from all directions. The offense was relentless but the defense was nothing less than fantastic. The boys' determination kept the Brentwood team from setting up their plays and prevented them from scoring a single goal. There was an anxious moment with about 5 minutes left in the game when the opposing team was awarded a penalty kick on a controversial call. The shot, however, hit the cross bar and bounced away.

An outstanding game by goalie Danny Fujimoto who had to contend with a dozen corner kicks, the nerve wracking loneliness of a penalty kick, and shots coming from various directions with unpredictable wind gusts behind them.

A super game by all players. They had the "eye of the tiger." They played to win and they deserved to win.

Hicksville Girls Soccer Team, under the coaching of Mr. Vinnie Lo Bianco, completed the regular season with an 11-3-1 mark.

It was good for a ranking of number three amongst all Nassau Schools.

Annette Schroter defended the Hicksville goal for three consecutive scoreless games. Not a ball passed her in 242 minutes.

Hicksville defeated Lynbrook 4-0 and won a 3-1 shut out over South Side.

Elimination came after a resolute battle against second ranked Massapequa. After eight scoreless periods, Hicksville went down in a shut out 3-1.

Over all the season record was 13-4-1.

Leading the team was an offense made up of Sr. Denise Harkins, Soph. Mandy Devaux, Jr. Jeanine Wingender, Sr. Sandy Zamparo, Jr. Michele Doherty, and Soph. Kerry Lewis.

The mid-field was led by the exceptional play of St.

Debbie Luongo, Fr. Tracey Fiume, Sr. Patrice Kenny, and Soph. Theresa Solaski.

The offense was backed up by a young defense that came into its own in the last half of the season. Limiting their opponents to only 17 goals all season. The defense was lead by Jr.'s Theresa Caputo, and Lisa Burke, with the help from Sophs. Amy Flannery, Ann Kenny, and Barbara Bruder with St. Connie Anglin doing a fine job filling in.

The goal tending was done by first year player St. Annette Schroter. Annette frustrated the opponents by making many exceptional saves. She recorded 10 shut-outs in 18 games and made

Acquires Membership In The Order Of The Golden Rule

Vernon C. Wagner Funeral Home in Hicksville, has been accepted for membership in the International Order of the Golden Rule.

The Order is comprised of funeral directors from all over the world who are dedicated to keeping in touch with the attitudes of the public. This is accomplished through regularly scheduled seminars and educational meetings at which attendance is required by all members.

Only one funeral home in a community is selected for membership. For this reason, the Order carefully screens all prospects. The decision is based on recommendations made by families the firm has served and by other professionals in the area.

Dale L. Rollings, Executive Director of the association, stated, "To obtain membership in OGR, all prospects must provide their community with quality funeral service and merchandise at reasonable prices. As a result of the positive response we've received from the Hicksville area, Vernon C. Wagner Funeral Home has proved its worthiness to be counted among our members."

ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

This year is a special occasion in the Christian Church that we can all celebrate. In the churches of a very large percent of Christianity, voices are being raised to God in thanksgiving for the life and ministry of St. Francis of Assisi. Throughout the world, in 1982, the church is celebrating the 800th Anniversary of the birth of St. Francis. Eight hundred years ago in the year 1182, in the town of Assisi in Italy, Giovanni Bernardone was born and then baptized into the family of God. The boy was nicknamed Francesco, or Francis. He was a charming and sensitive youth of an aristocratic family. As a young man he was a playboy and showed leadership qualities even in causing mischief. The conversion of Francis' life was a result of a spiritual pilgrimage of many months. He became inspired by the love of Christ which had been driven home to him in the contemplation of a crucifix in a nearby chapel.

Francis, inspired by the love of Christ, began to give himself to the service of the poor, and in spite of his intense negative feelings about the disease of leprosy, he began to care for them. At one point he was said to have even kissed a leper to demonstrate his love for them.

JAMES R. LEE

James R. Lee of Hicksville died on Nov. 11. He was the husband of Maureen; father of Kelley, Susan and Maureen; son of Marion and James Lee; brother of the late Raymond Lee.

He reposed at the Thomas F. Dalton Funeral Home, Jerusalem Ave., Hicksville, Mass. of the Christian burial was at St. Ignatius R.C. Church and interment followed in Holy Rood Cemetery.

Initially, he went to work repairing several churches which had fallen into disrepair - later on God called him to become a travelling preacher calling men to repentance and proclaiming the kingdom of God. He did this with a vow of complete poverty. He subsisted on whatever food was given to him, and he was said to radiate the love of Christ wherever he went. Francis sought to imitate Christ and to obey our Lord's life to the letter.

Many thought St. Francis and his followers insane. They were insulted, pelted with mud, and at many times physically attacked. But their love of Christ sustained them, and the Holy Spirit blessed their witness.

