members were more willing to drop it. School Board member John Ayres com-mented that to fight drop-ping it would be a financial burden if the issue was brought to the courts, it would also bring undue pub-licity and waste time.

Last night's meeting was also highlighted by the appearance of two high school seniors who relayed to the board the results of the high school's good deed to the marines in Lebanon. Larry Sullivan, who was chairman of the committee that organized sending cookies and letters to the marines, said that the 300 students who participated in the event received commen-dation and thanks from the dation and thanks from the Marines, the Kiwanis Club of filekaville and the Oyster Bay Town Board. SI AND IS

Despite whatever season is on hand or whatever time of the year it happens to be love and romance are strongly intertwined. So with this little romantic notion in mind, the Galileo Lodge presents its Valen-tine's Day Dance on Satur-day, the 18th of February. Tickets sell at $12,50 per person, a modest fee that offers you a hot dinner with all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake and music for your listening and dancing pleasure by a lead-ing L.I. disc jockey. Tony Sica (796-8789) will 'chair' this activity, ably assisted by his committee men, namely, Frank Matassa, Joe Morace, Joe Giordano and Armand Del Ciooppo. Please note that cut-off date Please note that cut-on date is Monday night, the [3th of February and that a 'bring-your-own-liquor' policy will be in effect the night of this dance. Incidentally, you can purchase tickets every Monday night at the Galileo Lodge, from 7:30 to 10:30 P.M. So who not enjoy Val-entine's Day at the Galileo Lodge with your loved ones?

Membership Appreciation Nights come and go at the Galilco Lodge, but the one held last Thursday will remain' memorable for a long time. The delicious cui-sine offered, featuring many appetizing dishes, coffee and appetizing dishes, collee and cake, beer, soda, unlimited, liquor, dancing -- all offered gratuituously by the Galileo Lodge in recognition and acknowledgment of the loy-alty and fine efforts of its membership, male 'and female. And I might add that this night was given because of the benevolence of our Venerable, Skip of our venerable, Skip Monteforte. Incidentally, his birthday was celebrated with showers of gifts from the Ladies Auxiliary

Now a very pleasent note for Atlantic City fans, Mary Monteforte of the Ladies Auxiliary announces that she will supervise a one-day trip to Atlantic City on Sat-urday, the 25th of February, to International Resorts. The price for this bus trip is $12.50 per person, with $10 returned in coins. Closing date for the fee to be paid is the 13th of February. Please contact Mary Monteforte at 938-9536 or the Lodge number, 931-9351. So for a pleasant one-day outing, why not contact Mary for your tickets at the numbers mentioned above?

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hecker of our Lodge once again proudly announce that their daughter Kim, an aquatic star of great potential and a future Olympic hopeful, has recently won two more gold medals, two silver medals, and her team, the Long Island Swim Club, coached by Bill Davis and his wife Leona, won the McDonald Spirit Award and team members won all high point trophies, All these major awards and accomplishments were won at the Stony Brook Swim Meet. The L.I. Swim Club won the meet by 150 points over other swim clubs participating from Passaic and Suffolk counties. A hearty congratulations from the Galileo Lodge to Kim and her parents for another super-effort by this young but talented performer.

Considering the frigid weather we've been having, it's quite difficult to envision the coming of the Spring the coming of the Spring season - but it will appear and 'so will the Galileo Lodge's Spring Recrea-tional program. On March 17th, the Galileo Lodge, as usual, presents its St. Joseph's Dance, I have no particulars on this dance, but they will be announced shortly in this column. Then Saturday, the 28th of April, the Galileo Lodge offers its Annual Dance. This dance is associated with the Louise Masiello Memorial Scholarship Awards. Joe Gior-dano and Pete Masiello will supervise this dance and an supervise this dance and an Ad journal will also be fea-tured. More information and details will be presented in this column, so please keep your eves and ears posted to this column. Our activities for the coming Spring will be as delightful as they will be pleasant and enjoyable. And here again the Galileo Lodge proves its own adage, that it "offers the most for the least amount of most for the least amount of money.

Town's Code of Ordinances would provide that any Water District in the Town of Oyster Bay would be empowered to terminate or discontinue water services and supplies to any domes-tic, commercial, industrial, agricultural or other nonagricultural or other non-municipal enterprise after it had been found by the governing authorities of the Water District and the Courts to be discharging pollutants in violation of New York State Environ-mental Conservation Laws. mental Conservation Laws.

Colby added that, "the amendment, if adopted, would assist Water Districts in preserving the quality of the Town's water supplies and resources by attempting to prevent the discharge of pollutants which could at some future time cause contamination of public water supply wells for which the Water Districts are responsible.

The hearing is scheduled for February 7, beginning at 10:00 A.M.: in the Town Hall East hearing room, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay.

Careful Addressing Prevents Broken Hearts

If you want your valentine to be delivered on target and on time, you can help the Postal Service by addressing them properly, Postmaster Anthony J. Murello of the Hicksville Post Office said today.

"A return address should be the first address a person puts on an envelope," he said. "If there is a delivery problem, it will allow us to return the letter, card or parcel to the sender."

Both the return address and mailing address should contain complete address information. This includes all of the following elements that apply:

*Full name of recipient

*Apartment mailbox number or apartment

*Rural route number and hox number *Street name and number or post office box number City, state and - very important - ZIP code

Postmaster Anthony J. Murello also urged use of:

legible handwriting, a ball point pen (felt tips smudge easily) and correct postage sized cards require extra postage).

"Proper addressing is especially important around holidays such as Valentines Day, when many people do not use their return address in order to momentarily surprise the recipient. But when the card or letter is undeliverable, the one who is surprised is the sender when he or she discovers it was not received." the Postmaster said. "Use a little care, and we'll get it there.

Mid Island Single Parents Schedule Feb. Meetings

Hogan stated that the meetings will be held at the Hicks-ville Youth Council, 181 Old Country Road, Hicksville, Beginning at 7:30 PM. For more information contact the Drug and Alcohol Control (DACA) Division of the Department of Community Services at 795-5943, Ext. 26.

A Lecture To All Journalists

If we journalists voluntarily do our jobs in such a way that people respect us and our conduct, we'll see fewer threats to the public's right to know.

And that will benefit all of us-journalists and other citizens

Although the First Amendment protects all forms of expression, including the biased and inaccurate, we believe we best serve ourselves and the public by pursuing objectiv-ity, fairness and accuracy. You're a professional-that's why you're here. Each of us should be aggressive in meeting this goal.

We also believe that, in doing our jobs, every journalist bears some responsibility for the fate of the First Amendment. People judge the credibility and fairness of the media according to the diligence with which we do our jobs. They believe that, if we are careless about little things, we cannot be trusted to be accurate about the big ones. Most people form their views of the press according to

At The Town Board Meeting

By Sheila Noeth

At its regular meeting held on Tuesday, Jan. 24, the Oyster Bay Town Board acted on the following matters: • They reserved decision on petition of Nassau Center for the Developmentally Disabled, Inc. and Mid Island Indus-tries, for a special use permit to construct and maintain in an industrial H District, a day treatment center in a building located on the northeast corner of New South Road and Karin Lane in Hicksville. Ms. Cindy Ross of this organiza-tion explained that this center is for autistic children of all tion explained that this center is for autistic children of all ages, who are bused in and out to this school/day care treatment center. Those who appeared in opposition to this petition expressed the fear that the location of this building is dangerous to the children due to the fact that many tractor trailers use this road and traffic is heavy. The Board expressed the feeling that a good sturdy fence around the property would be advisable.

They also reserved decision on the petition of Kidder-Hunt Management Corp., McDonald S Corp. and Sanford Abrams & Sidney Black, as trustees for the Estate of Sarah Rosenzweig, for modification of restrictive covenants relat-ing to curb costs and hours of operation of the McDonalds Restaurant located on the west side of Broadway near Prin-cess St. and Princess Ave. in Hicksville. Representatives of the petitioners stated that they would like the restaurant to stay open one-half an hour later, and that the Curb cuts requested would enable people toenter and leave their existstay open one-nair an nour later, and that the curo cuts requested would enable people to enter and leave their exist-ing parking area with greater case. Several local residents including Mesdames Jaffee and Gibson presented letters in opposition to this petition. They objected on the grounds that the curb cuts would create traffic congestion in a residential area.

They reserved decision on the petition of Mid Island Shopping Plaza Company and Old Country Toyota Corp. for a special use permit to permit the storage of new cars until they are delivered to the dealership located at 340 West Old Country Rd. on the northside of James St. and the west side of Newbridge Road in Hicksville. Mrs. Gibson, a Hicksville resident appeared in opposition to this petition on the grounds that the storage of these cars would attract vandals to the area, and possibly also to the area homes.

They reserved decision on their proposal to rezone more They reserved decision on their proposal to rezone more than 300 acres in Jericho to five-acre lots to protect ground-water quality. This lengthy hearing was one in which many appeared both pro and con. Environmentalists and most local civic associations were in favor of this move to protect the quality of the groundwater. However, landowners of the property in question appeared in opposition to this prop-osal, and stated that if it was approved, they were prepared to fight it in the courts.