St. Francis was a layman. His preaching was simple and direct. It stressed the adoration of God, repentance, generosity, and the forgiveness of wrongs done by others. It encouraged our love for our neighbors and for our enemies. People were even more impressed by what they saw in the life of the Franciscans, for they observed a joyousness even while under persecution, a sincerity and a radiant love that reached out to all of God's creation. St. Francis' love extended even to animals. He was said to have once preached a sermon to the birds, exhorting them to praise and love their creator.

Hebrews 2:9 begins with four very interesting words, they are, "But we see Jesus." The life of St. Francis took a critical turn when his eyes became fixed upon the life of Christ. "But we see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone." God has given us the answer in Jesus to every seemingly hopeless situation. We never, as Christians, need be pessimistic. The pessimist recites all the wrongs of the world and the church and puts a period. God sees all the same wrongs but places a comma. Christ's death was not the end result of a humanity gone astray, period, but rather a pause, a comma, which indicated that the grace of God reaches out to us. For Christ tasted death for all of us.

Imitating the life of Christ, St. Francis would say to us, repent. Pour out your shame to the One who already knows about it. Look to the Lord Jesus. True penitence leads us to turn from ourselves - really the source of trouble all along - and look steadily at our Savior. We need to hold fast to him - never lose sight of him - hope in him.

When our marriage or children or parents disappoint us, we need to say "But we see Jesus." When we observe our world with all its craziness, we need to fix our eyes upon Jesus. But how does Jesus help? How do we hope in him? Jesus has tasted death for all of us. Death did not master him. The cross of shame was turned into a crown of victory. Christ is like the strong swimmer who carries the rope ashore and so not only saves himself but rescues all who hold to him. We who have been rescued are called, to serve...to be like St. Francis. Perhaps even more, to be like Christ.

We thank and praise God for St. Francis of Assisi. But there is no better way to honor his memory than to join him in a life of self-denial and ministry. Of all the saints, there is none quite so famous as St. Francis. When you think about it, this is not so strange at all - for there has not been a saint like Francis whose life so clearly mirrored the life of Christ.

LEGIONNAIRE'S LOG By Artie Rutz

HICKSVILLE, N.Y.

"One Of the Grass Roots Of The American Legion"

You can tell that winter is near or as Jack Ehmann put it at the meeting last Monday night, "I'm going on a 4 month vacation" (to Florida) as he named Frank Governale to handle the Kennedy Square flag situation.... Jack and Lou Cesta are the Committee overseeing the construction of a wheelchair ramp at the east entrance on Nicholas Street.... According to schedule, concrete will be poured tomorrow and the much needed ramp will actually begin to take shape.... And now we have a new committee, appointed by Commander Ray Gamble which will research the background and long term futures of Legion owned property.... Named were Artie Rutz, P.C.; Walter Barnett, P.C.; Lou Cesta, P.C.; Lou Braun, P.C. and a newcomer to our Post, Frank Johnson.... The Dari Horse was won by Joe Rohan.... Being a social meeting, and these are nominally of short duration, the Post made awards to Junior, Junior Past Commander

Lou Cesta and Junior Past Commander Lou Braun.... Past Commander Lou Cesta was presented with a plaque containing his arm of legal authority while commander, the gavel.... Past Commander Lou Braun was presented with the Past Commander's Pin of the American Legion as a memento of his term of office.... After the conclusion of the meeting a small collation was enjoyed by all as part of the honors bestowed upon the two Past Commanders.... It was announced that our next annual Junior Past Commander's Dinner is set for the 3rd Saturday in September, 1983.... So there, now you have time to shop for those special shoe laces you always wanted to wear at a P.C. Dinner.... We do have a New Year's Eve Dance coming up on December 31st with the tickets going for $45 per couple.... The dance features music by The Musicmen and will run from 9 P.M. to 1 A.M. and a sit down roast beef dinner (by Cypress Caterers) plus 2 bottles of liquor for every table and beer and party assortments.... To make reservations (a minimum deposit of $22.50 is required) please call P.C. Frank Walsh 796-5266 or P.C. Frank Molinari, 935-1934.... Do not wait too long to make arrangements for your own group of friends as I understand at this time that a goodly amount of tickets have already been sold.... Call either Frank as soon as possible.... As you know there will again be a Christmas Party for the children on December 19th and in conjunction with this affair we would like to decorate the halls with strings of Christmas lights.... We are asking our members to look over their unused and surplus Christmas lights with the intent of donating them to the Post for the use at this party and at future Christmas parties for the children.... But, please—donate only strings of lights complete with bulbs as we have no budget to make purchases.... Please bring donations to the Legion marked with your name so we can give due credit or call me (935-1860) and I will pick up your donation.... More on the Children's Christmas Party next week.... The usual number of Legionnaires and Auxiliary members were present at the War Memorials at the Junior High School on November 11th for the Veterans Day (nee Armistice Day) services conducted by Hicksville Veterans organizations.... Good to see the old familiar faces again.... Sorry to report the loss of a long time comrade, John J. Hannon and in his memory a book will be placed in Nassau County American Legion Memorial Library at Hofstra University.... This wonderful collection of books of Long Island and New York State history, the brainchild of P.C. James N. Maclean, is kept in special air conditioned vaults and is expected to be readable 1000 years from now.... Happy Thanksgiving to all in case you do not get next week's issue in time.