You won't want to miss the Thurs., Feb. 2 meeting of the Hicksville Community Council which will start at 8 pm sharp in the downstairs Community room of the Hicksville sharp in the downstairs community room of an extension Library. AS WELL AS the subjects mentioned in last week's HERALD, NY State Assemblyman Fred Parola will be present to bring you up to date on the solution to the plantings in the center islands of Newbridge Road, and the decision of a majority of the Hicksville Board of Education to aliminate the moment of silent meditation after the salute to the flag will also be discussed in depth. Remember it is not necessary (although at times it may be advisable) to be present in Albany or Oyster Bay, to become knowledgable on many local problems and how they can be dealt with effectively. Each meeting of the Hicksville Community Council addresses many community problems and how individuals and organizations can help to solve them intelligently. Why not join this Council? Your membership and your presence at the monthly meetings can help your

Can't Do Better

Another feature movie is scheduled to be shown at the Hicksville Public Library, CONTINENTAL DIVIDE is the title of the film starring John Belushi and Blair Brown. John Belushi por-trays a street-wise, hardhit-ting newspaper columnist whose stories on political corruption in Chicago have made it unwise for him to stay in the windy city. Reas-signed to interview a reclu-sive, hard-edged female ornithologist (Blair Brown) living in the Rockies, Belushi and Brown first find each other's lifestyles to be argu-able. But, you will see that love conquers all!

The film is in color, rated PG and runs approximately I hr. 45 min. It will be shown in the

Hicksville Breaks Daler Spell

By Howard Finnegan

Hicksville High's basketball team made convincing proof, Tuesday night, that the Farmingdale yoke is broken. The Orange scored its third straight over the Dalers, 67-59, after 16 losses over an eight year span. Coach Wayne Bryan's team moved its season record to 11 wins, 2 defeats. League standing is 5-1. The victory at Farmingdale followed a taunt 57-54 loss at Bellmore-Kennedy. Hicksville was knocked out of first place despite center Bill Cheslock's valiant 35-point effort. The outside shooting failed Hicksville before an unusual

The outside shooting failed Hicksville before an unusual condition for today's court game-a packed house. Return of perimeter shooting shot Hicksville to a 16-10 quarter lead. Dan Skarka ripped in four clean baskets and combined with Kevin Martin in a tenacious ball stealing game under the boards. Sophomore Robert Russo, Troy Levy peppered from outside as Hicksville's attack had the Dalers panting. The plug was pulled as a rout was developing. The Hicksville scoring fell off. A one minute, thirty-six second wait for the last shot backfired. A Daler score eavies with four seconds reducing the lead to 11 points a halftime. Farmingdale made an ominous bid late fourth period but was stayed by Russo's six foul conversions and John Mc-Alese's four. Cheslock, sidelined for a period with a bruised thigh, came off the bench and pulled down two strong rebounds. Mike Magee provided stable ball control at the windup. Scoring-Cheslock, 5-1-11; Skarka, 7-4-18; Magee, 0-4-4; Levy, 3-0-6; Martin, 0-2-2; Russo, 6-6-18; McAleese, 2-4-8-23-21-67.

Truly, it was a time for all our members to come down to our Post home and witness for themselves the wonderful thoroughness of the research that went into the the making of the background of each orator's speech...No notes are permitted as all contestants must speak offthe-cuff for a specified length of time and must not go over or under this time without incurring a penal-ty...Of course there is a slight permissable plus or minus time but this is so small that only by a good deal of practice can the ora-tor master this time factor.-

Frankly, unless you are house-bound by illness or at work, you should have been there absorbing what makes this contest each year unique and big league... You are a member of The American Legion that annually sponsors this nationwide prosors this nationwide pro-gram and your stamp of approval should be avail-able at all times when our programs are put forth to the great American public but if you never come to witness the program, how can you intellieeth out witness the program, how can you intelligently put your stamp of approval on anything if you have no background knowledge to even be a Monday morning quarterback ???...On March 17th we will have our annual

Selected For Overseas Program

Jeffrey P. Carr of Plainview has been selected as one of twenty-five students elig-ible to participate in an overseas program located in London, England. Carr, a senior will be studying courses that place an emphasis on broadcasting in the United Kingdom. He starts the program January 17th.

Carr, an alumnus of Plainview-Old Bethpage Senior High School, has been actively involved in other areas of the Oswego campus. This year he was president of the Oswego chapter of Alpha Epsilon Rho, the national broad-casting honor society. Last year he was awarded the Outstanding Achievement Award for contributions to the college and community for his work done at the col-lege television station. lege television station. WTOP-TV. He has held a succession of leadership positions including the post of General Manager. Besides Carr, the twenty-lour students hail from various state and privately owned colleges. The courses range from British theater to range from British theater to European history to assorted broadcasting sub-jects. The students have the option of adding an inde-pendent study in addition to their other classes. More important than the courses is the inclusable as minance that the students will receive while living in a foreign country and culture.