"Give Thanks For What We Do Have," Purcell

New week, Americans pause for a holiday unique to our nation—Thanksgiving. The reference books describe the festival as a time of gratitude for divine favor. It began with the earliest settlers, who gathered to feast on the bountiful harvest of their new land and to give thanks for their survival and new-found freedom.

I am certain there are many among us who face a rather bleak Thanksgiving. Unemployment nationwide is high and daily we read of new layoffs and of businesses failing. These are the facts of an economic situation which has been building in the U.S. for many years. For others, it will be a good holiday in which families will celebrate together.

I wish we did not have a disparity at this time. Wishing, however, does not make difficult times disappear. Only hard work, hard decisions and concerted planning by the nation's leadership can help cure the problems. Co-operation on the parts of all levels of our American society can reverse the trend back toward prosperity. I hope everyone across the nation, in his or her own way, will pray that our nation's leaders will have the guidance and forbearance to do the job.

I hope, too, that all people, no matter their situation at this Thanksgiving season, will find it in their hearts to give thanks for what we do have as a nation.

Yes, we do have a couple of thousand Marines on duty in Lebanon and we do have thousands of other men and women serving at military posts around the world. But, we are not at war, nor are anxious family members searching casualty lists for the names of loved ones.

We just participated in great numbers at an election in every state. Americans still have the ballot and can continue to pick the people they want in office. That is a plus we tend to forget. The people of Poland don't have a vote, nor do the people of the U.S.S.R. or many other nations.

While areas of the nation are in a depressed condition, we don't have the problems of many lands, where starvation takes a daily toll of lives and disease runs rampant. We have clean drinking water, where many thirst in drought. We live in good expectation, while many live in abject despair.

Here in Nassau County, we enjoy a high quality of life. Our unemployment is less than in nearly any other place in the U.S. There is help for the poor, the sick, the young and the aged. Our roads, bridges and buildings are in good shape. Crime is under control.

Yes, some among us face difficulties. Some dinner tables will be more sparse than others. I urge those people to have hope and not lose confidence. I ask others to pray for the less fortunate. I entreat everyone to give thanks for what we do have and for what we all look toward in the future.

Hicksville Republican Club News Birthright Boutique

By Harriet A. Maher

What a fascinating and informative program we enjoyed at our Club meeting on November 12. Dr. and Mrs. Fred Trinklein made a slide and commentary presentation on a solar eclipse which took place in Siberia last year. In addition, they showed slides of Moscow, Norway, and Iceland. The photographs of Iceland included some of an active volcano. All in all, it was a delightful and informative evening.

Mark your calendar NOW for the Club's next meeting on December 10. There will be no formal meeting; however, a gala Christmas and Hanukkah party is planned. Santa will arrive and distribute gifts (of course, if you want to receive a gift, then you have to bring a $2.00 gift for a man or woman so Santa can have gifts to distribute). There will be food, music and best of all an opportunity to share the peace and good will of this holiday season with your friends and neighbors.

BRRR....it's cold outside. And it will get a lot colder before we see the sweet smile of Spring. If you're trying to conserve fuel by keeping your thermostat at a lower setting, here are a few hints that you might wish to use to help you accomplish your purpose:

- A rolled towel or small scatter rug placed against the bottom of a door will help stop cold drafts from leaking into your home.

- If you do not have storm windows, staple or tape inexpensive plastic either inside our outside the storm-lens window.

- If the cold air leaks in around your doors, a rubber latex molding can be attached to the interior lip of the frame where the door meets the structure, thereby sealing the opening to wind and breezes.

Some other energy-saving tips:

- Keep range top burners and reflector pans clean. They will reflect the heat better and save energy.

- Watch the clock, or use a timer when baking in the oven. Opening the oven door continually to check food wastes an enormous amount of heat and, therefore, money.

- Wash your clothes in cold water. If they are very soiled, use warm water, not hot water.

Woodland PTA Program

On Tues. Nov. 10, Woodland Ave. School PTA was visited by Detective Nancy Myers, a 13 year veteran of the Nassau County Police Force. She is presently working in the Sex Crime Unit lecturing to schools, churches, civics associations and woman groups on rape prevention in cars, malls, homes, and streets. She also presented a brief film showing the reality and seriousness of these sex crimes. She also informed us about rise of sexual abuse among children, and that children are never too young to educate them in these matters.... "the younger the better," she stated.

Safety prevention come in many aspects, good door locks, peep holes, window

The Kiwanis Club of Hicksville, NY was granted a Charter by Kiwanis International in June of 1937. The original Charter has been suitably framed, and is entrusted in the care of the current president of the club.

It has become traditional at the annual Charter Night ceremonies for the immediate past president to turn the Charter over to the incoming president for him to display the document in his place of business.
